UNKNOWN DANGER — Pampa firemen worked more than two hours Thursday to flush away gasoline trapped in an underground storm ditch near Hobart and Francis Sts. More than 3,000 gallons of gasoline, enough to send an average car around the world twice, had leaked from an underground line at the Floyd Crow Humble Service station into the ditch. Firemen pumped about 500 gallons of gas from the ditch and then flushed the ditch with about 15,000 gallons of water to eliminate the danger of an explosion or fire. Doug Poteet, above, holds the water line that poured the water through the drainage system.

Truck Explosion Kills Six Near Poison Snake Farm

Blast Demolishes 3 Fire Trucks, Autos

By MICHAEL STAFFORD
United Press International

BUSHKILL, Pa. (UPI) — A truck-trailer loaded with dynamite blew up with a mighty roar on a highway in front of a snake farm early today as firemen were pulling up to extinguish a brake fire.

State police said at least six persons were killed, including three volunteer firemen; the son of the owner of a nearby hotel; a woman riding past the scene in a station wagon, and an unidentified man, parts of whose body were found strewn in the area.

The number of injured could not be determined immediately although state police said there were "many." Two volunteer firemen were in critical condition at Monroe County General Hospital, East Stroudsburg, where the dead woman's husband also was admitted in shock. The couple was believed to be vacationers from Maryland.

The hospital was so busy caring for the injured they could not make a count.

The truck driver escaped death. He was walking along the highway some distance away, en route back to the vehicle after telephoning for the firemen.

The Reptile Farm, a tourist attraction in this Pocono Mountain resort area, was blown apart. Poisonous snakes were hurled through the air for some distance, presenting dangers to rescue workers.

A crater 50 feet in diameter and 12 to 15 feet deep was left where the highway was. Only slivers of the truck could be found. Buildings as far as a block away were blown down and others were damaged or unroofed. Windows in buildings within a few miles were shattered. So was the display window of a dress shop at Stroudsburg, 12 to 15 miles distant.

Route 209, a heavily traveled highway which follows the winding Delaware River north from the Delaware water gap, was closed off between here and Marshalls Creek and all traffic was detoured.

The section was declared a disaster area and civil defense workers were dispatched to help police and firemen remove the dead and injured.

Authorities pleaded with the public to stay away from the area.

"There are all kinds of poisonous snakes around here," a fire official said. "We're setting fire to the debris hoping to kill as many of them as possible."

The dead were identified tentatively as Earl Miller, Ed Hines, Leonard Moser, all of the Marshalls Creek Fire Co., and John Regina, 23-year-old son of the owner of the Regina Hotel, one of the buildings damaged heavily.

It was not determined immediately whether any other persons in the hotel were injured. Ambulances and rescue trucks took the injured to Stroudsburg Hospital but the emergency at the hospital was so bad that the staff could not even answer telephone calls.

The three fire trucks of the Marshalls Creek Co. had just braked to a halt with their sirens wailing when the thunderous blast roared through the river valley. Firemen about to jump from their trucks were hurled along the highway like ten pins. Most of them were among the injured.

The trucks, one of them a brand new vehicle, were smashed into wedge-shaped masses.

"The fire trucks seemed to melt like warm butter," one witness said.

Trees on the mountain slopes on either side of the river waved like a wheat field in heavy wind as the shock wave from the blast roared by.

Householders up and down the valley were shaken into (See BLAST, Page 3)

Sailors and FBI Agents Search Mississippi Roads

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (UPI) — White-hatted sailors and FBI agents spread out over dozens of back country roads and trails today looking for three civil rights workers missing for five days.

Search teams of from 5 to 15 men were dropped along the lonely roads in a 10-mile-square area near here.

The sailors, sent into the search by President Johnson, arrived without heavy boots Thursday but by the time the search resumed today most were wearing the combat-type boots, dungarees and white hats.

The patrols were assigned to "walk" the rural roads and areas paralleling them for some trace of the men who were last seen Sunday. Their burned station wagon was found on a logger's trail at the edge of a swamp Tuesday.

Within hours after President Johnson ordered the sailors into the hunt Thursday, teams made up of nine sailors, an FBI agent and a state trooper moved cautiously through the fringes of the dense Bogue Chitto swamp.

"If the sailors go far in there, we'll have to go in and get them out," a farmer commented.

"There's at least one cottonmouth water moccasin for every square yard in that swamp," said one sailor as he emerged after four hours of searching.

The missing men are Andrew Goodman, 20, of New York; Mickey Schwerner, 24, of Brooklyn; and James Chaney, 21, a Negro from Meridian, Miss.

The Justice Department said it had received numerous reports that the three had been seen since Sunday, none of which checked out.

Alabama Highway Patrol Chief Al Lingo announced late Thursday that seven persons in Marion, Ala., had seen the missing integrationists Tuesday and identified them from news pictures.

But one of the seven told reporters that this was a "lie." Lingo then denied he had said the witnesses made positive identification. He said the witnesses only detected a "striking resemblance" between the men they saw and pictures of the missing workers.

The search was suspended at dusk and one of the sailors said they found "nothing but snakes."

Most Pampa stores will be closed Saturday, July 4, to observe the Independence Day holiday.

Some stores, food markets and service establishments will be open for business as usual.

City Hall offices will observe the holiday Monday, July 6, when city offices will be closed all day.

There will be no regular mail deliveries on Saturday July 4 and post office windows will be closed all day. Ordinarily, the post office is open until noon on Saturday. The main lobby will be open for box holders.

County offices, usually open until noon on Saturdays, will be closed all day on the Fourth.

Exceptions in the city and county setups for the holiday will be the sheriff and police departments which will operate as usual.

Highway patrol units also will be on duty on the holiday.

Congress Declares War On Traffic Congestion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress has declared war on the big city traffic jam which President Johnson said is slowly strangling the nation's metropolitan areas.

A group of Democrats and Republicans teamed up in the House Thursday to approve a $375 million program to improve urban mass transportation.

Both the House and Senate now have passed slightly different bills aimed at getting more motorists to leave their cars at home and take trains and buses. A compromise version of the measure now must be worked out.

Johnson praised passage of the bill as a "major step forward" in cooperation between federal and state authorities on urban problems. In a statement issued by the White House he expressed the hope that the differences between the House and Senate versions could be worked out "so that the bill can become law as soon as possible."

The legislation provides a federal matching grant program to be used by municipalities for purchasing new railroad cars, buses, commuter stations and other transportation facilities.

Members of the organizations install a bright red reflective tape on the rear fender of bicycles. The tape illuminates the fender in darkness.

Members of the local post will install the tape between 9 and 11 a.m. and 2 and 5 p.m. on the parking lot at Pampa High School and in front of B. M. Baker elementary school.

Youngsters owning bicycles are urged to bring them to the schools to have the tape installed.

Beginning Aug. 1

Lower Auto Insurance Expected

AUSTIN (UPI) — Texas motorists could look forward today to slightly lower automobile rates beginning Aug. 1 as a result of authoritative recommendations to the State Board of Insurance.

The board promised a final ruling on the requested $5 million cut in total premiums by early July—a ruling expected to go along with reduced loss figures presented Thursday by actuaries.

The average driver may not even notice his individual savings, and in some cases rates will be a bit higher. The total of Texas insurance premiums last year was $363 million.

Angus McDonald, chief rate and casualty agent for the board which sets all insurance premiums under state law, said statewide averages reflected a decrease of 3 per cent in property damage premiums. The staff report called for a 5.6 per cent overall premium reduction in an average which included all classes of physical damage coverage, and bodily injury liability.

About $3 million of the savings would apply to private vehicles, McDonald told the annual public hearing on rates. Premium recommendations varied for the state's 26 insurance territories.

On a statewide basis, the rate experts said insurance firms could charge 15.5 per cent less for comprehensive coverage largely because of extremely light wind and hailstorm damage last year. Other statewide averages indicated increases of 9.6 per cent in property damage premiums and 87 per cent in medical payment coverage.

Daily Water Consumption Nears Six Million Gallons

With a new hot spell moving in, Pampa's water consumption was expected to go zooming past the 6-million gallon mark today.

The meters showed 5.99 million gallons yesterday, an increase of more than 300,000 gallons over the day before.

The highest daily consumption so far this year was on June 9 when the mercury climbed above the 100-degree mark and 6.12 million gallons of water were used.

Highest daily consumption in 1963 was 7.5 million gallons on July 24.

The mercury in Pampa hovered in the 100-degree area yesterday and under clear skies and a hot sun was headed that way again this afternoon.

With no rain for the past week, water department officials said consumers are using more water to keep lawns from burning out.

E. J. Lowry, water superintendent, said today Pampa has around 8,600 water customers and about 60 per cent, or more than 5,000 of them, are on the summer water rate schedule.

Gene Olds Named 'Lion of the Year'

Gene Olds, new incoming vice president of the Pampa Evening Lions Club, was presented with the "Lion of the Year" award last night at the club's installation banquet.

Steve Stephens, 2-TI district governor, installed John Locke as new president, Jack Williams and Olds, vice presidents and Ted Mastin, secretary.

A special achievement award was presented to W. L. Parker for his outstanding work for the club during the previous year.

Wendell Watson, Pampa High School science teacher, showed films of the National Science Fair and a recent trip to the World's Fair.

The banquet was held at 7 p.m. in Poole's Steak House.

wakefulness. Switchboards in police headquarters were flooded by callers demanding to know what happened.

Families poured from homes nearest the scene. Some headed in the direction from which they thought the "crash of thunder" had come. Others stood around in the foggy dawn looking up as if the mighty roar had come from the skies.

The first to reach the scene were astounded by the destruction. Only slivers could be found of what had been a tractor and trailer. Trees were uprooted and toppled. Buildings were smashed. The roofs of others lay on the ground in twisted masses beside the battered walls.

Firemen and police from surrounding communities rushed to the area to aid the injured and maintain order. They pleaded with the curious to stay away.

"There were snakes everywhere you looked," one fireman said. "You were lucky you didn't step on them while you were looking for the injured."

In addition to burning the debris of the snake farm building, firemen also set fire to brush in the area in an effort to kill the reptiles.

Man Charged With Forgery

Charges of forgery and passing were filed against a 29-year-old Pampa man yesterday in district court.

Being held in jail in lieu of a $3,500 bond is Billy Norris Buckler, 810 1/2 S. Somerville. Buckler was arrested yesterday afternoon by the Gray County Sheriff's office after he allegedly passed a $70 forged check to Ideal's Food Store, 312 W. Brown.

According to Deputy Sheriff D. L. Day, Buckler, while employed by the Wheeler and Wheeler Construction Company, stole three payroll checks. He made one out in the name of Willie Evans and cashed it at Ideal's.

Bond was set by Justice of the Peace G. L. (Nat) Lunsford. Buckler will await action by the Gray County Grand Jury.

United Press International
Not the least desirable feature of the 1963 civil rights bill is that a U.S. senator's right to filibuster has been now so firmly established that it is not likely again to be challenged. The Senate's rule 22 sanctioning filibusters is here to stay.

The filibuster got a bad name from senators and others who became enraged or frustrated when a Senate minority undertook to stymie specific legislative plans. More often than not these were plans for civil rights legislation.

Until this month it never had been possible to obtain sufficient Senate votes to compel a filibustering minority to cease talking and to vote on a civil rights bill. The silencing process is known as voting cloture or the closing of debate.

But now that it has been demonstrated that a southern filibuster against civil rights can be silenced by a cloture vote, the pressure for abolishing the institution is likely to subside, much as pressures sub-

Two Persons Hurt In Auto Accident

A one car turn over last night sent two residents of Canadian to Highland General Hospital.

Listed in good condition with possible broken ribs was 21-year-old Roy Doyle Wilson of Box 971, Canadian.

Treated and released was 15-year-old Reta Lawson. The accident occurred about 7:25 p.m., two miles west of Miami on U.S. 60.

Investigating Highway Patrolmen Vernon Cawthon and Paul Geisler said the accident occurred when Wilson apparently lost control of the auto on a slight curve and overturned. The auto suffered heavy damage.

Expensive Front Built For New York Church

By LOUIS CASSELS
 United Press International
 A famous New York church is spending $850,000 to give its front entrance what the architect calls "a Fifth Avenue look."
 Another well-known church in the same city is investing $350,000 in new stone carvings to "enrich" its already-lavish Gothic facade. A third church is laying out $125,000 to "improve" its pipe organ.
 New York churches have no monopoly on this kind of thing.

'Nearness of God' Is Sunday Sermon Topic

"The Nearness of God" will be the title of the Sunday sermon at the First Presbyterian Church. The Reverend Donald S. Hauck, will preach at both services (8:30 and 11 a.m.) using the second chapter of Paul's Letter to the Ephesians as the text. Ruling Elder Warren J. (Jack) Beale will assist in the worship. At the 8:30 service the choir will sing "Ancient of Days" as the anthem, and at the 11 a.m. service a special instrumental ensemble, under the direction of Fred Stockdale, will play "Beautiful Savior" and will also provide special music for the offertory.

Similar examples could be cited from almost any community in America.

To Dr. Clyde H. Reid, professor of practical theology at Union Theological Seminary, New York, the idea of churches spending so much money on themselves is scandalous.

Dr. Reid has let go in the Christian Century magazine with a blast of righteous anger at what he calls "profligate and irresponsible expenditures by churches for self-centered, even foolish purposes."

He says he appreciates aesthetically beauty as well as the next fellow, and would be delighted for churches to have the finest architecture, art and music — if they had unlimited resources.

But in actual fact, church funds are limited, and every dollar spent on bricks is one less dollar available for the church's mission to lost and suffering human beings.

"To spend hundreds of thousands of dollars on statues, stonework, carpets and organs is... a sin against hungering humanity," says Dr. Reid. "It is alien to the spirit of Christ, who was concerned not with the paraphernalia of religion but with true faith."

Dr. Reid recalls that Jesus said very plainly: "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth... for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

"When we invest our church resources in earthly treasures—cathedrals, statuary, stained glass—how can we expect our hearts to be elsewhere?" he asks.

"When the church sets an example of concentrating on material things, how can we expect its people not to follow that example?"

Dr. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Pampa, will be in the pulpit for both services of worship Sunday. He has chosen, "Learning to Win Over Worry" with the text taken from Matthew 6:34, for the topic of his 11 a.m. worship sermon. Joe Whitten, minister of music, will present the church choir in singing "How Great Thou Art" and Miss Eloise Lane, organist, will play "Reverie" by Rubinstein for the offertory.

"You Are God's Love Letter to Man" with the text from II Corinthians 3:2-3 is the sermon subject the pastor will preach from in the 8 p.m. worship. The Chapel Choir will present special music and the organ offertory will be "Canzonetta" by Martini.

Revival continues
 Revival services Monday through Saturday at 7:45 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the Revival Center church, 1101 S. Wells St. are being conducted by Evangelist Lyndon Petty.

Rev. Petty will also lead the congregation in singing. Rev. Ruby Burrow, local pastor, said.

Chaplain (Major) Porter H. Brooks, former rector of Pampa's St. Matthew's Episcopal Church and son of Mrs. A. A. Schanefelt, 1113 E. Foster, assumed duties this week as Post Chaplain at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point.

Chaplain Brooks has recently completed studies at the Command and General Staff College, Ft. Leavenworth, Kan. He received a letter of commendation from the Commandant for the services he rendered during the period he was a student at the college.

Sunday Topic Set

"Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein" (Mark 10). These words of Christ Jesus will set forth one of the major themes of the Bible Lesson to be heard Sunday at all Christian Science churches. Related readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will also be read.

Sunday is "Promotion Day" for the Christian Church at Lamar Christian Church. The promotions will be honored at the beginning of the Sunday School hour, 9:45.

At the morning worship hour, beginning at 10:45, Rev. Loren E. Williams will speak on "Life in Christ — Christ in Life" taking his text from Titus 1: 1-4.

The evening worship service will be the last joint service with the First Christian Church to be held at Lamar Christian Church until September. Joint services will be held at the First Christian Church each Sunday evening through July and August. Sunday at 7 p.m. there will be an informal song service, scripture, and prayer.

The message for the evening will be the last in a series of five given on the subject of worship and work; this message will be on "The Sharing of Eucharist" with a text taken from I Cor. 11:21.

Call to Worship Opens Service at Highland Baptist

Worship Services Sunday for the Highland Baptist Church will begin with the singing of the Call to Worship which is "Blessed Be the Name." For the special music, the Adult Choir will sing, "All Hail Emmanuel," under the direction of Roy Harper. Mrs. Edith Beigle will accompany at the organ and Mrs. Ann Winegeart at the Piano.

In the absence of Rev. Allison, the Superintendent of the Senior Citizens Home of Panhandle, Texas, Rev. Maurice Garner will fill the pulpit for both services.

Wednesday evening following the Prayer Meeting the church will host a Farewell Party for the Allisons, who will be moving shortly.

Foreign Commentary

 Quietly and without fanfare, both the United States and the Soviet Union have shifted strategies as regards Berlin and a divided Germany.

On both sides, the hard line has been considerably softened, and the new Bonn government of West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard has gone along with the change despite the opposition from within his own party led by former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Basic positions remain unchanged. The West continues to insist on a policy of reunification of Germany based on free elections within Communist East Germany.

The Soviet Union continues to hold out for a separate peace treaty with the Communist East German zone and a so-called "free" Berlin.

But the Soviet position is a far cry from the threats and ultimatums against the Allied presence in Berlin as first voiced by Premier Khrushchev in 1958 and renewed again in his meeting with then President Kennedy in Vienna in 1960.

Absent, too, is the Allied insistence that German reunification is the necessary prelude to a relaxation of European tensions.

The 20-year treaty of friendship between the Soviet Union and the East German regime signed in Moscow earlier this month fell far short of a sepa-

You, Your Child and School

By DAVID NYDICK
 UPI Education Specialist
 This is an excellent time of the year for parents and students to look back and evaluate school progress. A student's academic, physical, and social growth will vary. His schedule and participation in various activities may need revision. There are many advantages to an evaluation of this nature. It is particularly valuable in arranging plans for next year. It is also important for a child to have a realistic picture of his accomplishments.

Although it is important to encourage a child, it is not necessary to create a false situation. If he is doing well in his school work, he should know it and if he is accomplishing very little, he should also be aware of this.

In either case encouragement can be given by using a positive approach. By this is meant emphasizing the accomplishments and ways in which the child can improve his learning. As an example, consider the case of Alan Roberts. His report card had B's, C's, and an A in reading. His parents spent some time with him looking back at the school year.

Alan was very happy to discuss his work with his parents. They were very careful to avoid telling Alan that he should have done better work. Their idea was to help him see if there were some things he felt would have improved his grades.

The discussion was started by asking several questions about which subjects he found difficult; and if he felt he had sufficient time and proper facilities for studying at home. At no time did Alan's parents lead him to believe they were not satisfied. They emphasized that the discussion was for the purpose of making plans for next year.

The discussion was found to be very valuable. Alan had some good ideas. His parents were very pleased to receive his suggestions. They were not aware of some of the problems that existed.

Alan was very interested in baseball. He was a member of a team which played a game every day after school. He had been forced to give up this activity because he was taking piano lessons. He really was not interested in the piano but thought his parents would be upset if he stopped. Actually they thought he left the team because he was not able to play well enough. They said nothing because they did not want him to feel bad.

In addition Alan had difficulty studying because his younger sister played the television which was in his room. He did not want it taken out so he did not say anything.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

By R. M. Marsteller (Bro. Bob) pastor of the
FIRST PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

A SIMPLE MESSAGE

Not long ago I heard some children singing, "Zacchaeus was a wee little man, a wee little man was he, he climbed up in a sycamore tree his master for to see, his master for to see." It brought to mind the story of this little man that has a simple but wonderful message for us. Luke 19:5 tells us, And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, "Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for today I must abide at thy house."

These words tell us first, that Jesus saw Zacchaeus. Zacchaeus undoubtedly thought that no one would know he was up in the tree. Many in our world today think that no one sees them in their wrong doings, but the same Jesus that saw Zacchaeus sees you. 2 Chronicles 16:9 says, "For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him."

Jesus not only saw Zacchaeus, but He knew for he called him by name saying, "Zacchaeus, come down." Jesus knows us, He knows our name, He knows where we live, He knows whether we are saved or unsaved, He even knows how many hairs in our head, He knows everything about us. Nothing is hid from our omniscient Lord.

Then Jesus said to Zacchaeus, "Come down." He wanted him. Oh how many there are in our troubled world who think that nobody wants them. But oh my friend Jesus wants you, "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest," Jesus says. And again "Behold I stand at the door and knock, if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." Isn't it wonderful to know that we are wanted?

Last, Zacchaeus was needed, for Jesus said, "Zacchaeus, come down, for I must abide at thy house." Jesus all through his earthly ministry endeavored to impress upon the minds of people how He needed them. Just as He needed Zacchaeus He needs you. Jesus said, "Say not ye, there are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? Behold I say unto you, lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest." What can I do you may ask? You can do something. I once knew a Bishop that began as a janitor of a church. I heard a young man say a few days ago, "I believe that God wants me to be an usher. A little boy in the Bible had five loaves and two fishes and he willingly gave them to Jesus."

Time and space has run out but may this simple message touch your heart. Jesus, SEES YOU, KNOWS YOU, WANTS YOU, AND NEEDS YOU!

OUT OUR WAY J.R. Williams THE FAREWELL PARTY AT LAST THERE GOES THAT OLD WOODEN LATHING TO THE SCRAP PILE BUT I DON'T SEE HOW ANYBODY CAN FEEL ANY BURNING SORROW OVER IT'S PASSING OUT! OH THEM'S TH' ONES THAT MOORE IT OUT GETTIN' AHEAD IN TH' WORLD, AN' TH' OTHERS ARE TH' ONES IT MOORE OUT, TRYIN' TO KEEP UP WITH THE WORLD!

Crandall Powers Win Over Bums

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Anytime you need a good bouncer, call on Del Crandall, a real specialist at breaking up late parties and getting everyone to go home.

The nice thing about Crandall is that he doesn't use much force, either.

On the night of May 31, the San Francisco catcher simply sliced a double down the right field foul line in the 23rd inning to break up a marathon seven-hour and 23-minute struggle between the Giants and Mets at Shea Stadium.

And Thursday night he employed an infield single with the bases full in the 13th inning to give the Giants a 2-1 victory over the Dodgers and conclude a four-hour and three-minute contest at Candlestick Park.

Crandall's fourth hit of the game scored Orlando Cepeda with the tie-breaking run. In the top of the frame, Crandall tagged out Willie Davis trying to steal home for the Dodgers.

Gaylord Perry held Los Angeles scoreless on three hits over the last five frames to post his fifth victory and move the second-place Giants within a game of first place.

Sandy Koufax started for the Dodgers, struck out 10 men and gave up six hits before leaving in the 10th with the score tied, 1-1. Ron Perranoski (2-3) was the loser.

Only two other games were scheduled in the National League, with the Pittsburgh Pirates completing a three-game sweep of the New York Mets, 8-1, and the St. Louis Cardinals defeating the Houston Colts 4-2.

Coasts To Win

Joe Gibbon spun a four-hitter against the Mets as the Pirates enabled him to coast to his fifth victory by hammering loser Jack Fisher for six runs in the first two innings. Jerry Lynch drove in three of Pittsburgh's runs with a pair of homers and a single while Bill Mazerowski also homered.

Ken Boyer's two-run double in the eighth inning highlighted a three-run rally for the Cardinals that brought them from behind in their game with the Colts.

Loser Bob Bruce (7-4) held a 2-1 lead until Boyer's clutch double. Roger Craig picked up his fourth victory with help from Glen Hobbie in the ninth. Bob Aspromonte homered for Houston.

Rebels to Try Vega Team

Undefeated in north zone play of District 18, the Pampa Rebels look for win number seven tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in Optimist Park against the aptly nicknamed Vega Mets.

The young Vega team has been the doormat of the league so far this year but shows promise for the future.

The Rebels led Vega 9-0 in an earlier game here but rain forced postponement before the game could become complete.

Little Leaguer Not Too Good For Colt .45's

Bob Williams, the 12-year-old pitcher who was declared "too good" to pitch in the Galveston Optimist T-Shirt League, will be the honored guest at the Monday game at Colt Stadium between the 45s and the Philadelphia Phillies.

Bob, his mother and father and three brothers, will be guests of the 45s in a box next to the Houston dugout.

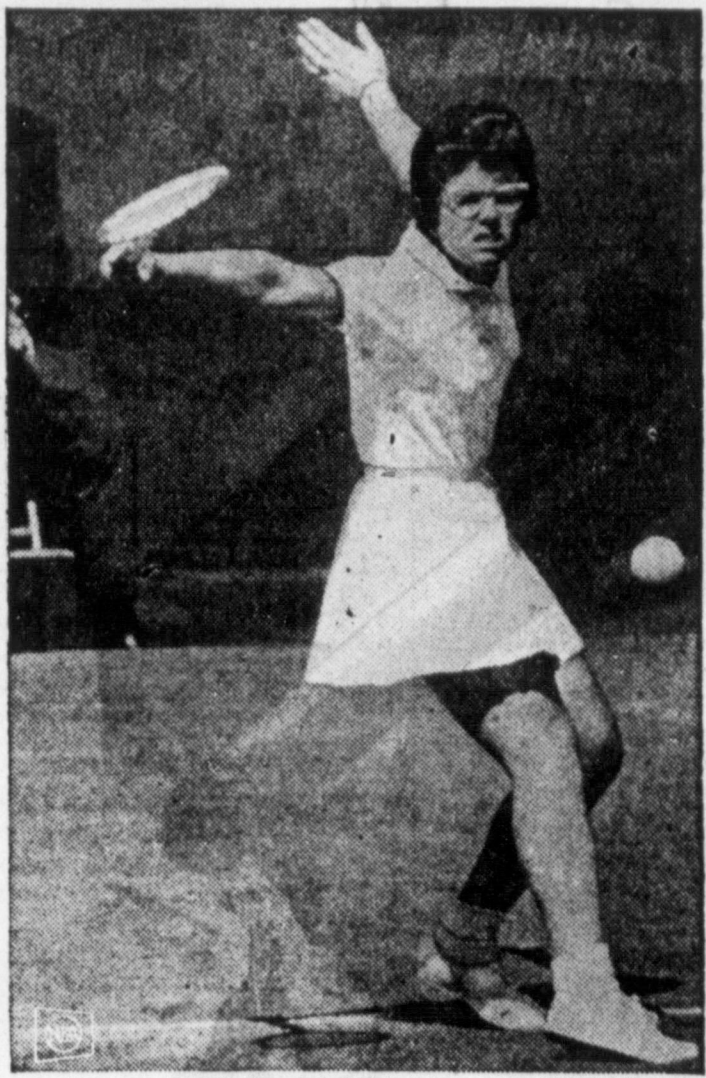

Young Williams will receive an autographed ball from Dick Farrell, who in many National League hitters wish could be petitioned out of the league for being "too good."

Like Farrell, Bob Williams had to overcome a paralysis to be able to play baseball.

McKinley and Moffitt Lead Yanks Today

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Defending titleholder Chuck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex., led a dwindling band of Americans into battle today in the Wimbledon tennis championships.

McKinley and Arthur Ashe of St. Louis, Mo., play third round matches and unseeded Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn, the third U.S. survivor in men's singles, plays a second round match against fourth-seeded Rafael Osuna of Mexico.

McKinley faces Billy Knight, a left-handed battler who holds the British hard court championship and is rated No. 4 nationally.

Unseeded Ashe faces top-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia, who is a solid betting favorite to take McKinley's title.

Women In Action
The United States top women's players also will be in action.

Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., seeded No. 3 here, faces Britain's unseeded Margaret Lee, and fourth seeded Nancy Richey of Dallas, Tex., faces unseeded Liz Starke, a British Wightman Cup player.

In today's other singles matches involving Americans, Mary Ann Eisel of St. Louis meets Australia's Lesley Turner, Tory Ann Fretz of Harris-

BABE RUTH LEAGUE

The Lions shut out First National Bank 11-0 and Kist thumped Fannon 12-2 in last night's games.

The Lions scored in every inning but the fifth and were in complete control of the game throughout.

Dick Henley pitched a four-hitter to gain credit for the win and also hit two triples. Gary McCarrell, Bank's starter, was the loser.

Alonso Gomez of the Lions and Jim Cornutt and Lane Hooten of First National also hit triples.

Kist broke open a scoreless ball game with four runs in the fourth inning and added four more in each of the last two frames. Fannon scored its two in the sixth.

Donnie Nail got three hits in three at bats and drove in four runs for Kist. He came in as a pinch hitter in the fourth.

Billy Davis allowed two hits in picking up the win. Loser Darrell Smith gave up three of Kist's 12 hits.

burg, Pa., plays Australia's Judy Tegert, Judy Alvarez of Tampa, Fla., faces Britain's Rita Bentley, and Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica, Calif., meets Sweden's Ulla Sandulf.

Shrug Off Refusal
Wimbledon officials and players shrugged off Thursday's Soviet refusal to play against South Africa. The players took the position that it did not concern them. Officials felt Wimbledon was bigger than walkouts by the Soviets and their Hungarian ally.

Thursday's incident involved Alexander Metreveli and Abe Segal of South Africa, one of the tournament's most popular players, in the first political controversy since the championships began in 1878.

Metreveli said it was a personal decision to register a "moral protest against the apartheid policy of the South African government."

Hungary's Istvan Gulyas, who was scheduled to play the doubles with Segal, withdrew on instructions from the Ministry of Sport in Budapest.

Graham, Guymon Colts' Opponents

The Pampa Colts face a rugged three-game schedule over the weekend.

Tomorrow night they enter the home field of the vengeful Graham Plo wboys for two games in Potter County Stadium in Amarillo, Sunday afternoon they are home against Guymon.

Two of Pampa's four Tri-State League victories have been over Graham and the Plo wboys are not likely to forget it. Both teams are lower in the standings than some of their performances indicate they should be.

Borger's only two losses came at the hands of Graham and Pampa, and Amarillo has also beaten second-place Umbarger.

Pampa gets another crack at its nemesis, Guymon, in a Sunday afternoon game. The Dust-ers have beaten the Colts twice but could still manage no better than a fourth-place tie with Pampa after last weekend's games.

Pampa has since won a game to raise its record to 4-4.

Manager Tom Glover plans to start Bobby Price in one of the Amarillo games, both of which will be seven innings.

Either Mike Clark or Jerry Glover will start the second one, with the other to open against Guymon the next day.

Al Geiberger Takes Early Lead in Cleveland Open

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Al Geiberger, seeking the biggest payoff of his career, teed off in the second round of the $110,000 Cleveland Open today with a one-stroke lead and a warning for the rest of the field.

"I usually start slowly and get better each day," the 26-year-old Californian said Thursday after firing a torrid seven-under-par 64 to take a slim lead over Tony Lema and George Bayer.

Geiberger, in his fifth year on the pro circuit, was one under par for the first eight holes when he suddenly caught fire and birdied six of the last 10 holes.

The slender pro dropped birdie putts of 40, 14 and 12 feet and put three approaches up close for birdie putts in his finest round since the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas last month. He shot a 65 in the final round and finished in a tie for second and earned $6,000, his biggest payoff thus far.

Geiberger broke the course record at the 6,821-yard Highland Park Municipal Golf Course which took a battering. Of the 159 players entered, 63 broke par and 22 matched it.

Despite his sensational start, Geiberger was still a long way from winning the tournament and its $20,000 first prize. Lema and Bayer were only one stroke back after firing six-under-par 65's.

Billy Casper Jr., Ray Floyd, Harold Kneace and George Archer were two shots behind and seven others, including defending champion Arnold Palmer and Bruce Crampton, were at 67.

LITTLE LEAGUE

One Bull edged Radcliff 10-8, Etal beat Dixie 6-3, McCathern topped Ruff 6-1 and Your Laundry beat Crall 17-0 in a full slate of games last night.

Radcliff scored six runs in the top of the fifth to tie its game at 8-8 but One Bull regained the lead with two in the bottom of the same inning.

Gary Fortin relieved Reeder in the top of the fifth with the bases loaded and the score tied and shut out Radcliff the rest of the way.

Etal spotted Dixie a lead twice in the first two innings, then came back to win going away.

Freddy Harper was the winning pitcher, Vernon Johnston the losing.

Floyd Hatcher threw a three-hitter at Ruff and struck out 15 batters to get the win for McCathern.

Ruff starter Geske was the loser although relieved by Denny in the third, when McCathern scored three runs.

Kenny Wallace tripled and Hatcher doubled for McCathern.

Your Laundry scored four runs in the first inning and never let up on Crall.

Steve Scott allowed Crall three hits and struck out eight in his shutout effort. Loser Pat Darling was relieved in the second by Steve Bossay.

Laundry's Mike Summers hit a three-run home run in the bottom of the fifth.

Orioles Sweep Yankee Series

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Once burned, twice shy, which explains why there were no bonfires in Baltimore Thursday night.

Ordinarily, it should have been a night for wild, unrestrained rejoicing.

The Orioles had just completed a three-game sweep over the dangerous New York Yankees, had increased their lead to 2 1/2 games and had set the hepped up burghers of Baltimore buzzing about the possibility of their first pennant in modern American League history.

The only discordant note, however, was the memory of last year's bitter disappointment when these same Orioles looked like world-beaters until June and subsequently wound up 18 1/2 games off the pace.

"None of us on the ball club have forgotten that," says southpaw Steve Barber. "We're not looking for that to happen again."

Threw Three-Hitter
Barber did his part Thursday night when he stopped the Yankees on three hits in a 3-1 Oriole victory that was witnessed by 36,369, Baltimore's largest crowd of the season.

Barber, who struck out nine, made only one bad pitch and Joe Pepitone drilled it for his ninth homer of the year in the third inning.

Boog Powell put the Orioles in front with his 16th homer in the first inning and Brooks Robinson, who took over the league batting leadership with .328, belted his eighth homer of the season in the second. That one turned out to be the clincher although Jerry Adair's double and Bob Johnson's single provided an insurance run in the fifth.

The victory evened Barber's record at 4-4, while Jim Bouton absorbed his seventh setback in 12 decisions.

In the only other American League games played, the Los Angeles Angels ran their winning streak to nine games — longest in the majors this year — with a 4-3 triumph over the Kansas City Athletics and the Cleveland Indians beat the Minnesota Twins, 8-1.

Bob Rodgers singled home Bob Perry in the sixth inning to break a 3-3 tie between the Angels and Athletics. Dan Osinski helped boost the Angels into a sixth place tie when he took over for winning pitcher Fred Newman in the seventh and held the A's scoreless on one hit thereafter. Bob Bryan hit his eighth homer for Kansas City. Ted Bowfield was the losing pitcher.

Jack Kralick scored his eighth victory in 10 decisions for the Indians when he limited the Twins to three hits during the seven innings he pitched and also contributed three hits. Max Alvis connected for his 12th homer with one on in the fourth of ex-teamsmate Jim (Mudcat) Grant and Larry Brown hit his ninth homer with one on in the eighth.

Queens Win, Teens Beaten

SKELLYTOWN — The Surplus City Queens blew down Skellytown with an eight-run rally in the sixth for a 16-13 Golden Spread League win last night but the Skellytown Optimists beat the Pampa Teenagers 12-7.

The Queens fell behind 10-8 in an error-filled fifth inning when Skellytown scored five runs. Pampa belted out seven hits in the next frame to regain the lead and put the game out of reach of a final Skellytown rally.

Mary Lou Gilreath gave up 13 hits but managed the win for Pampa. Coleen Crawford was the loser.

Helen Reed and Peg Kastein hit home runs for the Queens and Ruth Blumer hit safely four times in five at bats.

The Teenagers pulled into a 7-7 tie in the fifth inning of a preliminary game but couldn't hold on and Skellytown went on to win.

Lamona Hendricks allowed seven hits to Diane Stevenson's eight but was the losing pitcher.

Linda Yeager had two for three for the Teenagers, including a home run.

Dear Abby.... Your Intuition Is Probably Better Than Scotland Yard

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Recently we started seeing a lot of a certain couple. I have always liked them both but we have never been real close friends. For the past few months I have had the feeling that something was going on between this woman and my husband. I have never been jealous before. When I first got that feeling, I told my husband about it. He denied everything and I felt like a heel. I haven't mentioned it since, but I am no fool. All of a sudden she has been planning things for the four of us to do almost every night, and she does favors for me that are uncalled for. I don't like the looks that pass between them or the way they always manage to sit close to each other, or the way they dance together, either. I've never had to cope with this in 20 years of marriage. Should I keep my mouth shut and keep watching or what? My woman's intuition is strong.

NERVOUS WRECK
DEAR WRECK: Your woman's intuition is probably better than Scotland Yard. Tell your husband in plain language that you are jealous, you sense danger and you have no intention of sharing him or losing him. If he fights too hard to continue the friendship, you will know your suspicions were correct, in which case you had better enlist the help of the other husband.

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago my wife's mother came to live with us. Everything is fine, except when we go out for a ride. I have a two-door automobile. My mother-in-law is 78, and quite large. She always climbs in the front, which seats two comfortably, but with three it's crowded. It is also dangerous, because I have only two seat belts in front, and they are being sat on — not used. I certainly am not going to put my wife in the back seat alone, so she's up front next to her mother, near the door. My mother-in-law can't very well straddle that hump on the floor, so she puts both her feet next to mine, which interferes with my driving. She leans heavily toward me, so her head is right in my rear view mirror. I don't enjoy these rides, but I go anyway because my wife says her mother needs the fresh air. Is there a solution?

SKIP MY NAME
DEAR SKIP: It is not easy to get most large 78-year-old women into or out of the back seat of a "two-door automobile." But that's where "mother" belongs. Get a car with two more doors (Detroit will love you!) and enjoy a safer ride.

DEAR ABBY: No uglier facet of human personality is there than was shown by the critics who wrote to tell you that they would not stop to help an injured animal in the road. Surely you are not surprised! Thirty-eight cowards watched a New York woman being stabbed to death. They should hang their heads in shame. Twenty-three years ago, on an Iowa farm, a mad bull had my father pinned to a fence. My frail little mother was alone on the farm. She got a pitchfork and fought the bull back into the barnyard. Dad suffered a broken nose, but we had him another fifteen years.

EX-IOWA GIRL
CONFIDENTIAL TO "ANOTHER WIFE OF A RETIRED HUSBAND": Be glad that husband is still "underfoot" — instead of six feet under. Many widows would love to have your problem.

Career Goal Takes The Milky-Way for Missouri Teenager

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Marca Griffin, at 17, has a career unusual for a teen-ager anywhere. She runs a dairy herd of goats.

She's operator of the Xander Goat Milk Co., which delivers 300 quarts a week in this city and St. Louis County.

Miss Griffin, who dubbed herself "Marca, the Goat Girl," milks 74 goats morning and night and runs the rest of the dairy operation — transferring milk from pails and washing down the barn.

Her helper is a dog named "Ring."

"Ring does a good job herding the goats, but he has to sleep sometime," Marca said. "If all of us happen to be away at the same time and a goat jumps the fence and heads down the road while Ring's asleep, a neighbor lady calls his name. Then

A long neck appears swan-like and graceful in evening dress, but on the beach, topped by a tight fitting cap, it can look less than elegant. One answer to this is a cap curved to frame the face. It falls low below the ears and dips gently round at the back of the neck — cutting the long line without even seeming to.

Ring wakes up and goes looking for a goat."

The Griffin family lives on a 54-acre farm in Jefferson County, about 30 miles from St. Louis. The goats have 24 acres all to themselves.

Marca's father, J. C. Griffin, who works for a St. Louis construction firm, bought the farm from William Fuetterer nine years ago. Fuetterer started the goat herd as a hobby about 40 years ago and he's responsible for the name Xander.

Fuetterer had read that Alexander the Great was the first to sell goat milk by home delivery. Alexander had his men drive the goats through the streets, calling to potential customers and filling orders on the spot.

Fuetterer decided to honor Alexander. He omitted the Alex and kept the Xander — it fits better on bottle caps.

Anniversary Tea Set by Worthwhile

A 50th anniversary tea in honor of members of Worthwhile Home Demonstration Club will be conducted Sept. 24 in the Court House Annex. A book review is scheduled as the program at the tea.

Plans for the anniversary

ECONOMY AND COSTS
Once a symbol of conspicuous consumption, ceramic floor and wall tile has evolved through the past decade as a building material whose economy has made it a necessity instead of a luxury. A new study conducted for the Tile Council of American shows the cost of maintaining and replacing substitute materials actually makes those so-called "economical" materials cost from 1 to 20 cents a square foot per year more than real ceramic tile.

tea were made at a meeting Tuesday held in the home of Mrs. C. B. Rogers, 2239 N. Russell. Mrs. Lester Reynolds was in charge of the meeting. Suggestion for the programs for the coming year and announcement of the 4-H Dress Revue set for today was made.

Teed tea, cake and salad were served by the hostess to Mmes. John McKerny, Boyd Brown, J. C. Payne, F. P. Hays, Roy Tinsley, W. G. Kinzer and Miss Yvonne Reynolds as well as the previously mentioned members.

A covered dish luncheon will be hosted by Mrs. Ray Robertson, 424 N. Doyle on July 31.
