Fire Prevention Week Designated By Mayor Nation

In designating the week of Oct. 9 as Fire Prevention Week, Mayor Jim Nation urges all Pampans to support earnestly fire prevention and control efforts of their community fire departments.

"Inevitably such fires bring sorrow and financial difficulties to many families," he said. "The toll of life and property occasioned by fire has been sharply reduced in communities where fire prevention programs have been conducted."

"I urge all Pampans, along with business, labor, farm and youth organizations, as well as schools, civic groups and public information agencies to observe Fire Prevention Week, to provide useful fire safety information to the public, and to enlist the active participation of all citizens in year-round fire prevention programs."

In observance of Fire Prevention Week, Fire Chief Ernest Winborne issues a special invitation to Pampans to visit any of the three stations: Central Fire Station, downtown; Sub-Station No. 1, 321 E. 17 or Sub-Station No. 2, 1010 S. Barnes.

"We'll be having open house every day next week from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The public is invited to come by for a visit, look at our equipment and have a cup of coffee."

In addition, Chief Winborne said special fire drills will be held throughout the week in Pampa schools. "There'll be surprise practice drills," the chief said. "Neither the teachers nor pupils will know the day or time."

Winborne said the fire siren atop Central Station would be blown every day at 12 noon throughout Fire Prevention Week as an added reminder to citizens to observe fire prevention in their homes and businesses.

UN Prepares To Discuss Britain's Peace Blueprint

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — The United Nations, caught off guard by President Johnson's lightning call Friday on Secretary General Thant to discuss world problems, prepared today to consider Britain's six-point blueprint for peace in Viet Nam.

British Foreign Secretary George Brown flew to the United States Friday to outline Prime Minister Harold Wilson's plan for ending the war to the General Assembly early next week.

The President, heckled outside the Secretariat by anti-Viet Nam war demonstrators, met for 57 minutes with Thant and told newsmen they discussed "the world situation, including Viet Nam."

Johnson said he also urged Thant to stay on as Secretary General, telling him "in this great hour of trial, we need you all the more."

Brown was to begin stumping for the British peace plan which calls for a cease-fire, the neutralization of North and South Viet Nam, and an international peacekeeping force.

Brown is also scheduled to meet in New York next week with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in a new attempt to win Soviet backing for the recall of the Geneva conference as a forum for Viet Nam peace efforts. Russia has thus far refused to cooperate.

He also will meet in Washington with President Johnson to discuss NATO's future and other key world issues.

Johnson arrived at the United Nations in a bubbletop limousine after telling the National Conference of Editorial Writers about plans to increase U.S. trade with Communist nations and urge a wider role for a modernized NATO.

Accompanied by Secretary of State Dean Rusk and U.N. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, Johnson met with Thant and Undersecretary Ralph J. Bunche in Thant's 38th floor office.

Hanoi Denounces Manila Meeting

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist North Viet Nam today denounced both the upcoming Manila summit conference on Viet Nam and the Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's trip to Saigon as preludes to Allied escalation of the war.

In separate statements, the North Vietnamese government branded the seven-nation Manila meeting Oct. 24-25 a "war council" and said McNamara "has no other aim than to seek ways and means to step up the U.S. criminal war of aggression in South Viet Nam."

McNamara, who last visited Viet Nam 11 months ago, is due to arrive in Saigon Sunday to make another appraisal of the growing conflict.

The blast at McNamara was leveled by the official Hanoi daily newspaper Nhan Dan. It said "it is no accident that McNamara's trip to South Viet Nam coincides with the hurried dispatch of additional U.S. troops to this area which has brought to over 320,000 the total of U.S. forces there"

It accused the United States of plotting a ground invasion of North Viet Nam and said "it is clear that McNamara's trip is part of the U.S. imperialist scheme to throw greater efforts into another counter-offensive in the coming dry season in South Viet Nam."

The paper also charged McNamara's visit "has exposed the true design of the United States at the coming seven-nation war conference, and given big aid to the peace force staged by the United States at the United Nations."

Washington (UPI) — Orders doubling their tours of duty were issued Saturday to several hundred Navy pilots and key Army officers needed for combat in Viet Nam.

Navy Pilots, Army Officers Given Extended Tour of Duty in Viet Nam

A normal tour of duty in Viet Nam is a year.

In Washington, the Navy revealed — in backhanded fashion — that most pilots wishing to resign would have to serve another year when it announced restrictions on resignations were being lifted after a 1965 order freezing them. The lifting of restrictions omitted pilots, saying "most officers who will be retained or whose resignations would be deferred will be in the aviation field."

The Army had a similar freeze on officers with certain skills, but it was not a blanket resignation freeze as was the Navy's.

Defense Department officials said no Air Force personnel would be involved in the extensions, but declined to estimate how many officers might ultimately be affected by the orders.

The Navy said less than 200 pilots would be affected immediately and added only a small number of resignation requests came from Viet Nam. Over the life of the order, several thousand naval aviators might be affected.

American headquarters in Saigon said its order extending tours for up to 12 months — including those of some officers serving as field advisers to Vietnamese units — was necessary to carry out the war's objectives.

The retention of experienced or uniquely qualified officers dered down on the Dorion crossing, another train had passed eastbound for Montreal, which is 25 miles away. It was not known if the signal barricades were up or down at the time.

Queen Elizabeth sent a message of sympathy to Quebec Governor-General Georges Vanier.

Junior College Registration Is Set For Monday

Registration for the Pampa Vocational and Technical Junior College will begin at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the main hall of Pampa High School.

Beginning Oct. 24, classes will convene from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays for 18 weeks.

Enrollment in junior college courses will require a high school diploma for students under 21 or placement tests for students over 21 years of age. An $8 fee per semester hour is the tuition for academic courses.

Enrollment in the Vocational and Technical School will be for job placement, aid in securing employment or for pleasure only. A high school diploma is not necessary for enrollment in the vocational school. A tuition fee of $10 per semester hour will be charged for vocational and technical courses.

Junior College academic courses to be offered include English Composition; American History to 1865; Modern European Civilization; College Algebra and Math for Engineers.

Three semester hours of credit will be given for each course and even though these credits may not be transferred at the present time, advanced placement (See COLLEGE, Page 3)

Coast Cities Battered Down as Storm Nears

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (UPI) — Killer Hurricane Inez Saturday pushed into a dissolving high pressure ridge in the Gulf of Mexico and curved toward the Texas Coast. The New Orleans Weather Bureau said Padre Island on the southern coast should be evacuated.

At 10 p.m. CST, the center of the rambling storm which has caused 300 deaths in the Caribbean and the Gulf was estimated 300 miles southeast of Brownsville. It was moving west northwest about 10 miles per hour.

Hurricane watches went up from Brownsville north all along the coast where hurricanes over the past 66 years have killed thousands of persons.

The Brownsville Weather Bureau said Inez was on a projected path which could cause it to hit Brownsville Sunday night.

Inez was swirling 135 miles per hour winds at its center. Hurricane force winds covered a circle 100 miles wide and gales extended 200 miles to the north and 175 miles to the south.

Shrimp boats fled to safety at Brownsville under skies which Saturday were still sunny. A television station at Westaco northwest of Brownsville started sandbagging. Residents of $100,000 beach homes along Padre Island, a long, slender strip of land running down the coast, started battening down.

The barometer was reported going down as far north as Galveston, which with Corpus

Jubilant Sooners On Rampage After Stunning Victory

DALLAS — You can't blame the Dallas police if they were just a little bit gun shy Saturday night for about 50,000 folks from across the Red River in "Soonerland" started showing up for the second night in a row.

Big Red followers were especially jubilant last night because their "Boomer Sooners" branded Darrell Royal's pole crippled Longhorns 18-9 Saturday afternoon before a screaming mob of 74,504.

The actual mayhem started Friday night when the crowd got so big that the streets overflowed in downtown Dallas.

Cars could not drive in the streets.

The big blast in "Big D" lasted well into the wee hours of the morning and some 400 inebriated celebrators were given sleeping privileges in the Dallas city jail.

With 43 seconds left in the OU-Texas game Saturday-noon Sooner coach Jim Mackenzie threw a cup of ice into the air signaling that he felt the Big had things wrapped up.

When 43 seconds were over, Big Red followers who hadn't seen their team win here in the last eight years rushed on field and helped Sooner players hoist Mackenzie for a shoulder ride off the field and then attacked, with vigor, the goalposts.

Four Dallas policemen, after about a 15-minute try, handcuffed one enthusiastic youth and carried him off to the paddy (See JUBILANT, Page 3)

Fliers Wipe-Out V.C. Remnants

SAIGON (UPI) — American helicopter gunships firing rockets and machineguns Saturday shot up remnants of a nearby Communist division desperately seeking a place to hide from an awesome allied offensive hemming them against the South China Sea coast.

The helicopters skimmed low ahead of troops driving in from three sides, tracked down small groups of Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers and shot them "like fish in a barrel" if they refused to surrender, a military spokesman said.

The mop-up was a continuation of an American, Korean, and South Vietnamese operation 290 miles northeast of Saigon closing the vise on the Communists' elite 610 Division. In six days of fighting an estimated 2,000 Communist troops have been killed or captured.

Fiercest fighting of the day was reported by crack Korean troops who were finding Communists in natural caves and rooting them out in furious hand-to-hand fighting underground.

A spokesman said the Koreans climbed down into three caves 35 miles north of Qui Nhon along the central coast in battle at such close quarters that some soldiers were able to kill Viet Cong with their bare hands.

In another war development, some key U.S. Army officers and Navy pilots were ordered to remain in Viet Nam for up to double their normal duty tours to meet the need for experienced officers.

The orders, announced in Saigon and Washington, would affect between 100 and 200 Navy pilots wanting to resign

Ailing Surveyor Signals Faintly

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — America's long-ailing Surveyor 1 mooncraft sent a "faint, intermittent" signal back to earth today, raising dim hopes that new photographs could be transmitted by the unmanned robot.

Scientists at Jet Propulsion Laboratory here said the signals were picked up Friday night and early today by a Johannesburg, South Africa, tracking station.

Surveyor 1 made an historic soft landing on the moon June 4 and returned 11,150 high quality photographs of the lunar surface before apparently dying July 13.

JPL spokesman called the new signals "quite extraordinary" since Surveyor had gone through five different lunar cycles, each comparable to 14 earth days of daylight and 14 earth-days of darkness.

Panhandle Water Conservation News

By FELIX W. RYALS
On the twenty-sixth day of August 1956, I turned off U.S. Highway 287 onto Farm-to-Market Road at Goodnight. I was headed north towards White Deer. On the way north up FM Road 294 I saw only four fields with anything green growing in them. The green fields, I learned later, belonged to Bob McBrayer, R. J. Sailor Jr., Charles Warminski and B. O. Bertrand. The Texas Panhandle was still suffering from a prolonged drought that had begun around 1950. Most fields were plowed and planted, but the seed refused to sprout and grow in the extremely dry soil. In the weeks that followed I learned that about one dozen other farms in Carson County had something green growing on them. Each of these farms had an irrigation well on them. Most of them had been drilled in 1956. Several had been drilled in 1955. The Bob McBrayer well was drilled in December 1951. I also learned later that there were fewer green fields in Gray County with green grain growing since there were only two or three irrigation wells operating in August of 1956.

Agriculture has radically changed during the period 1956 to 1966. Gray County in 1966 has over 200 irrigation wells with more to be drilled before the end of the year. Carson County now has over 500 irrigation wells in operation with new wells going down each week. Businessmen, industrialists and farmers who made the Agricultural Tour of Gray County, Friday September 2, 1966, really beamed at the bountiful green growing crops of milo rapidly maturing for harvest. The new winter wheat was bursting out all over. In addition there were some really fine fields of alfalfa, soy beans and silo cane. The same situation now exists in Carson County. The irrigated grain along with the late dry land grain, that received record rainfall during August, bids well to give the two counties the biggest farm year in history.

The growth of irrigated agriculture has also assisted the growth of agriculture-related business. Prior to 1956 the petrochemical industry located in the Panhandle area sold very little chemical fertilizers, chemical weed control, and chemical insecticides to farmers of the area. With the coming of irrigated agriculture this has now grown into a multi-million dollar business. The big Phillips fertilizer plant at Cactus, near Dumas is proof of this growth. Oil and gas are playing a major role in the continued growth of irrigated agriculture in the Texas Panhandle. The great growth of irrigated agriculture during the past ten years has been made possible — largely due to the availability of natural gas as a fuel to power the irrigation wells to pump the abundant supply of underground water at a reasonable cost. The electric power companies have also aided this growth by stringing power lines to areas where gas was not available. The rural investment of Southwestern Public Service has been tremendous over the same period.

The Agriculture Department has absolved the notion of farmers of responsibility for recent sharp increases in food prices. According to department statistics, over-all farm prices have consistently lagged behind rising retail food prices since the early 1950's.

Farmer Co-Ops Move Up Into Big Business

By FOSTER WHALEY
A wheat variety test demonstration was established on the Abe Lewis farm last week. Varieties that are being tested include Tascosa, Bison, Kaw, Caddo, Scout, Triumph, Gage, Crockett, Warrior and Sturdy. The variety test plot is located in about the same place that it was in our 1963-66 test. Purposes of these tests are to afford farmers the opportunity to view each of the varieties and compare one with another. Triumph was the highest yielder last year. In due time we will again place signs over each of the varieties.

President Coolidge signed the Cooperative Marketing Act on July 2, 1926. In the ensuing 40 years, cooperatives and their employees and management have built strong, efficient businesses whose services and products stand high with farmers and consumers alike.

Foundation tests showed that the last or sour dough stage irrigation can be eliminated if adequate rainfall occurs in the latter half of May. For the second consecutive year, the winter irrigation applied in February to non-grazed wheat was not profitable. The optimum and economic yields of Tascosa wheat, used in the test, were produced with 120 pounds of nitrogen plus 30 pounds of sulfur and/or 60 pounds of P2O5 (phosphorous).

The wheat irrigation-fertilizer study was conducted by Loyd Langford, Associate Agronomist and Dean Howard, Assistant Agronomist at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, Texas. The protein analysis on these tests was conducted by S. N. Vilm, Chief Chemist of Producers Grain Corporation, Amarillo, Texas. This research was conducted to help growers determine the most timely irrigation schedule and efficient fertilizer level for growing wheat with profitable returns under various farming conditions, Dr. Collister said.

Twelve fertilizer levels were applied preplant in randomized complete block design and replicated four times within each of the three irrigation methods. One hundred pounds of Tascosa wheat seed per acre was planted on Oct. 25, 1965 and was harvested on June 25, 1966. Under the conditions of the wheat test sulfur produced high yields and returns. The addition of 60 to 90 pounds of P2O5 produced a significant increase in yield and return. The addition of phosphate increased yields sufficiently over nitrogen alone in most treatments to pay for the phosphate cost.

This wheat irrigation-fertilizer schedule and efficient fertilizer level for growing wheat with profitable returns under various farming conditions, Dr. Collister said.

Rising Cost of Living Major Question Facing Candidates

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is a reprint from a column "Inside Washington" written by Phillip I. Warden appearing in "National Live Stock Producer.")
Candidates running for election to Congress on the Democratic ticket were brought to Washington the last week in July to be told how to campaign to win in November. Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman was one of the instructors. A candidate from Columbus, O., told Freeman that a poll of voters in his district had disclosed that inflation was the major issue. He asked the Secretary of Agriculture how he should answer questions about the rising cost of living.

"I've been trying to figure out an answer to that question for six years," Freeman replied. "Slip, slide, and duck any question of higher consumer prices if you possibly can."
"Don't get caught in a debate over higher prices between housewives and farmers. If you do, and have to choose a side, take the farmers' side. It's the right side, and, besides, housewives aren't nearly as well organized."

"There is a reaction far deeper and more bitter than I could ever have anticipated among the nation's farmers over recent remarks by administration officials concerning farm prices. Farmers know what a tremendous minority they are and they are very sensitive."
Several weeks ago President Johnson indicated that high farm prices were partly responsible for the rising cost of living. Two days later, Freeman said he was "pleased to report" that certain farm prices had declined.

Both remarks triggered instant irritation among farmers throughout the United States. The remarks have become bigger issues in some parts of the farm belt than the conduct of the Viet Nam war and the President's proposals for bans against discrimination in the sale or rental of housing.
Freeman told the candidates that farmers get only 40 percent of the dollar the housewives spend for food. He suggested that in their campaigns the candidates tell the women that food would be cheaper if they did not want their meat cut and wrapped, their potatoes washed, their eggs in cartons, and other "luxuries" when they shopped at their supermarkets.
"A TV dinner that costs 60 cents at the store could be fixed at home for 20 cents," Freeman said.
Farm income and the farm outlook are better under this administration than they have

Wheat Irrigated At Germination Yields Optimum In Research

Wheat irrigated at germination, joint, boot, head, and soft dough stages produced optimum yields and returns in the 1965-1966 wheat irrigation and fertilizer research tests at the High Plains Research Foundation, according to Dr. Earl Collister, Executive Vice-President and Director.

How To Handle Silo Toxicity

Silo gas toxicity can be a real danger this fall because of the amount of corn with high nitrate toxicity that is to be ensiled for winter feed.
To play it safe when you fill your silo this fall, here are some tips for avoiding silo gas poisoning.
—Consider the silo as dangerous 14 to 20 days after filling.
—When filling the silo, be sure the distributor pipes are kept close to the silage level. After filling, leave a section or two of the distributor pipe hooked up to remove the gas.
—Don't work in a silo, climb the ladder, or allow anyone to go near the silo if brown and yellowish gas can be seen or if an irritating odor is noticed.
—If you have to enter your silo after filling, run the blower for at least a half hour before going in.
—Fence off the base of the silo or otherwise prevent children and animals from entering the area around the silo.
—Gas masks are no good for this type of gas — so don't use them as false security.

Price Raps Farm Policy in Talk At Panhandle

PANHANDLE — Not only the farmer but all citizens of the United States will benefit by allowing the farmer the maximum freedom to do with his land as he chooses, congressional candidate Bob Price said here Saturday night.

Price, addressing the convention of the Carson County Farm Bureau, stated:

"You know there must be something wrong with present farm programs because the number of people living on American farms has dropped from 15 million to 12 million since 1960. Actually there are only 4 million people doing the farming."

"There has been a 50 per cent increase in farm mortgage costs with interest costs on farm mortgages going up $800 million during the same period," he added.

Price also pointed out that the average age of the American farmer and rancher is now 58 years, and only two of every 100 boys born on a farm are now choosing agriculture as their profession.

The 18th District U. S. P. candidate listed his goals in dealing with farm legislation as:

Enactment of programs which give the farmer the maximum freedom to do with his land and commodities as he sees fit.

The elimination of government red-tape, with as little government involvement as possible.

With virtual assurance of a seat on the House Agriculture Committee, if elected, Price said his election would put a man with a broad business and agricultural background in a position to expose more Agriculture Department policies designed to depress farm prices, such as those exposed earlier this week by a high USDA official who Price said, resigned because of the department's policies.

Vandalism Inks Police Blotter

Vandalism was rampant Friday night with reports of broken windows inking the police blotter Saturday morning.

Two rocks were found on the floor of a trailer house parked near Dwight's Welding Shop, 500 E. Tenth, according to a police report. Police said two windows had been broken in the trailer.

Theft and damage to equipment was estimated in excess of $200 by Bob Parker, 716 W. Foster in a report to city police Saturday morning.

Police said truck, pickup and tractor were drained of gasoline and hubcaps and four yellow Dodge wheels with two tires mounted were stolen. There was damage to wiring on two tractors in an attempt to steal batteries, police reported.

Jim Walker, 2236 Dogwood, reported to city police that a rock shattered the right glass door of his pickup, parked on 23rd St., sometime Friday night. The rock was thrown from a passing car, Walker said.

A Pampa youth was severely cut on the wrist by broken glass in a fight with a youth from Amarillo Friday night on Perryton Parkway. The Pampa boy was treated and released from Worley Hospital.

National Window

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International
Some Americans are recording a vote of no confidence in the report on John F. Kennedy's assassination prepared under the direction of Chief Justice Earl Warren. This poses a question: Does the no confidence extend to the investigating commission and its chairman?

Warren was chairman of the bipartisan commission set up by President Johnson to establish the who, how and why of Kennedy's assassination. An official inquiry and an official verdict were urgently necessary to establish the facts and to lay to rest the fancies that enveloped the tragic incident.

Half-truths, no-truths and fantasies accepted as facts in the hysteria of the moment include the suspicion that there had been a conspiracy of which the assassin merely was the agent—that Kennedy was the victim of a rightist plot, that two gunmen were involved and that Jack Ruby killed Lee Harvey Oswald to assure that he would not talk.

The Warren Commission discovered no conspiracy, no second gunman and no such motive as had been suggested. The pollsters now discover the American people to be suspicious of the Warren report. This may follow from skillful Madison Avenue manipulation of publicity in behalf of books now current which challenge the report. That is the more likely explanation of public doubt that Warren and his associates came up with the whole truth.

Scoffers brush aside these expressions of public opinion, asserting that they reflect merely the uninformed opinions of persons who never read the Warren report and probably did not read far beyond the headlines of the news stories about it. Maybe so, but that is about as well informed as public opinion ever comes to be.

We accept as valid the election of presidents and lesser officials by voters who probably do not know any more about the campaign issues involved than they know about the Warren report.

Surviving, therefore, is the question whether the suspected inadequacy of the Warren report will cause a substantial number of citizens to identify the chief justice with a superficial job of fact-finding and evidence sifting. A chief justice of the United States is headman of the U.S. judiciary whose function is to sift evidence and to determine facts.

An uneasy feeling of no confidence in the chief justice would have powerful political impact if it became at all general among the voters. This impact would have no kinship impeaching Earl Warren. The political impact would be in the area of dispute about the so-called Warren court's extension of its own powers into the field of legislation.

The current Supreme Court has discovered in the Constitution federal powers and prohibitions that escaped the notice of preceding justices. This usually has been true from generation to generation as one clutch of Supreme Court justices succeeded another. Apart from civil rights and the court's umbrella of protection over the personal rights of suspected criminals, as opposed to the collective rights of law-abiding citizens, the Warren court probably reached further into legislative apportionment than into any other controversial field.

Conceding that the chief justice is not engaged in a popularity contest, it must be conceded also that his prestige would be much damaged by identification with an embarrassing folly, such as a superficial report on a presidential assassination.

Mid-Continent Oil Meet Set For October 17

DALLAS — An airline executive, a petroleum company president and the chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission will be among the principal speakers at the 47th annual meeting of Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association in Corpus Christi this month.

W. A. Landreth of Fort Worth, association president, announced here Saturday that the Oct. 17-19 meeting's speakers will include Harding L. Lawrence of

HARDING LAWRENCE

Dallas, president of Braniff International Airways, Inc.; Stanley Learned of Bartlesville, Okla., president of Phillips Petroleum Co.; and Ben Ramsey, of Austin, chairman of the Railroad Commission.

Between 400 and 500 oil and gas industry leaders are expected to attend the meeting.

Landreth said all three of the speakers announced Saturday would be on the program for Wednesday morning, Oct. 19.

The other featured speakers, previously announced, will be Robert O. Anderson, Philadelphia, petroleum executive, rancher and civic leader; and L. B. Worthington, Pittsburgh, president of United States Steel Corporation. They will appear on the Oct. 18 program.

Lawrence, born in Perkins, Okla., is a graduate of the University of Texas and the South Texas College of Law at Houston. A World War II Air Force veteran, he joined Pioneer Air Lines at Houston in 1946 and was a vice president when its operations were taken over by Continental Airlines. He rose in the Continental ranks and was named executive vice president in 1958. He was elected president and chief executive officer of Braniff Airways on April 5, 1965.

Lawrence also serves as vice president of Great America Corporation and is a director of Hunt Foods and Ind., Inc., and the Air Transport Association. He is chairman of the air transport panel of the Texas Transportation Institute and a director of the Conquistadores del Cielo, professional aviation society.

Learned was elected president of Phillips Petroleum Company on Apr. 24, 1962, after serving nine years as chairman of the executive committee and assistant to the president. A native of Lawrence, Kan., he graduated from the University of Kansas in 1924 and joined Phillips as an engineer. During World War II, Learned was in charge of the defense plant engineering division. One of his jobs was to direct the building of a synthetic rubber plant near Borger.

He is a director of the Federal Reserve Bank in Kansas City, Mo., the American Petroleum Institute, the Independent Petroleum Association of America, and is a member of the National Petroleum Council. He is a past board chairman of the National Safety Council, and has served three terms as president of the Oklahoma Safety Council and is active in many civic activities.

Ramsey, a native of San Augustine, Tex., has served on the Texas Railroad Commission since appointed by Gov. Price Daniel in 1961 to fill the unexpired term of the late Olin Culbertson. He has been active in politics since he was licensed to practice law in 1931, after attending the University of Texas, and has never been defeated in a political race.

He was first elected to the House of Representatives in 1932 and served two terms. He was then elected to two terms in the state Senate. He was elected lieutenant gov. five times, a record in Texas, and served from 1951 until his appointment to the Railroad Commission.

Texaco Head Predicts Rise In Oil Demand

PHOENIX — J. Howard Ramin Jr., Chairman of the Board of Texaco Inc., recently predicted that, in the next 10 years, United States demand for petroleum will rise 30 per cent and demand in the free world will double.

By 1975, this would bring U.S. petroleum consumption to 15 million barrels a day and free world consumption to 30 million barrels a day, he told the Phoenix Society of Security Analysts.

To meet this demand and maintain adequate oil and gas reserves, the free world petroleum industry must make estimated capital expenditures of at least $150 billion in the next decade, or $40 billion more than it spent in the last 10 yrs, Mr. Ramin noted.

Citing the oil industry's "squeeze between rising costs and stable petroleum prices over the last several years," the Texaco chairman asserted that "there is need for an improvement in the rate of investment in order to meet the huge capital requirements of the future."

Mr. Ramin disclosed that Texaco's operations in the first eight months of 1966 had continued to reach new peaks. Gross production of crude oil and natural gas liquids, including equity in affiliates, rose 12.2 per cent over the similar eight-month period last year, to a new high of 2,221,000 barrels a day. Refinery runs were up 5.4 percent to 1,913,000 barrels a day and product sales increased 5.5 per cent to 1,978,000 barrels a day.

Texaco's earnings of the first six months of 1966, as previously reported, were $333 million, or $2.47 a share, excluding a non-recurring gain, an increase of 8.5 percent over the $307 million, or $2.27 a share, earned in the first half of 1965.

Citgo Studies Oil Pipeline

NEW YORK CITY — Gateway Pipeline Company has been organized for the purpose of studying the feasibility of constructing a large-diameter petroleum products pipeline from the Texas-Louisiana Gulf Coast to the Chicago area. The proposed pipeline would serve intermediate metropolitan areas.

American Oil Company, Cities Service Company, Continental Oil Company, Gulf Oil Corporation, Humble Pipe Line Company, Marathon Oil Company, Mobil Oil Corporation, Shell Oil Company, Sinclair Delaware Corporation, Sunray DX Oil Company and Texaco Inc.

Mnemonics is a system of precepts and rules intended to improve the memory.

SPINDLETOP, 1901 — This famous picture of the Lucas gusher at Beaumont, which roared in on January 10, 1901, announced to the world the vast oil potential of the Texas Gulf Coast area, made the United States the leading oil-producing nation on the globe.

Texas Oilmen Entering Second Century Proudly

A primary thrust to the economy of Texas comes from the quiet, almost unseen operation of its oil and gas wells, which bring the state $4.2 billion a year — nearly three times the value of the whole world's annual output of gold, according to Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association.

As Texas enters its second century as an oil producing state this year, its citizens find their livelihoods strongly linked with spinning drill bits, nodding pumping jacks, and the hum of refineries and petrochemical plants.

Association statisticians tally annual primary income at $2.9 billion from crude oil; $850 million from natural gas; and $400 million from natural gas liquids.

Current production trends indicate that 1966 production will edge past the figures established in 1965, when total values set an all-time high. Income from crude oil is still below the 1957 high of $3.3 billion when Texas enjoyed, in the same year, record production and record crude prices. The steadily increasing production and value of natural gas and natural gas liquids have made up the losses due to decreased crude prices and demand for Texas oil.

The $4.2 billion-a-year figure, of course, is a basic measure of raw material production, comparable to the measured value of agricultural output of $2.4 billion a year, the Association points out.

In Texas the sale of oil and gas triggers an almost endless chain of economic activities, because it is the nature of the industry that a large part of the income must be plowed back into the search for new reserves and the development of more efficient production methods. Nationally, it is estimated that funds equivalent to approximately 70 percent of the total gross income from oil and gas sales are committed to the business of finding, developing and producing oil and gas. On that basis, is, this phase of the industry could be accounting for $2.3 billion a year of such expenditures in Texas.

Included in these expenditures could be such items as $700 million worth of drilling, another $700 million in leasing and geologic expense, plus $980 million in production costs and overhead.

The distribution of these hundreds of millions of dollars is on a widely spread pattern in Texas. For example, wildcat wells seeking new fields were drilled in 216 of the state's 254 counties last year. Leasing operations and payment of rentals covered most of the counties. There is actual production of oil and gas from 210 counties. Royalty payments of $479 million a year are distributed throughout the state because there are so many producing counties.

Ayres Will Discuss Injection Profiles

Hugh Ayres of Halliburton will discuss "Controlling Injection Profiles" at the monthly meeting of the Society of Petroleum Engineers of AIME on Tuesday at the Coronado Inn. The meeting will begin at 6:15 p.m., according to James Morning, First Vice-President.

Members are requested to make their reservations with John Gill, MO 4-4695, in Pampa, and with Alan Evans, Huber, in Borger. Guests are welcome.

American Gas Asso. Introduces New Sales Promotion Program

Promo '67, the guide to the American Gas Association, Inc. (A.G.A.), Sales and Promotion programs, was introduced this month at the Association's Sales Executive Conference in Chicago.

Robert F. Calrow, director of A.G.A.'s Promotion, Advertising-Research and Public Information (PAR) program, said the plans outlined in PROMO '67 mark the beginning of new and stronger national promotion campaigns which will be instrumental in delivering maximum sales impact at the local level.

Caerow cited A.G.A.'s new Builder Recognition Program, Residential Air Conditioning Programmed Instruction Course, and an Industrial Market Extension Program. "Each is an example of the dynamic ways in which A.G.A. member companies will be afforded the opportunity to increase sales in rapidly developing energy markets."

Themes, objectives, timing and methods are stressed in guide, form a unified plan for progress, with emphasis on the future. The latest films, folders, mailers, brochures, and other Sales and Promotion aids are also described and illustrated.

Another very important area highlighted by PROMO '67 is A.G.A.'s sponsorship of national television specials. The 1965, 66 gas industry-sponsored special features, according to Calrow, so highly acclaimed by the public and critics that this year's line-up on NBC has been

Texas Oil Centennial Will Be Told in New Anthology

The big story of 100 years of oil in Texas will be told in a book to be published as one of the major events in the observance of the 1966 Centennial of the Texas Petroleum Industry. A special section in the book will be devoted to the operation and personnel of the Railroad Commission of Texas which is simultaneously observing its 75th Anniversary.

The book is titled Texas Oil Centennial Anthology. U. A. expanded to seven color special, "Alice Through the Looking Glass," starring Judi Rollins, leads off the series on Sunday, Nov. 6, from 7:30-9 p.m.

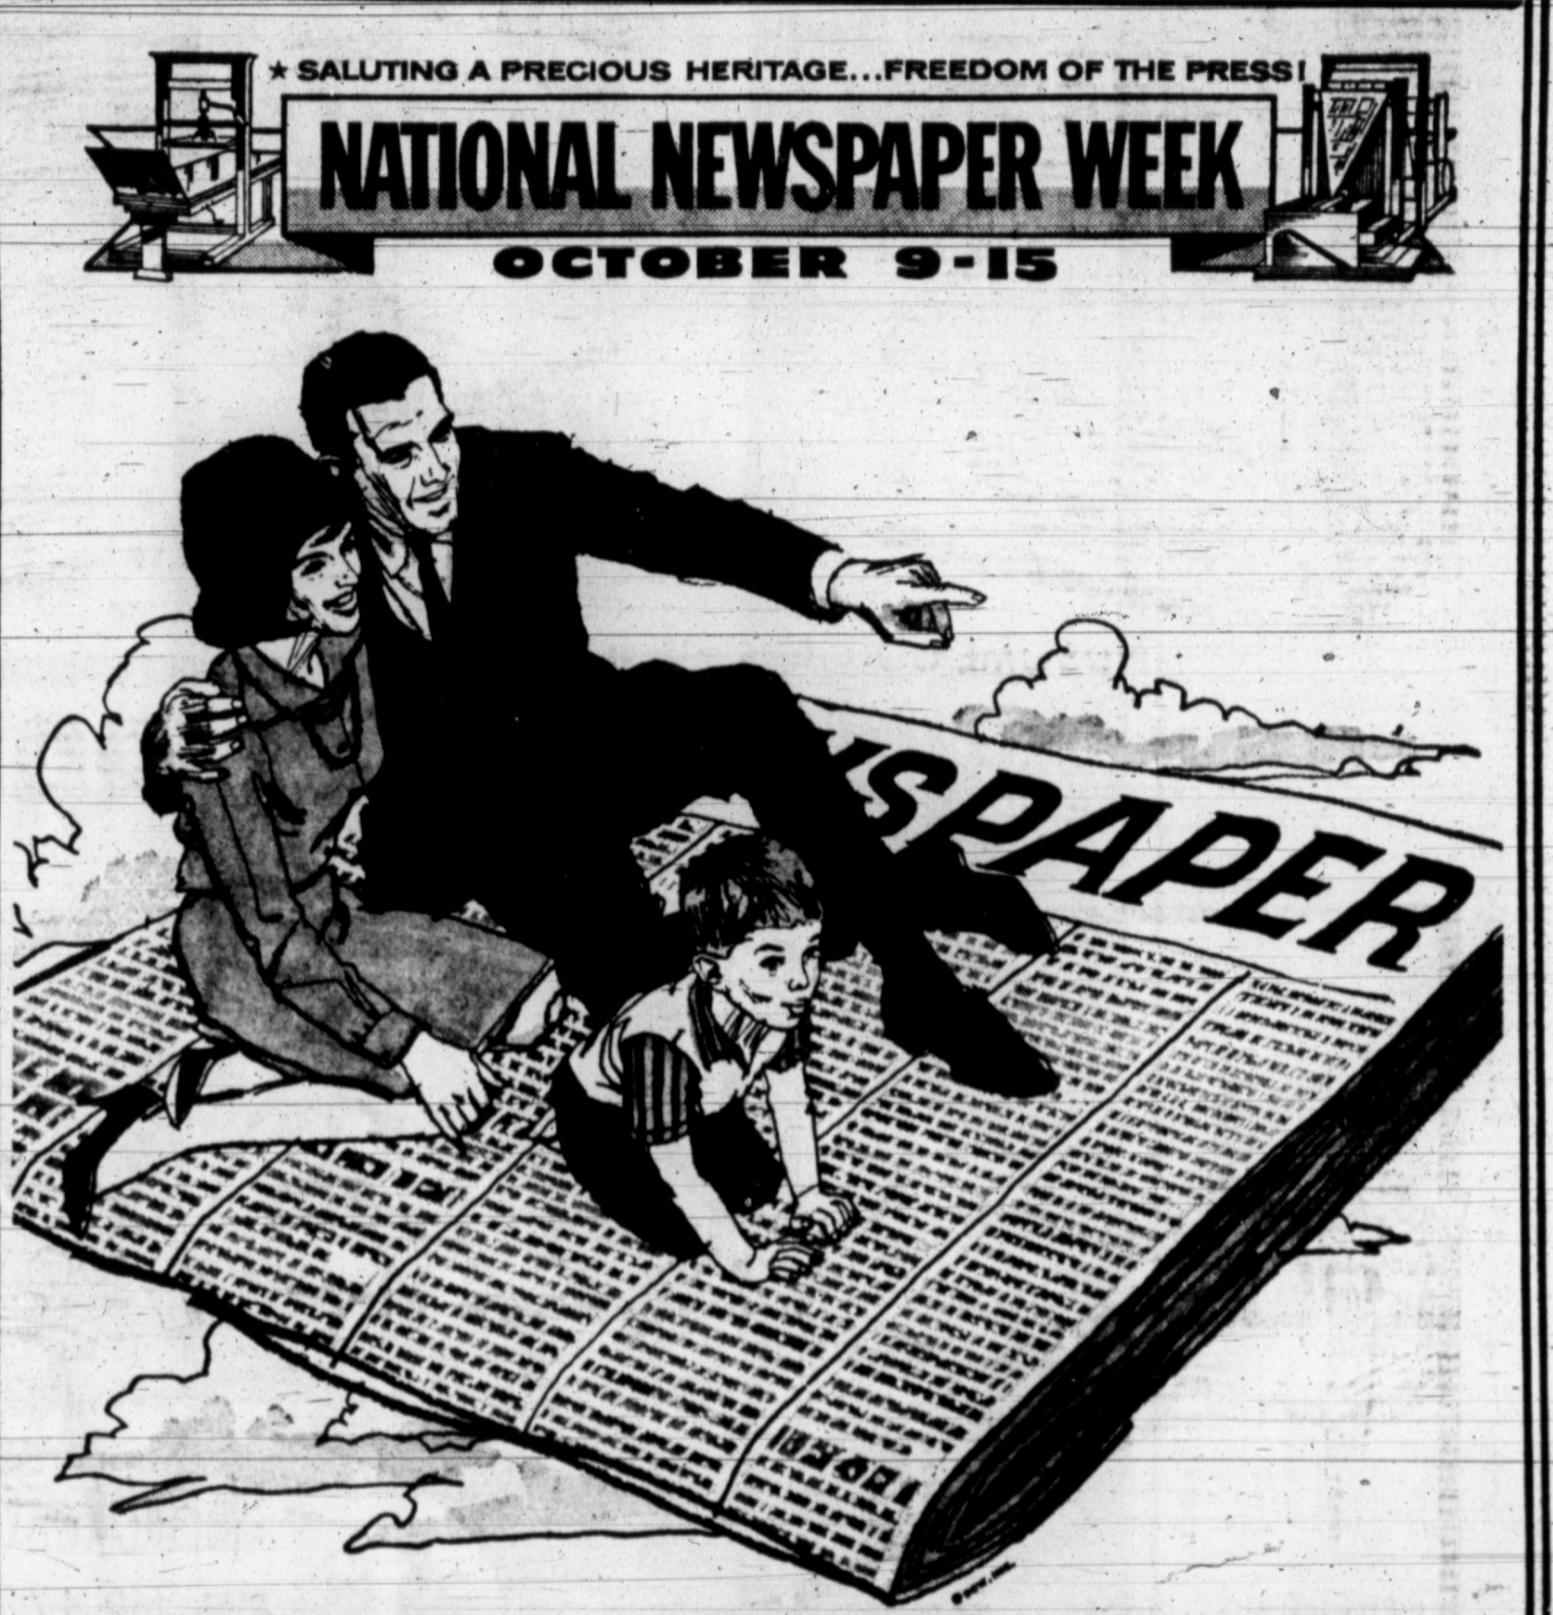

Calrow summed up A.G.A.'s 1967 PAR programs, as outlined on PROMO '67, as "the most aggressive and effective ever developed for the gas industry."

Hyde and Ray Lowry of Austin are the publishers. It is described by them as "a collection of the best writings through the years to cover the many facets and highlights of the growth of Texas' giant industry."

Governor John Connally will write the foreword of the book which is scheduled for publication in mid-December. The volume will run several hundred pages in length and will contain hundreds of pictures.

A special commemorative coin has been designed and issued by the publishers in connection with their production of the Anthology.

FIRE PREVENTION is everyone's job

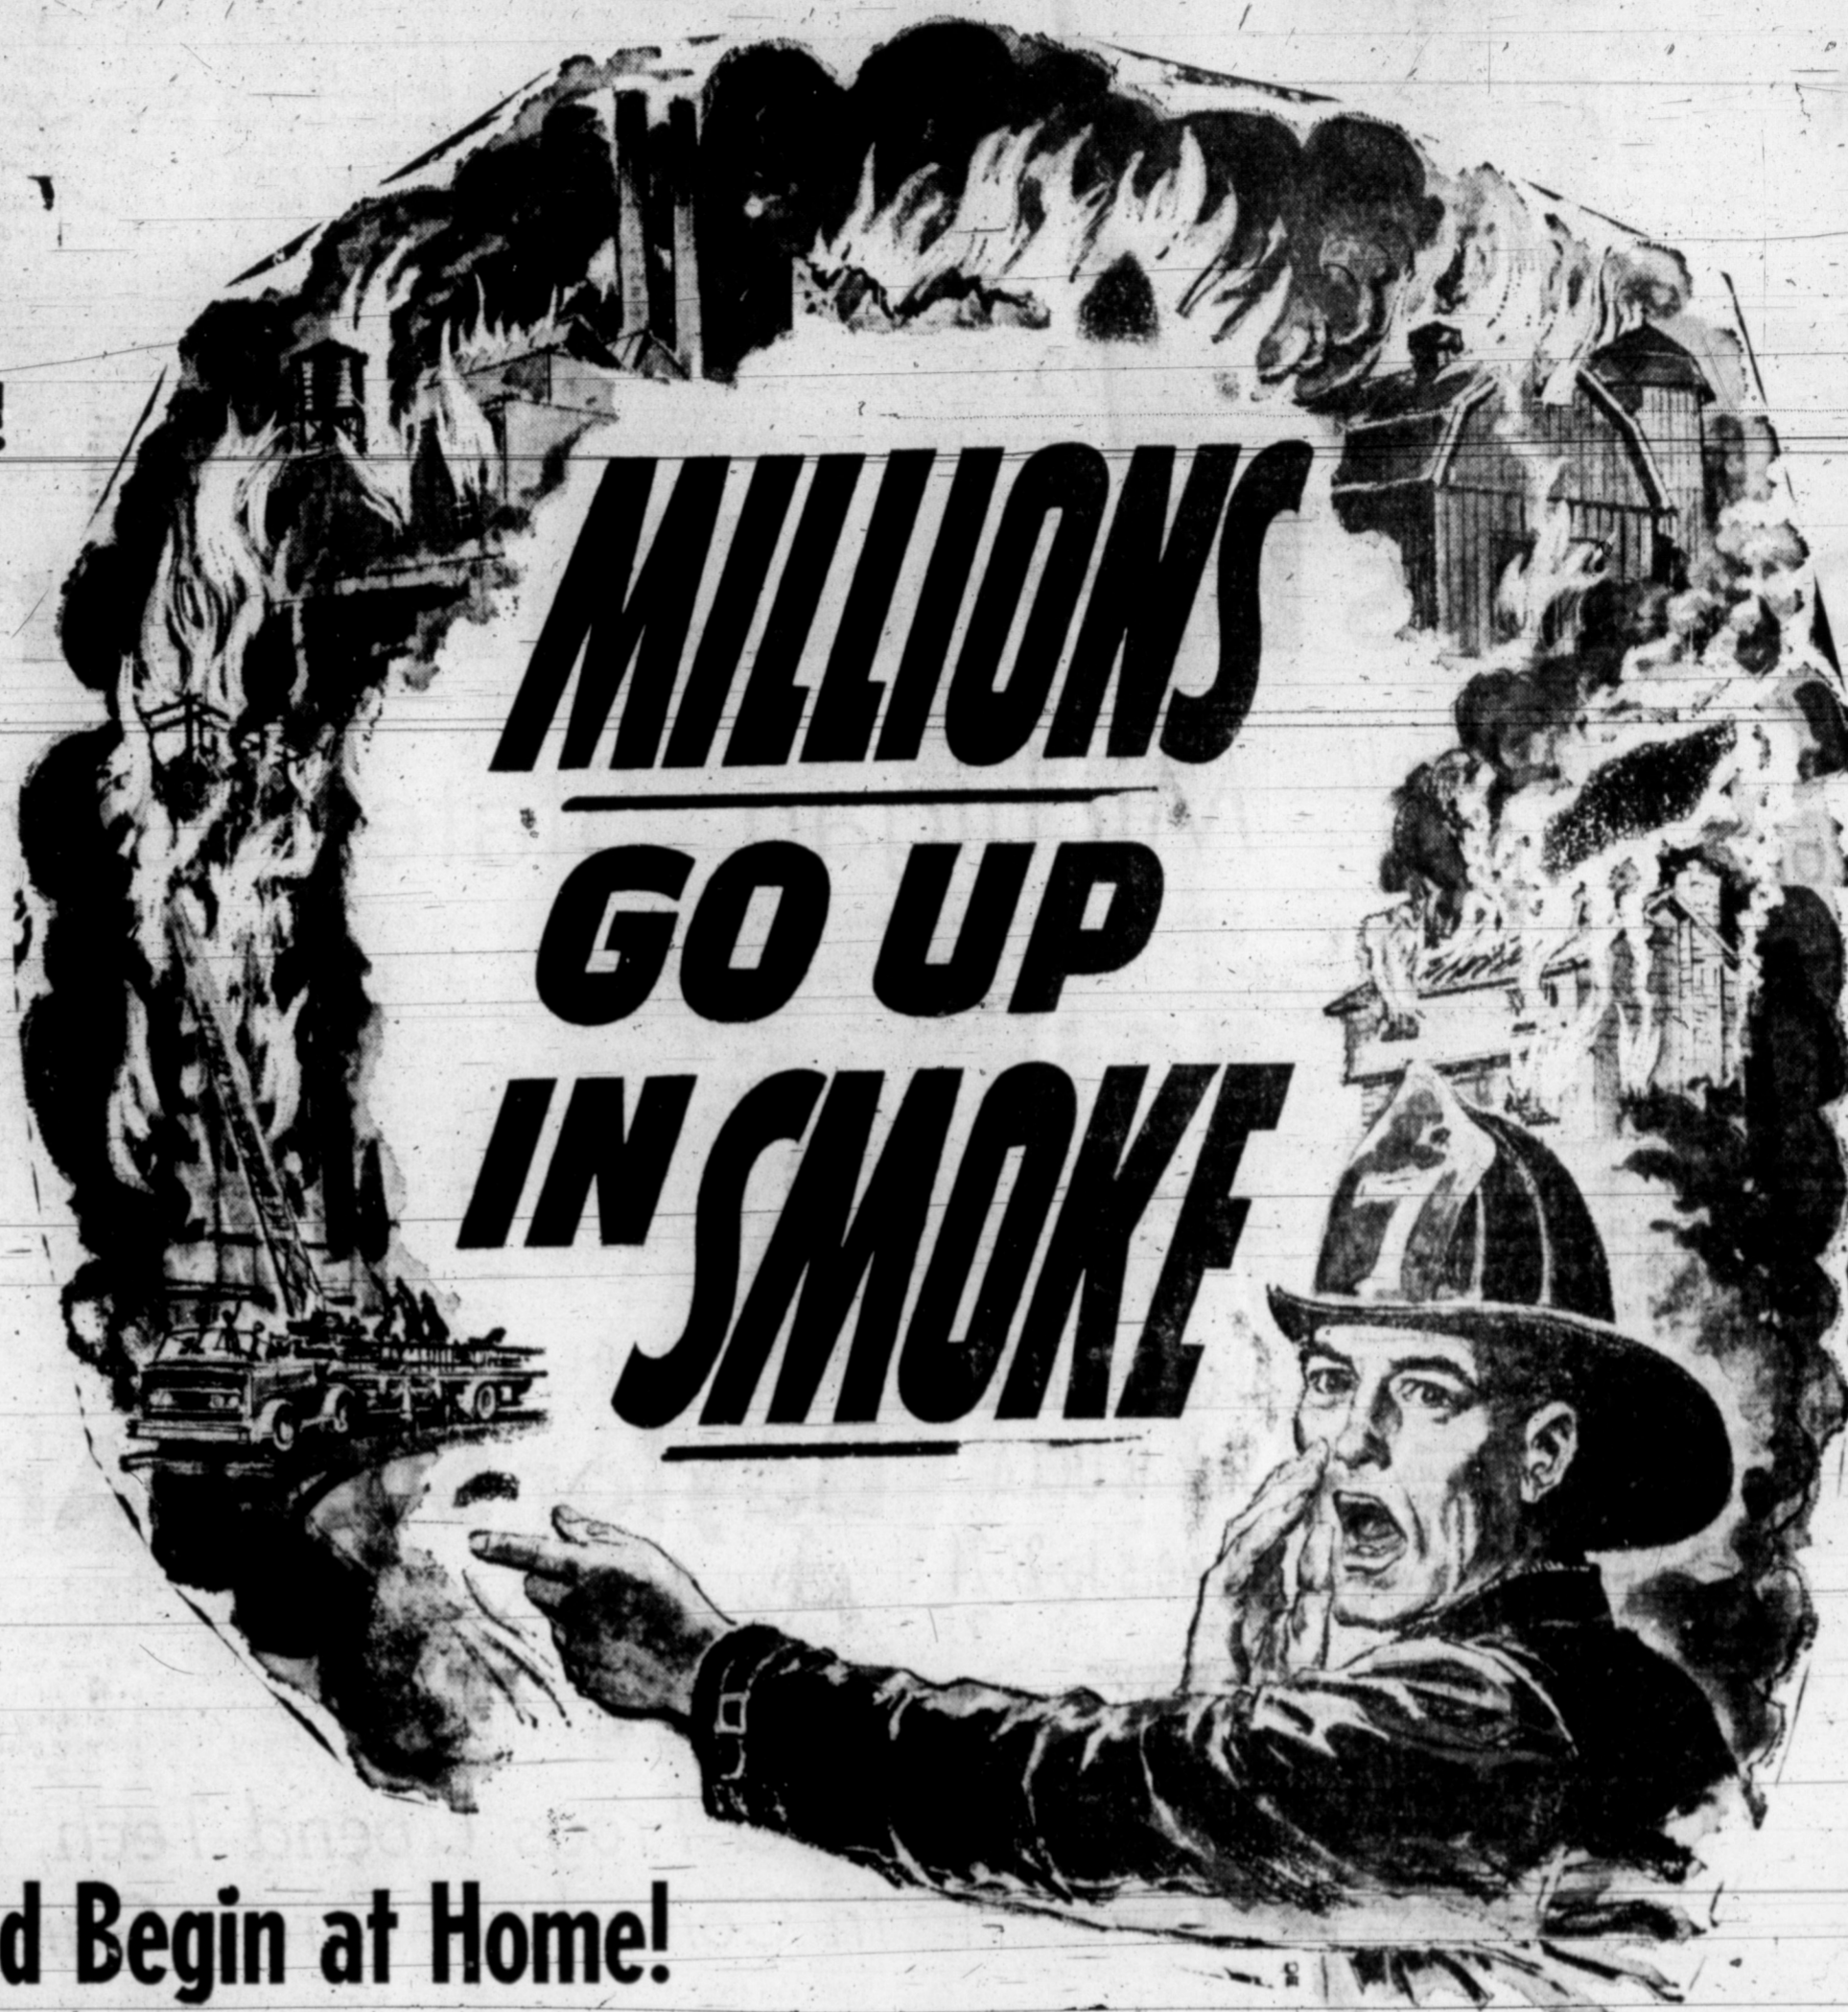

FIRE can ruin your business!

FIRE can leave you homeless!

FIRE can kill your loved ones!

Your Best Insurance Against Property Damage and Personal Injury Is Caution, Every Day

You can never be too careful when it comes to preventing fire! That's why good safety habits at home, at work, at play are the rule, never the exception. At home, check often to guard against accumulation of flammable debris, faulty wiring, other fire hazards. At work, obey fire department regulations to the letter. At play, make sure campfires are out, dead out. Caution now may save lives later.

Fire Prevention Should Begin at Home!

- Check your home and business for fire hazards
- Be careful when handling fire in any form
- Check electrical wiring, cords, and appliances
- Check stoves, heating system, water heaters
- Check roofs and chimneys for fire safety
- Keep dry grass and other combustible material cleaned-up
- Never leave matches near children
- Don't smoke in bed
- Don't store combustibles in your cellar or attic
- Cooperate with your local fire authorities
- Call the fire station for FREE, no obligation inspection

MESSAGE FROM FIRE CHIEF
WINBORNE

Fire Prevention Week — the time when people everywhere rededicate themselves to the important job of preventing fires — will be observed this year October 9-15.

The purpose of Fire Prevention Week is to remind everyone to be careful with fire, and thus hold down our tragic toll in lives and property destroyed by fire.

Last year it is estimated that 12,000 persons lost their lives in fires, and 6,500 or more than half of these fatalities, occurred in homes. Moreover, more than $1 billion worth of property was destroyed.

Property destroyed by fire totaled a record $1,455,631,000. Without fire prevention efforts, the number of fire fatalities would be greater, and property losses would be three times the 1965 figure, says the American Insurance Association.

Sincerely,

FIRECHIEF J. E. WINBORNE

Orioles Shutout Dodgers

BIG THREE — John "Boog" Powell, Brooks Robinson and Frank Robinson were key figures in sparking the Baltimore Orioles to a third straight victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers Saturday.

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Turn-of-coast Paul Blair, who spent most of his childhood rooting for the Los Angeles Dodgers, ruined them Saturday with a fifth-inning homer which, along with Wally Bunker's six-hitter, gave the Baltimore Orioles a 1-0 victory and their third straight World Series triumph.

The Orioles' victory was achieved against Claude Osteen, the gritty, 27-year-old left-hander who picked the Dodgers off the floor in a similar desperate situation a year ago, but was unable to do it this time although he held the Orioles to three hits.

Tommy Davis, batting for Osteen, led off that frame with his second straight pinch hit of the series—a single up the middle. Maury Wills then laid down a perfect sacrifice bunt, moving Davis to second and it looked like trouble when Wes Parker lifted a wrong field Texas leaguer down the left field line.

Sooners Brand Longhorns, 18-9

Field Goals Spell Victory for O.U.

DALLAS — The Big Red from the University of Oklahoma "three-pointed" Texas University to death here Saturday before 75,504 in the Cotton Bowl as they branded the Longhorns 18-9.

OU sophomore Mike Vachon, a 19-year-old from Amarillo, booted home four field-goals from 31, 43, 20 and 41 yards. His second one tied an OU record for the most field goals in the school's history, his third broke the record and he added to that with his fourth one. Vachon now has eight for the year.

OU had to go to the air and they did with sophomore quarterback Bob Warrack connecting on 12 of 21 tosses with 220 yards.

The Sooners scored the only touchdown of the game a little over seven minutes later when Warrack scooted in from one yard back. Then came the surprise of the day when Vachon missed a conversion with 1:23 left in the first period, sooner fans were hoiering loud with a six to three lead.

The two old rivals battled to a standoff until 17 seconds remained in the half when Vachon kicked a 21 yard field goal to cap an OU drive that started on their own 20.

The Sooners took the second half kickoff and marched from their own 20 to the steer's 26 where Vachon added his second field goal from 43 yards out with 10:19 left in the third period and a 12-3 Oklahoma lead.

But three plays lost two yards and Glenn Lindsey, hurrying to get off a 16-yard field goal attempt over a mass of Tiger defenders, shot it off to the left.

Michigan State Survives Bid

EAST LANSING Mich. (UPI)—Fullback Bob Apisa and quarterback Jimmy Raye mobilized Michigan State for two fourth quarter touchdowns Saturday as the top-ranked Spartans survived arch-rival Michigan's upset bid for a 20-7 Big Ten win.

The Wolverines threw a riled defense against Michigan State, allowing only one first period touchdown before Apisa broke loose for 49 yards and then scored on a seven-yard burst early in the final period.

Michigan State's defense was bolstered by arm trouble more than half the year, never was in serious trouble although he pitched out of what could have become a tight spot in the eighth.

Michigan State showed its only ground offense during the closing moments of the contest with Fisher turning in several long runs including the 40-yarder which set up the only Wolverine touchdown.

Michigan State led late in the first quarter. Apisa picked up 15 yards on a sweep around the right side with a bootleg pitch-out from Raye. The Spartans were helped with a 15-yard penalty and Apisa took another pitch-out for 11 yards before Raye swept left end for the touchdown.

Michigan State's only scoring drive of the first half was another Apisa-Raye effort, giving er sped 40 yards with a lateral and Vidmer tossed passes for 18 and 15 yards to halfback Jim Detweiler, the latter to the middle of the end zone for a touchdown.

Rice Upset Hopes Sink as UCLA Powers to 27-24

HOUSTON (UPI)—Kurt Zimmerman kicked a 17-yard field goal with seven seconds remaining Saturday night to give second-ranked UCLA a 27-24 victory over upset-minded Rice University.

UCLA, playing for the first time in its history in Texas, came from behind with 11 points in the last 24 minutes to keep an 18-point underdog Rice team from scoring its second upset in three games. Rice had upset Louisiana State in its opener.

Gary Behan, UCLA's All-American candidate, led the stirring comeback, passing 33 yards for the tying touchdown and running six yards to the three to set up the field goal.

The junior quarterback, playing one of the greatest games of his sterling career, completed 17 of 33 passes for 238 yards and ran 13 times for 66 yards, a total offense of 304 yards.

He overshadowed Rice quarterback Robby Shelton, who ran for 171 yards and passed for another 110 for a total offense of 281 yards.

Shelton was the hero of the gallant Owls until he fumbled with 1 1/2 minutes to go and the score tied 24-24. UCLA's Larry Agajanian, son of former pro kicking star Ben Agajanian, recovered on the Rice 23.

Zimmerman kicked the field goal, seven plays later. Rice, the first team to score on UCLA in the first half this season, took the opening kickoff all the way with Shelton going the final 12 yards.

Wyoming Stomps Utah University

LARAMIE, Wyo. (UPI)—Wyoming erupted from a shaky third quarter Saturday to score 27 points in the final period and roll to a 40-7 Western Athletic Conference victory over Utah.

Junior Jerry DePoyster set a WAC and school record by booting four field goals, two of them from 54 yards out, for a league mark for distance and erasing a league mark he set in 1965. One of the 54 yard boots was the first score of the game and DePoyster added a 52-yarder late in the first period to give Wyoming a narrow, early game lead.

Utah came out in the third quarter to stop Wyoming cold and scored its only touchdown of the game on a 13-yard pass from Jack Gherke to Terry Baker. The play was set up when Bruce Bean grabbed a popped-up ball on the Wyoming 22-yard line.

The Razorbacks in the first period were halted on the Baylor 18 and a fourth-period drive to the Bear 15 was stopped on downs.

Twice in the first half Baylor marched to the Arkansas 21 yard line, but field goal attempts on each occasion failed. Arkansas piled up most of its yardage on rushes by tailback Bruce Maxwell and passes from Britten to Tommy Burnett.

The Baylor defense was paced by tackle Billy Burk and end David Anderson. Arkansas 0 0 0 0 0 Baylor 0 0 0 7-7

A&M Battles To 7-7 Tie

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—An aroused band of Texas Aggies, training in almost every department except the figures on the scoreboard, battled favored Louisiana State University to a 7-7 tie Saturday night.

The tie carved out by A&M broke a six game losing streak to LSU.

TCU Frogs Upend Tech, 6-3, In Comedy of Errors Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (UPI)—Triple threat quarterback Terry Southall fired a fourth-quarter 21-yard scoring pass to reserve end Bobby Green Saturday to give the Baylor Bears a 7-0 upset victory over undefeated Arkansas.

It was the fifth-ranked Razorbacks' first loss in 25 regular season games dating back to 1963. It was the first shutout for the defending Southwest Conference champion since the Rice game of 1963.

Arkansas' desperation bid for a tie or win was choked off late in the final period when a 32-yard scoring pass from all-conference quarterback Jon Britten to Tommy Trantham was nullified by a penalty.

The game-winning pass was set up when an Arkansas snap from center on a punt attempt wet over the kicker's head and Baylor gained possession on the Arkansas 46.

Arkansas penetrated the Baylor 20-yard-line on three separate occasions, but each time was thrown back. Midway through the second period, an Arkansas threat was halted on the Baylor six when Bear end David Anderson recovered a fumble by Arkansas scatback Harry Jones.

Southall's passing and runs by Baylor halfback John Westbrook kept Arkansas bottled up in their own territory much of the rain-soaked afternoon.

North Dakota Hits South Dakota, 31-17

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Underdog Northwestern, guided expertly by junior quarterback Bill Melzer, knocked off Oregon State, 14-6, Saturday for its first football victory in four starts.

Melzer scored the final touchdown on a one-yard plunge and kept Oregon State's defense off balance with his passes, especially to end Roger Murphy, who hauled in nine for 139 yards.

DYNAMIC DUO DOES DAMAGE

Notre Dame, powered by teenage passing wonder Terry Hanratty and a veteran speedster Nick Eddy, scored at better than a point-a-minute clip over Army in the first half Saturday and then coasted to a 35-0 crusher behind its reserves.

Thereafter, Notre Dame's offensive reserves couldn't score on Army, but Army could make only two first downs against Notre Dame's defensive reserve unit.

Eddy was Notre Dame's top scorer with two touchdowns, both on three-yard plunges. Bob Leier scored on a three-yard plunge and Hanratty, an 18-year-old sophomore, participated in two touchdowns.

Eddy was Notre Dame's top scorer with two touchdowns, both on three-yard plunges. Bob Leier scored on a three-yard plunge and Hanratty, an 18-year-old sophomore, participated in two touchdowns.

One had made himself on a seven-yard run around end. Hanratty also pitched a 33-yard touchdown pass to his star sophomore target, Jim Seymour. During his 30 minutes of play, Hanratty completed 11 of 20 passes for 195 yards and Seymour caught eight of them for 155 yards.

The Irish so dominated the first half that they did not have to punt once. They helped their cause by recovering one Army fumble and intercepting two passes.

Rambling With Red
RON CROSS

You could say, and we will, that Pampa has had several "Superbill" efforts this football season, none the least of which has occurred in the offensive line.

The Pampa forward wall has got to be one of the best in 3-4A, which we will get a chance to see starting next Friday, and have moved out opposing linemen with force and regularity.

Linemen are seldom ever paid their due, for its hard for any writer to single out any outstanding individual. Pampa is no exception.

There is no outstanding lineman in the bunch. They are all good and work well together as a team. The main thing is they help each other.

A lineman is Pampa's captain and you just feel better about the whole situation when you see Doc Cornutt step on the football field.

Pampa's success has come from our things so far, togetherness, ability, desire and good coaching.

But back to the line.

They've learned to block. This was something that seemed to be impossible in 1965. They've matured and this has been a big help.

Coach Eural Ramsey refuses to pick out any single player who has played a key role. "We've been playing as a team and we want to keep it that way," he states.

The line has muscle. Go down the list.

James Matney at 185 and David Martindale at 160 at ends. Cornutt at 205 and junior Bobby Wilson at 196 at tackles. Glen Lewis, probably the toughest of all, at 208 at center and Jack Williamson at 190 and Billy Scribner, also at 190 at guards.

Then you have Larry Keyser, 165, Terry Troxel, 165, Gene Kincaid, 150 and on and on.

Any smart back will be the first to admit it is impossible to pick up yardage without a good line.

Pampa has rushed for over 800 yards and one would first think that what a backfield they must have. They do, but McCarnell, Heiskell, Hyatt, Rowden, Mitchell and Henley will tell you first thing they wouldn't go anywhere where there it not for the truck-wide holes being opened for them by the line.

Opposing coaches have said time and again this season they fear the Pampa line. "You don't stop Pampa's ground game," I have heard several times from the opposition.

Defensively it has been different.

But you can look for a marked improvement in the Pampa defense.

They have improved 100 per cent on one phase of the game already. Pass defense. The ends are being run as often either.

Tech Upsets Tennessee

ATLANTA (UPI) — Linebacker W. J. Blane made two crucial pass interceptions and Bunky Henry kicked a pair of field goals Saturday to give 10th-ranked Georgia Tech a nationally televised 6-3 upset over seventh-ranked Tennessee.

Blane, a senior from Roanoke, Va., made his first interception late in the second period to set up Henry's second field goal, the Yellow Jackets' winning points.

His second interception came with only 2:41 left in the game with Tennessee driving deep into Georgia Tech territory and heading for a possible score.

Henry, a place kicking specialist who is also a golf champion, kicked his first field goal from 22 yards out with five minutes left in the first half to tie the score at 3-3.

Moments later Blane intercepted a pass thrown by Tennessee's Dewey Warren at the 45-yard line and ran it back 13 yards to the 32. Tech, unable to gain much yardage against a rugged Tennessee defense which has not allowed a touchdown this season, got only to the 24 and then called on Henry.

Henry's 41-yard field goal was the longest of his three-year collegiate career.

Tennessee dominated play throughout the afternoon but Georgia Tech kept coming up with the clutch defensive plays when they were needed. The Vols' only points came early in the second period when Gary Wright kicked a 27-yard field goal for a temporary lead.

The victory was the fourth straight this season for the unbeaten Yellow Jackets and it was the first loss after two wins for favored Tennessee.

Nicklaus Falls To Player In World Match Tourney

WENTWORTH, England (UPI)—South Africa's Gary Player took advantage of a temper flareup by Jack Nicklaus on the ninth hole Saturday and went on to defeat the reigning British Open and Masters champion, 6 and 4, in the 36-hole final of the $44,800 World Match Play Golf Tournament.

Player, the defending champion, carded a brilliant seven-under par 67 in the morning round to take a four-hole advantage over Nicklaus as the burly American fell victim to two double bogeys after an argument on the ninth hole with referee Tony Duncan.

The 30-year-old South African retained his four-hole lead after 27 holes, moved five-up when Nicklaus conceded the 31st and wrapped up the $14,000 first prize when the American three-putted the 32nd hole.

Nicklaus' trouble on the ninth hole started when he drove into a hazard and picked up under a one-stroke penalty. Trailing by only one hole at the time, he then claimed that an advertising signboard was in his line of vision to the hole and demanded a free pickup and drop.

Duncan refused and ordered Nicklaus to play on. He took a double bogey-six on the hole and his "blood pressure went soaring."

On the 10th tee, the atmosphere was no stormy that Duncan asked Nicklaus if he would prefer another referee, and the American replied yes. Gerald Micklem, a former chairman of the Royal and Ancient Championship Committee, then took over.

Nicklaus birdied the next two holes to get even, but Player regained the lead at 13 when Nicklaus took another double bogey six after hitting his drive into the trees and losing the ball. Player then moved two holes up with a birdie on the 14th and grabbed a commanding four-hole advantage with successive birdies on the 17th and 18th.

GOING GO for a touchdown is Palo Duro's Bobby Wilson, who scored twice Friday night and passed for another score to enable the Dons' to upset Pampa, 22-0. It was Palo Duro's first victory and first time to score this year. (See other pictures, story, pages 12-13).

COWBOY RALLY WINS IT
Oklahoma State Edges Colorado Buffs, 11-10

STILLWATER, Okla. (UPI)—Colorado came back fighting, taking the final kickoff from Johnson guided Oklahoma State 69 yards to a touchdown and a two-point conversion in the final four and one-half minutes Saturday to give the Cowboys an 11-10 Big Eight victory over Colorado.

Colorado had jumped to a 10-3 lead midway through the last period when John Farler plunged over from the one-yard line for a 72-yard drive, and Dave Bartlett, who kicked a field goal to tie it 3-3 in the first half, added the extra point.

The Cowboys, notching their first victory of the year, hit only 5 of 14 passes, but four came on the winning drive. All four were sideline aeriels that netted 8 to 17 yards.

Johnson, on a fourth-and-seven play at the Colorado 18, hit end Tony Sellari with an 7-yard toss at the 11, with less than two minutes to go, keeping Oklahoma State alive.

Four plays later, Jack Reynolds carried the ball in from the one-foot line with 1:11 remaining, and Johnson then flipped to Sellari in the end zone for the winning two-point.

Colorado tied the score early in the second quarter on Bartlett's 36-yard boot, climaxing a 16-play drive by its own one.

Oklahoma State intercepted one Colorado pass and recovered two Buffalo fumbles in the second quarter to hold Colorado at bay.

Oklahoma State drove to the Colorado 3 before the Buffs stiffened.

Colorado picked up 19 first downs to 14 for Oklahoma State and outrushed the Cowboys 241 to 142 yards.

Colorado hit six of nine passes for 71 yards, and Oklahoma State had 57 yards through the air, with 47 coming in the final four minutes.

Tailback Bill Harris was the workhorse for the Buffaloes, gaining 109 yards in 21 carries, while Reynolds carried 14 times for 41 yards and Larry Gosney, rushed 13 times for 51 yards for Oklahoma State.

Minnesota, Indy Battle To 7-7 Tie

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI) — Indiana and Minnesota battled to a 7-7 standoff in a Big 10 football game Saturday, only the third tie in their series dating back to 1906.

It was mostly a battle of two fine passers, Indiana's Frank Stavroff against southpaw Larry Carlson, and both teams missed field goal attempts in the final three minutes that would have meant victory for either.

Redskins Extend Winning Streak

OXFORD, Ohio (UPI) — Miami University's Redskins extended their winning streak to 10 games Saturday by edging Kent State 7-0, in a grind-it-out ball game in which none of 22 passes were completed.

Redskins' quarterback Bruce Matte, younger brother of the Baltimore Colts' Tom Matte, plunged over left tackle in the final period for the only score in the Mid-American conference battle.

Iowa State Cyclones Bump Kansas U. Jayhawks 24-7

AMES, Iowa (UPI) — Iowa State, aided by a field goal and extra point by a diminutive soccer player competing in his first football game, bumped Kansas Saturday, 24-7.

Halfback Larry Carwell set a Big Eight Conference record when he returned two pass interceptions 123 yards. One of them set up the first Cyclone touchdown.

The biggest excitement in the game came when Dave Spealler—little as football players go at 3-feet-5 inches and 130 pounds—booted a 36 yard field goal to give Iowa State a 10-0 lead in the second quarter.

Spealler, a sophomore who was an All-State soccer player in high school in Philadelphia, Pa., was playing in his first football game. He joined the Cyclone squad only Wednesday after two fraternity brothers encouraged him to contact Iowa State coaches to see if they could use his kicking ability.

Spealler—who wore a football helmet, shoulder pads and jersey but only gym shorts—approaches place kicks from an angle. He later booted an extra point in the third quarter and handled most of the Cyclones' kickoff duties.

Alabama Scuttles Clemson Attack

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (UPI) — South paw quarterback Ken Stabler engineered three long scoring drives Saturday to pace fourth-ranked Alabama to a 26-0 win over Clemson in an inter-sectional game before 48,000.

Stabler, who played only two minutes in the second-half, threw two eight-yard touch down passes to Dennis Homan and Ken Martin—and ran one yard for another. Steve Davis added two field goals, from 32 and 36 yards.

Alabama's scoring drives covered 80, 70, and 62 yards.

It was the third win in a row for Alabama and moved the Crimson Tide into contention for a third straight Southeastern Conference championship.

Clemson's heralded junior quarterback Jimmy Addison was bottled up most of the afternoon by Alabama's ball-hawking secondary which picked off two of his passes.

Addison, the Atlantic Coast Conference total offense leader, completed 10 of 18 passes for 109 yards. Stabler hit on 7 of 8 passes for 93 yards.

It was the second shutout in three games for Alabama which has allowed only seven points and is the defensive scoring leader in the conference.

Nebraska Is Four Straight With Wisconsin Slaughter

MADISON, Wis. (UPI) — Nebraska's eighth-ranked Cornhuskers tore Wisconsin apart with a bruising ground game and flashy aerial attack Saturday, but still needed mistakes fashioned by the young Badgers, for a 31-3 victory.

It was the fifth successive victory for a Bob Devaney-Big Ten opponent, and he coached Nebraska team over Cornhuskers' fourth win without a loss this year.

Nebraska scored a field goal and a touchdown after a pair of Wisconsin fumbles to take a 10-3 halftime lead, and used a blocked punt and an interception to score two of three second-half touchdowns.

Ben Gregory, who piled up 64 yards in 11 carries, scored the first Nebraska touchdown. Harry Wilson, who accounted for 86 of the Cornhusker yards, scored the third on an 11-yard run and reserve halfback Paul Critchlow capped the scoring with a one-yard run after an interception by Len Janik had put the ball deep in Wisconsin territory.

Nebraska's initial points came on Larry Wachholtz' 27-yard field goal in the first quarter, and Wisconsin got its three points moments later when Tom Schinke booted a 33-yarder.

The Wachholtz field goal was the seventh of his career, tying a Nebraska school record, and the two kicks accounted for all the first period scoring.

The Gray Ladies will have a coffee October 14th in the home of Mrs. Lee Harrah, 2101 Duncan at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. V. J. Drew, gray lady chairman urges all of the ladies to be present. The new uniform for Red Cross volunteers has arrived and will be modelled at the meeting.

Have you made your contribution to the Pampa United Fund? Do you know what your money will be used for in Red Cross? One of the main responsibilities of the American Red Cross is to be the connecting link between the military and the home. Your money will go to send messages overseas and to the bases in the states. Your money pays for loans made to the serviceman when he has a need. Last week we had a home town boy in our office from Viet Nam and his pay records had not caught up with him and he needed money to return to his base in California. We made the loan and he will repay our chapter with no interest or carrying charges. Your money will train Nursing Services instructors, Water Safety Instructors and First Aid Instructors. In case of a disaster your money will help with rehabilitation of victims after the emergency period has passed. Your money is used for salary for one paid worker and our books are audited by an accredited auditor and a public statement is made at our annual meeting. You are always welcome in the Red Cross office and we urge you to come and visit with us. The work of the Red Cross is carried on by volunteers, 00 volunteers for each paid worker in our community. Won't you please make your contribution as liberal as possible so that our goal may be reached and monthly contributions be done away with. One gift for many!

Art Musicale Tea

PAMPA FINE ARTS ASSOCIATION will entertain with its first cultural function, an Art Musicale Tea this afternoon in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn. Association members are invited between the hours of two and five o'clock. No formal invitations are being extended, but all Fine Arts patrons are invited. Charter memberships have been extended to Dec. 31 and may be obtained at the tea.

THE ASSOCIATION was organized in May of this year to promote painting, musical, theatrical, dancing, and hobby arts and to provide a showcase for talented Top o' Texans.

THIS AFTERNOON'S tea will feature a One Man Showing of the art works of Maurice H. Bernson of Canadian. Bernson is currently theater technician for The Players theatrical group in Sarasota, Fla. Included in the showing are traditional, contemporary and avant garde works in oil and sculpture, according to Mrs. Fred Sloan, chairman of the Design Arts Committee and of the Art Musicale Tea. Background music will be presented by soloists, a violinist, a pianist and organist under direction of Tracy D. Cary, chairman of the musical committee.

THE ONE MAN Exhibit will hang throughout the week in Coronado Inn and may be viewed by the public at their convenience.

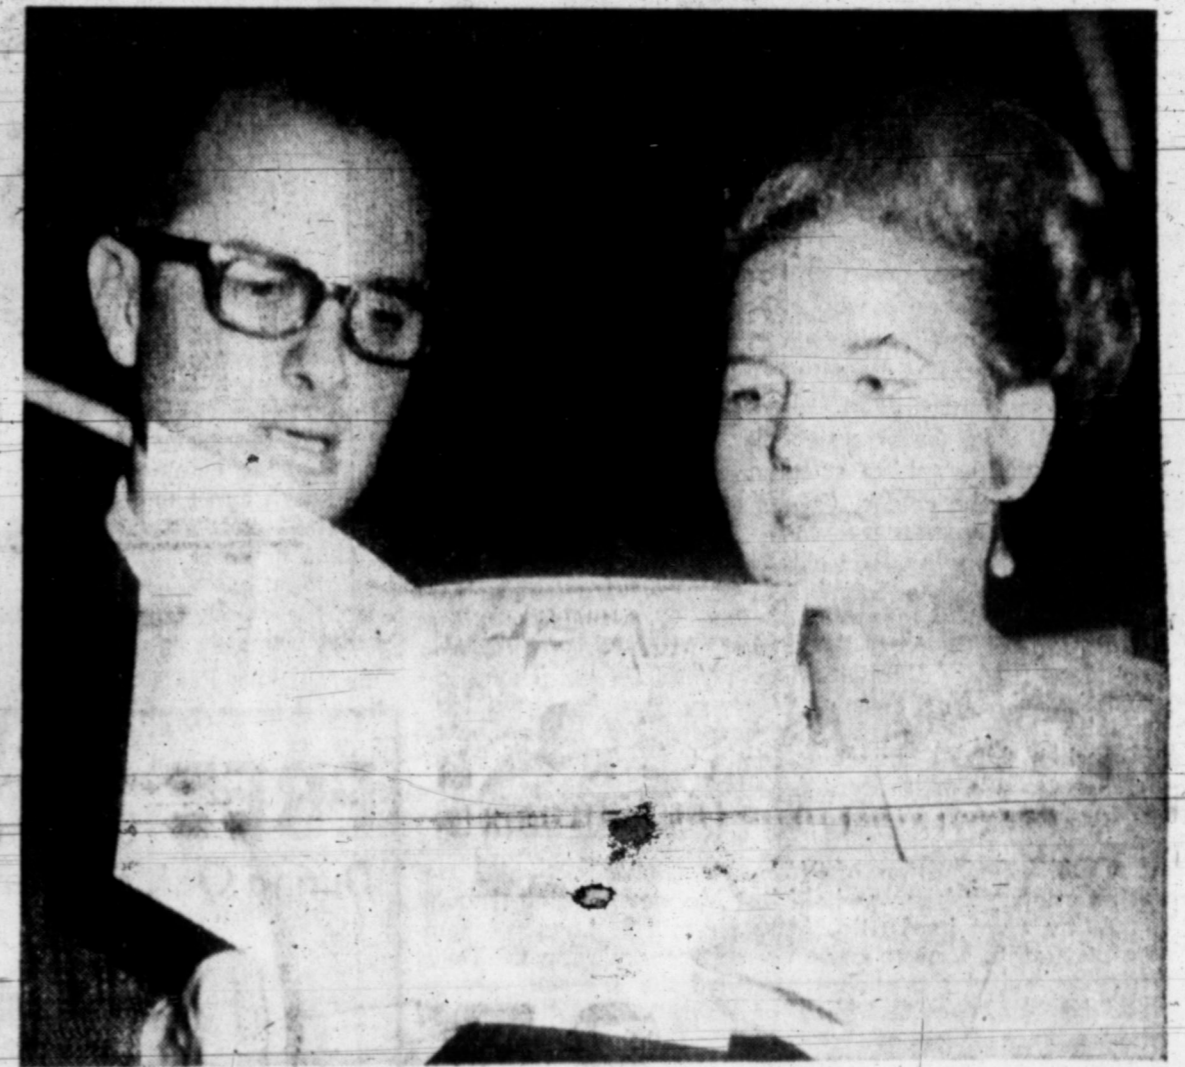

Text, Doris E. Wilson, Staff Writer
Photos, Ken Leach, Photographer

SYMBOLISM will be focal points in the centerpiece created by Mrs. Melvin Stephens, right, in soft greens and golds illustrating the arts to be sponsored by the association. A note of humor will be injected with a rooster "crowing about the first cultural event." Mrs. Homer Johnson, left, is in charge of tea table arrangements.

PAMPA FINE ARTS members who have been in charge of selection and hanging paintings for the exhibition this week are from left, Mrs. A. D. Hills, Mrs. Fred Sloan, Mrs. Dewey Palmitier and Mrs. Joe Gordon. The knife-oil Bernson, which the members are holding, is titled "Boat Yard," a marine outdoor still life in muted blues, greens and greys. It is one of 36 paintings on exhibition.

DESIGNING and planning the program cataloging the artist's paintings has been under the direction of Mrs. R. A. Johnson, association secretary and Donald Hauck, corresponding secretary.

PAMPA MUSICIANS will provide 30-minute intervals of violin, vocal, piano and organ solos throughout the afternoon in a program that has been planned to enhance rather than intrude while patrons browse the paintings. Appearing during the afternoon will be: UPPER PHOTO—Tracy D. Cary, accompanist; Betty Garcia, coloratura soprano; Ted James, baritone; and seated, Susan Patrick, pianist. UPPER RIGHT PHOTO—Mrs. H. V. Wilks, seated at organ and from the left, Jerry Stephens, organ and piano selections; Mrs. John Bird, violinist and Wayne Pitner, accompanist.

...nee Miss Sherri Lyn Lahti

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white shagbark designed with empire lines and featuring three-quarter length sleeves, standup collar and detachable cathedral train. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion fell from a beehive crown of satin, pearls and lace. She carried a cascading arrangement of pink and white variegated glamelias and carried a blue linen handkerchief which has been in the bridegroom's mother's family for several generations.

Mrs. Diane Lustig of Mattoon, Ill., attended the bride as matron of honor while Mrs. Bobbie Toole of Indianapolis, Ind., attended as bridesmatron. Attired in gowns fashioned with rose pink crepe bodices and full-length, light pink skirts, accented at the empire waist by a band of satin and back bow, each carried a cascade bouquet of pink glamelias and white feathered carnations. Rose satin bow coils with tulle veils completed their costumes.

A reception was given in Elks City Club immediately following the wedding rites: Misses Judy and Barbara Lahti of Waukegan, Ill., presided at the punch bowl while Miss Pattie Booker of Princeton, Ind., and Miss Debbie Sanders of Waukegan, Ill., served the cake.

Mrs. Luther Kirk Discusses Trip To Holy Land for Varietas Study Club

Mrs. Luther Kirk gave highlights of her trip to the Holy Land at a recent meeting of Varietas Study Club. The club met in the home of Mrs. Sherman White, 610 N. Frost, with Mrs. S. C. Evans, president, presiding.

During the business session, Mrs. Luther Pierson was elected vice president and Mrs. W. L. Campbell, chairman of project committee reported $35 had been collected to be used for the Pampa display in Texas Federation Magazine. Mrs. Evans also announced Mrs. Campbell had been chosen on the district board.

In telling of her impressions of the Holy Land, Mrs. Kirk mentioned the difference in eating customs, stating how meals were served in six courses, saying they use hard bread and no pie or cake — except fruit cake and Cokes, which are 25 and 50 cents.

"In Jerusalem on the Jordan side, it is very much the same as it was in Bible times. The population there is 35,000 with 83 percent Moslem. Mrs. Kirk compared Jerusalem with our Old Mexico and said the donkey is still the beast of burden and people make their living by making things." She displayed beautiful jewelry and other items they had made.

The trip included visits to Bethlehem, Nazareth, Church of Nativity; also to Damascus which is a city of one-half million with narrow streets. Other highlights of the trip were getting to see the Dead Sea Scrolls and a trip out on the Sea of Galilee where they stopped and Dr. Kirk gave a devotional.

Mrs. Kirk showed several slides and played tape recordings of "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked", sung by her daughters.

Members present were Meses. W. E. Abernathy, H. H. Butler, F. A. Cary, W. L. Campbell, Cecil Dalton, S. C. Evans, Lee Harrah, John Kelly, J. E. Kirchner, Luther Pierson, Luther Kirk, R. W. Lane, C. L. McKinney, Otis Nace, J. R. Spearman, W. A. Wagner and Sherman White.

WHAT IS GLOMERULONEPHRITIS?

This type of kidney disease is usually caused by infection germs. Often, the patient has had acute sore throat or an upper respiratory infection. The germs apparently get into the kidneys by way of the blood stream. The glomeruli, which are the filtering portion of the kidneys, strain out the germs which can multiply quickly.

This formerly hard-to-cure disease can now be successfully treated by the new anti-infective drugs we stock. But, diagnosis and treatment must not be delayed or these germs can cause permanent harm. It is wise to consult a physician at the beginning of any urinary discomfort symptoms.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

The Mature Parent

Respect Property Rights of Older Child

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

I had a Chinese friend who taught at a university in pre-Communist China.

Usually, he talked about Chinese poetry to me. But one evening he talked to me about his family. When he was 19, he said, his father took a concubine. This action infuriated his mother. Wildly resentful at the obligation to share his father with another woman, she nevertheless had to bow to tradition. So, instead of striking her rage at the concubine's appropriation of her man, she expressed it by a new, intense and jealous possessiveness toward her servants, their rice allowances, her silks and her jewelry. "There was a constant row," he told me, "over belongings my mother considered hers and those the concubine wanted. I was always having to take walks to get away from the fighting."

A point I make for the mother who writes, "yesterday my 2-year-old boy sat guard over all his toys in the living room to prevent his toddler brother from getting at them. Today he did the same thing. I am tempted to ask him how he can be so selfish with his toys when we were unselfish enough to give them to him. Would it be wrong to say this? Do we have to buy all new toys for the baby?"

I'm afraid you do. That's because a new brother like the displaced Chinese wife of my friend's father, can take just so much sharing.

Because he is required to share you, his mother, with his younger brother, it's a little too much to expect him to share his less precious possessions also. He's finding it most difficult to share you with the intruder who is claiming what he had hoped belonged to him alone. So he is resolved — and not unreasonably in my opinion — to draw the line against any more marauding by his little brother. He sits guard over his toys because he has delivered enough "unselfishness" for the time being and wants no more invasion of his right to possess what he has been told belongs to him.

And you have told him that his toys belong to him, haven't you?

Boy, do I wish that parents could get this straight in their self-disparaging heads! It is cruel and not moral at all to demand that an older child share his things with a younger one in addition to sharing the most precious of all his things — us.

If we will not respect the lesser property rights of the older child, we are in for the same kind of endlessly jealous complaining that the Chinese wife used to attack her husband's concubine and the intruder's appropriation of her servants' rice allowances, her silks and jewelry. Only, unlike her son, my friend, we can't take walks to get away from the fighting.

DEAR ABBY: A pair of sisters-in-law in our circle do not get along and everybody who knows them is aware of it. My husband is friendly with their husbands (they are brothers) and I like both women, so we invited both couples to our daughter's wedding and reception. There were nearly 300 other guests.

Well, I have come in for a lot of criticism since then. People say I should make up my mind which woman I want for my friend and forget that the other one exists. I don't see why I have to make a choice, do you? I would appreciate your opinion.

FAUX PAS
DEAR FAUX: To knowingly invite people who do not get along to an intimate gathering is poor taste. But if two people can't bury their hostilities in a group of 300, that's their problem, not yours. Forget it.

DEAR ABBY: I have just returned from church and what I saw made me sick. Please say something to mothers who dress their 11- and 12-year-old daughters in nylons, heels, and let them use a lot of make-up and rat their hair.

Everywhere I looked I saw these children dressed and made-up to look like midgets. Don't mothers realize they do their daughters more harm than good when they let them grow up too fast?

DEAR SAW: Well-meaning mothers in their misguided efforts to make their daughters pretty and popular are not aware of the dangers awaiting a 12-year-old who appears to be much older. Children lack the maturity and experience to handle situations they are sure to encounter when they look older. Some girls mature faster than others, but it is up to the mother to know how emotionally mature her daughter is, and to dress her accordingly.

Former Pampans' Daughter Is Married

In a double-ring ceremony at 2 p.m. Sept. 10 in the First Baptist Church of Phillips, Miss Rebecca Spradlin became the bride of David Cochran.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Spradlin, Tripoli, Libya, North Africa, former Pampans. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cochran, of Phillips.

Rev. Amos R. Meador, pastor of First Church of Nazarene, read the vows before an archway of greenery decorated with two white wedding bells and flanked by baskets of white mums, chrysanthemum and tropical greenery.

Mrs. Bobbie Gilbert of Bethany, Okla., sister of the bridegroom, played traditional wedding selections and accompanied Paul Biggs as he sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, escorted to the altar by her uncle, W. D. Spradlin of Gruver, wore a formal gown of silk organza over tulle and rose-point lace, fashioned on empire lines. The bodice had a scalloped neckline, and long sleeves which extended into points over her hands. The floor-length skirt was enhanced by two lace panel inserts which extended to the hemline. The flowing detachable train of silk organza had inserts of rose-point lace.

Her veil of imported white silk illusion fell in two tiers to elbow length from the headpiece of French lace and tiny seed pearls. She carried a white Bible arranged with white roses surrounded by stephanotis. She followed bridal traditions.

Mrs. Shannon Roberson of Duke, Okla., was matron of honor. She wore an emerald green beaded dress, with a matching hat. She carried a nosegay of gardenias.

Wilber Smith was best man for his brother. Ushers were Tommy Ferguson and Lloyd Saxton of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Miss Gracie Sexton of Pampa registered guests.

For her wedding trip to Oklahoma City, the bride chose a three-piece suit of olive green and blue with olive accessories. Her corsage was taken from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Pampa High School and is a graduate of Wheelus High School, Tripoli, Libya, North Africa. The bridegroom, a graduate of Phillips High School, attended Bethany Nazarene College, Bethany, Okla., and Frank Phillips College. He is presently a junior at Central State College, Edmond, Okla.

The couple is at home at Apt. 13, 1105 S. Broadway, Edmond, Okla.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. B. J. Spradlin Sr., Duke, Okla.; Dick Spradlin, Gruver; Mrs. Carl Sexton, Pampa; Messrs. and Mrs. David Slaughter, Y. F. Claiborne, all of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Campbell and daughters, Skellytown; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Loy, Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spivey, LeFors; Mrs. Connie Spradlin and children, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Simmons, Kress, Mr. S. Ronald Ward and son, all of Fritch.

Maxis Conceal What Minis Revealed

By HELEN HENNESSY
Women's Editor

Newspaper-Enterprise Assn.—NEW YORK (NEA)—Isaac Newton proved with his little apple that everything that goes up must come down—even in London. And so in Chelsea, the home of the mod and the birthplace of that little cloth necklace known as the mini skirt, the law of gravity once more asserts itself.

Like London bridge, the mini skirt is falling down. And even the trimmest calf will now hide under the "inest" London look—the mai skirt.

This latest rebel fashion is a lot more modest than its predecessor but not a whit more chic. Topped with a cloche getup that could buy you a role straight out of the '20s, it's in the silent flicks. And it will no doubt crop up here in the States as soon as it has run the gamut in London and the designers who launched it need a new source of pounds, shillings and pence.

Isn't that what happened with the mod dress and the mini skirt? When their popularity began to wane in Piccadilly, they dotted the scene in Times Square and now Carnaby is the most-touted look in New York. Skirts so short they might have been fashioned from a couple of men's handkerchiefs usually expose a pair of heavy legs. Unfortunately, the wrong shapes have a way of falling for the latest fads. And now we are taking the ridiculous look a step further here.

Should you think no one will notice that your skirt barely covers your navel, you can catch the eye with leg jewelry like snake bracelets and such that snap above the knee or anywhere below it.

The mini skirt is sure having its heyday in America. It is no surprise that an unattractive fashion (?) can take over. The gals are legion who will wear anything as long as it's new. What does puzzle me is why we joyfully embrace last year's LONDON look. For, despite the beauty of the crown jewels, London has always been the backward child of fashion. Seems silly for New York to deck itself out in Britain's old clothes.

Ruth Millett Husbands' Primer On Gifts for Wives

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper-Enterprise Assn.—Does the thought of having to choose a gift for your wife depress you because you never know what in the world to give her?

If so, you've probably been making the same mistakes for years.

—You've probably never given the matter any real thought until the day arrives when you can't put off buying the gift. Right or wrong—you've got to show up with something gift-wrapped. Last-minute shopping can result in the perfect gift, but it rarely does. Next time start weeks ahead, paying some attention to the things your wife admires or wishes out loud she had. Then make a mental note of what you can give her on the next occasion when a gift will be expected.

—You probably never go shopping with your wife. Any man who occasionally accompanies his wife on a shopping expedition picks up plenty of gift ideas by noticing the things she stops to admire.

—You must never have realized that your wife's friends could help you out when you are stuck for a gift idea. Even if you don't know that your wife is yearning for a certain pair of earrings or whatever, her best friend will know it. Call her up and ask her for suggestions.

—You have probably been pretty unobservant in the past. Otherwise you would have noticed a number of things your wife could use. So start paying more attention to your wife and her interests and you'll soon have some ideas for the perfect gift.

—Maybe you've been kidding yourself that you can't go wrong giving your wife a check instead of something you chose for her yourself. That's the easy way—but remember few women prefer cold, hard cash to a gift chosen with care.

Q. Studying seems to take me forever. I read things over and over and I lose interest before I'm finished. What can I do to concentrate better?

A. It's probably your study habits—not you! What about those distractions that keep you from concentration while you study? Television? The radio, the phonograph? Phone calls? If they aren't the culprits, try studying in shorter periods, taking breaks in between. Set a specific time for studying every day. Study as long as you can—at least half an hour. Do whatever you like for ten minutes, then get back to another study session. You'll be pleasantly amazed at how well planned study sessions work!

Q. I hate setting my hair! But if I don't, it gets all matted up when I sleep. I'd like to avoid rollers and still keep my hair looking good every day. Any ideas?

A. Here's a hairdo-saving trick! It's easy and inexpensive to keep your locks in place by using bathroom tissue. Just before bedtime, brush your hair into your favorite style. Then, starting over one ear, wind tissue all around your head. Clip in place. You'll save time and the inconvenience of sleeping on rollers. Next morning, you'll find your hairdo intact!

Q. Some of my friends must have extra-large appetites. Whenever I have a party for more than a few people, the food always disappears before everybody has eaten. I don't know what I'm doing wrong! Do you have any suggestions for serving about 20 people?

A. Could be that your guests are extra hungry because they are having such a good time! One way to be sure all your friends eat some of the special refreshments you've planned is to stop the dancing or conversation and serve everyone at the same time.

'Visiting' Box of Toys Keeps Youngsters Busy

DEAR POLLY — When I visit a friend who has no children and no toys for a 3-year-old to play with, we take along our "visiting" box. In it we keep colored paper, blue scissors, gummed tape and an inexpensive stapler. Most girls and boys love to paste stars and so on. As my little boys plays with these things, who are guaranteed to fascinate him, when we visit, I chat undisturbed with my friend.

DEAR POLLY — To hang pants so they do not slide off the rod of a regular coat hanger because of the extra weight of things in the pockets, try this: Throw only one leg over the rod (with creases straight), then bring the other leg up over the rod from the opposite side. Income Tax Questions, Answers

EDITOR'S NOTE: This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the Pampa office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published by The News as a public service to taxpayers.

Q—I just received a letter from the Internal Revenue Service saying that I owe additional tax on my 1965 income. Can I pay this off in installments?
A—No, it is due and payable in full. You are also liable for interest at the rate of six percent a year on what you owe.

Q—What records do you need to substantiate educational expenses?
A—Initially, you will have to show that you are entitled to an educational expense deduction. Once this is established, presentation of tuition receipts and other paid bills or cancelled checks showing the nature of the item and the fact that it was paid will generally be sufficient.

Q—My boss says that since I didn't file a new withholding statement by May 1, I have to wait until Jan. 1 to do it. Is that right?
A—Many employers will let an employee change his withholding statement at any time. Under the law, however, the employer is only required to make changes four times a year: on Jan. 1, May 1, July 1 or Oct. 1 for changes filed at least 30 days previously.

Q—I realized a gain when I recently sold some rental property I had. Do I have to pay tax on the gain this year even though the buyer is paying me over a ten-year period?
A—If certain conditions are met, you may report the gain using the installment method. Under this method, the gross profit on a sale is prorated over the period in which payments are received. This method can be used only if the seller received no payments, or payment of 30 percent or less of the selling price, during the year of the sale.

Q—I have some part-time employees who are paid on salary and commission. Do I have to withhold taxes from the commissions as well as wages?
A—Yes. The withholding requirement applies to payments of commissions, bonuses and other compensation as well as to wages.

Q—I just started work. What will I need for tax records?
A—Your tax records should show your income for the year and your deductible expenses. You employer will provide you with a statement showing your wages for the year and the amount withheld for Federal income tax. If you have income from other sources such as dividends and interest, be sure to keep a record of the amount you receive.

Q—Do you have any guide for the taxes a small businessman is liable for?
A—Yes. A free copy of the "Tax, Calendar and Check List," Document No. 5046, can be obtained by writing to your IRS District Office.

Lutheran Aid to Asia — NEW YORK (UPI) — Overseas shipments dispatched by Lutheran World Relief during July, 1966, included eight tons of soap and eight tons of medical supplies sent to Southeast Asia; the National Lutheran Council reports.
 The soap, consisting of 400 cartons valued at $13,440, was consigned to Viet Nam. The medical supplies — medicines and some bandages — went to hospitals in Hong Kong, Indonesia and New Guinea. More than 160 cases, valued at nearly $80,000 were shipped.

Back Stairs At The Whitehouse

By MERRIMAN SMITH UPI White House Reporter WASHINGTON (UPI)

Backstairs at the White House: President Johnson's forthcoming Asian trip recalls many memories of similar presidential travel and some of the experts who made it possible. In fact, some of the experts have been around town recently advising the Johnson staff on how to get to the Far East and back.

For example, the White House in recent days called for consultation two former presidential press secretaries—Pierre Salinger and James C. Hagerty.

Hagerty ran some monumental tours for former President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Salinger set up trips for the late President John F. Kennedy in Europe on two notable occasions. Salinger, however, never went through the experience of moving what amounts to a White House press circus to the Far East as did Hagerty on two occasions.

The current White House press secretary, Bill D. Moyers, is now on the road surveying the territory from Manila to Seoul. Moyers is up against obstacles and problems which did not confront Hagerty and Salinger.

Eisenhower and Kennedy were better able to delegate authority on press relations and travel plans than Johnson, Hagerty, for example, was able to set a pinpoint schedule several weeks in advance and know that Eisenhower, with his military mind for precision planning, would follow the timetable to the minute.

On the fabulous night when Eisenhower grove through millions of screaming, acclaiming Indians in New Delhi and his motorcade reached his residence in shambles, one of his assistants said in deep fatigue, "I don't know how many people we killed, but by God, we kept the schedule."

Kennedy had a flair for persona; drama which could fit a foreign situation snugly. Thus helped Salinger tremendously in pulling-off overseas trips of his boss as howling successes.

Trusted Staff — Kennedy, for example, trusted his staff implicitly to set up his famous appearance in the center of West Berlin. The staff saw to it that Kennedy was armed with sufficient German phrases which have now become part of history—the phrases with which Kennedy declared his affection for and identification with the people of Berlin.

This is not to suggest that the Johnson staff is without acumen in mounting bit trips, but it is to suggest that their problem is tremendously greater than that which faced Hagerty or Salinger.

Johnson, for example, will not clear advance texts of his remarks until he has had a chance to study them at length, whereas the two predecessors were willing to leave this sort of detail to staff writers.

Baggage Thief Says He's Been Doing It for 4 Months

DALLAS (UPI) — A man caught stealing baggage early Thursday at Dallas Love Field told police he had been doing it for four months and selling the loot in Fort Worth at a community garage sale, to pawnshops and to people he met on the streets.

The 33-year-old man said that while driving a taxi between Love Field and Greater Southwest International Airport two years ago he realized how simple it would be to steal luggage. Detectives Tommy Taylor and J. W. Dyson said the man worked as a $3.25-an-hour packing house butcher in Fort Worth.

"He kind of blames the stealing on the child support payments he's been making to his first wife," Taylor said. "He says he has been going to church since he was 12 and says he hoped he'd be caught." The man said he rented a stall for $2 nearly every Sunday at a community garage sale and sometimes made $30 or $40 a day selling the contents of the luggage.

In his Fort Worth home, a couch had been moved out of the living room to get in a large rack on which hung dozens of pieces of women's apparel. Fourteen pieces of luggage were under the rack.

The man had 12 pieces of luggage in a pickup truck when police caught him at Love Field. From one suitcase he had taken $100,000 in negotiable

Churchmen's Week

NEW YORK (UPI) — The theme for the 1966 observance of Churchmen's Week, Oct. 9-15, is "Every Man's Servant," says the National Council of Churches.

"This observance is symbolic of the present-day partnership between the clergy and laymen who realize that they, too, are the church and are equally responsible for its ministry," says the Council. "The part played by men in the life of the church receives special emphasis when laymen lead the Sunday worship on Laymen's Sunday, Oct. 9."
