RECORD-BREAKING PRICE

Young Pampan Wins $10,000 With Swine

Fred Vanderburg Jr. of Pampan, a college sophomore, received $10,000, "a record breaking price" when his Duroc boar won the grand championship in the national Southwestern Winner Type Conference and Sale Saturday.

With 186 breeders from 18 states represented in the competition at Arkansas City, Kan., Vanderburg's entry broke "all price records for hogs of any breed in modern times," Bruce Henderson, executive secretary of the National Duroc Swine Registry said.

Total sales for the 219 head of swine entered was $76,530, with an average price of $349 per head, Fred Vanderburg Sr. said.

Bob Skaggs, Future Farmers of America advisor and the Pampan High School Vocational Agriculture teacher, accompanied Vanderburg and his parents to the national contest.

The national Duroc competition started five years ago.

Speck Trial Judge Must Make Reply

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI) — The murder trial of Richard Speck, accused of slaying eight nurses, entered its second week today with the simmering conflict between news media and the judge still unresolved.

Judge Herbert C. Paschen, both damned and praised for the restrictions he had placed on press coverage of the trial, must reply Tuesday before the Illinois Supreme Court to a suit challenging the press restraints.

Paschen has been accused by several news media of violating constitutional guarantees of freedom of the press. He spent most of the weekend recess preparing his answer to charges that he is being unduly restrictive of news coverage of the sensational Speck case.

"What started all this was the irresponsibility of the press," Cook County State's Atty. John Stamos said Saturday. "They've got all these spies around the country trying to tell the judge (Paschen) how to run his court and I think he's to be looked up to for standing up to them."

Paschen is determined the Supreme Court action will not interfere with the trial, which after the first full week resulted in only three jurors being tentatively seated.

Paschen had threatened newsmen with contempt citations or revocation of press credentials if they violated his 16-point "guidelines" which included bans on publishing the names of prospective jurors, seated jurors and rejected jurors; drawing or sketching in the courtroom; discussing the trial outside the courtroom with any officers or employees of the court; obtaining daily transcripts of testimony from court reporters; publishing questions asked of prospective jurors.

U.S. Air Base Hit By Cong Mortar Shells; 47 Killed

Jets, 150 Village Homes Destroyed

SAIGON (UPI) — Viet Cong shells slammed into the big U.S. air base at Da Nang and a sleeping neighboring village before dawn today, killing 47 persons, including 12 Americans, and wounding 45 other soldiers and civilians.

Jet planes, several base buildings and about 150 homes in the village were destroyed or damaged in the attack which marked the first time in the war the Communists have used long range eight-inch rockets.

Official reports on the type of shells fired by the Communists varied. One report said the fire came from 82mm and 120mm mortars, the heaviest in the Communist arsenal.

Another said fragments of eight-inch rockets also were found by crews assessing damage at the base.

Seven Mile Distance This report said there were indications the rocket fire had come from as far away as 12,000 meters, or about seven miles. A military spokesman said later he knew of only one type of weapon that could deliver such fire—a Russian-built vehicle-mounted BMB20 rocket launcher that fires a projectile weighing several hundred pounds.

The spokesman added he had no information whether such weapons were in South Vietnam.

Spokesmen said those wounded in the attack included 30 U.S. servicemen and 15 natives in the village of Ap Do which adjoins the sprawling Da Nang base. Between 12 and 21 rounds were fired in the 3 a.m. attack.

Vietnamese troops sweeping the area after the shelling reported finding two locations where 82mm mortars had been set up 2,000 and 5,000 meters or about one and two-and-one-half miles from the base.

Col. James B. Randels, deputy commander of the 368th Tactical Fighter Wing at Da Nang, said 15 mortar rounds (See BASE, Page 3)

Senator Charges U.S. Contracted With Red Firms

By ROBERT S. ALLEN WASHINGTON — The Defense Department financed the construction in Hong Kong of a number of steel barges for the Vietnam war, although they could have been built at approximately the same cost in U.S. shipyards solely in need of work.

These Hong Kong contracts were made by U.S. companies with "Communist affiliated Chinese firms."

Senator Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, charged this in an indignant letter to Defense Secretary McNamara. Gruening, chairman of the Subcommittee on Foreign Aid Expenditures, has been investigating U.S. procurement and surplus property policies in the Far East.

He backed up his charges with detailed facts and cost figures, as follows:

"Representatives of the Shipbuilders Council of America requested the opportunity to examine the specifications for the steel barges to ascertain whether U.S. shipbuilders could have bid on the procurement in a range which would have been competitive with the Hong Kong firms. My staff was able to obtain the specifications, which were made available to the council."

"The council then contacted a number of shipbuilding firms on the West Coast and on the Gulf and, on the basis of the drawings and specifications obtained bids. The price quotations ranged from $60,000 to $65,000 each, or very close to the price paid for the barges in Hong Kong."

Anti-Mao Army Units Capture Key China City

HONG KONG (UPI) — Moscow Radio said today Chinese army units opposed to Mao Tse-tung have captured the important industrial city of Loyang. Other Peking reports told of fresh fighting between pro-anti-Mao forces in other areas of China.

In a Japanese language broadcast heard here, Moscow Radio said Loyang, located about 500 miles south of Peking, had been taken and pro-Mao elements arrested.

The same broadcast said fighting between supporters and opponents of the 73-year-old party chairman also was going on in other provinces.

Although the Soviet broadcast did not identify the provinces, the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug said Chinese army troops were sent to the north-central province of Honan to quell a battle between opposing factions.

The Yugoslav dispatch, quoting wall posters seen by its Peking correspondent, said the order was issued by the military commission of the Chinese Communist party's powerful central committee and proclaimed by Premier Chou En-lai.

The Soviet news agency Tass said Maoist forces were battling for control of Anhwei Province and were unsuccessful in a struggle for control of Chungking, the largest city in southwest China.

Tass quoted a radio broadcast from Anhwei Province as saying that anti-Mao forces there had called for "a new struggle to bring down new authorities."

There were these other developments: —The rightwing Tin Tin daily of Hong Kong today said several new anti-Mao political parties had sprung up on the Communist mainland.

—The Burmese government reported during the weekend that over 300 refugees from Communist China crossed the border into Burma earlier this month. The report said the refugees fled their homes to avoid Red Guard rampages.

—Japanese correspondents in Peking quoted a wall poster as telling militant Red Guard youths to turn in their identifying red arm bands apparently because the government was faced with a textile shortage and needed cloth.

Academy 'Cheat' Scandal Could Take 60 Cadets

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (UPI) — Three more cadets admitted cheating Sunday and resigned from the Air Force Academy.

Thirty-six students have ended their military careers at the academy in the latest cheating scandal, the second in two years. Officials estimated at least 60 would resign before an investigation of honor code violations was complete.

All 36 involved admitted breaking the code of honor by which students swear not to "lie, steal or cheat" nor to tolerate any other student who does. The latter provision means failure to report a fellow cadet for breaking the code is a violation in itself.

Each of the school's 2,900 officer candidates agreed to live by the oath when he entered the nation's youngest military school.

The number of forced resignations is not expected to go as high as it did two years ago when 109 cadets were dismissed by a blue-ribbon Air Force investigative panel.

The panel was called to the Air Force Academy by its office of special investigations to weed out cadets involved in a system which consisted of breaking and entering, stealing and then selling tests.

The current investigation, hearings and judgments have been left solely to the cadets, who normally administer the code.

Except for extreme conditions like 1965, when a criminal act was involved, the cadets themselves, through an honor code committee, have dealt with all violations of the code. Last school year, cadet committee hearings led to 37 resignations. This year — before Friday — 13 cadets, seven of them first year "doxies," had broken the code and left. The most recent 38 resignations came since Friday.

The latest cheating incident involved cadets who took exams and then described the tests to classmates who were to take them at later periods in the day.

None of the cadets involved in the present cheating incident has been or will be identified.

Government to Release 'Frozen' Road Construction Funds to States

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government announced today it was releasing $175-million of the frozen $1.1 billion in federal highway construction funds.

Additional money will be released as "soon as economic circumstances permit."

Transportation Secretary Alan S. Boyd announced the decision in testimony before a joint meeting of the House and Senate Public Works Committees.

President Johnson's freeze on the money has caused nationwide complaints in state capitals.

Even if the economy does not improve, Boyd said, the highway construction program will return to a $4.4 billion annual level at the beginning of fiscal 1968, July 1.

"A total of $175 million of deferred funds will be released for preliminary engineering and right-of-way acquisition to take care of safety and other pressing problems and to enable the states to move ahead rapidly with construction once the deferred funds are released," Boyd said.

"Funds which have accumulated during the deferral period may be used to increase the program above the $4.4 billion for fiscal year 1968, proved economic circumstances permit, and depending upon decisions yet to be made in this fiscal year."

Boyd explained that the $1 billion in frozen funds could not be used if economic conditions were unfavorable. This would keep spending at the $4.4 billion level. He did not explain just what economic factors would influence the continued flow of funds.

President Johnson ordered the $4.4 billion federal highway allotment cutback to $3.3 billion Nov. 24, citing Vietnam war costs and the need to curb inflationary pressures in the economy.

A number of state legislatures have formally protested the President's cutback order. Several governors also complained about the freeze on highway funds.

Strangler Hoped to Be Shot, And Killed, Attorney Contends

BOSTON (UPI) — Albert H. DeSalvo, who professes to be the Boston Strangler, broke out of a mental hospital hoping "he might be shot and killed" but apparently changed his mind once free, his attorney said.

"DeSalvo said that he was depressed and he thought by escaping he might be shot and killed by somebody and that would end his problems," said F. Lee Bailey of Boston, who represents DeSalvo.

"But he's much improved now," the lawyer said Sunday night after visiting the 35-year-old DeSalvo.

A beak-nosed, former Army middleweight boxing champion, DeSalvo has confessed to killing 13 women and sexually molesting 1,000 more. He now is under 24-hour maximum security at Walpole State Prison.

DeSalvo was captured Saturday 32 hours after breaking out of antiquated Bridgewater State (mental) Hospital. He said, "I didn't bother nobody and I never will," he told police and newsmen.

Bailey said there were no threats against DeSalvo at the prison—"as far as I know." But, he said, "Albert always has been terrified" of the prison.

Bailey said he would try to get DeSalvo removed to a mental hospital for proper psychiatric treatment.

Asked how DeSalvo escaped from the hospital with two other inmates—one a convicted wife slayer and the other a drug addict serving time for armed robbery, Bailey said simply,

"Albert had a key." He said he was "not really" certain how DeSalvo got it.

"He was supposed to be helping a locksmith change locks recently at the hospital," Bailey said.

Fred E. Erickson, 40, the wife killer from Brockton, and George W. Harrison, 33, of Westford were freed by DeSalvo from cells on each side of him on the third floor of the hospital's ward workers' building.

DeSalvo was apprehended Saturday in a store in West Lynn, 10 miles north of Boston. A clerk called police from one phone while the confessed strangler, on another line, asked an associate of Bailey to "call 'em off I'm coming in." He surrendered quietly. Erickson and Harrison had turned themselves over to authorities less than 13 hours after the pre-dawn break.

DeSalvo previously had been an inmate at the century-old hospital for two years. He was returned five weeks ago pending an appeal of a life prison sentence. He was convicted of charges in connection with attacks on four Greater Boston women in 1954. The attacks were not related to the stranglings to which he has confessed.

BOSTON STRANGLER CAPTURED — Boston Strangler Albert DeSalvo, wearing sailor's clothing, is shown in custody at Lynn, Mass., police station. DeSalvo was captured in a West Lynn uniform store some 30 hours after his escape from Bridgewater State Hospital.

Traffic Toll For Weekend Shows Drop

By United Press International Texas violent death toll dropped relatively low this weekend as good driving weather helped keep down the number of traffic fatalities.

A United Press International count which began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday showed at least 20 persons died violently in the state.

Of these, 14 persons died in traffic accidents.

Sunday, Billie Ray Anthony, 2, crawled under a car in a neighbor's driveway in Amarillo, and was run over when the car backed out.

Robert Morgan, 22, and Robert E. Phillips, 20, both stationed at the Corpus Christi naval air station were killed Saturday when their motorcycle struck a utility pole in Corpus Christi.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Eusby of Friona died Friday night in a head-on collision on U.S. 60 near Hereford.

In the weekend's most tragic death, Donald W. Lahr, 47, Friona, was killed near Hereford when his parachute failed to open while he was skydiving.

PERCY NO, ROMNEY YES — Michigan Gov. George Romney, left, smiles as he hears Senator Charles Percy (R-Ill.) tell newsmen at the GOP convention in Detroit that he (Percy) will not be a candidate in 1968, but that Romney would be a good, likely Republican presidential candidate.

Dear Abby... Mom's Snooping Is Pure Nonsense

DEAR ABBY: More power to mothers who snoop. Every authority on child rearing advises us to know where our children are, what they are doing, and with whom they associate.

Just how are we expected to know these things if we don't snoop? I have strained my ears to hear conversations through walls ever since my children were old enough to have their friends over to play.

I have been able to weed out undesirable friends and discourage bad influences. I have been able to guide my children and advise them when they ask for advice (and they all have) because I know all about their problems.

They are not aware that I have snooped on them all their lives. And they never will be. (You have to be pretty stupid not to be able to outsmart a child.)

Price Knocks LBJ Regime

The Johnson Administration came in for criticism in Amarillo Saturday night by Congressman Bob Price.

Price was honored at an appreciation barbecue in the Exhibits Building on the Tri-State Fairgrounds.

A Pampa delegation was among the 600 or more persons who turned out to hear the congressman in his first speech in his own district since Congress convened Jan. 10.

Price jabbed the Johnson regime and told his listeners he was opposed to any kind of agreements with governments aiding any country with which the U.S. is waging armed conflict.

Price's Saturday night address ended a three-day visit in the Panhandle.

Traffic Violator Charged With Jailbreak, AWOL

Robert Earl Unroe, 18, fined in Ed Anderson's Justice of the Peace Court Sunday on two traffic violations, also faces charges of jail break, violation of the Dyer Act, and being absent without leave from the Army.

Anderson fined Unroe $25 each for speeding and not staying in the proper lane on a highway.

"As I understand it, Unroe, a native of Gary, Ind., stationed at Ft. Camel, Ky., was a A.W.O.L. and was arrested in Weatherford, Okla. on that charge," Sheriff Rufe Jordan said.

"Unroe told us he got out of the Weatherford jail by dropping a string into the locking device," Sheriff Jordan said.

Unroe, charged with stealing a car from Weatherford and driving it across the state line, is expected to be questioned today by Tom O'Maley, of Amarillo, district agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Sheriff Jordan said Weatherford, Okla., authorities informed him they plan to file extradition papers on Unroe for escaping jail and car theft.

"I don't know yet what the outcome will be on this case," Sheriff Jordan said.

When Unroe was arrested Sunday by Highway Patrolmen Charles Henderson and R. C. Parker, two youths, 15 and 16 years old and Darrell Williams, 20, were with him.

The two boys and Williams, all of Clinton, Okla., were returning to Elk City, Okla. when Unroe picked them up on the highway. No charges were placed against them, Sheriff Jordan said.

Unroe was apprehended for speeding by Henderson and Parker about two miles from Alanreed. Both officers are stationed at McLean.

Home Entered Nothing Taken

The home of W. C. Corley Jr., 1021 Varion Dr., was broken into Sunday but nothing was taken. The person entered by the front door, rifled through a tin box and removed an attic cover, officers said.

Jerry Fred Johnson Jr. of Pampa was arrested Sunday for allegedly driving with license suspended, and is in city jail pending arraignment.

Donald Wayne Mason of 716 E. Albert, is in city jail pending arraignment on a charge of unlawfully carrying firearms Sunday.

Fire was discovered Sunday in the attic of the Church of Christ at Mary Ellen and Harvester Sts., but was extinguished before any damage was done.

Four girls were reported to be causing a disturbance at the same church Sunday night, but were released to their parents police said.

CoC Sports Group To Plan Follies

The sports committee of the Chamber of Commerce will meet at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the CoC conference room.

They will plan the Buffalo Follies, the West Texas State University stage show, scheduled here at 8 p.m. March 31 in Robert E. Lee Junior High School Auditorium, Newt Secrest, committee chairman, said.

The WTSU football team and other WTSU university students will present the follies.

Other committee topics are the spring football scrimmage game of WTSU, the 1967 Top 'O' Texas basketball tournament and the 1968 Olympic programs in Mexico City, Mexico.

The football scrimmage is set for 7:30 p.m. April 8 in the Harvester Fieldhouse. An inner squad game, it is sponsored by the WTSU Athletic Department.

Pampa has been asked to help other cities raise funds for the 1968 World Olympics, in which Randy Matson of Pampa will compete in the shot put event.

Woman Hurt In Two-Car Collision

Mrs. Sam Welch of 739 N. Wells was injured Sunday in a two-car wreck in the 100 block of N. Hobart and taken to Highland General Hospital.

Alfred Ray Ballard of 837 N. Dwight, driver of the other car, and Sam Welch, were both going north on Hobart St.

Ballard was cited for failure to control speed to avoid an accident.

Cheer Ann Jackson of Amarillo was involved in a two-car collision here with Willis D. Price Jr. of Pampa Sunday.

No injuries resulted from the accident on North Hobart, south of its intersection with 18th St., but Miss Jackson was cited for following too close.

Business Women To Name 1967 Boss Of Year

The Boss of the Year will be named by members of the Pampa Chapter of American Business Women's Association following a seven o'clock banquet tomorrow evening in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn.

Mrs. Vernon Graham, president, said the selection will be made from letters submitted by members and judged by a committee from the business community.

She said the final decision is kept secret with a surprise announcement made as a feature of the club's Boss Night Program.

Mrs. Graham also said the purpose of Boss Night is to acquaint "bosses", who will be special guests, with the aims and purposes of the American Business Women's Association.

Dr. John D. Damron, superintendent of Pampa Independent School District, will be guest speaker.

Sessions of the Constitutional Convention '67 were not open to the public, but were conducted in secret.

College Board Tests Will Be Given at PHS

Mrs. Ruby Fatheree, Pampa High School counselor, will administer College Board Tests to about 100 Pampa students Saturday in the high school study hall.

Test hours are 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Ronald Rice, high school math teacher, and Mrs. Doris Erwin, Mrs. Fatheree's secretary, will assist in administering the exams.

"The Scholastic Aptitude Test and the achievement tests are both required in some colleges for admittance. Some require only the SACT, which is a general test, verbal and math," Mrs. Fatheree said.

In the afternoon, students will take achievement tests on major academic subjects. They are to take the one their college requires, but can take only three achievement tests in the afternoon, she said.

Fee for the SACT is $5. For any three achievement tests it is $7.50. Students were to apply for the tests four weeks in advance.

"We are a testing center for the College Board Tests and give the exams four times a year, in January, December, March and May. The last college board test here this year will be May 6, but a student can go to any college campus and take it in July," she said.

Frank Phillips Junior College, Borger, is the nearest center for the American College Test, which requires a half a day to complete.

"We had 34 students take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test Saturday, but they will not know until the fall if they qualified," she said.

The merit scholarship qualifying test is optional, requires two and a half hours to complete and tests students on English usage, literary understanding, social studies, vocabulary and mathematics.

Rice and Mrs. Fatheree administered the test Saturday to sophomores and juniors.

Soloists To Compete In Music Event

Pampa High School choir soloists and ensembles will compete in the annual University Intercollegiate League contests Saturday at West Texas State University.

"We will have 60 soloists and five madrigal groups, small mixed ensembles, in the class 4A contests," Hugh Sanders, choir director, said.

The UIL contest for the entire choir is set for March 16 at WTSU.

"Before we go to the UIL contest, the choir will have a public concert in Robert E. Lee Junior High School Auditorium March 13. The a cappella choir, male chorus and the girl's choir will sing," Sanders said.

In March and April the a cappella choir will sing at the eight elementary schools here.

All choirs, elementary through high school, will perform in the annual spring festival May 12 at the high school fieldhouse.

County Offices Will Inaugurate Saturday Closing

Gray County offices will inaugurate a Saturday-closing policy beginning Saturday, March 4, according to County Judge S. R. Lanning Jr.

Judge Lanning said that all offices, with the exception of the Sheriff's office, will be closed. He stated he found in checking other offices in surrounding counties and Pampa's city offices remain open only five days a week.

He said, however, that any county office which has a deadline to meet, such as voter registration, car registration or absentee voting would remain open on the Saturday before the deadline in order to accommodate the people of Gray County.

Judge Lanning said each county official shall use his discretion as to whether or not his office should remain open on any particular Saturday, but as to general business, the courthouse will be closed.

FFA Members Enter 3 Shows

Future Farmers of America at Pampa High School will enter three livestock shows in March.

Show dates are March 3, for chapter events; March 4, Gray County show, and March 5-6, the Top O' Texas Livestock show here.

Gary Richardson, junior, was a recent winner in the San Antonio Livestock Exposition. With 1,056 barrows entered, his Hampshire won the Grand Champion Barrow of the Junior Show.

A second place winner in the San Antonio show was Gary Cockrell's light-weight Poland China.

Other boys with winners were Parker Stewart, fourth, light-weight Duroc; Phillip Savage, seventh, Poland China; Doc Cornutt, ninth, lightweight Poland China; Lonnie Cox, fourteenth, lightweight Poland China; Bill Skaggs, eighteenth, middle-weight Hampshire, and Andy Cole, nineteenth, middleweight Duroc.

National Window

By LYLE WILSON

United Press International
In an appeal for funds which should be attractive equally to the John Birch Society to Americans for Democratic Action, the Committee for Constitutional Government (CCG) seeks $283,732.

That sum would enable CCG to fill requests from 141,866 schools in 48 states for copies of Thomas James Norton's admirable textbook.

"The Constitution of the United States: Its Sources and Applications."

The CCG list of states seeking copies of Norton's book does not include Idaho and New Hampshire. Unfilled requests from other states range from 68 in Delaware, 92 in Maine, 94 in South Dakota, 8,203 in Georgia, 8,340 in Washington, 9,585 in Utah and 21,506 in New York state.

The address of the Committee for Constitutional Government (CCG) is: 117 Liberty Street, New York, N.Y. 10006.

There is no propaganda, sales talk or baloney in this 319-page volume. The book's concept bears the endorsement of the late Alfred E. Smith, Herbert Hoover, James M. Cox, John W. Davis and a surviving elder statesman, Alf M. Landon. In this volume, author Norton analyzes objectively the U.S. Constitution, clause by clause. Not section by section. The first clause of the Constitution is: "We the people of the United States."

Norton took 37 lines, about a page and one half, to explain and to analyze this clause. He included quotations from President Monroe and Patrick Henry. Henry was not wholly content with this grant to, or assumption of, power by "the people." However that may be, Norton's analysis is informative, interesting and precise in its presentation of the master compact upon which is founded the American way of life, the American success story.

In this volume is the running story of how and where the original articles of Confederation failed and how and why the Constitution was created to establish a new order free of the defective provisions of the articles.

CCG describes the subject of the book as: "Our Constitution—civil Bible of America. Democracy is the outgrowth of the religious conviction of the sacredness of every human life. On the religious side, its highest embodiment is the Bible; on the political side, the Constitution. As has been said so well, 'the Constitution is the civil Bible of Americans.' Next to the Bible, the best book on the Constitution should be in every home, school library and parish hall."

For $2 a copy, CCG will discharge all the details of a gift of books to schools. It will determine where the books shall be sent. You may choose the school if you desire. CCG will undertake packaging, handling, shipping, correspondence, writing reports to the donor for tax purposes, etc.

The appeal for funds puts explosive emphasis on the fact that few schools include any appropriation for the purchase and classroom use of any book upon which to base instruction on the Constitution. Requests from schools for gift copies of Norton's book continue to pour in.

CCG concludes its appeal with this: "Please purchase multiple copies of Norton's book to fill these school requests, to give many more thousands of young persons the opportunity to study the Constitution in this school year, with sanction of their alma mater. Where could your money do a bigger, better job?"

Biggest Problem Facing Schools Is 'Cold Cash'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The biggest problem facing American high schools today is 'cold, hard cash.'

This is the statement of James Bryan Conant, author of a report that caused a stir in the world of education in 1959, in a New Report published Saturday.

In his New Report, The Comprehensive High School, Conant said, "It is quite clear that there is something wrong with the way we finance our public schools."

He said, he is coming to believe that school financing should be fully on a state rather than local basis, and that a method must be found to give each state a share of federal income tax receipts to be spent for education as the state sees fit.

This would attack one of the major weaknesses that Conant finds in the high school systems—wide differences in quality between states, and within states, caused by the widely varying resources that states and local areas make available to public schools.

"I have become more and more convinced that one of the main reasons why the financing of our public schools is so chaotic a state is that no one has presented a clear picture of the situation," Conant wrote.

"I am sure not many Americans realize the almost accidental way in which the public schools are financed in most states. I have arrived at the conclusion that a radical overhaul of our thinking about financing public school is required."

Conant's report was based on answers received from 2,024 high schools which have 750 to 2,000 students, and from which 25 to 75 per cent of the graduates go on to higher

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day and evening when your mood should be to "produce results" by the most direct fashion. Refrain from working all those indirect angles that would make you lose time in gaining the results you wish and desire. Good for finding out just where you do stand in most any circumstances.

ADVICE: (May 21 to Apr. 13)—Be sure to attend to securities, government matters, insurance and the like without fail. Make this a very productive day. Evening can be very happy from the romantic standpoint. Show that you have savoir-faire.

TAURUS: (Apr. 20 to May 20)—You and your partners must work together more agreeably and you must pay more attention to their interests. If true harmony is to exist between you, more success is possible. Enjoy pleasures with congeniality in p.m.

SCORPIO: (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)—Ideal day to step out with persons you admire or go to meetings. Be sure you are very understanding person. Don't neglect any professional appointments you have.

LIBRA: (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)—Your intuition will tell you how best to take care of real estate and other business affairs to increase income. Be sure to make plans of a social nature now. They are very important and will go very smoothly.

SCORPIO: (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)—Ideal day to step out with persons you admire or go to meetings. Be sure you are very understanding person. Don't neglect any professional appointments you have.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)—Although you like to expand and project ideas, it is better to direct your energy into a quiet way. Evening can be very delightful in a romantic way. If you are single, show you have savoir-faire.

LEOPARD: (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)—Concentrate on those allies and pals who can give you support in social or business affairs. Be diplomatic. Be sure you know exactly what you want to accomplish. You can take the right step in such direction.

AQUARIUS: (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)—Be very clever in getting your finest talents to work for you. Be sure you do not commercialize on them. Be sure you use more efficient methods to help you make progress. Buy mechanics you need.

PISCES: (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)—Getting into new outlets is fine now and you make those ideas work. Be sure you are sure, dream about. Be sure to give your friends a break and introduce them to famous, important people you know.

SOMEONE IN THE LAB PUT YOUR NAME ON THE WRONG X-RAY. YOUR LEG WASN'T EVEN STRAINED!

FRECKLES, THAT DUTCH GIRL IS HERE TO SEE YOU!

SHE'S SWEET. SHE CAME TO ACT AS YOUR NURSE UNTIL YOU'RE ON YOUR FEET AGAIN!

DOCTOR, WOULD IT BE UNETHICAL IF YOU BROKE MY LEG?

PERHAPS YOU CAN GIVE ME AN ANSWER, LINDA.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF YOU FELT THAT NO ONE LIKED YOU?

I'D TRY TO LOOK AT MYSELF OBJECTIVELY, AND SEE WHAT I COULD DO TO IMPROVE... THAT'S MY ANSWER, CHARLIE BROWN.

I HATE THAT ANSWER!

The Bow Loner

OH, COME ON, GADGETS, JUST PEOPLE AROUND ON THE SHORE! I'M NOT GOING TO GET HIT, FIGHTER!

The Berries

HI, KIDDIES! DADDY'S HOME!

HA-HA... WHAT AN EMPTY FEELING... NOBODY SEEMS TO BE HOME...

PAT PROBABLY TOOK THE KIDS SHOPPING AND DIDN'T LEAVE A NOTE. BECAUSE SHE EXPECTED TO BE HOME BEFORE ME!

GEE! I NEVER REALIZED HOW MUCH YOU CAN TAKE FOR GRANTED UNTIL IT ISN'T HERE!

Bugs Bunny

YIPES! WATCH WHERE YER DRIVIN' PETUNIA!

I JUST HAD THIS PHONE PUT IN MY CAR, MADGE!

ISN'T THIS AWAY? WHAT'S THE LATEST-BLA-BLA-BLA...

URK! LOOK OUT!

SORRY, MADGE, I HAVE TO HANG UP NOW!

Sam and Max

AND SO, MY FRIENDS, THE SPONSORS OF THIS SHOW WHO PAY FOR ALL THE HIGH-PRICED TALENT THAT GATHERS TOGETHER HERE EACH WEEK...

DURING THE MOST RIDICULOUSLY EXPENSIVE EVENING HOURS, FOR YOUR ABSOLUTELY FREE ENJOYMENT WISH ME TO SAY...

GO OUT AND BUY SOMETHING!

Captain Easy

THIS IS NO HELP, BABY! IT'S PLAIN GIBBERISH!

OK A COOL! BUT WHY HOW COULD MAKE READ IT? THEY DON'T KEEP IN CONTACT!

A CODE EXPERT COULD BREAK IT... BUT WE CAN'T!

IT'S ADDRESS-ED IN LONGHAND... BUT NOT JOCKS-ON DELTA PLUMBING CO. STATIONERY!

IF MCKEE'S NOT HERE BY MORNIN', WE MAY FIND HIS UNCLE THRU THAT PLUMBER!

MEANWHILE, I'LL TRY TO DECODE THIS CRYPTOGRAM.

The Willets

PURRRR... PURRRR... PURRRR...

YOU'RE PURRRING INTO MY MATH!

WANTROOP

I WONDER WHY BOYS PREFER DOGS TO GIRLS? I THINK IT'S DISGUSTING!

WHAT HAVE YOU GOT THAT I HAVEN'T GOT?

A NICE COLD NOSE, FOR ONE THING.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE With Major Hoopie

AFTER BEIN' COOPED UP ALL DAY I WAS REALLY YEARNIN' FOR FRESH AIR... BUT WITH THIS SOUP I FEEL LIKE I'M BEIN' FED INTRAVENOUSLY FROM A BUS EXHAUST!

I HEAR THEY'VE GOT AN EMERGENCY CASE! THE GUY WHO BLOWS UP THE BALLOONS AT GAS STATION OPENINGS WAS THE FIRST CASUALTY!

YIKES! I'VE SMELLED SWEETER AIR AFTER THE MAJOR FELT ONE OF HIS CIGARS!

OFFICIALLY IT'S CALLED SMOG.

Short Ribs

THIS LOOKS LIKE THE PLACE!

MONDAY ISN'T MY DAY!

Blondie

WOULD YOU LIKE TO TRY THIS MIRACLE HAIR GROWER?

I'VE USED IT EVERY DAY FOR FIFTEEN YEARS.

YEH, BUT LOOK... YOU'RE AS BALD AS A HONEYDEW MELON.

OH, I KNOW, BUT ONCE IT STARTS... LOOK OUT!

Alley Oop

NO DIRTY, LOW DOWN NEANDERTHAL'S GONNA OVERRUN MEO! NOSIR!

WE'LL SHOW YOU BUMS A THING OR THREE.

WONT WE FELLAS?

YEAH!

HEY! WHERE IS EVERYBODY?

The Flintstones

WE'RE GOING TO DO A LITTLE BIRD WATCHING.

WHERE ARE YOU OFF TO, POPS?

GOODIE!

I DON'T SEE ANY BIRDS!

OH, BOY! SOME PIGEONS!

STAGE DOOR!

I DON'T SEE ANY PIGEONS!

Jackson Twins

AW, MOM, DON'T COME ALL UNGLUED OVER JAN'S NOTEBOOK DOODLES ABOUT MR. LASCOLI!

GOSH, YOU REALLY MUST BE GETTING OLD IF YOU'VE FORGOTTEN HOW KIDS GET GILLY CRUSHES ON TEACHERS WHO TEACH THIS 'NEW MORALITY'!

WHO SAYS HE DOES THAT?

MRS. KELLY?

BROTHER! IF OUR SHOW DOESN'T SHUT HER UP, I WILL... AND WITHOUT ANY TWIN SISTER TO HELP ME!

Mickey Finn

PHIL'S AFTERNOON NAP IS FINISHED!

BOY-O-BOY! WHAT A TERRIBLE DREAM THAT WAS! I NEVER HAD ANYTHING LIKE IT BEFORE!

THANK GOODNESS I WOKE UP AND IT'S ALL OVER!

Howard Takes Big Salary Cut

By United Press International
That warm, friendly image of the New York Yankees is peddling these days apparently only goes so far.

The Yankees, who used to have the same kind of "warm" appeal that made the club famous before his farm system wore out, are trying to promote a loveable image now that they're in the cellar competing with the Mets for fans.

"We want to dispel the coldness and arrogance charged to the Yankees in the past and I will not deny there was a basis for it," new president Mike Burke claims, "we want to replace that stiff attitude with a warm closer association with our fans."

But Elston Howard would probably like to get included in on this warm association.

Barber and rookie Tom Phoebus.

Huge outfielder Frank Howard arrived in the Washington Senator camp a day early and agreed to a slight cut to $39,000. Last year Howard was the highest paid Senator with an estimated salary of $43,000.

Second baseman Cookie Rojas signed with the Philadelphia Phils, leaving just two unsigned players on the squad—pitcher Jim Bunning and slugger Richie Allen.

Pitcher Don Nottbart came to terms with the Reds, leaving pitcher Milt Pappas the only unsigned player on the club.

9 Tourney Teams Lose

By United Press International
Being named to play in the NCAA or NIT tournaments may bring prestige but it doesn't necessarily win basketball games.

In what can only be described as a selection committee's nightmare, nine of the 19 teams named to the two post-season weekends.

Heading the NCAA embarrassment was Louisville which had picked up an automatic berth by clinching first place in the Missouri Valley Conference and was ranked second in the nation behind UCLA. While the Bruins continued to be the exception to the rule by knocking off Washington State 100-78, the Cardinals were upended by MVC rival Wichita State 84-78.

The unbeaten Uclans recorded their 23rd win, due in no small part to the efforts of Ferdinand Lewis Alcindor whose 61 points broke the Pacific Coast Conference scoring record and gave the Bruins the conference title, with another automatic NCAA bid.

Third Loss
The Cardinals had no such luck. Playing their last regular season game but already looking ahead to a possible clash with UCLA in the NCAA semi-finals, Louisville ran into some good Wichita State foul shooting and a solid man-to-man defense while dropping its third game in 28 starts.

There was more blushing in store for the NCAA selection committee as Western Kentucky, the Ohio Valley Conference champ, fell before Murray State 75-69, Rhode Island surprised Connecticut, winner of the Yankee Conference, 87-86, and Virginia Tech was bombed by North Carolina, 110-78.

Most of the NIT crop looked like the only place it would go after the season ended was back to the gym for Utah State came up with a late rally but still lost its fifth in 23 games as Colorado State, led by Bob Rule's 25 points, held on to enough of a 16 point lead to win 80-75.

St. Peter's was upset by St. Francis (Pa.), another school looking for an NIT bid, 82-79.

Left to uphold the honor of the nation's oldest post season tourney were Marquette, Southern Illinois and Providence. The Warriors took the Air Force Academy 72-65 and the Salukis, the No. 1 ranked small college whipped second ranked Kentucky Wesleyan for the second time this season, 52-45.

All-America Jimmy Walker broke the Providence single season scoring record by scoring 47 points that led the Friars to an 87-75 over Holy Cross.

Three NCAA Winners
NCAA bound winners included St. John's, which drubbed Miami 77-70 behind Sonny Dove's 28 points; Dayton, which scored 19 consecutive points to open the second half and then coasted to a 98-66 win over Chattanooga; and ninth-ranked Texas Western which had little trouble downing West Texas State, 97-67.

Another member of the top ten, seventh-ranked Houston, got brand new career scoring and rebounding records from Elvin (Big E) Hayes, who tallied 29 points and 18 rebounds, as the Cougars beat Creighton 87-73. Tenth-ranked Boston College raised its record to 17-2 with a second half scoring rush that gave the Eagles a 103-91 win over Georgetown.

HIGH-SCORING ELVIN Hayes, who stands 6-9, is the main reason why Houston will make defense the major issue for all opponents.

Southern Methodist, another club with an automatic NCAA bid thanks to its Southwest Conference title, had a tough time before disposing of SWC also-ran Rice 85-84.

Kansas Victory
Three members of the top ten not yet named to a post season tourney continued to move towards the NCAA event by tightening their grip on their respective conference races.

Fourth-ranked Kansas kept a game and a half margin between itself and persistent Nebraska in the Big Eight by beating cellar dwelling Missouri 90-55 while the Cornhuskers were taking the measure of Kansas State, 79-71.

Sixth-ranked Princeton assured itself of at least a share of the Ivy League crown by crushing lone rival Cornell 81-66 and eighth-ranked Tennessee retained its one game edge in the Southeastern Conference by topping Auburn 54-45 while second-place Vanderbilt was trouncing Georgia 81-61.

Weekend Sports

By United Press International
ARCADIA, Calif. (UPI)—Pretense scored a three-length win in the $145,000 Santa Anita Handicap.

HIALEAH, Fla. (UPI)—Longshot War Censor captured $96,750 Hialeah Turf Handicap.

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Dave Patrick ran the half-mile in 1:40.1 at the Sun Papers All-Eastern meet, the fastest 800 clocking ever on an 11-lap board track.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Mario Andreoli, Nazareth, Pa., won the $200,000 Daytona Beach 500-mile race for stock cars.

Heading the NCAA embarrassment was Louisville which had picked up an automatic berth by clinching first place in the Missouri Valley Conference and was ranked second in the nation behind UCLA. While the Bruins continued to be the exception to the rule by knocking off Washington State 100-78, the Cardinals were upended by MVC rival Wichita State 84-78.

The unbeaten Uclans recorded their 23rd win, due in no small part to the efforts of Ferdinand Lewis Alcindor whose 61 points broke the Pacific Coast Conference scoring record and gave the Bruins the conference title, with another automatic NCAA bid.

Third Loss
The Cardinals had no such luck. Playing their last regular season game but already looking ahead to a possible clash with UCLA in the NCAA semi-finals, Louisville ran into some good Wichita State foul shooting and a solid man-to-man defense while dropping its third game in 28 starts.

There was more blushing in store for the NCAA selection committee as Western Kentucky, the Ohio Valley Conference champ, fell before Murray State 75-69, Rhode Island surprised Connecticut, winner of the Yankee Conference, 87-86, and Virginia Tech was bombed by North Carolina, 110-78.

Most of the NIT crop looked like the only place it would go after the season ended was back to the gym for Utah State came up with a late rally but still lost its fifth in 23 games as Colorado State,

HIGH-SCORING ELVIN Hayes, who stands 6-9, is the main reason why Houston will make defense the major issue for all opponents.

Being named to play in the NCAA or NIT tournaments may bring prestige but it doesn't necessarily win basketball games.

In what can only be described as a selection committee's nightmare, nine of the 19 teams named to the two post-season weekends.

Mustangs Eyeing Regional Meeting

By United Press International
Southern Methodist's calm, cool and collected Mustangs set their sights ahead for March 7-8 and the NCAA Midwest Regionals at Lawrence, Kans., today and hoped for a bit of relaxation in the wake of their third successive Southwest Conference basketball title.

There are a couple of games yet to play inside the conference, but the pressure—which has built to explosion-point in game after game for Coach Doc Hayes' Mustangs this season—is off.

The Mustangs play Texas A&M at College Station Tuesday night and wind up the regular schedule at home Thursday night against Texas, but they built their record to 10-2 (17-5 for the year) and clinched the championship in typical tornadoic fashion last Saturday night.

Rice had taken an 82-79 lead with 55 seconds left when Denny Holman's heroics saved the day. He was fouled driving for a layup and made both free shots, stole the ball from Rice, passed it off to Charles Beasley and got the tip-in when Beasley's shot missed to put SMU ahead 83-82. Rice bounced back to go ahead 84-83 with 11 seconds left only to find Holman equal to the occasion with a floor-length drive that ended in his being fouled.

With seven seconds left, Holman calmly popped in both gratis shots and the game was over. He had scored 23 points, including a perfect 9-for-9 at the foul line to complement Beasley's 25 points and 18 by soph Lynn Phillips, who also pulled down 17 rebounds.

But, it has been like that for three years for SMU while the Ponies were making Hayes the most prolific championship coach in history. This title was his eighth to be won or shared in 20 seasons.

The Ponies will have a two weeks rest before meeting Louisville, the nation's No. 2 team, at Lawrence because the NCAA first-round playoffs originally set for Fort Worth March 11 were cancelled.

The Ponies had beaten Arkansas 69-66 earlier last week and the two victories gave them identical 5-1 won-loss records at home and on the road.

Arkansas had eased SMU's task somewhat earlier Saturday afternoon with an 83-78 upset of the Frogs, who dropped back winner over Texas A&M. The other Saturday game had seen Baylor stop Texas Tech's winning streak 57-54.

Other games last week saw

A&M beat Baylor 71-69, TCU beat Rice 83-74 and Tech stop Texas 68-78.

No challenger developed for the low-man scoring battle between the Baylor duo of Jimmy Turner and Darrell Hardy. Turner boasts a five-point bulge over his teammate, 466 to 461, over the full season, but in league play Hardy has a 14-point edge, 283 to 269. No other player is even close.

In addition to SMU's two games this week, TCU and Texas meet at Austin Tuesday to break their runnerup deadlock and TCU winds up at home against A&M Thursday. Rice is at Baylor Tuesday and hosts Tech Thursday, while Arkansas is at Tech Tuesday and entertains Baylor Thursday.

McNamara's Circular Defends Himself

By LYLE WILSON. United Press International. One of Defense Secretary McNamara's anonymous flacks spun off his swivel chair last week brandishing a bundle of mimeographed papers asserting that McNamara didn't either condone waste of the tax money. The purchasing officer didn't bother to obtain clarification. He laid on yard locomotives for Thailand but finally had to purchase substitute mainline locomotives because the Thais had no need for switch engines. Staats' report said faults in elementary principles of management procedures caused this foul-up. It cost the taxpayers $1 million.
