Negro University President Groves Will Resign Post

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (UPI)—Dr. Harry E. Groves, 46, president of strife-ridden Central State University, announced Saturday he would resign in six months, at the expiration of his contract.

The university was struck by a disturbance triggered by black power elements Nov. 13. The Ohio National Guard had to be called in to quell a rock and brick-throwing spree in which 94 students were arrested.

The next day the board of trustees ordered the school closed until Nov. 27 and promised a purge of the black power groups.

However, Groves earlier this week rescinded that decision and said school would open Monday and the black power elements could return.

Groves said he had been "subjected to petty attacks by some students, parents, faculty and alumni."

He said these attacks could be cured in the normal course of events "but not in this hour of genuine institutional crisis, brought about by elements determined to destroy the university."

He did not say what elements were out to destroy the school. Groves had been criticized because 80 per cent of the enrollment of 2,600 was Negro.

Earlier Comment
"Earlier this week he said: 'Both the riot and the times demonstrate that some Negro students do need an institution with which they can fully identify where their own social and cultural interests get a full hearing.'"

John McElroy, chief aide to Gov. James A. Rhodes, said in Columbus concerning Groves' decision:

"I'm sorry that he decided to do it, but I can easily understand that he would not want to go through the very difficult times he has been going through."

Diplomats Differ With Military on Viet Sanctuaries

WASHINGTON (UPI)—U.S. diplomats and military leaders are at loggerheads over the question of recognizing officially the problem of sanctuaries for Communist troops along the borders of South Vietnam.

Although there is no clear agreement as to what steps should be taken against them, military leaders feel the problem will never be solved until it is fully recognized by Congress and the public.

State Department officials want to continue the present policy of ignoring diplomatically the fact that a large portion of the Communist troop strength is holed up in Cambodia and Laos, as well as in and near the Demilitarized Zone.

The issue has been brought to the fore by heavy U.S. casualties in the fighting that has continued since Nov. 4 around Dak To, only a few miles from a point where the borders of Cambodia and Laos join.

Prince Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia denied only Friday that his territory was being used by Communist troops. But U.S. sources say there is no question that the enemy at Dak To came from a force estimated at 8,000 men based on both sides of the Cambodia-Laos border.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam, said earlier in the week that it is only from such sanctuaries that the enemy is still able to conduct major operations.

The view of American diplomats is that there is no point in raising an issue over Communist troops in Cambodia and Laos when North Vietnam itself, except for air attacks, is still a sanctuary for them. The diplomats also consider the

Comms Have Lost 4,000 in Conquest

SAIGON (UPI)—American troops seized another hill in the Dak To area Saturday and their commanding general said the North Vietnamese had lost 3,000 to 4,000 men killed in the 23-day-old Central Highlands battle for the strategic waist of South Vietnam.

Maj. Gen. William Peers, commander of the 4th Infantry Division and leader of all U.S. troops in Operation MacArthur, said the North Vietnamese are no longer capable of attacking the key American base at Dak To.

As he spoke, American soldiers moved up to the summit of Hill 830, about three miles east of the battle-scarred heights of Hill 875, captured by GIs Thanksgiving day at a heavy cost. The Communist resistance Saturday was slight.

For the first time since the battle of Dak To erupted Nov. 2, fighting was light and scattered in the area 200 miles north of Saigon.

But in the Mekong Delta south of Saigon, the Viet Cong snatched four communities, including the populous city of Can Tho, killing 17 civilians and wounding 48.

In the northern provinces, a U.S. Marine "batallion" came ashore from landing ships and helicopters to start a new "search and destroy" operation 11 miles northwest of Quang Tri City.

Gen. Peers said his estimate of the North Vietnamese dead in the Dak To fighting included those killed in air strikes, artillery attacks and in remote areas where hundreds of Communists were buried in hastily dug graves beneath the jungle floor.

Peers said nobody would ever know the exact number, but added: "I would say that we had killed at a minimum 3,000 and possibly as many as 4,000."

The official figure of known Communist dead, by bed-count, rose to 7,417 Saturday with the uncovering of more bodies along the jungle slopes.

A total of 285 Americans have been killed and 968 wounded in the campaign, while the South Vietnamese have lost 78 killed and 299 wounded.

To the south, Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu visited the Mekong Delta city of Can Tho Saturday just hours after a Viet Cong force hit it with a mortar attack.

The Communists slammed five high explosive rounds into Can Tho, killing eight civilians and wounding at least 17.

The strike against Can Tho was one of a series of such hit-and-run Viet Cong attacks in the heavily populated delta area.

Just south of the Demilitarized Zone border strip, men of the U.S. 3rd Marine Battalion made a sea and air assault that kicked off a new operation called "Ballistic Arch."

The sweep was aimed at chasing Communists from an area.

Presidential Envoy Tries To Solve Issue of Cyprus

By United Press International
President Johnson's special envoy Cyrus Vance carried new Greek proposals to Turkey Saturday in an attempt to prevent the two NATO allies from going to war over Cyprus.

Vance flew to Ankara from Athens Saturday morning, delivered the Greek proposals to Turkish Premier Suleyman Demirel and informed Turkish officials of details of his peacekeeping mission to Greece.

Demirel immediately summoned the Turkish Cabinet to discuss the Greek proposals and called a National Security Council conference for Saturday night.

Following his meeting with Vance, Demirel issued a statement which said, "The representative of the U.S. President brought Greek proposals and gave information on his negotiations with the Greek government."

"These proposals will be analyzed at the Turkish military council," Demirel said. "We are working with logic and calmness. Present conditions do not allow me to speak longer."

Observers in Athens said Vance had persuaded the Greek government to withdraw all non-Cypriot troops from the island, leaving only a United Nations peacekeeping force of 4,500 men.

As the Turkish cabinet met in Ankara, the Greek Cabinet assembled in Athens.

Sources Say Yarborough Will Run for Governor

AUSTIN (UPI)—Sources say Sen. Ralph Yarborough probably will announce for governor of Texas about Jan. 6.

Yarborough associates were in Texas this weekend checking on the progress of voter registration, attempting to find out how much it would hurt Yarborough to run for governor without resigning his Senate seat, and assessing the impact of the anti-war movement in Texas.

They say they encountered no serious opposition to a Yarborough race for governor. Labor leaders, rural Democrats and ethnic minorities, especially Mexican-Americans, are said to be enthusiastic about Yarborough's candidacy.

They also found support in unexpected quarters. Edward Clark, President Johnson's ambassador to Australia, reportedly is among those urging Yarborough to run.

Yarborough people believe Johnson may not support the senator, but will not be able to oppose him because of his own reelection campaign.

Sources say Yarborough wants to announce as early as possible to encourage voter registration, but probably will not be able to do so until after the first of the year.

Congress appears unlikely to adjourn until close to Christmas and the holiday season is not a good time to make political announcements, they point out.

Vance was one of three men who jettied to various capitals in the tense Mediterranean area Saturday, seeking to secure peace. U.S. Secretary General U Thant sent his special representative Jose Rolz-Bennet to Athens and Ankara for talks and NATO Secretary Manlio Brosio of Italy flew to Athens for conferences.

Meanwhile, both Turkey and Greece remained on a war footing. Both armies, armed with weapons supplied by the United States to prevent Communist aggression, massed facing each other along their common frontier.

Assembly Units
Turkey reportedly had assembled commando units and paratroopers at jumping off points along the southern Turkish coast opposite Cyprus.

American-built Turkish air force jets reportedly flew reconnaissance missions over the island.

Cypriot President Archbishop Makarios warned the island's residents to "prepare for the worst."

More than 2,400 British and 200 U.N. dependents on Cyprus moved to Kekelia Military Base. Approximately 600 Americans were flown to Beirut earlier.

The crisis erupted on Nov. 15 when Greek Cypriot National Guard units attacked Turkish Cypriots in two small villages.

Sporadic fighting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots continued for four days on the island until the Turkish armed forces issued a list of demands to Greece and prepared for an invasion of Cyprus.

The Hungarian journalist further reported that the North Vietnamese capital was virtually in ruins and serious food shortages had arisen because of U.S. bomb raids near the center of the city.

Szabo said several buildings in the city center itself were reduced to rubble and living conditions were "utterly poor and miserable."

However, Szabo said North Vietnamese citizens and officials were confident they could endure the U.S. attacks indefinitely and adamantly insisted there could be no peace talks unless the American bombing raids stopped.

He said the North Vietnamese were depending mainly on supplies from friendly Communist countries but that despite this help, distribution problems as a result from American bombing raid had created serious food shortages.

Szabo gave no indication of the nature of Ho's illness but said government officials in Hanoi are increasingly concerned over his failing health.

Officers to Question Youth On Death of 6-Year-Old Girl

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI)—A strapping teen-ager held in Texas will be questioned by Oklahoma officers next week about the disappearance and death of 6-year-old Brenda White of Midwest City, authorities said Saturday.

Jesse Lee Zuck, 16, a 6-foot, 3-inch, 200-pounder, is being held on suspicion of defrauding an innkeeper and forgery. His home at Harrah is only about a mile from the shallow grave where remains identified as those of the child missing since Aug. 3 were found last week.

A trip to Sweetwater, Tex., in an airplane provided by the Oklahoma Crime Bureau had been tentatively scheduled for Saturday. But a spokesman said the flight had been postponed, probably until Monday.

Expected to make the trip are agents Tom Puckett and Frank Brady of the crime bureau, deputies Richard Mack and Bob Hammer of the Oklahoma County sheriff's office and Capt. Bill Forney and Bob Calhoun of the Midwest City police department.

Forney and Calhoun interviewed Zuck in August. At the time he supposedly accounted for his activities until after 3 p.m. the day the girl vanished. She was believed abducted after 3 p.m. on a Thursday, four weeks after the disappearance of 5-year-old Judith Ann Elwell of Oklahoma City.

Hammer said the youth left his home three days before the girl's bones were found and "this is one reason he isn't a real strong suspect."

LBJ Standing Firm Against Growing Protectionism

GENEVA (UPI)—President Johnson stands firmly against the growing protectionist trends in the United States, delegates from the major trading nations of the world were told Wednesday.

William M. Roth, the President's special trade representative said the United States will be "watching and guarding against" all forms of protectionism.

His remarks came in a pre-conference briefing before the meeting on liberalizing international trade. The conference was held on a ministerial level, though only 16 ministers were attending.

The meeting comes on the 30th anniversary of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), the framework for all-trade liberalization negotiations.

The Canadian trade and commerce minister, the Hon. Robert H. Winters, said that American trade policy must continue to be the "progressive and positive factor" in removing barriers to world trade.

Winters said that Canada has been concerned about the protectionist movements in the United States and elsewhere. He said in his context, he particularly welcomes President Johnson's pledge to do everything possible to insure the failure of these pressures.

The world trade representatives intended to work out by next Saturday what the next step in negotiations will be to follow up the Kennedy round. There was general agreement that there should be no rush into new negotiations, but a period of careful preparation.

'VIOLATES FREEDOM'
EL PASO, Tex. (UPI)—The local chapter of the American Association of University Professors assid Friday the exclusion of a float with an antiwar theme from a homecoming parade at the University of Texas at El Paso violated the students' academic freedom. Parade marshal Maury Cohen said the float was excluded from the Nov. 17 parade because its license plate was covered and because it was "not in the spirit of homecoming."

In 1901, the War Department authorized the creation of the Army War College to instruct commissioned officers.

Man, 75, Weds Girl He Proposed to 58 Years Ago

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Harry V. Spidle wed to Mary G. Segmiller last night at the suburban College Hill Presbyterian Church, 58 years after he first proposed to her in Altoona, Pa.

The original proposal came in 1909 when they were both 17. Mary's father would not consent to the marriage because he felt his daughter was too young.

The childhood sweethearts went their separate ways.

Spidle became an agricultural researcher and bought a farm in Tiffin, Ohio. He married and had five children.

Miss Segmiller moved to Cincinnati and became a nurse at Deaconess Hospital. She was named head of the hospital's nursing services and school in 1937 and held the post until she retired three years ago.

The pair met last year by chance when both returned to Altoona to visit relatives.

Spidle, a widower, asked for Miss Segmiller's address from her relatives.

"I told them not to give him my address," she said, "but I decided to send him a Christmas card. I didn't put my return address on that either. But somehow he found out what my address was and wrote back." Spidle came to visit her and the courtship took up where it had left off.

After a year, Spidle popped the question.

The couple, each now 75, had a reception at the church following the ceremony and they left for a Florida honeymoon.

Pampa Soldier Awarded Commendation Medal

Specialist Four Richard B. Organ, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Organ of 1101 N. Stark weather, recently received the Army's Commendation Medal for service in Vietnam.

Serving with the 3rd Squadron, 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment, the Pampa High School graduate was cited for his exemplary and professional manner while participating in Operation "Junction City" during the period of Feb. 22-March 18, 1967.

The commendation reads in part: "Specialist Organ's professional competence and adroit handling of complex situations served as an inspiration and were a major factor in attaining a high degree of morale and esprit de corps within the unit.

"He accompanied 16 ambush patrols and 14 demolition teams during the operation and continually demonstrated a spirited aggressiveness and determination.

"Further, Specialist Organ often volunteered to serve as a 'tunnel rat' and unhesitatingly entered numerous tunnels in search of valuable documents or material.

"On 23 February 1967, while serving as a member of a dismounted patrol, Specialist Organ was engaged by an enemy automatic weapon and his squad leader was critically injured. Immediately assuming command of the patrol, Specialist Organ skillfully maneuvered his team in a flanking movement that eventually neutralized the enemy position.

"Specialist Organ's outstanding performance of duty in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflects great credit upon himself, his unit, and the United States Army."

Organ, who served as a machine gunner during his year tour of duty in Vietnam, plans to resume his studies at West Texas State University as a modern language major.

Adobe Walls Council Scouts Achieves New Camping Site

Boy Scouts of the Adobe Walls Council will be camping at a new site next summer after over 20 years of summer camp at Camp Kiowa, according to Frank Culbertson, Council president.

The new site is a 480-acre tract of land located 40 miles east of Pampa between Wheeler and Mobeetie, 3 1/2 miles north of State Highway 132. The need for new camping facilities became evident in 1967 when a Camp Development Committee of the Council attempted to purchase land adjoining the 78-acre Camp Kiowa, and were unable to do so.

"We are very pleased with our new site, as it has adequate room and adequate lake area to carry out an outstanding Scouting program," Culbertson said. "Although there is a tremendous amount of development work to be done, the summer camp program on the new site will be essentially the same as carried out at Camp Kiowa in the past, with the added attraction to the Scouts of knowing that they are helping develop a fine new camp," Culbertson continued.

The camp will open without a dining hall, but improvements will be made, as well as for other facilities that the camp now lacks, so the boys will not miss any of the opportunities for advancement or program. The Council is placing Camp Kiowa on the market for sale, and President Culbertson has appointed a sales committee composed of E. E. Shelhamer, chairman, George Newberry, and Billy Davis. Camp Kiowa is located about 15 miles northeast of Canadian, and has

The military problem created by the sanctuaries is admittedly severe, however. There is a question as to how long U.S. and South Vietnamese forces can retain the initiative when the enemy at any time can surge across the border at places of his choice.

Behind the scenes, the military leaders have been granted a number of concessions. They already have permission to cross the borders with both ground and air forces if they are in "actual contact" with the enemy and the action is necessary to protect their men. But the military sources contend this is short of "hot pursuit" and does not solve the major problem, because the enemy cannot be pursued and destroyed if he decides to break contact.

While the flurry of ground operations was underway in the South, American warplanes bombarded North Vietnam in 97 missions Friday. Heavy clouds blanketed much of the North and limited raiders to hitting targets in the Southern Pampas handle area.

Santa Fe Boy Scout Banquet Scheduled For Tuesday Night

The annual Santa Fe District Boy Scout banquet will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday night in the cafeteria of Robert E. Lee Junior High School.

An estimated crowd of 400 is expected to attend the covered dish buffet, according to Scout Executive Bill Walker.

The program will include individual leader recognitions, Roundup Award presentations, introduction of units and their sponsoring institutions and introduction of the 1968 District officers.

Judge Grainger W. McIlhany of the 31st Judicial District Court will be the guest speaker. Kay Fancher will serve as master of ceremonies.

Judge McIlhany is a native of Wheeler, Texas and still resides there. The World War II veteran graduated from the University of Texas Law School in 1946 and served as a member of the Texas House of Representatives from 1949 through 1966. He was appointed to his present judicial position Jan. 1, 1967. Married and the father of three children, Judge McIlhany has been active in Boy Scout work, serving on the executive board of the Adobe Walls Council and the national council for the past 15 years. Bill Getting is banquet chairman and Mrs. Fred Neslage is vice chairman.

"This is the one time during the year when parents really have the opportunity to publicly thank the volunteer Scouters for the many hours spent in training boys." Getting said, "and we are looking for a good turnout.

"If there are parents or other friends of Scouting who would like to attend but have not been contacted, we suggest they call Bill Walker, district Scout executive," Getting said.

Drivers License Renewals Change Set For Jan. 1

Beginning Jan. 1, 1968, driver's license renewals can no longer be made by mail. Each person must go to a local office for a vision check and be photographed. Birth certificates are not required for renewal applications. Operators licenses ending in even numbers will renew for 4 years; the licenses ending in odd numbers will renew for 2 years the first time and 4 years thereafter. Commercial and chauffeur licenses ending in even numbers will renew for 2 years; the licenses ending in odd numbers will renew for 1 year the first time and 2 years thereafter. All licenses will expire on birthdate.

EXAMPLE: Your birthdate is July 10 and you hold an operators license No. 2176902 that expires Oct. 15, 1968. About 30 days prior to the expiration date you should go to the local office for renewal. There your eyes will be checked and a photograph made (the film is sent to Austin for processing and your license is returned by mail). Since your license number ends in an even number, you will renew for 4 years the first time. The fee will be $6.00 for 4 years and your new license will show an expiration date. You have gained 10 months on your driver's license. Some people will gain only a few days while others gain nearly a full year due to the new policy of expiration date on your birthdate.

Only those people receiving three or more tickets for moving traffic violations within 12 consecutive months or those involved in accidents will be required to take a complete examination before renewal.

Motorcycle operators will be required to take a new driving test on a motorcycle when renewing any type license so that it may be included in the license. Beginning Jan. 1, headgear will be required by law for all motorcycle operators.

Medicare Signing Now Thru March

Persons 65 or older who did not sign up in the first enrollment period for the medical expense part of Medicare may now do so through March, 1968, according to Virgil J. Holloway, Pampa social security Officer-in-charge.

Coverage for late enrollees would begin July 1, 1968.

This part of Medicare helps pay doctor bills and other medical services not provided under the hospital part of the law. Doctor's services are covered no matter where received—home, office, or hospital.

The present monthly premium rate of $3 with the government paying the other half, will continue through March, 1968. Before the end of 1967, the premium rate through 1969 will be announced.

Area residents who wish additional information about this or other parts of the social security, should contact the Pampa social security office, in the Hughes Bldg., downtown Pampa. Phone: MO 4-3381.

Newspaper Boy Critically Injured By Hit-Run Driver, Boys Arrested

WICHITA, Kan. (UPI)—Police arrested two teen-agers today and sought two others in a hit-run accident that critically injured a young newspaper carrier Nov. 14.

Lt. Melvin Raush said a 16-year-old in custody told police there were four boys in a stolen car that pinned Norma George, 13, against a tree. George was able to push a girl companion from the path of the car before he was hit. Raush said the 16-year-old and another boy, 15, were arrested after a tip to police. A 13-year-old and another youth, 14, were out of town on a Thanksgiving holiday trip, but were expected to be arrested as soon as they return.

Raush said the 13 and 14-year-olds had stolen the car. Police said the 16-year-old admitted driving the vehicle. Names of those in custody and the youths sought were not released because of Kansas statutes covering juveniles. The victim may be crippled for life as a result of being pinned to the tree by the wrecked car.

He captured the hearts of many because he pushed a 14-year-old girl out of the way of the speeding auto and was himself hit.

The driver in custody told police that the gas pedal had stuck on the stolen car and he had lost control of the vehicle. He said he had been too frightened to surrender.

City Council Aims Tuesday's Agenda

Approving payment of $36,770.21 to Canadian River Water Authority for additional distribution facilities as provided by the supplemental contract to original aqueduct contract is the main item on the agenda of the Pampa City Commission when they meet at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday in City Hall.

The city fathers face a light agenda with three other items scheduled.

The council will consider awarding bids on various water main supplies and consider passage of an ordinance on first reading to require the removal of dilapidated buildings and scrap or trash from lots.

The final scheduled item on the agenda will be to approve and authorize the mayor to execute a contract naming Texas Securities Corporation as the fiscal agent in preparing the 1968 paving program.

Scouts Comb Woods For Murder Clues

QUAKERTOWN, Pa. (UPI)—Some 50 Explorer Scouts combed woods and fields Friday for any bits of evidence in the cold-blooded murder of a child and his grandparents.

John Brickajlick, 72, his wife, Mary, 71, an invalid, and their grandson, William, 11, were found shot to death Thursday in the couple's farmhouse at nearby Silverdale.

The scouts were aiding state and local police in searching for "additional" clues. It had been reported several articles of clothing were found Wednesday night in a field near the farmhouse at a spot where Brickajlick's stolen truck was seen by a witness.

The bodies were discovered early Thursday morning. Police theorize they had been shot by Hughes said he was told a box of goodies was sent to him recently, but "I never saw it."

"I ate some of it," an aide sheepishly admitted. "It was being passed around."

"Maybe," Hughes said with a chuckle, "I'd better investigate my own staff."

REPLACE OFFICER
BERLIN (UPI)—The top political officer of Soviet forces in East Germany has been replaced, the official Communist party daily Neues Deutschland reported Friday.

The newspaper reported that Col. Gen. S.P. Vasyagin had been replaced by Col. Gen. E. E. Malzev as chief of political administration to Soviet forces commander Gen. Pyotr Koshevoi.

The report said the ring's assignment was to collect funds for Red guerrillas in West Borneo.

Shooting on High Seas Called 'Double Murder'

MERIDA, Mexico (UPI)—An American consul who talked to the survivor of a shooting outburst on the high seas described the incident Saturday as "double murder."

But details were still being checked to find out the motive and the suspect or suspects.

The shooting appeared to have grown from an argument that turned into two slayings off the Mexican coast.

The U.S. Embassy in Mexico City quoted a consul at Merida as saying he had talked with a survivor, Louis Duhon, a native of Dusan, La., and Duhon told him about the shooting of Saturday, Nov. 18.

The U.S. embassy in Mexico City quoted the Esto Fleet tied up the Esto Fleet tied up to the Sandra Lee and pulled it to sea.

The consul quoted Duhon as saying he was below decks and heard shots and when he emerged he found the captain, Lee Kendall of Matamoros, Mexico, and a crewman, whose identity was not known, dead of gunshot wounds.

Duhon said a man from the Esto Fleet had a pistol and threatened him. Duhon told the consul he grabbed a life preserver and jumped overboard.

Jumped Overboard
The consul said Duhon told him the Esto Fleet rammed the Sandra Lee and left him floating in the water. He was picked up later. The Sandra Lee capsize and went aground.

Authorities said the Sandra Lee is owned by the Bay Shrimp Co. of Port Isabel, Tex., which is owned by Gene Felicione of Tampa, Fla.

The U. S. Coast Guard sent airplanes and cutters to look for the Esto Fleet and perhaps the other vessels to get more information.

Kendall's body was buried in Campeche, authorities said.

In Port Isabel, Duhon's wife told United Press International she knew of no grudge between the Sandra Lee and any other boat. She said she first heard of the incident Wednesday.

Miss Avila's married name is Penny Penny. Her husband is an accountant.

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI)—Larry Mazitello wanted to earn some overtime pay on the Thanksgiving holiday, so his girlfriend brought him the traditional holiday meal at work.

"It didn't bother her a bit," said Mazitello, after they had dined on turkey and the trimmings in the quiet confines of the Ramsey County Morgue.

LEICESTER, England (UPI)—Jeffrey Goulder had driven his new car less than 200 yards from the distributor from whom he had purchased it when a front wheel fell off.

The distributor was fined 10 pounds ($24) for selling a car in an unfit condition. Goulder was also fined 10 pounds. His fine was for driving a car in an unfit condition.

Samaritan Warning
AURORA, Colo. (UPI)—Daniel Patrick Stears, 19, of Aurora told the judge he was just trying to help.

Arapahoe County Court Judge Paul Leo believed him, and it cost Stears $20 in fine.

Stears pleaded guilty Tuesday to setting up a crude sign along an Aurora street which read, "speed trap ahead." He said he put the sign up to warn motorists of a radar speed zone which police had set up just ahead.

"I was just trying to be a good samaritan," Stears said.

Gov. Connally Calls Three-day Statewide Conference on Arts

Governor John Connally will call a three-day statewide conference on the arts to be held in Austin on March 31, April 1 and 2, 1968, according to Theodore H. Strauss, Dallas, chairman of the new Texas Fine Arts Commission.

"This first 'Governor's Conference on the Arts' will have five major objectives," Strauss explained. "These purposes are to examine the state of the fine arts in Texas—to evaluate what is good, discover areas of weakness—and propose means of development; to learn where Texas and Texas communities stand in concern for and achievement in the arts and to encourage communities to examine their efforts or lack of effort in behalf of the Fine Arts; to stimulate educators in all of the fine arts to establish programs which produce not only practitioners of the arts but also appreciators; to encourage aid from business and industry for the fine arts; and to introduce the Texas Fine Arts Commission to the people and organizations involved in cultural activity throughout the state and to alert the commission to the kind of assistance most needed at the local level."

"Keynote and special panel speakers for the conference will be drawn from the top ranks of our nation's cultural and business leaders," Strauss said. "The three-day meeting will open on Sunday evening, March 31, with a 'gala' featuring outstanding organizations and artists from throughout the state. On Monday evening, April 1, the Governor and Mrs. Connally will be the guests of honor at a dinner for the conference. All sessions of the conference will be held in the Municipal Auditorium in Austin. Personal invitations from the Governor will be mailed to conferencees early in February. More than twenty-five hundred persons are expected to attend.

"We've got this hill!"

The message shouted over a radio transmitter by a U.S. soldier told of success at Hill 875 and signaled the end—at least temporarily—of the longest and bloodiest battle of the Vietnam war.

The North Vietnamese fought on Hill 875 in the Dak To area because it was apparently their chief supply depot in the strategic Central Highlands, where they planned to launch an offensive designed to cut South Vietnam in two. They were entrenched in heavily reinforced bunkers linked by tunnels winding through the hill as deep as fifty feet.

In Washington, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of American forces in Vietnam, said the bitter fighting in the Dak To area was "the beginning of a great defeat for the enemy."

In the five-day climax of the 22-day Dak To battle, some 1,000 American troops fought their way up the 2,800-foot Hill 875 through withering machine gun and rifle fire and deadly mortar rounds.

U.S. intelligence sources reported after the battle that many of the 12,000 North Vietnamese in the area were moving out.

The battle, which began Nov. 2, when U.S. troops came under fire, raged for the next 17 days over the hilly area until boiling to a peak on Hill 875. In all, Americans suffered 247 killed and 939 wounded and the South Vietnamese 78 killed and 197 wounded. The North Vietnamese had more than 1,500 killed.

Around the world:
Nicosia: Tanks, troops and missiles rumbled along both sides of the 100-mile frontier between Greece and Turkey in a show of force over the Mediterranean island of Cyprus, where Greeks and Turks have been feuding during the seven years since the island received independence from Britain. The latest crisis erupted after 20 Greek soldiers were reported killed when a truck hit a landmine.

London: The British Labor government devalued the pound sterling from $2.80 to $2.40 in an effort to cure its balance of payments and create a stable economy. In the wake of the move there was a round of speculative buying of gold on the London and Paris gold markets and some saw it as an effort by President Charles de Gaulle to weaken the international role of the dollar.

Washington: The Federal Reserve Board, in a move designed to protect the dollar, announced it was increasing the discount rate to 4½ per cent from 4 per cent. This is the rate commercial banks pay to borrow money from the Federal Reserve Board. In the wake of this move, banks announced they were increasing their prime interest rates on business loans to 6 per cent from 5½ per cent.

Washington: Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the House Ways & Means Committee, announced his committee would again take up President Johnson's proposal of a tax increase because the administration had promised to cut about $4 billion from the current budget.

Vatican City: Pope Paul VI made his first public appearance since an operation Nov. 4 by speaking from the window of his apartment to more than 20,000 persons gathered in St. Peter's square.

HORSE AND WAGON PILGRIMAGE

Arkansas Family Seeks Home in Mexico

HOUSTON (UPI)—The Ell Garber family left Friday on the last half of a pilgrim age to Mexico for a community of Amish and Mennonite families living in the Ozark Mountains of northern Arkansas.

Garber, 34, and his wife, Lyn-day, 26, said they hope to find a farm in Mexico and raise their children to rely on their self-sufficiency of the soil.

"We feel we've been living too high a standard," Garber said. "We're trying to get back in the faith and the grace of God. Man must rely on God. We've compromised too far. We have no more definite idea where the family is going than did the pilgrims who came across on the Mayflower."

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Democratic strategists hesitate to forecast precisely the impact of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's prospective presidential candidacy on their 1968 senatorial candidates. But they see it tentatively as bringing nothing but trouble.

Similarly, Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., an early "dove" on Vietnam, will find it hard to avoid taking sides since he shares McCarthy's feeling about Vietnam but will be running as an organization (Johnson) Democrat.

That also means trouble for Democratic governors, who fell into minority status when Kentucky elected a Republican chief executive on Nov. 4.

McCarthy's challenge of President Johnson, party leaders fear, can only put "on the spot" those colleagues who are tied to the Democratic President regardless of their individual feelings about Vietnam. In some states it may divert campaign money, although they regard this as a secondary problem.

One In Trouble
Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., the GOP senatorial campaign chief, has only 11 incumbents facing the voters. And only one, Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa, is regarded as facing real trouble through a possible challenge from Gov. Harold E. Hughes.

Thirteen Democratic governorships will be up for grabs in 1968. In New Hampshire, Louisiana, Missouri and Illinois the McCarthy challenge could be especially disruptive. But it is the senators who are tasting some early bitterness.

Wisconsin's Sen. Gaylord Nelson, one of the Democratic class elected in 1962, probably will be hurt most by the Wisconsin senator's race. For McCarthy's preliminary plans call for him entering Wisconsin's presidential primary, as well as those in New Hampshire, California and Massachusetts.

Sammy Davis Jr. and Swedish Wife Agree to Separate

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Sinatra's marriage. Sammy Davis Jr. and his Swedish-born wife May Britt announced Friday they had agreed to a trial separation, following by two days the breakup of his friend Frank

Long Talk
"We had a long conversation about our difficulties before May reached the conclusion we should try a separation," Davis said.

He dismissed any relationship to the timing of the separation in regard to the Frank Sinatra-Mia Farrow break-up Wednesday as "ridiculous."

Sinatra was best man at the couple's wedding Nov. 13, 1960 at Davis' home. Among the guests were Peter Lawford and Pat Kennedy Lawford, sister of the late President, who have since divorced.

The interracial marriage was the first in Hollywood involving a top-flight star, Miss Britt, whose real name is Maybritt

Wilkins, gave up her career immediately after the marriage. They are the parents of a daughter, Tracey, 6, and an adopted son, Mark, 7.

Much Traveling
Since the marriage Davis has traveled across the United States, and Europe in his play, "Golden Boy," and for personal appearance in concerts and nightclubs.

hopa to work it out somehow." It was the second marriage for both. Davis previously was married to singer, Loray White for less than a year. Miss Britt, 30, was married to Edwin Jans Grogson, son of a wealthy California family. They were divorced in 1959.

WON FIGHT

MELBOURNE (UPI)—Johnny Famechon of Australia stopped John O'Brien of Scotland on an 11-round technical knockout Friday to win the British Empire featherweight title.

FURTHER TALKS
LONDON (UPI)—Representatives of 70 world airlines held further talks on air fares today following agreement Friday to raise fares in devalued currencies by 16.7 per cent, an increase of two per cent over the pound devaluation.

Texas Building Hits New High

AUSTIN (UPI)—The index of Texas building activity rose 26 points in October to a new high for that month, the University of Texas Business Research Bureau reported.

At 160.6 per cent of the 1957-58 base, the index was 51 points above the depressed level of October 1966.

"Availability of long-term capital for investment in mortgages, plus strong demand, have resulted in a boom," said Dr. Francis B. May, professor of business statistics.

"Nationally the housing construction outlook is good, assuming continued availability of mortgage money," May said.

However, he said, "a substantial body of opinion among economists holds that there will be a shortage of credit for homebuilding next year unless a tax bill is enacted by Congress."

Devaluation of the British pound and the large federal budget deficit "put upward pressure on all interest rates," he said.

"The federal reserve system may continue to supply sufficient funds at higher rates to meet the needs of business, but continued inflation may force the system to reduce the availability of funds."

October building authorizations included $73.7 million worth of new residential construction, $69.9 million in new non-residential building, and $15.1 million in remodeling and repairs.

In per capita building expenditure so far this year, Austin leads the state with $508. Houston has spent $377, Dallas $296, Fort Worth $217, El Paso $176 and San Antonio $158.

SENT CONGRATULATIONS

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jockey Angel Cordero, who set an all-time New York winnings record, has received a telegram of congratulations from Puerto Rican Gov. Roberto Sanchez Vilella.

Cordero, who comes from Puerto Rico booted home his 25th winner of the New York season at Aqueduct on Wednesday to surpass the record set four years ago by Bob Ussery.

NEW GIANT

NEW YORK (UPI)—Defensive tackle Roger Anderson has been activated by the New York Giants to replace injured Jim Moran.

Anderson, a 265-pound graduate of Virginia Union, was recalled from the Giants' taxi squad. His activation boosted the team's roster to 39.

Harvesters Fill the Baskets With 110 Points

By RON CROSS

The Pampa Harvesters won't anymore cage action until next Thursday when the O' Texas Basketball Tournament gets underway.

Records fell like loose bricks with the Harvesters thrashing the Indians, 110-61, with "Go, Go" George Bailey calmly gunning in 42 points.

The 110 points was the second most ever scored by a Pampa team, the second most ever scored in Harvester Fieldhouse and Bailey's 42 broke the old mark of 39 set in 1956 by Gene Brown against Dumas.

The Harvesters of 1963-64 beat Caprock 111-47 on Jan. 1, 1964. Coach Terry Culley used all 12 of his players but Quannah couldn't have cared less because they didn't find any of 'em as a soft touch.

Bailey's output came on 15 of 32 field goals and 12 of 13 from the free toss line. He hit 12 free tosses before missing his final one in the third period.

The reserves were in when Pampa hit the century mark and Jim Hollis, who tallied 35 points for the night, got the 100th and 101st points to make it 101-56 just 3:14 from the end. Hollis then made it 103-56 and scored the last four for the final 110-61 count.

Pampa thumped in 43 of 83 from the field and 24 of 31 from the charity stripe while Quannah got off plenty of shots, 63, but sank only 25 and 11 of 26 from the foul line.

Fouls were plentiful also. Pampa was whistled down 21 times and the Indians, 19.

A foursome of Pampa players scored in double figures with Beau Bond netting 12 and John Carlos putting forth his best effort of the season with 11.

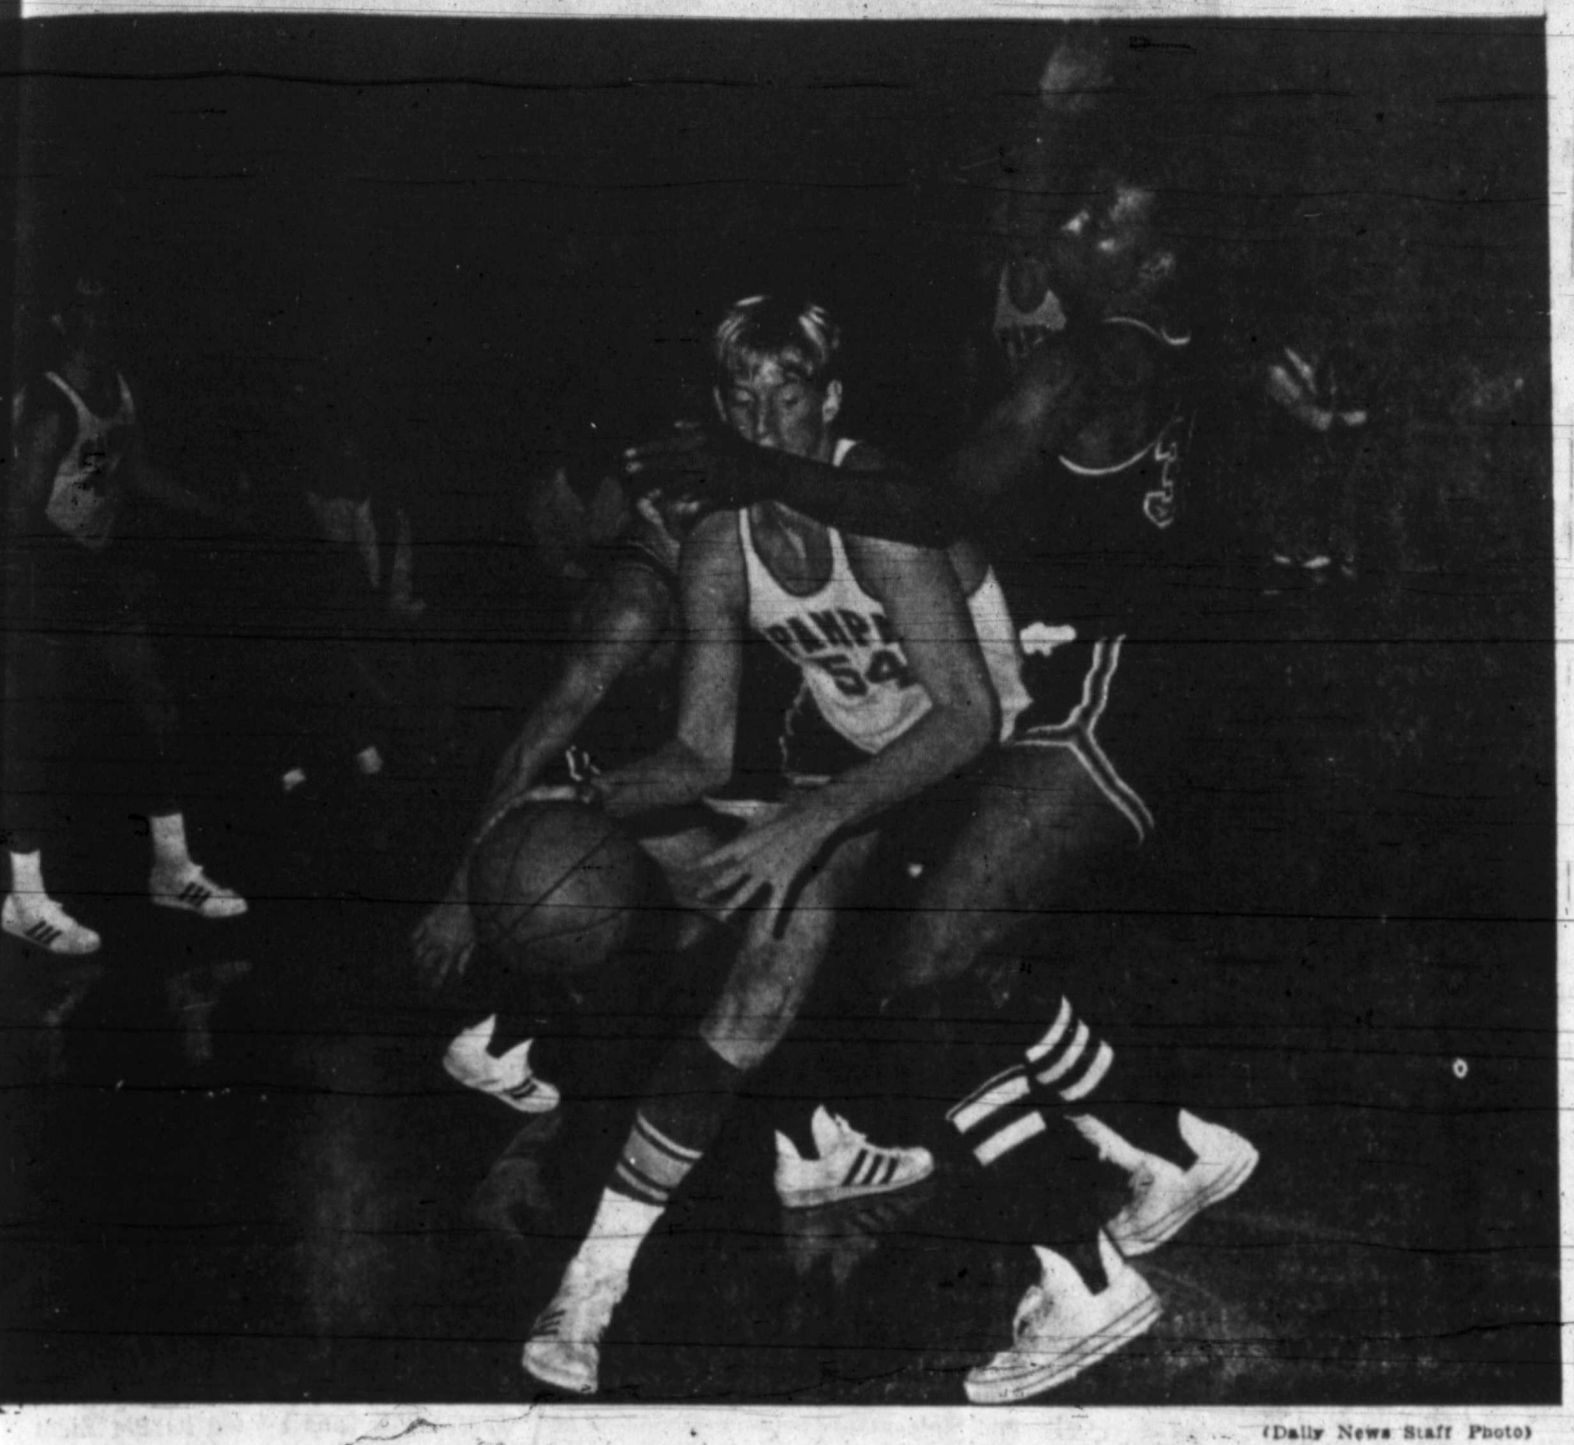

Bailey hit the 42 point mark midway in the first period and was rested for the remainder of the evening.

It was never a game after the first quarter, which the Harvesters led 25-13. At halftime the Green and Gold held a 62-35 margin and after three quarters it was 91-47.

Bailey's 42nd point made it 99-53 then Hollis sank his favorite shot, a 12-footer from the corner to push Pampa past the 100-point barrier for the first time.

The victory pushed the Harvesters to 3-1. They've moved down Winters, 92-28, lost to San Angelo, 61-57 and ripped Childress, 94-46.

Coach Bill Brown's Shockers breezed with ease, winning their fourth in as many games, 77-28. Louis Brantley paced the scoring with 20. Bradshaw hit 13 and Larg and Gailman scored 12 each.

STOP AND GO — The Harvesters' Bo Lang had to stop on this drive, then go again and went around Quannah's Bill Payne to score a basket. At left is the Harvesters' John Carlos (44). Pampa won, 110-61.

AERIAL BOMB DOES IT

Christian's Nudge Owls

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI)—P. D. Shabay's pressurized 63-yard scoring toss to Ross Montgomery late in the final quarter carried Texas Christian to a 14-10 victory over the Rice Owls Saturday and within range of a second-place Southwest Conference finish.

Shabay had Rice players swarming all around him when he fired the long one which the fleet 215-pound Montgomery hauled in around the Rice 45-yard line after flashing past 15-yard line after disdaining field-goal efforts. The loss left them 1-3 in league play and 3-6 for the season.

Rice, after counting on a 33-yard Frank Puska field goal the first time it got within scoring range in the second quarter, had finally taken the lead 10-0 and a half minutes before TCU's winning touchdown when fullback Lester Lehman capped a 59-yard drive with a one-yard plunge.

They got their fourth chance after the TCU touchdown when they drove to the TCU 10 yard stripe but a blizng tackle by defensive end Pat Walker on quarterback Robert Hailey put an end to the threat.

Prior to that, the Owls had driven to the TCU 11 in the third quarter, and tobe 6 and 14-yard lines in the second quarter without scoring.

Galley and starting quarterback Robby Shelton had a frustrating day with dropped passes and penalties hurting their attack, but they often contributed to their own problems by overshooting open receivers, and a 15-yard penalty against TCU on a fourth-down punt kept alive the Owls only touchdown drive.

TCU can now share second place in the conference by defeating Southern Methodist in Dallas next week.

Texas Tech clinched a runner-up spot behind Cotton Bowl-bound Texas A&M by beating Arkansas 31-27 for a 5-3 league record earlier in the afternoon.

Passing Arm of Douglass Pushes Kansas by Missouri

LAWRENCE, Kan. (UPI)—Strong-armed Bobby Douglass 52-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter spurred underdog Kansas to a 17-6 Big Eight upset over Missouri Saturday.

Defensive back Ward Coleman, whose fumble recovery set up Douglass' bomb to flanker Ben Olson; intercepted a desperate pass and raced eight yards for the clinching touchdown in the final two minutes.

The victory, Kansas' first over Missouri since 1957, gave the Jayhawks a second-place tie with Bluebonnet. Lowly-bound Colorado in the Big Eight at 5-2. Kansas finished 5-5 in its first season under coach Pepper Rodgers.

Missouri finished 4-3 in the conference and 7-3 overall.

The Tigers held a 6-0 lead and was on the move at its own 45 late in the second quarter when quarterback Gary Kombrink fumbled on a handoff and Coleman recovered at the Jayhawk 48.

On the first play from scrimmage Douglass sent Olson, a 9.5 sprinter in the track team, down the right sideline. Olson raced behind two Missouri defenders and gathered in the pass at the 6 before falling over the goal line.

Late SMU Score Edges Bears, 16-10

WACO, Tex. (UPI)—Mike Livingston punctured Baylor's defense with a personal air show Saturday, but had to scramble for a two-yard touchdown plunge in the final minutes to give Southern Methodist a tough 16-10 victory over the Bears.

The talented quarterback set a 1967 record with his passing, completing 25 of 33 for 286 yards to give him 126 completions for the season, 16 better than the record set by Fred Benner in 1951.

The Mustangs, who pushed Baylor deep into the Southwest Conference cellar with the win, jumped to a 10-0 first period lead on a 23-yard field goal by Dennis Payne and a one-yard plunge by Jim Hagle. But Baylor came bouncing back.

The Bears got on the board in the second period when Charles Wilson dove two yards, and tied the score at 10-10 in the third quarter on a 22 yard field goal by Terry Cozby.

Livingston, a senior from Dallas, used the air on all but the end of his winning touchdown. The 80-yard drive took nine plays, six in the air. The big play was a short toss to Pinky Clements, who weaved 29 yards before the Bears stopped him at the Baylor six.

Baylor, which could manage only 10 yards total offense in the first period, missed two field goals after its catch-up attempt gained the Bears the tie. Cozby was wide on a 28-yard third quarter try and on a 50-yard attempt in the last period.

Tech Rides to 31-27 Victory

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—Sophomore quarterback Joe Matulich guided Texas Tech to a 17-point halftime lead and a 17-point touchdown pass and ran back a pass interception 31 yards for a touchdown to secure a 31-27 Red Raider win over Arkansas Saturday. The loss knocked the Razorbacks out of the post-season bowl picture.

Matulich ran for one score, exploded for 17 points in the second quarter. Arkansas came storming back, but another Matulich touchdown pass and Moylan's interception clinched the game.

The victory gave Tech a 6-4 record and at least a tie for second place in the Southwest Conference. Arkansas' record was 4-5-1, the worst since 1958 when it was 4-6.

The loss ruined Arkansas' chances of going to the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The Liberty Bowl had extended an invitation to the Razorbacks providing they could beat Tech.

Matulich scored on a four-yard run in the second quarter and halfback Mike Leinert ran two yards for a score as Tech jumped out 14-0 lead. Kenny Vinyard added a 46-yard field goal and Tech was up by 17 at the half.

Tech upped their margin to 24-0 when Matulich hit Leinert on a four-yard touchdown pass and Vinyard again converted. Arkansas quickly retaliated.

Razorback quarterback Ronnie South hit David Dickey on a 70-yard touchdown pass play. Tailback Mike Hendren ran over for the two-point conversion.

Minutes later, Ducky capped a 23-yard march in six plays with a one-yard run for his 16th touchdown of the year. The touchdown was set up when defensive end Harford Hamilton blocked Vinyard's punt.

Tech then dealt Arkansas the death-blow. Moylan intercepted a South pass and ran it back 31 yards for a touchdown with 2:15 left in the third quarter. Vinyard's kick was good and Tech lead 31-14.

South passed to Max Peacock downfield for a 77-yard touchdown play, and after Bob White's conversion kick. Arkansas trailed by 10 as the fourth period began.

With four minutes to go in the game, Arkansas drove to the Tech 13 where South connected with Mike Sigman for a 13-yard touchdown.

Tech then ran out the clock.

It was the second straight year that the underdog Red Raiders had knocked Arkansas from a post-season berth. Last year Tech upset the Porkers 21-16 keeping them from a Cotton Bowl berth.

Dickey's two-touchdown performance raised his season total to 16, tying an Arkansas season record set by Bobby Burnett in 1965.

Tulsa Upsets Cougars 22-13

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—Mike Stripling, Rick Eber, and Harry Wood, ringmasters of Tulsa's aerial circus, capitalized on six Houston fumbles and two interceptions to trim the favored Cougars 22-13 Saturday.

An intercepted pass on the Houston 20 and fumble recovery moments later at the Cougars' 36 set up Tulsa's two fourth period touchdowns that brought the Hurricane back from a 13-9 deficit.

Quarterback Stripling scored on a one-yard plunge and then fired a 33-yard pass that Wood grabbed in the end zone after it had been tipped by a defender.

Flanker Eber set up Stripling's score and a second quarter one-yard touchdown run by fullback Cee Ellison with leaping catches near the end zone.

Houston, which entered the game leading the nation in rushing offense, as held to 131 yards on the ground.

Tulsa's inspired defensive unit was paced by linebacker Bob Junko's 16 tackles and two fumble recoveries by 267-pound tackle Willie Crittendon.

Tulsa, holder of five straight national passing titles, threw only one pass in the first half, but came out throwing after trailing 7-3 at the half, and completed 12 of 23 for 198 yards.

Houston's breakaway threats Paul Gipson and Warren McVea, each tallied once, but failed to break into the Tulsa secondary with any consistency.

The victory gave Tulsa a 6-3 mark and dropped the Cougars to 7-3 for the year.

Tulsa opened the scoring with a 32-yard field goal by Doug Wyatt midway through the first quarter that marked the first time all year Houston had been scored upon in the opening period.

The Cougars, whose defensive unit recorded a fumble recovery, a blocked kick and three pass interceptions, took the lead with a three-yard run by McVea and a 17-yard dash by Gipson.

Backed by the savage defensive play, Stripling took to the air and relied on the circus catches of Eber and Wood to give Tulsa three straight touchdowns and the victory.

KENNY NAMED TO BIG ONE

Hebert Named to Look's All-American Team

"Quite proud, we're both quite proud."

This was the way Walter Hebert, father of former Pampa Harvester, now All-American, Kenny Hebert summed up his and his son's feeling to Kenny being named Look Magazine's All-American Football team.

Contacted at his home in Pampa the elder Hebert said that, "I can't express how I feel, the words just won't come. Ken didn't receive any awards in High School so we're especially grateful for this one, the BIG one."

Houston's split end and the nation's leading scorer in 1966, Hebert couldn't be contacted in Tulsa where he and his teammates played Tulsa University Saturday.

Hebert left after Saturday's game for New York where he and the other Look All-American's prepared for a spot on Bob Hope's Wednesday night show, beginning at 8 p.m. on KGNC-TV, channel 4.

Look's team, recognized as one of the top three, is picked by the Football Writers Association of America.

Although Hebert was only thinking Saturday of the game with Tulsa he soon has a decision to face of whether to turn pro in baseball or football. In football he is a threat as a pass receiver, punter and blocker, all of which coach Yeoman says he is the best at.

Last spring first baseman Hebert hit .345 for the Cougar baseball team.

Going into Saturday's game he ranked second in the nation in punting with a 43.6 average and was third in scoring with 85 points.

He had a chance to move to second place, needing only eight points to move ahead of Puch Colson, of East Carolina, who finished the season with 92.

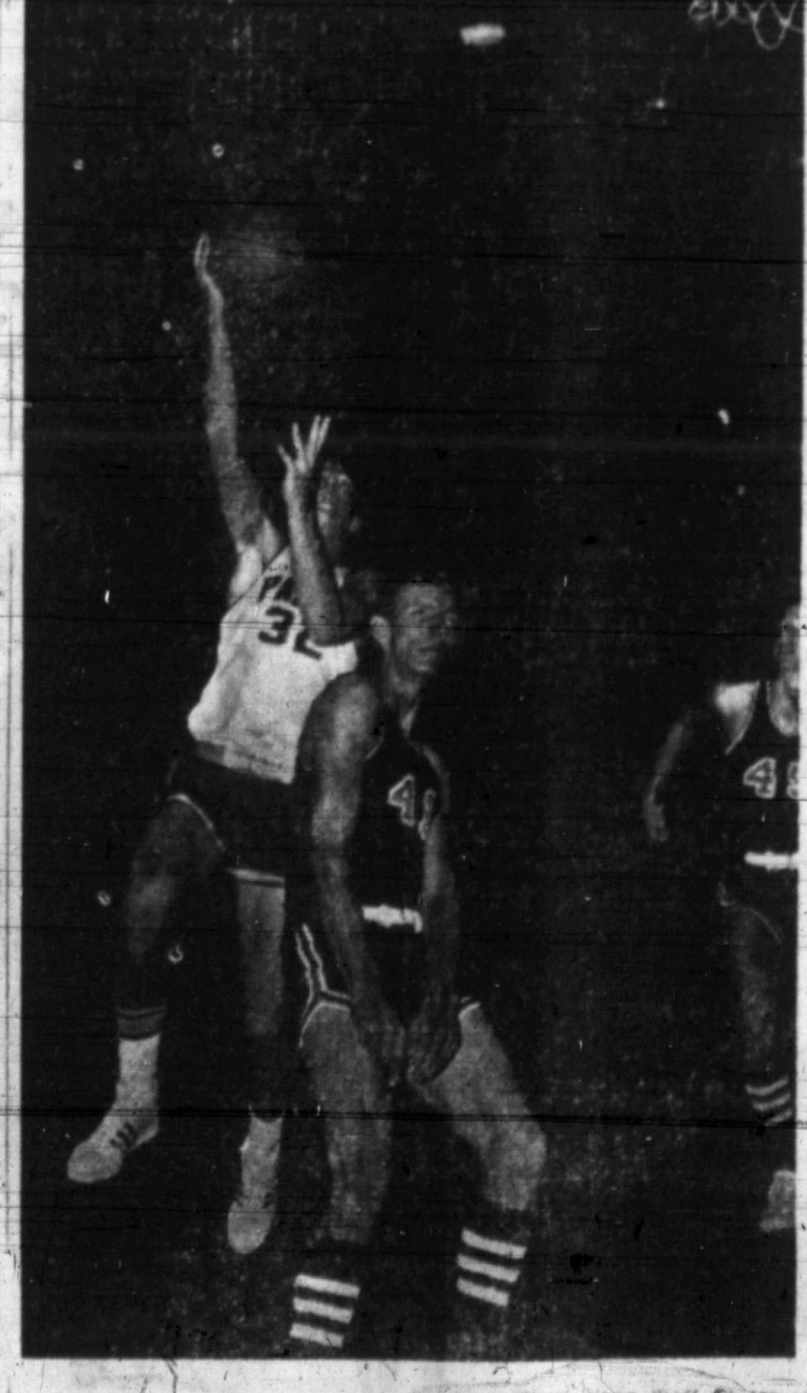

Leroy Keyes of Purdue went 114 points for first place going into Saturday's game with Indiana.

Hebert won the scoring title in 1966 with 113 points, but Houston hasn't been passing as much this season, thus Hebert hasn't had as much chance to score.

It appears likely Houston will not get a Bowl bid this year and the senior Hebert will play in the North-South Shrine Bowl game on Christmas Day and the Hula Bowl on Jan. 6, both of which will be on national television.

Hebert was the only player from the Southwest area to be named on the offensive team. Guard Granville Liggins of Oklahoma and the University of Texas' Corby Robertson were first team selections. Robertson is a linebacker.

Hebert is Pampa's first All-American football player.

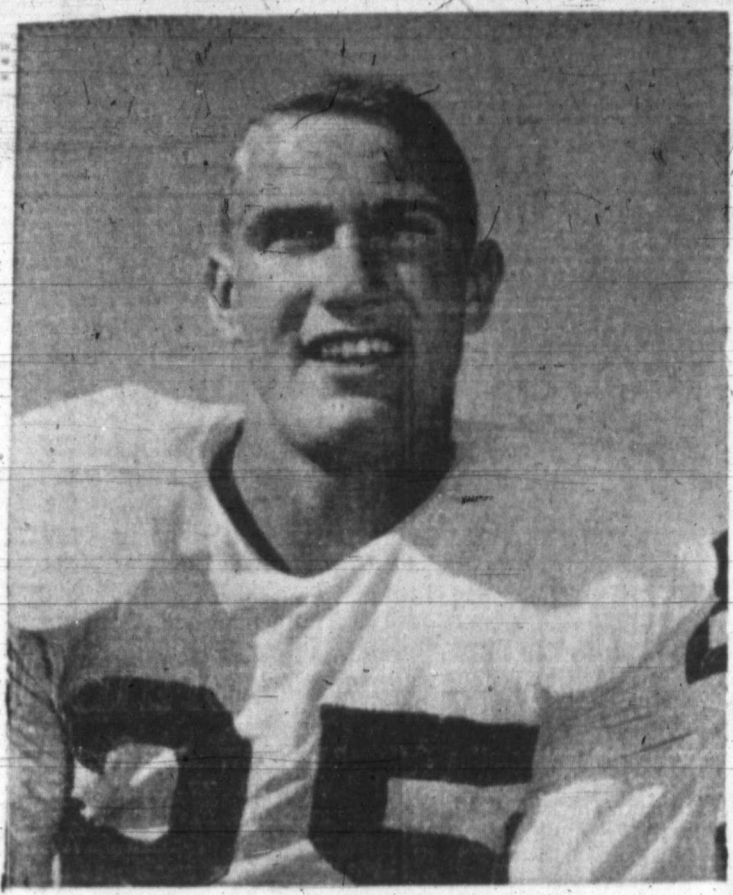

BROKEN RECORD—Pampa's George Bailey played like a broken record against Quannah Friday night, scoring 42 points to set a new Harvester scoring record. Above, Bailey goes over Quannah's Jim Morris (44) for his 41st and 42nd points.

Memphis State Upsets Eagles

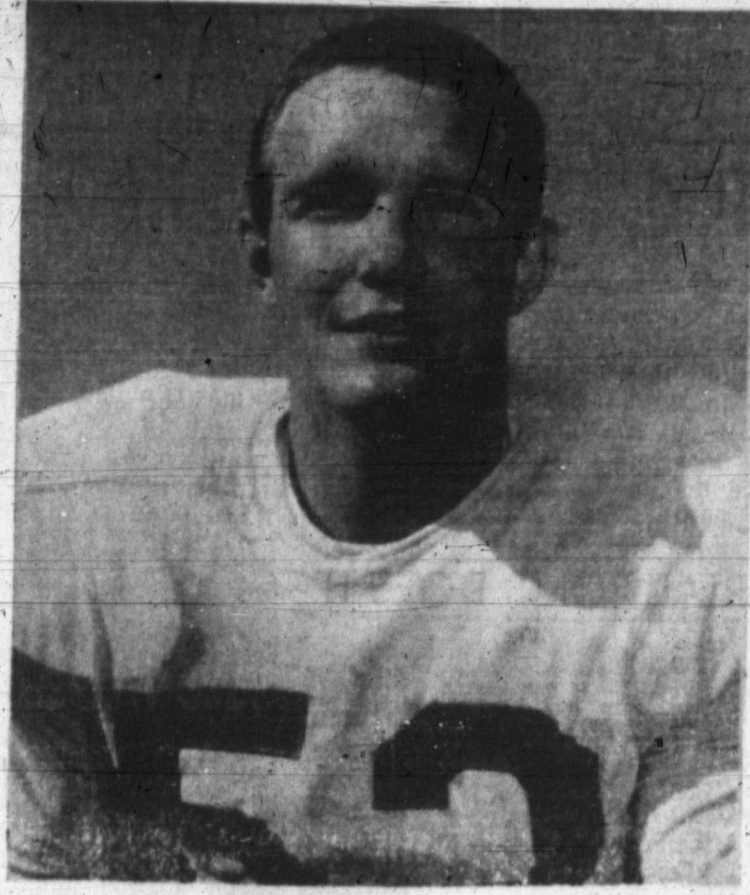

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—The Memphis State Tigers fashined a 22-point last half scoring spurge Saturday to upset unbeat North Texas State 29-20.

The Tigers, trailing 14-7 at the half, scored three touchdowns and a safety to squelch the favored Eagles' hopes for their first unbeaten season in 52 years.

Memphis State began its campaign with 52 seconds remaining in the first half when wingback Dale Brady snared a 40-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Terry Padgett. The third quarter was clearly Memphis State's as fullback Herb Covington bulled in from 10 yards out and tailback Russell Denof scored from the four.

L. D. ROWDEN

L. D., Glen, Ted Praised

Coach Baldwin of the UH Kitten freshman football squad was really proud of his Pampa contingent this year. The Pampa boys of Ted Heiskell, Glen Lewis, and L. D. Rowden all started for the 4-0 Kittens, one of the best freshman groups ever assembled at UH.

Rowden set two individual records for the Kittens. His 8 touchdowns, 1 passing and 7 rushing, are a new mark as well as his 48 total points. Rowden also led the team in rushing with 397 yards on 74 carries and had a fine punting average of 35.3 yards on 17 punts.

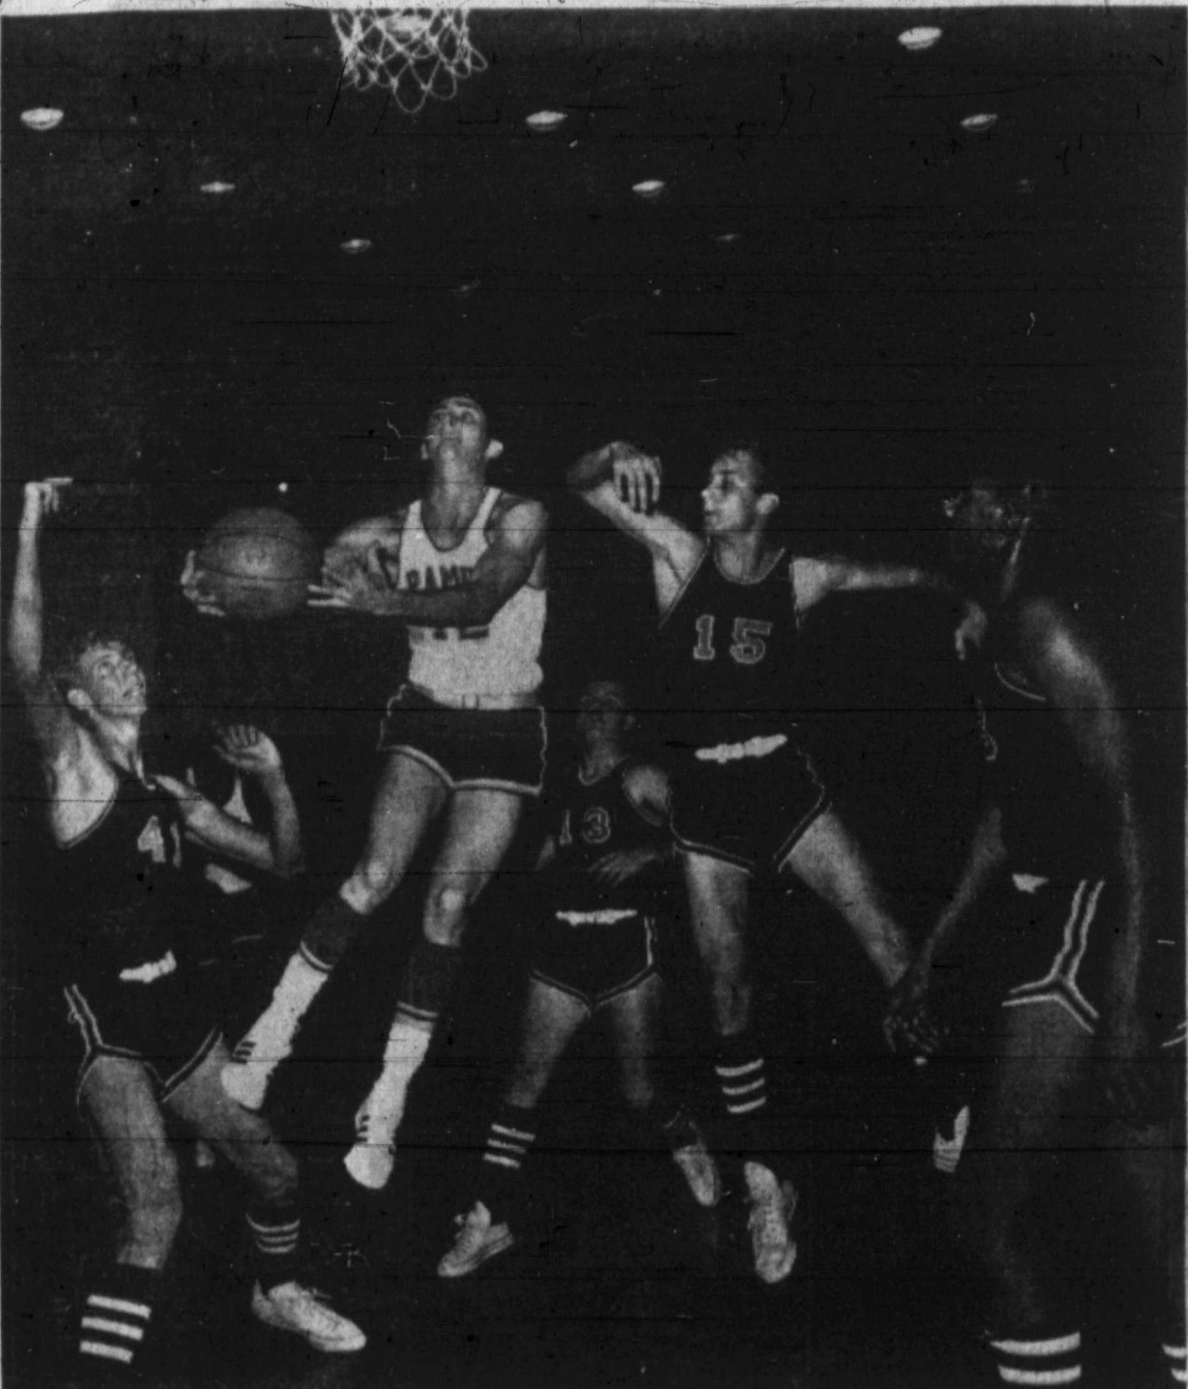

Grid Banquet Ducats On Sale

Mothers and fathers of Pampa High School football players and other members of the Pampa Quarterback club are working in high gear to get things ready for the Harvest football banquet, scheduled Dec. 9 at 7:30 p.m.

The banquet promises to be one of the best with Oklahoma University head football coach Chuck Fairbanks as guest speaker.

Fairbanks, in his first season as head coach of the "Boomer Sooners" clinched the Big Eight title Thursday when the Big Red routed Nebraska 21-14.

Tickets for the banquet and for two halves of beef to be given away at the banquet are on sale from any quarterback club member.

HOOK AND UP — Alvin Achord (12) does a fancy step for the Harvesters and is about to score a two-pointer to enable Pampa to rip Quannah, 110-61, Friday night. Achord scored nine points. (See story and other pictures on page 9).

Colorado Blanks Air Force, 33-0

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (UPI)—Colorado's strong arm offense led by quarterbacks Bob Anderson and Dan Kelly opened up for three touchdowns in the second quarter and two in the fourth Saturday for a 33-0 win over the Air Force Academy.

The Buffaloes, headed for the Bluebonnet Bowl, scored on a two-yard burst around end by Anderson, two 1-yard runs by reserve slotback Gary Kuxhaus, a three-yard dash into the corner by Kelly and a 30-yard pass from Kelly to tight end Gr. Springston.

Anderson injured his leg in the closing minutes of the second quarter but alternate quarterback Kelly moved the Buffaloes to the two late touchdowns. Anderson returned to the sidelines after his injury but was not allowed to play.

The Buffaloes scored their final touchdown with 25 seconds left in the game on the pass to Springston. The play capped a 66-yard drive in six plays. Two of Colorado's touchdowns came on methodical, lengthy drives.

Kelly directed a nine-play, 73-yard fourth quarter scoring march highlighted by a 17-yard ramble by slotback John Farler. Kelly also contributed runs of 14 and 7 yards before scoring from the three.

Colorado was stalled by penalties in the first quarter but moved for three touchdowns in the second period on a long, steady drive, a march started by a fumble recovery and a combination punt return-penalty.

The Buffaloes first score came on an 89-yard, 11-play drive directed by Anderson, who mixed his plays among short passes to Larry Plantz and Monte Huber, quarterback keepers to the outside and punches up the middle by fullback Wilbur Cooks.

SOONERS-COWBOYS NEXT

OSU Mauls K-State

STILLWATER, Okla. (UPI)—Veteran quarterback Ronnie Johnson hurled three touchdown passes, ran for another and Benny Goodwin returned a punt 83 yards as Oklahoma State mauled Kansas State 49-14 in a Big Eight Conference clash Saturday.

Johnson tossed scoring aeries of 13 yards to halfback Larry Gosney, 45 yards to fullback Jack Reynolds and 26 yards to wingback Terry Brown and added a 31-yard scoring gallop.

However, it was Goodwin's race down the sidelines with 28 seconds remaining before-half-time which broke open the duel between Johnson and Kansas State quarterback Bill Nossek. Tailback Cornelius Davis kept Kansas State in the game during the first half with two scoring blasts of a yard each. Alternate halfback Richard Escoe plowed over from the one and alternate quarterback Bob Cuthbert dove over from the two for Oklahoma State's other touchdown.

The win marked Oklahoma State's first home victory of the year and evened its Big Eight record at 3-3. The Cowboys are 4-1 for the year.

Craig Kessler booted all seven Oklahoma State conversions and Mike Bruhin kicked two for the Wildcats.

Kansas State closed out the year with an 0-7 league record and a 1-9 season mark.

Gophers Win Title Share With 21-14 Win Saturday

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—Quarterback Curt Wilson plunged for two touchdowns Saturday as he guided the Minnesota Gophers to a 21-14 win over Wisconsin, a share of the Big Ten title and a possible Rose Bowl bid.

The Gophers' chances of a Rose Bowl trip were dimmed by Indiana's upset of Purdue.

Kansas State took the opening kickoff and marched 76 yards in seven plays as Nossek riddled the nation's No. 1 pass defense throughout the first half. Davis carried the final two yards after receiving a 31-yard pass from Nossek to give the Wildcats a first down at the two.

John Wintermute paced the Gopher attack, rushing for 99 yards. He contributed huge hunks of yardage which led to the Gophers' two third period touchdowns.

Minnesota scored on its first drive of the second half with quarterback Curt Wilson capping a 77-yard march by diving over from the one.

The Cowboys fired back moving 60 yards in 11 plays following the ensuing kickoff to tie the game on Johnson's pass to Gosney.

Indy Rips Purdue

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI)—Terry Cole sprinted 63 yards for one touchdown and set up another tally with a 42-yard dash to lead Indiana to a 19-14 upset over Purdue Saturday and a share of the Big Ten football championship.

The win, Indiana's second over Purdue in the last 20 years and the first on Hoosier turf since 1947, gave Indiana a 9-1 record for the season and left both teams in a deadlock for the conference crown with a 6-1 season record.

Hoosier starting backfield, was the big gun offensively. He gained 155 yards in 15 carries to set an Indiana single game rushing record, surpassing the old mark of 141 by Mike Kriovshia against Minnesota last year.

His scoring sprint and the other gallop which preceded a 7-yard touchdown pass from Harry Gonso to Jade Butcher, came on identical plays, a delayed trap through center.

Minnesota also could move into the tie by beating Wisconsin. Indiana by winning, also kept its hopes for a Rose Bowl spot.

The balloting was to be taken late Saturday.

His scoring sprint and the other gallop which preceded a 7-yard touchdown pass from Harry Gonso to Jade Butcher, came on identical plays, a delayed trap through center.

He was through the Boiler-maker secondary before it could react on both occasions. Indiana's third touchdown was by Krivovshia on a two-yard plunge after a 63-yard parade by the Hoosiers.

Vols Upend Kentucky Surge for 17-7 Margin

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI)—Orange Bowl-bound Tennessee scored two first-quarter touchdowns, then held off an upstart Kentucky team for a 17-7 Southeastern Conference win before 32,000 fans Saturday.

between the two schools and the win gave Tennessee the traditional trophy, a battered beer barrel, for the third consecutive year.

The loss gave Kentucky a 2-8 record, the worst Wildcat finish since 1945. Tennessee (8-1) has one regular season game remaining before its Orange Bowl date with Oklahoma on New Year's night.

Tickets on Sale For Cage Contest

Tickets, although they are selling fast, are still on sale for the exhibition game between Bold Bule's Harlem Stars and Pampa's Cock-O'-Walk cage team.

The second-ranked Volunteers rolled on the arm of quarterback Dewey Warren for its two first-period scores, with Steve Kiner's interception setting up the first six-pointer.

Kentucky scored the first time it got the ball in the second half, going 80 yards in six plays for the touchdown.

The Cats also stopped Tennessee at the goal line midway in the fourth quarter, when defensive end Dick Palmer recovered a fumble in the end zone.

M-State Bombs Northwestern

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—Dwight Lee reeled off dazzling touchdown runs of 93 and 54 yards Saturday as Michigan State bombed Northwestern, 41-27 in the windup game for both clubs.

Kentucky quarterback Dave Bair faded back to pass in the shadow of his own end zone, but Kiner picked it off at the Wildcats' 17.

Two plays later, Warren hit tight end Bill Baker with an eight-yard scoring toss with 5:08 left in the quarter. Karl Kremser added the extra point to make it 7-0.

Tennessee scored again on the last play of the first quarter. Warren flipped a screen pass to wingback Richmond Flowers who skirted right end for 29 yards and a touchdown. Kremser again kicked the point after, and the Volunteers led 14-0 at the start of the second quarter.

Lee sprinted 93 yards with a kickoff, following Dick Emmerich's one-yard plunge in the opening period, for Northwestern's first touchdown.

It was the 63rd meeting between the two schools and the win gave Tennessee the traditional trophy, a battered beer barrel, for the third consecutive year.

Fla. St. Wins On Florida Fumbles

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Florida State snatched up Florida fumbles like candy Saturday and quarterback Kim Hammond passed the Seminoles to a 21-16 victory and a trip to the Gator Bowl. Hammond tossed touchdown passes of 38 and 9 yards and scored on a short plunge himself before a record Florida field crowd of 82,944 to give FSU its seventh victory against two losses and a tie. Florida State immediately accepted a bid to meet Penn State (8-2), which crushed Pittsburgh 42-6 Saturday in the Dec. 30 Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla. Bowl officials had announced the winner of this game would be invited. Hamford was injured in the

Goad, Holt, Hedgecoke Receive 1967 Honors

By RON CROSS
 Wheeler and McLean, despite only 50-50 records won top honors in the Pampa Daily News All Top O' Texas area football team.
 McLean coach Fred Hedgecoke was honored as area Coach - of - the - Year while Wheeler produced the Back and Lineman - of - the - Year in fullback Fred Goad and tackle Mike Holt.
 White Deer, Wheeler and McLean led in the most youngsters placed on the offensive and defensive teams, each with four players. Canadian had three. Groom, the only team in the playoffs had two and Lefors had three.
 White Deer and Wheeler placed two boys each on offense and defense while McLean led on offense with three players and one on defense.
 Hedgecoke, in being named top coach in the area has been well deserving for two years. He was faced with a rebuilding job this season and his players came along late to present him with a 5-5 season and third place in District 2-A with a 3-1 record.
 In 1966 Hedgecoke's squad tied for the district championship and won the right to the playoffs with a coin toss win.
 Over the past two years Hedgecoke's squads have won 13, lost 8 and tied one.
 Wheeler's Goad is being highly touted by a number of college's. He has speed to go with his 175-pound 6'1 frame and led the area in scoring last year.

An injury that kept him from three games slowed him quite a bit this season but the hard-charging fullback still managed to finish second in the scoring race.
 In two seasons Goad has totaled 164 points and has run for over a mile's worth of yardage.
 He tallied 54 points this season and 110 in 1966. He has scored 23 touchdowns and kicked 19 extra points, all this in 15 games.
 In winning lineman honors the Mustang's Holt has truly been an standout on both offense and defense the past three seasons for coach J. T. Hill.
 He is a 167-pound senior but his light weight just makes him that much quicker and he grades high on both offense and defense in every game.
 Goad and Mase Ferguson of Lefors are the only repeaters on the star squad. Ferguson is a 190-pound senior from Lefors that has started at his tackle spot for three years.
 Two players made both the offensive and defensive teams. Holt and Canadian's Charley Ortega, who just missed Lineman honors by a single point.
 The offensive backfield is light but fast and carries a scoring punch. The average weight per man in the backfield is 161.3 pounds while the line is light, but also quick with an average weight per man of 170.3 pounds.
 The backfield has scored 218 points and is led by Goad and White Deer's junior quarterback Stan Bush, who didn't play in a game last year.

 But Bush came out of nowhere this season to pace the area in scoring with 78 points on 12 touchdown romps and three conversions. He also passed for six touchdowns and ran for over 600 yards. The 185-pounder could be the first player ever to capture back-to-back scoring titles.
 Halfbacks are Canadian's Gary Purser, a 147-pound junior who led his team in scoring and finished third in the scoring race with 50 points and another junior, McLean's Thacker Haynes, who came on late to tally five times and score three conversions for 36 points. He is a 160-pound, two-year letterman.
 At ends are Groom's Bobby Goodlett and McLean's Calvin Van Huss. Goodlett caught eight touchdown passes and tallied a consolation in the Purser with 50 points. He is a 150-pound senior.
 Van Huss is a 175-pound senior and one of the better Tiger blockers. He stands 6'2 and has started two years for McLean.
 Holt and Ferguson round out the tackle slots and Ortega, a 171-pound senior, who Canadian coach Dwayne Currie calls the best blocker and tackler he's ever coached joins White Deer's Jesse Martinez ahead. Martinez is a 185-pound senior and has started two years for the Bucks. He also kicks extra points and has 11 of 22 this year.

 The center is McLean's Mike Simpson, a fine blocker at a tight 155 pounds. He's lettered three years and started two of those years.
 The defensive team is one of the best this area has ever had and is led by White Deer's fine middle linebacker Mike Hawpe, who switched from a tackle position to run at fullback for the Bucks.
 Hawpe was an All-District selection last year and is a possible all-stater this season. He is a 190-pound senior who led his team in tackles and assists in every game.
 At ends are the Bucks Monte Drais, a 185-pound three year letterman who is also a possible All-State candidate and Canadian's Terry Robinett, a 160-pound senior who also had to fill in at quarterback.
 Ortega and Holt are the tackles with Lefors Jim Gilbreath and Groom's Keith Fields at guards.
 Fields, a 195-pound senior who started playing with the big boys as a freshman is also a possible All-Stater.
 The linebackers are 190-pound Wheeler junior Donald Rives and McLean's 150-pound senior Jim Hester. Dennis Keith, a 160-pound Lefors senior is at halfback and Wheeler's Bobby Ware has one of the most important positions, safety. Ware is a 175-pound senior who plays quarterback on offense.

Red Cross News

By LIBBY SHOTWELL
Executive Secretary ARC

We sincerely hope that each one of our readers had a wonderful thanksgiving day this year. We have most of our family with us and we gained several pounds and although we were off duty, the Red Cross never rests on holidays. We took care of 4 emergencies during the day and we were glad to be of help when our Gray County citizens needed our help. One call came from Oklahoma City to our chapter asking us to report to a serviceman in Vietnam regarding his grandfather's death. We called the Lamb Funeral Home in McLean and sent the wire confirming the death of the grandfather. It is sad that on our holidays we must have sadness but shouldn't we be thankful for the Red Cross who is always on duty to help us?

The Welfare Index gave out over 50 baskets this year for Thanksgiving and we feel sure that our needy families were grateful for those who helped with this project. Mrs. Georgie Mack and Mrs. J. J. Rance with Mrs. Jess Hatcher worked with the County Welfare and the Red Cross to clear the families making the requests. Our sincere thanks to all clubs and church groups for helping us this year.

The Advanced First Aid Class will meet Monday with members who are taking the course in the Red Cross office in the City Hall. We think this is a fine group of people who are taking the course taught by Ray Fisher, J. W. Wilson and Manny Holden. All of these men are First Aid Instructors and they give of their time on a voluntary basis.

The following schools have finished with their enrollment this year: Robert E. Lee with Mrs. Eugene Olds, teacher sponsor with $205.47 and 30 magazines ordered; Pampa High School with Mrs. Nancy Kastor, teacher sponsor with $195.15 and 6 Journals ordered and 2 Spanish editions ordered for the school; St. Vincent's de Paul School enrolled with $16.50 and 6 JRC News ordered for the school; Hopkins with Tommy Adkins, Principal and this school enrolled with $4.50 and 2 JRC News have been ordered for the school; Lefors Elementary with Mrs. Johnny Syper, teacher sponsor with $7.21 and 6 JRC News ordered; Lefors Jr. High with Mrs. Syper, teacher sponsor, enrolled with $1.39 and 1 Journal ordered for this school. This makes a total of all of our public and private schools enrolled in Pampa and surrounding areas.

Sam Houston Elementary school have completed their bag program for the Vietnam school children in South Vietnam. The schools like the ditty bag program because the children can share more toys and small dolls with our foreign friends than if we packed in the Friendship boxes. Can't you see how these children who have suffered so greatly will enjoy the school supplies and toys this Christmas! Thanks to all of the boys and girls who shared so greatly and to Mrs. Della DeFeaver, the teacher sponsor of Sam Houston school.

Center Wrap-Up

George Smith, Director
Pampa Youth and Community Center

TEEN DANCES—The Center is continuing teen dances as usual with some of the best bands in the Panhandle area. All you young people from Lefors, White Deer, Miami, and surrounding areas are also invited to our dances. They are run on the highest level and we always have an off-duty policeman present and the young people are not allowed to come and go as they please. Parents are most welcome to come and see whether you would like your teenager to come to these functions.

SWIM LESSONS—The Center features a year round program in swimming because of the indoor heated pool. The American Red Cross swim procedure is used here featuring lessons in pre-beginners, beginners, intermediates and swimmers. For advanced lessons Jr and Sr. Life Saving is offered once a year and a Water Safety Instructors course is offered from time to time.

All lessons are taught by a qualified Water Safety Instructor. Our current instructor is Jacqueline Marla. Lessons are run on a 2 1/2 week basis of 10 meeting days. Lessons are free to Center members and $3 for non-members.

FENCING LESSONS—The Center will offer a relatively new sport in Pampa starting Nov. 30. A course in fencing will begin meeting on Thursdays from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. A course in fencing was offered two years ago and a good response was received.

Mr. Joe Pafford of Pampa will again conduct the classes. To join for the lessons you need only be or become a Center member. If you desire further information call Mr. Pafford at MO 4-3818.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE FORMING—The first organizational meeting was held last Sunday for the independent basketball leagues with some 8 teams entering. League play will begin the week of Dec. 3-9 with games being played on Monday, Wednesday and Thursdays. If you have a team and still desire to enter, the deadline has been extended to Monday, Nov. 27. This will be the last possible entry date. Entry fee is $75 which is total cost for the teams. Contact George Smith at the Center.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL—The women ended their volleyball season for the fall Monday night with a tournament. This was a double elimination down to the final game before the victors were selected.

the Drama of DRUGS

by Tom Beard

In their never-ending search across the face of the earth for new compounds and new uses for already-known compounds to aid medical science in its tireless quest for the abolition of disease and pain, drug researchers have gone even among the fearsome headhunters of South America.

Here they found the mysterious substance "curare" used by the natives of the Orinoco and Amazon rivers as poison with which to make their arrows more effective.

Analysis of this poison revealed that it contained powerful alkaloids which act as the most potent muscle relaxant known today. Now curare is recognized as a valuable drug.

Properly administered, it relaxes muscles, making possible the administration of smaller amounts of anesthetics than ever before in the preparation of major surgery. This reduces danger of side effects.

Being ill can't be made pleasant, but the patient can be made comfortable. Come to Richard Drug for all your sick room supplies, and for all Prescriptions.

Prefer Absence At Gala Event

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI)—Everybody who's anybody and anyone who isn't just won't be there and that's the way the organizers of a gala new year's ball are planning it.

The organizers of the fund-raising event for the Hartford Festival of Music are so anxious to keep the crowds away that they scheduled the bash in the grand ballroom of the Heublein Hotel—which was demolished in an urban renewal project.

Persons not wishing to attend the ball are being asked to buy $10 tickets for the privilege of staying at home. Gregarious types may purchase $50 tickets and stay away with a complete table of friends.

Among the persons who have pledged not to attend are Red Sox star Carl Yastrzemski, underground moviemaker Andy Warhol, Gov. and Mrs. John N. Dempsey, Secretary of State Ella T. Grasso, Lord Mortimer, the governor of Bermuda and conductor Leonard Bernstein.

Due to an apparent slip-up, the organizers failed to announce at what time the ball will not take place.

Miss Bennett Exchanges Vows with Rodnie Winborne

Miss Kathy Lynn Bennett and Rodnie Alton Winborne, both of Pampa, were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony in the St. Paul's Methodist Church Nov. 20 with Rev. Max Browning officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill E. Bennett. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. A. W. Winborne.

BRIDE

Given in marriage by her father.

MRS. RODNIE ALTON WINBORNE
...nee Kathy Lynn Bennett

The bride wore a formal, floor-length gown oforget skin pea-de-soi designed with a natural waistline and long pointed sleeves. The Sabrina neckline, sleeves and front of her gown were enhanced with appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The gown was complimented by an attached chapel train. Her veil of imported illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a long-line bouquet of white roses accented with a detachable white cattelya orchid on a white lace-covered Bible.

Traditional wedding music was played by Miss Jane Little. She also accompanied Miss Ginger Ferguson who sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

ATTENDANTS

Maid of honor was Miss Cirly Bennett, sister of the bride. Sheri Little and Grace Thornhill were bridesmaids. They wore pale yellow street-length crepe empire dresses with yellow pill box hats with short veils. Each bridal attendant carried a single, long-stemmed yellow rose.

Best man was Danny Winborne, brother of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Tom Davis and D. D. Lofton. Ushers were Gene Kincaid and Larry Elledge.

Melinda Morrison was flower girl. Bruce Baker was ring bearer.

RECEPTION

A reception followed the ceremony in the sanctuary. The table was draped with a full-length satin cloth. Centered on the table was a white feather and net swan flanked by two silver candelabras. Mrs. N. W. Little presided at the punch bowl as Mrs. J. E. Baker and Mrs. Willy Hunt served the three-tiered wedding cake which was baked by Mrs. Al Ferguson. Miss Cheryl Porter registered guests.

The couple took a wedding trip to Colorado. For the trip, the bride chose a Kelly Green knit dress accented with an orchid from her wedding bouquet and carmel accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Phillips High School and a former employe of C.I.T. Loan. The bridegroom is a graduate of Pampa High School and attended Frank Phillips College in Borger. He is now serving in the U.S. Navy.

PRE-NUPTIAL EVENTS

Pre-nuptial events included two miscellaneous showers. One was given in the home of Mrs. Denny Spoonemore, of Pampa with Mrs. Jimmy Mann and Mrs. Tom Johnson as co-hostesses. The other, at the First Methodist Church in Phillips, was given by Mrs. Howard Lovelady, Mrs. Maurice Paulain, Mrs. H. Nail, Mrs. B. Huff, Mrs. Ray-Crockett, Mrs. Jake Webb, and Mrs. Johnny Oswald. Mrs. J. D. Edmondson presented the entertainment.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's father, A. W. Winborne.

Rev. Dan Cameron Speaks To B&PW Members

The Business and Professional Women's Club had a Thanksgiving banquet at the First Methodist Church dining room recently with Mrs. M. E. Powers, president, presiding.

The invocation was given by Rev. H. Dewitt Seago. Mrs. Edith Belgie, pianist, provided dinner music. Fred Watkins and Mrs. Peggy Patrick presented a skit from the musical, "My Fair Lady", giving vocal selections of "Wouldn't It Be Lovely"; "With A Little Bit of Luck"; "I Could Have Danced All Night"; "Show Me"; "On The Street Where You Live"; and "Get Me To The Church On Time".

Mrs. H. E. Crocker, chairman, introduced the speaker, Rev. Dan B. Cameron, pastor of the First Baptist Church, whose topic was "Neglected Virtue". Rev. Cameron asked, "Do we possess the virtue of gratitude?" If we are truly grateful we have the attitude that we owe the world something. At this time of rejoicing, we must think seriously about gratitude. The happiest people have grateful hearts, and possess that inner joy as they learn how to be grateful."

He said, "We should evaluate our abilities and see ourselves as we are, then we will learn how to be grateful. We must give God some time in our lives that we may grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord." Mrs. J. J. Rance and Mrs. Shirley Weatherford presided at the register.

Guests included Rev. and Mrs. Dan B. Cameron; Rev. and Mrs. H. Dewitt Seago; Miss Phillis Cole; Mrs. H. E. Crocker; W. E. Jordan; C. C. Rhoades; F. Watkins; M. E. Powers; G. H. Anderson; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson; Mmes. Edith Belgie; Louise Martin; J. W. Duke; Peggy Patrick and H. E. Call.

MRS. RICHARD AUBREY STEELE
...nee Ellen Jane Howard

Double-Ring Nuptial Vows Unite Miss Howard, Richard A. Steele

With wedding vows solemnized at 8 p.m. Nov. 24, at the First Baptist Church, Pampa, Miss Ellen Jane Howard became the bride of Richard Aubrey Steele.

Miss Howard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roy Howard, 964 Terry Road. Mr. Steele's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Leroy Steele, 1800 Grape St.

Rev. Dan Cameron was the officiant for the double-ring vows exchanged in a setting of white chrysanthemums altar arrangements, with jade palms and cathedral candelabras forming a background. Family pews were marked with clusters of lemon leaves and candles.

BRIDE

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk peau-de-sole designed with a basque bodice, low rounded neckline and elbow length sleeves, both outlined in re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls. A front panel of lace and pearls extended the full length of the skirt with back fullness ending in a chapel train. She wore a family heirloom Brussels lace mantilla veil. Her bouquet was white roses and stephanotis.

ATTENDANTS

Her maid of honor was her sister, Jackie Howard. Bridesmaids were Susanna Johnson and Mrs. J. Brent Perry of College Station, sister of the bridegroom. The bridal attendants wore willow green gaudesoi floor length gowns with empire styling. Their matching, bonnet head pieces held bouffant veils of silk illusion. They carried Tropicana roses centered with a candle.

Miss Karen Lawson, Oklahoma City, Okla., and Miss Deborah Lawson, Odessa, cousins of the bride, were the candle lighters for the ceremony. They wore floor length dresses of ivory and willow green with Dior bows in their hair.

Attendants for the bridegroom were J. Brent Perry, best man, of College Station, brother of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Ray Wagner and David McDaniel, both of Pampa, with Ben Judkin, McCamey, and Gary Clark, Fort Worth, seating the guests.

Miss Eloise Lane at the organ played selection of pre-nuptial music and the Lohengrin professional and recessional. Charles Adams, Dallas, Mrs. Frances Bradfield and William F. Bradfield of Los Angeles, California, Mr. and Mrs. P.B. Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. Farris C. Oden, all of Amarillo.

PRE-NUPTIAL EVENTS

Pre-nuptial courtesies extended to the bride included a luncheon given by Mrs. Frank Smith, and Mrs. J. B. Vealey, Jr., at the Pampa Country Club. A bridal tea-shower was hosted by Mrs. Maynard Johnson, Mrs. Bernard Johnson, Mrs. Ray Robertson and Mrs. Milo Carlson in Mrs. Carlson's home, 2211 Charles.

A wedding day brunch was given by Mrs. Julian Key and Mrs. McField McDaniel at the Pampa Country Club. The guests were the bride, her attendants and members of the house party.

Following the rehearsal, the bridegroom's parents entertained the wedding party at dinner in the Cibola Room of the Coronado Inn.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Howard selected a dress of copper silk with matching hat and accessories. Her flowers were brown orchids.

The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Steele, chose a silk and wool dress in fern green. She wore bronze orchids.

RECEPTION

The reception was held in the church parlor. Palms and basket arrangements of white mums formed the background for the bride's table, where the three-tiered wedding cake was served. Silver candelabras and white spider mums were the table appointments. The bridegroom's table, with a floor-length olive green cloth had a copper coffee service and a low arrangement of Tropicana roses and candles.

Members of the house party assisting with the reception were Misses Joy Shultz, Carletta Johnson, Linda Cox, Pat Masterson, Jane Wells, Bitsi Lind and Mrs. Jimmie Jamieson. Miss Karen Lawson and Deborah Lawson, gave the wedding guests tiny tulle rice bags from baskets decorated in the bride's colors of willow green and ivory.

A graduate of Pampa High School, the bride will be a January graduate of West Texas State University. She is a member of Alpha Chi, Junior Honor Society and Sigma Tau honorary fraternity.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Pampa High School, is a senior student at West Texas State University.

The couple will be at home at 1621 Tyler St. Amarillo. Included in the out-of-town guest list were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lawson, maternal grandparents from Oklahoma City, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lawson, Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lawson, Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Chris Steer, Lindsey, Okla.; Miss Anna Picklum, El Reno, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. James, Watonga, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lindsey, Lindsey, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Green, Oklahoma City, and Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Taylor, Hedley, Mrs. E. K. Ecker, maternal grandmother of the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Steele, paternal grandparents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Prescott, all of Altus, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hale, Houston; Mrs. Charles Adams, Dallas; Mrs. Frances Bradfield and William F. Bradfield of Los Angeles, California. Her fiancé also attended Tascosa High School and Amarillo Junior College. He served with the Armed Forces in Germany and in Vietnam, and is employed by Menasco in Fort Worth.

University Graduates Hear Miss Connors' Art Lecture

Miss Phyllis Connors was an art or present day, modern art. She will speak to the group again in March when she presents slides of Andrew Wyeth paintings and explains their history.

Mrs. S. B. Flowers, president, conducted a short business meeting preceding the speaker. Hostesses were Mrs. Lois Morrison and Mrs. Charles Ellis.

Miss Connors is the executive director for Quivira Council Girl Scout Office here.

The group saw examples of Message In The Medium, which several modern artists have put into their work.

Miss Connors told the group of university graduates everyone "enjoys art in some form or another, and that the value of any work is decided by form and color, whether it be Egyptian or present day, modern art."

Take care of your hands. Canvas work gloves are a "must" when you're rearranging the freezer or handling dry ice. When the temperature is down outdoors, wear warm, but not tight, gloves for work and play.

Travel Now to Beat the Holiday Crush

By AILEEN SNOODY
NEA Consumer Affairs Specialist

Here are some thoughts at the holiday season approaches: For those who want to travel but avoid the crush, consider the lower prices of off-season visits to resort areas. Even with one-third of all overseas travelers making their trips in off-season (from late September until early December or January) it is cheaper to travel now. Hotel rates, for example, may double or triple during the "in" season.

If you live in Indiana, how can you find out when it is less expensive to visit Scandinavia or the Caribbean? According to Michael Lively, general manager of American Express Travelers Check division, you can ask their offices or write to travel agencies or airlines travel departments and ask for rates and advice.

Since many teachers travel, check with the local high school to see who in the school has a quick source of travel information. A number of communities have church or social groups that participate in clubs that, for a fee, sponsor year-round trips for amateur archeologists, bird-watchers, skiers or haunted castle enthusiasts.

For foreign countries consider that the lower hotel rates normally coincide with the weather. Are you following the sun or the snow? For example, in Scandinavian countries rates are lower several weeks earlier than in Mediterranean resort areas.

Watch also for lower seasonal policies when buying products in foreign countries. If the information isn't listed on a travel brochure, ask if there is a discount. In many areas now there is up to 20 per cent discount on purchases paid by travelers check.

The earnest and shrewd traveler is learning quickly that off-season may be the answer to his vacation problems. Because the major vacation rush is over, service is better, stress on dressy clothing is less and a chance to enjoy watching native and scenery more likely and leisurely.

Food Buying Guide

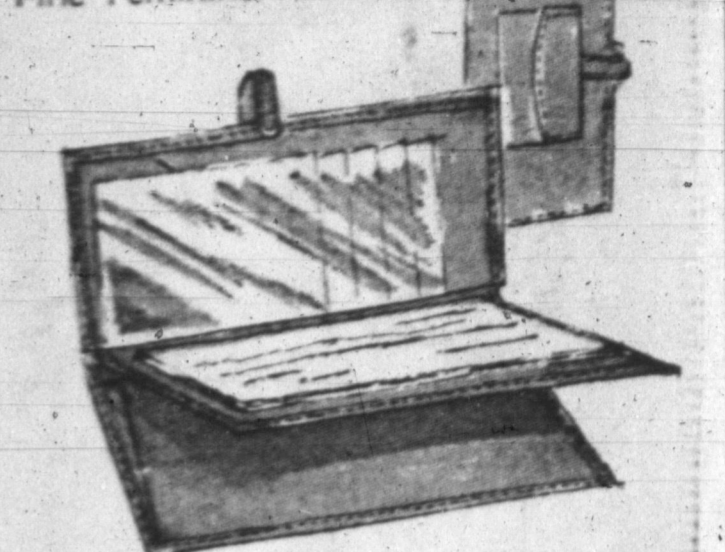

The following guide to the nation's food buys for the weekend was prepared by the Departments of Agriculture and Interior for United Press International.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—There will be ample supplies of meat poultry and good supplies of some fresh fruits and vegetables in food stores and supermarkets for post-Thanksgiving shoppers in all areas of the country.

Broiler-fryer chickens and turkeys lead the list of poultry and meat values as the most economical sources of good protein. But there are also good supplies of beef roasts and steaks in most areas along with ground beef and stew meat. Abundant stocks of pork include chops, roasts, and hams, and bacon and sausage in some areas. Frozen fish fillets and steaks continue to lead other fish and seafood in abundance and nutrition values.

Lettuce joins such other vegetables as cabbage, onions, and potatoes likely to be in ample supply. Featured fruits are apples, grapefruit, and oranges, and grapes in some areas.

by Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Don't you think a girl's steady boy friend (almost her fiance) should be allowed to come to dinner at her house as often as he wants to? Mother has set a limit of three times a week.

I say Leo should be welcome here every night as we plan to marry as soon as one of us gets out of school and gets a job. Daddy has gotten very hateful about it and calls Leo a freeloader behind his back. He says any boy who will accept a dinner invitation more than once a week without inviting the girl out, even for a hotdog, is a bum.

Leo isn't a bum. He just does not have the money to take me out so the only time I get to see him is when I invite him here for dinner. He used to drop by to study every evening and he would stay for dinner, but never more than five nights a week. How can I get my parents to make Leo welcome any time?

LEO'S STEADY DEAR STEADY: Leo may be your "steady", but he hardly qualifies as a "fiance." I think three times a week is plenty. And if you see Leo only when he's feeding his face at your table, maybe three times a week is too much.

DEAR ABBY: I am in the sixth grade and I hate my teacher. If Miss K catches a girl with her skirt rolled up at the top to make it shorter, she makes her unroll it, and tells her if she catches her with her skirt rolled up again she will call her mother.

Abby, a girl can come to school with a real, real, short mini-skirt.

skirt, like eight inches above the knees, and Miss K doesn't say a thing, but the girls with their skirts rolled up get the dickens. I don't think this is fair, do you?

HATES MISS K DEAR HATES: Girls who wear mini-skirts to school, obviously do so with their mothers' knowledge and approval. But if a girl's skirt is rolled up, she's probably showing more leg than her mother sent her to school showing.

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I live in a very nice new apartment building where most of the tenants socialize with each other. We're not newly-weds. The average is 50.

Well, last summer a new craze hit this building. All the women went on diets. Now, I'm all for it, when it's done sensibly, but about six of these women, my wife included, have gone off the deep end. No cocktails, no sweets. Nothing but eggs, meat, and cottage cheese! I will admit, they do look better, but it hasn't improved their dispositions any. My wife has lost 25 pounds since July. (I call her "The Twiggy of Menopausal Manor.")

My problem? How can I get a decent meal around here?

HUNGRY DEAR HUNGRY: What do you weigh? If you're just right, be a good guy and satisfy your craving when your wife isn't around. Otherwise, do yourself a favor, and join her in meat, eggs, and cottage cheese.

African Violet Society Names 1967 Committees

Mrs. Charles Glison, president, presided in the last meeting of the Pampa African Violet Society in the home of Mrs. Norman Walberg, north of Pampa.

Mrs. Glison opened the meeting with the reading of the club collect. During the business meeting, committees were named for the next year. Committee members are: program, Mrs. V. N. Osborne, Mrs. Walberg, Frances Glison; yearbook, Mrs. Marion Roberts, Mrs. W. Lee Moore; courtesy, Mrs. Holly Gray, Mrs. R. F. Dirksen; membership, Mrs. J. E. Carlson, Mrs. Walberg; telephone, Mrs. Evan Jones; Mrs. C. E. Boswell; violet show, Mrs. Dan Glaxner, Mrs. W. A. Greene, Mrs. Harrison Dismuke and publicity for show, Mrs. Holly Gray.

During the business meeting, Mrs. W. Lee Moore was elected to serve another year as secretary - treasurer, and members also voted to have an African Violet Show in April.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Dan Glaxner presented a program of "Timely Life," and "My Favorite Violet."

During the social hour, Mrs. Walberg served refreshments from a table appointed with an arrangement of African violets.

Cards were signed for two members who are ill - Mrs. Evan Jones and Mrs. J. E. Carlson. Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor attended as a guest. Members will meet in Mrs. Glaxner's home, 701 N. Gray Dec. 12.

Rebekah Lodge Meets

Pampa Rebekah Lodge No. 355 met recently in IOOF Hall, 800 E. Foster, as Mrs. Alta May McElrath, noble grand, presided and Mrs. Alice Hays, vice grand, assisted.

Members discussed the Thanksgiving baskets which they prepared. The initiation team, with Mrs. Mary Dell McNeil as team captain, initiated Mrs. Vivian Garrison into the lodge.

Those reported ill were Clayton Callan, Ross Neugin and Mrs. Mary Smith.

Mrs. Mary Dell McNeil, Mrs. Ona Gray and Mrs. Lucille Kissinger, served refreshments to the 29 members attending. Members reported 15 visits were made. Mrs. McNeil's name was drawn from the friendship jar.

P-TA Group Meets

The executive board of Woodrow Wilson Elementary School Parent Teacher Association was held recently in the school cafeteria with Mrs. Walden Haynes, president, presiding.

Mrs. William A. Thornton resigned as publications chairman. A membership report of 172 was given.

Bob Parks, principal, was elected delegate to the state convention held recently in Fort Worth.

Members decided another water fountain will be bought and placed in the first and second grade wing. A large coffee pot will also be bought for the teachers' lounge.

CAPE, AN INESCAPABLE FASHION FACTOR this season, are snappiest when they have the look of uniforms. Typical of the military theme is the squared-off style (left) in canvas, double-breasted in brass, by Regina Porter for Main Street. Swashbuckling drama is provided by Count Romi's hooded cape (right) with zip-front in gabardine of Dacron and cotton. Pile-lined for stormy weather, it is especially dashing when worn with thigh-high boots. Both these designs are protected with Zepel rain and stain repeller.

Winter sports participants who fail to protect their eyes in bright sunlight risk possible loss of night time vision, say researchers for a cosmetic Co. Sunglasses are essential to protect against loss of "visual purple," a chemical on the retina of the eye. When the retina is exposed to excessive sunlight, normal seeing power is reduced. You may lose up to 50 percent of your night vision if eyes are not protected during the day. This increases hazards of night driving.

Skating is a sport requiring share vision and good physical condition, advise researchers for a cosmetic company. Whether you are a newcomer or a slalom expert, condition yourself for several weeks before skating by doing deep knee bends, pushups, and exercises designed to strengthen thigh muscles. If you have any doubt about your vision, get a professional eye examination.

Encampment, Conference Slated for Area Girl Scouts

To encourage and hold the interest of Panhandle area Senior Girl Scouts, many council-operated events are available to them.

The Amarillo Girl Scout Council is sponsoring an Enchanted Trails Senior Encampment Aug. 11-24, 1968, in the Pecos Wilderness Area, near Pecos, N.M.

The encampment's purpose is to give girls a chance to be responsible for their own leadership, develop a program, and demonstrate inexpensive advanced camping techniques. The encampment cost of $45 will include all expenses with the exception of transportation to Amarillo.

The San Jacinto Council will have a Senior Girl Scout Conference again this year at the Rice Hotel, in downtown Houston, Feb. 2 and 3, 1968.

A group preference form is included in the application. GIFTS may indicate their interests in: arts, crafts, service aides, international backpacking, wing, "Our Cabana", mariner and Indian lore. The registration fee of $4 covers the registration and luncheon cost of staying in the hotel is $4. per girl. Jean Neslage, Pampa, attended the Senior Girl Scout Conference at Houston this past summer.

For application forms, girls may call or write the Council Office, Box 459, Pampa, Tex., 79065. The deadline for returning completed applications is Dec. 1.

TOPS Members Name 5 Officers

The Lota Pounds Off TOPS Club met at Central Baptist Church recently to elect officers. New officers are Mrs. Eugene Leigh, leader; Mrs. Ray Ramey, co-leader; Mrs. Bob Schroeder, secretary; Mrs. Leon Brown, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Frank Thomas, treasurer. Ten members attended as Mrs. Morris Snider won the fruit basket for the most weight lost in the week. A red pig was also given to a club member for the most weight gained in the week.

HATTY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN. The hat is back where it belongs—on top. Gavel Club Has Monthly Meeting

The Order of Eastern Star Past Matrons Gavel Club met in regular monthly meeting at the Reddy Room, in Southwestern Public Service Co. recently for a covered-dish supper.

Eighteen members were present. The two guests were Mrs. Jessie Close of San Diego, Calif., and Florence Brass, San Angelo, sisters-in-law of Blanche Morrison.

Hostesses were Hazel Parker, Ada Warren, Edna Davis and Stella Wagner. The quartet tables were covered with white table cloths, and centered with Thanksgiving motif.

Invocation was given by Blanche Morrison. Loleat Byers, president, presided over the business meeting. Minutes of the last regular meeting were read by Nell Rankin, secretary protem.

Members decided to send the money to the OES Home for a case of kleenex. Members also decided to furnish a Christmas basket here. Christmas gifts will be exchanged by the members again this year. A note of thanks was read from Rosale Wedge for the carnation sent to her when she was hospitalized recently. Evelyn Nace read a thanksgiving poem.

Other members present were: Katie Vincent, Fay Walker, Loleat Byers, Rachel Jones, Emma Lee Gray, Nell Rankin, Evelyn Nace, Maude Voytes, Mildred Cunningham, and Alpha McCuistian from Miami Chapter, Lydia Pennington, Viola Pennington, Ethel Stilwell and Blanche Morrison.

The next meeting will be 7 p.m. Dec. 14.

GLITTERING FOR HOLIDAY EVENINGS are these knits of Tycora acrylic, nylon and metallic yarn. Designed by Rosemary of Caledonia Knits, these fashions are wrinkle-free and light in weight. Mosaic pattern on white has just a dash of metallic to light up the glamorous look of the dress (left). Halter neckline is low in the back. Sky blue and silver shade (right) is in a lacy stitch that literally floats.

Haliiburton Club Attends Meeting

Mrs. Charles Cauthorn was hostess recently to the Haliiburton Ladies Club in her home at 1101 E. Darby.

Mrs. Ira Hutchinson, president, conducted the business meeting as members discussed the Thanksgiving basket they prepared for a needy family. The family will also receive a Christmas basket from the group.

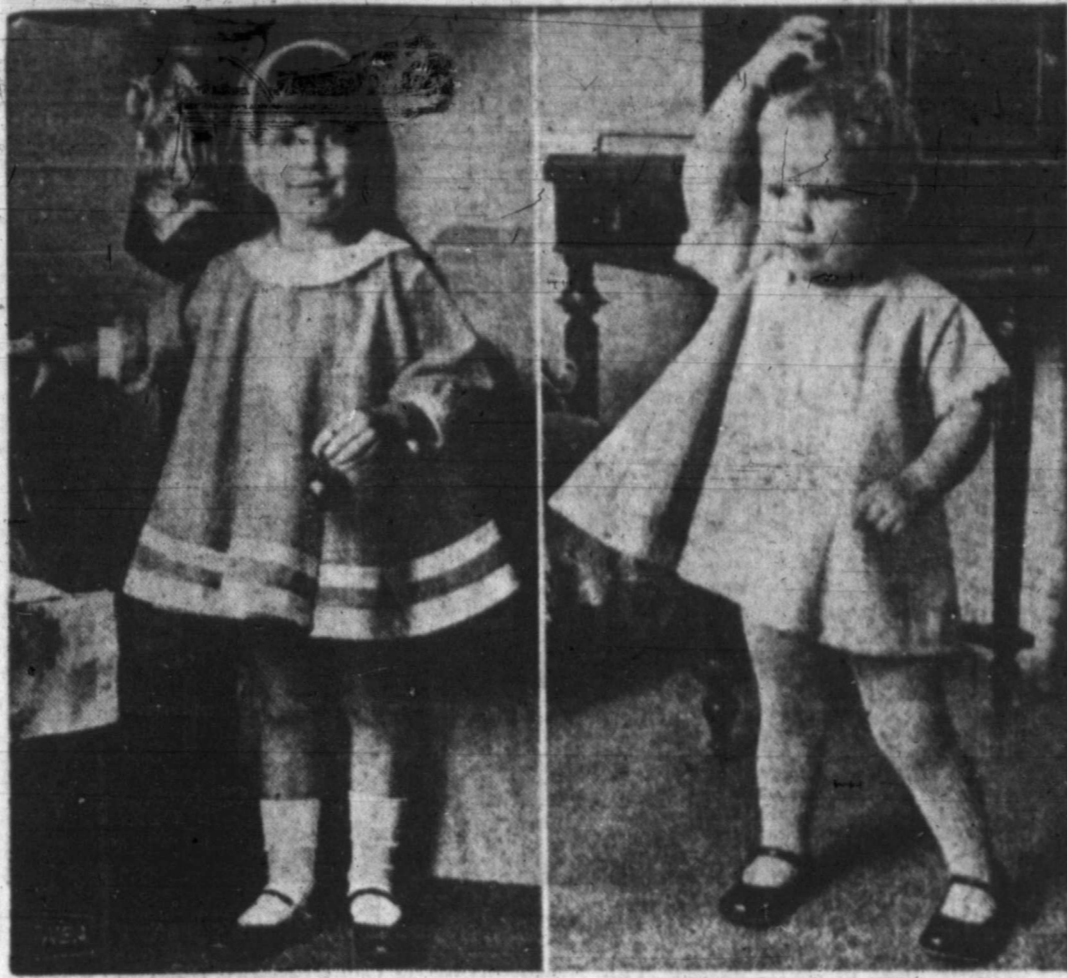

The Thanksgiving motif was emphasized in refreshments and decorations. Mrs. Ted Rogers was awarded the door prize. The club will meet again Dec. 7 in Mrs. Weldon Rogers' home at 2133 N. Christy to exchange gifts and have their Christmas program.

Members present at the last meeting were Meses Ed Fischer, L. C. Cable, Ira Hutchinson, Billy Rape, Bob Burrows, Ted Rogers, Burton Briscoe, Charles Cauthorn and Don Long.

Natural Gas Pipeline Company Asks Additional Line Facilities

CHICAGO—Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America today asked the Federal Power Commission for authority to construct and operate additional transmission, storage, and supply line facilities to increase its peak-day delivery capacity by 364 million cubic feet of natural gas for 1969-69.

The new capacity figure—which will bring the company's total peak-day deliverability to more than four billion cubic feet—includes 208 million cubic feet from transmission and 156 million from storage.

G. P. Garver, NGPL president, said that totally, the company proposes to construct about 216 miles of new pipeline and install 117,700 additional compressor horsepower. Costs for these facilities are estimated at $4.4 million dollars, Garver added.

"Transmission expansion includes 114,500 compressor horsepower in Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, and Oklahoma, and 15 miles of 30-inch loop pipeline in Texas on Company's Amarillo line; 42 miles of 36-inch loop pipeline in Illinois on the Gulf Coast line; 44 miles of 24-inch loop line on the Company's Volo line in Illinois; and 3 1/2 miles of replacement line, also in Illinois.

Gas supply expansion includes 110 miles of 24-inch pipeline from the Company's newly constructed Permian Basin pipeline into the Delaware Basin area of West Texas to connect with newly acquired gas reserves in Ward and Winkler Counties, Tex.

Storage expansion includes nine new injection-withdrawal wells, five miles of gathering pipeline and additional of 3,200 compressor horsepower at existing facilities in Illinois and Iowa.

The new gas supply lines to Ward and Winkler Counties, Tex., are a result of gas purchase contracts NGPL has entered into with producers in that area. The Company proposes initially to take up to 200 million cubic feet of gas courtesy. Today's application states that the proposed new gas supply facilities, besides permitting immediate attachment of the valuable reserves already contracted, will extend the prolific Delaware Basin area of West Texas, thus enabling the Company to acquire additional large quantities of reserves to augment sources of supply presently attached to the system. Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America supplies gas to customers in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas, and Wisconsin.

Wife of Texas Pipeline Pioneer To Christen Ship

Mrs. Leslie H. True of Dallas wife of one of Texas' foremost oil pipeline pioneers, will christen an 87,000-ton tankship Dec. 5 at Sasebo, Japan.

The vessel, "World Mobility," was built by Sasebo Heavy Industries Company, Ltd. It is 845 feet long, 122 feet wide, and will carry up to 600,000 barrels of crude oil.

Mrs. True's husband is president of Mobil Pipe Line Company, common carrier affiliate of Mobil Oil Corporation, and special assistant to the president of the company's North American Division. He is a 45-year veteran of pipelining.

The new bridge-aft "World Mobility" features coated tanks, remote control of main engine and cargo valves, and a bulbous bow that will permit her to cruise at 16.3 knots.

The vessel will be on long-term charter to a Mobil marine affiliate from Worldwide (Shipping) Limited and used primarily between the Middle East and Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. True were married in Wink, Tex., in 1930. They have four children: Curtis, Ted, Leslie and Sally.

A talented horsewoman, Mrs. True has taken part in the Shawnee Trail, Six Flags and Salt Grass Trail rides. She is also a crack shot and has hunted in many parts of the United States and in Mexico.

The Trues raise Santa Gertrudis cattle on their ranches at Wimberley and Tilden, Tex., and are regular exhibitors at the State Fair of Texas.

SUPPORT STORE INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Hundreds of Butler University students marched in a Vietnam demonstration Saturday to support a drug store chain's project for gifts for servicemen serving in the war.

TOPS IN THE NATION—Virgil A. Brecheen, left, Pioneer Natural Gas Company executive, receives the National Safety Council's top award for the company's outstanding achievement in traffic safety. The presentation is being made by Harry E. Foulkrod, executive vice president of the Fruehauf Trailer Company and vice president of the Motor Transportation Division of the National Safety Council. From July, 1966, to June, 1967, Pioneer Natural Gas Company employees drove over 8 million miles, using 490 vehicles, with just 44 accidents. This enabled them to achieve an accident rate of 5.44 per one million miles driven. The award was presented at the annual meeting of the National Safety Council at the LaSalle Hotel in Chicago, Illinois.

In 1956, President Eisenhower differences over the Suez Canal; British and French accord for issued a statement denying had weakened the American, NATO.

Ex-Gridder Hopes to Score in Singing

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD — Someday, if he can get out of there, he says, they may make a movie of his life. There will be plenty of material.

The Tony Scotti Story will start in the Ironbound section of Newark, N. J. — "Not many people get out of there," he says with a typically big, happy Italian family. Music was the way the family forgot its troubles.

When they were boys, Tony and his older brother, Ben (who later became a professional football star with the Washington Redskins), were the pride of the family. Ben played the piano and Tony the accordion.

"My father," Tony says, "would drag us to the neighborhood saloons to play. If the people didn't applaud, I would enough, my father would say, 'What's the matter? — You do not want to work tomorrow?' You see, my father was business agent for the Teamsters' Union, and he controlled a lot of jobs."

Later, Tony decided he wanted to study singing. His parents could provide a comfortable home with all the necessities, but luxuries like singing lessons were beyond them. So Tony turned to his grandmother.

"She was the banker in the family," he says. "She owned a couple of apartment buildings — we called them 'The Shacks.' So I painted the apartments and got the money for the bus fare to New York. Then I made a deal with the singing teacher — I painted his apartment in exchange for the lessons."

He grew into a big, handsome boy. He got a football scholarship to the University of Maryland — following Ben to that campus — but it was show business he wanted. After three years, he quit to begin his singing career.

It was slow going. There were some singing engagements and some television commercials. In one of these, they needed an Italian family. Tony called his grandparents who came over, tested, got the job. Tony's grandmother became a leading model in New York.

"I'm only the fifth star in the family," he says. "My grandparents were the first two. My brother Ben was a big football star. And my father was always the star — he sang, although badly, at any function. My younger brother, Freddy, is the only smart one — he's married, a father, a business agent for the ISWU." For two years, Tony was a production singer in Las Vegas. It was a frustrating time for him, but good experience.

"I can follow anybody now," he says. "For two years, I followed all those feathers."

He married a Las Vegas showgirl, but it didn't work. One day he went over and got a divorce. You can do that if you live in Las Vegas.

And then he found himself in one of the big pictures — "Valley of the Dolls," in which he plays Tony Polar, one of the leading male parts. Ben quit football to manage his career. The two brothers share an apartment.

"I want to make it," he says. "When I played football, I played to win. I'm playing to win in Hollywood, too."

TV NOTES

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jack Benny will be surrounded by veteran aides when he does his one-hour special for NBC next March 20. Freddie de Cordova, producer-director, served as such for years when Benny was on the air regularly as did writers Al Gordon, Hal Goldman and Hilliard Marks, who also are working on the special. Benny's guests will be Lucille Ball and Johnny Carson.

Dean Martin's NBC hour on Dec. 21 will feature members of his family and Frank Sinatra and his son and daughter, Nancy and Frank, Jr., who also are in the singing business. The Martin contingent will include daughter Gail, a singer, and son Dino, who works with a popular recording combo.

ABC-TV shakes up its schedule in January, bringing back a popular summer replacement series, "The Avengers," moving "The Hollywood Palace" from Tuesday back to the 9:30 p.m. Saturday spot which it never should have left and moving "The Invaders" from 8:30 to 10 on Tuesday. A new one-hour series, "It Take a Thief," will occupy the 8:30 Tuesday spot beginning Jan. 9.

Shows dropping off the ABC list will be "Custer" and "Good Company," both introduced this season, and "Iron Horse," a holdover from the previous season.

North Vietnam Says Newsmen Invented Story

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI)—North Vietnam Saturday said American newsmen "invented" a story about a Viet Cong base camp in Cambodia and charged the U.S. was planning to attack Cambodia.

In a North Vietnamese Foreign Ministry statement broadcast by Radio Hanoi, the Communists accused the United States of making "statements, threats and slanders against the kingdom of Cambodia."

There has been no official reaction to the story from the Cambodian government of Prince Norodom Sihanouk, but observers said Sihanouk may once again close his borders to Western newsmen.

The United States and South Vietnam have long contended that the Viet Cong were using Cambodia as a refuge, attacking allied troops in South Vietnam and fleeing to safety to base camps inside neighboring Cambodia. Sihanouk has equally as long denied it and accused the U.S. of lying in an effort to discredit his official policy of neutrality.

But about two weeks ago Sihanouk announced he would let Western newsmen go anywhere in Cambodia to see for themselves if there were any Viet Cong in his country.

Western newsmen jumped at the chance and a small group, using map coordinates supplied by sources in South Vietnam, found a well-hidden camp in the jungle of a Cambodian national forest just two miles across the border from Loc Ninh, South Vietnam.

In 1960, a train wreck at the peak of the evening commuter hours just outside New York killed 79 persons.

Non-Glamor Girl Still Makes Good

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (NEA)—For a girl dancer, the chance to be Fred Astaire's dancing partner automatically qualifies her for new stardom. That's the way it has worked for a tiny blonde named Barbara Hancock.

In "Finian's Rainbow," now being shot at Warner Bros. Seven Arts, Barbara Hancock does two big numbers with Astaire and gets to sing "How Are Things in Glocamorra?" That's enough to make her a name in this town. Already, on the strength of it, her option has been picked up; she is mentioned for bigger roles ("Hello, Dolly") is a distinct possibility and people are talking about her.

It's a good start, considering that she is only 20 and is far from being a glamor girl. She's making it strictly on her ability as a dancer and her innate southern charm.

Barbara Hancock — she's a descendant of John, the big, bold pen-wielder of the Declaration of Independence — is an Atlanta, Ga., belle, the product of a very proper southern upbringing. Her father, who is deceased, was a lawyer and very strict with his four daughters. Barbara is the youngest.

When she was 10, she began studying dancing. She says that all southern girls start studying something at 10 — either piano-playing or dancing — and this first step was almost obligatory. But she had a gift for it, and two years later she was in the Atlanta Civic Ballet Company and soon was a prima ballerina.

After high school, she set sail for New York. It wasn't an easy step. First, her father was dead set against it.

"My mother eased the way," Barbara says, "by telling him it was just for a summer vacation. But it wasn't."

She had a difficult adjustment to make, moving from the sheltered life of Atlanta to the ballerina-actress world of New York. But she won a scholarship, studied, survived.

"Then," she says, "I decided I wanted to try something besides classical ballet."

That something turned out to be dancing on The Perry Como Show. She was a regular and featured in many numbers. From that, she graduated to the lead dancer in Ethel Merman's touring "Annie Get Your Gun" company.

She is working hard. She realizes that she has to be more than a dancer to make it, so she's working on her singing and acting.

"I've lost 12 pounds during the shooting," she says. "I think they wanted a chubby little girl and now I'm back where I should be, thin."

THE NEW POUND

Even at its devalued level, the British pound has a higher face value than other major world currencies. Since World War II, most countries have pegged their money to the dollar. The face value of the dollar, in turn, rests on the policy of the U.S. Treasury to buy and sell gold at $35 an ounce. Should the United States raise the price of gold, it would amount to devaluation of the dollar. The Soviet ruble, its value arbitrarily set by the Kremlin, is outside the interlocking chain of western currencies and not affected by the British devaluation.

Cystocele Can Cause PYELONEPHRITIS

Cystocele (pronounced SIS-toe-seal) means that the bladder has sagged somewhat and instead of emptying completely while urinating, some of the urine is retained. This provides an environment in which germs can flourish and the infection moves up into the kidneys. Pyelonephritis, the most common of all kidney troubles, can develop.

Sometimes surgical correction, which is not difficult, is necessary to cure a Cystocele. If you have any constantly recurring problem in that area, you should consult a physician. We stock the antibiotics and anti-infectives usually prescribed for treatment.

Getting Acquainted

Somewhere in the family record of every U.S. citizen is an account of an immigrant ancestor. This explains, in part at least, the urge of Americans to visit other lands. They wish to see where their parents, grandparents or great grandparents originated. Many wish to visit relatives who remained in the homeland. In a very real sense, our nation has closer ties than many of us suspect with nearly any country you can name. However, it has only been within the past decade or so that visiting places of family origin has become practical for other than wealthy people.

Through the medium of international jet air transportation, millions are traveling to far places every year, and now both the U.S. government and such major international airlines as Pan American World Airways are working as never before to encourage Europeans to visit the U.S. As part of the current program, Pan American, in June, 1967, brought thirteen top newspaper and magazine editors and their wives from West Germany. The mission of the journalists was to see America through the eyes of trained observers who could then relay their impressions to readers and potential tourists throughout Germany.

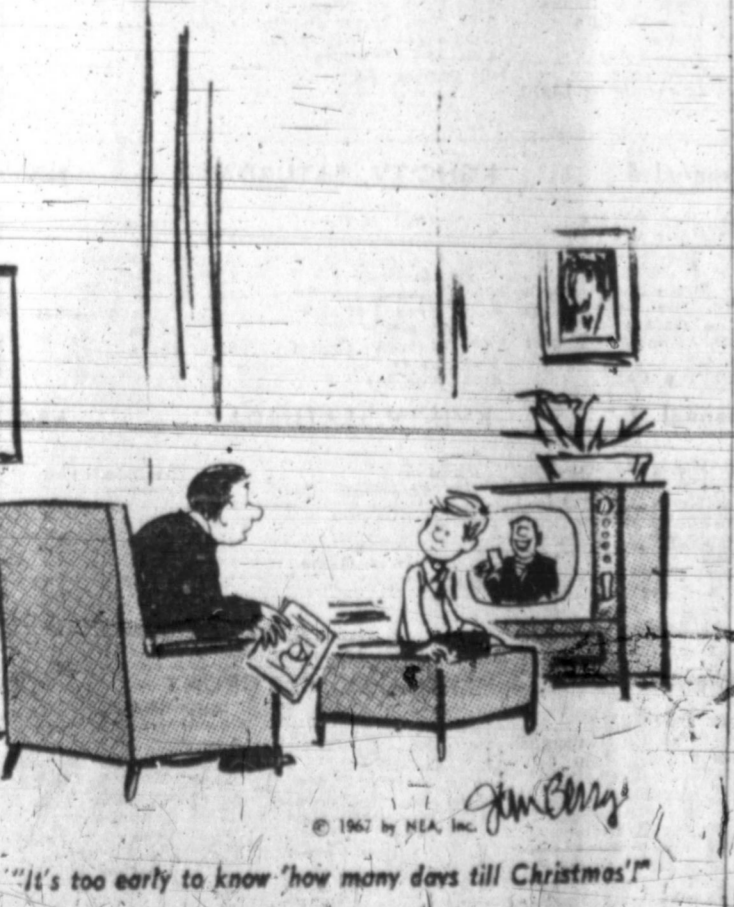

Breakthrough in Railroading

Computerized railroading is coming of age. The Association of American Railroads recently announced the first computerized system to keep track of the country's entire fleet of 1,800,000 freight cars. The system with its nationwide reach will permit effective handling of localized freight cars. The automated rail data network is to be tied indirectly with a rapidly growing number of advanced information systems on railroads and in turn will spur the expansion of these individual line systems.

The Grassroots Rumble

As one reads comment in the press from over the 50 states, there is growing evidence that more and more persons are getting tired of working to save something and then have it taxed away to be spent for all manner of political projects.

Backstage Washington

Enforcement of Economic Sanctions Against Rhodesia Challenged by Thurmond As 'Windfall' for Russia; Asks Probe

Washington, November 24: Russia appears to be the big gainer in the Johnson Administration's decision to vigorously enforce the United Nations' sanctions against Rhodesia.

Since the President issued his executive order last January barring U. S. firms from doing business with Ian Smith's rebel regime, the Soviets have become the dominant supplier of high-grade chromite to this country.

Before the controversial embargo was imposed, the main American source of this strategic ore, an essential element in the production of stainless steel, were American and South African firms operating in Rhodesia.

Russia added to its "windfall" by hiking prices on 1968 contracts by $7 a ton — from $33 to $40 — shortly after the President's order eliminated Rhodesia from the American market.

These results of the Rhodesian sanctions are stressed in a report prepared by Senator Strom Thurmond, R-S. C., for the Senate Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee. He warned against a foreign policy that forces the U.S. steel industry to rely on Russia as its chief supplier of chromite, as the Kremlin could disrupt U. S. defense production at any time by cutting off this supply.

As a ranking member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, Senator Thurmond plans to request Senate probes to make a full-scale investigation to determine if the sanctions should be ended because of their harmful effect on U. S. national security.

DESTROYING THE SOURCE — Senator Thurmond also wants the subcommittee to investigate charges that the administration's zealous enforcement of the sanctions is forcing U.S. firms to close down their foreign mining operations in Rhodesia.

An example of this disastrous policy, according to Thurmond, was the Treasury Department's rejection of a request by the Foote Mineral Company, Exton, Pennsylvania, to import 41,000 tons of chromite from its wholly owned subsidiary, Rhodesian Vanadium.

In its application for an import license, the company argued that if the ore importation was denied it would be forced to rely on Russia as its major source of chromite for its steel program has earlier than the 1930's.

By these and other devices, the government wages a perpetual propaganda war against the people, squanders their money, and accomplishes nothing except its own enlargement and support.

Sensing The News

By THURMAN SENSING

In pondering the case of the unwashed, drug-taking hippies of New York and San Francisco, respectable Americans ask what it is that lies behind this disturbing phenomenon.

And close down its Rhodesian mine; one of the largest chrome producers in the free world.

EMERGENCY MEASURE — While the import of 41,000 tons of chromite would cover only part of its needs, company officials stressed, the transaction would permit them to keep the Rhodesian mine operating at minimum level. A shut-down, they contended, would result in the unemployment of 1,200 natives and 27 Europeans, and if it continues more than a month, would probably force abandonment of the mine because of flooding.

A memorandum filed with the company's application for its import license also indicated the mine closing would drastically affect the economy of an entire mining community of 45,000. During the shut-down, it stated, the company would be forced to end its financial support of clinics, schools, housing, and agriculture projects.

Senator Thurmond also wants the Senate Preparedness Subcommittee to investigate the State Department's influence in the decision and the Treasury's over-all enforcement of the sanctions.

Treasury Department records show its staff first recommended that the import license of the Pennsylvania firm be approved under provisions in the President's executive order providing exceptions for hardship cases.

However, the staff recommendation was suddenly withdrawn after the State Department sent word to Treasury Secretary Fowler that the license should be denied.

The State Department's argument against the license was that its approval could upset relations between the U.S. and African nations opposing the Ian Smith regime.

SOUTH AFRICA ACTIVE — Meanwhile, the Central Intelligence Agency is circulating a report stating that it will be impossible for the United Nations to topple the present Rhodesian government with economic sanctions.

Made at the request of the White House, the CIA study reveals that every industrial country in Europe is doing some business with Rhodesia, either through South Africa, which has rejected the U.N. sanctions, or other third parties.

The CIA document noted that the U.N. plan for overthrowing Smith through economic sanctions received a serious blow when the Anglo-American Corporation of South Africa decided recently to invest 127 million in Rhodesian mining operations.

Question Box

Question No. 1154: Why do so many believe there are too many people in the United States for all of them to be fully employed as many hours as they want to work?

Answer: John Rustgard in his "Bankruptcy of Liberalism" answers in this way.

"Although all the facts point to the contrary, the economic doctrine most generally voiced in America today is that there are more people in the country than are required for doing the work that is needed or wanted."

Rustgard also states: "The doctrine of the labor unions and the New Dealers has been and is that unemployment is due to too high individual efficiency — at least to the extent that this manifests itself in high productivity. The great problem of union workers as well as those of the WPA projects is generally how to make the job last."

In another place Rustgard says we have "thus traced the economic fallacies of Karl Marx through our schools and into the various governmental departments, including the White House. They are, of course, meat and drink to the labor unions now as they always were."

"In another place he remarks, 'The wages of labor must come out of the products of labor. The less they produce, the less can they as an aggregation receive. Nor can they receive less than what is produced for whatever a produced must be distributed. All production is for use and cannot continue unless it is wanted.'"

"Yet to enter such field of socialistic planning would be strictly in line with the growing system of suppressing personal effort, initiative, and responsibility."

"Our whole economic system has developed into a revolt against Nature. To assert that one-third of our population is in dire need of the essentials of life and that at the same time there is an oversupply of man power with which to produce what people want, is so self-contradictory as to be offensive to the thinking person."

As Rustgard says: "General overproduction is an impossibility because human wants are limited only by man's purchasing power, and his purchasing power depends upon his productivity. When there is more produced in lines than can be sold, it is evidence that there is too little produced in some other lines, due to a dislocation of the price level caused by interference with Nature's automatic equalizer."

And, in the language of Herbert Spencer, "When once you begin to interfere with the order of Nature, there is no knowing where the result will end."

Wit and Whimsy

Mr. Gray (asked the police sergeant) — Could I see the man who was arrested for robbing our house last night?

Sgt. Brown — This is highly irregular. But what's the reason?

Mr. Gray — I want to ask him how he got into our house without awakening my wife.

Two drunks were walking down the railroad track. Said one:

Joe — These are the longest stairs I ever saw.

The second one said: Moe — Yah, but what gets me are these low handrails.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The World Almanac reports that the Civil War ironclad Tecumseh, only existing example of the earliest armored naval ships, is being salvaged from Mobile Bay. On Aug. 5, 1864, the Tecumseh, leading the wooden ships of Adm. David Farragut, probably hit a Confederate mine and sank in less than a minute with her crew of 93.

The hippies are only one manifestation of a moral breakdown that is spreading at an alarming rate. Big Government's denial to the people of self-reliance helps bring about the conditions in which the hippie attitude develops. The federal government is engaging in the same kind of bread and circuses performance that the Roman emperors gave so many centuries ago. The integrity and personal responsibility of individuals is being undermined, and as this process takes place there is a softening and weakening of character that leads to grave moral excess.

The hippie phenomenon, the spread of pornography and the tyranny of the state — all are related to the evils of a permissive society that is abandoning high standards in personal and family life and in citizenship as well.

Decisions And Progress

By ALEXANDER EVANOFF
(The Freeman)

(Alexander Evanoff is Professor of American Studies, Department of English, Indiana State University, at Terre Haute.)

Editors Note: We believe reading this will be beneficial to every government decision maker, and to every parent, teenager, employer and employee.

The philosophy of individualism has these suppositions on the educability of man. It believes that no one can teach anyone anything, that no one can tell anyone anything which the individual does not already know, or is prepared inwardly to accept. This is true of individual precepts as well as governmental proclamations of truth and justice. The individual learns through his own abilities, limitations, and experiences. Therefore, the broader the scope for individual action, the broader and the greater the number of experiences, the better. The less imposition or interference from above, the better.

Learning is a matter of inward readiness, a matter of something inward feeling a recognition and a correspondence with something outside the individual. If the inward readiness and preparedness based on thought and experience does not exist, the outward manifestation of thing or idea is not recognized.

Education, growth, development are a matter of inward progress. The more decisions an individual makes, the more rapidly he progresses. It is actually dangerous to withdraw possibilities for decision-making from the individual. Paternal action on the part of a presumably wiser entity, or government bureau, to save the individual entity trouble, requires the utmost probity and nicety of discrimination so as not to hinder more than help; because the blessed privilege of blundering may be more rewarding in developmental growth and creative function than to be deprived of the right to blunder by a ready-made and imposed decision.

Individual development, properly conceived, hinges upon decision. Even a mistaken decision may result in considerable advancement. The individual moves by making mistaken decisions or happy choices, as the case may be. Whenever a person's decision is made for him, he is deprived of a certain opportunity and, therefore, in a sense, of a certain property. Whoever may have made the decision has robbed him, even with the best intentions in the world. A person may gain certain easements unearned, when a decision is made for him, but at the same time he has been forced to forego a chance for certain self-building which the process of earning would have accomplished for him. Decision is the vital principle of individual progress and cannot be taken out of the individual's hands without far-reaching harm. Whoever or whatever makes a decision for someone else, either through the operation of force, prestige, faith or prerogative, in a very real sense steals from the person for whom the decision was made.

We are in a world with just so many opportunities of choice, of right choice or wrong choice, just so many opportunities for learning from the results of our choices. Presumably, we are placed in this world to determine what is worth the choosing and what is not worth the choosing. Each time we permit someone else to determine for us what is within our own choice, we have allowed someone else to dip into our pocket and to take from us a bit of property that cannot be replaced.

We could not think kindly of a friend who took property that cannot be replaced. We could not think kindly of a friend who took property from us more precious than gold. An individualist could not thank anybody who took away from him a legitimate and never-repeatable opportunity for progress. It will not come again. If the moment is taken away from the individual, he is that much the poorer for eternity. A man's purse may be stolen and restitution made. But if a man's opportunity for making a decision is stolen, that which can never be returned to him has been taken from him.

Each decision made is a step in the individual's development. Once passed, it is gone forever. The individualist cannot thank anyone — parent, priest, or government official — who deprives him of the opportunity to grow through the making of decisions.

From Africa

By GEORGE S. SCHUYLER
(American Opinion)

Our Alice-in-Wonderland State Department has once more exposed itself as incredibly inept in statecraft. In general it has contributed greatly to the African turmoil by a phony neutrality in the midst of characteristic euphoria.

On the one hand, it recently supported the shaky dictatorship of "General" Joseph D. Mobutu of the Congo by supplying three C-130's of the U.S. 22nd Airborne Division, manned by paratroopers, to transport supplies and Congolese soldiers to fight against the 170 white mercenaries and 1,500 Katangese guerrillas but recently on Mobutu's payroll. Two of these U.S. troop transports were finally grounded only because of the uproar by U.S. Senators who thought one war at a time was enough.

On the other hand, our State Department piously refused military aid to the Nigerian Federal Government of Major General Yakubu Gowon, who is conducting the Bore War against the breakaway self-proclaimed Republic of Biafra (Iboland)—where the oil is. Having vocally regarded Nigeria as the most promising of the newly-emergent African States, and having sunk millions in aid into it, Africanists presumed that the United States would have helped, beef up the small, poorly equipped Nigerian Army—perhaps with cargo and fighter planes—so the Ibo revolt could have been speedily ended. The State Department refused.

Alarmed at the inadequacies of its armed forces against the Biafran threat to cut off the much-needed revenue from taxes on its oil, Nigeria was driven to dispatch a three-man delegation to Moscow when its American "friend" turned it down. Previously the Bolsheviks had no firm clutch on Nigeria; but now, seizing the opportunity, Moscow had by mid-August sent six Soviet-built MIG-17 fighters, plus an equal number of Czechoslovak L-29 jet trainers—two of them equipped to carry combs, and rockets. Five more MIG-17s came later.

Even the British (who get one tenth of their oil from the Nigerian fields in Iboland) confirmed through their Commonwealth Relations Office that they were sending some arms shipments to the Lagos Government. With the customary hypocrisy, Downing Street classed the weapons as "defensive as possible" and "not in great quantity." They included Bofors 40-mm light antiaircraft guns. The British apparently supposed this to be enough to fight off the two U.S. B-26 fighter-bombers and a super-Constellation which the rebel Biafrans had bought from a French arms dealer.

Unlike its aid to Mobutu, the United States came up with nothing. While our State Department fiddled, the Bolsheviks burned up the runways at Kano airport with Antonov cargo planes delivering such useful commodities as arms, ammunition, rockets, bombs and 153 technicians.

Anti-Americanism fairly seethed in Nigeria when we permitted Carl Baruch, our State Department spokesman, to score the Soviet Union for arming Nigeria at the risk of deepening the civil war. Mr. Baruch contended that since neither the United States nor the Soviet Union had previously been major arms suppliers to Nigeria "the United States decided, for its part, on the outbreak of hostilities in Nigeria, that it would not sell or otherwise provide arms and ammunition to either side. Hot as a country stove, Nigeria's Information Commissioner expressed suspicion and disappointment over the attitude of the United States: "Friends who desert you in your hour of need deserve that much less friendship afterward."

When you are in difficulties those who come to your rescue naturally have a claim to your gratitude afterward. The Peace Corps had its largest African program in Nigeria. The Lagos Embassy was able to move the 115 Peace Corps workers from the embattled Mid-Western Region, and 125 from the Eastern Region (Biafra); but 440 remain in the Western and Northern Regions where tribal massacres have raged in the recent past and the remaining racial and tribal chauvinism there bodes ill for the Peace Corps workers regardless of color. Particularly now with Chief Enahoro's anger at the flash point.

Meanwhile, we aided Congo dictator Mobutu's little war by using our aircraft to transport the inept and craven Congolese National Army to battle the wroth and gallant Colonel Jean Schramme and his tough, battle-hardened 1,700 multiracial fighters who have twice defeated ten times their number. They have been holding Bukavu since August eighth. Many of the 500 Congolese "defenders," who luckily for them saw the mercenaries coming, looted the city instead of fighting for it. Then, throwing away their arms, they scrambled headlong across the Ruzizi River bridge into Shanyu, Rwanda, past a big sign reading "The Republic of Rwanda wishes you a pleasant sojourn."

Once safely across, the "heroes" lolled by the roadside sipping beer and watching three hundred white refugees — white men, women, and children — roll out of the Congo in dilapidated and overloaded vehicles, happy to have been saved from the cooking cauldrons. They unanimously agreed with the Belgian farmer who said, "I'll never go back!"

Interestingly, the U.S. Embassy did not send any C-130 transports to facilitate the refugees' flight to safety, although one C-130 did airlift seventy-five Congolese veterans from Kinshasa and Kisangani to within a hundred miles of Bukavu, presumably to halt the escape of the whites.

Chagrined by this loss of food through the defeat of its arms, Congolese mobs sacked the Belgian Embassy in Kinshasa on August fourteenth. President Mobutu arrived belatedly in his limousine and restrained the rioters. Numerous white-owned automobiles had been stoned and some Caucasians beaten. The ninety thousand aliens in the Congo breathed easier. However, none could leave because the airports were closed. Mass exodus would have wrecked the economy, there being only ten Congolese entrepreneurs in the whole country. There are 1,700 Americans in the Congo, 350 of them government employees, but so far they have been unharmed.

With unwitting humor, Mobutu rebuked his followers for terrorism as he appealed to the Europeans "to remain calm, do not listen to rumors and continue normal life in the Congo as in the past!"

The "General" is a vain fellow and has been shamelessly genuflecting to the most notorious of his black Marxist peers. He tried for months to scrub up the Congo to make a bit with the African Heads of State when they assembled for the summit conference of the Organization of African Unity in Kinshasa, on September eleventh, at a $10 million site replete with all amenities. Recently he floated over, having received the highest decoration from Nationalist China: the grand cross of the National Order of the Propitious Cloud.

From Washington

By REED BENSON AND ROBERT LEE
(American Opinion)

Last month we documented the fact that the Communists have consistently supported the United Nations and attacked those who effectively oppose it. This is not to say, of course, that the Communists do not now and then pretend to oppose the U.N. or its policies for strategic reasons. The Communists realize better than anyone else just how repulsive their system is to the vast majority of mankind and they are perfectly willing to attack the U.N. and its policies from time to time if their mere vituperation will help to rally public opinion in non-Communist countries behind policies they really want.

Former Ambassador to the United Nations Adlai Stevenson helped to confirm this thesis a few years ago. Writing in a State Department publication entitled United Nations Guardian of Peace (issued in September, 1961) Ambassador Stevenson asserted:

...the Soviet Union has attacked the U.N. has refused to pay its share of the Congo expenses, and has laid siege to the institution of the Secretary-General.

Thus, as often before, the Soviets have pressed their attack at a moment when the (U.N.) community seems most divided against itself.

But once again, that very attack makes the members realize more keenly that they are members of a community and causes them to draw together. (Emphasis ours.)

Stevenson's reference to Soviet attacks on the post of Secretary-General is especially noteworthy. He was referring, of course, to the Soviet demands for replacement of that office with a "Troika" system. You will recall that prior to September of 1961 the Soviet demands for the "Troika" were very firm—so much so, in fact, that Adlai Stevenson and then-Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold and others told us that the very existence of the U.N. was thereby threatened. In mid-September of 1961, however, Hammarskjold was killed in a plane crash in the Congo and the position of Secretary-General became vacant. Here was an unparalleled opportunity for the Soviets to wreak havoc in the U.N. by pressing their "Troika" demands and refusing to accept a new Secretary-General. But what actually happened? The Soviets turned off their "Troika" talk like a water faucet, backed the Marxist U Thant as Hammarskjold's successor, and permitted the U.N. to go right on supporting Soviet interests.

Another unintended confirmation of this Communist duplicity was given on March 3, 1966, when Lettist (and pro-U.N.) news commentator Howard K. Smith spoke in Provo, Utah, during his talk. Mr. Smith made this point:

The Russians attacked us bitterly over the Congo, but the key fact is they voted for U.N. intervention in the Congo. The Russians attacked us bitterly over the Cyprus crisis, but the main thing is they did not veto U.N. action; they let it go in.

It is information like this which shows how foolish groups such as the Anti-Defamation League and the Institute for American Democracy are to claim as they do, that the Communist really oppose the United Nations and that therefore American Conservatives who oppose the U.N. are seeking the very same end as are the Communists.

Yet another example of this irrationality occurred in 1964, when the Afro-Asian bloc at the U.N. was pressing for an increase in membership on various continents of the world body. The Communists pretended to oppose this move in public debate, but quietly reversed themselves when it counted. A June 13, 1964 dispatch from the News Service of the New York Herald Tribune described the situation this way:

The Soviet Union quietly backed down in its opposition to Afro-Asian demands for an expansion of the United Nations Security Council and economic and social council.

During the assembly's debates on these resolutions, the Soviet Union and the entire Communist bloc and France, opposed the proposal. Later in the same year, Associated Press writer Max Harrison commented on this Communist tactic. In an A.P. report arrived in the Salt Lake Tribune for November 8, 1964, Harrison noted:

Those who have observed Soviet actions at the United Nations over the past 12 years are sure only that the Russians can—and do—change their minds.

And they must have given a "Rabbit-like" chuckle at having been thrown into the very Korean mire which history has shown they had sought from the beginning, especially as they watched U.N. officials chortle about how the Soviet walkout had backed up the Communists.

The attack of American forces under U.N. command was most obviously in the interest of the Communists from the beginning. Actually, can you think of any reason why a good Communist would not support the United Nations?

The U.N. we were told, was supposed to promote peace in the world. On April 29, 1963, the Indian News published a chart headlined, "There Is No Peace—17 Years, 57 Wars, which simply listed the dates and details of the armed con-licts that had taken place since the founding of the United Nations. In some instances, as in Kashmir, the U.N. has actually fought on the Communist side of the war. The U.N. we were told, was supposed to promote freedom in the world, but with American foreign policy tied to the leftist fanaticism of the United Nations the Communists have been able to enslave well over a billion human beings since 1949.

It is tragic, but true that United States participation in the United Nations makes every American taxpayer in effect, a supporter of the largest Communist Front organization in the world. We should get out of the United Nations. We should make our own foreign policy. We should invite the U.N. to take up residence in Moscow where its protestations will be ecognized for what they are.

Ronald Reagan As Educator

For two years we have been instructed by the radical opposition at Berkeley on the evils of the swollen and gigantic multiversity that constitutes the University of California; the impersonality, the emphasis on quantity, the use of the military-industrial complex. All these stem from two root causes: the burgeoning of mass, indeed almost universal, education, and the development of governmental colleges.

If the government educates, it is bound to educate for its goals and indoctrinate in its values. First, Governor Reagan, in his first acts in office in California, has taken two important steps toward the dismantling, or at least the whittling down, of this elephantine growth: the dramatic slashing of the University of California budget, and the firing of the theoretician of the multiversity himself, Clark Kerr. Also, Reagan has moved to require the university to charge some tuition; most people consider this a terribly "reactionary" step, but what is so terrible about moving some of the burden for paying for education from the backs of the California taxpayers and on to the students themselves? It is an odd construction of the terms "progressive" and "humanitarian" to load the expenses of education onto those who are not getting any of the benefits, and so allow the university students to enjoy these benefits while loading the costs onto others. What is progressive about that? Furthermore, charging tuition will help to reduce that self same swollen educational Leviathan which we all have been attacking for the last several years.

This brings us to the proper reaction to Governor Reagan's blitz attack against the University of California. For those who have really been opposed to the multiversity, to Clark Kerr and the proliferation of bureaucracy, there is only one answer: to hail the Reagan moves and cheer the ouster of Kerr. The fact that Ronald Reagan is manifestly not an eminent educator, or the fact that his ouster of Kerr was prompted by Kerr's being "too weak" on the Berkeley radicals, is beside the point. The point is that these particular actions are in themselves healthy and even liberating, and therefore should be supported.

The reaction of the Liberals is interesting if predictable. Liberals are nothing if not smugly content with the American System, but let their eyes be enlightened bit three times, and they begin to howl like banshees. Hence, the nationwide hysteria by the Liberals about the ouster of Kerr, and the mobilizing of Establishment students and faculty, who again find common ground in defending leftist privileges against the bogey of the Ultra-Right. The important thing is that the New Left not get suckered into defending the privileges of Liberals in the name of the old coalitionist mythology of combatting the menace from the Ultra-Right. There is danger in not remembering, over and over again, the great lesson that has been painfully won over the years: "all right we are two nations" (in the immortal words of the early Dos Passos), and the Liberals are on the other side. In fact, there is good ground for holding that the Liberals are the major Enemy. To allow ourselves to get drawn into a pro-Kerr coalition would be to abandon all the insights of recent years and to surrender to all the ills of the multiversity.

There is one Liberal argument which needs to be speared here and now: that the Reagan move to oust Kerr means the introduction of that terrible thing, "politics," into the university. The point is that as soon as one builds a government university, politics is already there and cannot be eliminated; for it is the government that collects taxes from the citizens to pay for its operations. To "eliminate politics" from governmental universities means to eliminate any influence by the politicians who are at least in some degree responsive to the views of the voters, and to turn their control over to a self-selected oligarchy of Liberal educationists who do not have to be in any sense responsive to the wishes of the people. Given the unfortunate existence of governmental universities, there is no ideal solution; the best or rather, the least bad, way to operate in that case is to allow control by those who are at least responsive to the desires of the taxpaying public.

One of the pro-Kerr Regents, emerging from the session that ousted Kerr, complained bitterly that this was a happy day for both the "extreme right" and the "extreme left." In saying this, the Liberal Regent caught hold of a profound truth: that the realities of the present day more and more require a coalition, even a fusion, of these two "extremes." For both of these extremes have caught hold of part of the total truth about our society, and both of them can blend, far more easily than is generally believed, into a common assault upon the Totalitarian Center, upon that "menace" that is not, like the bogeys of the Ultra-Left and Ultra-Right, a phantom potential of some far-off future, but the group that is oppressing all of us, right here and now.

Panhandle Water Conservation

By FELIX W. RYALS

Last week we attempted to tell the story of the efforts of WATER, Inc., to set in motion the necessary machinery to bring imported water to the West Texas area from the Mississippi River. This water would not leave the states of Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi short. We stated that there was an excess of 560 to 575 million acre-feet of water, flowing or unused by these states, emptying into the Gulf of Mexico.

WATER, Inc., operates on the dues paid by its members. Membership is open to everyone. Last week, we ended the column with the following statement: "WATER, Inc. members will have the personal satisfaction that comes with accepting the responsibility each individual owes the area in which he lives."

Like it or not we are each involved. Everyone living in this area stands to gain or lose in a very tangible way. This gain or loss depends on whether we get additional water supplies. With or without water is going to make a lot of difference. WATER, Inc. is designed to assist all of us in making that difference.

Gray County has two very able people on the Board of Directors of WATER, Inc. These two are Jim Nation and Fred S. Vandenberg. They may be contacted for information on becoming a member.

Salt Water Disposal

Officials of the Panhandle Ground Water Conservation District continue to receive calls and visits concerning the disposal of salt water (brine) produced in connection with the production of oil and gas.

The 1967 legislature enacted legislation placing the disposal of oil field brine (salt water) under the sole jurisdiction of the Texas Railroad Commission. All persons in this area interested in the use or disposal of salt water (brine) must contact the Texas Railroad Commission Office in Pampa.

The Texas Legislature, during the recent 60th Legislative Session, enacted into law the Salt Water Haulers Permit Act. This act is enrolled in the Civil Statutes as Article 6029b, and it has an effective date of August 23, 1967.

In order to clarify the situation we are quoting some key portions of the Salt Water Haulers Act:

Two Texas Girls Win Trips to Chicago 4-H Congress

Miss Armstrong

Miss Phillips

Two 17-year-old Texas girls have won trips to the 46th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Nov. 26-30 for their homemaking skills.

The winners, selected by the Cooperative Extension Service, are Nacia Armstrong, of Longview, and Gloria Jean Phillips, of Winona, both daughters of school principals.

Miss Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Armstrong, is state winner in the food-nutrition project sponsored by General Foods Corporation. Miss Phillips, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Phillips, scored highest in the state's home management program sponsored by Tupperware.

In addition to preparing thousands of meals during her years in the project and writing plays, Miss Armstrong has compiled outstanding records in clothing, bread, home improvement and junior leadership activities.

She also was responsible for the founding of two new 4-H Clubs in her area.

The first was started after she gave a 4-H demonstration on how to use a vacuum. Miss Armstrong said that initially she was proud of the way things had gone.

"But then I thought about all those boys and girls in that community with no 4-H Club," she continued, and that gave her an idea for a new club.

Her own 4-H leader thought the idea was a good one, and before long, Miss Armstrong returned to Kilgore to preside at the initiation of the new club's officers.

She later started a club in the Pleasant Green community.

Miss Phillips, the home management winner, defines her specialty as the "art of budgeting time, money and energy."

Her homemaking skills run deep, including outstanding records in cooking, canning, freezing, home improvement, gardening and junior leadership.

She tells the story of a winning demonstration that struck what she calls the "decisive blow to my irresponsibility."

The occasion was a state Favorite Food Show and Miss Phillips had packed her equipment and ingredients the night before.

"When she got to the show, she discovered that the package hadn't made the trip. Nobody put it in the agent's car."

After using her pocket money to buy new ingredients and borrowing the equipment needed, she won the state blue ribbon in the show.

"But," she says, "besides winning a prize, I learned a great deal about responsibility."

ASCS News

Wheat, corn, sorghum, soybeans, oats, and barley from the 1967 crops which are under price-support loans in commercial storage, will be eligible for loan extensions (resale) before the crop-loans mature in the spring and summer of 1968. It was announced recently by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

Farm storage loan extensions will be available, subject to the approval of the State ASC Committee. Decisions on reselling of current crops are normally made near the end of the marketing year. This early announcement will permit better advance planning by farmers and should strengthen prices.

Eligibility

All farmers who are eligible for price support on 1967 crops will be eligible for resale in commercial storage or farm storage if approved for the state. Storage costs accruing during the resale period will be paid by CCC. These payments will be made to farmers who provide farm storage or who prepay warehouse storage charges for the extended period. If prepay warehouse storage charges paid, CCC will make these payments for the extended period direct to the storing warehouseman. Payments by CCC to the warehouseman will not relieve producers of their obligation for warehouse charges which accrued during the initial loan period.

Secretary Freeman's Opinion

Secretary Freeman, in making this announcement, declared, "I think this much better to establish conditions under which commodities can be carried over into the next marketing year with farmers owning the grain on their farm, in their cooperative elevators, or in privately owned facilities—than to have the commodities forced on the market or delivered to CCC. This action can materially strengthen prices in the year ahead. For the first time, it gives farmers in many areas a practical opportunity to use resale.

"For many years, USDA has offered resale privileges for certain commodities stored on the farm. This program has been used as a means to orderly marketing, especially when production exceeded expected utilization or when market prices were weak. Extension of the resale program to commercial storage facilities will give farmers a chance to plan long-range marketing and avoid lower prices during times when the markets are overloaded."

Tenant farmers who could not build their own storage can now place their commodities under loan in commercial warehouses and continue the loan under resale terms.

Because the overwhelming grain surpluses from prior years have been eliminated by our acreage diversion programs since 1961, many grain elevators now have adequate storage space available.

Available To All

The state ASC Committee determines whether an on-farm resale program will be conducted in its state. The Commercial resale program will be available to eligible producers in all areas.

Producers may redeem resale commodities at any time and dispose of such commodities as desired.

Loans Extended

Under the 1967 crop resale program, price-support loans on stored commodities will be extended beyond the 1968 maturity dates, until called. CCC retains the option to call resale loans at any time the storage rates on 1967 crops now eligible for resale loan extensions will be announced later and will be available at state and county ASCS offices. Farm storage charges paid by CCC will be comparable to that paid under the Uniform Storage Grain Agreement for CCC stocks and stocks under commercial storage.

Crop Harvesting In Full Swing Across Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI) — Good harvesting weather enabled cotton farmers on the South Plains this week to reach the "fulling" stage of harvesting and West Texas cotton farmers to reach the first state, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service reported today.

The grain sorghum harvest in the same areas is nearly complete and good yields are general over the Plains, the service said. In the Panhandle, cotton harvest ranges from 10 to 30 per cent complete in most counties. The exception is Collingsworth County where 65 per cent of the crop is out. Grain sorghum harvest in this area is also nearly complete.

The Central Texas peanut harvest is nearing the 60 per cent complete stage. The peanut and pecan harvests in West-Central Texas have been resumed following recent rains and both range from 50 to 75 per cent complete, the service said.

Soil moisture continues short on High Plains dryland wheat and is short to very short in East Texas and spots in Northeast Texas. Pastures in the latter areas are short and livestock feeding is necessary in East Texas.

Livestock in general over the state is in fair to good condition depending upon the soil moisture situation. Small grains in areas with adequate moisture are making good growth and the amount of grazing continues to increase. Small grain fields in Central Texas were described as beautiful and providing good grazing. Ranges and pastures in south Texas were listed as excellent but more rain over the last weekend halted vegetable planting in the Rio Grande Valley and flooded additional fields, the service said.

Vegetable harvesting was active in the Winter Garden area and citrus harvesting is again getting underway in South Texas. Lettuce and carrots are also still being harvested in the Hereford area in the High Plains.

SEND MEDICAL TEAM MANILA (UPI)—The government today sent medical teams to Masbate island south of Manila to help check an outbreak of typhoid fever that has killed 10 persons. A total of 74 cases were reported in the area. The medical teams will chlorinate the water and take other steps to combat the disease.

4-H'ers Named Best In Texas For '67 Projects

Four Texas teenagers have been named as the best in their division of 4-H projects.

Marilyn Haggard, 19, and Joe Cole, 15, both of Denton, will soon head for the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Nov. 26-30. The two have been awarded trips as state winners in their 1967 club projects.

Marilyn Haggard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Grissom, showed the senior and reserve grand champions at the Houston Dairy Show. Last year she was a member of the Erath County dairy judging team that took state honors and competed nationally at Waterloo, Iowa. Her watch was donated by the father treasurer broke down and her father decided it would be too expensive to repair it. She tried many new and unusual preservatives.

Miss Haggard, a sophomore at Texas Women's University, also conducted research to find the effects of cooking time, acids and alkalis on chlorophyll.

She won the 1964 Denton County Leadership award, the Danforth Award in 1965 and earlier this year a $500 college scholarship for her contributions to the vegetable and fruit

AgriCulturally Speaking

By FOSTER WHALEY

On Thursday, Dec. 14, beginning at 1:30 p.m. at the Agricultural Building, an Irrigation clinic will be held that will interest all present and prospective irrigation farmers in Gray and surrounding counties.

Similar meetings with same speakers are scheduled for Stratford and Spearman. Felix Ryals, manager of the Panhandle Underground Water District, will give an appraisal of the present underground water supply as well as progress on importing water from the Mississippi River to this area. Wayne Keese, agricultural engineer, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, will cover the subject "Developing An Irrigation Water Supply and Equipping An Irrigation Well."

John Jackson, area engineer, Soil Conservation Service, Pampa, will cover "Irrigation Methods and Systems."

Arland Schneider, agricultural engineer, Bushland Experiment Station, will cover "Irrigation Water Management."

This will be an excellent opportunity for all area farmers to hear some of the top-notch talent on irrigation.

Thanksgiving

I heard a fellow say the other day he never made a habit of telling his troubles. He said, "Half of the people don't care anything about your problems and the other half are glad you are getting what's coming to you."

Often a consoling thing to a person is to look around him and see some other person that is having it a great deal worse.

At this time of year I often compare the status of the average citizen today with that of the average citizen 35 years ago in Montague County where I was reared.

If you really want to get the spirit of Thanksgiving, you must have been reared under the same set of circumstances in the late twenties and early thirties.

You must be able to reminisce of what it was like to use kerosene lights instead of lights from the flip of a switch: You must have ridden in a Model "T" that had the celluloid broken out of the curtains in mid-January with a northern on... or ridden in the spring seat of a butcher knife wagon with a lantern used as your heater. You must have used a number three wash tub for your weekly bath in front of the fireplace on Saturday night
