UN Command In Warning Against N. Korean Raids

New Attack On Saigon Awaited

By JACK WALSH
SAIGON (UPI)—South Vietnamese troops and national police were ordered on special alert today on word from a high ranking Viet Cong defector that an attack on the capital was near. In six fights near the capital Sunday and today U.S. and South Vietnamese troops killed 123 Communists.

The capital military district said "rumors are sky high" of a major guerrilla attack. But he said American forces in the area have not been put on alert. But government officials said their forces are now on "100 per cent" orders to stay at their posts.

Fighting also flared in the Khe Sanh area where U.S. marines again spotted Communist tanks and along the coast where South Korean troops killed 255 North Vietnamese in a series of weekend firefights.

They cited the plans Col. Pham Van Thach was said to have brought in from the jungle when he defected late last week. The plans were said to have included ground assaults by elements of two Communist divisions.

A U.S. spokesman said U.S. jet fighter-bombers flew 141 missions against the panhandle region of North Vietnam Sunday —another of the extremely heavy attacks on North Vietnamese communications and supply routes leading into the Khe Sanh area. However, it was not as high as Friday's record 160 missions for the year.

Col. Thach is the highest ranking Communist officer to have defected, government spokesmen said. The colonel was political commissar for the North Vietnam army 9th Division. Intelligence reports said the plans he carried Intelligence reports said a North Vietnamese army colonel defected to the South Vietnamese government and surrendered plans for a large-scale Communist follow-up to the Reds' Jan. 30 Tet offensive drive into Saigon. The alert order followed.

Inside this city still scarred from the Tet fighting, national police found three truckloads of Viet Cong arms and ammunition wrapped in nylon bags and hidden under vegetables early today. Police seized six guerrillas manning the trucks.

They also seized weapons and explosives aboard a bus carrying 18 persons into town. The driver and all the passengers were jailed.

A U.S. intelligence officer for the capital said the defector's plan was to launch a major offensive against the city of Hanoi, the North Vietnamese capital, in the near future.

Reds Want Win Before Peace Talks

LONDON (UPI)—North Vietnam was reported by diplomatic sources today to be recouping its losses from the Tet offensive and planning for a new military assault to improve its bargaining position at any peace talks.

Latest developments strengthened fears that the Communists are following the 1954 pattern of "fighting while negotiating"—the strategy they adopted during the Geneva conference when they defeated the French at Dien Bien Phu while talking peace at the conference table.

Diplomatic reports also suggested that Hanoi is following largely its own policy, with little regard for Peking and somewhat closer, but not too detailed consultations with Moscow.

Present signs point to Hanoi's aiming at a major military victory, either at Hue or Da Nang while talking with the Americans.

GI's Killed, 3 Hurt In Fierce Firefight

SEOUL (UPI) — United Nations command officers warned North Korea today against continuing raids in the Demilitarized Zone that have killed eight allied soldiers since Easter.

Another American soldier died and three suffered wounds Sunday when a U.S. 2nd Infantry Division patrol engaged in fierce firefight with North Korean troops east of the Panmunjon truce village.

The Communists left three of their own dead on the battleground.

It was the fourth North Korean attack in the past eight days reported by the U.N. command. The actions along the zone which divides the two Koreas killed three Americans and five South Korean soldiers and left five Americans and three South Koreans wounded.

The U.N. command warned the North Koreans that U.N. forces would take all necessary defensive measures against further provocations. The command said "immediate cessation of North Korea's hostile acts is necessary to reduce tension in the Demilitarized Zone."

The command requested a joint investigation of the new incident, but the Communists refused the demand. Informed sources said a meeting of the Korean Armistice Commission probably would be held Tuesday.

Officials said the Sunday firefight occurred east of the truce village where the Korean war armistice was negotiated 15 years ago.

The announcement said five to eight North Koreans first fired on the American patrol from the other side of the demarcation line, then crossed into the southern portion of the Demilitarized Zone and attacked the patrol. After the gunbattle, the Communists retreated, leaving behind three bodies.

Drive By 'Poor' Plans Tent Town In Washington

ALANTA (UPI) — Demonstrators in the "poor people's campaign," conceived by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., before he was slain, plan to live in a shanty town of huge tents in "a prominent place" in Washington.

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), now headed by the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, King's successor, announced plans for the Washington campaign Sunday.

Abernathy will launch each phase of the three-pronged march to the nation's capital from the South, the Midwest and the Northeast.

Designed by King to pressure the Johnson administration and Congress to take action to help the nation's poor, particularly in Negro ghettos and on tenant farms, the active campaign will begin May 2 at Memphis, Tenn., from the spot at the motel balcony where King was slain by a white sniper April 4. Abernathy will place a memorial plaque on the Lorraine Motel balcony.

Abernathy and a delegation of 100 Negroes will lay the groundwork for the campaign next Monday by visiting various government offices in Washington.

King's brother, the Rev. A.D. King, told his congregation at Louisville, Ky., Sunday that "We are going to Washington and disrupt Washington so it cannot function unless it does something about the black folk." If violence comes, he said, "it will come only on the seed of white racism and this is not our fault."

Membership Roundup Is Launched By CoC

An all-out Western style roundup of members of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce was launched today by some 60 volunteer "wranglers" at a kickoff luncheon in the Coronado Inn.

Roy C. Sparkman, who served as "Trail Boss," is heading up the drive to raise a budget of $42,000 to provide an adequately financed Chamber of Commerce for Pampa.

Wranglers will be wearing red bandana neckerchiefs as they call on prospective members during the round-up. Attractive prizes will be given the top three crews including (1) A weekend at the George Cree Ranch; (2) A fly-in to a Dallas Cowboys football game; (3) An evening in Amarillo which will include dinner and tickets to an Amarillo Giant baseball game.

Special prizes will be given the top wrangler and the "drag rider" team.

"Water hole" check-ins are planned at the Chamber office at 10 a. m. on Wednesday, April 24th; Friday, April 26th; and the final "shoot out" for the prizes will be held on Wednesday, May 1.

A special cowgirl team, headed by Fannie Cree, issued a challenge to the male Cowpokes to compete for the "shoot out" prizes.

The Coronado Inn was decorated for the occasion with bales of hay, saddles, ropes and other western regalia. Trail cook Jim O'Connor served a special western meal to fortify the wranglers for their challenging drive.

Pampa Jayceettes assisted in the serving of the cook out.

A "community sing" was led by chamber manager Red Wedgeworth, accompanied by Sue Higdon.

Public Hearing Continues Today

The public hearing on Pampa's 1968 summer street improvement program, was scheduled to resume at 4:15 p.m. today in City Hall.

City commissioners at that time expected to consider further a request of the Fort Worth & Denver Ry. Co. that the City "change its mind" on paving assessments against the railroad.

Several streets in the overall $500,000 project border on railroad property.

Counsel for the railroad told commissioners at the public hearing on Friday that the paving would not increase property values for the railroad and asked for reconsideration of the assessments.

Connally Sees Possible LBJ 'Draft' At Convention

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gov. John Connally of Texas said on national television Sunday that the Democratic national convention might draft President Johnson should it become deadlocked on the other candidates.

"Unless there is a clear manifestation on the part of the people in behalf of one of the other candidates, the convention might well become substantially deadlocked and it might become apparent that President Johnson could be more of a unifying force than anyone else," Connally said.

"Under those circumstances, there might well be a draft." However, Connally quickly added he discounted the probability of such an event and said "at this moment I don't think he (Johnson) would consider it at all."

Connally, interviewed on NBC's Meet the Press, said he was not supporting any candidate for president, but indicated he was leaning toward Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

The governor said he would be "comfortable" in supporting Humphrey for the presidency, but "I'm not sure I would be as comfortable" if Sen. Robert F. Kennedy were the Democratic candidate.

Connally emphasized he was not part of any "Stop Kennedy" movement, but was concerned about Kennedy's stand on foreign affairs and the Vietnam war.

The country needs as president a man "who shows he has the concern, the maturity, the quality of leadership that this nation will require at home and abroad," Connally said.

He said he was not promoting any particular candidate now that Johnson has removed himself from the race, but later said Humphrey had "shown the capacity to understand the problems of the country... is very intelligent... and has shown the maturity that appeals to a great many people."

At one crucial point during the Bible and, in place of the traditional Latin, he used German. Hence the qualification "German" Requiem.

Lasting about one hour and fifteen minutes, the Requiem was presented, in English by a 120-voice choir, a full orchestra, organ and piano, all under the direction of Dr. Richard P. Condie, conductor of the famed Mormon Tabernacle Choir.

Dr. Condie's direction was business-like rather than ostentatious and, although he seemed mainly to be beating time, he was nevertheless very successful at handling the large organization before him and in bringing out the sheer beauty and nostalgic charm of Brahms' music. Need any more be said of him?

New Try Is Expected At 'Firing' US Capitol

By PAUL SCOTT
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congressional authorities are on the alert for a possible attempt to set fire to the nation's Capitol and its surrounding complex of office buildings.

Dozens of militant Negroes and anti-war protesters with known Communist ties have been systematically infiltrating Washington in small groups for several weeks.

U.S. security officials believe they are gathering here for the "second round" of attacks to destroy and disrupt the nation's capital and its key government functions.

Several of these militants, including a 27-year old light skinned Negro from Detroit, are known to be experts in making fire-bombs or to have served as "paymasters" for fires set during last summer's big city riots.

Their convergence on Washington, along with several persons on the Secret Service's list of "dangerous persons," is causing growing concern among those assigned to guard the safety of government officials and members of Congress.

The ominous threat that the Capitol might be "fired first came while smoke billowed over Washington during the April 4-5 burning and looting following the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King.

The choir performed with surprisingly good tone, diction and intonation. It was admirably at ease considering the wide range of voice parts and problems occasioned by sudden changes in mood and rhythm. Especially beautiful were some deep passages by the bass section. The choir's performance of section VI with its excellent fugue was particularly striking.

The two soloists, Fred Watkins, baritone, and Betty Garcia, soprano, sang in the best tradition of vocal technique and oratorical style. They proved themselves to be not simple sentimentalists, as is often the way with singers, but true artists. The orchestra was as fine as anyone could ask. The string section, which is the most likely to offend, was especially good. The brass, percussion, organ and piano were all of excellent calibre.

Court Hits Unfit Movie Ordinance

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court ruled today that state and local authorities have the right to classify movies as unsuitable for minors but only if the statute is clearly drawn.

The court struck down a Dallas, Texas, ordinance applying to children under 16 on grounds that the law failed to give "narrowly drawn, reasonable and definite standards."

But in the majority opinion by Justice Thurgood Marshall, the court said a state could regulate the showing of materials to juveniles "because of its strong and abiding interest in youth."

Marshall noted the Dallas ordinance was being used as a model of legislation for other communities and as it was worded, a film exhibitor might as anyone could ask. The string section, which is the most likely to offend, was especially good. The brass, percussion, organ and piano were all of excellent calibre. In summation the performance as a whole was musical, listenable and even beguiling. It might have been a little more powerful, more moving, more gripping.

While recognizing Dr. Condie, it must not be forgotten that there were others at work in preparing the Requiem. — Bill Davis, Harris Brinson, Jerry Whitten and Mrs. John Gill, to mention a few. What they produced was truly an historical event and Pampa's finest community effort in many, many years.

Four Die In Plane Crash

WICHITA, Kan. (UPI)—Four persons, a clergyman and a businessman and their wives, were killed Sunday in the crash of a light plane returning to Wichita after a flight to Houston.

The victims were the Rev. Lawrence Landrum Jr., his wife Betty, and Drew W. Noble and his wife, Jean. The Rev. Mr. Landrum was pastor of the First Methodist Church here, one of the city's largest. Noble was president of United Savings and Loan Co.

Before accepting the Wichita pastorate about a year ago, the Rev. Mr. Landrum was pastor of a large Methodist church at Houston.

Veteran Benefits At All-Time High In Gray County

Figures show that the expenditures in the form of cash benefits and services for veterans locally are at an all time high.

During the past fiscal year, an estimated $1,471,000 in pensions, compensation, grants and other benefits went to Gray County war veterans or their beneficiaries.

The $1.4 million figure was derived from detailed data for each state, released by the Veterans Administration in its annual report, covering the past fiscal year.

Sharing in the distribution were some 910 former servicemen and the relatives of other who have died.

The report shows that a total of $397,668,000 went to Texas State veterans and their families during the year. It was at the rate of $1,621 per veteran.

In other parts of the country, it ranged above and below this amount, the average being $1,607.

Nationally, the total spent for veterans services was over $7.2 billion. It was distributed among 4,465,024 veterans and relatives of deceased veterans.

Only about 3 million of the 23 million war veterans who are alive today have qualified for assistance and are receiving benefits, the figures show.

The Administration has asked Congress for legislation that would increase veterans benefits in the next fiscal year. Principally, it calls for special emphasis to be given to newly discharged veterans to find satisfactory employment or to improve their career opportunities through vocational or academic training programs.

A breakdown of the $1,471,000 that Gray County veterans and their dependents received in 1967 shows that about $831,000 of it represented compensation or pension benefits, including retirement pay.

Another $169,000 was in dividends and indemnity payments in connection with G. I. insurance policies.

Administrative costs and miscellaneous benefits accounted for the remainder.

DEAR ABBY: My family enjoys dining at a friendly little Italian restaurant which is owned and operated by a man and his wife. He does the cooking and she is out in front, hosting and waiting on tables. Do we tip her? My husband says we should. I say we should not as she might be insulted. In beauty shops and barber shops, if you try to tip the owner-operators, they're insulted. Does this hold true in restaurants?

RUTH

DEAR RUTH: "Tipping is always optional. But in the case of an 'owner-operator,' when in doubt, offer a tip. (P. S.: If an Italian, is 'insulted,' he'll let you know it.)"

DEAR ABBY: The daughter of a friend of mine was planning a large June wedding. However, those plans were quickly changed when the bride-to-be discovered she was pregnant. So now the family is sending out "announcements" that the girl was married in March, so the big wedding is off.

Under these circumstances, is a wedding gift in order?

A FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: If your wedding gift means, "This is in repayment for our wedding invitation," then, of course, no gift is in order. But if it means, "Accept this gift along with our best wishes for your future happiness," then a gift is in order.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old girl and I hope you won't laugh when I tell you what my problem is. I have a mustache. The kids are always teasing me about it. Boys keep telling me I need a "shave." Some girls have even told me in a nice way that I would be pretty if I got rid of my mustache.

I'm afraid if I shave it off it will grow back, heavier and thicker, like a man's beard. I have heard there are other ways to remove unwanted hair, but I'm afraid to try any of them because I've heard it could leave scars. Can you help me?

MUSTACHE GIRL

DEAR GIRL: You are very wise to consider so carefully the results before attempting to remove unwanted hair from your face. Ask your mother to take you to a skin doctor and let HIM recommend the method that is best for you.

DEAR ABBY: The man who told "THE OFFICE GANG" that he has been married for 31 years, and in all that time he has never had a fight with his wife, that she has never nagged him, or ever raised her voice to him, well — he could have been my husband, only we've never had a fight or raised our voices to each other, and let me tell you, we have about the dullest marriage possible.

La Cultura Club Continues Study of Presidents

La Cultura Club held two regular meetings recently at which they continued their study of the American presidents and discussed club plans.

In March, Mrs. William Chafin, president, was hostess. Mrs. W. W. Hampton led the club collect. Minutes were read and approved, and treasurer's report given.

Mrs. Chafin reported on Andrew Johnson, the 17th president. He was born in 1808, received no formal education but was taught by his wife Eliza, who was an educated woman. "His political career included serving in the Tennessee legislature and as its governor, as a U.S. Senator who was devoted to the Union, and as military governor of Tennessee," Mrs. Chafin said. "He became vice-president under Lincoln, whom he succeeded as president after his assassination. He was threatened with impeachment over his political disputes with the Radical Republicans. Later he served as a Senator and died in 1875," she said. Mrs. Jimmy Hayes discussed U. S. Grant, the 18th president. Grant was born in 1822, received a lower education in subscription schools and later graduated from West Point. "He married Julia Dent. Later he resigned from the army under pressure and failed at many attempted business ventures," she said. "In 1861 he joined the Union

Rev. Sam Hulsey Speaks To 20th Century Members

Mrs. Charles B. Fagans, 2515 Charles, was hostess to Twentieth Century Club members and Rev. Sam Byron Hulsey who was guest speaker at a recent meeting.

Mrs. Bill Roots introduced Rev. Hulsey by briefly sketching his background. A native of Fort Worth, after attending Washington and Lee University and Virginia Theological Seminary, Rev. Hulsey spent one year at St. Andrew's in Scotland.

He was ordained a priest of St. John's in Corsicana, and was Christian Education Director of St. John's in Dallas before assuming the position of Rector of Pampa's St. Matthews Episcopal Church. He and his wife, Linda, have two sons, Ashley and Byron.

Rev. Hulsey spoke on the "Changing World in Religion," emphasizing "The current problems surrounding us are the result of change. Never has change taken place as fast as it is today."

In discussing the God is Dead movement, he stated, "God is not dead and will never die. St. Paul defined the church as, 'the body of Christ, and we are its members.' No longer is there a problem between science and religion. The church can no longer be a vertical, self-bugging institution, but must be a horizontal one concerned for those outside as much if not more than for itself."

unity is a divisive factor which manifests itself in competition rather than in unity between church members. We need a changing world of religion. To quote Bohd, the modern church has had enough 'cheap grace and status quo.' We need to return to the New Testament simplicity.

"Praise of God, adoration of God, and thanksgiving to God should be the first concern of the church," concluded Rev. Hulsey. "Our primary job is to be the body of Christ in this changing world."

Following the program, the meeting was adjourned by Mrs. Lorene Locke, president, and refreshments were served.

Other members present were Meses. W. R. Campbell, William Easley, J. W. Gordon, Paul Harbaugh, Raymond Harrah, V. J. Jamieson, David McGeary, Fred Neslage, Steve Odum, R. W. Stowers and H. R. Thompson.

Aggies Are Studied For Violations

DALLAS (UPI)—The Southwest Conference official family remained mum today, but Texas A&M athletic director and head football coach Gene Stallings admitted that his school was under investigation by the conference on charges of athletic rules violations.

Howard Grubbs, conference commissioner, admitted that his office had investigated some allegations but declined to comment further.

"We investigate every report filed with us and many of them never see the light of day," Grubbs said.

Spring Meeting Topic
Dr. Monroe Carroll of Baylor, the conference president, likewise declined any comment on the charges, which will be brought up before the faculty committee at its annual spring meeting in Fort Worth May 3-4.

Stallings, however, admitted that a conference investigator had "checked us" but that he thought such information was confidential until acted upon by the conference. He was commenting on reports in a Dallas newspaper Sunday that disclosed the rift in-league harmony.

The Aggies were placed on 13 months probation in December, 1965, for violating a rule concerning football player participation in physical education classes in which football was taught.

The Dallas newspaper said today in a follow-up story that it had learned that among the complaints filed were two involving attempts to recruit a running back who wound up at Texas A&M and a quarterback who went elsewhere.

Richey Is Sticking To Tennis; No. One Now

By DARRELL MACK
HOUSTON (UPI)—Cliff Richey, who combined tennis and temper tantrums as a teenager, is sticking strictly to tennis these days at age 21 and is emerging as the No. 1 amateur in the United States.

Richey actually is ranked third by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association, but the two top men—Charles Pasarell and Arthur Ashe Jr.—are in the Army.

"Even if they weren't in the Army, he (Richey) could be the top player," said Billy Talbert, former captain of the Davis Cup team.

"There are a few areas where he needs to improve, like in serving," Talbert said. "The biggest improvement he's made in the last two years is in attitude."

"He goes about getting the job done. He doesn't get upset by his mistakes or bad calls. His concentration has improved."

Richey grew up in a tennis family and was playing in international tournaments when most boys were still in high school. Most of his temper trouble was blamed on immaturity.

When he was 19, he told a crowd at the National Indoor Championships in Milwaukee, "shut up."

"They were laughing and moaning at a shot during a point," Richey said. "I apologized right after the point and they gave me a hand. I was a good guy after that."

At age 17 in Rome, Richey created a furor when he demanded a linesman be removed in the semifinals of the Italian championships.

"It was a stinking call and one of about 50," Richey said. "They were really bad, eating hotdogs and everything."

Richey added to his reputation as a problem child by quitting the Davis Cup team

An organizational meeting of the Harvester Club will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the high school cafeteria.

The Harvester Booster Club changed its name a short time ago from "Quarterback Club" to emphasize its support of all athletics. The QB Club had been primarily a football booster club.

Chief topic of discussion will be the upcoming basketball banquet, slated for April 29 in the PHS cafeteria.

According to Weldon Trice, high school assistant principal, a speaker for the banquet has already been selected but further planning needs to be done to insure the success of the banquet.

The banquet speaker will be Rev. Jim Bond, a former Pampa player who was an All-American player at Pasadena College.

Tickets for the affair have already gone on sale and may be purchased at these places: Tarpley's Music Store, Richard Drug, and Thompson Parts & Supply. Adult tickets are $2.50 and student tickets are $1.00.

Harvesters Have Three Games On Tap This Week

The Pampa Harvester baseball team today was at the bottom of the totem pole in district 3AAAAA conference play with three wins and nine losses as the schoolboy teams headed into another week of action.

Pampa's three games this week will find the Harvesters playing at Caprock tomorrow. They will play Coronado here on Friday and Estacado here on Saturday.

Pampa is 7-14 for the season. In their three outings last week, Pampa fell before Plainview, Lubbock and Monterey.

Tasoca is currently leading the conference play only one-half game ahead of Monterey. Amarillo and Lubbock are a close third and fourth. Amarillo is one game behind and Lubbock 1 1/2 games off.

During the weekend the Tasoca Rebels and the Monterey Plainsmen kept their winning streaks alive. The Rebels won their seventh game in a row by defeating Plainview. The Plainsmen extended their winning streak to six with weekend wins over Borger and Pampa.

Amarillo Edges El Paso

By United Press International
The Memphis Blues collected only two hits Sunday but made them count to beat the Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs 3-1 and move into a tie for first place in the Eastern Division of the Texas League.

Amarillo edged El Paso 6-5 in the only other action Sunday. A double header between Albuquerque at San Antonio and a single game between Arkansas and Shreveport in Shreveport were postponed because of rain.

The Spurs committed four errors to counterbalance fine pitching by starter Roric Harrison and reliever Luis Penalar. Only one of Memphis' runs was earned, coming on a triple by Curtis Brown and an infield out by Chico Diaz. Diaz and Brown drove in the other runs on sacrifice flies.

Steve Renko scattered seven hits to pick up the win. The victory gave Memphis a 6-1 record and tied them with idle Shreveport for the lead.

Amarillo's win lengthened its leading margin in the Western Division to 1 1/2 games over idle Albuquerque. Bob Reynolds went the distance for Amarillo even though he gave up five runs.

Starter Vern Geisheit was the loser for El Paso.

Albuquerque will try to get that double header played at San Antonio today and Arkansas will be at Shreveport, weather permitting. El Paso is at Amarillo and Memphis at Dallas-Fort Worth in other games.

South Africa Is About Out

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (UPI)—World pressure brought up the International Olympic Committee virtually eliminated South Africa today from appearing in the 1968 games at Mexico City next October.

The nine-man executive board of the IOC voted Sunday to recommend the exclusion and it was certain the 36 votes necessary to legalize the proposal would be collected with ease.

More than 40 countries, including Russia, have gone on record as saying they would boycott the games if South Africa were present.

The executive's decision was unanimous, despite the dismay expressed by IOC President Avery Brundage of Chicago, who had campaigned for South Africa's inclusion and arrived in Lausanne from a visit to Johannesburg last week.

Two South Africans, swimmer Karan Muir and sprinter Paul Nash, will suffer most from Sunday's decision. On current world form, they were thought to have excellent chances to win medals.

In Johannesburg, Frank Braun, president of the South African Olympic Games Association, expressed shock at the executives' decision but said he still thought his country's chances in a re-vote were "good, but obviously not as good as last time. We still will find in the outcome that we have lots of friends."

South Africa's loss could be America's gain. World record sprinter Tommy Smith now may reconsider his decision not to participate. He was one of several Negro athletes who had announced they would boycott the games in protest of South Africa's inclusion.

The happiest man in Lausanne was Jean-Claude Ganga, secretary general of the Supreme Council for African Sport. He had made a determined bid to have South Africa excluded and he shook delegates' hands and expressed his thanks on behalf of "all Africa."

The IOC trouble started shortly after the February 15 decision was reached at Grenoble to readmit South Africa to the games following her suspension in 1963. The Afro-Asian nations threatened to boycott Mexico City.

Longhorns On Top But Wary Of A&M

By United Press International
The Texas Longhorns are on top of the Southwest Conference baseball race today after splitting a crucial series with Texas Christian, but Longhorn pitchers can't be getting much sleep thinking of those lively Texas A&M bats.

A&M, in third place behind TCU, scored 59 runs over the weekend in taking two out of three games from Texas Tech.

Texas beat TCU 4-3 Saturday after dropping Friday's game to the Frogs 7-5. The win put Texas at 10-4 and gave them a 1 1/2 game lead of TCU, now 8-5.

But the Longhorns must still meet the Aggies May 10-11, who have played fewer games but are tied with Texas in the loss column. A&M is 6-4.

The Aggies pounded Tech 21-6 Saturday after winning the second game of Friday's double header 17-6. But Tech, which has won only one game previously, beat A&M 13-11 in Friday's opening game, keeping the Aggies from picking up any real ground on the Longhorns.

A&M's problem may be the rain. They have had two games rained out which cannot be made up.

In other SWC action this weekend, Rice took two games from Southern Methodist, shutting out the Mustangs 3-0 Friday and edging them 3-3 Saturday. The losses gave SMU a 6-7 record and dropped them to fifth place. Rice is now 6-8 and in sixth. Tech at 2-10 is last.

The conference race will not resume again until Friday, although Houston will be at A&M and SMU at Texas Wesleyan Tuesday.

On Friday and Saturday, A&M will travel to SMU, Texas will play at Rice and TCU will be at Baylor. Tech will host Abilene Christian in non-conference action those two days.

The season for Pampa's Junior High track teams will end next Saturday with the district meet to be held at Borger.

The seventh, eighth, and ninth grade thinclads of both Robert E. Lee and Pampa Junior High will compete there with schools from Dumas, Perryton, and both Austin and Houston of Borger.

'Byron Nelson Classic' Slated In Dallas

By STEVE SNIDER
UPI Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UPI)—Golf tournaments have been named for automobiles, beers, wines, booze, crooners, comedians, cities, states, country clubs, the insurance business, an auto race, a flowering shrub, citrus fruit, gambling casinos and assorted other places and things.

Now they have one for a golfer—the Byron Nelson Classic.

It comes up this week as the new name for the Greater Dallas Open, honoring the great Texas golfer who is known best to the current generation for his expertise on golf telecasts by ABC.

"It certainly is a great honor," says Lord Byron. "The sponsors were looking for a different sort of name than the usual run on the PGA tour but I never expected anything like this."

Other tournaments in the past have been named for golfers, including Sam Snead and Walter Hagen, but those weren't fixtures on the annual circuit as the Nelson Classic will be.

Now, 56, with arthritis restricting his play to occasional weekends, Nelson is as happy as a leading money winner with a TV job that keeps him in contact through some 15 tournaments a year.

He rubs shoulders with the greats of the day with none of the pressure he knew as a champion who won a record 11 straight tournaments in 1945.

He also has a pair of proteges—Marty Fleckman and Bob Smith—to give him a rooting interest in the young crowd and still enjoys cutting up old touches with people who knew him when.

The first we heard of the round-faced Texan was on the first tee of some obscure midwest tournament in 1936 when a skinny young man was introduced as "the new Metropolitan Open champion," a title that meant little out on the prairies.

"Believe me, that was some title in those days," Nelson recalls of the New York area tournament that long ago dwindled to a local affair. "Anyway, it was the first big one I had won. And I had been trying for four years."

In time, the U.S. Open, PGA, Masters and others by the dozens fell into Nelson's hands.

"We didn't know a thing about competitive golf when we started out," says Nelson of his contemporary group including Ben Hogan and Jimmy Demaret. "Today's players come in better equipped with strong competition through high school, college and frequently in the PGA's new school for young pros."

TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license, nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself. No more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Scientific and technical knowledge, philosophy, economics, art, politics — every area of imaginable human interest — await the exploring mind.

Worse Than Supposed

The figure $10.5 billion, given or take a few million more or less, is usually used and accepted as representing the amount of gold currently remaining in U.S. Treasury vaults against which some $30 to 34 billion dollars are, reportedly, in foreign hands. The predicament of the U. S. government is obvious; even with the 25 per cent "gold cover" on domestic dollars removed, reducing dollars in the hands of American taxpayers to flat wallpaper, the government doesn't have enough gold to more than begin to pay off foreign individuals and governments should all outstanding claims be presented for payment.

Pull Up A Chair

By FRANK JAY MARKEY

The kind of a President you get at this fall's selection depends mostly on you—the voter. Party conventions cut the choice to two major candidates but the final choice depends on you going to the polls and voting. Hawaii, the 50th state, permits voting at the age of 20; and Alaska, the 49th state, gives ballots to 19-year-old applicants. Kentucky and Georgia permit 18-year-old residents to vote, but in South Dakota you have to show proof of five-year residence. Five states require that you pay your poll tax before casting your ballot and 15 others demand a literacy test for all registered voters.

Today's smile: A traffic judge had a woman motorist before him and said: "The testimony here shows you were going 60 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone." The woman motorist said: "What difference does that make? The man who sold me the car told me I could drive as fast as I pleased after the first 1,000 miles."

The next thing you'll have to get used to will be the square paint can. One of the leading paint manufacturers discovered a square paint can takes 35 per cent less shelf space than a round one. Now he's packaging his product in square tins and you can bet many of his competitors will follow suit.

Thoughts while shaving: The idea that a man's home is his castle was first promulgated by Sir Edward Coke, the eminent British jurist, back in the 17th century. You'll find it in his "Institutes," published in the late 1600's. The White House boasts a very elegant swimming pool where the chief executive and his friends can take a dip whenever the mood strikes them. Then John Quincy Adams was President he frequently walked down to the bank of the Potomac River, shed his clothes and had a refreshing swim. Never believe a politician when he tells you he's proposing a "temporary tax." Back in 1916 someone proposed a 3 per cent sales tax on automobiles "to help the war effort." That was during World War I. Now three wars later, the tax is still with us, but the rate has varied from 3 to 10 per cent. . . . and is currently about 7 percent.

Country Editor speaking: "There are two good reasons why a lot of Hollywood 'names' are playing the night club circuit and the summer theaters—TV and ND (no dough)."

I see where Sheldon Cohen, the Song and Dense man of the IRS is beating his gums about the congress cutting their funds. They cut his request for new auditors. He says that for every $1 cut it means $10 lost in taxes. Why, that's the best news I've heard since the brothers ate my little hog. The income tax has made more liars out of people than all the used car dealers put together.

Cohen says that because they can't get more auditors it is costing 1 billion dollars a year in lost taxes. That means the little fellows are getting away with a few dollars here and about what they wouldn't have otherwise.

It used to be that people was proud to pay income taxes. That's when it was based on reasonableness. But of course, the politicians had to be hogs about it and try to take it all. They are still working on it. The IRS is required to hire 1000 fewer people this year than requested. If it was 10 thousand fewer the little fellow might be able to rub two nickles together after taxes. It wouldn't be any good to rub two dimes together.

Does Nixon Have The Nomination Sewed Up?

ROBERT ALLEN

WASHINGTON — President Johnson will be lucky if Congress votes $2.9 billion budget foreign aid—approximately one-half of the $2.9 billion budget he is insistently urging.

Determined efforts are slated in both the Senate and House to shut off foreign aid entirely. Last year the House came within eight votes of doing that. This year, Representative H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, leading foreign aid opponent and numerous other cities will again attempt to fill it—in the confident belief the prospects are good.

In the Senate Way e Morse, D-Ore., a ranking member of the Foreign Relations Committee, has served notice he will seek to shelve the foreign aid authorization bill pending there. Morse contends large-scale foreign aid spending should be suspended until the Vietnam war "is settled."

The drive to slash in half the President's $2.9 billion foreign aid budget has powerful backing in the House.

Not only does Representative Otto Passman, D-La., chairman of the Appropriations Subcommittee handling this budget and a long-time foreign aid foe, strongly advocate this, but even more significant, he has the hearty support of Representative George Mahon, D-Tex., chairman of the full Appropriations Committee. In the past, Mahon has gone along with the White House on foreign aid spending. But this year he favors drastic pruning because of the immense sums required for the Vietnam conflict and the increasingly pressing need "to put our fiscal house in order."

If Congress does cut foreign aid to $1.5 billion for the fiscal year starting July 1, it will be the smallest appropriation since the program was launched two decades ago.

Last year, after eight months of wrangling, Congress finally voted $2.301 billion instead of the $3.378 billion the President proposed. He maintained this was a "bare bones" budget. But the legislators turned a deaf ear and lopped off more than $1 billion—for a record low up to then.

Now the backstage situation appears set to chalk up a new record low—provided foreign aid isn't eliminated entirely.

commercial import program. Steps were taken to guard against the possibility of strengthening the military arsenals of the Viet Cong through such transactions. At the port of QuiNhon, IGA inspectors found three large aid-financed barges which had been standing idle for almost a year. "Steps were taken to put these barges to work."

PIED PIPER — Polls show Senator Eugene McCarthy running a lumbering third in Indiana's May 14 presidential primary, but he is counting on a "secret weapon" to bring him flashingly from behind in the crucial stretch drive.

This hoped-for winning strategist is an army of college students and other young volunteers who will conduct a statewide door-to-door canvass in the Minnesota's behalf of the last two weeks of the campaign. McCarthy attributed his New Hampshire and Wisconsin triumphs largely to such unconventional "children's crusade" electioneering.

For Indiana his plans call for an army of 25,000 young volunteers. They are already being actively recruited in a number of neighboring states—Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and Kentucky.

It is claimed 10,000 already have been signed up in Indiana and Illinois alone.

For those who volunteer it is purely a labor of love. Not only do they have to pay their own expenses, but they are firmly required to "abstain from all unseemly conduct." Included in that category are long hair, beards, hippie attire, miniskirts and other exotic modernities.

To campaign for Gene, the youths have to be "clean." This rule is sternly enforced. The slightest violation brings immediate and decisive expulsion.

For McCarthy, a large army of young volunteer canvassers is essential to offset the large-scale spending of the Kennedy camp and the organized power of the Indiana Democratic establishment supporting the favorite son candidacy of Governor Roger Branigan.

McCarthy lacks the organization and funds to match either. He can't hope to set up an organization to equal the state Democratic machine, and in campaign funds he is completely outclassed by Kennedy. Late contributions have slackened and McCarthy's managers are having to squeeze the maximum use out of every dollar they can lay their hands on.

For Law and Order

With many innocent people dead, with more than 100 cities torn by riots and with destruction from looting and arson totaling in the millions of dollars, the United States has suffered a blow that is truly staggering. It behooves every businessman and community leader to ponder the meaning of the shameful disaster caused by savagery in the streets and to consider what can be done to prevent such outbreaks in the future.

First, however, it is essential to clear the air of the emotionalism that spread over the country in the wake of the death of Martin Luther King Jr. Hundreds of thousands of words have been spoken on television and by opportunistic politicians of Dr. King's "dream." But the harsh truth is that the philosophy expounded by the messiah of "social revolution" was not truly non-violent. The campaigns of civil disobedience that he led constituted an incitement to riot. In the final days before his shocking death, he was preparing a new mass march in defiance of a court order.

The nation must hope that in the aftermath of the orgy of destruction there will be a clearer understanding of the ugly fruits of civil disobedience. For more than a decade, demagogues have been shouting "freedom now." It turns out that "freedom now" means freedom now to rob liquor stores, to burn credit records, to pull innocent people from their automobiles and stab them, to break plate glass windows, and to set on fire stores and dwelling places. The chant of "freedom now," the call to civil disobedience, and the contempt engendered there-by for civic authority has culminated in internal wreckage of our country on an unprecedented scale.

Part of the tragedy is that civil disobedience has been encouraged by unthinking or unscrupulous men in high places. "Revolution" has been a pet word among glib people in the government bureaucracy and in the academic world.

Now the American people have seen the true face of "social revolution" in the smoke rising above the national capital and other cities of this great country.

Shockingly, there has been very little effort to trace the riots to their roots — to the apostles of "non-violence" and to the advocates of civil disobedience. The United States cannot live with the myth of beneficent marches and protest movements and the mass action promoted by the advocates of "social revolution" is alien to the United States, destructive of the true American dream of liberty within the law.

Riots cannot be prevented in the future by paying tribute to rioters, whether in the form of new special privilege legislation or by additional federal hand-outs. The time for that kind of would not oppose President Jan Johnson, but now that Kennedy is in the presidential race, a job braith is having a torturous time sharing his loyalties. Nominally he is still for McCarthy, but he is saying and doing very little for him.

Richard Goodwin, another Kennedy zealot who pumped for McCarthy when he was sole challenger, has quietly shuffled off. McCarthy insiders are making it clear they don't miss Goodwin.

POLITICALS — President Johnson definitely will come out for Vice President Humphrey. The endorsement will be made at a time when they deem it will do the most good. That may not be until the Chicago convention, but the President positively intends to throw his weight behind Humphrey at some point in the nomination scramble. . . . Those widely exuberant welcomes for Senator Kennedy at airports and other arrival points are far from spontaneous affairs. They are very carefully planned and organized by advance men who spend a lot of money arranging them. Many of the apparent effusive demonstrators are hired hands. . . . Kennedy's California managers plan to spend around $2 million for newspaper, radio and tv advertising and broadcasting in the crucial June 4 primary there. In 1960 his late brother spent nearly $1 million for this purpose in that state. . . . A Rockefeller campaign office has been quietly opened in the National Press Building. It's on the eleventh floor and is manned by a veteran public relations man.

The Doctor Says:

By WAYNE BRANSTADT
Start Good Posture Training in Childhood

Good posture among the young is rapidly becoming a lost art. It has been defined as the positioning of the body that allows graceful and purposeful movements with a minimal output of energy. It is achieved without strain in persons who keep fit through exercise. One should not assume, however, that there is a single standard of normal posture. Body type and heredity influence one's posture.

Your child will develop a poor posture by slumping in his chair, a slouchy walk, general indolence and assuming a don't-care attitude. Some adolescent girls who are acutely self-conscious about their developing breasts become round-shouldered by bending forward to minimize this development. Tall girls also may assume a stooped posture to appear less tall.

In allowing himself to become stoop-shouldered, a youngster fails to strengthen the muscles he needs for proper balance of his back and pelvis. This in turn may lead to arthritis in the lower extremities and curvature of the spine. This may result in one shoulder or one hip being higher than the other. Many a backache in adult life can be traced directly to poor posture during the teens, when rapid growth occurred.

In the absence of any acute disease of the bones and joints, the best treatment for poor posture is exercise. A good procedure to correct round shoulders is to stand straight with the back to a wall, throw the shoulders back and rotate the arms so that the palms face forward. This should be repeated several times a day. Braces are needed only for extreme curvature of the spine.

Remember that good posture improves your whole appearance and thereby helps in the development of a pleasing personality. You can't start to develop it too soon.

Q—My son, 2½, had an attack of bronchitis when he was 10 months old. He still gets these attacks every eight or 10 weeks. How can we prevent them?

A—When bronchitis recurs this often, an effort must be made to find the underlying cause. Are his tonsils and adenoids diseased? Has bronchiectasis developed? Does your son have asthma or tuberculosis? Only when the answers to these questions are known can measures be taken to prevent the attacks.

apppement is past. The need now is for the strongest defense of law and order, for far-reaching measures to return peace and civic obedience to the troubled cities of the United States.

If "law and order" were an issue a month ago, it certainly is the prime issue in the aftermath of the early April riots. Gradually, over the years, law and order have been retreating in America. More and more cities became dangerous to their own inhabitants. Overnight, many cities became battlegrounds as urban terrorists set fires, robbed stores and fired at policemen and firefighters.

Property was not adequately protected during the early April riots. Stores were looted while many police stood by and watched. This was not the fault of the police. They needed the support of political authorities for firm anti-looter measures. In future, looters must be warned that they will be shot on sight. If this kind of police measure is not applied, city after city will be pillaged. No place of business, no store or plant, will be safe from terrorists in the night. Always in the past, when natural disasters took place and looting was a danger, the warning went out that looters would be shot. Why weren't they dealt with firmly this time? Is it because it is an election year?

The American people are enormously tolerant. They are slow to anger. But they have had enough. Taxpayers are entitled to protection — full protection — of the law. They are entitled to civil government that is determined to smash those who would turn great cities and peaceful towns into jungles. But the roots of the riots must also be pulled up. These roots are entangled in the "liberal" myths about civil disobedience and social protest. Disorderly marches and lawless campaigns in the streets must be stopped. They threaten people of good will and respectability in all races and all walks of life. Law and order must overcome the agitators and exponents of "social revolution" in America.

Skellytown Girls Get Fair Ribbons

SKELLY TOWN (Sp) — Two Skellytown girls, LaDonna Russell and Glenda Villines of White Deer High School contestants in the regional Science Fair in Amarillo, won ribbons.

LaDonna won a third place ribbon for her project, the jet engine. She was entered in the senior girls physics division.

Glenda Villines won honorable mention for her computer. She was entered in senior girl's mathematics division. There were not enough entries in Glenda's division to give places; therefore, she won honorable mention.

Other contestants in the Science Fair were Trig Urbanczyk, Lynda Stephenson, Steve Huckins, Linda Corneite, Nancy Evans, Melissa McBrayer, Karen Haiduk, Kathy Hodges, and Beth Gallegly.

The contestants traveled to Amarillo with Bob Burkart and Doc Roswell. When they reached the Exhibit Bldg. on the air grounds, they set up their exhibits. They then had to remain near their projects so they could answer questions asked by the judges. At the awards assembly that night, the winners were announced.

Patrick Nugent Says 'I'm Nobody Special'

By JACK WALSH

CAM RANH BAY, Vietnam (UPI) — "I'm nobody special," said the young airman who moments before, with beads of sweat on his brow, helped hoist and insert a fuse mechanism into a 750-pound bomb.

Hard at work in a bomb-loading depot of this airbase was Airman 1 C. Patrick J. Nugent, serial No. AF27961713, son-in-law of the President of the United States.

Nugent, 24, husband of President Johnson's daughter Luci, began work here three days ago on one of the eight-man bomb handling teams of the 412th Munitions Maintenance Squadron.

It was evident to newsmen who watched him at work that his job was by no means among the easiest, or safest, for a serviceman in Vietnam.

"Everybody here has a job to do and I'm trying to do my share," Nugent said.

Handle Bombs

Working a 10½-12-hour day, Nugent and the other men in his team operate cranes and winches to load 500 and 750-pound bombs on racks which mount on the wings of F4 Phantom jets. They also attach the fusing device which holds the explosive charge that triggers the bomb.

Nugent, an Air National Guardsman, requested assign-unit last month, then volunteered for a year's tour of duty in Vietnam.

"I felt that it was something I had to do," he said. "I wanted to come over here and do my part. Since I have a little boy and a wife, I'm trying only to do my share so that they may be free and happy."

Although his arrival in Vietnam aboard Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker's plane last week caused some criticism, Nugent said he wanted to avoid the limelight and "be like all the other guys." For that reason, he consented to one group interview with newsmen hopeful that would satisfy the demand for the rest of his stay.

Dressed in boots and fatigues, Nugent could answer with only a laugh when asked if he thought he had been given a soft job. He said his $363.60 monthly pay and allowances represented "a substantial wage cut" from his civilian job at a Johnson owned radio and television station in Austin, Tex.

The blond airman was at a loss when asked his impression of Vietnam.

"I haven't been off base since I arrived here," he said. "We have about four hours each day in which we can do as we please, and I've spent most of that writing letters."

Nugent said he has received one letter, from his wife, since he arrived last Saturday.

"Everything seems quite well, although she'll have to act as both mother and father while I'm here."

Buckingham Offers First Class Service

Buckingham's Auto Service Center, 1800 North Hobart, offers complete car care for all your automotive needs. The personnel are trained in the installation of the Star Ventilated Brakes, Hunter Electronic Front Wheel Alignment, Marquette Engine Analyzing and Electronic Tuneup. More important, they are trained to service your car properly.

Sometimes in your driving experience you may have been driving down a long hill and stepped on your brake and felt the breaking power gradually fade away. That fading is caused by excessive heat "build up" and it could be very dangerous. The solution to this problem is to install new Star Ventilated Brakes, featured at Buckingham's. Star Ventilated Brakes allow free circulation of air through and around the brake linings, drawing off heat before it can build up to the danger point.

According to Howard Buckingham, owner, they are the coolest, safest brakes you can have installed on your auto.

Buckingham's Auto Service Center is an authorized Goodyear dealer for Pampa and the surrounding area. They carry a full line of Goodyear tires and have available any size or type of tire that Goodyear produces. They also honor all credit cards, and if a customer has any major company credit card they can qualify for instant credit. Customers are invited to use the Buckingham's Auto Service Center budget plan for any purchase they may need.

Buckingham invites the public to stop by and fill up with Sinclair gasoline or just to visit. He asks that you look over the facilities. He stated, "At Sinclair, we care about you and about your car."

They give Gunn Brothers stamps with all gas and oil products. Their phone number is MO 5-2201.

JUST TWO THINGS HOLD HOME TRADE AT HOME

With good automobiles and good highways, a merchant cannot afford to sit back and think any one customer as his.

Two Things — and only two — attract home town buyers to home stores. First is well selected stock and merchandise of good quality and fairly priced.

Second is letting the potential buyer know about the goods by means of attractive and effective advertising. After 200 years, the best and tried medium yet discovered for advertising is still your local newspaper serving the area. People can't easily buy what you have if they don't know you have it.
