Can't Survive Another 'Liberation'

Czechs Happy About Departure Of Soviets

By JUERGEN SERKE Czech alarm, reflected in nation seeking more democracy...

PRAGUE (UPI)—The Soviet decision to begin withdrawing its troops from Czechoslovakia Saturday sent the Czechs bustling about their business...

"We were liberated by the Russians in 1945 and we are grateful," said a 52-year-old bank teller.

For days the Czechs have worried that all of the 24,000 Russian troops sent into Czechoslovakia last month for Warsaw Pact troop maneuvers would not leave...

The only invasion of Prague today was by hundreds of tourists who brought with them fast cars, foreign voices and hard currency.

Czech Preference

There was little Russian to be heard in the babel of German, English and Czech filling the wine cellars and Gothic cathedrals of the city.

An official Russian statement that the Czechs are unhappy about the Russian soldiers camping in this country found little response...

"I am glad they are going," said a middle-aged woman clerk in one of the dozens of plain little shops along National Street.

The Russian denial of unrest in Czechoslovakia came in Red Star, the Moscow-published newspaper of the Soviet armed forces. It blamed the bad publicity on the western press, but it did not mention the Prague announcement Thursday that the Russians had agreed to leave.

Little Concern

The stolid Czechs showed little outward concern today. The streets swarmed with traffic that could barely move among the pedestrians who traditionally ignore traffic lights...

The Russian troops came last month for East Bloc maneuvers and did not depart June 30 when the war games ended. This raised concern among Czechs whose Communist party leadership has been taken over by a reform group, much to Moscow's displeasure.

Red Star said anti-Soviet Western correspondents are "making clumsy attempts to present the joint exercises as a sort of 'instrument' with the help of which the U.S.S.R. is allegedly trying to impose its strategic concepts on its allies."

"This provocative device is not new. Those who dream about 'cracks' in the monolithic bastion of the Soviet alliance often resort to it," the Soviet military newspaper said.

Tough Housing Ordinance Set By San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO (UPI)—An open-housing ordinance tougher than the federal law passed recently by Congress will go into effect in San Antonio within the next 30 days...

The ordinance, passed unanimously by the city council after it had been drafted by a committee headed by a Negro, says an individual selling his home must do so to anybody with a bona fide offer...

The federal law goes into effect next year.

RODEO CLOWN & CAR — "Quail" Dobbs, world-famous rodeo clown, and his comedy T-model, "Gemini," will be performing nightly at the Top O' Texas Rodeo...

128 Communists Slain Allies Resisting Red Buildups

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. and South Vietnamese forces killed 128 Communists Thursday in battling Red buildups on South Vietnam's northern border...

Allied troops in the capital have been on a special alert for days against a Viet Cong attack that government officials said could come at any time.

The shooting incident occurred only a few blocks from national police headquarters and South Vietnamese authorities sealed off a mile square area of the Chinese district of Cholon for three hours during the afternoon to search for terrorists.

The two gunmen escaped into the crowds. The soldier was shot in the side as he walked

Reds Slow Buildup Of Antimissiles

LONDON (UPI)—The Soviet Union has slowed its antimissile defense buildup and is increasingly skeptical of its effectiveness, authoritative British defense sources said today.

They said these considerations were believed playing an important part in the Kremlin's latest offer to discuss an antimissile missile (ABM) moratorium with the United States.

British assessments, based on latest intelligence reports, hold that Russia has been going slow lately on her major antimissile defense plans. The reason for this evident change of plans is attributed to a large extent to growing Soviet fears that the ABMs can be defeated and that counter-measures against them are becoming increasingly effective.

Western Week Slated In Pampa For July 22-27

The week of July 22-27 has been designated "Western Week" in Pampa by the Chamber of Commerce and the Top O' Texas Rodeo Association.

All stores and individuals were urged to dress western to set the proper atmosphere for the Top O' Texas Rodeo, scheduled July 24-27 by spokesmen for the two groups.

Youth Dies After Inhaling Fumes Of Hair Spray

CARMEL, Calif. (UPI)—The sun had dropped behind the Pacific Ocean. David Hamilton Warnock, 17, and a friend walked along the beach toward a circle of teenagers and hippies gathered around a flickering fire.

Minutes later Warnock collapsed in the white sand, overcome by fumes he inhaled from a hair spray can to get "high." He was pronounced dead in a hospital emergency room.

David, the son of a former San Francisco Chamber of Commerce executive, was the third young person to die this week in Northern California from a dose of narcotics or chemicals. The Monterey County Coroner's Office said Thursday he died seconds after breathing the fumes.

Overdose Kills Teen Nancy Anne Christiansen, 16, Palo Alto, a long-haired blonde with a figure of a beauty queen died Monday morning from an overdose of cocaine. Police said she paid $30 for the injection.

Both Warnock and Nancy were students at Palo Alto High School in the middle and upper-middle class city of Palo Alto, 30 miles south of San Francisco.

Phyllis Newman, 23, died on the front step of her Oakland apartment building early Monday and police are searching for a man who told another resident, "Something's happened to Phyllis. She's had an overdose." Laboratory tests still 10 S. Viets Sentenced To Death SAIGON (UPI)—A military field court today sentenced to death in absentia the 10 leaders of a new political alliance which has appealed for a negotiated settlement of the war...

The alliance, headed by a well-to-do Saigon lawyer named Trinh Dinh Thao, was formed April 20 at a secret meeting somewhere in Saigon.

The death sentences would be carried out by a firing squad if any of the accused were captured, court sources said. But all of them went underground more than two months ago.

Early today a dozen friends of one of the slain men, Manuel Angel Figueroa, 19, sat cross-legged on the scene on a south Bronx street and mourned around a makeshift altar at the charge later was dismissed. The 1966 charge was reduced to petty larceny and was marked "no disposition."

Gunman Sought In Death Of 3

Between the suspect and at least two of the slain men, a police officer said. The gunman, known to tenants as a "quiet, affable" man, mowed down his victims and wounded a fourth in a barrage of 18 shots Thursday night.

Cutback In Postal Service Ordered For The Nation

Walter Rogers Is New Director Of Gas Association

Walter Rogers, former U.S. congressman from Pampa, has been elected executive director of the Independent Natural Gas Association of America.

Rogers was named to head the association at a director's meeting of the reorganized trade group in Houston and following the adoption of a policy that includes becoming more active in industry affairs in Washington.

Rogers served 16 years as 18th Congressional District Democratic representative before deciding to quit politics. He served from 1950 to 1967.

Rogers was the father of legislation creating Sanford Dam and Lake Meredith, which resulted in establishment of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority...

Postmaster General Cites Lack Of Funds

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson today ordered a freeze on extension of a city mail delivery service to new subdivisions. Cutbacks in existing service, including elimination of home deliveries and window service on Saturday, may soon follow.

Watson issued the ban on extension of delivery service after telling the House Ways and Means Committee that unless Congress reverses an economy mandate, the Post Office Department would have to begin cutting back service.

A timetable submitted by Watson showed the first closings of Saturday window service at first and second class post offices were set for late, this month. The chart appeared to indicate Saturday home deliveries would be curtailed by October.

The Post Office Department refused today to elaborate on its timetable for reduction of services but a spokesman said the public would be given "sufficient advance notice." He defined this as "more than one day."

Watson, in testimony before the House panel Thursday, had said the mail cutbacks would result "immediately" in elimination of Saturday home deliveries and window service.

For late next year Watson's timetable forecast reduction of home deliveries to four days a week and a cut in business deliveries to one per day and five days per week.

Watson also warned that to facilitate movement of first class mail, the post office might have to slow down processing of second, third and fourth class mail.

Watson testified for the second day before the committee which is considering legislation to exempt the Post Office from a governmentwide employment cutback ordered by Congress, along with a spending reduction, as its price for approving President Johnson's 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

"I realize this committee requires some time for consideration of the department's problem," Watson said. "However, the law is already in effect and my problem started July 1 (the start of the current fiscal year). I must take these actions now—immediately—unless I get some indication that Congress intends to give us relief."

Hazlewood Backing Candidacy Of Gov. Ronald Reagan For President

State Senator Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo has announced his support of the presidential candidacy of California Gov. Ronald Reagan.

"I'm supporting Gov. Reagan in the hope he will become a candidate for the presidential nomination before it's too late," he announced from Austin last night.

"I like his stand on the basic issues—especially on law enforcement." The veteran Democratic legislator has represented the 31st senatorial district for 28 years, holding chairmanships of every major senatorial committee. The 31st senatorial district presently encompasses 10 upper Panhandle counties. Senator Hazlewood is also the second ranking member of the Texas senate in length of service.

Senator Hazlewood is expected to be on the platform with Gov. Reagan and U.S. Representative Bob Price of Pampa at a Republican fund-raising dinner next Friday in Amarillo.

Dirksen Defends The President On Nominations

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen today vigorously defended President Johnson against another GOP senator's charges of "cronyism" in the nominations of Abe Fortas to be chief justice and Homer Thornberry to be an associate justice of the Supreme Court.

"You don't go out and look for an enemy to put on the court," Dirksen said after Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich, leveled the cronyism charge at a Senate hearing with Thornberry sitting nearby.

Dirksen, a member of the Senate Judiciary Committee conducting hearings in the Fortas-Thornberry nominations, harked back to President Abraham Lincoln's day for an analogous situation.

He pointed out that Lincoln nominated David Davis, "his friend, his crony and his campaign manager," to the Supreme Court in 1862, a year after his inauguration. Davis served on the court for 15 years.

"I'd hate to think that history is going to rise up and say that Lincoln was guilty of cronyism," Dirksen said.

Thornberry sat impassively with Mrs. Thornberry and Deputy Atty. Gen. Warren Christopher as Griffin led off a list of opposition witnesses.

Said Griffin: "It is highly unusual for a President to subject himself to the charge of cronyism in connection with a nomination to the Supreme Court. And never before in history has any President been so bold as to subject himself to the charge of cronyism with respect to two such nominations at the same time."

Thornberry, a former Texas congressman who replaced Johnson as a House member, and Fortas are both long-time friends of the President.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When I married Lou I knocked five years off my true age because he was a couple of years younger than I was. We have been married 28 years and have married children now, and Lou still doesn't know my real age.

My husband and I are planning our first trip abroad this summer, and in order to get passports I sent away for our birth certificates—mine to be sent to a post office box number which I got especially for this purpose. My husband frequently sees the mail before I do, and he would be flabbergasted if he opened the mail and saw the date on my birth certificate.

I suppose I am acting childish about this, but Lou is the kind of person who would rib me the rest of my life if he found out.

Is there some way I can doctor up my birth certificate, or the passport so my husband will not find out how old I really am? I have heard that it can be done. What is your advice?

OLDER THAN HE
DEAR OLDER: Don't "doctor" up anything. Be nonchalant and maybe Lou won't even notice the year of birth on your passport. Or tell him in advance. If he ribs you, he ribs you. Women have been getting the rib ever since Eve.

DEAR ABBY: I have just discovered that my husband has a new girl friend. He doesn't know I know about this one. We had a terrible scene over the last one, and he promised if I forgave him it would never happen again. (If I had $100 for every time he said this, I'd be rich.)

In the past I've always let him know that I knew about his extra-marital affairs, but this time I am not going to say one word about it. I am completely drained of energy and emotion and I don't want to "talk it over" with him; I am sick of his lies and promises. I just want to be left alone.

I've lost all confidence and faith in him and any "love" I once had for him is dead. Naturally, I certainly don't want to sleep with him any more.

He knows I've cooled off, but he does not know why. I offered him his freedom in the past. He doesn't want it. (He says he "loves" me. Ha!) He provides very well for the children and me, but I have had it. What would you do?

IN A QUANDARY
DEAR IN: I'd give him two choices. See a marriage counselor or see a lawyer.

DEAR ABBY: When I was young I had an illegitimate baby. I gave him up for adoption on the advice of those who cared for me. I later married a man who knows all about my past. We now have a 16-year-old daughter.

Should I tell my daughter about my illegitimate son as an example of what a foolish girl can do when she yields to temptation and does not heed the warning of her mother?

My daughter is a quiet girl who doesn't have a boy friend yet, but I am so worried about what might happen to her when she starts going out with boys. Should I confess my sin to her or not?

SINNED
DEAR SINNED: "Warn" your daughter without using your personal experience as the horrible example.

Can it be that you still feel guilty and have an unconscious desire to punish yourself for your "sin"? If I were you, Mother, I would skip the confession.

Everybody has a problem. What is yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Girls On-the-Go Plan Techniques To Keep Beauty on 'Jet Set' Trip

By PATRICIA KING
NEA Beauty Editor
NEW YORK — (NEA) —

LBJ's announcement about European travel probably will put a damper on your ski weekend in St. Moritz, a wardrobe buying spree in Paris or annual antiquing in London. If you're part of the jet set, that is. However, if you're among the ranks of schoolteacher, secretary, homemaker or other career women, this doesn't mean you have to store your carpet bags in the attic for the duration. There are many spots of interest and fun in the United States and domestic airlines to fly you wherever you choose. So get those bags down and start planning.

To any woman, her cosmetic kit is a most important item and should be pre-planned with the same thoughtfulness you'd apply to planning your vacation wardrobe.

Mrs. Gerri Miller, an airline stewardess grooming adviser, points out that the same variety of selection available in the field of lightweight, drip-dry, wrinkle-resistant fashions, can now be enjoyed when selecting a cosmetics kit specifically adaptable for travel.

Mrs. Miller notes that a set beauty routine is impossible because of the variables of flight length and destination. However, one preflight procedure is the use of an under make-up moisturizer to compensate for the decrease in moisture at high altitudes.

For any flight up to four hours, there should be little need to alter make-up. Minor repairs for a shiny nose, and a reapplication of lipstick can be accomplished by a discreet compact check at your seat.

Longer flights require a different approach. The easiest method, though not the prettiest might be to board with a bare face and apply cosmetics just before landing.

To be as glamorous in transit, as when deplaning, Mrs. Miller suggests using a semi-make-up. A tinted moisturizer is ideal for this purpose because it adds color and dewiness to the skin and serves as an excellent foundation for later application of a heavier base or powder.

Creamed contour rouge, eyeliner, highlighter and mascara can all be applied sparingly, but hold off with the false eyelashes and shadow until just before landing. Application of false lashes is easy since vibration is minimal. One set of pretrimmed lashes comes in a mini-carrier case less than two inches in size.

To rescue a frayed or crushed hairdo, a stretch wig or long fall. There is a short curly stretch model available that slips easily in your bag and can be fluffed to perfection with a shake.

An in-transit fashion ensemble and an in-transit face will result in make-up and costume that will be fresh and appealing when making your entrance on new horizons. What a way to be discovered!

Club to Sponsor Women's Dorthy Carnegie Course

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Pampa voted recently to sponsor a Dorthy Carnegie Course in Personal Development for women. The course is open to all area and local residents.

"We believe B&PW sponsorship of this program is a community service," said Mrs. Pearl Castka, president of the Pampa B&PW Club. She noted that "business women, saleswomen, professional women, homemakers, club women and office personnel—every adult woman can benefit from this training."

Mrs. Castka stressed the course is for all area women and not confined to B&PW members. The club will assist Mrs. Edna Brown, area manager of Dorthy Carnegie courses in the Panhandle area. In her talk to the club recently, Mrs. Brown stressed the importance of having self confidence, enthusiasm in abundance, being able to speak effectively, learning the art of human relations.

Women who are interested in the Dorthy Carnegie Course may contact Elsie Cunningham public relations chairman, or any member of the B&PW Club. Mrs. Brown, a graduate of the University of Tennessee, lives in Amarillo. She has completed the Dale Carnegie and Dorthy Carnegie courses and a course for salesmen.

Astrological Forecast
By CARROLL RIGHTER

(FOR SATURDAY, JULY 13)
GENERAL TENDENCIES: You have a good chance today to get at some idea that impresses you very much and to work on the way you can make it work so that you get the desirable results that made you interested in it in the first place. Develop any interest you have in the cultural things of life as they can be most helpful to you now.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — If you take a good look at your present, you know exactly what should be done to get rid of them. Listen to advice of a real expert. Also be happy. "Be safe!"

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) — A very good day for gadding about and seeing persons you like and admiring and vice versa, since many benefits can come from this. Make your intimate life more ideal as well. It's mostly up to you.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — Go directly to higher-ups if you want to clear up that mess you may be in instead of relying on underlings. When all is O.K., get busy on that civic work that benefits the whole community. You have much ability—use it!

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) — Show a positive attitude in going after those new interests that have seemed hard for you to attain before. Stop fooling around and lose out on golden opportunities. Be smart—the active.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23) — Sitting down with that expert in some other field that is quite new to you is fine now, since you can progress about machines. Doing whatever pleases good friend is fine. Do not procrastinate any longer.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sep. 23) — Good day to be with associates so that you come to that important decision. But be sure you listen to his side of things first. Then out to places of amusement, social life, but be with associates for best results.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) — Show appreciation for your fellow workers and be more willing to give them a hand where it is most needed. So much can be accomplished that not a moment should be wasted. Why not give them a chance to express themselves socially tonight, also? Be generous.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23) — You heed more of the social today, so buzz your friends early and then out to the places mutually liked. Some hobby you started some time ago can now be delved into with relish. It becomes doubly enjoyable with pals.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 to Dec. 23) — Certain fundamental matters need settling and those who dwell under your roof can be most helpful to you. You want more luxury, but it requires you have a higher income. Get it through right ideas. CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 to Jan. 20) — Shop early. Then you have fun for visits, making contacts, etc. Don't neglect that correspondence that you have been postponing for some time. The phone should bring good results, too.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Either you do what is necessary to make your property more valuable, comfortable or talk such matters over with an expert. Improve your basic security. Also stop wasting so much time on the ephemeral.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — Be very steady where some personal matter is concerned and you find it is clarified in a relatively short time. Then out to that group affair where you can talk big strides forward. Be with your own element.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those clever individuals who will comprehend what others' desires are in any given matter, since the intuition have "X" pronounced. The fields of art, culture in all of its forms, or fine in this chart.

THE BIRDS ARE FLYING north, south, east and west. The "In" thing to do now is listen to our President and see America first and be well-groomed while doing it. This pert bird (upper left), checking in for her flight, is wearing a semimakeup to be completed aloft. Before landing (lower left) our traveler can touch up and complete her cosmetic job for a glamorous airport arrival. For the chicest hairdo, just slip into a curly styled stretch wig (right) which can be kept in your handbag until ready to use.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capitol

AUSTIN — When the special session of the 60th Legislature called it quits and went home, its accomplishments seemed scant — from a cold statistical point of view.

During the 30 days of the session called by Gov. John Connally, the 150 House members introduced 32 bills, and the 31 senators kicked in 30. When all was said and done, only five House bills and no Senate bills were passed.

However, two of those House bills were the reasons Connally called the session in the first place. So their passage within the allotted 30 days gave an appearance of success to the session.

One, of course, was the bill making state appropriations for the fiscal year beginning September 1, and the other was the tax bill to raise the money to pay for all those appropriations.

Texas taxpayers will start feeling the bite October 1 when the one-cent increase in the state sales tax, the one-cent increase in the motor vehicle sales tax and the 50 cent-per-$1,000 increase in the franchise tax go into effect.

Rep. Frank Lombardino of San Antonio sponsored the only other new law of interest to the average citizen to prohibit the carrying of pistols or other concealable weapons into alcoholic beverage establishments.

The two remaining pieces of legislation were concerned with the internal affairs of state government — transferring $3,000,000 from the Operators' and Chauffeurs' License Fund to the General Revenue Fund and authorizing the Comptroller to transfer funds between items of his appropriation made by the 1967 Legislature.

Only other thing of substance that the two houses agreed on was creation of the Governor's Advisory Committee on Physical Fitness. This was done by resolution.

Each house did create interim committees to study certain problems and report back to the next Legislature.

Senate set up a committee "to study the problem of locating and securing more land which could be set aside for parks and recreational purposes, and better utilization of existing parks and development of existing parks to accommodate more visitors."

House created interim committees and licensees under the Liquor Control Act and the need for laws on organ transplantation.

Also, the lower chamber set up a Natural Fiber Study Committee and a Family Law Study Committee and asked the University of Texas Graduate School of Business to study the possible creation of a Texas Stock Exchange.

into effect during the last few months. Collections for the first quarter of 1968, generally the worst business period every year, ran about twice what was expected. Here's the way it turned out for the cities which pioneered the sales tax:

SHIP CHANNEL CHANGE PROPOSED — A $21,000,000 program for altering ship channels in the Corpus Christi Bay area has been placed before Gov. Connally for approval by the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Federal funds would pay for all but $1,600,000. Engineers propose to deepen 40 foot channels another five feet and widen them from 300 to 400 feet. Project would get its name changed from the Arkansas-Corpus Christi Waterways to Corpus Christi Ship Channel.

New channels would accommodate loaded vessels up to 50,000 deadweight tons, with annual benefits estimated at $4,600,000.

SALES TAX SCHEDULE — When the new increase in the state sales tax goes into effect on Oct. 1, shoppers in cities which have adopted the city sales tax will begin paying the first of the four pennies when they spend their first 13 cents.

Tax applicable to city-sales-tax-covered sales: From one cent to 12 cents, no tax; 13 cents to 37 cents, one penny; 38 cents to 62 cents, two pennies; 63 cents to 86 cents, three pennies; and 87 cents to $1.12, four pennies.

Shoppers in areas where there is no city sales tax are facing this schedule: one cent to 16 cents, no tax; 17 cents to 49 cents, one penny; 50 cents to 83 cents, two pennies; and 84 cents to $1.16, three pennies.

However, the Legislature did kick in a few more exceptions. One exempts sales through a cooperated vending machine when each sale is for 16 cents or less, and another will exempt shipping charges when they are figured separately from the price of the commodities.

A third will exempt machinery used exclusively on farms or ranches in the building or maintaining of roads and water facilities, and exempted from the new third state penny will be sales resulting from a written contract entered into before Oct. 1, and sales for which bids were submitted prior to Oct. 1.

SHORT SNORTS — Just prior to adjournment, the Senate elected Sen. D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur president pro tempore — third in line of succession to the governorship, behind the governor and lieutenant governor.

Republican gubernatorial candidate Paul Eggers has named as his state campaign chairman Will Wilson, former Democratic attorney general and Supreme Court justice.

Revenue from smoking dropped off sharply last month from June, 1967 — $11,200,000 to $10,400,000 according to State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert.

Gov. Connally has asked President Johnson to declare Collingsworth County and Refugio County major disaster areas due to floods.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — You just don't know what to depend on any more. I mean, Sonny Liston, whose fight with Cassius Clay was once viewed by "Variety" as a vaudeville performance, suddenly has a comeback. And now the newspapers tell us one of the Beattles is in love with a woman of 34. I mean, she is over 30. Are you ready for that? It's all too beautiful.

One wishes that television was just as unpredictable—particularly the weekend deluge of the supreme entertainment potboilers: The hypnotizing array of low-grade cartoons aimed at children of all ages. Consider, for instance, the classy outlook on the networks for the fall season:

Super Adventures Saturday morning on ABC TV find such epics as "Casper," "The Adventures of Gulliver," "Spider-Man," "Fantastic Voyage," and afternoon, "George of the Jungle."

Also in the afternoons on Saturday morning on ABC TV find such epics as "Casper," "The Adventures of Gulliver," "Spider-Man," "Fantastic Voyage," and afternoon, "George of the Jungle."

ABC-TV continues this kind of cartoon deluge on Sunday mornings too, with series including "The Beatles," "Linus the Lionhearted," "King Kong" and "Bullwinkle."

But Sundays, of course, account for some of the best viewing on television, ABC-TV, for instance, will continue in the new season, to offer the children's show "Discovery," the public affairs entry "Directions" and "Issues and Answers."

CBS-TV has the super back-to-back threesome of "Lamp Unto My Feet," "Look Up and Live" and "Camera Three." It will also present "Face the Nation," National Football League games and the half-hour show before these contests that gives fans a preview of them.

NBC-TV's Sundays, meanwhile, will continue to be distinguished by such religious entries as "The Catholic Hour" and "Eternal Light," and by "Meet the Press." And of course, the afternoons will be dominated by American Football League action.

Do you sometimes wonder what people did with their weekends before television came along? And don't you wish they would do it again?

Political Polls

(WEEP). It will operate on the premise that a person's political preferences can be determined by television shows he likes best.

What I plan to do is survey a cross section of voters and a cross section of televisioners. This will give me a crisscross section survey. (No other poll-taker can make that statement.)

Stassen Supporters
Let us say that 5 per cent of the crisscross section list their favorite program as either "Mission Impossible" or "Dream House." I mark them down as Harold Stassen supporters.

Twenty per cent prefer "No Time for Sergeants." They obviously belong in the McCarthy camp.

Twenty-five per cent opt for "Dark Shadows." Meaning, according to the YEEP analysis, that they love Dick Nixon even when he doesn't shave twice a day.

I hardly need say who gets the votes of the 15 per cent who watch "The Hollywood Squares."

The WEEP survey also will make scientific television correlations for Humphrey, Rockefeller, Wallace and the other presidential hopefuls.

The 10 per cent who go for "Suspense Theater" or "Twilight Zone" will be placed in the undecided column.

Similar Situation
At any rate, it appears that polls can have much the same impact on politics that audience ratings have on television.

For instance, the Lyndon Johnson program already has been cancelled for next season, largely because of low ratings.

This started me to thinking that perhaps the two rating systems could be combined. It would save a lot of time and money if people who participate in public opinion samplings could designate their favorite candidates and favorite video shows simultaneously.

With that in mind, I have set about forming a new rating service to be known as the West Electronic and Electoral Poll.

THE LIGHTER SIDE
Political Polls

The Lighter Side
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Political polls apparently are more important than ever this year if such a thing is possible.

Both Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Sen. Eugene McCarthy are said to be relying heavily on the polls to help them win presidential nominations next month.

This is a fairly new function of public opinion surveys. Where once they only indicated which candidates were leading, they now may have a role in determining the winners.

Some of us may live to see the day when the U.S. Constitution will be amended to abolish the Electoral College and replace it with the Gallup poll.

Similar Situation
At any rate, it appears that polls can have much the same impact on politics that audience ratings have on television.

For instance, the Lyndon Johnson program already has been cancelled for next season, largely because of low ratings.

This started me to thinking that perhaps the two rating systems could be combined. It would save a lot of time and money if people who participate in public opinion samplings could designate their favorite candidates and favorite video shows simultaneously.

With that in mind, I have set about forming a new rating service to be known as the West Electronic and Electoral Poll.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis says that until a more definite near term trend is evident, many issues will display an irregular trading pattern on periodic market strength and weakness. The investment adviser adds that the more volatile glamor issues can be expected to be particularly sensitive to even minor market fluctuations.

Harris, Upham & Co. observes that the market over the past three months resembles the initial rally followed by a good upward swing as traders awaited evidence peace was near. It notes that within a year after other wars in the past half century there were strong market rallies, and voices the opinion that a similar pattern is likely when the Vietnam war ends.

Bache & Co. foresees that, with the blue chips currently the market leaders, it's possible that such a trend may continue for the time being. It voices the opinion, however, that the market has generated enough momentum to encompass a broad advance and sees additional strength remaining in the current rally.

FOREIGN NEWS COMMENTARY

Two Kremlin Voices

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UPI)—The Kremlin has been talking lately with two different voices.

There have been encouraging indications of Soviet willingness to work toward a rapprochement with the United States in major sphere of international relations.

On the other hand some tough talk has come from Moscow aimed at halting the disarray in the Communist camp and parties worldwide.

Different Purposes

Soviet affairs experts are not worried by these divergent reactions. They appear designed to serve different purposes and are motivated by different causes and considerations.

Significantly, the softer tones have come from Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and his foreign minister, Andrei Gromyko, both speaking for the government.

The harsh line has been plugged by Leonid I. Brezhnev, the party chief who looks primarily after ideology and world movement.

The Kremlin has not committed itself to any firm undertakings in the foreign policy fields. But while it refused to make any major move in the past, it has now come out openly with an offer to enter into talks with the United States on such delicate and controversial matters as a possible moratorium on antimissile systems and an arms embargo in the Middle East.

Notable Change

These are issues which will take years to tackle and no imminent decisions are therefore required. But the fact that the Kremlin has taken the public step to call for direct talks marks in itself a notable change.

One of the main reasons for the shift is Moscow's evident conclusion that it has more to fear in the long run from its one-time ally, Communist China, than from the United States. Leading Communist diplomats have for some time been conceding privately that a Moscow Washington rapprochement was necessary, in fact inevitable, if world peace is to be preserved. Once this aim is reached, other problems will find their solution, almost of necessity.

CRITICIZE SENTENCE

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet news agency Tass said the sentencing of Dr. Benjamin Spock to two years in jail was "a new terrible crime in the United States." Spock was found guilty of counseling young men on how to avoid the draft.

SPITFIRE CRASHES

LONDON (UPI)—Col. Wilson Connie Edwards of Big Spring, Tex., crash landed a World War I "Spitfire" Thursday during filming for the motion picture "Battle of Britain." He said the one engine plane's propeller stopped at 9,000 feet. Edwards was not hurt.

Officer Urges Persons To Contact Social Security Prior To Retiring

Many persons have the idea they do not need to get in touch with the social security office until they retire, but that is not the case, according to Howard L. Weatherly, officer-in-charge of the Pampa social security office.

Recent changes in the social security law make it possible for people who are still working full time to qualify for Medicare monthly cash benefits, or both, Weatherly states.

"Upon reaching age sixty five," he said, "almost everyone can qualify for both the hospital insurance and the supplementary insurance programs of Medicare, even if he is still working and earning too much money to be eligible for monthly cash benefits. Retirement is not a requirement for Medicare eligibility. Therefore, it is extremely important to get in touch with the social security office during the three-month period before the month you become age sixty five.

"Another change in the law increases the possibility of receiving some social security cash benefits for those who are still working. Beginning this year, one can earn up to $1,680 and still receive all of his social security benefits for the year. Even if the applicant is earning over $1,680, it may be possible for him to receive some benefits during the year," Weatherly added.

Additional information about Medicare and social security benefits is available at the Pampa social security office, Weatherly said.

Oregon Medical Society Rules Doctors Must Continue To Study

By JAMES J. DOYLE

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—The Oregon Medical Association has told its doctor members they must continue their medical education on a regular basis or face stiff penalties—including possible expulsion.

It is the first such policy decision by a state medical society in the United States and is an attempt to shrink the gap between the newest discoveries of medical science and everyday medical practices.

Of the 2,300 doctors in Oregon, only about 200 are not members of the OMA. The members practice mostly at state and veterans administration institutions.

The mandatory continuous education policy is intended to be "helpful, not punitive," said Dr. Melvin Breese, chairman of the association's council of medical education.

"This is not a big stick. The impact of the program is to improve continuing medical education and to make it easier and more effective for physicians to keep up in all areas and to minimize the gap between available knowledge and the application of that knowledge," Breese said.

The OMA house of delegates passed the ruling at its June meeting over little opposition. However, no minimum standards by which to evaluate each doctor's performance with ruling were spelled out, and Breese and others expect formidable opposition could develop before the next OMA house of delegates meeting in October.

Currently three methods of evaluation are being considered in OMA circles.

One method proposes each doctor submit periodic reports on how many hours he spends taking advanced courses, attending staff conferences and scientific sessions, absorbing closed circuit educational programs and reading medical journals.

Another method would employ a periodic audit of the treatment each doctor administered to hospitalized patients, to determine if the most beneficial course had been taken.

The third proposed method would involve evaluation by a committee of peers of each doctor's performance with hospitalized patients.

SPECIAL DIET

LUTON, England (UPI)—Officials of the magistrate's court promised to look into a request by Khandoker Jamal Uddin, 38, that his family be allowed to take rice and curry to him in his cell at Bedford prison because he cannot eat roast beef and Yorkshire pudding.

Breese and others expect formidable opposition could develop before the next OMA house of delegates meeting in October.

Modern Scholarship Confirms Accuracy of Biblical Reports

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

Modern scholarship, instead of discrediting the Bible, is furnishing striking confirmations of its accuracy.

So says Professor W. F. Albright, one of the world's leading authorities on archaeology and ancient languages.

Writing in Christianity Today magazine, Albright says:

"During the past century, our knowledge of the historical and literary background of the Bible has increased by a series of prodigious leaps, and it is now advancing with steadily increasing speed."

The breakthrough in Biblical scholarship stemmed from a "phenomenal improvement" in archaeological methods, the use of radiocarbon dating techniques, and the discovery of a vast number of ancient manuscripts.

Best Known Discovery

The Dead Sea scrolls are the best known of the recently found documents, but by no means the only ones of importance.

It is now possible for the first time for scholars to check the accuracy of Biblical references to persons, places, events and customs by comparing them to historical evidence from other sources.

Cameron to Discuss Ananias and Sapphira

Rev. Dan B. Cameron, pastor, will preach for both services of worship Sunday at First Baptist Church. At the 11 a.m. worship, he will use "Ananias and Sapphira" for his sermon subject.

Roy Koragay, minister of education, will direct the congregational music and sing a solo "Have I Done My Best for Jesus?" by Wilson. Miss Eloise Lane, organist, will play the offertory, "But the Lord is Mindful" by Mendelssohn.

"Secure in the Flock of God" is the topic the pastor has chosen for the 7 p.m. service, with text from Psalm 23:1. Mrs. Mack Hiatt, soprano, will sing a solo; the organ offertory will be "Meditation" by Oberg.

The mid-week service will begin at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday. Rev. Cameron will continue teaching from the book of Ephesians.

"The result is throughout favorable to the Biblical record," says Albright. "And new confirmations are turning up almost daily."

Even more exciting to Albright and other scholars is the light which new finds shed on the true meaning of Biblical passages which hitherto have been obscure or difficult to interpret.

For example: By studying Cuneiform tablets written more than 3,000 years ago, scholars have learned that the Hebrew word "naqam," which is used many times in the Old Testament to describe acts of God, does not connote vengeance or revenge. It really means "to vindicate" or "to save."

Tablets recovered in an archaeological dig near the village of Mari on the Euphrates River, dating from the 18th century before Christ, are full of details about the everyday life and customs of the people who lived in that part of the Middle East during the age of Abraham and other Biblical patriarchs.

These tablets "demonstrate the substantial historicity of early Israelite traditions."

The Dead Sea scrolls—which first came to public attention through sensational journalistic reports suggesting that they might discredit Christian beliefs about Christ—have actually had exactly the opposite effect, now that genuine scholars have had sufficient time to study them closely.

Prior Thought

Prior to the discovery of the

HALT INFILTRATORS

PATENT DIES
GLASGOW, Scotland (UPI)—Henry Barclay, 44, one of two men who received a kidney apiece from a 12-year-old boy last month died today of an "overwhelming infection," doctors said. The other transplant recipient was in "very satisfactory" condition.

scrolls, many Biblical scholars, applying techniques known as "form criticism," concluded that most of the New Testament was written from one generation to two centuries after the death of Christ.

The gospel of John, in particular, was regarded as late in dates (and therefore of doubtful value as a record of actual events) because it contained language and thought forms which scholars assumed to be of Greek rather than Palestinian origin.

But the Dead Sea scrolls have invalidated this theory by demonstrating that the vocabulary and ideas of the fourth gospel, hitherto called "late Hellenistic," actually were in wide circulation among Jews of first century Palestine.

Thus there no longer is any scholarly basis for denying that John's gospel was written early enough to have contained what it purports to contain—an eyewitness account of Christ's life, death and resurrection.

Scientists to Hold Communion Service

First Church of Christ, Scientist, 901 N. Frost, will hold an open communion service at 11 a.m. Sunday. The communion service will be held in Christian Science churches throughout the world.

The lesson-sermon titled "Sacrament," includes these passages from Matthew: "Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took his cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it."

Related passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include: "It is possible—yea, it is the duty and privilege of every child, man and woman—to follow in some degree the example of the Master by the demonstration of Truth and Life, of health and holiness."

Following the lesson-sermon, the congregation will be invited to kneel in silent communion with God. This will be followed by the repetition of the Lord's Prayer, after which the congregation will sing the Doxology.

The Hill Cumorah Pageant

More than 450 persons will participate in the 31st annual religious pageant at Palmyra, N.Y. The outdoor spectacle depicts the rise and fall of an ancient American civilization according to the Book of Mormon. It will be presented July 29-Aug. 3 on the broad slope of Hill Cumorah.

Grizzle to Head Refreshment Stands for Witness Convention

Charles Regal, local presiding minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced that Gerald D. Grizzle, minister for Texas Circuit No. 10, is heading the refreshment department at the assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses being held in Pueblo, Colo.

Over 6,000 persons are expected to attend the "Good News for All Nations" district convention, which started yesterday and ends Sunday. Representatives from nearly 100 congregations in a seven-state area are attending the meet.

"This will be typical of many of the annual assemblies to be held in many cities in the United States and Canada, as well as several others in foreign countries," Regal said.

Grizzle, who has visited the Pampa congregation on several occasions, travels throughout the West Texas and Oklahoma Panhandle area visiting the various congregations.

He aids in organizational matters and makes suggestions as to how members of the congregation can better perform their ministry, Regal said. Grizzle has served as circuit minister for the past three years in Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma.

"It requires the help of many departments to make an assembly successful," Grizzle said. "Not only is spiritual food a necessity during such a gathering, but material food is necessary, too."

Grizzle also stated that the many meetings and assemblies held by the Watchtower Society are designed to aid the Witnesses in developing better methods.

These are used to interest people in having Bible studies in their homes and to emphasize that "man's hope for peace on the earth will not come from man, but must come from God," he added.

J. W. DOKE, MINISTER

Isaiah 12:3 — Then you shall draw water with joy from the wells of Salvation.

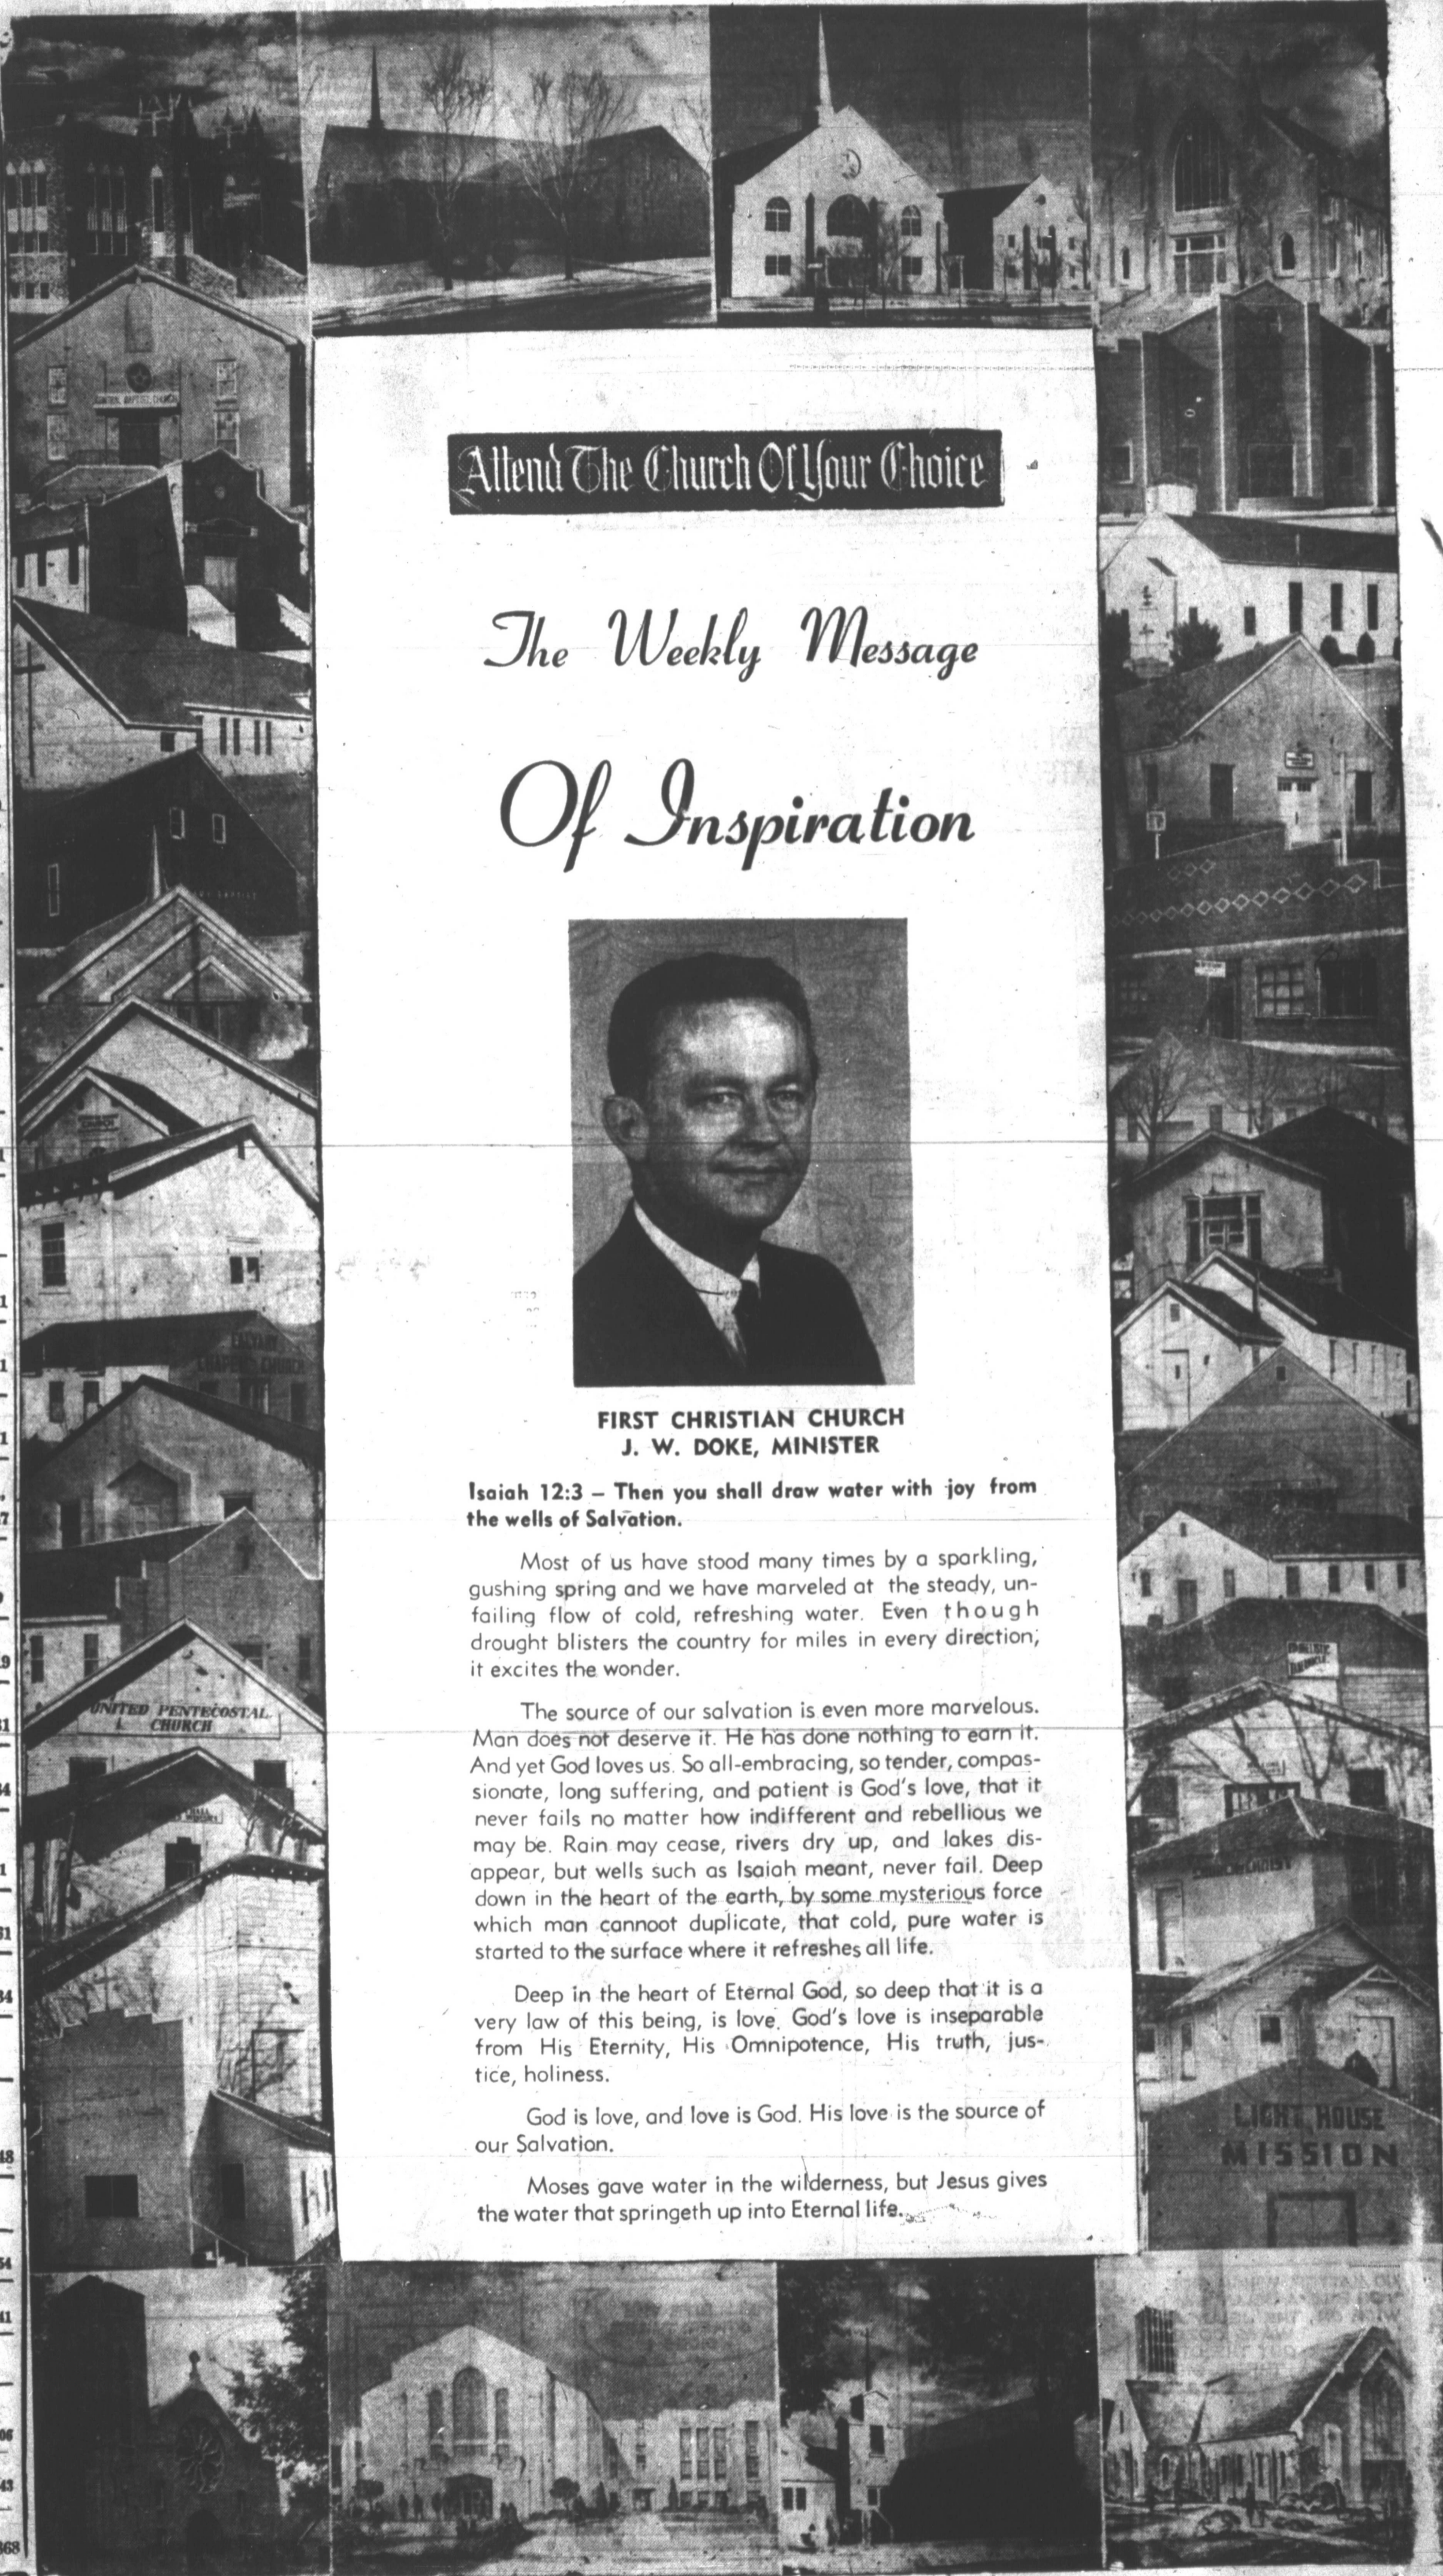

Most of us have stood many times by a sparkling, gushing spring and we have marveled at the steady, un-failing flow of cold, refreshing water. Even though drought blisters the country for miles in every direction; it excites the wonder.

The source of our salvation is even more marvelous. Man does not deserve it. He has done nothing to earn it. And yet God loves us. So all-embracing, so tender, compassionate, long suffering, and patient is God's love, that it never fails no matter how indifferent and rebellious we may be. Rain may cease, rivers dry up, and lakes disappear, but wells such as Isaiah meant, never fail. Deep down in the heart of the earth, by some mysterious force which man cannot duplicate, that cold, pure water is started to the surface where it refreshes all life.

Deep in the heart of Eternal God, so deep that it is a very law of this being, is love. God's love is inseparable from His Eternity, His Omnipotence, His truth, justice, holiness.

God is love, and love is God. His love is the source of our Salvation.

Moses gave water in the wilderness, but Jesus gives the water that springeth up into Eternal life.

Dumas Edges Pampa All-Stars, 3-2, In Tournament

SPORTS

THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS
FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1968

New Pilot Guides Win

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Earl Weaver, the newly appointed manager of the Baltimore baseball club, doesn't come cheap, and if one game is any indication, the Orioles may be getting a bargain.

Weaver was officially named manager Thursday morning, replacing Hank Bauer, and the Orioles proceeded to beat Washington, 2-0, Thursday night behind Dave McNally's two-hit pitching.

After the game, Weaver revealed he received a raise from his former coach's salary to guide the Orioles for the rest of the season, but the successful minor league mentor also disclosed he turned down the club's first money offer to manage.

"In my position, I've got to be satisfied to get my foot in the door," said Weaver, whose teams never finished out of the first division in 11 minor league seasons of managing. "Now I feel that I can do a good enough job so they'll keep me."

Weaver is familiar enough with the Oriole players, having managed 16 of them at one time or another in the minors, and feels he has taken over a pennant-contending team, even though the Orioles trail the front-running Detroit Tigers by 9½ games.

Weaver's first test of the big time came when Baltimore released three of Bauer's four coaches following the 1967 season and he was elevated from manager of Rochester in the International League to first base coach of the Orioles.

Mantle To Retire At End Of Season

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Unless the situation changes "drastically" for Mickey Mantle, he will retire at the end of the 1968 baseball season, the New York Yankee slugger said Wednesday night.

In San Antonio for the opening of the first in what will be a chain of Mickey Mantle restaurants, he said this year's baseball season has tired him out.

"Last year I flew from Dallas to the All Star game for three swings," Mantle told a press conference at the new restaurant, "and this year I flew from Dallas to the All Star game in Houston for three more."

"I went up to bat in the All Star game already feeling defeated," the 37-year-old center fielder said.

Casper Holds Good Lead In Golf Open

By MIKE HUGHES
CARNOUSTIE, Scotland (UPI)—"I like it out in front. Let the others catch me."

The speaker was Billy Casper faced by the rest of the field as the British Open golf tournament moved into the third round today with the chunky Californian holding a commanding four-stroke lead.

Casper unleashed a barrage of birdies Thursday in the face of a driving rain to post a four-under-par 68 and become only the fourth player in Open history to better 70 on Carnoustie's treacherous 7,252-yard, par-72 course. His spectacular round gave him a 36-hole total of 140.

Casper finished, Jack Nicklaus became the fifth Open player to break 70 at Carnoustie with a 69 that left him five strokes off the pace at 145.

Casper completely mastered Carnoustie's narrow fairways, hitting the greens with such superb accuracy that he was never left with putts of more than 15 feet for his birdies or pars. He carded five birdies, including one on the fifth hole where he sank a 25-foot pitch shot from a sand trap.

Casper's closest pursuers were Bob Charles of New Zealand, Tony Jacklin of England and Briton Brian Barnes, all at 144.

Tied with Nicklaus at 145 were 1959 Brith Open winner Gary Player of South Africa and Ireland's Paddy Skerritt.

In addition to Casper and Nicklaus, other Americans bettering the 135 cutoff point were: Gay Brewer (147), Arnold Palmer (148), Hubby Habjan (151), bbert Yancey (153) and Doug Sanders (154).

Orioles Top Senators, 2-0

By PETE ALFANO
UPI Sports Writer

Earl Weaver made a few changes in his lineup card Thursday night and then the confident new skipper of the Baltimore Orioles sat back and watched his moves pay off and make him a winner in his major league managerial debut.

Weaver, who replaced Hank Bauer as Oriole manager Thursday, made Don Buford his leadoff hitter and moved shortstop Mark Belanger from the eighth spot to the second in the batting order. Both backed Dave McNally's two-hit pitching with timely hits that enabled Baltimore to defeat the Washington Senators 2-0.

Buford walked in the first inning and scampered to third on Belanger's single. He scored the first Oriole run as Frank Robinson bounced into a double play. In the fifth inning, Buford added an insurance run when he slammed his fifth homer of the season over the right field fence.

In Winning Column

McNally, who posted his ninth win against eight losses, allowed only a two-out double to Cap Peterson and a single to Del Unser as he walked two and struck out six.

In other American League action, Minnesota edged Detroit 5-4, New York got by Chicago 5-4, Oakland topped Cleveland 4-3 and California slipped by Boston 3-2.

In the National League, New York and Chicago split a doubleheader with the Mets winning the opener 1-0 and the Cubs the nightcap 2-0, Philadelphia swept a pair from Pittsburgh 5-4 and 4-1, San Francisco tripped Cincinnati 7-1, Atlanta edged Los Angeles 1-0 and St. Louis split with Houston dropping the first game 5-4 in 10 innings and winning the second 8-7.

Crucial Singles

Rod Carew, whose two run single tied the score in the seventh inning, singled home Rich Reese with one out in the ninth to give Minnesota and reliever Ron Perranoski, now 6-2, the victory over league leading Detroit.

Bill Robinson slammed two doubles and drove in two runs to power New York past Chicago in a game played before 40,575 at Milwaukee's County Stadium. Frits Peterson got the win for the Yanks while Gary Peters was charged with his 10th defeat in 13 decisions.

Vic Davallillo's bases loaded two out single in the seventh enabled California and George Ernet to snap an eight-game Boston winning streak.

Reggie Jackson belted his 14th homer of the season to break a 3-3 tie in the eighth inning and give Oakland, behind Chuck Dobson's five-hit pitching, its triumph over Cleveland.

ASHE WINNER

BAASTAD, Sweden (UPI)—Arthur Ashe was a double winner Wednesday at the International Swedish tennis championships.

He downed Martin Carstein of Sweden 6-2, 6-2, 6-2 in a first round match and then teamed with fellow American Clark Graebner to beat Donald Dell, also of the U.S. and Ion Tiriac of Rumania 6-3, 9-7.

Plainview Tops Olton In Elimination Game

Tonight's Game
8 p.m. Pampa vs. Plainview

Dumas remained the only undefeated team by edging the Pampa Babe Ruth All-Stars, 3-2, in the Babe Ruth tournament at Optimist Park Thursday night.

Pampa scored early in the first inning when a fielding error allowed Randy Marsh to score from second base.

Dumas came right back in the second inning to tie the score at 1-1 on three straight singles by Bob Laughry, Jerry McVicker and Kim McClintock.

In the third inning, Dumas went out in front by a score of 3-1 when catcher Jerry McVicker doubled home Phil Colson and Laughry.

Pampa scored its final run in the sixth frame when Lewis Davis scored.

In contrast to the majority of contests played in the tournament, this one turned into a pitcher's duel.

Pampa got a total of four hits while Dumas had a total of six hits.

Laughry was the starting and winning pitcher. He hurled all seven innings.

Ricky Harris was the loser for Pampa. He toiled the first three innings being relieved by Chuck Sexton at the start of the fourth inning.

In the early game, Plainview eliminated Olton, 18-8.

Plainview got a total of 15 hits and scored 11 runs in the fourth inning when 14 batters went to the plate.

Olton led 7-3 at the end of the three innings.

Only one game is scheduled for tonight. The winner will earn the right to play Dumas tomorrow in the finals at 6 p.m.—The loser will finish third place in the tournament.

Unproved Golfers Lead Rich Milwaukee Open

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—The day of the "rabbit" was over. At least, so hoped the wild foxes of the professional golf tour.

The foxes — such familiar names as Sam Snead, Julius Boros, Don January, Tom Weiskopf and Lee Trevino — were still in hailing distance today for the second round of the $200,000 Greater Milwaukee Open, second richest stop on the Professional Golfers association (PGA) circuit.

But Thursday belonged to the youngster in the tour "rabbits" — in pro golfers' parlance.

A 22-year-old rookie, Mac McLendon of Montgomery, Ala., and a 28-year-old fourth year player who has yet to join the affluent society, Rocky Thompson of Wichita Falls, Tex., fired record 66s Thursday to take the lead after the first round.

Three other youngsters—Rod Horn, 29, Overland Park, Kan.; Dick Lotz, 25, Hayward, Calif.; and Fred Marti, 27, Baytown, Tex.—were tied for second one stroke back.

All finished with rounds of 67 on the 7,155 year, par 72 North Shore Country Club course in suburban Mequon.

Dave Stockton, a 25-year-old "veteran" of San Bernard Calif., held down sixth place with a 68.

"If I would have known somebody else was coming in with a 66, I would have tried harder," quipped Stockton.

The kids of the tour stole the spotlight from the veterans.

Deer Season Opens Nov. 9 Over Most Of State Area

AUSTIN (UPI)—The Parks and Wildlife Commission today set the dates for the deer season in most of the state as Nov. 9-Jan. 1, but delayed the starting date until the last Saturday in November for the Panhandle counties.

Districts with deer hunting dates other than Nov. 9-Jan. 1 include Trans-Pecos, Nov. 30-Dec. 15; Northeast Texas, Nov. 9-Nov. 30; and the county of Frio, Nov. 16-Jan. 7.

Frio had an experimental "late deer season" last year which started and ran one week later than the rest of the state.

Rep. Russell Cummings of Houston, who proposed the "late week" last year because "Texas' geography dictate the need for a split deer season—early in North Texas and later in the south," appeared before the commission to ask that the plan be continued.

In other actions, the Parks and Wildlife Commission:

- Transferred control of the Buescher State Park lands in Bastrop County to the University of Texas for use as a "science park."
- Closed the alligator season in all state counties for one year, to prevent the extermination of the species.
- Set dates for the pheasant season in the Panhandle as the second Saturday of December and nine consecutive days thereafter, and made it mandatory that the head and feet remain attached to the pheasant carcass so that sex identification will be possible.
- Opened the season on striped bass in Lake Texoma, with a bag and possession limit of one.

Whitworth Tries For Third Victory

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Classy Kathy Whitworth set out today for her third tournament victory in Ohio's capital city at the opening of the 54-hole Pabst golf classic.

The $28,000 tournament opened on the public Raymond Memorial golf course, a par-72 layout, with 52 Ladies Professional Golf Association touring pros shooting for the top prize of $4,200.

Sixteen amateurs, including newly crowned Ohio women's champion Pam Higgins, also were entered.

Germany's Gerda Whalen showed she deserves to be rated among the favorites after winning Thursday's pro-amateur event with a best-ball score of 51, along with three men playing partners.

Miss Whitworth's 69 and Sherry Wilder's 70 were among the lowest rounds of the pre-tournament event.
