LOVE BEFORE BREAKFAST IS CROWN'S FILM

OPENS TODAY FOR RUN OF THREE DAYS ON S. CUYLER

Carole Lombard is starred in Faith Baldwin's "Love Before Breakfast," which opens today for a three-day run in Pampa's new Crown theater.

This is Miss Lombard's latest release and in it she is supported by an all-star cast including Preston Foster, Caesar Romero, Janet Beecher, Bert Roach, Joyce Compton, Betty Lawford, John King, Red Christie, Nan Gray, David Worth, Martin White and Priscilla Lawson.

The picture is by Universal and is directed by Walter Lang. It was adapted from Miss Baldwin's "Spinner Dinner."

It comes to Pampa from Hollywood under the label "the picture with a sock." It is said to be a fast moving comedy-drama woven around the story of love at first sight in which the two leading characters are confronted with the question: should they marry in haste and live scrappily ever after?

Then, too, it is the story of a man who bribed his way into the life of a beautiful girl, bought his way into her heart, and then busted her in the eye while fighting for her love.

There are many laughs in "Love Before Breakfast," according to the advance notices and it is heralded as one of the snappiest, most sophisticated stories of modern love to come out of the film capital.

Miss Lombard portrays a self-determined, opinionated young woman who believes she wants to marry two different men. She gives them both a tempestuous time while she is deciding between them.

Foster and Romero are cast as the two suitors.

In addition to the feature picture, the Crown will present, through Tuesday, a short comedy, new release and animated cartoon.

Daring Exploits Of Divers Seen In Thrilling Film

Hollywood, always seeking the novel in screen fare, has been beaten to the punch this season by Republic Pictures.

For "Down to the Sea," which opens Wednesday at the Crown theater, is one of the most daring subjects, fascinatingly treated, that has come this way in a long time.

Dealing with the colorful exploits of intrepid deep-sea divers engaged in the little known but highly important business of gathering sponges for the world supply, the story is interpreted by one of the most capable casts to be had in Hollywood.

Against this scenic background of Florida coasts is a thrilling love and action story interspersed with tragedies, rugged characterizations and golden threads of uproarious humor.

Glamorous 17-year-old Ann Rutherford, daughter of the patriarchal ruler of the colony, is the feminine reason for a bitter hatred which develops between Ben Lyon, a diver, and Russell Hardie, college bred youth who hates the business.

Clashes between these two and certain factions of the sponge hookers add thrilling interest to the unique tale.

Directed with a fine sense of balance by Lewis Collins and photographed by Harry Neuman, master of marine subjects, the story features, in addition to Lyons, Hardie and Miss Rutherford, Fritz Leiber, Maurice Murphy, Irving Pichel, Vince Barnett, Nigel de Bruiler, Frank Yaconelli, Karl Hackett, Paul Porcasi, Francisco Mafon and Vic Roxel.

JAPAN WILL HASTEN TO ENLARGE NAVAL BUDGET

TOKYO, Nov. 28. (AP)—Japan will hasten to enlarge her navy as soon as parliament approves new budget estimates, Admiral Osami Nagano, Japanese minister of marine, said today.

Japan he described as a "poor power which cannot afford to enlarge a navy as other nations do, but must be able to defend itself and maintain peace in the far east."

The 1937-38 naval budget, approved by the cabinet yesterday, calls for an expenditure of approximately $200,000,000.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS CROWN OPENING FRIDAY

OWNER PLEASED WITH RECEPTION GIVEN BY PUBLIC

Pampa's new Crown theater, on S. Cuyler, drew a capacity audience at its formal opening Friday night, and P. C. Crown, operator of the theater, Saturday expressed himself as highly pleased with the reception given to the new theater by the public.

Floral pieces were sent to the theater Friday night by Hutchins, Inc., Court House Cafe, The White House Lumber Co., Davis Electric Co., L. C. Graham, Carl Benefiel, manager of the Griffiths Amusement Co., and by Steve Manas of Steubenville, Ohio, head of the Manas Amusement Co. and a close personal friend of Mr. Crown.

"I want to express my thanks to our many well-wishers," Mr. Crown said, "and to those who sent floral pieces on the occasion of our opening. I am highly pleased with the reception which has been given by the public to the Crown theater."

"I shall try to keep this confidence by bringing to Pampa the highest type of entertainment obtainable."

The new theater has a policy of first run pictures at popular prices. The programs will be changed three times a week on Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

PERSON KILLED EVERY FOUR HOURS IN TEXAS

AUSTIN, Nov. 28. (AP)—Every four hours and 48 minutes someone is killed in Texas by an automobile, more often than not a speeding one.

Department of Public Safety statisticians show that 17,000 of Texas' 1,350,000 registered automobiles were involved in accidents.

Taking into consideration the small flow of traffic at the time, the period from 12:01 to 6 a. m. is the deadliest time on the highways, the department reported.

Diphtheria Cases Reported in City

Several cases of diphtheria have been reported in Pampa during the last two weeks and one death has resulted from the disease already, according to Dr. R. A. Webb, county health officer, who urged parents to have all children over five months of age given diphtheria toxoid.

Two new cases of scarlet fever were also reported yesterday, Dr. Webb said.

"I urge parents to go to their family doctor and have their children inoculated," Dr. Webb said. "If a child becomes the least bit ill, the family physician should be called without delay. Many contagious cases are not being reported to the health authorities," Dr. Webb said.

Mrs. Viola Morris has been notified that her son, Melvis Morris, stationed with the United States army at Fort Warren, Wyo., has received a medal for making the best record at the fort in bayonet practice, and that he also scored 49 of a possible 50 in rifle practice. Morris enlisted in August, and was sent from Deming to Fort Warren in September. He was graduated from high school here in 1933.

Stars in LaNora Feature

Players in 'The Big Game'

Here are two of the players in "Big Game," Rex attraction. They are Phillip Houston and June Travis.

Big-Foot Is Book Subject

By May Isaacs, Canadian. The Adventures of Big-Foot Wallace by John C. Duval, 1936. The author wrote an account of his own adventures in Early Times in Texas, recently published. Both Books were edited by Mabel Major and Rebecca W. Smith and both published by Tard's, Dallas.

William Alexander Anderson Wallace descended from a line of Scotchmen who settled in Rockbridge county, Virginia, before the Revolutionary War.

His grandfather was one of four brothers to fight with the colonies in 1775-83, the three brothers being killed in battle. Standing six foot two in moccasined feet, with an arm spread of six feet, long curling black hair and piercing eyes which never needed the services of an optician, W. A. A. (Big-Foot) Wallace was a commanding figure.

Wallace came of fighting blood and was restive in the settlements, longing to go west to seek adventure. A brother and cousin had gone to Texas, been captured by the Mexicans and shot at Colina. A number of young men were anxious to avenge this murder of their kin and came to Texas in the spring of 1836 with the dual purpose of revenge and adventure.

Wallace acquired the name of Big-Foot before many years, perhaps in Mexico. He seemed to have figured in every engagement of any importance with both Indians and Mexicans from the time of his arrival. He early learned the perils of being lost in an uncharted country, of surprise attacks from Indians, of thirst on a march, and the many dangers incident to life in the open on the frontier.

TAYLOR STARS IN 'BROTHER'S WIFE' PICTURE

JUNGLE IS SCENE OF GRIPPING DRAMA AT LA NORA

The play of human emotions under tremendous strain has seldom been more powerfully drawn on the screen as it is in Robert Taylor and Barbara Stanwyck's feature hit, "His Brother's Wife," which shows at the LaNora theater today thru Wednesday.

The producers were particularly fortunate in being able to secure the services of W. S. Van Dyke who is not only a veteran cameraman but is also accustomed to the jungle wilds in which a great part of the picture is seen.

Robert Taylor, right now the screen's most popular young star of the masculine ranks, has a daring role that he portrays with the daring it demands. He appears as a scientific explorer who falls in love with a beautiful red-headed girl on his last fling in civilization.

He would not be justice to reveal the girl and carry on with his expedition. He agrees and in her rebellion the girl marries the brother. Returning from the jungle the fever-haunted explorer finds himself in love with his brother's wife.

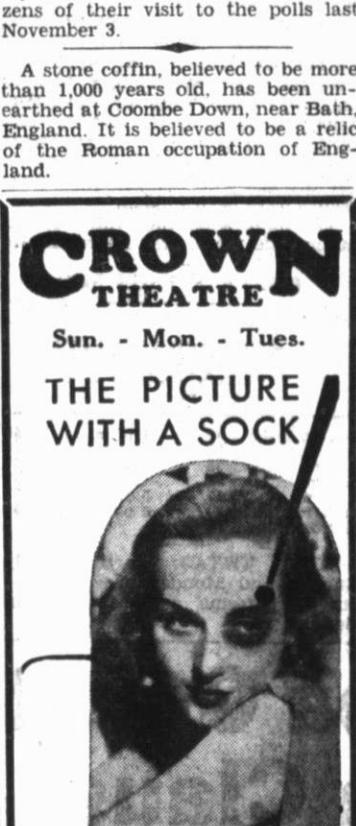

It would not be justice to reveal the climax, but you may be assured that Taylor takes the girl back into the jungle with him. And there, in a desperate struggle against the mysterious forces of nature, he saves her life and wins her love. Barbara Stanwyck gives a delightful performance. Jenn Hersholt, as the veteran adventurer, is essentially himself, and another outstanding portrayal of villain is offered by the suave Joseph Calleia.

ACADEMY WINNER IS APPEARING IN SHORT

Robert Benchley, who won the Academy Award of Motion Picture Arts and Science in 1935, is appearing in a similar comedy at the LaNora theater today. Many moviegoers will remember Benchley's somewhat confused and drowsy portrayal of a man trying to sleep in his winner short of 1935, "How to Sleep." In his latest comedy, "How to Vote," Benchley reveals the confusion and sometimes amusing incidents that occur in election booths when Mr. Average American is trying to make up his mind whom to vote for from a list that presents a myriad of politicians he has never met, or even heard of. With his singular sense of humor and his ability to picture thoughts, Benchley will remain many Pampa citizens of their visit to the polls last November 3.

During the afternoon of Santa Day the LaNora theater will continue the showing of its regular presentation which will be a regular revue of Popeye, Mickey Mouse, Our Gang and all of those comic characters that bring delight to the hearts of young and old.

Inside the theater after the reception will be a 30-minute stage revue consisting of impersonations, specialty numbers, and music from one of the Panhandle's leading orchestras. Conclusion of the short stage show will herald the opening of Pampa's Santa Day premiere picture, "Pennies From Heaven," which features the ever popular Bing Crosby.

THE BIG GAME WILL FEATURE REAL GRIDDERS

Picture Opens Today At The Rex Theater

Unique in the history of football pictures, "The Big Game," which opens today at the Rex theater, presents real pigskin stars rather than movie extras. Such all-American football heroes as Bobby Wilson, William Shakespeare, "King Kong" Klein, Monk Moscrop, Jay Berwanger, "Bones" Hamilton, Gomer Jones, "Chuck" Bennis and Frank Alustiza are on one squad, while first-string players from the University of Southern California make up the opposing eleven.

Huston and Bruce Cabot are seen as two ex-coal miners who are drafted to exercise their brains and brawn for dear old Atlantic university, a modern college with no great scruples about placing football on a commercial basis. This point, representing the theme of the picture, vividly discloses how big-time gambling syndicates seek to make a racket from this greatest of all American sports by obtaining inside information.

The plot concerns itself principally with the woe and woe of Huston who, at the height of his fame, is made a scapegoat by his sweetheart's father, a sports writer leading a crusade against the college football system. Huston, with June Travis' help, manages to clear his name, foil the gamblers and win the big game.

Aside from the two romantic leads and Bruce Cabot, the cast includes James Gleason, Andy Devine, Quinn (Big Boy) Williams, and Margaret Seddon.

That's a loving sigh quoted from Della T. Lute's exciting 'Book of Menus With Recipes' which American cooks will enjoy. Read on, and you and your hungry family will see why enjoyment lurks between his well-printed pages. 'Baked Stuffed Spareribs: whole fresh (not corned) spareribs (as many as your family will consume with eagerness). Trim off the thin skin covering. Make a bread stuffing of equal parts of onion, sage, savory, and highly seasoned with salt, pepper and butter. Moisten the bread with applesauce very slightly seasoned (you'll have to admit that's a grand way to moisten anything). Rub the spareribs with salt and pepper in a roasting pan with a half cup of water. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 45 minutes, then spread over with stuffing and bake for half an hour longer. The Joy of Cooking—yes, that's really the title of another handsome new cook book, fit for any Santa Claus to give to any puzzled housewife. Irma S. Rombauer caused a sensation when she wrote it. Why? Well, how does this taste: 'Potato Croquettes Filled With Green Peas: about 12 croquettes. Cook two pounds green peas. Peel and boil until tender four large potatoes. Mash them. Water, then in sifted bread crumbs. Beat into them one tablespoon butter, two tablespoons cream, two egg yolks. Form them into 2 1/2-inch balls. Scoop out the centers. Place in each one a tablespoon of peas. Fill the hole with a little of the potato. Reshape the balls. Dip them in one egg diluted with two tablespoons water, then in sifted bread crumbs. Fry them in deep fat. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve with broiled lamb chops. Yes, Ma'am, we certainly will. ### RANGERS ARE KEEPING BUSY IN SOUTH TEXAS

AUSTIN, Nov. 29 (P)—Texas' big-hatted, booted Rangers, who first gained fame hunting Indians and bad white men in the untamed Southwest nearly 100 years ago, are performing again. It's a sort of "double-header" duty.

Down from strategic stations in Texas' far-flung territory, they not only are helping maintain order along several hundred miles of strike-disturbed coastline, but are investigating one of the most puzzling "crime" mysteries in years.

The strikes of seamen and truckers, centering in the Houston area, are occupying the attention of most of the famed peace officers, while a search for two hunters who disappeared on the King ranch, largest in the world, engages others.

And, whether the current trouble was Indians, train-robbers, just plain bad men or oil field ruff-raff, Texans, as they have done for a century, are sitting back figuring the rangers are "on the job" again and will make good.

It is a thoroughly-modernized, if not as romantic, ranger force which has been concentrated, along with scores of state highway patrolmen, in strike "hot spots" from Port Arthur, on the eastern coast, to the vicinity of Brownsville, far to the southwest.

The paint ponies and faster horses which the early rangers rode have been exchanged for automobiles, and radio, instead of couriers, keeps them in touch with headquarters.

LEGION POST'S RADIO PROGRAM IS POPULAR

From listener acceptance the American Legion radio program is gaining more fans each Sunday. The programs contain variety, spice and good music.

This afternoon at 1:30 o'clock listeners will hear one of the best arranged programs that the Legion has put on. The theme of this program will be to familiarize us with the early growth of Pampa. The first merchant, the first postmaster and other early business men will be the topic of this broadcast.

There is quite a bit of controversy as to who the first merchant was. The information given on this program was gleaned from authentic sources and is fairly accurate. The merchant who has had a business the most number of years in Pampa will be honored.

Two surprise announcements will be heard during the broadcast.

Sheds for baby carriages are features of new housing estates planned by the London county council.

Fire Destroys House at Black Camp at Borger

BORGER, Nov. 28 — Fire completely destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Mulnax at the Columbia Carbon camp this morning, and for a time threatened other houses in the camp, 3 1-2 miles southwest of Borger. No fire hydrants or hose are available there, and nearby houses were soaked with garden hoses to prevent spread of the flames.

Members of the fire department from Whittsburg, six miles away, arrived to assist in fighting the fire. Neighbors helped Mr. and Mrs. Mulnax rescue their three small children and part of their furniture after the blaze was discovered. A faulty flue is believed to have caused the fire. The house, owned by the company, was valued at about $2,000, and furniture lost at about $400.

The funeral of Virginia Briggs, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Briggs of Whittsburg, was conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church. The Rev. J. B. McReynolds, pastor, was assisted by the Rev. P. M. Hunt of Whittsburg Methodist church.

Merchandising executives inform your correspondent that retail prices are to be increased before the holiday season is on in full swing. Many stores find that this is an opportune time to improve their profit margins. The holiday buying spirit—it is said—is never dampened by price lifting. Since employees are receiving bonuses and increased wages 1936 Christmas spending will run at record levels. Increased dividend receipts are also larger which means greater Christmas spending and less bargain hunting.

LIMITED

According to investment brokers it will be hard for the administration to put the brakes on the heavy purchases of securities. This because of the abundance of money ready for investment. The law of supply and demand isn't being overlooked by investment houses. Since people are holding what they own and since foreign funds keep pouring into American markets a shortage of securities isn't unlikely.

And how come the shortage? When the fears of inflation started nothing was done by the administration to stop such talk. Result—big money went into common stocks as a hedge. Then the prices of securities spurted. Now these big holdings are being retained. Why? Because if they are sold the taxes great in dollars and cents. Since no man likes to pay large taxes near term offerings of shares will be limited.

HOLDINGS

A survey of investment houses shows that even insurance companies and estates now own common shares. These holdings will be retained because of heavy dividend payments. With war overhauling Europe foreign holders will keep funds in American shares for protection purposes. A Wall Street reporter concludes that no matter what the administration tries, holdings of common shares will not be released until the public starts speculating in a big way.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. (AP)-Buyers scrambled for selected utilities, steel, rubbers and specialties in today's stock market, and favorites were pushed up fractions to 2 or more points in new recovery packs.

As the same time many recent leaders were neglected and after a speedy upsurge in the first hour or so, selling was mounted in virtually all departments. Extreme early advances were substantially reduced just before the close.

Traders swarmed to the bull side at the opening with such stable orders that ticker tape for some time was unable to keep pace with floor dealings.

The Associated Press average of 60 issues held a net gain of 2 1/2 points at 7:18. Transfers totaled 1,434,250 shares of 362,200 last Saturday.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 28. (AP)-The cotton market was moderately active today with fair price fluctuations. New positions showed continued strength due to the strong situation and urgent demand for spots. Liverpool came in about as due for spots. Livestock was steady at 2 points and the opening was steady at 2 points. Initial decline to all active months with Dec at 11 1/2, March at 11 1/2 and October at 11 1/2. The market soon started to advance particularly on near months to advance Dec. traded up to 11.30 and March to 11.75, gains of 8 to 11 points above the opening figures and 6 to 9 points above the previous close.

In the late trading the undertone was firm, particularly on near positions and the market closed at or near the best of the day, near months showing net gains of 5 to 6 points and the late months net gains of 1 to 2 points.

CHICAGO GRAIN. CHICAGO, Nov. 28. (AP)-Big export demand, together with prospects of unabated dry weather in United States drought regions next week, boosted wheat prices today to record-breaking levels. Enthusiastic speculative buying of wheat futures here was witnessed, and profit-taking at times on a large scale failed to operate as a decided curb on upturns of values.

Sleep jumps of the Liverpool wheat market furnished a notable stimulus. Wheat in Chicago closed firm, 1 cent above yesterday's finish, 36c, 1.19 1/2-3/4, May 1.17 1/2-3/4, July 1.07 1/2-3/4, corn 1/2 to 1 cent up. Dec. 1.04 3/4-5/8, May new 96 1/2, July new 96 1/2, oats 1/4-1/2 advanced, Dec. 45 1/2-3/4 and rye unchanged to 1/2 higher, Dec. 95. Provisions bulged 17 to 42 cents.

Corn, oats and rye sympathized with wheat strength. Some early selling of corn was based on a more favorable outlook for settlement of the marine strike, and therefore prospective increased imports of corn from Argentina. Broadened commission house demand for lard made the provisions market buoyant.

Huntress Bags Prize in Tennessee Boar Chase

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Nov. 17 (AP)—Again the Senate failed to obtain one of the things it wants most, an elevator in the east wing of the capitol.

After passing a resolution providing for an elevator, over the long objection of Senator T. J. Holtz of Galveston, the Senate found there was insufficient money in the contingent fund.

That was the situation more than a year ago when both houses of the legislature voted in the regular session for elevators. By the time resolutions were adopted and the board of control called for bids, the money had been spent for other purposes.

In July, 1935, it was estimated an elevator would cost approximately $15,000, or two could be had for $31,500. The bill might be greater now.

A man was cutting across a street one afternoon during regular working hours to buy refreshment. A friend hailed.

"Loading as usual, I see," said the latter.

"No," said the other. "Just making a profit. I learned long ago there is no profit in giving a dollar's worth of labor for a dollar in salary. And you can't stay in business without some profit."

The chairman of one of Governor Alfred's voluntary parole boards resigned because he is not in sympathy with the plan.

"I don't think I am a suitable man for the position," he wrote. "I would not hire a paroled man myself and don't like to ask anyone else to hire them."

"I don't think these men should be turned loose, but should be made to serve the term in the penitentiary judge and the jury decided they ought to serve."

An attache of the state department who deals with the problem, commented it would not be solved by letting the men serve out their sentences. Most sentences are short and convicts inevitably are dumped back on society.

Advocates of the parole system and voluntary boards to help paroled men find jobs assert it is the best plan to help convicts make adjustments and re-enter normal life.

Claude Teer, chairman, and other members of the board of control have no false ideas, they say, as to difficulties of supervising old age assistance.

"They intend to apply the same principles adopted when the legislature dumped into their laps the vexatious business of managing relief."

"We will do the best we can, give everyone a square deal, and use a lot of common sense," says Teer.

The recent special session abolished the old age assistance commission and placed administration under the board.

Expansion of bus and truck transportation facilities in the last 20 years is little short of marvelous in the opinion of C. V. Terrell, member of the Railroad Commission.

"Just contemplate the connections all over Texas and the picture is easy to see," he says. "There is probably not a town in Texas that does not have common carrier service."

S. S. Stobbs, riding alone in the truck, escaped injury. He was traveling north with nine head of cattle in his truck.

Letters Threaten Mrs. Simpson and Police Guard Her

LONDON, Nov. 29 (AP)—British police, apprehensive lest writers of threatening letters to Mrs. Wallis Simpson attempt to harm her, guarded the American friend of King Edward today.

A reliable source declared Mrs. Simpson receives more than 300 letters a day, the majority of which are intensely antagonistic.

Two patrolmen have been stationed before her home in Cumberland Terrace and a third has been assigned to keep a constant lookout for explosives in packages delivered at the former Baltimore debutante's home.

Mrs. Simpson seldom sees many of the letters, this source said, since she has employed a secretary to go over them and decide which ones should be called to her attention.

The third policeman goes to such lengths as delving into ashtrays before they are returned to Mrs. Simpson's home after being emptied, it was reported.

CHARTER PRESENTED NO. 17.

At an impressive ceremony in the county courtroom, Boy Scout troop 17 was invested with its official insignia and charter. The group of boys, visiting Boy Scouts of troop 21, Amarillo, and troop 14 of Pampa, together with the sponsors of the new troop, the members of Pampa Council 2767 of the Knights of Columbus, listened intently while the charter was presented and their officers installed.

Rev. Father Joseph Wonderly, presiding officer, introduced Scout Executive C. A. Clark who presented the charter and installed the officers. Francis Boyle is the new scoutmaster with Burdette Klein and Gene Lewis, assistants. Members of the troop committee are J. P. Brown, chairman; J. W. Garman, D. J. Gribbon, F. D. Keim.

Grand Knight Ed Dunigan, representing the sponsors, accepted the charter, pledged the whole-hearted support of the K. of C. and charged the boys with their responsibilities. Mr. Clark summed up the value of Scouting for the boys and then recited Edgar Guest's poem about a scoutmaster to impress the Scout leaders with their duties.

Father Drury of Amarillo delivered an address showing the marked analogy between the first two commandments and the Scout oath. This talk will be long remembered by all who were present.

D'Orsay Smith, chairman of the Diocesan Scout committee, spoke of the rapid growth of Scouting, its necessity in present-day life and its value. This talk was followed by a brief but pointed talk on the successful continuance of newly-formed troops.

Following the ceremonies, the sponsors and visitors went to the Parish annex for refreshments and cigars.

Other attending dignitaries of the church and Scouting organizations were: Robert Brownlee of troop 21, assistant scoutmaster; Walter F. G. Stein, scoutmaster of troop 14; the Rev. A. A. Boding of Groom; Zane Smith, district commissioner of Groom; diocesan committeemen, D'Orsay Smith, John Gulde, George Nussbaum, all of Amarillo.

Green, Jr., Bert Isbell, Doyle Auld, Soren Jensen, June Roland, Keaton Rhoades, Roy Lee Jones, Omer Harrell, James Archer, Bill Coons, Billy Mounts, Jack Baker, Jack Smith, Buddy Wilson, Bennett Wray, and the scoutmaster.

No tests were passed but some of the boys reviewed their tests. All members of the troop and their parents are urged to attend the court of honor to be held Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in the county courtroom.

NO. 16 ENJOYS PICNIC. Boy Scout troop 16, sponsored by the Lions club, enjoyed a hike and picnic Friday, about nine miles northeast of town.

The day was spent in games and hiking. Tests were passed by Richard Huff and L. B. Allison to complete their star rank. Aaron Meek, James Taylor and Ewing Leech, furnished transportation. Mr. Meek also brought us a log of winners, steak, bread and other eats. Boys who made the trip were Wilmer Postma, scoutmaster; troop members, James Taylor, Robert Huff, Ross Cupp, Earl Powell, Wilbur Paronto, L. B. Allison, Richard Huff, Billie Hudgins, Bob McKinley, Eddie Riley. Visitors were Harry Jenkins, Clifford Bailey, Ross Bailey, Joe Moses, Larry Simmons, Lewis Jones, D. C. Vaughn. Several of these visitors expect to join our troop later.

Meetings are held each Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Scout hut in the rear of the Harrah chapel on South Barnes.—By Richard Huff, troop scribe.
