Cattle Are Dying Of New Disease in County

VACCINATION IS ONE REMEDY

Both Ranchers and Dairy Owners Are Suffering Loss of Livestock Here.

Hundreds of cattle in the Pampa community have died in the last ten days of a fatal disease, described by Dr. T. J. Worrell as hemorrhagic septicemia.

Commissioner Jno. R. White of Laketon said yesterday that many of his neighbors in that community had lost cattle. Dr. Worrell saw scores of dead and dying cattle in the ranch country south and east of Laketon during a recent visit.

The disease is sweeping the cattle country of the southwest and many deaths have been reported in almost every section of the Panhandle. Both beef and dairy cattle are susceptible to the disease.

Symptoms of the disease include a fever, and loss of muscular and nerve control. In the last stages the animal is unable to arise. Death follows 24 hours after the animal is stricken. The disease is caused by a germ which the animal probably took into his system while grazing on short, dry wheat. Dr. Worrell said but pointed out that the animal may have acquired the disease in some other way.

"THE EYES HAVE IT"

Above are the brown eyes of George Longley which may or may not win him a fortune. The chart illustrates Mendel's law; at the left is Judge Michael Finberg, (bearing the case); right, Mrs. Carolyn Longley, defendant.

By NEA Service. Johann Gregor Mendel, an Austrian monk, 70 years ago made careful notes on how the characteristics of plants were handed down to their descendants. He set down his findings in a study of heredity whose principles are famous as "the Mendelian law," which otherwise applies to heredity in animals and humans.

Now a Chicago court has been called upon to decide whether Mendel's law is correct.

For George Longley is asking that the will of Albert W. Longley, rich manufacturer, be broken, and that George be given a share in the $300,000 estate.

George Longley says he is the son of Albert W., by the latter's first wife. George has brown eyes. But along comes Mrs. Mary Carolyn Longley, third wife of the dead manufacturer, who now receives the income from his estate. And Mrs. Longley testifies that both Albert W. Longley and his first wife had blue eyes. They couldn't have had a brown-eyed son, the widow claims, as she quotes the long-dead Mendel. Mendel found that if brown eyes are dominant in the parents, all children will be brown-eyed. But not all the brown eyes of the children will be pure, unadulterated brown. Within part of them will be the seeds of blue eyes which will appear in later generations. Conversely the same rule applies to blue-eyed parents.

A. Rogers; "Dixie," company.

Communist Kidnaping Probe Begun

TWO RANGERS ARE AIDED BY FEDERAL MAN

No Trace of Organizers Found Since Affair; Flogging Said to Have Been Administered To Them.

LAWYER IS FREED

'Lone Wolf' Gonzales and J. P. Huddleston Are Transferred From Kilgore To Look Into Dallas Case

DALLAS, March 10. (AP)—Mayor J. Waddy Tate today telegraphed requests to Gov. Ross Sterling that he withdraw two rangers sent here to investigate the kidnaping of George Clifton Edwards, Dallas attorney, and C. J. Coder and Lewis Hurst, communist organizers. Rangers M. E. 'Lone Wolf' Gonzales and J. P. Huddleston arrived here today to investigate the case. Tom Atabury, department of justice, said Tate had sufficient police to handle the case.

DALLAS, March 10. (AP)—Two Texas rangers and an investigator from the department of justice arrived here today to investigate the kidnaping of George Clifton Edwards, Dallas attorney, and C. J. Coder and Lewis Hurst, communist organizers whom he deflected at a vagrancy trial.

The rangers, dispatched from Kilgore in the east Texas oil fields, were M. E. 'Lone Wolf' Gonzales and J. P. Huddleston. They were ordered here by Captain Tom Hickman, Tom Atabury, department of justice investigator, will aid them.

No trace had been found today of the two communist workers. They and their attorney were abducted by a group of armed men last week from the steps of the city hall after Edwards had obtained their release from jail. Edwards was driven into the country and released unharmed. It was reported his clients were flogged.

District Attorney William McCraw, who had been ill, returned to his office today and began preparations for a grand jury investigation of the kidnaping. He said Edwards and the latter's son, as well as police and fire Commissioner William C. Graves, would be summoned before the grand jury.

SUNDAY MOVIES MADE AN ISSUE

A warrant for the arrest of C. B. Akers, manager of the Rex and La Nora theaters, charging him with operating a motion picture show on Sunday, was issued last night and served this morning at 10 o'clock.

The complaint was signed by Lawrence Myers, and was based on the statute which makes it a misdemeanor to operate a picture show on Sunday. Mr. Myers is an employe at the Santa Fe station and is prominent in the affairs of the First Methodist church.

Mr. Akers, through his attorneys, Willis Studer and Studer, pleaded not guilty. Trial was postponed by James Todd Jr., justice of the peace, after Sherman White, county attorney, declared that he was too busy to take up the case today. Mr. Todd said it probably would be tried next week.

The offense is punishable by a fine not under $20 and not exceeding $50.

COUNTY AGAIN DELAYS TAKING ACTION UPON HOSPITALIZATION FOR DESTITUTE OF AREA

Commissioners Declare Cost Is Too Great—Welfare Board Has Suggested Plan

For the second time in the last month, members of the Welfare Board and Mrs. W. H. Davis, welfare worker, appeared before the county commissioners yesterday afternoon, asking them to cooperate with the board and the city in providing medical services and hospitalization for Pampa's destitute sick. Judge Stennis said the commissioners would consider the board's proposals, but no agreement was reached between the two groups. Mrs. Davis pointed out to the commissioners again that it is mandatory upon the county to call an election to decide whether or not bonds shall be voted to build a county hospital.

COUNTY VOTES SALARY HIKES

Total of $2,620 Is Added to Payroll—Attorney's Pay Too Low, Newman Says.

Any fancied or real business depression will mean little to county officials in 1931.

At the first of the year, county commissioners voted themselves a raise in salary, and yesterday they voted to raise the ex-officio salaries of S. D. Stennis, county judge; Sherman White, county attorney; and the county and district clerks, Charles Tipt and Miss Louise Miller.

Last year, the commissioners got $2,000 per month. This year, they will draw $187.50 per month or $2,250 per year. Last year, the county judge drew $2,700 a year. This year, Judge Stennis will draw $3,000. Last year, the county attorney drew $40 per month, ex-officio salary, or a total of $480 per year. This year, Mr. White will draw $900 per year, or $75 per month.

Motion to pay Mr. White $75 a month was made by Commissioner Jno. R. White and was seconded by Commissioner H. G. McClesky. Commissioner M. M. Newman of McLennan voted in the negative, contending that Mr. White's salary should be at least $100 per month. "It's a shame to pay him only $900 a year!" he declared.

Last year, the county and district clerk drew $1,500 per year. This year, the county clerk will be entitled to $1,500 and the district clerk to $900.

In all, a total of $2,620 was added to the salaries of the judge, commissioners, county attorney, and clerks.

The commissioners authorized the auditor to advertise for bids on a crawler type of tractor to be used in precinct No. 1.

WANT FEW LAWS

Hundreds of Wells Must Be Abandoned If Conditions Continue—Small Operators Appear Doomed.

ARKANSAS, March 10. (AP)—An agreement with major oil companies to curtail production and importation of crude petroleum was recommended today by representatives of governors of seven states as the first step to be taken in restoring prosperity to the oil industry.

Representatives of the chief executives of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Kansas, California, Arkansas, and Wyoming, meeting here yesterday on a call from Gov. William Murray of Oklahoma, made the recommendation a matter of a number of which might be met by low prices, waste and disters among oil men.

They proposed that if agreements between the states and producing companies failed to curtail imports, legislatures undertake to control imports within the states. At the same time, they suggested that anti-trust laws not be applied to a natural resource like oil or gas.

To Meet on Call. The meeting adjourned to convene again on call of its chairman, Cleve Murray, cousin of Governor Murray, and it was indicated the next conference would be in California.

One of the chief reasons for threatening breakdowns of production in some states was said to be exclusion of a fair price from the proration plan. Unless a fair price was obtained, the conference set forth, some 300,000 wells in the United States would be abandoned.

Other recommendations included: Continuation of the committee as a contact body between the states; modeling of all state conservation laws after those of Texas and Oklahoma; federal sanction for plan to eliminate evils of over-production; proration of the new East Texas field; and disgorgement of any increase in gasoil taxes.

AMATEUR CHEMIST HURT

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 10. (AP)—Roger Slager, high school student and amateur chemist tried making gunpowder yesterday.

Today he was in St. Mary's hospital with a severed artery in his left arm and severe lacerations of arms, hands, and legs.

The blast which occurred while he was mixing the gunpowder ingredients also blew out the windows in his home and wrecked his laboratory.

TWO PERSONS BADLY HURT EARLY TODAY

UNLICENSED SHIP FLOWN NEAR MOUNDS, OKLA., FALLS AS IT TAKES OFF FROM FARM USED IN LANDING.

NO REASON SEEN

Vehicle Reported to Have Been Old Model Biplane; "Just Happened" Pilot Says, Now Unconscious.

MOUNDS, Okla., March 10. (AP)—Three persons were killed and two others badly injured today when an unlicensed airplane piloted by J. R. Hays, Wewoka, crashed on a farm about three miles south of here.

The dead: Mrs. J. T. Reed, 16, her son, Herschell Casey, about 23 years old.

The injured: J. T. Reed, Jr., 15, son of Mrs. Reed.

J. R. Hays, pilot. Hays and the Reed boy, rushed to a Sapulpa hospital, were believed so badly hurt they could not live through the day.

Hays was internally injured. The boy suffered fractures of his arms and legs and internal injuries.

It occurred near the Reed farm, which was used for a landing field by the pilot for the flight.

The plane was reported a four-passenger biplane of an old model. It bore an identification number, but was not licensed.

Before lapsing into unconsciousness, Hays said that it "just happened," Crowder reported.

Hays told hospital attendants he and Mrs. Reed and her sons had spent the night at the Casey farm and were taking off on a short pleasure ride when the accident occurred.

J. Dale Wewoka, pilot with Hays, witnessed the accident.

He said the ship had gone less than two miles and was banking in a turn, about 200 feet above the ground, when it dived out of control and crashed.

Hays said he was forced down on the farm last night on his way from Tulsa to Wewoka. Neither Casey nor any of the Reeds had taken a flight, Hays said, so he offered them a ride this morning.

The elder Reed, waiting to go aloft on a second flight, witnessed the crash.

NEWS-POST Sports Service Will Assure Unexcelled Interest

Baseball is in the air. Balls and bats and gloves fill the dorm windows. Training camp news fills the sports pages.

Soon the huddles of the fungoes will be replaced by the crack of bats against the new model ball, and voices of countless thousands will be heard rooting for the home teams. All indications point to a revival of interest in the great national pastime. Big league races are sure to be hotly contested from the start.

That means a big demand for baseball news, and Pampa fans naturally look to their NEWS-POST for that news. There's a reason, of course. The ASSOCIATED PRESS high speed leased wire to the NEWS-POST will bring the detailed accounts of the games to Pampa in record time, and for the first time in Pampa history there will be a night leased wire available for this purpose.

This is possible because the NEWS-POST IS GOING FORWARD, developing a great service that cannot be duplicated in the Southwest for cities of even 15,000 or more. Where is another city of this size with a morning-evening full leased ASSOCIATED PRESS wire newspaper organization? Answer: There are no others in this entire territory. Unmistakably, in sports as in everything, the NEWS-POST is "FIRST IN PAMPA."

MUSIC WEEK TO BE BIG SUCCESS

National Music week will be May 3 to 9 and local music teachers are planning appropriate recitals, programs, talks and the like in observance of the occasion.

The special week will give opportunity for having parents visit the schools, and for the churches and clubs to stress music. Memory contests will be held in the schools, theatres will play American national airs, and American composers will be honored, along with the classical geniuses.

Pampa should make a good start in observing the week this year, and in succeeding years should expand the plans to include extensive home talent performances, such as choral numbers, band concerts, radio broadcasts, massed ensembles, and the like.

Government endorsement of Music week has been secured through acceptance of President Hoover of the honorary chairmanship. Eight governors are on another committee. Heads of the American Legion, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, Kiwanis clubs, Lions International, and similar organizations are on active committees.

With all this support, Music week should be a national success for a very good cause. The NEWS pledges its support to the local teachers in making the week effective locally.

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON, March 10. (NEA).—Two of the very youngest senators, Bob LaFollette of Wisconsin and Bronson Cutting of New Mexico, are largely responsible for the unprecedented bi-partisan conference of progressives which was called with the hope of putting economics into politics.

It was their idea and they sold it to the older men without whose help there could have been no such conference. LaFollette is only 36 and Cutting is 42 and both are fearless young men who will become increasingly important national figures if the progressive movement begins to make progress.

Neither of them had any idea that it was up to them to create a third party movement or that it was advisable for them to try. They felt that there appeared to be no hope for progressives in the present leadership either of the Republican or Democratic party, however, and agreed that both the political and economic situations were such that there was a real chance for progressive legislation on the major problems subsequently submitted as the agenda for the conference.

Those five subjects were unemployment and industrial stabilization, public utilities, agriculture, the tariff and return to representative government.

They had little trouble in persuading the veteran Norris of Nebraska, the senate's leading independent; Senator-elect Edward P. Costigan of Colorado, the bold and brainy former tariff commissioner, or Wheeler of Montana, who ran for vice president on LaFollette's ticket in 1924, to join them in calling the gathering. Both Wheeler and Costigan, Democrats, believe that the recent tactics of their party have given no indication that it will attempt to cope with the industrial situation.

Everyone concerned believes that the progressive groups in both houses can provide effective political-economic leadership in the 72d congress if they make the best possible use of the unprecedentedly potent balance of power which they are going to hold between the two major parties.

The conference callers realized that despite the liberal tendency of the senate, hardly anything could be accomplished from the progressive point of view because of the heavily Republican, administration-controlled "lame duck" House. They contend that a special session was prevented by Republican-Democratic co-operation because of fear on the part of "big business" that the new congress would favor the progressive type of legislation.

"We should be able," says one of the senators principally concerned, "to get more good legislation in the next two years than we have had in the last 20 years. What we want now is a sound, constructive legislative program which can be supported by men and women of both parties. We wanted to develop such a program with the aid of leading economists and other experts who would come here and exchange ideas."

"The conference also serves as a sounding board from which we can get the situation and our prospective program to the country. We believe the country is disgusted with the leadership of both parties and that the time is ripe for an expression of progressive sentiment from the people of this country—one of unprecedented proportions. Public support, of course, is a vital factor in obtaining legislation to which the powers that be are hostile."

Of the five round-tables at the conference, leadership of the most important one was given to a non-senator. Dr. Leo Wolman, employment expert of the National Bureau of Economics, was chosen to head the important session on unemployment and industrial stabilization. Wolman served on Herbert Hoover's unemployment committee 10 years ago and Hoover recruited him as a statistician again during the present depression.

Costigan, whose outspoken independence as a Democratic tariff commissioner in the Coolidge administration will always be remembered here, was picked to head the round-table on the tariff. Norris, of course, was given the table on public utilities. Cutting, whose independence was so clearly shown when he delivered on the senate floor a scathing attack against Robert V. Lucas and his campaign tactics against Norris in Nebraska, took over the section on "return to representative government."

Oklahoma Crude Increases Total of Week's Production

MUSIC WEEK TO BE BIG SUCCESS

National Music week will be May 3 to 9 and local teachers are planning appropriate recitals, programs and the like in observance of the occasion. The special week will give opportunity for having visits to the schools, and for the churches and clubs to present music. Memory contests will be held in the schools, theatres will play American national airs, and American composers will be honored, along with the local geniuses.

Pampa should make a good start in observing the week this year, and in succeeding years should expand plans to include extensive home talent performances, as choral numbers, band concerts, radio broadcasts, and ensembles, and the like.

Government endorsement of Music week has been secured through acceptance of President Hoover of the rare chairmanship. Eight governors are on an advisory committee. Heads of the American Legion, Camp Girls, Girl Scouts, Kiwanis clubs, Lions International, similar organizations are on active committees.

With all this support, Music week should be a national success for a very good cause. The NEWS pledges support to the local teachers in making the week effective locally.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON, March 10. (NEA).—Two of the youngest senators, Bob LaFollette of Wisconsin and son Cutting of New Mexico, are largely responsible for the unprecedented bi-partisan conference of progressives which was called with the hope of putting economic into politics.

It was their idea and they sold it to the older men out whose help there could have been no such conference. LaFollette is only 36 and Cutting is 42 and are fearless young men who will become increasingly important national figures if the progressive movement begins to make progress.

Neither of them had any idea that it was up to them to create a third party movement or that it was able for them to try. They felt that there appeared no hope for progressives in the present leadership of the Republican or Democratic party, however, agreed that both the political and economic situations were such that there was a real chance for progressive legislation on the major problems subsequently listed as the agenda for the conference.

Those five subjects were unemployment and industrial stabilization, public utilities, agriculture, the tariff return to representative government.

They had little trouble in persuading the veteran leader of Nebraska, the senate's leading independent, Senator Edward P. Costigan of Colorado, the bold brainy former tariff commissioner, or Wheeler of Iowa, who ran for vice president on LaFollette's ticket in 1924, to join them in calling the gathering. Both Costigan and Costigan, Democrats, believe that the recent success of their party have given no indication that it will cope with the industrial situation.

Everyone concerned believes that the progressive movement in both houses can provide effective political-economic leadership in the 72d congress if they make the possible use of the unprecedentedly potent balance power which they are going to hold between the two parties.

The conference callers realized that despite the tendency of the senate, hardly anything could be accomplished from the progressive point of view by the heavily Republican, administration-controlled "dumb" House. They contend that a special session was prevented by Republican-Democratic cooperation because of fear on the part of "big business" that new congress would favor the progressive type of action.

"We should be able," says one of the senators privately concerned, "to get more good legislation in next two years than we have had in the last 20 years."

What we want now is a sound, constructive legislative program which can be supported by men and women of both parties. We wanted to develop such a program with the aid of leading economists and other experts would come here and exchange ideas.

The conference also serves as a sounding board which we can get the situation and our prospective program to the country. We believe the country is ripe with the leadership of both parties and that we are ripe for an expression of progressive sentiment from the people of this country—one of unprecedented proportions. Public support, of course, is a factor in obtaining legislation to which the powers are hostile.

If the five round-tables at the conference, leader of the most important one was given to a non-partisan Dr. Les Wolman, employment expert of the National Bureau of Economics, was chosen to head the first section on unemployment and industrial stabilization. Wolman served on Herbert Hoover's unemployment committee 10 years ago and Hoover recruited him as a statistician again during the present depression. Costigan, whose outspoken independence as a Democratic tariff commissioner in the Coolidge administration will always be remembered here, was picked to head the round-table on the tariff. Norris, of course, was given the table on public utilities. Cutting, whose independence was so clearly shown when he delivered on the senate floor a scathing attack against Robert V. Lucas and his campaign tactics against Norris in Nebraska, took over the section on "return to representative government."

Oklahoma Crude Increases Total of Week's Production

TULSA, Okla., March 10. (AP).—Oklahoma was the dominant factor in an increase of 52,519 barrels in the country's daily average production of crude oil last week, which totaled 2,155,630 barrels, says the Oil and Gas Journal.

Some people do not like advice, but I believe I have had the last few days they would never tire of it.

Says Mrs. Edwin S. Vicars: "Others have been telling you how to make good biscuits—but let me tell you—How to Preserve a Husband."

"Be careful in your selection. Do not choose too young and take only such as has been reared in good moral families.

"When once decided on and selected let that part remain forever settled and give your entire preparation for domestic use.

"Some insist on keeping them in pickle; while others are constantly getting them into hot water. This only makes them sour, hard, and sometimes bitter.

"Even poor varieties may be made sweet and tender and good by garnishing them with patience well sweetened with smiles and flavored with kisses to taste; then wrap them in a mantle of charity, keep warm with a steady fire of domestic devotion and serene with peaches and cream.

"When thus prepared they will keep for years.

"Congratulations and a long and happy married life is the sincere wish of Mrs. Edwin S. Vicars."

And our newspaper friend, Thomas Elmore Layce, gives the following biscuit recipe:

Oh, the recipe's a simple one for Pampa newbies:

The ingredients should be seasoned with a kiss; Let your love be just as snow-pure as your Pride of Pampa flour

Then add a couple cooling, lit or miss.

MENU for the FAMILY

By SISTER MARY NEA Service Writer

Despite the modern custom of including fresh fruits and vegetables in the family dietary during the winter months, the tendency is to over-eat of the rich foods that have been served to combat the winter's cold. A diet rich in fats and carbohydrates is necessary to furnish heat and energy. But these foods eventually clog up the system, and as the weather grows warmer nearly everyone experiences a loss of appetite. Healthful stimulants to a natural hunger are needed to overcome the spring time indifference toward food.

Fruits, vegetables, eggs, cheese and fish are ideal for the larger part of the spring diet.

Tart foods such as grape fruit are especially desirable since they have an inclination to whip the appetite into action. Pickles, usually considered indigestible and taboo, are found valuable for their pungency and appetite provoking qualities.

Cause of "Spring Fever"

Lemon sauces, tartar sauces and horseradish sauces whet the appetite and add food value to the meal.

Foods rich in iron are most essential. Lack of iron in blood and body tissues is usually responsible for the familiar listless condition known as "spring fever." Spinach has the highest available iron content of any of the vegetables. Laboratory tests have put parsley at the head of iron-rich vegetables. But it can not be made use of as a food in the ways spinach can be used. All the spring vegetables are excellent sources of mineral salts and vitamins. New cabbage, endishes, and spring onions all furnish iron in goodly amounts when served raw.

Bulky foods that give the digestive tract its much needed exercise are essential. Fruits and vegetables are found again in this group of foods and are invaluable as a means of giving ballast, or roughage to menus.

CARDINALS EXPECTING TO KEEP THEIR HABIT OF WINNING

THREE FLAGS IN 5 YEARS IS THEIR RECORD

Why Street Says Spirit is Wonderful; Points Out Great Gehbert-Frisch Combination in Infield.

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Editor. SAINT LOUIS, Mo., March 10. (AP)—St. Louis Cardinals, champions of the National league, have acquired the winning habit and expect to keep it.

They have won three pennants in five years, they have developed the successful farm system possessed by any club in the big leagues, and today they were enjoying the satisfaction of having won two out of three exhibition games from the world's champion Yankees in Miami and Fort Myers last week.

With their grizzled pilot, Charles (Big) Street, down to the rawest product of their famous "store" system, the Cardinals now have the stuff to win the National league race again.

"I had a great club a year ago and I fulfilled my expectations," said Street. "I think we have a greater team this year."

Street's some outstanding pitching, but it's the combination as a whole that makes me feel confident. We've got one of the great all-around young players in the infield in Charley Gehbert at short. Frank Frisch at second, the situation has no equal in my league.

They have wonderful pitching to back up such men as Rhem, Crum, Hallahan and Johnson last year's regulars. I do not think to say we expect great things from two newcomers, "Dizzy" Dean and Paul Derringer, who came up from Houston last year, and Paul Derringer, who came up from Houston last year.

Street's more could we ask? I think we will be tough all the way. We are up against a strong team of opposition but I am satisfied we can meet it."

Street's worries are due to the embarrassment of riches. If he could only have seven or eight regulars, he would be in a position to have seven or eight "starters" although it is not probable that he will be able to "special duty."

Street, regarded as the most valuable all-around backstop in the league, will do most of the catching, supported by young Jimmie Connelley and the veteran Cutie Connelley, who is as spry as a cat, despite his 39 years. Street expects Jimmie Connelley to come back at first, to take the place of Sunny Jim's error-prone Jimmie Collins, who is being sent to Rochester last year.

Street, Frisch, Gehbert and Derringer, at third, round out the infield probably will remain with Chick Hafey in left, Dottie in center, George Sisler and Ray Blades alternate in right. Here again, Street expects the newcomers, including Derringer, ex-football star, "Pop" Bledsoe, who hit .363 with Rochester last year, and Al Moore, who hit .363 with Rochester last year.

Sox "Blue" Over Cold Winds

BRADDOLE, Fla., March 10. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, who rode into the Red Sox camp in the cold winds yesterday, were greeted by a blizzard of snow.

Durham, Collinswood, and Oliver and Webb, who arrived, are nursing lame legs. The Cardinals' only pitcher to retain all of their "punch" is Charley Gehbert, who hit .363 with Rochester last year, and Al Moore, who hit .363 with Rochester last year.

Cardinals Beat Athletics Nine

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 10. (AP)—The Cardinals, who were expected to fare poorly in a battle with the Athletics, took the series, two games to one, when the Mackmen lost the final game. A pair of pitchers, Marshall and Derringer, were the champions to two wins in the series.

JEFFRIES LESSONS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 10. (AP)—The Cardinals' infield, which is expected to fare well in a battle with the Athletics, took the series, two games to one, when the Mackmen lost the final game. A pair of pitchers, Marshall and Derringer, were the champions to two wins in the series.

Baseball's Primo Carnera

GIANT JIM WEAVER - THE YANKEES' ROOKIE PITCHER FROM BALTIMORE IS THE BIGGEST IN THE MAJOR'S

Sport Slants

by ALAN GOULD - ASSOCIATED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

Among the first of the veteran baseball observers to report in Florida, Ed Wray, sports editor of the St. Louis Post Dispatch, thinks that the eminent Mr. Hornsby and his club will be the outfit to watch in the forthcoming National league pennant race.

"Hornsby has a great club and he will get the most out of it," remarked Mr. Wray. "He has already made a smart move by deciding to switch Kiki Cuyler to center-field, where he will do the most good. It is certain to be a great five-club race, involving the champion Cardinals as well as the Cubs, Giants, Brooklyn and Pirates."

Jack Sharkey, who adorned himself with no wreaths of roses in playing his part in the last two battles under the Florida Palms, has gone as far away from there as he can this winter and still stay in these United States.

On his way to the Pacific coast, the Boston heavyweight stopped off in St. Paul to second Ernie Schaaf to a one-minute knockout victory. In reporting the latest from the Minnesota front, Jay Vessels writes me:

"The old Gob sort of stunned the boys with his reticence. They thought of Sharkey as he was painted years back when fighting Sam Sapp, as being merely secondary to talking with him. Jack did open up and say that he would like to fight Carnera in New York in September and that he would sign with Mickey Walker for $100,000."

"Introduced as the uncrowned heavyweight champion, Sharkey referred the semi-windup on the program featuring Schaaf and Dick Daniels of Minneapolis. He did a swell job but ran into a mess late in the fight which flustered him a bit and doubtless reminded him of the hazing he gets paid for taking in New York."

"The underdog in the bout, who, of course, had the fans with him, got smacked out of the ring. He barely got back in time and was met at the ropes by his opponent. Said opponent, apparently none too popular locally, seemed to be a bit too eager to please the fans and got a grand razing. Jack's ears reddened and he appeared just a bit bewildered. But it was a mere buzz compared to what the big fellow is used to hearing in his favorite battleground in Gotham. His relief was perceptible, though, when he was assured that one of the combatants, and not himself, was the intended target."

Ed Dickerson, the sage of Grand Rapids, thinks Jim Jeffries, in his prime, would have been the best possible opponent for the Wandering Alp, Primo Carnera.

"Carnera resembles Jeffries in many respects," said Ed in an unguarded moment. "Jeffries was very fast and agile for a man of his weight. The night he beat Gus Ruhlin so badly in mechanics, the victor in San Francisco that Billy Madden, Ruhlin's manager, threw in the sponge to save Ruhlin's life. Jeffries was in my opinion the greatest heavyweight fighter the heavyweight division has never known. Next to Jeffries, the big man from Italy is the fastest big man I ever saw."

INDIAN HAS FINE RECORD

Hindu Grappler Put Matty Matsuda in Hospital and Death Resulted.

Basanta Singh, turban-crowned native of India, will be more than ordinarily interested in local fans who will view him in a match with Otis Clingman at the Majestic auditorium Thursday.

Singh is one of those quiet fellows, cunning as they get, and dangerous in the extreme. It was Singh who is blamed for the death of Matty Matsuda, who died as the result of injuries and complications growing out of a match with the Indian in Cincinnati.

The Indian grappler is an olive oil eater and fairly exudes the oil when working hard. He is slippery as a greased pig.

Preliminaries will be between Barber Kelly and Tommy Thomas. Andy Gump will meet Clarence See. Tickets are on sale at the Diamond Shop.

DOWN TO ROUTINE

AVALON, Calif., March 10. (AP)—The Cubs today settled down to their last two days of routine affairs, before leaving Catalina island Thursday for another year.

The final intercamp game is scheduled for tomorrow, and Friday Rogers Hornsby will be out with his men to open a five-game exhibition series with Los Angeles. A three-game set with Pittsburgh will follow.

RARE CONTEST PLANNED

SAN ANTONIO, March 10. (AP)—A rare event in the Chicago White Sox training camp since Donnie Bush took charge, an interclub game, was on schedule for today.

Bush believes routine training maneuvers that keep all hands busy all the time are more valuable than interclub warfare, but decided to break the monotony with a contest today.

Basque Fighter To Battle Tonight

LOS ANGELES, March 10. (AP)—Paulino Uscudun, the Basque heavyweight fighter, who in his one previous appearance here lost to George Godfrey, meets Les Kennedy, California champion, in a 10-round bout tonight.

The Long Beach, Calif., longshoreman, a clever boxer but lacking in stiff punching ability, was favored to outstep the big Spaniard. Jack Dempsey will referee.

Giant Catcher Is Bigger Than Max

SAN ANTONIO, March 10. (AP)—A visit by Max Schmeling to the New York Giants' training camp gave the wits a chance to remark that Frank Hogan, big catcher, looked more like a heavyweight than did Max.

Hogan reported two weeks late, and has plenty of weight to take off his large frame before he will be in playing condition.

Rookies Winning Many Victories

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 10. (AP)—The rookie tribesmen are drinking long and deep of the wine of victory and it doesn't make much difference whether it's the Yankees or the Dodgers who come their way.

Today, happy over their recent victories, the Braves looked forward to seeing their latest recruit in action. Young Hebert, the Holy Cross moundsman, has come to camp with reports that his injured finger is all healed and that he's ready to get under way.

"Slide Ball" Is Taken to Majors

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 10. (AP)—Stewart Bolen, left hander drafted by the Phillies from Baltimore, is bringing something new to the majors—a "slide" ball. He says it neither breaks like a curve, drops like a knuckle or hops like a fork, just takes a sudden, sidewise slide when it reaches the batter.

"Even the umpires miss that one the first time they work behind me," said Bolen. Manager Shotton thinks the "slide" has possibilities.

Athletic Meet To Be On March 14

MCLEAN, March 10. (Special)—Playground ball, tennis, and volley ball in the Intercollegiate League meet will be played here March 14, beginning at 9 o'clock instead of the following Friday.

Each team playing tennis will have to bring three new tennis balls. Each playground ball team must supply one ball.

The volley ball event will be played at night and a charge of 25 cents will be made.

EXHIBITION BASEBALL

By The Associated Press. Yesterday's results: At St. Petersburg, Fla.—Boston (N) 10; Brooklyn (N) 2. At Ft. Myers, Fla.—St. Louis (N) 4; Philadelphia (A) 3. Today's schedule: At St. Petersburg, Fla.—New York (A) vs. Boston (N). At Ft. Myers, Fla.—Philadelphia (A) vs. House of David.

AVAILANCHE REPORTED

CHAMBERY, France, March 10. (AP)—An avalanche during the night swept away the Franco-Italian lines just above Mondane, interrupting all communications by that route between the two countries.

LAST DITCH

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 10. (AP)—Herb Pennock, veteran left-hander of the New York Yankees, believes the new ball will help veteran pitchers with control and hurt mediocre batsmen.

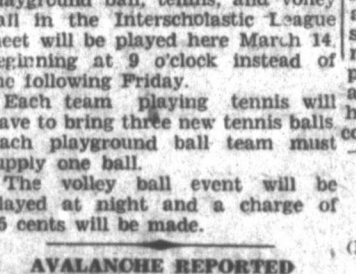

On the other hand, pitchers who are not so strong on control will have plenty of trouble with the ball, Pennock thinks, while great batsmen like Babe Ruth and Al Simmons will continue to hit it far and often.

Pennock didn't mention himself but he named a few veteran curvetall pitchers who he thought would benefit, listing among others Uhl and Earl Whitehill.

WILL CUT SQUAD

PASO ROBLES, Calif., March 10. (AP)—Jewel Eas planned to take another close look at his recruits today as the regulars and yanigans squared off for another scrap. The time has arrived when Eas must decide the rookies who are to remain with the team, and cut the rest adrift. Paul Walter, slugging outfielder, who has been under treatment in a St. Louis hospital, wired he will report Friday and that he is in good condition.

THE ONE PLACE WHERE IT PAYS TO PLAY WITH FIRE

THEY'LL build you a huge fire at a certain place in Chicago—they'll heat a door or wall red-hot and turn a hose on it—they'll do all sorts of striking and ingenious things to see how long a certain device will stand up under punishment or how soon it will burn up or blow up or break.

It's a dramatic place—the great buildings of Underwriters Laboratories—where they "play with fire" in testing building materials, electrical devices, gases, chemicals, hoses, extinguishers, home utilities, and endless other things.

THE CRIME IN THE DUTCH GARDEN

SYNOPSIS: Search for the missing will of Annabelle Querling may disclose a possible answer to the riddle of her murder. Her niece, Evelyn and Marjorie Blake, would like to see their inheritance should they marry, according to the will, but both knew knowledge of it was of the murderer. So also do Lionel Duckworth, Evelyn's fiance, Dr. Netherton, Major Gresham, in love with Miss Querling, as well as others.

Chapter 17 WEIGHING THE CASE Richmond was silent for a few minutes, but when he spoke it was with his old vigor.

"I am prepared to accept the guilt of any one, man or woman, within the bounds of the evidence," Jimmie nodded and the superintendent continued.

"Take the two girls, Evelyn and Duckworth called on you months ago about the letters. On the night Miss Querling was killed they were indoors together, as witness have said. While they will benefit through her death, their story is consistent.

"Evelyn seems truthful, while Marjorie has never explained her movements in the garden, saying that after talking to the doctor she had waited alone in the moonlight. It brings me back to my former suspicion, for until I heard of Vincent Blake and the will I had the doctor foremost in my mind. He probably knew of the will—he may even have been a witness to it."

"You realize that your case against him rests entirely on the supposition that he wants to marry Marjorie?"

"Certainly I realize that. Now let me give you my case against Netherton. I have not yet been to Miss Querling's bank, but I went to his. He is very hard up. There is a big overdraft. Not his fault. It was his father's debt. Young Netherton is paying his way and reducing the debt, but not so quickly as they would wish. So you see the need for a rich marriage?"

Jimmie nodded. After what Audrey Winford had told him, the news came as no surprise.

"I have also discovered that he and Marjorie were sweethearts as youngsters, before he went to London for his training. He met her quite a lot, especially lately. I had the witnesses ready to call, but he admitted it. Undoubtedly she waited for him."

"For her to love him is not quite the same as for him to love her."

"Perhaps not, but the old lady took them for lovers and warned them there would be nothing to expect from her. He admits he expected from her. He admits he expected from her. He admits he expected from her."

will disappear," Jimmie answered. You can take them whenever you have a mind to. Do not do it until you have practically cleared every one else, Gresham you acquit. We have accounted for Mrs. Frater. We have accounted for Vincent Blake. His story has yet to be verified. But an empty car was seen against the fence, inside the links. Whose was it? Where was the owner? Until you can answer those questions you will not have a complete case against anyone."

Superintendent Richmond was silent.

"You see," Jimmie went on, "our clear thinking has worked in a circle and come back to the point at which we started. Solve the mystery of that car and everything else may fall into its right place."

"Perhaps you are right, Mr. Haswell. I believe Netherton is the man, but I'll have another go at it."

Richmond's perplexity was understandable, but Jimmie tried next morning to dismiss the case from his mind as he joined the Wades at breakfast.

He was glad when Audrey telephoned him and suggested golf. "I'd learn all about the town for what it would cost to take a taxi around times square."

TIPS TO VISITORS Then, right off, we were disheartened.

"Don't," said the guide book, "ask a pedestrian where a certain street is. He is usually too busy to stop, and if polite enough to stop, won't know. No New Yorker knows anything about New York. Consult this guide."

About New York

By RICHARD MASSOCK NEW YORK—Browsing in front of a second-hand book store, we picked up what looked like a bargain.

It's a fascinating time killer for some people, this browsing in front of book stores. The cheap books books are outside and sometimes somebody finds a valuable rarity.

But one must know his books to recognize the really valuable. There is a typographer in Greenwich Village who is a constant searcher of the old book stalls and it is once in a bright blue moon that he finds a nugget.

So we considered ourselves a lucky browser when we happened upon a guide book to the city of New York knocked down to 25 cents. We could learn all about the town for what it would cost to take a taxi around times square.

Then, right off, we were disheartened. "Don't," said the guide book, "ask a pedestrian where a certain street is. He is usually too busy to stop, and if polite enough to stop, won't know. No New Yorker knows anything about New York. Consult this guide."

Izzat so? We tried a fellow who looked as though he was in a terrible hurry. "Pardon us, where's Horatio street?" we inquired.

"Well," he said, "you see that corner? That's Forty-second street. You walk one block east to the Sixth avenue El station, take a downtown train and . . ."

That was enough. He seemed to know. So we went on reading.

"Don't travel with a dog, the book advised. 'Bring somebody else's kid if you can't your own. Children are great company.'"

Not for us. Biting somebody else's kid is called kidnaping. Besides, they always want to climb to the top of the statue of Liberty. At our age? And think how you'd blush if you took any kid, even your own, into a night club.

CITY HABIT "Don't gape at women smoking cigarettes in restaurants. They are harmless and respectable, notwithstanding and nevertheless. They are also 'smart'."

Now, there's an item! How did the author know the women were harmless? Some of the worst women we ever saw smoked cigarettes, including some who looked mighty smart—too smart to mettle with.

Ant, please, may we gape if we see, as we often do, a woman in a restaurant toss of a beaker of ginger ale and then throw an arm around her escort's neck?

"Don't telephone if you are in a hurry. Walk. It's quicker, though it used to be the other way 'round."

And what if you do walk? You find the guy's in conference, or he's gone to lunch, or he's in Palm Beach. Don't we know!

"Don't act, however, as if you were another Daniel in a lion's den."

simply because we have pointed out a few obvious precautions. New York is just like your own home town, only bigger.

We know some people who might resent that comparison. They love their home town.

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" process includes the use of the Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED"—an extra, secret heating process. Harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos are expelled by "TOASTING." These irritants are sold to others. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

The advice of your physician is: Keep out of doors, in the open air, breathe deeply; take plenty of exercise in the mellow sunshine, and have a periodic check-up on the health of your body.

Gasoline Selling For 5 Cents While Crude Price Drops

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10. (AP)—Gasoline sold as low as 5 cents a gallon in Los Angeles and oil prices slumped elsewhere in the state today as a price war, born of over-production, raged on. Los Angeles quotations ranged downward from 12 1/2 cents.

The Standard Oil company reduced crude oil prices on an average of 50 cents a barrel yesterday. Formation of a new corporation to operate 700 Shell company service stations was announced by W. C. Van Fleet, San Francisco retailer.

The new corporation is Shell Service, Inc., a $500,000 organization. It will operate on a basis of compensating employees in proportion to earnings.

Standard's new crude oil quotations ranged from 55 cents at the well to $1.13, depending on gravity and field location. Kern county fields were practically unchanged, though posted with a minimum price of 55 cents for oil of 14-18.9 gravity.

The Kettleman Independent Owners' league adopted a resolution asserting the crude oil price reduction was "unjustifiable" and a "blow to small producers."

Jimmy Creighton Is Sought After Robbery of Earlsboro, Okla., Bank

EARLSBORO, Okla., March 10. (AP)—A dramatic warning from Oklahoma City officers came a few minutes too late to prevent the robbery of the bank of Earlsboro of $3,000 yesterday but it provided a clue to the identity of one of the two men sought today for the robbery.

Jimmy Creighton, wanted for the $27,000 looting of the National bank of Hastings, Neb., recently, was reported planning to raid the local institution.

Before the information could be given, two unmasked men held up three employees and five customers and escaped in a small green coupe.

Meanwhile L. C. Mills, arrested near Norman, was being held in the county jail at Oklahoma City in connection with the Hastings robbery. It was after his arrest that information of the impending robbery was relayed here.

Creighton's wife is being held in the Nebraska state prison at Lincoln in connection with the Hastings holdup. Officers said $9,000 in currency was found in the clothing of Mrs. Creighton's year-old son.

Poses still were seeking the robbers after a vain hunt through the night.

Mother, Daughter Die In Flames

NEW YORK, March 10. (AP)—Flames bore tragedy to a family of five in Queens early today, killing the mother and a daughter and sending the other three to a hospital.

Mrs. Dora Abrams, 49, was fatally injured when she jumped 30 feet to the ground. Anna, 11, was burned to death in bed. David Abram, 50, the husband; Ruth, 18, and Milton, 25, suffered burns and contusions in attempts to escape.

The fire started on the first floor of their two family dwelling and swept up the stairs, cutting off retreat of the Abrams family.

FROGS ARE PROFITABLE

OSKECHOBEE, Fla., March 10. (AP)—The frogs that croak in Lake Okeechobee are not disobeying any of the slogans of bigger and better business. Instead, they are contributing more than $500 a day to a prosperity symphony in this section.

Because of the demand for the delicious rear quarters of the lowly amphibians, many fishermen are deserting their hooks and nets for gigs and baskets. Fisheries are paying 17 1/2 cents a pound with standing orders for 3,000 pounds daily.

Markets WARWICK

GRAINS ARE HIGHER

CHICAGO, March 10. (AP)—Influenced by bullish aspects of government figures on farm reserve supplies, grains averaged higher early today, especially corn. Unexpected firmness of Liverpool wheat quotations and smallness of receipts at European continental centers were an additional strengthening factor.

Opening unchanged to 1-2 cent up, corn afterward rose all around. Wheat started at 1-4 cent decline to 1-4 cent advance, and subsequently hardened.

LIVERPOOL WEAK

NEW ORLEANS, March 10. (AP)—Cotton opened somewhat easier in sympathy with lower Liverpool cables, first trades showing losses of 3 to 6 points. The market continued to ease off after the start, owing to a reported statement by Chairman Stone of the farm loan board, that it was supposed to buy no more cotton and wheat this season. May traded down to 11.00 and October to 11.53, or 7 to 8 points below yesterday's close.

Near the end of the first hour the market rallied 2 to 3 points on a little short covering.

Charlie Grimes, Harry Hoare and Jinks Brashears attended the celebration in Borger yesterday.

John Foster of Grocm was in Pampa Monday.

ways more radical bills introduced in a time like this than under normal conditions. Thanks to the better judgment of a majority, most of these bills get the ax in the committee rooms or do not survive long on the floor of the house. Business interests have little to fear from adverse legislation when their case is properly presented.

Citizens who are prone to criticize their legislative bodies for slow action should compare the difference between the status of legislation today and 20 years ago. This modern intricate fast-moving 1931 life has brought to the legislative halls scores of problems which were not seen 20 years ago when boomer regulation and railway regulation were about the only questions before our legislative bodies.

Governor Sterling in an interview made it plain that he considered the government is taking too much hand in our business affairs. It will be no surprise if the veto power is used very freely should new regulatory measures and new boards and new bureaus be passed which might hamper private business.

road to tax reform?

That is the big question today. Everyone agrees that the state should be run on the lowest possible appropriation.

Every bill to increase taxes or change the method of taxation is in opposition to changes.

But continually the legislature is besieged with requests for additional appropriations either for existing institutions or the establishment of something new.

Land owners over the state are holding meetings for the purpose of cutting their land value reductions.

Business men who have not made money on their investments the past two years are complaining that something must be done to reduce the tax burden.

A bill is pending to reduce salaries of all state officials and employees.

It will be seen that an interesting session will be had under the big dome at Austin during the last 60 days of this session.

NEGRO'S TRIAL TOMORROW

AMARILLO, March 10. (AP)—Will Moore, negro, goes on trial here tomorrow on murder charges growing out of the fatal shooting of Monty (Pat) Moore, New Mexico cowboy. The negro, a hotel porter, pleaded not guilty at arraignment yesterday. A special venire of 170 was ordered. Mont Moore was shot to death in a hotel lobby.

Europe Is Hard Hit by Storms

By The Associated Press

Bitter weather continued general over Europe today. Cold winds swept the quake torn Balkans.

Snow and rock avalanches destroyed telegraph lines and interrupted rail traffic at Chambéry and Thionon Les Bains, France.

The Black forest and Rhine valley in Germany were buried under the deepest snow of years.

English roads were encrusted with ice or piled high with snow. Ships groped through blinding snow and buffeted upon turbulent waves.

New England and upstate New York storms lifted, with drifts eight or ten feet high left on highways.

The Balkans rumbled a fourth time as disintegration continued beneath the Greek mountains. There were new fissures but no additional damage of consequence.

Adults Contract Children's Diseases

Adults can, and do, contract many children's diseases. And, usually, they suffer from them much more than children do. For instance, many adults contract worms, an ailment usually associated with children. Sometimes they suffer intensely and take expensive medical treatment, without realizing that worms are the cause of their troubles. Yes, the symptoms are the same as in children, loss of appetite and weight, grinding the teeth and restless sleep, itching of the nose and anus, and abdominal pains. And the same medicine that surely gets harmless, cysts round and pin worms from children will do the same for adults—White's Cream Vermifuge, which you can get at Fatherson Drug company.—Adv. 1.

Blending makes it better

IN the test kitchen of a great soup maker, the gifted master-chef creates the blend of ingredients to produce the perfect soup. In a scented room in a corner of France an expert blender of perfume invokes his highest genius that our sense of smell may be gratified. In a work-room fragrant with the aroma of many types of coffee beans, a highly-paid specialist concentrates his energies that we may be provided with a coffee blend to please our palates.

Whether it's soup or soap, tobacco or tea, music or mustard... blending is vital to the production of the best of each. Equally as vital, if not first in importance, is the knowledge and genius of the blender. He must know how.

The best gasoline, too, is blended. In the processes of a modern refinery three types of gasoline are produced. They are, Natural Gasoline, Straight-run Gasoline, and Cracked Gasoline. Each possesses certain desirable qualities necessary for perfect motor operation... but... no one of them possesses all these wanted characteristics.

So Conoco Gasoline is a blend of the three. There is Natural Gasoline, to give quick starting. There is Straight-run Gasoline, to give power and long-mileage. There is Cracked Gasoline, with its desirable anti-knock quality. Just as carefully as the perfume blender at his delicate task, Conoco refiners have developed their balanced blend of these three ingredients. This is the gift of knowing how to merge the qualities of the three gasolines to create a balanced, triple-test fuel. One brand of coffee outsells all others because of the expertness of its blender. And so, with Conoco Balanced-Blend Gasoline, the skill of the blender accounts for the popularity of the product. Stop today at the sign of the Conoco Red Triangle and have your gas tank filled with this better motor fuel.
