TEXAS HAS MANY LAWS THAT ARE DEAD AND
LACKS MANY TO REGU-LATE VERY LIVE ISSUES.

For instance our automobile traffic is almost wholly unregulated. There are laws applying AFTER an accident, but few calculated to prevent a mishap. While some states are considering proposals to license drivers, this commonwealth has no law regulating the age or fitness of its motorists.

Almost daily one can see small boys, whose feet cannot reach the pedals while their eyes are even with the bottom of the wind shield, managing to get through the heavy traffic. In not a few instances noted, accidents were narrowly averted. In another, a car was being driven much as a drunken driver would steer it, but it was not a drunken driver; it was a 9-year-old boy.

Wrecks and collisions are best avoided by prevention of risk-taking practices. There should be an age limit. The only immediate hope of relief is by city ordinance.

Inspection of a sort is being given lights, and a few states require brake tests as well.
But annual inspections are not frequent enough. Recently the writer met seven one-eyed cars between Pampa and Canyon.
Texas is putting 20 patrolmen on her highways, but this number is ridiculously small.
The state highway department has issued a call to county officers to enforce the state laws.
This is an admission that the state's own enforcement machinery is inadequate.

While many good drivers have accidents, hundreds of mishaps could be prevented by enforcement of an up-to-date motoring code. It is time to call a conference of city attorneys, furthermore, to consider attainment of more uniformity in city traffic regulations.
Recently the writer saw the sign "left turn" and "no left turn" in one city, while another not far away had only the "left turn" sign and a blank space meant prohibition of turning. But how is a motorist to decide instantly what the discrepancy in signs means.
The difference may seem little, yet a policeman asserted that he spent half of his time explaining that motorists should not turn unless the sign specifically said "left turn."

Local conditions demand local treatment, yet the bulk of regulations could be made identical, just as railroad signals are uniform within a system.

BORGER IS NOT TROUBLED FOR LACK OF PUBLICITY, and doubtless there are many citizens who would welcome obscurity in lieu of some of the reports that have gone out lately. The kind of citizens which reports of violence attract is an undesirable type.

Borger has been crime-ridden almost since her "birth", but throughout her history there have been honest attempts by reputable citizens to "cleanup" the city. Boom conditions are past, and it should be possible to greatly improve the enforcement of law. This is all the more desirable because a wide-open town is a menace and a nuisance to an entire territory.

That conditions have become lamentable again indicates laxity in high places, if not worse. It indicates that the rank and file of the people are still not in the saddle.
But there is a fine sign—the action of the civic clubs and chamber of commerce in offering support to the Rangers.
With the vigorous help of Governor Moody and the Rangers and the influence of decent citizens, the new district attorney should make quite a showing. He should be given the protection and the legal assistance that his office warrants in present conditions.
He ought to have an assistant prosecutor. To expect one man to handle the entire problem is unreasonable.

Texas and the Panhandle expect violence to be suppressed in this oil territory. The lawless element is foreign to the wishes and traditions of the Plains. There is plenty of room here for a million newcomers, but not one gunman.

TWINKLES

A tourist tells us the nearest thing he has seen resembling Carlsbad cavern is the Pampa brand of highway rut.

Maybe when MacDonald comes over here to talk about disarmament Old Man Texas can get him to do something about Borger.

A truly informed person is one who has the patience to follow the present tariff squabble through all its ramifications.

And now that the New York bankers have been trimmed, we wonder what the sharps will have left to whet their brains upon.

"Back to school" campaigns would have been treason to youth once, but now it is reported that a number of Pampa kiddies need only a little encouragement and some clothes preparatory to entering.

It's too bad that the jurors in these sanity trials cannot pass upon the alienists, expert witnesses, and some of the lawyers who do not act any too rational.

Nephew of Soviet Exile, Trotsky, Is Again in Trouble

EL PASO, Sept. 19. (AP)—Dr. R. N.
Trotsky, who claims to be a nephew of Leon Trotsky, exiled Russian Soviet leader, has been arrested here on a charge of swindling.

Dr. Trotsky said he first took out naturalization papers in Austin following a conference with Governor Dan Moody. Later, he said, he served a term in the Leavenworth penitentary for violation of the Dyer auto act.

AUSTIN, Sept. 19. (AP)—Dr. R. N.
Trotsky, a surgeon, under arrest in El Paso, returned to Austin recently from Leavenworth penitentiary, where he served one year for transporting a stolen automobile into Texas. He was tried in United States district court here.

Following his return from prison he told acquaintances he would "go straight" and expressed his intention of opening an office for the practice of his profession here.

FATHER AND SON SOUGHT IN CALLOWAY SLAYING

LLANO, Sept. 19. (AP)—D. K. Ellison, and his son, Barney, wanted in connection with the slaying here Tuesday of L.
C. Calloway, had not been found by officers today.

A posse of officers, led by blood-hounds, searched this section yesterday but the only clue uncovered was the remains of a campfire near Art, 25 miles west of here. The men were sent by officers to have left home about shortly after the shooting.

The three men were known to have quarreled, officers said, over a building the Ellisons were constructing.

MAN AND WIFE ARE WOUNDED IN SHOOTING

TEXARKANA, Sept. 19. (AP)—Wiley Hillis, 45, and his 24-year-old wife were in a hospital here suffering serious gun shot wounds following a shooting at their home at Malta, 30 miles west of here, today.

Mrs. Hillis told officers her husband shot her and then wounded himself.
She blamed domestic difficulties of long standing for the affair. The couple have two children, neither of which was present at the time of the shooting.

Both were shot through the head.
The woman was wounded twice.

BALL CLUB OWNERS IN CONCLAVE TODAY

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 19. (AP)—Club owners of the Western league were meeting in executive session here today, reported to be considering transfer of several clubs and the possible resignation of Dale Gear, Topeka, the president.

Tulsa and Oklahoma City executives have signified their intention again to ask permission to join the Texas league.

Twentieth Century Plans Event for President's Day

Plans for Twentieth Century club's annual breakfast honoring the new president are being formulated this week by committees working under the direction of Mrs. R. W. Mitchell, vice-president and social chairman. Mrs. H. H. Hicks' lovely home in Cook-Adams addition will be opened on Tuesday, Sept. 24, for the event, which will be of outstanding interest among the autumn social affairs.

The breakfast will compliment Mrs. W. A. Bratton who is to assume the duties of president for a second term. Papers will be laid also for the president of each study club of the city, and the chairman of the City Council of Parent-Teachers associations.

Three hostesses joined last evening in paying compliment to Mrs. H. A. McDannald, the former Miss Jewell Flanagan. They were Mrs. H. H. Hicks, Miss Louise Miller, and Miss Amy Smallwood, who entertained at the Canary Sandwich shop with a prettily appointed bridge party and bridal shower.

On a small table centered with a miniature bride and groom, and over which a wedding bell hung, the gifts were arranged in attractive packages. At each card table was a basket of lavender lilies, tied with a tulle bow from which hung a shower of valley lilies and a tiny wedding bell. Souvenirs of the occasion were orchid sachets, which were passed with the refreshment plates at the close of the bridge games.

BRAVES HAND CUBS PENNANT ON WEDNESDAY

BY WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

By defeating the Robins at Wrigley field last Sunday, the Cubs reached a point where one more victory would give them the National league pennant. The energetic Brains are still snuffing here and there in search of the victory. But nevertheless they have become champions. The coronet was clamped upon the brow of Joseph V. McCarthy just before game-time in Chicago yesterday when the Braves tossed the Pirates 5 to 4 in the first half of a doubleheader.

The new champions of the elder major circuit were allowed to enter their game against the Giants without the knowledge that the Braves had ended the struggle for them. Otherwise they might have done better against the Giants, who opened the series with a 7 to 3 triumph behind Hubbell's fine pitching.

The most interesting development at Wrigley field was Roger Hornsby's feat in scoring all three of the Bruin runs, lifting his total to 146, two beyond the National league record set by Kiki Cuyler in Pittsburgh in 1925.

The Pirates came back behind Henry Meine to take the nightcap 5 to 2. Jim Frey, Nashville recruit, gave the Phillies 13 hits in his Cincinnati debut, but won 9 to 5. Horace Ford, Cincinnati shortstop, made eleven put-outs and three assists.

Led by Ruth and Gehrig, who got two homers apiece, the Yanks bombarded the Indians out of two games 9 to 7 and 12 to 2. Tony Lazzeri added a circuit blow for good measure, and the Sewell brothers performed for Cleveland.

Ruth ran his total to forty-six, by far the highest in either circuit, and Gehrig mounted to thirty-four, second best in the American league.

The Browns batted Bob Grove from the box to win the opener from the Athletics 6 to 2, but George Earnshaw pitched a steady game in the nightcap to triumph 4 to 3, his twenty-second victory.

Washington dislodged Detroit from fifth place by a margin of one and one-half games through a double victory over the Gengals 2 to 0 and 1 to 0.

Chicago and Boston, in the American league, and Brooklyn and St. Louis, in the National, had no games scheduled.

Will See World Series

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Howard and sons will leave early next week for a short business visit to El Paso. Immediately after their return they will leave for Chicago, where they will visit Mr. Howard's brother and attend the world series baseball games.

Former President Here

George Custer of Borger, former manager of the local ice factory and a former member of the Pampa Rotary club, visited friends and transacted business here last evening.

Ehmke May Quit Baseball If Arm Continues Sore

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19. (AP)—Howard Ehmke, the Athletics veteran right-hander with the temperamental arm, is hoping to get one shot at the so-called devastating Chicago Cubs in the world series.

He may retire from baseball after the series is over, figuring there is no use trying to cure an injured shoulder that refuses to yield to treatment. According to Ehmke himself, however, the news that he is about through with baseball is premature.

"Of course I want to beat the Cubs in a series game," he told the Associated Press today. "But as to my announcing my retirement at the close of the series, that is something else. I have made no definite decision about retiring. When I do I shall let you know."

Ehmke said he didn't know just what happened to his shoulder that it seemed to have gone to the bad for no reason at all. Sometimes it is all right but those occasions are far between.

"I haven't been able to pitch a real fast one since 1926 without pains shooting through my shoulder," he said. "I've been like a Ponce de Leon seeking the fountain of youth, I've seen bonesetter Reese in Youngstown and, while he helped me, he couldn't cure me. I've gone further—to California, Hot Springs, Texas and Detroit. No one has effected a permanent cure."

"Maybe I shall retire. Who knows?"

Amarillo Juniors to Play Here Tomorrow--Texhoma Scheduled by Harvesters When Memphis Falter

CUBS HAVE 11 MORE GAMES THIS SEASON

Pampa's Harvesters lack an opponent for tomorrow, but her newly nicknamed Gorillas will tackle Amarillo junior high's eleven here at 3:30 o'clock Friday.

Little is known of the strength of the Amarilloans, but the local second stringers will not be weak. Ten cents admission will be charged.

Following failure to find opposition for tomorrow, the Harvesters were forced to change the enemy for Sept. 27. Memphis backed out of their agreement to come here with little explanation. Thereupon Coach Mitchell scheduled a game to be played in Texhoma, Okla. on that day.

Last year at the Tri-State fair the Harvesters lucked out a 20-12 victory over Texhoma. This year the Texhoma eleven is stronger than ever and on its home ground will likely give the locals all the opposition they are looking for.

Dixie Series to Start Sept. 25 at Birmingham

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 19. (AP)—Announcement that the Dixie series between Birmingham of the Southern association and either Dallas or Wichita Falls of the Texas league would get under way Sept. 25 at Birmingham has been made by William B. Ruggles, president of the Texas circuit.

The second game will be played in Birmingham Sept. 26. Beginning Sept. 28, the contenders will meet at the home city of the Texas champion for a three-day stand. The sixth contest will be a toss of the series goes the limit, on Oct. 3 if in Birmingham, and Oct. 4 if in the Texas city.

WICHITA FALLS MOUND STAFF IS UNCERTAIN

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 19. (AP)—Victorious in the initial skirmish and their pitching staff intact, Milt Stock's Dallas Steers were in the driver's seat as they prepared to tangle with Jim Galloway's slugging Spudders in the second game of the Texas league play-off here today.

As Victor Frasier, 20-year-old smoke-baller, demonstrated yesterday that a good righthander could quiet the Spudder bats with men on base, the Steer skipper was expected to entrust today's assignment to Sergeant George Connally, veteran for many major league campaigns.

Three Wichita moundsmen, including the team's two aces, Messenger and Payne, had a hand in losing the opener, 3 to 2, so Galloway's hill choice was problematical. As Payne pitched to only three batters, however, he was a likely choice to attempt to stop the Steers and square the series. Hal Wiltse, veteran southpaw, was the second guess to toil for the Spudders. George Bischoff, Dallas backstop, who whammed in the winning run with a single in the ninth, and Larry Bettencourt, Spudders' substitute first sacker, who collected three of the homelings' eight hits off Frasier, including a homer, and scored both of his team's runs, emerged individual heroes. They supplied the thrills for 8,000 customers that jammed Athletic park.

Frasier and Messenger hooked up in a pitcher's duel until the Spud submarine artist was relieved for a pinch hitter in the eighth. The Steer rookie was at his best in the pinches, leaving 12 Ollers stranded on base. Messenger gave up only one earned run, Jim Moore's homer in the fifth. The Steers' other run in that inning resulted directly from a pair of infield boots that enabled Country Davis to reach third on a single and score on a sacrifice fly.

EGG MASH

Good authority places the percentage of feed elements that enter the egg as follows: 65 per cent Water, 14 per cent Protein, 10 per cent Fat, and 11 per cent Minerals. The hen puts these raw materials together and assembles the egg—your return on your investment. It can be plainly seen that you can get out of her only what you put into her. For this reason MERIT EGG MASH, which contains the proper proportions of these necessary elements, is a safe avenue to greater production, and should be available to laying hens at all times.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP

Notice is hereby given that the partnership lately subsisting between T. W. Snyder and M. W. Boyd, of Gray County, Kingsmill, Texas, under the firm name of Snyder-Boyd Drug Co., was dissolved by mutual consent, on the 11th day of September, A. D., 1929.

their emoting. Some days he was high over the sets watching the upper lights, and watching too, no doubt with wistfulness, the players below who were before the camera's eye and the microphone's ear.

A Fat Part

Came Roy del Ruth, to direct Edward Everett Horton in "The Aviator." This farce had a very good part for a fat man.

Walter Hiers, one of Hollywood's copulents, was cast for the role. But when production was due to start, Walter could not report. He was on a vaudeville tour.

Del Ruth, who used to direct "Kewpie," gave the part to the stout "juicer." Now "Kewpie" who was up in the sound-stage rafters with his lights put down in the movie scale, is down below them on the stage and up in the talkie balances.

And that, boys and girls, is Hollywood—city of almost everything, but most of all the city of ups and downs.

Indication

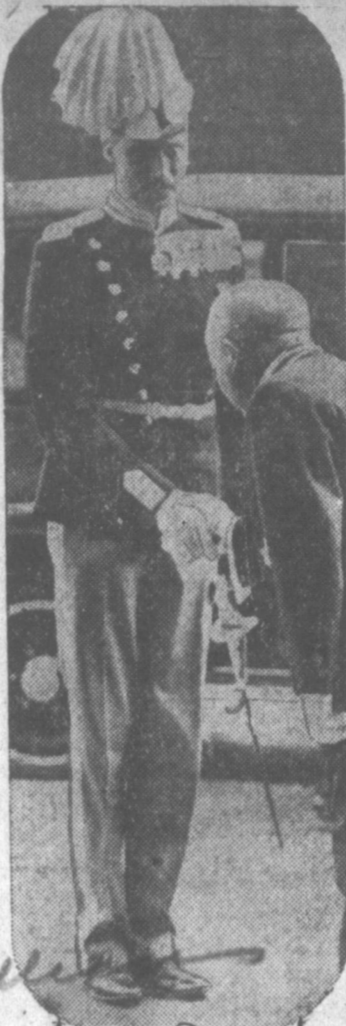

It may not mean anything, but then again it may. Out of a list of 26 records issued recently by a phonograph company, 21 are songs from the movies and only five are hits from Broadway's musical comedies.

A young studio visitor, seeing the movies made for the first time, was listening the other day with great interest to an explanation of sound recording by the sound engineer. At its conclusion she said:

"Thank you so, much!" Then she turned on her guide, eagerly: "But does Clara Bow really have red hair?"

About New York

By RICHARD MASSOCK NEW YORK—The Staten Island seat of the noblesse stands stark and weatherbeaten on a wooded knoll. The throne of the doges of Venice is in storage.

And Count Howard Victor Ben Eet von Broen Trupp, who also calls himself Gen. Tcherp Spiridovich, is looking for new headquarters for his modern college of arms.

The seat of the count's knightly occupations for several years has been Beaulieu Manor, a 100-room mansion reputed to be some 85 years old and looking it.

Beaulieu Manor long has been a show place of Staten Island, across the bay from Manhattan.

The manor, alas, and the count's eviction night was a scene of desolation. Four deputy sheriffs, mere minions of a law that recognizes no title but that of a deed, were waiting for the count and Dame Harriet Beaulieu to move their possessions out of the old house, upon which a mortgage had been foreclosed.

Stacked in the great, two-story, balconaded hall where the count's noblesse used to meet for gala courts was the furniture of Mrs. Beaulieu, whose husband, William J. Beaulieu, an artist, bought the house 15 years ago. He gave it to his wife when they separated and it since has sheltered a Yogo swami and more recently Count von Broen Trupp.

As he watched his throne, from the doges' palace, torn from its place in the manor's chapel, the count sighed audibly. About him stood a few of the dozen Russian emigres from Harlem who had come to pass the summer. The scene, they said, as they fought off Staten Island mosquitoes, was like that of a Russian palace after the bolsheviks had paid a visit.

Staten Island Nobility The count was asked to explain his effort to transplant nobility to the democratic shore of commuters and immigrant truck gardeners. As leader of the noblesse he willingly obliged.

His own past was obscure; he said he was born in Schleswig. It seems that Mrs. Beaulieu and a brother who lives with her are from Nebraska. It further seems that Mrs. Beaulieu once entertained a General Spiridovich. The latter died in the manor and the count thereupon "inherited" both his name and command of "the Polish royal army."

His "college of arms," he said, was founded under the treaty of Paris, in 1780, and two years ago was transferred someho to New York. Here, as "Knight of the Holy Grail," he began conferring titles ranging from esquire to knight of the grand cross under orders named for state flowers, in New York the rose. The only requirement for rank was "meritorious service to country or profession."

Some of those knighted by the count of Staten Island are notables who never have acknowledged the honor. But lesser folk have gone across the bay to accept ribbons and medals and crosses from the count, who received them in a purple robe studied with brilliants.

Now the count, a tall, lean, smooth-shaven man, apparently of middle age, with the air of a soldier of fortune, is looking for a new throne room, without the assistance of his knights, who somehow have fallen him.

Hollywood Sights

By ROBBINS COONS HOLLYWOOD—Here's a new true story of the ups-and-downs of movie life: Away back in 1916, Horace Allen ("Kewpie") Morgan, was genial and fat, was a studio electrician, a "juicer." Then he got into acting. For the past 13 years or so he has been playing in movies, here, there and everywhere about the country. For a long time he was a Mack Sennett stand-by, played in pictures for many studios besides, and was generally in demand.

Then came talkies, stage players, production slumps, a general upheaval, and not long ago this "Kewpie" found himself out of a job. They did offer him parts, and pretty good ones, too, but at a reduced salary which he would not accept. So "Kewpie" went back to "juicing"—for the monthly bills were coming in as usual.

That was six weeks ago. With the other electricians he manned the batteries of blazing lights on sets where actors, some from the stage, others his old pals of silent screen days, did
