OMAHA, Neb., May 8. (AP)—A man, a maid, a nicker, a telephone booth, a spring night, and what have you?
The police thought it was a burglar, but they changed their minds.
Jens Minther was the man who had the nicker. He walked into a drug store, entered the telephone booth, called up his girl friend, and started to talk. That was around 9 p. m.
Around 11 p. m. the druggist put out the cat, turned off the lights, locked up the doors and went home.
Sometime thereafter Minther hung up the receiver and found himself a prisoner. By making motions to a cab driver he was able to convey the idea that he wanted to get out. The police were called.
They doubted Minther's sincerity.
"Call her up if you don't believe me," Minther said, as he gave the officers his girl's name. They did.
Minther was freed.
"It's the spring," they concluded.

BROTHERS IS DENIED MOVE

Sentence of 14 Years Given Lingle Slayer; 60 Days for Appeal Allowed.

CHICAGO, May 8. (AP)—Leo V. Brothers was denied a new trial for the murder of Alfred Lingle, Tribune crime reporter, and was formally sentenced by Judge Joseph Sabath today to 14 years in prison.
Brothers' attorneys were given 60 days to file a bill of exceptions in preparation for an appeal.
A new set of attorneys had argued that the punishment set by the Brothers jury, the lightest possible under the Illinois statutes, was a "travesty on justice," and indicated the jurors themselves were not sure of Brothers' guilt.
New witnesses had been found to strengthen the defense case, the attorneys said, and the defendant, because of "improper advice by his former attorneys" had not taken the stand. They promised that Brothers would testify if granted a new trial.
The state produced an affidavit saying that the proposed new defense witness had once identified Brothers but had been warned by union officials not to testify against Brothers.

Queen Helen Is Invited to Leave

VIENNA, May 8. (AP)—Midnight departure of Queen Helen from Rumania and the bedside of her son, Michael, the Grand Voivode of Alba Julia, was described by a correspondent by members of her entourage.
They said the master of ceremonies of King Carol, her handsome former husband had come to her at 10 p. m. the night of her departure and "invited" her to leave within two hours. She accepted the invitation.
From Belgrade, where the beautiful Grecian princess who became an unwilling queen of Rumania has gone, she is traveling it is understood, to Bled, where she will reside with her sister, the Queen of Yugoslavia for two weeks and then go to Paris.
Arrangements for this were understood here to have been made by King Carol and King Alexander of Yugoslavia in a meeting last Saturday. Carol is said to have asked his brother-in-law to endeavor to induce Helen to reside abroad on the condition that she be permitted to visit Rumania every summer and spend several months in the mountains with Michael.

Russia Refuses To Permit Flight Of World Traveler

LOS ANGELES, May 8. (AP)—The expression "free as the air" was an empty one today for John Henry Mears, the globe traveler.
Having prepared a $25,000 mortgage for his third attempt to establish a world circling record, Mears yesterday announced receipt of a telegram from Soviet government representatives in Washington refusing him permission to use the Soviet air lanes.
Mears said he would fly to New York next week to see if anything could be done about it.
"It's a mystery to me," he declared. "When I made my record flight around the world in 1928, the late Captain C. B. D. Collyer and I had all the cooperation the Russian government could give and everything went fine."

Reasonable Assistance Will be Rendered in Obtaining Right-of-Way and Terminal in Gray County.

BOARDS CHOSEN

Importance of Starting Work in Near Future Is Dominating Factor; Terms Not yet Determined.

A group of representative Pampa citizens and members of the B. C. D. decided last night to do everything within their power to aid the Fourth North and Denver City Railway company to begin construction of the line from Childers to Pampa this year.

An advisory board of which Mel Davis was appointed chairman, and four right of way committees were named. Mr. Davis is also general chairman of the right of way committee. Members of the advisory board will communicate with Denver officials as soon as possible. It was decided that reasonable cooperation would be given the Denver in securing right of way in Gray county. The immense importance of starting construction of the road this year was emphasized. The line if built this year would mean more to Pampa than it built later, it was said.

Recently, Denver officials, in conference with B. C. D. members, said that the Burlington Railway company which controls the Denver, was reluctant to start building the road this year unless Gray county gave financial cooperation in obtaining right of way and terminal facilities. No definite amount of money was mentioned. Exact terms are due to be discussed in the near future.

SWIFT INDICTMENT IS RETURNED AGAINST "TWO GUN" CROWLEY, SLAYER OF OFFICERS

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—The fastest indictment for first degree murder ever returned in Nassau county, 28 minutes from the time the grand jury convened at 10 a. m. until the true bill was voted—named Francis "Two-Gun" Crowley today as the killer of Patrolman Frederick Hirsch on Long Island last Monday.

Crowley was captured late yesterday when 200 policemen with guns, axes and bombs trapped him, his girl companion, Helen Walsh, and Rudolph "Tough Red" Duranger in a West 90th street apartment. The capture of the three, after the exchange of hundreds of shots and the wounding of Crowley, was described by Commissioner Mulrooney, who led it as the "most thrilling and dramatic experience" he ever had in 30 years as a police officer.

It was the murder of a young dance hall hostess—Virginia Branzen—which started the police hunt for Crowley April 27, even before he slew Patrolman Hirsch, and it was a dance hall hostess—Billic Dunne—who led to his capture.
One of the half dozen witnesses who moved in and out of the grand jury rooms today was the Walsh girl.
District Attorney Edwards of Nassau county said the girl would not be indicted. She was removed to a private home.
NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Vanity, superstition, and bravado of Helen Walsh and "Two Gun" Crowley are revealed in a series of notes police found scattered on the kitchen floor of the apartment where they were captured after a gun fight with police.
Reference to "bulls outside the door" indicated that the notes, pen-

Mr. Lefkowitz and August Gordon, Pampa merchant, were luncheon guests yesterday night at the Gordon ranch in Roberts county near Miami. As the violinist was en route to Pampa from Kansas City he met the Roberts county Gordons on the train and they invited him to visit them while in the Panhandle.

Special Device to Be Used to Cap Flowing Gusher

GLADEWATER, May 8. (AP)—The Sinclair No. 1 Cole spouted on Friday, 300 hours after blowing in out of control, but without the fire that killed nine oil workers had been extinguished and the crew hoped to tame the big gusher either today or tomorrow.

A specially designed capping device was made at a Kilgore machine shop last night. It is so constructed that, when placed on the casing head, it will tighten its grip as pressure increases. A new derrick had been skidded within a few feet of the well and workmen were equipped with benzene tools to prevent another deadly spark.

Gas hung heavily about the scene and there was a film of oil on all objects within several hundred feet. The family of Tom Cole, who owns the land was afraid to light a fire in the kitchen of their home almost a quarter of a mile away, and had to take their meals elsewhere. All visitors to the lease left their cigarettes and matches with quartz stationed at the border of the Cole farm. M. M. and Harry Kinley, oil fire fighters who extinguished the well, left yesterday for their home in Tulsa, Okla. M. M., elder of the brothers, was walking on crutches with his left leg in a cast. A small bone was fractured by a steel beam while he was moving debris from the scene of the blaze.

WOODOOISM IS BLAMED FOR SHOOTING OF NEGRO HERE

"Lucky" Dice Player Badly Hurt When Victim Seeks to Punish Woman.

Congo voodooism was injected into a probably fatal shooting about a week ago when Clarence "Geeky" Wilson, negro, was critically injured by a caliber bullet which entered the front part of his body and lodged in the region of his stomach. He was given a fighting chance to recover at Worley hospital where he was taken.

County and city officers had a warrant for Pat Bishop, another negro, charged in connection with the shooting. Bishop disappeared when after Wilson was wounded and an investigation was made of the city failed to uncover him.

The shooting took place at a house in the flats, negro section of the city, after an all-night game between Wilson and Bishop, according to occupants of the place who were questioned by officers. Wilson was "lucky" and gradually won all of Bishop's money. It was testified by negroes brought to the sheriff's office early this morning.

Bishop declared that a negro woman, a friend of Wilson, who had watched the dice game during the early part of the evening, had "hoodooed" him. After the game he went up stairs to her room, declaring that he was going to "beat up on her," it was related.

She heard him coming, however, and managed to elude him. Wilson, said Bishop came back to the room where Wilson was and an argument took place regarding the whereabouts of the woman. Bishop accused Wilson of persuading the woman to "hoodoo" him so he would lose all his money. He also charged Wilson knew where the woman was hiding. During the argument, Bishop fired the shot from a .45 caliber revolver that injured Wilson. Bishop is about 35 years old, and Wilson is about 30, officers said. Charges will await the outcome of Wilson's conviction.

Mrs. Dick Walker has as her guests her sister, Mrs. R. A. Gregory and son, Jack, of Washington, D. C. and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Luther of Fort Worth. They will be here until Monday.

VEGA, May 8. (AP)—

The entire business district of Vega, 30 miles west of Amarillo, was threatened by fire discovered in a restaurant at 12:40 o'clock today. The restaurant, a garage, and a doctor's office had been destroyed and the Panhandle hotel was burning. Another row of buildings half a block in length was feared doomed. The blaze was fanned by a strong wind.

AMARILLO, May 8. —

A chemical truck was sent to Vega by the Amarillo fire department at 1:30 o'clock today to fight flames sweeping the business district of the town. The city of 500 is without water, bonds for a water system having been voted little more than a month ago.

Within less than two hours after the fire was discovered only two buildings in the south half of the west side of the square were standing, and they were burning rapidly, reports here said.

The fire had melted telephone cables and communication between this city and Vega went out at 1:55 p. m.

Bucket brigades were trying to prevent the flames from spreading to other sections of the business district, while citizens were working hurriedly to remove merchandise from burning buildings and others in the path of the blaze.

Beck Home Rule Resolution Offers Objectionable Features to Texans

Senator Pink Parrish of Lubbock has cited some very good reasons for opposing the Beck home rule resolution pending in the legislature. The resolution has reached the third reading in the senate by a narrow majority.

Senator Parrish pointed out that the plan would enable cities to dictate to rural population on matters political and economic, and would take from the legislature the supervision that body now has over county government. The first of these points is the more important.

As amended, the resolution would apply only to counties having populations of 75,000 or more. Should the limits of a great city encompass an entire county, a county government would be a costly duplication, yet the functions of the two are differently defined in law and there would be disadvantages to combining them.

Perusal of the vote shows that senators from the big cities were for the resolution and those from other places were critically in objection. It is recognized that certain expensive duplication of city and county activities could be eliminated, but to do this the constitution and the statutes should be re-written to form a new fabric, rather than a patched one.

Kentucky Town Quiet As National Guards Gather

EVARTS, Ky., May 8. (AP)—This little mountain town assumed a military air today as patrols of national guardsmen were posted at strategic points to guard against recurrence of outbreaks that have cost five lives in the nearby coal fields.

Since the arrival of more than 300 troops yesterday, Evarts has been quiet. There were no disturbances reported last night and families that previously fled their schools will be reopened Monday.

Col. Dan M. Carrell, commanding the guards, conferred with mine workers and operators with a view to ending definitely the disorders in the Harlan county mining regions. He said he has had satisfactory conferences with both factions but declined to discuss their nature.

In beginning the patrolling of Evarts, Colonel Carrell explained it was solely for the protection of the community and its people from further disturbances. The troops will operate on an impartial and unbiased basis, he said, to aid in working out the coal fields' problems.

Police Judge Bradley Burkhardt of Evarts, who has figured prominently in negotiations between the factions, explained the general situation. The mine operators, he said, were averse to recognition of the unions. The workers are opposed to the mine guards, the operators have employed to protect the mines and say some miners have been discharged for union affiliations and for failure to purchase supplies at company commissaries.

These differences led to gun battles. Two deputy sheriffs, a county assessor and a miner were killed just outside of Evarts Tuesday. Another deputy sheriff had previously been killed at Evarts. Several have been wounded.

W. B. Jones, secretary of the local union of the United Mine Workers of America, estimated today 5,000 men are out of work in the Harlan area. Only 10 per cent of the population is at work, he said.

Daily WASHINGTON LETTER (By Herbert Plummer) WASHINGTON—The state of Vermont always has prided itself on the fact that it has had a habit of sending men to the United States senate and keeping them there. And a glance backward reveals that this practice of having men with long congressional experience in Washington to represent the state has been followed with great faithfulness. Vermont's senior senator—Porter Hinman Dale—served five terms in the house of representatives before going to the senate, where he has been continuously in service since 1923. The late Frank Lester Greene was six terms in the house, then went to the senate, where he served until his death recently. Upon this fact Warren R. Austin staked much when he entered the race for the senate against Frank C. Partridge, chosen by the governor to sit in the short session of the seventy-first congress and until a special election could be held to elect Greene's successor. Austin is 54 years old. Partridge is 70. The younger candidate's keynote in the campaign was "Shall Vermont send a young man to the United States senate?" He went back to the time when Vermont elected her first senator and got his age and that of each succeeding one. These he averaged and found that the average age of Vermont senators elected has been 50.3 years. Thus armed he went forth to battle. It was "youth" against age, and "youth" won. The second plank in his platform was: "Encouragement of active participation by young women and men of Vermont in public service and in the seeking of public office." Of splendid physique, dynamic and energetic, he presents the appearance of a man younger than his years. Among his special recommendations for the United States senate he listed his qualities as a debater and orator. His reputation in this field was won "in various places throughout the United States and the Orient." Once, he says, he urged the support of the protocol of the permanent Court of International Justice as a means for outlawing war before 370 clubs of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's clubs in convention. Perhaps that experience will come in handy sometime in the future. There are those in the senate like Johnson of California and Borah of Idaho who have had some experience along this line themselves and would like nothing better than to debate it with him. All they ask is the opportunity.

TRIALS FOR OLYMPICS IN DISPUTE NOW

Pacific Coast Attempting to Draw Preliminaries From Chicago Field.

CHICAGO, May 8. (AP)—A bitter fight over the scene of the final trials for places on the 1932 Olympic track and field team today appeared certain, with Chicago and the Pacific coast the combatants. The trials originally were awarded to Soldier Field by the Olympic track and field committee but Pacific coast leaders have contended that their section was the logical place for the event and have prepared to put up a battle when the committee meets in Chicago May 18.

Chicago interests, headed by Avery Brundage, president of the Amateur Athletic union and president of the American Olympic association, are ready to fight to keep the trials here.

Brundage today issued a statement relative to the situation, in which he said:

Under the revised constitution of the American Olympic association which is composed of all the organizations in the United States interested in the Olympic games, separate committees have been appointed to handle each apart.

"Even considering the great interest of California in track and field, one-sixth of the total committee membership seems fair representation. Two meetings of the track and field committee have been held, and notwithstanding the fact that men came from all other parts of the country, no representatives from the Pacific coast were present.

"The selection of Chicago by the track and field committee was approved at a meeting of the American Olympic committee proper, over telegraphic protests from the Pacific coast. Both the vote of the track and field committee and the American Olympic committee were almost unanimous.

"Statements have been made on the Pacific coast that political influence was exerted within the organization to secure the trials for Chicago. x x x

"It also has been charged that Chicago wanted the trials in order to enrich the coffers of the central division of the A. O. U. Such statements are ridiculous and based on rank ignorance of Olympic procedure. x x x x"

Stribling Ordered Not to Fly His Airplane Soon

MACON, Ga., May 8. (AP)—Young Stribling today said William P. Carey of New York, president of Madison Square Garden, had asked him not to fly his airplane again until after his fight with Max Schmeling July 3.

Stribling said the Carey request was by letter. His plane is at a factory being repaired and the boxer does not expect to get it until after the fight, he said.

Kid Berg Will Try for Comeback

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Jack (Kid) Berg hits the comeback trail against Tony Herrera tonight at Madison Square Garden's first historic show in weeks.

Knocked out in three rounds by Tony Canzoneri, lightweight champion, at Chicago recently in the biggest upset of the season, Berg will start all over again against Herrera, a stiff right-hand puncher from El Paso, Texas.

Berg rules a 7 to 5 favorite over Herrera. The El Paso youngster has won two decisions and fought one draw in recent Garden engagements but does not figure to do more than extend the Whitechapel whirlwind.

Johnny Farrell on GOLF

By JOHNNY FARRELL
Former American Open Champion.
As told to ALAN GOULD
NO. 7—BUNKER SHOTS

Jove Average Golfer makes more needless hard work for himself trying to get out of traps than perhaps any other feature of the game. Bunker shots are subject to change because of the wide range of circumstances under which they may have to be made, but I would set forth these few general, simple principles in the use of the niblick.

1. Stand close to the ball.
2. Get a good, firm footing.
3. Lay the club back.
4. Use the wrists, with no pivot.
5. Keep the head down.

If you have ever noticed Bobby Jones, you know how easy an explosion shot can look. Just a flick of the wrists with the club faced away back, the head going from the outside inward, to give the necessary "cut."

It is a big mistake to use a full swing on a bunker shot. There are occasional shots requiring it, but generally a short swing gets far better results.

By little practice it can be discovered whether to hit a half inch or an inch behind the ball to get the desired result.

All this, as I say, refers to the use of the niblick, preferably a heavy one. However, all bunker shots are not niblick shots. Judgment should tell the player what club to use under special circumstances.

In a shallow trap, with distance to be covered, an iron can often be used to advantage perhaps even a spoon from traps on occasion when the hazard permitted it.

Around the green a putter sometimes is more sensible to use than a niblick, especially in a fairly shallow bunker which has no obstructing over-hang or when the sand is wet and hard-packed.

Tomorrow—The Right Club.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By the Associated Press
Earl Grace, Cubs—His lone fly in the 11th drove in Wilson with run that beat Reds, 5-4.
Oscar Mellillo, Browns—Clouted Cleveland pitching for triple and three singles, scoring three runs and driving in one.
John (Pepper) Martin, Cardinals—Accounted for six runs against Pirates, with home runs, double and two singles.

Johnny Farrell with the niblick. A great many golfers, he finds, think it necessary to blast out of bunkers with the full swing shown left. A little flick with a short swing, illustrated right, is what really does the trick, he says.

ENGLISHMAN DEFEATS NEW INVADER IN 3-FALL BOUT

Butts Way to Victory After He Divided First Two Falls With Jack Purdin.

King Elliot's hard head last night won him another victory as he butted Jack Purdin of Shreveport, La., into submission in two minutes for the deciding fall.

In the preliminaries, Wildcat Willie of LeFors defeated Barber Kelly and Andy Gump won over Oscar Graham.

Pampa wrestling fans saw some fast action by a pair of light heavyweights when Purdin and the Englishman started the first fall. Purdin entered the ring at 179 pounds and Elliot at 185 pounds.

The first hold of the match went to Purdin, a nicely applied wrist lock. Elliot came out with a head scissor and then action started. The first ten minutes of the fall was lightning fast, with neither mauler able to keep holds. Elliot applied several head locks, while Purdin could hardly lift the sun tanned Englishman over his head.

A Boston split gave Elliot plenty of misery but he came out with a toe hold and broke it for a scissor. Suddenly breaking a dangerous head lock, Elliot came up with a step-over toe-hold and Purdin patted the mat in 23 minutes.

The second fall lasted only 13 minutes with Purdin winning with an arm stretch. The fall was rough with both men rabbit punching. Additional solid blows turned the match into a speed and stamina. The Englishman would use a little jiu-jitsu on Purdin which had him running in circles.

Purdin finally made Elliot pat the mat from an arm stretch. Elliot tried for more than a minute to break the punishing hold but failed.

Going into the ring determined to win the battle, Elliot put Purdin in two headlocks. Purdin in turn got one and as Elliot slipped out and regained his feet, he threw himself a Schenberger at the Shreveporter and he went through the ropes. As he came back he received another in the stomach, this time breaking the ropes loose from the uprights on his exit. Taking one look at the fallen ropes, Elliot climbed Purdin, butted him twice, and fell on him. It took exactly two minutes.

It was learned last night that Purdin was from the same stable as Jack Rose and Jack Lindsey. It was easily seen that Rose and Purdin had been together.

Sailor Otis Clinegan, local middleweight who lost to Elliot last week, asked for a return bout with the Englishman.

Discus Record Is Broken By Holder

AUSTIN, May 8. (AP)—J. C. Petty of Kaufman high school today bettered his former state record when he threw the discus 144 feet and 11 inches in the first day's qualifying rounds of the twenty-first annual meeting of the University of Texas Intercollegiate league. His previous record, made last year, was 141 feet and 9 inches.

Events of track and field were slow starting, but once under way, they were checked off in clock-like order. There were some 250 schools represented with an estimated 2,000 participants.

In the 120-yard high hurdles, Wallace of East Lake and Beck of Pharr, entrants in the first and second heats, respectively, were first with 16 seconds each. Kline of Taft and Randow of Hallettsville made it in 16.1 seconds, Cazzell of Amarillo 16.2, Neal of Brownfield 16.3, and King of Wharton, 16.4.

CATS HOLDING FAST CLIP IN EARLY WORK

Sixteen Innings Necessary to Decide Melee Yesterday With Galveston.

Associated Press Sports Writer
Fort Worth and Galveston played themselves a real ball game Thursday afternoon at Galveston and, after 16 innings, the Cats left the park with a 4 to 2 decision. It was their fourteenth win out of 19 starts.

McCabe allowed 10 hits against 15 off Harris. Galveston hopped into a two-run lead in the second and third innings with a run in each frame. The Cats tied the score in their half of the sixth, and then the next nine innings were scoreless. Fort Worth rallied with two runs in the first half of the sixteenth to win.

A five-run lead, gained in the first two innings, meant nothing to San Antonio in their meleé against Wichita Falls at San Antonio. The Indians not only lost the game, but also the lead in the series with the Indians. The Spudders started their rampage in the sixth when Hobo Carson was touched for a pair of triples which were good for three runs.

Dallas extended a winning streak to four straight at Beaumont with a 4 to 2 win. Lee Meadows, veteran right hander, chalked up his first win this season after pitching several hard luck games. Not only did Meadows pitch winning baseball, but contributed a home run in the third inning, and his long fly scored Todd in the sixth inning.

Shreveport outbit Houston 11 to 9 but Houston's nine hits accounted for eight runs, giving the Buffaloes an 8 to 5 win Thursday night in Houston. It required the combined mound efforts of Durlham, Payne, and Hansen to beat the Sports. Wood, Miller, and Erickson tried to save the Sports but failed.

The St. Louis Browns, by far less successful than their townsmen so far, did about as well yesterday. They got started in the fifth inning and pounded four Cleveland pitchers for a total of 17 hits and a 10 to 4 victory.

Vic Sorrell of Detroit also recorded his first win of the year, holding the Chicago White Sox to nine hits, as the Tigers won 6 to 1. Detroit's eastern clubs of the American league had an open date as they began their first western trip of the year and New York and Boston in the National also were not scheduled. Brooklyn's game at Philadelphia was rained out.

Mrs. H. B. Lively and her two sons are visiting relatives in Shamrock. Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Nicholas are leaving Pampa Sunday by automobile on a business trip to Springer, N. M.

BOAT AHEAD OF RECORD

VICKSBURG, Miss., May 8. (AP)—The speedboat Grayhound, seeking a new time record on the Mississippi river between New Orleans and St. Louis, arrived here this morning at 7:25 o'clock, approximately four hours ahead of the record set by the speedster Bogie of Memphis.

O. T. Smith of Clarendon is in Pampa visiting W. T. Hayter.

by ALAN J. GOULD

The answer seems to be an Andy-esque "Yes and No," so far as the effectiveness and effect of the new major league baseball is concerned. It's a great help to the pitcher when Wes Ferrell tells a no-hit game or Freddy Fitzsimmons holds the hard-hitting Braves to a brace of bingles.

It's just as lively as the old sphere on the day that the Browns scored eight runs in the ninth, only to have them wasted by a Cleveland rally, or on the afternoon that Rogers Hornsby smacks off three straight homers.

In short, the good pitchers are still good and the heavy hitters are doing their customary damage, with a few conspicuous exceptions.

Inside Dope
The search for further data from the "red-hot" is retarded by indications on the visit of Charley Root to the town of Donora, Pa. The famous Chicago Cub right-hander told Edwin McKay of the Donora Herald-American that the new ball, while just as lively as the old, nevertheless "is a help to the pitcher, because the raised seams make it easier to control."

Continuing, Root explained: "Pitching a curve this year is easier than it was last year. But when they do hit it, it will travel just as far as the old ball."

Being in the neighborhood, Brother Root voiced a few words of commendation for Jewel Ems and the Pittsburgh Pirates.

"If Pittsburgh only had a couple of good pitchers to add to the staff the club would be the most dangerous in the league," said the Cub star to his interviewer. "Ems picked up a good man in Osborn, who was with us."

Root doesn't think the St. Louis Cardinals will repeat their pennant victory, because "it isn't their year" and as far as the Boston Braves are concerned, "they always look good in the early season."

More Opinions
The new ball was a big help to Rube Walberg of the Athletics until he blew up one recent afternoon, against the crippled Yankees.

Al Simmons didn't blame the ball for his early batting slump and promptly snapped out of it with a characteristic blast of long range firing against the Washington Senators.

John Arnold Heyder, the National league's chief executive, thinks the raised stitches have been a boon to the twirlers, but that doesn't explain why Dazzy Vance, George Earnshaw and a number of other aces have been bumped around.

Lefty Grove doesn't notice any differences in his stuff, which he says is good or bad, according to what kind of a day he is having on the mound.

From a divan Babe Ruth sees no effect of the new ball on his own hitting, but roars defiance at the rules-makers who ruled out the sacrifice fly and thereby, in the Bambino's opinion, sliced a big chunk from his batting average.

Variety Is Offered In Chicago Card

CHICAGO, May 8. (AP)—Fistic variety in the form of two champions and a Chicago favorite will adorn the Chicago stadium's first "three-dollar-top" program tonight.

In half of a double windup, Young Jack Thompson, Oakland, Calif. negro who is wearing the world welterweight crown for the second time, will meet Bucky Laless of Auburn, N. Y., in a non-title bout of 10 rounds. In the other half of the feature, King Levinsky, the former fish-monger, will attempt to wipe out a recent decision defeat inflicted by Emmett Rocco of Edwood City, Pa., in less than the scheduled 10 rounds.

Brightest Young Folk of Texas in Busy Program of Austin Contests

AUSTIN, May 8. (AP)—A few of the preliminaries out of the way, contestants and victors at the twenty-first annual interscholastic meet faced a busy program today.

Preliminaries in the track and field meet, journalism, art and typewriting contests, boys' and girls' tennis, declamation, debate and extemporaneous speaking competition were on the schedule.

Six hundred and thirty-five boys had entered the track meet and the entries in the literary events were large.

The first round of boys' tennis singles and doubles was played yesterday and the winners in the essay contest were announced. The one-act play contest and debate preliminaries were held last night.

Jack Taylor of Austin, Alex Pope of North Dallas, George Dulling of Alamo Heights, Stanton, Littleton, Brady of Abilene and Carl Smalley of Yorktown, survived yesterday's tennis matches. Charles McCreary of Waco, Jack Moore of Denison and Dudley Davis of Center, drew byes.

In the doubles, Austin, Main Avenue of San Antonio, Stinson, Littlefield, El Paso, Waco, Fineland, and Ball of Galveston survived. The last three drew byes. Essay contest winners were as follows: Class A, Mary S. Mettles-

TILDEN SAYS TENNIS HOPES NOT BRIGHTS

Singles Likely Will Return to France—Doubles For U. S. Very Probable.

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Big Bill Tilden doesn't think much of America's chances of regaining the Davis cup this year.

Back in New York for his match with Vincent Richards in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night, Big Bill had this to say about the Davis cup situation as it affects the United States:

"Frank Shields and Sidney Wood need stern singles competition. Give it to them and we'll get the Davis cup eventually but not in 1931. Not with Henri Cochet and Jean Borotra around."

"If Wilmer Allison changes his mind and goes to Europe this season he probably will pair with Johnny Van Ryn again. Together they form a great combination. If Allison remains in the United States there are good reasons to believe that undoubtedly is the finest doubles player in America and one of the best in the world."

Plans for Ball Clubs Are Begun On Last Evening

Representatives from only two Panhandle towns attended a meeting in Amarillo last night to discuss tentative plans for the forming of a West Texas baseball league. Telephone calls received from other towns indicated that the league was favored by at least four places, Pampa, Borger, Amarillo, and Clovis, N. M., Shamrock and Clayton, N. M., said they might consider entering the league. Amarillo and Borger were the only towns represented.

Alvin Gardner of Wichita Falls, president of the Texas league, was elected president pro tem. Mr. Gardner was unable to attend the meeting, having been called to New York on business. He wired that he would accept the nomination without remuneration if the clubs desired to elect him.

Plans for organization will go ahead and a final meeting will be held in the board room of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon. It is expected that Gardner plans to be present.

John "Honest John" McCloskey, Jim Galloway, and Frank Matthei, who have been touring the cities interested in the league, were present. They declared that a league was sure to be formed.

"A league would be played at night, excepting Sundays."

Arson Theory Is Being Investigated

SAN ANTONIO, May 8. (AP)—An arson theory has led police and fire authorities into a determined investigation of a blaze which early this morning caused the death of Felipe Villareal, 6, and almost completely destroyed the home of Mrs. Anna Sence.

Mrs. Sence and her two small children narrowly escaped death in the flames which had engulfed the five-room frame dwelling before the woman was awakened by smoke and heat.

The Villareal child, sleeping alone in a front bedroom, was dead when firemen battled their way to his bed after Mrs. Sence turned in an alarm. The boy's body was not burned, it was reported, and he apparently had been suffocated.

Tariff Is Flayed By British Speaker For Sports Wear

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—Despite an admonition by its retiring president, George Theunis, of Belgium, that delegates avoid political arguments, the International Chamber of Commerce today heard another attack on American tariff and war debt policies.

Dr. W. H. Coates, British delegate, said Europe would "shut out" products of United States efficiency "if you will not take the products of our efficiency, whatever be their form, or whatever their nationality."

International debts, he said, could be paid only by the transfer of physical goods or services. Since high tariffs exclude goods, they prevent payment of international debts of all kinds, he held.

"It is no answer to say there is no tariff on raw materials, if the debtor has few or no raw materials to sell," he said. "The war international debts are owed by industrial nations. To shut-out their

Marooned British Scientist Is on Way Back From Outpost in Arctic

ANGMAGSALIK, Greenland, May 8. (AP)—A dog sledge trailed by four men, winding through the icy crags of Greenland, today took Augustine Courtaud, youthful British scientist, back to safety and human society after a winter spent alone on the Greenland ice cap.

Of the three men with Courtaud, the leader is H. G. Watkins, chief of the British Arctic air route expedition which last fall left him in an igloo on the ice cap with the promise to return in March to relieve him after a winter spent in observation of meteorological conditions.

Watkins, who searched in vain in March and April for the igloo which was Courtaud's winter home, yesterday morning—two late—kept his promise, found Courtaud, in whom hope of rescue must have begun to fade, and started back with him over 105 miles to the expedition's base, at Sermelik Fjord, 35 miles inland.

Watkins' success was attained as six expeditions to rescue Courtaud were got under way. Had Watkins failed, or been a few hours later, success would have rested with the most spectacular of these expeditions, that of the Swedish civilian pilot, Captain Albin Ahrenberg, who flew from Malmoe Norway and found the Courtaud igloo a few hours after Watkins had taken Courtaud away.

Captain Ahrenberg, whose plane is equipped with skis, landed on the ice near the igloo, which he spotted from the air after a short search.

The aviator took off and flew low followed sledge tracks which soon brought him in sight of the Watkins party. Courtaud appeared to be walking along behind the sledge, safe and in good health. Ahrenberg dropped some food to the party and continued back to the expedition's base with word of the rescue. It was believed a week would elapse before the sledge party could reach the base.

Courtaud, who is the son of a wealthy British textile manufacturer, is 27 years old, and his rescuer, Watkins, but 23.

School Bus Is Struck by Train

MERCED, Calif., May 8. (AP)—Fifty elementary school children were dead today as the result of a school bus-train collision at a grade crossing yesterday. Two other children and the bus driver, Douglas Creaser, 59, were in a critical condition today.

The bus, crowded with two score small children on their way from school, was thrown into a ditch when the locomotive of a slowly moving freight train struck it broadside.

The dead: Robert Fuller, 10; Dolores Eppen, 8; Billy Eppen, 8. Twin brothers of Dolores; Janette Ahr, 8, and Marshall Pirtel, 7.

Hospital physicians said Creaser, who suffered a broken back and internal injuries; Helen Fogleman, 9, and Muriel Keller, 6, might die.

Twenty-three children were in hospitals.

Texas Editor Is Honored by School

COLUMBIA, Mo., May 8. (AP)—Medals of honor for distinguished service in journalism were awarded by the school of journalism at the University of Missouri here today to an American newspaper, a foreign journal, and three individuals—an alumnus of the school, a Missouri publisher, and an executive editor of distinction.

The Baltimore Sun, represented at impressive ceremonies by its managing editor, William E. Moore, and the Manchester (England) Guardian, represented by A. Wyn Williams, its American correspondent, were the newspapers honored.

The individual awards went to Houston Harte, editor of the San Angelo (Texas) Standard Times; Henry F. Childers, editor of the Troy (Mo.) Free Press, and Robert P. Scripps of New York, editorial director of the Scripps-Howard newspapers.

In presenting the medal to Mr. Harte, Pres. Walter Williams of the university said it was for "his wide influence as a leader, for his spirit of pioneering, for his eminent success through unshaken, untiring efforts toward the goal of high service in journalism, and for the betterment gained individually and as an editor in a brief span of years."

An audience 14 miles away saw and heard the first "television wedding" when Frank Duvall and Grace Jones were married in New York.

The romance started here last fall when the young Cleveland girl met Langford while he was on a vacation. He is the son of Dr. William Langford of Westoff, Texas.

REDISCOUNT RATE CUT
DALLAS, May 8. (AP)—The Dallas Federal Reserve bank yesterday lowered its rediscount rate from 3 1/2 to 3 per cent, the lowest in the history of the institution.

The move was in line with a similar action taken yesterday by the Federal Reserve bank at New York which reduced its rate from 2 per cent to 1 1/2 per cent, the lowest rate in the history of the Federal Reserve banking system and the lowest for any central bank in the world.

Action of the Dallas bank was taken at the monthly meeting of the board of directors.

WHEAT UNSTEADY
CHICAGO, May 8. (AP)—Moisture reports from Canada gave an early downward trend to grains today. There was talk also that the government crop report due after the close would indicate a domestic winter wheat yield large enough to take care of all home requirements and leave spring wheat exclusively for export.

Opening at 3-4 cent off to 1-8 up, wheat afterward held near to the initial range. Corn started unchanged to 1-4 lower and fluctuated but little.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Oats: No. 2 white 29; No. 3 white 28 1/2-29.

Wheat closed firm, unchanged to 3-4 cents higher, corn 3-8 to 3-4 up, oats 1-8 to 3/8 advanced and provisions 5 to 20 cents down.

COTTON IS FIRM
NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Cotton opened steady today, unchanged to 2 points higher on buying which appeared to be influenced by reports of cold rains in the eastern belt and reiterated reports of delayed crop progress in the southwest.

Trading was quiet but offerings increased somewhat right after the call, probably on the action of the stock market, and prices worked about 3 to 5 points net lower on the more active positions with July selling off from 9.99 to 9.92. The early buying continued, however, and the market was about steady at the end of the first half hour when active months were holding within a point or two either way of yesterday's closing quotations.

Magnolia Team Defeats Students

Some of the fine points of baseball were explained in actions instead of words to the high school team by the Magnolia club in a seven-inning practice game yesterday afternoon. The Magnolia runs numbered 7 and the high school boys' 4.

Weathered, who played on the championship Gulf team last summer, alternated in pitching for the high school boys with Chastain. Weathered batted out the only homer of the game, but as the bases were cleared only one counter resulted. Coach Mitchell, playing his second year at second base for the Mags, was more adept than usual in scoring and assisting in putouts.

Magnolia used three pitchers—Gray, first and second innings; Simmons, third and fourth, and Shriver, fifth, sixth, and seventh. Lister was the other member of the Mags' battery. Benton caught for the high schoolers. The Mags collected six hits, the high school boys, seven.

The line-ups:
Scholastics—Lard, 2b; Sharpe, 1b; Martindale, ss; Weathered, p and 3b; McWright, rf; Chastain, p and 3b; Morgan, lf; Benton, c; Ayres, cf.
Magnolia—Thorne, 3b; Burke, 1b; Mitchell, 2b; Lister, c; Shriver, lf; Austin, rf; Knight, cf; Ward, ss; Gray, p; Simmons, p.

Birth Rate Has Rapid Decline in Urban Sections

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—At least one government economist believes there are not enough children to indicate that the United States' population ever will rise above 170,000,000.

Dr. O. E. Baker, of the agriculture department, is that economist. Addressing a group meeting of the International Chamber of Commerce, he said that unless the birth rate rises or immigration laws are liberalized the population in 30 years will become stationary at less than 170,000,000.

Examination of 1930 census figures, showing a total of more than 120,000,000 persons, Dr. Baker asserted, divulges that "in not a single city or over 50,000 are there enough children under one year of age, nor even under five years of age, per 1,000 women 15 to 45 years of age to maintain a stationary population and in most of the cities there are only two-thirds to three-fourths as many children as would be necessary."

Rural sections, he said, have a surplus of youngsters above the number needed for an even population but no more than required to balance the city deficiency. He added that the rural birth rate also is declining.

Telephone talks to relay a message of international good will continuously around the world are being planned for Good Will day, May 18.

Alaska has passed a bill repealing the territorial bone-dry law and has asked congress to approve the action.

Murray's Plans to Be Opposed

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 8. (AP)—The Daily Oklahoman says that if Governor Murray carries through his plans for a popular referendum on measures of his legislative program, he will encounter an initiative move to cut the governor's term to two years.

Items which Governor Murray proposes to carry to the people for popular vote are his personal income tax measure, a free textbook bill and a measure reducing state scientists' terms to two years. If the latter question is submitted to the people, the Daily Oklahoman says, he will meet a counter move to also reduce the governor's term to two years.

Counter moves to the governor's taxation measure also will be made, the Oklahoman says, by two different groups, each with a separate tax plan.

OIL WOKER BURNED

BEAUMONT, May 8. (AP)—T. H. McClure, 23, oil field worker at Big Hill, was in a hospital here in serious condition today from burns suffered last night when a bucket of burning oil, used as a mosquito smudge, was overturned by a cable which broke loose and struck it.

Charlie Chaplin To Stick To Screen

LONDON, May 8 (AP)—Charlie Chaplin will stick to the silver screen, the showman said today. He refused a royal command invitation to appear at a benefit vaudeville performance which their majesties will attend.

"I don't appear in public that way," the newspaper quoted Chaplin. "The last thing in the world I want to do is to make a stage appearance. It would be bad taste."

The Evening Standard said Chaplin was sending a check to the benefit, which has been arranged by a royal committee for deaf and disabled vaudeville artists.

Most actors regard the invitations to appear at command performances as a mark of honor. Chaplin, however, has refused them in the past and there have been very few refusals. It is not certain that either King George or Queen Mary expressed a wish to see Chaplin in person at the performance although this may have been the case.

BILLS ARE OPPOSED

TYLER, May 8 (AP)—Directors of the Tyler Chamber of Commerce were on record today as opposing any law to increase the powers of the railroad commission or any other regulatory body to authorize and enforce oil proration. By unanimous vote yesterday they protested introduction of bills to strengthen proration, claiming such action would violate the recent treaty between proponents and opponents of proration.

East Texas legislators were urged to oppose such bills and the East Texas Chamber of Commerce was informed of the action taken here.

MAD MARRIAGE

LAURA LOU BROOKMAN Author of "HEART HUNGRY, ETC."

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Gypsy McBride, 19-year-old New York typist, marries Jim Wallace the day after she meets him at the home of her wealthy cousin, Ann Trowbridge. Gypsy has been lured by Alan Crosby, just returned from a year and a half in Paris studying art, and Wallace's fiancée had broken their engagement to marry a wealthier man.

Jim and Gypsy go to Forest City where Jim has a thriving law practice. His relatives are hostile to Gypsy. They enub her. Marcia Loring, Jim's former fiancée, marries Brock Phillips, millionaire's son. Months pass and news comes that Brock Phillips has been killed in a fall from a horse. Marcia returns to Forest City. She consults Jim about her financial matters and later tells him her marriage to Phillips was a mistake. Jim tries to reason her back to Gypsy but sees Marcia frequently. Gypsy is aware of the situation and worries. One day in a beauty shop she overhears gossip that "Jim Wallace is going to leave his wife." Next day Gypsy sees Marcia Phillips coming up the walk.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXIX

There was no chance for retreat. Already Marcia was half way up the walk. She looked cool and serene in a white silk sports frock and broad-brimmed sun hat. Everything about her suggested exquisite grooming. Gypsy's own linen house dress was rumpled and her nose was gleaming.

She forgot the letters in the post box. She did not even try to summon a smile but stood there waiting. Gypsy, whatever else her sins might be, was never hypocritical. Marcia called in her sweetest tone: "I'm so glad to find you home." She came up the steps. Her manner and expression had their usual air of superiority.

"What do you come for?" "Thank you for the nice and cool in here?" Marcia said as they entered the living room: "You know, I thought you might be out at the club at the tennis tournament. Everyone in town seems to be there!"

The club of course was the Glendale Country club. Gypsy had read about the tournament but had never been invited to the clubhouse. "I don't know anything about tennis," she admitted.

"Really? Well, I often think myself that sports are boring. I'm not good at any of them, but sitting through tournaments and congratulating the winners and all that seems to be the thing to do. I wish I had your strength of character and could stay out of it."

Gypsy made no reply. She was contrasting Marcia's slim kid pines with her own grimy sandals. "You know, for neighbors we scarcely see each other," Marcia continued after a moment. "I thought you promised to come to call."

Gypsy's embarrassment showed in her face. "I—I've been awfully busy," she alibied. "There are so many things to think about in a house. Then the garden takes a lot of time. I suppose I'm out there more than I need to be but I love it. Would you like to see the garden?"

Marcia leaned back in her chair and smiled. "I'd love to," she said. "later." "How is Aunt Ellen?" "Oh, she's fairly well. Feels that heat. I'm rather concerned about her. Aunt Ellen's such a darling. Don't you think so?" She has been so wonderfully kind to me. I've been urging her to get away somewhere where it's cooler but I don't suppose she'll go."

"You're here yourself for quite a while?" Gypsy spoke casually, wondering if her voice betrayed her trepidation. "Indefinitely."

What had this other girl come for? Gypsy knew very well it was not merely to discuss the heat and Aunt Ellen's health. There was some other purpose back of Marcia Phillips' visit. She was puzzling over the problem when Marcia's voice broke in again. "Forest City has been very good for me," she said languidly. "I sup-presently. "I can't do it." "You mean you won't? Oh, but you'll have to! You can't keep a man tied to you legally when he doesn't love you. It's immoral. Why, it's barbarous! You couldn't do a thing like that!"

"Yes," Gypsy replied. "I think I could. It seems better to me to keep a husband than to try to take someone else's."

Marcia Phillips rose to her feet. Her usual pallor was heightened. The flame-red lips were distorted with anger and her eyes flashed.

"You'll be sorry you said that!" she threatened. "No wonder Jim doesn't care anything about you. You're just a common little nobody, after his money. I had no idea you were so contemptible! Well, you'll have to give him up just the same! You'll see!"

"Gypsy was standing, too now. "If Jim wants me to divorce him," she said evenly, "he'll have to tell me himself. I don't know why you came here but I know it wasn't because Jim told you to. I don't believe he knows anything about it. It seems to me this matter is decided by Jim and me and not for outsiders."

"Oh!" exclaimed Marcia. It seemed as far as vocal powers could carry her. She was half way to the door. Suddenly she turned and glared back at Gypsy. "You think you're so good, don't you? Well, see about that!"

A young woman wearing Marcia's scant garb could scarcely be said to "flounce" from the house and yet that was the impression created as with head high and quick jerking steps, she hurried through the door and down the steps. Gypsy, watching, saw Marcia turn in the direction of Aunt Ellen's cottage.

Slowly Gypsy came back to the living room. It was very warm. She started to pick up the palm leaf fan, then realizing that Marcia had just been in, she dropped it. There was a large square envelope on the table, and this she picked up instead, and brushed it back and forth aimlessly.

There had been times—plenty of them—in Gypsy's comparatively brief life when she had regretted her hasty, impulsive speeches. She was not regretful now. "I'm glad I said it!" she told herself. "I'm glad I said it."

The mending basket lay on one end of theavenport where she had left it. Gypsy sat down beside it. A pair of Jim's socks topped the pile of mending. She thought of that other time months before when Aunt Ellen had ripped out the stitches she had so painstakingly put into another pair. How many socks she had mended since then!

Mechanically she threaded a needle but she did not set to work. "Jim couldn't have known about it!" Gypsy insisted to herself. "He wouldn't do such a thing. I know he wouldn't!" She reviewed the scene with Marcia. It was true, of course, that now the other girl was openly an enemy. What did that matter? "She hated me anyhow," Gypsy thought. "I don't care what she thinks or does. It's only Jim!" Our of such half-hour reverie a new Gypsy came to life. Marcia's antagonism had been the spur to bring about this transformation. She could not give up Jim to such a shallow, selfish creature as Marcia. She looked over the past, weaned and saw her mistakes. How easy she had made it for Marcia! Her own impersonal manner, her feeling that she had no real claim on Jim had provided the opportunity Marcia was watching for.

Oh, but now she understood! Now she would take precautions! Twice that afternoon there were long, serious moments when Gypsy asked herself what she would do if Jim himself came to her and asked for his release. That would be entirely different. That would be—oh, why think about it! Jim would not be such a thing.

That evening she made an effort to look attractive when Jim arrived home. They had dinner served on the screened porch. There were cool drinks and an iced dessert. Gypsy studied Jim's face covertly. "Have you made any more plans for your vacation?" she asked. "Don't you think you really need a doctor?"

He said vaguely that he might take some time off next month. It was out of the question for the present. "Listen, Gypsy," he said, "there's no reason you should stay here scorching just because I must. If you'd like to go up to the lakes for a couple weeks—or some place else if you'd rather—go ahead!"

The girl said quickly that she would rather stay. Somehow Jim's enthusiastic dismissal of her was a little depressing. Later in the evening he spoke of an engagement with some business acquaintance and drove away.

Jim came home to dinner looking worn and weary. Several times he complained of headaches. Gypsy tried to keep the house cool and inviting but there were days when not a breath of wind was stirring. Throughout this ordeal she was fighting to keep up her courage. It was Abbie Manley—Abbie who would never intentionally have harmed anyone—who brought the news that was the last straw for Gypsy.

A DOG AND A BOOK

OMAHA, Neb., May 8. (AP)—What's wrong with this? William J. Hayes has a dog that won't mind. The neighbors complained. William locked the animal up in his automobile in which he left by accident a book of which he was fond. The dog chews up the book. It's title was: "The master revenge."
