SEVEN KILLED IN AIRPLANES

But Hundreds of Ships Fly in Army "War" Without Single Tragedy.

By The Associated Press. Seven persons lost their lives in four airplane accidents yesterday. One was a mail pilot. The others were civilians. Hundreds of army airplanes engaged in maneuvers safely.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., May 25 (AP)—His plane caught in the fury of a post-winter snow storm on the peak of Nittany mountain, near here, Air Mail Pilot James D. Cleveland crashed to his death yesterday while flames from his burning ship, reddening the night sky, signaled attendants awaiting him at a nearby airport.

The pilot's charred body, wedged in the twisted blackened cockpit, was reached five hours later, where the plane crashed after careening 500 feet through boulders and scrub. Its wings torn, its fuselage ripped apart and its gasoline tank shattered by branches of trees.

Cleveland failed by inches to clear the rugged peak, just beyond which lay the Bellefonte airport, his destination, according to airport workers who viewed the scene of the wreck, and who were preparing for Cleveland's landing when they noticed

NEW BIDS ON LOCATION ARE BEING MADE

Price and Location Expected to Be Reconciled Before Two Officials Leave Tuesday Evening.

MINDS ARE OPEN

Propositions Submitted Now to Be Given Same Hearing as Those Already Studied by Visitors.

The difficult task of reconciling some desirable site for the new federal building with an equally acceptable price was being tackled today by W. P. Rider, treasury site agent, and Carl Besserer, postal inspector, from Austin.

More than a dozen interviews had shown that most bids were still higher than the federal men will pay, but some additional propositions submitted today were more promising. Revision of bids already submitted likewise was in process of execution.

Several appropriately priced locations were regarded as rather far from the business district. Others were not in strict conformity with the government specifications. The federal officials were still in a position to receive bids and had not indicated any preference for those already inspected.

It was pointed out that the governmental policy is to be as economical as possible in site purchase in order to put as much money as possible into the public building itself. Inasmuch as the transaction will be cash, and that the city will profit through erection and maintenance of a beautiful building, it is considered that the site price should be on a very reasonable basis.

The visitors likely will leave tomorrow night.

Believe Slaying Involves Evidence Against Killer

LOS ANGELES, May 25 (AP)—Police investigating the slaying of Charles H. Crawford, politician, and Herbert F. Spencer, magazine editor, theorized today that the victim had held affidavits and photographs which would injure the man who killed them.

David H. Clark, former deputy district attorney and now a candidate for municipal judge, who is accused of the slayings, declined to comment, saying he would "talk at the proper time."

A search for June Taylor, underworld character wanted for questioning in the case, continued here and at San Francisco. A woman believed by police to have been June Taylor visited Albert Marco, former Los Angeles underworld boss at San Quentin penitentiary soon after the killings. Marco is serving a term for shooting two men in a beach brawl.

Investigators said Clark, who prosecuted Marco, was lured to a gay party between the time of Marco's first trial, which resulted in a hung jury, and his second hearing. They said they had evidence that photographs were made of Clark thought they were made of himself and women at the party, and that the women made affidavits which might have ruined him politically had they been made public.

The affidavits and pictures, or supposed pictures, were used by Marco, investigators said, in an effort to force him to manipulate the jury panel in a manner favorable to Marco. Superior Judge William Doran said he "didn't like the atmosphere of the Marco case" and dismissed the entire panel. Marco's conviction followed.

Phillips Company Sued by Dale to Recover Damages

A petition asking $83,700 was filed today in the 114th district court by A. C. Dale against the Phillips Petroleum company.

In the petition, Dale alleges that on Aug. 17, 1930, he was charged upon the complaint of the employees of the Phillips Petroleum company with theft of gasoline from a gasoline line leading rack about one mile from Pampa.

Dale further alleges that because of the action of the employees of the Phillips Petroleum company his bond was set at an excessive amount, and that he spent four months in jail before he was able to make the bond. The charges against Dale were dismissed May 5, 1931, because of insufficient evidence.

Dale is asking actual damages of $43,000 to compensate for loss of salary and position as a switchman with the Santa Fe railroad. He is also asking for $40,000 in exemplary damages for loss of reputation.

Uncle Sam Has Drawn Rebuke on Wheat Stand

SOVIET PAPER PUTS U. S. IN VILLAIN ROLE

Canada Also Charged With Plan to Dump Grain on Market; Quota Plan Is Turned Down.

REGRET IS FELT

London Newspaper Believes Export Restriction Would Have Been Help; Sees Some Hope.

MOSCOW, May 25 (AP)—The United States is pictured as the villain of the recent wheat conference at London in today's editorial by the military newspaper Red Star. The Americans, the editorial says, stood firmly against international marketing pools and refused to compromise on acreage reductions, thus ending the conference "without results as had been expected."

"The greed of the capitalists knows no bounds," says the Red Star. "To increase their profits they let millions starve. Soviet Russia was willing to make reasonable compromise but the United States and Canada would consider nothing but their own plan and that plan had to do with dumping huge surpluses in Europe growing countries."

"We were willing to adopt a quota basis but only on the pre-war export figures. No one can say we are over-producing. With the great growth of our urban population we need more bread and our exports have not reached the pre-war basis."

Hunger Is Cited
"The American plan would have meant hunger for the masses and the Soviet Union would not agree to this under any circumstances."

LONDON, May 25 (AP)—The London Times editorially expressed disappointment today that the world grain conference had been forced to adjourn "leaving the problem very much where it was."

The paper said it assumed that prices eventually would be brought back to a remunerative level by growing less wheat but "this natural method of readjustment is expensive to suffering to both producer and consumer."

The most promising plan submitted, in the opinion of the Times, was "the restriction of exports to a mutually agreed quota—a scheme which the delegates of the United States were apparently unable to accept even in principle."

Some Results
"The conference was not entirely fruitless," the Times said, "for the existence of the committee it appointed will keep alive the spirit of cooperation and can hardly fail to lead to some restraint of the excessive unregulated competition which brought the wheat market to its present plight."

CHICAGO, May 25 (AP)—George S. Milnor, general manager of the Farmers' National Grain corporation, said in a statement yesterday that millions of bushels of additional storage facilities provided since last year should prevent any back-up of grain in the summer months. He declared additional five million bushels of storage space has been provided, to which there should be a greatly enlarged capacity available on the farms to aid in carrying for the assumed carryover of 275,000,000 to 300,000,000 bushels, approximately that of last year, and a new crop equal to that of the preceding year.

The Farmers' National Grain corporation's storage space is expected to be well above 20,000,000 bushels, he said, which is greatly in excess of that of last year.

Consumption of Water Is Showing Rapid Increases

Water consumption during this hot weather has increased until the elevated tank downtown holds only enough to last one hour, it was noted today.

The tank holds about 75,000 gallons, while the daily consumption is around one million gallons. The new lawn rate is increasing consumption, accelerating the usual summer gains. The total consumption is expected to reach 1,400,000 gallons.

In the northwestern part of the city is the 150,000-gallon elevated tank.

Trial of Mayor Is Delayed

Mineral Wells Men Will Be Tried October 19 In Liquor Case.

ROBY, May 25 (AP)—Trial of Charlton Brown and T. L. Hemphill, Mineral Wells, was set today for October 19 in 104th district court here. They are under indictment charged with transportation of liquor.

Trial had been set for today, but continuance was granted on motion of the defense, setting out that Brown, who is mayor of Mineral Wells, is ill. The defendants were represented by counsel, not appearing today.

The indictments were returned after an episode of May 13 in which Brown and Hemphill were bruised when their automobile ran into a bar pit on highway 83, in West Roby, while they were en route to Lubbock for the convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. They were arrested after a deputy sheriff said he found three and one-half pints of liquor in the car.

LUBBOCK, May 25 (AP)—Luring a 9-year-old son into a swimming pool in a city park by telling him she saw a pile of money beside the water, Mrs. Thomas L. Simpson, about 40, last night drowned herself after attempting to drown the boy.

Passersby heard the child scream, saw him sink under the water, and rescued him. They did not know a woman was in the pool. Three quarters of an hour elapsed before her body was found.

The boy was unable to talk until revived and taken to a hospital. His half-conscious cries for his mother, who he said was dead, after he had been received at the hospital, led members of the rescue party to return to the pool.

No motive was known today for the woman's act.

She is survived by a husband, the boy and a 14-year-old daughter.

NEW YORK (AP)—Notwithstanding figures, sponsors of an annual count argue that the number of white horses in this town equals the number of red-headed women. Langdon McCormick, playwright, and some friends, in their latest cruise by taxicab, noted only 63 white horses and 20 red-headed women. McCormick reconciled the results with his theory by saying that this year only one woman in four wears her hair so it is visible beneath her hat. Hitherto the figures have coincided.

MELLON AND TAX PLANS

Secretary Andrew Mellon, termed by his friends "the greatest U. S. treasurer since Hamilton," finds his position exceedingly hard to justify in the face of an $800,000,000 deficit.

Lowering of excise taxes, dropping income tax revenue, and vast congressional expenditures have placed Mellon in a tight place. The war taxes were cut off too quickly to prevent interest and principal of the war debts to fall heavily upon the treasury. The huge public building program, launched at President Hoover's behest as an unemployment measure, has added more than $300,000,000 to the treasury load. The veterans compensation bill was another large item.

Chief interest in Mellon's public statements rests in his criticism of the income tax. This objection is that it furnishes revenue in proportion to the incomes of individuals, and that the tax revenues obtained thereby are too uncertain. It is true that the income tax hits heavily at the individual and corporation with more than an average income. It is also true that Mr. Mellon comes within the classification of the enormously wealthy.

From him who hath shall be taken. This is the theory of democratic government. The burden is placed upon those most able to bear it. This is not intended to place a penalty upon owning property, but to equalize the burden of taxation. The income tax is in line with this theory. It takes from those obviously most prosperous. Moreover, when they are not prosperous, less money can be derived from them and the government should economize accordingly. Moreover, the government and individuals should keep a substantial surplus of construction in reserve for emergency use, together with sufficient capital or credit to carry it out.

It may be true that government revenues should be supplemented, but to do away with the income tax at this time would be to strike still harder at the men of small means and relatively restricted ability to pay. Although the income tax fluctuates, so does the pocket book fullness of the nation's citizens.

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON, May 25, (NEA).—The old high protective tariff theory seems to be in more desperate straits than ever before and its enemies think they can knock it in the head before this depression is over.

Anyway, this is the best chance the free traders and advocates of moderate duties have had and now that American foreign trade has dropped off about 50 per cent they are intensifying the attempt to convince the country that the Hawley-Smoot tariff is responsible for a lot of its troubles.

Meanwhile comes Chile's startling suggestion of a Latin-American customs union, following previous proposals for a European customs union. Any such developments, arraying continent against continent, would be bound to have a large although unpredictable effect on the future of our tariff and those of other nations. One of the greatest factors in American industrial progress has been our vast domestic trading area free of tariff walls; smaller countries on other continents envy us that.

No one can now settle the argument as to the relative importance of the Hawley-Smoot act in America's economic troubles but everybody knows that tariffs are barriers to trade. The Democratic publicity bureau has persistently hammered in the charge that a Republican high tariff was very largely responsible for the big foreign trade drop. Republican politicians deny it and say the new tariff has been helpful, if anything. Political exigencies demand that both groups of politicians say what they are saying.

Nevertheless, it has to be pointed out in fairness that opponents of the Hawley-Smoot act predicted in advance that it would wreck foreign trade and that its friends recommended it as a measure to restore prosperity. A thousand economists joined in a warning against it and congress merely sneered at "professors."

Senator Cordell Hull of Tennessee, a fiscal genius who can be depended on to speak as an economist rather than as a Democrat, was predicting six years ago that our high tariffs would "reduce production, diminish trade, impoverish nations and promote economic wars."

Hull has talked like that all along. When he came to Congress 25 years ago Joe Cannon put him on a couple of unimportant committees, but Hull turned deliberately to intensive study of revenue, finance and economics. He introduced the bill for the income and estate taxes, when everyone was convinced that income tax was dead because the supreme court had once called it unconstitutional. The taxation system devised by Hull, put through in the first Wilson administration, largely financed the war.

"One-sixth of our automobiles and parts, worth $580,000,000, were being exported," Hull says. "The industry was one of the big railroad shippers. It took 18 per cent of the plate glass, 90 per cent of our manufactured rubber, most of the oil and gasoline and laid the foundation for our great highway systems by enabling states to lay gasoline taxes. It employed about four and a half million people, directly and indirectly, and spent about six billion dollars a year."

FIFTY-TWO CHILDREN ENROLL FOR VACATION SCHOOL

MISS BURKS IS PRINCIPAL FOR BAPTIST GROUP

Fifty-two boys and girls have enrolled for the Daily Vacation Bible school which is being conducted at the Central Baptist church beginning this morning and continuing for two weeks. Registration and a parade were held by the group on Saturday afternoon.

The school proper was opened with a professional this morning at 8 o'clock and a worship period, conducted by Miss Mary Burks, principal of the school, followed. A music period also was held in which hymns were taught the children.

Those attending then were separated into four departments, beginners, primary, junior, and intermediate, and the morning's activities proceeded as follows: Hand-work period, notebook period, character story, games, habit story, recess, lunch period, Bible story period, Bible drills, and announcements.

During the lunch period, milk, furnished by the Taylor Farm dairy, and crackers, furnished by the workers, are served each day to beginners at 9:30 o'clock and to primaries at 10 o'clock.

Children interested would still be given an opportunity to enroll for the school. Commencement will be held on the evening of June 5 at 8 o'clock in the church building. At that time, a demonstration of the work accomplished will be given, and certificates will be presented. The hours are 8 to 11 o'clock.

Workers for the school include the following: Beginners, Mrs. J. M. White, superintendent, Mrs. D. L. Lunsford, Mrs. T. M. Gillham, and Mrs. Wooley; primary, Mrs. G. D. Holmes, superintendent, and Mrs. Walter Kirbie, teacher; junior, Mrs. G. C. Stark, superintendent, Mrs. E. V. Davis, teacher, and Miss Louie Barton, pianist; intermediate, Mrs. Ray R. Young men in the Centaur club entertained with a dinner dance at the Hilton hotel Thursday evening. Two new members were introduced.

D. F. D. club members entertained with a dawn dance at the Hilton hotel Friday morning. There were about 45 persons for the early breakfast and about 70 others for the dance.

The final all-college dance for the current term was given Saturday evening at the college gymnasium.

Terrace Over Garage in This Plan

Shown here is an interesting two-level plan in which a terrace over the garage adds greatly to both the beauty and the comfort of the home.

By providing seven rooms and a garage in an area 28, by 45 feet, this house offers a good example of practical modern architecture. It is planned for a lot of two levels, as indicated, in which case the top of the garage forms a terrace over the living room, but the design may be adapted to a level lot.

The exterior building material finish is stucco in some suitable warm but faint tinting, such as light coral or a pale tone of yellow ochre. Window frames in red, violet purple or a shiny black would be attractive in the modern manner and contrast effectively with the wall material. Other combinations may suggest themselves.

The overhanging second floor bedroom forms a covering at the entrance and becomes an interesting feature of the house. Another novel point of interest is the two-story window in the stair hall, which provides abundant light.

With its large window area and one side sheltered by an awning over the terrace, the living room should be a very attractive place, large and airy. Between the fireplace and one wall there may be bookshelves or perhaps a long seat.

Passing upstairs with a glance at the convenient kitchen and dining room arrangement, one enters a hall, into which the four upstairs bedrooms open. Three of these have exposures on two sides and the two bathrooms are conveniently located.

If built on a level lot the garage may be moved up one floor, providing a terrace for the second floor. But since this construction would cut off some of the light and air from the living room, perhaps a wispr compromise in that case would be to erect the garage apart from the house.

A lot 75 by 100 feet would be desirable. The cost is estimated at $5,000 to $7,000, subject to the usual local variations.

Brunk's Trial in Second Week at Jefferson City

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 25. (AP)—The second week of the impeachment trial in the Missouri senate of Larry Brunk, state treasurer, accused of misappropriating state funds, began today with S. L. Cantley, state finance commissioner on the witness stand. Cantley served as acting-treasurer from Oct. 14 last, when Brunk was first suspended by Gov. Caulfield, until Dec. 31, last, when the state supreme court ruled unconstitutional the statute under which he was suspended.

QUIET REIGNS IN PENAL FARM

VANDALIA, Ill., May 25. (AP)—Quiet was restored today at the state penal farm here where 600 prisoners rioted yesterday, burning several buildings and wounding four men, and national guardsmen were ordered home.

Col. Frank Whipp, superintendent of state prisons, said he expected no more trouble. Four prisoners, whose failure to escape started the rioting, were held in the county jail. Three of them were wounded. Another prisoner, Clifford Ikes, was hit by a stray bullet. Superintendent C. A. Metzger of the farm said Ikes had no part in the jail break attempt.

Her Age?

Eighteen or thirty-five... each is a reasonable guess. Decidedly different, however, is Georgette's prescribed treatment for club women and for debutante. Thirty-five requires remedial courses which are superficial for eighteen. Specially adapted beauty courses for each age are further modified to suit individual requirements... hence at the Georgette Shoppe you get, not shop-practice, but specialized service.

CHANGES IN TEXAS LEAGUE STANDING BECOMES RARE

CATS HOLDING ON TO THE LEAD OF 4 GAMES

Exporters Beat Houston and Take Clean Claim to Second Place.

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer.
It is getting to be a difficult proposition to make a switch in the first division standing of the Texas league pennant marathon. Fort Worth insists on holding their four-game lead. Beaumont continues to stay a game in front of Houston, and Dallas continues to retain fourth place, pressing Houston for third place.

The Exporters accomplished a couple of things Sunday that probably made Del Baker feel proud of his boys. In the first place, Manager Baker's Exporters defeated Houston 3 to 2 to take a full game lead for second place. Second, they handed Dizzy Dean his second defeat this season. Dizzy, who won flight straight after returning from the Cardinals, has lost his last two starts, one to Fort Worth and one to Beaumont.

Jake Atzis Shreveport Sports invaded Wichita Falls with plenty of hits in their bats. Featured by home runs by Winegarner, third baseman, and Geygan, second baseman, the Sports trimmed the Spudgers, 8 to 5. Oscar Turo, whose spittball won twenty games for Shreveport last season, went the route against the Spudgers.

Playing at Galveston, the San Antonio Indians put a couple of wins to their credit by defeating the Pirates, 2 to 0, and 2 to 0. In the opener, the Buccaneers were held to four hits by Hobo Carson. In the nightcap, Flynn allowed Galveston three hits.

Defeated Saturday by Dallas, the Fort Worth Cats returned to their own park and whipped the Steers, 6 to 4. Henry Hardaway, who has been warming the Fort Worth bench, was called into action, and stopped the Steers' winning streak of four straight.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press.
Silar Johnson, Reds—Held Cardknot to six hits, outpitched Burleigh Grimes, and won 3-2.
Lloyd Warner, Pirates—Collected four hits off Cub pitching as Pirates won, 10-7.
Jimmy Fox and Max Bishop, Athletics—Their home runs aided in defeat of Yankees.
Mickey Finn, Robins—Singled in tenth to drive in run that beat Phillies.
Ed Brandt, Braves—Blanked Giants with four hits for seventh straight win.
George Coekin, Browns—Founded Tiger pitching for two doubles, home run and four singles in double header.
Pat Caraway, White Sox—Held Indians to five hits and beat them, 3-2.

Hack Wilson Is Moved to Bench

CHICAGO, May 25. (AP)—For the first time since he became a Cub regular, Hack Wilson, home run champion of the major leagues last season, has been benched for a reason other than injury.
Wilson, who has batted out only two home runs this season and whose batting is only 256 compared to his finishing mark of 356 in 1930, yesterday was relegated to the bench by Rogers Hornsby in an effort to add power to the Cub attack. Hornsby had not said Wilson would not be in the ball game when the club opens in Cincinnati Tuesday, but indicated the pudgy slugger would rest for several days.
It was reported while the Cubs were in New York that Wilson was to be removed from the lineup and he did remain out for a day. However, Hornsby denied Hack had been set down for any reason except an injury to a finger. He also denied there was friction between himself and Wilson, and has continued to deny it.

Kirkland Case Near Conclusion

VALPARAISO, Ind., May 5. (AP)—The Virgil Kirkland murder trial entered its third and final week today.
By Wednesday the ex-football player expected to know whether a jury deems him guilty or innocent of the death of Arlene Draves at a Gary, Ind., party last November.
The battery of attorneys marshaled for the trial had been allotted all of today and most of tomorrow to present closing arguments. The jurors were to receive the case by tomorrow night.
It was the defense contention that Kirkland had not attacked the girl; that he had not struck her or mistreated her.
The prosecution held to its charge that blows and an attack by the youth caused Arlene's death.
The argument culminated nearly six months of tense uncertainty for Kirkland. He has been in jail since November. He was tried once and convicted of the slaying. Then the judge reversed the verdict and forced a new trial.

Queen Helen to Be Exiled Soon

BUCHAREST, Rumania, May 25. (AP)—Queen Helen, estranged wife of King Carol and mother of Crown Prince Michael, has been expelled from the royal family.
The newspaper Patria, official organ of the Zaranist party, reveals that a decree is being drafted for submission to the new parliament confirming her exclusion and stating she is no longer entitled to the rights and honors accorded royalty.
War Minister Strophanes already has issued to the army an order, authorized by Premier Jorga, forbidding observance of the queen's saint day next Thursday.
Parliament is expected to adopt the measure as soon as it assembles and Queen Helen will leave the country permanently soon thereafter, terminating her uncertain marital status of more than two years.
Helen divorced Carol while he was in exile in 1928 with Mile. Magda Lupescu. When he made a dramatic, flying return to Bucharest last year, she spurned his overtures (except a reconciliation and steadfast refusal to be crowned with him. She recently visited King Alexander of Yugoslavia, her brother-in-law, at which time, it is believed, her exile was arranged.

NACOGDOCHES, May 25. (AP)—Dan Byrnes, 19, was shot and seriously injured last night at Attoyac, a small community 20 miles east of Nacogdoches. Wilburn Martin, a bystander, also was wounded. Eugene Rhodes surrendered to officers after the shooting and was released under a $1,000 bond.

YOUNGSTERS WILL DEFEND NET LAURELS

American Zone Must Be Defended in Capitol As Argentina Challenges.

NEW YORK, May 25. (AP)—With the North American zone title safely tucked away, the United States' youthful Davis Cup tennis team turned its attention today to the battle with Argentina, South American zone champions, at Washington Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Although definite nominations will not be made for several days, it is expected that Frank Shields and Sidney B. Wood, Jr., both of New York, will carry the entire burden in the inter-zone clash with Argentina. These youngsters played singles and doubles in the four to one victory over Canada in the North American zone final completed at Montreal yesterday.

Shields was the outstanding player at Montreal. Not only did he win both his singles matches, defeating Dr. Jack Wright, 8-6, 6-2, 6-2, and Marcel Rainville, 6-1, 6-4, 6-1, but he played a dominating part in the doubles match which the two New York youngsters won in straight sets, 6-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Wood, after dropping his first singles match to Rainville, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4, and failing to play up to form in the doubles, came back in smashing fashion yesterday to clinch the series with an 8-6, 6-4, triumph over Wright.

Cliff Sutter of New Orleans and Gregory Mangin of Newark, N. J., other members of the squad, took no part in the series but did conquer Gilbert S. Nunn and Walter Martin in an exhibition doubles match.

INDIANS AND TIGERS FIGHT FOR BOTTOM

Ted Lyons Wins Although He Allows 3 More Hits Than Brown.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.
Only a game and a half separates the Tigers and the trailing Indians. Detroit was down in the second division for a while yesterday after losing the first game of a double header to the St. Louis Browns, but came back by winning the second. The Tigers lost the first, 10-3, but won the second 3 to 1.

The Chicago White Sox are even with Detroit in games but a few points behind after a double victory over Cleveland. The Indians, who broke their 12-game losing streak Saturday, fell right back into it when they faced the Lyons and Pat Caraway. Lyons won the first game, 1-3, beating Clint Brown, although he allowed three more hits, and Caraway outpitched Fay Thomas, granting only five hits for a 3-2 victory.

The Athletics continued their runaway, beating New York 7 to 3. Babe Ruth and Jimmy Fox hit the only home runs behind the line. It was the 15th straight victory for the A's and the fifth in a row for Rube Wauer. Washington placed itself only half a game behind the Yanks by beating out Boston 10 to 9 after holding off a Red Sox rally that put the tying run on base in the ninth.

Pittsburgh's Pirates brought about the only change in the National league standing, climbing over the Chicago Cubs into fourth place with a 10 to 7 victory.

Cincinnati after losing 18 straight games to St. Louis in two seasons, finally stepped out and won one. They took the first game of a double headed 3-2 in a mound duel between St. Johnson and Burling Crimes, but they could not hold the pace and lost the second 13-6.

New York and Boston said it with bats in the first game and with pitchers in the second. The Giants pounded out a 10-7 triumph in the opener as Will Sherdel weakened in the ninth inning when Ed Brandt batted Fred Fitzsimmons in a six-inning duel to win 2 to 0.

The Phillies got the jump on Brooklyn but could not hold it. The Robins came behind to tie the score in the ninth inning then won out 6-5 in the tenth on Gilbert's double and Finn's single off Ray Bengt.

WEST ENTERS EAST TOURNEY ON JUNE 5, 6

Middle Section To Welcome Stiff Competition From California Teams.

By WILLIAM WEEKES
Associated Press Sports Writer.
CHICAGO, May 25. (AP)—The greater success of California athletes in the annual I. C. Four-A track and field championships at Philadelphia, the better midwestern enthusiasts who are looking forward to the National Collegiate association meet June 5-6 will like it.

Southern California, favorite to retain the I. C. A. A. title, will step at Chicago to defend the championship it won last year, and the other two California entrants, Stanford and the University of California, are expected to enter stars to compete against the best Big Ten, Big Six, and Central association groups have to offer.

The better the coast teams do, the better will be the competition in the N. C. A. meet, for eastern institutions have not given the latter event much of a tumble.

Wisconsin finally broke the Illinois-Michigan grip on the Big Ten track situation Saturday, winning the event with 46 points. The outstanding performance of the meet was provided by Lee Sentman, Illinois crack hurdler, who regained his form in time to defeat Jack Heller of Ohio State, in the high hurdles, and equal the world mark of 14.4 set by Earl Thompson of Dartmouth, in 1920. Keller, however, partly evened it up by winning the lows in 23.5.

In the Big Six events Gridley of Kansas flashed over the hard hurdles in 23 seconds event, to tie the world record set by Charlie Brookins of Iowa, while Bob Hager of Iowa State did the highs in 14.5, a tenth of a second away from the world mark.

The outstanding accomplishment of the Central association games at Milwaukee Friday night was the 9:18.3 for the two-mile run by Clark Chamberlain of Michigan State college.

Helen Moody Not To Enter Meet

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25. (AP)—The English tennis championships at Wimbledon will be played this year without Mrs. Helen Wills Moody.
She announced her inability to enter the international event after a family conference yesterday. "I greatly regret I will be unable to go to Wimbledon," Mrs. Moody said, "but I feel I would be away from home too long. I do hope to be able to compete next year, however."

Besides reiterating her denial of sacrificing her amateur standing to make a series of instructional motion pictures, Mrs. Moody said she would attend the Wimbledon Cup tournament between English and American women stars as well as the American national tournament at Forest Hills, N. Y., in August.

Under the direction of Howard Kinsey, former amateur star and now instructor here, Mrs. Moody has practiced regularly this year. Kinsey said she was in the peak of form and had corrected and strengthened her chop stroke.

Honduran Revolt Being Put Down

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, May 25. (AP)—The Honduran high command forecasts the beginning of the end of the revolution today on the strength of what it described as a crushing victory over a branch of the rebel army near Tela.

The government announced that General Francisco Valladares routed the insurgent forces Saturday at Las Palmas, about five miles from Tela. Numerous casualties were inflicted and they fled to the nearby hills. The engagement lasted nine hours, ending with the battlefield covered with bodies.

Sinclair Surprises Us
Harry Sinclair, who owned Zev, leading money winner of all time until Gallant Fox came along, thinks Twenty Grand is "a fine horse". When Twenty Grand won the Derby in 2:01 4-5 we began to suspect that very thing, too. Mr. Sinclair confirms the opinions of only about 60,000,000 people who are aware that there is such a horse as Twenty Grand.

Can Such Things Be?
Art Delvin, scout for the Giants, was talking the other day, using his hat as a microphone. "When the spittball first came in to use," spake Art, "every pitcher who couldn't use it was faking it. One day Hub Purdue fanned Fred Markle four times in a row and Markle said: 'Watch that guy's spittball. It's unhittable!'"

"Well, Purdue wasn't using a spittball at all. He was faking it and fanning Markle on a fast ball that Fred would have murdered if he hadn't been thinking of the new spittball."

GROCER BADLY HURT
HOUSTON, May 25. (AP)—Accidentally shot while hunting yesterday, W. E. Hughes, 31, a grocery manager, was in a critical condition at a hospital today. He was wounded when a 12-gauge shotgun was discharged as Jack Talkington, 28, was placing it in a crabbar, C. B. Reich, third of the hunters, furnished blood for a transfusion but doctors doubted Hughes would recover.

Poor Old Omerby!
Cleveland felt sorry for Umpire Red Omerby a year ago when he was beamed by a pop bottle in a demonstration that the antics of another umpire started. But Cleveland felt very vexed with Mr. Omerby the other day when Red missed a decision at first base and called an Indian runner out when Jimmy Fox caught a ball three feet away from the bag. Scribes the next day declared Omerby could not possibly have seen the play because his eyes were filled with dirt kicked up by the player sliding to first.

Omerby steadfastly refused to call a conference of his fellow umpires on the play, which led the local scribes to hazard the assertion that it may have been Omerby's heart, rather than his eyes, that contained the dirt.

The Shell Remains
Bill Tilden didn't look his years in any of his victories over Karl Kozeluh or Vincent Richards. He seemed to have everything. Cannonball servist, Cunning Strategy. Perfect placements. Amazing recoveries.

Everything? Yes, everything but youth. Everything he needed to beat Cochet, Dog and the others, except that sweet warm spark. Tilden seemed to have everything against Kozeluh and Richards. But he could beat those fellows without turning on the power. They did not put him on a spot where he had to depend upon speed and dash. He won without vitality.

Victorious over the formidable English team of Fred Perry and G. P. Hughes yesterday, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 7-5, Lott and Van Ryn need only to dispose of N. G. Farguason and V. Kirby of South Africa to win the title held last year by Henri Cochet and Jacques Brugnon. Cochet's illness forced the withdrawal of the defending champions this year.

Yesterday's play, before a crowd of 4,000, afforded Betty Nuthall an opportunity to share in her second title in as many days. She and P. D. B. Spence of South Africa defeated Mrs. Shepherd Barron and H. W. (Bunny) Austin, 6-3, 5-7, 6-3, in the mixed doubles final. Saturday Betty and Eileen Bennett Whittingstall won the women's doubles.

In singles, Van Ryn, Jean Borotra of France, George De Stefanis of Italy, H. Satoh of Japan, Baron Von Kurling of Hungary, and Herman Arrens all chalked up victories.

You'll call Pontiac the happy medium . . . quality you won't do without, at a cost you can easily pay

It isn't difficult to learn what most people want in a motor car. We all want pretty much the same fine qualities—and we want them at a moderate price.

You will find this combination in the Pontiac—that fine General Motors car. Thus, if it's a damp day when you first drive a Pontiac you will notice how snug and dry it is inside. The same with heat, cold and traffic noise—because Pontiac's fine Fisher bodies are tightly insulated.

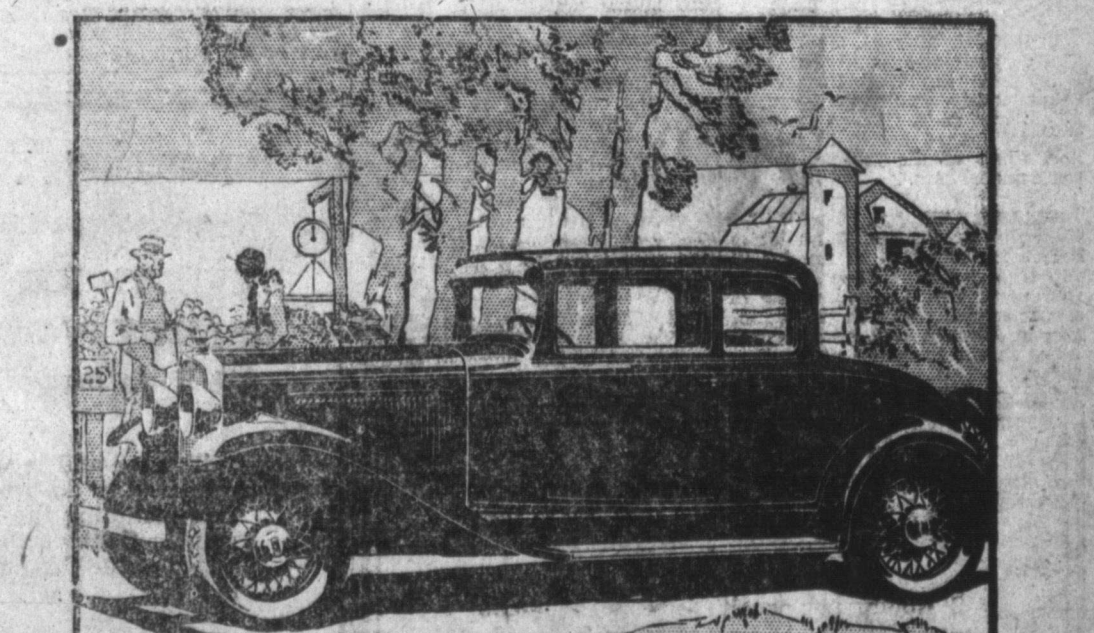

Appreciating the comfortable seats, you will remark also the absence of road shocks. This is due to hydraulic shock absorbers and rubber cushioning at 43 points in the chassis.

When you first step inside the Pontiac you will see something unusual—genuine mohair or whipcord upholstery in the closed cars; fine leathers in open models.

Even though you feel that most cars have satisfactory engines, you will be surprised at the smoothness with which Pontiac's engine does its work. As you drive you will admire the quick pick-up and power of that big, easy-working motor.

Good looks? Smartness? We can leave the proof to remarks you will hear and the approving glances you will see! (Bodies by Fisher.)

Possibly we are prejudiced—yet owners praise this car more than we would dare to. The values they have discovered will be clear to you once you have driven the Pontiac. Why not do that! Any Oakland-Pontiac dealer will arrange a demonstration.

THE MELODY GIRL
 by RUTH DEWEY GROVES

BEGIN HERE TODAY
 Beryl Borden, secretly in love with Tommy Wilson, discovers that he is planning to elope with her half-sister, Irene, Everet.
 Beryl and her "gang" kidnap Tommy and take him into the country where she urges him to continue in college and not break the heart of his aunt, Mrs. Hoffman, who is financing him. Failing to convince him, Beryl lets Tommy return to her sister, Irene, engaged at the long wait, refuses to listen to his explanation and postpones the elopement.
 Next day Tommy goes fishing with his uncle and is surprised to find Beryl and her gang at the beach. One of the boys, Angie, slips away from her, goes into the water and is carried out by the tide. They search frantically and then Beryl sees Tommy swimming to shore with a burden. She swims out and helps him bring Angie in, and then goes for a doctor.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER V
 It seemed as though she waited for help but in reality it was not more than 20 minutes before the officer returned, followed by a physician in a new coupe. Without thought of damage to the upholstery Beryl hurriedly took a seat in it. Her hair had dried but her bathing suit still held considerable moisture. Just when and where she had discarded her beach robe she did not remember. The doctor was as oblivious to possible damage to his property as she.

"Which way?" he asked tersely.
 "First turn to the right."
 He drove with the fullest exercise of his right to speed while Beryl sat beside him in silent gratitude that he knew no timidity. But little was required of them when they reached the scene of the accident. Tommy had brought Angie round and except that he was suffering from the effects of submersion he was no worse for his experience.
 The doctor ordered him taken home and put to bed. Beryl suggested that she send a check to the doctor for his medical services and he gave her his name and address.

Tommy sniffed when the doctor, a nice looking young man, had left them. "A check! You mean a post-office money order."
 "What's the difference?" Beryl retorted, and then: "Say, how are we going to get home?" She looked at Tommy blankly.
 "Here comes a guy who'll tell you," Tommy answered, eyeing the approach of the motorcycle officer. "I'd have been here sooner," he explained with a firm look for Beryl, "if somebody hadn't turned all the lunatics loose today. Well, here's the kid who spoke up with a touch of pride. He's all right," he declared. He was beginning to like the special attention he was receiving.
 "How'd it happen?" the officer inquired.

It was Tommy who answered him. "A sea kitty got him."
 "What's that?"
 "A whirlpool or waterspout without the spout or something like that," Tommy explained. "They're said to swim out of it if you lose your head. The kid here had got out in deep water and the kitty was bringing him back to shore but it was too far for him. I saw him go down and guessed he had enough water in his lungs then to hold him under. I wasn't so far away but I had to do some diving to find him. Miss Borden," he turned to Beryl, "brought him in."

PAMPA DAILY NEWS
 THE MELODY GIRL
 by RUTH DEWEY GROVES

Tommy realized that somehow he had muffed his chance to lecture her.
 "You'd better give these kids something to eat," he said gruffly, and sat down to amuse himself by flicking pebbles over the water. It had always been like that, he told himself, resentfully. You couldn't get anywhere with Beryl Borden.
 Beryl sighed. It seemed that Tommy was always on hand to share her big moments, but they were never harmonious. What a pity. As she helped the boys get the lunch spread she frequently stole surreptitious glances at Tommy's back and wished he'd be more friendly. There was such a nice back yard—Beryl Borden, you ought to be ashamed of yourself! she thought. Lately, "getting a thrill over a man's back. And Tommy isn't even a man—he's only a sappy kid."

She resolved to ignore him, and did while she looked after Angie. They'd rubbed him well and then wrapped him in the various assortment of beach wraps they had among them. He was stretched out now of warm sand "to dry," as Beryl told him. And he was to lie quiet until he "was brittle." The doctor had given him something for the inside of him and he wasn't having such a bad time even though he wasn't fed.
 Before the others ate Beryl said to him quietly: "You don't mind, do you, old man? You know I hate to impose upon you but it would be a shame to deny the others, wouldn't it? I'll keep you company and give my share to Tommy."
 The spirit of sacrifice flamed high in Angie's breast. "Don't you do anything of the kind; you eat if yourself," he protested. "Guests you brought enough for him too, and I'm no cry baby."
 "That's right," said a not. Beryl answered, with a pat on his shoulder. "You're a real man, Angie."
 She offered him a drink of water but he made a face and shook his head. Then, having done all she could for Angie, she found herself unable to keep her mind off Tommy. He was taking no part in the preparations for lunch, but still sat, spinning his pebbles. She guessed that he was thinking of Irene, and again she resolved not to give him another thought.
 But presently she went over to him and offered him a sandwich. Tommy, unlike Angie, felt no call to martyrdom. He took the sandwich with a brief "Thanks."
 Beryl sat down beside him. She hated herself for the weakness but it was seldom she had a chance to sit beside Tommy nowadays, and if she covered her action with a quarrel he wouldn't suspect her real feelings, she told herself.

 "I suppose," she began, "that you think you're a hero and I'm a fool. Well, you'll be a hero, all right, in the eyes of Angie's parents, but don't think you did any more than anyone who could swim would have done. As a matter of fact what you did wasn't so much, aside from its importance. You're a good swimmer and you know it. A kid in Angie's condition couldn't hamper you much."
 Tommy turned and looked at her. "Give me another sandwich," he said placidly, "and don't talk so much."
 Beryl jumped to her feet and turned her back on him. An angry retort trembled on her lips but she saw the absurdity of giving utterance to it. Tommy had no use for her whatever she did or said. Tears of humiliation smarted for release behind her eyelids which she held tightly lowered for a few seconds while she wondered which would mean the most or tell the least—to give him the sandwich or to ignore his request for it.
 She hadn't made up her mind before one of the boys shouted: "Look! Here comes your car, Miss Beryl."
