WASHINGTON'S TRAVELS—ALL IN ONE DAY

To read that Major James H. Doolittle, the speed flier, took a great-grandview of George Washington up in the air and in one day flew her over all the ground that Washington covered in his whole life, is to realize just how amazingly the world has been shrinking during the past century.

We ordinarily look back on the infant United States as a very small nation. From the standpoint of population, wealth and power it undoubtedly was small—pitifully so.

Washington was probably about as well-traveled a man as Eighteenth Century America possessed. He had been up the northeast coast as far as Kittery, Me.; he had been south as far as North Carolina; he had covered the middle Atlantic territory pretty thoroughly; he had been as far west as Ohio.

And now we have his great-grandniece, piloted by one of the nation's most famous aviators, duplicating all of his travels in the space between sunrise and sunset.

Ohio is closer to Mount Vernon than the Shenandoah Valley was in Washington's time. California is closer to New York than Boston was then. To get as far from the center of American life today as Washington got when he went down the Ohio river a man would have to go to the headwaters of the Amazon—and even then the parallel would fail if he went by airplane.

All of this, of course, is a commopnplace. We know full well that distance has been annihilated, that our sprawling nation today is infinitely more compact than the smaller country of Washington's day. But usually we fail to appreciate it. We don't realize how fast events have moved.

THAT LIQUOR PROBLEM

It begins to look like something more or less drastic is about to be done to the national prohibition law.

The incoming administration rode to power on a platform which demanded repeal. Surveys show an overwhelming majority in the new house, and indicate a strong preponderance of wet sentiment in the new senate.

The question at issue, then, seems to be, not whether revision is to be made, but what sort of revision we are going to get.

And as the time for such revision approaches there is danger that the nation as a whole will overlook two things:

First, that the Eighteenth amendment was passed largely because certain real abuses which cried to heaven for correction existed under the old license system.

Second, that the revival of wet sentiment has come about chiefly because other abuses, crying for correction, arose under national prohibition.

It is of the profoundest importance that whatever solution is reached be of a kind that will apply some corrective to both classes of abuses.

No one who lived through the old, pre-prohibition days needs to be told that the shameful greed of the liquor interests in those days was a force that worked directly against the public interest.

Scanning New Books

By JOHN SELBY. NEW YORK—After ten years' separation Dinny Charrrel and that Desert boy run smack into each other near Victoria station. And there begins another Gaisworthy novel, called for some (doubtless) complex reason "Flowering Wilderness."

Spinoza Again. After a long rest, Baruch Spinoza has been taken from the philosopher's closet and dusted off twice lately. The first was in Lewis Brown's biography, now comes the vehement Benjamin de Casseres with "Spinoza (Liberator of God and Man)." Incidentally de Casseres claims descent from Spinoza.

Mr. de Casseres' vehemence is of course too familiar to require elaboration. It does two things for Spinoza, however. It suddenly pitches him into the middle of living things as someone to be fought for. And it steps up the Spinoza pronouncements to a buzzing and spluttering 30,000 volts when in the original they manage quite well enough at about 110.

Probably the Good Baruch would be more astonished than anybody else to find the air filled with his nephew's (nine removed) publish epithets.

Jeffre, And Others. Marshal Jeffre, in two volumes of "Personal Memoirs," expounds his private thesis on the war and its conduct thereof; the book is informative, hardly thrilling. Nor is the unusually honest biography of David Hume, the philosopher (philosophers are popular lately), thrilling. Yet certainly in "David Hume" J. Y. T. Greig has done English letters a great service in evaluating the man against his true background.

HOOKS and SLIDES by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

Yes, Spears is Back. In the five years during which Dr. "Fat" Spears coached football teams at the University of Minnesota, the Gophers never lost a game to Wisconsin. Now that Dr. "Fat" Spears is coaching at Wisconsin, maybe the Gophers will not win any more games from the Badgers.

But So Different! The Wisconsin team he put on the field this year, after he had been absent for a couple of years at Oregon, was almost the same club, so far as personnel was concerned, as the team that went nowhere last year. The difference was that this year's team seems to know what it's all about. It is a fine blocking team with a strong line, and it is well grounded in what the boys call the fundamentals.

"The Trouble Shooter." He was an excellent blocker himself, and his Wisconsin team of this year shows that he has been able to pass on his talents to a sick Gopher. Spears started coaching at Dartmouth shortly after the war, with Major Cavannah, and the major was a pretty good man from whom to learn. When Cavannah left, Spears succeeded to the coaching, Dartmouth, which has been wondering when another great team was coming along, immediately found itself with one on its hands. When Spears left for a job at West Virginia, New England football people were not noticed lamenting in the public places.

Gopher Convalesces. He went to Minnesota in 1925 to apply his nostrums to a sick Gopher. And the Gopher got so well that it won 26 games against nine lost and three tied in the five years of his stewardship.

Wisconsin is said to have offered the doctor $10,000 per year for treatments of his marple and football fundamentals. So he just packed up and came back to the Big Ten this year. And, as you may have noticed, he really is back.

Oklahoma Has 25th Birthday

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 17. (AP) A lusty young state of twenty-five years, Oklahoma took a bow yesterday as Sooners celebrated the silver jubilee of statehood. Just 25 years ago, President Roosevelt signed the document which made a state of Oklahoma and Indian territories. Now, as then, a symbolic marriage ceremony was a part of the celebration. Gen. R. A. Sneed, secretary of state and confederate veteran, will act as "Mr. Oklahoma." Mrs. Warren Butz, of Muskogee, who was "Miss Indian Territory" twenty-five years ago, again will play the role.

INDIANS' POWERHOUSE TEAM IS WORRYING HARVESTERS

VISITORS DUE TO SURPRISE GRIDIRON FANS

QUANAH EXPECTED TO GIVE PAMPANS HARD STRUGGLE

The Harvesters will have the services of all players with the exception of Dick Sullivan and Mike Marshall when they meet the big Quannah Indians here Saturday afternoon. The game should be one of the classics of the season.

Many fans do not realize that Quannah, though a small city, has one of the best high school football teams in this section. The team lost only one game this season and that to Vernon, district winner. In Jones Quannah has a fullback of all-district caliber and there are a couple of linemen who are being watched with considerable interest.

Coaches Mitchell and Fox have not been working their charges hard this week because of the cold weather, which is anything but satisfactory for four bad ankles and one sore knee. The boys went thru a light practice in the gymnasium yesterday afternoon, but are scheduled to work at Harvester park this afternoon, with a light signal practice tomorrow.

No starting line-up has been named. It is probable that a big change will be made for the starting of the game in order to save the cripples. For basketball, which will start next week unless a post season game is scheduled with Slaton. The Bulldogs, who withdrew from class A football, are anxious to test their strength against the Harvesters.

Quannah backs have scored 203 points in five games this season, which is twice as many as the Harvesters have registered in seven games. The team boasts a sensational running attack mixed with an aerial offensive which has been responsible for many touchdowns.

The Harvesters know they will be up against a tough proposition and are taking the game seriously. They are eager to close the 1932 season with a victory.

Texas Company Bowlers at Top

The Texas company stands on top of the City League bowling heap with the Kiwanis No. 2 and the Voss Cleaners tied for second place. The Jaycees are on the third rung.

Places will change tonight when the Kiwanis No. 1 and the Jaycees meet on alleys 1 and 2 and the Phillips and Voss Cleaners roll on the other two alleys.

The Jaycees and the Texas company have each rolled three games more than the other teams but the difference will be evened up soon. The difference was the result of two teams entering late.

The standing:

Cubs Need Heavy Hitting Fielder

CHICAGO, Nov. 17. (AP)—All Charlie Grimm, manager of Chicago's Cubs, wants for a Christmas present is a heavy hitting outfielder, whom he will satisfy with the present lineup and expect to stand pat on it next season except that he would be tickled to get a real heavy hitting outfielder.

Manager Grimm said during a brief visit to Cub headquarters. "Give me a heavy hitting outfielder for Christmas in all a tick."

The Cubs have been trying to land "Chuck" Klein of the Phillies for sometime without success.

Levinsky to Meet Carnera on Nov. 30

CHICAGO, Nov. 17. (AP)—King Levinsky and Primo Carnera will meet in a ten round match of fistfighting at the Chicago stadium November 30, after all.

The huge Italian's management accepted several days ago, but Mrs. Lora Levy, Levinsky's sister and manager, balked at terms until last night. The meeting will be their second, Carnera having won a close decision a year ago.

Herber Seems to Be Best Pinner

NEW YORK, Nov. 17. (AP)—When Arnold (Flash) Herber of the Green Bay Packers, snaps his arm back to throw a forward pass, the odds are better than even money the toss will be completed.

National professional football league statistics reveal that Herber has thrown 35 passes of which 20 have been completed, five of them for touchdowns. His closest rivals, Earl (Dutch) Clark of Portsmouth and Benny Friedman of Brooklyns, have completed 18 in 40 attempts.

Herber also leads in punting with an average of better than 46 yards. Clark is the leading ground-gainer with 419 yards.

LIST RECORDS IN OLYMPICS

Asks A. A. U. to Recognize 244 Marks Made During Games.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17. (AP)—Satisfaction of the performance which thrilled spectators at the track and field events at the Olympic games last summer, along with a score of Olympic swimming feats, and numerous other athletic performances by men and women, ranging from world record sets to national championship marks and "noteworthy performances" for record recognition by the Amateur Athletic Union.

In all, applications for the recognition of 244 marks have been received by the A. A. U. record committee and compiled for presentation at the union's 44th annual convention which will be held here next week.

Among the performers are listed Eddie Tolson's great 10.3 seconds for the 100 meters, and his 300 meter mark of 21.2, the best ever recorded running around a turn; Bill Carr's 46.2 400-meters; Bill Miller's pole vault of 14 feet, 1.7-3 inches, and Jim Bausch's remarkable decathlon of 8462.235 points.

All these, along with several made by foreign competitors at the Olympics and a large block made in other competitions, are better than the accepted world records, but they cannot be listed as such until passed upon by the international federation. The A. A. U. can give recognition only for American records.

Although the masculine athletes, under the competitive stimulus of the Olympic year, outdid the women by a wide margin in the number of record performances, Eleanor Holm, New York swimmer, led all the rest in the individual feats. She has applied for 14 new records, one more than Leo Sexton, shot putter, who also holds from New York. Two more swimmers, Clarence "Buster" Crabbe of Los Angeles and Helen Madison of Seattle, are next in line with nine and eight respectively.

PIGSKIN DOINGS

By H. E. H.

Much can be said about the proposed change in the eight-semester rule which will be adopted for high school football in Texas. It is proposed to make the rule read: "A student entering his fourth year of high school will be eligible to compete in high school athletics the following year, unless he has had four years of competition." This rule in question reads that a student with more than eight semesters in high school will be ineligible to compete in high school athletics during his future semesters which along with the rule which bars a student from participating in athletics for one year after he transfers, makes high school athletics go unrestricted. Pupils are being graduated into high school when they are little more than infants, and they are too small and inexperienced to take part in athletics until their junior or senior year. With the eight-semester rule in effect it would mean that such a student would be able to take part in high school athletics only one or two years, even though he couldn't graduate his fourth year because of failing in some subjects, due to early graduation.

Pampa, being a fast growing city, felt the sting of the one-year transfer rule more than most places. Many boys transferred to Pampa schools during the year and they cannot take part in athletic activities, even though their parents were transferred to Pampa. Many schools in the past got players for football reasons and not because parents were moved by company orders or new positions, as in the case of Pampa.

It has come to my attention that Coach Odus Mitchell and four of his Harvesters are going to bowl a series against a ladies' team. Joe Landry will donate the money to the cafeteria fund. The coach doesn't know anything about the game. Jim Groom was coaching him last night, telling him that he couldn't carry the ball down the alley like a football but had to let it go—"No, not like a forward pass." Jim said when the coach interrupted, Jim then had a brain wave and told the coach it was like pitching a playground ball and his nuts caught it immediately.

PAMPAN BUTTS DOC MUELLER FOR VICTORY

NERVE-PRESSING AND SLUGGING HOLDS INTEREST

Rob Roy, local wrestler, proved his superiority over the great Doc Mueller, Austin, chiropractor, at the Pampa Auditorium last night when he won two out of three falls. The local Scotchman won the deciding fall after fans considered the bout lost. Rob was well on his way with a flying hold when he slipped a foot loose and took Doc under the chin. As Doc got to his feet, Roy Sonnenberg hit him into the crowd and it took him nearly half an hour to recover.

Tex Thayer, Berger Lee man, failed to arrive due to a severe attack of influenza and Barber Kelley took on Red Michael without notice and stayed six minutes before giving up to a neck stretch. The redhead was all over the barber, getting many holds and making the tormented artist break them. Kelley worked hard but lacked experience.

Andy Gump and Clarence Lee wrestled to a draw in the opener with Andy having the better of the argument. If Andy would take his wrestling seriously, he would be good.

The doctor outweighed the local boy six pounds and used the advantage. He opened the first fall with a terrific arm lock but Rob finally came out with a headlock which Doc broke with a nerve hold and the fun started. Rob warned the chiropractor that if he used the nerves and strangle there would be fists in the air. The area over the ring was filled with "fives" before the fray ended. Rob got Mueller in a short arm scissors and changed it for a cradle hold, but Doc reversed the order.

Doc tried his seep hold and Rob took to the linbers, but remained with a few uppercuts and a drop toe hold which Doc broke with an attempted sleeper. Doc used three headlocks and then tried a sleeper. Roy again took to the crowd. As he returned, Doc got a double toe hold which hurt Rob's bad knee and the latter patted the mat after 22 minutes.

The second fall saw more wrestling than has been crammed into a few minutes in some time. Doc got a headlock and Rob slipped over a toe hold but the Doc got away. Rob tried another and Doc stayed in it four minutes but finally came out only to get into a double toe hold and hammerlock mixed with a few wallops to the back of the neck and he stayed in it three minutes. He came out with an arm bar but Rob got a drop toe and Doc tried his sleeper to no avail.

They exchanged arm holds and then Rob baited Mueller out of the ring. He added a drop-toe hold as Doc returned and then changed it to a Japanese crab hold and Doc patted the mat in 18 minutes.

Both matlers threw caution and ruse to the winds in the last fall and Referee Oscar Tolson had his hands full. Doc got a headlock and tried his sleeper but Rob came out with a "five" to the jaw. The chiropractor got a type of reverse surf beard but Rob found the edge of the ring in time. Doc took to the ropes with a toe hold but came back with a split. Rob appeared slow and was falling into holds. Doc headlocked him, added a flying mare and it looked over when Doc tried his sleeper, but the Pampa boy made the edge.

The referee warned both men but it did no good. Doc would press a button and Rob would throw a fist and the noise would be on again. Rob got Doc in a couple of rolling headlocks which started the end. He butted Doc out of the ring but Doc came back and got his flying Dutchman. As he started to swing Rob, the Scotchman slipped a foot loose and took Doc on the edge of the ring. He regained his feet only to take a Sonnenberg which deposited him with the crowd. He failed to come back and Rob was declared the winner.

It is expected that Ted Travis, Pacific coast wildcat, will be matched with Joe Kopecky next week. Travis is supposed to be one of the toughest propositions in his class according to Dutch Mantel, who knows men when he sees them.

Dodgers' First Baseman Returns

NEW YORK, Nov. 17. (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers' worries over their first base problem, which were reaching such alarming proportions that it was reported they were attempting to buy Jim Bottomley or Pat Crawford from St. Louis, have been calmed considerably by the reappearance of a sound and agile Del Bissonette.

Del, weighing 190 pounds and full of pep, dropped into the Dodgers' offices yesterday and proved by various feats that he had fully recovered from the operation for a leg infection that kept him in the hospital during most of the 1932 baseball season.

He is ready to play first base for the Dodgers next season, Bissonette said, "and," he added, "when I quit baseball about eight or ten years from now, I think I'll be a doctor. I've made quite a study of medicine, operations and hospitals, you know."

Robert Huffines of Roxana was a

SENATOR WOULD BAN 'BRUTAL' CLOWNING' TYPE OF BOUTS

Maryland Fan Would Banish Current Wrestling Style by Law.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 17. (AP)—Professional wrestling was in danger today of being banned in Maryland as being "nothing but rough, brutal clowning."

Denouncing the bouts he saw at a weekly show here Tuesday night, State Senator Joseph L. Bazeman, who has been a wrestling fan for thirty years, said last night he intends "to push this thing for all its worth" at the next session of the state legislature.

He explained that if the wrestlers do not "clean their own house"—or if the state athletic commission does not do it—he will propose a law either to ban wrestling entirely, or to prohibit exhibitions of the type he described.

"All that's left now for the wrestlers to do," Donovan said, "is to go at each other with axes. Yes axes! Place an ax in each wrestler's corner and give him the right to use it."

"Why, in one of the matches one wrestler was kicked out of the ring three times. The referee was almost thrown out of the ring. That kind of thing has to end."

"I don't want to make a pink tea out of wrestling. I want it sportsmanlike. This kicking, cuffing and punching ought to be stopped."

Informed of the senator's statement, Robert Siddall, head of the athletic commission, said, "the only complaint I had against the bouts Tuesday night was that they were 'too tame.' The crowd doesn't like them tame. As for me, I like them rough, but fair."

CLASS B TILTS HOLD INTEREST IN THIS AREA

2 GRAY COUNTY TEAMS IN IMPORTANT GAMES

Football interest in this section of the Panhandle will be divided between McLean and Panhandle tomorrow afternoon, and many Pampa fans plan to attend the games. LeFors will be playing Parkersburg in Panhandle for the opportunity to play for the district 1 Class B title.

Lumas and Spearman will be in action at Spearman and the winner will oppose the team winning the LeFors-Panhandle tilt next Friday.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By The Associated Press

San Francisco: Maxie Rosenbloom, New York, outpointed John Henry Lewis, Phoenix, (10).

LeFors will enter the game without Carter, left halfback and punter, who suffered a broken shoulder two weeks ago in the last conference game of the season. Panhandle will also have the Pirates outweighed in every department.

The Shamrock-McLean game in McLean is one of the Class B classics of the season. Both teams are in the undefeated class and will be playing for a district championship. The teams are reported even in weight and ability.

This afternoon the Gorillas and the Groom Tigers are battling at Harvester park in a return tilt.

Pros and Amateurs In Golf Tournament

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 17. (AP)—The money player and the Simon-pure vied in the 13th annual mid-south individual open golf tournament here today.

A field of approximately 120 golfers, including many of the country's best known pros, started this morning in the 36-hole event, which followed the professional best-ball tournament of yesterday.

Two of the country's crack pros from Detroit, Tommy Armour and Al Watrous, teamed yesterday to win the professional best ball. They carded a 68-63—131 over the number two course in 35 holes.

Three strokes behind came Mike Turnesa and Tony Manero, of Elmsford, N. Y., with 68-66—134.

Too Many Ducks And Hunters in Friona Section

FRIONA, Nov. 17. (AP)—Farmers of this vicinity are trying to decide which is the greater evil, duck hunters or the ducks themselves. Hunters have become a menace by leaving gates down and shooting too close to livestock. On the other hand, wild ducks have invaded the region in such large numbers that they are destroying grain in the fields, and they would become a greater menace if hunters did not keep them driven out.

A PATH TO PARADISE

SYNOPSIS: Santa at last comes to know how Clive has felt, surrounded by evidences of her generosity. She understands his desire to support her. For the first time since their hurried marriage after Santa's divorce from Dicky, they are completely happy. Then, at St. Jean de Luz, in the midst of their beloved and deliciously gaily honeymoon, Santa sees Dicky. Clouds gather.

Chapter 25 A GREAT SURPRISE SANTA was like a frightened child. Her fear communicated itself in the dark room, the moon lit sea rippling as it seemed against the veranda, she and Clive sat up in bed, whispering. She'd spotted her former husband on the beach that morning. She'd followed him to Maxim's where, according to recipe, he was indulging in too many cocktails. That afternoon she'd slipped out to spy on him again. He hadn't budged. In the baccarat room that evening he'd been gambling away his father's fortune like a madman.

Last Bill Given At Actors Goal

RAGE UNBRIDLED "Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the famous animal painter, Paul Bransom... inspired by the fierce battle between wild mustang stallions on the western ranges... fighting to the death with flashing teeth and slashing hoofs. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted".

DEMOCRATS MAY BE COMPELLED TO SIT IN 'CHEROKEE STRIP'

By D. HAROLD OLIVER, Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17. (AP)—In capturing a dozen republican seats in the new senate and almost a hundred in the house, the democrats have cause for jubilation, but with it all there is a possibility some of the newcomers may have to sit with the republicans.

These political overflows have occurred before, but more often from the republican to the democratic side. When it was the other way around the democrats usually found room to crowd in their extra flock. But next year, with the large democratic majorities, it may be different.

Party secretaries now are facing figuring whether it will be necessary to create on the republican side in each house "Cherokee strips" to take care of those extra democrats who may be forced to "wander off" the reservation as the Oklahoma redskins used to do voluntarily.

The first "Cherokee strip" was installed in the house in 1891 when the democrats had 238 members against 89 republicans. Almost complete returns show the next house will have at least 314 democrats and only 114 republicans. Unless the center aisle is moved into existing republican territory it is going to be difficult to avoid another "strip."

Its the same story in the senate. The last "strip" was in 1922 during the Harding administration when that little group of republicans—Pepper and Crowe of Pennsylvania; Burton, New Mexico; Ernst, Kentucky; Norbeck, South Dakota, and Weller, Maryland—had to rub elbows with their opponents when in their seats.

The new senate will have 59 democrats, 36 republicans and one farmer-laborer.

Rankin and Raney Want Speakership

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17. (AP)—The speakership—prize post in the national legislature—promises to be the subject of a lively intra-party contest at the outset of the new democratic congress.

Two candidates, representatives Raney of Illinois, democratic floor leader, and Rankin of Mississippi, chairman of the veterans committee, already have formally announced.

Other contenders expected by their friends to officially enter the race soon are Representatives Byrns of Tennessee, chairman of the appropriations committee; McDuffie of Alabama, the democratic whip; Bankhead of Alabama, ranking democrat on the rules committee; and O'Connor of New York, also a member of the rules group.

Papen and Cabinet Decide to Resign

BERLIN, Nov. 17. (AP)—Chancellor Franz von Papen and the entire German cabinet were reported to have made a decision in a special meeting today to tender their resignations to President Paul von Hindenburg.

The decision came 24 hours after several German party leaders had told the Chancellor they would not support him in the wake of the recent Reichstag elections which failed to dislodge the parliamentary deadlock that has harassed the German Reich several months.

No official communique was forthcoming after the cabinet meeting, but apparent confirmation of the action was furnished from two sources. One was a usually well-informed authority who told the Associated Press. Also the Dresdner bank advised its branches that the resignations had been determined upon.

Mrs. J. B. Hessey of the McLean community was a Pampa shopper yesterday.

John Garner Gets Eight-Point Buck

UVALDE, Nov. 17. (AP)—When John Garner goes to Washington in a few weeks as vice president-elect, he can carry a new yarn about that eight-point buck deer he killed this fall.

"Cactus Jack," whose favorite sport outside of matching wits with a republican opponent in congress is hunting and fishing, returned to his home here late yesterday with Ross Brumfield, a rod and gun companion of many years, bringing the buck deer Garner had shot and a turkey and several wild ducks. They had been out in the wild ranching country southwest of Uvalde.

Garner told of wounding a panther which prowled around their camp Tuesday night, but said they chased the big cat unsuccessfully. He bagged the deer at a range of 200 yards.

An ounce of psychology on the gridiron is worth more, in Dan McGugin's opinion, than a ton of brute force.

Dean of southern coaches, the Vanderbilt leader loves quick-thinking eleven—smart quarterbacks. Here's his favorite yarn.

"In 1924 Vanderbilt played Minnesota. On the preceding Saturday Minnesota had decisively defeated Illinois with the great Red Grange at the height of his development. It hardly was to be expected that Vanderbilt would make much of a showing.

ABOUT NEW YORK

Parents, Teachers Will Stress Good Reading Tomorrow

NEW YORK—Four p. m. at Columbus Circle:

A small group of children assembles. A dark woman places a wreath at the base of the monument.

Why? Columbus day is a long way off. I express my curiosity to the woman.

She answers apologetically—in some foreign tongue. Italian, it sounds like.

I stroll over and ask a policeman what it's all about.

"Don't ask me," he responds. "There's always somebody leavin' flowers there."

Presumably Columbus' discoveries made a lasting impression in some people's minds.

But his isn't the only statue in New York which gets bedecked for reasons best known to the bedeckers—even when there isn't any anniversary of the subject's birth, death or great achievement to observe.

There used to be a little old woman who lived somewhere on the upper west side. Several times a week she would appear on Riverside Drive and scatter flowers about the pedestal whereon Joan of Arc sits astride her stalwart steed.

Even now flowers on Joan's statue aren't an uncommon sight. George Washington's several monuments received plenty of attention from school children before the bi-centennial started. But few statues have suffered the indignity visited upon the unwanted Civic Virtue shortly after it was set up with its back to City Hall. The argument as to its artistic and symbolic merit was at its height when some rascal approached it in the night and bespattered Mr. Virtue's exalted mien with an over-ripe tomato.

JURY IS DISCHARGED

W. S. Hanson's suit against the Fort Worth & Denver Northern railroad, seeking to set aside a right-of-way deed, resulted in a hung jury yesterday. The jury deliberated more than 8 hours before it was discharged by Judge W. R. Ewing.

SHARKING is a profitable industry in South Africa. Every part of a shark is used for something. The fins go to make soap for well-to-do Chinese. Shoes, purses and other leather goods are made from the skin, after the rough surface has been removed. Until cheap sandpaper came on the market, the rough, scaly skin of the shark was used for sanding wood. The meat is dried and packed for shipment into Africa or Malay. Shark-liver oil is widely used in the manufacture of soaps and margarine. The teeth are sent to the South Seas to be used for money.

THIRTY TABLES IN PROGRESS AT BRIDGE TOURNAMENT

Annual Praise Service Held by Women at First Presbyterian Church

MANY AWARDS ARE PRESENTED BY MERCHANTS

TURKEYS GIVEN MRS. MAHAFFEY AND MR. MCGARRITY

Thirty tables of auction bridge were in progress at a charity tournament given by women of the Holy Souls parish last evening at the Schneider hotel.

Turkeys were presented to Mrs. Max Mahaffey and Tom Garrity, who won high scores among the women and men, respectively.

Prizes also were given for high scores among various groups, and the following were announced as winners: Mrs. Frank Allison, Chuck Cahill, Mrs. Bert Keough, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Roy Abbott, Mrs. Jake Robinson, and Mrs. Roy Wright.

Local firms furnishing prizes were as follows: Mitchell's, Consumers Market, Standard Food, Pampa Drug, Murfee's, Inc., Thompson Hardware, Crystal Palace, Brownhill shoe store, Conoco Service Station No. 2, Kees & Thomas, Richard Drug, Diamond Shop, Woman's Exchange, Texas Furniture, L. T. Hill Co., Violet Shoppe, Montgomery Ward & Co., local theaters, Pampa Furniture, City Food Store, Georgetown Beauty Shoppe, and Healy-Sally. Appreciation also was expressed to Alex Schneider, through whose courtesy the hotel was used.

Mrs. H. G. Myers was general chairman of the function, and various women of the parish assisted as hostesses.

Its long sleeves belie its low back décolleté.

VISITORS ARE ENTERTAINED BY AUXILIARY

GROUP TO COOPERATE IN FORMATION OF UNION COUNCIL

Seated in informal arrangement in the church annex, members of the Presbyterian auxiliary and their guests held an annual praise service yesterday afternoon, and made a mission thank offering.

The meeting, presided over by Mrs. Dick Walker, was opened with the Lord's prayer in unison, and scriptures of praise were given in answer to roll call.

Appreciation for a cash donation made to Baker school cafeteria was expressed in a letter from Principal J. A. Meek, and other gifts of staple food to be presented to local cafeterias as the needs arise were brought to the meeting yesterday.

It was voted to cooperate in formation of a union church women's council in Pampa.

Mrs. J. E. Corson was asked to call a committee meeting for the purpose of preparing bandages to be used for over-seas work.

Mrs. H. P. Larsh led the program, which was opened with a period of praise and supplication, followed by a dialogue presented by Mrs. Dick Walker and Mrs. R. F. Dirksen. The dialogue depicted ignorance and superstition on the part of the mountain folk aided by mission schools.

The Prayer Perfect, a poem by James Whitcomb Riley, was sung as a solo by Mrs. Harry Lyman accompanied by Mrs. F. P. McKimling.

Mrs. T. D. Hobart stated the three commissions, "to give, to pray, and to go," and led in prayer. Mrs. A. A. Hyde also led in prayer.

Mrs. P. C. Ledrick, Mrs. Tom Clayton, and Mrs. Frank Foster were hostesses for the afternoon, serving refreshments of apple and gelatine salad, hot tea, and cookies.

Visitors for the afternoon were Mesdames B. G. Blankenship, B. M. Robinson, C. E. Simmens, A. W. Pollard, Lillie Tabor, Clyde Fatheree, William M. Craven, R. J. Sullivan, W. C. Jones, L. Neely, John Robin, Olin E. Hinkle, and Miss Martha Sneed.

Members attending were Mesdames Frank Smith, Walter Wanner, Dave Pope, O. E. Sneed, H. E. Lyman, Forrest P. McKimling, F. C. Wilson, Charles Todd, E. W. Voss, Mark Long, T. D. Hobart, George Friant, V. E. Fatheree, J. M. White, J. E. Corson, George Briggs, T. W. Sweatman, Tom Clayton, Dick Walker, Frank Foster, R. F. Dirksen, W. A. Thacker, A. A. Hyde, H. P. Larsh, C. T. Mullen, P. C. Ledrick, J. E. Dever, and Miss Katie Vincent.

Cantata Will Be Presented Here On December 16

In Bethlehem (Richard Kountze) will be presented in three part chorus and incidental roles by the Treble Clef club Dec. 16 at the Methodist church. Rehearsals are being held weekly until that time.

Mrs. W. A. Bratton is directing the cantata, and Mrs. May Foreman Carr and Mrs. J. F. Curtis are pianists.

The Treble Clef club also will be heard at an open house meeting at Sam Houston school tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association.

THANKSGIVING DINNER PLANS MADE BY CLUB

CIVIC CULTURE GROUP AND HUSBANDS TO BE PRESENT

Plans for a Thanksgiving dinner, which will be served covered dish style on Friday evening of next week, were made by Civic Culture club members Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. L. Patrick.

Husbands will be special guests for the dinner and for bridge games which will follow.

A program based on both the history of art and modern art was led by Mrs. Joe Berry, talks being given by Mrs. Berry and Mrs. E. A. Shackleton, and the hostesses.

Program Given By Christian Church Group

Husbands were guests at a meeting of the women's council, First Christian church, Wednesday evening at the church, with group 5 in charge.

The meeting was opened with a song, I Love to Tell the Story, and prayer by the Rev. F. W. O'Malley. Mrs. Roy McMillen, president, presided for a short business session, during which quarterly reports of the groups were given.

Mrs. C. A. Clark and Mrs. B. G. Gordon were leaders of a lesson on "Ideals of Jesus Tested." Following the devotional, led by Mrs. J. L. Lester, a prayer by Mrs. O'Malley, and a song, Miss Josephine Thomas spoke on "Jesus Tempted." Miss Eleanor Frey, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. May Foreman Carr, then played To Spring (Grieg) and Serenade (Toselli).

The Holy City was sung by Emmitt Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Ramon Wilson, and was enacted in pantomime by Misses Ila Poole, Jewell Montague, Willie Jo Priest, Florence Jones, and Cleora Stanard. The presentation was made more effective by the use of a projector furnished through the courtesy of George Limerick.

In connection with the meeting a shower of food was given, the articles to be used for filling Thanksgiving baskets for aid of the needy.

Members were dismissed by the president following the benediction.

PARENT-TEACHER MEMBERSHIP INCREASES 7,000 IN ONE YEAR

GALVESTON, Nov. 17. (AP)—Reports made at the opening of the twenty-fourth annual convention of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers yesterday revealed that membership in the state's groups has increased 7,000 the last year.

About 600 women from all parts of Texas and several national officers were in attendance when Mrs. A. F. Woods of Athens called the convention to order. Rev. Edmund H. Gibson gave the invocation and J. E. Pearce, mayor, and E. G. Littlejohn, superintendent of the Galveston schools, welcomed the delegates.

"I am proud to have some small part in the work of your organization," Littlejohn said. "The work of the P-T-A. is bringing a new day to school children of the nation."

Mrs. Hugh Bradford of Sacramento, Calif., national president, declared, "we are proud of the work of Texas officers and members. You will achieve many wonderful things for the children of Texas."

After reports of officers and committee chairmen were heard, every woman present rose to her feet as an expression of respect for Mrs. S. M. N. Marrs, widow of the late state superintendent of public instruction. Mrs. Marrs is a past national president of the organization.

Mrs. J. M. Lovings, finance chairman, described the financial structure of the organization, saying that of the 25-cent dues each member pays, 5 cents goes to the national group and the rest is used for work in Texas.

A feature of the morning session was an address by Miss Flora Thurston who spoke on parent education telling how school work of the child can be improved by a helpful co-operative attitude on the part of parents.

Miss Daphna Regal to Marry L. J. Sherrod; Named Honoree at Showers by Local Friends

Miss Daphna Regal, bride-elect, has been the guest of honor at three local showers, Mrs. Lee McConnell, Mrs. V. R. Gher, and Mrs. Roy Blasingame being the hostesses.

Miss Regal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Regal of Coffeyville, Kan., and L. J. Sherrod, formerly of Pampa but now of Seminole, Okla., will be married on the evening of November 23. The ceremony will be read by the Rev. F. W. O'Malley in the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bechtelheimer.

Lovely gifts were presented to Miss Regal last evening when Mrs. McConnell entertained. Mrs. Blasingame, who scored high in bridge, presented the award also to the honoree.

Punch was served during the games, and at the close of the evening an ice course was passed to the following guests: Mesdames Roy Blasingame, V. R. Gher, D. A. Bartlett, and W. H. Lang; Misses Hazel Kentling, Maxine Gwin, Pauline Mitchell, Evelyn Swafford, and the honoree.

Mrs. Blasingame and Mrs. Gher each entertained with four tables of bridge recently to honor Miss

Forty Parents Are Guests at School

Pupils of Horace Mann school presented an interesting program at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday at Baker school that was appreciated by the forty parents who attended Visitors day. The pupils were from the classes of Miss Frances McCue and Miss Loma Groom. Miss Louise Smith played a piano solo.

Regal, and showers were given in connection with the parties. Each served refreshments in two courses.

Books Displayed At Sam Houston School This Week

Books on display at Sam Houston school this week are being read with unusual interest by students in the school and have been viewed by numerous parents.

Parents are invited to see these books at their convenience, but are given a special invitation to be present at open house, which will be sponsored tomorrow evening by the Parent-Teacher association. At that time, in addition to the showing of the books, will be a program of unusual interest.

Among the most popular of the books on display are Stories From Northern Myth (Baker); Old English Tales Retold (Barbour); Indian Legends (Bemister); The Hunting of the Snark (Carroll); Tyke-y (Whitney); The Birthday of the Infanta (Wilde); Memoirs of a Donkey (De Segur).

Party Given for Faculty Members

Woodrow Wilson faculty members were entertained in the home of Mrs. Robert Koimer last evening with Mrs. Koimer and Mrs. E. A. Hampton as hostesses.

Games were played during the evening, and refreshments were served to two special guests, Miss Clarice Fuller and Miss Opal Cox, and the following faculty members: Principal Annie Daniels, Mrs. Teresa Humphreys, Miss Lois Stallings, Miss Vida Cox, Miss Tidi Sessions, Miss Jimma Searey, and the two hostesses.

Mrs. E. J. Christenson and infant son were dismissed from Worley hospital today.

Walter P. Chrysler presents the new Plymouth—a Six at $60 less than last year

"Look at All Three!" said Walter P. Chrysler last April. "Look at All Three!" he repeats today. For today he introduces a new Plymouth... a SIX with Floating Power... vibratolless... a BIG, full-sized Six... a complete new car... designed to win first place in the low-priced field.

It's a Six with hydraulic four-wheel brakes—so you can enjoy Free Wheeling with security! And safety-steel bodies to protect you and your family.

It's a Six with that big-car, smartly-tailored look! And with a new idea of what values are these days.

Will this be America's next "Number One" Car? "Look at All Three." And decide for yourself!

stunning to those readers whose interest in such things ebbs between elections. At the same time, American readers are the most excited in the world, the most responsive to the truth, the most generous in praise of newspapers which spare no time, energy, and money to give the facts.

We need help from competent "loggers." Some time ago we told about Paul Bruce's house made from his of petrified wood found northwest of Amarillo. We perhaps uncritically deduced we assumed that the vicinity was once abounding in big trees. . . . C. H. Walker comes forward with the suggestion that the woods washed here by ancient waters. From forests perhaps thousands of miles away. He doubts that trees ever grew on these plains, which once bottomed a sea. Maybe he is right—maybe not. We are something before our time and beyond our study. An expert's opinion will be appreciated.

Our announced determination to "strike" for a Pampa-Amarillo Thanksgiving football game in 1933 here has evidently hit the right spot. But we want some letters on the subject. We may have use for them later. Are we right or not—what say?

ACCUSED--

be used in evidence against him. If the accused desires to make a statement, he may do so before the examination of any witness, but not afterward. His statement is reduced to writing by or under the direction of the magistrate, or by the accused and his counsel, and his name is signed by himself. The accused is not sworn as to this statement, but the magistrate affixes the paper.

Can Invoke Rule

The magistrate must, if requested by the accused or his counsel, have all the witnesses placed in charge of an officer so that the testimony given by any one witness cannot be heard by any of the others. If counsel for the state is present, he has the right to question the witnesses on direct or cross-examination, and the accused or his counsel has the same right. In the absence of a prosecutor, the magistrate may question the witnesses. The examination of each witness must be in the presence of the accused. Testimony is reduced to writing and certified by the magistrate. The magistrate has the power to issue an attachment for the purpose of enforcing attendance of witnesses. The officer receiving the attachment must execute it and take the witness before the magistrate, unless the writ names a future time, when the witness may be required to give bail for his appearance. Hearings may be postponed for the purpose of allowing time to obtain material evidence.

Can Hike Bail

No magistrate, other than a judge of the court or criminal appeals, district court, or county court, has power to discharge a defendant in a capital case, but may admit the accused to bail, except in capital cases where the proof is evident. If after bail is granted, it appears to be insufficient, the magistrate may issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused and require additional security. After the examination trial, the magistrate can make an order committing the defendant to jail, discharging him, or admitting him to bail, as the law and the facts require. The nearest safe jail may be used.

The law says that "every sheriff shall keep safely a person committed to his custody. He shall use no cruel or unusual means to secure this end, but shall adopt all necessary means to prevent the escape of a prisoner. He may summon a guard of sufficient number, in case it becomes necessary to prevent an escape from jail, or the rescue of a prisoner." A discharge by a magistrate after examination of an accused prisoner does not prevent a second arrest of the same person for the same offense.

By "bail" is meant the security given by the accused that he will appear and answer before the proper court, the accusation brought against him. The sureties to a bail bond are required to take the following oath:

"I do swear that I am worth, in my own right, at least of (insert amount in which surety is bound) after deducting from my property all that which is exempt by the constitution and laws of the state from enforced sale, and after the payment of all my debts, of every description, whether individual or security debts, and after satisfying all incumbrances upon my property which are known to me; that I reside in (blank) county, and have property in this state liable to execution worth said amount or more." Bail must be sufficiently high to give reasonable assurance that the undertaking will be complied with, but it must not be so high as to constitute oppression. The nature of the offense is taken into consideration, and ability to make bail is considered also. The persons furnishing bail may relieve themselves of the liability by delivering the accused to the sheriff of the county where he is to be prosecuted, to be committed to jail unless he furnished over bail. In misdemeanor cases, the peace officers are authorized to grant bail. Bail bonds may be forfeited if the terms of the bail are not carried out by the defendant.

ing denunciation of "traitors," referring to the convention proper as "the man circus," and activities on the outside as "a two-headed snake side show."

Denounces Traitors. "Traitors do not put dynamite under the government," Dr. Hardy said, "but give encouragement and comfort to enemies of their country."

Messengers in this convention who give comfort and encouragement to those opposing our aim and purposes are as much traitors as the man who wants to blow up his government.

This is the main circus. If there is anyone who is more interested in the two-headed snake in the side show, he ought to go there and not stay in the main circus. We object to these two-headed snakes in the side show coming into the main circus, and we propose to keep them out."

Dr. Hardy was cheered vigorously. J. N. Marshall of Austin, a vice-president, asked all who endorsed Dr. Hardy's denunciation of the side show to stand. Nearly every person in the big auditorium got to his or her feet.

Continental Oil Company's Travel Expert in Town

Carrying L. H. McAllister, manager of the Continental Oil company's travel bureau, Denver, Colo., and G. W. Brown, assistant manager of the Fort Worth division of the company, one of the only Travel Bureau Buses in the United States will arrive in Pampa today. Manager McAllister will conduct a meeting at the Schneider hotel at 7:30 o'clock, that will be beneficial to all persons who are required to travel and give information on motor travel.

The meeting is not confined to Continental Oil company employees, but is open to everyone who desires to travel. It will be interesting and instructive to all. The Travel Bureau of the Continental Oil Company was organized for the purpose of giving the most complete and accurate travel information possible to all motorists. All aid from the bureau is given without charge. The bureau furnishes marked road maps, literature concerning salient features of any route, road conditions, hotel and tourist camp accommodations. Of special benefit to the traveler is the rating of certain hotels as Travel Bureau hotels. The Schneider hotel in Pampa is one of the Travel Bureau hotels, and is so designated on the maps of the bureau.

Hill Employed at Adkisson and Gunn

The Adkisson & Gunn Tire Company, Goodyear dealers in Pampa, has announced this week the addition to their force of J. D. Hill, who will handle a complete battery and ignition service for the station. Mr. Hill has been in Pampa for the last five years and done battery and automobile ignition work during that time. The tire company has handled Exide batteries for the last year and half and has made the service complete this week by the addition of Mr. Hill to handle all the battery and ignition trouble.

Allowables for States Suggested

HOUSTON, Nov. 17. (AP)—The allowable production committee of the ten states oil advisory committee today recommended here that there be production of 2,045,000 barrels daily until January 1, 1933, and that production from January 1 to April 1 be 2,000,000 barrels per day. The report of the committee, signed by Thurman Hill, Kansas, as chairman; Cullen F. Thomas, Texas chairman; and Ciero Murray, Oklahoma chairman, suggested this allotment, as between states, for the two periods in question: Before Jan. 1, Oklahoma 390,000, Kansas 94,000, and Texas 825,000.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17. (AP)—Cotton opened quiet but steady today. Liverpool cables were better than due, but first trades here showed no change to two points up. The market improved slightly after the start on a little trade buying and December advanced to $6.33, and March to $6.49, or 4 to 5 points above yesterday's close. Toward the end of the first hour, the market eased off two points on December, which was apparently the only active month.

Baptists Eject Fort Worth and Happy Delegates

ABILENE, Nov. 17. (AP)—Messengers from the Berry Street Baptist church of Fort Worth who sought seats in the General Baptist convention of Texas, were definitely turned away by unanimous vote of the body today.

The Berry Street delegation was refused recognition yesterday when the convention opened under a constitutional provision that only messengers from "operating" churches be permitted a voice in the affairs of the church as directed by the annual gathering.

Messengers from church at Happy, also denied representation for the same reason, did not carry their request for acceptance to the floor. Request of the Berry Street delegation for recognition asked that in event a "challenge" was made "the matter be brought to the floor for consideration."

The delegation was turned away, however, without debate, a motion by Dr. J. B. Tidwell of Waco that as soon as Vac was reported, the matter be considered having carried unanimously.

The convention law provide that here messengers from a church whose sympathy with the convention is doubtful, are permitted to participate until after formal organization, after which time they may be admitted by a majority vote of the convention.

City to Clean Storage Tanks

The city's part in supplying work for the unemployed upon the receipt of money from the government will include cleaning and beautifying of the city and work on streets and water well storage. City Manager C. L. Stine said this morning upon receipt of word that the money would be available tomorrow.

One of the first jobs on the schedule will be the cleaning of drainage ditches to handle water during winter storms. There are many culverts choked with weeds and dirt and channel walls broken down, Mr. Stine reports.

Sand will be cleaned from ground storage tanks at the water wells in another project. Cleaning of weeds from vacant and city lots and burning them will also be on the program. Plans are also under way to take up excess dirt from streets to fill in low places and holes in other streets.

Voting Record in Texas Shattered

DALLAS, Nov. 17. (AP)—Previous presidential election voting records in Texas already have been shattered and the tabulation of ballots cast in last week's general election proceeded today toward a new high in Texas annals.

The Texas Election Bureau announced last night that a tabulation of votes from 226 of the state's 254 counties, with 161 completed, showed a total vote of 771,616, compared to the previous record of 720,835 in the general election of 1928. Both of these totals, however, are far below the 900,000 or more cast in the democratic primaries.

In this latest tabulation, Mrs. Ferguson, successful democratic candidate for governor, had 475,697 votes and Orville Bullington her republican opponent, 293,147.

Red Cross Drive Reaches a Total Of 750 Members

More than half the memberships in Pampa's quota in the Red Cross drive which started Monday had been subscribed last night when the daily report was completed by Parris Oden, chairman of the drive, and John I. Bradley, chairman of the North Gray county chapter. The report showed that 450 memberships had been received. Workers are still active and the chairman expects to reach the goal this week. The city had not been heard from, and many local workers have been handicapped because of the weather. Mr. Oden and Mr. Bradley urge workers to make daily reports to them in the chamber of commerce rooms in the city hall. Also to get their districts worked immediately so that a clean-up of districts can be arranged. The Pampa or north half of the county quota has been set at 750 memberships. Among the local institutions displaying 100 per cent membership banners are the fire department, Woodrow Wilson school, Horace Mann school, Baker school, Carter's men's store, Harvester drug, Panhandle Insurance agency, postoffice, Worley hospital, Adkisson & Gunn and several filling stations; and other places of business.
