LOUISIANA MOB DELAYS HEARING

BREVITORIES
This writer was a judge in a debate the other night between four members of the Business and Professional Women's club on the subject "Resolved, that women have raised the ethics of business," or something like that.

Consider the kitchens. There are 29 millions of them in the United States. Ordinary duties require about 4 hours of work a day or more in the kitchen.

Yeah, we imagine that Frank and did steer clear of politics, considering how Jim Farley stepped on Al's Tammany cat in the New York election recently.

Uncle Sam rightly demands religious liberty guarantees in Russia and is quietly working for racial freedom in Germany.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace wants us to adopt a tariff and production and stick to it for at least 15 years without change.

But changes come quickly in a social revolution. "Most people deny this assertion," says the historian Hendrik Van Loon, "and prattle sweetly about former depressions and how very soon now the tide will turn and we will all be happy and prosperous once more."

have been made in recent years in kitchens. They no longer resemble auditoriums. Conveniences have multiplied even in farm homes, where the criterion of modern equipment used to be running water.

HUNT FOR 27 LOST SEAMEN IS ABANDONED

LIFEBOATS NOT AFLOAT IS BELIEF OF SEARCHERS
VALENTIA, Irish Free State, Nov. 16 (AP)—The S. S. Manchester Regiment abandoned her 24-hour search for the stricken freighter Saxibly today shortly after the great liner Berengaria and the Dutch steamer Boschdyk were forced to quit their rescue efforts.

Abandonment of the quest by the Manchester Regiment was announced in a wireless message in which the ship reported she had sighted no wreckage and was afraid it was absolutely impossible for lifeboats to survive such weather as she was encountering.

With the Manchester Regiment's withdrawal from the scene, hope was generally abandoned for the little cargo ship Saxibly and her human freight of 27 souls.

Meanwhile, relatives of the 28 men in the crew of the St. Quentin, another British freighter, helpless after a breakdown of her steering gear in the same stormy region of the Atlantic, were relieved by word that the ship was in no immediate danger.

Both freighters were reported about 300 miles off the Irish coast. The 27 members of the crew of the Saxibly were understood to have taken to life boats in a storm which brought violent gales and tremendous waves.

In a message to the owners of the St. Quentin, the captain said a tug from Cobh was expected Friday to tow the vessel to port.

Latest reports said officers directing ships attempting to reach the Saxibly—chief among them the 52,000-ton Berengaria—felt the state of the sea almost annulled all hope that the boats could be afloat. They added that even if the boats were sighted, difficulties of rescue would be immense.

TRUSTEES OKAY ACTION AND TURN DOWN RESIGNATION
WACO, Nov. 16 (AP)—President Pat Neff of Baylor university announced today that he had suspended seven students for hazing and other infractions of the college regulations.

President Neff prefaced his announcement by offering to resign from the presidency "effective at the end of this chapel program" but Waco trustees of the college who were with him on the platform quickly declined to accept the offer.

In a public meeting on the stage of Waco Hall before the chapel adjournment, the trustees refused the president's offer of resignation and endorsed his action.

The entire faculty, also on the stage, stood up in endorsement of the policy and the students who remained after the seven suspended had gone out also indicated unanimous support of the program by rising at Neff's invitation.

Centenary Coach To Replace Bell At Texas A. & M.

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 16 (AP)—E. J. Kyle, chairman of the Texas A. & M. athletic committee, announced today that Homer H. Norton, football coach at Centenary college, had been signed as head of the department of physical education and head football coach to relieve Coach Madison (Matty) Bell, next fall.

Norton's contract ends June 1 at Centenary. He has directed the football destinies of the Gents for several seasons as head coach and has been at the Shreveport school about 11 years.

Bell has been coach of the Aggie football teams since 1929 when he succeeded Dana K. Bibbe, who went to the University of Nebraska as "grid" coach.

Norton's football teams have not lost in the last 17 games and their last defeat was at the hands of the Aggies, 7 to 0.

"I consider Mr. Bell one of the finest characters we have ever had at A. & M.," Kyle said. "His influence at the school among the students and others has been of the very finest and I am sure that I can bespeak the same sentiment toward him from Dr. Walton, who is now out of the state."

TOM CONNALLY ENTERS BY A FIRE-ESCAPE

INVESTIGATOR CLASHES WITH SENATOR FROM TEXAS
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Senator Tom Connally (D., Tex.) chairman of the senate committee investigating the election of Senator John H. Overman, was forced to climb a fire escape and through an upstairs window in order to reach the committee room in the Scottish Rite cathedral today, as hundreds of persons massed in front of the building, seeking entrance to the hearing.

As Senator Connally climbed thru the window, he found himself in a ladies' wash room, but committee attaches quickly steered him through the building into the hearing chamber.

With the milling mass in front of the building preventing any entrance into the cathedral through the front doors, other officials and newsmen were forced to follow Connally's lead up the fire escape and through the window in order to get in.

Among those scaling the ladders was Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the women's committee of Louisiana, which is seeking the ouster of both Senator Overman and Senator Huey P. Long from the senate.

After a conference inside the building, committeemen decided to admit only sufficient spectators to fill the seats in the hearing room. Hundreds were left outside the doors.

Senator Overton, very large of frame, was among those who were forced to resort to the small wash room window for entrance after Connally had shown the way.

As the officials went in and word passed about that a wash room was being utilized for the senators' entrance, shouts came from an interested crowd on the street below to "remember Sands Point!" and "don't get soaked in that wash room!"

The shouts referred to the recently publicized incident on Long Island in which Senator Huey Long, attending a reception, was struck over the eye in the wash room of the Sands Point Bath club by a fellow-guest who was never identified.

AMEND THE TUGWELL BILL

Past experience should warn congress against laws which are unenforceable and which lend themselves to all sorts of abuse. But the agitation for the Tugwell Food and Drugs bill indicates that the lesson has not been thoroughly learned.

The title of the bill is misleading in a sense, because it recalls legislation in the early years of the century that performed a valuable service in guarding the public against quack remedies. Every one is in favor of sincere efforts to protect consumers against some proprietary medicines which may contain adulteration or harmful or habit forming ingredients. There is a law now that protects the public against harmful products of this sort. But the Tugwell bill goes much further—and some of its provisions would injure and discriminate against food, drug and cosmetic manufacturers without benefit to the public.

It provides that the manufacturer may be prosecuted if "present day medical opinion" disagrees with the medical opinion of the manufacturer's staff. What practical method has been devised to ascertain what "present day medical opinion" may be? Yet the bill provides that the manufacturer's products may be seized, his business licensed, and he himself subjected to criminal prosecution even if he is not personally aware of what might be merely a technical violation by some person not directly in his employ.

Another feature which lends itself to grave abuse is that providing for "voluntary inspection" of the establishments of manufacturers for a fee to be fixed by regulation. In other words, a government agent will be ready to go on a private company's payroll. He must, of course, be "invited," but any one who has any familiarity with political control can imagine what may happen to a manufacturer who fails to invite an agent on his payroll.

There are other unreasonable regulations in the measure, such as the provision that all manufacturers must carry on their labels the quantities of all ingredients in the product. If this were confined to ingredients that might in any way prove harmful, it would be justifiable, but, as drawn, it goes further than necessary and impairs valuable formulae by virtually inviting competition and possibly destroying an established business employing thousands of men and women.

Although the public has become accustomed to the so-called partnership of government in business—a "partnership" which, by the way, shares no risk in losses—there are extremes which should be vigorously opposed. This bill should not be allowed to pass in its present form. It should be amended, not only to place it within the boundaries of common sense in the regulation of private business by government, but also to protect manufacturers against abuse of the administrative power.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Nov. 16, (AP)—Bullish forces took command in the stock market today, coincident with a revival of inflationary enthusiasm, and prices were pushed up 1 1/2 to 5 or more points in relatively heavy trading. wheat from Argentina approached an import basis into the United States. Possibility of Argentine imports of wheat, however, was considered negligible, as the Argentine quality of wheat is worth at least five cents a bushel less than United States grades' not to mention freight charges to domestic milling centers. Higher quotations on wheat at Liverpool had a strengthening influence, and so too did the fact that the domestic movement of wheat from rural sources was below consumer needs.

Wheat closed strong, 1 1/2-2 1/2 above yesterday's finish, corn 1 1/2-1 3/4 up, oats 1/2-1 1/2 advanced, and provisions unchanged to a decline of 2 cents.

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

ens should not be modernized to the fullest extent possible.

With all our modern mechanics, we still have much unfinished business. Gas is a wonderful fuel, but our methods of circulating the heat it produces have not improved much over the old coal stove era. Indeed, the coal stove heat had advantages over gas heaters poorly or perhaps not vented at all. Building a coal fire with kindling and coal oil was no joke on a cold morning, nor was carrying out the ashes a delightful chore. But the coal stove quickly got red hot and made up for its slow start. Americans have more heat than any other nation, but producing of healthful heat in winter is still largely an unsolved problem for the average home.

Those with a flair for statistics can get a headache trying to figure out how the world is going to use all the cotton farmers desire to grow. Uncle Sam's cotton farmers annually plant more than 41 million acres, and that is a lot of ground in any man's country. The federal crop reduction program calls for planting of only 25 million acres in 1934. Increased production in other countries is threatening to equal the amount of America's production cut. And since Texas exports much of her cotton, the world situation is as important as the domestic program. Iowa farmers may strike but cotton farmers are so world-minded that they know striking would be useless. World consumption of American cotton is increasing but the most notable increase last year was in the United States.

A falling dollar is of interest all over the world. When middle western farmers cry for inflation, their noise is heard in London within a few days. The British do not want the dollar to fall far below the pound for fear that cheapened American goods will capture the British export trade. France, likewise, has reasons to wish for the failure of President Roosevelt's program. Recently the pound was still 22 per cent below the dollar. Mr. Roosevelt knows when he has carried the dollar management far enough. It would be unfortunate if

Conrad H. Mann Receives Pardon From Roosevelt

NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—Conrad H. Mann, saved from a five months prison sentence by a pardon from President Roosevelt, turned to his Kansas City home today, happy and grateful.

Mann, president of the Kansas City chamber of commerce, had entered the federal house of detention to start serving the sentence for violation of the federal lottery laws in connection with enterprises of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, of which he was formerly national president. Four hours later he left the prison a free man, as a result of the president's last-minute pardon.

With tears in his eyes, Mann said he was "deeply grateful" to President Roosevelt for giving him his freedom. He waved a jovial goodbye to the prison guards as he drove away. Previously he had been described as being "all broken up."

MACHINE GUN FIRE FORCES MEN TO FLEE

AUTOMOBILE 'BOTTLED' UP IN FRONT OF OFFICE

CHICAGO, Nov. 16. (AP)—John Dillinger, desperado wanted as the leader of a band of Indiana bank robbers, vanished today after a daring escape from a carefully laid police net amid a fusillade of shots.

Sixteen Indiana state policemen and Chicago detectives chased Dillinger, accompanied by a woman and another man, for several miles thru the northwest section of the city last night after "bottling" his automobile in front of a physician's office.

But in the end it was the police who were forced to retreat in confusion as bullets from a machine gun in his car poured forth from a porthole and splattered windshields of the cars of his pursuers. Meanwhile, shots from police guns proved ineffective against the bullet-proof glass of Dillinger's car.

Dillinger came into prominence as a dangerous character last October 12 when men identified as escaped convicts from the Michigan City, Ind., delivered him from the Allen county, Ohio, jail at Lima after slaying Sheriff Jess Sarber.

Since then police have credited him with leading the outlaws in a number of Indiana bank robberies. They have also been identified as the gang that raided two police stations in Indiana and fled with guns and ammunition.

Yesterday Lieutenant John Jenkins and Sergeant G. W. Ryan of the Indiana State police traced Dillinger to Chicago and sought the aid of local detectives in capturing him when he kept an appointment with a physician.

Last night when Dillinger's car drove up in front of the doctor's office three squads of local police and one from Indiana were stationed nearby in four machines parked so as to head him off when he drove away.

But Dillinger failed to drive south as expected. He backed his car up and headed east in Irving Park boulevard.

In a moment police were in pursuit and the battle was on. Frightened motorists drew to the left and right of the street as bullets whizzed around them.

A Hot Stove Started This Fire

IT TOOK ONLY AN HOUR to bring a blaze on Boston's waterfront under control, but in that time it caused a damage estimated at nearly $20,000. The fire, caused by an overheated stove, is shown at its height as harbor fireboats poured tons of water on the smoking ruins of Central Wharf.

WRONG BELL AND WHISKERS ARE OBSTACLE TO STOWAWAY GARCIA

NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—Alfredo Garcia Stroked his chin meditatively, noted the stubble growth of whiskers thereon, and decided to shave. That was his big mistake.

Alfredo had embarked surreptitiously on the Columbian liner Columbia, which sailed from port Au Prince for New York last Tuesday. In plain words, he was a stowaway, but by no means an ordinary stow-away.

Instead of skulking behind ventilators or hiding in the hold, Alfredo occupied the de luxe suite of the liner. Finding the suite unoccupied, he had walked in; and, finding the accommodations much to his liking, he stayed in. When the Columbia sails from this port it will carry Garcia back to his starting point.

The message from Garcia; translated from the original Spanish, is this: It is better to enter America unshaven than not to enter America at all.

Mrs. R. B. Fisher, new program chairman of the American Association of University Women, will be in charge of the dinner program this evening. Members will meet at Schneider hotel at 7 o'clock.

Two talks are scheduled. Miss Fannie May's subject will be "Fellowship, a Symbol of Growth in Our Association." Mrs. J. M. McDonald will speak on "The Conquest of the Continent."

Musical entertainment will include a vocal solo by Mrs. J. M. Dodson, accompanied by Mrs. Tom Rose, and orchestra numbers by Miss Josephine Lane, Miss Dorothy Meers, and Bob Daugherty.

REPORT TELLS WHAT AL SAID TO PRESIDENT

WANTED JOHN RASKOB TO SUCCEED WOODIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 16. (AP)—The Daily News in a copyrighted story today said that Alfred E. Smith's White House visit with President Roosevelt, according to a "person high in democratic party circles," concerned the following shifts in administration personnel and the following appointments:

1. Resignation of William H. Woodin as secretary of the treasury and the appointment of John J. Raskob as his successor.
2. Resignation of Jesse Isidor Straus as United States ambassador to France and appointment of United States Senator Royal S. Copeland as his successor.
3. Appointment by Gov. Lehman of Al Smith as senator to take Copeland's place.
4. Designation of Postmaster General James A. Farley as the next democratic candidate for governor of New York to succeed Gov. Lehman, who, the News said, will not seek re-nomination.

Through such an arrangement, the News said, it is hoped to circumvent the advantage gained by the fusionists in the recent election of Fiorello H. LaGuardia as mayor of New York and to rebuild the democratic machine in the city. The paper added that it apparently means the ouster of John J. Curry as the leader of Tammany hall.

Straus recently returned from Paris and was said to have been advised by his physicians to retire from the strenuous grind of international affairs. Nevertheless, the News said, Straus intended the return to Paris before Christmas.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

Wear a Tunic— And Grow Slim

Want to look slimmer? Wearing this tunic frock will turn the trick as effectively as dieting—an in much smarter fashion! Its long lines add height, and the new soft shoulders have just enough breadth to make your hips gratifyingly slender. The skirt keeps to the straight and narrow, too, lapping at the side just as the tunic does. To avoid bulk, the skirt is attached to a lining underneath the tunic—a point which saves you money in buying your material.

You might choose a ribbed or hairy woolen in greige or one of the new dark shades, such as bronze green or blackberry. If you're looking on the bright side of winter, a brick or lime-green homespun would be as dashing as the black velvet scarf-jabot, and the tricky metal buttons you'll wear with it. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards 54-inch material. 3/4 yard 36-inch dark. Width about 1 1/2 yard.

Pattern No. 5379 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 bust.

Publisher And Editor Fined In Contempt Case

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Nov. 16. (AP)—E. W. Freeman and W. B. Sorrels, publisher and editor, respectively, of the Pine Bluff Commercial, were fined $100 each by Circuit Judge T. G. Parham today for contempt of court for the publication of an editorial discussing the confiscation of marble machines here.

The newspapermen gave notice they would appeal to the supreme court.

The contempt charges were filed by Prosecuting Attorney E. W. Brockman after Sorrels, in his daily "what do you think?" column on November 1, editorialized on the seizure of several marble machines in the city by county officers. Although not advocating gambling, Sorrels said in the editorial that the owners of the machines had paid state and city licenses on them and that while they had been warned by Judge Parham, a few days before that all slot machines must be removed, the warning had not been issued before the owners had paid the license.

Myers Appointed Farm Governor

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (AP)—President Roosevelt today designated William I. Myers, the deputy governor of the Farm Credit Administration, to succeed Henry Morgenthau, Jr., as the governor.

Myers will take office as soon as Morgenthau is sworn in tomorrow as the undersecretary of the treasury.

Myers, a former professor of agriculture economics at Cornell university, was brought to Washington by Morgenthau as his first assistant.

District Court
New civil filing: Tulsa Rig, Reel & Mfg. cor. ay vs. Humble Oil & Refining company, garnishment; White House Lumber company vs. A. E. Monroe et al, foreclosure of notes.

A return was made today on a true bill returned by the grand jury against T. W. Barnes, Gray county tax collector. Mr. Barnes some time ago reported that he needed more time to pay excess fees of his office to the county. Under the Texas fee bill, his remuneration and office upkeep are paid out of fees of office and are limited by statute. The indictment alleges and his reports show that he owes the county about $3,000.

STATE'S ROAD MONEY
AUSTIN, Nov. 16 (AP)—The Texas Racing commission today announced that it had remitted to the comptroller's department $2,367.96 as the state's revenue in connection with the Arlington Downs racing meet, which closed on last Saturday.

HEARING
When the hearing finally got under way, it was again thrown into turmoil when John G. Holland, the committee's investigator, again denounced the senate committee, charging it "was not seriously seeking to get evidence into the record."
Holland stood before Chairman Connally shaking his first and yelling until cheers from the crowd drowned his remarks.
Chairman Connally ordered him to sit down.
"The committee will handle its own affairs," Connally said.
Holland's outburst, the third in open session, came after Senator M. M. Logan (D., R.), a member of the committee, and Chairman Connally had pleaded with the crowd to stop the applause and cheers, and threatened to take the hearing away from New Orleans if the spectators did not stop interrupting.
Holland interrupted the proceedings after additional poll watchers for ex-Senator Edwin Broussard, who was defeated in the 1932 election by Overton, took the stand to tell of alleged irregularities observed in the booths on election day.

OREGON COACH RELYING UPON MENTAL ATTITUDE SATURDAY

Has Used Only Six Substitutes All Fall; Fordham Next on Schedule.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—Lon Stiner, coach of the Oregon State football team that so far has been beaten only by Oregon, the class of the west, has great regret regarding this trip east to tackle Fordham.

"It would be swell," he said today, "if the boys could just forget football and go out and see the town. They've earned it. But unfortunately they've got to play a game Saturday, and from what I hear of Fordham, they'd better be good."

Stiner, a big, dark, curly-headed fellow, coaches this Oregon State team, one of the outstanding surprises of the football year, but the athletes play it. He's used only half a dozen substitutes all fall. He tells his team before a game that they're going out to lose, not win. The result is they don't lose. Only to Oregon, and he sits quietly on the bench.

"Give me a mental attitude, the right kind," he says, "and I'll spot you a couple of dashing halfbacks and a half dozen big tackles." A few years ago Oregon State came east for the first time and whipped probably the best team New York university ever had.

Last year they played Fordham in the mud and rain at the Polo Grounds and lost 8 to 6. Stiner isn't bashful about the eleven he's bringing east this season. "It's a good team," he says. "We've got a great back in 'Red' Franklin—a fat, shifty 160-pound fellow who punts well and passes. The rest of the backs block for him. They'll average 185 pounds. The line goes about 195 pounds. They had to be good to beat Gonzaga, Washington State, San Francisco, and hold Southern California to a scoreless tie."

"But there are some funny features about this team. The center, Clyde Devine, is 6 feet, 6 inches tall and weighs 191 pounds; the running guard who plays next to him is Vernon Wedin, eleven inches shorter and 190 pounds left. They're a fine looking pair together."

WESTBROOK, Nov. 16 (AP)—Lawrence Westbrook, civil works administrator for Texas, has called mayors, county judges, county relief administrators and county relief board chairmen from all parts of Texas to meet with him here next Tuesday.

Westbrook will explain the basis for allocation to the various political subdivisions of the state of $300,000,000 assigned to Texas for civil works projects. He also will describe the types of projects recommended and the method of administration. Westbrook now is in Washington.

One hundred thousand men from the relief rolls were put to work on civil works projects today, announced J. F. Reed, assistant state director of the Texas relief commission.

CITY READY TO FILE TAX SUITS ON DECEMBER 1

No Time Extension to Be Given Property Owners

Mayor W. A. Patton and members of the city commission have addressed another letter to delinquent taxpayers warning them that no more extensions of time would be granted and that the city attorney would be instructed to file suits for collections. The letter follows: Dear Taxpayers:

On October 10th, we wrote all delinquent city taxpayers, calling attention to the fact that the 1933 tax rate depended largely upon amount of delinquent taxes collected in October. As special inducement for payment, penalty and interest were waived to October 30th.

At a recent meeting, we set this rate, having postponed doing so as long as possible, and while a large amount of delinquent taxes was collected in October, we had to make it higher than we desired because more did not pay. Moreover the rate as set, will not be sufficient unless most of the delinquent taxes outstanding are paid.

Many taxpayers have urged us to continue omission of penalty and interest for another 30 days, stating that they were making an effort to pay and needed that much more time. We were reluctant to do so, having found that most delinquent taxpayers are, or were when taxes came due, able to pay, and have deliberately taken advantage of our efforts to help the taxpayer who could not pay but was making an honest effort. We decided, however, to continue omission of penalty and interest to November 30, 1933, and after said date to make every effort possible under the law to enforce collection.

We desire to make it clear that there will be absolutely no further extension of time. We have instructed the Tax Collector and City Attorney to begin December 1st to levy upon all personal property of delinquent taxpayers, which is subject to the city lien for taxes, and to file suits for enforced collection on real estate.

We regret having to take such action, but to put it off further will jeopardize the financial stability of the city. We trust that you will arrange for payment before December 1st, and that we shall not have to resort to selling your property for the delinquent taxes you owe.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Lawrence Westbrook, Texas relief director, and a group of representatives of Texas cities today sought assurance from the reconstruction finance corporation that the state's relief bonds will find a quick market.

They arranged a conference with Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the RFC and himself a Texan.

Westbrook, who yesterday sharply criticized the Texas bond commission for what he described as the unnecessarily long time allowed a printing company to deliver the bonds, said that if he could give the federal relief administration assurance the bonds could be disposed of without delay he expected no trouble in obtaining a new allocation of $1,500,000 in relief funds, even though there was a delay in their issuance.

The Texan said he was accompanied in arranging the conference by Mayors Holcombe of Houston and Quinn of San Antonio; City Manager Fairtrace of Fort Worth and Stuart Bailey, representing the Dallas city manager.

GRAIN TABLE

Table with 4 columns: Grain, High, Low, Close. Includes Wheat, Corn, Oats, and other grains.

MAPS

plant, 842 oil wells, and 75 gas wells. Carson county has 2 carbon black plants, 5 casinghead plants, a booster station, 252 oil wells, and 167 gas wells. Wheeler county has 3 carbon black plants, 3 casinghead plants, a refinery, 49 oil wells, and 190 gas wells.

Hutchinson has 10 carbon black plants, 4 casinghead plants, two refineries, a booster station, 724 oil wells, and 100 gas wells. These industries are shown on the maps prepared by the B. C. D. A. A second map illustrates the transportation system serving Pampa and this territory.

Accompanying data shows that in the counties of Carson, Gray, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Roberts, and Wheeler, the value of farm crops is about $13,512,903, and the population in 1930 was 66,332. Livestock in these counties was valued at $9,359,291.

Comparative figures from the 1920 census show the magic growth of this section. For instance, the population for the counties mentioned was 21,548 in 1920, and is three times that now.

The counties produce annually 40,501 bales of cotton; 516,749 bushels of corn; 7,362,904 bushels of wheat, and 372,415 bushels of oats. There are about 167,963 head of cattle, 12,139 head of dairy stock, and 35,358 head of swine. Milk production is 5,529,383 gallons, chickens number 478,719 in flocks of poultrymen, and 1,716,576 dozen eggs are produced. The value of milk, cream and butter sold was estimated at $575,340.

One of Every Five Families in Nation Receives Red Cross Jobless Relief in 1933

It went into every hamlet, village, town and city and to all rural districts. The flour and bread came from 85,000,000 bushels of government wheat and the clothing from 844,000 bales of government cotton, voted by Congress to the Red Cross for free distribution. More than five million families were recipients of both types of relief.

The wheat was converted into 10,688,000 barrels of flour, and 223,901 tons of stock feed. The cotton provided approximately 90,000,000 garments—overall, jumpers, dresses, underwear, stockings and sweaters, for men, women and children. Blankets, comforters and sheets also were given.

Distribution of the cotton clothing and the flour cost the Red Cross $735,000 from its treasury. The last of the flour was shipped by the Red Cross in June, and the last of the clothing was distributed in October.

Children were clothed for school this autumn and their parents were given garments to meet their needs. This relief task was assumed by the Red Cross in addition to its chartered obligations in disaster relief aid to veterans, health and safety education. Red Cross aid was given in 117 disasters in the United States and her insular possessions during the year. This relief work is made possible through the annual roll call for members carried on by Red Cross chapters each year from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

DEER SEASON IN HILL COUNTRY OF TEXAS TO OPEN NOVEMBER 17

LLANO, Texas, Nov. 16 (AP)—Hundreds of Texas sportsmen will begin their annual invasion of the Hill Country woods when the deer and wild turkey season opens Nov. 17.

S. S. Smith, local game warden, reports that most of the leases have been taken up in Llano county. Some land owners make as much from their deer leases as from any of their other sources of income.

Hunting is an industry from which every type of business derives some profit. Each hunter must have camping supplies, hunting equipment, gasoline, and the like. Hunters coming from a distance wait until they reach Llano, Mason, Fredericksburg, or Kerrville to buy their food and other supplies.

Land is leased either by the acre, the price being fixed by law not to exceed 25 cents, or by the day at a rate of $4 per day. It is thought that more land in Llano county is leased by the season than by the day. The condition varies in the different counties of this section.

According to statistics compiled by the state game, fish and oyster commission, 209,879 acres were leased in Llano county last season. Pictured at a conservative price of 12 1/2 cents per acre, land owners received $26,234.88.

In other Hill Country counties the acreage leased in 1932 was as follows: Mason, 173,796; Gillespie, 209,319; Kerr, 292,738, and Comal, 145,697.

The credit for the largest number of bucks killed in an individual county went to Mason in 1932, with a total of 1,292. The report in one county was incomplete because of failure of some parties to report their kill.

Oklahoma Is 26 Years Old Today

GUTHRIE, Okla., Nov. 16 (AP)—Oklahoma, born joyously in the midst of a depression, celebrated with restraint its twenty-sixth birthday today.

Whistles shrieked while thousands cheered, bands blared and citizens paraded in their carriages when Oklahoma became a state in 1907 by proclamation of President Theodore Roosevelt.

The big celebration then at Guthrie, the first capital. Today the capital is at Oklahoma City, where it was removed by a special election during the tenure of C. N. Haskell, the first governor, who died a few months ago.

Governor William H. Murray, who helped write the state's constitution, proclaimed a half holiday for all state offices and employees.

AMBASSADOR WELLES TO CONFER WITH F. D. R. ON CUBAN POLICY

By EDMUND A. CHESTER Associated Press Foreign Staff HAVANA, Nov. 16. (P)—Keen interest was manifested by both Cubans and Americans here today in reported arrangements for United States Ambassador Sumner Welles to confer with President Roosevelt. No sooner had word been received from the United States that such a conference was being considered than it became the center of discussion, with speculation rife as to what the outcome would be.

Here in a trying period, the American ambassador has been attacked from many sides, but all has not been criticism and those favoring the manner in which he has conducted his affairs in a critical situation have been outspoken in their praise.

A word of continued disorders reaching the capital from the interior, two aviators—Humberto Rodriguez and Basilio Gonzalez—awaited a decision by the Cuban cabinet which will mean life or death to them.

A military court recommended the death penalty for the two on charges of having led in the revolutionary movement put down in the capital last week with the loss of 150 lives.

Oakland Hurler Traded To Cubs

GALVESTON, Nov. 16. (P)—Officials of the Chicago Cubs revealed today they had purchased Roy Joiner, left-handed pitcher, from Oakland of the Pacific Coast League.

Joiner will join the Cubs in the spring. He won 20 and lost 13 last year. He is 26 years old, pitched 258 innings and made only one wild pitch.

Warren C. Giles, president of the Rochester club of the International league, said he had traded Art Shires, first baseman, to Toledo of the American association for Bill Sweeney, first baseman in an "even swap."

Shires went to the majors from Waco of the Texas league. Last year he was with Columbus and Rochester, St. Louis Cardinal farms.

This wild-swinging, two-fisted boxer will appear in one of the three main events at the Pla-Mor auditorium tonight. His favorite position is to keep a long right in his opponent's face and then start a left-handed haymaker from the canvass. Regal meets Chief Paris of Oklahoma City. Paris is a full-blooded Osage Indian and one of the best in his class.

He was fined $200 for alleged false statements regarding his salary at Columbus and the case was before the executive committee of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues.

Indianapolis purchased Vernon "George" Washington, outfielder, and E. W. "Lefty" Chambers, pitcher, of the Texas league. No sale price was announced.

Washington and Chambers were the property of the Texas league and played last year with Fort Worth. They were turned over to the league when the Tyler franchise was surrendered.

Japanese Navy Plans Grow As Sub Is Launched

TOKYO, Nov. 16. (P)—Japan's onward swing toward increased power at sea was signaled today by the launching of a new submarine depot-ship and an order placing in reserve the Mutsu, her most formidable battleship.

Soon, it was understood, the Mutsu is to be modernized extensively and the newest in fighting equipment added to her present strength.

More than 100,000 persons, vernacular newspapers reported, turned out at Yokosuka—principal base of the sea forces—for a spectacular festival at the launching of the "Taigei," meaning "big whale."

Minister of the Navy Admiral Mireo Osumi presided over the ceremonies at the launching of the depot-ship, a 7,500-ton vessel.

The Taigei is not in itself an important ship, but the navy seized the occasion to impress the nation with its ability, to emphasize its need for record appropriations next year and incidentally to stress the paramount value it places on the undersea flotillas.

Today the Japanese navy has in commission 63 submarines of all types—totaling 12,294 tons. Five more undersea fighters are under construction, four others already sanctioned and six more projected for laying down before the end of 1936.

PAMPA, TEXAS

WESTERNERS PREPARE TO STOP AERIAL ATTACK OF HARVESTERS SATURDAY

PAMPA HOPING FOR A 3-WAY DISTRICT TIE

HARVESTERS TO LEAVE TOMORROW FOR LUBBOCK

The Pampa Harvesters will leave for Lubbock at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning and arrive in time to see the Texas Tech Matadors and the Baylor Bears clash in an afternoon battle. After the game, the Harvesters will work out on Tech field in preparation for their game with the Lubbock high school Westerners at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Tech defeated Baylor 7 to 0 last year.

The Harvesters came through a stiff scrimmage yesterday afternoon in good shape. Every member of the squad but Gregory took part in the workout. Gregory will be used some in the Lubbock game and coaches didn't take a chance on his hurting old back and ankle injuries. The little halfback and punter has been on the sidelines for two weeks.

Losers to Amarillo last Saturday, the Harvesters will stake their title chances on beating Lubbock and then hoping for the Westerners to defeat Amarillo Thanksgiving Day to throw the race into a three-way tie. In such a case, the teams would meet on a set date, toss a coin to see which team would draw a bye, and watch the other two teams play a half, then the team that drew the bye would play the team that won the first half.

Coach Weldon Chapman is making no bones about predicting that the Harvesters will fill the air with football Saturday afternoon. Yesterday afternoon he put his team through an hour of pass defense drill against the Cowhorns and it was not particularly uplifting. Swede McMurry's boys, using Harvesters plays, completed many passes but their ground attack was stopped "cold." The Westerners looked good on the ground against the Harvesters defense as used by the Cowhorns.

The work of Newton, fullback, Granbury, halfback, and Hodges, guard, has been particularly scintillating in practice this week. With Hale and Ryan clicking, the Westerners hope to give the Pampa boys an interesting afternoon Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Harper of Amarillo spent last night in Pampa.

FIVE BALTIMORE PLAYERS GO TO GALVESTON IN PRO TRADE

Hawaiian Outfielder Bought by Phillies for an Unannounced Amount.

BY BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer. GALVESTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The annual convention of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues went into its second day of executive business, trading and selling of players today.

A brisk opening day of player deals featured yesterday's opening which President William G. Bramham, of Durham, N. C., inaugurated by reading his annual report. The most difficult problem has been appeal cases before the executive committee composed of Warren Giles of Rochester, J. Alvin Gardner of Dallas, and Dale Gear of Topeka. The executive committee started investigating the appeals Tuesday, stayed in session until 12 o'clock Tuesday night, went into session again yesterday and adjourned late last night without rendering final verdicts.

The cases involve Art Shires, Jim Lindsey, Charlie Wilson, and Gordon Slade, who were fined and banished last year from the American League. Shires and Lindsey were here and ready to appear before the committee. Another was Harold Myer, suspended two years for alleged signing of a false affidavit and contract.

The annual banquet will be held tonight. Walter D. Cline of Wichita Falls, president of the West Texas chamber of commerce, will be the principal speaker. Commissioner Landis, President Bramham, and other leading baseball officials, also are on the program.

Although the meeting is for minors, two major league deals were announced. The St. Louis Cardinals traded Catcher Jimmy Wilson to the Philadelphia Phillies for Catcher Virgil Davis and infielder Edward Delker. The Phillies also purchased outright Henry Prince Oana, Hawaiian outfielder, from Portland of the Pacific Coast League. Portland received an unannounced sum of money and three players for Oana.

Galveston of the Texas League made the most sensational trade by getting John Clebaugh, outfielder; Claude Linton, catcher; Glenn Liebhardt and Harold King, shortstops, and Harry Gumbert, pitcher, from Baltimore in exchange for Keith Molesworth, shortstop.

Other deals yesterday included Guy Sturdy, first baseman and manager at Little Rock, to Baltimore in exchange for Guy Cantrell, pitcher. Ernie Holman, Dallas third sacker, was traded to Houston for Eddie Hook, third baseman, and Hal Funk, catcher. The Atlanta Crack-

Withdrawal Of Canadian Leaves LeFors In Lead

The LeFors Pirates, after having been eliminated from the race for district championship honors as a result of their loss to the Canadian high school Wildcats, are once again in the district race. The Canadian team has withdrawn from further participation on finding that they had played an ineligible player. Their withdrawal was voluntary.

The Pirates, on the other hand, present one of the strongest teams that they have ever had, a team that has speed and determination. The Pirates met defeat at the hands of the Wildcats on October 20, but they were without the service of five of their regulars.

As a result of the withdrawal of Canadian, the Pirates have automatically become sectional champions and are awaiting the winner of the Groom-Panhandle affair to play for the bi-sectional title.

The Pirates are especially anxious that the winner be Panhandle, as they have an old sore which can be healed by defeating the Panthers from that city. The Panthers erased the championship aspirations of the Pirates last year by a 19 to 7 score.

There will be ten men that participated in that bi-sectional game primed from the Panhandle or Groom team, as the case may be. Bonner, a 170-pound end; Wood, a tackle; Combs, an all-district guard of 1933; Brown, center and last year captain; Moore, a tackle; Berg, an end; Still, at quarter; Bagwell, at full, and Wilson a halfback, will be ready. Other letter-men that did not see service in the Panhandle game last year that will be on hand are Willis, a guard, and Hall, a half back.

PLAYERS FOR ALL-AMERICA ARE NUMEROUS

MYTHICAL ELEVEN ARE HARDER TO PICK THIS SEASON

BY ALAN GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor. NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—It's nearly ten years since the most famous exponent of the All-America died, Walter Camp, but there appears to be less enthusiasm than ever in the rush now under way to paste the all-star football labels for 1933 on the standout players from coast to coast.

It's an old American custom, the kind of an argument in which one and all can participate, whatever the complexities may be in attempting to name eleven men as the superiors to all the rest in a game played so widely and so well in all corners of the gridiron map. Its existence is sustained by custom and encouraged by popular demand.

The returns so far in the ninth annual Associated Press All-America consensus indicate observers have had more than usual difficulty making their choices and making them stick. The competition seems to be so close and hard fought this year that there is little or no assurance that a star player will look like an All-American two weeks in a row. The ball carrier who runs wild behind expert blockers one week and dashes mostly into the arms of opposing tacklers the next is giving the experts many a headache.

Take a few examples: Cy Grant, the Georgia backfield star, came north heralded by many Dixie experts as the south's leading All-America candidate, yet it was his running mate, Homer Key, who starred in the Yale Bowl. Mike Sebastian, Pittsburgh back, has been "hot and cold" this season. A coast critic suggested Bill Corbis, Stanford guard, was below form this year but a few days later Corbis was almost the whole show in beating Southern California. As a sophomore tackle at times, then his All-America running mate, Joe Kurth, at Notre Dame, but Krause has been obscured this year in his team's debacle.

Few standouts. The reports, nevertheless, show a few standouts, for consistency as well as exceptional ability. They include Charles Bernard, Michigan center; Jack Buckler, triple-threat army halfback; Fred Crawford, Duke tackle, and George Henry Sauer, Nebraska fullback. Any All-America consensus compiled at this stage would certainly include all four of these players but most observers want to study the final returns, especially the results of games this Saturday and next, before they go "out on the limb" to stay with their selections.

The list of All-America candidates to date is by no means complete but the following players have been most prominently mentioned in Associated Press returns:

Ends: Smith, University of Washington; Petroskey, Michigan; Larson, Minnesota; Gentry, Centenary; Evans, Notre Dame; Manske, Northwestern; Skladany, Pittsburgh. Tackles: Crawford, Duke; Harvey, Holy Cross; Wistert, Michigan; C. Jorgensen, St. Mary's; Gentry, Oklahoma; Peering, Purdue; Ceppi, Princeton; Kilcullen, Yale. Guards: Corbis, Stanford; Hupke, Alabama; Rosenberg, Southern California; Galus, Ohio State; Burzio, Carnegie; Jablonsky, Army. Centers: Bernard, Michigan; Del Isola, Fordham; Coats, University of California at Los Angeles. Quarterbacks: Johnson, Army; Beyon, Illinois; Pardonner, Purdue; Warburton, Southern California; Montgomery, Columbia. Halfbacks: Buckler, Army; Everhous, Michigan; Purvis, Purdue; Kercheval, Kentucky; Feathers, Tennessee; Roberts, Tulane; Wilson, St. Mary's; Danowski, Fordham; Grant, Georgia; Sebastian, Pittsburgh; Nott, Detroit; Franklin, Oregon State. Fullbacks: Sauer, Nebraska; Lund, Minnesota; Mitalak, Oregon; Weinstein, Pittsburgh.

L'FORS STILL IN GRID RACE

Winner of Panhandle-Groom Game Tomorrow to Play Pirates Next Week

Bi-sectional games in District 1, Class B, will be played within the next two weeks and a district champion will be declared by Nov. 25. Three sectional championships have already been settled and the fourth winner will be declared tomorrow.

Dumas emerged winner in Section A and the B section winner will be declared tomorrow when Panhandle and Groom meet in Panhandle. The Canadian Wildcats won the C section but voluntarily withdrew from the race when they found an ineligible player on their list. The act left LeFors divisional champions. Perryton upset the district dope last week with a 13 to 0 win over the Spearman Lynx in section D. Spearman was the district champion last year and was doped to repeat.

Dumas and Perryton will play for bi-sectional honors tomorrow afternoon. The winner of the Panhandle-Groom game will meet LeFors next week.

Winners in tomorrow's contests would be hard to select. Taking the dope one way, Perryton is three points better than Dumas but by going a different route, Dumas is six points stronger than Perryton. Panhandle's Panthers hold the edge on Groom, although dope shows Panhandle 26 points stronger than Groom in one series of games but also shows Groom 14 points stronger than Panhandle.

The LeFors team will have to battle every minute if they meet Panhandle, fans predict. Last year the Panthers won 19 to 6 in a bi-sectional game.

FIGHT CARD TO FEATURE FOUR BOUTS TONIGHT

OPENER AND 3 MAIN EVENTS ARE ON PROGRAM

Promoter B. W. Kelly's all-star boxing card to be staged at the Pampa auditorium tonight will bring such well known fighters as Chief Paris, Pete Regal, Young Kid Granite, Old Kid Granite, and Hank Alvarez. There will be three main events and the preliminary will start at 8 o'clock.

The promoter has two main events lined up but may be able to present only one because of the length of the card. The first main event will be between Old Kid Granite and Hank Alvarez. Both boys will weigh 144 pounds. It should be a "leather-slinging" exhibition from first to last.

Young Kid Granite, one of the most promising youngsters in the 122-pound class, will meet Kid Karr in the second main event. Both boys are free fighters and tough.

Pete Regal, well known in the Panhandle area, will tangle with Chief Paris, Oklahoma Indian, in the closing bout. Paris is the boy who stopped Howard Scott some time ago. He holds a decision over Regal and the Berger wild man has

Panhandle Farmers To Plant Austrian Peas For Grazing

WELLINGTON, Nov. 16. (AP)—Eight hundred pounds of Austrian winter peas have been distributed to farmers of Collingsworth county who have planted experimental crops.

This variety of peas has proven successful in the vicinity of Hollis, Okla., where large crops have been planted for the last two or three years.

The peas make fine grazing for livestock in the winter months, then may be harvested for hay or plowed under as a soil builder. County agents of this area recommend the peas as the greatest soil builder than can be grown in this area.

WITH THE HARVESTERS

By HARRY E. HOARE

Erasmus Tack has challenged this department's accuracy in saying that the Harvesters were out-weighted in the Amarillo game. Tack knows quite well that a football player's weight is as private as a gangster's income. Like Will Rogers, all we know about it is what the coaches give out for all to read on the program for the games. Here is the evidence from the coaches themselves, the boys listed being those who were in the starting lineups:

Gray county has a district football champion after a series of tough games and bad breaks. LeFors is the only survivor, and that through a break. The Pirates of Skellytown went through the Coach Duncan with only one defeat, to Canadian. Now Canadian has voluntarily withdrawn from the football race, after winning the district, because of the finding of an ineligible man. Canadian is to be commended on her fine sportsmanship in volunteering the information. Our hat is off to Canadian, and also to LeFors.

H. M. Brooks, business manager of the Pirate team and one of the Harvesters' best boosters, writes us that his team is glad to be back in the race, naturally, but that the team is also sympathetic for Canadian because the Wildcats have a great football team. LeFors will meet the winner of the Panhandle-Groom game to be played Friday afternoon in Panhandle. The Pirates are secretly hoping that Panhandle will win because they hope to wipe out the 19 to 6 defeat of last year.

McLean, favorite for state Class B honors, was eliminated because of an ineligible player. This was the first blow received by a Gray county team. Then the Pirates lost to Canadian. Last of all, the Pampa Harvesters "went out" at the hands of Amarillo. Now LeFors is back in the middle of the heap and the entire county is pulling for the team to "come through." Pampa fans will support the Pirates in the same spirit that LeFors backed the Harvesters. The Pirates and the Pampa Gorillas will meet at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on Pirate field.

Dale Gernon of Miami visited in Pampa yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. D. Champion of Kingsmill shopped here yesterday.

A. E. Leaf of LeFors was a visitor here last night.

Loses 3 Teeth, Hair, Eyebrows, But All In Fun

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, Nov. 16 (AP)—It was all in fun, but it cost L. Vernon Lawrence his hair, his eyebrows, and three teeth.

Lawrence's shouting at four men in a boat and his misrepresentation of himself as his rather prominent brother-in-law, Dr. C. R. Sabryan, was just a joke.

But as it later turned out, Lawrence's brother-in-law was just the man the four boatmen sought, so they hauled him into the boat—to hold for ransom.

When they found he wasn't Dr. Sabryan after all the quartet (Lawrence thought they were narcotic smugglers) tortured him; cutting his hair and pulling his eyebrows and three teeth.

Lawrence was swimming when the boat nearly struck him. He jokingly threatened to have them arrested and mentioned police and Dr. Sabryan's name. That, he said, was where his trouble started.

Simmons Denies Home Plate Was Moved For Him

CHICAGO, Nov. 16 (AP)—Al Simmons is all "burnt up" over reports that he requested the White Sox management to move home plate out 14 feet toward centerfield so he could get more home runs.

The distance of the fences at Comiskey park, home of the White Sox, never bothered him, he insists. It was the breeze that swept off Lake Michigan into the park, giving outfielders plenty of time to camp under his d vest.

"I deeply resent the implication that I requested the change," Simmons snorted as he talked to newspaper reporters. "I've never asked favors from anyone in baseball. I simply went on an inexplicable slump toward the end of the season. This report puts me on the spot as the fans will expect me to hit 35 or 40 home runs next season."

Owner Lou Comiskey, in announcing plans to move the home plate out 14 feet, said it was a move to help Simmons make some of his long drives homers instead of flies.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two ounces of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a sick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name on the red label. Resist a substitute. Microscopic. 1931 C. M. Co.

Ice Cubes to Antarctic

The "Bear of Oakland," which will be the home of members of the Byrd Antarctic expedition, is fitted with the finest equipment for every purpose. These photographs of the ship, taken before its departure, show how modern electric refrigeration was installed to protect the expedition's food supplies both during the run through the tropics and in the heated interior of the ship when it is anchored in the polar region.

No matter what valuable prizes in the way of scientific discoveries will be brought back by the current Byrd Antarctic expedition, it is certain that these hardy adventurers are taking something unusual to the ice bound wastes of the polar regions—common ice cubes.

For, despite the fact that the expedition will spend most of its time amid sub-zero temperatures, electric refrigeration is an important part of the equipment on the Byrd ship. "Bear of Oakland" and members of the crew will eat food which has been safeguarded by Kelvinators, installed as one of the comforts of home aboard the expedition's sturdy ship.

MARY McCORMIC SLAPS FACE OF YOUNG WOMAN, MDIVANI FRIEND, WHO TRIED TO DIVULGE SECRETS

Singer Wins Bout But Divorce Details Are Told

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16 (AP)—Mary McCormic, the opera singer, squared off in a face-slapping episode with a young woman identified as Grace Williams, and as a friend of the Princess Mdivani, and came out the winner last night.

Reporter and editors, of whom there were many to witness the brief engagement in the editorial offices of a Los Angeles newspaper, separated the pair. The witnesses agreed that Miss McCormic was the victor.

The face-slapping episode came as a sequel to Miss McCormic's divorce from Prince Serge Mdivani Tuesday. At that time it was announced the property settlement between the pair would remain a secret.

Miss Williams attempted to dispose of the "secrets" of the agreement to a newspaper. Miss McCormic, her Irish eyes blazing, entered the newspaper office a few moments after Miss Williams appeared.

"You will, will you?" demanded Miss McCormic, swinging into action.

A short time later Michael Luddy, an attorney for the singer, learning of the circumstances and the reported tale of the settlement, came forth with a statement of the details of the property agreement.

Reviewing the case, in which Miss McCormic originally sued for separate maintenance and the prince answered with an action for divorce and ending when a settlement was agreed upon and the singer withdrew her complaint, substituting a divorce petition, Luddy said:

"The agreement provided that in consideration of Miss McCormic dismissing her action against Mdivani with respect to the ownership of one-half of the stock of the Pacific Shore Oil company, Mdivani would pay to Miss McCormic the sum of $15,000, evidenced by two notes, one in the sum of $5,000, payable in six months, and secured by the oil company's stock, and the other in the sum of $10,000, payable in one year.

NEBRASKA TO BATTLE PITT ON SATURDAY

OREGON BEAVERS WILL SEEK TO DEFEAT FORDHAM

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Fordham Rams and the Pitt Panthers, whose schedules annually give them a large share of the task of upholding eastern football prestige in inter-sectional games, stand by again this week to repel invaders of no inconsiderable power.

Fordham, victor over Alabama but beaten by St. Mary's Gaels, winds up a highly successful season against the Beavers of Oregon State. Pitt, beaten only by Minnesota and conqueror of Notre Dame and Centre from other sections, hopes to add Nebraska's undefeated and untied Cornhuskers to the list.

Fordham wants revenge on the Far West for that St. Mary's defeat and may get it at Oregon State's expense but Jimmy Crowley will be ready for the closest kind of a battle. Lon Stiner, in his first season as head coach, has developed the Beavers into a formidable array of "iron men." Their only defeat so far came last week when they dropped a 19-3 decision to Oregon's unbeaten and untied outfit, heir-apparent to the Pacific coast throne.

The Beavers' feats of endurance have aroused widespread interest.

not only in the Far West but throughout the country. They used only 11 men in holding Southern California to a scoreless draw and made only one substitution in a hard-fought 12-7 victory over San Francisco and only one when they nosed out Washington State 2-0.

Saturday's game will mark the third New York appearance of an Oregon State team. The Beavers of 1928 laced New York University, 25-13. Last year they were nosed out by Fordham, 8-6.

Although Nebraska travels eastward with a perfect record and its third successive Big Six championship safely stowed away, the Cornhuskers probably will be conceded not better than an even chance against Pitt. There will be two reasons for that: First, some doubt as to the quality of the opposition thru which the Cornhuskers have paraded so far; second, the fact that Nebraska teams have had little luck against Pitt since the schools put their football relations on an annual basis in 1927.

Nebraska, in fact, hasn't won a game from the Panthers in that time although the games of 1922-23-24 ended in scoreless ties. Pitt won 21-13 in 1927, 12-7 in 1929, and 40-0 in 1931. This is another odd year and precedent calls for a Panther victory.

Nebraska can take considerable cheer out of the fact, however, that this has been a poor year for precedents.

"HE WHO GETS SLAPPED" WILL BE 'DIFFERENT'

Scene And Subject in Drama Are Unusual

Unusual in theme and setting, "He Who Gets Slapped," next public presentation of the Little Theater, will give drama enthusiasts here an opportunity to see Pampa actors characterizing French aristocrats and circus folk.

Scenes are in a Parisian circus. The lives and loves, petty jealousies and bickerings of troupe members are portrayed against this background.

A cast under direction of Clyde E. Riley is working in rehearsals four and five nights weekly to have the play ready by December 4.

The story concerns a French man of the world, cynical and disillusioned after his wife proves unfaithful, who joins the circus as a clown. He befriends a young girl in the troupe who is about to marry, unwillingly, a nobleman.

The dramatic role of the clown is played by a young newcomer to Pampa, Reginald Farless, former member of the Dallas Little Theater. The cast also includes players who are known here from past appearances in Little Theater plays and other dramatic entertainments.

MRS. GILLISPIE TELLS STORY OF 4-H PANTRY THAT WAS ADMIRRED BY VISITORS ON ACHIEVEMENT DAY

Achievement in spite of early discouragements is described by Mrs. Harry Gillispie, food supply demonstrator for Laketon Home Demonstration club, in her story of the work that ended with an open house for visitors to her pantry this week.

Mrs. Gillispie started late on her project, as she became a member of the club only last spring. Her cellar shelves, viewed by visitors Tuesday afternoon, tell silently the story that she relates as follows: "I have a garden which very fair in an evening when my work is done I turn to walk in it, and find you there."

"The joy years be numbered three score and ten, yet is thy strength labor and sorrow."—Bible.

Labor—and sorrow. The first part of my story is dangerously near a tragic one. With late spring, hail, pests, and drought, more pests, and an irregular, uncertain water supply, our yield was cut short and in some varieties there was no yield at all.

We planted 15 varieties of vegetables and tomatoes, only 10 of which produced. Of the seven new varieties only two were successful, due in part to my lack of cultural knowledge. However, what the garden failed to supply was provided by funds from surplus dairy and poultry products.

Part II.
Three small children sing in chorus on the living room floor, each with a different melody but a happy chorus for all that. My chief co-operator sings lustily at his dairy routine in the barn, with no tune at all.

In the pantry repose 354 quarts of canned food, 545 pounds of stored, dried, and cured foods. Seventy more quarts of canned food and 692 pounds of other food will soon be added, making our total of canned food considerably higher and more than doubling the other varieties.

This is the second part of my story. That of every member of the Laketon club would be similar were it written.

Part III.
The third part of my story belongs, mostly, to the future—enjoyment of the fruits of our labor and building even better plans for the pantry in years to come.

But all is not said. Why do those children and husband sing so happily? Happiness is closely related to and dependent upon physical well-being, which is in turn dependent upon an adequate diet.

There is the key to the whole situation and there reposes the happiness and success of the home, club, church, state, and even the nation. A composer said "I care not who writes America's laws as long as I may write its songs." To which a wise and patriotic physician replied, "I care not who the leader of the American people may be as long as I may write its menus."

We may have tons of food before us and yet die of pellagra, a disease caused from inadequate diet, or perhaps see our children twisted hopelessly and permanently deformed from lack of the anti-rachitic factor in their food. Countless ills may follow, through life, results of ill-balanced diets.

But what and how an adequate diet? That is one phase of the many phases of home demonstration work, as given by Miss Adams, our capable and willing home demonstration agent who is backed—and held responsible—by the state and federal agricultural extension services, and who has had years of preparation for the task of helping us. This service is free to all in the county.

Through her training and supervision we learn to serve a balanced ration, plan weekly menus, and produce from a garden, livestock, and poultry, to the best of our ability, a six months supply of food that we may live economically at home on an adequate diet.

We learn to conserve, preserve, and store the surplus from each season so a balanced food supply will result throughout the year.

Would that my pantry might be duplicated in every home in Gray county, especially in the homes where small children are suffering, perhaps unknown to those who love them, from undernourishment, and where mothers have not responded

MERTEN CLUB ACHIEVEMENTS SHOWN GUESTS

FOOD SUPPLIES AND GIFTS DISPLAYED YESTERDAY

MERTEN Home Demonstration club yesterday illustrated some of its activities in a pantry achievement day held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Browning near Merten. A large group saw illustrative menus and went through Mrs. Browning's well filled, carefully arranged, and attractive cellar-pantry.

Half a dozen balanced menus such as the club women can quickly take from their pantries on a moment's notice were placed on tables. There also was a gift table showing home-made candy, sewing baskets, shoe pockets, dolls, toy rabbit, jellies, rugs, hats, aprons, and crystallized fruits. The gifts, attractive and serviceable, were made with a small expenditure of time and money.
