ASPHALT TOPPING FOR HIGHWAY 152 LIKELY

While there has been no definite announcement by the State Highway department, it is likely that Highway 152 will have an asphalt topping in mid-March. J. C. Dineen, wall, resident engineer of the department, with offices at Pampa, said this morning.

It is the practice of the State Highway department to give topping on those roads where a base has been laid, and it is expected that the same rule will apply to Highway 152, when the caliche base is laid the entire distance of the 11.7 mile strip between a point five miles east of Pampa and the Wheeler county line. The base has now been laid to a point 2 1/2 miles east of Laketon.

However, no announcement of bids has been made for such topping, nor has there been any definite information to date that the road would be topped.

CAR MAKERS AGREE TO INSTALLMENT POLICY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Leading automobile manufacturers announced after a White House conference today they were in "heartly agreement" with President Roosevelt's principles regarding installment selling of automobiles.

However, Alvin Macaulay, president of the Automobile Manufacturers' Association, said installment buying had and would continue to help millions of families raise their standard of living and also that it had helped and would continue to help increase employment.

Macaulay, spokesman for the group that included manufacturers and automobile finance company heads, said all occurred in his statement. He said the group told the President they were "hopeful a seasonal increase in sales in the spring will bring an improvement in business."

Another Suitable Dam Site Found In Survey

Another dam site in Gray county as suitable as the one at Beaver Dam has been located by government engineers and will be used if land on McClellan creek cannot be secured at a reasonable figure. P. B. Denton, government appraiser of the Farm Security Board, located in Amarillo, told C. H. Walker today.

Mr. Denton did not mention location of the other site, found by engineers earlier in the week. The appraiser in checking records and titles of land adjacent to the proposed site on McClellan creek, told Mr. Walker that some of the titles were in bad condition. He said he had not contacted land owners but that he had heard some of them planned to ask a price far in excess of the amount the government will pay for the land, if that is the case, the other site was selected, he said.

The government can institute condemnation proceedings for the land but it is not the practice if the land can be otherwise secured, Mr. Denton said.

The government will pay a fair cash market for the land, Mr. Denton said. In order to arrive at that amount, the market value of other land in the vicinity will be obtained.

BOY DIES IN CAR ACCIDENT AT STINNETT

STINNETT, Jan. 21 (Special)—Stanley Green, age 11 years, lost his life in an automobile wreck three miles south of Stinnett Friday morning at 12:15. Stanley died just as he entered the hospital in Borger.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Green and family were returning to their home on Steekel lease from Stinnett on highway south, when their car failed to run. An older son, Francis was back of the car syphoning gas from the tank when he saw an approaching car also going south. Having a flashlight he attempted to 'top the oncoming car, but the car failed to stop. Francis stepped out of the way. The Green car struck from the rear, throwing Mrs. Green and two children, Stanley and Minnie, into the ditch. They were in the back seat. Stanley was injured internally. The mother and sister suffered bruises. A passing motorist picked up the injured victims and carried them to the hospital.

Survivors are: parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Green, two brothers, Francis, 16; Forrest, 14; a sister, Minnie, 2; four uncles, Sam, Jewel, Grant, and O. Z. Greene; grandmother, Mrs. M. C. Green, Comanche.

The Greens are old timers here, having spent 12 years in the Panhandle oil fields.

Elli Olney, employee of the Magnolia Oil company in Pampa was the driver of the other car in the collision. He was also injured, and is in the hospital. Hutchinson county officers have filed charges against him for driving while drunk.

WIFE KILLED, DENTIST WOUNDS SELF IN HEAD

MADISONVILLE, Jan. 21 (AP)—Dr. H. H. Carter, 35, dentist, was in jail today suffering a slight head wound after his wife was shot dead in front of a cafe at 1 a. m.

Mrs. Carter was shot in the head, heart and abdomen as she walked from the place. She died instantly. Sheriff Joe A. Batson said.

Batson was informed Carter, after the woman was shot, walked to the home of J. M. Day, an undertaker, and called to him. A moment later, Batson said, the dentist fired a shot which inflicted a slight wound in his head.

First Rain In 6 Weeks Totals .12 Of An Inch

Rain spotted the Panhandle early today and brought to the Pampa area the first precipitation of the year with the United States government gauge recording .12 of an inch.

It was the first precipitation in Pampa since Dec. 14 last year when a tenth of an inch was recorded in snowfall. The day before that Pampa received .045 of rain. That was all the moisture, locally, in December. There was none at all in November and prior to that time the last rain to fall was 36 of an inch on Oct. 16.

Today's precipitation was divided between rain and sleet which began falling about three hours before dawn and continued in a drizzle until mid-forenoon.

OILMEN WAIT FOR DETAILS OF SHUTDOWN

Oil men of this section are marking time and saying nothing about the order of the Texas Railroad commission shutting down oil wells in the state the next six Sundays. They are waiting for further explanation of the order and word from company headquarters.

They do not believe that an entire Sunday shutdown of the Panhandle field will be ordered. Many of the wells produce casinghead gas and if shut in would necessitate cessation of the manufacture of carbon black. Also, refineries without sufficient storage to operate on the day would be damaged.

Operators believe that the stagger system of closing leases will be used so that no damage will result. That would mean that leases would be shut in on different days so that gas production would be available for heat and fuel. Most of the Panhandle wells produce oil and gas.

On wells which would be killed or damaged, exceptions will be made, according to the order.

"We feel that production will be reduced one-seventh instead of the full close-in," was the general consensus of opinion.

The Panhandle allowable at the present time is 68,578 barrels daily, which, it is believed, will be the weekly reduction. There may be some exceptions to the shut-in but their status is unknown.

Jack Dunn, deputy commissioner located here, is in Austin attending the hearing. He will return early next week and will have the full order with him, it is believed.

MILLION DOLLAR CCC SHORTAGE CHARGED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—A senate committee heard today that the general accounting office was investigating shortages of $1,000,000 in civilian conservation corps funds in the southwestern part of the United States.

Chairman Adams (D. Colo.) of the senate public lands committee made the information public at a hearing on nomination of E. K. Bailey to be first assistant interior secretary.

Adams read from a prepared list of questions which he said Senator Nye (R. N. D.) did not present at the hearing. He asked him to submit to Major General Walter L. Reed, army inspector general.

Reed was called before the committee for questioning as to the manner in which Reno E. Stutely, former voucher clerk in the interior department, had padded CCC payrolls to the extent of $84,000.

NANTUCKET CREW WILL BE FREED IN 2 DAYS

PORT ARTHUR, Jan. 21 (AP)—Mrs. J. E. Lewis, wife of the master of the Nantucket Chief, American vessel reported held by Spanish insurgents, today said she received a message saying the crew was safe and would be released in two days.

The message she said, came from the Houston office of the Gulf Oil corporation's marine department, and read: "Crew safe, to be released in two days."

The Nantucket Chief cleared from Port Arthur Nov. 28 for Gibraltar, Spain, and is now in the Gulf of Mexico.

Niagara Struggles In Winter's Icy Grip

Love gets a mighty cold reception at this time of year at Niagara Falls, N. Y., mecca of honeymooners. The rushing torrent is turned into a spectacle of icy grandeur by winter's frigid magic. Gigantic icicles hang from the rocks at the side and winds waft frozen spray over the few hardy spectators who venture to the edge of the gorge. But the cold has not yet stifled the roar of the main stream.

Allred Hires Lawyer To Assist In Padre Island Investigation

AUSTIN, Jan. 21 (AP)—The controversies between three government departments over public land leasing and the state's rights to Padre Island, 125-mile strip of sand off the Gulf Coast, witnessed two important developments today.

Governor James V. Allred announced he had employed A. R. Stout of Ennis, a former assistant attorney general and county judge, to assist in examining witnesses at the committee hearing.

In addition to questioning witnesses at the committee hearing, Stout would analyze data which independent auditors at the governor's direction are assembling from records of the land office and, the governor said, would attempt to "develop all facts."

"He has already gone to work," Governor Allred said. "Others will be employed if necessary to get the job done."

Asked if he would personally take part in the hearing, he said he did not expect to do so, but "it will be very hard to keep out."

The governor reiterated criticism of his under which some public lands have been leased, terms which he said were difficult to understand. He claims the state had not obtained the maximum returns from such leases.

Land Commissioner W. H. McDonald has said his leasing policies were to the state's best interest and that his records were open to inspection at any time.

OIL CASE SCHEDULED TO GO TO JURY TODAY

MADISONVILLE, Jan. 21 (AP)—The federal government's gasoline price-fixing case against 16 major oil companies and 32 officials was scheduled to go to the jury in federal court here today.

Prosecutor William P. Crawford's reply to defense arguments was the final item on the program before Judge Patrick T. Stone's charge to the jury, which he said might occupy two hours.

If convicted, the oil companies would face fines up to $5,000 each, and the remaining 32 individual defendants would be liable to a maximum of a year in prison or fines up to $5,000 apiece.

I SAW - - -

A large picture of grinning, 14-month old Billy Fullington in the Houston Press. The son of Henry W. (Hoot) Fullington, former Harvester athletic star, got his picture in the paper because he fell out of the second story of the Fullington home in Houston onto a piece of sheet iron and wasn't injured except for a scratch on his forehead. Boy can those Fullingtons take it! The clipping was sent by Mrs. Vera Shriver of Houston to her brother, Mickey Ledrick at Lubbock, who sent it to Pampa.

ANDERS TELLS AMAZING TALE OF SLAYINGS

ST. PAUL, Jan. 21 (AP)—An amazing story of kidnappings, slayings and bank robberies attributed to Peter Anders, surly, swarthy former lumberjack, was related today after recovery of the bodies of Charles S. Ross, abducted Chicago manufacturer, and James Alwood Gray, from a cave deep in the Northern Wisconsin woods.

Whisking Anders back to St. Paul after a tortuous two-day foray into the frozen fastness of Minnesota and Wisconsin, J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the federal bureau of investigation, said virtually all of the $50,000 ransom paid in vain for Ross' release had been recovered.

The 30-year-old onetime logger in the Pacific Northwest detailed each of numerous crimes in a confession covering thousands of words, said Hoover, adding that Anders had slain his accomplice, Gray, during an argument.

The FBI chief said Anders had confessed kidnaping John Borcia and his wife, Olivia, of Chicago, and robbing one Minnesota and three Wisconsin banks. The Borcias were released without payment of ransom.

$30,000 Hidden When arrested Friday at Santa Anita racetrack near Los Angeles, Anders possessed about $14,000 of the ransom money. Hoover said. An additional $30,000 to $50,000 was found hidden in Minnesota. Anders said $3,000 of the balance was stolen from his car in New York City.

The bodies of Ross and Gray, the latter nude, were found just before dark yesterday in a small brush concealed cave in a desolate section about 12 miles northwest of Spooner, Wis. Hoover said the killer slew Gray first and then shot the 72-year-old kidnap victim.

Anders chained the bodies in the vault-like burial place and then covered them with brush and debris, said the federal chief.

Detailing the search for ransom loot and the bodies, Hoover said the trail led beyond St. Cloud, Minn., about 70 miles north of here, in a wooded region near Emily, Minn., Hoover said the prisoner led federal agents to a dugout where Ross was confined immediately after his kidnaping Sept. 25 and then to a brush heap where $30,000 of the ransom money was found in a portable typewriter case.

Horses, Sleds Used Then the federal men drove to Superior, Wis., arriving there at 1 a. m. yesterday and departing at 7 a. m. for the Spooner vicinity. The trail to the cave was broken with horses and sleds.

Hoover was returned to the FBI headquarters here about 12:30 a. m. today handcuffed to an agent and chained about the waist and shoulder. Hoover said he would be returned to Chicago, either today or Saturday.

Hoover and his dozen aides as well as Anders were a weary group after they had completed their long trip through the north country. They had been enroute most of two days and nights, were unshaven and their clothing indicated considerable contact with the brush and rough terrain of the northern wilds.

The detailed Anders' confession as given by the federal bureau of investigation chief related how Ross was brought to the Minnesota hideout immediately after the kidnaping.

The place was described as a shallow wood frame dugout, implanted level with the earth, about

Sen. Ellender Talks 25 Hours Against Measure

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—As a filibuster, Senator Ellender (D-La.) almost achieved the heights of his predecessor, the late Huey P. Long, when he finished his speech on the anti-labor bill.

Senate timekeepers said the drawing Louisiana, from the time he started speaking last Friday until he concluded yesterday, actually was on his feet for 25 hours.

Official reporters estimated the volume at 175,000 words. "Old Bob" La Follette of Wisconsin and Huey Long, however, still hold the senate record for filibustering. They talked longer—without interruptions—than did Ellender, whose address was spread over six sessions.

La Follette spoke continuously for 18 hours and 30 minutes. Long for 16 hours. Ellender, who spoke up on the performance of recent filibusters said, however, Ellender got the best "mileage"—about 4,800 words to a tumbler of water and 4,781 to a glass of orange juice.

State Wages Campaign Against 'Drip Gas' Haulers In County

Agents of the state comptroller's department have been active in Gray county in checking illegal transportation of drip gasoline, thereby saving the state many thousands of dollars in revenue.

Agents estimate that a million gallons are annually taken from drips over the Panhandle, meaning a $40,000 loss from the revenue that comes from the four-cent a gallon tax.

Wednesday, the grand jury of the 31st district court made three indictments in connection with this kind of case. Last year, two convictions were obtained in drip gasoline cases, and county officers say

'SORE SPOT' LABEL REMOVED FROM DALLAS

AUSTIN, Jan. 21 (AP)—The liquor board today removed the "sore spot" label from Dallas and Fort Worth. C. A. Paxton, chief enforcement officer, said termination of a two-month enforcement campaign in the North Texas communities had improved law observance and conditions no longer were considered serious.

He attributed the change to a "sit-down" enforcement drive of liquor board officers and cooperation of local agencies.

Bell H. D. Club Hears Discussion of Family Life at Meeting

"What the home thinks tomorrow," Mrs. Julia E. Kelley said in a discussion of family life to the Bell Home Demonstration club which met Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. L. C. O'Neal.

Home is the foundation of civilization. Good health, contentment, cooperation, patience, and understanding were a few of the essential qualities necessary toward making a happy family life, which the speaker mentioned.

All club members were urged to prepare their gardens early, and if possible, water them thoroughly two or three times before planting time. Early plowing and burning of weeds help to decrease insects and the grasshoppers can be fought before they hatch.

Light refreshments suitable for club meetings should meet three requirements—be easy to prepare, be easy on digestion, and sometimes that will not take the place of the evening meal.

Appointments of the club committees were made at the last meeting. They are educational, Mrs. C. McKnight and L. C. O'Neal; finance, Mrs. Ebert Keahey and H. H. Keahey; expansion, Mrs. L. F. Kotara; recreation, Mrs. Melvin Whitchurch and Miss Geraldine Skibinski; 4-H sponsor, Mrs. L. C. O'Neal; reporter, Mrs. Melvin Whitchurch, and parliamentarian, Mrs. R. E. Daner.

Plans for the educational, expansion, and recreational committees for the year were read and adopted.

Mrs. R. E. Daner will be hostess to the club at its next meeting on February 2.

Refreshments of hot tea, candied fruit, and parched pecans were served buffet style to 10 members, a visitor, Miss Dorothy Skibinski, and Mrs. Julia E. Kelley.

Queen Dresses to the King's Taste

PARIS, Jan. 21—The 45 gowns and coats included in the $25,000 trousseau of beautiful Farida Zulficar certainly ought to please her young husband, King Farouk of Egypt to whom she was married yesterday. He selected the wardrobe himself.

The wedding dress comes from the house of Worth, the traditional dressmaker of queens. For this the king chose silver lace, made over satin, with a court train of silver lame eight yards long swung from the shoulders. The veil is of closely shirred tulle, encrusted and edged with the silver lace of the dress.

Farida Zulficar's trousseau includes this Molyneux princess gown of pale blue faille. The draped bra trim of the bodice becomes a shirred back with heart-shaped decolletage.

This is the wedding gown of a girl destined to be a queen, Farida Zulficar, the magistrate's daughter who was to become bride of young King Farouk of Egypt. Made by the Paris house of Worth, it is of silver lace over satin. The court train, 8 yards long, is in silver lame, edged with the silver lace. The shirred tulle veil is encrusted and edged with more silver lace.

used to embroider one of these in peach rose satin. The lame train, again eight yards long, boasts jewel embroidery and is trimmed with blue velvet and ermine. There is a brocade design of lotus leaves and a quarter moon, on which a verse from the Koran will be embroidered in gold. Price: $3,000.

A second of these court models is in shell pink of handsome lace and a third, in pale blue lame, also pearl-embroidered, is cut on true Greek lines with all its classic dignity.

Molyneux has made for Farida a princess frock of pale blue faille with the skirt gores widening toward the floor-length hem. A tuxedo for King Farouk is a shirred bodice with a heart shaped line in back.

The future queen favors blue fox in furs and these lovely skins are being used extensively in trimming the six coats of various shades included in her trousseau.

Lace Specially Designed
The lingerie is a fairytale of shimmering satin and gossamer. For four months twenty Armenian girls have been busy on the 300 pieces of which it is composed. Each piece has a royal crown and the queen's given name, Farida, embroidered on it.

King Farouk is a connoisseur of lance and much of this delicate trimming has been designed at his request. Several sets are trimmed with priceless pieces, once the property of Empress Elizabeth of Austria. One particularly lovely model is of white lace cut on Mary, Queen of Scots lines, and worn with a satin negligee embroidered with gold.

Each set of pyjamas is completed by a tiny bolero in matching lame or velvet. One of these models uses Russian inspiration.

Again a Royal crown and the name of Farida are embroidered on household linens. These are also specially made in a special shade of pale blue.

DON'T BULLY CONSTIPATION

If you suffer from common constipation, due to lack of bulk in the diet, harsh cathartics don't get at the cause of your trouble. You can avoid this kind of constipation by eating Kellogg's All-Bran. This tasty cereal not only contains the intestinal tonic vitamin B, but also provides the bulk you need. It absorbs moisture... softens like a sponge into a water-softened mass that encourages and aids natural elimination.

Use Kellogg's All-Bran in muffins. Or as a breakfast cereal. But eat All-Bran every day and drink plenty of water. Made by Kellogg at Battle Creek.

Modern Menus

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

If you enjoy fruit, here's news for you. Orange suet between now and May 1 are expected to be the largest on record. During this period, both Florida and California will divide the honors.

Fruit for dessert is not only good food, it is also "highly fashionable." Especially when served with cheese, such as Liederkranz, Roquefort, or Camembert. If you are not in the habit of serving a cheese and fruit dessert, begin this pleasant custom at your next Sunday night supper.

Preserved fruits as well as fresh fruits make tasty alliances with cheese. Preserved figs drained and stuffed with a mixture of cream cheese and a dash of salt and cayenne are tasty novelties. Liederkranz makes a piquant stuffing for large prunes. Large black grapes, chilled, and seeded, are delicious stuffed with pimento cheese.

Baked Rhubarb and Bananas
Two cups rhubarb, 3 bananas, 3-4 cups sugar, 1-2 teaspoon lemon juice, 1-2 tablespoons butter.

Wash rhubarb and cut into one-inch pieces. Peel and slice bananas, arrange in baking dish in alternate layers, add sugar, lemon juice and butter. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) two hours.

De Luxe Compote (4 to 6 servings)
Six red apples, 6 eating pears, 11-2 cups sugar, 11-2 cups water, juice and rind of 1 small orange.

Peel pears and apples and cut into thin lengthwise strips. Make a syrup of sugar, water and orange and lemon juice. Cut rind of lemon and orange into very small pieces and cook in syrup. Add apples and pears to syrup and cook until soft. Place in individual glasses and chill in refrigerator. Top with whipped cream and a little candied peel or ginger or a cherry to make a richer dessert.

Housing Bill Agreement Breaks Congress Deadlock

EXPECT FARM BILL PASSAGE IN TEN DAYS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP).—Agreement on the administration's housing bill by a Senate-House committee broke today the three-week deadlock that has held up congressional approval of measures passed at the recent special session.

The conference committee eliminated a Senate amendment to require payment of prevailing wages for construction of homes financed under the program.

Senator Lodge (R., Mass.) author of the amendment, said he would try to reinstate it when the Senate votes on approving the compromise bill.

Conferees on the farm bill, reported they had settled most of the troublesome issues. They hope to get the legislation on the statute books by Feb. 1.

The committee voted yesterday to pay cooperating farmers on the same basis as the present soil conservation benefits.

Despite progress on holdover activities, there was little improvement in the Senate filibuster situation that has prevented consideration of any new legislation.

Confident Southern Senators still held up the anti-lynching bill by a flood of oratory.

Nevertheless, Senators in touch with backstage negotiations forecast a break would come within another week or so.

Leaders hoped to approve the $553,000,000 naval supply bill today—the third appropriation bill to be sent to the Senate in less than two weeks.

The House tentatively approved yesterday an amendment by Rep. Scott (D., Calif.), to halt all naval promotions and retirements for a year while congress worked out a new promotion system for the service.

100 PLANES IN DOG FIGHT AT TERUEL FRONT

(By The Associated Press)
Japan maneuvered today for more complete control of conquered Chinese territory. France centralized control of her armed forces in an unusual peacetime move and Spain again was a proving ground for modern warplanes.

A Japanese "Lawrence of Manchuria" Lieut. Gen. Kenji Dohara, whose undercover work is credited with paving the way for Japan's conquest of Manchuria and invasion of China proper—was said by Chinese sources at Shanghai to be forming a new regime to govern the Shanghai and Nanking areas.

In conquered Nanking Japanese authorities were taking over the activities of the international relief committee which a spokesman said was considered "a semi-official Chinese government organ."

The committee is made up of American missionaries and German business men. The committee has been carrying for 250,000 refugees in Nanking.

Officers Punished.
The Chinese government, struggling against the Japanese invasion on at least three fronts, disclosed in Hankow that 40 of its high officers, half of them division commanders, had been punished by courts martial in the last six months—eight with death.

Diplomatic quarters in Paris said France would ask Tokyo for a report on an attempted landing of Japanese marines on the strategic Chinese island of Hainan, commanding the sea approach to northern French Indo-China. A foreign office spokesman said he believed the Japanese were only trying to get water. Heavy Chinese fire blocked them.

A measure to centralize France's army, navy and air forces under the defense ministry was passed last night by the chamber of deputies and signed today by President Albert Lebrun—one of the first steps under the new government of Premier Camille Chautemps.

The Chinese-Japanese war went on without spectacular development, but in Spain the insurgents again tested their power in the air after hundreds died or were injured in governmental coastal cities in two days of such warfare.

More than 100 planes fought at one time over the Teruel front yesterday. The insurgents reported their aerial onslaughts had aided infantry in fresh advances, including occupation of El Muleton hill, west of Teruel.

Britain instructed her ambassador to Tokyo to try to learn whether Japan is building battleships of more than 25,000 tons, the limit set by the London naval treaty of 1930. Informed sources said discussion might be begun with the United States and France looking to denunciation of the tonnage limit, depending on the reply from Tokyo.

Fine Wires Used To Capture Bats

SANTA FE, Jan. 21.—A rather common belief that some sense organ always enables bats in swift flight to avoid obstacles they can't see, has been disproven in a series of night experiments in the Chisos Mountains area of the proposed Big Bend National Park in Texas.

Bats were captured there, it was revealed today at Southwestern Regional headquarters of the National Park Service, by stretching fine wires across a water tank frequented for drink. The mammals struck the wires and fell into the water, from where they were easily captured.

AP WRITER KILLED IN SPAIN BURIED TODAY

METHUEN, Mass., Jan. 21 (AP)—Edward J. Neill Jr., 36, Associated Press war correspondent killed in Spain, was buried on a snow-covered hillside here today while church bells tolled.

His last resting place was made a mass of flowers, sent from many parts of the world by men with whom he had worked and other friends.

About 200 mourners gathered at the grave as Neill's body was carried by six of his boyhood friends from Methuen and nearby Lawrence.

The committal services were conducted by the Rev. John J. O'Donnell of the Guardian Angel Church of New York.

Neill's widow, his father, brother and other members of the family stood near the grave during the brief but impressive services.

In the mass of flowers were tributes from foreign correspondents with whom Neill had worked in Spain and Ethiopia, newspapermen and organizations in this country, and others from figures prominent in the sports world. One floral piece directly in front of the grave carried an "AP" logotype in purple flowers against a white background.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Jan. 21 (AP)—The purchase of the Adobe Ranch, one of New Mexico's best-known old-time outfits, was disclosed today by an agent of A. T. McDannald of Houston, Texas, the buyer.

Oral Keen of Amarillo, Texas, announced McDannald had acquired the ranch, a part of the old V-Cross-T properties, from the Red River Cattle Company owned by Major E. O. Braught. The price was not disclosed.

The Adobe is situated near Magdalena, N. M. The deal included sheep and cattle on the ranch and about 150,000 acres.

PLOT TO BLOW UP JAPANESE SHIPS BARED

SEATTLE, Jan. 21 (AP)—A bizarre story of an Oriental plot to blow up ships laden in American ports with scrap iron and war materials for Japan was checked by authorities today while steamships in Seattle's harbor were warned to be aware of a crude home-made floating bomb.

Police Captain Marshall Scraftford said George Partridge, 22-year-old Canadian, reported "Orientals" had employed him and Rolphe M. Forsyth, school teacher of Vancouver, B. C., to dynamite the ships. He said he did not know the nationality of the "Orientals."

Forsyth drowned in an attempt, Partridge said, to blow up the Japanese liner, Hye Maru, first objective of the plot.

He said he last saw Forsyth early yesterday splashing into the numbing waters of Elliott Bay, pushing a railroad tie to which was lashed

LIFE-TERM MURDERER DIES IN ESCAPE PLOT

LANSING, Kas., Jan. 21 (AP)—A young life-term murderer lay dead in the Kansas prison morgue today, shot when eight convicts attempted to escape in a fog last night.

Cecil Thornburgh, 25, serving life for killing a county jail guard, was wounded fatally as he stood on a cell house he and five others had scaled with the aid of long steel hooks.

Gifford Ottinger, 21, was critically wounded after he and a companion, Carnes Addington, had climbed a wire fence.

Ottinger and Addington gave the signal for the break when they pulled the main light switch in the prison light plant, where they worked, and packed it. Addington was shot in the hip.

Public Hunting Grounds Impossible Claims Tucker

LAND OFFICE INQUIRY NEXT ON PROGRAM

AUSTIN, Jan. 21 (AP)—Accusations and denials politics controlled the Texas game department were included in the record of a senate committee investigation today.

The inquisitorial group recessed yesterday after agreeing to start an inquiry into leasing policies of the land office next Wednesday. Chairman T. J. Holbrook of Galveston said the board of cosmetology might be investigated later.

A. E. Wood of Austin, game commission chairman, and Will J. Tucker, commission secretary, answered charges of preceding witnesses after entering categorical denials.

Tucker declared government officials' recommendations of men for department positions were given full consideration and the requests honored if the men qualified and a position was vacant. He said that method would be changed if the legislature so desired.

The secretary asserted public hunting grounds were a financial impossibility in Texas and that Pennsylvania had found the plan unfeasible. He said the Eastern state had adopted the Texas system of game preserves.

Wood informed the committee it was his opinion Tucker was the best informed man on wildlife in America and Texas could ill afford to do without him. He is one of the big men in national game circles.

The commission chairman asserted the warden force was a service agency whose duties included aiding the hunter and fisherman as well as enforcing the laws.

He admitted an organization had been formed to solicit $1,900 for lobbying the passage of bills conferring regulatory powers on the commission and establishing universal hunting and fishing licenses.

"We are interested in game conservation and believe these things are of vital importance in furthering that end," he said.

"The game department," he concluded, "always will be criticized, no matter what it does. You can't please everybody."

Drips Near LeFors
It is in the winter months that the supply of drip gasoline is most plentiful, because the temperature and the moisture in most conduits to gasoline forming in the drips.

Near LeFors there are four large drips that produce a total of 1,500 gallons a night.

Drip gasoline is considered as waste by the companies. When used in cars, it has a foul, smoky odor, and is injurious to motors.

Wilson District Chief John C. Wilson, with office in Amarillo, is the district supervisor for the comptroller's department. Working under Mr. Wilson are J. B. O'Keefe and Don Seale, stationed at Shamrock. E. V. Anderson, at Lubbock and R. C. Jackson, at Canadian.

Mr. Anderson and Mr. Jackson have been the agents who have been working in Gray county.

A legal way by which gasoline may be taken from drips is for a person to secure a permit, post a $1,000 bond, and keep certain records and reports.

MEXICO'S INCREASES IN TARIFFS WEIGHED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Officials of the state commerce and treasury departments weighed today the possible implications of Mexico's drastic increase in tariffs, particularly as it affected United States exports.

Without indicating immediately whether diplomatic action was contemplated, administration economists did not attempt to conceal their disappointment at what many regarded as a challenge to Secretary Hull's reciprocal trade program.

This program is aimed at expansion of international commerce through mutual lowering of tariff barriers between nations. The Mexican government's choice of an opposite course caused general surprise here.

Some well informed observers believe reprisals by this government are possible if officials find the new Mexican rates discriminate against American products.

No reciprocal trade agreement exists between the two but the United States gives Mexico the benefit of all concessions it has made to other countries.

DEALERS SEE NEW HUDSON

Fred C. Cullum and Geo Taylor have just returned from a meeting in Amarillo where the new Hudson 112 was unveiled for the first time in this vicinity.

A. McManus of the Sales Development Division, Mr. C. L. Mason, District Manager for Northern New Mexico, the Texas Panhandle, and Oklahoma, and Mr. Whit Pryor, of the Parts and Service Division from the Hudson factory in Detroit, were on hand for the ceremony and stated that the factory is already swinging into full production, and volume shipments of this new entry in the lowest price field are now being made.

The announcement of this new car, along with the fact that Hudson is restoring jobs to 6,000 men and spending $11,000,000 for material, creating a nation-wide stir last week. Coming at a time when news of lay-offs and retrenchment had become common, the announcement was hailed as introducing a new optimistic note into the general business situation.

Mr. Cullum who, with other dealers from this part of the country, had his first look at the new car, states that a public showing of the new Hudson 112 will be made here. He states that the car is particularly outstanding in the matter of size, roominess and advance mechanical and safety features heretofore confined to higher priced cars.

The meeting at Amarillo was one of 83 which will be held throughout the country from coast to coast during the next ten days to show the new car which has set a high mark in the matter of public interest for such announcements. Front page stories in the big dailies of the largest cities of the country acclaimed the announcement by president A. E. Barit of the Hudson Company, whose organization was doing its bit by putting "men and money back to work."

Orders for the new cars have already reached the factory in such volume that steady production for the balance of the winter has already been assured, Mr. Cullum stated.

Best Bid For Van Mungo Unannounced

CHICAGO, Jan. 21 (AP)—Clarence H. Rowland of the Chicago Cubs wouldn't say what it was, but he emphasized today that the Cubs' best bid for Van Lingle Mungo of Brooklyn "never has been publicly announced."

The Dodgers announced recently that the Cubs had offered $750,000 plus Rip Collins, Lonnie Frey, Clyde Shoun and Joe Martyn for the Brooklyn pitching ace.

Rowland intimated the Cubs still are in the bidding for Mungo, even though the St. Louis Cardinals now are reported to have the inside track.

KILLED IN WRECK

NACCOGDONES, Jan. 21 (AP)—I. W. Scwell, 2, of San Augustine, was killed in the crash of his car today as he drove near Chicago, Mo. The car crashed when the lights of a small car Sowell was driving went out. A passenger with him escaped injury.

BEAUMONT, Jan. 21 (AP)—Rodland Flynn, 35, of Houston, died today from injuries he suffered in a car accident Tuesday on the old Spanish trail.

National Cage Tourney Will Be Held in K. C.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 21 (AP)—The committees have been named, qualifying requirements determined, and other administrative details arranged so the first annual national intercollegiate basketball championship tournament to be held in Kansas City March 7-12 promises to be a huge success. In fact, all they need now is the teams.

The entry list is a minor worry, however. Emil S. Liston, Baker University athletic director who is chairman of the tournament committee indicated today he expected approximately 40 teams to qualify, but as entry blanks will not be distributed until about Feb. 1, the present estimate is purely a guess.

The tournament is the outgrowth of a sectional meet held last year. The advisability of a national tournament for colleges, along the lines of the national AAU tournament, was discussed by the school officials, with the result that Liston was appointed chairman of an organization committee and authorized to select a board of management.

Only teams with outstanding season's records, winners of strong conference races, or sectional or state tournament winners may qualify. The tournament will be a one-game elimination affair, and Dr. James Naismith of Lawrence, Kas., inventor of basketball, is offering a trophy for the winner.

DARING COLORS

STUDENTS TRY TO STAY AWAKE HUNDRED HOURS

ATHENS, Ga., Jan. 21 (AP)—In the "interest of pure science" five weary University of Georgia psychology students—two youths and three co-eds—entered their fourth day today without sleep.

Their goal is 100 sleepless hours, to be reached Saturday noon.

They blinked heavy eyelids, yawned a bit and declared the experiment, to show the effect of sleeplessness on mind, body and behavior, was a "lot of fun."

"I feel light-like I was walking on air," said blonde Sander Rogers of Athens, Ga., in her 60th hour of "no sleep." She weighed 127 pounds Monday morning. She said she had lost two pounds.

On the other hand, stocky, 150-pound Robert Schnautz of Port Chester, N. Y., declared "I feel right as tops and my appetite is better than usual."

Tall, gray-haired Dr. A. S. Edwards, 52, head of the psychology department, said the experiment was "purely scientific."

She said it might have a "practical application" in showing the effects on persons who drive automobiles 30 and 40 hours without sleep.

Dr. Edwards explained last night the five were given a series of 17 tests each 24 hours. These included strength of grip, hand and body steadiness, height and weight, pulse rate, temperature, blood pressure, sharpness of vision, typewriting, memory, learning, color blindness and time of reactions to green lights and noises.

BARKLEY ORDERS NIGHT SESSIONS FOR SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Democratic leader Barkley served notice in the senate today he would call for night sessions beginning Monday in an effort to break the filibuster against the anti-lynching bills.

Barkley did not urge the senate either to pass or reject the anti-lynching measure, merely declaring he wanted it out of the way.

Despite his statements, the filibuster went on.

Senator Bilbo (D-Miss) started a speech against the measure with the assertion he was willing to speak "30 days or 60 days or longer" to "defeat this unthinkable, un-American and undemocratic piece of legislation."

Congressional committees, meanwhile, obtained a variety of opinions and information.

The senate public lands committee was told the general accounting office was investigating shortages of $1,000,000 in CCC funds in the southwest including $250,000 in Kansas.

John D. Biggers, unemployment census chief, advised the senate unemployment committee the real problem facing this country was in the possibility recovery from the present business slump might be too rapid.

SAM MACCO DENIES ALL NARCOTIC ALLEGATIONS

GALVESTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Sam Macco, prominent Galveston night club operator, took the stand in the Macco hearing here today and denied that he is the Sam Macco named in the New York indictment charging him and others with conspiracy to violate the narcotic act.

"So help me God," Macco asserted before U. S. Com. George W. Collier, "I have never in my life been connected with violation of the narcotic law."

The appearance of Macco on the witness stand climaxed proceedings which were resumed Thursday after a recess of several months in which the government asks the removal of 15 Texas defendants to New York for trial.

Macco admitted under questioning by his attorney that he knew several of the persons named in the indictment but said he had had no narcotic dealings with them. He denied all of the allegations in the indictment.

Otto Schubert Jr., manager of the Adolphus hotel, Dallas, testified that he saw Macco at the hotel on Sept. 6, the date on which Emory W. Clapper, narcotic agent, said he saw Macco with one of the defendants here.

Macco will take the stand for cross examination this afternoon.

SONS OF LEGION WILL HOLD MEETING TONIGHT

The regular meeting of Kerley-Crossman post 334, Squadron of the Sons of the American Legion will be held at the Legion Hut tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

All sons of Legionnaires and sons of ex-service men are requested to be present. Plans will be made for a father and son banquet, and other business will be discussed.

ASSASSINATION ATTEMPTED

TIENSIN, China, Jan. 21 (AP)—Ten Chinese gunmen attempted today to assassinate General Li Tu, former Manchurian guerrilla chieftain now living in the British concession here, but instead killed one of his intimates and wounded another. The incident created new tension and necessitated posting British military guards in the area. Their motives were not known.

79,000 Wells In Texas To Be Shut Down Each Sunday

ORDER STATES CRUDE STOCKS MUST BE CUT

AUSTIN, Jan. 21 (AP)—The nation's largest oil-producing state set sail today on an uncharted conservation course—that of shutting down its 79,000 wells each Sunday.

The Texas Railroad Commission yesterday ordered statewide Sunday closing from now until March 1 in a drastic move to halt the rise in stocks of gasoline. Commissioners voiced confidence most other major oil states likewise would make sharp cuts in their production.

Since the current Texas allowable is around 1,415,000 barrels per day, Sunday shutdowns will effect a cut of more than 200,000 barrels in average daily production, and put Texas output about 10 per cent below that recommended by the United States Bureau of Mines.

There will be exceptions to Sunday closing. Some wells must flow on Sundays so their residue gas may continue supplying warmth to residents of the oil fields. These will be closed some other day of the week. Other wells cannot be shut in without being killed or damaged. These will reduce their daily flow one-seventh. Railroad commission representatives will co-operate with operators in formulating a feasible program.

Believed an important contributing cause to the Sunday closing order was the peculiar situation in the East Texas field. Many engineers feel daily production there should be held below 450,000 barrels to protect bottomhole pressures. The field has nearly 25,000 wells, however, and some lawyers contend the daily allowable of none can be reduced below 200,000 barrels because of Texas' marginal well law. The commission imposed Sunday shutdowns in East Texas alone the last two weeks, in November and the first two in December. The field's operators protested, maintaining the six-day producing week either should be lifted or extended over the entire state.

Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, said in a statement accompanying the order that "Texas does not intend that too much oil shall ever be produced in our state."

"That is the law," he said. "It is a wise law and has caused prosperity to come to Texas."

With the present recession and the lowest consuming season of the winter at hand, strict measures must be taken to defend the gain in ground which the oil industry has made in the last four years. Texas is leading the way in this defense. "We entered 1938 with an over-hanging excess of 13,000,000 barrels more gasoline than we had at this time a year ago. This converted into crude means about 30,000,000 barrels of crude in the form of gasoline in excess of needs. One year ago we had on hand 282,000,000 barrels of crude oil. Today we have 300,000,000 barrels. This is a 21,000,000 barrel increase and which, added to the 30,000,000 in the form of gasoline, makes a total of about 50,000,000 barrels of crude and crude products on hand in excess of needs."

NECESSITY FOR SOIL CONSERVATION PROVED

AMARILLO, Jan. 21 (AP)—The first dust storms of the year, causing considerable soil movement, proved the necessity for soil and moisture conservation practices on a wide scale, H. H. Fennell, director of the soil conservation service in the southern Great Plains region, said today.

"The drifting soil, which, in the form of dust storms, is plaguing a large portion of the plains area again, is coming from fields lacking in vegetative cover," Fennell said.

Conditions in the wind erosion area, comprised of parts of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico, were much improved over last year, a survey made on the 25 soil conservation service demonstration projects indicated, he said.

During the blowing season last year, more than 300,000 acres in these demonstration areas were subject to wind erosion damage. This year, only 100,000 acres were reported subject to erosion of this type.

Contour tillage, supplemented by terraces where necessary, has held the water on fields where it fell and covered moisture for crop growth, he said.

"Dust storms will continue this year, and in years to come, in direct proportion to the amount of unprotected acreage in the wind erosion area," Fennell predicted.

Why This Man Is Opposed to Death In 'Hot Squat'

HOUSTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Robert Storm, electrician, was called as a prospective juror in a murder trial today and asked to be excused.

"Why?" asked Judge Langston King.

"Because I'm opposed to capital punishment," Storm replied.

"Why?" the prosecutor asked.

"Because I designed and installed the Texas electric chair 14 years years ago," Storm replied.

He was excused.

BUSINESS RISE EXPECTED BY LARGE GROUP

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—A business leader told Congress today two-thirds of the country's manufacturers expect a business rise some time during 1938.

The informant was Colby M. Chesler, chairman of the National Association of Manufacturers, who testified at the Senate unemployment inquiry.

A representative of another large group of business men, the United States Chamber of Commerce, expressed the opinion to the House ways and means committee its tax revision program did not "go far enough." He said the undistributed profits tax should be repealed.

While Congress worked on business problems, the White House disclosed President Roosevelt was planning to call in small business men for a conference on ways for regularizing business.

The filibuster against the anti-lynching bill was resumed in the Senate and the House continued debate on the $553,000,000 naval appropriation bill.

A Senate judiciary subcommittee approved unanimously the nomination of Stanley F. Reed to the Supreme Court. The nomination will be reported to the full committee Monday, with Senate confirmation expected early next week.

TUBERCULOSIS TEST EQUIPMENT ORDERED

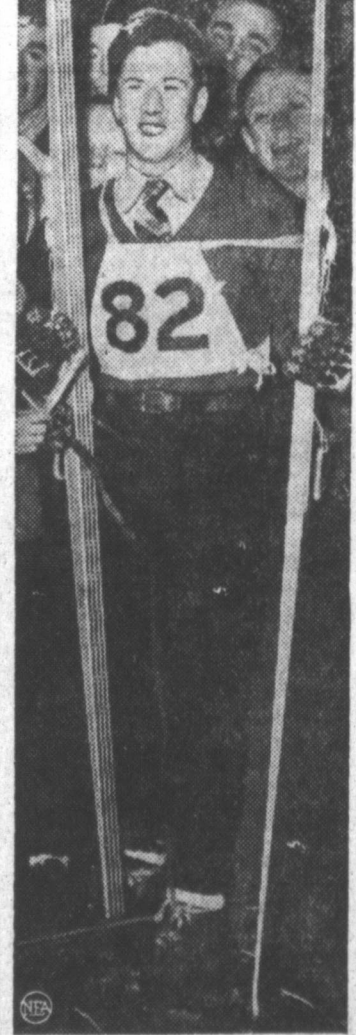

An order for sufficient supplies to make tuberculosis tests for 1,000 school children of Gray county was issued Thursday by the Gray County Tuberculosis association.

Pupils at LeFors and Hopkins schools have received blanks to be signed by parents authorizing their taking the tests, and these schools will be prepared to give the tests as soon as supplies are received.

Tuberculin tests of all Gray county pupils is one of the objectives of the Gray County Tuberculosis association, as declared last month, when the association outlined its work for the year, and planned the sale of Christmas seals.

A total of $546.72 has been raised to date by the sale of seals. A report on the sale and remittance is to be made February 1 to the Texas Tuberculosis association, state organization, with which the Gray county unit is affiliated.

As War Rages About City of Teruel

Blankets, clothes, and meagre food supplies burden the refugee families who hasten away from Teruel as the Spanish loyalist and rebel armies spread death and destruction in their colossal battle for the key city on the front near Valencia. Now the homes of most of these people likely are a shambles, for the resistance of the rebel garrison made the town a target for heavy shelling.

Bundled up against the near-zero cold that has taken almost as great toll as have shot and shells, Indalecia Prieto, center, minister of national defense for the Spanish loyalist government, stands in a trench to watch the battle of Teruel. In this first picture received from the Teruel battle the officer at right points out the operations of the loyalist forces at the height of the combat.

FLIER SEEKS TO LOCATE DOCTOR WHO PERFORMED KNEE OPERATION

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 21 (AP)—Twenty years ago a Lieut. Morraglia of the French air corps was wounded in aerial combat above Soissons, and managed to bring his ship to earth at Plessis, Belleville.

His knee-cap had been pulverized by a machine-gun bullet.

He was removed to the American hospital at Julliy (Seine-Ste-Oise) and there an unknown American army surgeon performed such a remarkable operation that the aviator's leg was not only saved but its flexibility was restored.

Ever since that time Lieut. Morraglia, now a lieutenant colonel commanding the 15th aerial squadron of the French army at Avord, France, has endeavored to locate his American benefactor and his desire recently became known to the war department.

Eighth corps area headquarters here were informed to contact medical veterans of the American expeditionary forces in France—doctors, nurses or hospital corpsmen—stationed in the vicinities of Julliy, or Neuilly-Sur-Seine, in June, 1918, on the chance they might recall the incident and identify the surgeon.

Col. Morraglia's recovery was so remarkable that he has been called upon to display the flexibility of movement of his knee at the American hospital at Neuilly-Sur-Seine before several meetings of allied surgeons.

The three hospitals at Julliy were evacuation No. 8, Red Cross No. 105 and base No. 57, war department records indicate.

Col. Morraglia was forced to land his plane recently at Kerachi, India, and there he met United States Consul C. E. Macy and confided in him his desire to locate his benefactor. Macy unofficially reported his story to the war department in the hope that the colonel's wish might be fulfilled.

Col. Morraglia believes the surgeon was a Virginian.

WHAT CONGRESS IS DOING

(By The Associated Press)

Today Appropriations—House expects to pass naval supply bill. Anti-lynching—Southern Senators continue to filibuster.

House—Conference committee reports agreement on bill. Unemployment—Senate committee continues hearings.

Taxes—House committee continues hearings on tax revision. Item veto—Senate sub-committee considers constitutional amendment. Farm bill—Senate-House committee continues conference.

Yesterday Opposition to navy's promotion system delayed house passage of naval appropriation bill. Senator Ellender (D-La.) finished six-day speech against anti-lynching bill.

It has been estimated that two and one-half million Americans are pay-fever sufferers.

INSTALLMENT SELLING MAY BE CHANGED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—A noontime conference between President Roosevelt and automobile company heads was preceded today by a forecast from Senator Brown (D-Mich.) that the group will agree to regularize installment selling in the motor industry.

Brown and other informed persons described leading auto manufacturers as ready to accept some proposals for eliminating practices regarded by Mr. Roosevelt as detrimental to the industry and unfair to automobile buyers.

Brown and others familiar with the preliminary negotiations said agreement might be reached between the President and the motor company heads to:

Limit credit on car sales to 18 months instead of payments which would leave purchasers burdened with no more than a certain fixed percentage of their income—perhaps 25 or 40 per cent.

Eliminate or restrict deficiency judgments against car owners whose automobiles had been seized for non-payment.

Although installment buying and "high pressure" salesmanship were high on the list of topics, Mr. Roosevelt said he would talk with the auto men about anything they wished to bring up.

Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor company; William S. Knudsen, president of the General Motors corporation; K. T. Keller, president, and B. E. Hutchinson, vice-president of the Chrysler corporation, and Alvan McCauley, president of the Packard Motor Car company and of the Automobile Manufacturers association were the manufacturers invited.

The heads of affiliated finance companies were asked to accompany them.

AFL WILL LIKELY OUST CIO UNIONS AT MIAMI

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Unless there is a last-minute change of intention, the American Federation of Labor's executive council will expel at least two C. I. O. unions at its Miami meeting starting next Monday.

Definitely slated for the axe are John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers and Sidney Hillman's Amalgamated Clothing Workers. Federation leaders are talking also of severing the last technical tie between the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O.'s refinery and metal mine unions.

All sides agree that expulsion in itself would be unimportant. Suspension of the C. I. O. unions a year and a half ago amounted to expulsions. As long as the C. I. O. unions even technically remained A. F. of L. members, however, the federation could not start what it now plans—a campaign to break the C. I. O. financially.

The United Mine Workers and the Amalgamated Clothing Workers have been two of the main sources of C. I. O. revenue.

As long as these unions even technically are in the A. F. of L., the federation is bound by its constitution to keep out of their territory. Once they are expelled, the federation can (and expects to) move in with unions of its own.

120 MEMBERS OF HOUSE TO SEEK OFFICE

AUSTIN, Jan. 21 (AP)—More than four-fifths of the 150 members of the last House of Representatives will seek re-election this year, a survey completed today by Ernest Boyett, House sergeant-at-arms, indicated.

Boyett said he had learned the intentions of 135 Representatives and that 112 of these planned to stand for another term.

Clarence E. Farmer of Fort Worth was expected to run for governor. Speaker Robert W. Calvert of Hillsboro for attorney general, Coke R. Stevenson of Junction for lieutenant-governor and Lindley G. Beckworth of Gilmer for Congress.

Mentioned as likely Senate candidates were Representatives Chas. H. Tenneyson of Wichita Falls, Geo. C. Moffett of Chillicothe, Sam Hanna and Fred "Red" Harris of Dallas. Penrose B. Metcalfe of San Angelo and Harry L. McKee of Port Arthur.

Listed as already resigned or retiring at the close of their present terms were: A. F. Cagle of Waco, William B. Carsow of San Antonio, Dr. J. C. Davis of Haskell, Byron England of McKinney, Wilson H. Fox of Decatur, S. A. Jones Jr. of Lufkin, Edgar S. Keefe of Frankston, Jap H. Lucas of Athens, Frank E. Mann of Houston, Arthur C. Riddle of Lockhart and Charles D. Rutta of Columbus.

Fox probably will run for district attorney, Lucas for county judge and Mann for justice of the peace. Graves already is a judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals by appointment and likely will seek an elective term.

The turnover in the house usually is nearly 50 per cent, which means that under the law of averages at least one-third of the representatives seeking renomination will be defeated.

REMOVAL HEARINGS FOR SAM MACEO CONTINUED

GALVESTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Removal hearings were resumed here today for Sam Maceo, night club operator, and 14 other Texans indicted by a New York federal court grand jury for alleged conspiracy to violate narcotic laws.

At a session last night before U. S. Commissioner George W. Coltzer, the defense offered testimony that Maceo was en route by air from Houston to Galveston on September 8 at the time Federal Narcotic Agent Emory W. Clapper testified he saw Maceo enter a house. Maceo was with Alfonso Aitardi, another defendant, Clapper testified.

Charles B. Wolber, Houston airport station manager for Braniff Airways, testified Maceo boarded an airplane for Dallas at 2:50 p. m.

Louis J. Dibrell, attorney for Maceo, said he would seek to introduce testimony that Maceo registered at a Dallas hotel at 8 p. m.

LUBBOCK

ANOTHER BIG CROWD LIKELY TO SEE GAME

Another large crowd was in prospect at the gym here tonight when the Harvesters will clash with the Lubbock Westerners in a Big Five basketball game. The tussle will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

The largest crowd of the season saw the game between Pampa and Plainview last Friday night. The gym was filled almost to capacity. Since then benches that will seat an additional 200 fans have been installed on the top seats around the gym.

Lubbock is due to be "on" tonight. Last night they dropped a game to Borger 32 to 19, after whipping the Bulldogs 37 to 22 the previous night. Barron, Borger center, was too much for the Westerners. He swished the net for 16 points. The invaders were reported to be badly off form. Borger clicked for the first time this season throughout the entire game. Lubbock and Pampa are ranked about equal, despite the annihilating last night. The Harvesters had a hard time beating Plainview one game, and of course they lost their second game with the Bulldogs here. Lubbock's and Plainview's team are rated about the same on the South Plains. On account of the score last night, Pampa is slightly favored over the visitors.

Bob Andis will not be in the lineup. He will not be suited out due to a carbuncle above his groin. Cunningham will replace him in the starting lineup.

Admission to the game will be 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for students.

Pampa and Plainview are now tied for the lead in the Big Five league composed of members of this football district.

50 Boys Working Out Daily For Tournament

With eyes trained on a free-trip to Fort Worth Feb. 17 to 21 to participate in the state Golden Gloves Boxing tournament, more than 30 local boys are working out daily in preparation for the local tournament Feb. 2, 3, and 4, at the Pampa Athletic arena.

In other Panhandle towns and cities, 20 and possibly more boys are hard at work determined to be selected a winner in some class and therefore be taken to the state event with all expenses paid. The local tournament is being sponsored by the Pampa Daily News Amateur Athletic association which will pay hotel expenses and meals of all out-of-town boxers, as long as they are winners, and also transportation to and from the state meet where the Fort Worth Star Telegram will pay expenses of the eight winners from each city.

Amateurs both in Pampa and in other cities who have not mailed their entries to the Golden Gloves Editor, care of the Pampa Daily News, Pampa, are urged to do so immediately. Less than two weeks remain for the boys to enter, secure membership in the Southwestern A. A. U., at 25 cents, and get in shape for the tournament.

Plenty of Action.
Thirty or more rounds of boxing will be staged each of the three nights. The winner in each class will be presented with a Golden Glove, watch chain size, engraved. Other prizes will also be awarded. Winners of the Fort Worth event will receive a free trip to Chicago to participate in the National Golden Gloves tournament and also a belt with a Golden Gloves emblem on the buckle.

It is not too late to sign an entry blank. While condition is an important factor, a boy can not box more than three rounds of two minutes each, according to Golden Gloves rules. He may have to box twice on one of the nights, however, depending in which weight class he enters.

All proceeds, after expenses have been deducted, will be used for the advancements of amateur sports. A few patrons' tickets, at $5 each, are being sold to fans who are anxious to promote athletics in Pampa. The tickets are good for general admission and ringside reserve seat each night of the tournament. Fans not contacted and who desire tickets should call the Pampa Daily News, phone 666.

Public workouts for Pampa boys are conducted each night between 5 and 8 o'clock. Fans are invited to see the boys train at the Pampa Athletic arena four blocks east and one south of the postoffice.

Boys Improving.
Flyweights, 112 pounds, bantamweights, 118 pounds, and heavyweights are still in demand.

The boys working out are showing marked improvement every day. Tickets are good for general admission and ringside reserve seat each night of the tournament. Fans not contacted and who desire tickets should call the Pampa Daily News, phone 666.

CADDYING MAY BE BARRED TO MINORS IN NEW YORK STATE

By BILL BONI
NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (AP)—The golfer of the future may have to tote his own clubs or make sure in advance that his bag-carrier is more than sixteen years old.

Led by the New York State Department of Labor, various states are seeking to include caddying among the types of employment barred to minors sixteen or under.

Leaders of the opposition are Morton L. Bogue and Charles W. Littlefield of New York, past and present general counsel to the United States Golf association.

A revision of the New York state labor statutes, substituting the phrase "performance of service" for "occupation for gain" in the list of unlawful employment for minors not holding employment certificates, affected caddying.

"I believe that child welfare legislation should be directed primarily at harmful employment," Egan said today. "Naturally, there should be restrictions against having youngsters work in plants or places where they are subjected to a harmful environment."

"But after all, a boy who totes my golf bag this afternoon—and don't forget that the 14-club rule has made it lighter—tomorrow morning probably will be carrying his own and playing golf at the same time. Furthermore, caddying is no more arduous and just as healthful as working on a farm—and farm work is exempted under the present law."

The federal government and 47 of the 48 states—New York excepted—do not require clubs to include caddies when filling unemployment census and social security figures, and thus do not regard them as employees.

$2,000 Pasadena Tourney Begins
PASADENA, Calif., Jan. 21 (AP)—The $2,000 Pasadena open began today as around 250 leading professionals and ambitious amateurs started on the first round.

The tournament, with the purse guaranteed by wealthy Pasadena sportsmen and the profits dedicated to charity, was held over Brookside Park, a course lengthened to 6,500 yards and a par of 71.

Horton Smith, who won the last tournament with a 72-hole score of 279, five under par, was installed in one of the favorites' spots.

Harry Cooper and Harold McSpaden, also contenders, were the runner-ups to Lanly Horton two years ago, with 283.

Sammy Snead was a distinct threat today. Other ranking contenders were Lawson Little, Olin Dutra, Henry Picard, Johnny Revolta, second to Thomson, and Willie Goggin. The tournament ends Monday.

WILD, WOOLLY GRAPPLING IN STORE FOR PAMPANS MONDAY

TOMMY FARR FAVORED OVER JIM BRADDOCK

A wild and woolly evening is in store for wrestling fans on Monday night at the Pampa Athletic Arena. There is a known wild man in the main event and semi-final with the preliminary in doubt.

Headlining the card will be Sailor Otis Clingman, making his second home appearance in nearly three years, and Wild Bill Venable, Tuscaloosa woodchopper. The semi-final will see Sailor Jack "Heart Punch" Moran tussling with Dick Sampson, a newcomer to the Pampa mat. Opening the card at 8 o'clock sharp, Tex Hager will look at Pasha Bey, bearded Turk and another newcomer.

Venable leans toward the unorthodox system of mauling while Clingman likes the going scientific. However, it is well known that Clingman can lose his temper and when he does, it is usually to bad for the opposition. Clingman will have to give away considerable weight but he had done that before.

The Garden virtually was a sell-out, with a gross of over $90,000 predicted by Promoter Mike Jacobs.

Farr, largely on the strength of having gone 15 rounds with Champion Joe Louis without becoming a total loss, remained a favorite in the heavy betting at odds of 8 to 5 and 7 to 5. He was a logical choice over his 32-year-old opponent, who lost his crown to Louis last summer by a knockout.

Braddock, though, didn't lack supporters. The pleasant Irishman, who came up from the relief line to win the title, still packs a punch, even if his legs aren't what they used to be. There were those who thought he might nail the Welshman some time during the 10 rounds, possibly an uppercut.

That appeared to be Jim's only real chance. Farr, who was a terrific flop in training for his bout with Louis, has made an impression on the experts this time. He has brought himself into near perfect condition, and is a powerful fellow. He never will be a pretty boxer, like Braddock, and he hasn't much of a punch, but he is a bruising, busy fighter.

The expectation was that Farr would start climbing all over Braddock from the first bell, like he did against Louis, depending upon his iron jaw to withstand Jim's jolts and gambling that his youth and vigor would be expected to weigh in at 204 pounds at noon today, with Braddock about 195. At 24, Farr had a pull of eight years over the former champion. He had the longer reach and was a bigger man through the chest and body.

All the physical advantages, except for an inch and a half in height, were in Farr's favor. The Welshman has made an impression on the experts this time. He has brought himself into near perfect condition, and is a powerful fellow. He never will be a pretty boxer, like Braddock, and he hasn't much of a punch, but he is a bruising, busy fighter.

ACCIDENTALLY POISONED.
LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 21 (AP)—Accidental poisoning was blamed today by Dr. Howard Dishong, coroner, for the death last night of Dr. Harvey Shepherd Thatcher, 52, head of the University of Arkansas at the Medical school pathology department. The coroner said it was likely that the pathologist had been drawing acid through a tube during an experiment and had accidentally swallowed some of it.

During Civil war days, persimmon seeds were used as buttons in the southern states.

Battle Between Cavarretta and Collins Looms

CHICAGO, Jan. 21 (AP)—There's a battle brewing in Chicago Cub ranks—and it isn't of the common contract variety.

With Owner P. K. Wrigley anticipating no holdout trouble over 1938 salaries, a somewhat unique position for most major league moguls at this time of the year. Cub fans are "smoking up" what they believe will be a red hot fight between the veteran Jim "Rip" Collins and youthful Phil Cavarretta for the regular first base job.

Collins signed his 1938 contract yesterday and in a letter to a Chicago friend flings a challenge at Cavarretta, the Italian youngster named recently by Manager Charley Grimm as the Cubs' regular first sacker in 1938.

Collins suffered a terrific slump last season and was lost to the team in August when he fractured an ankle.

But he's ready now, he says, to give Cavarretta a real battle.

ST. LOUIS—C. F. Dalante, street car motorman, was unable to identify a suspect as the man who had robbed him.

So, related Deputy Sheriff Pelham Scott, the suspect, Herman Osterloh, spoke up.

"I'm wearing the same clothes now, remember?" Osterloh went to jail under $10,000 bond.

YANKEES CUT LINEUP FOR 1938 ROSTER

By SID FEDER
NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (AP)—Toppling off a neat job of spring housecleaning and refurbishing the Yankees opened to the public today their 1938 roster—as compact a collection of dynamites as you'll find anywhere in the big leagues.

Listing only 28 players, it's the smallest Yankee lineup in years.

In cleaning house, the world champions cut off Blubber Malone, the 1936 relief pitching hero; Jack-rabbit Jack Saltzaver, infield utility man, and sophomore pitcher Frank Makusky. Also missing is old Poosh 'Em Pop Tony Lazzeri, now with the Chicago Cubs.

Taking their places, the Yankees have brought up seven members of the "wonder team" of Newark Bears, International league farm. The roster shows 13 pitchers, four catchers, six infielders and five outfielders. The Yankees will have to cut only five players admit to get down to the 23-player limit in May.

The pitching staff has the largest infusion of new blood, with five flinging hopefuls. Holdovers, of course, are the two 20-game 1937 ace, Lefty Gomez and Charley the Red Ruffing, along with Monte Pearson; Ivy Paul Andrews; Bump (Rabbit's Foot) Hadley; Johnny Murphy; and sophomores Joe Vance and Kemp Wicker.

Newcomers are Newark's two classiest elbowers, Joe Beggs, who won 21 and lost four last year, and young Atley Donald, who showed a record of 19 and two; Spud Chandler, who went great guns as a Yankee rookie early last season; Steve Sundra, a 15-game Newark winner, and Lee Stine, the ex-Cincinnati Reds and Chicago White Sox Performer.

Along with belting Bill Dickey, Joe Glenn and Arndt Jorgens, murderers' row had added young Buddy Rosar to the catching staff. A class-AA rookie last season, Rosar batted .332 and may stick over Jorgens.

In the inner defenses, iron man Gehrig at first, Red Rolfe at third and Frankie Rosetti at short are holdover first-stringers. Joe Gordon, up from Newark, has the job of filling Lazzeri's second base shoes. Don Heffner is back again and will stay as utility man, unless Dahlgren can take the job away from him.

(P. S.—The roster shows also that Joseph V. McCarthy is still manager.)

HOME OF BETTER VALUES

Richest Girl in the World

BY ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.

Yesterday, disclosure of her true identity ends Connie's romance; Bret is forgiving but not understanding. So the weight of Connie's millions rests on her shoulders again.

CHAPTER XIV
"I'm going home," Connie told Eloise a few days later. The words held an emptiness—for how could any place be "home" when Bret would not be there?
Yet, it was because of Bret that she was leaving. He had scarcely looked at her these past few days, not once directly, deep into her eyes; he had said only the few necessary words to say. He had meant it when he had said everything was over between them. Now the work in the camp's office was lighter, so nearly was the bridge completed, that old Pop Walters could manage without Connie's help.

"There was a time," Eloise said, "when I would have been glad. But not now. You know I shall hate to see you go; you know I'll miss you."
Connie said that she, too, would miss her friend. She was packing her few belongings into the imitation leather bag. Its gilt letters "K. B." did not look so bright, somehow. But she would carry it. She would wear the navy blue suit and the perky little hat.

No one, besides Bret, must know until she had returned, her true identity.
"Someone else will miss you, too," Eloise said, smiling her shy, quiet smile. There was no hurt in the grave eyes now. She had so come to love her friend that she could put aside her own heart's desire for her. Bret always had been her brother; that he would remain, she knew. Connie shook her golden head. She could not trust herself to speak for a moment or two. She had stayed on, hoping that Bret would really forgive her, really understand, that he would see she was the same girl with whom he had fallen in love, that all her millions did not matter. But now, having failed, she could no longer bear to stay. On an impulse she had decided she must go at once.

I DO things on an impulse, she thought bitterly; it has been an impulse—a crazy, thrilling one—that had brought her here. It seemed fitting that another should take her away.

"I'll catch the midnight train," she said to Eloise. "It stops when it's flagged, at the junction. Bret won't know he's gone until morning. By then I'll be miles and miles away—as he claimed I am, anyway—in another world entirely different from this."

"You shouldn't go without telling Bret!" the other girl protested. "You may have quarreled—I know something has gone wrong between you. But don't you know that old saying about love? And yours—and Bret's—is true, if any love ever was."

"You're a darling, Eloise," Connie said softly. She did not think she could have been so true, had Bret loved someone else. The thought brought a stab of pain. Bret might yet come to do that very thing. He might, in time, find that Eloise was the only girl in the world for him. His love might have been true, but it had not stood the test of cents and dollars, after all. He would not marry her because she had so much money. And all her life she had been afraid to accept anyone, even Rodney, for fear he would be marrying her for her millions! "Surely you'll leave some mail sage for Bret," Eloise urged. "When he finds you've gone, he'll ask me if you didn't leave a message."

Connie shook her head again. She snapped the lock on the bag. "I don't believe he will," she said. "But if he did, her heart skipped a beat—that would mean he still cared a little. She must leave some word for him; something to let him know that she cared, too, and would 'forever and forever'."

"If he asks," Connie said, "tell him that I love him because I don't think he was afraid of anything. Tell him that I wouldn't be—if he had loved me enough—and that he has forgotten that love is the strongest, the biggest thing in the world. Bigger than all the hills or mountains, bigger than all the gold, bigger even than life itself."

"I'll tell him everything you said," Eloise promised. Her eyes were filled with slow tears. She did not understand all that her friend meant by the message. But she knew that love was the biggest thing in this world, perhaps in all the worlds to come.

There was no one about in the sleepy little village when Connie stole out of the old brick house late that night. Even the stars had stopped their twinkling; the sky was dark and silent. She looked for the last time at the tall, thin steeple of the little church high on their special hill, at the range of mountains sheltering the valley, at the road that led to Bret's bridge, a lovely reality now of concrete columns, gracefully arched, and of sturdy steel.

This was goodbye to all of that —and so much more besides. Goodby to freedom and laughter, to wings that she had tried; goodby to Bret's strong arms, dark eyes, and warm, tender lips. . . .

She gave a little sob and stumbled as she almost ran, the bag bumping against her knees. It was nearly a mile to the junction; she would have to hurry. But that was not the only reason Connie ran.
She knew if she hesitated, if she looked back once more, she would not be able to go on. She would go back to Bret, beg him to tell her he loved her, throwing pride aside her millions, everything.
She heard the first faint whistle of the train as she reached the junction, a long, mournful, wailing sound, echoing and re-echoing. There is nothing so sad, she thought, as the whistle of a train at night.
The watchman did not seem to be anyone about. Connie looked in the baggage room, knocked at the locked door of the small shed. She supposed somehow she, herself, would have to manage to flag the midnight train. There would be no other passenger, that was certain.
But not so certain as she had imagined. She had stepped out on to the platform, in the glare of the blinding lights of the train that in another moment would be panting and puffing to a standstill when someone dashed up behind her, caught her two arms raised to wave the signal, spun her around.

C-C ASKS REPEAL OF FEDERAL PROFITS TAX

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Spokesmen for the United States Chamber of Commerce told the House ways and means committee today that its tax revision program did not "go far enough" and that the undistributed profits tax should be repealed.

Fred H. Clausen, Horicon, Wis., manufacturer and chairman of the chamber's committee on federal finance, asserted "There is sound basis for our position that any penalty of corporate earnings that are legitimately held, not for the purpose of avoidance of the individual surtax, should be repealed."
"If the principle is accepted that employer in private business is better than government relief, then we contend that the repeal of the surtax on undistributed earnings should be complete."

The tax revision program as recommended by a ways and means subcommittee provides modification of the undistributed profits and capital gains taxes, reduction of gift and estate tax exemptions and many other tax law changes.

Clausen contended there is evidence in the business world that the present method of levying the corporate income tax has contributed directly to the severity of the recent recession. Proper alterations in that method he said would help restore business and employment and relieve some of the burdens on government.
"It would be better for the government, he suggested by way of illustration, to take a loss of $100,000,000 in easing business taxes than to spend such a sum in employing 166,000 WPA workers a year."

850 TOMMIES BLUFF HORDE OF JAPANESE

(By The Associated Press)

The garrison of the British concession at Japanese-controlled Tientsin, in North China—850 fighting men—was reported to have "repulsed" a threatened invasion by thousands of Japanese soldiers without firing a shot.

Authoritative British circles at Shanghai said the Japanese, in a virtual ultimatum, warned yesterday they would force their way into the British concession unless Chinese suspected of anti-Japanese activities were expelled.

The garrison stood fast, under orders to fight, and today word was received at Shanghai that the Japanese considered the matter a "misunderstanding"—now settled.

In Tokyo rear Admiral Kiyoshi Noda, spokesman for the naval office, said other world powers had "a distorted point of view" if they took the Chinese-Japanese war as an excuse for building bigger navies. . . . Our sole objective is to secure peace in the far East.

The admiral admitted that the secrecy of Japanese naval construction plans might cause uneasiness but appealed to other nations to trust Japan's promise there would be no aggression against outside powers.

NOMINATION OF REED APPROVED BY SENATORS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—A senate judiciary subcommittee voted unanimous approval yesterday of the nomination of Stanley F. Reed to be a justice of the supreme court.

The vote was taken immediately after the committee concluded a brief hearing on Reed's qualifications.

Senator Logan D. Ky., said there was no discussion of Reed's qualifications by the committee members.

The brief hearing was attended by Reed, now solicitor general, and Attorney General Cummings.

The attorney general praised Reed's legal ability and said the nomination of the 53-year-old Kentuckian was a "great personal satisfaction."

The judiciary subcommittee will put the nomination of the solicitor general before the full judiciary committee Monday. Prompt approval was expected and final senate confirmation was slated for early next week.

Cummings' testimony followed disclosure by Chairman Logan (D., Ky.) that only one protest against Reed had been received.

Logan said the protest came from a gentleman in New York who wrote he did not know the solicitor general.

Describing Reed as a "clean, high-class Christian gentleman," Logan added:
"Kentucky never has produced a finer lawyer than Stanley Reed."

RENOMINATION FIGHTS BESET FOR FRIENDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Preliminary maneuvers in the congressional election campaign are placing some ticklish political problems before President Roosevelt and other Democratic leaders.

Elections in November involve 34 senators, 34 governors, and all members of the house. Announcements of candidacies are being made almost daily.

Developments have foreshadowed tough battles for two administration supporters in the Senate—Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky and Senator Dieterich of Illinois.

There have been strong hints from Kentucky that Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler would run against Barkley. Despite Chandler's support of the new deal, most political observers here expected the President to back Barkley.

Despite Barkley's prominence in the national political scene, his friends conceded a race against Chandler might be close.

Mr. Roosevelt has been surveying the Illinois situation in conferences with party leaders from that state.

Dieterich will come up for renomination in an April 12 primary. The President must decide not only what part he will play in helping those who have supported him, but the administration's stand on Democratic candidates who have opposed its proposals.

Seven Democratic Senators who fought the President's court bill come up in this year's elections. They are Clark of Missouri, George of Georgia, Gillette of Iowa, McCarran of Nevada, Smith of South Carolina, Tydings of Maryland, and Van Nuys of Indiana.

Recent political developments also have involved the New York gubernatorial situation. Assistant Attorney General Robert H. Jackson has indicated he would be willing to make the race.

Senator Wagner and Postmaster General Farley also have been mentioned in this connection. Friends expected J. P. T. O'Connor to resign as comptroller of the currency today, as a preliminary to entering the race for governor of California.

GROUP DIFFERS WITH FOR ABOUT WATERWAYS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—The projects committee of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress advocated today a flood control and waterway program sharply out of line with President Roosevelt's budget recommendations.

Members of the committee, concluding a two-day meeting preliminary to the Congress' annual convention, said they would propose expenditure of $275,290,000 during the 1939 fiscal year as recommended by the army engineers.

Their proposals, to be presented to the convention tomorrow, will supplement a report on scores of rivers and harbors and flood control projects that would cost a billion or more dollars over a period of years.

President Roosevelt, in his budget message, recommended that 1939 fiscal year federal expenditures be limited to $143,500,000, of which $76,000,000 would go for flood control projects and the remainder for rivers and harbors work.

Army engineers recommended $146,800,000 for rivers and harbors and $127,900,000 for flood control.

FLOOD CONTROL TO BE DEVELOPED IN TEXAS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Texas delegates to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress declared today that flood control development on waterways in their state would be pushed rapidly forward in the next few years.

Clarence De Busk of Jacksonville, vice president of the Texas watersheds association, said the Congress would be told of flood control programs outlined on the Brazos, Colorado, Sabine, Neches, San Jacinto, Pease, Trinity, and Red Rivers.

William E. Lea former Mayor of Orange, discussed proposed projects on the Sabine and Neches waterways with the Congress' projects committee.

Senator Connally and Representatives Mansfield, Sanders, Patton and South appeared before the congress to urge endorsement of Texas projects. E. O. Taulbee, Bay City, president of the lower Colorado River Flood Control association, and Mayor Al Armstrong of Wharton, director of the association also appeared.

GRAND TOUR SAN FRANCISCO—Charles W. Ostrander, River Forest, Ill., printing equipment manufacturer, decided five years ago he would take his family on a tour of the West on his golden wedding anniversary.

The tour is nearing the wind-up stage now. Twenty-two members of the family are seeing California in a private railway car. Every minute of the tour follows a prepared schedule.

For more than 20 years, "Old Faithful," a geyser in Yellowstone Park, has spouted at average intervals of 65 minutes.

HEALING THE SICK.
Text: Mark 1:29-45.
By WM. E. GILROY,
Editor of Advance.

The mother-in-law of Simon Peter, one of the fishermen who responded to the call of Jesus to become a disciple, was sick with fever; and when Jesus came into the house of the two brothers, Simon Peter, and Andrew, He took the sick woman by the hand, raised her up, and restored her to such health that she was able to rise and minister to them.

The fame of this act of healing evidently spread abroad so quickly that, in the characteristic description of the lesson, "All the city was gathered together at the door." The record is that He healed many, but the next morning Jesus went off into a desert place and there prayed.

Simon Peter and the others of these early disciples were evidently greatly puzzled. They followed Jesus, and when they found Him they expressed their surprise in the words, "All are seeking Thee." But Jesus did not return with them to the city where these things had been done.

He said, "Let us go on to the next towns, that I may preach there also; for to this end came I forth." There is a great mystery attaching to the healing ministry of Jesus; nor is it only the mystery that attaches to the miraculous or to the things that we cannot understand by reference to the known laws governing sickness and health.

Any honest investigator in this field knows that remarkable and seemingly inexplicable things occur. He is not likely to conclude that these inexplicable things are contrary to some law or process of nature or God. On the contrary, he is likely to see in these remarkable things the operation of some higher law of nature or the spiritual forces of life which man has not yet sufficiently explored or comprehended.

But the mystery of the ministering of Jesus to physical needs goes beyond this. The healing of the body is everywhere subordinate to His spiritual ministry and the healing of the soul. He is presented in the New Testament, in spite of all the miraculous records, not as a magician and wonder worker, but as a great Teacher and Savior, bringing to man the wonderful words of life, the forgiveness of sins, and the inspiration to righteousness and goodness.

If we could imagine a man of great power coming into our city today, with ability to minister health and restoration to sick and broken bodies, we should assume that he would exercise that ministry toward all who came, that he would regard that as a great privilege and opportunity, and that to the very limit of his physical powers he would receive all who came, and not escape to the desert while he still had the means and opportunity of healing the sick and restoring the halt and lame.

Why did Jesus not conceive His ministry as that of bodily healing? Why did He not bring health and restoration to all within His reach, as evidently He brought it to some? Why did He apparently minimize this ministry of physical healing, and always insist in some way that He had come to minister above all to the souls of men? Why did He constantly urge those whom He healed not to tell others about it, whereas some modern faith healers would be seeking the widest publicity?

We cannot answer these questions fully. But we must put the emphasis of the ministry of Jesus where He himself put it. He came to save men from their sin. Salvation is more than bodily health; it is the health and welfare of the soul.

ICKES HITS COLLEGES IN CITIZENSHIP PLAN

CHICAGO, Jan. 21 (AP)—Secretary Harold L. Ickes said today "there still is a tremendous gap" between what colleges and professors are doing toward educating youth for citizenship; "and what could and should be done."

The Secretary of the Interior, in an address prepared for delivery before the 24th annual meeting of the association of American colleges, said that if dictatorships cannot thrive on education, neither can Democracies thrive without it, and added: "With frightening frequency constitutional Democracies are slipping into bed with autocracies. I have said, and I believe, that today the real threat to all Democracies everywhere is fascism. "Even our own America lies under this threat and it may be a more present one than some of us care to realize."
