

THE EVENING NEWS.

5TH QUARTER
NO 4

Amarillo, Texas, 11, 1900.

25c PER MONTH

Local news on every page.

In everybody's mouth—"Peacemaker" Flour.

Wire and shell home made jewelry can be got for two or three days longer. Mr J N Wood, on street, at the corner of S, W & Co's. Cheap and beautiful.

A McKnight will go with a shipment of horses next week to Arkansas

Willie Sutherland, in bed with muscular rheumatism for a week, is no better.

Frank Anderson, of K C, with business interests here, is in town for a few days.

Light frosts reported at Sherman and Denison on night of the 7th.

Louis Myers' little boy, sick two weeks with pneumonia, is now improving.

Mr Looney, an old Amarillon, now of Canyon City, is in town—electioneering for assessorship of Randall.

The Sanitarium is looming skyward every day under Mr. Requeimore's several trowels

Ex Cashier and ex-Alderman Woods is in from his ranch for the first time in a month. Asked if he was nestoring or clodhopping, said he was mixing them.

Miss Stella Huff, of Weatherford, an interesting young lady and niece of Mr W. L. Kinbrough, will add to Amarillo attractions for the next two months.

Mr Tom F Turner's return adds two only to the city's population—none whatever to the scholastic, but an increase of taxation on that account would hardly be the proper thing to do.

McAlpine wants Turner to settle by him, which T. agrees to do if Mc would not let his kids bother his own.

C P Withingham, of the Jinglebob ranch, is here on business and looks like he is going to subscribe for the News, as good ranchmen always do

The Stroud Bros. were in town yesterday, and expect to ship out 150 head of horses, bought of Morgan & McGuire, of Oldham, today, to eastern Texas and Louisiana.

The furniture of the new school building has been received and placed, and it is thought that it will be ready for occupancy in two weeks.

Mr. Luther Johnson and Miss Vesso Bowles, daughter of R. H. Bowles, were married last Saturday in this city.

Lieut. James W. Keeton, in charge of the rangers stationed here, leaves Monday for San Angelo on a visit to the "old folks at home," and to take in the Fat Stock Show and Roping Contest, to be held in that city on the 17th, 18th and 19th. "Shady" is an all-round good fellow, as well as a terror to evil-doers, and the Evening News wishes him a pleasant trip.

The building of the Methodist church is now the special work on the public hands of Amarillo—the one thing that must be done and it must be done by the citizens of Amarillo. The reporter hereof does not know who have subscribed their proper quota or who have failed to do so. One thing certain, the Methodist people are a numerous class in Amarillo and vicinity and they have decided and determined to have a church, and do expect, and reasonably, too, to get help from those they themselves help. They expect, and reasonably expect reciprocation, especially as it is a quasi public institution. No one questions the great value of the enterprise to the city. As it is, looking down Polk street, one is pleased to see the magnificent school building, and up the street the elegant Sanitarium, and it would add immensely to the gratification, while looking down, to see a magnificent church building between. Of course the owners of vacant lots ought to contribute the major portion of the funds, as every such building adds more value to the city lots than to any other species of property, but land speculators never have been known to do their full part, and never will until the single tax is adopted. Yet because they do not it is no reason why progress should not go on. Now let the speculators in the town lots come down with half liberal subscriptions and then the business men do the same, to make up the comparatively small balance of five hundred dollars that is needed. Let those subscribers who feel they have put down too small amounts call for the paper and increase them to something in proportion to their ability. At the proper time the Evening News will take pleasure in publishing the names of the good friends of the good cause.

Warren Blackburn has partitioned off the old Methodist church into 12 rooms to rent out

Mr. Skipwith is at present laying off and resting up for a season.

Gen Burson, stockman of Eddy county, N. M., came in Wednesday

A. C. Campbell general solicitor for the P. V., is in the city on business.

Mr. Charles Wilson, from Williamson county, is again sojourning with us for his health.

Judge Wallace is in town from a ten days nestoring on his ranch. He opens court in Clarendon next Monday.

J. W. Webb was put under $3,000 bond to await the action of the grand jury for shooting Byron Holland at Panhandle.

W. G. Lanier, of Moore county, in the city yesterday, will ship his cattle at Amarillo about the last of the month.

Lawyer Thos. F. Turner, from Jacksboro, an erstwhile citizen of Amarillo, is in the city and our good people will all rejoice to know that he is back to stay.

W. M. Anderson (Cap) has made application to enter the ex-Confederate Soldiers home at Austin. He has been afflicted with recurring attacks of paralysis for the past three years.

Will Knight, of the Lone Star Rabbitry—best grade of Belgian hares—at Plainview, was in the city yesterday among his many old time friends. Will is now one of the nicest of citizens—and bright, too.

Q M Bell and Henry Dillon are in town and say things are going all right

Lt. Gov. J. N. Browning is now in Austin, to take charge of state affairs while Gov. Sayers goes to New York and Washington on business growing out of the Galveston disaster and the Texas claim for money paid to the volunteers who went from Texas to the Spanish war.

Bullfrog sort o' wink his eye—
Good-by, Miss Summertime.
He useter sing as you come by—
Good-by, Miss Summertime.
His voice it done got hard an' coarse
An' still it kep' a-gittin' worse,
He sung so much dat he got hoarse—
Good-by, Miss Summertime.

Rose a-dyin' on de bush—
Good-by, Miss Summertime.
You smiled on it an' made it blush—
Good by, Miss Summertime.
It breaved its secret right and lef',
Wif sweetness wafted on each bre'f;
Rose done bloom hisse'f to de'f—
Good by, Miss Summertime.

NEGRO SLAVE REMUS AND WHITE FREEMAN PAT.

TWO PHASES OF "PROSPERITY."

"When you were a slave, Uncle Remus, did the Master share his 'Prosperity' with you?"

"Sure, Boss, I always had a 'full dinner pail.' Master bought me all the clothes I needed and gave me house-rent and fire-wood free. When Master wanted a well dug he let me dig six feet and then hired a white man to dig the rest, for it wouldn't do to risk my life underground. When any of my family were sick the doctor came without cost to me. Master never laid me off, for want of something to do, until I was too old to work. Then he'd give me and the old woman board and clothes, until the undertaker came around and his bill was paid, too."

"What share do you get, Pat, when the 'Company' is prosperous, especially when the 'prosperity' is unparalleled?"

"Well, your honor, I've got the 'full dinner pail' with the help of the children at the 'breaker.' I can get clothes at the 'Company store' at good stiff prosperity prices. I pay rent to the company for the shanty I live in. Coal, at the market rate, I can also get. My work is all underground, blasting rocks with powder, which I buy from the Company at more than twice the price I'd pay at the powder mill. I am paid by the ton. When 4,000 pounds tips the Company's scale, they call it a ton. Whether I am sick or well the Company's doctor has to be paid out of my wages. I am 'laid off' half the year without work or wages, so that an 'understanding among gentlemen' can put up the price of coal to the consumer. When I am too old to work there's the almshouse over the hill, and 'the boys' are always good enough to take up a collection to have me put under the sod."—H. V. H., in the Public.

A cross mark next your name on this paper, or the wrapper, means you are behind on subscription.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 9, 1900—Fair tonight, and tomorrow. Temperature at Amarillo at 7 o'clock this morning 37 at 2 p. m. 52. First light frost occurred on 8th. Frost this morning.

Mr Kimbrough will move his drug store next week.

Good Seed Wheat at one dollar per bush. J. C. Womble.

The reporter knows a mighty nice young man and a mighty nice young lady, and a mighty nice new cottage in town that ought to get together. But he doesn't intend to hint anything about it.

Rev W A Mason's lecture on the Book of Revelations every Tuesday night affords unexcelled opportunities for understanding that most—to many people—mysterious writings. Bro. Mason contends that God's prophecies will not fail and that no study can be of more concern to the people than to know what is to become of them. His appeal last Tuesday night was most excellent and deeply impressive.

Mr C B Vivian announces today as a candidate for tax assessor. Everybody in the Panhandle knows Mr Vivian and all know his superior qualifications for the office he now holds and again seeks. Enough said.

Mr Baker's families have had a trying time—indeed, have yet. Several down with typhoid and other maladies. All are said to be better today, except the grown daughter. Only one daughter of two families are able to efficiently wait on the others. They must need help.

The various Bible classes conducted by Pastor Mason will hereafter be held at one time—Tuesday, 7:45 p m at the Pastor's home. The lectures will be on the Book of Revelations and next Tuesday evening a new beginning will be made for the benefit of those who were not present at first. These are important studies and all who can ought to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 9.—Mr Bry-an concluded the last speech of the day here tonight at a few minutes before 11 o'clock. He had begun at Quincy at 8 o'clock, and he made sixteen speeches during the day or more than one speech for each hour of the day occupied. He referred to the full dinner pail argument, saying: "The Bible tells us there was once a man named Esau, who sold his birth-right for a full dinner pail, and he has been held in derision ever since." Illinois is claimed for democrats. The opinion was expressed by the Nebraskan that his party will carry the state.

C. W. MANSIR,

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 8.—President Mitchell today issued a call for a convention of mine workers of the three districts comprising the anthracite field to meet in Scranton, Pa. on Friday next at Music Hall. The issuing of the call by President Mitchell is a long stride in the direction of bringing the great coal miners' strike to a close. Genuine satisfaction was expressed today by both miners and persons directly connected with the coal mining industry, that the contest is approaching an end. Business throughout the entire anthracite coal field is practically at a standstill.

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 8.—Beginning with today for the first time since the opening of the strike, not a pound of coal will be mined in the entire lower anthracite belt except in the Panther Creek Valley, where the employes of the ten colliers belonging to the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, have resisted the efforts of the labor leaders to bring them out.

There are still reports that the strike was started for political purposes and President Mitchell, discussing the reports last night, said: "The coal companies have shot shafts at me alleging that the strike was in the interest of political parties and the bituminous regions. I hope that no one will believe such charges. You will go on digging coal, it don't matter what political party controls the Government. The charge is absolutely untrue."

Customer—"I want two cheap hats." Taz Connally—"Too cheap hats! We keep 'em."

GIVING WORK.

Was't you who said that giving work Was such a thing to do? Say, look-a-here, you funny man, I want a word with you!

Now what is there in work itself That makes it such a treat? It isn't work we're looking for, But things to wear and eat!

Man tries to get at what he needs With just the least of toil, So what's the use of making work And locking up the soil?

Old Mother Earth holds all we want, Just let us get at her! Just let the word go out she's free, And see the people stir!

Holy Moses! what a rush! See them leave the slums! Kids a-skipping on before, Then the drunken bums.

Hear the wages climbing up! Hear the rents come down! Hear the builders building homes All around the town!

So you think it's work we want? And I say it's land, Even money has no pull When we've room to stand.

Perhaps you meant it just for fun, You funny, funny man! That talk of giving others work Is such a funny plan! —W D McCrackan in the Public.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 8.—Several thousand persons, among them many ladies, attended the democratic mass meeting at Music Hall tonight. James D. Richardson, of Tennessee, the chairman of the democratic congressional committee, explained to the audience that he had visited Baltimore unexpectedly and was not prepared to make a speech, but stated that he had been requested to read to the assemblage a letter which had been received from Maryland's favorite son, the Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, "who," he said, "was detained at home on a sick bed and was chaffing under the restraint which prevented his attendance at this grand and glorious gathering of the democracy of Maryland."
