Many Believe Crisis Near In Palestine

JERUSALEM, Oct. 14 (AP)—The Jewish agency for Palestine replied to a warning by the Palestine Arab defense committee today with the declaration that future killings would not deter the Zionist movement.

The Arab committee on Monday warned Jews of the Far East to expect grave trouble if the Zionist movement persisted in further immigration into Palestine.

A Jewish agency statement said "we see a possibility of fruitful co-operation between Arabs and Jews in Palestine, but an essential condition is the recognition of the basic rights of the Jewish people in the Holy Land."

The statement added that no dangers would deflect the Jews from a policy of returning to Palestine which "is dictated by historical necessity."

There was a widespread belief that a climax was fast approaching in the Palestine struggle which disorganizers in the last 12 weeks are unofficially estimated to have claimed 1,800 casualties, including more than 800 lives.

Well-organized rebel activities have been increasing daily in number and daring. The rebels apparently have been trying to harass vulnerable communication lines and circulate alarmist rumors in order to keep the government on the defensive.

The past success of such a policy necessitated the abandonment of cutting police posts and government offices.

With the return, scheduled for today, of High Commissioner Sir Harold MacMichael from conferences in London, and the arrival of British troop reinforcements, it was believed the military would resume the initiative and reoccupy the country.

The Jews meanwhile looked to the United States for help against the widespread interest was aroused by the appeal of a delegation of Jewish leaders in Washington to the British government to continue the policy of permitting Jewish immigration to the Holy Land.

REVERENCE OF GOD
Text: Exodus 20:7; Matthew 5:33-37; 12:33-37
By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of Advance

A lesson on reverence for God has particular appropriateness in the present day. Our age is particularly ripe in profanity. It is found in high places and low, and the literature of today, particularly fiction, is reeking with the utmost irreverence in the use of the sacred names of God and of Jesus Christ.

The fact that much of this in literature is in the name of realism, in setting down what characters have said or would say, does not altogether minimize the evil and the blot upon literature. As a matter of fact, there is no book that dares to present the complete profanity and obscenity that the lowest characters actually use. The question is one as to just where the line of restraint and good taste should be.

For those who believe in God and who believe in Jesus Christ, the use of their names profanely is impossible, if their faith and response to the divine is true and real.

For those who do not believe in God or who have no faith in, or reverence for, Jesus Christ, the use of the names of God and of the Saviour is a hypocrisy and a sham. It is strange that those who profess no belief in God will swear by his name.

Why should we be reverent? Why should the name of God and the name of Jesus Christ, our Saviour, be holy?

Should it be necessary for one to ask such a question? How can one believe in a God who is good, and at the same time think that there is nothing wrong or unseemly in the irreverent use of His name? How can one consider the beautiful life of Jesus of Nazareth and use the name of that good and holy man lightly and thoughtlessly?

If the matter were not one of moral right, it would at least be one of propriety. Profanity is an offense against refinement and good manners, as much as an offense against moral and spiritual decency.

Among Roman Catholics there is an organization known as the Holy Name Society whose members are pledged against the profane or irreverent use of the names of God or our Saviour. It would be well if all who make any profession of Christianity or who recognize any obligation in a Christian community, would take upon themselves some such pledge and observe it in practice.

But there is an aspect of profanity even deeper than its impropriety or the sin of actual words. Profane words indicate a profane mind and profane heart, a lack of rightful response to goodness and love and truth. The willingness of men to trail holy things in the dust is an evidence of their inner unholiness.

One recalls the story of the bishop who rebuked a fellow traveler for swearing. The traveler replied, "I swear a great deal and you pray a great deal; but neither of us means anything by it."

There is a good deal of thoughtless and futile profanity, as there is a great deal of mere formalism in prayer. Evil language may be on the lips rather than in the heart, but nevertheless it reveals a lack of right thinking and right attitude.

The classic verse of our lesson is, broadly true—that men are justified or condemned by their words; for their words indicate what they are.

ATONEMENT TO BE SERMON SUBJECT

"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 16.

The Golden Text is: "God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him" (1 Thessalonians 5:9).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings" (1 Peter 4:12, 13).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If Truth is overcoming error in your daily walk and conversation, you can finally say, 'I have fought a good fight... I have kept the faith,' because you are a better man" (page 21).

Annual Banquet And Get-Together Entertain Church

PANHANDLE, Oct. 14. — Members of the First Baptist Church met in the church basement this week for the annual get-together banquet.

The Rev. A. E. White, the speaker of the evening, discussed "The Church and Its Finances." The church orchestra, consisting of Mary Ruth Evans, Joanne Skaggs, Ben Stone, Mary Elizabeth Ewing, and Freddie Bobbitt, furnished music for the evening.

Mrs. D. C. Landon, Mrs. N. Taylor, A. L. Thorpe, and James C. C. C. sang two selections, "The Jericho Road" and "The Garden of Roses." Mrs. O. C. Weakley entertained with a group of humorous readings, "The Indoo's Paradise," "The Stumped Toe," and "Little Johnny at the Circus."

A chicken dinner was served to nearly 100 guests.

Annual Banquet And Get-Together Entertain Church

PANHANDLE, Oct. 14. — Members of the First Baptist Church met in the church basement this week for the annual get-together banquet.

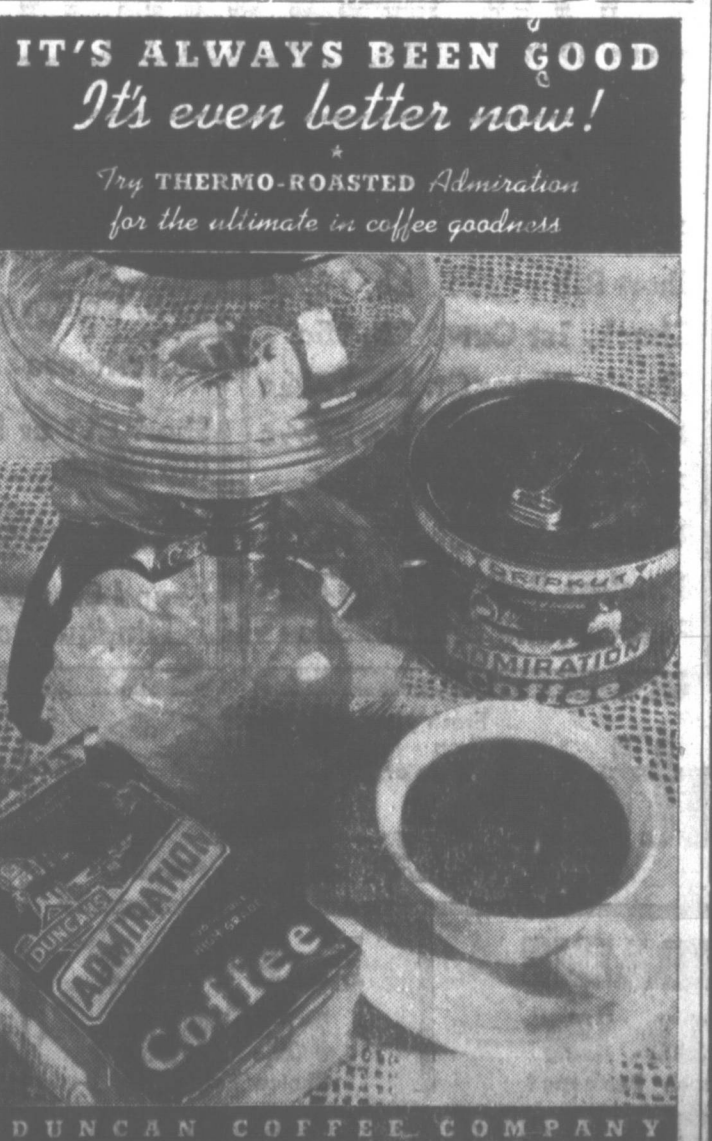

The Rev. A. E. White, the speaker of the evening, discussed "The Church and Its Finances." The church orchestra, consisting of Mary Ruth Evans, Joanne Skaggs, Ben Stone, Mary Elizabeth Ewing, and Freddie Bobbitt, furnished music for the evening.

Mrs. D. C. Landon, Mrs. N. Taylor, A. L. Thorpe, and James C. C. C. sang two selections, "The Jericho Road" and "The Garden of Roses." Mrs. O. C. Weakley entertained with a group of humorous readings, "The Indoo's Paradise," "The Stumped Toe," and "Little Johnny at the Circus."

A chicken dinner was served to nearly 100 guests.

One Sentence

The history of prison reform has been the history of man's growth into social maturity. The process is painful because a man doesn't find it attractive to admit that he has been grievously in error, and thus every new effort to effect further reform meets a very respectable wall of opposition.

A step that seems a little breath-taking at first has recently been recommended by Judge Ira W. Jane of the Wayne County Circuit Court, sitting in Detroit. Judge Jane submits that in all criminal cases there should be only one penal sentence—one year to life.

A man's period of imprisonment would not be determined in advance by the extent of retribution society wished to exact from him, but solely by the amount of time it would require to transform him into a fit person to participate again in the social scene. Whoever proved incapable of such reform would not be returned to society, whatever his crime may have been.

The suggestion is worth thought.

I-Spy For Everybody

Well, friends, pick your hide-out; it's here. The sidewalk television interview made its debut in New York the other day, and everybody pronounced it a great success. And doubtless it was, and will be for the audiences and the people who cherish dreams of being televised. But how about the shrinking violet and a few others?

When sidewalk telecasts get to be the ordinary thing, how about the poor woman who just slipped an old thing on and dashed downtown with her make-up cock-eyed, expecting to rush right back and see no one but the saleslady? Isn't she going to be tickled to get telecast into the homes of all her friends and enemies? And how about the poor girl who always looks like a camel when his picture is taken? And how about all those people that are going to be unexpectedly telecast from places they aren't supposed to be, with companions they aren't supposed to know?

On second thought, maybe television is going to prove a great force for good in this world. At least, good dress, good manners, and good, quick thinking.

Behind The Scenes In Washington

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Pampa News Washington Correspondent

Washington, Oct. 14.—Private industry is hiring WPA workers in considerable numbers, but available figures do not indicate the work-relief army is simmering down to an irreducible mass of workers who don't want other work or whom employers don't want to hire.

Federal officials are pleased with their latest WPA turnover figures for the country.

In August, latest month for which figures can be had, 195,000 persons left WPA rolls and an estimated 130,000 took private industry jobs. About 55,000 actually were taking other jobs and 75,000 more quit without saying why. Officials can't see why those in the latter group quit unless it was to get better employment. Another 55,000 were discharged for inefficiency or laid off.

Although WPA has a present peak of 3,129,000 workers, only 15 per cent have been on the rolls steadily since the first peak in February, 1936. More than 6,000,000 persons have worked on WPA at one time or another.

About 53 per cent of those added to the rolls in August were going on WPA for the first time, approximately the percentage in previous months. The separation rate also has remained relatively steady, around 6 per cent.

Deputy Administrator Aubrey Williams says: "We're not just churning around with the same people. This is an economic problem."

NAZIS FOLLOW FASCISTS

Increased trouble with Arabs in Palestine coincides with the confidential report of an investigator who went over to look into the situation on behalf of American Jews.

The Italians stopped stirring up mischief among the Arabs after the Mussolini-Chamberlain agreement, he said.

But the German agents promptly took up the work.

Net conclusion: Collapse of British prestige after Munich means poorer prospects for Palestine.

WOMEN LOBBYISTS CLOSE-MOUTHED

Women's Department: One of the most interesting congresswomen in the next House is likely to be Dorothy Bellanca of Brooklyn, long an organizer and official of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers. She received the Republican and American Labor Party nominations in the Eighth New York district and has a good chance to win. . . Mrs. Roosevelt's nickname to her oldest friends is "Tottie." . . The most close-mouthed persons in Washington are the women lobbyists. Far more secretive than male practitioners, they never discuss their work with anyone but business associates and when imbibing in public places confine themselves to soft drinks. . . Evie Robert, beautiful blond wife of Democratic Committee Treasurer Lawrence "Chip" Robert, and most publicized woman in Washington society, is being boomed for District of Columbia commissioner. She won't get it unless Roosevelt forgives "Chip" for walking out on his man Camp in the Georgia senatorial campaign. . . New government regulations covering vacation and leave for the first time specify pregnancy and maternity confinement as cause for the granting of sick leave to employees.

Sharing the Comforts Of Life ---

By R. C. Hoiles

THE VIRTUOUS POOR

The trouble with the government attempting to give more and more services to people is that it works such a hardship on the virtuous, honest worker that he has a tendency to eventually become discouraged and give up trying.

And who are the virtuous poor? It would seem that the virtuous poor are those people who want no special privileges, who demand no reward for a service that his neighbor cannot have for equal service. These people who are obliged to compete against the vicious rich and the vicious poor (and there are both kinds) are the ones we should all be intensely interested in because, if this group becomes less and less, we all go down together.

And everytime the government attempts to do something for someone that it does not do for everyone, it must take something from some worker. Doing this, lowers the real wages of the worker who is not receiving the assistance. It lowers the aggregate wages of all workers because of the inefficiency and lack of production of the great horde of administrators and bureaus attempting to do something for some pressure group. So this extending of government succor, under the guise of helping the poor is, in reality, taking from the virtuous poor and giving to the less worthy poor.

If these reformers and politicians and educators have any way of taxing people that does not fall on the sweat of every man's labor, then they can conscientiously advocate an extension of government services. If they cannot, they certainly are not consistent.

WHO ARE THE AGGRESSORS?

Inasmuch as the original purpose of a democratic government was to protect the individual from aggressors from within and from without, the problem of who are aggressors from within must be decided before the government can do a good job of its primary functions.

One of the primary things a government has to do under a free enterprise system of democracy is to enforce a contract that is entered into voluntarily, as we know the word "voluntarily." This is true because, as Herbert Spencer pointed out years ago, "a breach of contract is an indirect aggression and the man who makes a contract and does not live up to it is an aggressor against society."

But it is very difficult for the government to do this when it is so careless about living up to its own contract. When we start a double standard of morals, one for the state and one for the individual, we have lost a fundamental principle of justice, equity and progress; namely, that the Universal Rule is the Golden Rule.

The state cannot, and will not, intelligently enforce contracts on individuals when it does not keep its own promises.

UNFAIR TO LABOR

The next time you hear the expression, "unfair to labor," ask what labor is being treated unfairly. Invariably the contenders that an employer is unfair to labor mean that he will not discriminate against other laborers and the consumer, in order to benefit a certain labor group that sets itself up as the final say as to what wages and conditions should be. If this employer, who is claimed to be unfair to labor, is willing to give all labor an equal opportunity and is unwilling to show discrimination against any laborer, he is following the principle that the Universal Rule is the Golden Rule.

If a man is to be declared unfair to labor because he does not do what some self-appointed party who furnishes no employment himself, thinks he should do, then there will be as many ideas as to what unfair to labor means as there are reformers. The question is whether it is unfair to labor for an employer to insist that he has no right to pay employees more than his customers are willing to do the identical work for and as a result attempt to keep the price of his product up. Instead of being unfair to labor to do this, it is certainly being fair. To keep the price up to customers is unfair and customers are laborers past or present.

The Nation's Press

WHY INDUSTRY LEAVES WISCONSIN (Chicago Tribune)

The decision of the Nash Kelyator company to remove its motor plants from Wisconsin was inevitable in a state where the ruling political party has united unbearable taxes with oppressive laws to make existence intolerable for industry.

The final breakdown of law and the refusal of the authorities to protect the Nash company in possession of its property in Racine against a blockade by the C. I. O. automobile workers' union was the culmination of burdens which impelled the company to announce its withdrawal from the state.

The Nash company is only the latest, if possibly the largest of a long line of Wisconsin manufacturers driven to abandon Wisconsin. Others have directed their growth and expansion out of the state with diminished home activities and thus have gradually reduced their dependence on their Wisconsin plants.

The jobs thus lost to Wisconsin workmen have run into the thousands. A partial list of principal industries which have left altogether or have built supplemental plants elsewhere includes the Palmolive-Peet company, the Newport Chemical company of the du Ponts, the Holeproof Hosiery, the Inland Steel, the Westinghouse company of Milwaukee, the J. I. Case company, the Walker Jack company, Modine Manufacturing, and the Western Printing company of Racine.

The La Follette family, which has dominated Wisconsin's government, continues to insist on a generation, boasts of its love for the workers, the toilers. But it has sponsored laws that have forced jobs out of the state and caused more misery to Wisconsin workers than ever can be calculated.

Government surrendered completely to a show of force when it failed to protect the Nash company from the use of its property. It was a complete identical with a former strike in Racine when C. M. Davidson, a Circuit judge whose injunctions were safely ignored by the same strikers, said there was no law and that government officials had failed in their duty to protect the public.

The surrender of government to threats of violence, a situation which is driving the Nash company from Wisconsin investment, creates a state of anarchy, nothing less.

A government based on appeals to hate and envy and which legislates for one class of citizens and against another, can bring nothing but misery to all classes. Wisconsin can thank its ruling family for a complete failure of law enforcement. It can thank the La Follettes for the loss of the industry which had made it a great and prosperous state.

WHAT LOVELY WEATHER WE'RE HAVING!

Around Hollywood

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Safe bet: there were plenty of red faces in town after the preview of "There Goes My Heart."

For one reason or another, Hal Roach had trouble getting a feminine lead for his comedy. He wanted Carole Lombard, tried for Constance Bennett, Barbara Stanwyck, several other girls.

No soap, so today, fans, we give you that beautiful, gratifying, stellar comedienne: Virginia Bruce! The girls who didn't take it must have read the first few pages of the script, tossed it aside. The first sequences of the picture are unpromising. They ask you to care (again) about the doings of another "richest girl" who wants to get away from her rich-rich grandpa and have some fun. This is known as the Barbara Hutton formula, tried and true, and the picture, like its predecessors, puts a playful plotter (Frederic March) on her trail. It follows through, in matters of detail, with little variation. But it impresses, for all that, as one of the sprightliest, brightest and most hilarious comedies of the year.

When the stars (Miss Bruce) runs away from grandpa's yacht and gets a job in one of his chain department stores—incognito, of course, the film brightens, perhaps because that's where Patsy Kelly comes in. Anyway, under Norman Z. McLeod's lively direction, "There Goes My Heart" is garnished with as clever and laugh-provoking incident and situations as you'd hope to find in ten comedies. Samples: Patsy, employed as a vibrator demonstrator in the store, carries on sales-haranguing while being shaken, gets out of the machine and can't lose the jitters. Patsy and Virginia, cooking by electricity and lacking a quarter to keep the juke coming, plug into the Great White Way (alternating current).

March is forceful and amusing as the reprobate, and Eugene Paletta and Alan Mowbray have great moments. Gratifying as Miss Bruce's comedy is, it's Patsy Kelly's that will rock the theaters. Also present, in the familiar-face bracket: Nancy Carroll, as the "heavy," and Arthur Lake. Present effectively, but without screen credit: Harry Langdon, one-time silent star comic, as the wistful parson.

"Youth Takes a Fling" is a mostly pleasant if improbable trifle about a Kansas farm boy who yearns for the sea and a New York store model who yearns for the boy. Joel McCrea is so in love with the sea that he can't see Andrea Leeds, a bit of casting which stretches belief right there. But Dorothea Kent and Frank Jenks, teamed for comedy, maneuver things around to help Andrea get her man, and the lightness of touch distinguishes the Joe Pasternak production (all the while Pasternak scampers a torch song over her alightly brassy vocal cords is a delight).

In 1785, sea-otter furs sold at seven dollars apiece. Today, when they can be had at all, they command prices of several thousand dollars.

The Cook addition football season is in full swing again, and every afternoon a vacant lot between Mary Ellen and Christine Streets is the scene of a hectic football serial, new and exciting episodes of which take place every afternoon from the time school is out until dark. Now, Mr. Ray Barton, Guerrilla coach, who directs his charges in the manner of a carnival barker, has nothing at all on the Cook addition brats. They make more noise than all the school teams combined, and they have more chatter in one afternoon than the Harvesters have all season. The team is better than usual this year, due to the fact that there are four or five three-year letter men on the team, namely the Fatherley boys, Wayne Roby, Dale Thut, and several others—but speaking of the Thuts, yesterday Charlie made a trip down to the lumber yard for a window glass. "You see," the county clerk explained, "Dale flipped a pass to Don who let it slip through his fingers." The squad is twice as big this year as last, and competition is keener. Most of the boys have equipment. Yuh oughta go out and watch them some time.

And speaking of equipment, plans for the six-man football team blew up for lack of it. The school, fearing it would set a precedent that would be a boon under, did not want to furnish equipment to ineligible men who are barred from all forms of interschool competition. The school figured ineligible men would demand to play six-man football next year and not miss playing on the Harvesters so very much.

Apparently cancer is not caused by any germ or by any virus. There are, however, certain substances which produce repeated irritations of the tissues and stimulate them to undergo growth. These substances are not usually taken in the diet. It has not been possible to produce cancer experimentally by any type of diet.

When it was found that certain diseases were produced by the lack of certain vitamins in the body, attempts were made to produce cancer by restricting the diet in various ways. None of these attempts has been successful.

We know a great deal about the substances called glands or hormones. We know, for example, that chemically many of these hormones resemble in their structure some of the vitamins as well as other chemicals. We have learned about the things by finding that repeated irritation of the skin with tar would produce cancer.

We find that the chemical structure of some of these other chemical substances, like vitamins and some of the hormones, is similar to that of the cancer-producing tar in the study of cancer, but that in the study of cancer, but the knowledge it brings is not particularly applicable at this time to cancer prevention.

Church Of God To Have Guest Speaker

The state overseer of the Church of God will be in Pampa Sunday to preach at the evening service at 7:30 o'clock.

A special invitation is extended to everyone to attend the Wednesday night prayer meeting and the Sunday services.

The district convention of the Church of God will be held at Moberly Friday evening and will close at 4 o'clock on Sunday.

The local church is located at 929 Ripley street.

How's Your Health?

The fear of cancer lingers as one of the last of the great fears of mankind regarding disease.

The fear of epidemics, of pain, suffering, and death have been largely removed by the great discoveries of modern medicine. Yet the fear of cancer remains, because few people know that to a considerable extent cancer is curable, that many forms of cancer are preventable, and that even in the worst cases medical science can do much.

Early in September a woman in New York killed her two small children and attempted suicide because she believed that she had cancer. She had written a note in which she said that she feared recurrence of a growth on which an operation had been performed 10 months previously. In her note she said also that she believed the disease was hereditary, and that it would take the life of her children.

Actually, of course, there is no scientific knowledge to justify the belief that the cancer from which this woman suffered would, with any certainty, attack the children. Neither was there any reason to believe that she herself would inevitably die of cancer.

While we do not know everything that is necessary to control cancer, we do know enough now to view the disease far differently than we did 25 years ago.

In the causation of cancer, two factors are fundamentally important: 1, the constitutional tendency to form cancer; 2, chronic irritation.

Apparently cancer is not caused by any germ or by any virus. There are, however, certain substances which produce repeated irritations of the tissues and stimulate them to undergo growth. These substances are not usually taken in the diet. It has not been possible to produce cancer experimentally by any type of diet.

When it was found that certain diseases were produced by the lack of certain vitamins in the body, attempts were made to produce cancer by restricting the diet in various ways. None of these attempts has been successful.

Tex's Topics

By Tex DeWesse The reason has been advanced that perhaps this column is not so currently hot because of Fire Prevention Week. . . Mmm-mm-mm! . . . Speaking of names, as we did in this space yesterday, do you know that there were 1,228 local names in last night's edition of The Pampa News? . . . Count 'em. . . And even the highest guess made by the staff was 300.

We're still waiting for the answer to that appeal made yesterday. Of course, maybe there are no answers because there are no readers. . . That's an angle that mustn't be overlooked and one which backs up our contention that the column is a waste of space. . . There are so many, many more interesting things in The News, that we feel it must be an awful let-down if somebody should, by chance, take the time to read here.

We employed the word "pediculous" in this space yesterday, and the proof-readers, who are in the front office all out of breath, and said, "You don't intend to use that word, do you?—It means 'lousy'." . . . And, we said, "Yes, that's the word, exactly." . . . "Goodness," said the proof-reader, "what a man!" . . . And so it goes.

Homer Pruett, secretary of the Berger Chamber of Commerce, has one of the keenest senses of humor you'll find anywhere. . . He is willing to admit, too, that a C. of C. secretary doesn't always win his arguments. . . On top of that, he's worried about the location of Spain, hinting that it may soon be Italy. . . An office vice-cracker reports that the average pair of shoes gets a run for its money. . . Read it again.

That Port Arthur football team you'll see out at Harvester Stadium tonight made part of the 800-mile trip by bus. . . In addition to that they'll be fighting the handicap of about 250 feet in elevation between Pampa and Port Arthur. . . By the end of the first half the Yellow Jackets will be getting their breath in stereotyped short pants. . . And what with a bang-up Harvester team, Port Arthur will probably take a shelling.

Playing football at sea-level and at better than a half mile high are two decidedly separate issues, and enough to put any team "up in the air." . . . With all these advantages firmly established for them before game time, Port Arthur should not feel the sting of defeat tonight—or, if the thing should happen to go the other way, the Harvesters will be in complete humiliation, as they say in polite society, "would be a good idea to be in the stands tonight, but if you can't make it—remember the play-by-play account of the game will be available over KPDN."

Farm Prices Become Political Issues

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Secretary Wallace's efforts to bolster the administration crop control program are undergoing careful scrutiny by politicians for the political as well as economic effects.

Republican leaders hope to make considerable political capital out of discontent over low farm prices and crop surpluses which has been expressed in various quarters. They are making the Midwest farm belt one of the principal battlegrounds in the November election campaign. Wallace himself in taking a hand in the Democratic campaign, having accepted invitations to speak in Iowa in behalf of Senator Guy Gillette. The secretary expressed the opinion Wednesday at his press conference that the present level of farm prices would not affect Gillette's contest against former Senator L. J. Dickinson, Republican.

Agriculture department officials say the prime causes of the reduced farm income are excessive crop yield and the business recession, which lowered consumer demand. Both of these conditions make for lower prices, and both occurred at a time when the present farm program was just getting well underway.

YOU AND YOUR Nation's Affairs

An "All Take and No Put" Plan

By ELIOT JONES Professor of Transportation and Public Utilities, Stanford University

In a previous article we described the plan which will come before the California voters in the November election to give persons who are fifty years old $30 every Thursday. . . This article will explain why the plan is unjust. It is unjust because it creates a highly favored group solely on the basis of age. All persons who are fifty years old, a right who are qualified to vote, and who were legal residents of the state during the year ending November 8, 1938, are to receive $30 every Thursday. They not only need do nothing to earn this sum, but they are specifically forbidden to earn it, for the payments are made only to those applicants who will swear that they will not accept employment for pay, and who will further swear that they will not employ any person in the production of goods and services for sale or hire.

A man may be a millionaire, and continue to work, but that will not prevent his pay in wages, and his receiving the pension. A man may be a confirmed drunkard, or no value to society, but he will still get $30 a week. He may have done time in a penal institution, and thus not be qualified to vote, but he will still get the pension. This is because the proposed plan specially provides that the requirement that applicants shall be qualified to vote shall be waived in the case of former inmates of penal institutions, if they have ever been citizens of the United States.

Under the plan a married couple over fifty will receive $60 a week, or $3,120 a year. As everyone knows, this is much more than most laborers get. . . (Address questions to the author, care of this newspaper)

Sex Slaying Of Girl Confessed

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 14 (AP)—Detective Captain John Taylor said early today Adrian Miller, 31, had confessed the sex slaying of Alice May Gilron, 17, pretty brunet business college student. Miller lived in the same rooming house as Miss Gilron, just across the hall from the girl's room and ravished body was found early Wednesday, her own bloomers stuffed down her throat to strangle her. Captain Taylor said Miller told him he waited until he heard Howard Zimmerman, 18, of Rice, Mich., leave the girl's room and then went over and knocked on the door. He quoted Miller as saying Miss Gilron objected but the man forced his way in, seized a pillow from the bed, smothered her with it and then asserted that she was dead.

"After that," the detective said Miller told him, "everything went black and I don't remember." Miller, who is from Racine, Wis., was arrested early today. He has been taking an engineering course at a technical school here.

Green Asks 4 Unions Leave CIO And Join AFL In 'Peace Move'

By T. F. COMAN
HOUSTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—American Federation of Labor unions, armed for war but apparently anxious for peace in labor's internal strife, today turned over to their executive council for action the policy mandates of the 58th annual convention which adjourned last night.

Jammed into the program for future action in an 11-day meeting that was dull and stormy by turns were a dozen controversial issues that called for action on the political and industrial fronts. The convention voted to meet in San Francisco in 1939.

After the tumult and debating over dualism and the new deal in the closing days of the session, the convention closed on a "high note of peace" sounded by William Green in a speech accepting for the fifteen time the presidency of the A. F. of L.

"I promise to you," Green said "that I shall make every contribution that lies within my power toward the promotion of peace in the labor movement; I shall do what I can to heal the wound and close the breach and unite the forces of labor."

His avowal to seek unity followed by a few days convention action approving the continuation of the "war chest" special assessment levied a year ago for extensive organizing purposes, and the adoption of a report on "secession and dualism" recommending that the council be authorized to "carry on the battle and at the same time stand ready to respond to any genuine appeal for peace."

Conference Hinted
Tobin intimated strongly there may soon be a "conference" in Washington, and many delegates speculated on what might happen between the warring factions before the CIO convenes its first constitutional convention at Pittsburgh November 14.

There still was a possibility, some sources indicated, that President Roosevelt may aid in bringing the two sides together, particularly in view of his messages to the convention urging labor leaders to "make and keep the peace" and prevent the "reaction which otherwise is bound to injure the workers themselves."

FDR May Help
Daniel W. Tracy, president of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who disclosed he had approached Mr. Roosevelt indirectly by last March with a suggestion the President intervene as a mediator in the labor dispute, said:

"I still believe President Roosevelt could be very helpful in bringing the two organizations together."

After the noisy ovation given him when he was re-elected, Green addressed an appeal to the International Ladies Garment Workers union, the United Auto Workers union, the United Textile Workers union.

Harvesters Bent On Getting Revenge Tonight

Jackets Will Not Outweigh Pampa Crew

A year ago the Pampa Harvesters football squad made one of the longest trips ever attempted by a high school team—to Port Arthur. Tonight at 8 o'clock on Harvesters Field Port Arthur will return the engagement. Coach Tom Dennis and 22 boys arrived here last night about dark and later worked out under the lights at Harvesters Field.

Coach Dennis announced that Louis Colida, ace quarterback, would not start the game because of an injury received in practice a few weeks before the team left for Pampa. Colida is expected to see service during the game. His understudy, a 148-pound flash named Zummo, is not expected to weaken the Jacket offense.

When the teams line up for the kickoff there will be a difference of only seven pounds in the total weight of the two elevens with the advantage, if any, with the Harvesters, who will weigh a total of 1,822 pounds to the Jacket's 1,815 pounds. Port Arthur will have a weight advantage of five pounds to the man in the backfield with the Harvesters presenting the most line weight, due principally to Candler, 202, at center where the Jacket's present Cumper, 143. In other departments the Harvesters' linemen will be outweighed, excepting at tackle where Jack Hessey will have three pounds on Barras, 210 to 207 pounds.

Ailing Harvesters Report.
After a long but light workout yesterday afternoon, the Harvesters were reported ready for the game. Only Wayne Giddens, guard, was a doubtful starter. The chunky lineman reported for practice but was still suffering from an ulcerated tonsil that kept him in bed Wednesday and part of yesterday. Should he be unable to start the game, either Carl Ripple or L. C. Bailey will get the call.

Pete Dunaway, who reported ill with stomach trouble Wednesday, was in uniform yesterday and showed little effects of his day in bed. He will start the game at his half-back position but may have to call on A. C. Miller for relief.

Although refusing to let up for a minute, Captain J. W. Graham has also kept him from strenuous practice. The injured members felt no better yesterday, he reported, as he went through signal drill. Dull was on crutches because of a knee injury.

Only Captain Graham and Bob Karr, fullback, started against the Jacket in Port Arthur last night, although Andy Candler, Parish, Solomon, Kemp and Dunaway saw service during the game, won by the home team 14 to 0. Going into the high altitude of the Panhandle to the coast hampered the Harvesters. The jump from sea level to the Panhandle is expected to effect the Jacket's same way and reserves should see a lot of service.

Probable starting lineups will be:

PAMPA	POS.	PORT ARTHUR
Solomon	lt	Barras
Parish	lt	Trimble

400 Publicity Men Ballyhooping Stars

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP)—It is somewhat alarming to learn that there are more than 400 college football publicity men in this country, each of them determined to place at least one man on this season's All-America eleven.

For these figures, and the warning implied, we are indebted to Bob Madry, who has been sing-song man for the University of North Carolina for 15 years. Bob is here with a trunk-full of photographs of his tar heels, who play New York University every year.

Bob's job, like that of the other 399-odd, calls for him to get around a great deal, establishing a new pitch each week and generally shedding miscellaneous information for the benefit of the sports writers.

Most of the campus publicity men have had newspaper experience and have a wide acquaintance among the country's football writers. Each of them has anywhere from one to six full-time assistants. His salary ranges up to $6,000 a year.

One of the most appreciated functions of the tribe is its management of the football press boxes these Saturday afternoons. The publicity man at most stadia sees to it that the shivering typewriter-pounder is supplied with coffee and sandwiches and has a seat to sit on.

Native of African swamps, a certain species of catfish is the only fish to swim upside down; other fish found in that position are either dead or dying.

Aggies, Rice And Baylor Given Nod

By HERBERT W. BARKER.
NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP)—This football corner takes a wary look at the week's football slate, and emerges with the following guesses:
Alabama-Tennessee: The game of games in the Southeastern conference this week. It might even settle the championship although that's taking an extremely far-sighted bird's-eye view of the situation.
Tennessee, after bowling over Clemson, hurled Auburn but this is an Alabama horse of another color, Alabama.
Wisconsin-Pitt: Harry Stuhldreher must have been feeding his Wisconsin Badgers nothing but raw meat, but the conviction grows that this Pitt outfit has everything a great team needs. Pitt.
Texas A. and M.-Texas Christian: A Santa Clara team that ran up 22 points on Stanford could score only seven on the Aggies. Nevertheless Christian has been knocking its rival round like so many ten-pins and gets the nod here.

Kansas-Oklahoma: Can't see Kansas against a really fine Oklahoma team.
Tulane-Rice: Tulane is coming strong; Rice hasn't even started. Maybe the Texans will this week. Rice, reserving right to appeal.
Vanderbilt-Mississippi: Who threw that trick? The boys haven't got over that shocking Mississippi victory over Louisiana State. In sheer despair, Mississippi.
Arkansas-Texas: The Razorbacks ought finally to win one. Arkansas.
Baylor-Centenary: Looks like Baylor.
Skipping over the chalklines otherwise: Louisiana State over Loyola (New Orleans); Minnesota over Michigan.

Roy Lee Jones And Gillis To Play With Frosh Against Altus Saturday

CANYON, Oct. 14—Former high school stars of Amarillo, Pampa, Clinton, Okla., McLean, Clarendon and other Panhandle towns will be in the West Texas State College freshman lineup when the Altus, Okla., Junior College plays the frosh here Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock.
Coach Windy Nicklaus's eleven is likely to give the locals their toughest battle of the season. Since their 38-7 win over the Eastern New Mexico Junior College the future Buffaloes have been fired with an ambition to finish the season undefeated. Unusually rugged, they will have the disadvantage of having had to change their style of play every week to follow the scout notes on Buffalo opponents.
Captain W. J. Gillis, tackle, and

Roy Lee Jones, end, are the former Pampa Harvesters who have made the freshman team here. Former Amarillo Sandies are Harold Rickerts end, and George Overhault, guard. League Clay, tackle, and Steve Thomas, center, are from Pickett. Cornell, halfback, comes from Clarendon and Hill, the other halfback, from Canyon. Guards will be Mangold, of Clinton, and Horlander, of Owensboro, Ky. Another Kentucky starter who came down with Freshman Coach Jack Curtice is Brock, a hard-hitting fullback.
The tentative starting lineup looked more tentative than usual during practices on wet turf, and Curtice was looking for web-footed lads who could hold their feet. Game prices will be 40 and 25 cent.

Conference play will feature Class B engagements in the Panhandle tonight as nearly every team swings into action.
One of the hottest battles of the night will be the Shamrock-Wheeler tussle in Shamrock. Of equal importance will be the Groom-White Deer game at White Deer.
LeFors and McLean will meet tough non-conference foes, Padueah invading LeFors and Dumas entering the fair of the McLean Tigers.
Further south the big battle will be between the surprising Plomat team and Floydada, both undefeated to date.
The full schedule follows:
District One.
Dalhart at Texhoma.
X Vega at Canyon.
Farwell at Frioma.
X Hereford at Happy.
Amarillo Yarnigans at Tulla.

A HORSE HAS MORE TEETH THAN A MARE!

WHAT BECOMES OF THE HEART IN A HOLLOW TREE?

ANSWER: In a hollow tree, which has no opening to the outside, the decayed heart continues to sink to the bottom and condense in bulk until it is hardly noticeable. If there is an opening, insects and birds frequently carry out the decayed portion.

ACE PORT ARTHUR BALL CARRIERS

James Reynolds, 165-pound youngster, played end against Pampa when the Harvesters played here last season, but this year has been going great for the Jacket's fullback and left half.

George Lahdry, 155-pound back, is a regular back from last year's strong Jacket eleven.

Guy Nunnally, 161-pound fullback who was a leading ground gainer in both the Longview and Shreveport games following his being shifted from the guard position, is shown blocking a dummy during practice.

Irish-Mustang Game Heads Class B Schedule; McLean Battles Dumas

SHAMROCK, Oct. 14—Football interest is running high here this week as the Shamrock Irishmen will meet their biggest rival in the Wheeler Mustangs. Always a hotly contested game, the contest this year looms as a dog fight due to the season's record of the two teams. Both are undefeated and the game will be a deciding factor in the north half of District 2B.
Comparative scores indicate that the two teams are evenly matched as it is possible to get high school teams. Wheeler has defeated Canadian by a 19-0 score. Shamrock has defeated Canadian 19-0. Wheeler beat LeFors 12-0 while the Irishmen had to extend themselves to come out 27-19 against the same team.
Wheeler features a big line and a fast running attack while the Irishmen depend on an aerial game for most of their gains. Rivalry between the two teams is a matter of history as they have, in the past, played games that were close and interesting despite apparent differences in strength against other teams.

WHEELER, Oct. 14—Coach Stina Cain's Wheeler Mustangs invade the fair of what is reputed to be their strongest foe this season when they take on the Shamrock Irishmen on Denver field Friday night in a conference clash.
Shamrock smeared LeFors last week 27-19. Wheeler licked them the week before 12-0. On paper the teams are rated about even.
Shamrock will depend largely on

Duck Takes Off From Pocket Of Stunned Hunter

WINNIPEG, Oct. 14 (AP)—The adage "a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush" didn't run true to form for Albert Armistead and Walter Scofield.
Armistead fired into a flight of ducks and brought one down. Scofield placed the duck carefully in the pocket of his hunting coat.
A short time later Scofield felt a rustling as the mallard, only stunned by Armistead's shot, took off from his pocket.
The hunters were too flabbergasted to think of firing a second time.

Guerillas Hold Rangers To Tie

Giving their best performance of the season, the Pampa high school Guerillas held the Perryton Ranger second string to a 6 to 6 tie under the lights at Ranger field last night.
John Thompson, new Guerilla guard, put the Guerillas ahead in the second quarter when he intercepted a pass and ran 60 yards for a touchdown. The try for extra point failed. Perryton evened the score in the third quarter on a pass good for 40 yards.
Coach Bruce Barton reeled the Guerilla blocking and tackling much better than in previous games. Morris, a halfback, played a top game in that department while Phillips and Thompson stood out in line play.
The Guerilla starting lineup was: Terrell, McKeown, ends; R. Phillips and Scott, tackles; Thompson and Odell, guards; Ward, center; Stone, quarter; Morris and Boyd, halves; W. Phillips, full.
Substitutes: Hilton, Allen, Bearden, Dunlap, Winchester and Isbell.

Redskins To Paint 5-Yard Line Red

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—J. Kingsbury Espey, general manager of the Redskins, decided today the professional grid game needs more color.
"The middle of the American football field has been drab too long," he said. "We're going to do something about it—we're going to rouge the 50-yard line."
"Yes, sir, we're going to put a big red line across the field, and then we're going to put a red stripe down it's middle—as crimson as ever got on a co-ed's lips."
He's convinced that the innovation will sweep the country.

Ballyhoo Blamed For Racing Slump

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 14 (AP)—What's the matter with racing? "Too much box-office ballyhoo," says John Hay (Jock) Whitney.
Whitney, member of the New York Racing Commission and president of the American Breeders' Association, told the Thoroughbred Club of America last night:
"We hear too much talk of turnover, gate receipts, daily double and such box-office ballyhoo, and the success of a track is too often judged by the size of its dividends."
More than 142,000,000 acres of U. S. public grazing lands are under control of the federal government.

Another Unbeaten Team Bites Dust

(By The Associated Press)
More than 50 games remained on the week's schedule in Texas school-boy football today but one of the state's 12 undefeated, untied teams had already bitten the dust.
Sam Houston of Houston fell last night before Layan of Houston in a district 13 conference game, 32-0, and there was the promise of four or five others following Sam Houston in the plunge from the select circle before the week-end's play is finished.
Three other games were played last night. Sulphur Springs defeating Class B Commerce 44-6. Poly of Fort Worth downing Fort Worth Tech 25-0 in a district 7 conference tilt, and Robstown of district 15 defeating Corpus Christi College Academy 12-0.
Thirty-one conference games are scheduled today and tomorrow.

Battle Of Year Due On Saturday

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT, Associated Press Sports Writer.
Nevertheless, crafty Texas Christian and Texas A. and M. pile into each other on College Station's so-called Kyle Field tomorrow on sort of a winner-take-all basis.
Few were those who didn't feel the team with its head high after the early season classic down at Aggie-land would win a Southwest conference title and national favor—unbeaten Baylor and Rice Institute notwithstanding.
The unbeaten record of Texas Christian will be shuffled out of factors surrounding a game expected to lure between 20,000 and 25,000 to the tiny college settlement many miles from the nearest metropolis. Odds were out of the question with both teams falling to list a single injury on the game's eve.
The Christians' great 212-pound average line, behind which wees Davey O'Brien hides to throw his own passes, will be bucking a big Farmer wall that has bent only before Santa Clara—and then only briefly. Little was to be conceded to either line but one important angle made Texas Christian the slightest choice in this corner.
Not O'Brien's bulls-eye pegs nor Dick Todd's fancy running may decide a winner, but the powerful kicking foot of Sophomore Connie Sparks, the Christian's prize fullback. Over a three-game stretch with Centenary, Arkansas and Temple he has averaged 40 yards on his punts, and many have been buried out-of-bounds for accuracy's sake. Todd improved his kicking against Santa Clara last week, averaging 30 yards, but Sparks' toe still may mean a T. C. U. triumph by a single point—not more than one touchdown.

JACKET COACH

Coach Tom Dennis has been head mentor of the Port Arthur Yellow Jackets since 1926 and since then he has sent Jacket elevens in to the state semi-finals four times and to the finals twice, tying Brentbridge for the title in 1929.

Howard Payne Beats Austin

SHERMAN, Oct. 14 (AP)—Howard Payne college had shoved another contender out of the way in the Texas conference football race today.
The Yellow Jackets, boasting three victories and no defeats, took care of the Austin College Kangaroos last night, 13-0. Minor scored the first touchdown on an end run and Hest passed 22 yards to Bodeker for the second. Russell kicked the extra point.
St. Edward's, another Texas conference member, defeated Lamar Junior College of Beaumont, 14-0, in a non-conference struggle at Beaumont. Erms passed to Reynolds for the first touchdown and to Jensen for the second. Fornagus kicked the goals.

Rotan Favorite To Win Tourney

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 14 (AP)—George Rotan of Houston was the favorite today as the Texas senior golf tournament entered the semi-final round.
Rotan, shooting the tournament's best score, 73, crushed Bart Moore of San Antonio, 9 and 7, yesterday to indicate he was the man to beat for the title.
Rotan met Ernest L. Brown of San Antonio in the semi-finals. Brown took cut, Miers Crump of San Antonio, 6 and 5.
The other match sent Guy Keith of Beaumont against Fred Austin of Houston. Keith defeated Congressman R. M. Kleberk of Corpus Christi, 4 and 3, and Austin took out Emil Meller of San Antonio, 3 and 2, in the quarter-finals.

Alsace-Lorraine Loyal To France Affirms Deputy

PARIS, Oct. 14 (AP)—The loyalty of Alsace-Lorraine to France was affirmed today in a letter written by Alsatian Deputy Edouard Fuchs to Premier Daladier.

Increased in the former German area, unrest in production in the aviation industry, the long building workers' strike in Lyon, and censorship of news broadcasts were the chief problems confronting the government today.

Virtual censorship over news broadcasts from eleven of France's largest privately owned radio stations was established by the government.

In his letter to the premier, Fuchs declared his wish to protest against the fact that "the French of Alsace are being compared with Sudeten Germans."

A great majority of the 2,000,000 inhabitants of Alsace-Lorraine, which was part of Germany before the World war, speak German.

"Recent partial mobilization found the population of Alsace-Lorraine at their posts, faithful to their duty," Fuchs wrote. "Such population is above suspicion in the mass. It indignantly repulses all dishonest and wicked insinuations."

Fuchs declared there was no Nazi propaganda in the area, although Joseph Paul-Boncour, their foreign minister, told the chamber of deputies foreign affairs committee last March 24 that the two provinces were "full of Hitlerian intrigue."

Another City Left In Ruins By Japanese

HONGKONG, Oct. 14 (AP)—Preparations were hurried today to send 400,000 women and children and the municipal and provincial governments into the interior from Canton as a new Japanese force of 40,000 moved closer to that South China metropolis.

The invading army captured Tamshui, 12 miles from Blas Bay where it landed Wednesday, and was reported striking due west in a 20-mile drive to cut the important Canton-Kowloon railway at a point about 20 miles from the borders of this British crown colony.

Intensified bombing and shelling left Tamshui in ruins. The invaders drove relentlessly toward the important garrison city of Waichow, 82 miles east of Canton and 35 miles north of Hongkong.

Chinese resistance improved as the Japanese columns moved from the island, but the invaders' airplanes and artillery were being used with crushing force.

With the destruction of a long wooden bridge about 15 miles north of Hongkong, Canton was cut off completely except for the railway to Waichow and the water route to Macao, Portuguese colony 70 miles south of Canton.

Chinese military supplies from Hongkong were blocked, and it was learned a caravan of 160 trucks, which had been ordered to carry military materials to Canton, was forced to return here after finding the bridge destroyed.

More than 200 foreigners remained in Shamen, including 80 Americans. The United States gunboat, Mindanao, with one French and five British war vessels, were bottled up in waters near Canton.

The Japanese consul here was understood to have warned all Japanese residents to be cautious regarding anti-Japanese feeling among Chinese residents of the colony.

Japanese homes and businesses here were given special guards following a consular request for such protection.

Administration Planning Broad New Attack On Unemployment Problem

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Informed persons in the administration disclosed today that a broad new attack on the problem of unemployment is in the making.

This may result, they said, in presentation to Congress early next year of a correlated program for restoring work opportunities by improving conditions in the nation's basic durable goods industries. Details have not been made known.

At the same time it was learned that a major objective of the monopoly investigating committee will be to uncover business practices and faults in the nation's economic structure which, in the words of one member, "cause conditions in which people can't get jobs."

The committee's work probably will be concerned with a long range solution to the problem, but some administration officials are more interested in starting on a program during the winter.

These officials contend that no substantial improvement in business can be expected until the nation's estimated 10,000,000 or more jobless begin returning to useful employment in private industry.

Czech Promises Loyal Attitude Toward Germany

MUNICH, Oct. 14 (AP)—An official German announcement today said that Frantisek Chvalkovsky, foreign minister of Czechoslovakia, had given Reichsfuehrer Hitler assurances that Czechoslovakia in future will adopt "a loyal attitude" toward Germany.

The announcement came some two hours after Hitler had received the Czechoslovak envoy in the Fuehrerbau, scene of the historic Munich conference which two weeks ago set the seat on Czechoslovakia's dismemberment at Hitler's behest.

The official announcement of the meeting said the Fuehrer had expressed profound regret that the question of Czechoslovakia's Hungarian minority had not yet been solved and had told Chvalkovsky that he hoped an amicable solution of this problem soon would be made.

Administration Planning Broad New Attack On Unemployment Problem

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Informed persons in the administration disclosed today that a broad new attack on the problem of unemployment is in the making.

This may result, they said, in presentation to Congress early next year of a correlated program for restoring work opportunities by improving conditions in the nation's basic durable goods industries. Details have not been made known.

At the same time it was learned that a major objective of the monopoly investigating committee will be to uncover business practices and faults in the nation's economic structure which, in the words of one member, "cause conditions in which people can't get jobs."

The committee's work probably will be concerned with a long range solution to the problem, but some administration officials are more interested in starting on a program during the winter.

These officials contend that no substantial improvement in business can be expected until the nation's estimated 10,000,000 or more jobless begin returning to useful employment in private industry.

CAN'T SEE "VISUALIZED HISTORY"

Threatening to withdraw his 17-year-old daughter from Baltimore's Western High School, E. Paul Behies, an architect, demanded the deletion of "Visualized American History" from the school's required reading list. He is pictured above with his daughter Yvive, examining the textbook which, although he voted for President Roosevelt, he condemned as "New Deal election propaganda under the guise of American history."

SERIAL STORY

MURDER TO MUSIC

BY NARD JONES

COPYRIGHT, 1938 NEA SERVICE, INC.

CAST OF CHARACTERS: MYRNA DOMBEY—heroine, wife of the sensational swing band leader...

Yesterday, Tait is amazed to learn from Max that he has an interest in Dombey's band...

CHAPTER XI

"YES," Leonard Macy repeated quietly. "You are in love with the girl."

Tait's first reaction was one of anger. It was with difficulty that he restrained himself...

"That's absurd," Tait told him. "I hardly know Mrs. Dombey."

"You are always welcome, my boy," he put a hand on Bob Tait's shoulder...

"Thanks," Tait said. He walked into the hallway, turned there to shake Macy's hand...

"I never wager," Macy laughed. THAT laugh echoed in Bob Tait's head as he walked down the hall to the elevator...

"You are in love with the girl. That must be the reason for your interest."

"What happened?" asked Tait, showing out a chair for Myrna.

"Plenty!" exclaimed Anne, dropping wearily onto the davenport and reaching out for one of Tait's cigarettes...

Dombey? Certainly he was not helping himself, and there was the possibility—not too remote—that he was putting his very life in jeopardy.

He remembered how Myrna had looked on that night of the murder—in that moment before the lights had gone out and Ludden Dombey, tom of the swing cats, had played his final tune...

No question but that Myrna was a girl to make a man stop and think. But that he could be in love with her was, as he had insisted to Leonard Macy, absurd.

He'd seen his share of women. He was tough and cynical. There wasn't a girl in the wide world who could take him over the hurdles unless he wanted to go.

He'd snapped princesses, and actresses, and beauty contest winners, and dazzling blonds who had married four men and shot a fifth.

He had caught them in their moments of petty vanity, and he thought he knew them for what they were.

He was intrigued by this slender girl who had been a stenographer and somehow caught the eye of Ludden Dombey, king of swing?

Why? There was, Bob Tait told himself, no reason at all. And therefore he wasn't intrigued. Yet somehow his logic, as he drove his rented coupe toward his apartment, seemed rather weak.

HE found the apartment empty. Anne and Myrna had gone to Feely's office and not yet returned. Nervously Bob Tait telephoned the Press Club.

No message had been left there for him, and when he received this information he felt infinitely better.

If anything went wrong at Dannie Feely's, Anne was to have called him. "Good old Dannie," muttered Tait aloud.

But he went through almost half a pack of cigarettes before Anne and Myrna returned. The latter looked worn and tired.

"What happened?" asked Tait, showing out a chair for Myrna.

"Plenty!" exclaimed Anne, dropping wearily onto the davenport and reaching out for one of Tait's cigarettes.

"What happened?" asked Tait, showing out a chair for Myrna.

"Plenty!" exclaimed Anne, dropping wearily onto the davenport and reaching out for one of Tait's cigarettes.

Myrna, I can't think what it would be. "But what did he say?" asked Tait eagerly.

"Is he—do you think he's convinced that she didn't have anything to do with it?"

She shook her head emphatically. "It came away with the impression that Mr. Feely was itching to put Myrna in the jug at about $25,000 bail.

The fact that he didn't do it I somehow hitch up to a fellow named Robert Tait."

"Forget it! The important thing is that Myrna has put in an appearance." He turned to Myrna.

"Look here," he said, "how much do you trust me?"

Myrna raised her eyes. "Trust you? After all you've done—"

"Enough to take some advice?" The girl nodded, and Tait rushed on: "Enough to fire Harris Rogers and make me the manager of The Swingaters, Incorporated?"

"But I—"

"You can do it, if you want. All you need to do is give Rogers a check for two weeks' salary in lieu of notice. I'll take it to him myself, and you'd better give me a letter saying he's discharged and that he's to turn over all his records to me."

ANNE stirred on the davenport. "It sounds like a swell notion to me, Bob. I think we can do pretty well without Mr. Rogers. But would you mind telling us what's behind all this?"

"We want to get hold of his records, for one thing. And for another, I think it's better for all concerned if Harris Rogers doesn't have a thing to do with the band. He looked at Myrna again. "What do you say?"

"She's too tired to say anything," Anne Lester put in quickly. "I'll do the talking. You're the new manager of the band and of Myrna's corporation—and the sooner you let Harris Rogers know about it, the better for Myrna."

She got up and began rummaging in her bag. "I've got a counter-check somewhere, and I'll be delighted to fill it out for Myrna's signature."

"Good! I'll give Rogers the fund news right away. I've a feeling that the sooner we do it, the better."

Myrna looked apprehensively at Bob Tait. "Do you think you should go to see him? He—he seems—well, dangerous, and I—"

She broke off, at a loss for words. And Bob Tait wondered if Anne could possibly hear the pounding of his heart.

AUSTIN, Oct. 14 (AP)—Tourist travel in Texas during the winter months is increasing annually. This is the word that comes from the state highway department and the state planning board.

The increase is said to be due partly to the advertising which Texas received from its Centennial celebration in 1936 and some carefully-planned advertising by several cities since.

It also is said to be a result of a general spread throughout the country of information on the largest state in the union and growing curiosity about it.

Most of the strictly tourist traffic through Texas in the winter, is headed for Mexico or in transcontinental.

Virtually all the Mexico-bound travelers pass through Laredo because the best highway from the American border to Mexico City begins at that point.

One of several information booths maintained at Texas state-line ports of entry by the highway department is located at Laredo and designed especially to serve travelers in Mexico. It is operated in cooperation with the Mexican government.

There tourists can learn almost anything they need to know about Mexico, where to eat, sleep, get water and gasoline, what to do and what not to do.

Advertising by the Mexican government in American newspapers and periodicals has greatly stimulated tourist travel in the winter, the planning board says.

The government has been advertising that winter is the best time to visit Mexico and a booming tourist traffic has developed. It moves thru Texas from north, east and west.

El Paso and San Antonio, according to the planning board, are going after winter tourists, or winter residents' business in determined way and are benefitting.

The Lower Rio Grande Valley long has been a great attraction for winter travelers seeking to avoid the rigorous northern and eastern climate.

Under an act of the legislature, El Paso voted a special tax for advertising purposes, obtaining about $26,000 a year in revenue. It has sought to attract specific types of persons.

(1) Those who are ill from respiratory afflictions, including tuberculosis. Advertisements aimed at these are placed in medical and health journals.

(2) Those who want to pass a short time, perhaps a winter, in some interesting place, for the purpose of playing and resting.

(3) Those who are traveling across country, probably en route to or from the Pacific coast, especially California.

El Paso has instituted its "Sun Carnival" which rapidly is becoming one of the outstanding winter amusements and spectacles of the country. A feature is a football game New Year's Day.

pose of playing and resting.

El Paso has instituted its "Sun Carnival" which rapidly is becoming one of the outstanding winter amusements and spectacles of the country.

"They have been getting some mighty good results from the advertising campaign," a planning board official said.

There is quite a winter resident "colony" in San Antonio made up largely of people with moderate independent incomes who delight to bask in the sunshine of the South Texas city while perhaps their friends and relatives up north are trying to keep from freezing.

Each "tourist club" in San Antonio has a winter list of about 600 members. These and other winter residents may be seen on bright days playing croquet or golf or pitching horse shoes in the parks.

San Antonio had an interesting experience in advertising for tourists. Its initial advertising campaign, generally directed, attracted many "tin can" tourists, those comprising large families, traveling in broken-down automobiles, and more often than not financially hard shape and likely to become dependent on the community.

This type of advertising was stopped and advertisements were placed in medical journals and specialized periodicals read by people likely to be those San Antonio wanted. The planning board reports this switch-over was a success, judged by the persons drawn to San Antonio.

In recent weeks the board has been receiving quite a number of inquiries from writers who say they are would business men with homes in Wisconsin, Idaho, and Iowa and want to "rough it" in a warm climate. These are being directed to camps in the Big Bend area where they won't be bothered by telephones and can get back to nature without strenuous effort.

Other queries concern business opportunities in Texas, coming from men who say they want to combine business and pleasure.

Texas does not catch the very wealthy winter travelers, the "play boys," officials say. These usually go to California and Florida for the elaborate resorts.

NEW USE FOR PRETZELS Pretzel crumbs make a tasty covering for small cheese balls served with salads as appetizers. Freshen the pretzels by heating five minutes in a moderately hot oven. Cool and then roll into crumbs.

DINING ROOM CANDLES Never include candles on the dining room table service, unless they are to be used to supply light. Light them just before the guests enter.
