Nazi U-Boats Score Heavy Losses Lately

The War Today

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
The Russian adventure in the Balkans holds more potentialities than a school-boy's pockets. Communist Chaitain Stalin continues to play his cards close to his chest. Whatever way you look at it, Muscovite is running counter to Nazism in at least three ways. He is jeopardizing Hitler's all-important Balkan war and food supplies. He is invading a peninsula which Germany long has regarded as her special preserve. He is greatly strengthening his strategic position for defense or offense, for that matter, against the Reich.

Germans Raid British Canal And Harbor

BERLIN, July 2 (AP)—German planes raided the north Scottish port of Wick, the high command announced today, while Nazi fighting planes last night attacked harbor facilities on Bristol canal. "On June 30 and July 1 respectively, the British channel islands of Guernsey and Jersey were taken in a surprise action by units of the air force and occupied by shock troops of the navy and detachments of the army. "Another successful attack was directed against the harbor of Wick in northern Scotland. On the night of July 1-2, our fighting planes again attacked port establishments on the Bristol canal. Fires and explosions were observed. In the course of British air raids on northern and western Germany Monday night, bombs also were dropped over Kiel, but only slight damage was done. Some civilians were killed. "Five enemy airplanes in the night were shot down by anti-aircraft batteries. Two others were shot down by naval anti-aircraft artillery during the night attack on Kiel. "Three German airplanes are missing. "The number of enemy planes shot down in aerial combat on June 30 and July 1 is greater than at first indicated. It has increased by five to a total of 23. "Meanwhile, the press continued to print threats against England while expressing satisfaction over Rumania's move into the axis sphere of influence. "Adolf Hitler's Volkischer Beobachter referred to destruction of the French port of Dunkerque in comment on Neville Chamberlain's broadcast speech Sunday night in which he denied any appeasement aims. "The newspaper said: "Chamberlain has not considered what England would look like after an entirely hopeless fight like that. Dunkerque would be a mere shadow compared with England after a snip-war."

German Prisoners
QUEBEC, July 2 (AP)—The first German prisoners of war have arrived from Great Britain and are now under guard in internment camps in the interior of Canada. Arrival of the prisoners was disclosed last night by Canadian authorities who said the Germans had been transferred here because their presence in Britain might be dangerous in event of invasion. "Recapps will make your vacation trip safer and cheaper. Dixie Tire Co.—Adv."

PLANES FOR BRITAIN'S DEFENSE

Curtis dive bombers, flown from the United States to Canada, are pushed by sailors and towed by trucks down a Canadian highway to the sea where they apparently will be loaded on transports for shipment to England.

Bathing Beauties Will Parade At Water Carnival Here Fourth

The best swimmers and divers and the prettiest girls in this community will be attractions at the city swimming pool Fourth, the list of entries indicated today. The swimming pool itself, scrubbed and clean and full of fresh water, will be an attraction for swimmers. The best divers and swimmers not only from Pampa but from Borger, Amarillo, Perryton and other communities will compete for prizes, including bathing suits and sport shirts. Interest in the swimming events is soaring, with attention concentrated on the rivalry that exists between Warren King, Nevin Johnston and Howard Buckingham. All three have been practicing long and hard and each one is expected to give a spectacular performance. The bathing beauty contest has not had much publicity but a score of entries are expected in this event, and many of the pretty girls of Pampa had entered the event today. Deadline for entering the bathing beauty contest will be 2:30 o'clock Thursday when the water carnival will start. Manager Oscar Hinger of the pool announced that prizes would include bathing suits given by Friendly Wear, Charles Penny's, Live's. The winning bathing beauty will be given a season ticket to the swimming pool. All girls are eligible to enter; nomination can be made by calling Mr. Hinger at the pool, telephone 228.

Canadian Rodeo Program Opens Wednesday Night
CANADIAN, July 2 (Special)—Canadian, Cow Capital of the South-west, is set to roll up the curtain on its "big day," two rodeo performances and a dance Thursday. Thousands of persons, estimated to be the largest crowd ever to attend an Anvil Park rodeo are expected to storm Canadian Tuesday and Wednesday. A dance Tuesday night will open festivities which will end in the wee small hours of Friday morning. Clyde Burke, Rodeo Association of America calf roping champion last year, was to be one of the contestants at Anvil Park this year. C. A. Studer, rodeo association secretary, said today he was happily surprised at the large number of top-ranking cowhands who are entering Anvil Park events. The complete rodeo program includes the Wednesday night show and the two performances Thursday, starting at 2 o'clock and 8 o'clock. Following the night shows, dances are scheduled in the large air conditioned Canadian auditorium. This eighteenth annual Anvil Rodeo will pay some $2,000 in cash prizes and many merchandise awards to contestants. At least one band was to be present at each rodeo show. It had been announced earlier that Pampa, WTSC at Canyon and Perryton would have musical groups at Canadian. Anvil Park Rodeo, which is the oldest outdoor show of its kind in Texas, is officered by Canadian business men, and any profits go toward making the next year's rodeo better than ever.

Water Rises Foot An Hour At Wharton
WHARTON, July 2 (AP)—The Colorado river stood at 33.10 feet today and was rising a foot an hour—a rate observers here expected would bring an overflow into the business section by late afternoon. Water already had rolled into the low places of the city and into many sloughs branching off from the river. The crest of the flood, expected tomorrow, apparently was headed above the level of the 1938 flood, when the stage was 37.80 feet. The small town of MacKay, four miles to the southwest, has been evacuated. Thousands of Wharton county's richest acres, green with one of the lushest corn and cotton crops in years, were flooded with water when a dam on an unidentified stream collapsed. The water let loose by the break was expected to reach Peach creek north of Wharton today.

M'Lean Boys Seek Derby Ideas Here
Pampa boys won't have the Pampa News-Lion Club Soap Box Derby all to themselves this year, for McLean and other Panhandle towns will also be represented. In town yesterday from McLean were Dickie Everett, J. Frank Ruff, James Barber, Goy Reese, and Jim Carpenter, accompanied by Wilson Boyd, manager of McLean gas company, and Joe Dowlin, of the Smith Brothers refinery. The boys were on an idea-hunting trip for the derby, which is to be held here on July 18-19.

12 Killed In German Raids On Britain

LONDON, July 2 (AP)—Britain's blockade has been applied to French ports to prevent goods from reaching Germany but has been deferred against French colonies pending clarification of their status. Hugh Dalton, minister of economic warfare, informed the House of Commons today. Sir John Anderson, minister of home security, said the government believed that "in order to defeat the efforts of the enemy to dislocate production in war industries, workers engaged in war production should continue to work after public air raid warnings until it is clear that enemy attack is actually imminent in that locality." Britain counted 12 persons killed and 22 injured today in German bombing raids over widely separated parts of the British Isles. The fatalities and wounding of 18 occurred in an attack on a north-east Scottish town. Two Nazi planes were shot down in running flights, the ministry of home security announced. On the brighter side for the British was a report that a least part—details remained secret—of the French fleet had been saved for the Allied cause.

Barbecue To Be Attraction At Lake McClellan

Marking the approach of the official dedication of Lake McClellan, third completed project in a series of Panhandle Water Conservation authority soil and water conservation dams and lakes, the Pampa Chamber of Commerce will host today at a barbecue to be held at the lake's picnic area. Representatives of the Soil Conservation service, Works Projects administration, bureau of agricultural economics, PWCA, county judges, and other public officials of the Panhandle, as well as the cast of the Coronado Entrada presented here June 13, 14, and 15, will be among the visitors. The program will open at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when Carl Hinton, PWCA secretary, meets with members of that organization and reports on progress of lake and dam development over the Panhandle. Introduction of visitors will be made by John V. Osborne, president of the Pampa Board of City Development. A barbecue will be held at 6:30 p. m., during which Ken Bennett's orchestra will play. The same orchestra will also play for the dance to be held at the lake later tonight. Official opening of Lake McClellan is to occur July 4.

Flood Damage In Southeast Texas Totals $5,000,000
HALLETTVILLE, July 2 (AP)—Flood waters that brought death and destruction to a wide area in southeast Texas were subsiding today as they swept toward the Gulf of Mexico. It is not believed there was a further danger although the Guadalupe, Lavaca and Colorado rivers still menaced thousands of acres of lowlands. The death toll stood at ten and the estimated damage at $5,000,000. Rescue workers were on the look-out for other victims. This city, waterbound for 24 hours without gas, lights or telephone, has overcome a food shortage and the residents are working day and night to clear up debris that might contribute to an epidemic. The water supply has been cleared of contamination and 1,600 doses of typhoid serum are to arrive shortly. The rivers were still rising at some points but there was no great apprehension.

Many Stores Will Close Here Fourth
Pampa will be a "closed" town Thursday. Most Pampa businesses are expected to be closed for the day, with the possible exception of drug stores, Pat King, Charles Boyles, Billy Geise, Burney Brown. No admission will be charged spectators. The annual fireworks display, presented by Kerley-Crossman post of the American Legion, will again climax the Fourth of July celebration, held in connection with the official opening of Lake McClellan Thursday. Last year a crowd of 8,000 persons saw a colorful hour and 20 minutes exhibition presented on the grounds near the southern club. The display consisted of salutes, shells representing emeralds, flags, and diamonds, and fireworks reproductions of Yellowstone geyser. At 2:30 p. m., Panhandle Water Conservation authority, WPA and SCSS officials will be introduced and thanked for their contribution to the establishment of the lake. Speed and sail boat races, a bathing beauty revue, boating, picnics, horseback riding, and swimming, will be other attractions throughout the day.

Italian Submarines And Destroyer Sunk
CAIRO, July 2 (AP)—Four Italian submarines and a destroyer were reported today to have been sunk by British air forces ranging over the sea east from Sicily to the Ethiopia-Kenya frontier. The submarines were sunk in the eastern Mediterranean between June 27 and June 29 and the destroyer, the Espero, on June 27, a naval communique said.

U.S. Will Keep Out Of War Says Secretary Knox

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—Henry L. Stimson testified today that his nomination to be secretary of war "had no relation to politics" and that he had not discussed the third term question with President Roosevelt. Stimson appeared before the Senate military committee. At the same time, Col. Frank Knox, the 1936 Republican vice presidential nominee, told the Senate naval committee that he had accepted his appointment by President Roosevelt to be secretary of the navy without asking any expression from the President regarding a third term. "I am one of those who refuse to believe we will actively participate in this new war—certainly not to the extent of sending an army overseas," he read. "And if we do not do that, all these trumped-up fears of a war-time dictatorship and the destruction of both our democratic institutions and our free enterprise economy are fantastically unreal." Knox advocated creation of the strongest navy in the world and stated that the United States "must keep out of war."

War Flashes

LONDON, July 2 (AP)—Five persons were killed tonight in a German air raid in the northeast of England. A high explosive bomb damaged houses and a school. BUDAPEST, July 2 (AP)—Hungary's mobilization went ahead according to plan tonight despite reports that the chances for a peaceful settlement with Rumania over Transylvania had improved. It appeared obvious that Hungary intends to maintain her war footing until Transylvania is regained in one way or another.

Trinity At Dallas Nears Flood Stage
The three-sided South Texas flood moved toward the thinly-populated coastal plains today and most of its sting seemed spent, but 250 miles northward, East-Central Texas streams labored under the burdens of hard rains overnight. East and south from Fort Worth, downpours during the night ranged up to 2.10 inches and many creeks were expected to overflow. The Trinity river at Dallas, loaded with water from heavy June rains, was nearing its 28-foot flood stage and weathermen expected it to climb over its banks in low spots. The floods on the Colorado, Guadalupe, and Lavaca rivers in South Texas, having exacted a toll of 10 lives and about $5,000,000 in crop and property damage, apparently had done their worst. Wharton and Bay City, the last two sizeable towns on the Colorado, awaited the flood crest but were not worried. The Colorado continued to rise in its lower reaches and Wharton expected the crest, due tonight, would remain in banks. Bay City's levees were counted on to halt the any flood threats.

O'Daniel To Open Campaign At Waco
WACO, July 2 (AP)—Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel returns tonight to the scene of the rally that started him on a history-making campaign for governor two years ago. He will be formally opening his campaign for re-election and motor caravans from several cities are expected. As prelude, the governor spoke over the radio from Austin last night, declaring "so far as I am concerned I would approve any tax bill the legislature would agree on to meet security obligations."

U.S. Navy Already World's Largest

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—Official figures indicated today that the United States navy, building at top speed toward "two-ocean" strength, already has become the world's largest both in number of ships and in total tonnage. Not counting the $500,000,000 worth of new warships ordered by the navy yesterday and nearly 100 other vessels Uncle Sam has 395 completed combat ships of 1,327,320 tons. Latest available figures on the British navy give its strength on June 20 as 383 ships of 1,277,189 tons. Whether the United States or the British fleet is actually the strongest is a matter of conjecture. That depends on many factors—the age of ships, their design, and capabilities of the crews, among others.

Marriage Of Miss Strickland And Marion Mosley Solemnized In Dallas

Miss Edna Earl Strickland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Strickland of Dallas, became the bride of Marion M. Mosley of Pampa, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Mosley of Dallas, Saturday evening at the Melrose hotel in Dallas.

The Rev. Marshall Craig performed the ceremony before an improvised altar of palms, fern and baskets of white peonies and gladioli. Floor standards holding white flowers marked the bridal aisle, and the wedding music was given by Mrs. Lina Moore and Mrs. Jim Slaten of Dallas.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of pink plaid trimmed with wide lace at the sweetheart neckline and set in bands in the wide skirt. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the maid of honor, and a wreath of pink carnations in her hair. Her arm bouquet was of orchids and baby's breath.

Miss Virginia Johnson, of Dallas, maid of honor, and Mrs. G. W. Webb of Corsicana, were bridal attendants. Miss Johnson wore a dress of spun linen with a wide skirt in powder blue, light pink and cream, and Mrs. Webb wore a cream linen jacket dress. Both carried colonial bouquets of summer flowers.

Tom Rubel was best man, and ushers were G. W. Webb, B. H. Coleman, Billy Pullman, George Ballowe and George Utley of Dallas.

At the reception following the ceremony a miniature bride and bridegroom, surrounded by flowers, formed the decoration for the bride's table. The table was covered with a lace cloth and held the ring-shaped cake and the punch bowl. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Bertha Ross, Miss Mel-dred Melton, Mrs. Tom Rubel and Mrs. B. H. Coleman, Jr., who presided at the bride's book.

After a wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple will be at home in Pampa. For a traveling costume the bride chose a navy blue and white sailor dress with navy, white and red accessories and an off-the-face hat of white. Her flowers were gardenias.

Miss Mosley attended North Dallas High school and Southern Methodist University, where she was a Rotunda Beauty and a member of Delta Delta sorority.

Mr. Mosley is a clerk for the Magnolia Petroleum company here.

Cut-out town guests for the wedding included Jerry Smith and Johnny Wharton, both of Pampa. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Webb and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Connor, all of Corsicana, and Miss Clara Green of Frost.

THE STANDARD OF FREEDOM

Liberty

This year the importance of the Fourth of July is emphasized by the affairs of the world. On this day we Americans observe the founding of a country that is unique among all nations. This uniqueness arises from the fact that the people of America are the government. They decide what is best for themselves. They make their own laws, govern their own conduct. They are free to think as they please. They are free to do as they please. America achieves its goal of Liberty and Freedom in a way that satisfies a majority of its citizens. Its flag symbolizes these precepts of utopian life... as the happiness of its people typify America's great success.

Some Of Best Players In Leagues Not All-Stars

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—Strangely without some of the current biggest names in the game, rosters of the American and National league teams for the annual all-star game were studied closely by fans today.

The major league took the balloting away from the fans and tossed it into the laps of the managers, but the squads for the St. Louis game on July 9 have conspicuous absences the fans probably never would have forgotten.

Managers Bill McKechnie and Joe Cronin the respective pilots, will muster up strong crews for the game with reserves aplenty.

The American league managers, selected seven of the faltering New York Yankees for the squad. They overlooked Rip Radcliff of the St. Louis Browns, who as of Saturday was tied for the league lead in batting, and Barney McCosky of Detroit, who is playing magnificent ball in the league's hitlers.

The National league managers passed over the senior circuit's three leading pitchers, rated on won and lost records, outfielder Edie Walker of Brooklyn, who is second among the hitlers, and all of the loop's rookie talent.

The selections:

National league: Paul Derringer and Bucky Walters, Cincinnati; Hugh Mulcahy and Kirby Higbe, Philadelphia; Larry French, Chicago; Carl Hubbell, New York; and Whitlow Wyatt, Brooklyn.

Catchers—Harry Danning, New York; Ernest Lombardi, Cincinnati; and Babe Phelps, Brooklyn.

Infielders—Frank McCormick, Cincinnati; Pete Coscarart, Leo Durocher and Harry Lavagetto, Brooklyn; William Herman, Chicago; William Jurges, New York; Arky Vaughan, Pittsburgh; and Merrill May, Philadelphia.

Outfielders—Joe Medwick, Brooklyn; Joe Moore and Mel Ott, New York; Henry Lether, Chicago; Max West, Boston; and Terry Moore, St. Louis.

Manager—Bill McKechnie, Cincinnati. Coaches—J. Thompson (Doc) Prothro, Philadelphia; and Casey Stengel, Boston.

Outfielders — Joe DiMaggio and Charles Keller, New York; Lou Finney, Roger Cramer and Ted Williams, Boston; Bob Johnson, Philadelphia, and Henry Greenberg, Detroit.

Manager — Joe Cronin, Boston. Coaches: Tom Daly, Boston; and Del Baker, Detroit. Batting practice pitcher—Paul Schrieber, New York. Batting practice catcher—Moe Berg, Boston. Trainer, Win Green, Boston.

Polo Team Wins At McLean 7-3

Pampa's mallet pushers did not score until the third chucker of a polo game with the McLean Tigers, but pushed their way fast to win 7 to 3 at McLean Sunday. It was the local's first game of the season.

Hub Burrow accounted for five of the Pampa goals, with Jack Patton and Bud Mooney gathering one each.

Arthur Dwyer, Erle Cubine, and Tom Harlin each scored one goal for the Tigers. Other member of the McLean team was Sam Cubine.

Dwyer scored in the first period. Erle Cubine in the second, and Harlin in the fourth.

Playing for the Pampa Lobos were Buck Hayes, Mooney, Burrow, and Mose Wrigington, with Jack Patton and George Garrett, alternating at No. 1 and No. 4, respectively.

Arrangements have not been made for another game by the Pampans, but it is expected a game will be played with the Plainview Lobos at Plainview on July 14.

Galento Still Favored Over Baer Tonight

By GAYLE TALBOT

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—Those two upstanding heavyweights, Tony Galento and Max Baer, meet in a 15-round fight at the local park tonight, providing, of course, that Tony doesn't get crowned by a relative before he can climb into the ring.

Around 30,000 fans are expected.

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—The Mayo clinic is said to be working on a fluid that can be injected into calcified arms like Dizzy Dean's. . . Patty Berg will officially turn pro July 8. . . The dialogue between the Messers, Galento prior to the bashing was a pip, but can't be produced here since this chatter isn't printed on asbestos. . . Benny McCoy still receives more requests for autographs than Connie Mack. . . Mel Ott has thrown his glasses away—hits better without 'em, he says.

Arch Ward says in the Chicago Tribune Sonja Honey and Dan Topping, owner of the Brooklyn Dozer football team, will wed within the next few days. . . What does a guy have to do to make the all-star team? Here's Detroit's Barney McCosky hitting around .350, leading in runs scored, tied for trips and covering center field like an old revival tent—but doesn't get a tumble.

SERIAL STORY

PEACE---SHE'S WONDERFUL BY ISABEL WAITT

Copyright, 1940, NEA Service, Inc.

YESTERDAY, Wayne Dennis, on route from Boston to Los Angeles to marry Rhoda Lowell, agrees to be a passenger on the train. Peace gets lost. Denny finds her. She is in the wrong car. Peace is in time to catch the train but another passenger, Mrs. King, eyes him suspiciously.

CHAPTER II

"NOW we're going through the Mohawk Trail. Used to be full of Indians."

"Will they burn up the train, Uncle Denny?" Peace tore her startled gaze from a family of children across the aisle to hunt for a blazing covered wagon and a ring of movie savages. Nary a warwhoop!

"Don't you wish it was our real honeymoon, dear?" she heard Denny ask Rhoda.

"What's a honeymoon, Uncle Denny?"

"Wh-why, a honeymoon's a trip you take right after you're married."

"What's married?"

"Married? Wh-why, married's when two people live together, like you Mummy and Daddy."

"Are you and her married?"

"Don't ask so many questions," Rhoda snapped. "Didn't you bring anything to play with?"

"Darby and Joan." Peace patted the small case on the seat beside her, but just then her attention was attracted by a chocolate and the beckoning finger of the woman in back of Rhoda and Denny. Riding backwards, Peace had been watching her some time. Now she sidled into the aisle.

"Ask Mamma," the lady said.

"But I can't. She's in the H-O-S-P-I-tal. I forgot the rest of it." She seized upon the sweet, nibbling jolly.

"So-oo! Then who's that woman with your father?"

"He says to call him Uncle, but he's just an Old Man." That was what Daddy called him, wasn't it? Peace accepted a pink bonbon. "Who are you?"

"I'm Mrs. King, dear. Do you know these people real well?"

Peace shook her head. "Never saw 'em before we got on the train," she said. "He—he came and took me."

Mrs. King looked terribly queer, glaring at the back of the two heads close together in the forward seat. "Don't you be afraid, little girl," she whispered. "Your Auntie King will be right here if you need her."

The couple in front sounded as if they were quarreling. "Don't call me honey. That's what you call Peace. Ridiculous name to give a young one."

"Isn't it?" Denny agreed. "—world at war— a pacifist or something. —rabit on the subject."

Illustrated by George Scarbo.

"Snake!" Rhoda screamed. "In the salad!" "It's Darby, my turtle," Peace explained.

"Don't let her, Denny. We don't want her sick on our hands. Not till we get rid of her."

"Did you hear that!" Denny caught the King woman's hiss, and the horrified glance Miss Love turned on his fiancée. Had Rhoda seen it too? Her fork clattered to her plate. With a little shriek she stood up, backed away from the table, crying, "Take it away! Waiter!"

"Somep'n wrong, Miss?" Black hands seized the tempting looking dish. Eyes popped, the whites rolling in amazement. "Well, I'll be!"

"Take it away quickly. Ugh!" Rhoda slumped back into her seat. "Peace reached an anxious hand towards the platter and came away with a lettuce leaf. "It's only Darby," she explained, showing the small Mexican turtle, green about the size of a half dollar and edged with red spots, that wriggled in her palm. "I wanted salad for 'em but you wouldn't let me have any, so I let 'em nibble yours while you ate the rolls. They only took a little. Why, where's Joan? Rhoda Lowell, did you eat her?"

Rhoda paled. "I'd as soon eat a snake. Is one of them lose?"

"Snake!"

"Snake!"

"Snake!"

The diner took up the cry. Women clutched their skirts and climbed on chairs.

Denny cried: "Don't be alarmed! Only a baby turtle! But it was too late. They cry of snake drowned him out. The well-known pandemonium reigned.

Peace, on her knees, crawled under the tables, even after things had quieted down. "Don't step on her!" she sobbed. Rhoda failed in trying to drag her out of the dining car. "We won't go with you, Poor little Joan!"

"You see?" Mrs. King resumed her seat and patted her beads reassuringly. "She's afraid of them. The vipers!"

It was Carole Love who found the missing pet. "Here's your daughter's turtle," she smiled, handing the squirming Joan to Denny.

Before he'd finished thanking her, before he could correct the mistake about Peace, Rhoda demanded he throw that horrid bug off the train. Did he expect her to be annoyed all the way west?

"I'll keep 'em in my corn-copper!" pleaded the fearful child. To be met by Rhoda's "Don't my wishes count for anything?"

Carole Love's eyes twinkled. "A corn-copper's just the thing. Here's a celery stalk and an oysterette. Will they eat these?"

Peace beamed, and so did Denny. "You're very kind," he said.

"Ant eggs," Peace said. "Only I got hungry and ate 'em all up. They taste better'n cerule."

Good heavens! Would they hatch? Denny wondered. Rhoda hoped so, but Carole only laughed, while Mrs. King grimly tackled her filet mignon.

Peace would have to go right to bed, Rhoda ordered.

"Couldn't we take Darby and Joan to the washroom for just a little swim?" Miss Love asked, as they rose to go. "I'm sure we'd all rest far better, and we'll fasten the corn-copper real tight afterwards."

Denny relented, and Peace went off its handle, which fitted with her night things into the tiny blue case. And when, after a brief interlude, Peace returned, quite willing now to go to bed, he heard Carole's trusty voice say to Mrs. King, "You were quite right about it."

"... course I was. . . bear watching," replied the other.

He was glad when the porter, making up the berth, shut out her suspicious, beady eyes. He wanted to question Peace, but not before Rhoda. What had Carole meant that Mrs. King was right about?

They retired early. Denny scarcely slept when he heard a piercing scream.

THE first gong for dinner tinkled through the car. Denny collected his things, who dove for her little case and did something into her pocket. When they reached the dining car, Mrs. King was already seated across the way, opposite a stunning girl with a strangely familiar face. Her most striking feature was an aura of great beauty, a natural, honey-hued curls. She met Denny's frankly quizzical gaze with a surreptitious glance, as if, as reality was the case, Mrs. King had just said, "Don't look now, but see if he isn't—"

When she saw that girl somewhere before, Denny said.

"Why, she looks like Carole Love, the film star," Rhoda said. And the waiter, remembering former tips from bits of information, nodded. The lady was, indeed, Miss Love, he believed. And he added to give further zest, the train was now going through the Hoosac Tunnel.

Rhoda ordered lobster salad, but when Peace shrieked she'd like "salad" too, the elder girl said:

Hydrologic Observer Named At Mobeetie

N. M. Gary of Mobeetie Thursday began work there as hydrologic observer for the U. S. Weather bureau to take observations on a non-recording rain and snow gage in this area.

FUNNY BUSINESS

The non-recording gage is a simple device consisting of a collecting funnel, a measuring tube with capacity of two inches of rain, and an overflow can to hold the rain if it exceeds two inches in 24 hours.

The gage is read once each day by means of putting a stick marked off in one hundredths of an inch into the tube and noting where the water line comes on the stick. In winter the procedure is different. The funnel and tube are removed from the gage in order that they will not interfere with settling of snow into the large can.

That which is caught in the can is melted and poured into the tube and measured as water. Samples are sometimes taken from the area surrounding the gage and similarly melted and measured. A record is also kept of the actual depth of snow on the ground.

The hydrologic unit of the U. S. Weather bureau, in cooperation with the Soil Conservation service, the Forest service, the bureau of agricultural economics, and the corps of engineers, is engaged in a program of installing new rainfall stations to provide a more adequate picture of storms occurring in this part of the United States. This information will be tabulated and issued monthly.

"They wouldn't believe this one anyhow, so I just put that up!"

No Lynchings in 1941

TUSKOGEE, Ala., July 2 (AP)—Not a single lynching was reported throughout the United States in the first six months of 1940, the department of records and research of Tuskegee Institute announced today.

Mrs. Joe Stephens Named Honoree At Shower Recently

Mrs. G. C. Fowler entertained with a lavette shower recently honoring Mrs. Joe Stephens. A corsage of pink and blue sweetpeas was presented to the honoree after which the gifts were opened. Each guest was given a card tied with a blue ribbon on which she was asked to write helpful advice. Refreshments of white bootie shaped sandwiches, blue cakes frosted in pink, pink punch, and blue ice cubes were served from a lace over pink covered table centered with a reflector on which a large stork stood. Pink and blue baby buggies filled with pink and white minis encircled the arrangement and pink and blue tapers in crystal holders lighted the table. Mrs. Fowler, who presided at the table, was assisted by Mrs. G. B. Dunkin.

Italians Kill Own Troops, Say British

CAIRO, July 2 (AP)—An "Italian blunder" on the Abyssinian-Kenya border in which Italians fired at their own troops, causing "considerable losses," was reported in a British communique today. "It appears that at dawn Friday last, in the neighborhood of Moyra, a small defended frontier village in northern Kenya, a concentration of Italian regular troops mistook a patrol of Italian natives for British troops and opened fire," the communique said. "Several natives were killed or wounded and the Fascist also suffered many casualties when the natives returned their fire."

Alfalfa Bill To Be Speaker At XIT Reunion

DALHART, July 2—Two important announcements bearing on the fifth annual XIT Reunion in Dalhart Monday and Tuesday, August 5-6, have been made. Former Gov. William H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray of Oklahoma, one of the most colorful characters in the Southwest, has agreed to deliver the main address at the XIT memorial service Sunday night, August 4, which pays tribute to all those pioneers who have crossed the last divide. And, following a series of conferences that lasted over a period of two weeks, the U. S. Coronado Commission of Albuquerque, and the general XIT committee of Dalhart have announced that a special Coronado presentation will form the night show for the reunion.

Under a contract signed last spring the regular Coronado Entrada was to have been presented each night, but by August 5 and 6 it will have been shown over most of the Southwest, so the commission and the committee have completed plans for a brilliant pageant called "Coronado to the XIT." It will embody the heart of the great Coronado Entrada that has already been acclaimed from coast to coast, and in addition will present the most colorful episodes that were written in gun smoke and trail dust on the historic three-million-acre XIT ranch.

Find Warrior's Skeleton
That world-famous march of Coronado in 1540 left indelible imprints on the vast area that later became the XIT ranch. One of his plumed and helmeted warriors fell victim to the treacherous Skunk Arroyo bog that is now on the 400,000-acre Malador Land & Cattle Co. ranch near Channing, but which has been tamed by dams and diversion ditches. A youth in the 1880s found the warrior's skeleton, still encased in his armor. The inscriptions, showing the warrior to have been one of Coronado's men were indisputable.

And on that disappointed, heart-broken march homeward from some where in Kansas—their dreams of fabled golden cities shattered—Coronado and his men camped one or more days at Buffalo Springs, 40 miles north of Dalhart, also an XIT shrine. The No. 1 XIT headquarters were established at the Springs early in 1885 and still stand there intact. The first cattle were delivered at the Springs in July, 1885, by Ab Blocker, now 85 years old and living at Freer, Texas. And it was also at the Springs that the XIT brand was originated. Col. B. H. (Barbecue) Campbell, first general manager of the ranch, still hadn't decided on a brand when Blocker arrived and asked him for a suggestion. "It's got to be run with a straight iron, and it's got to be one that rustlers can't change," Col. Campbell said. With his boot heel Blocker marked out an XIT in the coral dust. "Go to brandin'," Campbell barked. Blocker, an expert roper, dabbed a loop on the first "critter" out of the chute and burned the first XIT brand.

McLean Baptists Dedicate Church

Special To The NEWS
McLEAN, July 2—Dedication services for the First Baptist church were held in McLean Sunday. They marked the complete payment of the church and its freedom from all debt. Rev. Troy A. Sumrall, the minister, presided. J. C. McKenzie, a missionary, preached the dedicatory address Sunday morning. A free dinner, served by a committee headed by Mrs. George Colebank, was given to members of the church and their guests during the noon hour. Reports of the history of the church, short talks by former ministers, and a speech by Rev. Troy A. Sumrall, marked the afternoon's events. The services were concluded at 3 o'clock. In the two and one-half years Rev. Sumrall has been minister of the church, membership has risen to a new high of 325 active members. Approximately $3,000 was raised in the months of May to pay off all notes and mortgages against the church, many of which were not yet due and payable.
