Chalmers Strike Turned Over To Mediation Board

DETROIT, April 3 (AP)—Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner announced today that "the foundation has been laid for successful mediation" of the strike that has closed the giant Ford Motor company's River Rouge plant, largest single factory unit in the world.

"Both the company and union officials have made definite and binding commitments to me to meet certain basic requirements for mediation," the governor declared in a formal press statement.

The governor's statement was made as operations at the great Ford Rouge plant, employing more than 85,000 hourly rated workers were at a standstill and after renewed but isolated outbreaks of fighting occurred near the mile long factory in suburban Dearborn.

DETROIT, April 3 (AP)—Violent but isolated outbreaks of fighting occurred near the strike-closed Ford Motor company plant this morning and Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner announced today that assumption of mediation conferences with CIO and company officials had been postponed.

Four negroes in an automobile were beaten severely by union pickets who chased them nearly a mile from the main plant gate, and three of the pickets were struck down as a car following the negroes' machine ploughed through the fighting group at a speed which witnesses estimated at 40 miles an hour.

Clerks and maintenance workers were called back to the strike-bound River Rouge plant of the Ford Motor company today under a union-company agreement after a federal mediator announced that a plan has been evolved for settlement of the dispute.

Production, however, remained at a standstill while negotiations continued. James F. Dewey, federal mediator, did not announce any details of his settlement plan.

While conciliation experts wrestled with the Ford strike and sought on another front to re-open the Appalachian soft coal mines, the long drawn out Allis-Chalmers strike was turned over to the national day mediation board.

In certifying it to the board, Labor Secretary Perkins said the good offices of the U. S. Conciliation service would be made available in the case.

Michigan state police patrolled the vicinity of the Ford plant near Detroit after intermittent violence yesterday, first day of the CIO-called strike. More than a score of strikers and workers were injured in hand-to-hand battling during the day.

The CIO United Automobile Workers union said the issues in the strike included a 10-cent an hour wage increase, reinstatement

April Draftees To Leave Tonight

There'll be no day wait for the April 4 quota Gray county trainees. Instead of reporting on the day preceding departure and then leaving for the induction station the next day, the group will report and leave on the same day.

The eight trainees reported at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the selective service office. They will leave by bus at 6:45 o'clock tonight for Amarillo, where at 10 o'clock, they will board a train, due to arrive in El Paso at 8:45 a. m.

More questionnaires were mailed Wednesday to Gray county selectees: 1671—Walter Toman Lindsay, Pampa. 1672—Charles Abel Bailey, Colorado Springs. 1673—Wickliffe Alvis Worthington, Jr., Pampa. 1674—George Joseph Quinn, Jr., East Orange, N. J. 1675—James Stennis Hampton, Pampa.

I Heard . . .

That the noon train brought Sam Mahan, Pampa Oiler shortstop, to town and with him was a pitcher by the name of Frank Glab and he's a rookie lefthander. Sam spent the winter at his home in Chicago. He says he's in great shape and ready to go.

Prospects Good For Panhandle Wheat

Wheat in Gray and other Northwest Texas counties has shown improvement and it is now estimated that 75 per cent of the acreage, with favorable weather from now on, will make a good crop.

This wheat has good top growth, is well rooted, and has a fair supply of moisture. The remaining acreage, mostly south and west of Amarillo, has been badly damaged by wind and presents a poor prospect.

Where wheat has failed, the land is being planted to barley and oats, and to an increased acreage of grain sorghums and sudan grass.

Cold, cloudy weather, which brought freezing temperatures to northern and western sections of Texas early in March, was followed by rains which further delayed preparations for spring planting, and over the state as a whole farm work is behind schedule, according to the Santa Fe's April 1 statement of agricultural conditions.

Four Americans Jailed In Berlin But Released Later

BERLIN, April 3 (AP)—Four United States citizens living in Berlin were arrested last night but were released later.

They were John Paul Dickson of the Chicago Tribune and Mutual Broadcasting System; Arthur K. Dunning, secretary of the American chamber of commerce; a New York negro music student identified as John Welsh; and a Californian whose name was not disclosed.

(Dunning, a native of Bath, Me., had lived in Berlin for 50 years.)

Dickson appeared at the regular noon press conference and told his colleagues:

"I was in a police cell until 3 a. m. It was a room with 25 beds. Finally an officer came to the door and said: 'Dickson, get up and dress.'

"I was handed back my penknife and nail file and set free. My papers were not inspected and nothing was touched. I was the first of the Americans in this cell let loose. I certainly am glad to get out.

"No reason was given Dickson for his seizure.

Dunning, first of the four to be released, was freed after two hours.

"The Berlin police went to considerable trouble just taking down my personal data and that of my family," Dunning said. "They just once more went through the regular questioning and filling out of blanks usually required for foreigners residing in the Reich."

He said police officials were nice throughout, but that they had no explanation of the short detention except for meticulously recording personal data which he had given many times before.

Man Already Rejected By Senate Appointed Highway Commissioner

AUSTIN, April 3 (AP)—Governor W. Lee O'Daniel today appointed Reuben Williams, whose appointment as state life insurance commissioner was rejected by the senate yesterday, as a member of the state highway commission.

The appointment of Williams, a former secretary of the governor who has been a member of the insurance commission for several months under a recess appointment, was announced in a special message to the senate.

Williams was appointed to the highway commission for a six-year term which began Feb. 15, and expires Feb. 14, 1947.

He would succeed Harry Hines, an appointee of Governor James V. Alred.

Williams' home is Fort Worth.

The position of highway commissioner is one of the most important in the state government because the commission of three members shapes the vast highway construction program of Texas.

Other members of the commission are Brady Centry of Tyler, chairman, and Robert Lee Bobbitt of San Antonio.

Pampa Police Chief To Take FBI Course

Police Chief John Wilkinson left Pampa this afternoon to take a 12-week course at the FBI training school of the National Police Academy in Washington.

The instructions are the same given to regular agents of the FBI and will equip the Pampa police chief for law enforcement in all the methods used by the FBI. The school is under the direction of J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the FBI in the United States.

City Manager Steve Matthews announced today that Chief Wilkinson will return to Pampa to remain as police chief as long as the present administration is in office. The FBI, he explained, will not afterward employ any police chief as a regular FBI agent because the department holds that it is not fair to a city to send one of its officers to

Premier Of Hungary Dies Mysteriously

(By The Associated Press)

BUDAPEST, Hungary, April 3.—Count Pal Teleki, 62-year-old premier of Hungary, died unexpectedly in the night and hours later the mystery of his death was partly clarified by an official Hungarian news agency dispatch which said he committed suicide.

The agency said the manner of death was determined by physicians who examined his body. No explanation was immediately forthcoming. Friends said the premier took poison.

The Hungarian government was said to have resigned as a result of Teleki's death.

The foreign office said the premier's death resulted from a heart ailment and denied first reports by friends that Count Teleki had taken his own life. Earlier dispatches also said the Count's wife died an hour before her husband, but the foreign office said she was still alive, although very ill at a sanatorium.

Ferenc Keresztes-Fischer, minister of the interior and head of the police and gendarmerie, became acting premier.

Count Teleki visited his wife's sickroom late last night, then returned home, where he was found dead in bed by his servants this morning, the foreign office statement asserted.

Teleki was chief of one of Hungary's great landed families and often was regarded as Regent Admiral Horthy's right-hand man, remaining in the cabinet largely to circumvent complete German domination.

Premier personally was known as pro-English rather than pro-German, but sought to maintain the appearance of neutral independence in order to make his influence the greater.

He was known to the public as the "great tightrope walker," because Hungarians saw him in the role of a man attempting to keep peace with Germany, just short of giving in completely to Adolf Hitler.

In recent days he had been conferring day and night with army leaders and government officials concerning the Yugoslav situation.

"His death was a second tragedy in the Atlantic," said a Hungarian government official this year. Foreign Minister Count Istvan Csaky died Jan. 27 of food poisoning during a friendship visit to Yugoslavia, where he signed a "pact of eternal friendship."

Commercial Motor Vehicle Licenses May Be Bought Now

Gray county owners of commercial motor vehicles can obtain their 1941 license plates now, although the customary April deadline is past.

Prosecution for not having the 1941 plates on commercial vehicles, however, is withheld until April 15, by vote of the legislature, in view of pending fee changes.

The county tax office was "back to normal" today after the March 31-April 1 rush that saw 5,386 passenger automobile registrations made for 1941.

April 1 was the deadline for registration of motor vehicles, other than commercial.

When Black Brown Turned Blue In Show Stork Yanked Him To Hospital

The stork played the encore to Dr. Malcolm Brdwn's black-face trumpet number at the high school auditorium last night.

The medical end-man had just finished playing his hit tunes, "Sugar Blues" and "I'm Gonna Play Like I'm Gabriel," when the long-legged bird yanked him from the stage and whisked him off to Worley hospital to attend the birth of a son to Mrs. Eiler Paulmer, Jr. The baby weighed seven pounds, 11 ounces, and was named Staley Paulmer.

Nazi March On Yugoslavia Believed Near

German Legation Staff Withdrawn From Belgrade

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—The United States today demanded the immediate recall of the Italian naval attache in Washington, Admiral Alberto Lais, on the grounds that he was connected with the sabotaging of Italian merchant ships in this country.

Secretary of State Hull sent a note to this effect to the Italian Ambassador, Prince Colonna, on orders of President Roosevelt.

The note, made public by the state department, declared that Admiral Lais was "persona non grata to this government as naval attache of the Royal Italian Embassy at Washington," and requested "that your excellency's government withdraw him immediately from the United States."

The note said the action was taken because of "various facts and circumstances" which had come to the attention of this government "connecting" Admiral Lais "with the commission by certain persons of acts in violation of the laws of the United States."

(By The Associated Press)

War plans reached a vibrant pitch in the Balkans today as Adolf Hitler called home the German legation staff in Belgrade and diplomatic circles declared that the Nazi Fuehrer had apparently decided that war with Yugoslavia was inevitable.

Vladimir Macek, Croatian peasant party leader, announced he was entering the pro-British King Peter II's new government as vice premier—thereby making Yugoslavia a united nation under the threat of war.

Previously, the Germans had asserted that Yugoslavia was torn by internal dissension among the Croats, Slovenes and Serbs.

In neighboring Hungary, the Hungarian government was reported to have resigned following the mysterious death of Premier Count Pal Teleki, who was known for his personal pro-British sympathies.

Friends of the Count, first asserted, he had committed suicide. The Hungarian foreign office, however, said he had died of heart trouble.

Although Hungary is a member of the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo alliance and dominated by Germany, Count Teleki had been a vocal "critic" of the great tightrope walker—viewed by Hungarians in the role of a man striving to keep balance with Germany, just short of yielding completely to Hitler.

The Swiss Telegraphic agency published today that Germany had sent a note to Hungary, stating "it is no longer denied here that Teleki committed suicide."

In Rome, Fascist Editor Virginio Gayda, often called Premier Mussolini's chief editorial spokesman, had asserted that Italy and Germany no longer felt bound to respect Yugoslavia's territorial integrity and Regular monthly luncheon of the Pampa Chambers of Commerce will be held Monday at noon in the basement of the First Methodist church, President Frank Culbertson of the senior chamber announced today. The luncheons are usually held on the second Tuesday of each month but the date has been changed for that April meeting in order that Major E. A. Simpson of Amarillo could address members and guests.

Subject of Major Simpson's address will be "The National Defense Program."

"The subject to be discussed by Major Simpson is of great importance to everyone," President Culbertson said today in announcing the meeting. "I hope every business and professional man and woman in the city and the public in general will attend the meeting."

Reservations can be made by telephoning the chamber or commerce office in the city hall.

FDR To Speak Out On Strikes, Says M'Cormack

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—Representative McCormack of Massachusetts, house Democratic leader, agreed with a questioner on the house floor today that it was "about time" for President Roosevelt to speak out on the defense strike situation.

The exchange came shortly after Stephen Early, white house secretary, told reporters that the President was "waiting and watching" the situation.

McCormack took the floor after criticism by Representatives Taber (R-NY) and Cox (D-Ga.) of the administration's attitude toward the strikes.

"I'm satisfied that he (the President) will bear down—in a constitutional way," McCormack replied.

"Labor in general are not ingrates and when the President speaks, as I believe he will, labor will respond to his leadership."

"Doesn't the gentleman think it's about time for him to speak?" interrupted Representative Woodrum (D-Va.).

"Yes," McCormack replied, amid applause.

Early said the lengthy conference yesterday between Mr. Roosevelt and nine military and civilian advisers involved "some labor discussion" as well as aid to Britain and her allies "in all forms."

One of the President's callers today was Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the house naval committee who has introduced legislation to take over plants unable to fulfill defense contracts.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.), who called on the Democratic leadership to obtain effective and immediate action yesterday, asserted today he favored giving the new national mediation board full power to deal with strikes in defense industries.

Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the senate foreign relations committee, said he favored a plan under which the government could take over plants which because of strikes had failed to supply defense articles.

Senator Connally (D-Texas) came out for a similar system yesterday.

Ciano Now Leads Bomber Squadron

Nazi Sailors Deny Charge Of Sabotage

BOSTON, April 3 (AP)—The German mariners, indicted for sabotage aboard their seized tanker, refused to plead in federal court today, in order to avoid placing themselves voluntarily under the court's jurisdiction.

Judge Hugh D. McLellan, elderly and austere, thereupon ordered pleas of "not guilty" entered for each man on each of the three indictments and directed that they provide aggregate surety of $150,000, or else be held in jail.

Speaking in English after each indictment was read, Captain Ernst R. Heitzmann and four other officers replied, "I do not desire to plead at all."

Speaking in German, the seaman answered, "Ich moechen nicht festlegen," which counsel said is the equivalent of the reply of the officers.

The officers, neatly attired in civilian clothes, and the seaman, also dressed in civilian attire but somewhat shabby, were manacled together in pairs.

Judge McLellan granted 10 days delay to defense counsel for the filing of special pleas.

Counsel for the men, members of the crew of the Pauline Friederich, explained that their replies to the indictments were offered to keep them from voluntarily submitting to the jurisdiction of the court.

Senate Acts To Formulate Tax Measure

(By The Associated Press)
AUSTIN, April 3.—Marking another step toward passage of a tax bill, a senate sub-committee today tackled the complex task of re-drafting a house-approved $25,500,000 omnibus proposal intended to solve Texas social security problem.

The upper legislative chamber's committee on state affairs concluded a series of hearings on tax proposals last night and voted unanimously to instruct a sub-group to formulate a measure from the house bill and report it as soon as possible.

Committee Chairman Weaver Moore of Houston, authorized to head the sub-group also, was granted time to appoint two other members to the sub-committee and then stated:

"This three-man committee will bring out a bill, I want to assure you this will be no burial affair." (He referred to the sometimes-adopted procedure of referring a bill to a sub-group for purposes of killing it.)

Revenues from the bill would provide the answer to the legislature's greatest and most pressing problem—providing funds to pay for bigger old-age pensions, aid to the needy blind, aid to dependent children, teachers retirement and possibly other governmental functions.

Erst to the action, Representatives G. O. Morris of Greenville and James Taylor of Kerens, who aided in drafting the house proposal in committee, defended it before the senate group which had heard only attacks on the bill through lengthy hearings.

Both, when questioned, expressed the opinion $20,000,000 additional tax money would answer the state's needs. They and others, including former Senator Clint Small of Amarillo, a tax expert, acknowledged the belief legislature would approve a tax measure.

"The people of Texas," Morris declared, "demand and expect us to solve the problem of social security. This legislature is going to have to solve it for all time. I believe the people who need this aid are becoming a diminishing minority. I sincerely hope this committee and the senate will perfect the bill as quickly as possible."

Taylor pointed out $8,000,000 additional state money for pensions would give all on the rolls plus 20,000 more $20 a month.

"Industries," he added, "now are taking care of retirement so that fewer will be dependent on government pensions and social security in the future."

Spokesmen for industry and commerce reiterated previous protests against new taxes, asserting a crushing burden of state taxation piled onto mounting federal defense levies might force hundreds of small business men to close their doors and result in grave unemployment.

Before the hearing, a senate bill authorizing free textbooks for the teaching of Spanish in Texas elementary schools was passed by the house and sent to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel by vote of 111 to 8.

After sharp debate, the house passed to final hearing a bill taxing milled rice for purposes of promotion, advertising and research. Louisiana and Arkansas have enacted similar statutes and the start of the program awaits only approval of the Texas lawmaking body.

The lower branch resumed floor consideration but did not reach a final vote on a state house redistricting bill on which numerous changes were voted.

Referred to a senate sub-committee for an early report was a proposal allocating $250,000 for a state cotton research laboratory to seek new uses for cotton and cottonseed.

Also sent to a sub-group in the upper legislative branch was a bill proposing a $200,000 appropriation for a tuberculosis sanatorium to serve south and southwest Texas where, physicians testified, the malady's death rate was highest in the state.

The tax hearing included subjects covering levies on sulphur, carbon black, soft drinks, oil well cementing, wholesalers' gross receipts and franchisees and a proposal to repeal the chain store tax. No witnesses testified on carbon block and oil well cementing tax suggestions.

Previously, the committee had conducted hearings on new taxes for oil, gas, utilities, telephone companies, liquor, stock sales and motor vehicle loans.

Small asked the committee to amend an existing law so as to permit chain store tax-exempt filling stations to sell automobile accessories.

Former Senator Joe Moore of Hunt county and others argued against repeal of the chain store levy, contending the tax was not punitive, had been ruled constitutional and was intended to equalize merchandising opportunities. They said the chains made enormous profits.

Former Senator George Purl of Dallas and others declared the levy was a penalty on companies supplying good merchandise at prices of 10 to 14 per cent lower than independents, that it was discriminatory and punitive and that farmers were opposed to it.

Condemning any proposed levy on wholesalers' gross receipts, C. Y. Early of Brownwood declared such a tax would be dangerous and would involve disaster for many wholesalers, most of whom operated on small profits.

"I believe a net income tax or increase in franchise taxes would be more fair," Early said in answer to questions.

Defining Diseases
When disease attacks many persons in a community or nation at one time, it is an epidemic; when it attacks a majority of persons in a community, or becomes epidemic in several nations at the same time, it is pandemic; and when it is constantly present in one place or among one class, it is endemic.

FDR DEMANDS

 independence—as guaranteed when Yugoslavia's regency government signed the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo alliance.

This was the first semi-authoritative admission that King Peter's new regime has, in effect, repudiated the Axis.

A coded telegram from Berlin at 7:30 a. m. (1:30 a. m. E. S. T.) called for the withdrawal of the entire Nazi legation staff in Belgrade except the charge d'affaires and the military attaché.

German quarters declared frankly: "The withdrawal carries grave implications of the inevitability of war breaking out soon."

German motorized "blitzkrieg" forces were reported massing in large numbers on the Rumanian frontier, opposite the Yugoslav town of Bela Crkva—less than 50 miles from Belgrade.

Other fast Nazi divisions massed near Seged in southern Hungary, opposite the Yugoslav border.

Yugoslavia has 1,200,000 men under arms, but it remained a military secret whether the Balkan kingdom's general staff would elect to defend Belgrade, German circles predicted the capital would fall within 48 hours after Nazi troops crossed the frontier—if war should come.

The German radio, in early morning broadcasts reminiscent of those which preceded the Nazi entry into Czechoslovakia, accused the Yugoslavs anew of committing atrocities against the German minority in the country.

Indications that the recall order was unexpected were seen in the fact that last night the staff members had been making extensive preparations to barricade themselves in the legation if war came.

Large supplies of food had been stored in the building and firearms and ammunition were concealed there.

"We worked out a scheme to defend ourselves," one legation member said, "during the brief period while our troops were crossing the frontier and capturing Belgrade."

A possible clue to Germany's intentions came from Vichy, France, where rumors persisted that Italian troops were expected to relieve many units of the German army of occupation in France—freeing the Germans for service "elsewhere."

Slashing new inroads on Britain's sea-borne supplies were reported in Axis capitals.

Berlin said the German navy had sunk 307,000 tons of merchant-ships in the Atlantic from March 16 to 23; that Nazi warplanes destroyed two armed merchantmen totalling 16,000 tons in an attack on a British convoy off the Grecian Isle of Crete, and that 2,000-ton vessels were sunk near the British Isles.

Rome asserted that German and Italian planes sank six ships in two convoys in the eastern Mediterranean.

In London, the air ministry said RAF bombers scored hits on two armed merchant ships off the coast of Holland and lost one of them sinking.

The German communique declared that the British—presumably small outpost forces—were being "hastily retreat northward" toward Bengal.

Concurrently, the British middle east command announced that British troops striking into Ethiopia have captured Mieso, 180 miles east of Addis Ababa, the Ethiopian capital.

ery costume, held shirt and trousers and shoes, and within two minutes the doctor was en route to the hospital. He beat the stark with ease.

Dr. Brown anticipated the call and told Interlocutor Art Teed to call for his number early in the morning but said the "head man, either forgot or just turned ornery" and Dr. Brown took his horn loud and blue as per the regular schedule of events.

German Going to Japan
 BERLIN, April 3 (AP)—Dr. Helmut Wohlfahrt, Reichsmarschal charged with bringing economic arrangements between Germany and Japan into line with the necessities of the tripartite pact.

Studio Plays Safe on New Latin Film

Because Latin Americans have been kicking about Hollywood's inaccurate conceptions of Latin America, the studio making "Hold Back the Dawn," laid in Mexico, has called in an authentic Mexican as technical adviser.

He's Ernesto Romero, former Mexican vice consul in Los Angeles, pictured above with Micheline Cheirey and Madeleine Le Beau, a pair of French importations for the film.

what her intentions were. Three other Nazi ships in Chilean ports also made ready to leave.

As an ever larger number of Axis merchantmen were affected by the new "protective" seizure policy, not only the diplomatic notes were originating in Rome or Berlin. The government of Venezuela lodged strong protests with Axis envoys at Caracas last night because of the burning and scuttling of four German and Italian ships in Venezuelan waters.

Venezuela termed the sabotage "deliberate," a "scandalous" violation of hospitality, and "a premeditated crime which is punishable by our laws."

Meanwhile, Mexican authorities reported that they had thwarted a plot last night to add nine more vessels to the toll of Axis shipping destroyed in hemisphere waters since Sunday. The vessels were taken over by authorities Tuesday, but their German and Italian crews were permitted to remain on board.

The plan, officials said, was to destroy the ships some time during the night. The officers were lured ashore by a ruse and immediately arrested. Then the crews were removed and placed in custody. German seamen on one ship resisted but were overpowered by armed marines. A TNT bomb was reported found in the exhaust pipe of one tanker.

JUNIOR HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL ACTIVE

receive announcements to be made in home rooms. The following day these announcements are made and the same questions discussed with the students. If the students have any problems which are considered important they are given to the representative and he or she presents them in the next council meeting. The home room president serves as spokesman for all the students in his room. The council strives to encourage good citizenship among the student body. Respect for school and private property is being taught. This year the council sent four representatives and a sponsor and the principal to the Texas Association of Student Councils convention at Fort Arthur. They are pictured left, reading from left to right: Doyle Lane, Jackie Rains, Jerry Kerbow, Bill White, Miss Madge Rusk, and Principal Frank Monroe. Some of the outstanding accomplishments this year have been the issuing of a handbook, election of other leaders, and assisting the high school in the sale of student directories, and game rooms at noon. Every year the junior council sponsors a "White Christmas" program, in which each home room fills a basket with food, clothing, toys, to be distributed to the needy. In every way the council is trying to serve the student body in helping with all worthwhile student activities. The officers of the junior council last semester were: Doyle Lane, president; Jerry Kerbow, vice-president; Dorothy Campbell, secretary-treasurer; Charles Boyles, parliamentarian. The faculty sponsor is Miss Madge Rusk.

By JERRY KERBOW, vice-president
The Pampa Junior council, being patterned after a high school student council, is following much the same line of work.
The chief purposes of the junior council are:
1. To conduct "all-school" activities.
2. To provide for the effective organization of home rooms.
3. To assist in the promotion of student social life.
4. To assist in raising funds for school activities.
5. To assist in the presentation of assembly programs and other social functions of the school.
6. To maintain a bulletin board for teachers and students.
7. To make recommendations to the principal concerning matters dealing with student relations.

8. To receive suggestions from the student body and present them to the council and faculty.
It is an acknowledged honor to belong to the junior council which is considered the most important student organization in the school. Each room is represented by the home room president. From these home room presidents are chosen the officers of junior council, a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and parliamentarian. The sponsor is also considered a member of the council. Each member must attend all meetings or send a representative. In the meetings the members take notes on questions discussed and

Rouge Strike May Close Dallas Plant

DALLAS, April 3 (AP)—Production at the Ford Motor company's Dallas assembly plant probably will be slashed in volume and may be shut down completely because of the River Rouge plant strike in Detroit, it was indicated here today. Charles B. Ostrander, plant manager, said that he would not know definitely the extent to which the strike had curtailed the flow of materials to Dallas until tomorrow, "when we check a shipment slated to arrive then." Sufficient materials for final assembly are on hand now for continued operations for a short time, according to Ostrander.

Speaker Gives Louisiana A 'Pat On Back'

By WILLIAM T. RIVES
HOUSTON, April 3 (AP)—The upper Texas coast's 1940 oil discovery record showed no improvement over that established for 1939, O. L. Brace, Houston consulting geologist, told the American Association of Petroleum Geologists today. Coastal Louisiana, however, showed an advance in both the number and quality of new areas uncovered, he said. Biggest improvement of the past year in Louisiana has been the increasing importance of new reserves added to old fields, through extensions and new sand discoveries. One of the convention's largest crowds heard Brace give Louisiana its pat on the back. During the past few years, he said, a shift in the center of successful activity has given coastal Louisiana the lead over upper Texas. The shift coincided with the opening of the large area of only partly explored delta territory of Louisiana to intensive exploitation. More than 2,000 persons had registered for the joint meeting of the A. P. G., the Society of Exploration Geophysicists and the Society of Economic Paleontologists and Mineralogists. Urban B. Hughes, consulting geologist of Jackson, Miss., described in another speech the oil boom in that state last year. The development passed through two phases he said. "The first was hysterical, resulting from the fact that only a few of the major companies and independent operators had scientific data or lease protection prior to the discovery at Tinsley. "In the second phase, hasty, haphazard work gave way to sounder practices in both exploration and drilling. Dorothy A. Jung and Doris S. Malkin, geologists with Houston companies, reported in a paper presented for publication in the association bulletin that marine sands of the Gulf coast are prolific petroleum reservoirs. Deposition of these sands has taken place during a series of advances and retreats of the sea, they said. Over long periods of time, the shoreline changes and the deposition of sands changes with it. For instance, when the Gulf moves inward, coarser material is dropped first—material in which the oil later is trapped because of shale directly above the sands. Calculation of old shore lines, sampling of sands, etc., may lead to discovery of oil, the women reported.

National Borders And Prison Walls

There are certain things which we in free America can never understand about the totalitarian countries of Europe. One of them is their tendency to make of their national borders a prison wall.

We in the United States find it hard to imagine a condition in which we would not allow anyone to leave the country who wanted to go. Our difficulty is in getting rid of those who keep insisting that it is a terrible country, but who have to be pried out of it with a shoe-horn if it is suggested that they go anywhere else.

It is not so in Europe today. Russia was the first to draw a tight line around her borders. Why on earth border patrols should have been stationed with leveled rifles to take pot-shots at all who tried so desperately to get away from their own homeland, we do not know, but it happened. All the totalitarian countries set up similar rules. We were accustomed to find situations in which it was hard to get INTO a country, but to find it hard to get OUT of one—that is a product of the last 20 years.

Picture the scene recently enacted at Marseilles. A French ship is ready to sail for Martinique. Aboard are 348 Spaniards, refugees from the savage civil war that recently shook Spain. They are on their way to Mexico and a new life, with valid exit visas and tickets for which they have paid the last cent they could scrape together.

Suddenly police swarm aboard. There has been a new order by the Vichy minister of interior—no Spaniard of military age is to be allowed to leave France. In tears, many of them, the refugees file back down the gang-plank—the mirage of freedom has been snatched away.

Why? Are such men likely ever to be loyal to Vichy? You might think that Hitler would be glad to be rid of them—and such an act is clearly Hitler's act; no Freuchen would do such a thing except under compulsion. But no, they must stay where they are not wanted, and where they do not want to be.

Why? Why? Why? A free mind accustomed to reason might well topple in trying to grasp the answer. We in America can not understand it, and pray God we never shall.

Behind The News

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Some fine spring day, within the next week, the Aluminum Company of America will back a taxicab or a truck up to the doors of the Office of Production Management here in Washington and unload its order books.

It won't mean that the "government" will have taken over the aluminum company, but it will be darn close to it. And it will mean that O. P. M. will have taken over control of every pound of aluminum the company turns out, whether as ingot pigs or as sheets, bars, castings, finished machined parts or pots and pans.

Unloaded, the order books of the company will be taken up to the offices of the priorities section of O. P. M. and there, in some complicated procedure not yet figured out by either the government or the company, the experts from both will determine just who gets how much aluminum for what purposes.

In the allocation, airplane manufacturers will be allocated sufficient aluminum for their requirements. Other defense industries will get their share. If there is any left over, it will be spread out among private industries making ice boxes, vacuum cleaners, door stops, ash trays, pots and pans. If, however, an ice box manufacturer says, "You've gotta give me so many pounds or I'll have to lay off my force," his plea will be heard and he will be given enough to keep running. But only for a time. The ice box maker will be told that he'll have to redesign his product so that he'll use other materials—long metals or even plastics. Consequently, over the long haul you may see some brand new industrial design in articles of every day life.

SOUNDS THICK, AND IT IS

But the big idea will be to keep individual industries from piling up reserves of stock for their own businesses, shooting up the price and creating scarcity and confusion all over the country. Priorities certificates will be issued to the manufacturers who get the major consignments of aluminum. These will be graded under a code beginning with AA, going through A-1, A-2, A-1-a, A-2-a, and so on through A-10. Army and Navy Munitions Board will grant these certificates direct to prime contractors and first sub-contractors. The priorities section of O. P. M. will pass them out for all manufacturers below the first sub-contractor.

If all this sounds a bit thick and complicated, you can be assured that it is, but it's just the kind of business you'll have to get used to as this defense speedup gets thicker and thicker.

When the aluminum company bookkeepers bring in their order books, it will take eight good strong men to lug them around. First time they come in, they may not bring in the whole works, but a preliminary abstract or sampling, just to see if it meets the priorities division's requirements.

Once the routine is established, the inspection will have to be made every month. Aluminum Company of America now gets some 10,000 to 15,000 orders a month, totaling 40 million pounds a month. It sells for from 17 cents a pound for ingots to $1 a pound for finished machine parts, so the business the government will be overseeing will be some place between $5,800,000 and $40,000,000—say $20,000,000 a month, conservatively.

Here is government stepping into business in a big

Common Ground

This column contends there can be no satisfactory progress until we measure the shades of each man by the common yardstick of the Golden Rule: equal right to create and enjoy anything anyone else has a right to create and enjoy.

"CAN HITLER INVADE AMERICA?" The Reader's Digest for April has as its leading article, "Can Hitler Invade America?" by John T. Flynn. The Digest says it is "a realistic appraisal of the crucial questions affecting our world policy today." It also says that Mr. Flynn is a distinguished economist and journalist, who bases his article on authoritative information from military experts.

Mr. Flynn points out that Hitler has only conquered 110,000,000 populations, while our population is 130,000,000; that these were seven different countries, each small compared with Germany, each (except Norway) right on Germany's land frontiers. Hitler attacked each separately. Mr. Flynn says: "Germany has 80 million population, a gigantic army and an air force three times the size of Britain's. England has only 50 million people. But when Hitler turned on England there was the English Channel—only 23 miles wide at its narrowest-point. Ten months after France fell, he still had not even attempted to cross that narrow strip of water with soldiers or tanks. When he attempts to invade the United States—or Canada—he would face the problem of crossing with his armies 3000 miles of the Atlantic Ocean and confronting not 50,000,000 people on a small island with small natural resources, but a vast nation with 130,000,000 people and resources far exceeding his own."

Mr. Flynn points out that whatever else you might say about Hitler he is not crazy enough to try to beat the United States with a million men, as he did in Poland, and 2,000,000 men in France. Then Mr. Flynn points out how much tonnage would have to be brought over here, if Hitler were to attempt to attack us. He says:

"Such an army would have to bring its food, its oil, its ammunition until the country is conquered. It would require, each day, 9,000,000 pounds of rations and supplies, 1,500,000 gallons of gasoline, 150,000 gallons of oil. The quantities of shot and shell needed would be staggering. After Hitler's army got here, it would have to keep open a continuous flow of provisions, fuel, ammunition and replacements of arms and equipment. Transporting this vast army, and the equipment and the supplies it would require, is beyond the power of any country."

Hanson W. Baldwin, military expert of The New York Times, says: "The world's tonnage facilities are such that no combination of powers could possibly transport more than 300,000 men in a month. An initial expeditionary force of 50,000 would be the maximum that could be brought against us, if the size of convoy, number of ships, and planes needed for protection and the like are considered."

Again, Mr. Flynn says: "Germany, even with the British fleet, would not have complete command of the seas. The American navy would have to be wiped out. Two things must be remembered. First, at the end of this war the American navy would be larger than the German navy and the British navy combined. Second, Germany would have to do its naval fighting on this side of the ocean. Three thousand miles away from their own coasts this navy would be helpless against a navy merely its equal in numbers but three times its strength in effective fighting power."

Mr. Flynn quotes General Hagood as saying in 1937:

"America is the strongest military nation on earth—that is, the easiest nation to prepare for defense." And in 1938 Rear Admiral Cook told a congressional committee: "I do not think that any fleet could make an effective landing on our coast, whether we had a navy or not, provided enough shore-based aircraft are available."

Mr. Flynn quotes Mr. Roosevelt, in his January 6, 1941 speech, as follows:

"Even if there were no British navy it is not probable any enemy would be stupid enough to attack us by landing troops in the United States from across thousands of miles of ocean, until it had acquired strategic bases from which to operate."

This, according to Mr. Flynn is complete admission that invasion is impossible from a man who has done more than any other to frighten us with the fear of invasion.

Mr. Flynn says, "The President saves his point by insisting that Hitler would first have to acquire bases in this hemisphere."

But Mr. Flynn points out that if he went to Brazil, as Roosevelt suggested, he would then have traveled 5000 miles and would be farther away from the United States than when he started and that he would have to march a million men with all their supplies through tropical jungles and over rugged mountains.

When one realizes how fantastic are the ideas of Germany attempting to invade America and that England is our first line of defense, we begin to wonder why the American Congress has abdicated its responsibilities to a warmonger, like Roosevelt.

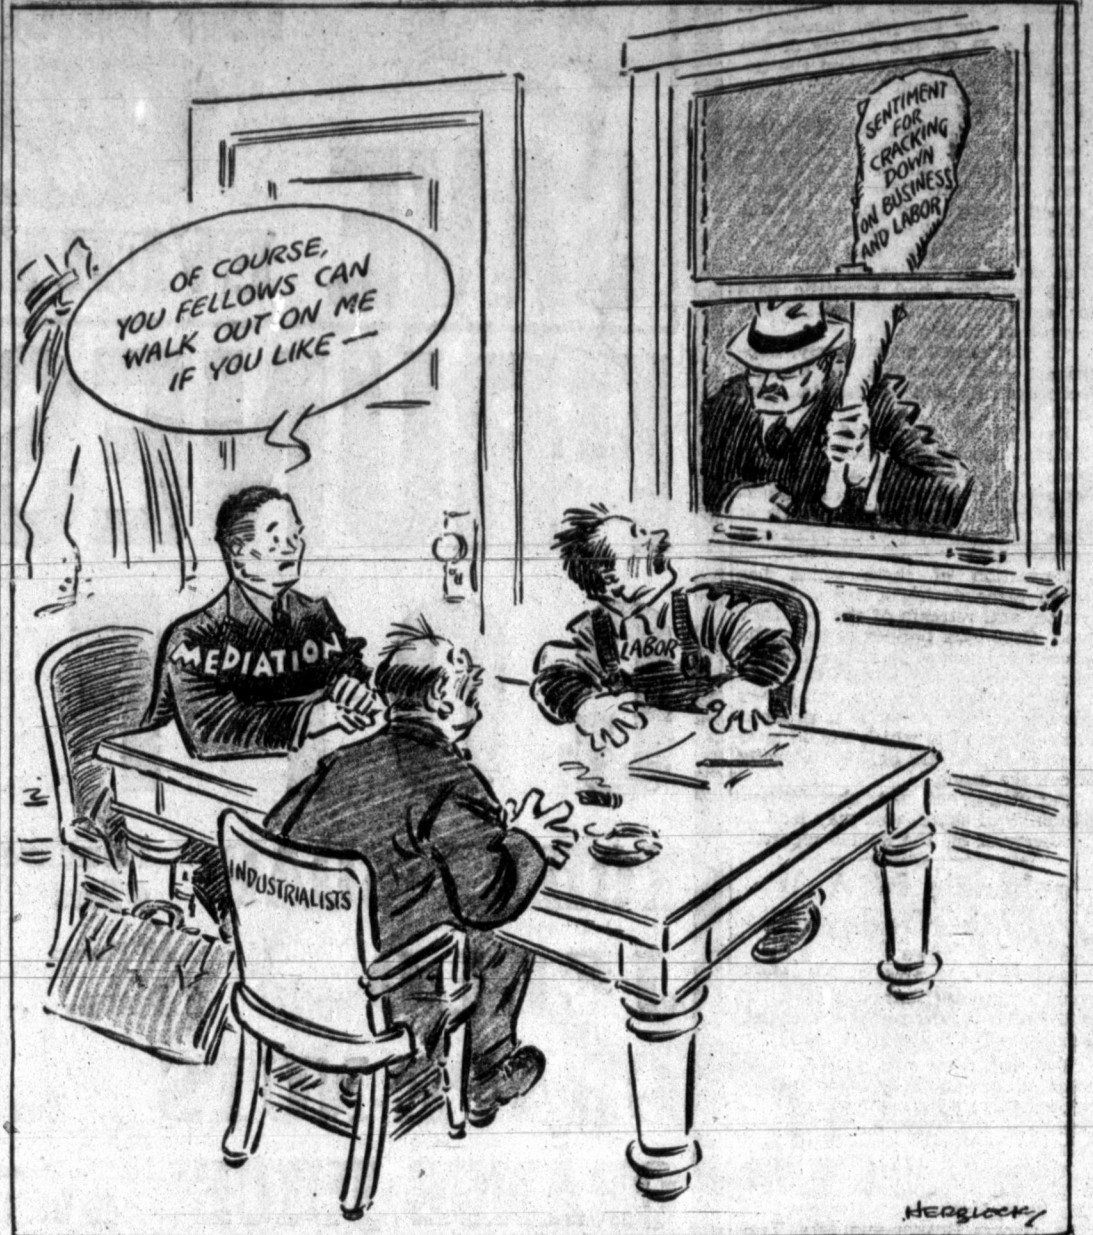

Mr. Flynn finishes his article in italics, as follows:

"And it is a significant fact that there is no military authority in this country who believes that an invasion of America by Germany—with or without the British fleet—is possible."

constructive way. You can't list that on a sheet of paper, as one expert naively suggested, and mail it in for a checkup. It will take time to analyze all this supply and demand, and if there be any excuse for the existence of economists, this should be it.

HOLLYWOOD, April 3.—There's a new band playing for the Bar 20—a long drink of water by the name of Brad King, who's a ridin', ropin', guitar-playin' fool, Ranch Foreman Hopalong Cassidy thinks he will make a swell partner and he's taking Brad with him on his next adventure, "The Secret of the Wasteland."

Christened Jack Oliver Watt, and renamed Brad King by the movies, the newcomer will play the character of "Johnny Nelson" in the western series. There'll be only a casual introduction for this new sidekick of the fearless, incorruptible Hopalong—he'll walk into things as an old friend who rides by the Bar 20 and is hired.

There's as casual an explanation for eliminating the character of "Lucky Jenkins" from the cast; seems he has to stay on the ranch and take care of things while the foreman is gone, so he just won't be seen any more.

Yesterday five men from Dodge City, Kas., were in Pampa conferring with Otis Pumphrey and Jimmy Dodge, co-chairmen of the 1940 Coronado Fiesta. The Entrada is going to be staged in Kansas this year, the 40th anniversary of Coronado's trek across Kansas. Dodge City is planning to put on the Entrada at a sectional fair in September.

Have you seen that skinned plate on Junior Frastier's nose? He's not telling how he got it, but I know. He was catching a turkey for his mother and the fowl drew back and kicked him—but Junior held on to the turkey.

Each member of the 1941 regional champion Harvester basketball team has received a letter of congratulations from Congressman Eugene Worley. He mentions that he was proud of their record, and he praised their sportsmanship. It was not just a perfunctory letter. The congressman knows many of the boys on the team personally and calls them by their first name, and the boys are certainly proud of their letters.

King was riding before he could walk. He was born on a ranch in Lander county, Nevada, some 23 years ago, and his nearest neighbors were miles away. His father died when the youngster was seven, and Brad automatically became head of family and boss of two younger brothers, holding down the job successfully until a stepfather could help him.

BRONCO BUSTER EXTRAORDINARY

Later, they bought a ranch in Bountiful, Utah, and Brad went there to boss it, going to school at the same time. Whenever he needed money, he and his brothers would take time off to round up wild range horses at $5 a head. During one of these working-vacations, the boys, still in their early teens, shipped out $25,000 worth.

At 20, he was wagon boss—an important job—for the "K" outfit in Nye county, Nevada, and by then he was one of the best riders in the state. When local amateur rodeos were held, King entered for fun, won prizes right and left for roping and bareback bronc riding.

Then began a rodeo career that reads like a Cowboy's Who's Who. He was one of the best riders in the state. When local amateur rodeos were held, King entered for fun, won prizes right and left for roping and bareback bronc riding.

Two trophies he values most are the All-Around Amateur Championship Cowboy Trophy, a silver-mounted saddle presented by the Alturas Chamber of Commerce, and the Interstate Bareback Championship of Nevada.

People You Know

By Archer Fullingim

The same things seem to happen to the Mounts twins, Billy and Betty. Recently they were elected the high school favorites. Now they are both in bed with the measles. Being seniors, their greatest regret was that they had to miss Kids Day on April Fool. Joe Greiser asks, "What are flapper fashions?" in his 5th column "In The Prairie, student newspaper of West Texas State college, and that question ought to indicate to anybody over 30 just how old they are in comparison to the present crop of high school and college students."

This is the conclusion of a student editorial writer in the Daily Texan, newspaper at the University of Texas: "What would a century be like without a hell-bent nation at the world's heels? That, dear reader, is the academic answer to the academic question—it would be the ultimate climax of history."

"City of Illusion," by Vardis Fisher; (Harper's; $2.50).

No reader will know where the fact of Vardis Fisher's "City of Illusion" leaves off and fiction begins. No more does Mr. Fisher. This time he is dealing with a country and a situation even more deeply crusted with legend than the Mormon background of his "Children of God," and with a woman who visits just famous enough to be on everybody's tongue for a while, but not famous enough to penetrate very deeply into the permanent record of the country. Mr. Fisher has done much research, and is sure of most of his ground. But people disagree over such fundamental matters as whether Elley Bowers ever had children at all, and some of the people who claimed to know her did not even remember her first name!

It does not matter, so far as the line, swinging novel Mr. Fisher publishes today is concerned. Elley is perfect material for a writer, and Virginia City in its heyday and after is a perfect background. The author might add, exactly the man to tell the story, now that he has left off the torturing business of exposing his soul, a business which, it must be said, has left us the four unique novels of the Vidlar Hunter series.

Elley ran a boarding house of sorts on the spot where Virginia City changed to grow. She maintained a common comb and a common toothbrush for her guests, fed them after a fashion, and consulted her second sight for her course. Her second sight told her she would make millions out of a mine, and she did. It told her also that she must be a lady, make her husband a gentleman, be queen of Virginia City. She did those things, too, although making Sandy Bowers a gentleman was neither an easy nor a complete job.

Elley collapsed, of course. At the end she was taking a silver dollar from anybody who wanted to consult her second sight. Her past was a legend even in her own mind. An inviolate one.

This all is the framework on which Mr. Fisher has draped a hundred lives, and the whole character of a place and time that flashed by like a brightly lighted room seen from a train, never to be seen again. It is just as well the scene is gone, but it makes fabulous reading.

TEX'S TOPICS

By Tex DeWeese

THIS may be very unimportant, but there is something we've been wondering about lately. . . . Why are bathrooms so small? . . . Will somebody tell us why so important and much used place as a bathroom shouldn't be as large as a small bedroom? . . . Why do they have to be long and narrow and difficult to get in and out of? . . . Why wouldn't it be a good idea to have a bathroom large enough to have a small pool with steps going down into it? . . . Well, summer's not far away, and it brings the season of the year when we shall again get that desire we've had for years—to throw an egg into an electric fan.

Self-evaluation is a good subject. . . . Ladies, if invited to dinner would you have to borrow an evening gown? . . . Do you know who Tony Galento is? . . . Have you changed your hair-do in three months? . . . Do you say "well" or "just one of those things"? . . . Did you create something last week—a poem, a cake or a rug? . . . Those questions are asked women who visit New York university's Self-Evaluation clinic for the purpose of getting a little more sartorial, mental and physical glamour.

NOW, don't ask us what knowing Tony Galento has to do with it. . . . We don't get it, either. . . . You might also be puzzled why they ask a woman if she made a rug last week. . . . Can you do that in a week? . . . They could also have one of those self-evaluation clinics for men. . . . Some of these questions might be asked of the men: . . . How often do you get a haircut? . . . When did you get your shoes shined last? . . . Who is Milton McGinnis? . . . Who answers the telephone when you call 9999? . . . If it came off, could you sew a button back on your vest? . . . Did you write a song or paint the side of a house last week? . . . And where were you at 11 o'clock last night?

A Pampa man who has been having car trouble for a long time gave us one of the funniest letters we have in days when he listened to his complaints to a garage mechanic yesterday afternoon. . . . It can't be put down adequately on paper, but this fellow had a squawk coming. . . . It seems that his car is temperamental. . . . It runs fine until he gets out on the road between towns far from a telephone or garage. . . . Then it peters out and dies on him. . . . He raises the hood, looks with everything, but it's no go. . . . Then he may walk a mile or two to a telephone, call a service truck from town. . . . When the service truck gets there, the man gets in the car, steps on the starter and the motor turns over immediately and purrs like a kitten. . . . They always tell him there's nothing wrong, give him a funny little look, and leave the scene. . . .

THAT'S been happening for months. . . . The man has spent $250 getting everything new under the hood. . . . But, it still does it and it's gradually driving him nuts. . . . It always dies on him far out in the country, at the bottom of a hill, or miles from any kind of help. . . . It's very discouraging. . . . He wants somebody to find the trouble for him. . . . Every mechanic in town has hunted for it, thought they found it—but it's always the same old story—motor-dying at remote places. . . . Now another one is searching, swears he'll find it and if he doesn't the man won't have to pay a nickel. . . . But the man will lay odds on pessimistic results. . . . It's funny—hear him tell it.

U. S. Planes Equal To Messerschmitt, Engineers Believe

DOWNNEY, Calif., April 3 (AP)—Vultee Aircraft Corp. engineers took a quick look at a German Messerschmitt 110 and reported today: At least four American made fighter planes are equal to, and in some respects superior to, the famed Nazi craft.

The Messerschmitt, shot down in Britain, was received at the Vultee plant yesterday for detailed study.

BROWDER BEGINS PRISON TERM

Earl Browder, right in mask, is shown on arrival in Atlanta, Ga., to serve a four-year sentence for using a fraudently obtained passport. He is shown handcuffed to two negro prisoners. Browder is wearing the mask at his own request to avoid pictures being taken of himself.

Look at This Picture--Remember It When You Drive

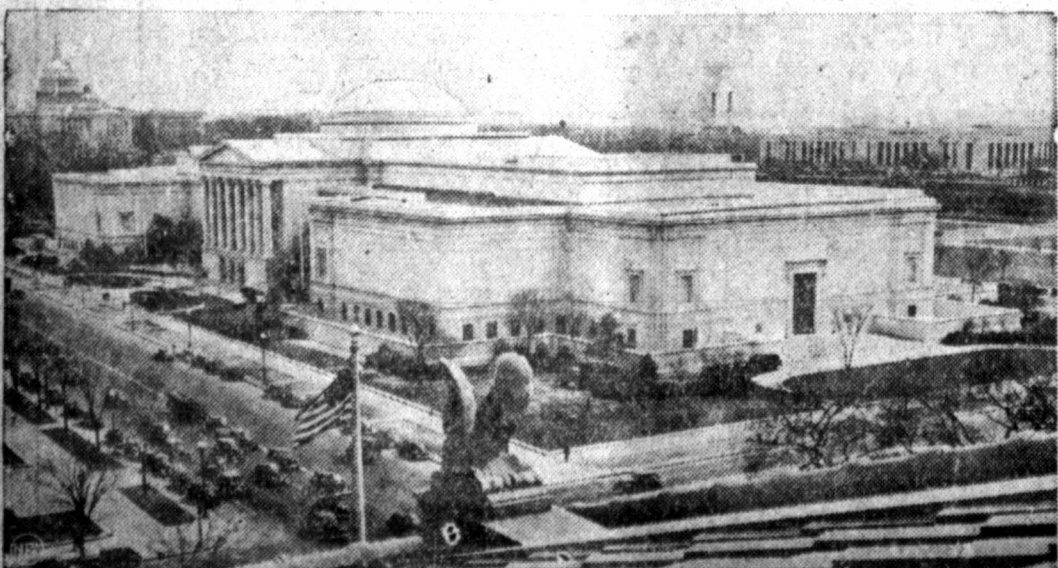

Uncontrollable grief grips this family huddled at the graveside of another automobile crash victim. The parents, widow, brother and sister of Joseph C. Yager, 30, are pictured at services for the Birmingham, Ala., man who met death when his car crashed into a passenger train.

Recruiting Unit "Shoots" for the Crowd

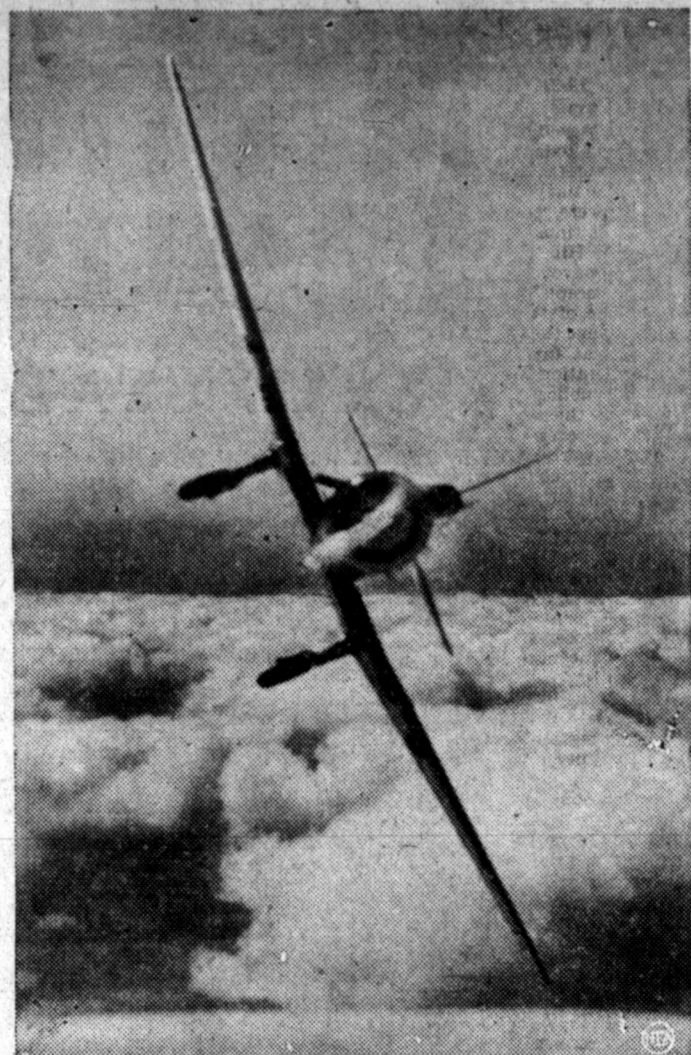

Even though rural communities furnish larger numbers of our soldiers, there is plenty of recruiting interest in the city, the above picture shows. A unit of the crack First Division of World War renown demonstrates a 37-millimeter antitank gun on New York City's Times Square as the status of Father Duffy, famed chaplain of that war, looks approvingly on. Results, of this recent recruiting effort were increased interest in the Army and a good number of enlistments.

New National Gallery of Art Opened to Public

Imposing addition to U. S. capital is this building, the new National Gallery of Art, $15,000,000 gift of the late Andrew Mellon.

Buzzing 'Blade' Cuts Through Clouds

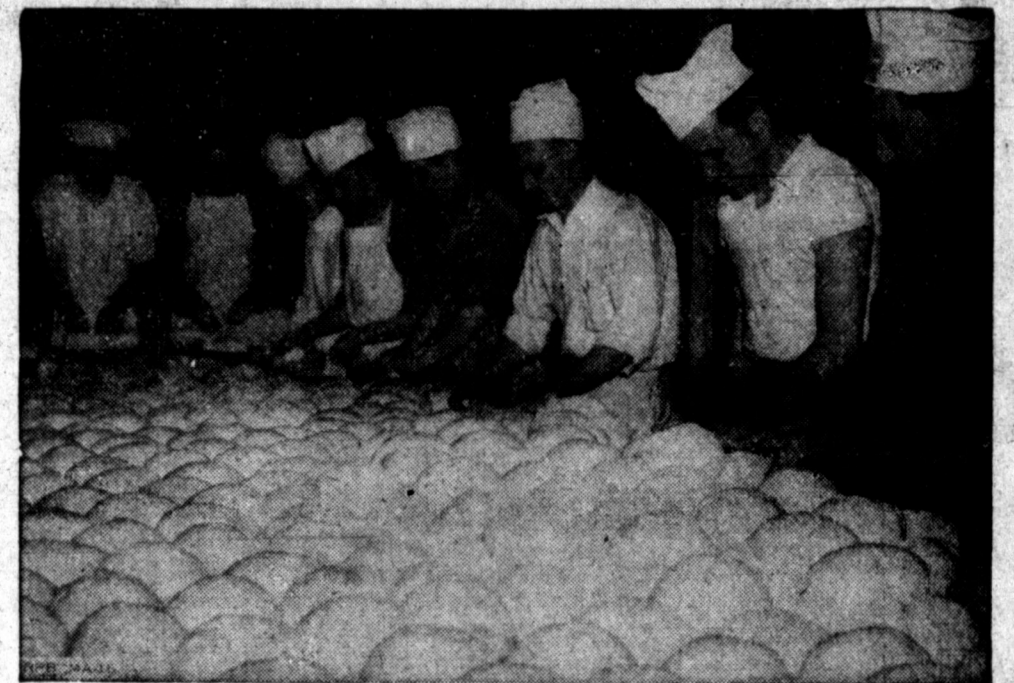

Banking above a level sea of billowy clouds over Randolph Field, Texas, this army training plane makes a picture of peace in sky far removed from scenes of aerial warfare abroad we so often see.

EIGHT LOSE LIVES IN TEXAS AUTO CRASH

The mass of wreckage in which two young Texas couples met their death on the highway, 13 miles north of Temple, Texas is shown above. Two 16-year-old Waco girls and two boys from Bellemade were in the car when it collided head-on with an automobile driven by Charles Smith of Ingleside. Smith, his wife and child also were killed. Another man was killed when his auto rammied into a truck stopped at the crash scene.

"Doughboys" Roll Their Own

It may not be like mother used to make but it keeps her boys in the Army going strong. Such bread as that made in U. S. Army field kitchens, shown above, is one big reason why our military forces can well travel on their stomachs. Soldiers in the camps get plenty of this "staff of life" which after being baked lands on their plates in plentiful thick slices.

Double-Header in Steeplechase

Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark's Razinante and Jockey S. O'Neill hit dirt simultaneously to provide spectacular picture in The Croatan, a Sandhills Steeplechase and Racing Association event, at Pinehurst.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS FAVORITES

One of these five co-ed beauties is Sweetheart of the University of Texas. Try to pick her out!
The girls are, left to right, Connie Eversberg, Houston; Virginia Ford and Gloria Obar, Austin; bottom, Dorothy Ball, Houston; and M'iss Vaughan, San Antonio. They were elected Monday from their 4,000 co-ed colleagues as 1941's most popular girls at the state school.
A second election Tuesday, named one of the five sweetheart, but votes won't be counted nor identity revealed until she is formally presented at the opening night of Twelfth Annual Round-Up, April 4, annual homecoming for Texas students.
The Texas favorite, whoever she is, will reign with her four attendants, a bevy of 300 student-picked University nominees, and six sweethearts of Southwest Conference schools over the three-day Texas-Ex festivities, April 4-6.
Included in the Round-Up program are a parade, a revue, and ball, intercollegiate tennis matches, alumni open-houses, and the annual Texas relays.
Honor homecomers are the classes of 1891 and 1916, ex-student officials announced.
Miss Eversberg, a sophomore, is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. Miss Ford, a junior, is a yearbook beauty and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. Miss Obar, a sophomore, is also a campus beauty, as is Miss Ball, a senior and member of Pi Beta Phi. Miss Vaughan, a senior, belongs to Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Leads Military Fashion Over 800 Coeds

Elected girl-of-the-month at East Texas State Teachers College, Commerce, Dorothy Lil Cobb, freshman from Marlin, led the military fashion parade over 800 coeds with an ensemble which matches the attire of any American sailor. To keep the whole thing feminine she has donned a nautical beret of powder blue which affords American emblems.

T. C. U. Freshman Leaders

Members of the class of 1944 at Texas Christian University have elected these three girls and three boys as the most popular students in their class. Betty Beckham, Plano; Julia Mayo, Brownwood; Ruby Lee Tisdale, Dallas; Melvin Dacus, Fort Worth; Marshal Mason, Dallas; Van Hall, Kaufman.

Texas Solons Find Naziism Hard To Define

AUSTIN, April 3 (AP)—What is Naziism? This question confronted a house subcommittee today as part of the phraseology in a bill designed to curb anti-American activity in Texas.

Spoken by Rep. P. D. Thornton, Jr., of Mount Pleasant, the three words sent members of the criminal jurisprudence committee into voluble discussion last night trying to find an exact definition of the term.

Rep. Doyle Pevehouse of Corsicana said the measure embodies in part Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's anti-violence legislation now pending in the senate.

Un-Americanism was defined in the bill as "any activity on the part of any persons who intentionally agitate or seek to further Naziism, Fascism, Communism or any other doctrine whose purpose or intent is for the destruction of this state of the United States."

"What is Naziism?" Thornton asked. Pevehouse reread the bill's definition of un-Americanism.

"Then what is un-Americanism?" Thornton questioned. "It seems we are just going in circles. How are we going to enforce it if we don't know what Naziism, Fascism and Communism are?"

Kites still are flown by the U. S. weather bureau to find out about conditions aloft.

'It's Absurd To Talk About Using Navy As Convoy,' Says President

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—President Roosevelt, a well informed legislator said today, has told congressional leaders that suggestions for using the navy to convoy supplies abroad were "too absurd to talk about" at this time.

On Capitol Hill, however, opponents of the convoy idea showed reluctance to accept this as the final word, and one of them said he had information that the question of convoying ships as far as Iceland was under consideration.

Several Republicans said they had voted against the senate's taking a 10-day Easter recess with the house because they were afraid that some action involving convoys might develop during their absence.

Senator Tobey (R-N. H.) has a resolution pending which would prohibit the use of U. S. navy vessels for convoy duty and is seeking to force action on it by the senate foreign relations committee.

President Roosevelt's comment on the convoy question was reported to have been made during his conference with congressional leaders this week. He was asked a direct question, the legislator said, regarding the possibility of convoys to assure delivery of American lease-lend military equipment to ports in the European war zone.

Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the senate foreign relations committee said he had heard nothing to indicate that the administration was thinking of inaugurating convoys, and he predicted that the president would not act without consulting congress.

In George's opinion, the president would have the legal authority to order naval escorts for merchantmen to any port where the ships may go legally. The neutrality law, he pointed out, prohibits American shipping from entering the combat zones defined by presidential proclamation.

Admiral Sir Andrew Browne-Cunningham, commander-in-chief of the British Mediterranean squadrons, chalks up another fine victory after his war-boats blasted Italian navy in one of war's biggest engagements.

Tuskegee pilots hope to win most of assignments.

TUSKEGEE, Ala., April 3 (AP)—Collegians swiftly sprouting wings at this old institute are convinced they'll win most of the 33 pilot assignments when the army's first all-negro air unit—the 99th pursuit squadron—is activated here October 1.

The 99th is moving a long step nearer reality this month as the recruiting of the 276-man ground crew from among high school graduates who must pass special aptitude tests. Selection of these men is expected to take only a few weeks.

Reason Tuskegeans are confident they hold the edge for the coveted cadet appointments is that Tuskegee is the only negro college with an advanced school set-up under the civilian pilot training program of the civil aeronautics board.

Amazing speed has marked the growth of this school. Authorized in 1940, students started hitch-hiking 40 miles to Montgomery to take their lessons because there was no field here. Then a temporary field was cleared only seven miles away.

By the time some students worked to the advanced flying stage and

Yacht With Duke, Duchess Aboard Reported Aground

NASSAU, Bahamas, April 3 (AP)—The yacht Rene with the duke and duchess of Windsor aboard was reported aground off Bridge Point, Eleuthere Island, today.

The royal governor, abdicated king of England, and his American-born wife were reported to be safe.

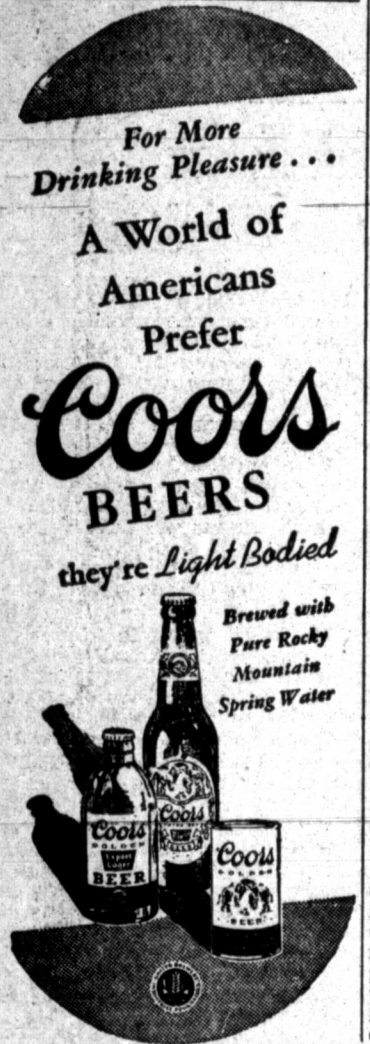

They had been on an official tour of the eastern Bahamas Islands. Arrangements were made to send a seaplane and a motor cruiser to the scene.

Tuskegee provided a $10,000 army type training plane, white students at nearby Auburn (Alabama Polytech) voted unanimously to let the negro fliers use their field and hangar.

Now a new field has been leased here, the institute has grown to 12 planes, shop facilities have been built, engine laboratories set up. Charles A. Anderson, first negro to win a commercial pilot's license, runs the program and holds an army contract to give elementary training to the fledglings of the 99th.

On Sept. 29, 1938, an automobile at Carlinville, Ill., was hit by a meteorite. Weighing four pounds, the stone crashed through the garage roof into the car.

Information Service Described By Jones

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—Efforts of the government to cooperate with the nation's business leaders, particularly where national defense contracts are concerned, were related to a congressional committee by Secretary Jones during hearings on the commerce department appropriation bill introduced today in the house.

Jones described in detail the operation of a new "information bureau" established in his department to help businessmen coming here make immediate contact with the proper agency. Appointed head of the new information service was a fellow Texan, former representative Clyde Garrett of Eastland.

Tuskegee Pilots Hope To Win Most Of Assignments

TUSKEGEE, Ala., April 3 (AP)—Collegians swiftly sprouting wings at this old institute are convinced they'll win most of the 33 pilot assignments when the army's first all-negro air unit—the 99th pursuit squadron—is activated here October 1.

The 99th is moving a long step nearer reality this month as the recruiting of the 276-man ground crew from among high school graduates who must pass special aptitude tests. Selection of these men is expected to take only a few weeks.

Reason Tuskegeans are confident they hold the edge for the coveted cadet appointments is that Tuskegee is the only negro college with an advanced school set-up under the civilian pilot training program of the civil aeronautics board.

Amazing speed has marked the growth of this school. Authorized in 1940, students started hitch-hiking 40 miles to Montgomery to take their lessons because there was no field here. Then a temporary field was cleared only seven miles away.

By the time some students worked to the advanced flying stage and

Yacht With Duke, Duchess Aboard Reported Aground

NASSAU, Bahamas, April 3 (AP)—The yacht Rene with the duke and duchess of Windsor aboard was reported aground off Bridge Point, Eleuthere Island, today.

The royal governor, abdicated king of England, and his American-born wife were reported to be safe.

They had been on an official tour of the eastern Bahamas Islands. Arrangements were made to send a seaplane and a motor cruiser to the scene.

Tuskegee provided a $10,000 army type training plane, white students at nearby Auburn (Alabama Polytech) voted unanimously to let the negro fliers use their field and hangar.

Now a new field has been leased here, the institute has grown to 12 planes, shop facilities have been built, engine laboratories set up. Charles A. Anderson, first negro to win a commercial pilot's license, runs the program and holds an army contract to give elementary training to the fledglings of the 99th.

On Sept. 29, 1938, an automobile at Carlinville, Ill., was hit by a meteorite. Weighing four pounds, the stone crashed through the garage roof into the car.

Spurlin And Twigg, Ray And Newberry, Askew And Stephens Will Battle Tonight For North And South Championships

Sparks Will Fight Frailey Of Borger In 12-Bout Card

The last 12 district champions in the Panhandle Plains High School Boxing League preliminaries to the Tournament of Champions will be crowned tonight in the Pampa High school gymnasium, beginning at 8 o'clock, with some of the outstanding boxers in the Panhandle in action. The long discussed fight between Kenneth Twigg of LeFors and Eugene "Red" Spurlin of Canadian, at 145 pounds, will be the highlight of tonight's big card. There will be at least two fights in which good little men will meet good big men that should be headline attractions. In both, Pampa fighters will enter the ring at the weight they fought all season while opponents will be two Borger boys who were starved and sweated down to make lower weight divisions than in which they fought all season.

The first contest of uneven weights will see Everett Sparks of Pampa, 105 pounds, meeting Frailey of Borger who fought all season at 115 pounds. In the second encounter Richard Stephens of Pampa, 115 pounds, will meet Askew of Borger who won the Amarillo Golden Gloves title in the 125 pound class.

Several bouts between boys meeting for the first time might be even better than the highlight battles but fans can only find out by being at the gymnasium at 8 o'clock.

Ray To Box Tonight

Fighting for battles will be Roy Ray of Pampa and Newberry of Borger, at 145 pounds; Ferguson of LeFors and Smith of Wellington at 85 pounds; Cook of Wellington and Graham of Miami at 135 pounds and other bouts.

When the fights end tonight 24 champions will have been crowned, 12 in the north and 12 in the south divisions. The south has no heavyweight and there are only two in the north so they will not meet until the Tournament of Champions here on April 8.

Seven technical knockouts were recorded in last night's fights as Pampa and LeFors registered three victories each, Wellington, Borger and Miami two each, and Stinnett one. Three of the knockouts went to LeFors.

Campbell Loses Close One

Only one decision was real close and the crowd disagreed with the judges when Johnny Campbell of Pampa lost a decision to Mays of Borger.

A new type of boxing match was staged last night when Nelson of Borger decided Pendleton of Pampa at 155 pounds. It turned out to be a "one-handed" fight. Pendleton whaled away all three rounds with his left and never once took his right out of his pocket, if he had a pocket, and Nelson duplicated the feat only he used a right all the way. Nelson had the advantage by shooting his right straighter and beating Pendleton to the punch.

Big John Cornett of Pampa won going away from Carter of Borger as he showed his best form of the season despite a lot of slapping.

Although nearly 400 seats have been added the sold right out sign is expected to be hung out tonight. There will be no conflicting engagements. Fans from all parts of the Panhandle have been waiting a long time for the Twigg-Spurlin battle.

Tonight's schedule of bouts:

- 75 pounds—Cooper, LeFors, vs. Kivlehen, Miami.
- 75 pounds—Hale, Borger, vs. Williams, Sanford.
- 85 pounds—Ferguson, LeFors, vs. Smith, Wellington.
- 105 pounds—Sparks, Pampa, vs. Frailey, Borger.
- 115 pounds—Stephens, Pampa, vs. Askew, Borger.
- 125 pounds—Small, Pampa, vs. Strother, Stinnett.
- 125 pounds—Jackson, LeFors, vs. Dabbs, Canadian.
- 135 pounds—Cook, Wellington, vs. Graham, Miami.
- 135 pounds—Lunsford, Stinnett, vs. Priest, Borger.
- 145 pounds—Twigg, LeFors, vs. Spurlin, Canadian.

The first ABC convention will be held tomorrow, drawing approximately 1,000 delegates from all parts of the country, while the national bowling proprietors association and the bowling scribes will hold their pow-wows at midnight.

Porter's Cap Riding Freight Train East

LOS ANGELES, April 3 (AP)—Porter's Cap bumped eastward in a freight train today, resting his speedy legs for a shot at racing's triple crown for three-year-olds.

The C. S. Howard ace will warm up in the Chesapeake stakes at Havre De Grace April 19, then shoot at the Kentucky Derby May 3, the Preakness a week later and the Belmont stakes on June 7. Only four horses have copied the triple crown—Sir Barton in 1919, Gallant Fox in 1930, Omaha in 1935 and War Admiral two years later.

Porter's Cap, winner of the $50,000 Santa Anita Derby, breezed six furlongs in 1:12 3/5 last Friday and promptly dropped to 6-1 in the Agua Caliente future book on the derby, only him. Rated next are Bold Irishman, Curious Coin and Whirlaway at 8-1.

Harvesters To Compete In District Track Meet

Pampa Harvester track and field hopefuls will compete in the District 2 interscholastic league meet here Saturday evening when Coach J. C. Frejman put his thin-clads through a long workout in all events. Preliminaries in the dash and hurdle events will be held Saturday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, with the final set for 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, all west of Harvester park.

Entries from other schools in the district, which includes 10 northeast Panhandle counties, have not yet been certified. It is expected that more than 100 boys will be here for the meet.

The Shamrock Irish, defending district champions, will be here with a team that won 11 first places out of 13 in a county meet held last Saturday.

Tennis and volleyball will begin Friday. Volleyball will probably be completed in a single day, but it will probably require two days for tennis.

Coach Frejman has only one boy eligible who was a district winner last year. He has, however, one back from the 1939 championship team. Back from last year is Pat Flanigan, who placed in the shot and discus. Eligible after a year is Grover Heiskell, dash man.

A new event will be introduced this year—the 440-yard relay—which will replace the javelin, which has been dropped from high school competition.

Harvesters scheduled to compete are:

- 120-yard high hurdles—Hollis, Burt and Rafferty.
- 100-yard dash—Heiskell, Meador, and Gower.
- 440-yard dash—Lard, Allen, and Arnold, with Flanigan, Arthur, and Johnson still in the running for starting assignments.
- 220-yard low hurdles—Heiskell, Hollis, and Rafferty.
- 440-yard relay—Gower, Browning, Meador, and Heiskell.
- 220-yard dash—Meador, Gower, and Arthur.
- Mile run—Rafferty.
- 1/2 mile run—Allen, Lard, Arnold, and Flanigan, Arthur or Johnson the fourth man.
- Shot put—Flanigan, Terrell, and Halter.
- High jump—Arnold, Flanigan, and Allen.
- Pole vault—Arnold and Heiskell.
- Broad jump—Meador, Halter, and Terrell.
- Discus—Heiskell, Terrell, Flanigan, or Arnold.

Nova Carries Hot-Foot For Maxie Baer

By SID FEDER

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—Inasmuch as the grudge angle is the oldest form of fistic drum-beating known to man, it comes as no surprise to learn Lou Nova is carrying a strong mental hot-foot for Max Baer in their 12-round Friday night fight in Madison Square Garden.

But, this one is different, said Nova's manager, Ray Carlen, today. Ray is a quiet guy who almost lost his card to the manager's union and benevolent society because he couldn't even holler as loud as the fellows piloting fly-weights. He points out that the reason this grudge is different is because he doesn't like it, even a little bit.

He's a little afraid that mixing this current dislike with Lou's hot-headedness may cause the whole thing to backfire right in Nova's lovely features Friday, and that wouldn't do at all for the man who's intent on meeting Joe Louis in September.

No word of Nova's grudge has come from Promoter Mike Jacobs' high-powered public relations experts, so you have to take Carlen's word for it that it dates back some 16 months. At that time, Lou, beaten by Tony Galento and laid low by a little bug that did things to his blood stream, was bedded in a California hospital. Max came to visit him one afternoon and "asked-tek-ed" all over the place. Afterward, says Ray, the ex-king of the playboys headed right for the nearest sports editor's desk.

"Too bad about that Nova," he mourned, "a nice kid and good to his folks. But there he is. He'll never fight again. And to think I did that to him."

To a questioning look Max hurried to explain that in their first fight, back in 1939, the punches he hit Nova in the early rounds caused Lou's illness. He didn't explain what happened to cause Nova to stop him in the 11th round that night.

Ever since Nova read about Raeb's sympathy, the California collegian has been seeing red whenever the name of the madcap mauler is even thought of in his presence.

But in that frame of mind, Lou is likely to walk right out flat-footed and slug with Max. And whatever else you say about the

Texas Baseball Nine Undelected

WACO, April 3 (AP)—It looks like the experts are right as usual about the Texas Longhorns in the Southwest Conference baseball race.

Here the teams are just starting the week of the campaign, and Texas is the only undefeated aggregation.

Baylor's Bears, who lost to Rice and dropped one out of two to Texas A. and M., beat Southern Methodist 12-7 yesterday to knock the Mustangs out of the tie for the lead with the Longhorns.

The fact that Texas walloped Rice in two games and Baylor couldn't handle the Owls is a strong argument that Texas won't be headed this season.

The Longhorns tallied for five tallies in the seventh to beat S. M. U. Pitcher Joe Terry held the Mustangs at bay the rest of the way.

It's The Nation Against California In Badminton Meet

CLEVELAND, April 3 (AP)—It's the nation against California in the fifth annual amateur Badminton championship tournament which opened here today.

More than 200 of the country's ranking players, including the two men and four women who captured all the cups in 1940, will bat the shuttlecocks for three days.

Facing the California contestants are contestants from New England, New York City, and the Great Lakes area. Other strong contestants are Irvin Stewart of San Antonio, Texas, and Joel P. Baker of Washington, D. C.

gaudy, if not neat, Mr. Baer, you must admit no one is better than I to 2 to stand up and trade wallop for wallop with him, when he's swinging that right hand.

Room 78 Beats Room 73 11-5 In Softball Meet

Coach Billy Coy Sheehan, with a perfect day at bat, led Room 78 to victory over Room 73 by a score of 11-5. This was the third game in the Junior High Intramural Softball tournament, now being conducted at the noon hour on the Central campus.

Coach Gene Lane pitched good ball for the loser until the first of the fourth when the "sluggers" from Room 78 got into action and started connecting. Pitcher Bill White allowed only seven hits and along with his good twirling slugged out a

Little Looks Like Money From Home

By ROMNEY WHEELER

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 3 (AP)—A broad-shouldered gent with an infectious grin—U. S. Open Champion Lawson Little—looked like money from home today as 49 top-flight golfers headed into the eighth annual Augusta Masters tournament.

Two straggled 68's, carded on successive days in practice over the feather-smooth Augusta national course, sent Little's stock booming—and squeezed odds on the Californian from a preliminary 8 to 1 down to 7 to 1, a dead-heat with Sam Snead, Ben Hogan, and Byron Nelson.

But where the other favorites fretted over faltering games, Little was completely confident.

"I'm hitting 'em," he said simply. "Whether I can keep doing it for the next four days of course, is another thing."

Nelson, meanwhile, continued to have trouble on the greens, missing apparent easy putts. Hogan fiddled with his putter and irons, generally displeased with results, but hoping a changed stance would bring improvement. Snead pointed to his iron shots and held his nose expressively. None, however, appeared in the clubhouse. Nelson, despite ill luck near the pin, went around in a par-equaling 72 yesterday in final practice. Hogan, his putter overcoming uncertain approaches, rang the gong with a 69. Snead played off 71.

Official opening of the 1941 Masters tournament was assigned to two of golf's best-known veterans, Francis Quimet of Boston, and Walter Hagen of Detroit, called to lead off at 1 p. m. (EST). Others were struck off behind, winding up with Dick Metz, Clayton Heatter, and Gene Kunes at 2:55 p. m.

The four-day tournament, which is to conclude Sunday, never has escaped rain and the weatherman was not reassuring for the current edition. He predicted rain today, probably more before Saturday.

Hunt Seeks Match With Champ Louis

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 3 (AP)—So long as Joe Louis is seeing the country between title fights, a Texas promoter figures he may as well promote one New Mexico way.

Promoter Pop Thomas of Lubbock, said he would try to convince Mike Jacobs in St. Louis Monday that the Brown Bomber should accommodate his protegee, Babe Hunt, with a little bout somewhere in the state.

Thomas said he would show up in St. Louis with letters from Governor John Miles and the state tourist bureau director, plus New Mexico population figures and a well-heard argument for Hunt, a former oilfield hand and veteran of Texas rings.

"Jacobs probably thinks New Mexico is in the sticks," Thomas observed, "but I believe I can show him where, comparatively speaking, Louis will draw more than he will in any eastern cities."

The Lubbock promoter, who also sells automobiles to cow country folk, contacted Albuquerque officials to see that facilities could be arranged. If a long run of IPS were hurried. He said Clovis, N. M., had offered to provide everything needed but a knockout punch if the match goes through.

Texas bans bouts between white and negro boxers.

Not since a hot summer day in 1912 has New Mexico had a heavyweight title fight. Jack Johnson outpointed Jim Flynn at Las Vegas before the contest was stopped by police in the ninth round of their Fourth of July scrap.

Bob Fitzsimmons once fought at Langtry, Texas, on the border near El Paso, after winning the title from James Corbett in Carson City, Nev., March 17, 1897.

A remarkable man is Maxie Baer. The great big man who's in our hair Against Lou Nova he may look awful But win or lose, he'll talk a jawful.

Considerable puffing and groaning was heard in the clubhouse at Road Runner park yesterday afternoon as pitchers and catchers donned uniforms for their second workout. The six other prospects who reported opening day trotted from the clubhouse but the noise continued.

Then was heard a long sigh and the doorway was completely filled with a uniformed figure. Railbirds gasped. Prather was in San Diego, and besides he wasn't nearly as big as the figure in the doorway, wearing Prather's uniform and overflowing it.

Hal Lucas, one of the club owners, was on hand and informed the gang that the newcomer was Ernie Meyers of Crawford, Okla., and that he was an outfielder and pitcher. He stands about six feet, three inches, and weighs 220 pounds.

"I'm a few pounds overweight," Meyers remarked.

The big fellow took a couple of turns around the field and then strolled to the plate. Monty Montgomery threw and there was a loud crack. Heads turned and watched the ball sail over the deepest part of the center field fence.

Meyers may be just what the doctor ordered. Last year Meyers started in the outfield for Crawford, in the Oklahoma Sandlot League. Pitchers were needed so he took regular turns on the mound the rest of the season and won most of his games.

YESTERDAY: Bee successfully avoided the... catches the tail force of Miss Dane's anger...

DEFEAT FOR AN IDEA

CHAPTER XXI BEATRICE HUNTINGTON

BEATRICE HUNTINGTON DAVENPORT backed off, slowly and unbelievably, from the spectacle of Miss Dane sobbing like a baby...

This, she thought slowly, this is what's at the root of the whole trouble with this store. Everybody's being driven...

The store made money for Grandfather. But he loved it, too. It was his servant, his child—never his master.

And now, making more money. Now the love is gone, there's nothing but profit behind it. Profit, no matter what the cost.

She looked down at herself, her hands touching her sides curiously. "The store has been run to make money for me. For me. Because I was useless, because Bruce Sheldrake and the trust company thought it was what I wanted..."

A moment later, she denied that to herself. "No! They were doing it for themselves. Because they had the power over it. Because it made them strong and feared. They knew I didn't care. I simply didn't count. I got the money and they had the power."

Her lips tightened, grimly. "That's all over now. I'll show them!" Miss Dane and Miss Getz had disappeared into the cubicle where Miss Dane worked over her purchasing records. Beatrice decided, "I'm going up to see Mr. Bruce Sheldrake—right now!"

She marched to the elevator, the light of battle in her eyes. BUT when the elevator door opened, Anthony Bradley walked out. "Anthony, listen—," she began, before all the other considerations overwhelmed her. She stopped, and suddenly her heart stopped, too. For Anthony's face wasn't even any joy at seeing her in his eyes. "Anthony, what's the matter?" "He turned me down," Anthony said hoarsely. "He—he listened to it all. He made me explain a dozen times. And then—" he winced. "Then he laughed. He said I was crazy. He told me—" Oh, the pain in his voice, the bitter pain!

"He told me to go back to floor-walking." "He dared! He dared to—to—" The enormity of that sneering dismissal stabbed her.

"Yes, he dared, all right." Anthony moved his head as if to clear it. "He kicked me out, because he's the merchandise manager and I'm just a hired hand." "Wait, Anthony! Come back there with me! I'll fix him!" "What could you do?" Anthony asked wearily. "It's no use, Bee. I'm licked."

She stood very still, searching his eyes. Anthony's hands were curled into fists. He struck at a counter, savagely. "No, I'm not licked! I'll show him yet! I'll show them all!" "Anthony," she said steadily, "if you could go right into Bruce Sheldrake's office—if you could take this idea straight to the Duchess herself—would you do it?"

"What did you say?" "If you could march right over the head of the merchandise manager and convince someone higher up that you're right—" "You don't understand!" he cried impatiently. "It's not the satisfaction of getting the best of him! It's not even the prestige of having an idea of my own tried out. That's not what I'm after! I want it proved, don't you see? Any crackpot notion might be presented to Sheldrake, or that Davenport girl, and tried out and it wouldn't mean anything. Just that the guy who presented it knew how to coax and flatter. This thing is mine. It's solid! It's good! I want to shove it down their throats, not have it put over on account of anyone's influence."

He lowered his voice, apologetically. "Oh, the deuce with it! I could have pussyfooted around, pulling strings, but I thought the hard way was better. So that leaves me holding the bag, and it leaves him laughing."

"How could you have pulled strings, Anthony?" "There are always ways..." He was striding to the Budget Department, and she had to run to keep up with him. "Never mind. Our idea's down a sewer. But I won't give up! I'll get another idea sometime!"

BEATRICE realized then that she couldn't march into Bruce Sheldrake's office in the high-handed, devastating manner she had envisioned a moment ago. Something Anthony had said, a moment ago, stuck in her mind. "I want it proved."

She wanted her conclusions about this store proved, too. Just to descend on Mr. Sheldrake, screaming that the store was fearless and unjust, could too easily be put down to a temperamental vagary, she saw slowly. He'd soothe her, he'd get oily and unctuous after she had summoned Mr. Weeming and the president of the trust company. But they'd all be like grownups handling a child in a tantrum. They wouldn't take her seriously.

The indignity of realizing how richly she merited not being taken seriously was like a cold slap of water in her face. "But all they know about me is that I was wildly extravagant, and bought Clarence an airplane and suits and a string of polo ponies. They think I'm spoiled, stupid, and criminally irresponsible."

Unconsciously, she had slowed down her pace behind Anthony Sheldrake in the crowded aisles. She stopped at a counter, now, and stared at a shining chromium toaster. "I've got to do this the hard way, like Anthony. I must have proof. How can I get it?"

THROUGH her mind there whirled half-remembered details of financial reports, profit statements, employe turnover, loss of work hours. . . . She couldn't straighten them out and realized, sadly, she wasn't fitted to cope with them.

"I need a lawyer. I need Weem! But I can't go to him now. He'd think, too, I didn't trust his former stewardship. . . . Only Mr. Weeming hadn't laid anything to do with the store. That was the trust company, and Mr. Sheldrake. I need a lawyer. I need a brilliant, honest, humane lawyer. I need someone to go into every nook and cranny and every single detail of the organization and operation of this store. Accountants, maybe. Personnel experts. Dozens of people. . . ."

Grandfather had always said, "Beatrice, the possession of great wealth is a tremendous, a solemn responsibility." She had never believed him. But now she stood at a counter of the store she owned, and tears stung her eyes. A voice inside her sobbed, "Oh, Grandfather, you were right! What shall I do?"

But What Really Worries Them Is Why Freshmen Fail

DENTON, April 3 (AP)—It won't be double talk but only a mathematician can understand it when they start discussing such things as "compact unicolor continua" here tomorrow.

Then, there is the matter of "quasi-analyticity and singularities of analytic functions." These are among the nine subjects up for discussion at the annual convention of the Texas section of American Mathematical association.

Conn-Barlund Bout Friday Night Due To Go 12 Rounds

CHICAGO, April 3 (AP)—Ring-side experts are attaching almost as many "ifs" to the Billy Conn-Barlund match as they are to the rounds set for the match tomorrow night—and virtually all agree it will go the 12-round limit.

The stylish Conn has a date with Champion Joe Louis in his next venture, so even Mike Jacobs shudders at an "if" Conn loses.

The New York promoter came to town yesterday and learned that a movement was on to bring the Conn-Louis fight here and immediately supplied another "if."

"It all depends on Friday night's battle," he said. "I want to see how Billy goes against a good big man and if Chicago fans think he has a chance to beat Louis."

U. S. To Spend $6,469,018 On Texas Airports

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—Plans of the government to spend $6,469,018 on 18 Texas civil airports during the 1942 fiscal year if funds were available were disclosed during hearings on the commerce department appropriations bill introduced today in the house.

Officials of the Civil Aeronautics administration submitted today a house appropriations subcommittee a breakdown of proposed expenditures throughout the country during the 12-month period beginning July 1. The improvements would be made on 250 fields deemed most vital to the national defense.

Twelve Texas airports on which improvements already are underway would receive $4,225,966 of the $6,469,018, the remaining $2,243,053 to be spent on an additional six airports unnamed in the list furnished to the committee.

The twelve which were named and the amounts each would receive for improvements next fiscal year follow:

Austin, $382,582; Big Spring, $87,000; Brownwood, $200,000; College Station, $144,283; Corpus Christi, $294,801; Del Rio, $196,000; Eagle Pass, $211,504; Galveston, $390,478; Houston, $317,000; San Antonio, $1,495,318; Sweetwater, $181,000; Waco, $354,000.

A probability that two of the six unidentified airports would be in San Antonio and Waco was seen in a footnote to the list submitted to the committee. The footnote said that subsequent to the airport development program of September, 1940 (when the 250 fields were selected from among 4,000 airports recommended for a long range development program of the CAA), national defense requirements indicated an additional airport was necessary at Waco and San Antonio.

Gulf Wins Decision In Rex Outlaw Case

AUSTIN, April 3 (AP)—The supreme court yesterday upheld a district court judgment which gave an instructed verdict for the Gulf Oil corporation, Clarence Scharbauer and the Federal Royalties company in their suit against Rex C. Outlaw over title to a strip of land in Ector county.

The court of civil appeals, which had reversed and remanded the case, was reversed.

The supreme court also ruled against the state, which claimed that the strip of about 10.6 acres was part of the public domain, had intervened.

Scharbauer owned sections 21, 22, 27, 28 and others in block 44, township 1 south, T. and P. Ry. survey, and under him the Gulf has a mineral lease. The Federal Royalties company are owners of royalty interest under the lease.

The plaintiffs sued for the strip as a part of sections 21, 22, 27, and 28. Outlaw claimed a permit on the strip issued by the state land office August 13, 1937.

Becker Elected Mayor

ST. LOUIS, April 3 (AP)—A Republican whose slogan was "smash boss rule" will replace two-term Bernard F. Dickmann, Democrat, as mayor of St. Louis.

William Dee Becker, judge of the St. Louis court of appeals, won yesterday's election 183,112 to 147,428 votes after a bitterly waged campaign in which he charged Dickmann with heading a "machine that tried to steal the governorship."

Federal Prison Dairy Barn At El Paso Cost U. S. $31,764

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—Congressional indignation over the construction of an ultra modern dairy barn on a federal prison farm in Texas was disclosed today.

The barn cost $31,764, including equipment to encourage cows to give more milk and for labor-saving devices. It was constructed on the La Tuna farm, near El Paso.

Publication today of hearings on the justice department appropriation bill revealed differences of opinion about the barn between James V. Bennett, director of the bureau of prisons, and some members of a house appropriations subcommittee.

Chairman Rabaut (D-Mich.), holding a report of the prison bureau before him, began:

"I want to talk to you about La Tuna. The report here says that $54,000 was spent for a cattle barn; that it had everything in it from soup to nuts, including facilities for baby cows, maternity ward, and the whole works.

"And there were no cattle in the whole place."

Bennett readily explained that there were no cattle or livestock there at the time the report was compiled because no appropriation had been made, but that subsequently the breed cattle had been transferred to La Tuna from other federal prison farms.

In defense of the barn, Bennett cited records showing that cows there were producing at the rate of 20,771 pounds of milk per year each in February, as compared with the average production of 5,000 pounds by the "ordinary run of the farm cow."

Bennett told the committee the bureau planned a dairy barn at El Reno, Okla., to cost $25,000.

Peru Attaches Funds Of Nazi Ship Firms

LIMA, Peru, April 3 (AP)—The national prosecutor today ordered attachment of bank deposits of the North German Lloyd and Kosmos Navigation companies, owners of two Nazi ships which escaped from Calao yesterday and of two others which were scuttled in that port.

He also ordered the attachment of funds of local agents for both companies and of Luft Hansa, the German air line, whose air base was taken over yesterday by troops.

Playwright Sees Own Comedy First Time In Cowtown

FORT WORTH, April 3 (AP)—Youthful George Batson, looking much like a school boy, sat in the audience last night and saw Ruth Chatterton perform in his play "Treat Her Gently."

It was the first time the 25-year-old Batson, bus-boy playwright, had seen a showing of his brainchild.

It also marked his first meeting with the star, a veteran of stage and screen.

The audience apparently approved Batson's comedy about New York sophisticates. There were five curtain calls.

Batson expects to see the play in Dallas tonight. He will go back to New York City from Texas to attend rehearsals for another of his plays, "Don't Mind the Rain."

Development Of 205 Airports Included In Bill

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—Funds to develop 205 airports and carry on other national defense activities were included in a $212,087,200 appropriation recommended today by the house appropriations committee to run the state, justice and commerce departments and the federal judiciary for the next fiscal year.

The committee, which devoted about nine weeks to exhaustive hearings on the department's needs, estimated that approximately $75,000,000 of the total was strictly for defense purposes.

Although the total was $31,016,989 below the sum available to the agencies for the current fiscal year, only $873,480 of the reduction was made by the committee. The budget bureau did the rest of the trimming in estimates submitted to the group.

In three instances the committee increased the budget estimates to provide additional funds for the civilian pilot training program, the justice department's anti-trust division and a minor increase for salaries of supreme court employees.

The bureau of investigation would get $16,450,000 under the bill, of which $8,750,000 is for such activities as counter-espionage and anti-sabotage work.

To enable the justice department to continue its anti-trust investigations, the committee added $750,000 to the budget bureau's recommendation for $1,575,000 for the department's anti-trust division.

The committee expressed hope that congress would legislate "that will effect a fair solution" of the problem of aliens against whom deportation warrants have been issued but whose fatherlands will not permit their return.
