

Nearly 100 Pampa Firms 100 Per Cent For Red Cross

Nearly 100 Pampa business and professional firms went all out for the Red Cross last week and around 1,500 Pampans took out membership in the Roll Call drive as Winston Savage, residential district chairman, announced that "You can be sure when you give to the Red Cross that you are saving the health and lives of young Americans who are enlisted in the armed forces of the U. S."

Then Mr. Savage related the dramatic story of how blood plasma from an American Red Cross volunteer had been credited by the Navy Department with saving the life of Leonard Frenetkowski, chief boatswain's mate, seriously injured aboard the U.S.S. Kearney, torpedoed by the ruthless Germans, October 16.

The plasma delivered far at sea by a navy patrol plane was used in three transfusions which a naval surgeon administered in a dramatic operation performed aboard the damaged destroyer.

Approximately 20,000 blood donations have been made to the Red Cross and have been turned over to the army and navy. It is estimated that 100,000 units are required for each branch to meet ordinary peacetime needs. Surgeons at the navy department emphasized the importance of giving to the Roll Call to provide the blood plasma needed to equip the ships of the fleet.

Of course, providing the blood plasma is only one of the thousands of services the Red Cross provides for the armed forces of the U. S. and her allies, Britain and Russia.

Recommendation that the Red Cross send large quantities of much needed medical equipment to the Soviet Red Cross was made to the U. S. Red Cross by Allen Wardwell, chairman of the mission sent to Russia.

And the reason that Pampa, nor any other city in America has no quota in the Roll Call is that the Red Cross is ON THE JOB at home and abroad and on the high seas—an angel of mercy administering to your son, your neighbors' sons and to your allies' sons.

Pampans are aware of their responsibilities and are joining the Red Cross in numbers surpassing all records of the past.

API Advisory Board Will Meet Monday

Advisory board members of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute will meet at 6:30 o'clock Monday night in the basement dining room of the Schneider hotel to nominate officers for 1942.

"It is imperative that every one of the 30 advisory board members be present at the meeting," Chairman Charlie Alford announced yesterday. "Some of the members have not attended a single meeting this year and we urge them to be present Monday night. All who cannot attend are asked to notify S. C. Hanks at the Humble Oil and Refining company, telephone 9024 F 2."

Final plans for the annual meeting, election of officers, and the dance and floor show at the Southern club the night of December 5 will be made at the Monday night meeting. A contract has been signed with one of the southwest's outstanding floor shows here for the annual meeting. Two orchestras, one to play modern music and the other to play old time music will be signed for the dance.

Texans See Entry In War Farther Away

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—Asserting he had a "fighting chance" of success, Saburo Kurusu, special Japanese envoy arrived here today for conferences intended to settle Japanese-American difficulties in the Orient and the Pacific.

Obviously worn by his long and hurried journey from Tokyo, he alighted from a plane at the Washington National Airport, was greeted by Kichisaburo Nomura, the Japanese ambassador, and told reporters:

"I realize the difficulty of my task, but so long as there exists such sympathy on the part of the people of the United States for Japan, I still have a fighting chance to make a success of my mission."

"If you were a betting man," Mr. Ambassador, a reporter said, "what would you say were the odds against you?"

"You'll have to be the bookmaker," Kurusu laughingly replied.

He had come to America, he said, to "assist—not to instruct." Ambassador Nomura, in the trying negotiations that lie ahead.

American officials as well as Kurusu were hardly inclined to minimize the difficulty of the emissary's mission. Japan is committed to economic, and if necessary, military domination of the Orient. The United States has told her in plain effect that her expansion can go no farther without risking a war with this country.

The unyielding attitude of the Tokyo government is generally considered here to have been expressed in a Tokyo newspaper controlled by the foreign office just before Kurusu's departure. It listed seven

Pampans Pitch Hard Cash On Penny Line

Pampans "laid pennies on the line" yesterday. It was the occasion of the Goodfellows club mile of pennies, an event held annually to send money with which to buy shoes, stockings and warm underwear for needy children of the city.

The Goodfellows placed white lines on downtown streets. On the lines Pampans placed pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters and even "folding money." One man placed a check on the line and when it was unfolded there was joy for it was for $10.

The Goodfellows met last night and "rolled" nearly $300 worth of coins and that wasn't nearly the full amount raised. "The balance will be counted early this week."

Dan Kennedy was chairman of the drive. Last night he expressed his thanks and the thanks of the Goodfellows for the wonderful response. Persons who would like to add to the fund may leave their contributions with F. A. Peek at the First National bank.

The Goodfellows club is composed of a group of big-hearted Pampans who see a need and who do something about it.

Hitler Has Lost His Blitz Pace, Say Reds

(By The Associated Press)

Destruction of 20 troop-laden German transports attempting a sneak-landing along the frozen wastes of the Murmansk coast was announced today (Sunday) by the Russians.

The report of this smashing success on the far northern front was accompanied by a Moscow radio announcement of another victory in the south—annihilation of 2,500 Italians in the Donets basin.

In its account of the Arctic victory, the Moscow radio said Russian troops made a forced seven-mile march across frozen tundra of the Murmansk region to foil the Nazis.

The Russians said Red army forces reached the coast a jump ahead of the Germans, who launched the abortive landing from the Rybachi peninsula, which juts out into the Barents sea from the Finnish-Russian border.

Before the Germans had a chance to land the Russians said they were destroyed by the point-blank fire of the Red forces.

Coupled with these reported successes at both ends of the front, the Russians declared that Adolf Hitler's invasion armies, huddling in trenches before Leningrad and Moscow, now have lost their lightning-war tempo for the first time since the fuhrer sent them rampaging into France and the low countries 18 months ago.

Thompson Will Address API Tuesday Night

Speaker at the Tuesday night meeting of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute will be Col. Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad commission who will speak on the present oil situation.

The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock in the city auditorium here.

The Tuesday night meeting will be one of the most important of the year and every member of the chapter, every oilfield worker in the Panhandle's field, and citizens in general are invited to attend the meeting and hear Col. Thompson speak on a subject of vital importance to everyone.

Entertainment, preceding Col. Thompson's talk will be presented by the Pampa Junior High school band directed by Ray Robbins. The band will present marches, overtures, and popular numbers in a 20-minute program.

Chairman Charlie Alford of the API chapter stated yesterday that because of the late date of securing a speaker, no notices of the meeting will be sent.

COLONEL E. O. THOMPSON, above, will be a special guest at the venison supper of Company D, Texas Defense Guard, to be held at 7 o'clock Tuesday night at the Schneider hotel.

400,000 In Soft Coal Mines May Quit Their Jobs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—Union officials raised the specter tonight of an industry-wide coal strike to bolster their demand for a union shop in the captive pits while President Roosevelt, determined that the coal must be mined, conferred with his army advisors.

A few hours in advance of the midnight deadline which John L. Lewis set—and stuck to—for expiration of the truce in the captive mine strike, a lieutenant served notice on the Illinois operators that "it may become necessary momentarily" to call out all the miners in that state.

The Illinois operators signed a contract lining up with the Appalachian agreement only Oct. 27, Lewis, as president of the CIO United Mine Workers union previously had warned the commercial operators under the eight-state Appalachian agreement with major producers that work might be stopped in the commercial lines if the captive mines held out against the union shop provision embodied in the Appalachian contract.

Thus the notification to the Illinois operators, served by Ray Edmondson, state miner's head, was viewed as the last step to solidify the miner's ranks for the gigantic blow—or bluff—of a complete coal mining shutdown.

Although the strike truce expiration was midnight tonight, the Sabbath holiday prevented any strike from actually taking effect until Monday morning.

Meanwhile representatives of the union and the steel companies, which own the captive mines, will make a last-minute stab at reaching an agreement with another conference tomorrow.

About 30,000 miners are covered by the Illinois agreement. However, it is fundamentally the same as the Appalachian agreement which covers about 350,000 commercial miners. And the implication was plain that the UMW would regard both in the same light.

"These agreements include clauses assuring the operators that the UMW will not make a contract giving other operators more advantageous terms.

Since these contracts provide for the union shop, the UMW contends that they would be violated if other operators were given an "open shop" contract.

At United Mine Workers headquarters, officials said Edmondson's action was in line with the policy established by Lewis last Sept. 16 when he notified all signatories to the Appalachian agreement that the captive mine dispute "imperils the integrity of their wage agreement."

"The United Mine Workers hope that it will not be necessary to bring the commercial production of the Appalachian area into the captive mine controversy but are prepared to do so if necessary."

Can You Tote A Tune In A Sack? Good!

By THE ROVING REPORTER

If you can "carry a tune in a sack," so to speak, you are invited to attend the first rehearsal of the first all-Pampa production of the Messiah, Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Junior High school auditorium.

It is well known that if all Pampa singers who can really sing will "give" and give all they have, Pampa can sing the beautiful, soul-stirring Messiah which tells the tender and loving Christmas story, in a manner that would sweep the audience off its feet when it is staged in December.

This year, tired of importing veteran but less capable singers from Amarillo, Pampans who usually push the Messiah, have decided to show the world that Pampa talent doesn't need to take a back-seat to anybody.

The rehearsal was set at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Edgar Henshaw, chairman, Thursday eve-

Hair Strands New Evidence At Monterrey

MONTERREY, Nov. 15 (AP)—Mexican police said tonight they were investigating new evidence in the death of the wealthy Kalanazoo, Mich., widow, 65-year-old Mrs. Ada Loveland, whose second husband, Arthur Torrance, maintains she died in a motor car accident near here a week ago.

Richard Loveland, Los Angeles attorney and son of the dead woman whose body is to be exhumed tomorrow, has filed a written accusation of foul play against Torrance, identified by police as a New York explorer and tropical disease expert.

Everisto D. Garcia, assistant chief of state police, said the new evidence included strands of curly black hair found in fragments of a broken thermos bottle taken from the Torrance automobile.

Garcia said he would compare the strands with Mrs. Torrance's hair after Monday's exhumation. His plans to exhumate the body today.

Hunters Warned Not To 'Flush' Cattle

Scattering of cattle by duck hunters has been reported to county officials and unless the practice stops immediately, charges will be filed. Farmers have complained to County Attorney Joe Gordon that their cattle are losing weight from being run by duck hunters.

One farmer said that he had 100 head of cattle in a field and that he estimates they lost 50 pounds a head in the past two weeks.

No further warnings will be issued, the county attorney said yesterday.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—The stock market emerged from another disappointing week with leaders unable to show much in the way of recovery power.
At the start of the brief session the list exhibited scant inclination to extend yesterday's brisk rally. While scattered favorites managed to rack on fractions many issues soon slipped behind minus signs and closing trends were well mixed.
The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was unchanged at 39.7 but on the week was up 0.6 point. It was the third successive weekly decline. Volume of 353,910 shares was the best for any Saturday since early October and compared with 288,780 a week ago.
Stocks were around as talk was heard of a new drive for "union shop" and higher wages in this industry. Ralls were steadier, partly because of growing belief that the threatened walkout of carrier workers would be averted by Washington. Rubbers and a few specialties edged upward as earnings prospects brightened for some companies.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15 (AP)—Soybean prices crashed the 6 cents daily limit against the market making the 10-cent weekly market has slumped as much as trading rates in one session.
This upset the grain market, causing wheat, corn and rye quotations to tumble about two cents, but strains recovered a part of the loss later. Beans closed with December 210 1/2 or about 1 1/2 cents lower than a week ago.

serving all rights to do so when necessary to preserve the integrity of the contract' Lewis' Sept. 16 notice said.
"This letter constitutes formal notice of the right of the United Mine Workers to invoke at will the protective wage clause of the joint agreement."
The decision of the policy committee not to recall orders for a strike at midnight in the "captive" mines was on the grounds that there was no agreement covering further work.
"We might have no contract after midnight," Lewis said.
The miners president referred to the temporary agreement, expiring at midnight, which ended the three-day strike in October affecting 53,000 miners.
"There'll be no coal mined Monday unless an agreement of some kind is reached Sunday," another member of the policy committee said. "We don't need to issue a strike call. Our men can't work after the contract expires."
Lewis reported to the policy committee on an earlier three-hour conference with officials of the steel companies. He told reporters that the discussion between the UMW and steel industry representatives had covered a wide range but that no conclusions were reached.
President Roosevelt asked yesterday that these discussions be continued until Monday and a report made to him at that time. He also said that continued production of coal was a national necessity.
With the UMW apparently determined to halt production unless it is given a union shop contract, some early move by the White House was expected.

JAP THINKS

demands which Japan was making upon the United States and said this country must accept them or "face the alternatives."
The list called for such things as an end of American assistance to China. China must be advised to make peace with Japan. Military and economic encirclement of Japan must end. Japan's sphere in the Orient must be recognized and the Japanese puppet state of Manchukuo must be recognized. The United States must unfreeze Japanese credits, rescind restrictions on commerce and shipping, and restore trade treaties with Japan.
Plainly, most of the demands are unacceptable to the United States, and American yielding on any point could be expected only in return for sweeping Japanese concessions.
Kurusu is to see Secretary of State Hull on Monday. It was indicated he would spend tomorrow conferring with Nomura.

Scout Rally Day To Be Held In Pampa Nov. 27

Boy Scouts, Cubs and scouters of the Adobe Walls council, comprising 10 Panhandle counties and three counties in the Panhandle of Oklahoma, will gather in Pampa November 27, Thanksgiving Day, for a mammoth Scout Day Rally. Seven hundred men, women and boys are eligible to attend the rally, and each of them will receive a letter of invitation this week.

In order to attend events of the day, each Scout, Cub and scouter must have his 1941 registration certificate in his possession.
The program will begin at 9 a. m., with registration in the city hall. At 10:30 a. m., an All-Scout parade will be held. Eligible to parade will be Scouts, Cubs and their leaders, troop committeemen, Den Mothers, council and district officers and scouters.

Immediately following the parade the marchers will be guests at a free picture show at the LaNora theater.
A free dinner will be served all having certificates. The dinner will be in the Junior High school gymnasium given by Pampa Scouts and scouters.

The same registration card will admit all to see the Pampa-Borger football game free of charge.
Scouts and Cubs having uniforms are asked to wear them but uniforms are not necessary.
The Scout Day here is being held in place of sending the Scouts to Canyon to the Panhandle-wide rally. Reason for the local program is to keep Scouts from driving to and from Canyon at night.

Pacific R. R. Head Dies

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15 (AP)—A. D. McDonald, president of the Southern Pacific railroad, died today. He underwent an abdominal operation Thursday. He was 63 years old. A native of Oakland, Calif., (April 14, 1878), McDonald entered the employ of the Southern Pacific as a clerk at Houston, Tex., in 1901. He became president in 1932. His father, Angus McDonald, was construction superintendent of the same railroad for many years.
The widow survives.

Deeper Oil Wells Forecast In Decade

DALLAS, Nov. 15 (AP)—Oil wells drilled to a depth of 20,000 feet may be common within the next 10 years, John M. Shiner of Equipment Engineers, Inc., Dallas, today told the American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors.
They will be taken to that depth "at least when economic conditions warrant deeper exploration," he added.

Other speakers included J. E. Brantly of Dallas, association president; C. W. Delaney of Houston; H. A. Pickens of Fort Worth, and Harry L. Edwards of Houston.
Col. E. O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad commission, will be the principal speaker at a banquet tonight. The association is holding its first annual convention.

Oil Allowable Up From Last Week

AUSTIN, Nov. 15 (AP)—Average daily allowable for Texas oil wells in the week ended today was 1,540,517 barrels, up 4,456 from last week, the Railroad Commission reported.
The permissible was $5,817 barrels in excess of the U. S. Bureau of Mines recommendation for 1,454,700 barrels needed for Texas market demand.

Engineers calculated actual production was 31,899 barrels above the bureau standard because of a normal monthly production of 3.5 per cent less than allowable.
The number of wells increased 90 to 98,516.

Outstanding Job

The attitude of shippers of commodities toward the railroads was well expressed recently by A. W. Vogtle, president of the National Association of Shippers Advisory Boards, in a statement to the Association of American Railroads.

"We desire to express our deep admiration of the outstanding job being done by our railroads," he said. "We recognize that railroad executives are standing out like giants in this period of stress, strain and confusion."

"We regard as senseless this talking of the need for a federal administrator for the railroads when you have such outstanding leadership in your Association. These practical and experienced leaders have the support of the individual railroads and the confidence of the shippers."

"The relationship of the railroads and shippers, through their Advisory Boards, is the outstanding example, I think, of business cooperation."

"We are not only interested in adequate service, but we are also interested in the welfare of the railroads, and we are concerned with any burden that might increase railroad cost without public benefit. . . . The maintenance of adequate transportation is vital, with every activity depending utterly and absolutely on transportation."

There is no hot air in this kind of praise for the railroads. The work they are accomplishing is the result, not of good fortune, but of twenty years of careful planning and preparation for precisely such an emergency as we face today. And today the railroads are planning and building for the greater emergency that may lie ahead.

The railroads must not be subjected to political and labor logrolling which endangers their strength and ability to serve the nation efficiently and at reasonable cost. That would be the surest way to produce a transportation crisis that would be ruinous to this country. Given fair treatment, the railroads will continue to do their job well.

Too Much Government

A determined effort to extend virtually limitless political control over two basic natural resource industries—oil and coal—is underway.

As it happens, these are two of the industries which have been most successful in meeting the extraordinary demands imposed by the defense program. Their managements have proven themselves to be fully aware of the seriousness of the emergency. This country is singularly blessed in the magnitude of its oil and coal deposits—and in the character of the industries which produce those essential energy resources.

There is no excuse for a political dictatorship over industry when private enterprise is doing its job properly. The experience of the past has been that politically-dominated industry is far less efficient, far less productive, than privately-owned and publicly-regulated industry. The American people don't want the emergency used as an alibi to justify any more extension of government power than is absolutely necessary.

Something To Cheer About

The wallers and mourners, monkey-wrench crews, and gone-to-the-bow-wows schools of thought may now emerge from the alleys and dark places to which they consigned humanity. There's some good left in poor battered old humanity after all.

In Cleveland, almost one out of every two persons felt neighborly enough to contribute to the Community Fund. They felt it so much that the $3,350,000 goal was exceeded by $1,332 for the first over-the-top in the nation's sixth city since 1936. And this in a year of mounting taxes, higher prices, uncertainty.

All this came to pass, too, while the land rocks with charges that every other person depends upon the government for a living. Evidently a good many Clevelanders will get bread and shoes from their friends, not from a government bureau.

Anyway, it's a mighty fine feeling to have some reason to thump each other on the back and shout: "Brother, there's one part of the world left that isn't going to the dogs."

THE RAIL WAGE REPORT (Wall Street Journal)

Within the 30 days the law allows for acceptance or rejection by the railroads and their employees of the recommendations of the President's fact-finding board, the decision will be made whether the Government is to take over the railroads for operation during the defense emergency—or longer. If the rail unions go on strike, they will have done so because they want Government operation and think they can control the Government.

It may be that the train crew brotherhoods have this decision in their own hands. Whether they have or not depends upon the force with which public opinion can be brought to bear upon the question and upon the promptness with which it asserts itself.

In either case the country is now anxiously waiting to learn whether railroad transportation as a private enterprise is to be the first great economic casualty of an undeclared war. If it is, there will be like casualties for like reasons.

As for the report itself, it is unanimous and it discusses the issue frankly. Its recommendations would increase the wage bill of the roads by something between $275 and $300 million annually. As their net operating income (before fixed charges) this year has been esti-

Common Ground

"I speak the plain-word principle, I give the sign of democracy, by God! I will accept nothing which cannot have their counterpart of on the same terms."

EFFECTS OF PRICE FIXING AND PRIORITIES

The government contends that there isn't enough waste paper to go around and has ordered the paper mills to reduce their consumption by 10 per cent. Government reports indicate that further cuts may be ordered later.

Waste paper is used around the house for various purposes, such as building fires, lining pantry shelves, putting under carpets and wrapping garbage. It is the basic raw material of the manufacture of boxes, cartons and containers. Cardboard and building boards are among other products made of old papers.

The ink cannot be taken out economically enough to make old papers again useable in the manufacture of white print paper.

The reason there is a shortage of old papers and the paper board industries have to be curtailed is because Leon Henderson, the Price Administrator has fixed the price at which waste paper can be sold. He has fixed the price at a figure so low that the housewife and the junk man cannot afford to make extra efforts to get more old papers. For this reason, Mr. Donald Nelson, the Priorities Administrator, has placed waste paper under priorities. Of all things to be put under priorities, waste paper, it would seem, should be the last. Henderson keeps down any price and Nelson, finding a shortage, says who may use the limited amount.

It just shows how far-reaching any attempt to set prices goes. It means that the people who have money do not have the right to trade their money for what they believe will give them the most pleasure or benefit. In short, it means eventual complete regimentation on everything consumed by man, the economy controlling Russia and Germany.

And yet, we want to go to the rest of the world and establish the four freedoms, when we are losing them so rapidly in our own country. Inconsistencies, contradictions, absurdities, dead-end dilemmas mean nothing to the New Dealers. They mean nothing to the New Dealers because they know no rules, no God, no principles, but their own changeable will.

INFLATION, REGIMENTATION, OR GOVERNMENT ECONOMY

We cannot consume more than is produced. Simple arithmetic tells us that one of three things must happen in America. We will have either inflation, or complete regimentation, or government economy.

Inflation is one way of curtailing the consumption of part of the people. Regimentation is another way. And inflation and/or regimentation is an inevitable result when the government keeps constantly growing.

Never, since this nation was established, has our government done as much to harm its citizens, instead of protect them, as it is doing now. Inflation or regimentation is a natural result of what our government has been doing. It will do untold harm.

At about $11 billion and net income (after charges) at about $540 million, the impact of the proposed wages on earnings is clearly considerable. "We must assume," the board says, "that the agency with control over traffic rates will give full recognition to the costs that ensue from any change in the level of wage rates."

It is unthinkable that public opinion would support a general suspension of rail service by strike, if the union executives were disposed to attempt it. We seriously doubt that they are. For if they struck and so forced Government operation they would presumably gain larger immediate or early wage advances. But it would always be remembered against them that they took advantage of this national emergency to gain their ends and set other labor organizations that evil example.

If we may judge by the past, the prospect for railroad owners is none too cheerful. Freight rate or passenger fare increases, or both, would prove only measures of temporary relief, as they have in the past. But the position of railroad owners is not here the main issue. The wage claims of the railroad employees have been submitted to a board chosen for impartiality and for their awareness of the wage worker's needs and aspirations. The board has offered what its members believe to be a fair adjustment of wages for the period from September 1, 1941, to December 31, 1942, after which the question will again be open.

We do not see on what reasonable ground their recommendations can be rejected.

A SORRY CHAPTER (Fargo Forum)

Secretary Morgenthau, at a recent press conference, said that the government was considering a new plan for financing which would centralize all borrowing in its own hands, and such a move, the late, would be very much worth while. If this should go into effect, it would bring about the end of the double budget, and that has been a sorry chapter in the government's financial record of the last few years.

It hasn't given the people a clear picture of what has been going on.

In discussing the Morgenthau statement the Baltimore Sun says: "The double budget was set up when the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the Commodity Credit Corporation, and other agencies of like nature, were authorized to borrow whatever funds they needed independently of the treasury and to spend without reporting their expenditures thru the regular federal accounts. In the 12 months which ended last June, for example, the autonomous corporations borrowed $1,126,000,000 in the open market, which did not count under the debt limit. They spent whatever funds they needed for defense production, but it did not show under the head of national defense in the treasury statements, and it did not figure in the deficit."

In short, treasury statements have not been showing the government's financial status. "By the devious and unnatural process of permitting these public agencies to finance themselves," says the New York Herald Tribune, "nearly $1,000,000,000 in debt has been created which, because it consisted of contingent instead of direct liabilities—was not included in the government debt, and so was not covered by the debt limit provisions of the law."

Mrs. Roosevelt

We have long regarded Mrs. Roosevelt as a woman of great character and high ability. She has not an appropriate subject for editorial comment. Any average First Lady, we believe, should be considered above newspaper criticism as a general rule.

Promises of 1940; 1941 Explanation

Mrs. Roosevelt, however, has made herself more than an average First Lady. She travels everywhere, exercises her large compassion in numerous causes, writes a daily syndicated column, runs a radio program, conducts a question-and-answer department in the Ladies' Home Journal.

So we think it is legitimate to discuss one of Mrs. Roosevelt's current utterances; namely, her attempt, in the current Ladies' Home Journal, to explain away the President's promises made in the 1940 Presidential campaign. We first learned of this item in Doris Fleeson's "Capitol Staff" dispatch to yesterday's News.

Some reader of Mrs. Roosevelt's asks her to ask Mrs. Roosevelt, "Who Has Borne The Attacking?" Mrs. Roosevelt is laying the foundation for a plea that we have been attacked, the answer is this: "The U. S. destroyer Greer, 'attacked' Sept. 4, had been chasing the Greer to drop the depth bombs. The U. S. destroyer Kearny, wound'd by a torpedo Oct. 17, had left one convoy to take part in another convoy's battle with submarines and before being struck dropped depth charges."

The U. S. destroyer Reuben James, torpedoed and sunk Oct. 30, was on some kind of North Atlantic duty, and already got two subs and maybe more. This is not conclusive evidence—maybe the boy was bragging—but both Kearny and James were acting under the President's Sept. 11 order to shoot first at all German and Italian vessels spotted in waters deemed "necessary for American defense."

Our ships have done the attacking; the Germans did not start it. The last thing Hitler would want to do now would be to force us to declare war on him. These attacks have been committed by our ships under orders from our President, without a declaration of war by our Congress. The "we are attacked" explanation does not hold water.

The President could justify these attacks, these violations of his campaign promises, if he could show that circumstances since the promises were made had changed seriously for the worse as regards our national safety.

The fact is that circumstances have changed greatly for the better. Hitler and Stalin were considered allies in the Fall of 1940. They are now fighting a bloody war, in which Hitler has lost hundreds of thousands of his best men, with the Russians still in it. Hitler wins, he will be spread out over Europe and much of Russia, and his present troubles with Norwegian, French and Serb saboteurs will be multiplied. He will have a lot of digesting to do before ready for another campaign.

Nevertheless, the President keeps pulling us into this war. With his command over the Army and the Navy and the enormous federal patronage, it seems impossible that he will ever be impeached by Congress. We think, however, that he will be impeached in due course by history.

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 15—Behind the screen: Top executives of a studio got an awful shock when they viewed two pictures just completed by a producer and a showman who had been shunted into the job by meddling eastern bankers. Now the fellow will have a nice long vacation, sitting out his contract at $1,500 a week.

Don't worry, you won't be asked to see the pictures in anything like their present form. Someone remarked that the films would bring lots of people to theater boxoffices, all right—but only to get their money back.

That must have been the producer who strode into his first story conference and snapped at the writers: "Now tell me the whole thing in detail—but be brief!"

Reginald Gardiner is beating Charlie Chaplin's time with Hedy Lamarr. . . . Franchot Tone and Jean Wallace will have a belated, but otherwise old-fashioned honeymoon, at Niagara Falls. Happens to be Tone's home town. . . . Reports are persisting that Wendell Willkie will be offered a top role in the movie industry.

Community Chest campaign was launched with stultic mass meetings, executive speeches, and the warbling of "Share a Little," a song especially written by E. Y. Harburg. Mr. Harburg, now being helping to pry several million dollars out of Hollywood, once wrote "Brother, Can You Spare a Dime?"

THE WILD WEST

Hollywood suddenly has realized with a touch of pride that it no longer is an ill o'clock town. Traffic signals used to go dark before midnight, and everything along the boulevard was closed except a few bars and beereries and the loud mouths of morning paper news-writers. Now, about 12:30 a. m., begins a rush of traffic as thousands of aircraft workers come through the changing of the first night shifts at Lockheed and Vega. These men held their own dance this morning, starting at 1 o'clock. And theaters are beginning to offer owl shows opening at the same hour.

Douglas Dumbrille, vacationing in Utah, got a hurry call to return to work in "Helicopter Harry." Racing to Hollywood, he wrecked his car, had another narrow escape in a rented machine, and finally arrived to find he was wanted for just one scene—a scene in which he characteristically shot in the back and killed. . . . It took 'em 30 working days to do the job, but Warners finally massacred Errol (General Custer) Flynn and his cavalrymen. The battle of the Little Big Horn probably lasted less than one hour.

FOLLOWS FATHER

In makeup as weird as anything his father ever wore, Lon Chaney, Jr., will play half man-half wolf in "Destiny." . . . Babe Ruth has signed to play himself in Sam Goldwyn's picture about Lou Gehrig. . . . Mickey Rooney, who wants to be a film director, is to spend without reporting their expenditures thru the regular federal accounts. In the 12 months which ended last June, for example, the autonomous corporations borrowed $1,126,000,000 in the open market, which did not count under the debt limit. They spent whatever funds they needed for defense production, but it did not show under the head of national defense in the treasury statements, and it did not figure in the deficit."

The history of conducting can be traced back at least to the 15th century when it was customary to beat time at the Sistine Choir in Rome with a role of paper called a "Sol-Fa."

TCU DAVILS MURDER TEXAS COLIATHS IN 14-7 DEBACLE

Curtain Falls On Former 'Invincibles'

By RAY NEUMANN
AUSTIN, Nov. 15 (AP)—Texas Christian played David to Texas' Goliath today, smashing into 14-7 defeat a team which two weeks ago rated No. 1 in the nation and seemed irresistibly headed for a major bowl game.

Thus curtains fell on the saga of the "Invincible Orange Wave" which, once hailed the greatest University of Texas team in history, today made ashes of its Southwest conference championship hopes and bowl game dreams.

Sparked by Quarterback Emory Nix, whose good right arm was deadly on passes, and Dean Bagley, 154-pound tailback who chased 56 yards through the entire Texas team for the first frog marker, the Christians ripped to shreds the vaunted Longhorn defenses and stifled their scoring power.

Both clubs played a raging defensive game. Ball carriers frequently were snowed under for losses. The Texas resistance crumpled, however, in the dying moments of the tilt when, with only eight seconds left, TCU scored the winning marker.

The Christian drive started with a 33-yard dash off tackle to the Longhorn 33. Then Frank Medaniel, who frequently ripped through for sizeable gains, got five and Nix added four. After a loss and several incomplete passes, Nix hurried one for 19 yards to Van Hall, standing just over the goal line.

Phil Roach added the extra point and ruined the record of a Steer team which had won six titles by overwhelming scores before being tied, 7-7, by Baylor last week.

The first lone marker came late in the Texas' lone march when, after a TCU punt to the Steer 36, the Longhorns executed a brilliant play which wound up with Jack Crain lateral-ing to Pete Layden who turned on the speed down a sideline and outran the Frog secondary over the goal. Crain punted the extra point.

It was Dean Bagley, stealing the show from Crain on broken-field wizardry, who tallied the Frogs' initial score just before the half-time whistle.

Starting on his own 45, he tried to pass but couldn't find an open receiver. Then he changed his mind and ran with the ball, zigzagging the entire route over the goal line. Several times it appeared he was stopped, but he staggered on. It was a magnificent exhibition of pace changing, side-stepping and sid-armin'.

Statistically, Texas Christian outshone the Longhorns, totaling 147 yards on the ground to the Steers' 119 and annexing 59 by air to the losers' 29. Both teams completed six passes, the Frogs trying 17 to Texas' 18.

Both Crain and Layden, who gave

Tulsa's Air Blitz Beats Baylor 20-13

By BEN FUNK
TULSA, Okla., Nov. 15 (AP)—Kay-lor's Bears battered themselves into tattered uniforms as Tulsa's defenses for three periods today, then crumpled before swift aerial assaults that netted the Golden Harvesters two touchdowns and a 20-13 victory.

Trailing 13-7 as the game went into the final period, the Hurricane struck fiercely with little N. A. Keithley hurling bullet passes that swalloped the yardage to the Baylor goal in huge chunks. Keithley pitched one touchdown pass to big Colvin Purdin and scored the other himself on a one-yard line smash.

Jack Wilson, Baylor's great quarterback, and Jack Russell, its powerful end, were held out of the game by injuries but the wounded Bears fought savagely and a crowd of 14,000 was kept on its feet constantly as the thrilling contest surged back and forth.

Kitt Kirtrell, the sophomore sensation who took Wilson's place to command the attack which halted the victory march of Texas, led the Bears on several rampages deep into Tulsa territory but the Hurricane defense was too stout in danger zones.

Tulsa took an early lead as Glenn Dobbs, rangy Tulsa passing ace, dropped back to pass, spied an opening in the Baylor line, dashed through it and galloped 51 yards for the touchdown.

Baylor broke back into the running in the second as alert Albin Murski crashed through to block an attempted punt by Dobbs on the Tulsa 24. He pursued the bounding ball back to the Tulsa four and recovered and from there Dwight Parker slipped through for the touchdown. Bill Coleman failed to convert.

Gaining strength against Tulsa's outwitted forward wall, the Bears took the lead in the third on a 60-yard power march. Buddy Gatewood intercepted a Tulsa pass and plunged by Kirtrell and Milton "Freight Train" Crain, along with a 22-yard pass from Travis Nelson to Aubrey Bailey, who took it beautifully off his shoestrings, brought the touchdown.

The accounts of themselves in the violent battle, left the field before the game was over; Crain with a leg injury. Kyle Gillespie, the Christians' great back whose injured leg kept him side-lined a number of games, played briefly late in the contest.

For a large part of the second half, the Steers kept the Frogs in their own territory, frequently forcing them to punt from behind their goal line.

Sterling guard and tackle play and rushing the passer accounted to a great degree for the Texas losses.

Thus ended a five-year dream. It was five years ago that D. X. Bible left Nebraska to take over the Longhorn gridiron fortunes. He built slowly but carefully. Last season at the finish Texas was acclaimed the strongest team in the Southwest. It had defeated mighty Texas A. and M. and trampled Florida.

It had lost but two games during the season.

Practically every critic picked Texas to win the championship this season. Even Bible said they were justified in making the Longhorns favorites.

For six games Texas rolled up scores of five and six touchdowns. It was the greatest team in the history of the Southwest con-

Aggies Pass Rice Dizzy To Win 19-6

HOUSTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—Texas A. and M.'s master craftsmen cranked up their magnificent passing machine today and assured themselves of no less than a tie for the Southwest conference championship as they rolled over Rice Institute 19-6.

The Aggies thus kept perfect their season's record while the University of Texas team was being buried beyond hope of resurrection by Texas Christian 14-7.

The TCU Horned Frogs remained the only team with a chance to share the title with the Cadets.

Heading towards a bowl bid, the marauding Aggies rushed over three touchdowns in the first half before the Owls realized their defensive power.

Rice wrestled valiantly in the second half, scoring a touchdown and beating off each effort by the Cadets, but it was too late to pull the chestnuts out of the fire.

The victory was the Aggies' twenty-eighth of their last twenty-nine contests, one of the grandest records in collegiate football history.

The combination of Leo Daniels and Cullen Rogers brought two of the Aggie scores and passing assisted in setting up another which was scored through the line.

The clash was 12 minutes old when A. and M. first tallied. Whitlock Zander, Rice fullback, fumbled on the Owl 42 and Bill Sibley, Aggie center, pounced on the ball.

Rice was penalized for defensive holding and Derrace Moser shot a 14-yard pass to End Jim Sterling which put the ball on the 14.

On the next play, Moser found no receiver and sped to the four. Then he drove to the one-foot line and Dennis Andricks, fullback, plowed over. Jake Webster kicked goal.

The second period had just opened when Leo Daniels' great little sophomore back, sprinted 51 yards with a Rice punt, dancing like a fakir on hot coals as he shot down the sideline avoiding Rice tacklers.

After he stopped on the Owl 24, Daniels fired a pass over the second touchdown.

Less than a minute remained in the first half when Webster shot a 45-yard pass to Sterling on the six. Daniels then chucked to Rogers again for the last score.

Rice drove 69 yards in the final quarter of its tally. Passes from Dick Dwelle to Zander and Bill Blackburn, sophomore back and center, lofted the Owls to the Aggie 31. Little Barron Ellis churched 11 yards to the 20; Dwelle picked up three and ran the ball.

Rice's center, who had been out of the line the last couple of weeks, plowed over after three line smashes.

Phillips opened the fourth quarter in the White Deer territory with Hall punting out of bounds inside the 10-yard line three different times after White Deer's defense rose to new heights. Late in the period D. Jackson ran 35 yards and lateraled to Waldrep who crossed the goal line.

Phillips' second team was inserted into the game and White Deer made its only touchdown when Hourigan roared 20 yards around end after Milton and Urbanczyk had gained consistently through the line. Hourigan kicked the extra point.

Offer To Buy Oilers Refused
A spokesman for a group of local baseball fans submitted an offer to purchase the Pampa Oiler franchise in the West Texas-New Mexico league yesterday but the offer was refused, owners announced.

Consideration offered was not revealed but owners said they were unable to accept the bid and that they would immediately make plans to continue operation of the club in 1942.

Last year the Oilers finished in seventh place after being in the first division most of the way.

Owners of the franchise said yesterday that they planned many radical changes in the local setup and that they would attend the league's annual meeting in Lubbock Sunday. At that time officers will be elected and a report of the 1941 season presented by Milton Price of Dallas, league president.

Phillips Wins Title, Beating Bucks 32 To 7

WHITE DEER, Nov. 15.—The Phillips Blackhaws, defending champions of District 2A and defending champions of Region 1A, successfully defended their district championship here Friday afternoon when they ran roughshod over a fighting White Deer team 32 to 7. It was their 20th consecutive victory in two years.

Coach Chesty Walker used straight power and speed to wear the Bucks down and then went on to win coaching. In D. Jackson and Waldrep, two halfbacks, the Blackhaws have two of the outstanding backs in Panhandle football circles, and that goes for Class A or Class AA. Time after time it took three and four players to get the pair off their feet.

White Deer put up a stubborn defense that stopped the Hawks in their tracks most of the first quarter. Then superior weight and speed began to tell and from then until the last of the game the Bucks were no match for their opponents who ran and passed for a total of 12 first downs while holding the Bucks to three. It was midway in the third quarter before White Deer registered a first down.

Waldrep Returns Punts
While Phillips used Jackson and Waldrep on nearly every play, the Bucks tried with all four backs, Milton, Hourigan, Urbanczyk and Morris. It was Hourigan's sensational punting that kept the score as low as it was but many of his boots were completely nullified by Waldrep's runbacks. Never once was the field back stopped under a 15-yard return and twice he romped 45 yards.

While Phillips had the weight and experience, it was a little White Deer end named Franks who stood head and shoulders above everyone on defense. There was just no going around his end and time after time he speared the ball carrier behind the line. He was ably assisted at times by Collins, big tackle.

Phillips failed to score until near the end of the first quarter when Waldrep intercepted a pass and five plays later he crossed the goal line.

The Hawks took to the air for a touchdown early in the second quarter with D. Jackson passing twice to Waldrep and then to Foster, who crossed the goal line.

Hall Hits Corners
Before another minute had passed White Deer fumbled, Phillips recovered on the middle field stripe, and D. Jackson passed to his brother R. Jackson who stepped out of the grasp of two tacklers and scampered for a touchdown. Waldrep ran the extra point across.

Play in the third period was all in White Deer territory with Hall punting out of bounds inside the 10-yard line three different times after White Deer's defense rose to new heights. Late in the period D. Jackson ran 35 yards and lateraled to Waldrep who crossed the goal line.

McLean Blasts Clarendon In 31 To 0 Rout

Special To The NEWS
McLEAN, Nov. 15.—Although statistics favored the Clarendon Bronchos they were no match for the McLean Tigers here Friday night, the Tigers winning 31 to 0.

Clarendon clearly outplayed the Tigers in the first quarter, twice getting inside the McLean 10-yard line where the Tiger defense rose up and held.

McLean finally scored in the second quarter when Lee romped 35 yards on two plays and then Cook passed to Dwight for the touchdown.

Before the half ended Cook slipped away from a gang of tacklers and romped 60 yards for a touchdown.

Clarendon again showed surprising power in the third quarter but in the fourth they faded and Cook passed to Lee and Dyer and Dwight went over. Lee came back with a pass good for 40 yards and a touchdown and Cook ran 50 yards for another score before the final whistle.

McLean will be host to the Shamrock Irish in their traditional battle next Friday night.

Starting lineup: McLean: McMullen and Batson, ends; Montgomery and Rolf, tackles; Boyd and Hill, guards; Jones, center; Cook, quarter; Dyer and Lee, halves; Dwight, full.

LeFors Beats Wellington To Win First Grid Title

The LeFors Pirates won their first district football championship Friday night when they hurdled their last obstacle, the Wellington Sky-rockets, by a score of 26 to 0. The victory gave the Pirates nine straight wins this season and with them the championship of District 2A and the right to meet strong Floyd in the bi-district playoff, probably on November 28.

Coaches Francis Smith and John Rankin sent a gang of Pirates into the game determined to let nothing throttle the tricky Wellington offense devised by Coach Scott McCall.

The Pirates have scored a total of 260 points in nine games while their opponents made only 60 points. Only 12 of that 60 was made through the sensational Pirate forward wall.

Fans of this area are hoping that LeFors and Phillips work their way to the regional playoff and that the game will be played in Pampa where plenty of seating space will be available.

TCU's Surprising Defeat Of Texas Shocks Nation

By HERB BARKER
NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Horned Frogs of Texas Christian completed a deflation job on Dana Bible's Texas Longhorns today and left Minnesota, Duke, Texas A. & M., Duquesne, and Notre Dame in the country's sale remaining major unbeaten football teams.

Held to a shocking tie by Baylor a week ago, Texas once more failed to find the winning combination and bowed to Texas Christian, 14-7, on a four point touchdown pass from Emory Nix to Van Hall.

This sensational upset left the door wide open for the Texas Aggies to snare the Southwest conference title once more. The Aggies safely hurdled Rice, 19-6, for their eighth successive triumph and now have only one conference game on the slate—a Nov. 27 meeting with Texas.

In the far west, Washington State's Giant killers engineered a major upset by nosing out Stanford, 14-13. This form reversal threw Pasadena's Rose Bowl plans into confusion for Stanford, although beaten once previously, had looked to be certain of a Rose Bowl berth for the second year in succession.

Oregon State nosed out California, 6-0, and Montana won from Idaho, 16-0, in other Pacific conference games.

Minnesota, the nation's No. 1 team a year ago and ranked in that spot in the latest Associated Press poll, hung up victory No. 7, a 34-13 triumph over Iowa's Hawkeyes in a hard-fought game. That saw injury-ridden Bruce Smith return to the Gopher backfield. The Gophers will complete their season's schedule next week against Wisconsin.

Duke, paced by Steve Lach, battered North Carolina over the season, 20-0, and now has only North Carolina State blocking its path to an unbeaten, untied season, and a probable bowl engagement. Duquesne, another bowl possibility, completed its regular schedule with a convincing 16-0 decision over Mississippi State, previously unbeaten, although tied by Louisiana State.

Notre Dame, unbeaten but tied by Army, pulled another close battle out of the fire, whipping North-eastern, 7-6, in a bitter engagement before a sell-out crowd of 48,000 at Evanston. Angelo Bertelli passed to Matt Bolger, sub end, for the Irish touchdown and Steve Juz-wik added the extra point which turned out to be decisive. North-western, smashing away at the Irish all afternoon, finally scored a touchdown, with Otto Graham carrying the ball across but the try for extra point was blocked and that was the ball game.

Meanwhile Missouri virtually clinched the Big Six title by routing Oklahoma, 28-0, as Marv Wade scored three touchdowns, while Alabama moved on toward the Southeastern crown with a 20-0 conquest of Georgia Tech.

In the east, Tennessee and Tulane chalked up intersectional victories for a hard-fought game conference. The former tripped Boston College, 14-7, thanks to a pass interception deep in Boston College territory.

More than 1,500 reserve seat tickets to the Pampa-Amarillo football game, to be played here Thursday, have already been sold. Approximately 2,000 more are available at the office of the school manager in the city hall.

Nearly all the seats between the 20-yard lines in the west stand have been sold and some seats inside the fence along the sidelines have also been taken.

A block of 3,000 reserve seat tickets has been sent to Amarillo and according to word received here last night they were in great demand yesterday.

Play in the third period was all in White Deer territory with Hall punting out of bounds inside the 10-yard line three different times after White Deer's defense rose to new heights. Late in the period D. Jackson ran 35 yards and lateraled to Waldrep who crossed the goal line.

Phillips opened the fourth quarter in the White Deer territory with Hall punting out of bounds inside the 10-yard line three different times after White Deer's defense rose to new heights. Late in the period D. Jackson ran 35 yards and lateraled to Waldrep who crossed the goal line.

Phillips' second team was inserted into the game and White Deer made its only touchdown when Hourigan roared 20 yards around end after Milton and Urbanczyk had gained consistently through the line. Hourigan kicked the extra point.

McLean Blasts Clarendon In 31 To 0 Rout

Special To The NEWS
McLEAN, Nov. 15.—Although statistics favored the Clarendon Bronchos they were no match for the McLean Tigers here Friday night, the Tigers winning 31 to 0.

Clarendon clearly outplayed the Tigers in the first quarter, twice getting inside the McLean 10-yard line where the Tiger defense rose up and held.

McLean finally scored in the second quarter when Lee romped 35 yards on two plays and then Cook passed to Dwight for the touchdown.

Before the half ended Cook slipped away from a gang of tacklers and romped 60 yards for a touchdown.

Clarendon again showed surprising power in the third quarter but in the fourth they faded and Cook passed to Lee and Dyer and Dwight went over. Lee came back with a pass good for 40 yards and a touchdown and Cook ran 50 yards for another score before the final whistle.

McLean will be host to the Shamrock Irish in their traditional battle next Friday night.

Starting lineup: McLean: McMullen and Batson, ends; Montgomery and Rolf, tackles; Boyd and Hill, guards; Jones, center; Cook, quarter; Dyer and Lee, halves; Dwight, full.

Clarendon: Thornburg and Taylor, ends; Wardlow and Clark, tackles; White and Gregory, guards; Spencer, center; Adams, quarter; May and Shaw, halves; Allison, full.

Mighty Mizoo Nicks Sooners In 28-0 Upset

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
COLUMBIA, Mo., Nov. 15 (AP)—Sophomore Maurice Wade, his flaming red hair bobbing up and down on the green turf like a red ball dangling from a Christmas tree, scored three touchdowns today as mighty Missouri crushed Oklahoma 28 to 0.

The Big Six football title and a possible bowl bid hung on the outcome, and Missouri, ignited by its TNT trio of backs, waltzed away with the honors before a record crowd of 29,000 homecoming rooters.

Wade was just a cog in the TIgers' powerful machine which was rated the nation's top running team last week and which proved its greatness today by rambling 303 yards to the Sooners' 83. Bounding Bob Steuber, a member of the yardage-crazy trio, had an average of 5.5 yards in 20 times with the ball. Harry Ice, the other unit, made 3.1 with 11 runs and Springy Wade was credited with 6 in 19 carries.

Missouri gave a hint of what to expect in a dazzling first quarter. Wade bounced out of the tricky T formation and weaved down the field for a 23-yard dash. The crowd had just caught its breath when Steuber caught gluey-fingered Bert Ekern, an end, with a 28-yard pass for another tally. Relentlessly, the Tigers scored again in the third and the fourth as the Sooners, streaming onto the fields in units, collapsed.

Steuber converted perfectly from placement after each touchdown.

Missouri, which has gained nearly a mile and a quarter by rushing in eight games, went into the air for the first time this year, but collected only 68 yards with three completions out of nine. However, the continuous overhead thrust puzzled the Oklahoma defense enough to make it leaky.

Missouri scored this way: Wade and Steuber dusted the ends and shot through the lines for 42 yards in six plays. Then Wade took a lateral from Harold Adams on a play out of the T, swung around end and reversed his field behind brilliant blocking for his 23-yard run.

On the same play, Steuber got away for 15 yards a few minutes later when Steuber 28 yards to Ekern who stepped over.

A 73-yard drive was climaxed by the third touchdown. Steuber and Wade again tore through the line and Wade uncorked a pass to End Don Greenwood that planted the ball on Oklahoma's 43. Steuber made 22 through the line. Wade picked up 7 and passed to Greenwood on the one. Wade burrowed over.

The identical play which scored in the first, worked again for the last touchdown. This time Ervin Pitts lateraled to Steuber for 13 yards and then to Wade who streaked 34 yards across the goal.

Bible Grim As Great Dream Collapses

AUSTIN, Nov. 15 (AP)—The swelling notes of the Eyes of Texas floated over the dusk-bathed gridiron.

A bald-pated man stood at the sidelines, his eyes strait ahead, his hat removed.

When the last note died, D. X. Bible, whose team toppled from the near-summit at the hands of a crafty and fighting T. C. U. crew was the first man to nudge his way through the throng.

Midway of the field he met Dutch Meyer.

"Your team put up a fine finish and it's the finish that counts. Congratulations."

Meyer, bubbling like a kid with his first red fire engine, managed this in reply:

"We were pretty lucky, D. X. It was a grand game."

To his own crew Meyer said, brimming:

"It was a great game. Bagley played marvelous ball and our entire line played a fine game."

In the Frog dressing room no holds were barred.

Little Dean Bagley, the boy with the swivel hips, was teased for a loss every time he moved. Frog line men and backs pummeled him with joy.

But Bagley put the praise where he thought it belonged:

"Oh you linsmen. Were you sweet."

In the Texas dressing room gloom was the keynote.

Bible, who takes things as they come, opined:

"We just didn't rise to the occasion. T. C. U. did and finished strong. I think both teams played a good defensive game."

"T. C. U. took advantage of every opportunity. Texas played reasonably well but was just not keyed up."

Bible said the defeat, coupled with the Baylor tie last week was a tough blow to the team and players but he was not forgetting things ahead.

Reminding that Texas plays A. & M. Nov. 27, he admonished:

"A victory there will soften the blow."

Masonic Home Games Forfeited

FORT WORTH, Nov. 15. (AP)—Four of Masonic Home's five 1941 district 7-AA football victories will be forfeited voluntarily at a WQQ meeting of the circuit's executive committee Monday morning.

Coach H. N. (Rusty) Russell of the Home said late today.

Russell and Masonic Home officials were unable to clear up the eligibility of Louis Burress, whose age has been challenged, and by forfeiting games to Paschal, North Side, Tech and Amon Carter will automatically hand the championship and right to meet Dallas, winner in bi-district to Carter.

Records at Masonic Home, furnished by Burress' mother and by the Masonic lodge, which authorized his entrance to the school when he was five or six years of age, show his birth date as Dec. 26, 1923.

Records on file at the Tarrant county court house, brought to light by un-named parties, show the boy's birth date as Dec. 26, 1922, which would make him ineligible under Texas Interscholastic rules.

Burress entered the Tech and Paschal games only long enough to hold the ball twice for extra point kicker Gordy Brown. He didn't play against Arlington Heights this week.

According to statistics compiled by The Conference Board covering about two million wage earners, the present wave of wage increases is the fourth since 1933.

Collins Runs And Passes For 40-7 Win Over Mines

EL PASO, Nov. 15. (AP)—Blazin' Ben Collins, one of the nation's scoring and rushing leaders, led his West Texas State Buffaloes to a 40-7 victory over Texas Mines today, scoring one touchdown on a plunge and passing for two more.

Collins, not content with that, kicked four extra points, to swell his season total to 132 points.

Long runs by the West Texans kept the Miners back on their heels all afternoon. Larry Sanders, fullback, skittered 24 yards for one counter, which was merely a warm-up for a 64-yard jaunt which netted another score.

Collins passed to J. W. Anderson for 37 yards and the first Buffalo touchdown. In the last quarter he pitched to Walter Word who scampered 15 yards for the score. Louis Conroy plunged over from the two for the final Canyon score.

The Miners drove 61 yards for their only touchdown. Owen Price, Miner star, swept left end for the score from the eight. Bill Shoopman converted.

The Miners powered close to the goal line two other times but were stopped cold.

Groom Crushes Happy 20 To 7

GROOM, Nov. 15—The Groom Tigers continued their march for a 6-man district championship here Friday by taking the Happy Longhorns 20-7. Happy, winner of the west section of the district, showed speed and drive, but were no match for the well balanced Groom team. The Groom boys scored 14 points in the first period of the game and were never threatened.

Happy received the opening kickoff and was held on downs. Groom blocked the punt and recovered. On the third play Halfback Whitley took a pass from Britten for the first score. Britten converted making the score 8-0. Later in the same period Groom blocked another Happy punt and Whitley took a short pass and ran 25 yards for the second score. The half ended 14-0.

In the early minutes of the second half, Andrews ran 60 yards for a score, behind good interference. Britten misce; the kick. Happy opened up with long passes in the last half. A long pass from Briggs to Lancaster placed the ball on Groom's three yard line. On the next play Bobby Lancaster threw a short pass to Simms for the only score made by Happy during the game. The last period was marked by Happy passes and Groom defensive work.

G. T. Webb and Bobby Lancaster did most of the work for the Happy team. Lancaster doing most of the passing. For Groom, no one player was a stand-out. The defensive work of Linsmen Chilton and Brown was good. In the backfield, the ball carrying of Andrews and Whitley was fine. Britten played a good game at quarter.

Howard Payne Beats A. C. C. 13 To 0

ABILENE, Nov. 15. (AP)—The air-minded Yellow Jackets of Howard Payne college bagged their ninth Texas conference football championship today, defeating Abilene Christian college 13 to 0 in the title game.

Home-run passes in the first and second quarters proved too much for the Wildcats, who relied on a vicious running attack that only once threatened the Howard Payne goal.

Early in the first period Howard Swann, Jacket fullback, ran under a pass from Tommy Samuels on the Wildcat seven. Two plays later Samuels chunked to Bob Stokes in the end zone for a score. Jones' try for point was wide.

Midway of the second quarter Stokes faded back from the A. C. C. 24 and hit Jim Jones, halfback, in the end zone. Jones converted to complete scoring for the afternoon.

Will Rogers Honored

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15 (AP)—A mile-long strip of ocean front at Santa Monica was designated today as the "Will Rogers Beach State Park," in honor "of the friend of the common people."

The California State Park Commission voted to thus name the sector after announcing purchase of Will Rogers property there and the addition of contiguous state property to the new acquisition.

Russia possesses about 72 per cent of the world's reserve of peat.

Just Between Us Girls

BY JOHNNIE DAVIS

PSALM 95

O come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.
Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms.
For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
In His hand are the deep places of the earth; the strength of the hills is His also.
The sea is His, and He made it: and His hands formed the dry land.

O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord, our maker.

Be thankful for the little things that always come your way... Thanksgiving is again this year plural... This is the last time Americans will have two Thanksgivings days on which to express their thanks as the original last Thursday in November will be proclaimed the day after this year... So that we might after a more special manner rejoice together... That was the reason for the first giving of thanks... When Pilgrims entertained the Indian King Massasoit and about 90 of his braves at the first Thanksgiving dinner in 1621, they were probably not aware that their "thanksgiving" would become one of the greatest of American holidays... However, like many another cherished custom that first Pilgrim Thanksgiving was by no means an original celebration. Moses, according to the Bible, had long before given instructions for a feast of Thanksgiving... In a year like this, Thanksgiving day finds us with much to be thankful for—and fortunately, much to be thankful with!

We thank thee, Lord
On this Thanksgiving Day,
That we may live
The American way.

Once again fathers have had an opportunity to show what capable speech-makers they are by taking part in the annual Fathers' Night Parent-Teacher programs presented last week at the various schools as part of the American Education Week observance... Too, out-of-town speakers including Dr. A. M. Meyer and Dr. A. C. Ellis of West Texas State college at Canyon, were Fathers' Night speakers.

With 39,000 soldiers to entertain regularly, San Antonio has instituted a week's course for young women on how to make friends with the military visitors... The instruction given under the auspices of the city's recreation supervisors... the pupils are recruited from churches and social service organizations... "Ice-breaking" songs, suggested conversational topics and parlor games are in the curriculum.

Friedly Patsy Dunigan is really an ambitious young lady... Patsy is busy knitting a royal blue sweater. Already she has made a red one... Making the most of her time, Patsy picks up her knitting every time she has a chance... Dressed in a dark green shirtdress frock with pleated skirt and wearing anklets, she is a typical-looking high school girl.

Want something to shoot at—some standards by which to measure your charms as you seek to increase them? Then score yourself by the qualifications of that modern American beauty, the airline stewardess. But first let me warn you: there's competition here!

Fact is, the airlines have to scout for talent just as Hollywood does. In the current issue of Flying and Popular Aviation, one of the scouts lists 22 tough questions, ALL of which have to be answered "yes" to qualify a girl to smile along the skyways. Outside of certain questions applying specifically to the job, this stewardess quiz should interest every woman!

Does your personality "sparkle"?
Do you walk and sit gracefully?
Are you attractive?
Do you get along well with fellow workers?
Poise?

Can you recognize when a person wants to talk and when he wants to be left alone?
And do you look well in hats?
The stewardess must also give an honest "No" to the important question: "Are you nervous?"
Notice that most of the charm-items are acquired characteristics; you grow them, rather than being born with them.
And it's never too late to start acquiring them.

The city of red jackets definitely is Plainview... Never has this writer seen so many flaming red jackets as the ones worn by girls and women in Plainview... Since the school colors are red and black, every school girl in the town seems to want a red coat.

On Armistice Day, J. B. U. G. particularly noticed some of the beauty of autumn in the late afternoon... trees loaded down with bright yellow leaves, vari-colored chrysanthemums blooming after the frost, sunshine on the canyons, fields of shocked grain, reflection of trees in streams, and a glorious sunset.

If Mrs. America is worried over the prospect of having to cut down on her clothes budget in the name of home economy she can stop worrying right now... One group of American women has already proved that standards of dress can be changed radically, without any loss in style... Only a few years ago, college girls dressed pretty much like other women. They spent their fathers' hard-earned cash on campus clothes that would have been correct on any city street. That is, they wore silk stockings, and the sheerer the better, hats, gloves, shoes that were positively flimsy compared to the kind they wear now, and as smart looking street dresses as they could afford.

Then all of a sudden they began to create their own styles—suitable for a campus. And when they did, they really began to save money... The silk stockings went first. Ankle ties were a satisfactory and much cheaper substitute. They also gave up hats, going in for scarfs and hoods and bare heads; and they passed up fragile, high heeled shoes in favor of saddle oxfords, that wear almost forever... They hit on sweaters and skirts as a kind of uniform, and so any girl who owned several sweaters and skirts could look well-dressed on almost any college campus in America... All any woman needs to keep in mind when she starts creating her own styles is economy and the fitness of the styles she adopts to the life she leads.

Fifteen University of Texas freshmen went to the head of their class last week with election of membership in Phi Eta Sigma, honorary scholastic fraternity for freshmen men... Formal initiation services were held recently for the 15 including John E. McConnell, now a sophomore Arts and Sciences student from Pampa... He satisfied scholastic requirements for Phi Eta Sigma last spring, while still a freshman... John Edwin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger McConnell. He is a graduate of Pampa High school.

Double bracelets of fresh flowers to glamorize the new opera-length gloves is one of the smart corsage fashions for holiday formal wear that is inspired by precocious jewelry designs... Pink camellias, carnations, roses, and spray orchids are featured in bracelet designs to contrast dramatically with black ensembles... Extra size blossoms manipulated from petals of familiar gladioli or roses are another new holiday flower fashion that can be wired anywhere in the country... The newest social enthusiasm is a giant rose that's devised from the choice petals of a dozen individual blooms... Exotic effects are achieved by combining pastel pink with deep red petals.

Hearing Ruth Bryan Owen speak on "Future Horizons for America" proved to be one of the highlights of the state convention of Texas Federation of Women's clubs for five Pampa women, Mrs. J. B. Massa, Mrs. W. R. Ewing, Mrs. L. J. McCarty, Mrs. Garnet Reeves, and Mrs. Charles Thut, who attended the four-day session in Dallas last week.

"If the war continues many months longer, lipstick and rouge will be extremely hard to get... If not entirely unobtainable, dealers in beauty aids warn... Thus the young man of today may soon enjoy a new and thoroughly delightful experience unknown since grandpa's time: a kiss flavored with nothing but girl!

Patriotic in dress is Nancy Graham, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Graham... Nancy wears an attractive red, white, and blue plaid coat with a matching hood... With her red, white, and blue dress she wears red anklets and a clever chard necklace in the same three patriotic colors.

Advice is the only thing some people ever give away... You can always tell a little person by the little things that make him feel big... Many people think conversation is simply a tedious and tiresome rehearsal of their uneventful daily doings... An optimist these days is a person who throws his mind into neutral and coasts on hope.

Two Pampa Co-Eds Study Agriculture

By FLORA LEE WILLIAMS
"I want a ranch of my own. And when I get it I want to know what to do with it."

And pretty Mildred Fambrough is finding out. The senior student from Breckenridge, one of three girls enrolled in the aggie division at Texas Technological college.

All of them have very definite reasons for their unusual courses of study.

Always Lived On Ranch
Miss Fambrough, who is a transfer from Oklahoma A. & M., has always lived on a ranch. She is "just one of the boys" and enjoys her course although she admits that it would be pretty tough if you didn't like it.

"Any other course would seem dull to me, but I do wish I could see girls more often than I do," said Miss Fambrough. She plans to go to medical school at Colorado A. & M., in Ft. Collins, when she receives her degree here.

Heidi Schneider from Pampa is also an interesting person. She is majoring in horticulture so that she may someday be a top-notch florist. She's a "Swiss Miss."

Heidi, as her name and appearance signify, is truly a "Swiss Miss." She came to America from Switzerland when she was about 6 years old and can still remember phrases of her life in the Alps. She hopes to visit in Switzerland again but considers the United States her home and wishes that her friends and she, across the Atlantic might be as lucky.

Another future girl rancher is Bonnie Lee Rose, also of Pampa. She is taking a course in animal husbandry so that when she gets her heart's desire—the ranch—she will be able to raise stock that will take "all the blue ribbons."

Bonnie has wrangled dudes at Eagle Nest, N. M., and has worked just as a regular "cowhand" on a ranch near Clayton, N. M. Her enthusiasm for outdoor life exceeds that of finding a prospective husband even.

Boys in the aggie division are beginning to believe that they were born 30 years too soon.
"Soon the girls will be doing the farming and the men will do the cooking and dish washing," is their prediction.
But they're not doing any complaining about their fair classmates.

V Notes RED CROSS VOLUNTEERS

The Red Cross flags flying all over town to remind people of the annual roll call were made by the Holy Souls Altar society and the Girl Scout troop sponsored by the Catholic women. Throughout the world, in peace and in war, that red cross on a plain white field, is a symbol of mercy and unselfish service to humanity. If you have not yet answered the call and enlisted in the greatest humanitarian army in the world, don't forget to join the American Red Cross tomorrow.

Thursday was a red letter day for Red Cross volunteers. On that day the cutting of garments for this quota was completed. Congratulations are certainly in order for Mrs. Doyle Osborne and Mrs. L. L. Davis, who supervised this big task. These women began giving two afternoons a week to this work back in March while they were still working on an earlier quota and have been at it ever since. And a number of other volunteers have been there working beside them nearly every afternoon. Mrs. Andy Meikle, Mrs. W. G. Kiner, and Mrs. Joe Shelton having been the most regular.

On Thursday the volunteers finished the quota of girls' woolen dresses, cut out 10 extra hospital bed shirts from material left over from our quota, and labeled and sorted a great many garments. Assisting in this work, in addition to those named above, were Mrs. E. L. Vaught, Mrs. Elma Burke, and Mrs.

Another afternoon a group of women met at the home of Mrs. Gene Sidwell and folded all the flannel bands for the layettes and put the safety pins in them according to Red Cross instructions. Present were Mes. Walter Sidwell, Ralph Sidwell, Farris Oden, O. Hampton, J. C. McWilliams, Bruce Walters, and Gene Sidwell.

Garden club members trimmed a large number of baby garments for the Red Cross at their luncheon meeting Friday. Mrs. Raymond McNally took some of the little gertrudes home to trim, and five of the women took girls' woolen dresses to make: Mes. Dan Williams, W. Purviance, H. B. Landrum, Luther Wilson, and R. D. Morris.

And still they come! Among new volunteers this past week were Mes. J. H. Fish, George Dyer, Stephen Denton, A. Swafford, E. L. Vaught, C. V. Weber, Charles Duenkel, and Miss Pearl Garen.

It's still going to take almost a miracle for us to complete our present quota by Dec. 31, which is just a little more than six weeks away; so every new worker is doubly appreciated these days.

Kellerville women are surely doing their share in the production program. This past week Mrs. Jack Boyd returned a complete layette

Even though the cutting is finished, the production room in the basement of the post office will continue to be open on the days formerly devoted to cutting, with Mrs. L. L. Davis in charge on Tuesday and Mrs. Joe Shelton on Thursday. Materials can be checked in and out any afternoon Monday through Friday, and on Wednesday morning. Also instruction and assistance can be obtained from the women in charge regarding knitting, crocheting, or sewing Red Cross garments.

Last week mention was made of a 10-year-old girl who had finished knitting a Red Cross sweater. Today honors go to a 70-year-old woman, Mrs. Ida Van, an invalid who spends her days in a wheel chair, who also has been doing her bit for the Red Cross by piecing quilt tops from scraps of material left from cutting out garments. She and three other women, Mrs. Emory Noblitt, Mrs. H. C. Coffee, and Mrs. C. L. Shearer, have just finished cutting and piecing two large quilt tops.

Someone with quilt frames volunteered to do the quilting when the tops were finished, but her name has been misplaced. If she will call the Red Cross office again, it will be greatly appreciated, as several quilt tops are now ready.

Mrs. Bruce Walters, who has merits, ready for shipment as fast as they are completed. One day recently the following girls from Girl Scout Troop 6 assisted in folding blankets: Billie Ann Moseley, Barbara Jean Shier, Wanda Fish, Mildred Spotts, Jean Tratt, Betty Barrett, Barbara Walters, and their leader, Mrs. Fish.

Another afternoon a group of women met at the home of Mrs. Gene Sidwell and folded all the flannel bands for the layettes and put the safety pins in them according to Red Cross instructions. Present were Mes. Walter Sidwell, Ralph Sidwell, Farris Oden, O. Hampton, J. C. McWilliams, Bruce Walters, and Gene Sidwell.

Kellerville women are surely doing their share in the production program. This past week Mrs. Jack Boyd returned a complete layette and 12 women's dresses made by the Kellerville Baptist W. M. U. and checked out another lot of garments for them.

Mrs. E. D. Morris checked out two children's dresses, three operating gowns, and yarn for a child's knitted suit to be made by the Kellerville Methodist W. S. C. S.

Another club has joined the ranks of our Red Cross volunteers. Mrs. Jess Clay checked out 12 children's gowns for members of the Esther club to make.

Pampa High school girls in the Future Homeakers club have started work on 12 girls' woolen skirts.

Mrs. Joe Gordon added labels, snaps, etc. to 17 garments this past week and checked out a number more to finish. She is also making one of the little toddler snow suits.

Mrs. W. D. Benton, a new volunteer, put buttonholes in three pairs of pajamas this past week and took six baby garments to trim.

Women of McCullough Methodist church have made 29 of the hospital bed shirts. Mrs. O. G. Smith turned in their last 15 this past week and checked out 12 woolen skirts and 10 girls' dresses for them to sew.

Church women of all denominations have taken the lead in the production work from the very start.

Mrs. Jess Turner, who checked out her first garments last week, turned in six children's gowns, five women's dresses, and two woolen skirts within a week's time! That's something of a record.

Mrs. Madeline Stanley turned in her sixth sweater this past week and checked out yarn for another. She has also knitted one of the little sweater and pants sets.

Mrs. Roy McMillen finished her fourth sweater and began work on a fifth.

Mrs. Elma Phelps, who gives knitting instruction at the production room each Friday evening at 7 o'clock, spends much time correcting errors and finishing knitted garments that have been turned in unfinished. Nevertheless, this past week she turned in a child's suit and a sweater that she had made.

Mrs. C. Herbert Walker and Mrs. W. G. Kiner assisted Mrs. DeLa Vicens in the production room last Monday afternoon. There are always jobs at the production room for volunteers who are willing to come and work. Just now we need someone to wind yarn and sack it ready to be issued to knitters. Also there are enough sweaters, skirts, and dresses on hand to make another good-sized shipment—all they lack is being folded and boxed.

Completed garments were turned in this past week as follows: Mrs. P. J. Boyd of Noelette—one woman's sweater, two skirts, and one woman's dress; Mrs. W. D. Benton—buttonholes in three pairs of pajamas; Mrs. Jack Boyd of Kellerville W. M. U.—one complete layette and 12 women's dresses; Mrs. Irvin Cole—three pairs of pajamas; Mrs. G. L. Craddock—one child's sweater; Church of the Nazarene —four girls' dresses; Mrs. Hupp Clark—one man's sweater; Mrs. W. H. Davis for Holy Souls Altar society—three complete layettes; Mrs. Bill Donnell—four pairs of mittens; Mrs. Fred Fender—one man's sweater; Mrs. V. F. Francis for the Rip-and-Stitch club—four gertrudes; Mrs. Joe Gordon—17 garments trimmed and labeled; Mrs. J. C. Gantz—one skirt; Mrs. F. O. Gurley—one shawl and one pair of mittens.

Mrs. A. B. Kitchens for First Baptist W. M. U.—one pair of mittens and five children's gowns; Mrs. Ethel McNewen and Mrs. W. H. Burdette—16 operating gowns; Mrs. Roy McMillen—one child's sweater; Mrs. Leo Moore—one skirt; Mrs. Emory Noblitt, Mrs. Ida Van, Mrs. H. C. Coffee, and Mrs. C. L. Shearer—two quilt tops pieced; Mrs. I. P. Peterson of LePore—two girls' skirts; Mrs. Elma Phelps—one child's knitted suit and one child's sweater; Mrs. A. L. Randall—one child's knitted suit.

Mrs. O. G. Smith for McCullough Methodist church—15 hospital bed shirts; Mrs. Robert A. Smith—two women's dresses and seven gowns; Mrs. Gene Shelton—one man's sweater; Mrs. Madeline Stanley—one child's sweater; Mrs. A. A. Tie-man—one pair socks; Mrs. Jess Turner—five women's dresses, six gowns, and two skirts; Mrs. DeLa Vicens—three children's skirts; Mrs. W. H. Vandenberg—six gowns; Mrs. Y. Wyatt—two women's dresses; and Mrs. J. S. Wynne—one pair of socks.

Dr. Meyer Speaks On Education At Sam Houston P-TA

"Education at the Crossroads" was discussed by Dr. A. M. Meyer, professor of education at West Texas State college in Canyon, at the annual Fathers' Night meeting of Sam Houston school which was held Thursday evening at the school.

Dr. Meyer spoke on the advantages of American Education Week when the patrons visit their schools and learn what their children are doing. He advised the fathers to visit school more often and not leave the education of the child up to the mother and teacher entirely.

"In order to perpetuate our American ideals, our schools must have the best in teachers and equipment. Learning takes time and we should make the conditions favorable.

"We must instill in our children the ideals of neighborliness, friendliness, helpfulness, kindness, and tolerance," he added. "The school, church, and home form the tripod upon which civilization stands.

"We can avoid catastrophe by keeping alive the fundamental institutions of our country, which can make every boy and girl an intelligent citizen," he concluded.

After registering and visiting in various rooms, the patrons met in the auditorium for a program with Principal Kenneth Carman as leader.

The Rev. Newton Starnes gave the opening prayer after which the high school a cappella choir, directed by Miss Helen Martin, sang three numbers, "Rain and the River" (Fox), an old crusade song, "Beautiful

Horace Mann P-TA Honors Fathers At Yearly Program

Fathers were guests of honor at the regular meeting of Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association when it met Thursday night at the school.

The program opened with the singing of three musical numbers by the High School a cappella choir under the direction of Miss Helen Martin.

Mrs. Fred Roberts announced that for the month of November the federated clubs are stressing the importance of proper nutrition in the development of strong, healthy children for a stronger America.

Miss Josephine Thomas, principal of Horace Mann, stated that the local post of the American Legion was cooperating with the schools in observing American Education Week by giving to the school having the largest percentage of parents visiting school during the week a large American flag.

At the conclusion of a short business session, Mrs. E. S. Hancock, Jr., president, gave the highlights of the state Parent-Teacher convention which she attended recently in Austin. She stated that the theme of the convention this year was "The Home Rediscovered."

"The home is the foundation of our democracy. What the child learns there prepares him to face the problems of the world," Mrs. Hancock pointed out. "He should be a Savior" and a negro spiritual, "Ride the Chariot."

Refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served in the cafeteria following the program.

Attorney Speaks At Parochial P-TA Fathers' Night

The annual Father's Night of Holy Souls' Parochial Parent-Teacher Association was held in the auditorium with R. J. Kiser presiding at the short business session which was opened with prayer led by the Rev. William Stack, C. M.

Plans were made for a food shower to be given for the Sisters by November 27.

The program was in charge of A. D. McNamara. The group was led in singing "America" and the National Parent-Teacher anthem by V. P. Schmidt, accompanied by Mrs. A. D. McNamara. A reading, entitled, "Daddies," by Edgar A. Guest was given by Clayton Husted. Mrs. LeRoy Rice talked briefly on "Nutrition" and distributed the "Texas Food Standard" to the audience.

Fred Cary, local attorney, was guest speaker of the evening and spoke on "Does Money Make the Man."

"The process of education, when stripped down to its bare essentials consists in making proper men and women," he said.

Refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served in the cafeteria following the program.

women out of boys and girls," he stated. "When we engage in this process it immediately becomes important to decide what is a proper man, a gentleman, or the man-as-he-should-be.

"Today we have been judging a man by such standards as 'How much money does he have?' and 'How much property does he own?' In this we have flatly been making a mistake and we are going to have to go back to determine the man-as-he-should-be and ask again, 'What can this man do in his own right?' to determine his value.

"Consequently we ought to teach our boys and girls initiative, self reliance, and courage. We ought to train them so that they will be able to meet whatever situation they find in front of them, seeing that we do not know, at this time, what situation they will have to face. Self-reliance and initiative will serve to carry them through any situation, and we will have to so train them and so judge them as that their own individual qualities are measured, and thereby we can determine how well they measure up to the proper standard, and we can safely rely upon their solutions of whatever problems come before them."

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to the 70 members and guests registering. The seventh and eighth grades won the attendance award.

There are 104 regular playing members in the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra.

STRENUOUS REHEARSALS occupy Loretta Young shown with her coach before the filming of difficult dancing scenes for Columbia's "The Men in Her Life," produced and directed by Gregory Rattelf. In it—Loretta rises from London slum child to international ballerina, ably assisted by such men as Conrad Veidt, Dean Jagger, Otto Kruger and John Shepperd, on the LaNora screen Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

"ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN", FEATURING SCOTT AND MARCH, RICH IN AMERICANA

Film Inspiring Story of Methodist Minister Opening Today at LaNora; Crown Showing "All That Money Can Buy," From Vincent Benet Novel

By BROWNWOOD EMERSON
Human-interest plus is the keynote of "One Foot in Heaven," Warners 108-minute picture opening a four-day run today at the LaNora with Fredric March and Martha Scott starred.

The screenplay is inspiring, the cast is Grade A, and the film is an American as the Iowan scene itself. March as a brilliant medical student, shifts to the Methodist ministry and repairs with his wife to take over his first parish. As shepherd of successive flocks, first in a town named "Laketon," later in Fort Dodge and Sioux City, he is beset with the rigors of his vocation, raises a family and takes over a parish in Denver. It is in the latter city that the full dramatic sweep of the picture is unleashed; drama interlaced with vibrant human interest; his battle to build a new church, the tremendous barriers he must surmount as a result of congregational "politics"; and the blackening of his innocent son's name by a group of parishioners who cause the boy's expulsion from school via the spreading of idle gossip that he was responsible for a certain family having to flee the city as a result of the lad's illicit relationship with the daughter. In the end, truth triumphs and the minister builds his new church.

The finale scene belongs among the fine sequences in recent film annals. Outlets from the biggest keys to the smallest of stands will find this a powerful, bound-to-please picture. Among its virtues is that it's splendid Americana, and will long be remembered by theatergoers. March and Miss Scott are great in their roles, and the supporting players top-notch. Photographically the footage is splendid. The film is grandly entertaining, a credit to filmland and one of the stand-out productions likely to come out of Coast lots this season.

True Life Story
Mason City, Iowa, is where Hartzell Spence, the author, and his father, the hero, both lived, and the film is based on the true life story of a Methodist minister. Martha Scott, lauded by the screen editor of The Pampa News for her work in "Cheers For Miss Bishop," gains new laurels for her splendid performance in "One Foot in Heaven." There is rich humor in the film; it is not a drab and dull "moral" story, but one that is fresh, inspiring, full of laughs and an occasional tear, with a smooth-plot and rapid action.

Emotional Drama
Columbia's 90-minute picture, "The Men in Her Life," featuring Loretta Young, was adapted from the novel "Ballerina," and is the drama of a girl who sacrifices a normal life to become an outstanding dancer. It details the ballet dancer's life and how she puts her career ahead of romance and security. The picture is showing at the LaNora Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

From Benet
Opening the week at the Crown is a Stephen Vincent Benet story, re-titled "All That Money Can Buy," from "The Devil and Daniel Webster." Walter Huston is seen as "Mr. Scratch," New Hampshire rural version of the devil, Edward Arnold as Webster, Simone Simon as Belle.

Northern Adventure
"Mutiny in the Arctic," with Richard Arlen, Andy Devine, Anne Nagel, Universal, 61-minutes, at the Rex today, tomorrow and Tuesday. Fast moving action melodrama featuring spectacular camera work. Addison Richards is villain as backer and double-crosser of Arlen and Devine who finance an expedition to the Arctic to search for a pitchblende deposit. O'Day, Universal, 58-minutes, at the Rex Friday and Saturday. Nell calls upon Brown for assistance when the masked rider continues to rob the silver bullion from the mine in which Miss O'Day is half owner.

Who-Dun-It
"The Case of the Black Parrot," with William Lundigan, Maris Wrixon, Eddie Foy, Jr., Warners, 60-minutes. Murder mystery with adroitly contrived story. Lundigan and Foy unmask the Black Parrot in the climax of this yarn which opens with Charles Waldron returning to the U. S. with a valuable cabinet, accompanied by his niece, Miss Wrixon. Shortly after arrival in New York, one visitor to Waldron's house is found dead and Waldron shortly afterwards falls prey to the killer. It's at the State Tuesday.

Disney and Benchley
"The Reluctant Dragon," Walt Disney full-length live action cartoon, is laid within the Disney studio with Robert Benchley playing himself, a shy, bewildered average man tossed into the confusing workings of the Disney plant. It's at the State Wednesday and Thursday.

Roy Rogers
Roy Rogers is mistaken for a killer sheriff. He turns on the crooked mayor of Tombstone who is trying to oust an honest family from a silver mine in Republic's "Sheriff of Tombstone," 56-minutes, on the State screen Friday and Saturday.

Proud Columnist
Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's public dept. turns out this gag of Mitch Woodbury's. Today's tale deals with the son of the columnist who had to stay after school and write, "I don't know my lesson," 500 times on the blackboard. When he told his dad, the columnist beamed and proudly said, "Whaddya know, the kid's being syndicated."

Thanksgiving
Maybe it doesn't have much to do with the flickers, but because there seems to be a great many inquiries on what states observe Thanksgiving 1 and 2, the following information is given, based on an excerpt from the Film Daily. In Pampa the date is November 20, next Thursday, having been so proclaimed by Hizzoner Fred Thompson, for the state November 27, along with Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, Oklahoma, Penn-

It is sure to be one of the 10 best pictures of the year, in the opinion of the screen editor of this newspaper.

Why He Knows How To Purchase Food

CAMP STEWART, Ga., Nov. 15 (AP)—Brig. Gen. James L. Frink went to a store to purchase food for a private dinner party. As he ordered each item, the clerk questioned his judgment of quantity. The kibitzing became annoying. The officer put aside his list and asked the salesman if he did the marketing for his own family. "Yes," the clerk replied. "That's why I feel I know something about it." "How many are in your family?" queried the general. "Three," the clerk responded. "Do you know how many people I feed three times a day?" the general inquired. The clerk didn't know. So the general, quartermaster who provides meals for army personnel in the entire fourth corps area, informed him: "Just about a half million."

Blood Types To Be Supplied By Canadian Legion

Special To The NEWS
CANADIAN, Nov. 15—At a special meeting of Zybach-Owens Post, American Legion here Monday night, members voted to have their blood typed to meet a possible future need. They also voted to use one thousand dollars now on time deposit to purchase a United States defense bond. When the local post started their fund, it was for the purpose of having a building of their own when sufficient funds could be secured but, since they have comfortable quarters in the city hall, they are using their money for community betterment. Last year, they spent several hundred dollars for an oxygen tent they placed in the local hospital for use of all cases where it would be needed. It has been used many times. The dance at the auditorium Tuesday night was one of several given each year to replenish the American Legion post treasury. Hetrick's Clowns, Amarillo, furnished music for the dancers. Participants came from Pampa, Arnett, Higgins, Perryton, and other nearby towns. H. B. Reed is commander of Zybach-Owens Post American Legion. Anderson Ranch Dam, to be built by Bureau of Reclamation in Idaho, will be the highest earth-filled dam in the world, 330 feet.

KPDN Radio Chat

In keeping with its progressive policy of bringing as much of the best as it is possible to bring you, KPDN announces that George Burns and Gracie Allen will appear regularly over KPDN in a weekly half-hour show at 8 o'clock Friday evenings. This follows immediately after the Mail Man's All-Request hour on Fridays. Featured on the show with Burns and Allen will be the music of Paul Whiteman and his orchestra. First KPDN presentation of the new show will be next Friday evening. KPDN is presenting this program through cooperation with the Keystone Broadcasting System, the same organization which is bringing "Lam and Abner" to you through the Pampa station. Later on, KPDN expects to be able to bring you more of these "big-time" radio shows from Keystone. The Keystone Broadcasting System is also furnishing KPDN with a large part of its transcribed music library. Ken Bennett is back on the air with his songs and his piano. Listening for him at 8 o'clock each evening. Ken composed and arranged all the music in the recent Top of Texas Review. Many of the songs he sings on his program are of his own composition, too. Lowell Fendrick astonished a great many listeners the other night. It was on Armistice Day. The announcer staff at KPDN was short-handed with Ray Morrison and Bill Brown in Plainview for the football broadcast. That left Lester Aldrich the great bulk of the announcing to do. Lester asked Lowell, the studio engineer to take over for him for about a half-hour while he (Lester) went out for dinner. So Lowell announced away during the Sunshine Seniors' program and one other. The phone began ringing with people calling up to find out who was doing the announcing, and after several calls Announcer Fendrick decided he would straighten the whole thing out; so at the end of his announcing stint he said, "Your announcer for the past 30 minutes has been the studio janitor."

Installation Firms Must File Sales

R. R. Gilbert, president of the Federal Reserve bank at Dallas, has cautioned Pampa and Gray county businessmen engaged in the business of installation sales to register with the federal bank on or before December 31, 1941. Although the regulation does not require the filing of the registration statement before December 31 of this year, registrants are asked to fill out and return the form as soon as possible. The form is required of all persons in the business of making installment sales of certain articles; those making installment loans of $1,000 or less or installment loans in any amount secured by certain articles; and the business of discounting or purchasing or lending on the security of installment obligations arising from the transactions described above. Notice given by the bank president is in accordance with regulation R issued by the board of governors of the Federal Reserve system pursuant to executive order 8843 issued by President Roosevelt relating to consumer credit. There are 16 classes of business covered, divided into financial and dealer, contractor or other: Sales finance company, commercial bank or trust company, industrial loan company or bank, state-licensed small loan company, credit union, other financial business. Department or general store, furniture store, household appliance or radio store, electric or gas utility company, hardware or automobile accessory store, dealer or contractor in heating, plumbing, or air-conditioning equipment, dealer or contractor in other construction or repair materials, manufacturer, and other. How to Register Registration is accomplished by filing out form F. R. 583 and filing it with the Federal Reserve bank (head office or branch) of the district in which the registrant's main office is located. Only one copy need be filed; the second copy is provided for the registrant. Instructions on filling out the form are provided on the back of the form.

County Called On To Furnish Negro Selectee

For the first time since the selective service law went into operation more than a year ago, Gray county will be called on to furnish a negro selectee. The Gray County Selective Service board office has been instructed to send a negro registrant from this county to Lubbock for physical examination on Dec. 20. Previous calls for negro selectees over the state have been marked "none" for Gray county. There are 76 negro registrants here. On Nov. 24, Gray county will send 37 selectees to Dallas for physical examination. The men who pass this test will be among those answering the call early in January. Since Wednesday, 36 selectees have been given local physical examinations, 10 of them yesterday. The board has expressed its appreciation to Pampa doctors who are not regular examiners, but who have volunteered their services. Gray county will send one selectee to Fort Sill, Okla., to the army induction station on Dec. 1, and 22 to the induction station at Fort Bliss on Dec. 5. Board Has Birthday AUSTIN, Nov. 15 (AP)—The State Liquor Control Board observes its sixth anniversary tomorrow—and loses its veteran member. D. J. Dechard, Flatonia merchant appointed by Governor James V. Allred for a six year term, steps out and Morris Roberts of Victoria, Governor Coke R. Stevenson's appointee who took the oath of office today, replaces him. San Marino, in the heart of Italy, claims to be the oldest state in Europe and to have been founded in the fourth century.

Boshen In Charge Of Kiwanis Program

The Rev. Robert Boshen, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was in charge of the program at the Pampa Kiwanis club's regular weekly luncheon at noon Friday. Visiting Kiwanians were L. A. Swann, W. M. Gray, Sim Kelly, all of Amarillo; other guests were Phil Scarborough and John W. Lynch, both of Amarillo, Arlie Carpenter of LeFors, and William C. Fowler, E. H. Williams, and Glen T. Radcliff, all of Pampa. Former Enlisted Men Must Register AUSTIN, Nov. 16 (AP)—Former enlisted men who have had 11 months continuous service and who are within selective service age brackets may enlist in the national guard or the enlisted reserve corps. He pointed out that enlisted men who are discharged must register with local draft boards, providing they have not previously registered and are within the age brackets. Those who are eligible for induction under the act will be inducted, if they do not enlist in the guard or the reserve corps. Application for enlistment in the guard may be made to the adjutant general's office. Information regarding enlistment in the reserve corps is available at recruiting stations and eighth corps area headquarters, Fort Sam Houston.

SERIAL STORY

FOR THE LOVE OF PETE!

BY BURTON BENJAMIN

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: No longer popular with teammates, slumped in star State footballer Pete Laird, pursued by movie actress Stephanie Stevens, who is slily using him for his publicity value. His head turned by her attentions, he betrays his college sweetheart, Anne Humphrey, his best friend and captain, George Lander. Coach Dinty Dugan is already worried about team morale when Pete and George have light over Anne, who has turned to George for help. Humphrey, and George's shoulder is injured, forcing him out of play. George soothes the anger of teammates against Pete, now a lone wolf and interested only in Stephanie and State, through Pete's brilliant play, which along fairly well without George with the game with Minnesota. Lander, back with the team, is injured again. Let's see what you can do now, says a player again at Pete.

longue-lashing from Heinie Dober. A mounting rage was kindling within him.

In the middle of the second quarter, State had to punt from deep in its own territory. Pete dropped back, was rushed badly when Roskauer missed his block and got off a flimsy boot which sailed askew out of bounds 15 yards up field.

"Pretty lousy, Hollywood," sneered Dober as he passed.

Viciously Minnesota struck. A Gopher halfback faded and tossed a pass in Pete's territory. Foggy he faded back, saw big Anderson, Gopher end, cutting behind him, and leaped. The ball sailed over his head, Anderson snared it and went over standing up.

them apart and the crowd rose. Both men were ejected from the game.

As Pete slumped off the field a new sound greeted his ears. "Boo!" "Throw 'em out!" "Whatta matter, cutie, cancha take it?"

State was finished—mentally and physically. Massive Minnesota crunched up and down the field leaving prostrate State jerseys in its wake.

Laird dressed hurriedly after the game. A few writers drifted in. None of them bothered to see him.

Laird hailed a taxi and ordered the driver to take him to Stephanie's hotel. "Miss Stevens' room," he said to the clerk.

"Sorry, sir, she's checked out."

"Yes, sir. Just 10 minutes ago. Are you Mr. Laird?" She left this note for you.

Pete walked out of the lobby in a daze.

Dear Mr. Laird:

Once I told you how I loved people who excel. I'm afraid I neglected to add I abhor mediocrity. You were very dull this afternoon—very dull. It made me quite ill.

I think this little skit is about over. Too bad it had to end unhappily. Mr. Winship, who is a great one for such brainstorming, cooked up our cozy meeting and fathered it along. As my agent, he thought it was good publicity. As my fiancée, he knew it was quite harmless.

And so, Mr. Laird, I must say adieu. You were sweet—awfully sweet. But after today I'm afraid you're just another second rater. And we had such hopes!

Stephanie Stevens.

He buried his face in his hands. Slowly the haze began to clear. Start from the beginning. The California game. That was a "natural." He was slated for stardom. The note. Of course he would be flattered!

The newspaper boys. Keep them posted on the coast, in University Town, in Chicago.

What had it cost him? His dull ache became a searing pain. It had cost him Anne—and Lander—and the respect of his teammates. It had cost him an All-American berth. "A real All-American never has a bad day," a sports writer once told him. And it hurt the more.

Suddenly a strange light flickered in his eyes. He stood up and hailed a cab. "The hospital," he ordered. He had to see Lander. (To Be Continued)

A DOUBLE UPSET!

CHAPTER XI

TWO resounding whacks at the line and Minnesota was over for a touchdown. Ed Walczak, battering 220-pound fullback, plowed across on a straight center plunge. Disconsolately Pete Laird saw State's line sag and realized the crew was being outcharged for the first time that year.

The Gophers kicked goal and after less than one minute of play, State—those vaunted bone-crushers of football—traded by seven points. Laird's throat was dry.

The ball catapulted down field, and Pete Laird speared it on the five. State players moved ahead but there was none of the scythe-like blocking to shake Laird loose. A golden wave buried him on the 20 and buried him hard. He felt as if a tank had hit him broadside. Ponderously Heinie Dober of Minnesota got up from the bottom of the pile and chortled:

"Well, if it ain't the Hollywood lover! Take it easy on pretty-boy, fellows. You're liable to spoil his makeup." The others snorted. His cheeks burning, Laird picked himself up and walked back into the huddle.

"Give me that ball," he whispered out of the corner of his mouth to young Roskauer, the quarterback. The kid nodded and called a reverse.

The ball was snapped to Tullio who started right and handed it to Pete. Pete lowered his head and tried to butt a brick wall. Three Gopher huskies piled him up for a three-yard loss.

"Ain't he cute!" grinned the ever-present Dober. "Pretty, too."

It was that way throughout the quarter. Laird called on every trick at his command. He butted, spun, dodged, twisted—but he couldn't shake loose the Gophers.

Besides the physical pounding, Laird was taking an incessant

AD DEADLY quiet filled the stands. The who inconceivable! Mighty State was being cut to ribbons and the magnificent Laird had suddenly become the All-American bust. The Gophers converted. It was 14 to 0.

All eyes rested on Dinty Dugan as he stepped into the locker room at half time. Fingering an Anderson lighted cigarette, haggard, he stared at them silently.

"Men," he said suddenly, "you're the first State team I've ever been ashamed of. You're the first one that ever cut on me. You're the first one that ever put personal issues ahead of the bunch."

Raging mad, State stormed out of the locker room for the second half, took the kickoff and began to move. Forty-three yards they marched—tough, brutal yards against that Gopher line. They were on the Minnesota 30. Pete tried to run the ball twice and was smeared. On third down he faded back. Winsoski was racing down the sidelines—wide open, waving frantically. Carefully he gripped the ball and threw, and instantly he knew the pass was poor.

It was. It wobbled high in the air toward the sidelines. A Gopher back intercepted it on the 15 and set sail.

A yellow jersey bow down on him and he saw the Minnesota ball carrier streak past into the clear.

Agonizingly, he pulled himself off the ground and looked into the face of the Gopher who had cut him down. It was Heinie Dober.

"Do you smell something around here?" he asked innocently. "I do. How can that doll of yours up there stand it?"

SOMETHING snapped inside Pete. He threw off his helmet and tore at Dober, fists flying. Players and officials rushed to pry

Garner Rides Herd On His Bantam Chicks

UVALDE, Nov. 15 (AP)—John Garner, who used to ride herd on stormy debaters in the house and senate, now rides herd on bantam chickens.

The seamy-faced former vice president chased a couple of like-looking bantams across his pecan orchard into the arms of a helper.

He smiled triumphantly and said he was having a chicken and dumpling dinner today.

He panted, too, grinned and said "I found out I'm not as young as I used to be."

He will be 73 Nov. 22.

Perhaps not so young, but if Garner retired to the quiet of his home in southwest Texas for his health, his quest evidently has been successful.

He spends a good deal of time around the house, supervises the care of his pecan orchard, does a little plowing, sees after the 50 bantam chickens that are his pride and joy.

Fishing and hunting remain his chief diversions, just as they were when he used to leave Washington's hubbub and come to his Texas retreat for an excursion with his outdoor crony, Ross Brumfield.

Garner and Brumfield brought in four bass weighing a total of 20 pounds the other day plus a number of wild ducks.

But when talk got around to world and national politics, his field for more than three decades, he maintained the silence he has kept since leaving Washington during the last presidential campaign.

What did he think about the strike situation? A mere, "There's nothing to say."

And about the repeal, yesterday, of parts of the neutrality law?

Garner shook his snowy-haired head and silently walked away.

Dorothy Stemple Appointed New City Technician

Employment of Dorothy Stemple at city technician at a salary of $125 a month was approved by the city commission at a special meeting held Saturday morning in the office of the city manager.

The new technician will fill the place left vacant by the resignation of Pauline Tuford, who is to be married Nov. 21 in Anadarko, Okla., to Dr. R. W. Williams, Anadarko physician.

Miss Stemple is to begin work here on Dec. 1. At the present time she is employed in the Amarillo health department. She is a graduate of the Northwest Institute of Medical Technology, Minneapolis.

There will be no meeting of the city commission next week. Date of the next meeting will be Nov. 25. Today's session was called prior to the departure of City Manager Steve Matthews for Miami, Fla., where he will attend a meeting of the International City Managers association, Nov. 23-27.

Mr. Matthews and L. M. Davis, Berger city manager, left Pampa yesterday afternoon for Miami. In all, 20 Texas city managers will attend the meeting.

Loren James Takes Over Abstract Firm

Loren James, formerly of Amarillo, has taken over the Plains Abstract company of H. L. Jordan, and changed the company's location from the First National bank to 211 Combs-Worley building. Guaranty Abstract & Title company is the style of the new firm.

The new owner is the son of A. B. Jones, who started an abstract business in Amarillo in 1918. Loren has had 12 years experience in that city in the business.

Mr. Jones is married and the father of a 2½-year-old son. The family resides at 610 N. Wells.

The Donets coal basin is often called the "Soviet Pennsylvania."

Miami School Holds 3 Special Programs

MIAMI, Nov. 15—In observance of the special days and weeks set aside for emphasis at this time of the year three extra-curricular programs were held at the Miami schools during the week. For the first time in a number of years a commemorative ceremony for Armistice Day was held.

Taps were sounded three times throughout the building while the school stood at attention. After this the students marched out, stood at attention while the flag was raised and then gave a salute to the Stars and Stripes.

Supt. Ballengee, himself a World War veteran, paid a tribute to those who lost their lives in that conflict, and mentioned something of his own experiences. He then presented a white flower to Mrs. Tom Carruth, Canara, and Thomasine Carruth, and Ereatha Pulasaki in remembrance of loved ones lost as a result of that war.

In closing the band played the national anthem.

Lighthouse Main Subject Of 35th Christmas Seal

The lighthouse is the main subject of the 35th annual Christmas seal of the National Tuberculosis association, which will be placed on sale throughout the country on Nov. 24.

Locally, the sale is handled by the Gray County Tuberculosis association, and more than 3,000 letters containing the seals will be mailed from Pampa on that date. The campaign will continue until Christmas day.

Against the blue winter sky, which forms the background of the design, the double-barred cross, in red, the emblem of the national association, is spot-lighted by the lighthouse beacon. In the foreground is shown the snow-covered keeper's house, an upturned boat and an evergreen tree.

Four colors were used in printing the seal—yellow, black, red, and blue. The usual four slogan seals, which in past years have been placed in various parts of the sheets of 100 seals, this year have been omitted.

Stevan Dohanos, a native of Lorain, Ohio, well-known muralist and illustrator, is the artist of this year's seal.

Out of his own experience he conceived the theme of the lighthouse work. For it was soon after he had gained recognition that he discovered he had tuberculosis. He had just been asked to join an art studio in New York and was preparing to move from Cleveland, where he had received his art education and exhibited his paintings.

Mr. Dohanos said that the temptation to work while regaining his health was great, but he had learned enough about the disease he had to fight. So he immediately went to Saranac Lake, N. Y., and underwent treatment and complete rest.

When his physician finally said that he was able again to do a normal amount of work, he came to New York and his job was still waiting for him.

Three years after his return to New York, Mr. Dohanos was chosen by the treasury art project in Washington to do paintings in the Virgin Islands for federal buildings. He took his family there with him for a seven-month stay.

In 1937 he returned to the United States and has continued his work here since. He has completed two mural projects—one for the Elkins, W. Va., agricultural and forestry building, the other for the post-office at West Palm Beach, Fla. He is now working on another mural which will be placed in the Charlotte Amalie postoffice in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands.

Thursday morning at 9 o'clock in the high school study hall, seven students presented a program in observance of National Education Week. A panel discussion built around the theme of the week, "Education for a Stronger America," was heard.

The subjects discussed were "Education for: physical fitness, stronger national morale, safeguarding educational support, ways of democracy, economic sufficiency," and were approached from the angle of what our school is doing, what other schools are doing, and what schools may do, in regard to these educational aims.

Students presenting the discussion were Mildred Ann Kivlehen, Canara Carruth, Jack Carmichael, Virginia Bailey, Leroy and Carrie Jo Heare, and Thomas Bates.

Since American Defense Week overlaps National Education Week the grade school noted the former by presenting a program in the study hall Friday morning. This was prepared by students in the fifth grade under the direction of Miss Frances Phillips, and was given in the form of a skit on the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Mrs. Sallie Horton was selected for the position and began work in her office in the court house this week.

It will be her duty to investigate the eligibility of persons for being placed on the relief rolls and for those assigned to CCC units.

Eight Seek Job As Welfare Worker In Hemphill County

CANADIAN, Nov. 15—Eight persons stood examination last month to qualify for the position of welfare worker for Hemphill county, a position vacant since the resignation of Miss Beuna Cox, effective July 1, 1941.

Centenary Students Protest Dance Ban

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 15 (AP)—Centenary college students marched 300 strong to the annual Louisiana Methodist conference today and presented resolutions asking the conference to rescind its action of yesterday which would have banned dancing on the college campus.

The demonstration was orderly and none of the students entered the Noel Memorial church where the conference was in session except a committee which bore the resolutions. The crowd remained on the steps and in front of the church for about half an hour then returned to their classes.

The resolution was adopted unanimously at a meeting of the students held in the chapel, called and presided over by Gilbert Hetherwick, president of the student body. It pointed out that "98 per cent of the students dance and did dance prior to entering Centenary college, so there is little chance of any student acquiring the habit by reason of his entering Centenary."

Panhandle Scout Troop Winner At Court Of Honor

PANHANDLE, Nov. 15—The district 3 court of honor of the Adobe Walls Council of Boy Scouts met in White Deer this week with Fred M. Roberts, scout executive, in charge.

Troop 1 of Panhandle won the Scout advancement ladder which has been in possession of White Deer since September. Troop 1 has kept the ladder since it was first offered, with this one exception.

H. G. Robinson is Scoutmaster of Troop 1. Troop members making advancement were John E. Baird, O'Keefe, two merit badges; Jim Bill Wilson, two merit badges; Jack Wigham, four merit badges; Jack Drake, two merit badges; and Frank McDaniel, second class badge.

Mothers attending from Troop 1 were Mrs. J. S. Sparks, Groves Burum, Joe Rorex, J. L. White, O. H. McDaniel, J. B. Wilson, Charles Franklin, H. T. Drake, and A. R. Hill.

Fathers attending were J. B. Wilson, Groves Burum, H. T. Drake, and Joe Rorex. Committeemen were K. L. Turner, chairman of merit badge board of review, and Jack Atkins. Others attending were Steve Shepherd and the Rev. James Todd.

Fog Bars RAF From Raids Each Night Over Germany

LONDON, Nov. 15 (AP)—British sources declared today it was becoming increasingly evident that the RAF never would be able to bomb Germany all night every night from its present airdromes on the misty British Isles.

Bad weather stopped the bombing of Germany again last night, the fourth in a row.

The high Guiana forests, which cover more than half of Venezuela, yield 600 species of wood.

Is inflation inevitable?

There is a split opinion on this question. Many economists maintain it can be avoided if we as a nation are willing to meet the problem with courage. Prices and wages must be curbed; individual spending must be curtailed. Each of us can help, for example, if we will put our excess dollars into Defense Bonds or a bank account, instead of buying non-essential goods. Inflation is bad for all of us—let's do all we can to forestall it.

The BIG IDEA... in an advertisement: 'Keep spare Mazda lamps on your cupboard shelf... and end bulb-snatching!' This ad goes on Molly's plate tomorrow morning. But just in case she doesn't catch on, I think I'll bring home some new lamp bulbs myself."
