Three Qualify For State

Headed For Austin

Pictured above are LESA HENSLEY, JANNA LOVE AND GLYNDA BURKETT. They will represent BORDEN HIGH in Austin at the STATE LITERARY MEET as Regional Winners. LESA, a senior, competes in Persuasive Speaking; JANNA and GLYNDA in Debate.

Three Borden County High School students, Lesa Hensley, Glynda Burkett, and Janna Love qualified for State UIL Literary Meet to be staged in Austin, May 4-6.

Lesa Hensley, a senior at B.H.S., placed third among thirty-six students who competed in Persuasive speaking at the Regional Literary Meet, April 21 in Levelland. This was Lesa's fourth year to participate in persuasive. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hensley, Rt.1 O'Donnell.

Glynda Burkett and Janna Love, B.H.S. sophomores, placed third in Debate to qualify for the state contest. The girls were among thirty-six other teams who debated one to five rounds to qualify. Love and Burkett defeated another Borden County team of Patrick Toombs and Brent Rhoton to capture the third place berth and a trip to Austin. Janna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Love, Rt. 2, Lamessa; and Glynda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burkett, Rt. 1, O'Donnell.

Patrick Toombs and Brent Rhoton were fourth in debate and will be alternates. Patrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Toombs, Fluvanna and Brent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Rhoton, Luther, Texas.

Lesa, Glynda and Janna, as well as the alternate debate team of Patrick and Brent will leave for Austin May 5. They will be accompanied on their trip by their coach, Mrs. Ed Huddleston.

Godfrey Opposes Canal Treaties

Abilene --- Congressional Candidate Fike Godfrey said today he is unalterably opposed to the Panama Canal treaties recently passed by the U. S. Senate.

"We are still learning more, day by day, about what these Treaties ultimately might cost the American taxpayers," said Godfrey who resigned last fall as Executive Vice President of The West Texas Chamber of Commerce to seek the 17th District seat being vacated by U. S. Rep. Omar Bureson of Anson.

"But one thing definitely is clear: as written, these treaties will prohibit us from negotiating with other countries in Central America to build a similar canal," said Godfrey.

"There should be no such stipulation in any treaty concerning the Panama Canal.

"It seems ironic to me that Panama's leftist dictator, Gen. Omar Torrijos, has the nerve to warn us that if the U. S. Senate amends the treaties, he may have to ask the people of Panama to vote on them again. Their vote would be on whether to accept our gift of the Canal, and the cash we would give them to take it.

"But in this country, our people are not permitted to vote on giving the canal away -- and, indeed even our House of Representatives is not allowed to vote on the Treaties," said Godfrey.

The main argument for giving away the Panama Canal appears to be that we cannot defend it. I am not willing to accept that premise and, even if I could, I do not believe I could go along with the idea that this is a legitimate reason for giving it away.

"Furthermore, we should be wise enough by now to know that any 'guarantee' we may obtain from the present dictator of Panama, on such things as future use and defense of the Canal, is meaningless, for all practical purposes," said Godfrey.

"These Treaties will bind future generations of Americans to an agreement which might be demolished by the next dictator of Panama," he declared.

Godfrey, who spent part of his U. S. Navy service during World War II in the Canal Zone, and his wife have visited 24 foreign countries during recent years.

"I have some strong feelings about foreign affairs," said Godfrey, "and one of them is not to trust such dictators as General Torrijos."

New Enterprise For Gail

Richard (Dick) Shaw announced today that he is opening a welding shop in his home at Gail.

Plumbing, painting, carpentering, and electrical work are also among Shaw's trades, he explained. He plans to keep plumbing and electrical supplies on hand as well as Ford and Chevrolet tune-up parts.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw moved to Gail from California several years ago. Prior to the move Shaw was a trucker. Severe injuries from an accident forced him to retire from this business.

"I will be working full time at this new business out of my home and this will be my only means of support" quoted Shaw.

Shaw has had many requests involving his skills at welding and home repair and believes he can be of service to county residents.

Julian To Speak At Athletic Banquet

Mark Julian a senior from Texas Tech will be the speaker for the athletic banquet that will be held on May 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the new cafeteria. The 185 pound Senior from Fort Worth was the "biggest surprise of spring training" according to campus literature. He came on strong in spring drills and moved into starting tailback spot.. rushed for more than 100 yards in several scrimmages and led all runners with 124 yards on 11 carries in Red-White game. His long play last season was a 20-yard touchdown run against Arizona. He was chosen All-State at running back as senior after rushing for 1,246 yards and scoring 13 touchdowns. Mark is the son of Chuck and Mary Julian of Grand Prairie and is a Physical Education major. Interested parents who wish to attend the banquet may purchase tickets from Mrs. Joan Briggs for $3.00 each.

FHA To Dallas

The new Dimensions of FHA-HERO was the theme for the State Meeting Future Homemakers of America, held in Dallas, Tex., April 20-21, 1978.

On Thursday evening the first general session, House of Delegates, was held at 7:00 p.m. Business of the organization was transacted. The talent show was held at 8:30 p.m. The theme for this year's talent was Roots: "Dimensions of Texas." This year Areas I-V performed their talents. During the talent show the FHA State Choir sang "Luckenbach and Texas Our Texas."

The second general session started at 9:00 a.m. Friday morning. The North Mesquite High School Army ROTC Unit gave the opening ceremony. The guest speaker for the session was Bert Jones, quarterback for the Baltimore Colts.

Lunch was served for everyone at 12:00 in the Exhibit Hall, at the Convention Center.

Workshops began Friday afternoon at 1:00 p.m. Ten small group workshops were held. Suzanne Walker attended the workshop "Behavior Change--You and Your Friends". The workshop was about how other people influence one to behave differently than one really wants to behave. It also gave tips on how to be a more sincere friend. Mayme McLaury attended the workshop "Map It Over". The guest speaker for her workshop was Doug Dennison, running back for the Dallas Cowboys. This workshop was about things a person fears in life like flying or tight places. It gave tips of how to overcome these fears so that one can live a freer life. The Lorena City Band also played for this workshop.

Faye Welch, Debbie Romine, Tamyra Williams, and their advisor Kois Honnicut for Grady accompanied the Gail F.H.A. Chapter to the meeting. Attending the meeting for Gail were Suzanne Walker, Mayme McLaury and their advisor, Mrs. Kountz.

Area II advisor Elaine Stone asked Suzanne and Mayme to usher for the Friday morning session. The ten State officers and state advisor, Mrs. Betty Romine, conducted the meeting.

We all had a blast and learned a lot. It was really an experience.

Jer's Jottings

by Bruce Pearson

If a Math or English teacher were to announce to his class in September that there wasn't time to mess with all the weak and mediocre students, and that he intended to teach only the top, personally chosen ten percent for the rest of the year, he would be out of a job, and probably out of town, by midnight. Yet one special class of teachers, coaches, do this kind of thing every year, and apparently with the blessing of school boards, townspeople, parents and alumni. Only the most gifted, talented, naturally-endowed athletes may participate, and the rest can find help, instruction, encouragement, and athletic facilities somewhere other than at school.

The object of this unique taxpayer-supported kind of teaching is not to improve through the whole student body the quality of physical fitness, nor to develop character through competition, nor to emphasize appreciation and care of one's body; the object is to win. Winning means the coach keeping his job or getting a better one, filling the stadium on Friday nights, thereby paying off the bonds sold to pay for it, and satisfying the egos of the alums and the chamber of commerce members who want the football team to put their home town on the map.

Winning is good for the morale of the student body, and has all sorts of beneficial side effects, like more trips for the band, more community financial support for the school and more scholarships for athletes from poor families who could not, presumably, go to a university otherwise.

Winning has a price, however-particularly winning at football. It means a young man with a nice build putting 220 pounds on a 170-pound frame and probably spending the rest of his life trying to take it off. It means years of sacrificing leisure time, work time, study time for the satisfaction of the school board, coach, and fellow students. It means not playing for fun, but concentrated effort to win because that's the most important thing in the world, and if it's necessary to cheat a little on training or scholastic regulations, or the rules of the game, that's okay as long as no one gets caught and penalized.

Who is in charge, anyway? Are the coaches, playing fields, and gymnasium facilities provided to serve the children, or are the children there to sacrifice themselves for the honor and glory of the populace? You would think sometimes, on Friday nights, that Roman gladiators are on the field instead of seventeen-year old kids.

When it comes time for college, these young athletes are like prize bulls in the auction ring, with boys from Gail, Texas competing for scholarships (so-called) at the University of Texas with coal-miners' sons from Pennsylvania. Winning is too important, involving millions of dollars at the college level, to restrict recruiting to state boundaries. In fact, it is so necessary to win in college that undergraduates are separated into two classes, students and jocks, because jocks shouldn't be expected to bear the burden of winning and keeping up a normal load of scholastic work, too. Winning means absolute dedication, and nobody should go out for school athletics these days who thinks that games are fun and that losing is anything less than a totally miserable, shameful, degrading, disgraceful experience.

Courthouse NEWS

Borden County Commissioners' Court met in regular session April 10, 1978 at 10:00 A. M. at the Courthouse with all members present.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, and routine monthly accounts were examined and approved for payment.

The Commissioners reviewed a letter from Mrs. Catherine Crawford, District Extension Agent, concerning securing a County Extension Agent for Home Economics for Borden County. Borden County will provide funds for a part time agent beginning this summer, and will request a full time cooperative position effective September 1, 1979.

Court adjourned at 2:30 P.M.

Borden County Commissioners' Court met in special session April 17, 1978 at 10:00 A. M. to open and consider bids on the proposed water pipeline project.

Bids were received from the following firms: Graves Plumbing and Supply, Stanton; Holloman Construction Company, Odessa; Panhandle Construction Company, Lubbock; and Sunshine Construction Company, Gail.

After consideration the bid of Holloman Construction Company of Odessa in the amount of $110,608.10 with completion time of 60 days was accepted.

Court was adjourned at 12:00 Noon.

DON WORKMAN STATE SENATE

A WORKMAN For The People Of West Texas Wants YOU To Know.....Where He Stands On the Issues.

Dear Voter:

As a family man, banker, businessman and farmer and rancher with oil and gas interests in West Texas, I know the problems facing West Texans. I feel I can relieve the problems facing the 28th State Senatorial District by:

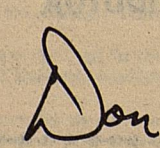

AGRICULTURE: Encouraging the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State to formulate a plan for development of marketing assistance and techniques, making them available to Texas farmers, and restrict foreign commodities into the state,

SENIOR CITIZENS: Urging the state Human Resource Commission to begin a statewide program to promote the hiring of senior citizens while relaxing Social Security retirement and supplemental security income rules on the amount of earning before affecting payments and insurance,

LAW AND ORDER: Moving the Texas Youth Council toward a regional detention center concept, with children in need of supervision and truents being separated from serious and habitual offenders who could still be sent to state training schools.

I know these solutions cannot be achieved overnight. But as your State Senator I will work toward these goals--and many others which I will outline later--to give West Texans the independence and protection each of YOU deserve.

Your County Agent Says

by Randy Upshaw, CEA

PLANTING DATE AIDS BOLL WEEVIL CONTROL PROGRAM

Overheard in Gail last week that Philena Farmer Pewitt has recovered from her recent surgery and was able to go places again.

Mr. M. M. Monk is feeling much better and is hoping to do some traveling soon.

Mr. K. T. Reddell is home after nearly 2 weeks in the hospital in Snyder.

Dick Cantrell spent several days in the hospital in Snyder last week with some broken ribs. Hope he is feeling better now.

The question is: How did the fire start on Gail Mountain Sunday?

Frances Bennett spent last week in Albuquerque and points west. Understand she visited some in Arizona while vacationing.

Frank Farmer joined the Navy to see the World? He joined about three weeks ago and is now in San Diego.

Several Borden County Contestants entered the AJRA Rodeo in Midland last week. At this time, no final results are available.

There is one subject that everyone in Borden County is talking about. Rain! When and How Much? Hope it rains a bunch and soon.

Fluvanna -- A delayed uniform cotton planting in the Rolling Plains area of the control zone will aid the Diapause Boll Weevil Control Program, Randy Upshaw, Borden County Extension Agent, says.

The recommended date of May 15, adopted by Borden county producers, is the best choice for maximum yield and boll weevil control, Upshaw said.

Recent trash surveys indicate that only 5 to 10 percent of the weevils which went into overwintering habitat have been able to survive the hard winter, Dr. James F. Leser, area Extension entomologist, reported.

Weather conditions this spring and early summer will largely determine the ultimate weevil population which will result from the overwintered survivors, he said.

Leser added, however, that "farmers in infested areas should be aware of the factors involved in both late and early planting, as far as weevils are concerned."

He said early plantings, in some cases, give time to set a crop before large weevil populations develop.

But early plantings also attract early emerging weevils, actually serving as "trap" crops, he added.

Cotton planted in April and early May, the entomologist said, provides early food and breeding sites and allows for extra generations.

Overwintering weevils live for approximately 12 days on seedling cotton after they emerge, Leser said. "They must find squares which are one-third grown or larger for reproduction. The greatest number of overwintering weevils have emerged prior to mid-June," he said.

"If cotton in Borden County is not planted until May 20 or later, most of the female weevils will have emerged and died before third-grown squares are present," Leser said.

Uniform planting will pay off when farmers control overwintered weevils. When all the cotton in a particular area is planted near the same date, it will reach the proper stage for overwintered weevil treatment at the same time, the county agent noted. This will allow entire communities to spray for overwintered weevils in only one or two days.

"If planting takes place over a long period--early to late--emerging weevils are assured of a constant food supply, possibly resulting in heavier overall infestations," Leser warned.

Harry Ledbetter's Money Management Program

As a fiscal conservative, I have developed a comprehensive program to effectively manage the $2 Billion dollars on deposit in the State Treasury. Here are aspects of it:

Rate of Return: The State Treasurer should not play politics with our tax money. I pledge to put the taxpayer's money to work earning the highest interest available.

Cash Flow Forecasting: Using modern management techniques, we can accurately determine how much money the state needs in liquid funds. The state's obligations must be paid on a timely basis at minimum administrative cost.

People all over Texas are responding enthusiastically to my campaign. I appreciate your support. I know that the public trust must be earned, and it is a responsibility I accept. I ask for your vote on May 6th. If you share my concerns, encourage your friends and neighbors to vote for Harry Ledbetter for State Treasurer in the Democratic primary election May 6th.

Why the dickens do we need Bob Dickenson on the Court of Civil Appeals?

You need Dickenson if you ever have to contest a lower court decision for custody of your child or a contract disputed or a juvenile trial

or insurance claims

or settlement of an estate

or a property settlement or a consumer complaint or settlement of a land title or any other common civil matter.

A fair decision from the Court of Civil Appeals is a right you must be guaranteed.

Bob Dickenson has the educational background, knowledge, experience and ability to guarantee this right. He knows the law.

He graduated as a lawyer from SMU and taught law at Baylor University before coming to Abilene in 1960. Dickenson has practiced civil law for 20 years. He has a thorough understanding of the law and its applications. There's no person better qualified to protect your legal rights in court.

He has the courage to make decisions based on the law, not emotion.

You can be sure that when Bob Dickenson is judge the law will be upheld. He can write strong legal opinions and set precedents if necessary. The Court of Civil Appeals works with pure law. Bob Dickenson believes a judge needs a complete knowledge of the law, wise and mature judgment and the courage to do what is right.

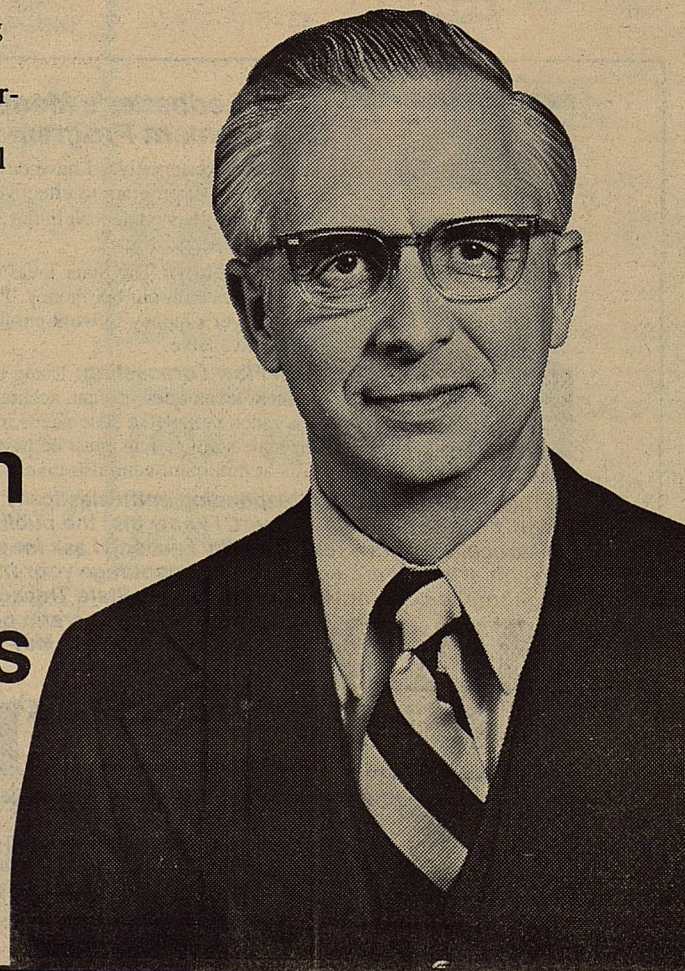

Bob Dickenson also strongly believes that a judge should have a sense of humility. He is a man with deep moral principles.

A man who knows the law, a man who has taught the law, a man who has practiced the law, a man with the heart and courage to protect your rights under the law — that's Bob Dickenson.

Elect Bob Dickenson to the Court of Civil Appeals

Why Should Dolph Briscoe Be Governor for 10 Years?

There is no good reason!

No other Texas Governor has ever asked for 10 years, much less been elected for 10 years. Dolph Briscoe's record does not merit 10 years in office:

- ★ Yet Briscoe has spent more than $2 million in this campaign — including $900,000 his supporters borrowed from 13 banks — to get 10 years in office.
- ★ Property taxes have increased by 1 BILLION DOLLARS since Briscoe was elected; so far, he has done nothing to provide property tax relief.
- ★ Welfare costs have more than doubled under Briscoe, without a fair increase in benefits for those people who really deserve them. The reason is waste. The worst example is Briscoe's own Office of Migrant Affairs, which spends $8,000 for each person it helps find a new job.
- ★ Utility rates have skyrocketed while Briscoe has been governor, without a single sign of concern by the Governor.

Elect a New Governor

Endorsing John Hill, the Kilgore News Herald said:

"He fought Southwestern Bell all the way to the Supreme Court to stop an unfair rate increase. He appears to have beat the Howard Hughes empire over millions in inheritance taxes. And he cleaned up Duval County."

Endorsing John Hill, Fort Worth Star-Telegram said:

"In two terms as state attorney general, Hill has shown himself to be energetic, articulate and assertive. He can make firm decisions and work persuasively to see them carried out. As governor, he would be an active, accessible chief executive projecting a strong leadership image."

Endorsing John Hill, the Dallas Times-Herald said:

"John Hill has been an outstanding attorney general. He has made impressive progress in making the office what he has always said it should be—the people's law office."

Rudd "Makes" Donations

DORIS RUDD

At least half a dozen people leave the Annual Borden County Cancer Barn Dance with a hand made memento of the occasion.

Since the inception of the Barn Dance, Doris Rudd has faithfully created art work commemorative of each award given. These have been in the form of hand painted records presented to those "making a record" in raffle sales, donations, etc. Doris also creates hand painted wooden plaques to be presented to the dance contest winners.

A lot of time, effort and expense go into this work and is highly appreciated by the Borden County Cancer Society. "It is", Doris says, "my way of making a donation to a very worthy cause."

Look Who's New

Gay & Larry Price announce the arrival of a baby girl, Tasha Ann Price. She was born April 20th at 3:03 P.M. at Malone Hogan Hospital. She weighed 7 lbs. 3/4 oz.

Grandparents of the "beautiful" baby are Mr. & Mrs. Joe Price of Snyder and Mr. & Mrs. T. L. Griffin of Borden County.
