

Thousands Attend Underpass Opening

Pampans forgot the war and everything else Friday night to celebrate the opening of the Cuyler street underpass.

"The underpass is not a speedway," city officials declared today. "Officers have been notified to arrest every motorist found speeding through the subway.

Today city officials will close the Frost street crossing and tomorrow Santa Fe railway workmen will start raising the tracks 14 inches.

The dedication ceremony was preceded by a band concert by the high school summer band directed by Ray Robbins.

"I have been unable to find an old-timer who can remember the first time plans for an underpass were discussed," Mr. Stinson said.

"First real progress was made in 1924 when, I believe, Mayor W. A. Bratton and Commissioners Marvin Lewis and W. T. Fraser wisely voted against the plan.

"During the past 12 months, I am glad to say that we have accomplished all three aims," the mayor declared amid loud cheers.

Coke Stevenson

JUNCTION, July 25 (AP)—Coke Stevenson tonight calmly received returns indicating he would be Democratic nominee for governor of Texas and made the following statement: "I am deeply grateful to the people of Texas. The overwhelming vote of confidence they have given me should be my inspiration to serve them to the best of my ability and to the utmost of my capacity in the trying days ahead."

"Tonight his son, Coke Stevenson, Jr., planned a red carnation on his father's shirt a few minutes before the statewide-returns started pouring in. Stevenson recalled that Thursday he had predicted Saturday would be a fine day. He was speaking then of the weather. Saturday night he remarked: "It sure has been a fine day." He was speaking of the election.

The former attorney general, governor and federal judge, who is a fairly young man to have that much of a career behind him, hardly shows the strain the past six weeks have put on him, although his weight came down to where he is using the last notch "on my belt."

The great elbow which lies closest to Stalingrad—astute L.H. Volga through which pass allied supplies from the Persian gulf. The Germans plainly were driving for the Caucasia oil. Equally important, they were striving mightily to cut the Red army in two, sever the supply line and isolate the Caucasia from the rest of Russia.

At Tsimlyansk the Germans were building a great force to try to cross the river and cut the railway 35 miles to the south, the last remaining steel link from Stalingrad to the Caucasia.

Look Out For Three Dangerous Nazi Saboteurs

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—The possibility that three Nazis trained in the science of sabotage may be at large in the United States led the Federal Bureau of Investigation to broadcast a general request today for officers and the public to be on the lookout for them.

The FBI began distribution of hundreds of thousands of "Wanted" circulars bearing the pictures and descriptions of the men, two of whom lived in this country for years.

J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, did not say the men were in this country. He merely announced that all three had received extensive training in the methods of committing sabotage and have received orders from the German high command to destroy vital war industries.

Steel Shortage At Ship Yard Denied

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—Two members of a house investigating committee said today they had received evidence contradicting the contention of the maritime commission that a steel shortage made it advisable to cancel the contract of the Andrew J. Higgins company of New Orleans for the construction of a shipyard and 200 new vessels.

"The evidence tends to establish the fact that at the time of the cancellation of the Higgins contract there was and there had been sufficient steel for the construction of the entire shipbuilding program," they said.

They were Reps. Boykin (D-Ala.) and Cullin (R-N.Y.). Their findings, they said, were based on two other members of their house merchant marine subcommittee, Reps. Welch (R-Calif.) and Jackson (D-Wash.).

Earlier in the day, Chairman Emory S. Land of the maritime commission, told the committee flatly that "absolutely no outside influence" affected the committee's decision to cancel the Higgins contract, and reiterated that a lack of steel was the cause.

Five Japanese Vessels Sunk

(By The Associated Press) United States submarines in new thrusts at enemy shipping in the Far East destroyed five Japanese vessels and severely damaged a sixth, the navy disclosed yesterday (Sat.), boosting total Japanese victims of American submarines to 55 sunk, 15 probably sunk and 14 damaged.

In addition to a modern destroyer, one medium-sized tanker and three cargo ships were sunk, the navy communique said, while the sixth vessel—a medium-sized cargo craft—was damaged and believed sunk.

Meanwhile, the navy yesterday announced the torpedoing of another United States merchant vessel several hundred miles off the Atlantic coast. But all 123 persons aboard were rescued shortly after their ship went down.

The sinking of the United States cargo carrier boosted to 398 the unofficial Associated Press count of Allied naval craft. The survivors included 57 crewmen and 66 passengers.

A report from London quoting a Reuters dispatch from Lisbon disclosed that 28 additional survivors of the 14,443-ton British liner Avila Star were picked up by a Portuguese destroyer. The passenger vessel, which was said to have been torpedoed 500 miles off the Azores July 5, went down with the loss of 20 lives. A total of 138 passengers and crew have been rescued, the report said.

DING DONG BELL—Bossy was in the well, but who put her in was not half so deep a mystery as how the feat was accomplished. Superintendent Joseph Broman of the Swedish orphanage found the cow struggling in 12 feet of water at the well bottom. She was hoisted up with a chain and rope sling, but the opening in a heavy iron cover atop the well was so small she could not be squeezed through it.

A tractor which pulled away the cover solved that problem, but not the mystery of how the critter got down there in the first place.

Nickel Costs Life Of Houston Boy

HOUSTON, July 25 (AP)—Joel Torres, 12, dropped a nickel today and it cost him his life.

Had he heeded his father, he wouldn't have gone exploring for it in an elevator shaft and been crushed to death.

The boy's father, Reyes Torres, said his son dropped the coin in the elevator shaft of a warehouse.

Torres told his boy to wait until he finished work and he would help him find the money. But when the father left his elevator the boy went in search of the nickel. When he tried to squeeze down the side of the shaft the elevator moved and crushed him.

Justice of Peace Tom Maes said it was an accident.

HIGHER INCOME TAXES—George Out, Says George

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—Chairman George (D-Ga.) predicted today that the Senate finance committee would reject treasury proposals to increase individual and corporation income rates in the house-approved $6,271,000,000 revenue bill, but would explode possible new fields of taxation.

George told reporters that while he believed a majority of the committee would like to attain the treasury's goal of an $8,700,000,000 net increase in taxes, he felt certain that members would be willing to go that high if they could agree on some form of levy not now in the pending bill.

"I am of the opinion," he said, "that the committee will not fix any definite goal but will be disposed to raise additional revenue above that provided by the house bill if sources are found other than those heretofore suggested by the treasury which will yield a substantial portion of the increase."

New Jap Destroyer Recently Sunk

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—American submarines recently sank a large new Japanese destroyer and four other ships in enemy-dominated waters of the western Pacific, the navy announced today adding that a sixth vessel was damaged and probably sunk.

The destroyer was hit by two torpedoes and went down in nine minutes. Shortly before it sank the submarine poked its periscope above the ocean surface less than a quarter of a mile away and made the first combat picture ever taken in the U. S. navy from under the sea.

This photograph showed the destroyer, heeled far over to port and down by the stern. The Rising Sun insignia painted on its forward turret for identification by airplanes was plainly visible and two men in white uniforms could be seen apparently in the act of scrambling off the ship.

Lieutenant Commander John Long, navy photographic chief, said that the picture through the periscope was made with a special secret camera now being supplied to all large U. S. submarines by the Bureau of Aeronautics which developed it.

The score of successful submarine attacks on Japanese ships as reported by the navy here now stands at 55 sunk, 15 probably sunk and 14 damaged—a total of 84 vessels.

Frank Baker New Pro At Country Club

Frank W. Baker of Dallas is the new pro at the Pampa Country club, succeeding Pete Nossent who resigned to enter defense work.

The name Frank W. Baker is well known in golf circles in the Southwest. Although only 32 years old, he has been playing golf for 19 years, starting when a caddy at a Dallas course.

Baker was out of the golf picture last year, traveling for a sporting goods company in this territory. He took time out, however, to escort Patty Berg and Helen Dettweiler on their tour of Texas courses.

Although this is his first step into pro ranks, Baker has been giving golf lessons for years. He plans to give both group and private lessons and also to start a golf class for high school boys and girls.

The new pro is delighted with the Pampa Country club course. He says the new greens are coming along fine and that they should be ready for play within the next 20 or 25 days.

Pete Nossent, retiring pro, was in Pampa for nearly four years. He and Mrs. Nossent and family are at present vacationing in Colorado.

BYRON NELSON Shoots Five Under Par

BY CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN CHICAGO, July 25 (AP)—The Tam O'Shanter $15,000 golf extravaganza became a one-man show today as Byron Nelson shot one of the most spectacular rounds of his career.

On three successive holes, the Toledo top-notchers went five under par with an amazing birdie, eagle and hole-in-one. Needless to say, Lord Byron, defending champion of the money-crusted Tam open, was so far ahead of the field that his compatriots were saying, "School's out, boys."

After eating his way through gobs of ice cream and declaring between bites that "I just can't get keyed up over this tournament," Nelson went out on the gallery-packed course and posted a sensational 34-hole record.

125 cases certified by Dr. J. J. Gilliland are being made available to the public at a special price of $1.00 per case.

Softball League to Play With 8 Teams In August

Two Softball Games To Be Played At Mag Park Today

Two games in the Pampa Softball league will be played this afternoon at Magnolia park, first game scheduled for 2:30 o'clock.

The first battle will be between the league leading Jewelers and the tail-end Jaycees while the second game will see the second-place Mack and Paul Barber battling the third-place Knights of Pythias who have won four straight games.

The Knights won one of the best played games of the season Friday night when they noosed out the Woodmen of the World 3 to 0. Ideal defeated McCarty's 9 to 4 in a battle of grocers.

Christopher, on the mound for the Knights, hurled three-hit ball and walked only one. Altman was behind the plate. The Knights scored all their runs in the fourth inning. Lee pitched for the Mack and Paul Barber team.

Doggett, on the hill for the Woodmen, allowed only six hits. Carruth was behind the plate. Stone hurled two-hit ball for Ideal Food in defeating McCarty's. Errors, however, cost him all his runs. Luttrell was behind the plate. Keel worked for McCarty's with Quaries receiving.

Entertainment at Lake McClellan today, besides fishing and picnicking, will be motorboat races sponsored by the McClellan Boat club.

Motorboat races from all parts of the Panhandle will be present to battle for honors.

Regulations Governing Hunting Of Doves And Waterfowl Clarified

AUSTIN, July 25.—Regulations governing hunting of white-winged doves, mourning doves, waterfowl, geese and coot in Texas were clarified today by the executive secretary of the game department upon receipt of official copies of the federal regulations, which often conflict with state laws pertaining to hunting some of these species.

The legislature as long ago as 1933 gave the game, fish and oyster commission authority to make state laws concerning doves, geese and coot conform to federal regulations. The commission at its regular quarterly meeting July 17 assented to the recently issued federal waterfowl regulations and so there will be no conflicts in laws regarding these species this year, it was pointed out.

White-winged doves only on September 17th, 20th, 22nd and 24th, between the hours of 12 noon and sunset. State law provides that in other sections of the state mourning doves and white-winged doves may be taken from 7 a. m. until sunset only.

Another white-winged country state law makes it unlawful to shoot white-winged chachalacas between the Rio Grande river and U. S. Highway 83 from the Zapata-Starr county line to the west boundary of the city limits of Brownsville.

Where no special shooting hours are prescribed, white-winged and mourning doves may be taken from 7 a. m. to sunset only, the executive secretary said.

Britain Must Go Communist Advises G. B.

By RUSSELL C. LANDSTROM AVOT ST. LAWRENCE, Hertfordshire, England, July 25 (AP)—George Bernard Shaw, who will be 86 tomorrow, said today Britain must socialize its political machinery after the war or "our future state will be as hopeless as our past."

"Of all the possible systems of government," he said in an interview, "the British parliamentary system, supposed to be a model for all democracies, is the very worst."

"It was invented 250 years ago to break the power of a parliament which wasn't disposed to do anything but compete for places on the front benches and collect money for war against Louis the Fourteenth."

"Since then our parliament has not been able to do as much to develop industry and civilize the English people as Russia has done every 250 days for the last 20 years."

"Unless we restrict eligibility for public office—now open to every adventurer and ignoramus—to panels of qualified persons, municipalize the land, banking and insurance on a basis of nationalization, and socialize our political machinery, our future state will be as hopeless as our past."

Shaw, whose health is reasonably good and who still has not been persuaded to tackle a beefsteak or other meats, was asked what he would consider the likeliest assurance of a permanent British-American-Soviet partnership.

"Rather a dangerous question, isn't it?" he countered. "All three must extirpate Hitler first and foremost."

"But after that there is really no alternative between sovietism and a release into Tory democracy—so-called by its British sponsors, Lord Randolph Churchill's father) but now in the field as Fascism."

"If the western powers choose the latter their relations with the U. S. S. R. will cool. And if a de-Hitlerized Germany chooses the former... but we had better drop the subject for the present and stick to the common task of eliminating Hitler."

Civil War May Ensnare In India

By Wide World Increasing alarm over the possibility of civil war among India's 390,000,000 people was manifested Sunday as the time neared for Mohandas K. Gandhi's projected non-violent disobedience program aimed at gaining immediate independence.

Both British and American leaders are gravely concerned over a situation which finds Gandhi's Hindu faction, the All-India Congress party, ready to give a formal go-ahead to the little spiritual and political leader on Aug. 7. Some believed Secretary of State Cordell Hull's Thursday night speech was an appeal to Indians to show restraint at this critical stage of the war.

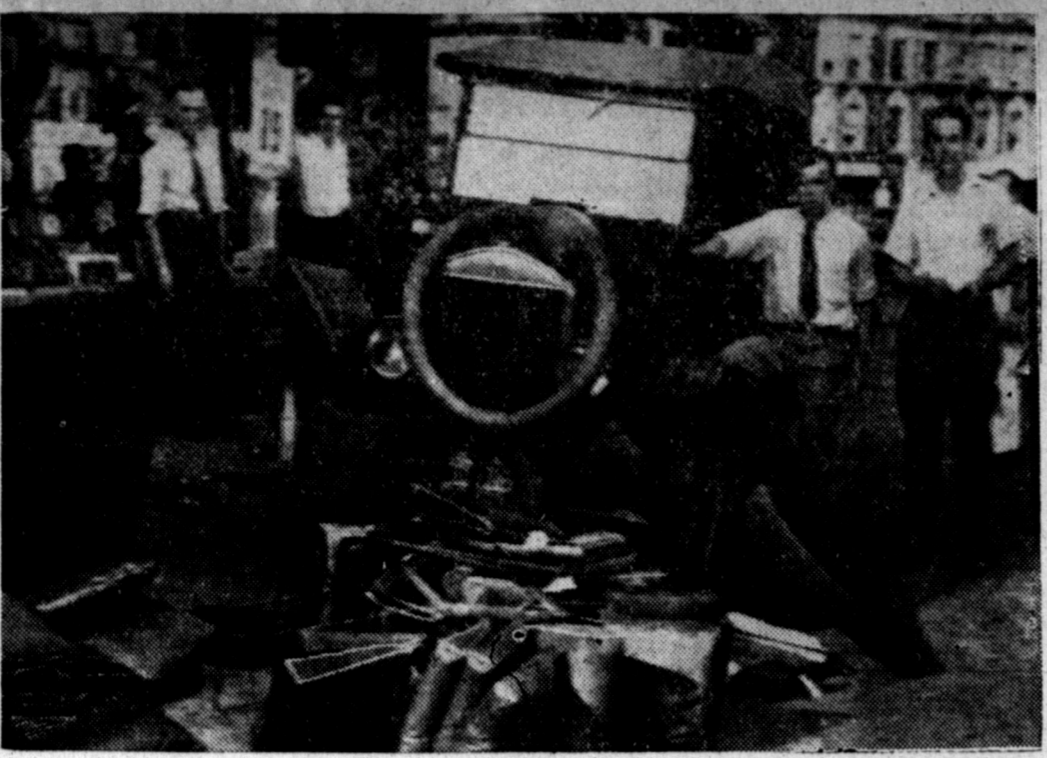

Hull did not mention India, but he said: "It has been our purpose in the past—and will be our purpose in the future—to use the full measure of our influence to support attainment of freedom by all peoples who, by their acts, show themselves worthy of it and ready for it."

Britain contends she can not relinquish administrative control—which Gandhi's followers demand—at this time, even if she believed Indians immediately capable of self-government. She made an unsuccessful attempt this year to get the two big Indian factions, Hindus and Moslems, to agree on a form of post-war rule. Both factions are suspicious of each other and they are only part of the complex Indian picture.

Eight now India is a keystone in the United Nations' war strategy. It is a link with China, an offensive base for operations against the Japanese already swarming on its border, and its manpower and resources scarcely have been scratched.

Moreover, any internal discord would facilitate the expected Japanese invasion.

Here's Plan For Conserving Tires

DALLAS, July 25 (AP)—G. C. Atkins of Dallas has a plan for conserving auto tires and tubes. "Motorists should sound their horns three times when they see a motorist driving a partially-flat tire," Atkins said. "As a further signal, should they pass this car or truck, give the driver a signal with the right hand such as the old familiar signal used by the hitch-hikers, the four fingers closed with the thumb pointing up."

Catching under-inflated casings before the tire and tube are damaged is the object of Atkins' suggestion. He has written to governors of the states and to other executives in an effort to make it a nation-wide campaign.

LOCAL VOTE

In precinct 4, C. M. Carpenter, incumbent, won over J. E. Glass, 440 to 238, to win re-election as county commissioner. Clerk's Race In Doubt

In the race for district clerk, the issue was still in doubt early this morning, due to the lack of complete returns from LeFors, where Miriam Wilson, incumbent, was reported to a 4 to 1 lead over R. E. Gatlin. The incomplete returns from all precincts showed Miss Wilson polling 2,022 votes to Gatlin's 2,072, but this 50-vote lead could easily be cut down if Miss Wilson continues her winning margin at the LeFors box.

Henry Shoffit was leading with 75 votes in the race for constable of precinct 1, the other candidates with respective totals, George Hawthorne, 72; C. S. Clendennin, 50; John Tschirhart, a write-in, 36; George Bailey, 32; W. J. Clemmons, 20.

Earl Lewis was elected constable of precinct 2 without a run-off, polling 1,477 votes or twice as many as Jack Ross, 730 votes, H. W. Gooch, 467.

For justice of the peace of precinct 1, H. M. Guthrie polled 186 votes to R. C. Holley's 92.

In precinct 2, Charles I. Hughes breezed into re-election as justice of the peace of precinct 2, place 2, winning 1,964 votes over T. W. Barnes' 613.

O'DANIEL

(Continued from page 1) ters. But the wild joy, the exuberance of victory, was not there as it was in 1938 when the flour salesman ran for governor and astonished even Texas by winning without a run-off.

On that night, Pat, Mike and Molly hugged and kissed one another, swung their mom and pop in a dance of joy and bubbled their delight over the radio. The Hillbilly band was there and the O'Daniel home was a happy bedlam of friends and flowers and cakes and pies and young folks and old folks.

Tonight, the house was just as big, the occasion just as memorable, the roses just as plentiful, the election returns just as acceptable. But the spirit was different.

The O'Daniel family was sullen and bitter with the wounds of the campaign just closed. They were polite, but distant, when a few strangers rang the door bell and asked with awe and diffidence if they might "just look around."

One of the strangers was an old man. He was in overalls and he looked tired and worn. He choked up and finally wiped the mist from his glasses as he spoke a little speech of reverence.

"I was so mad," he said. "I heard a man down on the courthouse square today say Senator O'Daniel was a liar about those barriers they put up at his speaking. I say anybody that calls Mr. O'Daniel a liar, the truth isn't in him."

The O'Daniel friends, welcome to come and go as they pleased, they were different too. Most of them new friends since that campaign in 1938. There were about two dozen of them. Most of the men sat upstairs with Senator O'Daniel, son Mike and daughter Molly's husband (J. D. Weather, Jr.) to listen to the returns as they came in.

Mrs. O'Daniel, tight-lipped and bitter, spoke for the senator and revealed the unhappiness in this election night watch party. She said they had been "deeply wounded."

"We have no statement to make," she said, "through any newspaper. We can get our message to our friends in some other way. That's what we've been having to do all along."

She said both the newspapers and radio had attempted to crucify them. "They all but drew our blood," she said.

Not accessible for any statement was the senator, or Mike or Molly. The missing member of the family was Corporal Pat, now at Fort Benning, Ga.

Finns 'Astonished' By Closing Of All Consulates

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—The Finnish legation said today that the Helsinki government, in a note to the United States concerning the latter's request for the closing of all Finnish consulates in this country, had expressed "astonishment" that this country "should without customary previous exchange of views bring about a step as far-reaching as the cessation of consular relations."

The legation's statement added, however, that in compliance with the request the Helsinki government had sent instructions to close the consulates, which would be done before the end of the month.

(The state department announced on July 16 it had requested the closing of the Finnish consulates by August 1 because the Finnish government had "undermined the basis upon which American consular representation was maintained in Finland" and had denied American consular offices their treaty rights.)

WORLEY

(Continued from page 1) much larger but for the fact that his name was not placed on the Cotter county ballot and Miller received a total of 1,793 votes to none for Worley. That oversight of friends was somewhat overcome when voters of Carson county gave Worley 574 votes and Miller one and voters of Oldham county gave Worley 453 votes and Miller none.

Worley in his campaign for election two years ago told voters that if he ever had to vote to plunge the nation into war he would enlist. He kept that campaign promise and enlisted in the navy. After several months of training he was sent to Hawaii and then assigned to active duty on board an aircraft carrier. Last week President Roosevelt ordered all senators and congressmen to return to Washington.

In precinct 4, C. M. Carpenter, incumbent, won over J. E. Glass, 440 to 238, to win re-election as county commissioner. Clerk's Race In Doubt

In the race for district clerk, the issue was still in doubt early this morning, due to the lack of complete returns from LeFors, where Miriam Wilson, incumbent, was reported to a 4 to 1 lead over R. E. Gatlin. The incomplete returns from all precincts showed Miss Wilson polling 2,022 votes to Gatlin's 2,072, but this 50-vote lead could easily be cut down if Miss Wilson continues her winning margin at the LeFors box.

Henry Shoffit was leading with 75 votes in the race for constable of precinct 1, the other candidates with respective totals, George Hawthorne, 72; C. S. Clendennin, 50; John Tschirhart, a write-in, 36; George Bailey, 32; W. J. Clemmons, 20.

Earl Lewis was elected constable of precinct 2 without a run-off, polling 1,477 votes or twice as many as Jack Ross, 730 votes, H. W. Gooch, 467.

JUST BETWEEN US GIRLS

[By JOHNNIE DAVIS]

Take one large, grassy field. One-half dozen children. Two or three small dogs. A pinch of brook and some pebbles. Mix the children and the dogs well together. And put them in the field constantly stirring. Pour the brook over the pebbles; Sprinkle the field with flowers; Spread over it all a deep blue sky. And bake in the hot sun. When brown, remove and set away to cool—in a bathtub!

A much needed rest for readers of this column is provided today... While this writer is vacationing, the following excerpts from other writers will be borrowed to fill this space.

The war is making us expect more of women every day... A year ago we talked about the courage of little Mrs. So-and-So, wife of a reserve officer, who, when her husband was called to active duty, put her furniture into storage, piled the kids in the car and followed him from camp to camp... We thought it was wonderful the way she uncomplainingly put up with makeshift homes and went through the ordeal of moving every few months.

In the last year we've learned that inconveniences are nothing, and that nobody deserves any special praise for putting up with them uncomplainingly. In order to merit extravagant praise today, a woman has to do something really big. We are expecting the same kind of courage and resourcefulness of women that we expect of men.

Where is the equivalent of all the great songs of War I—such as Tipperary, There's A Long, Long Trail, Over There, Keep The Home Fires Burning, Memories, Pack Up Your Troubles and Just a Baby's Prayer at Twilight? You can't say the Tin Pan Alley boys haven't tried, from Berlin, on down but somehow they have missed the mark up to now... Think of the war songs you have heard on airlines in recent weeks and ask yourself if they have the quality that gives a song immortality.

"Don't forget to wear your Red Cross pin, Mama." That's Papa speaking. Mama has done a lot of things in the thirty-five years they have been married to make Papa proud of her. But he has never been quite as proud of anything as that Red Cross pin and the hours of unselfish work that gave Mama the right to wear it.

Mama is a little surprised that Papa even noticed it. Men aren't very good about showing pleasure in their wives' achievements. That is probably one reason why so many women don't realize how much pride men take in having their wives do really worthwhile things. Because he is proud of her war work, Mama is getting twice the amount of satisfaction out of doing it that she would if he paid no attention or treated it as though it were unimportant.

So, give Mama a hand, men, when she does something that makes you proud of her. It doesn't give her any encouragement if you're only secretly proud. Let her know about it. Brag about her a little to other people when she is around to hear.

Chances are she applauds every effort you make. Women are good at patting their men on the back and egging them on. But it's a rare husband who realizes that women, as much as men, need to know that someone is proud of them for the worthwhile things they attempt and sometimes accomplish.

Making Coffee... The department of agriculture offers the following suggestions to obtain the full benefit and satisfaction from your coffee: Be sure your coffee pot is clean—scrubbed, not rinsed. Do not boil your coffee. Even "boiled" coffee, when properly made, is steeped in boiling water and kept warm just under the boiling point. Drink coffee immediately after making it. The longer it stands, the more flavor it loses.

It's about time we coined a word or phrase to describe the woman who takes hold of the job of being a wife, mother and homemaker and does it with so much imagination, individuality and warmth that she is tops in her line of work. It's wellfitting to call such a woman a good housekeeper, she who—whether she has enough money or far too little—can turn any house into a cheerful, comfortable, inviting home.

So when you try to describe a woman who is successful in the job of homemaking, a job at which so many women are either outright failures or never get beyond the stage of mediocrity, you find yourself stymied. There's no word that does her justice, no phrase that really tells what a success you mean to imply she is.

In all fairness to the women who choose to make homemaking their full-time job and to devote all their talents, imagination, and energy toward being a success at it, we ought to invent a name to describe them. On second thought, they ought to think it up themselves. If any of you women—who find homemaking the most fascinating job in the world and know it takes as much and probably more ability to be tops in it than in any other line of work—have a word or phrase to describe the successful homemaker, let's hear it.

And, if you can coin some suitable phrase with which to describe women who excel at the job of homemaking, maybe they wouldn't always be made to feel like nobody-in-particular when they are introduced to a TOPFLIGHT designer, a SUCCESSFUL novelist, or a radio STAR.

An anonymous reader sent in the following poetic takeoff on Joyce Kilmer's immortal "Trees." So, with apologies to Joyce: GIRLS I think that I shall never see A girl refuse a meal that's free; A girl with hungry eyes not fixed Upon a drink that's being mixed; A girl who doesn't like to wait A lot of junk to match her hair Girls are loved by guys like me—I like 'em better than a tree!

Ice cream flavors are down to 20 (WPB request) but soda fountain ingenuity is "up" to here, to satisfy that yen for fizzy drinks, fancy sandwich fillings and super-sundaes. "V materials" (V for Victory, as you knew) is Washingtonian for those foods and fabrics designed to replace shortages for the duration; they look large on menus passed across the marble counters (mostly by girls these days). Banana splits won't be banished, for those three favorite scoops—"chaw-llin", vanilla and strawberry—that nestle between the golden halves of fruit aren't among the casualties of war, even though some 17 more exotic flavors are!

The first of September this writer will be taking another week's vacation, so if anyone has the urge to write this column then, just let us know.

Engagement Of Mary Elizabeth Price Announced At Coffee Saturday

Daughter Of Prominent Local Family To Marry Tulsan August 15

Announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Price, to Robert Grady Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady S. Patterson of Tulsa, was made at a coffee at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the Price home, 521 N. Somerville. Miss Price and Mr. Patterson are to be married at the Presbyterian church here on August 15.

A concealed record player announced the engagement to the guests. The announcement simulated a radio news broadcast and the record player was on a table decorated with pink roses and white baby breath. White shasta daisies were used in decorating other rooms of the house.

The announcement heard from the recording was: "Attention for special news flash. The Germans and Russians got into a crash. The Japanese are still bombing as hard as they can. Still MacArthur is considered a very brave man. But wait just a moment, here's something to show. About a young couple whom you all know. A Tulsa boy and a Pampa girl. Sounds to me like quite a whirl. August 15 is their wedding day. Happiness to Mary and Bob, we say." Adding to the effect of the novel method of announcing the engagement was the fact that the voice heard was that of Tex DeWeese, managing editor of The Pampa News, who regularly gives newscasts over Radio Station KPON.

Mrs. C. P. Buckler poured coffee. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Charles B. Cook and Mrs. Albert Reynolds. Rolls were served by Mrs. W. T. Price, a cousin of the bride-elect, Mrs. George Pollard kept the guest book, and Mrs. Rex Rose greeted guests as they entered the house.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Willis D. Price, mother of Miss Mary Elizabeth, Mary Martha, Harriett, and Margaret, sisters of the bride-elect, and Ann Buckler.

Each wore a shoulder corsage. That of Mrs. Price's was of roses and delphinium, while Miss Mary Martha Price's corsage was all of delphinium, and those of others, pink roses.

Refreshments were coffee, small assorted rolls, pink and white minis, an assorted fruit plate, and creamed chicken in the half-shell.

The honoree is of a prominent Gray county family who have a large brick mansion on their ranch.

Fred Johnson, Miss Furry Wed In San Antonio

Announcement was made here today of the marriage of Sgt. Fred Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Johnson of Pampa, to Miss Grace Furry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Furry of San Antonio.

The wedding took place in the Alamo Methodist parsonage in San Antonio at 5 p. m., Sunday, July 12. Attendants were Sgt. Raymond D. Speer of Brooks field and Miss Mildred Cummings of San Antonio.

Mrs. Johnson was graduated from a San Antonio high school in 1940 and prior to her marriage was employed in the office of a San Antonio department store.

Sergeant Johnson graduated from Pampa high school in 1933 and later attended West Texas State college, Canyon. He enlisted in the air corps in April, 1941, and was stationed at Brooks field, near San Antonio, until May 27 of this year when he was transferred to the Amarillo glider school, where he is now a clerk in the technical inspector's office.

Sergeant and Mrs. Johnson are at home at 1307 S. Lincoln, Amarillo. They spent the past week-end in Pampa.

LaRosa Members To Meet Troop Trains

Members of the LaRosa sorority will meet troop trains and give cookies, candies, cake, magazines, and books to the passengers, it was decided at a meeting of the sorority held recently at the home of Miss Elaine Dawson, 623 N. Russell.

Plans for a dance to be given on August 7, to be called a "Our Heroes" dance were also completed at the meeting, and for a swimming party and dance tomorrow at the Pampa Municipal Swimming pool.

Refreshments were served to Mollie Kennedy, Barbara Matthews, Betty Jean Myers, Ada Simmons, Virginia Washington, Elaine Dawson, members, and to two guests, Frankie Foster and Wanda Roberts.

Next meeting will be held Thursday at the home of Robbie Lee Russell, 118 N. Purviance.

Fish Fry Held At E. J. Grove Home

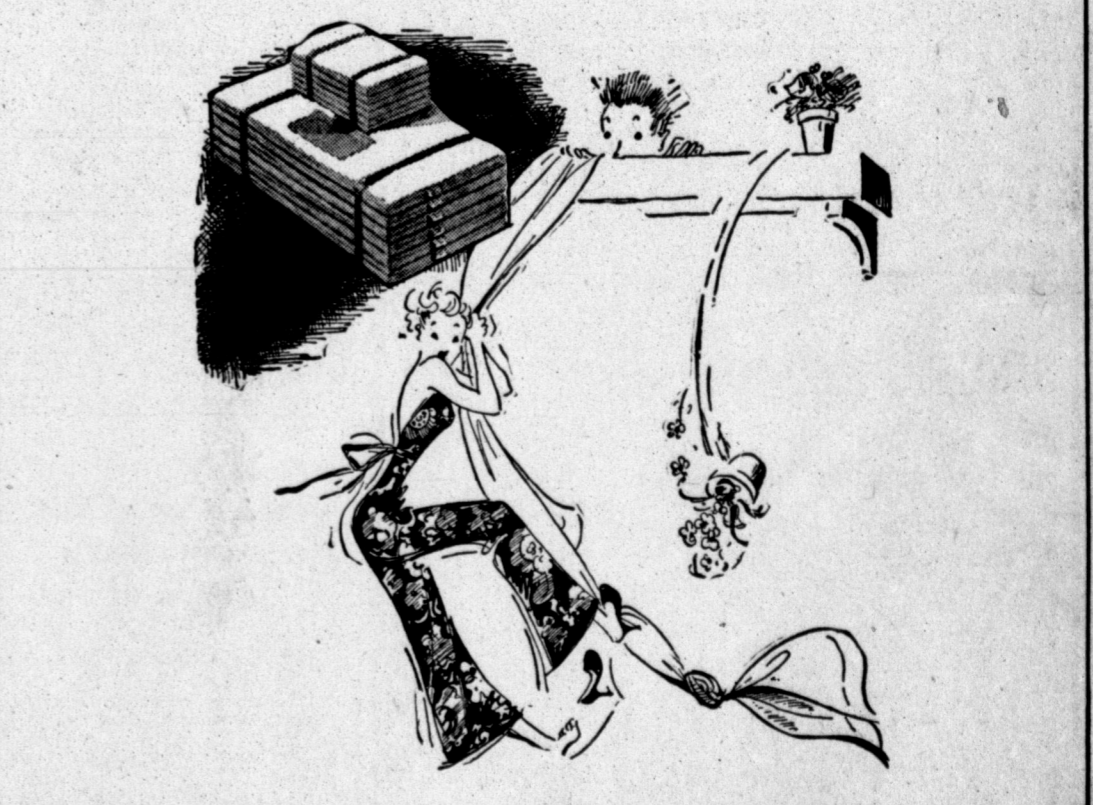

Mountain trout, caught by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grove at Taylor lake, DeLoe, Colo., were served to employees of the Parisian Beauty Shop at the Grove home, 719 E. Browning, Wednesday night.

Attending were Sadie Wilson, Mesie Kelley, Johnnie Belle Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Anderson and son, Richard, the host and hostesses and their daughter, Frances, and Mrs. Grove's mother, who prepared and served the fish in the backyard of the Grove residence.

his collection to the swagger wrap-around, second place to the fitted blouse-top coat with longer waist. DeLoe does this, he says, because the chief quality of every new fur coat for wartime is the "1943-and-after" look.

"More significant than any fashion feature," he comments, "is the long-term wearability and the modern all-occasion utility of the coat." Trend-setter and hit of his collection is a Chinese coolie coat of pure simplicity. Easy in the shoulders and armholes, draped from a yoke in front, this coat is slit at each side, closed with a great Chinese frog. It is stunning in Persian and in Alaska snafkin.

V Notes RED CROSS VOLUNTEERS

By MRS. FRED ROBERTS The olive drab yarn for army sweaters and helmets is in now and Mrs. Roy Bourland, knitting chairman, is asking that all experienced knitters come in immediately and get started on these garments.

Because we will be getting many such demands in the future, it is very necessary that we have many new knitters. Mrs. Leech's pleasant living room is an ideal place to learn.

If you are not interested in knitting, there is plenty of sewing on hand. We need to get blouses finished as fast as we can.

This week Mrs. J. E. White, home service worker of the Red Cross, gave the mother of Travis Noblitt one of the big experiences of her life.

On Tuesday and Wednesday of this week there will be a home nursing institute in Amarillo which Mrs. White and home nursing instructors of Pampa will attend.

Mrs. Charlie Thut, who is taking care of the production records regarding the women worked 1,073 hours from July 6-24 to complete 62 knitted articles, and 38 sewed garments.

In the production room 66 workers spent 294 hours supervising checking garments, sewing in labels, cutting, etc.

Lea Vicars, third with $8. Mrs. F. M. Baker sewed ten blouses to lead in the sewing.

Our thanks to Mrs. Lee Cady who gave us five dollars for the findings for the blouses.

The winning blouse for the week ending July 16, was that sewed by Mrs. W. D. Waters.

The first shipment of American Red Cross parcels for Japanese-held prisoners of war in the Pacific area were shipped on the diplomatic exchange ship, S. S. Gripsholm.

Under arrangements negotiated through the International Red Cross committee and the Japanese Red Cross, the American Red Cross is also shipping for the army and navy departments a supply of clothing and other necessities.

The A. R. C. food parcels contain evaporated milk, lard, cheese, copra, sardines, oleomargarine, beef, chocolate bars, sugar, powdered orange concentrate, prunes, dehydrated vegetable soup, as well as such essential luxuries as coffee, cigarettes and tobacco.

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON NEA Service Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD, July 25 -- Samuel Goldwyn has been making a movie in a deserted gas works.

Comment on a Red Cross club comes from the "top of the world" by way of The White Falcon, the sprightly and informative newspaper published by the American armed forces in Iceland.

Except for the adjective addicts of the Chamber of Commerce, studio workers are the only people who try to make the California climate brighter and the flora lusher than they really are.

A Warner Brothers company, "Watch on the Rhine," has gone to work in the famous Busch Gardens in Pasadena, but the movie experts made a lot of changes in that pretentious beauty pool.

The trees, which are as symmetrical as if their foliage had been put up by Hollywood hair-dressers, didn't cast shadows in the right places.

There was a nice breeze the day I was there, but it was uncontrollable. Prop men attached thin wires to branches and tugged at them rhythmically during scenes.

There's a gas works next to the Goldwyn studio, and for years the two outfits have regarded each other uneasily.

There's a gas works next to the Goldwyn studio, and for years the two outfits have regarded each other uneasily. The huge tank isn't likely to explode, but would take the studio with it if it did.

Jimmy Rogers Recalls Will To AP Writer

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD -- The lean, raven-haired young man in the dungarees, boots and old fed hat stood there on the set, chinning with Mary Brian, when we came up.

"Glad to know you," he said, shaking hands. He tilted back his hat, and grinned.

There's nothing very startling about all this, except that it set the clock back about 10 years. The resemblance, the uncanny similarity of the gestures, the stance, the easy-going manner--he brought back Will Rogers.

This was Jimmy Rogers, Will's youngest boy. Jimmy is 26, and getting started in pictures. Will, Jr., the older, is publishing his paper in Beverly Hills and getting set to run for congress.

I don't know much about it myself, he said. "Just about what the average man knows." I thought about that. Will Rogers, too. All he knew was what he read in the papers.

Jimmy isn't exactly a stranger to the movies. When he was five or six, he played with his dad in the first of his early silent films.

Jimmy was a ranch and cattle man. Had about 10,000 acres up in Santa Barbara county. It was such a nice big place that the army stepped in, bought it, and turned it into Camp Cook.

Like father, like son--Jimmy is leaving the movie love-making to other boys. He's Mollie Beery, Jr., who goes after Mary Brian in "Calaboose."

"Me do love scenes?" said Jimmy. "I'd be scared to go home--my wife'd wrap a coathanger around my neck!"

He didn't think they'd be making a glamour-boy out of him, either. "I don't know much about it," he grinned, "except that it's an absolute impossibility." It is. They never could put any glamour on Will Rogers, either. There are some people who just have to struggle along with--

Like his dad, Jimmy used to be quite a hand on the polo field. He now has a four-goal rating, but he doesn't play much. Nobody does any more. "It's this way: a football player's legs give out, a basketball player loses his arm, and it's the same with a polo player--his dough gives out."

If he goes over in pictures, he's still going to be a part-time cattle man. "Taking care of 2,000 cows can keep you pretty busy. And a cow isn't as fickle as the public's supposed to be--she doesn't care who herds her around."

If he'd taken out a lariar and twirled it, or if he'd taken a chew of gum, you could have sworn... But it was good, seeing a Rogers boy around the sound stages again.

Goldwyn blows up frequently, so they don't like having him so close. When the studio asked the gas commission for permission to film part of "They Got Me Covered" in the plant the answer was, in Goldwyn's famous "two words"--"Impossible!" But they had an abandoned plant which served well.

Back at the studio now, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour are working in an office building set, rooms and corridors of which are walled with cloth. This construction puts a strain on the pride of the lavish Mr. Goldwyn, but it looks all right. Hope has asked that a sturdy, paper-mache oak be installed on the stage. He says Miss Lamour has made so many jungle pictures she has to climb a tree to rehearse her lines.

WILDCAT TEST TO BE DRILLED WHERE 4 COUNTIES MEET

15 New Wells To Be Drilled In Panhandle

Four counties can claim the newest wildcat test for oil in the Panhandle field but to keep the records straight in the office of the Texas Railroad commission, the location will be recorded as being in Carson county. The new test will be known as the Stanolind Oil & Gas company's No. 1 J. E. Griffin in section 7, block 2, AB&M survey, or as the "Old Tack No. 3."

The well will be drilled where Carson, Armstrong, Randall and Potter counties meet. It will be six miles south of St. Francis and 10 miles east of Amarillo. The location will be north of the Fort Worth and Denver right-of-way. Contract depth is 7,400 feet. Drilling contractor is Rowan Drilling company of Midland.

Nickname for the well will be "Old Tack No. 3." The "Old Tack" moniker comes from the columnist of an Amarillo newspaper who has been active in having two wells drilled, both dry, and in securing drilling of the latest wildcat.

Drilling on the Humble Oil & Refining company's wildcat test in Hall county slowed down last week, total depth being 3,550 feet. In Dallam county the Pure Oil company's wildcat was going down at 4,600 feet latest report.

A new drilling spree broke loose in Carson county and one each in Gray and Hutchinson counties. A total of 184 new oil and gas wells have been tested and given open flow potentials this year.

Four new oil wells were tested and given open flow potentials of 370 barrels. Two of the new wells were in Carson county and one each in Gray and Hutchinson counties. A total of 184 new oil and gas wells have been tested and given open flow potentials this year.

Completions by counties follow:

In Carson County
Cities Service Oil Co., No. 6 Fields, section 13, block 7, I&GN survey, tested 69 barrels.
Skelly Oil Co., No. 149 Schafer ranch, section 196, block 3, I&GN survey, was given a potential of 169 barrels.

In Gray County
Phillips Petroleum Co., No. 7 Swanson, section 87, block B-2, H&GN survey, gauged 90 barrels.

In Hutchinson County
Gooden and Parton No. 4 Hodges, section 14, block CO2, L. A. Partillo survey, tested 42 barrels.
Intentions to drill:
Navajo Prod. corp., E. S. Poling Est. No. 2, 1,320' from the south and 1,320' from the west lines of section 24, block Y-2, TTRR survey, Carson county.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, July 25 (AP)—Had it not been for further quiet strength in the Treasury market, the stock market would have continued the week's advance.

Boardrooms were sparsely populated as numerous customers followed the recent custom of calling Saturday a holiday. Dealers were slack from the start. Transfers of 115,970 shares compared with 99,810 a week ago, which was the smallest in about two years.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up .1 of a point but showed a net loss of as much as the week.

Santa Fe went into new high ground since 1938 with a gain of 3/4 at 42. Others on the upside included Atlantic coast line, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, N. Y. Central and Great Northern.

Allied Chemical was up 1/4 and Liggett & Myers "B" 1/4. Minor plus marks were retained by U. S. Steel, American Telephone, United Aircraft, Western Union, Westinghouse, General Electric, Eastman Kodak and Texas Company.

On the offside were Chrysler, General Motors, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Standard Oil (N.J.), International Nickel, Woolworth and Air Reduction.

Production Of Arms Trebled In 8 Months

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—War Production Chief Donald M. Nelson told the nation today that this country's June output of planes, tanks, ships, guns, ammunition, and all campaign equipment was almost triple production of last November

—but he admonished against "undue optimism."

In the first six months of this year, Nelson said in a communique from the production front, the volume of such war munitions turned out was one-and-a-half times as large as production during all of 1941.

While Nelson reported that in general, the arsenal of democracy was doing a good job, he asserted that serious raw materials shortages were impending, new bottlenecks forming, and "too much boasting is altogether premature."

Other highlights of the commu-

1. Production of aircraft in the first six months of 1942 exceeded total 1941 output.

2. Merchant ship tonnage delivered in the first six months of this year was 133 per cent greater than during all of last year.

3. The number of anti-aircraft guns produced in the first six months was about three-and-one-half times as large as total production in 1941, but output must be stepped up sharply because of a lag in the early phases of the program.

4. "Many more" tanks were built in the first six months than during all of last year.

5. Production of machine tools, presses and other metal-working machinery was valued at $649,000,000, an increase of 98 per cent over the first six months of 1941.

6. A great expansion in salvage operations must be carried out to offset expected shortages in materials.

Canadian Band Ends Series Of Concerts

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
CANADIAN, July 25—Demot Misner and his high school band of 45 pieces played to an appreciative audience at their weekly concert on the courthouse lawn Thursday night.

This was the closing concert for the summer, the bandmaster believing students need the rest of the hot summer for rest from school work to be in good condition for the opening of school in September.

Approximately $36 was realized from the boxes sold at a box supper to be used for new music for the band.

Mr. Misner also had a junior group of about 20 members. This summer. Both groups will be increased in membership at opening of school by students coming by bus from the country.

Traffic Rules For Underpass Issued

Rules and regulations governing driving through Pampa's new underpass were issued yesterday by Police Chief Ray Dudley.

Through traffic will be allowed on Cuyler street. Stop signs have been placed on Atchison and Tyng streets approaching Cuyler street. No "U" turns will be allowed at the intersection of Cuyler and Atchison streets but will be allowed at the intersection of Cuyler and Tyng streets, at the south approach of the underpass.

The city speed limit must be observed at all times while driving through the underpass.

Chief Dudley also announced that anyone found defacing the underpass in any way will be arrested and placed in jail, charged with defacing public property.

"We want the underpass to be a thing of beauty and it can't be if persons chip or write on the concrete or play on the slopes," Chief Dudley said.

SERIAL STORY

BANNERS FLYING

BY MARY RAYMOND

COPYRIGHT, 1942, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Christie, one of the Colton twins, comes down from her first solo flight to find Bart and Sandra at the field. Christie is in love with Bart, a medical student and air enthusiast, but he doesn't approve of her flying. The fact that she's driving Christie home, Bart mentions he has met a girl on the ship, Sandra Rydall, who is coming to live in Westwood. Christie senses the new girl is pretty—therefore dangerous.

COMPETITION ARRIVES

CHAPTER II

CHRISTIE, in Bart's arms, whirled past her mother and Miss Sarah Lancaster. She gave them her most heart-warming smile, because she felt sorry for them both—sitting there against the wall. For her mother, still pretty at 42, her romantic girlhood so far in the background...

"Gosh, what a dull evening," Tommy had cut in. "I think it's rather nice, myself," Christie answered. "Why the sweet brotherly attention?"

"Well, to be honest, I need a little extra money—all you have in your evening bag." "Tommy, you are always broke? Anyway, everything's free. A lobster plate, I'm hearing."

"The perfect Family Tone," Tommy laughed. Let's switch to something pleasant. And I do mean pleasant. There's a girl here—well, nothing quite like her I've ever set foot in this town before. She came in late with the Robb Nortons. She and I are going to slip out at intermission. I'm promised to show her our most spectacular night spot. She's really keen about it."

Could she be the same girl Bart had been talking about? Of course she was! She looks pretty social, Bart had said. The next moment, Bart had cut in again. Suddenly, the music stopped abruptly. Then as quickly swung into "God Bless America."

"Good tune," Bart said, as the dancing stopped. They were standing now by the arch which separated the ballroom from the enclosed porch. Tommy and a girl were dancing on the dimly-lighted porch. They danced past Christie and Bart and into the ballroom, and as though completely unaware of the sensation they were causing, double-stepped the martial rhythm with perfect timing.

THE girl wore a bright red frock, with a huge skirt that emphasized her slim waist. Her eyes were enormous and velvety black. "Tommy's a fool," Bart said. "If this had been Europe, he would have been rushed off by the military police. He's pretty lucky he lives in America."

"Tommy," Christie echoed indignantly, "what about that girl? She should have brought some respect for this country when she came from Europe!"

Bart spoke slowly, "I think it's rather unfair to judge a person so quickly." Christie's anger fell from her. "Perhaps it is," she said in a low tone. She had realized that not all her anger was directed against the new girl because of the exhibition. She disliked her because she was beautiful and dangerous—because Bart obviously didn't dislike her. Now, she was beating a retreat because Bart might be forced into open championship of the other girl.

"It's just that everybody was looking at Tommy as though he were a traitor," Christie said. Her voice trembled a little. "Oh, now look here. Aren't you getting a little hysterical about the whole thing? Nobody is going to spoil this evening for me. Sit this out with me, Christie. I've something to tell you."

Christie's personal sky was swept clear of storm clouds. She thought, as Bart piloted her toward the Palm Room: "It's silly lines for New York. She said she and her husband would have a brief honeymoon at her country place. She told reporters that after the wedding trip, she plans active entertainment work among service men."

De-tinning plants, which reclaim both tin and steel from used tin cans, are in operation at Pittsburgh, Pa., and Sewaren, N. J. Tests are underway to determine possibilities for salvage of metal on a larger scale.

EL PASO, July 25 (AP)—Helen Jepson, 35-year-old Metropolitan opera star, and Walter De Lerra, an engineer, were married in Juarez, Mexico, shortly before noon today. The ceremony was performed by Judge J. G. Salas of the Juarez civil court, in the Juarez municipal building. The couple was unattended, the bride explaining that she wanted a quiet ceremony.

De Lerra is an engineer for the Alco Boat Manufacturing company. He is the son of the late Ricardo De Lerra, an assistant conductor at Metropolitan. The couple arranged to leave El Paso by 6 p. m. by American Air-lun god.

"I'm glad I met you," Sandra said. "I wanted to see what you were like." "I hope I haven't disappointed you," Christie said sweetly.

to be this much in love." A look from Bart could lift her up or drop her down. Right now she was on top of the world. Bart had something to tell her! They had reached the dim, secluded Palm Room; and Bart had caught her close to him.

"Christie, I had it all planned out to ask you to marry me. Dr. Atwell wants me to come in with him, as soon as I finish my internship."

"Dr. Atwell," Christie breathed. Chief surgeon at the near-by Lakeville hospital, head of his clinic, and one of the famous men in his field.

"Yes," Bart's voice was low and tense. "But I can't do it, Christie. This war business has got me. I'm going to get in there and pitch."

"I'll wait," Christie whispered. "Oh, darling—it might be a long time." "But you will stand by me, won't you?"

"You know I will." He kissed her again, and then released her. A low, amused laugh had startled them. "Hello, soldier."

SANDRA RYDALL had come close to them. She was nearer Christie, but her eyes were on Bart.

"Hello," Bart said, adding "Christie, this is Sandra Rydall." He turned to Christie: "Shall we tell her?"

"Why not?" Christie thought, happily. It would be just as well for this arrogant young beauty to know how things stood.

"I'm the seventh daughter of a seventh son," Sandra said lightly. "That makes me know things without being told. Besides I was only two feet away when you sprang the big news."

"Oh," Christie's face burned. The girl was bold, shameless. "But it wasn't news to me," Sandra continued carelessly. "You see he had told me before. You're still strong for the Air Corps, I guess."

Christie's shocked surprise was succeeded by pure fury. If she spoke now, she would certainly betray her indignation and contempt for this girl and her cheap tactics. She did not speak, waiting for Bart to put the stranger in her place.

Communists In London Urge Second Front

By EDWIN SHANKE

LONDON, July 25 (AP)—The small but highly vocal Communist party of Great Britain drummed up insistence for a second front tonight with a gaudy campaign of leaflets and chalked signs while President Eduard Benes of Czechoslovakia predicted Hitler would sue for peace by Oct. 15 if he had not won a decisive victory by then.

The Communists prepared for a great demonstration tomorrow in Trafalgar Square and Benes added his potent voice to the uproar for a western front to relieve the hard-pressed Russians.

Benes, one of the best informed statesmen in exile, has extensive underground information channels. He said Germany would be exhausted by spring if the Russians hold out and, he added, "I think they will."

The length of the war, he told Czech soldiers, would depend on how soon the British and U. S. troops massed in these islands spring across the channel at the Germans.

"If a second front could be established within the next three months to divert a certain proportion of the German forces from the eastern front it is probable that things will develop quickly and we might be home within a year," he said.

The efforts of the 53,000 British Communists were thrown into their drive to "open the second front now."

Within three days after the campaign started, district reports came from many places on the mass meeting and distribution of hundreds of thousands of leaflets and posters.

Assisting Karow will be Lieut. (JG) Jack Gray, former assistant football coach and head basketball mentor at the University of Texas; Lieut. (JG) Clyde V. Lee of Kilgore college. Ensign Walter Roach of Texas Christian university, Ensign Ell Stages, former Gladewater high school coach, Ensign G. C. Dowell, former Texas Tech assistant athletic director, and Ensign Joe Stenko, former Washington State football player.

The grid squad will be made up of officers, cadets and enlisted personnel and will be a major link in the physical training program to condition the navy's future fliers, Lieut. Lane emphasized.

Training will start Sept. 1 for a proposed nine-game schedule opening Sept. 19 and closing Nov. 14. Contests will be arranged with South-west conference eleven and other service teams.

School Contract Let SAN ANTONIO, July 25 (AP)—Col. T. M. Osborne, U. S. district engineer, said today that a contract had been let to the J. W. Bateson company, Paris, for the construction of buildings at the air force flying school in Del Rio at a cost of $2,000,000.

Penalty After August 1 AUSTIN, July 25 (AP)—Motorists who have not purchased automobile use tax stamps for the current fiscal year will be subject to penalties after Aug. 1, Internal Revenue Collector Frank Scofield of the first Texas district advised today.

Scap will be more plentiful than ever this year, because of the military demand for explosives made from glycerine. Soap is a by-product of this manufacturing.

U. S. Bombers Raid Shipping At Tobruk

By STEPHEN BARBER

CAIRO, July 25 (AP)—Flying a regular schedule of destruction, American army bomber crews heavily damaged Axis ports and shipping at Tobruk and Bengasi in Libya and Crete's Suda bay on seven missions in the last week, the U. S. Air forces command for the Middle East announced officially today.

Observations indicated great damage was inflicted on dock installations, said the communique from the headquarters of Maj. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton.

"Several medium-sized merchant vessels were left in flames. At Bengasi one large ship was set afire as a result of a direct hit." Brereton's command in the Middle East was announced only a week ago in a communique which told of 21 successful tactical missions carried out up to last Saturday by American army flying their own planes over the desert and far out across the Mediterranean.

It had been hinted in midweek that American Liberators were among the bombers striking at Axis bases on Crete, but the formal announcement of the American participation was made only today.

(The importance of the American aerial cooperation with the British was underscored in the informed military opinion expressed in London to the effect that although the British retain the initiative in the desert fighting the arrival of a single Axis convoy might swing the balance of military power to Marshal Erwin Rommel's armies.)

In the aerial fighting closer to the immediate front, the RAF reported its newest blow at the close-up airfield at El Daba resulted in damage or destruction to more than 20 Axis planes on the ground and three in the air yesterday.

This would bring to more than 80 the number of Axis planes put out of action by actual combat in mass raids in several days in addition to uncounted others referred to as "several" and "many" in some cases.

The RAF yesterday carried out its customary attacks with land forces yesterday and struck at shipping in the Mediterranean as well. During Thursday night, it came know today, a 5,000-ton merchantman under destroyer escort received a direct hit and a Junkers-88 was shot down into the sea.

On Friday British torpedoes bombarded a fighter escort attacked a 7,000-ton ship carrying a heavy and apparently valuable cargo, and when last seen the ship, which had been escorted by two destroyers and a smaller craft, was being towed home by two tugs.

There was little news of land fighting in the desert through yesterday, although there were the usual artillery exchanges and patrol actions.

Men May Enlist In Coast Guard Up To Day Of Induction

FORT WORTH, July 25—Men now may enlist in the coast guard up to the day prior to their actual induction into the army, Lieut. Comdr. V. F. Tydlacka, in charge of the Fort Worth regional office, announced today.

The change in regulations is expected to increase materially the already large flow of enlistments into the coast guard, oldest sea-going military service in the country.

Previously, applicants were not accepted after they had received their selective service orders for induction. But now these men may be enlisted up to the day before they are to report for their final physical examination.

Joint government-service man payments will begin in November, Commander Tydlacka revealed. These payments range from $37 for one parent to $72 for a wife and two children, and beyond, and are retroactive to the date the man enlists. In cases of actual need, special provision will be made for immediate aid to the dependents.

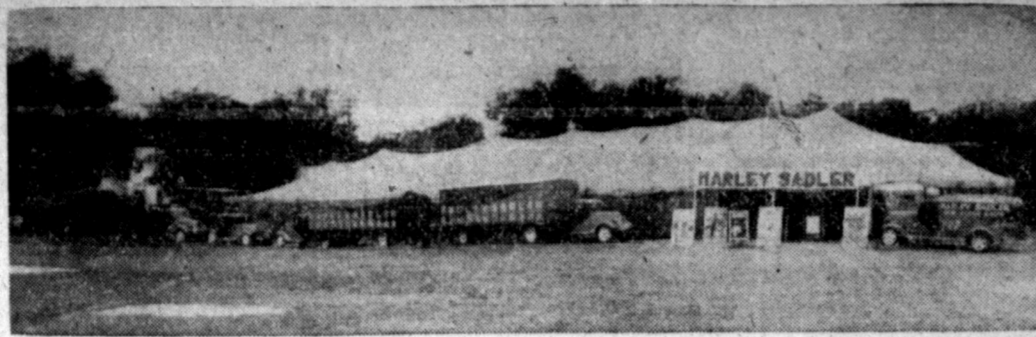

A change in educational requirements also has been made, with a high school education no longer required. Age limits are 17 to 35, inclusive, and regular base pay begins at $50 for apprentice seamen, with rated men drawing much higher checks.

Judge Orders Jury Panel Not To Report

With not a single jury case on the docket for this week, Judge W. R. Ewing of the 31st district court issued orders yesterday for members of the jury panel not to report, thus saving the county many dollars in jury fees.

This week in district court will be devoted to the hearing of pleas of guilty and non-jury cases and suits. The 31st grand jury will convene tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock to transact any business on hand. The grand jury met last Monday and returned three indictments, all for forgery.

Total Disarmament Of Axis Nations After War Advised

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—Senator Norris (Ind.-Neb.) expressed belief today that post-war surveillance of Germany, Italy and Japan—an avowed American war aim—could be carried out without armies of occupation.

He made public a letter to an Omaha constituent saying he thought total disarmament of the three Axis partners would be sufficient for their control.

Advocating destruction of all their battleships, airplanes, submarines and other weapons as well as the factories with which to make them, he commented:

"They cannot carry on if they do not have the weapons and the money with which to carry on."

He conceded, however, that it might be "fifty or a hundred years" before new generations in those countries would see disarmament as "a blessing," but he thought it "would not require any effort to keep the conquered nations in that condition."

"No army of occupation would be necessary," he wrote, "and, in my opinion, it would not be long before it would require no more than a committee to see that nothing was done to disregard the disarmament program."

But if the United States, after the war, continued indefinitely to arm itself and train its men to fight, "if we are to keep this up for a few centuries we would be just as bad as Germany is today."

Norris said the United States also "must know" that it would be an impossibility to demand repatriation from Germany, Italy and Japan for all the expenses of the war.

As hard as it is, as unjust as it may be to face, we will have to suffer for generations to come to pay for the terrible debt we have incurred and are incurring. We will have to bear at least part of this expense x x x the conquered nations must be required to pay as much as they are able to pay but we must not go beyond that point."

The senator suggested, however, that the conquered nations be required to repudiate their own war debts, which would enable them, he said, "to pay much more toward their share of the billions of dollars we have been expending in this war."

Maritime Commission Assailed By Higgins

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—Andrew J. Higgins, New Orleans ship-builder, charged today that employees of the maritime commission had been ordered "to soft-pedal" his work and "build up Bethlehem."

He added in testimony before a house committee studying cancellation of a contract for construction of Liberty cargo ships at his plant that the "soft-pedal" also applied to production at shipyards operated by the commission staff, a member of the commission staff told him that they "were called in and told to soft-pedal Higgins, soft-pedal Kaiser, and build up Bethlehem."

Word of the instruction, he told a committee, came from a member of the commission staff, who, he said, had volunteered to testify before the committee if subpoenaed.

Higgins, asked if anyone had indicated to him that the commission's order for cancellation had been given "reluctantly," replied "Yes, sir, and they were forced to do it."

Higgins also told the committee that in his opinion he got "in the hair" of the commission because he "argued too hard for economy."

He asserted that his yard and ship production "whatever it cost, would be one plant built without one damn cent of graft with no gravy train in it."

Finland Angles For U. S. Favor

NEW YORK, July 25 (AP)—Finland gave world-wide currency today to a suggestion that the United States might help extricate her from her position as an ally of Germany and as a possible sacrifice to Soviet Russia in the event of a United Nations victory.

Some sort of post-war guarantee from the United States appeared to be the price—and much was made of the point that, for six months, Finnish forces have sought only to maintain their lines against the Red army, without making any aggressive moves.

As is the way with such feelers, the manner of publication was complicated. First, the idea appeared in an editorial in the Stockholm newspaper, Dagens Nyheter. Then it was given wide front-page re-publication in the Finnish press. Lastly, the essentials of the editorial were broadcast to the world by the official Finnish radio, with comments and explanatory remarks of its own.

That editorial, as broadcast from Helsinki, said it was urgently important that the United States give more exact information that hitherto about her aims for the protection of small democracies such as Finland from a Bolshevik-dictated peace if the trend of the war should lead to such an end.

If the United States could give Finland more exact information on Allied political aims after the war, the Finns would gain greater confidence, it occurred.

There was no specific suggestion that in such a case Finland would drop her role as Germany's confederate in the fight against Russia.

Police Called On To Stamp Out Prostitution

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—Police officials over the country were called upon today to stamp out prostitution in order to insure that the army, navy, and war industries are not "decimated by casualties due to venereal diseases."

The nation-wide program was recommended in a report by the national advisory police committee on social protection to Federal Security Administrator Paul V. McNutt, who appointed the group recently to develop techniques for repression and prevention of prostitution. BUY VICTORY BONDS. Wheat, wine, olive oil and hemp are four leading crops of Italy. BUY VICTORY BONDS. Read the Classified Ads!
