Jim And Madge Give Up

 Cafe BusinessBy JOHN DUNNAM

> GAIL- After 23 years Jym Hendricks and his wife Madge have retired from the cafe business Being typical of the old timers who inhabit these parts they didn't quit until they parts they didn't quit until they had to. A heart attack Jym had to. A heart attack Jym suffered in July made retirement mandatory for the couple who had a monopoly on the restaur ant business in Borden County for the last 13 years. On July, 27, 1955, when the Hendrickses bought the old George Cathey Cafe. Foch Walton was also operating a cafe in Gail, the county seat and only town in the 921 square mile county. "And back then both of us would sell you all the soda pop you could drink for a nickle apiece," Jym said.

Then years later, Walton sold out to the Hendricks and ricks moved their business few moved their business the building Walton vacated also on U. S. Highway 180 the main street of Gail.

A native of San SabaCo unty, Jym is the fourth son of an eight-boy, two girl family. After serving in World War II he returned home but found himself restless.
"When my brother sent word they needed more hands on the $9-\mathrm{R}$ ranch, I up and moved to Borden County.

The young Hendricks must have found all the excitement he craved because he has been here ever since.

In 1946 he married Madge Blythe.

Jym says he got his first cooking lesson at home cooking for his brothers and sisters but really learned the cafe business from his wife. Madge saysher sister-in-law, Sally Blythe, taught her the trade while she worked at Sally's Cafeteria in Snyder.

Being the only cafe for miles around is a mixed blessing. Like a country doctor, the Hendricks have been awakened in the middle of the night not to cure an upset stomach but an empty one. Madge recalls an incident when they were awakened by four burly men who wanted them to ge up and fix them a hot meal
"We thought it was just a bunch of drunks and were going to send them away when one of them said 'Come on one of them said Come on Madge fix us all a T-bone, Madge fix us all a T-bone, you know we will make it worth your while. I regonized that voice, it

Golden Spur

Presented

IUBBOCK- The Ranching Heritage Association was joined by six livestock organizations Friday to intiate the National Golden Spur Award to honor an individual who has brought distinction to the livestock & ranching industry.
Eighteen hundred people gathered Friday evening in the Lubbock Civic Center for the "Prairie Party" honoring the first Golden Spur recipient, Mr Albert K. Mitchell of AlMert, N.M.
At $84, \mathrm{Mr}$. Mitchell, who is retired in Connecticut, received the award saying "I have been in many storms in my life, but this is the first time l've been struck. Thank you for this honor." He was accompanied to the dinner \& dance by his son Albert \& his family who now operate the Tequesquite Ranch in New Mexico and his daughter Linda M. Davais of Cimarran, New Mexico

1. He was born in 1894 in Clayton , $\mathrm{N}_{0} \mathrm{M}_{0}$, when his father, Thomas E . Mitchell was running cattle and sheep on the open range. He and his three sisters learned from tutors brought to the ranch until he left for Occidental College in California. After two years there he transfered to Cornell University degree in 1917. Later he was to give that University its first Hereford Cattle for its foundation herd and serve on Cor nell's Board of Trustees.

When he returned to the home along Tequequite Creek, his father took him into part nership and called the business the T. E. Mitchell & Son Ranch. Father and son ran the first herd of registered Herefords in New Mexico.

It has been said "Alber Mitchell is Mister No 1 in the cattle Industry."

The Prairie Party featured the best of historic ranch entertainment, frontier fashions & dancing. Fashions from the historic collection of the museum of Texas Tech were modeled by individuals representing some of the oldest ranchers of the west. Music included the cowboys harmonica, pump organ, fiddle & guitar.

The fashions & music were blended into adramatic musica beginning with homesteaders & moving to the school house quilting bee, the 'party', a country ball, traveling, even wedding. Also included was the Albany Fandangle favorite "Drunk & Disorderly."

Borden vs O'Donnell

Last Friday night, September 22, 1978, the Coyotes found a tough O'Donnell team. The outcome was O'Donnell 45, Coyotes 7. The score was 13-0 at halftime. The score at the end of the third quarter was $13-0$. The Coyotes played respectable football the first three quarters and were still in the ball game. O'Donnell made their move in the fourth quarter and come up with 32 points in one quarter The Coyote's lone score came from Craig Peterson on a 10 yard run. Blane Dyess kicked the extra point. The score was set up by a 50 yard pass from Dyess to Murphy.
O'Donnell's Tony Acosta was impressive and did a lot of damage to the Coyotes.
The Coyotes are athome this week against Dawson. Game time is 8:00 P.M.

Letter

To Editor

Last week our acting postmistress, Mrs. Dotty Wills, was sumarrily dismissed from our post office in a very highhanded way. The new (apparently) post-mistress came by and informed Mrs. Wills that she no longer had the job and would no longer be needed.

Mrs. Wills had not had an opportunity to appear before the post office board in order to qualify even though she had been promised this opportunity. Then top this, the postal director did not even have the courtesy to inform Mrs. Wills of his decision.

This is typical of the way bureaucrats in our Federal government behave today. The feel as if they don't have to answer to the people nor our elected representatives that we send to Washington.
Who does control these people? This post office man in Midland told Mrs. Wills and others that it would do no good to call or write him recommending Mrs. Wills nor would it do any good to contact our representatives in Washington. Now this is one hell- of- a mess when nonelected people in the govern ment have more power tha our elected representatives. We pay their salaries but have no control
Obviously, this is one more attempt to control our lives our homes, our property and our government throughedicts and regulations the bureaucr at has so over regulated the people of this country, that no one escapes their attention.
Please write our congressmen and senators and let's find out who, if anyone controls this man in Midland. Lets let our representatives in Washington know that we are tired of this-self-conceived bureaucracy and want no more of it. The Post-Master General should be appraised of this problem and advised that we are well prepared to handle our own local situation was an oilfield crew, Halliburton I think, that had eaten with us several times before. They had been working a long time without anything to eat, so we got up and comrnenced cooking T-bones.'

Jym Hendricks takes 71 years of experience at living into retirement with him. His memory is a living history book of America during the 20th century. He has lived through two world wars, the Great Depression and did his part in taming the wilds of West Texas.
"During the depression we survived mostly on what we grew in the gar den." With a dozen members in his family he says it was a large garden. "It was rough but we did okay. We didn't have much but nobody else did either.
He was "just a button" during World War I but in World War II he saw action in four battles, including the Battle of the Bulge where he received the Purple Heart.
"There were 246 men in my outfit that went into that battle but only 46 were still around after it. Some were killed, others captured or missing-inaction. I never did find out what happened to a lot of them.'
For 30 days after the famous battle he was in a hospital in France recovering from a frozen right foot and left leg. He is still recovering. After more than 40 years they continue to bother him. The mental trauma did not last so long but Madge said it was years after they were married before he would talk about those times at all.
After the war he began cowboying on the $9-R$ Ranch that occupied parts of Borden and Scurry Counties. The ranch was started by Tom Trammel, one of the early cattle kings of West Texas. When Hendricks hired on, it had passed from Trammel to the W.D. Reynolds family to J.R. Canning. Hend ricks says the illustrious ranch is now owned by Joe Lemley of San Angelo who is a nephew of Joe York of Snyder.
The words "Jym's Cafe" can still be made out on a rusting sign that stands beside the building where the Hendricks fed the county's hungry for over two decades whether they were cowpokes, rough necks, a traveler, more than likely lost, or just a neighbor wanting a change of fare. Jym and Madge are no longer there but you can still get a hot meal in Gail. Pat Porter and Bob Dyess have pur chased the business and Lana Meads is doing the cooking honors. It is now the "Sunshine Cafe"
Jym is busy taking it easy "on doctor's orders" and Madge is busy taking care of Jym.

Modeling in the quilting bee skit was Mrs. Rich Anderson of Borden County. Representing the Muleshoe ranch founded in 1913 by her grandfather, $\mathrm{R}_{\mathrm{o}} \mathrm{M}_{\text {. }}$. Clayton, Mrs. Anderson wore a teal blue wool jersey dress fashioned in a princess style. The 1887 dress featured a bustle of matching teal blue satin lined in gold. To complement the costume, she wore a lavalier watch belonging to her late maternal grandmother, Mrs. W. K. Dickinson of Lubbock. Through the courtesy of the Borden County Museum Mrs. Anderson completed her costume wearing a pair of high top shoes belonging to the family of "Miss Edna" Miller.

Attending the function from Borden County were Mr , and Mrs. E. L. Farmer, Mrs. Edna Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mc Phaul, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Phinizy \& family and their guests, $\mathrm{Mr}_{0}$ and Mrs. Frank Jones of Lamesa.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Clayton, Mrs. Bill Anderson, all of Lovington and Mr. and Mrs. W. A Anderson Jr Ruidoso, N.M.

You Have The Right To Vote. Use It!
"What would you say if on election day you were told you could not vote? How precious would this right become if you no longer had the option exercise it? Many people in this state have made this decision, most unknowingly, and removed themselves from the electoral process by not registering to vote. On election day the highest percentage of citizen participation is in voter apathy People have found it apier to not be involved in easier to not be involved in the polinity, state and nation community, state and nation. But these citizens fan to rea lize this democracy in which we live affords us the proposition of governing ourselves through the rightful election of our leaders. With this freedom comes the responsibility to choose the best one. If a candidate for public office is mediocre, this is his fault; but if the mediocre can didate wins, this is the fault of the free system which elected him.
"By saying 'I don't vote because my ballot does not count ${ }^{3}$ and then exercising this prerogative, you have automatically removed yourself and your voice from the political decisions which will affect you directly. This vacancy at the poll is, and will continue to be, filled by a small percentage of citizens who take the time to vote It will be their decision made by ballot, which will determine the political destiny of your community by decidin your community, by deciding your elected leadership
"The first part of a voting equation is registering to vote. Texas, through recent changes in its voter registration laws has made registration easier and more convenient than ever before. The voter registration application is postage-free, bilingual, and available at many locations frequented by the public throughout this state, lic throughout this state, or at your county tax assessor-collector's office.
${ }^{\text {s }}$ Today, there are over eight million eligible voters, but only five million have registere to vote. This leaves over three million eligible citizens who are not registered to vote and are therefore silent on election day. I do not believe these unregistered citizens have made a deliberate tizens have to not exercise commitment to not exercise their franchise registe to vote. I do not believe these citizens represent a conscious expression of a loss of faith in our democratic form of government. I do believe these unregistered citizens were unknowingly disinfranchised, and given the opportunity, will reinstate themselves in this state's electoral process.
"There are only a limited number of days in which you can register and be eligible to vote in the November 7th general election. All voter registration applications must be received no later than midnight, October 8th. The time is short, but with your support and assistance as a concerned citizen, this project will enable eligible persons to register to vote. If you are not registered to vote, register! If a member of your family or a friend is not registered to vote make the commitment to have them register by filling out a voter registration aplication registration application befor the October 8 th deadline.
"Voter apathy can only be overcome through individual paricipation in seeking to include all people in the deci-sion-making process known as democracy. If a person is not included in the democratic system, a fellow citizen should take the responsibili should take the responsibilty to assist that voter in rein-

of his community, state and nation. It is the role of government of furnish, by direction of the people it serves the means for its citizens to remain involved in the deci-sion-making process of go-sion-making process of go vernment; but it is the role volvement of all our people. REGISTER AND THEN VOTE It will be time well spent; not only to insure your future, but to insure a future of freedom for state and nation. If you have any questions concerning voter registration or need assistance, please contact the secretary of State's office at the toll-free number of $1-800$ the toll-free number of $1-800$

Cattle Drive

The Independent Cattlemen's Association of Texas will revive an old-time tradition September 29-30 with its first annual statewide cattle drive and auction.

The event officially begins Friday, September 29, when members from county chapters all over the state load donated animals for the auction into gooseneck trailers and head for George town.
As each trailer reaches the Georgetown Livestock Commission, the animals will be placed in separate pens according to county where they will be judged, fed, watered and settled for the night.
The cattle drive will start with a dance, food and refreshments at the Georgetown Community Center. Food served will include sausage, hot tamales and soft drinks and music will be provided by Jodie J and the Silvertones.
Activity will pick up again on Saturday, Sept. 30 , at 10 $\mathrm{a}_{0} \mathrm{~m}$. when the auction begins. For sale will be horses, bulls, heifers, calves and other livestock donated by people throughout the state.
The money raised will provide operating funds for the ICA.
All members of the news media are cordially invited to attend any of the scheduled functions.
