Kick-Off Bar-b-que

A crowd of over 300 attended a kickoff bar-b-que for State Representative candidate Rich Anderson Saturday, August 26 at the Anderson ranch in BORDEN County.

R.H. Weaver, campaign manager, said people from all the counties in the newly formed 63rd district were in attendance. The bar-b-que was held for key workers from the 6 counties in Rich's campaign.

Anderson, President of the Borden County School Board, opposes Renal Rosson in the November general election for State Representative from the 63rd District. Counties in the district are Howard, Scurry, Borden, Coke and Sterling Counties.

Anderson cited the large turnout as proof that the people of the 63rd District believe it is time to elect a State Representative that will actively work for the entire district.

If lovely ladies are a political asset then Rich Anderson is doing great. These young ladies were hard at work Saturday night, despite the rain, helping kick off Rich's campaign.

Vows Read

Before an archway entwined with greenery and red rosebuds Deborah Ann Hohn and Benny Marshall Barton exchanged wedding vows Saturday night at 8 o'clock. Two candle trees and a kneeling bench completed the altar decorations. The windows of the sanctuary decorated with greens and red tapers.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Hohn of O'Donnell and Mrs. Frankie Barton of O'Donnell and M.E. Barton of Lubbock.

Paula Carroll sang "Till" and "Love Story" and Mr. and Mrs. Greg Deering of Tahoka sang "More" and the "Wedding Prayer". They were accompanied by Mrs. C.A. Doss at the piano. Mr. Deering then led a prayer of dedication.

The scene of the Double ring ceremony was the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Oral Bowman officiating.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white dacron dotted swiss and re-embroidered lace designed by herself and fashioned by her mother. The sculptured bodice came to the natural waistline and was overlaid with re-embroidered lace which extended over the top of the long sheer sleeves to form a cap effect. The chapel length train was attached to the shoulders by a yoke of the same lace and was edged in re-embroidered laceedging. The short veil fell from a headpiece composed of white organdy petals and lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses surrounding a white orchid.

Suzan Pearson of O'Donnell cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor, while Koebe Davidson of Lubbock; and Linda Hohn sister of the bride from O'Donnell served as bridesmaids.

Each attendant wore a dress of red dacron dotted swiss fashioned with an empire bodice puffed sleeves and a deep flounce at the bottom of the long skirt. White beading with red ribbons accented the high waistline and the top of the flounce with a bow of dotted swiss attached at the back of the waist. Each one carried a long stemmed carnation with baby's breath and tied by white bows and streamers.

Candlelighters were Katrina Sanders and Marsha Barton sister of the groom, both from O'Donnell.

Shondy Gardenhire, niece of the groom from O'Donnell was Flower Girl.

Billy Russ of O'Donnell acted as best man while Jerry Webb of O'Donnell and Mark Porter, of Stanton, served as groomsmen.

Scurry Declared Disaster Area

SNYDER — The Small Business Administration in Washington has declared Scurry County a disaster area, the result of the recent flooding of Snyder.

The city suffered damage estimated at $2 million.

Applicants become eligible for long term, low interest loans as result of the decision by the SBA.

The flood followed an eight-inch rain which fell in parts of Scurry County. Deep Creek overflowed its banks and ran through the city's low areas.

A furniture store, lumber yard and glass and mirror company were hardest hit among the businesses damaged. One person died in the flood.

Wet August

If you think the month of August has been trying to dominate our rainfall picture lately, you are right. Last year August was one of the wettest months on record—in fact it is the wettest on the official books—with some 15½ inches. Even so, it did not produce the floods that August of this year has.

During the first 25 days of this month in 1972, six have produced enough moisture to measure and through Friday the official total for the month was 6.28 inches.

Of course there were heavier rains both times to the north, which fed the creeks and sent high water surging southward.

News Gets Around

Any word about floods does get around. Mr. and Mrs. N.W. Autry have received clippings from the Paris (France) edition of The Herald Tribune, which has a story about the Aug. 13 flood in it. The Paris newspaper, which is published for English language readers in Europe by the New York Times and Washington Post, carried an Associated Press story with a Snyder dateline on page 2 of its Aug. 14 issue.

The clippings were sent to Mr. and Mrs. Autry by a niece, Mrs. Frank Pounds Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Pounds live in Stavanger, Norway, where he is a driller for Phillips Petroleum Co. of Norway.

Academic Scene

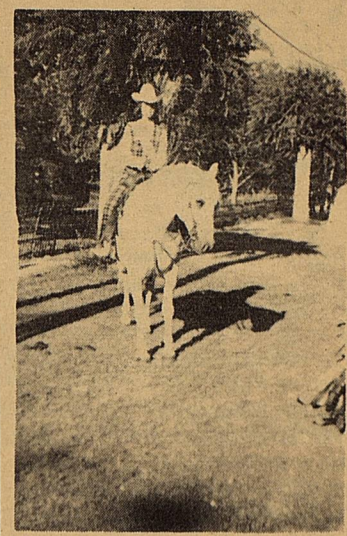

High School dropouts and those toying with the idea of quitting the academic scene should consider some figures relating to what it costs a man and his country when he doesn't get a high school education.

One researcher finds that more than three million men who did not get high school diplomas will have lost a total of $237 billion in income. A resultant loss in taxes on that income would be $71 billion.

Stanford University Prof. Henry Levin made the study for the U.S. Senate Committee on Equal Educational Opportunity. The research embraced 3,200,000 men between the ages of 25 and 34 as of March 1969.

Some might argue that the estimated $40 billion it would cost to continue high school education for the dropouts would have been an unwise investment. Theoretically, however, about $30 billion more than that would have filtered back in taxes on increased income.

Those in school should take a second thought before severing class ties. They may have made more investment in their future than they think. They could give much of it up by any unthinking move at a crucial period.

EVERLYN Holley, 15 year-old daughter of Mrs. Darlene Holley of Hico, Texas represented Hico Florist in the Hico Reunion Parade and Beauty Pageant. In the parade the contestants were on floats, sports cars, or horses. Evelyn was horseback; she carried a large basket of spring flowers and threw them to the spectators as she rode by. Evelyn, a sophomore at Hamilton High School, won first place as best horse & rider.

Snake Fables Dispelled

AUSTIN — "Like television cowboys, snakes can be separated into two major categories — the good guys and the bad guys."

At least that is what the booklet entitled "A Guide to Texas Snakes," written by Gerald G. Raun and published by the Texas Memorial Museum, says.

The museum, which has several snake exhibits, is located on The University of Texas at Austin campus.

The booklet, which is in its second printing, has proven to be a highly popular publication, according to Mrs. Willena C. Adams, museum staff member.

The publication explains how to tell the difference between poisonous and nonpoisonous snakes and gives a checklist of Texas snakes, she said.

According to the booklet: —Snakes are capable of swallowing food items much larger than their heads.

—Snakes don't chew their food; they swallow it whole and allow powerful gastric juices to aid in digestion.

—There are no vegetarian snakes.

—Most poisonous snakes will avoid an animal too large to eat, unless cornered, frightened or in danger, in which case, they will bite in defense.

—Snakes do not seek out humans to bite them. Rather, they generally avoid man.

—A snake does not use its tongue to speak — it is part of the snake's hearing sensors.

Dove Season Opens

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department announced that the hunting season for mourning doves will be Sept. 1-Oct. 14 and Jan. 6-Jan. 21 in the North Zone. The seasons for mourning doves in the South Zone (Borden County and this area) will be Sept. 23-Nov. 5 (except in these counties having white-winged dove season Sept. 2-4 and Sept. 23-Nov. 2) and Jan. 6-21.

The white winged dove season in certain counties will be Sept. 2-4.

Both mourning and white-winged doves may be taken during the open white winged dove season.

The daily bag limit is 10 birds. The possession limit is 20 birds for both mourning and white-winged doves.

The shooting hours for both mourning and white-winged doves is 12 noon until sunset.

The retention of one fully-feathered wing on dressed doves is required in those counties having a white-winged dove season when both mourning and white-winged doves may be taken. This requirement also applies when doves are imported from Mexico or any foreign country.

Shotguns must be plugged permanently to three-shell capacity and may not be larger than ten gauge. Hunting doves with rifles is prohibited.

A white winged dove stamp is required of all persons who hunt white-winged doves. The stamp costs three dollars and is required in addition to the valid hunting license.

Among those attending the reunion from Garza County were Mrs. Beulah K. Bird, one of the earliest residents of the county.

This enables libraries to contain more information in considerably less space. Students may check film cards out and gather information in the library for their lessons.

Lunch Policy

Borden Co. I.S.D. announced today a free and reduced price lunch policy for Borden County school children unable to pay the full price.

Local School Officials have adopted the following family size and income scale to assist them in determining eligibility.

Family Size	Annual Income
1	$0-2130
2	0-2790
3	-3450
4	-4110
5	-4720
6	-5330
7	-5880
8	-6430
9	0-6930
10	0-7430
11	0-7930
12	0-8430

Each additional family member $500

Families falling within these scales or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free or reduced price lunches for their children. They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year. The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

Under the provisions of the policy the Authorized Lunchroom Representative will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with a ruling of the local official he may make a request either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision. James McLeroy, Supt. whose address is Box 95, Gail, Texas 79738 has been designated as the Hearing Official. Hearing procedures are outlined in the policy.

The policy also provides that there will be no identification of our discrimination against any student unable to pay the full cost of a lunch.

A complete copy of the policy is on file in each school and in the office of the superintendent where it may be reviewed by any interested patron.

Creative Writer's Guild

By Jean Everett

Have you always had a desire to be a selling writer?

Well, dig out those poems, short stories, or articles you have tucked away somewhere and come join the Snyder Writer's Guild.

Snyder Writer's Guild is an outgrowth of a Community Service course in creative writing given at Western Texas College, Snyder, Texas last spring. Purpose of the guild is to encourage aspiring authors to write and market their material. The monthly meetings are planned to be informative and helpful to would-be writers.

The Snyder Writers Guild will meet the first Thursday night of each month, at 7:30 p.m. in the Learning Resource Building, room 102 W.T.C. Guild President, Mrs. Jess Everett, invites anyone interested to be present at the next meeting, Sept. 7. Other officers in the Guild are: Mrs. W.C. Fargason, Hermleigh, vice president; Mrs. G.A. Parks, Jr., Snyder, secretary; and Mrs. Jodie Bynum, Snyder, treasurer.

Vegetable Conference

The fourth of a series of "Money in Vegetables" Conferences for West Texas will be conducted in the Forrest Park Community Center in Lamesa, Wednesday, September 20.

The fifth conference of the series will be conducted the next day, Thursday Sept. 21, at the Hale County Agricultural Building in Plainview.

The purpose of the conference, as explained by James A. Rogers, chairman of the agriculture and ranching committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and general manager of the Plainview Production Credit Association, is to look at vegetable production as another economic opportunity for West Texas.

The conferences are being sponsored jointly by WTCC, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas Agriculture Experiment Station and Texas Tech University. The Plainview Chamber of Commerce and the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce will co-sponsor the conferences in their respective cities. The conferences will begin at 1:00 p.m. and continue through the afternoon.

All vegetable growers and land owners, as well as vegetable processors, finance people and related agri-business people, are invited to attend. The purpose of the conferences and background information will be explained by Claude W. Brown of McCamey, president of West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Other program participants will include the leading experts of the state on the production and marketing of fruits and vegetables according to Billy Gunder, district agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Sheriff Posse Meets

The Borden County Sheriff's Posse met on August 14, 1972 for a business meeting. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and a Treasurer's report given.

Use of the building, once each month, for a dance with music by Hoyle Nix, was brought before the Posse. The year book was discussed and Bernice Whitmire and Shirley Newton were appointed as a committee to plan the year book.

After finishing the business refreshments of cookies, punch and coffee were enjoyed by the members present.

The next meeting will be a Pot Luck Supper at the Posse building on September 4, 1972.

Billeck Takes Scholarship

Charles Billeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Billeck, has accepted a track scholarship with Howard Payne College in Brownwood. Billeck was the second place finisher in the State AA meet with a 39.8 time in the 330-hurdles.

In the District meet, Billeck collected a first-place finish in the 330 hurdles, long jump and pole vault. He also anchored the 440 and mile relay teams, which claimed first in the meet.

Billeck was also selected All-District halfback in football. He did a splendid job in the Coaches All-Star game in Brownwood July 21.

Billeck was chosen Mr. Athlete at Borden High School last year, a deserving title, as he participated in all sports throughout high school.

Dawson Farmers in Experiment

Six Dawson County farmers are participating in a national experiment, according to County Agricultural Agent Lee Roy Colgan.

According to Colgan, in July a satellite was placed in orbit around the earth from North to South over the poles. Every 30 days the satellite passes over Dawson County, taking infra-red pictures of the area.

As a part of the project, called "ERST" six local farmers are recording and forwarding information concerning the kind, stage, condition, etc. of the crops on each side of a five mile road in their community.

From the infra-red pictures of our area and the information forwarded, scientists at Purdue University are completing field studies. Some of the things the studies of the pictures can tell are the soil type, humus, what crop it is, nitrogen, phosphorus, potash percentages in the soil, areas of crop diseases, irrigated or dryland, types of native grasses or weeds and other things. The pictures, taken from 570 miles high, and including 10,000,000 acres, are transmitted back to Earth for the scientists to work with. Through enlarging and careful studies, the scientists can determine conditions down to about an acre of a farm.

Local farmers involved in the experiment are Harold Vogler, Eldon Moody, Arthur Nolan, Leon Cohorn, Ronald Rainey and Curtis White. They will be sending in information once a month for a year.

There are ten counties in the Lubbock area participating in this program.

Only the female mosquito bites humans and animals. The male feeds on plant juices.

Dawson 2nd In '71 Yield

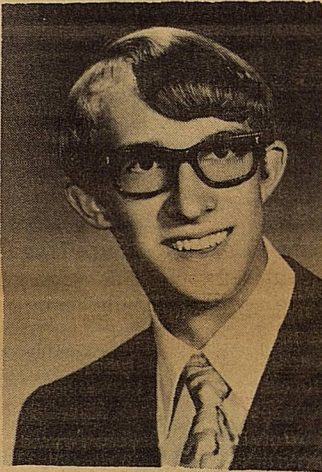

AUSTIN — The 1971 Texas cotton crop has a special distinction: It was the worst in per acre yields in 25 years.

The 1971 Texas Cotton Statistics reports that Texas production in 1971 totaled 2,579,000 bales; this was produced from 3,940,000 acres with a harvested yield per acre of 385 pounds.

Value of the lint alone was almost $340,000,000. During the season, prices ranged from 18 to 27 cents per pound.

Texas easily retained its number one position in the nation, producing almost one million bales more than second-ranking Mississippi.

Three counties in Texas produced more than 100,000 bales of cotton during 1971. They were Lubbock, first in the state, with 155,900 bales; Dawson, second, with 116,800; and Hidalgo, third, with 110,700 bales. Other top ranking counties were Cameron, 99,100 bales; Hale, 96,100 bales; Lynn, 90,100; Terry, 88,800; Hockley, 88,400; Lamb, 83,300 and Gaines, 80,800.

Attendance Largest

The 32nd annual Post Stampede Rodeo last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday is believed to have been the "biggest ever" from the standpoint of attendance, according to Johnny Kemp, Post Stampede, Inc. secretary.

Saturday night's overflow crowd was said by old-time rodeoers there to have been the largest ever to attend a closing night show, and the other two nights crowds were almost as large.

The entry lists for all six regular rodeo events were filled with some of the top amateur contestants from throughout the area, with top entertainment also provided by three added attractions. These were the new "pin the bloomers on the calf contest," the wild mare race, and the Garza County calf roping event, open only to Garza County rope twirlers.

Tommy Haegelin Reports

LUBBOCK—The Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center north of Lubbock will host its 63rd Annual Field Day and Open House Tuesday, September 12 beginning at 1:00 p.m.

Detailed discussions will be presented at eight different locations in the field according to Dr. Jack Gipson, research scientist and Mr. Oliver Newton, agricultural meteorologist, co-chairmen of the field day.

Topics to be featured at the field stops include: drip irrigation, oilseed crops, cotton diseases, cotton varieties, narrow-row cotton, soil fertility, vegetable crops and sorghum breeding and insect control.

A shuttle service will depart from headquarters every 15 minutes, and visitors may disembark at the discussion site of their choice and then catch a subsequent shuttle when they are ready to move on.

This is a new innovation and was added at the request of farmers who participated in the planning sessions of this year's event, according to Gipson and Newton.

Other topics to be featured which are of vital interest to the agricultural industry on the High Plains are weed control and weather. Special "classes" will be conducted at the headquarters area on these subjects.

Displays and exhibits will also be featured for public viewing. These will include plant diseases, soil testing, plant physiology, and a large machinery exhibit.

Everyone with an interest in agriculture in West Texas is encouraged to attend the field day and open house. According to the field chairmen, it promises to be an afternoon well spent.

Horses Need Summer Care

Misusing or overworking your horse during these hot summer days can bring on several problems, cautions County Agricultural Agent Tommy Haegelin.

Horses are usually uncomfortable during hot weather, but some are able to tolerate it better than others. However, if allowed to gradually become accustomed to the heat, most will stand it better. Even a well-conditioned, healthy animal may suffer from heat exhaustion if worked hard for several days.

"One problem brought on by working horses in summer is overheating them," points out Haegelin. "This often is accompanied by an excessive loss of body salts, which produces cramps. With this, the horse will have a jerky gait, sweat profusely and show a mild colic. The best way to insure recovery is to let the animal rest and provide supplemental salt and plenty of water."

Heat strokes occur in horses that are too fat and out of condition, explains Haegelin. If suffering a heat stroke, the horse may become overexcited and unmanageable, sweat profusely, show rapid breathing and experience fever. Should the animal's sweating mechanism break down, it may collapse and die since the body is unable to free itself of excess heat.

"To prevent collapsing and death, quickly lower the horse's body temperature by spraying or washing it with cold water. However, do not immerse the animal or force it to swim because it might collapse and drown," cautions Haegelin.

To reduce the likelihood of hot weather problems, Haegelin recommends watering your horse often but not excessively. Provide salt, free choice or otherwise, to replace that lost through sweating. In addition, allow short periods of rest when working the animal and provide plenty of shade.

By keeping these suggestions in mind, both you and your horse should have a happier and more enjoyable summer, despite the heat, adds Haegelin.

Glenn Toombs

Glenn Toombs, County Judge, Borden County, will serve as Chairman of Texas Food and Fiber Abundance observance which is planned for the month of November 1972, according to Jack Barton, Houston, president of the board of the statewide council promoting the special event and W.H. Meischen, Austin, coordinator of the statewide project.

Judge Toombs will call on agriculture and business leaders in the County to work as a committee in promoting appreciation for the abundance of food and fiber produced by the state's farmers, ranchers and the agri-business industry.

Texas Food & Fiber Abundance Council, a non-profit organization was chartered in 1971, "to sponsor public relations program designed to gain consumer appreciation for the abundance, quality and value of food and fiber."

A large number of professional people in agriculture and agri-business related organizations, state and federal agencies, news media and educational institutions work for the council to promote its activities.

The councils president said, that even though a large part of Texas population is now found in urban areas, the food and fiber industry of Texas figures strongly in the daily economic life of every Texan. America is the best fed and at the least cost of any nation in the world. The bountiful array of food and natural fibers available to all is a blessing which no other nation enjoys.

Cattlemens Roundup

Appointments of the area chairmen for the 12th annual Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children have been announced by Charlie Morris of Abilene, general chairman.

The 138 men and women, along with many others will lead the Round-Up, a major source of support for the non-profit West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene.

Over the past eleven years the Round-Up has raised in excess of one million dollars to help the multi-faceted Center carry on its comprehensive program of diagnostic and rehabilitative services. This year's budget is $450,000 with the 1972 Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children expected to raise $120,000 of that amount.

During the Round-Up leading ranchers throughout Texas and other Southwestern states donate livestock of all kinds to be sold at one of the special auctions. The Cattle Sale is set for September 25 at Ranchers and Farmers Livestock Auction in Abilene, with Horse and Sheep Sales set for early October in Abilene and Coleman.

General Chairman Morris describes the annual Round-Up as "something close kin to the barn-raising of yesteryear, when a neighbor pitched in to help another neighbor in need." Morris added, "The West Texas Rehabilitation Center has been helping the handicapped of the Southwest for over 19 years because of the generous support of compassionate, concerned people."

Anyone wishing to donate cattle to the annual Round-Up is asked to contact his area chairman or notify the West Texas Rehabilitation Center at 4601 Hartford, Abilene, Texas, 79605 or phone (915) 692-1633.
