Decrease in 'A' Gasoline Allowance Seen for Texas

East to Get More Because Of Pipeline

WASHINGTON, July 17 (AP)—Petroleum Administrator Harold L. Ickes announced tonight that he expects to equalize gasoline rationing in the area between the East Coast and the Rocky Mountains within the next 30 to 60 days. Ickes said the completion on Monday of the "big inch" pipeline from Texas to the East Coast will release a large number of railroad tank cars which can be used to divert gasoline from the Midwest and Southwest to the Eastern seaboard, and thus make possible the equalization. No change was indicated for the West Coast.

Pampan Decorated For Destruction of Japs

The following story was written by technical sergeant Jim G. Lucas of Tulsa, Okla., a marine corps combat correspondent and distributed by the Associated Press. SOMEWHERE IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC—(Delayed)—There were 10 Japs in that jungle bivouac for every Marine Raider in the ambush outside. Private Edward Vaughn, U. S. M. C., 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Vaughn of Pampa, Texas, wasn't worried.

Greater Meat Supplies Seen By Packers

CHICAGO, July 17 (AP)—Cattle roaming the grass lands of the western states, putting on the last extra pounds which mean more steaks for the armed forces and civilians, will soon be herded into abattoirs, packers in increasing numbers, meat packers predicted today. The packers, as anxious to run across some roasts beef as everyone else, asserted the low point in cattle marketings probably had passed, and from now until the end of the year the public's palate should get a taste of that red meat for which it has been hankering.

U. S. Payment Of Elections Is Advocated

WASHINGTON, July 17 (AP)—Legislation under which the treasury would pay the cost of political campaigns for federal officers will be sponsored by senator Hatch (D-NM). Hatch, author of the act banning pernicious political activities by government officials and employees, said in an interview that he is attempting to draft such a measure. He is "not satisfied," he said, with the present limitations on contributions, adding that the only way to end abuses may be in outlawing all private donations.

Italian Fusses At Invasion Delay

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sunday, July 13 (AP)—Seven Japanese ships have been sunk by United States bombers in the Northern Solomons area of Buna and East, the high command announced today. Naval Pilots Had Ideal Seats For Second Kula Gulf Battle

By LEIF ERICKSON GUADALCANA, July 13—(Delayed)—A navy patrol bomber scouting over the central Solomons early today sighted an approaching Japanese flotilla, radioed the word to a U. S. task force and then stood by to watch an hour's blistering surface action the second battle of Kula gulf. The story of this engagement (which later reports said cost the Japanese one cruiser and at least three destroyers) was told by the bomber's two pilots, Lieut. (JG) William H. Carter, 28, of Conshohocken, Pa., and Harry G. Sharp, Jr., 27, of Greenboro, N. C.

12-Mile Gain Recorded By Americans

(By The Associated Press) The fall of Catania, Sicily's second city, appeared to be imminent last night as the British Eighth Army fought its way to the edge of the flaming city on the eastern coast. Allied aerial bombardments supported the land units. Eighty-five miles across the island, American troops seized Agrigento, a road junction and important Axis troop concentration center. This represented a 12-mile gain on the extreme left flank of the Allied invasion forces. Agrigento is three miles inland from Porto Empedocle.

German Says Life Under Hitler Slavery

By DON WHITEHEAD WITH THE UNITED STATES SEVENTH ARMY IN SICILY, July 15 (Delayed) (AP)—"Life in Germany today is the most modern form of slavery. There is evidence that the youth of Germany—at least the youth fighting on the island of Sicily—do not like the way of life Adolf Hitler has forced on the fatherland. And students of psychology among the army officers interpret this as a definite sign of a crack growing in the German home front."

Today's Best LAFF

JUST CHARGE IT PARIS, Tex., July 17 (AP)—The Rev. John Shuler took his dog to a veterinarian for treatment after repeated visits. Then the dog disappeared. A week later the dog came home. It seems the dog had returned to the hospital, been treated and discharged a third time. And incidentally ran up a hospital bill for board while under treatment.

New Type Engine Is Developed

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, said today that engineers at the newspaper's pulp plants in Canada had developed a converter engine which could produce a car capable of powering commercial vehicles and "help solve the gasoline shortage" without using any critical materials.

Woman Admits Kidnaping Boy

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—A 20-year-old woman, who the FBI said, admitted abducting a three-year-old boy in the hope that her divorced husband would believe the child was his own, was arrested today on a charge of kidnaping. The diminutive, pinafore-clad defendant, Mary Penore, told U. S. Commissioner Garrett W. Cotter at her arraignment that she did not realize the seriousness of the offense when she picked up Jimmy Di Maggio in a park here and took him to a Nashville, Tenn., army camp to see her divorced husband. Cotter held her in $5,000 bail for further hearing July 29.

Son Attends Same School, Rooms In Father's Quarters

Like father, like son is no idle maxim in the family of Henry P. Mathieu of Pampa. Twenty-five years ago, at the age of 18, the elder Mathieu was in the ROTC, was sent to Rice Institute, Houston, to study electrical engineering and occupied room 302 in West Hall. This month his son, Henry Phillip Mathieu, Jr., also 18, who is enrolled in the navy V-12 class, was sent to Rice Institute to study electrical engineering and now occupies room 302, West Hall.

Allies Set Up Army Rule To Govern Sicily

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, July 17—(AP)—The first combined American-British military government of its kind accompanied the Allied invasion army to govern Sicily, it was announced today.

Hundreds of American and British officers and men, who were trained secretly for months to govern occupied enemy territory, quickly established headquarters.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower designated Gen. Sir Harold Alexander as military governor with supreme authority in Sicily.

The Allied military government organization itself is headed by Maj. Gen. Lord Rennell of Rodd as chief civil affairs officer. Brig. Gen. Frank J. McSherry, of the United States if deputy chief.

It was officially declared that establishment of the Allied military government has "no political implications of any kind."

The action was authorized by Washington and London through a directive from the combined chiefs of staff in Washington to Gen. Eisenhower.

"Amgot"—Allied military government organization—officers are responsible for the observance of Sicilian civilians to proclamations of the military governor.

Although the administration of Sicily is to be benevolent so far as the civilian population is concerned, the influence of Fascism will be destroyed," it was officially stated.

"The Fascist party will be abolished and the ringleaders of Fascism will be removed from office. Fascist militia and so-called Fascist youth organizations will be abolished. No political activity of any kind will be permitted by Amgot.

"There will be no negotiations with exiles or refugees. "No local politicians will be given preferential treatment.

"Amgot will attempt to govern the people of occupied provinces and cities through their own officials who are not active members of the Fascist party.

"Rationing will be supervised by Amgot."

Times Publisher Praises Russia

LONDON, July 17—(AP)—Arthur Hays Sulzberger, president and publisher of the New York Times, said today he had returned from a 3-week visit to Soviet Russia, greatly encouraged by what he had seen of that country's determination to continue in close collaboration with Britain and the United States until Hitler is defeated, as well as Russia's readiness to take its full part in a system of collective security after the war.

"The Russians refer to themselves and the Allies' constantly as 'freedom-loving' people, and my contention is that if that is so, then we can work with them through the war and afterward regardless of differences in our languages and his economic systems," he said.

"The administration has allowed prices of dairy products to lag behind the prices of such alternative products as hog and beef cattle," the resolution said. "As a result, the income of dairy people is much lower than the income of those other groups. The greater the trend in certain sections toward specialization in the production of milk, the smaller has been farm income."

"When this situation has been added the scarcity of feeds and other increased costs, it will be understood why production of pork and beef is increasing."

A program of restoring equity of income, putting dairy prices on competitive relation with hogs and beef cattle, would require an increase of income to dairy farmers of approximately $700,000,000 annually, the federation said.

"This increase may be attained by either rises in prices or by the subsidy method," the federation said, "but it must be attained if total milk production is to be sustained and public health assured."

Rattlesnake Bomber Base Brushes Up On Army Courtesy

PLYOTE, July 17—(AP)—To correct deficiencies in military courtesy and discipline, Lieut. Col. Clarence L. Hewitt, Jr., has restricted personnel at Rattlesnake bomber base to the limits of the field.

Colonel Hewitt announced: "This action has become necessary in order to correct certain deficiencies of training, such as military courtesy and discipline, proper wearing of the uniform, etc."

He ordered unit commands to conduct schools teaching these elements of military life. The base here is devoted to heavy-bomber training and is the home of part of the 19th Bombardment group, famous for its exploits in the Pacific. Other units make up the bulk of the personnel.

Relatives and friends will not be admitted to the base. Passes may be issued in emergencies. The ban will continue until "the proper corrections have been made."

Colonel Hewitt added that if this step did not procure results, individual violators of regulations would report to the base commander for reprimand.

A film on military courtesy and customs will be shown three times daily at the base.

CONFEDERATE VETERAN DIES

SAN SABA, July 17 (AP)—Edward S. Johnson, 97, the last Confederate veteran to live in San Saba county, died yesterday and was buried here today.

Pampa MP's Learn Judo at Air Base

Military police of the 1104th guard squadron at Pampa Army Air Field are being indoctrinated in the use of a new offensive and defensive "weapon" this week, with the advent of jui jitsu and judo classes sponsored by the physical education department.

Lt. George M. Sylvester, who received his training in judo and jui jitsu at the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. and at officer's candidate school, Miami, Fla., is the instructor.

He has a class each day between the hours of 3 and 4 p. m. in barracks 198, recently converted into a boxing and wrestling room. Ten holds and breaks, as well as the fundamentals of wrestling and boxing, will be demonstrated to the MP's. Every two weeks, a new group of the guard squadron's membership will take the course.

Punching bags, wrestling mats and a regulation boxing ring have been installed in the judo room. Enlisted men of other squadrons will be given an opportunity to use the equipment when the program is expanded shortly, according to Lt. Sylvester.

Oil Transport Ceilings Set

WASHINGTON, July 17—(AP)—Dollars-and-cents maximum charges for transportation, by carriers other than common carriers, of petroleum products in bulk by barge were established in an order from the Office of Price Administration.

Charges were also set for the charter of tugboats and barges on designated waterways.

In general, the new ceilings continue the ceilings observed to date.

Pampa Field's Salvage Drive Pays Dividends

More than $500 in kitchen wastes and an unspecified amount in scrap metal was realized from the salvage program at Pampa Army Air Field during the months of May and June, according to figures released Saturday by Lt. Col. William A. Poe, post quartermaster.

Under the supervision of Col. Poe and directed by Lt. Edward Alloo, PAAP salvage officer, the quartermaster at Pampa Field is proving the value of a well-grounded and stringently enforced salvage program.

The break-down of materials salvaged at Pampa Field under the general heading of "kitchen wastes," or that reclaimed from so-called "lop," is as follows (pounds first, money value next):

May—Kitchen waste—(general), 2,805, $112.20; cooked grease, 2,768, $96.88; trap grease, 1,727, $25.91; raw bones and meats, 5,753, $57.53; May totals, 13,053, $292.52

June—Kitchen waste (general),

2496, $97.20; cooked grease, 2,002, $93.17; trap grease, 119, $1.70; raw bones and meats, 4,673, $46.73; June totals, 9,890, $238.89; grand totals, 22,943, $531.41.

It should be remembered that the kitchen wastes salvage program is only a part of the over-all reclamation program in force at Pampa Field.

The scrap metal salvage at this twin-engine advanced flying school is one of the most important of Lt. Alloo's salvage setup. During the months of May and June, the amount of metal reclaimed for future use was as follows: aluminum, 6,641 pounds; iron and steel, 9,751 pounds; brass and copper, 427 pounds; and battery parts, 759 pounds.

Mount Etna Begins Erupting

LONDON, July 17—(AP)—Volcanic Mount Etna, which towers more than 10,000 feet above the eastern coast of Sicily where Allied and Axis forces are now locked in combat, has begun to throw heavy smoke from a lower crater after a long period of inactivity. Reuters reported today in a dispatch from Sicily.

789 Volunteer Workers Give 23,256 Hours Of Work to Red Cross During Past Six Months

In the semi-annual period, January 1-July 1, 1943, 789 volunteer workers gave a total of 23,256 hours of work in all phases of Red Cross activity. Mrs. Frank Culbertson, volunteer service chairman of the Pampa chapter, reported to the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors Wednesday.

Increasing in importance is the work of the home service committee of which Mrs. M. F. Roche is chairman. Service given by this committee includes obtaining information on the location and welfare of service men; verifying need of emergency furloughs and extensions; assisting with allowances and allotments for service men's families; helping with mail for prisoners of war; hospitalization for wives of servicemen; giving layettes; loaning linens and other household supplies; making emergency loans.

Members of the board attending the meeting at which the reports were made were Joe Key, chairman; Mrs. J. B. White, executive secretary; Mrs. Charles Thut, secretary; D. C. Hartman, treasurer; Frank Smith, war fund chairman; Doyle Osborne, ex-officio chairman; R. E. McKernan, D. J. Diehl, Rev. Edgar W. Henshaw, Joe Wells.

A summary of the reports given by the various committees:

Home service, Mrs. M. F. Roche, chairman: nine workers, 1,321 hours, 1,054 cases, of which 1,006 concerned men in active service, 48 ex-service cases, 604 cases active at this time.

First aid, H. M. Cone, six classes conducted, 61 certificates issued.

Life saving, John Skelly, classes conducted all season, 38 certificates issued to boys and girls.

Production, Mrs. James B. Mas-

sa, Mrs. Earl O'Brien, sewing, 2,905 articles completed, including men's bed shirts, pajamas, comfort kits, convalescent robes, bedside bags; 93 knitted garments, army sweaters, gloves, mufflers, socks, wristlets, and beanies, made; Mrs. Charles Thut, keeper of records, reported 402 women worked 14,216 hours in production room, shipments total 1,456 pounds.

Surgical dressings, Mrs. C. P. Buckler, 91,800 dressings shipped.

Disaster, Vernon Hall, blanket priority issued to care for needs in case of disaster; five shelters with 300 capacity obtained, five potential hospitals, 30 trucks for transportation.

Nutrition, Mrs. Clara Brown, two classes taught by Mrs. Robert Sanford.

Speakers, Mrs. Ewing Leech, 17 Red Cross talks made.

Since September 1, 1942, a total of 843 comfort kits have been shipped costing $839.41.

Mrs. H. H. Hahn reported on the weekly column "V-Notes," published in The Pampa News.

Man Being Saved Robs Preacher

HOUSTON, July 17—(AP)—Found: another candidate for the title of meanest man.

J. W. Barnes, negro preacher, told police today that he had been robbed of $50 by a man whom he was trying to convert. While he was praying over the sinner, the pastor related, the recant one picked up a sack containing the offering and departed.

Lawyers Invited To Barbecue

Lawyers of the 31st judicial district, composed of Gray, Wheeler, Roberts, and Lipscomb counties, have been invited to attend a wagon wheel barbecue to be held at 7:30 a. m. July 23 in the backyard of the residence of Clayton Heare, Shamrock attorney.

Coles of the letter of invitation were received in Pampa yesterday. Heare doesn't explain what he means by "wagon wheel" except to say that his guests will have an ample supply of food.

Four Oil Wells Receive Tests

Gray county was the location for two of the four oil wells tested during the past week in the Panhandle field.

Coronado's Maggie Hopkins 1 had a potential of 175 barrels; Texas' W. H. Taylor P-8, 142.78 barrels.

Tests of both Gray wells were above those in Hutchinson, the only other county represented in the completions in the weekly report.

Phillips' Whittenburg 4 had 119 barrels; Sinclair-Prairie's Johnson Ranch 14, 34.68.

Wheeler county entered the picture with Skelly's notice of their intention to drill their Gideon-Bell 2,990 feet west and 900 feet south lines of the northeast quarter of Section 81, Block 17, H. & G. N. survey, 5 miles northeast of Shamrock.

Instead of Watching Birdie, Cameraman Has to Chase It

Private Joseph Ehrlich, who operates a huge copy camera in the post reproduction office at Pampa Field, never has to work about telling anyone to "watch the birdie" when he takes a picture—for all his photos are of inanimate pictures he enlarges.

Saturday he had to watch a birdie of sorts himself.

When he came to work this morning, there was a chicken, sitting high on his camera, where it came from, no one knew—especially in these days of meat rationing.

By some careful cajolery, Ehrlich managed to get the chicken out of the folds of his camera. However, before the post reproduction officer could assert his rank and envision a Sunday dinner of fried chicken, Ehrlich's feathered friend found an open door and flew the coop, thus escaping what might have amounted to foul play and an invitation to dinner on the morrow.

Pittsburgh Slaps Reabirds Twice

Dodgers Win, Now Only 3 1/2 Games Behind

PITTSBURGH, July 17—(AP)—Those unpredictable Pittsburgh Pirates, who have alternately surprised and dismayed the rest of the National League all season, pounced on the champion St. Louis Cardinals for a pair of wins this afternoon to climb within three games of the second place Brooklyn.

The scores were 7-3 and 3-2. A crowd of only 11,362 was on hand to watch the Bucs make it four straight over the league leader, who beat Boston today, to 3 1-2 games.
 A three-run burst in the seventh inning clinched the opener for the Pirates and Max Baer; and Johnny Barrett's long double, plus a combination of unusual circumstances decided the night cap in the last of the eighth in favor of Wally Hebert.
 Barrett was sitting on second with two out when Bob Elliott lifted a high pop fly above the infield in the final while the count was tied at 2-2. Barrett raced for home, while Danny Litwhiler and Marjy Marion watched Elliott's fly drop to the turf between them.
 Baer gave up three runs in the eighth while the Pirates scored one each in the second and third, but his mates rallied behind him to take a 4-3 lead in the sixth with a two-run spurt after tallying one each in the second and fifth.
 Three base hits by Elliott, Russell and Van Robays and a double by Vince Dimaggio contributed to the total of five runs in the sixth and seventh innings of the opener to set up the game.
 Herbert handuffed the champions for almost six innings in the eighth while the Pirates scored one each in the second and third, but let St. Louis bunch hits, including Marion's double, for a run in the sixth and the tying marker in the eighth.
 The teams will close their six-game series here tomorrow with another doubleheader.

DODGERS 7, BRAVES 5
BOSTON, July 17—(AP)—Dolph Camilli's two home runs driving the New York Giants put on a five-run ninth-inning rally today to whip the Phillies 8 to 7 in the nightcap of a doubleheader after the Phils took the opener 2-1 on a two-run ninth-inning spurge.

PHILS 2-7, GIANTS 1-8
PHILADELPHIA, July 17—(AP)—The New York Giants put on a five-run ninth-inning rally today to whip the Phillies 8 to 7 in the nightcap of a doubleheader after the Phils took the opener 2-1 on a two-run ninth-inning spurge.
REDS 6, CUBS 5
CINCINNATI, July 17—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds exploded with a five-run rally in the seventh inning today to grab the ball game from the Chicago Cubs, 6 to 5, and even the series at one-all.

McLean Softballers Whip 852nd Squadron
 One of Pampa Field's top softball teams, the 852nd squadron, lost to the McLean Interment Camp Friday afternoon, 7 to 2, in a game played at McLean.
 With the score tied 2-2 at the end of the regulation seven innings of play, the two teams battled on the interment camp until finally breaking out with five runs in the ninth to win.
 McLean returns to Pampa Field this afternoon, meeting the Post All-Stars.

Gunder Haegg Defeats Dodds Again, But Fails to Break Mile Record

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17—(AP)—Gunder Haegg, great Swedish runner, failed to set a new world's one-mile record here today but won the race as he pleased. It was the third time on his American tour that he had defeated Dodds, previously showing the way to the American in two-mile races in Chicago and Los Angeles.
 Dodds jumped into the lead shortly after the start. He set a brisk pace for the first half-mile with Haegg trailing by about two yards. They maintained the same positions when they swung into the third lap. At the head of the back stretch Haegg took the lead and from then on the Swede was out in front. He glanced back occasionally, meanwhile increasing his lead.
 As the finish, Haegg was far out in front with Dodds some hundreds yards ahead of the third-place man.

Fliers to Take On Two Clubs This Afternoon

The fast-stepping Pampa Army Air Field fliers play a doubleheader this afternoon at the PAAF diamond, meeting the Dalhart Army Air Field nine at 2 o'clock and taking the field again at 3:30 to clash with a club from the McLean Interment Camp.
 "It's a pretty stiff order, playing two clubs in one afternoon," says S/Sgt. W. R. McInturff, player-manager of the Fliers, "but I think the boys will come through okay."
 Sgt. McInturff announced last night his starting pitching choices for today's twin attractions. Fred "Red" Sams will chuck against Dalhart, with "Muscle-Man" Mynard climbing the hill against McLean. Greek will be held in reserve for use as a relief pitcher in either or both games.
 Pampans are invited to drive out to the field and see this attractive double-bill.

Two Softball Games Today

With an 11 to 8 win over the 517th squadron of Pampa Field to their credit, the Pampa Diamond Softball team will seek to keep up their winning stride today when they play a team from the sub-depot this afternoon at Road Runner park. The game is scheduled to begin after the baseball game between the Diamond Shop Oilers and the Panthers, Negro nine of the 328th squadron of Pampa Field, which will begin at 3 p. m.
 Chris Walsh, Diamond softball pitcher, allowed only six hits to the soldier team in the game played Friday at Road Runner park.
 The soldiers got two hits in the second, one in the third, one in the fourth, and two in the fifth. No opposing player got more than one hit off Walsh.
 Williams, soldier hurler, was at bat four times, got on base each time, once with a triple.
 The Diamond Shop team collected nine hits off Williams, two in the third and one in the fourth, and two in the fifth.
 Reavis, Diamond catcher, got two singles, a double, and a walk for a perfect day at the bat.
 Score by innings:

Yanks Down A's, Take 6th Straight

NEW YORK, July 17—(AP)—Sparked by Roy Weatherly's third home run of the year, the Yankees put on a two-run ninth inning spurge today to whip the Athletics 5 to 4 and run their winning streak to six straight—their longest of the season.
 Charley Keller, with three-for-three and three runs batted in, and A's Jojo White, with four-for-four, including a double and his first homer of the campaign, were the heaviest fence-busters, but Weatherly's wallop and, a few moments later, long fly by Gordon with the bases loaded, were the blows that broke up the ball game.
 For eight innings it was anybody's ball game. The A's opened with two runs in the first on four hits, including White's two bagger. The Yanks came right back in their half to tie it up when Keller hit the right center field wall with a 407-foot triple that sent a pair of mates home. The Yanks got another in the third, with Keller again driving the tally in, and the A's tied it up again in the fifth on White's round-tripper.
 Leading off the ninth, Don Black, who went the route for Connie Mack's cellar dwellers, sent the Athletics out in front by singing and coming around on hits by White and Elmer Valo.
 Black seemed to injure his foot in scoring the tally, but that didn't hurt nearly as much as Weatherly's homer which led off the Yankee ninth. A single and two walks then loaded the bags, and Gordon produced the crusher with his long fly. Milkman Jim Turner, who took over from Hank Borowy in the ninth, was the winning hurler.

WHITE SOX 5-0, TIGERS 2-3
CHICAGO, July 17—(AP)—Tommy Bridges pitched a four-hit ball game today to give the Detroit Tigers a 3 to 0 shutout after the Chicago White Sox had won the first game of a doubleheader, 5 to 2. Bridges won his seventh victory of the season, striking out 11 batters.
BROWNS 3, INDIANS 1
ST. LOUIS, July 17—(AP)—Coasting home on a three-run spurge in the seventh, the St. Louis Browns downed the Cleveland Indians, 3 to 1, today behind the able pitching of Danny Galehouse. Oris Hockett hit his second home run of the season for the Indians' lone counter.

More Tax Complications

Between now and the New Year, Secretary Morgenthau wants to get a new tax law which will siphon off as much as possible of that $45,000,000,000 of excess income that makes up the "inflation gap."

Last year we saved, as a people, $27 billions. If we do no better this year, there will be $43 billions left for taxes—and higher prices.

What about those who struggled along for years, in debt or on the verge, and suddenly acquired good incomes in war work?

The Nation's Press

Mr. Roosevelt now seeks to use the coal strike as an excuse to introduce political slavery in this country. That is the real purpose of his proposal that the draft age be raised to 65 and that he be given the power to induct into the army any person who strikes in an establishment owned or operated by the government.

Common Ground

I speak the plain-word primer. I give the sign of democracy. By God I will accept nothing which all cannot have their counterpart of on the same terms.

—WALT WHITMAN.

ROOSEVELT'S IDEA OF TEAMWORK

Roosevelt, in answering Chester Davis who quit as War Food Administrator, says, "effective teamwork is absolutely necessary."

It is for this reason that Roosevelt has had so many resignations by people who believe that there are impersonal, moral rules that govern man's relations, who believe in a government of eternal, impersonal laws, rather than a government of men changing at will.

AN EXAMPLE OF GOVERNMENT PLANNING

A news dispatch out of El Centro, Imperial Valley, California, recites that the growers of carrots are attempting to get the government to buy an additional 500 cars of carrots.

The government officials requested the Imperial Valley to grow large quantities of this essential food. The acreage was increased to 10,747 acres, as against 6,856 acres in 1942.

The trouble is that government bureaucrats invariably make more mistakes than the private individuals do. The reason is that the private individual puts up his own time and labor and is penalized for errors, while the appointees of the government suffer no direct loss for their errors in judgment.

ROOSEVELT'S TREATMENT OF THE SOLDIERS

Domestic policies and foreign policies cannot be separated. Neither can our domestic policies be separated from our treatment of the soldiers.

GASOLINE FOR LABOR LEADERS

John Lewis is a nice example of the absurdity of giving union labor organizers all the gas they want on the claim of the Roosevelt administration that union labor leaders reduce industrial conflict between capital and labor.

WHAT SHALL WE CALL IT?

Something has to be done about helicopters. Something, of course, is being done. Contracts have been let for construction of numbers of the odd windmill flying machines, partly by the Nash-Kelvinator here.

News Behind The News

By RAY TUCKER

QUARREL—Blustery, forthright Tom Connally was discussing with a distinguished member of Parliament a possible future tie-up between the United States and Great Britain.

"Yes," replied the M. P. obviously rejecting that the influential Texan had grasped the international thought so quickly.

"And there are to be six members," interrogated Tom, "in your setup—the United Kingdom, the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa?"

"Well," drawled the orator and wit from the Lone Star State, "that idea is not the American people would never stand for that."

"What's the objection?"

"If we sign up in any lodge," explained Mr. Connally, "there will be only two partners—you and us! And we won't pay all the dues either."

"But," concluded the lovable Texan, "let's not quarrel about that now. Let's stick together and win this damn war!"

JOBBS—The industrialization of South America is patently important to the war effort. Probably, too, it will open fields for American trade following cessation of hostilities.

In 1940 five companies in Sao Paulo, Brazil, turned out three thousand four hundred electric motors.

Several aluminum shops have been constructed to process the large deposits of bauxite. Smelters for domestic tin have passed the blueprint stage.

Today's War Analysis

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (Associated Press Writer)

Divers elements go to make up the victory which the United Nations are forging from white-hot steel, and the masterful manner in which the Sicilian stronghold has been invaded emphasizes again that unprecedentedly unselfish Allied cooperation is the ranking reason for success.

Now please don't start writing to tell me of war theaters where Americans and British look down their noses at each other. I know about that from first-hand observation, and think it's too bad. But those cases seem to me to be exceptions to the rule, although I'm not so naive as to think all the spots of bother between our two countries have been rubbed out.

Taking it by and large, there exists between the Allies a cordiality—and in many cases a real comradery—which was even dreamed of in World War One.

We are swapping our resources and our hospitality. There's no limit to the exchange; the lid is off. On the battle-front it's share and share alike, and the greatest soldiers of one country are happy to subordinate themselves to the command of a colleague from another nation—if that's the best for the cause.

The reason for this remarkable change? Well, let's not get sentimental but just list a horse-sense truce.

Perhaps the most potent factor in drawing us together was the mortal danger against a barbaric enemy who has the initial advantage. Then, too, we have been smart enough to profit by the mistakes and bickerings of the last war.

Never before has there been such Allied cooperation, and consequent coordination of effort, in a major military and naval operation. Not only is there coordination of the three fighting arms—air, land and sea—among the forces of the individual nations, but this coordination extends to the combined Allied forces, and the greatest soldiers of one country are happy to subordinate themselves to the command of a colleague from another nation—if that's the best for the cause.

The fair progeny of this cooperation are many. One of the most striking developments of the war is the specialized training of the various branches like the commandos and paratroopers in many cases a joint effort. History never has seen such well prepared forces go into battle as now are taking the field.

Many of the American, English, Canadian and French soldiers who fought their way up the beaches of Sicily from the landing barges, underwent months—and some of them years—of terrific training which was far more strenuous than the actual battle experiences. They not only are physically perfect, but they know their jobs the way a pianist knows his keys. Thousands of these specialists received their training in an Allied camp.

The antithesis of this cooperation and coordination is the Axis imbroglio in Sicily. There Italians in some places are surrendering rather than fight for the hated Boche, and the Nazis are reported shooting their own Allies.

Louisiana Cattlemen Oppose Ceilings

ALEXANDRIA, La., July 17—(AP)—The Louisiana Cattlemen's association, opposing the government's meat ceiling program as arbitrary and uneconomic, urged its removal in favor of the law of supply and demand.

A resolution adopted here at a meeting of the association's directors declared "it is not convincing that inflation in this country can be appreciably affected by continuing the inequitable ceiling prices on dressed beef and veal."

"Experience has proved that these ceiling prices have seriously impaired production."

Four Americans Nab 52 Italians

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, July 17—(AP)—Four American Rangers, charging a heavily-mined beach at Gela during the American operations there, captured 52 Italian officers in one building after a short fight, American observers reported today.

News Lacking About Rommel

LONDON, July 17—(AP)—The Algers radio, which said it was quoting a reliable Swiss source, reported today that Gen. Field Marshal Erwin Rommel hurriedly left Aix Les Bains, France, for Lyons the night of the Allied landings in Sicily and that since then no news has been received of his whereabouts.

It is funny how many things have been said about ladies' hats. Most of these comments have not been very flattering, and have in general, been made by men. But in reality they are not funny, at least it is not funny when you go to church and land smack dab behind a lady with a good sized cartwheel of a hat, and you have to sit there and dodge right and left with her in order to see what's happening. Or it is not funny to go to the movie and sit behind a puffed up version of a beret, prettied up with enarustations of beads and embroidery and embellish with feathers, or a big bunch of garden flowers. It is not funny to go to a football or basketball game and play peek-a-boo with the woman in front of you because she is wearing her new headgear that flickers of beads, birds and barnyard feathers that each high into the sky. It is not actually discomforts that men hate to bear, for who would mind roughing it a bit, if there were what it meant, but ladies, don't torture the male behind you by wearing a big hat at a gathering where it is hard to see the person or persons that are putting on the show! Big hats, admittedly, very very charming and lovely, in their place, and that is not at any of the above mentioned places!

Do you ever wish that you had the history of your family tree? Most of us do, but as a usual thing it is too difficult to be obtained, if at all. With all this in mind, Mrs. Lillian McNutt's family decided to start a "round-robin" letter some two years ago. The book is a compilation of various letters which members of the family have written. Each member writes his own history and passes it on to the next member. Within a year's time the book will have been to over a dozen states, and finally ends up at the desk of the person who started it in the first place. There he adds his personal comments and sends it on around again. It is a very interesting book, not only to the family, but to others, for the originator of this idea has a most excellent sense of humor. Snapshots of each family group are added along with their letter, and some day the family hopes to have it printed in book form.

Nomination for Pampa's prettiest children could very well be those belonging to Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Koen. Billy Vaughn, five years old, and his little sister Beverly Ann, age three. Last week they were playing in the park and having a very merry time. Billy Vaughn looked like he was going to a fire in a bright red corduroy suit, and Beverly Ann wore a pretty little blue dress that went to make her look like a doll in a store window.

A most interesting story came my way the other day. It seems that Rev. Robert Boshen has a picture of a violent storm hanging on the wall in his study. Most every person that enters the room immediately wants to know why he would choose that particular subject matter. Rev. Boshen explained that he had been in a storm exactly like that, and had stood transfixed in awe at the great forces in nature. This picture, then is an emotional memory, which proves that after all art is a very personal thing.

And while on the subject of art, an exhibit by Dr. F. Hutton Schell, of the Pampa Academy of Fine Arts, will be held at the opening of the new U. S. O.—and here's hoping that the soldiers will enjoy it as much as others who have seen it.

There isn't a little girl in town with as sweet a smile as Edwina Lee Emerson's. Besides a winning smile she has numerous outstanding accomplishments; for she rides horseback, swims, dances, plays the piano and just is a charming little person.

No one has worked harder his summer than Mr. Ernest Arey in order to have a neat and productive Victory garden; and as a result of all the out-door work she has a most luscious tan. Mr. Arey can get more enthused over airplanes than he can over gardens, though. Ever the war the Areys' had their own plane and hopped here and yon over the country visiting their friends whenever the idea occurred to them. They had lots of fun and went to many interesting places. Must have been fun... Yes?

If that daughter of yours is giving you much too much trouble with her lingo when she takes you out shopping with her, then read the following paragraphs and get help, because teenagers have put their fashion in the groove.

A slick chick who's hep to the five knows it's strictly in the groove these days to make with the needle and thread—also the nail polish, the paint brush, the old family ragbag or anything else that will lend oomph to the wardrobe.

Solid senders of the teen-age crowd say it's pretty potent, for instance, to paint your raincoat with jabberwocky phrases, or make a classroom jumper out of Pop's old neckties.

They consider nail-polish gadgets simply out of this work, and get burnt to a crisp over bow ties and matching hair bows, pigtail pins and jewelry made from macaroni.

They go for zany beanies, sloppy sweaters, moccasins, corduroy dresses, plaid shirts, blazers and jumpers.

They're industrious little bunnies, and labor for hours making lapel gadgets from corks and nail polish, stitching up glamor rags from out-grown dresses, thinking up new ways to decorate their beanies, finger-nails or shoes.

They consider a girl who doesn't jive up on her wardrobe in the approved manner to be a black widow, a ditzie drag or a hag-bag.

But the glamor puss who thinks up a new teen-trick to embellish her sweater or her slicker rates the supreme praise—"She's alreelit!"

Have you ever thought very much about how the style in baby's clothing has changed? Perhaps if you get out the old family album and take a look at Uncle Fred (age two) perched up on the red plush sofa you will note the awful difference.

In days of yore, clothes were very long, and I remember they were always in my way when I wanted to kick. Why, oh why, tiny babies always have such yards of such unnecessary clothing I will never know.

It is not a riddle, I really want to know. I could never understand it. If there is an answer it is still a mystery to me. But indeed, putting them in any clothes at all seems absurd to my mind. Goodness knows there is enough of dressing and undressing to be gone through in life, without beginning it before we need; and one might think that people who live in bed might, at all events, be spared the torture. Why take the poor little fellows up in the morning to take a lot of clothes off, fix another lot on, haul them out once more, merely to change everything back? And when it is done, what difference is there, I should like to know, between a baby's night-shirt and the thing it wears in the daytime?

Very likely, however, I am only making a fuss over nothing, so I will, therefore, say no more upon this matter of clothes.

But this subject of babies is, now especially, a timely one, and besides that babies will always continue to amuse me to the limit. Odd little people! They are the unconscious comedians of the world's great stage. They supply the humor in life's all too heavy drama. Each one in general is forever doing the wrong thing, at the wrong time, in the wrong place, and in the wrong way. That's the way it goes, but give an average baby a fair chance, and if it doesn't do something it oughtn't to, a doctor should be called in at once.

They have a genius for doing the most ridiculous things, and they do them in a grave stolid manner that is irresistible. The business like air with which they toddle around. They walk around a soldier staring at his legs with the greatest curiosity, and poke him to see if he is real. They stoutly maintain, against all argument, and much to the discomfort of the victim, that the bashful young man at the end of the bus is "daddy." A crowded street corner suggests itself to their minds as a favorable spot for the discussion of family affairs at a shrill treble. When in the middle of crossing the street they are seized with a sudden impulse to dance, and the doorknob of a busy shop is the place that they select for sitting down and taking off their shoes. When at home they find the biggest stick around, or an umbrella, open preferred—of much assistance in getting up stairs, and show their affection for the family dog by pulling its hair. Babies though, with all their crimes and errors, are not without their use—not without use, surely, when they fill an empty heart; not without use when, at their call, sunbeams of light break through; not without use when their little fingers press wrinkles into smiles.

Facial Pack Of Egg White Keeps Pores Closed

By ALICIA HART, NEA Staff Writer

Sometimes women who take the best of care of their skins have a sprinkling of blackheads on their chin and around their nose.

They never neglect to cream their face at night before retiring nor to wash with soap and water. But because they don't do these two important beauty rites properly, they suffer from the most glaring of all complexion faults.

If you've found your pores beginning to clog up in this hot weather, change to a lighter cleansing cream. Or if you are already using a light one, cream your face once to remove all your makeup, and then once again to make doubly sure that it is thoroughly free of dirt, rouge and powder.

Donna Reed, starring in "The Human Comedy," has a complexion as fresh as a newly plucked rose. She says she avoids clogged pores by washing her face with a bland soap and tepid water after she's creamed it, and then using a mild texture lotion to close her pores.

Once a week Donna smears on a facial pack made from the beaten white of an egg, from hairline to base of her neck, leaves it on five minutes and removes it with warm water.

The routine is really simpler than it reads, and it keeps Donna's skin as smooth and clean as a baby's.

V Notes RED CROSS VOLUNTEERS

When word is received that the head of a family, or a son, or a brother has been captured by the enemy the first questions naturally asked by the relatives are: "How will he be treated? What will he need that we may be able to send him? As a prisoner, is he wholly at the mercy of the enemy?"

To answer these and other questions the American Red Cross has recently mailed the first copies of a new publication, "Prisoners of War Bulletin," to the next of kin of American military men, civilian internees, and merchant seamen who have been reported officially as prisoners of war.

The Red Cross will utilize every resource to deliver to American prisoners of war the supplementary assistance in the form of food, clothing and comfort articles upon which their health and welfare may depend.

The prisoner of war has the right to receive letters as well as to send them. German and Italian prisoners have the right to receive parcels of food tobacco, comforts, clothing, and books.

Twelve men from the Pampa area have been officially listed as being prisoners of war. Letters of general interest received by families of these men are accepted for publication in the Bulletin. Copies of such letters may be taken to the office of the local chapter.

Mrs. M. F. Roche, Home Service chairman, announces that Norman Gibson, Assistant Director of Home Service of the Midwest Area, will be in Pampa Thursday and Friday.

Friday, July 22 and 23, for a conference with Home Service workers. Surrounding chapters have been invited to send Home Service representatives to these meetings, which will be held from 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 and from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m. each day.

A newly organized branch of Red Cross activity is the North Plains Camp and Hospital Council, made up of representatives from all the Red Cross chapters in the area. The object of this Council is to provide furnishings for dayrooms, musical instruments, "supplementary" recreation materials and other needs which are not supplied from military sources.

Irvin Cole of Pampa is the vice-chairman of the Council, and by virtue of this is the chairman of the local committee. This committee consists of representatives of all local organizations and other interested individuals.

In the hospital at the Pampa Air base there are six wards, each capable of accommodating 20 men, at the end of each ward is a sun room, that is to say a room with windows on three sides, for which no furniture is provided either by the military or the Red Cross. The Camp and Hospital committee writes such articles as are more attractive and comfortable for the convalescent patients. Such items as record players, magazine racks, desks, easy chairs, lamps, curtain rods, wall pictures, etc. are needed.

Anyone who wishes to donate such articles may take them to the Parsley Motor Co. where they will be collected by the committee. In order that a record may be kept of the articles and the donors, it is requested that you call Mrs. W. R. Campbell, secretary of the local committee.

The able-bodied serviceman needs furnishings in his dayroom. Few of the dayrooms are provided with enough ash trays, for example. Writing desks, lamps, table games, sofas, smoking stands, are only a few of the items needed to make the off-duty hours more pleasant. Mrs. F. M. Culbertson, Chairman of Volunteer Special Services, reports that in one squadron dayroom the only ash trays available were the tin cans. This sight so depressed her that she immediately collected a large number of the articles and took them to the headquarters of the committee.

Items not in good condition are acceptable, if they can be repaired or renovated.

The V. F. W. has furnished a sunroom at the Field hospital, using a ranch style suite, with wicker chairs, a desk, and lamps. The men who were convalescing in that ward could hardly wait for the work to be completed, so eager were they to get into the room.

The women of the Holy Souls Church have taken a dayroom which they will assist in furnishing. Six pianos have been donated for use in the recreation rooms.

The following is the work record for Home Service workers for June:

Clyde Blackwell, 24; Mrs. Floyd Mrs. Clifford Braly, 28 hours; Mrs. Voss, 28; Mrs. L. K. Stout, 52; Mrs. M. F. Roche, 27; Mrs. W. A. Rankin, 42 1-2; Mrs. Luther Pearson, 25 1-2.

'Slightly Dangerous' Teams Young, Turner

By BROWNWOOD EMERSON

Robert Young starts his new status as a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star, teamed with Lana Turner, in a farce portrayal in "Slightly Dangerous," opening a four-day run today at the LaNora.

As manager of a dime store where Miss Turner is a soda jerk, he gets into all sorts of comical complications with her when she masquerades as an amnesia victim and pretends to be a millionaire's daughter.

Romance mingles hilarity with Young on the receiving end most of the time.

Shown below is a scene from the fast-moving comedy with the two featured players.

On the serious side RKO Radio's dramatic account of a European people under the Nazi yoke, starring Charles Laughton and Maureen O'Hara, titled "This Land is Mine," showing Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at the LaNora.

Story begins with the arrival of Nazi soldiers in a little village somewhere in occupied Europe; it might be Holland, Belgium, or France.

James Cagney has the chief role in Warner Brothers' "Yankee Doodle Dandy," biography of America's most famous song and dance man, George Michael Cohan, a sincere patriot born in Providence, R. I. July 4, 1878, "with an American flag in his hand."

The picture opens a three-day showing today at the State. Famous Cohan songs are spotted throughout the film. Audience will hear "Over There," "Give My Regards to Broadway," "You're a Grand Old Flag," and several more.

On the same days the Crown is showing the magnificent adaptation of the Clifford Odets play, "The General Died at Dawn," story of China's fight for freedom.

Richard Dix and Lola Lane, above, are in Harry Sherman's United Artists "Buckskin Frontier," story centered around the fight of Dix as Stephen Brent to bring the railroad to the West and to develop the prairie land into modern farming country. On the Rex screen today, tomorrow, and Tuesday.

Endorsement Of Gas Coupons Is Made Necessary

Motorists and all other gasoline users were reminded Saturday by E. E. McKernan, chairman of the Gray county war price and rationing board that all the coupons in their gasoline ration books must be endorsed immediately.

Coupons in new books issued after July 22, should be endorsed as soon as they are received from the rationing board, McKernan said. In addition, users should write endorsements, immediately on any coupons now in their possession or received before July 22.

In the past it has not been necessary to write notations on coupons until they were actually used to buy gas.

Immediate endorsements are required under a new OPA amendment both as a convenience to the public and as a help to OPA investigators in checking misuse of ration coupons falling into the hands of persons not entitled to them, the board chairman pointed out. "Under the new plan the motorist by spending a few minutes endorsing his coupons all at once save delay and trouble when he goes to a filling station to buy gasoline," said McKernan.

The new requirements also mean greater protection to the motorist whose book is lost or stolen, since the finder or thief will not be able to pass off the coupons as his own by writing in his own license number," the chairman added. "By cooperating in making these endorsements promptly the rightful holders of a gasoline ration will be rendering invaluable assistance to OPA in its job of detecting and preventing a black market in gasoline and gasoline coupons. Endorsements make it possible to distinguish the coupons that have been properly used from those that have been obtained by theft, counterfeiting and illegal purchases, and put into unlawful use by black market operators. Individuals who endorse the coupons will thus help OPA see that gasoline is distributed and used in a fair and equitable manner."

McKernan called attention to the fact that whenever a motor vehicle registration number is changed, this shall be noted by rationing board or state registration official, on the front cover of the book. The coupon bearing the old number may then be used without charge.

Half Pint of Blood Refused at Sherman

SHERMAN, July 17—(AP)—Shirley Ann Ewing called the chamber of commerce and inquires about the age and amount of blood each donor could give in the collection to be taken July 29 for a blood plasma bank.

She was informed that one point is the amount and that each donor must be between 18 and 65.

"Well, I'm nine; can I give a half pint?" she asked.

Regretfully, the register turned her down.

NELSON HONORED

Memorial services for Pvt. Kenneth C. Nelson, 20, son of Clarence E. Nelson of Pampa, whose death in the Philippines was reported July 10 by the war department, will be conducted at 3 p. m. today at the First Methodist church by the Rev. E. B. Bowen, pastor.

Private Nelson, a former member of Boy Scout Troop 80, was a native Texan, was cheerful, quiet, and conscientious. He was at Corregidor when it was captured by the Japs and was held as a prisoner of war. Private Nelson enlisted in the coast artillery corps on February 5, 1941, nine months before the Japs made their sneak bomb raid on Pearl Harbor.

Servicemen Wives Will Get Care

FORT WORTH, July 17—(AP)—As an emergency measure for the duration, Texas hospitals will be urged by the Texas Hospitals Association trustees to render free obstetrical care to wives of service men under a new government plan of compensation.

A resolution passed at a trustees meeting here yesterday said the board would recommend cooperation.

No nation can ever become completely self-sufficient in industry. History shows that when the people of any country find profitable jobs their increased consumption creates a demand for goods—foreign and domestic.

Job Committee Is Expected To Increase Soon

A gradual increase in the duties of the re-employment committee, a branch under the county draft board, is expected here as more men are released from the armies for overseas and put on the enlisted reserve corps list.

The committee was formed nearly two years ago and at first had little to do. Its primary job then was to find employment for any returning service men.

Present work of the committee is to check on men released from duty to see that they stay employed in vital industries, a prerequisite to their discharge from the army. C. F. Buckler, draft board chairman, said.

Chairman of the committee is J. W. Garman.

The committee, according to information from state draft headquarters, is expected to assist returning service men in a greater degree, assist in the procedure subsequent to the release of men 35 years and older who have been discharged and those transferred to the enlisted reserve corps.

Paul L. Wakefield, lieutenant colonel, adjutant general's department, and chief of the re-employment division, has outlined three steps for the committee:

1. Contact former employers.

2. Transmit records of servicemen who have no jobs to the United States Employment Service.

3. Seek employment opportunities locally, using the chamber of commerce, labor unions, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Exchange, Optimist, Kiwanis, Rotary, and Lions clubs.

Combines From Canada Halted Along Border

WASHINGTON, July 17—(AP)—Harvest of the short U. S. wheat crop is endangered by customs regulations that prevent use of offered Canadian farm machinery, M. Lee Marshall, equipment director of the War Food Administration said today.

Marshall reported 150 combine thresher units had been halted at the International boundary in Montana and North Dakota by customs inspectors. He said they already had missed the wheat harvest in the Texas Panhandle, Oklahoma and Kansas, and that there was no assurance they will be allowed to participate in the Dakotas and Montana harvest, where he described equipment as desperately short.

Officials of the customs bureau in Washington said they had "no knowledge" of the specific incidents on the Canadian border, but that they were cooperating with the war program "within the limits of the law." They stressed that customs officials could not change existing statutes.

As Marshall sketched the picture, negotiations were concluded some time ago for reciprocal entry of Canadian and American harvesting equipment to assist in gathering crops on both sides of the border.

When the harvest started in Texas nearly a month ago, the vanguard of the Canadian threshers attempted entry under the agreement. They were told, Marshall said he was informed, that they must park their flatbed trucks used to haul the combines between jobs at the border, and employ American trucks while in this country.

Treasury department officials acknowledged that Canadian thresher operators "might encounter some difficulty" if they sought to use their own trucks to transport their equipment within the United States.

Aircraft Control Centers Named

WASHINGTON, July 17—(AP)—Establishment of four new centers for control of point-to-point flights of military aircraft in the United States has been announced by the war department.

Air Power Provides Greatest Contrasts of Two World Wars

By THOMAS M. JOHNSON
NEA Military Writer

Today is a good day to look upward and wave grateful thanks to the winged miracle that is breaking through the clouds. American air power is keeping its promise to clear the way for victory in this war. And that is doubly good news, for in the last war the same promise was made—but not made good.

Except for the flyers themselves, American air power in 1918 was a tragic joke. And all too often they were tragic—flying gallantly to death in the "Flaming Coffins" that were the only type of plane we produced in quantity. And no great quantity at that. They composed only one-fourth of the dazzling total we had at the front November 11, 1918, which was 740!

AMAZING CONTRAST
That was our record, after nineteen months of World War I. Today we have been nineteen months in World War II and on this un-noticed "anniversary" the contrast is amazing. The joke is on the Nazis, who based their hopes of conquest on the gas engine which is our specialty, and on the Japs, who hoped by the single blow of Pearl Harbor to make it an engine of victory.

Now our airmen of Army, Navy and civil life and our great aviation industry, have made sure that our enemies shall perish by the very sword they took up. We are producing seven thousand planes a month; we shall produce over 75,000 this year, and by and large, the best planes in the world.

The miracle of American air power seems more miraculous when we look back twenty-five years. The Committee on Public Information, the O.W.I. of those days, blurred that we would "fill the air with planes." That proved to be a great flight of the imagination, for instead we filled it with scandal.

FEW PLANES—AND POOR
Our infant airplane industry, and the politicians and others who tried to guide its toddling, succeeded in sending to Europe not a single fully equipped plane. Many of those it did send had to be made over. Even the flyers had to be trained over.

That is the truth, despite propaganda which also pretended that our passable Liberty motor—allegedly created by aerodynamical wizard locked in a smoke-filled room—was the world's most marvelous mechanical appliance. Every correspondent with the A.E.F. knew it wasn't, but censors begged: "Oh, for God's sake, lay off it!"

Our Army had half as many planes per thousand men as the Germans, a third as many as the British, a fourth as many as the French. Our Allies furnished three-fourths of all we were using.

Another striking contrast: after nineteen months in World War I, only five percent of A.E.F. manpower was in the Air Service; today 25 percent of the Army is in the Air Corps. We have learned by 1917-18's experience and inexperience. Though for a time at the beginning of these last nineteen months our prospects seemed darkened by the spreading wings of enemy air power, and our own mistakes, the latter proved relatively easily corrected. When the war began we found the Luftwaffe was ahead of us on bulletproof gas-tanks, armored cockpits, fighters generally. Pearl Harbor found our Navy with some planes that were unsuitable. But in the cramming school of war we learned what planes and tactics we needed to win a series of air-sea battles of new type and tremendous scope.

"Except for the flyers themselves," says Johnson, "American air power in 1918 was a tragic joke." Here's Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, ace of World War I, beside a foreign-built fighter bearing his famous Hat-in-the-Ring emblem. He's one veteran who has helped stimulate present-day design and production.

In 1918 the Army and Navy had each one Air Service, both in Western Europe. Today we have thirteen Air Forces fighting in Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia, over desert, jungle and iceberg. Everywhere they have air superiority. In 1918 we chortled at bringing down two enemy planes for one of ours. Today we average four or even five; sometimes ten Japs to one.

With most of our battleships stuck in Pearl Harbor mud we turned back Jap armadas largely with air-power: fighters and bombers backed by the remarkable Air Transport Command that ferries supplies and men thousands of miles where 1918 planes went a few hundred. Even our airmen are much more expert than those of 1918; in courage they could not be. Today their wings unfold the globe.

Tomorrow we shall have new fighter planes that can escort still farther our excellent bombers which, with the Norden bombsight, make possible daytime bombing of consummate accuracy. And new bombers are coming with greater ranges and loads. In 1918 we talked about filling the air with planes. Today, we do it.

Crossing Was Made In Terrific Storm

By H. R. KNICKERBOCKER
Representing the Combined American Press Distributed by The Associated Press

WITH AMERICAN TROOPS IN SICILY, July 10 (Delayed)—We landed without cheers, but with our general's face grimmer than ever, shortly after dawn today with famous troops, and by nightfall American boys from every state in the union had driven the Italian and German enemies back beyond adequate bridgeheads.

It was a unique experience to stare silently and in an utter black-out into this southern Italian port and ride gently at anchor after a day's storm which had seemed to menace our entire expedition with destruction.

Chosen for its almost uniformly good weather in this part of the world, this month of July proved the exception that proved the rule. Our minuscule convoy was caught at noon in gradually ascending trouble, beginning with a light breeze, through a stiff breeze into a moderate gale. By late afternoon it appeared certain that if we continued we should be unable to disembark. Yet to turn back would be only slightly less disastrous.

Out decision was made up for us, luckily, by the highest Allied authorities. We were to go ahead. Until long after dark waves beat spray clear over the highest signal bridge of a coast guard transport, and the stoutest spirit aboard was seized with anxiety as we measured the size and crashing power of the white-plumed seas against our fragile landing craft.

Then, just as in the landing last November at Oran, where a storm had raged up to the last minute, here off the parched white shores of Sicily the wind suddenly ceased. "It will take six hours for this sea to die down," remarked one who took a dim view of everything. But it didn't.

Rains Fail to Halt U. S. over Burma

NEW DELHI, July 16—(Delayed)—(AP)—Maj. Gen. Clayton L. Bissell, commander of the U. S. 10th air force, announced today that his fliers had smashed at Burma through the monsoon with heavy and medium bombers on 12 of the first 15 days of July.

Buffeted by driving rains and strong winds and curtailed by thick, black and seemingly endless monsoon clouds, the planes averaged three missions a day in the first half of the month. Heavy, medium and fighter bombers made nearly 330 sorties against the Japanese and completed 47 missions, he said.

Big Ten Receives Many Grid Players

CHICAGO, July 16—(AP)—Maj. John L. Griffith, Big Ten athletic commissioner, believes the number of men turning out for summer football practice in the conference is "very satisfactory," saying that some of the coaches previously had been fearful of the manpower situation. "Minnesota had 60, Ohio State more than 50, Iowa has over 40, Wisconsin 70 and Northwestern at least 60," he said. "I asked one optimistic college man if they wouldn't have as many candidates as when the game started at his school and he answered 'yes.' That reminded me that when football was started at Illinois only 12 boys reported, yet the school played a collegiate schedule."

Captain Joe Bailey Dies of Injuries

DALLAS, July 17—(AP)—Capt. Joseph Weldon Bailey, Jr., son of the late Texas senator, died this morning in a hospital at Camp Howze, Gainesville, of pneumonia which developed after an auto wreck a week ago.

Captain Bailey suffered head injuries and remained unconscious after the wreck until his death. Stationed at Norman, Okla., with the marine corps, Captain Bailey was en route to Dallas to visit his wife and son, when his auto was involved in a three-car crash, near Gainesville.

Sicilian Relief Organization Ready

WASHINGTON, July 17—(AP)—American relief officials are standing by to apply their Tunisian experience in supply food to Sicilians, if called in by the army, Fred K. Hoehler, chief of the operations in North Africa said today.

Hoehler, who headed the field staff of Director Herbert Lehman's office of foreign relief and rehabilitation operations, told a press conference it was understood that the military already were taking some supplies to the island for the civilian population.
