Citizens Decide Government Lawyer Tells Joint Meeting

"Good government comes about by an intelligent and alert electorate; bad government by apathy, indifference or hasty decisions," Atty. Curtis Douglass told Pampans attending the citizens' meeting last night in 31st District Court room.

CURTIS DOUGLASS

The Pampa attorney's speech was centered around the importance of paying a poll tax obtaining an exemption and voting.

He told the group the present emergency is not the first time America has faced "momentous decisions."

Our nation and the form of government which those before us, and we of today, have enjoyed will endure if only the great rank and file of our people will alert themselves, and in calm deliberation exercise their right to take a part in our country's affairs.

Directly urging his listeners to pay their poll tax, or obtain an exemption and vote, Douglass told them the nation this year faces "momentous decisions" just as their ancestors have in the past.

"You are going to be called upon to say whether you are in favor of constitutional government... or socialism and the road to communism; whether you are for honesty and integrity in government or corruption and crookedness; whether you are for economy and efficiency or for waste and inefficiency in government," Douglass said.

He added other pertinent decisions that the people of America will be asked to make this year in the numerous elections facing them.

Following the principal talk the floor was opened to a short question and answer period. One of the questions brought up was asked by Atty. Tom Wade on whether the two major parties would oppose each other on such issues as the tidelands question and other fair deal legislation.

"Douglass said he wasn't quite sure whether there would be two distinct platforms, nor added he expected return of the tidelands to be part of the Republican platform. He declared, "The thing that has to be done is to remove the radicals from both Democratic and Republican ranks and formulate two new parties. And, this is almost sure to come in the not too distant future."

The prime purpose of the meeting was to boost the interest of voters in coming elections and give those attending an inspiration to get others to get to the polls and vote, leaders of the meeting said.

Air War Lively; Ground Forces Fairly Quiet

SEOUL, Korea — (AP) — During American Sabre Jet pilots shot down at least 10 Red Jets in four flaming air battles over northwest Korea today.

Two Communist MIG-15s exploded almost in the faces of American pilots. The blast blew out the jet power in two Sabres, and the Americans had to go into long dives before their jets flamed into action again.

Two other Reds spiraled down in fiery streams. A fifth went down in long loops, its pilot still trying to regain control and exploded as it hit the ground.

It was one of the biggest jet victories of the war. The Fifth Air Force announced to Russian-type jets were definitely destroyed, one probably destroyed and three damaged.

The air war grew in fury as the day wore on while the ground war by relatively quiet under a blanket of fresh snow. Here's the story of the air battles, all fought in MIG alley.

One Red jet damaged in a morning fight between 18 P-84 Sabre jets and elements of a flight of 20 MIGs.

Two Red jets blown up, one set afire, one damaged when 15 Sabres jumped 16 MIGs near the Yalu River in the afternoon.

Five MIGs destroyed, one damaged by 17 Sabres who took on elements of a formation of 80 Reds late in the afternoon.

Three MIGs destroyed about the same time in a five minute battle between 18 Sabres and 25 MIGs.

Higher prices for food and heavy consumer goods were believed to be the main reasons for the new living cost increases. Some basic foods, such as fresh fruits and vegetables, and dairy products, are always higher in the winter season.

The new excise taxes which went into effect Nov. 1 had some effect on the Nov. 15 living cost index. Further reflection of these higher prices on such items as automobiles, gasoline, cigarettes and beer was expected to show up in today's new index for Dec. 15. The index always runs a month or so behind.

Write A Letter About Some Good Neighbor

Do you know what constitutes a "Good Neighbor?" Well, he, or she, is the one who has with unselfishness of purpose given unsparingly of time and talents to aid others at any hour of the day or night.

He, or she, has given many hours to helping with the sick, feeding and clothing the unfortunate, having craved over the "underdog" like a guardian angel, ever ready with aid by action and not lip service.

These, and many more, constitute a "Good Neighbor." Such is the person the Pampa Daily News seeks in its "Good Neighbor Contest" being held in conjunction with "Get Acquainted Week in Pampa" in February.

Letters nominating some person, and setting out that person's accomplishments, are being asked for by the editors. Cash prizes totaling $100 will be awarded the writers of the best letters nominating the "Good Neighbor of the Pampa Trade Territory." The prizes mentioned above will go to the writers and NOT to the person named "Good Neighbor."

Deadline for the letters is midnight Feb. 16. Decision of the judges, made up of Pampa citizens, will be final.

Services for Mrs. Mae De Long, 57, formerly of Pampa, were held this afternoon at Graham, Texas. She has been an invalid 15 years.

Mrs. De Long died at Cisco, Texas, Wednesday night, where she has lived with her son, Sgt. Vernon L. De Long, the past year.

Survivors include four sons and one daughter.

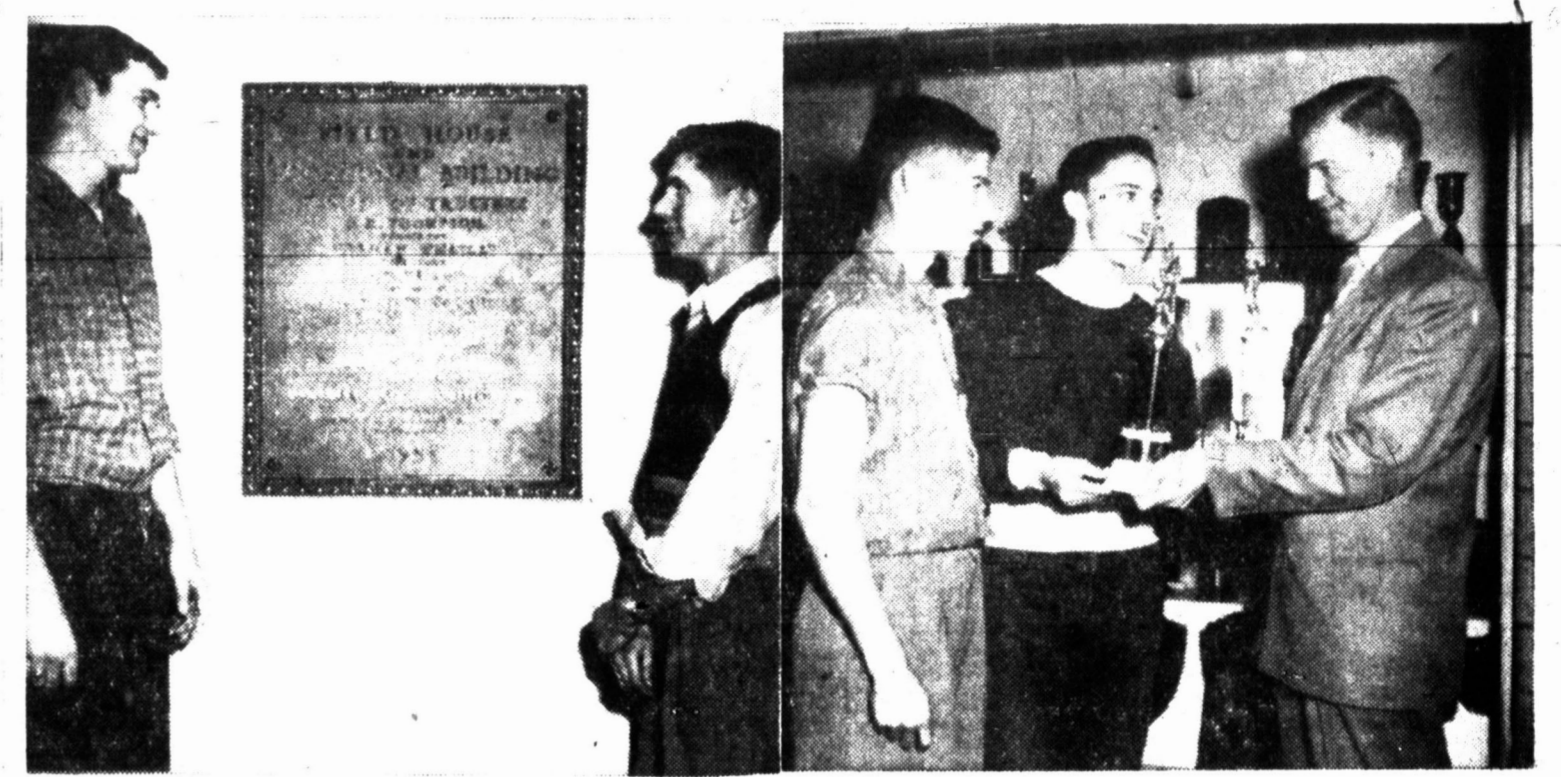

Actress Polly Moran Dies Of Heart Ailment

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Polly Moran, famed comedy team mate of the late Marie Dressler, died of a heart ailment today at Cedars of Lebanon hospital. She was 68.

Miss Moran, who entered films as a 1915 Mack Sennett bathing girl, was stricken late last autumn at the Laguna Beach home where she had lived since 1941.

Her physician, Dr. Arthur L. Kobal, reported that she received the last rites of the Catholic church earlier this week. She died shortly after midnight.

The actress retired from screen and stage in 1940 and made a brief comeback in 1949 when she played a part in "Adam's Rib."

Living Cost Barometer Due To Rise

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The government's living cost barometer is due to go up again today to a new high.

The consumer price index, compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, widely accepted as the government's best measuring rod on living cost changes, has shown an almost unbroken upward glide all during 1950 and 1951.

Today's latest revision was expected to show a nominal rise from last November. The average retail price rise for moderate-income city families was due to be about one-half of one percent higher in mid-December than a month earlier.

The increase will mean an annual hike in the amount of wage increases allowed under the formula of the Wage Stabilization board. The board permits wages to go up 10 percent from January 1950 levels, and allows on top of that living cost increases since Jan. 15, 1951.

Based on the new index, the government wage formula will permit wage increases of about 15 percent above January 1950 levels. The wage board sanctions pay boosts even beyond 15 percent under special circumstances.

Higher prices for food and heavy consumer goods were believed to be the main reasons for the new living cost increases. Some basic foods, such as fresh fruits and vegetables, and dairy products, are always higher in the winter season.

The new excise taxes which went into effect Nov. 1 had some effect on the Nov. 15 living cost index. Further reflection of these higher prices on such items as automobiles, gasoline, cigarettes and beer was expected to show up in today's new index for Dec. 15. The index always runs a month or so behind.

Next month's index will affect about a million CIO auto workers.

Lefors School Official's Mum On Sonntag

LEFORS (Special) — Lefors school officials were mum this morning regarding the $28,000 suit filed in district court against members of the school district late Thursday by former head coach Frank Sonntag.

But they indicated they would answer the suit in which Sonntag asks $29,333.36 salary and $25,000 in damages which resulted from his discharge Dec. 12.

Superintendent of Schools R. C. Wilson declined comment this morning until he could confer with school board members and attorneys who have yet to be named. He said the attorney would be responsible for any opinions expressed by the officials.

School Board President R. L. Jefferys said he had not talked with any of the other defendants named by Sonntag or with Wilson. Defendants in the suit are Jefferys, H. D. Dunn, Ed F. Brock, A. V. Guhrle, R. D. Vaughn, M. F. Tibbets, Fred Bowning, Wilson and W. E. James.

Wilson said today he thought the group would meet the first of next week to discuss the suit.

Jefferys said he did not want to comment for fear he might disclose any plans the group might use in fighting the suit.

Sonntag charges breach of contract signed Aug. 1 with Lefors and claims he was paid only four months at $366.67.

He said in his suit he has been "greatly embarrassed" and that it will be impossible for him to gain another position until all names in the case are brought out.

Sonntag's suit charges the trustees "willfully and maliciously" damaged his reputation as a coach in leading the public to believe he was the cause of a protest which resulted in Lefors being suspended from Class A district sports activities.

Democrats Favor Probe Of McGrath

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Some Democratic sentiment was reported today for a "limited" congressional investigation of Attorney General McGrath.

This word came from both Republican and Democratic sources in the House Judiciary committee put over until next Tuesday its final decision on a GOP-backed resolution to spotlight Justice Dept. activities.

The committee has before it a proposal by Rep. Keating (R-N.Y.) to inquire into what he charges are Justice Dept. failures to prosecute criminal cases, and into alleged instances of "influence and favoritism."

Just how far committee Democrats would go in backing an investigation of President Truman's "clean-up" director, was not clear.

But some Democratic members who voted to number the Republicans 17 to 13 — indicated privately they would go along with the Republicans "make a case" and prove it is no "fishing expedition."

The same view was reported by several committee Republicans. Keating told newsmen he was confident "some Democrats probably will vote for the resolution."

Mr. Truman had refused to see a delegation seeking to protest against the Vatican appointment. Instead, said Dr. W. E. Breckbill of Altoona, Pa., council president, he received a letter signed by presidential secretary Matthew J. Connolly.

The letter, he told newsmen, said the President already had made up his mind regarding the appointment of an ambassador and had suggested the group make its protest to the State department "or to the appropriate committees of Congress."

HST Told Choice May Hurt Vote

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman has been advised that his insistence on sending an ambassador to the Vatican will bring him defeat at the polls if he seeks re-election.

This advice came last night from Rev. Carl McIntire of Collegeville, N. J., president of the International Council of Christian Churches.

He told a Bible-carrying rally, estimated to number 4,000, that "all the unions there are can't elect" Mr. Truman now.

The President has not announced whether he will seek another term. He told his news conference yesterday he would go ahead with his plan to name a full-fledged ambassador to the Holy See.

"The day-long Protestant rally, sponsored by the American Council of Christian churches, unanimously adopted a resolution declaring that 'so long as we live, we will resist with all our strength the sending of any diplomatic representative to the Vatican.'"

The resolution said the church and state must avoid "trespassing on one another's domain. We shall as individual citizens work for the defeat at the polls of any man or any party which is disposed to undermine the Constitution," it said.

A council spokesman told newsmen those at the Constitution hall rally came from 33 state plus the District of Columbia. The council, claiming a membership of two million, has 14 affiliated denominations, all relatively small groups or disident factions split off from major denominations.

The council said yesterday Mr. Truman had refused to see a delegation seeking to protest against the Vatican appointment. Instead, said Dr. W. E. Breckbill of Altoona, Pa., council president, he received a letter signed by presidential secretary Matthew J. Connolly.

The letter, he told newsmen, said the President already had made up his mind regarding the appointment of an ambassador and had suggested the group make its protest to the State department "or to the appropriate committees of Congress."

Mother, Daughter Die In Icy River

CHICAGO — (AP) — A mother of 10 children and her oldest child, a daughter, drowned yesterday in the Des Plaines River as the mother failed in a rescue attempt. A 12-year-old son vainly tried to save both.

Drove I Love Mrs. Rose Green, 38, and her daughter, Carol Jean, 16. The family lives near the river in suburban Summit. The tragedy occurred when Carol Jean walked out on the ice to get a bucket of water, and fell through the ice about 156 feet from shore.

The mother raced toward her daughter but as she neared her she also broke through the ice. A son, Edward, heard the screams and jumped into the broken ice pool and started to swim toward his mother and sister. But he told police they suddenly disappeared, apparently dragged down by the heavy undercurrent.

Police said Mrs. Green was divorced from her husband, Theodore. They said he has been sought since last June on a charge of non-support.

Services Today For Patterson

WASHINGTON — (Special) — Former Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson, killed in Tuesday's plane crash at Elizabeth, N.J., will be buried today in Arlington National cemetery.

President Truman planned to attend Episcopal services at Washington National cathedral 11 p.m. EST. He did not plan to attend the burial.

Patterson, who was 60, served as secretary of war between 1943 and 1947. He had since served in the law firm of Belknap and Webb in New York City.

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Hasse—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: What team was the last to beat the Harvesters in the Junior High gymnasium?

THE PAMPA DISTRICT Golden Glovers are really making a fine showing themselves in the regional tournament. Around risside and all throughout the Amarillo Auditorium, fight fans are talking about and praising the well conditioned fighters from Pampa, Wellington and Lefors. Last night the first Pampa fighter was beaten, though he was representing Borger District. There should be little doubt about who is going to win the high school division team trophy, which last year went to the Shamrock Irishmen, one point winners over Pampa.

The crowds have been poor so far in the five-night fist festival. Last night the best crowd was on hand, surprisingly enough, it got the approval of the or with pro wrestling and the West.

The tournament appears to be at its weakest this year as far as fighters is concerned. The day games, as the Globe quantity and quality are both trotters had to be notified immediately of the date, the civic fight fans and tournament of the club decided to take it upon itself to approve the game. The Globe's finest meets with the re-clubbers, one of the greatest opening of the Amarillo air base.

One thing that is making the high school division a lot weaker is the absence of the Shamrock District. Out of there always came a strong team composed of fighters from Shamrock and Clarendon. And then this year the Lefors Pirates sent but one contestant. And the Bucs each year have always been a great ring competitors.

GLEANINGS - Dan Coates, the tournament announcer, is a professional radio announcer. What a smooth voice and lines. Among those back at ringside for the third night were veteran West Texas - New Mexico League Gordon Nell, Vern Farquhar, the Ross Rogers promy in Amarillo, and the Mills' owners, of the Oiler's. Plenty of other Cliff McNely took over as Pampa fans were on hand last as head coach.

Eight contestants from this area did battle. Immediately after his fight Bobby Wilhelm was being congratulated by fans. One said you hit him with every thing but the ringpost. Bobby helped out of his gloves, counterpunched with "and he hit me with that." It was a close scene for the defending champion who is a great crowd favorite.

Red Blaik To Remain As Head Coach At Military Academy

WEST POINT, N. Y. - (AP) - Col. Earl (Red) Blaik will remain in command of Army's United States Military Academy. Gen. Irving said Blaik would remain as both football coach and athletic director, positions he has held since coming to the academy in 1911.

BLAIK SAYS - Blaik pointed out next fall's team will be much the same as last year, except for half-dozen players who will graduate.

USE OF PLEBES - "I don't know if we'll be permitted to use Plebes," he added, "and if we are, there still are very few who can carry the heavy load."

Blais, contemplating leaving class work required and still for another football post of a play varsity ball their first year in the business world, here.

The veteran coach, whose Army teams have won 77 games, was quick to point out, however, that his decision to remain at the academy doesn't mean that Army's football fortunes will improve immediately.

"In fact," Blaik said, "I'll be happy if we do as well this fall as we did last year." Army defeated only Columbia and Citadel of its nine 1951 opponents and was whipped by Navy, 42-7.

Blais pointed out next fall's team will be much the same as last year, except for half-dozen players who will graduate.

Blais said he considers athletics an integral part of training, but there will be no over-emphasis at West Point.

"Col. Blaik fully supports the athletic policy of the military academy," the statement said, adding:

"The policy, as in the past, will require all intercollegiate participants to abide by the same regulations, to take the same courses, to measure up to the same standards and to have the same obligations as those who do not compete in varsity athletics.

"We shall endeavor to encourage young men, athletes and non-athletes, who have the qualifications to become career officers, to compete for entry to the military academy."

Gen. Irving said special privileges are not accorded to athletes at West Point.

Savitt Beaten In Aussie Tournament

ADELAIDE, Australia - (AP) - Dick Savitt's bid to retain his Australian National tennis championship failed today. The big American from Orange, N. J., was defeated by a valiant but losing semi-final battle before Australia's Ken McGregor. He was beaten 6-4, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

Thus Savitt's hopes of meeting Frank Sedgman, the Aussies' No. 1 player in the final on Monday and demonstrating that possibly a mistake had been made in leaving him out of the American team in the Davis Cup challenge, went up in smoke.

Sedgman had little trouble reaching the final. He showed his best form of the tournament in taking only 53 minutes to drub his southpaw countryman, Mervyn Rose, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

Sedgman and McGregor completed a victorious day for the Aussies by trouncing Savitt and young Hamilton Richardson, of Baton Rouge, La., 6-2 in the fifth and deciding set of their postponed semi-final doubles match. This averted one of the greatest doubles upsets of this or any season.

The doubles match had been called because of darkness yesterday after each side had won two sets. The final score for the Aussies was 6-3, 3-6, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Wilhelm In Narrow Squeak; Davey Scores Early KO

By WARREN HASSE
Pampa News Sports Editor

AUDITORIUM, Amarillo - Pampa's District Golden Glovers boxing team reigned supreme here for the third straight night, Thursday, sending six mittens into the ring and coming out with six more victories, one a knockout and two technical knockouts.

Two other Pampa fighters, representing the Borger district, split their bouts. Oscar Sargent, winner of the "Fighting Heart Award" this year, scored a clean knockout over Montie Moore of Bucks in 31 seconds of the second round while his footballing mate, J. N. Wright, lost a close decision to Larry Prater, also of Bucks. Wright thus became the first Pampa fighter to lose in the tournament.

Tonight the five-night affair moves into its semi-final action. The bouts will start at 8 o'clock and then tomorrow night the starting time will be thirty minutes earlier for the finals.

And upset was nearly turned in the 135-pound class when young Bobby Wilhelm ran into long armed Robert George of fast, lashed out with a hard right that opened up a cut on the forehead. Expressionless Bobby, Loe's left eye and referee Ladd gained a very close decision, 2-1, though unanimous. George hit Wilhelm more than the young slugger had ever been tagged before. Wilhelm, meanwhile, was 155 pound class. He dropped meeting the Kress clubber with Moore for a nine count in the stopping punches, but they weren't nearly so effective as the staggered a couple of times in the first round, but after weathering that two minutes came back strong in the second. He wilted late in the round, and again Wilhelm gained a decisive edge nearly flooring him late in the stanza. But the wild third round saw Wilhelm tagged solidly several times and needing to move in close and hold on to gain several precious seconds of recovery time. It was the best fight of the three nights of the tournament so far, and was almost the major upset.

DAVEY WINS

Pampa's "fightin'est" fighter, Scotty Davey, proved just that as far as David Visage of Lockney, representing the Plainview District, was concerned. Davey battered visage into submission in 1:01 of the first round, using a series of punches, anchored with a hard right, to do the job. It was the first clean knockout of the night, and established the hard-hitting Pampa southpaw slugger as a top candidate for 118 pound honors.

Billy Branch of Wellington started things off for the Pampa district, gaining a decision over Gordon Moore of Clarendon. It was a listless bout from an action viewpoint, though the outcome was never in question as Branch handled his man with ease. Moore was worried through most of the fight by the clever Branch, and the decision went unanimously to the Wellington stylist.

At 118 pounds, tousie-headed Kenneth Woods of Shamrock scored another decision for the Pampa District, earning a decision over Howard Milsap of Sudan, representing Plainview. It was a fast bout all the way, Woods landing solidly, but not slowing the rushing Milsap. In the third round a hard right sent Milsap down, but not to stay. The decision went to Woods.

J. N. Wright, representing Borger's district, at 147 pounds, had to give away too much reach and height to Prater. Prater had the better of the scrap all the way as Wright tired rapidly after the middle of the second round when he was staggered by a hard right to the head. Wright's outcome never appeared to really depend on the sharpshooting Panhandle cagers Jan. 15, and will be out after conference win in the 147-pound class, Gene No. 1.

Edair of Wellington carved out a neat third round TKO over Lefors lasties will be Fern McArthur and Bill Sparr's of Amarillo. Edair Lefors, Wanda Williams, and Bill Sparr's in the first round imogen, McArthur at forwards with a hard right that sent and Melba Hill, Freda Howell, him down in the first, and had and Barbara Sanders at guards, him flat on his back and the For the boys it will be Burly count at eight when the bell Bigham at center, Jimmy Doom sounded to end the second round, and Russel Herring at forwards, Sparks was unable to continue, and Billy Watson and Jack Pfug and the third round TKO went guards.

Jackets Given Pirate Gridders

LEFORS - (Special) - In a special assembly held Thursday afternoon, the 1951 Lefors Pirates received award jackets. R. C. Wilson made a short talk commending the work of the boys and then presented Coach Bob Callan his jacket, who in turn presented the jackets to the boys.

The only sad note in the awards was the failure of the arrival of the reserve letterman's jackets. The shipment was a little mixed up, but the jackets will arrive in a short time.

Area Cagers In Action Tonight

Area basketball tonight sees several district games scheduled. The Wheeler Mustangs will be guests of the McLean Tigers, the Shamrock Irishmen entertain the Wellington Skyrockets, Panhandle hosts the White Deer Bucks and the Lefors Pirates travel to Clarendon.

All games will be preceded by girls' contests.

suitcase-lugging Keith Lane and Junior Brooks and their running mate of the third place winner at state last year, Hamilton.

Congratulations to Hank Brown, sports writer for the Times-Globe. Hank has been named official league statistician for the 1952 season in the West Texas-New Mexico League. We expect to see all the Pampa pitchers winning 20 games, Hank, and all the hitters over 400.

Ivy Griffin, new business manager of the Oiler's, recounts one of his experiences while in the Northern League. He was handling a club that had a bus held together with tape and glue that was always breaking down.

One night the dilapidated vehicle collapsed - about the twentieth time that season. One of the players got out and started cursing the machine.

"Get me a bat," he screamed, with the obvious intentions of getting the bus' driver.

"Why a bat," said Griffin, "you couldn't hit it!"

ANSWER: The Borger Bulldogs.

Reapers Hand First Loss To Poodles

The Pampa Junior High school Reapers set the pace for their big brother Harvesters yesterday afternoon at Borger, knocking the Borger JHS Poodles from the ranks of the unbeaten in the Panhandle Junior High School Athletic League 54-36.

The Poodles had notched four straight victories while the Reapers had split a pair of contests. It was a fast and rough contest all the way. The Reapers moved right into the lead, shutting the Poodles with some sharpshooting and taking advantage of a height advantage. The Reapers led 13-5 at the end of the first quarter and then saw their lead further away until it was trimmed to two points at halftime 23-21.

But they came back the second half, and holding the little Dogs scoreless, extended the lead to 30-21 and finally 34-27 as the fourth quarter got started. Then in the fourth quarter, with Coach Peratt Scoggin clearing the bench and playing all his Blue and Whites, they ran it to the final of 54-36.

Center E. J. McIlvain paced the scoring with 19 points on seven field goals and five free throws. Gary Griffin added 16 points and Harold Lewis accounted for 11 more. Baskin led Poodles with 3.

Southwest Conference Cagers Have Busy Weekend Slated

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff

Three of the nation's top six defensive teams see basketball action in games involving Southwest Conference quartets this weekend.

Oklahoma City University, second in the nation's list of defensive stalwarts; Texas A&M, third; and Texas Christian, sixth, all are involved.

The Southwest Conference, leader - TCU - endangers a glittering 14-1 season record Saturday night in Oklahoma City in a game with Oklahoma City University.

The Oklahoma quip whipped the Texas Aggies, 62-55, in its last outing with a Southwest team and has held all opposition on a 46.2-point average in 13 games.

WINLESS BAYLOR

In two games Friday night, winless Baylor plays Rice, winner of one conference game, at Waco. And the Texas Aggies play the University of Houston at Houston.

Baylor will try to keep Gene Schwingler, 6-6 soph center, and speedy little Leonard Childs from burning the nets while Rice tries to stop the Bears' 6-3 Ralph Johnson, a 20-year-old shooting wizard who has scored 206 points this season.

The Houston Cougars whipped the Texas A&M quip, 28-29, in a game Dec. 5, and may do again. The Aggies, however, have shown some improvement since that December date and could hold the Missouri Valley conference member. The Aggies are third defensively in the nation with their opponents picking up an average of only 57.4 points per game.

Rice will be trying to improve its sixth place standing in the conference race. The Owls last week whipped the Arkansas Razorbacks, 48-46, after the Hogs had

HAND IN HAND

THE trust of a little child is one of life's high goods. Each of us has been the better for the unquestioning faith of one of these little ones. To betray such confidence is to maim and twist the human spirit, perhaps beyond recovery. Shall we be worthy of childhood's trust, worthy in word and in deed, worthy in the example and the instruction we offer, worthy in the direction we give to young feet? We must be trustworthy, for their sakes... We must walk hand in hand.

EQUALLY as important is our trust, our confidence in the possibilities wrapped up in every new life. The little girl, the tiny boy, each merits our meditation and our imagination to look into the future and dream of what this life may be and do. God has made them worthy of our highest hope; they will go beyond what most of us can believe, surely beyond where we have come.

THIS eager mind, with its eternal questing to know, will learn all that we can share with him and more; he will solve problems that were too difficult for his parents. Give him a chance; help him to believe and, to dream; fill his teeming brain with everything we have to offer; then trust his own thinking. He will be the master of the new age which he will help to build.

THE immortal spirit or soul will grow into a rich person with capacity for loving and for creating. Encourage him to read great biographies, teach him to sing our noblest songs, share with him our reverent prayers, acquaint him with high souls that pass his way; lead him into the church. Who can tell the grace and the nobility that lie hidden within the soul? It doesn't matter so much where he may be today; it matters much that we shall show him where he may go tomorrow. Trust the aspiring soul. And trust the great God who is creator of body, mind and soul. Who knows what you and the child and God may accomplish through this life? Walk hand in hand with him.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that faith and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of this church in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for a better life. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Mrs. James Massa Presents Program On American China At 20th Century Club

Mrs. E. L. Campbell was hostess to the Twentieth Century Club Tuesday when the group met for a program by Mrs. James Massa. Her subject was "American China Through the Years." Highlights of her discussion was explanation of the origin of pottery - making in China where it is the oldest of the crafts. Men found that from a lump of clay they could shape vessels both useful and beautiful. The pottery took the name of "china" from the place of its origin. It is thought that these beautiful porcelains first attracted attention some few hundred years before the birth of Christ.

"Progress in the making of china as to its usefulness and beauty spread into Europe in the middle 18th Century, and by the 19th Century factories were prospering in Europe," Mrs. Massa said.

"It is thought that as early as 1650 there were several potteries in West Virginia making crude household wares. By the middle 18th Century the art had spread to Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Massachusetts. The most interesting American pottery, from the viewpoint of design, was made in Bennington, Vermont, and was known as Rockingham ware. Some of this pottery may be seen among collectors' pieces. Also interesting was Parian ware which was an imitation of Wedgwood.

"The growth of the American potteries threatened the European market, and Wedgwood, whose wares were widely purchased at the time, flooded the American market and bankrupted many of the new potteries in this country. Since then American china has never been real competition to English and European china."

Following the discussion, makers of hard-fire china were discussed, and samples examined, such as Castleton, Syracuse, Theodore Haviland, and Franciscan. Samples of Lennox china, a Bel-leek-type china, were also examined.

Official White House china is of special design by Lennox of London, the first set of 1300 pieces was bought by President Woodrow Wilson. Congress passed a law in 1826 that all White House furnishings should be American - made of proper design and quality. In 1935 President Roosevelt purchased another set. The report is that during eight years of continuous use only four pieces have been broken.

"It is of interest to know that in Edwards County, Texas, there is a clay that can produce a pure white translucent pottery. The only other known source of this special clay is found at King Mountain, Nev.," Mrs. Massa explained.

Attending the meeting were Mmes. Frank Cluberson, Jack Foster, J. W. Garman, Jr., J. W. Harrah, Lloyd Hicks, L. B. Hughes, Massa, Roy McKernan, Fred Neslage, G. W. Scott, H. E. Thompson, G. F. Branson, and the hostess, Mrs. Campbell.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mmes. W. R. Ewing, D. V. Burton, Orion Carter, Carolyn Nance, George Wastard, Dave Pope and Mmes. Cook, Kinard, McCoy, Ledrick, Wright, Morrison and Tyler.

During the business session, a program committee was appointed. That group includes Mrs. Pearl Canning and Mrs. W. R. Harden. Mrs. Gladys Harvey was appointed world call chairman.

A letter was read from the girl in the Juliette Fowler home in Dallas who had been adopted by the group. The girl thanked the group for the Christmas gifts she received last month.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and Miss Dorothy Earritt to the following: Mmes. H. H. Tyler, W. L. Parker, Lillian Snow, M. C. Hill, T. J. Wright, G. C. Blaylock, Laura Bell Corneil, and Mrs. A. G. E. G. Gordon, Phil Harvey, Cliff Breeze, and Miss Pearl Spaug and Leona Parker.

One guest, Mrs. Eddie Le Porte, attended the meeting. The February meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Lydia Gilchrist, 105 S. Wynne.

The missionary period of the morning service will be devoted to a review of recent threats to this liberty seen in the appointment of an ambassador to the Vatican, revival of Sunday laws, the Green River Ordinance prohibiting sale of gospel literature, and other developments.

Mrs. Walter Noel, church missionary leader, will explain procedures freedom-loving citizens should follow to make their opinions and wishes known to their congressmen.

Church members will be asked to send subscriptions for Liberty magazine to judges, lawmakers, teachers, ministers and other leaders of the nation, to bring to their attention current issues which involve the American principle of separation of church and state. Since it was launched in 1886 as the American Sentinel, Liberty magazine has been devoted to the preservation of the religious and civil liberties guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States.

We believe that one truth is always consistent with another truth. We endeavor to be consistent with the truths expressed in such Great moral guides as the Golden Rule, the Ten Commandments and the Declaration of Independence.

Should we, at any time, be inconsistent with these truths, we would appreciate anyone pointing out to us how we are inconsistent with these moral guides.

"Look Out America"

D. A. Huley, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, recently made a speech before the New York City Rotary club, which bore the apt title, "Look Out America! Dangerous Ahead!"

Then, Huley departed from his prepared talk to make the following extemporaneous remarks on a specific situation now existing in New York: "You here in the East—and particularly New York State may find yourselves confronted with the entry of the federal government into actual competition with the business managed electric companies which have a long and distinguished record of excellent service."

Five publicly-regulated, tax-paying utility companies are ready and eager to develop the power in private hands and to sell it at rates which will be higher than those which will be set by regulatory bodies.

What makes this nationally significant is that it is a further example of the determined political effort to force socialism down the throats of the people—a tremendous and continuing cost to the taxpayers—where there is absolutely no excuse for it.

The interest of the power industry or any other industry, in a situation of this kind is actually secondary. The big, overriding issues are freedom and opportunity of all the people and perpetuation of free enterprise, which socialism would destroy.

Profit Can Be Too Low

Under the competitive system, the profits per dollar of sales earned by all kinds of stores have been very low—much lower than most consumers realize. This is all to the consumer's benefit and is one of the fruits of low-cost mass distribution.

Today, many retailers face a critical profit situation, due to OPS policies and orders. A short time ago a food chain association submitted to an OPS official a certified public accountant's report on what has happened to 22 of these organizations, all of them typical of the industry.

A comparable situation exists in retailing operations other than food—and it exists for independent stores no matter as for chain systems. No retailer is asking for demanding exorbitant profits—indeed, when competition is open and free, that is automatically made impossible.

Baxter's Views

BY DAVID BAXTER

How did I ever get mixed up in this school discussion business, anyway? The thing started out with a mere mention of basic moral principles, then one thing led to another, as debates ensued, until I found myself involved in every side issue from "The Grapes of Wrath" to the Bible being forbidden in others, plus such items as teachers salaries and the public debt.

Anyway, I'll quote from one more letter on the subject before subsiding temporarily. This one was from Barden Greenleaf of Bathona Island, Miss Greenleaf's letter is couched in a dignified irony which missed me until I got thinking it over. My hide has gradually toughened until it's about 24 hours after being stabbed before I feel any pain. I suspect Miss Greenleaf is more poetic than philosophic but she has gingerly placed one toe into the whirlpool of moral philosophy anyway, probably to find out if the water's cold. She was "not a little perturbed" over my discussion of some books recommended in the schools, and a letter published from a mother complaining about them. After recounting pleasurable years spent in high school, Miss Greenleaf writes:

"Mrs. Baxter, surely the 'Newspaper Mother' must know that where the facts be gleaned from Steinbeck, Russell or life, her sons and daughters will eventually learn them and be better people for knowing them. It is not my fault, it seems to me, however, that this is a form of casuistry. It assumes that Steinbeck's and Russell's are 'facts'—not theories or mere opinions or entertainments—and therefore the schools are 'right' and 'moral' in teaching these alleged 'facts.'"

No question is raised as to whether or not they really are facts, it's one of those "that goes without saying" things. To get the straight of this matter, I did not recommend that the books be forbidden or burned or that people should not read them if they want to. I called one book dirty and rotten, which is my opinion of it. While anyone has a perfect right to read the books, my point was that tax-supported schools have no right to force these books off on students with or without the consent of the parents and some of the students themselves. It simply isn't the school's business, just as it isn't the school's business to forbid students to read a Bible or carry on school property (as many schools do). The whole thing is right in line with the policies of Joseph Stalin.

So far as I have been able to discover, the people of all countries who believe in public schools are not only illiterate but are governed by dictatorships in one form or another. That'll be about enough of that out of you, Mr. Stalin. At this very writing I am looking over an article you wrote some time ago about dictatorship and approaching total slavery RIGHT HERE IN THE UNITED STATES, with its public schools which agree with Stalin to prevent dictatorship, eh? You have been doing some valuable work to stop and reverse our growing home-made dictatorship, as every good American should—but your logic is inconsistent.

The appearance of the physical changes of adolescence may come as quite a shock to young girls unless they are explained in advance. Every girl approaching this age should be properly instructed, preferably by her mother, and made to realize that about one and one-half million other girls in the country are going through the same thing at the same time.

The changes of adolescence should be accepted as a step towards maturity by the girls and their parents. Before they take place, however, girls should know what to expect and should have an understanding of what the changes mean. When they do not understand, an unexpected event may cause some emotional distress. The information supplied should be given in a completely matter of fact way.

It should be explained that the changes about to develop are the result of increased activity on the part of those hormones or internal glands which have to do with femininity. The increased glandular activity does not take place at once and it takes several years before their full function is completed in the fully grown and developed woman.

The physical changes of adolescence in girls do not always come at the same age nor are they completed at the same rate of speed. There is usually no cause for alarm if there is delay until fourteen or fifteen, or if these changes start before thirteen.

The age when adolescence begins varies with different families and with racial background, climate, and perhaps other influences. EMOTIONS ARE UPSET After adolescence begins, and usually for two or three years later, girls are normally somewhat more nervous and less consistent in their behavior than they were before, or will be later.

"AFL Seeking Greater Hand In Education" A news item appearing in the Los Angeles Times the other day should cause people who believe in tax supported schools a little concern. The report, under the above heading, said that the American Federation of Labor was seeking more power over tax supported schools. Listen to this from the report:

"AFL union leaders want more AFL men on boards of education and on public library boards. They are circulating California AFL unions with a proposed three-point program set up by the American Federation of Labor for national activity in this direction. The first point advises that 'all affiliated city and state federated bodies should make a careful review of the needs and practices of their local and State school systems.'"

Representation Sought "Point 2 states that 'organized labor should actively seek representation on city and State Boards of Education and on the boards of directors of public libraries.'"

"The third point is that 'committees from central labor bodies should call on Superintendents of Schools and make inquiry as to what is taught about organized labor and by whom and about the examine statements in textbooks about the labor movement, to ascertain that there is fair presentation of the labor movement in the public schools.'"

Their idea of "fair" of course means that organized labor union members must have special privileges that other individuals cannot have. In other words, their idea of education is to teach the youth of the land to believe in the caste system. They want the youth taught that those who are "in" need not compete with others who are below.

And if majority-rule "education" is right and proper and good and moral, and the majority has a legal right to indoctrinate the youth of the land with anything the majority believes is good, then the AFL is perfectly in its legal right in trying to get control of the schools to boost the standing of the labor boss.

Labor unions cannot teach the competitive system or the American way of life because they are based, just as tax supported schools are based, on the theory that might makes right and that the individual should not use his conscience but should determine all questions and economic questions by counting noses.

The fact of the matter is that labor unions and socialists have already got almost complete control of the tax supported schools and most of the private schools. The textbook "American Government" by Magruder is in 60% of all the high schools in the United States and it is teaching the exact antithesis of the ideologies set forth in the Declaration of Independence. It is teaching the ideologies of socialism and of organized labor, it is teaching a closed shop and special privileges. This book "American Government" by Magruder is teaching the American people that the state can do things that are immoral for an individual to do, just as the labor unions contend that labor unions have a moral right to do things that no moral individual has a moral right to do. The book teaches, just as the labor unions teach, that men must give up their freedom for the benefit of the majority says is good.

Madam Minister's Social Conduct Thought A Disgrace

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

LUXEMBOURG — Some dignitaries of our State Department think Madam Minister's social conduct at the miniature court of Grand Duchess Charlotte of Luxembourg is politically grotesque and a discredit to our diplomatic service. Although I have sipped at Madam the Minister's board, I will have to say I think so, too. There is a painful personal question in such situations as to whether the kindness of the host puts a journalist under an obligation.

I am confident Mrs. Mesta had no desire to restrict me by her hospitality, which is more than anyone ever could say of the Roosevelts with their chicken wing and potato salad soires for the inebriated wretches of the fourth estate in the early days of their long regime and I rather suspect that she caught in my eye at times the same skeptical look that I caught at times in hers as we came to points "on which we never can agree."

Madam the Minister is the rich widow of a Pittsburgh steel manufacturer. She originally came from Oklahoma and her father, who founded a fortune in the oil boom, was a hard-fisted individualist who worked some of his roughneck vacations or five years without paid vacations. She thought this was terrible and used the word "authorizing this" or that brooding character to take a week or two off with pay. She said this as though there were some divine authority for the proposition that an employer owes an employee enlargements which come to include baby benefits in situations which a boss obviously cannot decently be a responsibly party to, paid free time for voting in elections to confiscate the employer's lawful property and pensions over and above the social security to which the boss already pays substantial contributions.

Mrs. Mesta is a typical political bigot who cannot understand that a boss has no legitimate obligation to pay a worker or loader a single cent more than the stated terms of their mutual contract—and who believes—that a boss is a dirty rat because he is an employer and therefore ought to be robbed as a matter of plain justice. She said she had thought things out and had come to the conclusion that workers needed unions to protect them from exploitation by brutal bosses, but when I asked who was going to protect them from the Daniel Tobins, Dave Dubinsky's and Walter Reuther's she said, "Well, labor is not perfect yet, you know, and Rome was not made in a day, you know, and we all make mistakes, don't we?"

Perle threw in with that earlier counterpart, Wendell Wilkie, before she decided that Harry Truman was a great American and snatched the tailboard of his whistlestop special in 1948. I had not heard that even earlier she had been a friend of the Calvin Coolidges, but she said she used to breakfast at the White House with the strong silent man and still regarded Grace Coolidge as one of her dear friends.

On the general subject of the Washington cocktail or dinner party, which is the foulest vulgarity in the social history of the American capital, with judges, commissioners and cheap widows on the make and cheap

Step Up, Suckers

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — While the struggle for the Republican presidential nomination shows signs of developing into an open brawl between the Taft and Eisenhower forces, presidential politics on Democratic side has become enveloped in an atmosphere of intrigue created deliberately by the White House faction in order to maintain President Truman's grip on the party machinery.

Although Mr. Truman has not yet revealed his intentions on running again, he insists on keeping his successor, who Chief Justice Vinson as his reported choice and Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois as a possible vice-presidential nominee.

DETERMINED — Despite supposedly friendly relations between the White House and the selection of Sen. Estes Kefauver as the 1952 candidate, the Tennessee has been too active and too articulate about his ambitions to please the man in the White House, who thinks that nobody should seek the nomination until he has spoken.

Another subsequent congressional investigations were responsible for involving Truman office-holders in the current scandals, it was Mr. Kefauver who first directed public attention to the alliance between many Democratic politicians and the underworld, and to Washington's general tolerance of national lawlessness. For that the Tennessee will never be forgiven.

The Nation's Press

VISHINSKY'S PLAN

As at least one shrewd observer foresew would happen, Mr. Vishinsky has now moved in the direction of accepting our state department's proposals on disarmament. The Russians until just the other day insisted that the nations must first of all outlaw atomic weapons and then negotiate an agreement on inspection. Mr. Truman said the arrangements for inspection must go along with the agreement to outlaw Mr. Vishinsky, after a great show of rejecting these terms now proclaims that they are satisfactory to Russia.

The shrewd observer was an anonymous editorial writer in the magazine, the Freeman. In the issue of Dec. 3, 1951, he called the turn. He saw, as Mr. Churchill and many others have seen, that the one weapon we possess which the Russians genuinely fear is the atom bomb. And he saw also, what very few others have seen, that the Russians have no reason to fear inspection. As he put it:

"International inspection just cannot work on the territory of a big country if its inhabitants live in fear of their own government. The target of international inspection is, by definition, the possible trickery of a national government itself. But the same definition, the only conceivable source of revealing information is the watchful private citizen...."

"Mutual armament inspection, in other words, presupposes comparable political systems in the nations concerned. To imply that in a totalitarian police state international inspectors could unearth, let alone conclusively prove, illegal tricks of the monolithic government itself, is to lie brazenly."

How true this is was shown in Germany even under the Weimar republic which was a good deal less than totalitarian. The allied inspectors were there to see that the Germans didn't rearm but they rearm anyway simply because the German people wouldn't squeal on their own government. They were restrained by nothing more than patriotism and the fear of condemnation in public opinion. The Russian people under Stalin know that anybody who squeals will die.

Even if industrial installations go it will not be easy for foreigners to find them unaided, and there is no particular reason to suppose that atom plants must always be as big and conspicuous as the first ones. As for the hiding of bombs and of the fissionable materials of which bombs are made, that would present no problem at all in a huge country, especially if it were ruled by a government that wouldn't scruple to shoot the workmen who had moved the stuff into its hiding place.

Mr. Vishinsky's latest proposals, of course, repeat his earlier one for a percentage reduction of conventional armaments. It ought not to be necessary to point out that any such reduction would leave Russia in a far stronger relative position than she is today. "The thing for Americans to bear in mind is that this country today is in no danger of conquest by Russia and is never likely to be, for the Russians have no means of landing troops in this country so long as we have an adequate navy and air force. The safety of this country does not require a huge army or conscription."

So far as western Europe is concerned, the mere threat of the atom bomb has been sufficient thus far to restrain Russian aggression. If Europe wants additional protection, England, France, Italy, western Germany, and the rest have all the men and all the industrial resources that may be required to build a force that can hold the Russian and turn them back. Western Europe would be much farther along toward creating such a force if our government had not told them they could rely on our infantry as well as our bombs for their defense.

National Whirligig... Demo Presidential Politics Enveloped In Air Of Intrigue

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — While the struggle for the Republican presidential nomination shows signs of developing into an open brawl between the Taft and Eisenhower forces, presidential politics on Democratic side has become enveloped in an atmosphere of intrigue created deliberately by the White House faction in order to maintain President Truman's grip on the party machinery.

Although Mr. Truman has not yet revealed his intentions on running again, he insists on keeping his successor, who Chief Justice Vinson as his reported choice and Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois as a possible vice-presidential nominee.

DETERMINED — Despite supposedly friendly relations between the White House and the selection of Sen. Estes Kefauver as the 1952 candidate, the Tennessee has been too active and too articulate about his ambitions to please the man in the White House, who thinks that nobody should seek the nomination until he has spoken.

PURPOSES — Thus the Truman maneuvering has three purposes: (1) to keep the field open for the President, if he decides to run; (2) to enable Mr. Truman to serve a general warning to Kefauver and others, that their activities are not appreciated at the White House.

Another important aim is to round up sufficient Truman support before the convention so that a prospective bolt by Southern Democrats will not damage the party's chances of success in November. In short, the President is serving notice now that he is the "big boss," and wants no rivals.

DISTURBED — The amazing aspect of this maneuvering is that Mr. Truman feels it necessary to engage in it. It is almost axiomatic that a President and party leader can renominate himself, or impose his choice upon the convention upon his retirement from office.

The White House realizes, however, that important figures in the party are deeply concerned over the corruption issue, the record-breaking budget and taxes and the unsettled foreign situation, they have grave doubts whether Mr. Truman can be re-elected, especially against General "Ike" Eisenhower.

These are the factors underlying the recent behind-the-scenes moves by the White House in the air force or give up the atom bomb. That is the way to invite Stalin to march.

After an absence of many years, an old Southern Negro returned to his home town and dropped in at a doctor's office seeking relief from an ailment. "The physician ran down a long list of questions about the old man's health, and finally asked: "Doc—How are your kidneys?" The patient brightened perceptibly and answered in a proud voice: "Patent—Well, Dr., they all grown up now, and most of 'em married and got families."

O'Hara Asks For Probe In Reported Vice In Japan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. O'Hara (R-Minn.) asked the Defense Dept. for an immediate investigation of a report of mass prostitution near Army camps in Japan.

In a letter to Secretary of Defense Lovett, O'Hara said he had received a complaint from a constituent who enclosed a letter from a boy in the armed forces in Japan recounting conditions there.

"I respectfully request that an investigation be made immediately and that I be advised whether or not those in authority in Japan are permitting vice conditions and racketeering to exist, as alleged in the letter," O'Hara wrote Lovett.

O'Hara said that since the charges were general he has asked for confirming statements with specifications of the charges. In the meantime, he said, a check should be made by the Defense Dept.

The letter from the boy in the service in Japan said in part:

"Conditions exist here in Japan that are a disgrace and a reproach to our armed forces and to the United States of America. The lowest and vilest forms of vice and corruption abound in mass prostitution racketeering flourish without the military police lifting a finger. These conditions could not exist without the sanction of the military police."

"I reported this all to the provost marshal's office and was politely told nothing could be done about it. There is good reason — thousands, perhaps millions of dollars are going into the pockets of Japanese officials, from him to the military, the merchants and men in the uniform of the United States. . . ."

"I urge you at home to bring this to the attention of those in authority at home. I can get gallons of gasoline annually."

Children Found In Starving Condition

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — One of the two children brought to Good Samaritan hospital in a starving condition Wednesday remained critically ill Thursday.

A charge of child desertion was filed against the mother, Eloise Cook, in Justice of the Peace M. D. Jones' court.

Larry Dean was better Thursday, but Geraldine's condition was very grave, hospital attendants said.

The mother was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Tony Lobello in a case Wednesday night. She did not visit her children in the hospital until after her arrest.

The children's service bureau discovered the youngsters when an aunt of the children notified Calvin Dodds, executive secretary, that he should "come and get the kids before they die." The mother, not living with the children, called Dodds not much later, and he asked her to come at once. She failed to appear by late Wednesday so the warrant for her arrest was issued.

According to Lobello, the woman told him she has two other children, Jerry Dean Van Blaricum, 4, and Ralph Ray Cook, 17 months. He said the mother told him Jerry was staying with a relative in Seguin and that Ralph has been placed by a welfare agency.

Civil War Order Is Restored For Lubbock Owner

AUSTIN (AP) — A torn special order written by Gen. Bragg from the top of Missionary Ridge, Tenn., during the Civil War has been restored to permanency for its Lubbock owner.

The restoration was ordered by Garland Adair, executive director of the Texas Heritage foundation, which helps to preserve historic documents of interest to Texas.

The owner is Mrs. James H. Gorman of Lubbock, descendant of Gen. James Smith's family. Smith county was named for the general.

Gen. Bragg's order, dated Sept. 25, 1863, authorized L. D. Smith of Company H of the 10th Texas regiment to deliver to Richmond the flags captured from the federal troops at the battle of Chickamauga, in Georgia, together with the report of the commanding general.

The bearer wrote on the back of the order: "If I should be killed in the battlefield, or die in hospital some kind friend will please send this to H. M. Smith, Station Creek Coryell county, Texas." Adair said he did not know the exact circumstances of how

Gooseflesh Guaranteed For Paris Theater Goers

By ROSETTE HARGROVE NEA Staff Correspondent

PARIS (NEA) — Theatergoers in search of the macabre still find all this and a little more at the Paris theater known as the "Grand Guignol" (Big Puppet).

Tucked away in a side street leading up to Montmartre, this pocket playhouse — its seats around 300 — guarantees gooseflesh. The fact that it was once a chapel contributes in no small measure to the eerie atmosphere.

The formula of the Grand Guignol dates back to 1896. The management soon decided to off-set the nightmarish plays with one-act comedies, mainly of the typically French risqué bedroom farce type. The idea has proved successful for more than 65 years.

"When the Germans marched into Paris, the Grand Guignol was one of the first theaters they took over," recalls director Charles Nonon. "They appointed a manager and during the four years of occupation it played to full houses. This type of entertainment particularly appealed to the Germans."

Came Liberation and the theater after was restored to its legitimate owners. During one of his rare visits to Paris the late Gen. George Patton saw the show, and a French newspaper reported that America's "Blood and Guts" general had particularly enjoyed the thrillers. The theater was deluged with phone calls from French people who ignored the general's sur-named and asked for tickets to "Blood and Guts."

One horror play on the current bill is "Bloody Embrace." The slightly involved story features an opium-smoking Frenchman born in the Orient with tiger claws instead of hands. The sight of a woman's beautiful white throat invariably arouses his feline instincts and he is unable to resist mauling her to death.

In the good old days blood used to flow like water on the stage of the Grand Guignol. Today it is used slightly more sparingly, leaving more to the spectators' imagination.

Heady Miller, who takes the leading roles in the lurid plays, is a comely young actress who in private life is full of "joie de vivre." Do her roles ever make her feel morbid?

"Why, of course not," she says. "I always wanted to specialize in acting of this kind. Once I leave the theater I never think or even dream of the macabre situations in which I have to play."

Rembrandt's early models often were his mother, father, and sister, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Farmer Expresses Optimism For Labor Program

PECOS (AP) — A Pecos farmer who has been advising the federal government on farm labor legislation says he is optimistic about prospects for a satisfactory program.

J. B. Kirklin returned to Pecos this week after 10 days of conferring in Washington with President Truman, congressmen and labor union officers. Kirklin is a member of the Mexican anti-committee for the United States and also a representative of Texas on the national advisory committee to the secretary of labor. He said bills now under consideration will "ultimately lead to a very satisfactory labor program."

Kirklin said critics of the government proposal are wrong in saying penalty provisions could be invoked against U. S. employers who unwittingly employ wetbacks.

Textile Fellowships Are Established

NEW YORK (AP) — The Celanese Corp. of America has announced the establishment of five graduate fellowships for advanced work in textiles at four textile colleges.

Purpose of the program is to produce trained technical personnel for careers in the textile fibers industry. Two fellowships will be at Lowell Textile Institute Research Foundation, Lowell, Mass. One each will be at North Carolina State College, Raleigh, N. C., Clemson College, Clemson, S. C., and Georgia Institute of Technology in Georgia.
