Narcotics Disgrace To American People

(Editors Note: This is the first of a series on "America's slave-world of narcotics" in which an alarming number of teen-age children are being trapped. Associated Press writer Don Whitehead has dug into the files of the U. S. Narcotics bureau and other sources in an effort to show how youths become addicts, how a big shot peddler is trapped, and what addicts and experts think should be done to halt the traffic which takes about $182 million a year from its victims.)

By DON WHITEHEAD
WASHINGTON (AP)—There is a slave-world in the United States today which is as vile and degrading and brutal as any slave camp behind the Iron Curtain.

At least 50,000 men, women and children are prisoners in this twilight world. It has no morals. There are no laws except the laws of greed and selfishness. It promises nothing except a fleeting pleasure and then the pain and misery and suffering of the damned.

In 1916, there were only 17 teen-age patients admitted to hospital wards for drug addiction. Today, the U. S. public health service has 10,000 addicts in its hospitals at Lexington, Ky., and Fort Worth, Tex. In the last four months of 1950, the number of these addicts has risen to 7,000.

Most of these came from Chicago and New York, and a few other large cities. Almost all of them came from broken homes, from families where there was no discipline or from crowded neighborhoods, which had no hope of a better life for a youngster. But many come from good homes and from respected, well-to-do families.

It's a grave problem that is as hard to solve as it is to explain why anyone would dare enter the narcotics slave world. Anyone may enter who wishes. Each year an alarming number of people either wander in or are lured into this other world. Many deliberately choose to go there.

NO BARS. No barbed wire fences. No gates to prevent escape. Yet few find their way out. They may want to desperately. But they discovered they have neither the strength nor the will power to leave once they are there.

It's the slave-world of narcotics which in recent years has become a sinister, peddling, luring more and more people into the worthless life of a "junkie" — a dope addict.

Right now this slave world exists in such cities as New York, Chicago, Washington, D. C., Detroit, Cleveland, New Orleans and Philadelphia as possibly the worst examples.

But it has no boundaries. It could become a part of your home town, your school, your neighborhood as it has spread into other schools.

That is the purpose of these articles — to sound a warning and what can and is being done to help destroy this slave-world.

It's a world that is built almost entirely on the street-corner sales of stolen or smuggled narcotics which bring in profits making pickers of those who traffic in mink and influence in 10 percent.

HEROIN IS FAVORITE. Heroin is the favorite narcotic of the junkies. It's made from the juice of poppy seed. A pound of heroin is worth about $300 in Turkey. That same pound is worth from $75,000 to $100,000 on the sidewalks of American cities.

For these profits, men will risk prison, steal, kill and commit all manner of crime. Men, women and children willingly take the same risks to get money with which to buy the stuff to satisfy their craving for more and more narcotics.

Less than three weeks ago Federal Bureau of Narcotics agents staged the biggest crack-down on the slave-world in the nation's history. They rounded up more than 500 addicts and peddlers believed to have supplied addicts with more than $18 million.

Prison Escapee Is Back After 16 Years
TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—State prison authorities are expected here within a few days to pick up Ed Starr, 40, who escaped from the penitentiary at Huntsville more than 16 years ago, surrendered yesterday.

"The main reason I've done it," he said after walking into the police station, "is because I want to get married and settle down." Starr told Texarkana officers he had a little over two years on a four-year sentence for burglary when he escaped.

He gave his bride-to-be credit for helping him make up his mind to surrender. Starr said he would settle on an Arkansas chicken farm he has bought when he is released.

News Will Sponsor Contest To Choose Area Good Neighbor

Most people get a warm glow of good feeling when they think of their good neighbors and the many good acts they perform in the name of friendship.

All too often good deeds done by good neighbors do not become public knowledge.

It is with this in mind, and as an added event in "Get Acquainted Week," to be celebrated in February, that The Pampa Daily News is sponsoring a "Good Neighbor Contest" with $100 in cash prizes and an opportunity for readers to see that their good neighbor gets the recognition he or she deserves.

Here's the way the contest will work:

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the contest with the exception of employees of The News, radio station KPDN and members of their families.

2. To nominate your candidate for "Good Neighbor" of the Pampa Trade Area simply write a letter of 300 words or less to the editor of The News. In the letter, set forth why you think your candidate should be named the "Good Neighbor." Letters should be postmarked no later than midnight, Feb. 16.

3. A committee of local people will be selected to go over the letters and judge on the basis of accomplishments of the candidates for the Good Neighbor title.

4. The person who nominates the winning candidate for the Good Neighbor title will be presented a $50 cash prize by The Pampa News. Second prize will be $25, third, $15, and fourth, $10. Prizes will go to the person writing the letter of nomination, and NOT to the winning candidate.

5. In case of more than one letter nominating the same candidate for the Good Neighbor title, judges will base their decision on the best letter. In all cases, decision of the judging committee will be final.

Daniel, 41, has never lost a race. He framed most of his winning bids on the Truman administration with accusations of greed, extravagance and social ineptness.

Many Texans who heard the boom that originated here last night expected a colorful campaign.

Asked his opinion in 24 weeks of the senate, he said: "Let it run." He declined further comment.

Continually had down to Waco Sunday upon learning of the death of his former Baylor classmate, former Gov. Pat Neff, 77, who said he never lost a political race.

Daniel's public decision to quit came after months of rumor that he would make the race if Gov. Allan Shivers decided not to run against Connally. Shivers announced his reelection as governor recently.

Daniel's erstwhile opponent, President Truman and those around him to putting America in a humiliating position of having to take orders from Communists.

He never mentioned Connally by name but he attempted to link the senator with the things he said were wrong with Mr. Truman. He made repeated blasts at U. S. foreign policy, Sen. Connally is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

"I think he is one of those who are attracted to the Truman administration foreign policy in Korea and the Far East, and who want to see it continued, who would vote to maintain those in power who are architects of that policy."

A luncheon on Daniel at a Dallas hotel last night drew a capacity crowd. Some 500 tickets to the affair were reported sold by last night.

Washington needs a thorough house cleaning to purge itself of this over-concentration of power, greed and corruption, Daniel said.

He called a list of new names whom he said had taken the lead in exposing corruption. These new names are accused, he said, and he is willing to be one of them.

Daniel said his audience here would apply experience gained in fighting crime and corruption in Texas to the national level.

Hitting at tax levels, Daniel said the country was spending itself into bankruptcy and taxing the people beyond all reason.

He said there was waste in foreign aid but added that it would apply experience gained in fighting crime and corruption to combat Communism. He said a country should get American aid if it were spending vital year.

Reds Say No To Reconstruction Of Airfield

MUNSAN, Korea. (AP)—In a curt 14-minute truce session today the Communists refused to ban airfield reconstruction although the Allies offered to accept Red wording on other terms for supervising a Korean armistice.

Three hours and ten minutes of wrangling in another subcommittee failed to change Communist opposition to letting prisoners of war decide for themselves whether they want to be repatriated.

Both committees meet again at 11 a. m. Wednesday, 18 p. m. Tuesday (CST) for new tries at breaking the deadlock.

The 14-minute truce supervision session was the subcommittee's longest this week.

Mr. Gen. Claude A. Buehler said the UN command would accept the wording of the Communist counterproposal submitted Jan. 9 if the Reds would agree to a ban on reconstructing bombed-out airfields during a truce. This clause has been the only point of difference between the two sides since Jan. 9.

Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsueh Fang said: "There was no misunderstanding that his heart was in what he said," commented Brig. Gen. William P. Nickols, UN command spokesman.

Hsueh accused the allies of four provocative actions since Jan. 13 and charged that Vice Adm. C. Pinner Joy has bragged that the only way to break the truce deadlock might be by military pressure.

He was referring to a copy righted interview in U. S. News and World Report in which Joy said a stable armistice agreement could be reached either by a sudden change of heart by the Reds or "sufficient military power to induce such a change of heart."

Hsueh quoted Joy as saying in the magazine interview that "bombs and bullets are the only language" the Communists understand.

Nickols said the Allies offer Tuesday to accept Communist wording on truce supervision if the UN forces in U. S. News and World Report was added as an indication of an honest effort to make progress toward an armistice.

Iran Refuses To Accept British Ambassador
TEHRAN, Iran. (AP)—Iran refused today to accept Robert Hankey as the new British ambassador to Tehran.

The British had submitted Hankey's appointment as a new move toward ending the bitter deadlock between the two countries over the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. holding, which Iran nationalized last spring.

Hankey, 46, was to succeed Sir Francis Shepherd, who has been British ambassador in Tehran through all the oil trouble.

School Board Rejects Plan To Rent Gym For Wrestling

A plan to rent the Junior High School gymnasium for organized wrestling matches was turned down last night by members of the Pampa Board of Education.

In the first meeting of the board since Dec. 10, action also was taken to prohibit the playing of basketball in the new field house of an other school facilities on Sundays, and to allow the Fisk Singers, sponsored by the Pampa Municipal Alliance, use of the Junior High Gymnasium.

In explaining why he rejected the request of Howard Vineyard to rent school facilities for professional wrestling, E. C. Thompson, president of the board, contended the project is too much of a private enterprise to be connected with the school system.

"It has been the policy of the school board to allow use of school property for activities that will better the entire community. We have rejected similar proposals in the past," Thompson stated.

"The sole purpose in bringing wrestling to Pampa is to entertain the people," Vineyard stated. "I believe our school should become better known if we are holding events are introduced."

At the meeting, the board closed to attend the annual State Board of Education meeting, March 10-12, in Austin, which, as citizens, are invited to attend. A special invitation and description of the activities of the board were extended to the Pampa board by Dick Evans, State Board of Education member.

Guests at last night's meeting were T. M. Cline, Dallas, and E. S. Abbott, Fort Worth, both examination engineers. At present, they are here evaluating telephone property.

Other board members said their opinion concerning the proposed wrestling seems to be that it would probably be a waste of money and that the Junior High gymnasium is too much of a private enterprise.

Defiant Amarillo Answers March Of Dimes Challenge
The reply to the Dimes drive, local March of Dimes chairman, came last night from Amarillo.

"Find those four best clovers. You'll need them if Dimes expects to beat Amarillo at the March of Dimes drive."

So said Leon Krupp, Dimes county drive chairman, in reply to a telegram from the Gray county chairman challenging Amarillo to an all-out fight during the dimes drive.

But today Krupp insisted to compare last year's figures of the two counties. He said the drive of the 1951 drive started was collected in Gray county where its neighbor took in $3,500.

"And we'll do better this year," Krupp said. "It will be a fight all the way but Gray county certainly won't need four leaf clovers to win."

Plans Made To Observe Hwy. Week

Ten members of the Highway and Transportation committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce yesterday completed plans for observance of Texas Highway Week, Jan. 27 to Feb. 3, during a meeting of the committee in the chamber office.

Food Thompson will speak at a meeting of the Jaycees and a luncheon at the Kiwanis club Jan. 29. Sherman White will talk to the Rotary club Jan. 30. V. Burton to the Lions club Jan. 31, and Smiley Henderson to the Kiwanis club, Feb. 1.

Present at yesterday's meeting were W. B. Weathered, coordinator of the committee, Frank Lard, J. C. McWilliams, Jack Vaughn, Thompson, Dick Pepin, Ed Miller, Shorty Lane, Frank Johnson and E. O. Wedgeworth.

Thousands Attend Pat Neff Funeral
WACO, Tex. (AP)—Thousands paid final tribute here yesterday to Pat Neff, 80, who died Sunday of a heart attack.

The former governor and Baylor university president had been a leader in church, state, school and national affairs for half a century.

Some 20,000 people, including a Neff classmate, Baylor, flew from Washington to attend the funeral, Gov. Allan Shivers drove from Austin.

Massive burial rites were held at the grave in Oakwood cemetery after Dr. Forrest Frazier presided at funeral services in Waco's First Baptist church.

The pastor read from the first Psalm: "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the council of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful."

British And Americans Press Investigations Of Nun's Death

CAIRO, Egypt. (AP)—British and American authorities pressed investigations today of the death of a nun, Sister Anthony, who was well-known as a religious leader and out-crier of the Egyptian government.

The spokesman said Caffery, during Sister Anthony's recent school battle between British troops and Egyptian government forces.

The speaking Caffery also has disavowed any connection with the U. S. ambassador, Edwin M. Hoover, in a U. S. consular in Cairo, by making an independent investigation about the British at Ismailia, where he found a nun's skull took place.

Mulliney also was to represent the Egyptian cabinet has ordered for the return to Cairo later today, but it was not known how long his full investigation might take.

A British spokesman in Cairo said the British had begun a full investigation of the death of Sister Anthony's death in an effort to determine whether the death was a result of a "breaking relations" between the British and the Egyptian government.

The papers also continued to accuse the British of using force to suppress the Egyptian government. The British already had agreed to a large section of the Egyptian territory to the United States it was believed was a "breaking relations" between the British and the Egyptian government.

The British have also Sister Suez Canal Zone. Anthony was killed by Egyptian forces, Chief of staff for the new Egyptian interior minister, Gen. Sirag El Din Pasha, ordered the British to break relations with the Egyptian government.

Solons Deliberate Question 'Should Congress Go On TV?'

By ARTHUR EDSON
(For Hal Boyle)

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Three congressmen have been warmly debbing the question: "Should Congress be put on television?" Typically, they have come up with three answers: yes, no, and yes-and-no.

The debate, prepared for a magazine put out by the Academy of Radio and Television Arts and Sciences, appears in the "Congressional Record."

You, too, may have wondered why it's not possible to see Congress in action (I use the word loosely), so let's have a look at the arguments:

Yes, emphatically, says Rep. Javits (R-NY). His view:

"We are arbitrarily limiting the scope of our democracy by not televising and broadcasting congressional sessions."

Even Javits won't go whole hog. He would limit television to major debate.

No, emphatically, says Sen. Gillette (D-Iowa). "Congress is a deliberative and legislative body," Gillette said. "It is not a theater, a music hall or a sports arena."

He thinks television would be a distraction, and that Congress should stick to deliberating—and debating.

Yes, and no, says Sen. Wiley (R-Wis). Wiley gets off to this glorious start:

"Congress, at least in some respects, provides perfect material for TV."

The Senate and House have more drama than the most superb television playhouse, more newsworthiness than the most up-to-the-minute video television news reel, occasional humor to provide splendid refreshment for even light-minded onlookers, variety of subject matter to outmatch the finest variety show.

I don't believe this is quite the way I would describe Congress and after getting his breath back, Wiley seems to shy away from it, too.

He would like to see joint sessions of Congress televised, as they are now, and important hearings, as they sometimes are now.

But Wiley foresees numerous difficulties in televising actual House and Senate debates. He faces one problem with admirable frankness. "In the Senate," he said, "it would be difficult, if not impossible, to force a limitation on debate and thus prevent hogging of the TV camera."

And indeed it would.

"ANY FOOL KNOWS THEY'D BE STOLEN!"

Recently some American movies were shown at our embassy in Moscow.

The Russian servants peeked in on these scenes of another world.

One scene showed a milkman leaving milk and cream on the doorsteps of several houses.

The Russian butler, a staunch party man, was later heard delivering a fiery speech to the help in the kitchen . . .

"Capitalistic lies!" he cried, "leaving bottles of milk on a doorstep like that . . . Why, any fool knows they'd be stolen!"

With milk selling at $1.79 a quart in Moscow, you couldn't blame the guy.

In America milk averages less than 25 cents a quart.

We have 5 times as much milk and butter per person as the average in other countries.

How come? Well, one good reason is an American practice called Brand Names competition.

You buy a well-known brand of product because you figure it gives you the best value and quality.

This is tough news to other brands . . . So they all work doubly hard to offer you new improvements and greater value yet!

They put in finer machinery to cut costs . . . make their products better. They go all-out to win you over to their brand name.

So they all fight for your business . . . and you win every time. And it all adds up to a country of people who think nothing of leaving precious milk on their doorsteps.

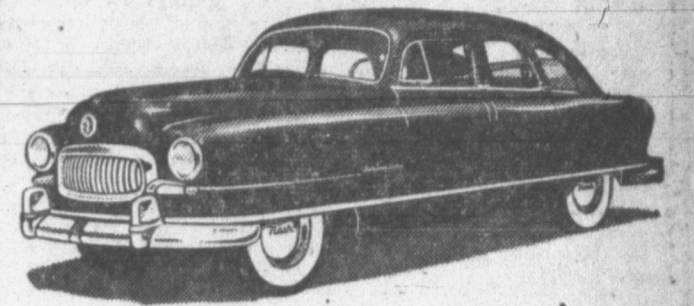

Next time you see a well-known brand name on a product in a store . . . or when you read the ads in this newspaper that feature brand names, remember . . . they're working for you! They're saving you money. They're giving you more and better things.

Iowa Upset By Indiana Hoosiers

By JOE FALLS
NEW YORK — Only four collegiate basketball teams — Illinois, St. Bonaventure, Kansas and Duquesne — were left on the list of unbeaten today following the startling upset of Iowa.
Indiana shattered Iowa's 12-game winning streak last night with an 82-69 victory at Bloomington, Ind. It was a crushing setback for the Hawkeyes, who not only ended their victory streak but also knocked them out of first place in the Western Conference race.
Illinois, although idle, moved into the top spot. The Illini led the nation's No. 1 team, with a 4-0 record. Iowa now is 5-1 in league play.
This leaves one big question: will any of the remaining unbeaten — Illinois (11-0), St. Bonaventure (10-0), Kansas (13-0) and Duquesne (11-0) — get through the season unscathed.
Odds say no. Army's 1944 squad (15-0) was the last to finish with a spotless record. Last season, Columbia went through the regular season without a defeat but was kayo'd in the first round of the NCAA playoffs.
The Western Conference had its customary heavy Monday night schedule. In other games, Ohio State nipped Minnesota, 59-58; Michigan State trimmed Wisconsin, 50-39, and Northwestern edged Michigan, 59-57.
Meanwhile, Kentucky's savage scoring Wildcats, headed by Coach, scored for their fifth straight Southeastern Conference win. Frank Ramsey, with 25 points, and Cliff Hagan, with 22, led the Kentucky barrage.
A Boston Garden twin bill saw Canisius upset Holy Cross, 64-59, after Boon College had turned back Dartmouth, 64-51, in overtime.

Reaper-Price Tilt Postponed

The scheduled game between the Junior High school Reapers and the Price college eagles for yesterday afternoon was called off late yesterday morning. Price college is stuck with a bad case of flu, and five of the cages were ill.
The game was postponed indefinitely.
In games that were played yesterday Borger trimmed Elizabeth Nixon, 20-18, Canyon beat Sam Houston, 25-22, and Phillips downed Horace Mann, 49-29.

Women Bowlers In Second Place Wins

Pampa's women bowlers, in addition to the top money spots announced yesterday in The News, finished with some second place winners after the final totalling of pins in the Panhandle Open tournament yesterday.
In the Class B all-events crown, teamed with Miriam Leuders to take second place in the Class B doubles with a total of 1,002 pins.
In the Class C doubles, Nancy Sullivan and Alberta Rader teamed together for a second place title, with a total of 906 pins.
The Cabot Carbon team captured first place in the women's team bowling with Service Liquor second and Poole's Drive Inn third.

The Illini supplanted the Kansas Jayhawks as the best in the land, boasting an 11-0 record, defeated highly regarded Indiana, 78-66, in its only outing of the week while Kansas had a tough time beating Nebraska, 69-66, in its lone appearance. The victory was Kansas' 13th of an unbeaten season.

Champs Repeat At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH — (AP) — More than 5,300 fans watched three 1951 champs repeat last night as the Fort Worth regional Golden Gloves tournament ended.
Raymond Hodge, featherweight; Graydon Campbell, lightweight; and Welter Frank Dunnagan were the repeaters. Campbell is a TCU student.
The 1951 flyweight champion, Sterling Pruitt, won the bantam title with a KO over Joe Dittmore.
Cpl. Joe Marlow, Caiswell AFB, outpointed Bill Kennedy for the middleweight crown after three first-round knockdowns.

Carter Lucky To Gain Win

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Lightweight champion Jimmy Carter doesn't have much to show for last night's unimpressive victory over lightweight Mario Trigo.
The 135-pound New Yorker certainly didn't enhance his boxing reputation. And it's doubtful if he got much more than coffee and cake money out of the $9,598 gate at the arena. About all the champion reaped from his effort was a victory for the record book.
The 3,387 fans on hand sounded like 10,000 as they stamped their

Reaper-Price Tilt Postponed

The scheduled game between the Junior High school Reapers and the Price college eagles for yesterday afternoon was called off late yesterday morning. Price college is stuck with a bad case of flu, and five of the cages were ill.

Pampa Team Heads Entry List

Glove action runs rampant tonight in Amarillo Auditorium as the annual regional Golden Gloves, sponsored by the Amarillo News, gets underway at 8 o'clock.
Eight champions from last year's tournament will return to defend their crowns in the 16th annual tournament. In addition, a state champion and national runner-up will be seeking to retain his crown, starting from a different district.
Of the eight champions defending their Amarillo thrones, five will be in the open division and three from the high school class. All of the open division champions are from Amarillo. They are flyweight Eddie Amador, bantamweight Leon Palacio, featherweight Pete Perez, lightweight Claude King and heavyweight Donald Giles. Of these, only Andrade and Giles remain in the same weights, the other three all moving up or down a class.
The three defending high school champions are flyweight Jimmie Thompson of Wellington, and Bobby Wilhelm, lightweight, and Dick Murray, 175, both of Pampa. All three of these fighters gained the right to enter the regional meet through the Pampa District tournament.

COOPER BACK

The state champion, seeking to start defense of his crown in another district, is Gene Cooper of Pampa, now serving with the Air Force at Amarillo Air Force base. Cooper is a two-time state champion, having won the 147-pound crown in 1945, starting out at Amarillo. Last year he went through the Wichita Falls tournament.
Three champions of the 1951 regional who will not return are Wilbur Smith of Wellington, James Wortham of Amarillo and Calvin Pyle of Lockney.
Wednesday's start of the regional tournament will feature 11 bouts and pairings for tonight's first round of fights were to be made late this afternoon.
Tournament champions in both the high school and open division class are the Golden Gloves are entered to compete against the Amarillo fighters.
Other members of the Pampa team are Scotty Davey of Pampa, Eddy Clemmons of Lefors and Gene Beard, Dan Jameson, and Dick Murray of Wellington.
Tickets for the five-night affair have been selling fast at the Maxor Drug in the First Building, Amarillo. Tickets are being sold for five-night reservations as well as single-night seats.

Bobcats Battle Eagles Tonight

District I-AAAA cage action resumes tonight with one conference game scheduled. The San Angelo Bobcats move out of the Concho for the night to meet the Abilene Eagles at the Eagles' Nest in Abilene.
The contest could move the Eagles into first place in the district class, which is now in a three-way tie between Abilene, Pampa and Borger as a result of last Saturday night's games.
In other games tonight involving district teams, the Amarillo Sandies will try to get back on their winning road after three straight defeats by playing the Bobcats at Childress and the Brownfield Cubs move into the Hub City to play the Lubbock Westerners, defending state champions who have found the going rocky this year. They will be at Abilene, Austin, Beaumont, Brownwood, Bryan, Comstock, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Houston, McAllen, San Angelo, San Antonio, Tyler and Waco.

Regional Meets On Three Fronts

FORT WORTH — (AP) — Three regional Golden Gloves tournaments, one tonight at Amarillo, will be held this week.
The boxing shows are moving toward the state championship tournament set here Feb. 13-18 at the new arena at the University of Texas at Austin.
Fifteen other regional tournaments are set for the last week in January or the first week in February. They will be at Abilene, Austin, Beaumont, Brownwood, Bryan, Comstock, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Houston, McAllen, San Angelo, San Antonio, Tyler and Waco.

Tech Officials Silent On Negro

LUBBOCK — (AP) — Texas Tech athletic officials declined to say whether Hadie Redd, Arizona University Negro basketball player, would be allowed to play against Tech in Tech's gym.
Dr. William J. Davis, Tech athletic council chairman, said, "the matter hasn't been brought up officially. Arizona hasn't said anything, yet. Until there is an official action, we have nothing to say."
Davis added that he believed the whole thing "could be handled more efficiently if it weren't aired in the newspapers first."
Tech never has allowed Negroes to play on its home court on the grounds that it is illegal to mix races in Texas in sports.
Redd played against Tech last week at Tucson.
Like Hildebrand of the Cleveland Barons in the American Hockey League is an expert lacrosse player. He played for the Eastern Canada champs in 1951.

Voters To Get Choice Of Track

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. — (AP) — The fate of a $2.5 million dream of a swank race track here hung on the opinion of 5,400 voters today.
A special Crittenden County referendum may give Dixie Downs, Inc., new life — or kill the proposed track for years to come.
Opponents of the track were given a moral boost from Memphis on the Tennessee side of the Mississippi River, where religious groups prayed all night in one-hour relays, asking divine intervention.
The referendum originally was slated to decide whether the conditional franchise granted by the Arkansas Racing Commission last Nov. 15 would go into effect. But the commission reversed itself yesterday.
Despite the action revoking the franchise, secretary Edward Waller said the fight will be carried to court if Dixie Downs wins the referendum.
Track backers and the anti-race track league, formed by county ministers, have showered nearly every voter with pamphlets, letters, personal visits and telephone calls over the past several weeks.
feet and booted the lack of action. It was all rather amusing, including the decision, which to the surprise of one and all almost made the defense-minded Trigo a winner. Only referee Pete Tomaso's 64 card for Carter saved the champ from an ignominious draw, since judge Charley Daggert called the bout a 5-5 draw, and judge Lou Tress gave Carter a 5-4-1 verdict.

Chiefs Blast Philrich Five

The Noblitt-Coffey chiefs, again showing far too much class for their opposition, rolled to an easy 95-49 victory over the Philrich Rubber Co. teams of Bunnavaista last night in the Junior High school gym.
The Chiefs were never worried, leading 38-20 at half-time, after trying with the rubber company boys, stretching it to 67-34, and then striving for the 100-point total in the final minute. But the elastic kids stilled the bats as much as possible to keep the final total from hitting three figures.
Coach Clifton McNeely of the Harvesters, playing his first game for the kids, slammed 28 points home, 21 of them in the second half, to lead the scoring. J. W. Malone, former West Texas state star, cashed in with 23 points himself for second honors. Andy Porter was outstanding for the victors and led their scoring with 12 points.
The Chiefs' next regularly scheduled contest is on Feb. 7, when they entertain the Whiskered Wizards at the new fieldhouse. The game is being sponsored by the Pampa Kiwanis club in an effort to raise money for the boys and girls work. General admission tickets for that game will be placed on sale late this week.

LOOKED LOUSY IS WORD FROM COACH

"He looked lousy," was the only comment made by Coach Tom Tipps following the 95-49 victory turned in by the Chiefs last night against Philrich of Bunnavaista. Tipps is in charge of the March of Dimes game between the Chiefs and the Amarillo Air Force base Amjets at the Senior High gymnasium Jan. 31.
Game time for that contest, all proceeds of which go to the March of Dimes, is 8:15.
The Amjets are loaded with college players, all-Americans down to reserves. Heading the roster are a pair of Oklahoma A&M stars from the 1950-51 team, Gayle MacArthur and Keith Smith.
Coach of the Amjets is Lt. Bill Miller, former West Texas State star whose father, Gus Miller, is head coach of the Huffaloes.
Ticket prices for the game are $1.00 for adults and fifty cents for students, all money to go to the March of Dimes drive.
"They'll have to play lot better than they did tonight," Tipps said, speaking of the Chiefs' weak offense of only 49 points, "if they hope to beat those all-Americans that the Air Force has recruited. It looks like Amarillo might finally break into the win column against Pampa. But the game was only the second time we have played together, and we might be ready for the Amjets by the end of the month."

Irish B Boys Meet Canadian

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Coach Clarence Morris' undefeated B Irish boys take on the Canadian B here Tuesday afternoon at 4. They will have to work to win a seventh straight triumph.
Wednesday night at McLean, they collide with the McLean B and likely will be favored. Irish high school B girls will collide with the Tigrette B. The game is slated here at the high school gym.
Thursday night the B boys will go to Childress for a second contest with the Bobcat B. Last week Morris' B-1 team took a 36-31 victory over the Cats and the B-2 team won a 31-27 overtime clash with the Bobcat B-2 team.
Next week the Irish go to Canadian Tuesday for a B clash and to the McLean gym to meet the Tiger B boys Wednesday.
Coaches said they had not decided yet who would play for the B girls, but that Lee Roy Pascoe, J. E. Stansell, Bill Parks, Clarence Jones and Jimmy Smith would start for the B boys.

Walcott Given 15 Days To Pick Foe

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK — (AP) — Jersey Joe Walcott, who took 21 years to win the world heavyweight title, may lose it in 15 days in New York State.
The crown, donned by the 38-year old Camden, N. J., Negro when he knocked out Ezzard Charles in Pittsburgh last July 18, will be without a wearer in New York state unless Jersey Joe agrees within 15 days to meet a legitimate contender.
The edict was issued yesterday by chairman Bob Christenberry of the New York State Athletic Commission after conferring with C. B. Powell, another member of the three-man commission.
Christenberry said Walcott had failed to defend his title within six months as required by commission rules.
The Louisiana commission has withdrawn recognition from Walcott as champion.
But so far the National Boxing Association has declined to go along with New York and Louisiana.
Commissioner Abe J. Green pointed out Walcott's six-month period does not end in NBA territory until March 14 since the rule was only adopted last Sept. 12.
Green said the executive committee might waive the six-month rule in Walcott's case if it was presented with good reasons. In Philadelphia, Commissioner John Dagrass of the Pennsylvania commission said he favored giving the aging fighter more time.
Pelix Bocchiechio, manager of Jersey Joe, called Christenberry's statement "part of a squeeze play."
"I don't know why they're forcing Joe like this," Bocchiechio said. "We're going to defend the title when we get the right setup and terms."

FOREMOST CONTENDERS

Christenberry said he considered Charles and undefeated Rocky Marciano of Brockton, Mass., as the "foremost contenders."
Only the Marciano angle apparently fits in with Walcott's immediate plans.
The champion's manager said "it looks like we're going to close with Harry Hunt in Los Angeles for a fight with Harry Matthews. There's no date or details but the thing looks good right now."
Later he said Walcott had been offered $350,000 by Boston promoter Sam Silverman to defend his title against Marciano, indoors in March or outdoors in June.
"And in addition," Bocchiechio said, "we have been guaranteed an additional $700,000 for the television rights, regardless of where the fight is held."

CONTRACT SAYS

Bocchiechio said he needed a few days to consider the offer, and preferred Marciano to Matthews.
"That isn't what the International Boxing Club has in mind."
"We've got a contract with Walcott to give Charles the first crack at the title," said managing director Harry Markson.
Markson pointed out the contract signed before the Pittsburgh fight called for Walcott, in the event he won, to give Charles a return bout within 90 days.
"By agreement of all parties the time limit was extended until after the first of January, 1952," Markson said.
Tom Tamas and Jake Mintz, managers of Charles, also said "our contract calls for Walcott to fight Charles before he meets anyone else for the title."
Christenberry, replying to a question whether he knew such a contract existed, said: "We do not have such a contract on file at the commission."
The New York chairman added he didn't care where the championship is held, but naturally prefers it would be in New York.

Associated Press Sports Editor
DALLAS — (AP) — Is Texas Tech, an ambitious college as he fits its size and scope, to be frozen out like those colleges on the West Coast by their larger brethren? This refers to football.

Tech wants in the Southwest Conference but if it can't make it, it does want to play a big-time schedule and have Southwest conference schools on its agenda.

Next fall Tech plays only two Southwest Conference teams; last year it met three and did quite well, playing Texas A&M and Baylor good games and beating Texas Christian, the conference champion.

Tech right now is trying to decide if it will enter the Missouri Valley Conference. But it certainly wouldn't want to if there was a chance this might hamper its efforts to eventually get into the Southwest Conference. There are two ways to look at it: Tech could be a member of a major conference while waiting for its Southwest Conference bid although travel in the Missouri Valley league would be terrific, or Tech could be sunk so far as getting into the Southwest Conference is concerned.

Would the Southwest Conference members then say: "Well, there's in a major conference and that settles that."

NO COTTON BOWLS.

Anyway, this leads up to a discussion of the Texas A&M-Texas Tech game that was played for years at San Antonio, then switched to Dallas' Cotton Bowl last fall.

This year Tech doesn't get a game in the Cotton Bowl. It meets A&M at Lubbock in 1953 and then ends its relations with A&M unless the league decides they want to play Tech in Dallas instead of Oklahoma A&M, with whom they now are negotiating for a series in the Cotton Bowl.

A&M meets Georgia in the Cotton Bowl this year and Oklahoma A&M in the year after. Then comes the decision on whether Texas Tech is to be the Cotton Bowl opponent each year or the Oklahoma Aggies.

A&M and Tech each got over $20,000 for their game in the Cotton Bowl last fall. This might influence the Aggie athletic officials toward a series with Texas A&M instead of Oklahoma A&M.

It seems here that an Aggie-Tech series could be built into a fine attraction. Just what Oklahoma A&M, which hasn't been very hot in football for several years, could draw is problematical.

Lubbock folks back Tech or any football team there. For instance, last fall $100,000 came here from Lubbock to see the Lubbock high school - Brytown state championship game.

DR. LEE

The Southwest Conference and the Cotton Bowl were not reasons for the big hue and cry against college athletics, and they were not the cause of the committee of college presidents deciding de-emphasis was necessary and bowl games must go.

Dr. Humphrey Lee, SMU president, voted along with other college heads because of the over-picturing but he feels if all bowl games were conducted like the Cotton Bowl, if athletic aid were controlled as well by all con-

Seixas Voted Top Lawn Tennis Player

NEW YORK — (AP) — The U.S. Lawn Tennis Assn. voted in a long and stormy session to rank Vic Seixas of Philadelphia as the nation's No. 1 player for the past year, with Dick Savitt of Orange, N. J., No. 2 and Tony Trabert, the Cincinnati naval trainee, No. 3.

It took an unprecedented proxy vote of the delegates to reach a decision between Seixas and Savitt after a hot floor fight and a flood of oratory. The vote was: Seixas, 30,900; Savitt, 24,375.

Seixas was the Southwest Conference and if out-of-season training in sports were limited like the Southwest Conference, everything would be quite O. K.

For that matter, however, Dr. Lee doesn't think bowl games will be legislated out. He does think the money angle must be taken out of them though — that there must not be a big prize of $120,000 for the team that gets into the game by beating the others. Equal distribution of the receipts to members of the conference would solve the matter of "pressure," he thinks.

The Southwest Conference is fortunate. None of its schools are located an appreciable distance from the Cotton Bowl and there's no big expense for the team that participates.

It's the same way with the Pacific Coast Conference in the Rose Bowl where the team in the bowl shares its "take" with other members of the conference. The Big Ten Conference, which furnishes the visiting team, isn't so fortunate, however. It shares its take with its conference brothers and has the expense of a long trip to boot. It has been winding up losing money in the deal. No one can say that's high pressure or overemphasis.

Area Cagers In Action Tonight

Feller Asks Fans To Go Slow

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Baseball fans: please go slow when the time comes to decide whether Bob Feller is "all washed up."

Feller himself makes that request.

"I certainly expect to end my career here with Cleveland," he told a throng of 470 last night at a dinner in his honor. "But I hope the fans don't write me off too soon. I still think I have something left in the good right arm."

All the same, Bob said earnestly, the "baseball writers and fans of Cleveland and Ohio have been very patient with some of the lean years I've had."

Bob was honored as man-of-the-year in Cleveland for 1951 at the sixth annual banquet of the local chapter of the Baseball Writers Association. He took the occasion to itemize what he hopes to do in the future:

1. He'd like to pitch a fourth no-hitter (something no major league pitcher has ever done).
2. He'd like to win 300 games (he has 230 now, so that figures to a good four more seasons).
3. But more than either of those, he wants to be in on another Indian pennant.

Grade Tourney Opens Thursday

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Coach B. L. Hill's junior girls open the Wheeler county junior grade tourney here Thursday night with the Lela girls. Game time is 6 p. m.

Hill's girls will be heavily favored to advance in the tourney, having given the Lelans a 16-0 whacking at Lela last week. Lela and Shamrock are co-sponsors of the tourney.

Junior Laddies' Streak At Six

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Coach Clarence Morris' Irish boys took their sixth straight victory and remained undefeated in whipping the Childress B crew here Friday night, 36-31.

Winners of the Alameda B tourney, the Irish B sailed into a 24-13 halftime margin, after barely leading by one point at the quarter. They pulled into a 21-22 third-quarter lead and coasted in to win.

Malcolm Passons rattled the nets for 23 points for high point honors. He and his brother, Lee Roy, are known as the whirlwind scorers of the B crew.

Morris' second string B also came home with the bacon in a 21-27 victory over the Childress B-2. Stephen O'Gorman led scoring with 15 points. After a slow first canto, the Irish took a 12-11 halftime margin, led three-quarters through and then increased their margin of victory in the final frame.

Pioneer League In Two-Way Tie

(By The Associated Press) — San Angelo and Arlington State are tied for the lead in the Pioneer Conference basketball championship race.

The Rams pushed into a deadlock for first place last week by beating Schreiner, 65-56, while Arlington State was idle.

Glen Lewallen of San Angelo took over the lead in scoring, running his total for the season to 215 points. Jim Richardson of Arlington State fell to second with 198.

The San Angelo - Schreiner game was the only conference affair last week. In nonconference play, Arlington State beat the North Texas State B team, 42-28, and San Angelo licked Howard County, 48-46.

The only game this week will be a nonconference tilt at Kerrville when Schreiner plays Laredo Junior College Saturday night.

Conference warfare will be resumed Jan. 30 when San Angelo plays at Ranger and Schreiner and Tarleton State get together at Kerrville.

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Two Shamrock players made second teams at the Canadian tourney-all-tourney judging last week-end.

Grade Tourney Opens Thursday

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Coach B. L. Hill's junior girls open the Wheeler county junior grade tourney here Thursday night with the Lela girls. Game time is 6 p. m.

Hill's girls will be heavily favored to advance in the tourney, having given the Lelans a 16-0 whacking at Lela last week. Lela and Shamrock are co-sponsors of the tourney.

Paced by Connie Lewis, forward, the juniors should move forward easily, with only the Kelton girls considered a dangerous rival for the crown. Except for a 41-24 defeat administered by the McLean B high school girls, Kelton is the only team to defeat the Hill juniors, and the Irish Lassies have trimmed the Keltons once in two encounters this season.

Connie Lewis hits for 16 to 20 points per game, but Hill is strong all around. He has Julius Holmes and Joretta Upton to team up with Lewis at forward; Charlene Coe, Nancy Etter, Linda Skidmore and Alvena Reeves at guard. This group will be co-favorites with Kelton to cop the tourney trophy.

Mobeette and Lela boys tangle at 7 Thursday, with Mobeette a possible dark horse. Kellerville and Briscoe girls play in a toss-up at 8, while Wheeler-Kelton boys collide at 9 p. m.

Day games are at Lela gym, with night contests at the Irish gym. Mobeette and Wheeler girls tangle at 1 Friday, with Shamrock junior boys meeting Allison at 2 Friday. The Irish boys will probably be defeated, as they have been all eight times this year. Kellerville and Briscoe boys wind up the opening round of the tourney at Lela at 4 Friday.

Shamrock is the scene of two championship matches at 6 and 7 Friday night, the semi-finals in regular and consolation brackets all day Saturday.

Shamrock will be the scene of four final games Saturday night, 6 to 10 p. m. — girls and boys consolation finals, and girls and boys finals. Trophies will be awarded at 10:15.

Trophies are given for first and second place and consolation with a trophy for team sportsmanship.

T. H. Baker, Lela school principal and Coach Hill are co-directors of the meet.

U. S. Doubles To Semi-Finals

ADELAIDE, Australia — (AP) — Dick Savitt, Orange, N. J., and Hamilton Richardson, Baton Rouge, La., battled their way into the semi-finals of the Australian doubles championship today with a hard-fought 14-12, 1-6, 6-3, 6-1 victory over Aussie juniors Ken Rosewall and Lewis Head.

Australia's magnificent doubles combine of Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor — rated the best in the world — also gained the semi-finals by defeating countryman George Worthington and Red Hatwig, 8-6, 6-3, 6-4.

In a no-hitter quarter-final match, Geoff Brown and the veteran Adrian Quist turned back Tom Warhurst and David Rowe, 6-2, 6-1, 6-4, in a battle of Australians.

Richardson also gained in the junior play, moving into the semi-finals with a 6-3, 6-2, win over Tony Ryan of Melbourne.

TRACKMAN QUITS

HOUSTON — (AP) — Bobby Dean, Rice Institute sprinter, has left school and returned to his home in Corpus Christi. He is the second trackman to drop out of school. R. C. Derryberry, a crack high jumper, withdrew last fall.

High scorer on Navy's 1949 football team was place-kicker Roger Drew. He made good on 19 of 21 attempted points after touchdown.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK — (AP) — Ex-coach Tom Greenwalt, a close pal of Fred Will, figures that the flying FBI man is doing a better job of training for the Olympic games this winter than Don Gehrman. "But Don," he adds, "is doing a heck of a job of winning indoor races. The difference, Tom figures, is that So he will try to do with skill what he knows he cannot do with sheer speed. But probably the biggest obstacle to winning another Olympic gold medal is not age but a big world hurdle record holder — Dick Atlesley."

"It's a question of speed," Dillard said after winning the 50-yard high-hurdles in sparkling form at the Philadelphia Indiana games.

"You don't get any more speed without paying. There were four fence — climbers in the group and, since the conscience-stricken gent was paying half the expenses, he enclosed a check for five bucks to pay for two tickets. . . . The "open class" Pacific Coast League is carrying on correspondence about a possible post-season series with a team from the slender Negro department of the Brooklyn, New Hampshire U. hockey goalie, played Santa Clara during the Christmas holidays to earn money for his second semester tuition. If he leaves, Faurot likely will try to bring back Harry Smith from the Canadian League. DOTS ALL, BROTHERS

Tom Legros, who recently lost both of his conference games to date, reported $27,000 bonus, turned down a bonus contract last year to return to Mississippi Southern for his final season as quarter-back. . . . Dillard Forsakes 100-Meter For High-Hurdle Team

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Harrison Dillard, Olympic 100-meter champion, revealed he would let his sprint title won at London go by default and concentrate instead on the 110-meter high hurdle race at Helsinki.

Age has caught up with him. So he will try to do with skill what he knows he cannot do with sheer speed. But probably the biggest obstacle to winning another Olympic gold medal is not age but a big world hurdle record holder — Dick Atlesley.

Bill France, who promotes the stock car and motorcycle races at Daytona Beach, Fla., received a "conscience" check the other day from a northerner who had sneaked into last year's events without paying. . . . North Texas Tops Gulf Coast Play

(By The Associated Press) — Midwestern moves into championship play this week in the Gulf Coast Conference. North Texas State, which leads the race with two victories against no defeats, is idle.

Midwestern makes its conference start against Trinity at San Antonio Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Trinity will play both of its conference games to date.

Midwestern also figures in the other game on the schedule for the week. The Indians play Daniel Baker of the Big State Conference at Brownwood tonight.

Last week Midwestern was inactive but North Texas State beat Austin College of the Texas Conference, 51-54 and lost to Oklahoma City University, 65-41. Trinity took lickings from St.

Seven, Eight, Nine And Ten Are Key Pins In Recording Spares

TARGET—Hitting the 7, 8, 9 and 10 pins solidly enables a bowler to turn in almost any spare. (NEA)

Last of a series written and illustrated for NEA Service:

By BUDDY ROMAR
Former Match-Game Champion

A bowler gets 10 points to his score with each spare.

The key pins in spare-bowling are the 7, 8, 9 and 10. Hitting each one of these pins solidly enables a bowler to turn in almost any spare. This does not apply to splits or near-impossible leaves, of course.

Here are the spares which can be struck by covering each of the back four pins:

No. 7-1, 7 and 4-7.
No. 8-1-2-4, 1-2-4-7, 2-4-5, 4-7-8, 2-5, 5-8, 2-4-5-8, 2-4-5-7, 2-4-7-8, 4-7, 4, 5, 1-2, 8, 2-4-7, 2-4-7-8 and 2-5-8.

No. 9 — 1-3-6, 1-3-6-10, 1-3-6-9, 3-5-6, 6-9-10, 6-9, 3-5, 5-9, 3-5-6-9, 3-5-6-9-10, 6-10, 6, 9, 1-5, 9, 3-5-9, 3-6-9-10 and 3-5-9.

No. 10 — 6, 10 and 6-10.

Practice picking off the back four pins one at a time to develop your ability to convert all of these leaves.

These four are the target pins. Cover them consistently, and your score is bound to improve.

Edwards of the Big State Conference, 60-49, and from Southwest Texas State of the Lone Star Conference, 96-58.

The Brooklyn Dodgers were involved in all three of the longest games ever played in the National League. The games went 26, 25 and 22 innings.

How Advertising Helps You Get MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

Advertising brings you news about better products you need . . . tells you where to get what you want when you want it . . . makes lower prices possible through mass production and mass selling

Yet Picture Now Little All This Costs

For instance, advertising big-name brands of bread costs less than the wrapper.

Any other method of selling would cost the manufacturer more and therefore raise the price. Otherwise he wouldn't use advertising.

Tax 'Take' Can Destroy Incentive

This year, the American people will feel the full weight of the tax bill passed during the last session of Congress. The new and higher levies applied to individual incomes only for the last two months of 1951. In 1952, of course, they will be in effect for the entire twelve months. It is probable that the President will ask that taxes, both individual and corporate, be increased once more — though it is highly unlikely that the present Congress will go along with that, save in the event of a major war.

The burden of taxation has increased at a very swift rate in this country. According to a new booklet on the tax problem issued by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, the cost of government required only 7 percent of the national income in 1890. When World War I broke out, the figure was still about the same. By 1940, it had jumped to 22 percent. And now government is taking something like one-third of the income of the people.

As the Chamber's booklet says: "For a long time the 'ability to pay' theory has dominated tax discussions. This theory has merit, but unfortunately people have been led to believe that all government expenditures can be paid for by taxes on the 'rich'." The popular case for welfare state expenditures is that they will redistribute income from rich to poor. This would indeed be a simple solution to the world's social and economic ills, if only it were true. But even if sleepily progressive taxes had no undesirable economic effects, this would be impossible. There simply are not enough rich people!

It is clear, whether we like it or not, that any additional tax increases must fall primarily upon people of very modest means — for the reason that they have most of the money. According to Secretary Snyder, almost 75 percent of all personal income available for additional taxation is actually in the lowest income bracket — under $2,000. By contrast in the over-$50,000 bracket, the income available for additional taxation amounts to less than one-third of one percent of the total.

Fast as individual income tax rates have risen, corporation rates have risen even faster. The corporation rate was held to a ceiling of 42 percent in World War II. Now it is 52 percent. Very steep excess profits taxes come on top of this. The total corporation tax runs as high as 70 percent. There is not much room for further boosts here if an incentive economy is to be maintained in this country, and enterprise is to be encouraged to progress.

This illustrates, in capsule form, the tremendous magnitude of the tax problem. The heart of that problem was described in these words by Senator George: "There have been frequent discussions of what the total tax 'take' may be without injury to our economy. There is no fixed limit; the limit is to be found only when the tax 'take' destroys the incentive of the people and when it leads to every conceivable effort to evade and to wasteful practices by the taxpayers themselves."

Baxter's Views

BY DAVID BAXTER

FARMER FEDERALIST

I think I'll take careful aim and let go at William W. Oesch, associate editor of the FARMER'S EXCHANGE, New Paris, Indiana. Oesch is busy plumping for World Federalism and control of economic power. Imagine a Hoosier farmer chasing such political jack-o'-lanterns!

Oesch simply gurgled with delight over an address he heard by Dr. Charles Price, a Notre Dame scientist who addressed a batch of females at the Elkhart, Ind. YMCA. Price is the Indiana chairman of United World Federalists and — believe it or Ripley — he's a member of the Society of Friends. More than like a member of the Friends Service Committee and Institute of International Relations, too, unless I miss my guess. People who have followed this column's box score on this outfit — and the world federalist leadership — wondering just how Red an Institute and Federalist can get without being called a Communist.

A Quaker federalist in Notre Dame! Now I've seen everything. Except, perhaps, a Catholic archbishop teaching theology in a Seventh-Day Adventist college. Price, according to Oesch, wants world federalism because he's a scientist and feels responsibility for world conditions. A sort of political messianic complex, in other words. Just why scientists should be any more responsible for world conditions than anyone else is not explained. But as for attaining world peace through world federalism, the quillotine whacking your head off so that you won't have any more worries or fear death any longer.

For the first time in human history," says Oesch, "it is physically possible with the known arable land and modern technology to produce enough food for the world."

Oesch says the discovery of power has made this possible. Just why the world is "for the first time" able to produce enough food to feed its inhabitants is not explained. So far as I know, it always has been enough to raise enough food for everyone. The trouble has been production and distribution. India, for example, could easily feed itself were it not for its prohibitions against killing animals, plus the fact that feudalistic tyrants have consistently spoiled the people.

"The great problem," according to Oesch, "is how can we organize human society so that the fruits of this new power can be made available to all mankind?" To some extent he answers his own question later on by writing, "We are witnessing an ever-increasing accumulation of economic power in the hands of a few." That's old hat, of course. We've heard it from Norman Thomas, Earl Browder, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harold Lickes, Karl Marx and Nicolai Lenin. Hitler said it, Mussolini said it and Stalin is saying it.

"Through government control we have developed a competitive free enterprise system." After reading that I looked again to be sure the paper was the "Farmer's Exchange" and not a copy of "The Soviet Collective Farm." If government controls, with their interminable bureaucracies and OPA's and OPS's and subsidization of farms and industry, represent "free enterprise" then there's no sense to anything. As far as I know, the only way to recover our independence and self respect and individual initiative from government controls. We have too much government now. It's gotten out of the hands of the people and into the hands of the clever schemers Oesch seems to so greatly admire.

But going on from government controls, Oesch contends that "we must not be content with the domestic solution. This problem must be solved at the world level." In other words, make the New Deal world wide by making the whole world into one big government, in which the U. S. would be one small state. Oesch tipped the Federalist's hand on that one. I've tried for years to get a Federalist to answer my question, "WHAT ECONOMIC SYSTEM WOULD YOU WORLD GOVERNMENT HAVE?" They always evade that by saying the set-up would be "political," not economic. Obviously you couldn't have both free enterprise and communism in one big world government, at one and the same time. Oesch has at least innocently stuck his neck out by saying that we must have government controls on a world level. That's ECONOMICS, not mere "politics."

Better Jobs

'The Freedom To Move'

Here is the last installment of "The Freedom To Move" by Oscar W. Cooley and Paul Poirot and published by the Foundation for Economic Education, Irvington-on-Hudson, New York.

The Other Side Of The Subsidy
"When government promises to use the power it commands to confiscate the wealth of some citizens for the special privilege of others, as in the case of farm subsidy, price control, rent control, veterans' benefits, and the like, and any sort to those who otherwise might have done well on their own — then it behooves the government to limit the number of those who may share these privileges. And it means that those who for a short time are allowed to share the loot eventually will be forced to produce — told when and where to work — by the very same authority which had promised something for nothing. After freedom of entry has been denied to foreigners, there follows logically the denial of freedom of movement on our own citizens — and for precisely the same reasons. The paralysis of movement which starts with infringement restrictions will spread and spread. For that is the natural course of this social cancer."

What Is Right?
"The person who is dissatisfied with the course being followed in America, today, will find in his own mind and conscience the means of changing it. His problem is to determine what is right — not what is right for the world, or the federal government, or his own state — but what is right for himself. Otherwise, he pursues the blind policy that someone else somehow better qualified to determine his needs and to satisfy them than he could do for himself. Thus, by default, he lends himself to class membership. He joins one or another group, seeking one or another special privilege, or protection, or security. He directs his political power toward preventing 'foreigners' from sharing in the plunder of his special group. He helps to build the walls which keep some of his own gang eventually will imprison him."

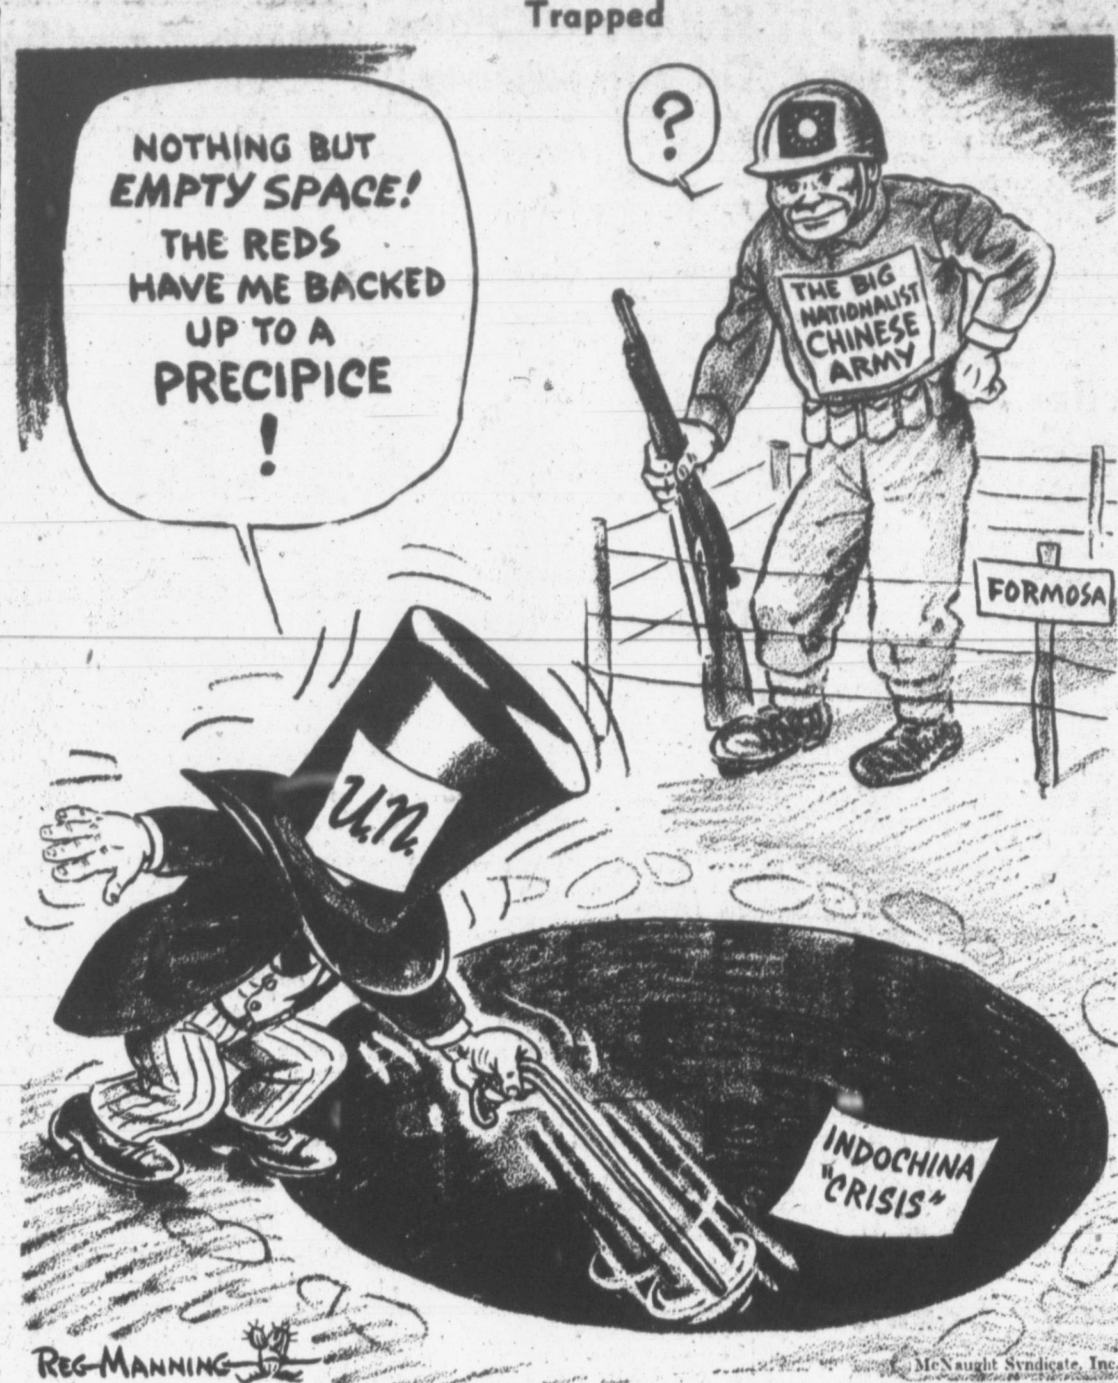

"If we've become victims of the illusion that we have to know all the answers for all the people all the time, let us abandon that obsession. Let us reflect, instead, upon the moves each of us has made in his own lifetime. Can you honestly say now: 'Someone should have stopped me from making one of those moves?' Do you feel that there should have been a tangle of 'international barriers' along the way to have changed the course of your life from what it has been? How many such barriers would you want, and just where would you have them located? Who should have been empowered to prevent these moves of yours?"

Isolation By Error
"American citizens have created a high and rising standard of living for themselves through their freedom of movement and freedom of choice in the market place. Now we have hung a sign at our gates: 'Freedom to Enter This Market Obscured — Kurrah for Freedom!'"

"But let us study that sign carefully, for it reads the same on either side. The same gate which bars outsiders also shuts us in. We harm ourselves by our practice of compulsory racial discrimination on a national basis. This governmental restriction precludes our welcoming and trading with those who are most willing and able to serve our needs. Our collective abandonment of the economic system of the free market leaves for us the controlled communal life, where everyone wants to be a consumer without producing anything."

The Fundamental Problem
"Our immigration policy merely reflects the existence of this serious internal problem in America. Our present policy toward immigrants is consistent with the rest of the controls over persons which inevitably go with national socialism. But the controlled human relationships — within the 'welfare state' — are no consistent with freedom. Great Britain thought she could deny freedom to American colonists. And now, her own people have traded their freedom for nationalized austerity. Even a prosperous modern America can ill afford traveling to serve our needs. If we do, our community, too, will lose its capacity to attract newcomers. Then we wouldn't need an immigration policy. But who among us would want to remain in a community where opportunities no longer exist?"

Bid For A Smile
At the end of the fifth round, the heavy-weight staggered in his corner in a dazed and battered condition. His manager approached him and whispered in his ears, "say, slugger, I've got a swell idea. Next time he hits you, hit him back!"

Fair Enough... Even Big Army Brass 'Needs' Cute Females As Secretaries

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

PARIS — General Dwight Eisenhower, the commander in chief of the embryo army of the 12 North Atlantic nations and a candidate for the Republican nomination for President, is 62 years old and a fine hunk of man, but over weight at 172 pounds because he suddenly quit smoking one afternoon about two years ago. He soon gained a little over 15 pounds.

He stands five feet, ten and one-half and is a little too thick through the barrel and he has been dieting lately hoping to take it off. He also eats raw carrots fitfully, but this indicates nothing one way or another. Lots of people try eating raw carrots, but they all conclude that this is a very unappetizing root except cooked in lamb stew and give up. Like the old Midwestern superstition that a huckleys carried in the pants pocket ward off rheumatism, the proposition that raw carrots restore vision to failing eyes or arrest the normal onset of organic senility in this department, has been discredited.

There is nothing wrong with the chemical process of working Paris and around the inside staff of the regular army, who was with him for a while when afternoon he just quit. Legion Auxiliary Plans Observation Of "Go To Church Sunday" On February 3

The American Legion Auxiliary will commemorate the anniversary of the day four chaplains gave their lives when the U. S. Transport Dorchester was torpedoed in the North Atlantic by observing a "Go To Church Sunday" February 3.

In a letter to Mrs. Charles Glisson, local legion auxiliary president, National Commander Donald R. Wilson said, "It is fitting that we of the American Legion who have fought together in the wars should pray together that day, and that we should implore the people of our nation to join us in an appeal for Divine guidance in one of the dark hours of our country's history."

A discussion of the "Go to Church Sunday" was held at the last meeting of the legion auxiliary in the City club room.

Reports were given from Mrs. Al Lawson who presented names of needy veteran families and members who were ill, and Mrs. Jack Graham, who gave a comprehensive review of veterans legislation, both past and pending.

During the business session, a letter of thanks was read from McCloskey hospital in Temple, for the check sent at Christmas for the veterans' gift shop. A committee was appointed to draw up a resolution to send to Congress men regarding legislation to come before the 83rd Congress.

The group will meet January 28 with the Legion to make plans for the zone meeting which will be held in Pampa February 25.

Often in the various newspapers I read, I notice where a child study group or a PTA group, or a church organization is devoting a meeting or a series of meetings to the study of "Causes of Juvenile Delinquency."

If it is their own children parents are interested in, aren't they approaching their problem from the wrong angle?

Parents don't think of their own children as being "delinquents" or even potential delinquents. So there isn't much that comes from such discussions that they take seriously to heart.

But it would be a different story if they quit probing the causes of delinquency—and spent the time trying to learn what makes sound, well-adjusted, happy children.

If we want to grow "camellias" successfully—we don't make a study of what makes unhealthy plants.

We get right down to brass tacks and read everything we can about how to grow healthy camellias.

We should make a positive approach whenever we set out on a constructive project.

And so it should be with our children. Let the experts dwell on the problem of what makes juvenile delinquents.

But we parents would do better to get busy studying how to rear healthy, normal, happy children.

It's not the wrong way of bringing up children that should fascinate us. But the right way. Let's have more discussions and lectures on how to bring up children successfully and fewer on what causes juvenile delinquency.

Just About Everyone Had A Peek At National Budget

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Practically everyone had a little peek at the national budget, which was unveiled to Congress shortly after noon Monday. And it was no secret the sight would be impressive.

Last Wednesday President Truman told Congress, in his report on the country's economic condition, the government's expenses next year — the 'fiscal year beginning in July — would be over $5 billion dollars.

So it was a cinch the budget figure wouldn't be less. The budget is the President's formal request to Congress to vote the money — needed to run the government another 12 months. The President hands Congress the budget at this time every year. It contains his lengthy explanation why the money is needed, plus hundreds of pages of itemized tables showing where the money will go.

The budget fills a volume as big as the Manhattan telephone directory. And as always, government people began working on it as long ago as last summer.

The President himself started working on it in September. Since practically everyone owns a piece of the budget, through the taxes he pays, great consideration has to be given the pub-

Gehrmann Kick Beats Wilt Again

BOSTON — (AP) — Mile King Don Gehrmann rolled merrily along in his pre-Olympic campaign over the weekend by twice nipping rival Fred Wilt in a now-familiar pattern.

Both in Saturday night's Knights of Columbus meet and the Philadelphia inquirer games 24 hours earlier the Milwaukee flash's finishing kick caught Wilt in the home stretch.

The New York FBI-agent pushed Gehrmann to a 4:09.3 effort here, while losing by a yard. In Philadelphia Wilt chased the ex-Wisconsin ace to a meet mark of 4:19.2, again winding up about a yard back.

Gehrmann's rally here earned him the Thomas J. Fitzgerald Memorial trophy as outstanding athlete in the view of writers covering the K of C affair.

It was Gehrmann's 13th victory in 17 indoor and outdoor duels between the pair.

Shepperd To Speak At Annual Canadian Banquet January 24

CANADIAN — John Ben Shepperd of Gladewater, secretary of the State, a position he has held since February, 1950, Shepperd performs both formal and informal official duties for Gov. Allan Shivers, in addition to directing the operation of five major divisions in the department.

He has consistently campaigned for a more economical and efficient state government and in his own department has practiced this policy by instituting a re-organization program that has saved the state many thousands of dollars. He is a leader of a movement to get corporation law revised; president of the Sabine River Watershed Assn.; a member of the State Tax board; a Texas representative on the Board of Managers of the Council of State Governments.

Finally Invented The Radar Ball

GALVESTON — (AP) — "Where's the grip?" Al Gerdes asked his mates while playing the fog-shrouded Munny golf course yesterday.

"It's tight way" a fellow player pointed. So Gerdes rapped the ball in the general direction of the invisible grip.

Then Gerdes and his two playmates walked the 165 yards to the cup. There was Gerdes' ball — as fabulous a hole-in-one as one would care about.

Gerdes used a No. 6 Iron to make the shot on the new No. 8 hole. He was playing with Ray McGehee and police chief W. J. Whitburn.
