Reds Bluffed Out Of Iran, Truman Says

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman said today he once forced Premier Stalin to move out of Iran by sending him an ultimatum.

The President also told a news conference that there was a time when Yugoslavia decided to take Trieste, but that he ordered the Mediterranean fleet into that area and there was no march on Trieste.

Truman spoke of these incidents in discussing his powers generally and specifically his seizure of the steel industry.

He said the President has very great inherent powers to meet emergencies developing that require action.

Coming down to more recent events, the President said there has been what he called a lot of hooey about seizure of the press and radio as a result of his last news conference.

In reverting to the matter today, Truman said the thought of seizing the press and radio never occurred to him.

He went on to say he seized the steel industry because this country is in the midst of the greatest emergency it has ever had.

It was then he told his news conference that in 1945 he had to send an ultimatum to the head of the Soviet Union to get out of Persia (Iran).

They got out, the President said, because we were in a position then to meet the situation in that area.

Later, the President went on, Yugoslavia decided to take Trieste. He said he thought that was 1946.

He said he not only ordered the Mediterranean fleet into that area, but told Gen. Eisenhower to send three divisions to northern Italy.

Democrats Win RFC Battle In Senate

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC) was sentenced to death in the Senate yesterday and then promptly revived.

A bill to abolish the big government lending agency, offered by Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) but supported mostly by Republicans, was accepted on the first go-around, 42 to 27, to the astonishment of the Democratic leadership.

Approved another chance under parliamentary rules, the administration scrambled frantically for votes and finally was able to switch enough Senators to send the measure back to the Banking Committee, 39 to 36.

The Committee was instructed to bring the RFC measure back to the Senate by June 22, but some of its backers said this was meaningless because Congress would be in the last weeks of its session by that time and tied up with other business. These Senators said the measure was dead this session.

Guest speaker for the night is Coach Gene Smelser, assistant to Coach Hank Iba of Oklahoma A&M.

FIRST BALL — Mayor C. A. Hoff threw out the first ball last night to officially open the baseball season here for the Pampa Oilers. Berger defeated the Oilers last night but the two teams are to meet again tonight in Oiler Park. (News Photo)

Ben Guill Says . . .

Ike To Make Known Platform In June

General Dwight D. Eisenhower will remove the veil from his "policies and principles" between June 1 and July 7, national Republican leaders backing the general for president promised today.

The information was disclosed in a letter to Ben Guill, former Republican congressman from Pampa, from Sen. Frank Carlson (R-Kan.) in the Eisenhower for President headquarters in the Shoreham Hotel, Washington, D.C.

In his letter Sen. Carlson said: "We will make his policies and principles abundantly clear between June 1 and July 7."

"He will not be stumped. He will not stump, nor should he. The American people do not want to hear from him the old quarrels between Sen. Taft and President Truman. What the American people want to hear, and will hear, is a program for the future, a program in which peace and harmony and decency can flourish."

Republicans also pointed to a statement made several months ago by Eisenhower when he said: "If by chance it should come about that the party does more as its standard bearer, I am determined to lead the entire organization into a fight in which there will be no cessation, no rest, no lack of intensity, until the final decision is made."

He said they want to hand the party machinery over to the "mass-controlled, left-wing dominated political machine" of the national party.

The Governor's prepared statement was apparently a reply to a speech by Egan Dickson, chairman of the loyalist group, at Dallas Monday.

Shivers' forces are expected to step up the tempo of their campaign to control the May 3 primary conventions in the 10 days between now and that date.

Fort Worth May 1 will honor the top conservationists in Texas.

Cliett, 23, purchased the 340-acre farm in 1949. Two hundred eighty-seven acres were idle and badly eroded farm land. Fifty acres were pasture land in poor condition. In 1948 the land returned a total of $200.

But with his conservation program, the grass seeding by the summer of 1951 was so great that his 28 cows could not take care of it. He now has 50 cows and 25 yearling heifers and calves and still has plenty of grass.

In February of this year, cows were grazing on grass with new green growth of two to three inches in height.

Steel Industries Ask Court For Injunction

$3 Hike Granted; Wage Boost Next

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The steel industry asked the federal courts again today to deny President Truman the right to seize the nation's steel mills.

An attorney for U. S. Steel Corp., biggest of the steel companies, accused the government of trying to "foist on management" wage increases for the CIO Steelworker union.

The attorney, Theodore Kiendl, said the government is not "trying to preserve production of steel."

He asked U. S. District Judge David A. Pine to issue a temporary injunction that would forbid Secretary of Commerce Sawyer from taking any steps to carry out Truman's seizure order.

Kiendl told the court the damage would be "almost irreparable" if Sawyer puts into effect the wage and union shop recommendations made by the Wage Stabilization Board.

In the industry's first court attempt to declare the seizure illegal, Judge Alexander Holtzoff said there had been no showing of "irreparable damage."

Kiendl said today the situation has "irreparably changed."

Wage Board. He said changes terms and conditions of employment are "irreparable."

Sawyer has said the government intends to put into force some wage boosts to the steelworkers. He hasn't said how much.

Meanwhile, a series of congressional studies of the seizure procedure were going on. Capitol Hill and Senate committees were examining the situation. And an impeachment move against Truman was on in the House.

The Wage Board has recommended direct wage increases of 1 1/2 cents an hour, fringe benefits of 1 1/2 cents plus a union shop.

The industry claims it needs to increase steel prices about $12 a ton to meet the demands. Kiendl told the court:

"Once a wage increase is granted, there is no possibility whatever of ever taking back any of that increase."

The government yesterday took a first step toward granting the industry a 20 price increase in a ton of steel.

The union membership totals about 825,000. CIO chairman Philip Murray called off his threatened strike after the steel mills were seized April 8.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce, declaring Truman violated three separate articles of the Constitution in seizing the steel plants, said the President may be "Commander in Chief" but this means command of the armed forces, "not the command of the people of the United States."

"If that were not true," said the Chamber in testimony prepared for a Senate judiciary subcommittee, "then the President could reach and that current negotiations between the company and the union have been concluded."

Also it was reported that union employees at Sinclair's refinery on the Houston Ship channel have been warned to be ready to strike at 12 o'clock, Wednesday, April 30. Officials of both the company and the union could not be reached for confirmation.

The Wage Stabilization board recently sent the oil wage dispute back to the companies and the unions for settlement after officials of WSB and the oil companies could not agree on procedure for conferring panel hearings.

Youth Killed In Car Wreck Near Mobeelie

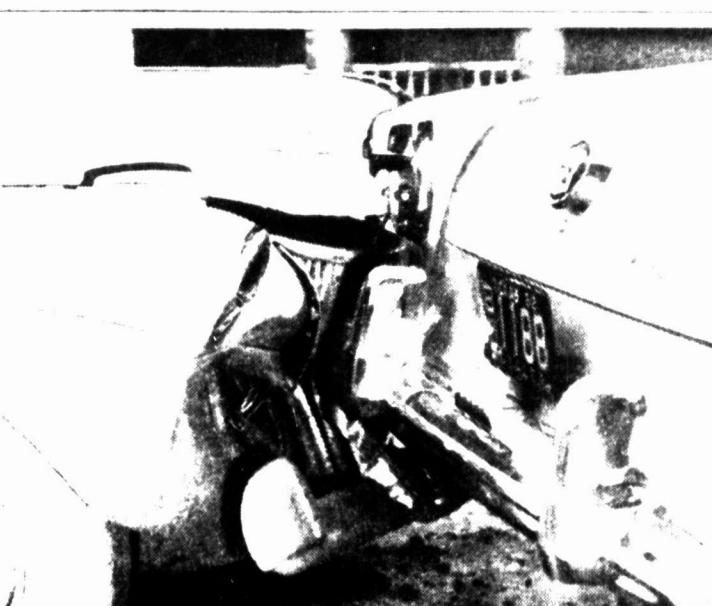

Billy Don Cantrell, 18, of Shamrock, was fatally injured on State Highway 152, near Mobeelie, Tuesday when the car in which he was riding turned over.

The wreck occurred about one hour before Billy would have stopped celebrating his 18th birthday.

Van Skidmore, 17, driver of the car, suffered a fractured pelvis and head injuries.

Sheriff Gus Dorman said the car skidded into the Sweetwater Creek Bridge about three miles south of Mobeelie, throwing Cantrell from the car.

Surviving besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cantrell, Shamrock, are: Mrs. Irene Howell, Colorado; and two step-sisters, Connie and Jeannie Young, both of Shamrock.

BRACKEN FAIL — Car at left, driven by Melba Miller Langham, 308 Miami, crashed into rear of 1952 Nash owned by Nimmo Nash Co. at intersection of Atchison and Frost at 1:45 p.m. Wednesday. City Policeman Joe Wilkinson said Mrs. Langham's brakes failed to work. She was given ticket for failure to yield right of way. Before hitting the Nash, Mrs. Langham's car hit a pickup truck in the left front fender. The Nimmo car in turn was thrown forward, pinning pedestrian Gerald W. Morris, 12, of the Modern Trailer courts, between bumpers. His right leg was bruised. Estimated damage to all vehicles involved was $750. (News Photo)

Taft-MacArthur Combine Shapes Up

By The Associated Press. A Taft-MacArthur combine seemed to be shaping up in Texas today to defeat General Dwight D. Eisenhower in the May 3 precinct conventions.

With the grass-roots gathering just eleven days away, and elections drawing steadily nearer, these developments stood out.

L. Chairman Bill Henson of the demand MacArthur group in Texas said supporters of Senator Taft (R-Ohio) and persons backing General Douglas MacArthur will meet in a few days to work out the alliance.

Jack Porter, Eisenhower's Texas campaign manager, answered the announcement quickly with the assertion that such a combine would be "just another political ploy."

The governing for precinct delegates, whatever the result of the guarantee a later date. MacArthur Zwerfel is a leader of Taft forces in Texas and also Republican state committee member.

Henson said a campaign of "intensity" was suggested by Walter Rogers of Dallas, who laments the state drive of the Ohio Statehouse. Porter told newsmen he could not conceive of the active work of Eisenhower and Taft in the fight to elect MacArthur.

Most troops took it easy. But some had to battle occasional Communist patrols or probing attacks.

Air Force, Navy and Marine planes ganged up on Communist rail lines Wednesday. They reported cutting tracks at 299 points.

The Far East air forces said its planes flew 1,945 sorties and accounted for 196 of the rail cuts. It described damage done to North Korean railways as "terrific."

Okawa-based B-29 Superforts blasted marshalling yards and front-line troops and supply concentrations.

F-86 Sabre jets "dropped down from their lofty sentinel position" guarding fighter-bombers to join the attack on ground targets, the Air Force said.

Oil Workers Strike Set Wednesday

HOUSTON — (AP) — A strike in the nation's oil refining industry appeared near once again today when negotiations between one major oil company and the International Oil Workers union (CIO) were reported abandoned without a settlement.

Reports in Houston oil circles say a meeting was held in Denver yesterday by representatives of the Sinclair Refining Co. and the IOWU but that an agreement could not be reached and that current negotiations between the company and the union have been concluded.

Also it was reported that union employees at Sinclair's refinery on the Houston Ship channel have been warned to be ready to strike at 12 o'clock, Wednesday, April 30. Officials of both the company and the union could not be reached for confirmation.

The Wage Stabilization board recently sent the oil wage dispute back to the companies and the unions for settlement after officials of WSB and the oil companies could not agree on procedure for conferring panel hearings.

SEATTLE, Korea — (AP) — Nine Reds were killed in the heaviest fighting reported today on the Korean battlefronts.

Warm sunny weather brought a burst of blossoms along the quiet front. Korea's purple friendship flower, the Chugodan, vied with the yellow Forsythia.

Mich. Agrees To Prisoners' Peace Terms

JACKSON, Mich. — (AP) — The Michigan prison system today agreed to end a 10-day strike by 1,000 inmates.

The agreement guaranteed the final safety of nine guards still held as hostages by inmates, including convict leaders in the world's largest penal institution.

With these hostages in mind, the state of Michigan humbly sought to meet reform demands by the inmates and, even when a strike dinner in the prison hall had the 100 desperadoes in the prison's 300-cell wing, a 15-day delay final decision.

They demanded continuation in today's newspapers of the strike agreement.

Their actual surrender of the prison, threatened cellblock with the military confinement, would not be expected before noon today.

Michigan Governor Williams gave to the Michigan demands, he said, to effect the release of the hostages and the cessation of the strike.

The convicts' complaints alleged overcrowding of the prison, lack of proper food, medical care and between Eisenhower and Taft, among other things.

Until yesterday there had been no announced effort by Taft or MacArthur camps to get together, although Henry Zwerfel of Fort Worth has urged MacArthur to take the case to the Supreme Court.

MacArthur's group in Texas said supporters of Senator Taft (R-Ohio) and persons backing General Douglas MacArthur will meet in a few days to work out the alliance.

Jack Porter, Eisenhower's Texas campaign manager, answered the announcement quickly with the assertion that such a

combine would be "just another political ploy."

Part Of Pampa's Early Days Turn Up In New Sewer Ditch

Construction men building the new sewer ditch between the swimming pool and the new city hall, yesterday accidentally unearthed some of Pampa's early days.

Working at a depth of 18 feet, the ditching machine suddenly started throwing up bits of brick and concrete and iron pipe used in the first plant of the old city disposal plant.

He described the old bed as being composed of a 2-foot concrete sewer pipe of two-inch diameter.

It was added that the route taken by the new ditch line cuts across the corner of the old ditch bed and only part of it had to be dug out.

$2,000,000 Fire Hits Vancouver

VANCOUVER, B.C. — (AP) — A well-timed fire raged through Vancouver's waterfront "Grain Row" for three hours yesterday, causing an estimated loss of more than $2,000,000.

The fire, started by an explosion of grain dust, razed a grain loading plant, a large warehouse and a grain elevator. For a time it threatened a large warehouse containing tons of high-explosive fertilizers valued at $500,000.

Canadian Roping Club Re-Elects Same Officers

CANADIAN roping clubs have re-elected the same officers at their annual meetings held in Pampa, Texas, last night. The officers of the Pampa Roping Club are: President, Earl Phillips; Vice President, John Williams; Secretary, Tom Hill; Treasurer, Fred Blackmore; and the Roping Club, respectively, Fred Blackmore, Tom Hill, Earl Phillips and John Williams.

Dr. Logan's Wife

I really had something to hide. You got that way when you're being interviewed about Peter by the FBI man, didn't you? Peter's name, I thought, I thought I'd better not say it. It's beginning, it's beginning, it's beginning.

But suddenly she did not see the man as a man, she saw a pressure. She felt rather a strange feeling of power, with her hands gripping the handle of the chair from the queen, and she looked beside Peter. She took his hand and clasped it hard in hers, while she listened to his words. Fred was a spare man, dark, wavy-haired, and in his navy blue suit with the white pinstriped shirt and white-striped necktie, his body had a right-angled, whittled look. His eyes, slightly bloodshot, were overlarge, his features fine, and a permanent frown had become bedded in his forehead by the too constant elevation of eyebrows.

Fred told of the questions he had been asked about Peter's character, affiliations, friends, political leanings, parents, and the answers he had given. He related the housewife's conversation, for the questions carried an air of which made the answer sound plausible. He was to answer factual questions about a friend, Fred announced, but when you're asked for your opinion of your friend's opinions, the conversation gets a little hot. I began to squirm after a few minutes of it. I felt he was trying to trip me up. I began to feel kind of shy and mean.

If we try to build up our armed strength urgently, we may get ahead of public opinion not yet convinced of the necessity for this action, or we may yield to exaggerated military counsels and try to do too much, too soon, which can destroy the (NATO) alliance.

Lester B. Pearson, Canadian Secretary of State, said that the various committees would begin holding meetings in the near future to lay plans for carrying out their parts "in making this our biggest and best year as an added attraction for that day."

Secretary John Wilkinson stated that the various committees would begin holding meetings in the near future to lay plans for carrying out their parts "in making this our biggest and best year as an added attraction for that day."

They discussed the thyroid patient. She asked him then if he'd like to come to her house that night to hear Kelly speak, or wasn't he a Democrat?

He had a date with Fred that night, but he decided to bring him along. He and Fred arrived late. Mary Templar's living room was filled with people sitting in rows of those rented collapsible chairs.

They took seats in the back of the room. Mary Templar turned at the sound of their scraped chairs, dimpled at Peter and waved. The speaker was concerned with the current problems of a musician's union. While he spoke, papers were passed among the audience for signatures. The mimeographed forms respectively protested the indictment of the Hollywood Ten and a bill written by an incumbent Republican seemingly designed to limit free speech. Peter and Fred signed each form. As the meeting progressed, it became increasingly apparent that the speakers held fast to the Communist Party line. Kelly did not arrive till midnight and he spoke ramblingly about very little.

The following week, Peter met Jennet, after which Mary Templar looked to him like a perspiring dairy-maid. She even, he noticed, had a dairy smell. He didn't date her again.

The incident was closed. Or was it? As a result, his signature affixed to two liberal protests was on file in Washington, and the protests would serve as a record of his attendance at a Communist gathering.

"I remember," Peter said at last, "I had forgotten, but I remember now. So that's what Cota meant. It must be. He's got a very efficient little spy system at his disposal. He'd have dug up this sort of thing."

Tide May Be Turning Against All U. S. Independent Voters

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — It looked like the political man-of-the-year in 1952 was going to be the independent voter.

Now I'm not so sure. I think tide may be turning against him. There is a strong possibility that the independent voter has already passed the peak of his popularity.

At the start of the indoor campaign training season experts figured there might be as many as 25,000,000 independent voters this year, and that they would hold the balance of power in the presidential election.

This immediately made the independent voter the Clark Gable of politics. He was pictured as a high-minded, thoughtful figure who stood above the clamor of partisanship and weighed every issue carefully.

What happened? Well, naturally 99.44 per cent of all living Americans decided they were independent voters. The temptation to stand aloof on the heights, wooed by all factions, was irresistible.

Each man could dream of the following situation: On election day the nation is divided 29,567,843 to 29,567,843 and as Mr. Jones steps up to ballot the rival statesmen say:

ley act, he tells you he stands on the hyphen."

Lonely Figure
This is mighty unfair, of course, to the conscientious independent voter, but as outdoor campaigning season heats up it looks like he's going to be an even lonelier figure.

There are certain disadvantages to his position. If you are losing a friendly political argument at a cocktail party, and somebody gets you down and starts beating you up, you can get rescued by shouting, "Help, I'm a Democrat!" or "Save me, I'm a Republican!"

But what would happen if you yelled from the floor, "Help, help, I'm an independent voter!" The independent voters would just stand there and look at you. But all the Republicans and Democrats would rush over and joyously join in kicking you.

That's the danger in being an independent in anything. You may have distant admirers, but you lack first aid in an emergency.

Every time you clean the refrigerator, wash the rubber door seal with warm soapsuds, rinse well, and dry.

Sleepy Druggist Gets Fooled

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. — Police telephoned druggist Saul Witschner at Menlo Park that the burglar alarm was ringing in his Redwood City store. "Aw turn it off and forget it," he said at the sleepy hour of 1 a.m. "The bell's gone off that way three times before." But yesterday when Witschner arrived at his store he found something else gone, too — $260 from the cash box and $500 worth of merchandise.

Turkish Dancers, Boy Friends Arrested By FBI

NEW ORLEANS — Two teen-age Turkish ballet dancers who wanted to see the United States were arrested by FBI agents as stowaways when their ship docked here. They were in the House of the Good Shepherd, a detention home, today under $1,000 bonds. The two sailors who made their trip possible are in Orleans Parish prison, also under $1,000 bonds. All four were arrested yesterday. J. M. Lopez, agent in charge of the FBI here, said a mystic dance staged at sea, with the accomplishment of war whoops, led to their discovery aboard ship four days out of Istanbul, where they had been smuggled aboard. Lopez identified the girls as Aysel Kaymak, 16, and Nermin Ouncun, 17. He said the two seamen were Robert Eugene Presley, 21, of Memphis, Tenn., and Joseph O'Neill, 23, of Winthrop, Mass. Lopez said the girls told him a chance meeting with the two seamen in Istanbul started the plan to visit America. Since Co. to secure promissory note of $170,000. Suits Filed Freddie C. Full Year Lapses Since AP Reporter Jailed By Czechs

WASHINGTON — (AP) — One year ago today Communist Czechoslovakia threw William N. Oatis into jail.

The Associated Press correspondent's name has become a symbol of free world opposition to Communist fear and oppression. He is still behind bars as a convicted "spy," but it is beginning to cost his captors some two million dollars a month in American trade, to keep him there.

Commerce department reports show the economic squeeze which the United States imposed in retaliation for Oatis' arrest has reduced the volume of Czech sales in this country by probably 90 per cent and is getting tighter.

Squeeze Starts

The squeeze started last October. The Czechs had been selling an average of more than two million dollars a month worth of their products in this country. The commerce department said that in January, the latest month for which figures are complete, Czech imports totaled only $205,622.

American exports to Czechoslovakia—controlled by the tight U.S. government licensing system—have almost vanished.

Communist secret agents seized Oatis last April 23 as he was putting away his car for the night in his Prague garage.

State officials said today they are still pressing for his release. The evidence that the near-boycott is pinching the Czechs painfully—plus other developments, has led to hope for a break in the case.

Regime Hints

The Prague regime has hinted it might consider freeing Oatis—now 38—although at a price the state department has firmly ruled out. Some authorities believe the Communists have decided they have nothing more to gain, in propaganda or any other ways, by holding him longer.

The lanky former Marion, Ind., reporter was told that with "good behavior" the 10-year sentence

Rogers Believes Government Sends Out Too Many Papers

If Rep. Walter Rogers could have his way about things, 50 percent of government forms being sent to farmers and businessmen would be abolished.

This would serve three purposes the Pampa congressman declared in his weekly newsletter to the 18th Congressional District:

1. It would permit the farmer and businessman to devote his time to his own pursuits.
2. It would do away with the need of warehouse space used to file the forms—before and after they are filled out.
3. It would do away with the need for a great number of federal employees who spend all of their time sending out forms and reading them when they are returned.

With Attack

The observation came along with a pointed attack on the Department of Labor by Rogers in his newsletter. Rogers has had a standing fight with the labor department over an amendment passed on child labor regulations before he went to Congress.

His sharp disagreement with the labor department arose over a regulation forbidding children to work in fields with their parents while school is in session. The regulation affected mostly migratory Mexican children who can't understand English and don't attend school anyway except when they return to their native land at the end of harvest seasons.

He added that the wording in the amendment was cleverly cooked in innocence, and centralized power to enforce it in Washington by people "who are wholly inexperienced with any of the business they are attempting to regulate."

Tricky Language

He laced the labor department for refusing to relinquish the power it gained by the "tricky language" used in the amendment, adding, "they now propose to go further and require all farmers to fill out forms and records concerning all minors employed by him each year. This has only one purpose, to make it easier for the labor department to exercise its powers under the trick amendment," he declared.

Rogers introduced a bill to abolish the amendment shortly after he reached Washington. Since then nine similar bills have been introduced by other congressmen but so far have not been given congressional approval.

Poker Face Helps You Win At Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Bridge and poker are two different games, but there are times when a bridge player needs a poker face. Take today's hand for example.

West opened the jack of diamonds.

By this time all the high red cards had been played, and South cashed the ten and nine of hearts. East nonchalantly tossed the ace of spades and then the three of spades. So far so good.

Now South led the queen of spades and let it ride for a finesse. East hesitated, looked guiltily at declarer, and then played the five of spades. He might just as well have taken the king of spades out of his hand and waived it in the air.

South knew that there was no advantage in taking another spade finesse, so he led the ten of spades to dummy's ace. Then he abandoned the spades in order to lead a club from the dummy. East played the seven of clubs, and South finessed the nine of clubs the trick to West.

West could take his ten of clubs and his last diamond, but he was then obliged to lead clubs away from his king up to South's ace-queen. South therefore made his game contract.

East would have been completely right if he had played a low spade quickly and without any apparent thought. South might have finessed the jack of spades at the next trick on the assumption that the king of spades was in the West hand.

Or South might have taken the ace of spades next and returned a low spade with the intention of catching West in an end play. Either way East would get a spade trick, and his partner would get a club and a diamond to defeat the contract.

Trainer E. I. Kelly saddled the first winner of the day on three consecutive days at Monmouth Park recently.

And each year, crippled children were aided in their quest for health by Lions club generosity.

U. S. Population Shows Increase

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The census bureau today estimated the population of the United States on March 1 at about 156,197,054. This was 2,707,000 above the estimate for the same day a year ago and was about five million or 3.4 per cent, above the figure for April 1, 1950—the last formal census.

Empty Film Set Brings Back Memories Of Hollywood Stars

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — When I arrived on the movie set, nearly everyone had gone. The picture was "tribute to a Bad Man," which is a picture about Hollywood, I guess, but you wouldn't think so from the title. The cast includes people like Lana Turner, Kirk Douglas, Walter Pidgeon, Dick Powell and Gloria Grahame. Pidgeon was in his dressing room, playing checkers with another fellow while a press agent snoozed in the corner. When Pidgeon is playing checkers, you might as well interview Taft about Eisenhower's chances. Or vice versa. You get about the same degree of silence. Such is an interviewer's life. A large part of the time you're arriving at the wrong time to talk to anybody. But the empty film set caught my eye. It was supposed to be a movie producer's office in the early '30's. On the walls were some interesting portraits. I recognized them as Marie Dressler, Alice Brady, Edna May Oliver, Robert Benchley, Wallace Berry, Ted Healy and Thelma Todd. They had this in common. All had died at the top of their careers. (Miss Todd had died accidentally or was murdered; it has never been fully determined.) There were three other photos that started me thinking about the fleeting nature of film fame. They were pictures of John Gilbert, Renee Adoree and Karl Dane.

John Gilbert there was a lover. He was married four times, and his wives included actresses Leatrice Joy, Ina Claire and Virginia Bruce. His other romances dealt with such figures as Greta Garbo, Lupe Velez and Marlene Dietrich. The advent of sound doomed his career. His voice wasn't as bad as people think; his style of love-making just sounded silly when words were heard. Garbo gave him a comeback chance by demanding him for "Queen Christina" in 1933, but he sank back to inactivity. He died of a heart failure in 1936 at the age of 32. Sentimentalists said the real reason was a broken heart. Renee Adoree—a lung ailment sent her to a sanatorium, and friends said it was caused by her inability to pass up a party. She never recovered, and died at 27 in 1935. Her estate brought $2,429. Karl Dane — he completed "The Big Parade" trio. A thick-headed carpenter, he was yanked from obscurity to play the pappy soldier. He lasted for a few years as a comedian, teaming with George K. Arthur. But sound also booted Dane from the studios. In 1934, he spread out his old contracts, clippings and photos on a table in his modest apartment. Then he sat down in a chair and sent a bullet through his brain.

Canadian Home Making Students Present Program

CANADIAN — (Special) — The Homemaking Department of the Canadian High School presented a special assembly program in the high school auditorium last Friday morning. Anne Katten served as master of ceremonies. Earline Blackmore gave a monologue entitled "Billie as invited out" followed by "Glory for Sale" by Mary Lee Blackmore. The next number was a style clinic with Glenda Hill as Designer and Sue Doherty as Nurse Presscloth. Homemaking students, modeling various types of clothes, were diagnosed as having such diseases as t. b. (too big), and anticleric (can't sit or can't walk). The curtain then opened on the show home of "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe." A background music by Jan Waters. The 8th grade homemaking girls, as the Old Woman's children, modeled skirts they had made. A group of high school girls then modeled new spring clothes they had made.

Businessmen Say Recession Is In Sight

By SAM DAWSON
 NEW YORK — (AP) — A leading industrialist has come right out and said it: "A recession is now the best guess."
 William B. Given, Jr., chairman of American Brake Shoe, tells stockholders at the annual meeting that their company's management expects a business recession and is getting ready for it. Given says it's only a guess, but it's better to be safe than sorry. His company makes castings and metal products for railroads, auto and farm machinery and other industries. Businessmen are far from unanimously behind Given in his guess. And several are telling shareholders that better days are ahead this fall. But now that it's out in the open, perhaps others will also admit they are trying to put their firm's house in order against the slump so many fear.

A great many companies have been doing just what American Brake Shoe is: cutting inventories, trimming costs, holding down on production. This caution has been widespread in industry—and such caution has been regarded by many as one of the best forms of insurance against a major slump. It is when caution is forgotten in a wild boom, that a little set-back can snowball into a major depression. There's no such wild boom now as preceded the 1929 crash. But Given is among the first to put a time-table on his prediction of a recession now on the way.

Short Period
 Merchants, who have been showing caution for some time now, find a friend today. Retailers have been buying for only a short period ahead as they try to hold inventories down. Manufacturers naturally don't like this and have been calling it shortsighted. But William Burston, manager of the Merchandising division of the National Retail Dry Goods Association, tells the Knit-Fabrics Institute meeting here that the merchant's first responsibility is to the consumer, and the retailer should not be asked to act as a warehouse for large stocks of goods just to keep mills humming.

Lawmakers Say No New Taxes Now

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Some influential lawmakers agreed Tuesday with the committee for economic development (CED) that the federal budget can and should be balanced next year. These Congressmen said new taxes are out of the question.

Worry Of FALSTEETH

Slipping or Irritating? Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FALSTEETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort. No gummy, gooney, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid) and security by holding plates more firmly.

search group, also had expressed the belief in a statement Monday that expenditures could be brought into line with government income without new revenue. But it suggested that if Congress doesn't think so, consideration should be given to a "temporary" federal retail sales tax on everything except food, housing and articles already subject to direct federal excises.

"There aren't any temporary taxes," Rep. Curtis (R-Nebr.), a member of the tax-writing ways and means committee commented. "So-called temporary taxes are imposed with the best intentions, but somehow they always become permanent."

"In addition, the federal government has waited too long to get into the sales tax field, already preempted by most of the states."

Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, the Republican leader of the House, agreed with Curtis and the CED on the ability of Congress to avoid a treasury deficit without new levies.

"The House already has cut appropriations bills more than six billion dollars below budget estimates, and we still have a couple of bills to work on where we can make additional savings," Martin told a reporter.

All but two of the regular departmental appropriations for the 1953 fiscal year which begins July 1 already have passed the House. For these, President Truman asked 65 1-2 billion dollars.

Business Jitters Remind Persons Of Spring Slump

NEW YORK — Business long predicted, still hasn't been jitters and falling prices just now remind many persons of the spring slump of 1949.

That earlier inventory recession carried much of the same over-tone of worry lest the long-awaited postwar depression was at hand.

But the 1949 recession ended that summer and a new boom started, was given a big boost by Korea, and finally ran into the same glut of inventories that fretted the businessman in 1949. They were the only two months of the spring of 1949, most non-ferrous metals have been in good demand since World War II, and prices have been firm—at times soaring, and at present bumping at imposed price ceilings.

In the spring of 1949, with food and textile prices already and for the last four weeks sales slumped, metalmen suddenly have trailed 1951 by one per cent, found that a metal shortage, had the end of customer reluctance, turned into a surpris. Users of metals stopped buying, and prices slumped fast. Pessimists cried that with the bell-weather metals in a slump "the depression is here."

But in the summer that tide turned.

Now the textile industry has its own "private depression," and food prices are well below their former peaks. Will metal prices ease?

The first to show signs of it is lead. Some foreign lead is being offered in American markets at slightly below the ceiling price of 19 cents, the trade reports.

After all, any woman can give herself a course in home decorating, or in anything else, if she has the initiative to strike out on her own in search of the knowledge she wants.

There are plenty of good books on decorating in the public libraries. There are a number of decorating magazines on the newsstands. Daily newspapers carry a great deal of information in their advertisements and women's page features on new trends in decorating.

And, of course, a woman can learn a lot by looking in the best stores and figuring out why some rooms in private homes and public places are pleasing and why others are not.

Actually, no course can give a woman as much knowledge of a subject like interior decorating as she could pick up on her own, if she could put her mind to it.

Interior decoration isn't something that can be learned in a few easy lessons, but it can be learned in time.

Whatever it is you wish you could take a course in, don't put off learning with the excuse that since you haven't the time or money to take the course, the knowledge is beyond you.

Instead, decide to teach yourself what you want to know. And don't forget that "course" is the best teacher. Start putting your ideas into effect and you may be surprised at how quickly you progress in your self-taught "course."

Special Course In Scouting Completed

"I don't know anything about fixing up a house," a young mother writes me. "If I just had time to take a course in interior decoration..."

Isn't we women getting "course happy," thinking that we can't learn anything unless we enroll for a course or join a study group?

Happiness Comes From Within You

By ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

It may seem difficult, as you go about your daily routine, to keep your life from becoming humdrum. After all, nothing new ever seems to happen to you.

But have you ever thought of the things that happen around you that are new and exciting?

The changing seasons of the year, the birth of a child in your neighborhood or in your family, the success of someone formerly obscure, a new piece of music or work of art. All these things touch your life in some way.

Then, there's always the excitement of watching your own children develop and mature. The activities of the young can hardly be classified as routine.

Perhaps your life is losing some of its interest because you are taking yourself for granted.

You may have forgotten how wonderful a new hat or hair style can make you feel.

When was the last time you and your husband had a night out together? Do you show a real interest in your husband's work?

Try to read a book a week and keep up with your daily news.

If your little girl is a member of the Girl Scouts, why don't you spend some of your time with her at the meetings? Excitement isn't always something tangible. Many people who

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Wasson—Special Sports Editor

QUESTION: Ned Garver has now thrown 18 consecutive scoreless innings. What is the major league record?

PURELY PERSONAL

Ivy Griffin, Oiler business manager, recently received his engraved lifetime pass from the commissioner of baseball for his longtime service to the game as a player, manager and club official. . . Congratulations, Ivy. . . Jay Haney, Lamesa Lubo manager, was the victim of a 9-0 forfeit last week when he pulled his club off the field against Sweetwater. . . Haney had been riding the umpire-in-chief about a ball-strike call and the umpire had finally called the police to escort Haney from the field. . . Looks like a great summer for the fans.

Joe Fortin socked a three-run homer for the Lobos in the forfeited game before it was halted. . . Sgt. Gene Cooper had to cancel his television boxing date at Fort Meade, Md. This week-taught last week at Wichita Falls end due to the cut eye. . . Don Moore, Oiler catcher, was over Jack Burke, the red-hot young pro golfer during the war. . . Don says that about all Burke did was play golf. . . Clyde Baldwin spent the off-season as a disc jockey and radio advertising salesman. . . Billy Davis, Jimmy Cook and Sid Mills managed to skip out of school (or was it a visual course in English) yesterday to see Quo Vadis. . . Milo the Croton, is played by Art Walge, a professional wrestler. . . One part in the movie, that of her.

For Nell Miller, KPDN's "old-time disc jockey" in the world who likes to pick up a nugget of knowledge each day: It takes 18 operations and four months for a bowling pin to go from a tree to the end of an alley, and 77,350 of them will be consumed in the 85 day ABC meet now on at Milwaukee. . . Hank Greenberg condemns golf as the ruin of baseball hitters. . . The games, he contends, do not mix because of the baseball swing is a flat swipe while the golf swing is an uppercut stroke. . . Doesn't seem to bother Doc Woldt, though, who has always hit better the night following an afternoon of golf. . . In fact, Friday night he got three for four and that afternoon played two hours of golf. . . yesterday he played again; last night got two for five. . . Most graphic comment on mystery of Satchel Paige's age turned up in an Atlanta newspaper. . . A feature writer wrote: "We think he is 48, going on 50."

The original Dutch Leonard, first name Hubert, whom Ty Cobb says was one of the only two players he ever deliberately attempted to spike, has grown prosperous operating vineyards in California. His hobby is collecting records, of which he owns more than 50,000. Leonard never writes letters. . . Instead he makes a record and dispatches it air express. . . Peeewe Reese clinched his argument for a raise to $24,500 this spring by pointing out that his 296 batting average last season broke down to a neat .332 with Dodger teammates on base. . . The unkindest cut of the spring training season was the query addressed to Manager Chuck Dresen of the Dodgers: "How much of a lead do you think you'll need this year?" . . . Whatever it is, the Buns are surely out to get it quickly. . . The Boston Red Sox have been printing world series tickets every year since 1916 and have used them only once. . . Latest reports from behind the iron curtain indicate the Russians have abandoned the idea of shutting their Olympic athletes back and forth by air every day and instead will house them on an ocean liner 12 miles off the coast of Helsinki. . . Ed Price, head football coach of the Texas Longhorns, recently appraised the talent coming up from the freshman squad as the best in the Longhorns' history. . . The United States Olympic Committee recently received a check for $3,100 from the Sugar Bowl Association as a contribution to the fund-raising drive required to send out athletes abroad. . . Gil Coan, Washington Senators' outfielder, is using a 38 ounce bat this year. . . Last season he did more than fair swinging one which weighed 35 ounces. . . Al Ennis, business manager of the Dallas Texas, says the Chicago Bears of 1941 were the greatest football team he ever saw and the Philadelphia Eagles' Steve Van Buren the top gridiron player, with Cliff Battles, one-time Washington Redskins' half-back, a close second. . . Abb Curtis, supervisor of football officials for the Southwest Conference, has ruled that professional league employees cannot work in college games under his jurisdiction. . . "The rules are different and so is the environment," says Curtis, who made his decision after hearing that Lon Evans, former Green Bay guard, and Don Looney, ex-Pittsburgh end, are to be added to Bert Bellos National League staff. . . The Cincinnati Reds are the only club in the National League that hasn't finished out of the second division in the past seven years. . . Forty of the 160 nominees for the Kentucky Derby are offsprings of former Derby champions or sires of previous derby winners. . . Ten are sons of Count Fleet, a Derby winner sired by Regis Count, also a Derby champion.

ANSWER: In the 1913 season Walter Johnson of Washington hurled 56 consecutive scoreless innings, a record that stands today.

Golfing Thrills: Teams With Ben Hogan

By JIMMY UKAUKA
AP Newsfeature Sports Editor
Being paired with Ben Hogan in my first major tournament—the Los Angeles Open at Riviera in 1940—still is my biggest thrill in golf. . . Ben and I were tied going into the final 18 holes and we were paired for the final round. He was Mr. Golf at the time—and still is. I wasn't putting well but otherwise I was hitting the ball like a million bucks. . . On the final hole of the tournament—the 72nd—I began to wonder how it would feel if I beat the great Ben Hogan. . . We were even to this point. Teeing off first with the greatest determination I have ever had I let fly with the longest drive in my life, splitting the fairway all the way. . . I proudly leaned back and watched the great Hogan hit his drive. As per usual, his ball passed mine with unerring accuracy. . . My second shot, with a 3 iron, went next to the pin. It looked like it stopped six inches from the hole. From where we stood, Ben's second shot got inside my ball and seemed to be two inches from the cup. . . Actually my ball was 15 feet away and Ben's five feet in front. . . I tried to charge my putt at the back of the cup, missed and went about four feet past. Hogan calmly stepped up and tapped his 10 footer into the hole, dead center. Then I missed the four footer. It cost me $360 in prize money and set me back to 16th place instead of being about sixth. . . Playing with Ben was only part of the thrill. The most thrilling feature came when he said: "I certainly enjoyed playing with you and if it's all right I would like to arrange that we play together in the remaining tournaments during your stay." . . We got to play in two more tournaments. . . (Jimmy Ukauka, born in Honolulu in 1920, is home pro at the Hilo Country Club in Hawaii. He first played in the United States in the U. S. Amateur at Baltusrol, Springfield, N. J., in 1946.)

Champions Make N-S Quarterfinals

PINEHURST, N. C. —(AP)—Today's North and South Amateur Golf tournament quarter-final round was a virtuoso parade of champions. Four of the eight survivors of yesterday's two rounds had accounted for six of the 51 previous titles. . . Veteran New Yorker Frank Stranahan from Flushing, Long Island, 1938 and 1939 champion, had as his opponent over the hole distance Ben Goodes, the laundryman from Reidsville, N. C. . . Frank Stranahan, Toledo, with victories in 1946 and 1949, met the Savannah, Ga., long ball hitter, Hobart Manley, the defending champion. . . Mat Galletta, St. Albans, N. Y., sharpie and 1944 titlist, faced Ed Gravelly, Rocky Mount, N. C., who had to play off with 11 other 80 shooters on Tuesday morning to qualify for one of the last five match play vacancies. . . Semi-Finals Tomorrow

Billy Joe Patton of Meriganton, N. C., runner-up to Manley last year, had a toughie in steady Harry Haverstick, Jr., of Lancaster, Pa. . . The semi-finals, over 36 holes tomorrow, will match the Strafaci-Goodes winner against the Patton-Haverstick survivor and the Stranahan-Manley victor against either Galletta or Gravelly. . . Second and third round play yesterday was remarkably free of upsets, although there were several close calls. . . Patton had a 21 hole struggle with Lynn Creason, Harrisburg, Pa., before he won a second round thriller, one of the best matches of the tournament. Patton had to drop a 30 foot up-hill putt for a birdie three on the third extra hole to win the match. He romped home in the afternoon over Tom Langley, University of North Carolina sophomores, six and five. . . Strafaci had two one-up matches. He had to win the last three holes to sneak past Duke University football player Mike Souchak, then he eased by Dale Morey of Dallas, Tex., by the same score.

Odessa Youngster To Quarterfinals

DALLAS —(AP)—Arlyn Scott of Odessa and Highland Park's David Dunn were expected to furnish the fireworks today in the quarterfinals of the Texas High School Open Golf Tournament. . . Medalist Hal McCommas of Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) led the way into the quarter-final round yesterday with a 7 and 8 victory over Charles McCrone of Dallas-Adamson and a later win over Don Stone of Woodrow Wilson. . . Dunn gained the quarter-finals with the hottest round of the day. He was seven strokes under par for 18 holes in outting Odessa's Billy Gilmore 4 and 2 in

Bob Cain, Bob Feller Toss One-Hitters At Each Other

BOB FELLER . . . Loses 1-Hitter

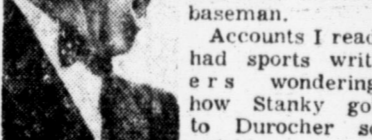

Browns Nip Tribe On First-Inning Marker, 1-0

By JOE REICHLER
What goes with those revitalized Hornby-ized St. Louis Browns? One night they "Byrne" up the Cleveland Indians' seven-game winning streak and the next they raise "Cain" with the Tribe, showing them out of first place and taking over the American League's top rung themselves. . . Following on the heels of the splendid eight-hitter by Tommy Byrne Tuesday, Bob Cain inflicted a one-hit masterpiece last night as he pitched the rampaging Browns into first place with a brilliant 1-0 triumph over the Indians' great Bob Feller. . . Cain had to pitch the best game of his life in order to win for Feller was magnificent, too, pitching a one-hitter himself. The lone Brownie safety, a triple by leadoff batter Bobby Young, proved Feller's undoing. . . Marty Marion followed with a grounder to Al Rosen, when the third baseman fumbled the ball. Young scored the only run of the game. The tally was ruled earned since the official scorer was of the opinion that Young would have crossed the plate fumble or. . . The only hit permitted by Cain was a harmless single by Luke Easter in the fifth inning. The 27-year-old left-hander from Stillman, Kas., walked three but was aided by three double plays. He struck out seven. . . It was the second time in major league history that each pitcher limited the opposition to one hit. On July 4, 1928, Mordacai (Three-Fingered) Brown of Chicago and Lefty Leifield of Pittsburgh permitted only one hit each as the Cubs defeated the Pirates, 1-0. . . On May 2, 1917, Hippo Jim Vaughn of Chicago and Fred Roney of Cincinnati pitched no-hitters each through nine innings. The Reds, however, nicked Vaughn for two hits and a run in the 10th to win 1-0 as Toney hurled a 10-inning no-hitter. . . The former American League record for the fewest hits by both pitchers in one game was three set by Detroit (12) and Washington (11), June 10, 1913 and equalled by Washington (21) and Cleveland (1) July 27, 1915. . . It was the first one-hitter by Cain but the 11th for Feller and the only one-hitter he ever lost. . . Ironically, Cain was Feller's victim when Bob pitched his third no-hitter last year. The Cleveland right-hander defeated Cain and Detroit last July 1, 2-1, holding the Tigers hitless. Cain allowed six hits. . . Boston's youth-infested Red Sox behind the five-hit pitching of 37-year-old Ellis Kinder, defeated the New York Yankees, 3-1. Kinder walked six and fanned five in besting Alie (No-Hit) Reynolds. . . The Red Sox "Kinder-Garten" took charge of Boston's offense. Freshman Jim Piersall, Ted Lepcio and Sam Rice accounted for six of Boston's eight hits and drove in two of the runs. Piersall cracked two doubles, Lepcio hammered a home run and two-bagger and White slammed a triple and single. . . The New York Giants outslugged the Boston Braves, 9-5, in the only National League game. Home runs by Alvin Dark, Don Mueller, West Wernum and relief pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm featured the Giant victory. Rookie Ed Mathews snapped out of his batting slump with a home run and two singles. . . Scheduled games between the St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati, Brooklyn and Philadelphia, Detroit and Chicago and Washington and the Philadelphia Athletics were postponed because of rain. Pittsburgh and Chicago's Cubs were idle.

UMPIRE

Question: From reading accounts of the last game of the 1931 play-off between the Giants and Dodgers, when Bobby Thomson hit his home run, he took his time circling the bases. . . Leo Durocher coaching at third, could not get Eddie Stanky off his back, so happily he was the second baseman. . . Accounts I read had sports writers wondering how Stanky got to Durocher so quickly. . . Later they said television revealed Stanky running across the diamond. . . Now if the ran across the diamond before Thomson scored, wouldn't that have made two more New York players on the field? . . . Is it within the rules for a player to go on the diamond as soon as a teammate hits a homer to win the game? . . . In the game over as it wins the home run is hit — if it wins the game — or does the batter have to circle the bases and touch home plate first? . . . If, as the newspapers said, Stanky ran across the field and jumped on Durocher's back, but the bases were circled, would the run be null to the umpires? . . . James J. Rutledge, 5709 Elmer St., Pittsburgh.

An Air Force announcement today said the squadron, composed of eight C-54 type aircraft and approximately 200 officers and men, would operate both trans-Atlantic and Mediterranean flights. . . Hill Gail Out Of Blue Grass

LEXINGTON, Ky. —(AP)—C. V. (Sonny) Whitney's Cold Command, surprise victor over the Calumet Farm's favored Hill Gail last week, is the probable choice to nab the $25,000-added Blue Grass Stakes today at Keeneland. . . The withdrawal of Hill Gail and other leading three-year-old Kentucky Derby eligibles in this area from the mile and one eighth Blue Grass took some of the gilt off the race, but five were entered and all are nominees for the $100,000 Derby a week from Saturday. . . In addition to Cold Command, others in the Blue Grass are T. M. Daniel's Jet Ace, Sam Wilson, Jr.'s Gushing Oil, Freeman Keyes' Smoke Screen and H. G. Bockman's Happy Go Lucky. All will pack 121 pounds except Gushing Oil, winner of the Louisiana and Arkansas Derbies, which has 123.

Eagles' Negro Is Setting Fast Pace

DALLAS —(AP)— Dick Burnett, the oil millionaire who set records for spending money and packing in the fans, came up with another Texas League first this season—a Negro player. . . He is Dave Hoskins, 27-year-old pitcher-outfielder who credits Satchel Paige with teaching him much of his baseball. And now Hoskins is hurling and batting

Dallas to Victory to the Delight of the Negro Populace

And he's proving popular with the white fans, too. . . Last night he spun a four-hitter against Oklahoma City and got four hits himself, driving in two runs. His work brought a 6-0 win. Previously he had beaten Tulsa 4-2 with an eight-hitter. He got two hits. . . Burnett explained why he brought the first Negro into the Texas League like this: "First, I thought he could help my ball club. Second, Negroes groes had worked for him for years

The man telephoned: Gimme that box." . . Hoskins is a hustler and fighter. He figures just because he's a pitcher is no reason for him to loaf at bat. He works hard, gets along with his teammates and says: "I don't care what the fans do so long as my teammates are for me. And they've been swell. . . Ed Macauley of the Boston Celtics in the NBA is working during the off-season as a sports commentator for a radio station in St. Louis.

CAMERA NEWS

By IRVING DESFOR
AP Newst Features

The trend to self-improvement among photographers is apparent by the increasing number of photo short courses springing up throughout the country. These are three and four-day sessions sponsored by various college journalism departments in cooperation with the National Press Photographers Assn. and leading photographic manufacturers.

The remarkable thing about these photo forums is that the faculty and student body are often interchangeable, since the latter is composed mainly of working photographers from newspapers, magazines and industry. Their practical experience forms the basis for the here's-how-you-do-it lectures.

Inspiration is there, too, from mingling and listening to photography's leading lights — the consistent stars behind the camera in every branch of the field. New tools, new methods, new theories are displayed by the manufacturers to bring the working photographers up to date and face to face with their wares.

All these ingredients are meliorated by natural friendships born at many informal bull-sessions. And through it all runs the feeling that is so typical of the true photographic spirit — from lowly amateur to top-flight professional — enthusiasm!

Those are my reflections after attending recently the pioneer of them all, the 11th Annual Kent State University Photo Short Course at Kent, Ohio. Others are scheduled at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C., Kansas University, Lawrence, Kan., and Michigan State college, East Lansing, Mich.

250 Attend
Kent was host to 250 photographers, the capacity of its lecture hall. They represented 22 states and Canada and spanned the continent from California to New York. Besides the working photographers from newspapers, magazines and industries, there were college photo students, a selected high school and dormitory group, and college professors, police officials, military personnel and editors who wanted to broaden their pictorial outlook.

The sessions are held between regular school quarters, or during school holidays, so that the campus and dormitories are available for the short courses. The registration fee is $15. Rooms and cafeteria style meals are available at nominal rates. Lecture sessions start promptly and are fully attended from start to finish. Interest is constant and if a speaker's voice falls he is invariably reminded by the rear rows to "Speak up."

Never - Failing
At Kent, along with Prof. Jim Fosdick of the college staff, I found the hard core of working photographers who are the never-failing sparkplugs which keep the short courses going. They help set up the programs, search out speakers, obtain the materials, round up the manufacturers' representatives, put on demonstrations and start the intimate bull-sessions. They're the

NOTICE TO BIDDERS
Upon motion of C. O. Gilbert, seconded by J. E. Hemmerson, presented and voted on, it was ordered that the recommendation of the trustees of Alameda Independent School District, Gray County, State of Texas, be accepted and entered as the order of the County trustees as follows:
It is hereby ordered by said County trustees that the school building formerly known as the Eldridge School Building located in the old Eldridge School District, Gray County, be sold to the highest bidder for cash, said bids to be mailed not later than the 31st of May 1952, to W. H. Blakney, Business Manager of Alameda Independent School, Alameda, Texas, upon sealed bids and after notice of such sale has been published in the Pampa Daily News and McLean News for at least one publication prior to such sale. The trustees of such school district are authorized to refuse all bids received in the event such bids are not in their opinion a fair offer for such property.

regulars who generously contribute their knowledge in an effort to advance the whole field of photography.

Among them are "Mr. Press Photographer" himself, Joe Costa, former president, now chairman of the board of the National Press Photographers Assn. A top-ranking working lensman, chief photographer for the New York Sunday Mirror, he never fails to champion the cause of news photographers everywhere.

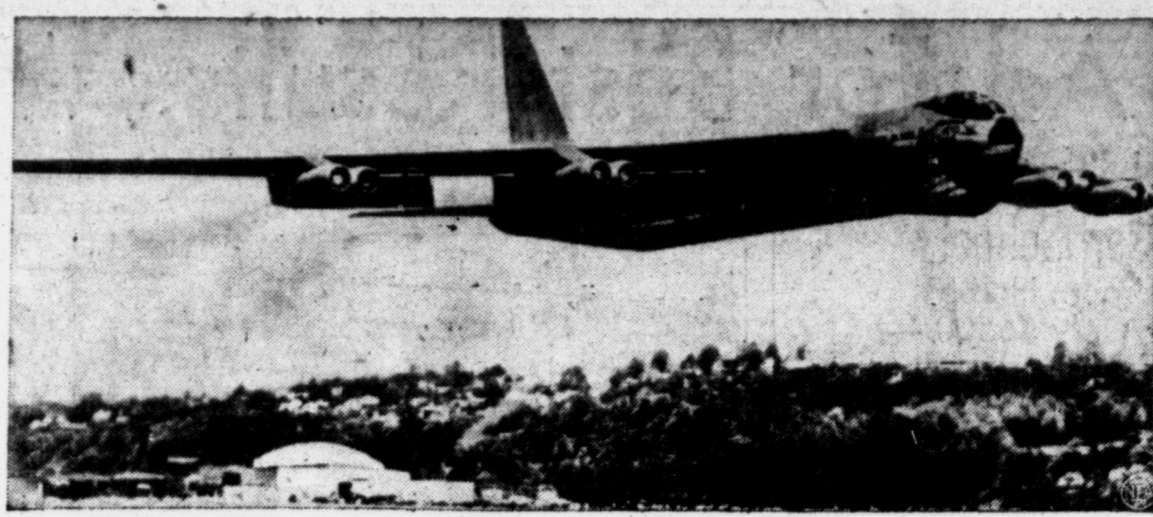

Bob Garland, Graflex representative. At any gathering of news photographers you will find Bob with tool kit handy and a yen to adjust any possible Speed Graphic ailment. J. Winton Lemen, envoy extraordinaire of Eastman Kodak, and Don Mohler, light specialist from General Electric.

Then there's Frank Scherschel, who heads Life's photo staff, an exuberant personality whose photo philosophy and wit keep flashing at stroboscopic speed. And I'd also include the director of this year's course, Vincent S. Jones, executive director of the news and editorial office from the Gannett Newspapers. Though reared on a diet of newspaper writing, he was bitten by the photo bug a few years ago in true amateur fashion. The combination has made him aware of the editorial presentation of pictures as news and sympathetic to the problems of photographers everywhere.

"You photographers," Jones said, "often fall down in selling your own pictures. Don't expect an editor to visualize a big display. If you have something good, print it up king-size and let it sell itself."

That is true of all photographers everywhere. In the final analysis, it's the picture he takes that must speak for itself. And the language is universal.

MONSTER PLANE'S MAIDEN FLIGHT—U.S. Air Force's super-secret eight-jet stratofortress, the B-52, lumbered into the air at Boeing Field, Seattle, Wash., on its maiden flight. The ship was flown to Moses Lake, Wash., for additional performance tests.

Rogers Family Visits White House

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Walter Rogers (D-Tex.), Mrs. Rogers and their six children called on President Truman Tuesday. The children, ranging from John, age 13, to Mary Catherine, age 3, each shook hands with the President and got his autograph on a little card. The others are Walter, 12, Susan, 10, Tommy, 9, and Robert, 5.

Mrs. Rogers told White House reporters she'll buy six frames for the autographs.

Up until Victorian times "the language of flowers" was much studied as a means to convey sentiments by symbolic interpretations of gifts of different types of flowers — the interpretations being known to both giver and recipient.

Canadian Girls Attend FHA Meet

CANA — (Special) — A group of students of Canadian High school left Tuesday for Dallas where they will attend the State Future Homemakers of America meeting.

Making the trip are Nancy Alexander, president of the local F H A chapter; Janet Forgy, historian; Glenda Hill, Anne Rathjen, Daisy Krehel, and sponsor Mrs. Barbara Truitt. They will return Saturday.

New Liquid Kills Roaches and Ants

New Way to Kill Pests Discovered by Scientists

ROACHES are the most difficult household pests to control, and they can be brought into any home from the market in a bag of potatoes or other groceries.

Science has just come forth with a new discovery that kills cockroaches and ants, and that stays effective for months. It is called Johnston's NO-ROACH coating.

It's just as simple and easy to use as it looks. You paint the coating on surfaces frequented by roaches and ants, woodwork near the sink, baseboards, garbage pails, window and door sills. When these crawling pests come in contact with this invisible, odorless, stain-free coating, they slowly become paralyzed, then over on their backs with legs waving in the air, and die. Then the coating stays effective for months to kill any strays that get into the home and that walk over it.

Contains Chloroform

Science has seen to it too, that this product contains no DDT, no sodium fluoride, and no phosphorus. Johnston's NO-ROACH is not a contaminating spray, or a messy powder. It is colorless, and may be brushed just where you want it, without having to move all your dishes and pots and pans.

Guard against crawling insects this modern NO-ROACH way.
