PATTERNS IN PLAY — Children at play, oftentimes fit themselves unconsciously into roles patterned by their parents. When News Photographer Don Duncan saw the scene set by these local youngsters repairing their wagon, he could pick out the part being played by the four which were similar to those he might expect from an adult group. He saw Leon Collins, 11, as the Master Mechanic being given advice, and perhaps a little trouble, by...

First Assistant, Barry Hunt, 18 months. He saw four-year-old Ellen Collins as an interested spectator. If this were actually an auto repair shop, there would be but one character yet to be portrayed — The Owner. The look of skepticism and a touch of despair makes Marsh Gail Hunt, 3, a natural — she's got to pay the bill — and gosh, she doesn't even know whether that guy knows what he's doing, or not. Government Thrift Drive May Postpone Repair Of Spillway

Members of a House subcommittee last week indicated economic trends in the government will make justification of a project to repair the McClellan lake spillway difficult. E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the local chamber of commerce, and Bill Stubbs, Alameda, returned Friday night from Washington, D. C., where they appeared before a subcommittee hearing Thursday to present matters pertaining to appropriations for the agriculture committee.

Over $60,000 In Bills Paid By County

Bills totaling more than $60,000 were approved for payment by Gray county commissioners during a meeting of the group in the courthouse yesterday. Largest single figure approved was $21,927.01, which was for road and bridge 1, $7750; radio equipment, $1881; Letors Fire department, $353.75; Pampa Fire department, $1122.50; and court house insurance, $1431.40.

March Comes In Like Lion

True to the old saying — at least for Pampa — March came in like a lion. But last night's hard showers made March a wet lion and a real lion. The rain started about 8 p. m. following a fog that rolled in early in the evening. March's lion-like entrance got off to an early start when high winds and colder weather hit the area Friday morning, sending temperatures downward as much as 28 degrees in 30 minutes.

Over 12,000 Eligible To Vote In Gray

Between 12,000 and 12,000 Gray county voters will be eligible to vote in 1952 elections, county officials said yesterday. In addition to 9530 poll tax receipts issued at the tax collector's office, "over and under" exemptions will raise the figure to over 12,000. Charlie Thut, county clerk, said this year's figure is a record for Gray county with a count of 2006 more issued than in 1951.

Service Crew On Wildcat Strike For Increase In Wages

Twenty employees of Windsor Servicing Co. went out on a wildcat strike here early Saturday demanding a 25-cent an hour increase in wages. The group is not connected with any other union, a spokesman said Saturday. Operators said they will not meet the increase. Supervisory personnel will complete the work now underway by the oil well servicing unit and then suspend operations until the strikers return.

Dick Pepin Is Made Captain In Army Reserve

City Manager Dick Pepin recently was promoted to captain in the army reserve, officials reported Saturday. The promotion became effective Jan. 17. Pepin is a member of the corps of engineers and commands a battery of an engineering battalion in Amarillo. The city official was discharged from the Army in 1945 after serving in the Far East. After being active in the local reserves he was transferred to the Amarillo corps.

Information For Possible Airline Use Sought By C-C

Local businesses and organizations yesterday received questionnaires from the local chamber of commerce which will determine the representation in helping Pioneer Air line establish service here. The air line recently filed with the Civil Aeronautics board an application to provide service here which, if approved, will provide direct service to Vernon, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth and Dallas in addition to connections with existing routes already served by Pioneer.

Truman To Make Wide Appeal For Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman will carry to the country his fight for a $7,900,000,000 foreign aid program with a nationwide radio and television address Thursday night. He is expected to appeal for public support in what may be a fight with critical Congress.

Upton Close Slated To Speak For Knife-Fork Club March 10

Upton Close, radio commentator and author, will be the featured speaker at a meeting of the Top o' Texas Knife and Fork club at 7:30 p. m. March 10 in the Pampa High school cafeteria. Close was born in the Pacific Northwest, spending his early years on an Indian reservation along the Columbia river. He was graduated from an eastern college and then went to China as an intelligence officer during World War I. In the following years he became a familiar figure in the Chinese revolution.

At about the same time, Congress is expected to receive the President's program for new overseas military and economic aid, calling for about $7,900,000,000 in fresh appropriations. The President will speak over all major radio and television networks between 9:30 and 10 p. m. (CST) Thursday, the White House announced. He is expected to underline Secretary of State Acheson's contention that the foreign aid program "deserves our utmost support."

Red Cross Begins Drive Toward Goal

The advance drive for the 1952 Red Cross fund got underway in Pampa yesterday with previous contributions already totaling over one hundred dollars. Goal for Gray county is $12,326. Saturday's drive was directed by members of the local Business and Professional Women's club who canvassed Pampa firms. Mrs. W. A. York, president of the B. and P. W., said the advance drive will continue Monday and that donation cards left with employers and employees will be picked up Saturday.

EARL LEWIS

Three-Way Race Set Up As Lewis Files For Constable

Earl Lewis, longtime Pampa resident, filed Saturday for constable, Precinct 2, and set up a three-way race for the post. Lewis was preceded by Hauty Doggett and Robin Tibbets. Tibbets said Saturday he had not decided yet whether to withdraw from the race. Lewis, a resident of Gray county for over fifty years, was born in Roberts county March 18, 1888, and has served public office two times. He served as deputy sheriff under the late Earl Talley in 1938 and eight years as constable. He filled the office for

Code Provides For Filling Sen. Vacancies

Methods of electing a senator or filling a U. S. senatorial vacancy may be "old stuff" for the more experienced voters, but to the first, and probably the second-time voters it may be something altogether new. Senators serve six-year terms. This year there will be an election for U. S. senator because the term of Sen. Tom Connally is expiring. Next election year (1954) there will be an election for the expiring term of Sen. Lyndon Johnson. Because of the six-year staggered term system, there was no senatorial election in 1950. Nor will there be one in 1956. The year 1958 will be the election year for the term of whoever is elected this year.

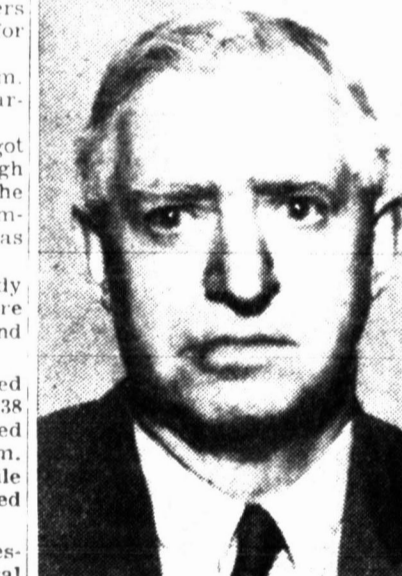

Fighters Needed

SINGAPORE — (AP) — The British Army in Singapore and Malaya is trying to get more men into the front lines as the expense of those in the rear grows. High-ranking officers, noting that the low proportion of rear echelon personnel to frontline troops in the Russian and Chinese Communist armies, say it is "essential" that the British army reduce its rear area staffs.

Fred Paronto Files For County Post

Former city commissioner F. H. Paronto yesterday became fourth person to file for the Democratic primary as county commissioner and the third to seek the post in Precinct 2. Others who previously have filed for county commissioner are J. W. Graham, reelection, and E. C. Schaffer, both for Precinct 2, and Paul Bowers for Precinct 3. Paronto, who has held the city commissioner position two terms, moved to Pampa from Clay Center, Kan., in 1916. He is engaged in the welding business and lives at 831 S. Russell. To date seven county candidates have filed for election or reelection in major offices: J. T. Maguire, Jr., county judge; Ola Gregory, treasurer; Charlie Thut, clerk; F. E. Leech, tax assessor; collector; R. H. Jordan, sheriff; Dee Patterson, district clerk, and B. R. Nuckols, county superintendent of public schools.

SHADES OF TWENTIES — Even the young people like to remember the "Roaring Twenties" — that is as it has been told to them by their parents: These costumes, worn by members of the junior class of Pampa High school are typical of those seen during a "hipper party" of the class in the high school Saturday night as well as authentic. Beggar Finds Home

SINGAPORE — For six years, since the end of a war in which she lost her parents, little Puckam had been wandering the streets of Singapore as a beggar.

One day not long ago, the 15-year-old girl asked a young schoolgirl for alms. Replying that she had no money with her, the schoolgirl invited Puckam to go home with her to see some one to eat. Puckam enjoyed her meal so much that the mother of her newly-found friend asked her to remain with them.

Adoption papers have now been filed and Puckam has a new home and parents too.

Oilmen Will Hear Association Leader

AMARILLO — Panhandle oilmen will hear several current problems affecting the petroleum industry when they gather in Amarillo March 5 to honor Robert F. Windfohr of Fort Worth, president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn. E. L. "Mr. Windfohr is touring the state to discuss the association's program with petroleum industry leaders in the various regions," Green said. "Because he is looked to as a spokesman for the industry in Texas, we expect a large turnout."

Windfohr will be accompanied to Amarillo by two of the Texas mid-continent's administrative officers, Andrew M. Howsley of Albany, vice-president and general counsel, and Charles E. Simons of Dallas, executive vice-president. The Texas mid-continent chief, an independent oil operator, was elected to his present post last October at the association's annual meeting in Beaumont. He succeeded R. B. Anderson of Vernon. He is a partner in the oil firms of Nash and Windfohr,

Stock Being Replaced For Pampan's Shop

A $3000 loss to the Dick pet shop one mile south of Pampa on Highway 20 is being replenished gradually from contributions both locally and nationally.

Fire last November completely destroyed a bird house belonging to Dick, including the birds' equipment. Only $1700 was recovered through insurance.

At present, 58 birds from contributors in the area and throughout the nation have been donated to help Dick restore his stock.

In addition, nearly $1000 has been given through money and materials. One local carpenter has estimated materials for placing the building lost in the fire will cost $1700, leaving $300 still needed.

Various local organizations and firms have donated materials for the construction, and others agreed to supply materials and labor in painting and wiring the new building.

Although money still is needed, construction of the new pet shop got underway about two weeks ago. It was soon halted, however, because of bad weather.

Included among the 58 birds

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing. How quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe your own. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Baracelate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help you slim, more graceful curves, if you double pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO (AP) — Grain pushed their way upward on the board of trade Saturday with quite a bit of strength developing in soybeans, particularly the March contract. Wheat lagged on the advance. More short-covering and investment buying entered corn and oats, largely on the theory that these cereals have been oversold. A forecast for light moisture in the western sections of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas discouraged buying of wheat.

Wheat closed unchanged to 1/4 higher, corn 1/4-1/2 higher, oats 1/4 to 1 cent higher, rye 1/4-1/2 higher, soybeans 1/2 to 3 cents higher, and land 3 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher.

There was a good deal of short covering in March soybeans in view of the large open interest and the relatively small supplies here.

For the week wheat ended 2 1/2-5% lower, corn 1 to 3% lower, oats 1 to 1 1/4 lower, rye 2 1/2 to 4 cents lower, soybeans 1/2 to 1 1/4 higher and land 27 to 50 cents lower.

Universal Homes Dealers Meet Here To Outline Sales

A district meeting of dealers for Universal Homes met at 7 p. m. Thursday for dinner in the Schneider Hotel and a meeting in the Pine room.

L. F. Broderson, general sales manager of Enid, Okla., was the main speaker of the evening. Broderson spoke on the advantage of Universal Homes, especially for ranches and farms. Construction was another point stressed. The homes are made of No. 1 material except the subfloor which is made of No. 2 material. The homes contain four-stair heating systems, tile baths, textile walls and all wood cabinets.

Broderson explained that those who wish to see the homes in construction should notify the dealer in his district and arrange an appointment to go through the factory at 725 N. Grand in Amarillo.

The Universal Homes was formerly known as the Mobil Homes. Any further information may be had from any dealer in the district.

Dealers present were: M. B. Welch, Panhandle; "Doc" Alexander, Borger; Odos Caraway, Clarendon; John R. Collard, Spearman; Shelby C. Bell, Clarendon; G. H. Epperich, Perryton; Glenn Waggoner, Spearman; G. C. Alexander, Abilene; H. T. Hightower, Memphis; John I. Bradley, Pampa; Mrs. John Bradley, Pampa; Sibyl Weston, Pampa; R. B. Duncan, sales manager, Amarillo; M. J. Thorne, manager, Amarillo; Broderson, general sales manager, of Enid.

The unexpected term of Paris Hess last year, is the lone candidate for three vacancies which will be caused by the expiration of terms of Kemp, J. C. Claborn and Guy Hibler. At Wednesday noon, neither Claborn nor Hibler had filed for re-election.

The city election is to be held on the first Tuesday in April, which this year falls on April 1. The election of the McLean Independent School board's two open positions will be held on April 5, the first Saturday of the month. The deadline on filing for the positions is March 26.

Gainesville's 'Intrepid' Citizens In Annual Circus

GAINESVILLE, Tex. — (AP) — There appears to be no limit to the versatility of the Intrepid Gainesville citizens who participate in the Gainesville community circus.

A new addition to the show this year is a "cat" act. David Hoover, 22-year-old Air Force sergeant, is the lion tamer and he will have a trio of cats in the steel arena the Gainesville circus recently acquired especially for this number.

Hoover has 50 stitches in his right shin — a result of a first personal encounter with the fangs of a cat. He spent several days in a Lubbock hospital as the result.

He is stationed at Ferrin field as a chaplain's assistant, and when it was suggested that lion taming was an odd avocation for a chaplain's helper, his retort was "you have to stay close to God when you work cats."

The Gainesville circus is "putting on the dog" this year because the Circus Fans Assn. of America is holding its annual convention here in connection with the circus' opening engagement May 7, 8 and 9. In fact, the show's opening was postponed three weeks to accommodate the fans association.

It will be the first convention of the 26-year-old fans club with an amateur circus. The Gainesville circus has made an important contribution to keeping the circus before the public, says Karl Kae Knecht of Evansville, Ind., national president. Knecht has been editorial cartoonist for the Evansville Courier 43 years.

Gerry, Gainesville show's baby elephant, is learning new tricks under the tutelage of Vern Brewer, for 20 years the show's animal trainer.

John W. Campbell, high school band director, will have a 15-piece circus band made up of the best of his school musicians. Training the acrobats and acrobats are two Gainesville housewives turned circus performers, Peggy O'Neal and Betty Brewer. But they have much assistance from a score of professional performers with two circuses that have wintered at the Gainesville fair-grounds the past winter.

L. F. O'Neal, cotton buyer and H. E. Newberry, PMA administrator, are the producing clowns. They took over from F. E. Schmitz, automobile dealer, who is the show's n.a. president this year. Schmitz succeeds Roy A. Stamps, who had served 14 years.

Only four of the original 150 persons who were in the first performance of the circus May seems to be no limit to the versatility of the Intrepid Gainesville citizens who participate in the Gainesville community circus.

McLean Has Single Candidate Filing For Aldermanship

McLEAN — Jess Kemp is the only candidate that has filed for the office of city alderman in McLean.

The deadline was Saturday, and Kemp, who was elected to fill the vacancy in 1939, is still members. They are A. Morton Smith, founder and director of performance; J. E. Saylor, secretary-treasurer; and Alex Murrell and Dr. S. M. Yarbrough, clowns.

But more than 1,500 persons have taken part in the show in 23 seasons. Several new acrobats this year are daughters of girl performers of 20 years ago.

The opening in Gainesville will be accompanied by the circus roundup of which Dr. A. A. Davenport is president. The association will stage a parade, coronation of a circus queen, queen's ball, Future Farmers and 4-H club boys fat stock show and will decorate the town with flags and bunting.

Call out the Reserves with a touch of your toe!

Most cars lead a double life. A good part of the time, they're running errands, taking children to school, taking women to stores, taking men to work, taking family and friends to clubs and social functions.

It doesn't call for a very great output of horsepower for duties like these.

But there are times when you want a car that can do vastly more, and these are the times when you'll want what this year's ROADMASTER has to offer.

Beneath its proud hood, there's a Fireball 8 Engine—a valve-in-head that can let loose 170 lively horsepower when needed.

And—alongside this engine—there's also an Airpower carburetor which thriftily feeds fuel and air through two smaller-than-usual barrels for normal driving—which means that you now use less gas at 40 than you'd formerly use at 30.

But there are two barrels in reserve—waiting for you to call them into action—and they let loose a soaring rush of power that sinks your shoulders back into the seat cushion, swoops you past a truck—out of a tight spot—up a hill—sets your speedometer needle to registering added miles more than twice as fast as your watch can tick off the seconds.

This is an experience you certainly should know firsthand.

You should also know how Buick's Power Steering* provides a helping hand in slow-motion maneuvers—lets you keep the "feel" of the car in straightaway driving.

And just for good measure, this '52 ROADMASTER also has the biggest brakes of any postwar Buick—the greatest trunk space since spare tires moved off the front fenders—a warning light that glows when the parking brake is set—and to top it all, the smartest interior fabrics that Buick has ever offered.

When are you coming in to look this distinguished performer over? We urge you to make it soon.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Optional at extra cost on ROADMASTER only.

Stock Being Replaced For Pampan's Shop

A $300 loss to the Dick pet shop one mile south of Pampa on the highway is being replenished gradually from contributions both locally and nationally.

Fire last November completely destroyed a bird house belonging to Dick, including 25 birds of equipment. Only $1700 was recovered through insurance.

At present, 58 birds from contributors in the area and the nation have been donated to help Dick restore his stock.

In addition, nearly $1000 has been given through money and materials. One local carpenter has estimated materials for placing the building lost in the fire will cost $1700, leaving $300 still needed.

Various local organizations and firms have donated materials for the construction, and others have agreed to supply materials and labor in painting and wiring the new building.

Although money still is needed, construction of the new pet shop got underway about two weeks ago. It was soon halted, however, because of bad weather.

Included among the 58 birds contributing are 23 canaries, 20 parakeets, eight zebra finches, four jaba rice birds, two cockatiels and one ring neck laughing dove. These came from citizens and organizations in Pampa, Amarillo, Borger, Panhandle, Groom, Shamrock, Valeria, Storm Lake, Ia., Gaymon, Okla., Kansas City, Mo., and Sierra Madre, Calif.

Transportation Costs Considered

Processors, distributors and other sellers of cottonseed feed products can add transportation costs to the prices they pay their suppliers now, according to H. R. Ghoslon, Lubbock district OPS director.

Feeding of livestock in the Southwestern and Western states has grown critical because of the extreme drought and insect conditions in these Western states. Local shortages of cottonseed meal, hulls, slab, cake and pellets has been due to the fact that the mills cannot crush seed fast enough to meet the heavy demands of feeding.

Heavy transportation has made it impossible to sell cottonseed meal at the regular OPS prices. However, according to Ghoslon, a revised regulation, effective March 3, will enable livestock feed supplies to be moved from surplus to critical areas. The demand for livestock feed has increased 50 percent in the Southwest alone. As there is no actual shortage of cottonseed, the mills, which are working around the clock, must be given time to produce to meet the heavy demand.

CHICAGO GRAIN — (AP) — Grains pushed their way upward on the board of trade Saturday with quite a bit of strength developing in soybeans, particularly the March contract. Wheat lagged on the advance. More short-covering and investment buying entered corn and oats, largely on the theory that these cereals have been overbid, a forecast for light moisture in the western sections of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas discourages buying of wheat.

Wheat closed unchanged to 1/4 higher, corn 1/2-3/4 higher, oats 1/2 to 1 cent higher, rye 1/2-1/4 higher, soybeans 1/2 to 3 cents higher, and hard 3 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher.

There was a good deal of short-covering in March soybeans in view of the large open interest and the relatively short supplies here.

For the week wheat ended 2 1/2-2 3/4 lower, corn 1 to 3/4 lower, oats 1 to 1 1/2 lower, rye 2 1/2 to 4 cents lower, soybeans 1/2 lower to 1 1/4 higher and hard 27 to 50 cents lower.

Universal Homes Dealers Meet Here To Outline Sales

A district meeting of dealers for Universal Homes met at 7 p. m. Thursday for dinner in the Schneider Hotel and a meeting in the Pine room.

L. F. Broderson, general sales manager of Enid, Okla., was the main speaker of the evening. Broderson spoke on the advantage of Universal Homes, especially for ranches and farms. Construction was another point stressed. The homes are made of No. 1 material except the subfloor which is made of No. 2 material. The homes contain four-stair heating systems, tile baths, textile walls and all wood cabinets.

Broderson explained that those who wish to see the homes in construction should notify the dealer in his district and arrange an appointment to go through the factory at 725 N. Grand in Amarillo.

The Universal Homes was formerly known as the Mobil Homes. Any further information may be had from any dealer in the district.

Dealers present were: M. B. Welch, Panhandle; "Doc" Alexander, Borger; Odos Caraway, Clarendon; John R. Collard, Spearman; Shelby C. Bell, Clarendon; G. H. Rupperecht, Perryton; Glenn Waggoner, Spearman; G. G. Alexander, Abilene; H. T. Hightower, Memphis; John I. Bradley, Pampa; Mrs. John Bradley, Pampa; Sibyl Weston, Pampa; R. B. Duncan, sales manager, Amarillo; M. J. Thorne, manager, Amarillo; Broderson, general sales manager, of Enid.

The unexpired term of Faris Hess last year, is the lone candidate for three vacancies which will be caused by the expiration of terms of Kemp, J. C. Claborn and Guy Hibler. At Wednesday noon, neither Claborn nor Hibler had filed for reelection.

The city election is to be held on the first Tuesday in April, which this year falls on April 1. The election of the McLean Independent School board's two open positions will be held on April 5, the first Saturday of the month. The deadline on filing for the positions is March 28.

Gainesville's 'Intrepid' Citizens In Annual Circus

GAINESVILLE, Tex. — (P) — There appears to be no limit to the versatility of the Intrepid Gainesville citizens who participate in the Gainesville community circus.

A new addition to the show this year is a "cat" act. David Hoover, 22-year-old Air Force sergeant, is the lion tamer and he will have a trio of cats in the steel arena the Gainesville circus recently acquired especially for this number.

Hoover has 50 stitches in his right shin to show for his first personal encounter with the fangs of a cat. He spent several days in a Lubbock hospital as the result.

He is stationed at Ferrin field as a chaplain's assistant, and when it was suggested that lion taming was an odd avocation for a chaplain's helper, his retort was "you have to stay close to God when you work cats."

The Gainesville circus is "putting on the dog" this year because the Circus Fans Assn. of America is holding its annual convention here in connection with the circus' opening engagement May 7, 8 and 9. In fact, the show's opening was postponed three weeks to accommodate the fans association.

It will be the first convention of the 26-year-old fans club with an amateur circus. The Gainesville circus has made an important contribution to keeping the circus before the public, says

Karl Kie Knecht of Evansville, Ind., national president. Knecht has been editorial cartoonist for the Evansville Courier 45 years.

Gerry, Gainesville show's baby elephant, is learning new tricks under the tutelage of Vern Brewer, for 20 years the show's animal trainer.

John W. Campbell, high school band director, will have a 15-piece circus band made up of the best of his school musicians. Training the aerialists and acrobats are two Gainesville housewives turned circus performers, Peggy O'Neal and Betty Brewer. But they have much assistance from a score of professional performers with two circuses that have wintered at the Gainesville fair grounds the past winter.

L. F. O'Neal, cotton buyer and H. B. Newberry, PMA administrator, are the producing clowns. They took over from F. E. Schmitz, automobile dealer, who is the show's n.a. president this year. Schmitz succeeds Roy A. Stamps, who had served 14 years.

Only four of the original 150 persons who were in the first performance of the circus may

McLean Has Single Candidate Filing For Aldermanship

McLEAN — Jess Kemp is the only candidate that has filed for the office of city alderman in McLean.

The deadline was Saturday, and Kemp, who was elected to fill the vacancy in 1930, are still members. They are A. Morton Smith, treasurer and director of performance; J. E. Saylor, secretary-treasurer; and Alex Murrell and Dr. S. M. Yarbrough, clowns.

But more than 1,500 persons have taken part in the show in 23 seasons. Several new acrobats this year are daughters of girl performers of 20 years ago.

The opening in Gainesville will be accompanied by the circus roundup of which Dr. A. A. Davenport is president. The association will stage a parade, coronation of a circus queen, queen's ball, Future Farmers and 4-H club boys fat stock show and will decorate the town with flags and hunting.

Call out the Reserves with a touch of your toe!

Most cars lead a double life. A good part of the time, they're running errands, taking children to school, taking women to stores, taking men to work, taking family and friends to clubs and social functions.

It doesn't call for a very great output of horsepower for duties like these.

But there are times when you want a car that can do vastly more, and these are the times when you'll want what this year's ROADMASTER has to offer.

Beneath its proud hood, there's a Fireball 8 Engine—a valve-in-head that can let loose 170 lively horsepower when needed.

And—alongside this engine—there's also an Airpower carburetor which thriftily feeds fuel and air through two smaller-than-usual barrels for normal driving—which means that you now use less gas at 40 than you'd formerly use at 30.

But there are two barrels in reserve—waiting for you to call them into action—and they let loose a soaring rush of power that sinks your shoulders back into the seat cushion, swoops you past a truck—out of a tight spot—up a hill—sets your speedometer needle to registering added miles more than twice as fast as your watch tick off the seconds.

This is an experience you certainly should know firsthand.

You should also know how Buick's Power Steering* provides a helping hand in slow-motion maneuvers—lets you keep the "feel" of the car in straightaway driving.

And just for good measure, this '52 ROADMASTER also has the biggest brakes of any postwar Buick—the greatest trunk space since spare tires moved off the front fenders—a warning light that glows when the parking brake is set—and to top it all, the smartest interior fabrics that Buick has ever offered.

When are you coming in to look this distinguished performer over? We urge you to make it soon.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Optional at extra cost on ROADMASTER only.

Sure is true for '52

Credit Board Sought By Farm Assn.

Guas Greene, Pampa, represented the local National Farm Loan Assn. at recent stockholders' meeting of the Federal Land bank in Houston, E. L. Henderson, secretary-treasurer of the Pampa organization, said yesterday.

The annual meeting was held Feb. 20-21 with stockholders and directors from the entire state attending. Houston is the home for one of 12 land bank districts in the United States.

At the meeting, resolutions were adopted giving support to legislation providing for a 12-man farm credit board to be appointed for staggering six-year terms of office to supervise and regulate the farm credit systems. One member would be selected from each of the 12 land banks.

The effect of such a change, Greene said, would be to replace the present supervising authority who is an appointee of the President.

Stockholders also agreed to support legislation to provide for a separate board of directors of each federal land bank. Such board would consist of five men, all to be elected by the locally owned and operated national farm loan associations who, in turn,

We Do Not Believe in UMT Servitude

The heat has been turned on under the dismal concoction labeled Universal Military Training...

Practically the whole kit and caboodle of the bureaucratic crowd want UMT. The principal people who don't want it, so far as we can see, appear to be the private citizenry...

This newspaper has fought hard against compulsory military training. We have found no good reason to support it...

Compulsory military training, now staring us in the face, means the death of individual freedom for the youth. It is actually "voluntary servitude" in disguise...

It should be quite clear, it seems to us, that when a nation that has as much freedom as we have had even with what we still retain destroys its own individual freedom it doesn't leave itself much to fight for against outsiders...

The Doctor Says

By EDGAR P. JORDAN M. D.

Over the years, there have probably been thousands of methods suggested for determining the sex of a child before his own birth...

Q—No. It must be remembered that even guessing will be right about half the time. There is no method of determining the sex of the unborn child, which has stood up under scientific scrutiny.

Q—Does using tweezers to pull out hairs on the chin promote hair growth on other parts of the face?

A—This procedure may cause the hairs on the chin itself to come out thicker and more conspicuous, but there is no reason to believe that it will promote hair growth on other parts of the face.

Q—In 29 years old and for the past six months have had a pain in my chest. The doctor found my heart and lungs O.K., but X-ray showed stones in the gallbladder. Do you believe this pain could be coming from these gallstones?

A—Yes. Gallstones can cause pain in the chest area.

Q—Please advise on the after-effects of removal of the gallbladder. I had mine removed two years ago shortly before my 77th birthday, and still do not feel well. There was supposed to be soft tissue in the gallbladder. Mrs. F.B.F. Recovery from an operation

Better Jobs

"The Preacher Speaks on Social Problems"

I have been quoting from Faith and Freedom on a survey published in this magazine.

You will note in the following that the preachers are pretty badly mixed up on a tax system that is not based on any uniform laws but is arbitrary. They undoubtedly have the best intentions in the world but they do not seem to realize that taking the man who works his money back into machines instead of helping the poor, as they seem to believe it would, hurts the poor. It does this because when the rich are taxed at a higher rate than the poor it results in poorer tools and the workers have to work with poorer tools and therefore produce less and thus earn less.

I continue to quote from this survey. "If the bulk of preachers seem to reject the underlying tenets of socialism, do they think we in this country are moving toward it?" With socialism comes a corresponding loss of freedom. And a substantial majority of the ministers believe Americans are losing theirs.

Today you hear discussions of our freedoms. Do you feel we Americans are maintaining our freedoms or are we beginning to lose some of them? 71% Maintaining freedoms 24% No opinion 5%

"In principle then, the majority of the ministers surveyed indicated their support of capitalism, their dismissal of socialism, and their belief that freedom was being lost."

"Philosophically, they go a step further. Eighty-four percent (82%) say that it is never justifiable to use an evil means to achieve a good end."

"Nevertheless, this does not mean that ministers reject all features of the welfare state. Much of the balance of the testimony of the preachers adds up to the fact that they, like the public as a whole, tend to think more about good ends than means. Although the clergymen feel we have too much government, there is a reluctance to relinquish any of it in specific cases."

"The government should step up the Social Security taxes deducted from workers' pay, in order to provide additional benefits for those who are unable to provide for themselves. Do you agree or disagree?" Agree 34% Disagree 65% No choice 1%

"Clergymen are firm believers in the concept of freedom yet they frequently support measures which violate the principles of individual liberty. This means that though they are disposed to favor the free way, they are strongly influenced by the good ends of social action. When asked about FEPC, for example, a majority recognize no conflict between the use of government coercion in this instance and freedom. With what is probably more hope than reason, they say that laws can serve to stir and activate national conscience."

"Like the FEPC, some states have laws requiring companies to hire people without discrimination as to race, religion, color, or nationality. Do you think this kind of discrimination is or is not consistent with your idea of individual freedom?" Total Prot. Cath. Yes, consistent 55% 47% 70% Not consistent 27 33 15 Qualified 13 13 3 No opinion 5 5 6

"Only about one in four clergymen concedes that government welfare is a violation of Christian idealism."

"It is said that taxing the rich to help the poor through government welfare is against Christian principles, because it removes the voluntary aspect of true charity. How do you feel about that?" Disagree 64% Agree 23% No opinion 10% Qualified 3%

A—This is not an enormous intake of fluids, but excessive thirst and excessive elimination of urine are among the symptoms of diabetes, and you should probably be tested for this as well as other possibilities.

SPOTLIGHT FOR THE NATION

AS STEEL GOES... SO GOES INFLATION!

By the Hon. Ralph W. Gwinn Member of Congress from New York

At last, the country is becoming aroused over the loss of the constitutional rights of an individual to work where a union shop—or a closed shop—compels him to become an unwilling member of the union. This is a problem of fundamental constitutional rights, which men and women in all walks should be ready to uphold.

Yet, one of the frightening conditions of the present labor-management dispute is the failure of industrial, business leaders to take positions and to lead in labor-management controversies. Even more frightening is the unwillingness of these same industrial leaders to take positions on political issues—liberty as against socialism—because of the use of threats by the party in power, in a dozen different directions where business is now vulnerable through its relationship to government and the party in power.

For example, I have before me the statement of an outstanding leader in industrial relations, concerning actual conditions in labor-management relations, which no one can really know except the business leaders who face the cold steel of the disputes—now being backed by Big Government. The author of this statement is a courageous person; but for policy reasons he is not free to give it widespread distribution to the public.

Feeling strongly, as I do, that the public would benefit from a chance to study the thinking of this eminent industrialist, I secured his permission to present, in this SPOTLIGHT, the fundamentals of a very critical situation, as he sees them.

"The title of this SPOTLIGHT—'As Steel Goes, So Goes Inflation'—he says, is eloquent of the fact that it is not just the cost of making steel that is involved in the big economic and political crisis now before the Wage Stabilization Board. Hundreds of thousands of inflation-accelerating cases will merely be side-tracked until the steel 'express' goes through. What really is involved is a cost of most everything you buy.

On one side is the pressuring group seemingly made up of most national union and government officials. On the other side is a pressure group made up of the whole wage-paying and price-paying and inflation-absorbing public—the public that's going to pay the bill but be kept from realizing it as long as demagogues are allowed to abandon leadership responsibilities by others—can keep employees and public fooled.

There is genuine cause for alarm in fresh indications of how few labor-management and public yet realize that compulsory unionism imposed by government is the most insistent demand and objective of unions in the steel, aluminum, aircraft and other current big pattern-setting cases.

Unions have been making "progress" backward since the last war, when membership was forced up by the kind of help they are again demanding of the government. In the post-war years, the work force has grown by 15 million, while the so-called union membership has stayed around the 16 million war-time mark. Membership is now down to about one-quarter of the country's work force, in spite of 40 million dollars spent on organizing—and almost unlimited aid from government sources.

Union leaders have held out all kinds of allurement to employers—promising to sign technical staffs that an open collapse of the anti-Russian alliance would weaken the Truman Democrats in the forthcoming election, jeopardize General Eisenhower's chances to obtain the Republican nomination and strengthen Taft.

From his speech the general Truman-Acheson-Eisenhower defense concept, questioning their emphasis on European as against Far Eastern problems, continued interests naturally opposed his own. Spite and would dread the dry that he entered the White House.

UNPOPULAR — By comparison with President Truman, Secretary Dean Acheson and General Eisenhower, Senator Taft is looked upon by his open enemies as an outright "isolationist." They associate him with the 1919-1921 "battalion of death" in the Senate, which refused to make the United States a member of the League of Nations.

From his speeches and writings, which foreign diplomatic agents here forward religiously to their chancelleries at home, they suspect that the Ohioan would be less generous in his disturbance of American affairs abroad. They have a greater interest in our 1952 election than in 1940, 1944, and 1948, and the GOP nominees were more internationally-minded.

the national or international political activities of a union. An individual employee should be free to decide whether his funds will be used by a union as economic power against sound public finance, or against sound improvements in equipment and methods, and so hold back what could otherwise be a rise in the scale of living through workers having their day's work and pay provide more goods per person to enjoy.

Absolute power corrupts men and institutions because it prohibits constructive criticism, ignores minority rights, and silences outspoken opposition. Deterioration of public finance, and the union officials, makes the union the master rather than the servant of the employees.

My industrial friend believes that the company he serves has the duty—the duty of all citizens—to uphold the great basic principles of our American Republic, one of the greatest of which is protection of the minority against unrestricted majority rule, and especially against any tyranny of a majority infringing upon the basic constitutional rights of the individual.

National Whirligig... Political Pressures Used in Wrestling Lisbon Agreement

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — The possible election of Senator Robert A. Taft as President and American rearmament of Western Germany on an exclusive basis are two of the high-pressure arguments with which United States delegates wrestled the Lisbon agreement for a European Defense community from the squabbling British, French and German counterparts.

Principal spokesman for the United States was General Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and General Alfred Gruenther, Ike's own chief of staff.

General Eisenhower's failure to participate in the Lisbon talks may spare him a pre-convention visit to Washington that might prove politically embarrassing.

When Congressional committees hold hearings on Lisbon agreements and commitments during discussion of the new foreign aid bill, it is probable that General Bradley and Gruenther will be the chief witnesses for the administration and for SHAPE.

CYNICISM — House and Senate groups handling foreign aid appropriations requested by Truman will demand more light on the cost and composition of the 50-division army blueprinted at Lisbon.

Frankly, skepticism has been expressed already about the program, which impresses many members as a "paper force" that will not materialize in the period mentioned in communications—1952 without far greater contributions of American men and money.

This cynicism is especially strong within the Taft faction. Barring indisputable evidence to the contrary, they are prepared to depict the Lisbon pact as a meaningless document born of 1952 politics rather than military needs and realities.

In plain words, they consider it a desperate effort to "save SHAPE" on the eve of a critical Presidential election. The controversy will probably lead to the most violent and sensational floor fight of the current session.

TREND — Mounting sales of oleomargarine are giving deep concern to producers of butter and allied dairy commodities, as well as to Department of Agriculture advocates of a balanced farm economy. Sales of the yellow and cheaper substitute now exceed those of the rival product, running as high as 60 percent in some sections.

The recent rise in butter prices contributed to the upward trend. Distributors report the many families which once bought the two articles on a 50-50 basis, now use the imitation exclusively.

THE CURIOUS AMERICAN

By WILLIS E. STONE

Ships are in the news again. Stories of American ships were filled with pride. They were symbols of the honest craftsmanship of American private enterprise to all the world.

The recent stories concerning American ships are of a different character. They bring to light strange evidences of political corruption.

The first of the current batch of items concerning American ships is that of the American tankers which broke in two recently during a storm off Cape Cod.

These ships were built by government, to government's specifications, under the jurisdiction of the Maritime Commission the destroyer of our private shipping enterprise and constructed by persons and firms best known for their political regularity and conformity.

These questions should be asked—and answered. 1. Do you know of any ships breaking in two when built by private enterprise, and without political meddling?

Another of the news stories involving American ships connects with the scandalous political corruption charged against Attorney General McGrath and the Department of Justice.

Senator Hoy (D) of No Carolina remembered a year old investigation of lending rackets dug out by federal agencies and dug out by the record.

It seems Newbold Morris headed a group which "bought" eight surplus ships from the government for $101,000, and borrowed $500,000 from the government to deposit the ships as collateral for a $1,000,000 loan.

The third of these stories concerning ships and corruption involves the Dollar Steamship Co. which borrowed money from the government some years ago. They paid back the loan, plus interest, but the government, which peddles ships at bargain prices to political favorites, refuses to return the Dollar line ships to their rightful owner. Even President Truman has defied our courts which have ordered the return of the ships.

Knowing of this corruption is not enough. To outlaw all corrupt social practices we should amend the constitution to provide that: THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES SHALL NOT ENGAGE IN ANY BUSINESS, PROFESSIONAL, COMMERCIAL OR INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISE IN COMPETITION WITH ITS CITIZENS EXCEPT AS SPECIFIED IN THE CONSTITUTION. NOR SHALL THE CONSTITUTION OR LAWS OF ANY STATE, OR THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, BE SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF ANY FOREIGN OR DOMESTIC AGREEMENT WHICH WOULD ABROGATE THIS AMENDMENT.

Belgians Are Penalized For Thrift; Laziness Subsidized

By THURMAN SENSING Southern States Industrial Council

The world-wide habit in recent years of penalizing the policies that make for success was brought to my attention with considerable force the other day when I read a dispatch from Brussels, Belgium, with reference to the current situation in that country. In present, I spent almost three months in Great Britain finding out what happens to a people's freedom and to a people's economy under a socialist government.

Shortly after my return, I made a talk in Shreveport, La., and in the question and answer period that followed, someone asked me to compare the recovery in Belgium and Great Britain following the war. I quote my answer: "Well, I wasn't sent over there to study anything except Great Britain, but at Easter time I found that the British quit work for about a week. It took advantage of the opportunity and spent six days on the continent, two days in Belgium."

I was so struck by the difference that one day, while walking along the streets in Brussels, I walked into the branch office of Chrysler Trust Co., New York and asked to see the manager, whom I found to be a Belgian. I said to him that the difference in the recovery in Brussels and London was so striking I just wondered how he would explain it.

"Well," he said, "at the close of the war we took the exact opposite course from Great Britain. We removed all rationing and price control. We encouraged production; we filled our shops with goods so the people would see them and have an incentive to go out and work and earn some money to come in and buy them. We have made remarkable recovery."

"And then he added this: 'But I want to tell you something. When you folks started Marshall aid, you sent your representatives over, and they came here to Belgium and said to us, 'You've made good recovery here in Belgium. You don't need so much Marshall aid.' He went on to say that if the Belgians had sat still and done nothing, they would have received more help from us than they did receive. And he said, 'That's hard to explain to the Belgian people.'"

"Well, I told him that it was hard for some of us in the United States to understand, too, why we were penalizing thrift and subsidizing laziness, which is exactly what we were doing."

All this came back to me as I read the dispatch mentioned above. Belgium has remained prosperous through these three years, but now it is being further penalized for this prosperity. The North Atlantic Treaty Organization—"baby," by the way—is demanding a 52 percent boost in Belgium's current defense spending. This is far beyond the increase asked of the other NATO nations.

Let's look at the facts: Belgium is the only remaining bastion of free economy policies among Europe's Atlantic pact members. It has shunned controls, it has led the way in freeing trade, it has kept its budget balanced, it has employed a free monetary policy. It has worked hard at increasing production and building up exports. It has been rigorously effective in its tax collections.

Now the Belgians think it ironic, indeed, that they should be penalized because they followed this free economy formula. The Belgians attribute their strength and prosperity to these economic policies, and they do not see why they now should be expected to give up their free labor to subsidize their neighbors, who chose to follow a different road. I don't either! and if the Atlantic Pact officials insist upon it, they are to be unequivocally condemned by all those who believe in free enterprise and oppose socialism. The American people should not support any such policy.

THE UNION SHOP ISSUE (The Wall Street Journal)

In quite a number of current wage-disputes the so-called union shop is at issue. In one of them a board appointed by President Truman has recommended that the union with voluntary check-off of union dues, be established for about a million non-operating employees of the railroads. Neither party is yet obliged to accept the recommendation. But the possibility that an influential precedent may be set by the outcome of this case cannot be ignored.

There is more than one approach to a union shop, which differs slightly from the closed shop. Under the former, where it exists, the employer may engage those who are not union members, but such persons are required to join the union within a fixed time and must remain "in good standing" by paying dues. Under the latter, only members of the union which is the authorized bargaining agency for the employees may be hired.

One of the approaches to the union shop is provided for by the Taft-Hartley law. If the employers and a majority of the employees, making their choice in an election supervised by the National Labor Relations Board, agree on a union shop it becomes effective. There is no legal avenue to the closed shop, as a practical matter it exists wherever the employer has no wish to take on non-unionists or cannot find any qualified to do the work.

The union shop, as now recommended by a presidential board for a major part of the railroad employees, would be a measure of coercion to union membership. But it would be the coercion of organized labor, perhaps exercised in this instance by the companies, rather than of the part of the employers unless these accepted the recommendation of the board—as they do not appear to be inclined to do.

It happens that the railroads of the United States are all legally in the possession of the Government and are being operated, though only in a nominal sense, by the Army. This fact suggests the possibility of governmental pressure on the railroad companies to yield, lest worse befall. If such pressure were exerted it would be to the benefit of the employees, but not primarily that of their employers.

In this case, as probably in most others where the union shop is at issue, its establishment would add something to the physical strength of the companies, but not to their moral stature, which it could only weaken. The non-operating railroad unions have said that their present membership includes all but about 15% of the employees involved. To this small minority they apply the contemptuous description of "free riders," meaning that the minority enjoy the advantages of union representation without paying anything for them.

That seems to mean that the unions have somehow failed to render union membership sufficiently attractive to the minority to bring them in voluntarily. So the unions attempt to force them in and may shortly be asking the Government to help them coerce men who may have other reasons than "free riding" for declining to join. If the railroad companies object to the board's recommendations—the unions could doubtless strike, backing one attempted resort to force with another.

We believe that tactics of this sort work against the cause of labor in the longer run. But whether they do or not, the Government of a supposedly free people should take no part in the coercion game.

A middle-aged lady was chatting with a friend of hers. "An approaching age of 46," she said. Her friend looked at her for a moment, then inquired: "From which direction, darling?"

NEW YORK (AP) — Roscoe Browne of the New York Pioneer club, assistant dean of men at Morgan State college, gave Don Gehrman a lesson in holding on in the stretch and won the half-mile run in the Knights of Columbus games at Madison Square garden last night.

Thus Browne, one of the top middle distance runners in the country, squashed Gehrman's effort to score a double in the games. The skinny Wisconsin whiz also was scheduled to run the mile against Fred Will.

Gehrman held back too long, and was coming on fast in the end. Had the race gone another lap, he probably would have won it. Browne took over with two laps to go, after Reggie Pearman, a Pioneer club teammate, had led from the start.

He opened up light over Pearman going into the final lap. But then Gehrman, who was wallowing in fourth place, made his bid with just about three-fourths of a lap to go. He did manage to get past Pearman, who beat him at the same distance last week. But Browne held doggedly on until the finish.

Pearman was third and Harry Bright, another Pioneer club member, crossed the line fourth. Gehrman was caught in 1:54.7 as was Pearman.

In the final analysis, it was Gehrman's poor strategy in jockeying through the race with his rivals instead of whipping to the front that cost him the test.

Greer's
 Gossip

By HOGAN O'SNEAD

Thursday, the 70-degree temperature sent quite a number of people out to the local links to begin spring training, at a very moderate pace, of course. From gossip gathered here and there, several strange things happened on Thursday.

First: Aaron Sturgeon, a fine baseball player in years gone by, who had to give up the game because of a broken bat scored the best round of his golfing career. The big, jovial character scored a two under par 34 on the front side with birdies on numbers three and seven and straight pars on the other seven. He went on to score a 41 on the back side for a five 75 over his best round to date. Congratulations to you Mr. Sturgeon.

The Citizens Bank and Trust can well be proud of one of its employees, Floyd Watson. The man with the catching smile had his best nine holes round today as a fine 38 on the outgoing nine. It's a shame that his old pals, Kicks, Jack Nimmo and Rapi Gardner, weren't there to see the round. Congratulations, Floyd, sincerely hope your game continues to improve.

Saw a couple of groun-squirrels the other day and according to Raymond Harrah, Jr., spring can't be too far away.

Saw Miriam Luedders, Floy Heath, Jean Duennkel and Beth Heiskell hitting the ball one day last week. They didn't turn in a card, however, I'm pretty sure their score was okay. Irvy Abbott and Peggy Harvey from Berger made up a foursome with Orpha Mitchell and Marge Austin. Mrs. Abbott had a fine 87. The other three weren't talking.

Numerous players have asked about the dates for our local tournaments. Jim Lina, tournament director for men and Allee Whittle, ladies tournament director, will have these dates ready with in the next couple of weeks. Looks like the golfers are going to have a busy year.

Saw Bob Baker working with his short iron last Wednesday. He swings from the wrong side and does a fine job of it too.

Big Bill Miller, a transplanted Texan from Kentucky, will be able to play more golf this year. Bill is a long ball hitter and is going to make it interesting with a little more practice he for a lot of Pampa golfers.

The Panhandle Men's Assn. will have its first meeting the latter part of this month at Phillips; so all you fellows are urged to get in a few practice rounds before then.

Colleges Plan To Form New League

BROWNSVILLE — (AP) — South Texas colleges have announced plans to organize a new athletic league — the Rio Grande conference. Representatives of the schools — Texas Southmost college, Brownsville, Pan-American college of Uvalde — met here Friday. John Barron, president of Texas Southmost said the new con-

Bearder Hopes For Starting Position

BURBANK, Calif. — (AP) — Gene Bearder, who helped Bill Veack and the Cleveland Indians to a pennant in 1948, wants to be a starter again now that he's with the St. Louis Browns. Once more contracted by Veack, Bearder pitched only 109 innings last season with the Washington Senators and the Detroit Tigers. Bearder plans to limit player aid to tuition. The group will hold a meeting next week in Harlingen.

Basketball Tourney Will Open Monday

WACO — (AP) — The State Junior College Basketball tournament will open here Monday night with Lon Morris of Jacksonville meeting Howard County Junior college of Big Spring in the first game. Director Pete Jones announced that Allen Academy of Bryan will meet South Texas Junior college of Houston in the second game. The Browns got the southpaw in recent trade with the Tigers. The Browns hope to break out into the sunshine again today after being idled by rain. If so, game-winner Ned Garver will oppose Southpaw Tommy Byrne of a squad game. WARREN'S WARMUP

By BOB DIXON (Batting for Warren Hasse) Basketball's stunt-happy, travel-happy Harlem Globetrotters will make an appearance at the Armory in Amarillo tomorrow night against the Noblitt-Coffey Chiefs. It will be "Katie bar the door" when these hardwood demons try to make things miserable for the Chiefs. If anybody can do it these boys can. This is the number two squad of the Trotters and they will not have the Goose Tatums or the Marq Haynes along. Babe Pressley, however, will be there and that should be enough to give the fans an evening of fun. Abe Saperstein, owner of the Trotters, stated the number two squad is just as good as the first and that the only reason that they are divided is to give the people around the country a chance to see them. Playing approximately 350 games a year, they hit every state in the union and practically every country in the world. To put it more aptly, as one writer did, could be this way: "First man to reach the moon was startled to see this sign: Basketball Tonight: Globetrotters vs. Men of Mars. If this could be possible, the Trotters would surely be the ones to do it." During 1950 the Trotters traveled over the earth every which way until they had gone a distance of 125,000 miles. Attendance for their games during this span was roughly 2,000,000. Biggest crowd of their career was last summer as they played before 75,000 excited fans in Berlin, Germany. Reason for this game was to counteract the East Berlin Communist Youth rally which was going on at the same time. Being good ambassadors they are, the Trotters quickly agreed to play when the call was put out to them. During their lifetime the Trotters have a phenomenal win and lost record. In the 24 years they have been barnstorming they have won 3421 games and lost only

Red River Valley Basketball Tourney Set For March 7-8

The Red River Valley Athletic conference of colored schools will hold its Second Annual District tournament at Carver school here March 7-8. Nine schools will be shooting it out for top honors in what has been one of the most unpredictable seasons in conference history. Junior circuit schools have won over senior circuits, and senior schools have won and lost to each other more than one time. Pampa and Borger being concrete examples. But Childress and Paducah are no exception to the rule. Conference standing will mean nothing however, in tournament play. Schools were recently classified according to enrollment and then seeded by drawing. This new procedure puts all schools on an equal footing and gives each an equal chance for choice honors. No school will want to lose any of the glamour it has shown all year. The feeling is that "if we have consistently won, we can win the district." On the other hand there is the feeling on the part of the losers that the freaks that caused their loss should turn and "Dame Fortune" should now be on their side. Such feelings are sure to produce a conference filled with tense and dramatic moments. Play will get underway March 7 at 2 p.m. with the junior circuit school riding the crest. There will be five sessions. Friday: 1st session — 3 to 7 p.m., second session, 7 p.m. to 10:30 Saturday, 1st session, 11 to 2:00 p.m., 2nd session, 3 to 6 p.m., Championship, 7 p.m. to 10:30 awarding of honors. Annual programs will be printed and sold throughout the areas of each school. Admissions for the tournament will be 50 cents per session for adults and 25 cents for children. The public is invited and a special invitation is extended to the white citizens of Pampa.

Phil Signs Big Contract

ST. PETERSBURGH, Fla. — (AP) — Phil Rizzuto today signed his New York Yankee contract for an estimated $45,000, making him the highest paid shortstop in baseball history. The figure represents a raise of about $5,000 for the 33-year-old infielder.

Other short fielders, such as Lou Boudreau and Joe Cronin, have been paid larger salaries, but they served as managers of their teams as well.

Rizzuto joined 47 other players as the complete squad of the champions, excepting Bobby Brown and Casey Stengel, who were reported to Manager Casey Stengel yesterday. Brown has signed his contract because he is expecting a call to military duty.

Wrestling Card Is Announced

An advance ticket sale will be held at the Sportsman Store Wednesday from 1 to 6 p. m.

Fireman, Collegian Finalists In Florida Golf Tournament

MIAMI, Fla. — (AP) — A college boy from Philadelphia and a fireman from West Palm Beach, Fla., advanced into the finals of the Dixie Amateur Golf tournament yesterday.

Joe Brooke, 23-year-old University of Miami student from Philadelphia, defeated Lloyd Ribner, from New York, 2 and 1, and Dub Pagan eliminated Jimmy Faul of Daytona Beach, Fla., 3 and 2 in the semifinals.

Brooke, who ousted Defending Champion W. Y. Stember of Miami in the quarterfinals, was two down to Ribner at the 10th but won as his opponent folded after the 14th. Ribner was a stroke over par at the 15th and 16th and two over on the 17th. Pagan had a one-hole lead over Ribner.

Justice Signs
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Charles Justice signed a one-year contract yesterday to play football for the Washington Redskins.

Justice, who was an all-America half back while at the University of North Carolina, played in eight games of the Washington pro team of 1950.

Lefors Star Enters NTSC

LEFORS — (Special) — Bill Combs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Combs, has entered the Texas State college at Denton.

Combs, one of Lefors all-time greats at football, visited the Hardin-Simmons university football freshman team to an undefeated season in 1950.

During 1951, Combs studied at Amarillo Center of West Texas state college and served as a junior high school football official.

Odus Mitchell, former Pampa Harvester coach who now manages the NTSC "Eagles," predicts great things for the ex-Pirate and says he will be a big help to the Eagles' aspiration for big time recognition.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — (AP) — St. Louis Cardinals outfielder and top hitter of the National League, demonstrates the batting form which makes him the terror of opposing hurlers. The ball can be seen as a blur just in front of Musial's hands as it bounces off the bat whipped around by Musial's "unwinding" technique. ## Training Camp Briefs

SARASOTA, Fla. — (AP) — Yes, today was more than the official starting point of the training season to Boston Red Sox General Manager Joe Cronin — he talked turkey with his three unsigned stars, Ted Williams, Billy Goodman and Johnny Pesky.

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. — The Pittsburgh Pirates coaching staff went into a huddle yesterday to determine what members of the rookie camp will be retained to work out with the big regulars.

General Manager Branch Rickey, aware the Buc pitching staff is weak, indicated most of the players who will be permitted to stay on will be hurlers.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — (AP) — Shortstop Gran Hamner has signed a 1952 contract to trim the number of Philadelphia Phillies holdouts to three—Third Baseman Willie Jones, Relief Hurler Jim Konstanty and Infielder Connie Ryan.

TAMPA, Fla. — The railbirds gaped and Luke Sewell beamed Friday as Cincinnati's ace pitcher, Evel Blackwell, wound up and let fly.

It was Blackie's rubbery ease when throwing that got them, Redleg Skipper Sewell immediately popped off this away:

"This is my fourth year with the club and I've never seen Blackie look better. On what he showed me today, he can't miss winning 20 or more for us this season."

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (AP) — Pitching and fielding took the spotlight as the St. Louis Cardinals completed their first intra-squad game Friday—a six-inning stint that ended 1-1. Each team collected two hits.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (AP) — By GAYLE TALBOT
PHOENIX, Ariz. — (AP) — Hanne Urbanus, the greatest baseball pitcher in the North American League, has made an amazing discovery since he came out here as a guest of the New York Giants.

For years Hanne has been standing the batters of Rotterdam on their heads as he speaks, yells his fast ball and a sneaky curve, and yet he finds that he has been giving his natural enemies all the best of it. He can't wait to get back home and show those batters the new Hanne.

"Somebody," he explains, "read the rule book wrong. All this time we've understood that a pitcher had to have both feet flat on the ground when he delivered the ball. Like this."

He wound up and strode a step with his right foot, being a right-hander, and then threw from a completely locked position. He didn't follow through with his back foot. In other words, and you should try it some time.

"Honest," he said, "that's the way we thought we had to pitch. We interpreted the rule wrong. We thought you could only use your arm. This is wonderful now that I know I can get my body behind the pitch."

Today he was scheduled to try his hand at throwing the ball past big league batsmen for the first time. He was understandably nervous at the prospect, but happy, too. Manager Leo Durocher had advised him he was one of six pitchers who would work out a couple of innings apiece in an intra-squad tussle.

"I'm afraid it will not be very even," Hanne said. "Now that see how your pitchers throw, with that what you call the big follow-through, I know I do not pitch very well. Believe me, I will tell them when I get home."

Strangely enough, all his awkward deliveries, Hanne throws pretty good. It is sidarm stuff mostly, because that's about the only way you can throw with both feet on the ground, but he manages to win six surprising lot of speed. As he learns to stride forward with the pitch, they say his fast one even has a little hop.

"Why, Hanne was asked, didn't he stay over here and perhaps see if he could make the grade with one of the Giants' minor league clubs. The Giants are willing, and he would be quite a drawing card. A lot of American boys would like the opportunity."

"I wish I could," Hanne said. "I would love it. But I've got to get back to my job. Maybe they will let me come another time."

Durocher is day-dreaming that he will have Willie Mays playing centerfield for him until the middle of June. Willie has been accepted by his draft board, but Leo has noted that the boys are not being called up very fast these days.

"I've told uncle Sam I'll trade him three for one," the manager pontificated. "If he'll let me keep Willie I'll send him three good boys."

HOWARD J. C. WINS
PLAINVIEW — (AP) — Howard County Junior College, Big Spring, beat Amarillo Junior College, 45-40, Friday night for basketball championship of the west zone of the Texas Junior College conference.

in 40 games and was recalled by the Yanks. He wound up hitting .267 with the Yankees but fanned 74 times in 98 games. However, he drove in 65 runs with 13 homers.

Mantle was reminded that he was being groomed as the successor to Joe DiMaggio in centerfield and didn't think there would be pressure applied on that score?

"Who said I was DiMaggio's successor?" Mantle questioned. "I don't consider myself any one can anyone think that when I haven't proved yet I can play here regularly? I'm just out to win a regular job. I don't even know if I can make it, although I'm going to try my best."

What about his right knee, the one he injured in the second game of the 1951 world series?

"It is getting stronger all the time," Mantle answered. "I don't think it will bother me much."

Fighting Freshman Decisions Prudent

NEW YORK — (AP) — Chico Vejar, the fighting freshman from N. Y. U., decided to experience the college life in a fast, action-packed 10-round Friday night.

His Madison Square garden victory over the Paterson, N. J. veteran was his fourth of the year, his eighth straight triumph and his 40th win in 41 bouts. He started boxing as a pro on March 25, 1950.

The swarthy, Stamford, Conn., youngster had to put on a strong finish to keep his latest winning streak intact. Pruden dropped him for six with a long left to stagger the Connecticut kid several other times.

But Chico roared back with flying fists and made the transplanted Canadian break ground. In the final round, Chico, a 2 to 1 favorite, chased Pruden all left jabs and short rights to the over the ring, battering him with head.

Plan Awards For Shamrock Athletes

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Shamrock Irish athletes will be honored at a special athletic awards chapel scheduled to be held at the high school auditorium here April 14.

Scott McCall, Irish head coach, and his assistants — Clarence Morris and H. W. Callan — will direct the awards, which will go to football, basketball and boxing athletes for letters and special honors.

Some Irish athlete will be chosen for the all-around athletic award of the Pampa Daily News, but as yet the identity of the athlete remains undisclosed.

About 20 Irish gridmen will be chosen for the letter awards, while basketball awards to boys and girls will total about the same. Shamrock won the District I-A-A grid title, but were unable to repeat in basketball.

Irish Teams Chalk Up Good Season

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Irish football and basketball teams have done extremely well during the current school year, under the direction of Scott McCall, head coach, Clarence Morris and H. W. Callan, assistant coaches.

McCall's tough Irish grid machine of 1951 rolled to eight victories and two ties during the 1951 regular season, finishing without a defeat and being tied only by Wellington, 19-19, and the Phillips Blackhawks, 13-13.

They went on to wreck Tulia, 2-A-A champion, in a Thanksgiving day playoff here, 27-7, riding to easy victory. But the following week they measured Childers in the first half, 7-0, only to lose 25-7 as the Bobcats came back strong in the second half to win the regional title.

McCall served as head football coach, Morris as end coach, and Callan as line coach. Shamrock had a rugged time and a backfield that ground out one victory after another both on the ground and in the air.

McCall's basketball team won 14 and lost 13 combats, but most of the losses were to strong crews such as Briscoe, Wellington, Samnorwood, Phillips and Perryton. They walked over many of their other foes.

Coach Morris' B team whipped 13 of 15 foes and won a B team tournament at Alameda. McCall's varsity won its own invitational tournament here in December.

McCall's girls started slowly, but kept improving to win six of their last 11 games and to throw a fright into such court titans as McLean, Perryton and Dalhart.

According to a report issued Saturday, by the Santa Fe Railway Systems line, wheat prospects follow the usual late winter pattern — good to excellent in most of the middle and eastern sections of the territory, generally poor in the West and Southwest.

Although the moisture is pretty good over most of the wheat belt, the insect and plant disease problem is another situation. Greenworms, which have been found in large numbers in the Eastern and South Central sections, and cutworms, found in and around Texas, are spreading

TO MARRY TODAY — Mrs. Letha Harris Northup, 1109 N. Starkweather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harris, 110 S. Houston, is to become the bride of Leslie C. Hogarth, son of Mrs. Walter Graham of Leadville, Colo., in a double-ring ceremony to be read at 4 p.m. today in the home of the bride's brother, B. R. Harris. Dr. Francis W. Pritchard, minister of the Amarillo First Presbyterian church, will officiate. After April 1, the couple will be at home in Colorado Springs. (Smith Photo)

Mobeetie Masons Entertain Wives

MOBEETIE — (Special) — The Masonic Lodge entertained members and their wives with a dinner at the Masonic hall February 22, in observance of Washington's birthday. Plates were served to 45 members and guests. Rev. A. D. Moore, acting as master of ceremonies, gave the invocation and introduced the speaker, Rev. Sam A. Thomas, Sr. He used for his subject, "Religion and Similarity of Masonry and Christianity." Mrs. J. H. Scribner, speaking for the wives present, expressed their appreciation for the dinner and fellowship of the evening. After the singing of "America"

BGK Members Have Dinner, Meeting

Mrs. Parks Brumley, Mrs. Ruth Terhune and Mrs. Maynard Johnson were hostesses at a birthday. Plates were served to 45 members and guests. Spring colors were used in table decoration. Attending were Mrs. L. C. McMurry, Byron Hilburn, Melvin Watkins, Ken Reeves, Guy LeMond, Jack Foster, Clary Freeman, Bill Stockstill, Bus Benton, Jack Benton, Bill Bridges, N. L. Nicholl, Erdine Dyer and Miss Vivian Lafferty. The benediction was said by J. R. Patterson.

GUESS PEG'S just not farmer enough to appreciate the weather it takes to get moisture . . . tho' for the farmer's sake, hope the snow we had helped them. Now, of course, when the win' starts whipping dirt 'round . . . you know, maybe a good snow or rain would be all right at that!

THE WEATHER certainly has been changeable this week, hasn't it? Had a terrific case of spring fever Thursday. Mr. Peg played golf — natch — galloped myself. Surprised he doesn't have me caddy for him. (Ed's Note: There's a real good idea. Mr. Peg). Th-y're doing so much landscaping on the golf course, new shrubs and trees have been planted. . . MUST be getting close to spring. Didn't notice any shorts yet, though. Jean Duenkel and Floy Heath were playing . . . Floy's first game this year!

SUCH A BIG CROWD at the wrestling matches . . . Had difficulty spotting friends. Did notice, however, many of you gals stayed home. . . almost had a big hunk of man in their laps when one wrestler was tossed through the ropes. Really wonder if the wrestlers suffer half as much as they seem to! Who cares? They put on a good show anyway!

LENT STARTED, as usual, with the New Orleans Mardi Gras. Would love to have been there for the fabulous festivities. New Orleans is a fascinating place anyway, with its overhanging balconies, wrought-iron gateways, tropical gardens, curio shops, and once-great mansions. With all this as a backdrop, the Mardi Gras turns the city into a pageant of magnificence that is impossible to describe even when you've been there.

ALSO THIS WEEK was dedicated to the lowly flapjack! Pancakes to you Yankees. Believe the entire population of a town somewhere in the United States turns out in full force to watch the local cooks run a foot race while flipping said hot cakes into a frying pan! Would like to see anyone flip one of Peg's pancakes. Would probably break an arm when it landed in the pan. Just like lead. Tastes like it, too! Nice thing to be so talented! Not everyone can whip up pancakes that outweigh the skillet! (Anyone have a never-fail pancake recipe?)

BEHIND TIMES, for sure, but was just thinking about clothes — unusual, huh? Each year the 10 best-dressed women in the world are picked. It would be no easy job picking Pampa's 10 best. There are so-o-o many really smartly dressed women here. High on the list would definitely be Margaret (Mrs. Demaris) Holt. Besides wearing beautiful clothes, she's a truly "charmat" lassie! (Of Peg's quite a linguist, used French and Scotch in one sentence — clever, huh?)

KNOCKED MYSELF OUT building — rather sculpting — (ahem) a snowman for the kiddies Monday. Truly a work of art! Did the little stinkers appreciate their artist-mother? Of course not! They used this masterpiece for a target for their snow balls. Hate to mention it, but I tossed a few "menacing" snow balls its way myself.

HALLELUJAH! The Mello-Aires are back for the country club dances. Have certainly missed them. Heard that several folks fed nickels to the juke box last week end and had the whole ballroom to themselves!

HOPE EVERYONE saw Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis in the picture that was here last week. Their craziness would soften even the sourest of dispositions. Laughed so hard tears streamed down these cheeks. Think Mr. Peg was a bit ashamed of me and wished he could be on the front row with the kids. Sure enjoyed it, tho!

MRS. CHARLES ASHBY is a new addition to the "poodle-cut" class. Still trying to convince her brood that "I too can be lovely with a poodle hair-do." Saw Donnie Hinton walking home from school. Does it each day. 'Tis a long walk to his home, but he's young. Surely some young girl with an auto is dying to drive such a good looking young fella home! Leap Year, don't forget!

EACH WEEK there are more new houses completed. Isn't it gratifying to see so much building in town? To know that so many people have realized their dream — a house of their own.

GALS! ! Now is the time to use a critical eye on your figures. No doubt it is in need of repair after the winter months' inactivity . . . so-o-o start bending! This may seem premature, but you're a wise one if you start summarizing your figure well before the season starts. Do you know the ideal measurements for your figure? So often a woman will have the mistaken idea that her hips are too large (no mistake in my case) when actually what is wrong with her figure is a too-small waist or bust. In that case, she might undertake the wrong corrections for her figure. Check your measurements before starting your trimming and toning exercises. Be careful how you take the measurements. Hold the tape neither tight nor slack; place it around the widest part of each area measured. If you have a small frame, be sure to measure the average measurements — an inch if you're frame is larger than average.

HERE 'TIS — 5' - 5'2": bust, 32-33 inches; waist, 22-23 inches; hips, 32-33 inches (y!!!); thigh, 18 1/2 inches; calf, 12 1/2 inches; ankle, 7 1/2 inches.

For 5' 4": to 5' 6": bust, 34-35 inches; waist, 24-25 inches; hips, 34-35 inches; thigh, 19 inches; calf, 13 inches; ankle, 8 inches.

For you big girls: 5' 6" - 5' 8": bust, 35-37 inches; waist, 25-27 inches; hips, 35-37 inches; thigh, 19 1/2 inches; calf, 13 1/2 inches; ankle, 8 1/2 inches.

OH WELL! Peg seems to have a measurement from each group — all wrong ones. Come on now, get in there and fight — you too can be lovely! Seriously, exercises DO do wonders for problem-spots. Some rules to remember, though, are:

1. Don't be afraid to start with a few moderately easy exercises.
2. Neglect no part of the body. Concentrate on any specific figure problem, but do a few exercises to tone your whole body.
3. Choose a time of day when you feel most fit and can spare a moment for a warm bath afterward. (Get your young daughter to exercise with you.)
4. If you want to keep your figure in its new shape, set up a routine of general exercises for daily doing.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 29 was Woman's Day . . . Ah, Leap Year! That day the fair sex took over the city affairs and businesses in many towns. The sweet fellows always have the superior feeling that they run things all by their little selves. We know, though, don't we girls?

AFRAID "HALE AND HEARTY" Peg has finally been bitten by the mean ol' flu bug. Have been smugly — tho' sincerely — offering sympathy to those so bitten . . . Now how about a bit of sympathy for

Public Gets Look At Spring Fashions

By NADEANE WALKER

PARIS — (AP) — The public got its first look at the latest fashions from Paris this week through photographs.

The same old skirt — (slightly longer than mid-calf), a "happy medium" alhivette halfway between a slim sheath and a billowing bell.

Numerous naughty necklines, generally rounded low instead of v-shaped.

Dresses nearly always fitted at the natural waistline, but with indications of belts as low as the hip or as high as the bottom of the bust, and some long-waisted "sweater girl" tops.

A soft, drappy look. Colors also are soft pastels.

These, at any rate, are the general trends, although photos usually show the most extreme and eccentric models from each collection.

Grey and beige tones are the most popular daytime colors for spring, with pastel shades for afternoon and evening. Frin's rough wool tweeds. White or have seldom been so popular. gandle is the rage.

SKELLYTOWN — (Special) Mrs. T. A. Ingram and Mrs. Russell Veal were hostesses at a party for members of the Skelly Schafer club. The social was held in the Ingram home. During the business meeting, plans were made for decorating the interior of the club house which is being completed by hundreds of members.

Special interest groups in Pampa will meet Wednesday and Thursday this week for instruction in creative design by Mrs. Ed Barnes. This two-day course follows a similar one held last week in the Parish hall with Mrs. Emmett Osborne instructor. "Purpose of the workshop," Mrs. Barnes explained, "is to help every woman in attendance develop confidence in her ability to create original designs. We want to show each one how her designs can be adapted to various materials and processes. We also hope to give the group several methods of developing original designs in order to help each one be independent of commercial designs."

"Courses of this type increase self-confidence and initiative," she said, "helps to relieve tension and helps women avoid boredom. We also hope that each woman will have a better understanding and appreciation of the designs of others after this course."

Parent-teacher groups, as well as home demonstration groups, have been invited to participate in the workshop at the American Legion hall beginning at 9 a.m. each day.

Valentine motif were served to Mrs. L. D. Cowart, B. A. Wheeler, Walter Reed, Charles Siavens, Fred Powell, Leroy Allen, P. E. McAllister, R. C. Heath, hostess at the next meeting. Mrs. Bill Ledbetter will be hostess at the next meeting. Mrs. Bill White, L. Barrett and G. L. Craddock.

When you're choosing soups choose a kind that complements the main dish. For instance bouillon or light cream soup can precede a roast; a hearty vegetable soup with barley, rice, or noodles added is good to serve before a luncheon salad.

It's Fun To Furnish Your Home

NEW YORK — (AP) — There are some women who can walk grandly into a store and order a whole household of furnishings with as much aplomb and nonchalance as if they were purchasing a powder puff and a paper of pins.

But these self-confident creatures are few and far between, according to Freda Diamond, top flight industrial designer. To most women, the choosing of the things that are to go into their home is a problem and a terror.

Miss Diamond is not poo-pooing this tremulous attitude. As one of the handful of women who've carved careers in the industrial design field, she has devoted a great deal of thought to the reasons for all this fear-lagging percentage of girls grow up and-trembling.

One major reason is that a woman with no particular interest in the various components that go into making a house a home until the appearance of a first beau makes them suddenly—and sometimes painfully—aware of their surroundings.

Home fashion, which certainly reflects an individual's taste as much as the clothes she wears, and function. In choosing what you do like, forget such questions as "is this the rage this season?" or "will this demonstrate how much I know about home furnishings?"

Much more important are "do I honestly think this is pretty?" "Will it do the job I want it to?" and "is it easy to care for?"

Don't get thrown off track by the various periods of furniture. After all, Miss Diamond stresses, decoration on furniture is "just the icing on the cake. Basic pieces in any style are designed to fill modern needs."

Outside, a bureau may resemble closely the kind that adorned the palace of Louis Fifteenth, but chances are the inside is planned to accommodate such touches of modern living as your nylon or your husband's electric razor.

Versatility is one of the most important things to check before finally deciding upon a given piece, Miss Diamond points out. The trend now is toward dual-purpose function—whether you're referring to your living-dining-room or library-guest room, your versatile buffet which can double for a chest or a credenza, or your one set of glassware which is pretty enough for company, practical enough for daily family use.

After 20 Years, Opinions Unchanged In Lindbergh Case

(Samuel G. Blackman covered the Lindbergh baby kidnaping and the execution of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, now chief of the New York and New Jersey bureaus of the AP, he asked former Atty. Gen. David T. Wilentz and former Gov. Harold G. Hoffman if their views on the kidnaping had changed after 20 years. Wilentz maintains it was a one-man job. Hoffman, who once gave Hauptmann a reprieve, believes more than one person was involved.)

By SAMUEL G. BLACKMAN
TRENTON, N. J. — Was the Lindbergh baby kidnaping solved by the conviction and execution of Bruno Richard Hauptmann? There is no new evidence — 20 years after the kidnaping — on March 1, 1932 — to alter the verdict that Hauptmann alone kidnaped the infant Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., and killed him.

Time has not changed the opinion of David T. Wilentz, New Jersey's chief prosecutor, who told the jury that "all the evidence leads only to Hauptmann."

Nor have the passing years changed the views of former Gov. Harold G. Hoffman that Hauptmann's execution left many riddles unsolved. Hoffman, who once gave Hauptmann a 30-day reprieve from death but refused a second one, said:

"I believe that the crime was committed by more than one person. I believe it would have been difficult to execute that crime without the assistance of someone who was inside either the Lindbergh or the Morrow household. I believe that the police, once Hauptmann had been apprehended, and the 'Lone Wolf' pattern of prosecution was decided upon, not only failed to make, but made every effort to hinder further investigation that might have brought others to the bar of justice."

Hoffman, now director of the State Division of Employment Security, made the statement when asked if his views today differed from those he once held. His intervention in the case as governor, including a secret visit to Hauptmann in the death house, stirred wide controversy. "There was some evidence presented, seeming to point to the guilt of Hauptmann that I am not in a position to dispute. However, I have indisputable documentary evidence that certain witnesses made substantial changes in the statements they made to the police and to the Bronx grand jury and the evidence that they gave upon the witness stand at Flemington; evidence designed, two years later they were first interviewed, to prove that Hauptmann was the 'Lone Wolf' murderer."

The tragic kidnap story was one of the nation's most celebrated criminal cases. The blond 19-months old baby, first child of the famous pilot and Anne Morrow Lindbergh, was tucked in his crib in the couple's home near Hopewell. A few hours later he was missing.

A crudely written note demanding $50,000 ransom was left on a windowsill. A rickety ladder lay outside. Both became telltale evidence.

While Lindbergh searched for his son, the child lay dead in a shallow grave five miles from the Lindbergh home. The body was found May 12, 1932. Not until Sept. 19, 1934 was Bruno Richard Hauptmann, 35-year-old Bronx carpenter, arrested. Hauptmann, a German machine gunner in World War I, was caught passing ransom money identified through serial numbers.

In Hauptmann's garage, police found $14,600 of the ransom money. Eight handwriting experts testified Hauptmann wrote all the ransom notes. Hauptmann denied writing the ransom notes. He denied making the crude ladder ("certainly not, I am a carpenter," he said with scorn. He denied kidnaping the baby. He said the ransom money was left in a shoe box in his possession by the late Isidor Fisch, a business partner who died in Germany.

Hauptmann was executed in the state prison at Trenton April 3, 1935.

Wilentz, who as New Jersey attorney general prosecuted Hauptmann and is now an attorney in his home town of Perth Amboy, considers the case was closed that night.

His position today is that the evidence remains unshaken; no ransom money has since appeared; nothing has arisen to point to the guilt of any other person.

Cabot Essay Contest Ends On April 15

An essay contest for students at West Texas State college, Canyon, sponsored by Cabot Carbon Co., will close April 15. Jimmie McCune, assistant industrial relations director of the Pampa office, said yesterday.

The $150 Cabot Award of Journalism is made annually to the person at West Texas State college who writes the most outstanding article which can be published in West Texas newspapers.

Three judges for the contest will be selected from Panhandle newspapers. This year's subject is "Advantages the Panhandle Area Has to Offer New Industries."

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — A judge here sentenced an 18-year-old boy to the reformatory for an indefinite term after the youth told him he used a cap pistol in a holdup so he could obtain money to get married.

In handing down the sentence, Judge John J. Kennedy gave this advice: "The reformatory will do you more good than a wife."

New Hampshire Grass Roots Survey Gives Political Slant

(Editor's note: Associated Press member newspapers and AP reporters have combined to take a unique sounding of political sentiment in New Hampshire, where the important first-in-the-nation primary election will be held March 11. The "grass roots survey" below is based on reports from every county in the state and is written by AP special correspondent Belman Morin who has been touring the state and collecting the material all week.)

By BELMAN MORIN
CONCORD, N. H. — (AP) — A county-by-county newspaper estimate of popular sentiment in New Hampshire indicated that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is holding a narrow, and possibly a shaky, margin over the Republican Taft in the battle for Republican votes in the state's Presidential primary election, March 11.

On the Democratic side, the same editors agreed that the party machine, if it is thrown into high gear, will easily crush a budding growth of sentiment for Sen. Estes Kefauver, of Tennessee, and give President Truman a spanking majority of popular votes and convention delegates.

The editors also agreed that: 1. Taft has made long gains during the past few weeks after a late start in organizing. Originally, Eisenhower was considered an overwhelming favorite in New Hampshire, chiefly because of his support by the state's top Republican leadership.

2. The primary outcome may be decided by the effect of Taft's appearances here this week. He is booked for a three-day speaking swing, starting Thursday, March 6, for his first personal tour of the state.

3. A heavy snowfall reducing "back country" attendance at the town meetings on primary election day could seriously hurt Taft's chances. The rural communities are considered strongly favorable to Taft, whereas Eisenhower's popularity is rated greatest in the cities. A spot check shows registration, which doesn't close in many places until next Tuesday, has been heavy.

These are the major variables in the situation, and the editors said they can radically alter the pattern of sentiment as it stands today. As the first voting test of popular sentiment in the country, New Hampshire's primary holds special significance for both political parties and many observers expected it to have a direct bearing on the pre-convention Taft and Eisenhower strategy.

didates. This is the preferential vote, better known here as the "popularity contest." The result is not binding on delegates at the convention.

In this section of the ballot Harold Stassen's name is entered, although Stassen does not have a slate of delegates up for election. Vice versa, a full slate of delegates is running for Gen. MacArthur, but MacArthur's name is not in the "popularity contest."

Eisenhower's delegates include Gov. Adams ex-Gov. Robert Blood, Speaker of the House Lane Swinell, Congressman Norris Cotton, Headmaster William G. Saltonstall, and Representatives Harold Young and Robert English.

These men are all strong vote getters. A total of 14 GOP delegates will be elected.

Some editors estimated that the delegate score might run as high as 12-to-2 for Eisenhower. Others, however, expressed the opinion that four and possibly five Taft delegates will be elected.

Taft has said that, in view of the personal popularity of so many of Eisenhower's delegates, he would consider it a victory if he wins four of the 14.

In 1948, New Hampshire had eight votes in the GOP convention. Six voted for New York's Governor Dewey, two for Minnesota's Gov. Stassen.

Far more important, in the opinion of all the editors, is the "popularity contest," where votes will be cast directly for the Presidential candidates.

Bureau Releases Report On Water Flooding In Oklahoma

AMARILLO — Approximately 33 million barrels of oil were recovered in Oklahoma by water flooding up to Dec. 31, 1949, according to a Bureau of Mines report released by Secretary of the Interior Oscar L. Chapman.

The report supplements a previous Bureau of Mines report issued in 1943. It describes water-flooding activities in Oklahoma from July 1, 1942, to Dec. 31, 1949, and contains a detailed information and charts on Nowata, Rogers and Craig counties.

The survey of water-flooding operations in Oklahoma was made by the bureau under a cooperative agreement with the State of Oklahoma.

Water flooding, the report declares, is a valuable conservation measure, not only preventing premature abandonment of stripper leases but also reviving interest in many areas previously abandoned.

The use of water flooding as a means for recovering oil from partly depleted oil-bearing formations was first tried in Oklahoma in 1931. Early water-flooding operations were confined to the area of shallow Bartlesville sand formations in Nowata and Rogers counties. The results of these operations stimulated activity in the other pools in Oklahoma, and by the end of 1949 water flooding had been tried in 25 of the 49 oil-producing counties in the state.

The report summarizes the results obtained by water flooding, and the discussions give information on the producing formations, methods of development, production practices, and source and treatment of water on the many projects in Oklahoma. Maps and curves showing the production history of several of the projects also are contained in the report.

The writers compiled the report primarily from records of the operators of the respective projects or of the oil purchasers. Complete records of the oil-producing history of the acreage being flooded are given wherever possible.

Many of the properties affected were developed more than 40 years ago, and have had several plugged 2-22-52 Character of Well Dry.

Oil completions and the staking of two new wildcats in the Anadarko basin set the pattern of activity for the Panhandle oil field last week.

Nine oilers were reported completed in the seven-day period for a total increased potential of 825 barrels. Of these, five were for potentials in excess of 100 barrels each with one well showing a potential of 200 barrels.

New locations dropped slightly to 12 but included two new tests in the Anadarko Basin. The Texas Co. staked a 9100-foot test in Ochiltree county and Cities Service staked its first in the basin, an 11,500-foot venture in Roberts county 1/2 mile north of Pampa and 2 1/2 miles east of the Hutchinson county line.

Five wells were plugged, one of which was a wildcat in Collingsworth county. This was the Laan-Tex Oil Co.'s No. 1 Arthur J. Bailey abandoned at 5516 feet.

TIPRO Seeks Accounting

AUSTIN — Petroleum Administration for Defense was urged by the executive committee of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Assn. to direct all steel mills to make an accounting of all oil country tubular goods milled for the last six months of 1951.

The resolution, adopted by the TIPRO group in a meeting at Austin last week resulted from growing conviction among oil independents that all steel tubular goods produced in the industry may be subject to defense allocation. The committee also adopted a resolution urging the House Small Business Committee, now investigating the oil industry steel allocations program, to recommend to the Defense Production Administration that sufficient steel be allocated to the Petroleum Administration for Defense to insure the accomplishment of the proposed program for domestic oil expansion.

Primary purpose of the executive committee session was to make final arrangements for the Sixth Annual Meeting of the Association to be held in Fort Worth, March 27 and 28. Committees which will function at the convention in preparing reports directing TIPRO policy were named and material compiled for their information and use.

Black Markets, Excessive Taxes Covered By Roman Code

AUSTIN — Such "modern" problems as price fixing, black markets, excessive taxation and the socialized medicine were covered in Roman law.

The Theodosian code, first official lawbook of the Roman Empire, has been translated by Dr. Clyde Pharr, University of Texas visiting professor of classical languages.

Students of modern social and economic legislation, state controls and development of the welfare state" find many modern concepts and practices derive from patterns outlined in the Code. Never before has it been translated into any language. Dr. Pharr, former head of Vanderbilt university's department of classics, is an authority on source materials and subsidiary literature of Roman law. He is general editor of a project for collection, translation and annotation of all Roman law source material.

"The Theodosian Code" and Novels and the Sirmionian Constitutions" is the first volume of the collection. Mary Brown Pharr, the professor's wife, is assistant editor.

Dr. Pharr came to the University of Texas in February, 1951. He plans to retire from teaching in June but will remain in Austin to continue work on the monumental project. He will be assisted in translating the second volume, the Digest and Code of Justinian, by Mrs. Mimi Lee Shepard, Dr. Harris Russell and Dr. Oscar W. Reinmuth, all of the University faculty, and Mrs. Harry J. Leon, wife of the Classical Languages department chairman.

The new book was prepared by Dr. Pharr in collaboration with Mrs. Pharr and Dr. Theresa Sheerer Davidson of Vanderbilt. Publication was aided by a grant from the American Council of Learned Societies from a fund provided by the Carnegie Corporation.

"The Theodosian Code and Novels concern a period in history much like ours in many of its problems," C. Dickerman Williams, prominent New York attorney, wrote in the introduction. The translation is expected to find use by lawyers, political scientists, economists and sociologists.

More Than One Hero

HOQUIAM, Wash. — (AP) — It's not unusual for a sea captain named Carlisle to battle a storm off the English coast trying to get to Falmouth. A Hoquiam stevedore boss, Fred Hedin, 59, was reminded of this recently during the travail of the Flying Enterprise.

Forty-one years ago, Hedin, then an 18-year-old seaman, says he was aboard a Hoquiam stevedore boat, the Enterprise, which was buffeted by a hurricane in the same waters. The barque was the Yemer, a three-master three weeks out of Liverpool enroute to Mobile, Ala.

The hurricane sheared off all her rigging, leaving only the stumps of masts. The upper masts and booms dragged along side, threatening to pound a hole in the side of the wooden ship. A fire also kept the crew busy. The ship finally was sighted and towed into Falmouth. The Yemer's captain was named K. R. Carlisle.

And left us dreaming how very fair it needs must be since he lingered there. I say He is not dead—he is just away. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. —Romans 8:18

PACK YOUR DAY . . . A day is like a truck. You can put twice as much in it if you know how. The right way to pack a trunk is not to dump the stuff right in the middle, but to pack it lightly in the corners and sides. Last of all, pack the middle. There is a right way, too, to pack a day. A man can do no better than as much if he appreciates what he can do in five minutes — if he fits up the corners of his day. — Efficiency Magazine

HOMES-RANCHES
at Home Magnolia St. $1,250 down
2 bedroom on E. Prairie $1,800
2 bedroom on Russell $12,000
3 apartments, 2 furnished $12,500
5 apartments, partly furnished $22,500
Large home and rental, Christine $22,500
3 bedroom, den, carpets, garage and servant's quarters, Younger St. $12,500

THESE TWO RANCHES CAN BE BOUGHT WORTH THE MONEY
So if you are interested in ranch property, see me, as I know that I can get you a good buy. Both of these ranches are about 100 miles northwest of here. One is 6 sections, all good grass, and with ultra modern improvements. All you need to do on this is turn on the switch and it's ready to go. It's on a paved highway, well watered, good fences and a good buy at $40. per acre.

THE OTHER RANCH IS 5,000 ACRES
Deadend at $25. per acre and 1000 acres more at $25 per acre goes with the sale. His ranch has good improvements, good fences, some running water and some windmills. I have lived in that territory and have relatives there so am acquainted with conditions out there. Cattle will fatten in the winter as well as in the summer on that grass. During a summer when high winds are plentiful, irrigation water will get down high and I have seen them move off the prairie. If you want a good ranch without paying fifty to seventy dollars an acre, call me and I will show you these ranches. I also have a nice 2 room house on a 20 ft. lot on Christie St., which is a busy street and for $3250.00 you can finish school.
