UPTON CLOSE
... Not a War

Speaker Cites Crisis In Nation As Economic

"The crisis facing the United States today is not an approaching war, but an economic crisis resulting from false security and inflated prices," Upton Close told the Top of Texas Knife and Fork club dinner meeting.

"Prosperity based on production for destruction is a recipe for corruption, and that is what we are doing," Close told the more than 300 persons at the high school auditorium.

Close went on to explain how this situation has come about. An expert on European affairs, he believes the white man has made such a mess of things in Korea, China and Malaya that there can never be peace under present circumstances.

"The best possible thing we could do in Asia now is to clear out," Close said last night. "The Americans, English and French cleared out of Asia now, in time Russia would be the one that the Yellow race turned against. As it is now, it is the White man's loss."

Touching on the European situation, Close said the present program underway by General Eisenhower in Europe is an abysmal failure and that when (See SPEAKER Page 4)

Pampans Say City Will Not Get Benefit

Public housing stands little chance of gaining a foothold in Pampa as more than 50 people told the city commission this morning "it is not wanted or needed."

The commission called the public session following discussions with representatives of Paul G. Bentley, architectural engineers of Dallas, on instituting low rental housing in Pampa.

Two prominent builders and several others told the commission the "low cost" housing projects are actually more expensive than those erected by private enterprise and "do not do what the plan proposes provide housing for low income groups."

R. G. Hughes, local builder, said he "could see no reason for public housing in Pampa now, or in the future." He added that the public housing law states only families with annual incomes of less than $1800 are to be housed in the units. "Yet many of them are now being occupied by families with incomes as high as $13,000 per year," he added.

"It does not clear slums, because the slum areas are occupied with people who cannot pay even as high as $30 per month, the average rental of the units," he said. The Los Angeles police chief declared police calls to public housing areas ran higher than those in actual slum areas, Hughes added.

"Private enterprise is doing a fine job of housing the public," Lynn Boyd, Pampa lumber dealer, declared, adding, "when you include the subsidies included in the public housing project is actually more expensive than if built by private enterprise."

E. B. Bowen, manager of White House Lumber Co., told the group: "It looks as if the government is doing everything it can to get people to do nothing. When we try to hire a man who is on pension, he won't work because he may earn only so much a month or lose his pension. So he gets paid for doing nothing, and we can't find any workers."

Thousands Of Voters Out For New Hampshire Polling

Nation Awaiting Outcome Of Presidential Popularity Race

CONCORD, N. H. — (AP) — The nation's first presidential primary election began early today in New Hampshire, bringing thousands of voters to the polls in a contest closely watched by both major political parties and the men they may nominate this year.

Voters were ready to cast their ballots as soon as the doors opened at many of the polling places.

Waterville Valley, a community deep in the mountains, recorded its vote a few moments after midnight. It cast all seven votes for General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

It also gave Taft two write-in votes and Stassen one write-in vote for vice president. The town has a population of 10.

Close behind Waterville Valley in the balloting was Millfield which reported these returns: Taft, 4; Stassen, 2; Kefauver, 1. Eisenhower received no votes. Millfield has a population of 16.

Political observers expected the vote to go over the 100,000 mark, setting records for many communities. National, and even international attention was focused on the election. Correspondents from both London and Paris were on the scene to cover the story, as well as American newsmen from virtually every part of the country.

Major interest focused on the struggle between Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio), on the Republican side.

This is Eisenhower's first appearance in the national political arena. He is in Europe as military head of the North Atlantic Treaty organization and has neither appeared nor participated in the maneuvers in New Hampshire.

New Hampshire may be the test of Taft's vote-getting abilities. He campaigned hard in New Hampshire, firing most of his big guns at his opponents who argued that if nominated, he could not be elected.

On the Democratic side, the contest also marked the first effort by Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee to become his party's standard bearer against President Truman.

The President after having asked that his name be withdrawn from the election, consented to let it be placed on the ballot. But he did not come to New Hampshire, nor did he campaign actively. Correspondents (See POLLS Page 4)

SELLS FIRST MEMBERSHIP — Frank Lard, right, a director in the Texas branch of the National Hwy. 60 Assn., sold the first membership in the organization to state president Howard Buckingham Monday. Texas Hwy. 60 Assn. Officers Begin Tour For Memberships

Local representatives of the Texas branch of the National Hwy. 60 Assn. left here this morning to begin a tour to boost memberships in the state organization.

Howard Buckingham, state association president; Frank Lard, state director and E. O. Wedgeworth, secretary, will meet with Hwy. 60 delegations in Higgins, Canadian and Miami today to sell memberships.

Thursday and Friday they plan to visit other towns along the route as far west as Clovis, N. M. Clovis is a member of the Texas branch.

The membership drive is the first step before formation of plans for the National Hwy. 60 convention which will be held in Pampa May 15 and 16. Local members are holding up plans until they can meet with the national president, G. T. Whitt of Mountair, N. M.

The drive is slated to wind up April 7 when officers and directors will meet in the Herring Hotel in Amarillo to lay further plans for the convention here.

Four Candidates File At Miami

MIAMI — (Special) — The names of four men have been filed as candidates in the city election scheduled April 1, according to Mayor R. J. Bean.

They are Jim Reeves, Gail Jackson, T. M. Kivlehen and Newton M. Cox. They will seek offices to be vacated by Dan Graham, Fred Gordon and Bruce Maddox. A fourth vacancy was created when Ed Haynes resigned to accept the office of county judge.

"JUST DO NOTHING" — E. B. Bowman, manager of the White House Lumber Co., had some things to say against public housing at today's hearing. Bowman told the group that the government has too many people to "just do nothing." He said it was difficult to get help because of the many people now on pensions. (News Photo)

Cancer Drive Events Slated

Plans for the 1952 cancer drive in Gray county are getting underway, Dr. Emily T. Hicks, county chairman, announced today.

Events are being scheduled to raise funds to combat cancer and local civic clubs are making preparations to assist in the drive, which begins here April 1.

In connection with the drive scrap steel is being collected daily from now through April. Everyone is being urged to take scrap steel to Bourlana Supply Co., 1108 S. Barnes, for deposit.

Objects already scheduled during the cancer crusade include a style show in the junior high school auditorium March 30, a square dance jamboree in Parish hall April 18 and bakes sales sponsored by various women's clubs throughout April. Places for the sales and dates for other events will be announced later, Dr. Hicks said.

Declares Independent Will Elect President

A Wisconsin state senator today told Jaycees that it will be the independent voter who will elect the next president.

James Leverich, Sr., spoke to members of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce during a meeting of the group today.

He explained that even the old line Republicans probably will not vote for Senator Robert A. Taft since they have the feeling, as in the past, that he has no chance of winning.

"Although Wisconsin is normally a Republican state, the Democratic vote has increased recently," he stated. "If Harry Truman runs against someone like Taft, he is certain to defeat the Republican."

In explaining the political race now developing in Wisconsin, Leverich said that Taft, Earl Warren and Harold Stassen will make campaign speeches in the same vicinity within two days of each other. He does not believe that either Stassen or Warren has a chance of winning the nomination for president, however.

The senator is in Pampa visiting his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Leverich.

Vernon Groves, co-chairman for the annual soap box derby, jointly sponsored by Culberson Chevrolet, Jaycees and The Pampa News, announced that members of various derby committees will be announced shortly. The 1952 event will be held here the last of July.

Leverich also is general chairman for the derby.

Gallop Through Texas: Taft In Panhandle Wednesday To Visit Local Republicans

Sen. Robert Taft (R-Ohio) today in the midst of a whirlwind three-day Texas tour was to speak in Dallas at a luncheon and public reception tonight and is to arrive in Amarillo early tomorrow for an hour visit before flying on to Lubbock and El Paso.

Taft arrived in Houston late Sunday night for his swing through Texas which he hopes will give him Texas support for the Republican presidential nomination.

His schedule through Texas is timed to a gallop and he will continue to go at the same rate in the tour that will touch San Antonio, Dallas, Amarillo, Lubbock and El Paso, in addition to his visit at Houston.

On his arrival he said he was "hopeful" of his chances in the New Hampshire election and "I came here to find out" how he stood in Texas.

Most top Republicans were on hand when he arrived in Houston.

Plans in Amarillo call for Panhandle supporters to greet Taft at Amarillo airport when his plane lands about 9:45 tomorrow morning.

Amarillo and Panhandle Republicans are planning an automobile caravan from downtown Amarillo to carry supporters to the airport to see Taft.

Taft is expected to remain at Amarillo airport about an hour before he takes off for Lubbock where he is to make an address at Texas Tech.

$3700 Contributed To Red Cross Drive; Goal Is $12,326

More than $3700 has been contributed in the 1952 Red Cross drive in Pampa. Mrs. Mildred Hill, executive secretary of the local chapter, said today.

Goal for Gray county is $12,326. To date, two zone chairmen have turned in nearly $700 collected in their areas. One woman reported in with $330.98, twice as much as came from the same zone last year, Mrs. Hill said.

Because of bad weather only two zone leaders brought contributions to the Red Cross office yesterday. More are expected to day together with donations collected in the business district by members of the Business and Professional Women's organization.

Hutton Returns From War Front

TOKYO — (AP) — Betty Hutton, attended up a little on Army chow in Korea, came back from a 14-day tour today and urged more Hollywood stars to follow in her footsteps.

Miss Hutton talked with reporters in the Imperial hotel's glittering Kame (Tortoise Room) Room. "Morale in Korea is terrific," she bubbled. "Rotation, good food and shows have a lot to do with it. Boys up in the front lines get two hot meals a day. Most of us before we takes off for Lubbock."

Wedgeworth Says Little Can Be Done Now On Spillway

"Little can be done at present to secure appropriations for repair of the McClellan lake spillway," E. O. Wedgeworth said today.

The manager of the local chamber of commerce made the statement after discussing the situation with Walter Rogers, congressman from this district. A House sub-committee last week failed to approve funds for repair of the spillway which was damaged by floods last spring.

Wedgeworth said Rogers "believes the only action which can be taken now is to get an approval of funds by a Senate committee and then send the measure to a joint committee to iron out differences."

Members of the House committee indicated the proposal was not approved in an attempt to help streamline the nation's budget.

One member said 15 dams similar to the one at McClellan lake are in need of repair and that of these, eight need immediate attention. McClellan lake dam is not included in the eight.

A meeting of the McClellan lake committee will be held at a later date to discuss future plans concerning the spillway.

Russell Is Cited As A Strong Foe Of Nation's Republicans

WASHINGTON (AP) — An ex-California Mundt has not disclosed his political affiliation, but he is a strong foe of the Republican Party, according to a source familiar with his views.

South Dakota says his party would have "no easy time" winning the presidency if the Democratic nomination went to the Georgia Democrat, who was named Sen. Russell of Georgia.

"Let me make it clear that I was not to nominate him but to convince the Republicans to keep Truman from being re-elected," Mundt declared. "But I think Russell would be a very formidable candidate much more so than President Truman if he were again nominated."

In a similar appraisal, Sen. Nixon (R-Calif.) says it would be more difficult for the Republicans to defeat Russell than any other Democrat could nominate.

Nixon like Mundt, predicted a Republican victory in November and said he believed at this time that Truman would be easier to defeat than any other opponent.

Nixon is backing Gov. Warren.

Both Hoyt and Russell's home state colleague, Sen. George, said they are confident Russell will have considerable support above the Mason-Dixon line.

George termed "very gratifying" an announcement over the week end by Sen. McCarran, Nevada, that he "will do everything in my power to get the support of my state of Nevada for Sen. Russell in the Democratic national convention next July."

McCarran said he favors Russell because "first of all he has shown a determination to clean up Communists and subversives and to get travelers out of federal departments."

$200 Million Due To Be Paid On Federal Insurance Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's check writing machines next week start pouring out 200 million dollars for 1952 insurance dividends for about five million veterans and servicemen.

They'll be mailed as the Veterans Administration (VA) looks over its shoulder at its bag of unclaimed millions of dollars in two previous dividends.

All this comes from the government's effort to give low-cost insurance to its servicemen back in 1940. Commercial insurance companies felt they couldn't profitably write insurance which would cover servicemen against the hazards of war.

On Oct. 8, 1940, National Service-Life Insurance (NSLI) was first issued. All servicemen were eligible for $10,000 insurance at small premiums.

By January, 1952, more than 22 million policies had been issued. Many of the policies have been dropped, but more than seven million, worth about 50 billion dollars, are in force.

Between 1940 and 1952, surplus money has built up from premium payments and other income on NSLI. From the surplus, the VA has paid 1948 and 1951 dividends. Now comes the 1952 dividend. For most policy holders the payment will be about $80.

When and how NSLI policy holders will get the dividend depends on the speed of paperwork, the anniversary date of the policy and the man himself.

It's up to the policy holder to tell the VA whether he wants the dividend paid to him in cash or left to his credit in the keeping of VA.

After the dividends start rolling out at full speed, the VA hopes it will be paying them the month after the anniversary date of the policy — the day the policy went into force or was converted.

The dividend covers a one-year period. It's from anniversary date of the policy in 1951 to the same date in 1952.

The 1948 dividend covered the period from the date the policy was taken out to the anniversary of that date in 1948. Most of those dividends were at least four years.

The 1951 dividend covered a three-year period — from the anniversary date in 1948 to the same date in 1951.

The 1948 dividend totalled $2,800,000,000. It was scheduled to be divided among 16 million men. The average cut was $185.

Up to Feb. 15, about 120 million dollars remained unclaimed. VA officials are pondering why all this money still hasn't been claimed. It can't be paid out until the policy holders claim it.

The 1951 dividend totalled 685 billion dollars and was for eight million policy holders. Up to Feb. 20, 6 1/2 million men had received about 527 million dollars. The VA is still in the progress of paying it off.

Terry Moore Happy With 'Sexy' Role

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Terry Moore is happy about playing her first sexy role but a mite confused. The studio has done everything possible to de-sex her.

The brown-haired girl is all hepped up about her role in "Come Back, Little Sheba." She plays a college student who has a torrid affair with an athlete. "But they've done everything they can to make me look less sexy," she said. "I started out wearing sweaters in the picture, but the director, Danny Mann, wouldn't let me wear them. I have to wear blouses, and my hair is even strapped down to lessen the curve. My hair style couldn't be any simpler, and I'm not allowed much makeup.

"Because I'm a college girl, I can't do obviously sexy things like casting shy glances or using a sultry voice. The director told me I had to think sexily. The only way I can get the idea across is with my eyes."

Terry, whose eyes are indeed sexy, is so enthused about her role in the Hal Wallis production that she has banned dates for the duration of the picture.

"This is the first time I've had a really sexy part and it's the first time I have been associated with an academy-award caliber of picture," she explains. "I want to devote all my time to it."

A friend of mine, (oil heir) David Frame, flew up from Texas to see me, but I even told him I couldn't go out."

Previous to the picture, Terry had been doing her first dating since her separation from All-America footballer Glenn Davis.

U.S. Will Slap Travel Ban On Russ Envoys

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Pan-yushkin and his embassy staff are about to be placed under almost the same travel restrictions as are imposed on American diplomats in Moscow.

The State department had papers prepared to notify the Soviet embassy this week of the American crackdown.

The limitations also will apply to personnel of AMTORG trading concern at New York City but not to Soviet diplomats at the UN, whose status is governed by treaty between the UN and the U.S.

Seven of eight North Atlantic Treaty (NATO) members, including Britain and France, also are planning to retaliate in the immediate future against Soviet treatment of foreign representatives in Moscow.

It was reported the Russians will be required to confine their travel to an area within 25 miles of Washington.

Retaliatory travel restrictions already are in force against certain Soviet satellites.

The Hungarian may not go more than 18 miles from downtown Washington, Rumanians not more than 25.

However, diplomats of Poland and Czechoslovakia may go where they wish.

Officials said the aim of the new ban is not to guard against spying by Soviet diplomats but frankly to retaliate for the restrictions maintained for many years by the Red regime on American diplomats.

Appropriate Name

WINTERSET, Iowa — (AP) — Proponents of the name Summerset must have been upset when the county seat of Madison County, Iowa, was named Winterset.

The town was established in 1846, and members of the founding commission met in the winter-time to choose a name. Independence and Summerset were suggested. But one of the commissioners, shivering with cold and slightly under the influence of liquor, cried:

"Summerset! You'd a damn sight better name it Winterset!" The name was quickly adopted.

Strong Words Fly Between Senators

WASHINGTON — Enlivening the political war of words, Senators Taft of Ohio and Connally of Texas traded sharp verbal volleys yesterday from a shooting distance of about 1200 miles.

Taft, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, fired first from Houston, in Connally's home state.

In a campaign speech, the Ohioan ripped the administration's handling of foreign policy and said Connally had declared a month before the Korean war started that "we wouldn't do anything about it if the Communists moved into South Korea."

Connally, a Democrat running for re-election to the Senate, promptly let fly with an answering barrage from the Senate floor. Taft then declined to return the fire, saying he had no comment on Connally's Senate speech.

The tall Texan accused Taft of being a "chameleon senator" willing to "subordinate his integrity and his truthfulness in order to grasp a few slimy, filthy votes."

Connally, shouting angrily and waving his arms, said Taft had charged that the Truman administration "invited the Communists into Korea" with "an assist" from Connally as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

Connally's blast kept his Senate colleagues late for dinner by touching off a lengthy and stormy debate. Democrats came to Connally's defense and Republicans lit into the Texan.

Coming on the eve of today's presidential primary in New Hampshire, the exchange took on added interest. Taft is entered in that contest — a front runner along with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower on the Republican ticket.

In Houston, Taft's mention of Connally's name brought scattered boos. So there was laughter and applause when Taft tore into Connally on the foreign policy issue.

it is exposed for what it is, it will be Truman's biggest obstacle if he tries for re-election.

Close explained why the European plan has failed. Because Europeans do not want to re-arm against Russia, they do not want war with anyone and they aren't going to take a chance on re-arming which might provide the spark to cause another war; second, France and Germany will never cooperate under one army and third the European people will not pay their share of taxes to support such a project.

Close added that the only reason the European plan had progressed this far was to enable the European countries to get as much economic aid from U. S. taxpayers as possible.

Turning to our government in Washington, Close said a tolerance racket is being worked in Washington against government officials and people who cry out against the corruption and misgovernment.

He explained some of the smear campaigns that had been used against him and others.

"What America lacks most today is leadership! Not only in Washington, but all over the country," Close said. "The people have gone too long thinking the government is none of their business, and it most definitely is."

"I think a crisis is coming. An economic crisis similar to the period from 1924 to 1929. It will be a period of individualism against our present form of government. If we continue as we are traveling we will go into totalitarianism or we can start back to freedom. It is up to you, the people of America."

In a short question and answer period following his lecture Close answered questions on public housing — he is against it; Robert Taft — a man of strong housing, were made by M. P. Downs and Frank Carter.

Ralph R. Cole, representing the Dallas firm, arrived too late to attend the meeting. Cole came in shortly before the commission adjourned for the day.

In briefing the group on what public housing would mean to Pampa, City Manager Dick Pepin said it would cut down on the amount of tax money available to the city as well as water sales. In the public housing area, he said, water would be purchased through a master meter. The government would kick back to the city and schools only 10 percent of the "shelter rent" which would be less than its actual monthly rent paid by tenants. Approximately $7 of a $30 monthly rental would be used for utilities, the remaining $23 would be known as the shelter rent. However, rentals are to be governed on the family's monthly income residing in one of the public housing units.

When calling for remarks supporting public housing in Pampa, Mayor Huff found no speakers.

In objecting to the commission authorized advertising for bids on a new water well in the south field; bids to be opened at 10 a.m. April 2. The well will be drilled in the same location as the three new wells now serving the city.

The commission also approved the audit of city finances ending Sept. 30, 1951, close of the fiscal year; approved payment of $21,403.83 monthly operating bills; approved $212.51 in monthly library bills; passed the ordinance permitting paving of 14 additional blocks; and approved replating of the 1000 block S. Banks where Pampa Properties, Inc., will construct up to 16 houses.

The Taft-Eisenhower and Truman-Kefauver contests dominated the election today.

However, Gen. Douglas MacArthur is represented on the ballot by a slate of delegates who registered for him despite his request that he be withdrawn from the election. And former Gov. Harold E. Stassen is on the Republican preferential section of the ballot but he has no delegates entered for him.

New Hampshire sends 14 representatives to the Republican convention and eight to the Democratic.

In the case of both parties, observers generally considered the election of delegates less important than the preferential ballot. In this latter section, the people register a preference directly for the presidential candidate in what is known as "the popularity contest."

Eisenhower's list of delegates is far more impressive than Taft's and a majority of them are expected to be elected.

Thousands See Top Teams Battle In Cage Tournament

NEW YORK — (AP) — Eddie Hickey and Dudley Moore, who led St. Louis University and Duquesne team make their first appearances in the National Interscholastic Basketball tournament tonight. The St. Louis team, which did a little scouting from the upstairs press box at Madison Square garden last night, were somewhat less impressed by what they saw than the 18,320 enthusiastic fans who watched St. Bonaventure and La Salle make their way into the semi-finals and Holy Cross come through belatedly with a smashing first-round victory.

St. Bonaventure, almost blowing the huge lead, barely outlasted Western Kentucky, 70-69. La Salle provided the tournament's first real upset, whipping third-seeded St. John's of Brooklyn, 51-45.

Holy Cross came through with a flashy final quarter to rout Seattle University, 77-72.

La Salle's Norm Grekin broke the tournament record for foul shooting when he netted 13 free throws in the second game. This tournament mark lasted only until the next contest when Seattle's little Johnny O'Brien topped it with 15.

O'Brien who scored more than 1000 points in the regular season was held to three field goals. But his foul shooting equaled the Garden record of 15, made in 1947 by Mac Otten of Bowling Green.

Wickey, the serious little St. Louis coach, remarked: "I don't think any team can be good without a fast break. St. Bonaventure essentially is not a fast-breaking team and it didn't have the weapon when it was pressed. The game demonstrated the value of a pressing defense."

Tonight Duquesne goes against Holy Cross and St. Louis against Dayton in the remaining quarter final games. Duquesne and St. Louis, seeded first and second, drew byes while Dayton trounced New York University, 81-66, last Saturday.

Hickey, whose team plays the Bonnies next if it wins, gave them credit for "playing beautiful ball until the press upset started." St. Bonaventure, slow to start, nearly broke the game apart in the third quarter to run up a 60-50 lead, but they

By GAYLE TALBOT

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Reelster Willie Veeck has blown into town for a quick look at his refurbished St. Louis Browns, and he is both voluble and effusive about everything he sees, as perhaps was never a man to knock his own.

The young genius with the plunging neckline already has been granted a couple of brief interviews by his manager, Rogers Hornsby, and has applied for another. The Rajah is the busiest man on the West Coast as he whips his remarkable collection of rookies and ambulant veterans into a fighting ball club, but he obviously intends to meet Veeck halfway.

"Don't worry about Rajah and me getting along," Bill laughed. "I'll have a lot of fun with him, but I know how far to go. I didn't hire him because I wanted a companion. It was what I wanted you'd see. Grimowski (Charlie Grimm) sitting here right now."

When you pull up to the entrance of their present abode the chances are close to even that you'll have to stand aside in a waiting party makes its exit. This was not true of former Browns' hoties; though this is not meant as a rap at the latter, Hornsby, himself dwells in the big house, but there is no danger of his growing soft. The great batter of another era recalls all too vividly that only a few years back he was managing a club in the outlaw Mexican league.

"I guess I shouldn't have hit that homerun," he says wryly. "This was a big money series, see? If we had split the first two games we would have drawn a full house for the third. Jorje Pasquel was anxious for it to come out that way. Jorje was never in second place and we never will be. Nobody remembers who finished second. Who was second in the American league two years ago? Boston? Wrong. It was Detroit, and nobody even knows it now."

"We won't win it this year, of course. Cleveland probably will — another set of my boys, incidentally. But we'll set a few records and we'll show you a

Texas Conference Schools Say 'No Thanks' On Austin 'Amateur' Athletic Program

By The Associated Press

Austin college can make football "amateur" by abolishing athletic scholarships and other athletic aid but its fellow members of the Texas conference aren't having any, thanks.

Reaction from the other four members—Howard Payne, McMurry, Abilene Christian and Texas A&I—was quite similar to a proposal from the trustees of Austin college that intercollegiate athletics be on purely an amateur basis which, they said, would mean cutting off all aid to the athletes although professional coaches would be retained.

What they want to do is to eliminate any kind of financial help for a boy because of his participation in athletics. They called on the other colleges to follow suit.

At McMurry college, Athletic Director Wilford Moore said: "We have no intentions whatsoever in following Austin college's 'amateur' program and, in fact, we are going forward with our athletic program."

At Abilene Christian, Athletic Director A. B. Morris said: "We plan no change in our athletic program. We are going to continue to have a well-rounded program, putting equal emphasis on each sport."

Said Dr. Ernest H. Poteet, Texas A&I president: "A&I will continue in intercollegiate athletics, going along just as we have been going. We will continue our athletic scholarships. At A&I our athletes earn their scholarships. Sports have not been over exaggerated at Texas A&I. We have always aimed at building men first. Putting out winners is important, but secondary. Some of our best students are football players."

Football Coach Dewey Mayhew of A&I said, "We will go along just as we have been going where football and intercollegiate athletics are concerned." Mayhew has a record of operating the athletic program in the black each year.

Dr. Thomas H. Faylor, president, Athletic Director Carl Anderson and Business Manager and Track Coach J. H. Shelton of Howard Payne, said a limit on athletic scholarships might be advisable but complete elimination probably would mean the same situation would develop with a different complexion such as student aid in various forms. Anderson said he could go along on a policy of limiting scholarships but wouldn't favor limiting the number of men in uniform to some certain number. "That would mean non-scholarship boys who do not have the ability of being worthy additions to the squad could not come out for football just because they want to participate in the sport," he commented.

They all said that on a strictly amateur basis, competing schedules in the five-member conference would become more difficult than ever unless some compromise code was observed all over. They thought it would be desirable, Ill. signed as a fee agent. He worked last year in the Ohio-Indiana league.

Controlled Video Program Planned

NEW YORK — (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Assn. (NCAA) has formulated plans for a new controlled video program that will prevent a small group of colleges from monopolizing the television networks in football this fall.

The NCAA's TV. committee met for the first time yesterday and recommended spreading the games on the widest basis possible. It also proposed two principles:

1. The widest possible participation by colleges in the 1952 program so that no one college or a small group of colleges will dominate football television during 1952.
2. The much greater participation of smaller colleges in the program.

The committee stressed the dangers to the game of football if a few of the top teams are able to monopolize the video networks.

The resulting financial rewards would create far greater temptations than any yet known to the game and would place irresistible premiums on developing winning teams," the committee said in a statement.

ON PRICE DANIEL Young Price Daniel, the attorney general of Texas, is trying to displace Old Tawm Connally who has been warning his brithers in the United States Congress for years.

Texas newspapers have reacted in typical newspaper fashion to this horse-race between an old party hack and a smart young comer who's never tested his wind on a big-time track.

Old Tawm is being damned by faint praise, followed by that little word 'but'.

We've been aware of Old Tawm for 20-some years, and if he ever approached the stature of a statesman it must have been while we were out for another pack of smokes.

It appears that our brethren in this fantastic trade are pretty much in the same boat, but they can't bring themselves to admit it.

One Texas paper has announced its endorsement of Price Daniel in the last paragraph of a fine, Victorian editorial lavishing great spoonfuls of saccharin praise upon Tawm without ever saying what, exactly, Tawm has done to rate it.

Finally, after a few hundred words about the patriotism and past accomplishments of Old Tawm, the editorial winds up saying the guy is a no-good and let's get him out of the Senate.

It doesn't figure. But, then, some newspapers are not altogether logical operations any way you look at them.

Unless Price Daniel falls on his face between now and election day, it is the intention of this newspaper to advocate his cause.

There are two reasons for that: 1. We can agree most heartily with most of his platform, and 2. Tom Connally is a saddle-broke New Deal politician who has been swilling out-of-the-same trough he's now trying, in his twilight hours, to repudiate.

Old Tawm and his allies, Dear Alben Barkley, came under the hypnotic vote-getting ability of the Old Master in 1932 and they've never shaken the cobwebs out of their heads since.

They rode the New Deal gravy train when it was the Cannon Ball Express and the hot line on the rails. Now, when the express train has come a creaking and beat-up junker, Old Tawm wants off.

After 20 years of abject obedience to the Political Kooch Dancer from Hyde Park, and his foolish little successor from the public-works office, Old Tawm has raised his fine, stentorian voice in behalf of the poor stiff his New Deal machine has been victimizing for two decades.

Better Jobs

Communism in Government

I am continuing to quote from a pamphlet issued by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U.S. House of Representatives. This is a free pamphlet, and it would be wise for those who are interested in better understanding how Communism is gaining ground in the United States to write to the Un-American Activities Committee, U.S. House of Representatives and get a copy of it.

"It's just to remind you of some serious facts of life and to point out by comparison the different effects of freedom and slavery.

"Our system still survives IN SPITE of Communists within and without. On the other hand, the Communists, even without total monopoly of power, still have to use guns to rule.

"36. Well, when did they begin to invade OUR Government? "The fact of their starting point was November 16, 1933, the day when the Government of the United States granted diplomatic recognition to the Soviet government of Russia.

"37. What was that? "The famous 'Trojan Horse' or 'United Front' program by which Communists were directed to say less in public about violent revolution and DO more toward corrupting from within.

"38. By the way, what did our Government get, officially, in return for granting Stalin diplomatic recognition? "In return for (a) settle all outstanding debts between the two countries, (b) develop mutual trade, (c) end Communist propaganda against our Constitution, and (d) support to the Communists here seeking to destroy our country.

"39. Were any of these promises kept? "Not one. "40. Well, what actually happened? "In Russia itself, the crisis of the Communist Party continued its bloody course. More than 1,000,000 Party members (about a third of the total membership) were expelled in 1933, alone.

"41. What form did this strategy take over here in the U.S.A.? "Communists stopped operating apart from everybody else and instead began to join other people's movements and to offer their own disciplined forces to promoters of special causes and public issues with intent to capture 'fellow travelers' and 'Communist front' organizations.

"42. What is a 'fellow traveler'? "Anybody who ally himself with Communists in anything is a fellow traveler. He is a deadly weapon, for he deceives others and often himself, that Communism can be led peacefully.

"43. Is that possible? "Neither in fact nor in theory. The Communists have always made it basic in their thoughts that VIOLENCE is inevitable in their struggle for the world. And in all their captures, from Russia in 1917 down to China in 1948, they have USED violence as their weapon.

"44. What is a 'Communist front'? "Any organization that lends itself to Communist purposes, this committee has published lists of organizations which it has cited as Communist fronts and also which have been cited as such by other official Government agencies.

"45. When did these spring up in the U.S.A.? "They sprang up upon U.S. recognition of Soviet Russia. Communists, fellow travelers, and front agents promptly flooded Washington, and began to worm their way into the Government of the United States.

"46. Where did they show up, mostly? "The main inflow was through the Public Works Agency, Works Progress Administration, Agricultural Administration, and National Recovery Administration, during the years 1933-36.

"The Federal Art Project, Federal Writers' Project, Federal Theater Project, and such organizations introduced them in large numbers.

"47. Did they stay in these? "By no means. Within a few years, Communist lawyers, accountants, executives, and scientists were solidly entrenched in Washington in various Government departments.

"48. Who let them do it? "You. The voting public is the real power of Government in this country. Public indifference to the realities of Communism in past years caused indifference on the part of governmental officials.

"49. How do you mean indifference? "Here is an example given by J. Edgar Hoover: "The FBI submitted a 57-page report to the Federal Security Agency on March 7, 1942, on Doxey Wilkerson. The investigation recorded interviews with persons who stated that he was a member of the Communist Party. Following submission of the report, we were advised by the Federal Security Agency that Wilkerson was 'subversive or disloyal to our Government.'

"The Hoover report answers that: "Wilkerson subsequently transferred to OPA and resigned on June 12, 1943. Within 24 hours he announced his new job as a Communist Party organizer. He was subsequently appointed a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party. To be eligible for services with the National Committee, one must have been a member of the Party in continuous good standing for at least four years.

"51. You blame me for that sort of thing? "Yes. Until the general public demands it, offices of the Government will always tend to be slack about cracking down on Communism. (to be continued.)

Baxter's Views

BY DAVID BAXTER

FREE SPEECH

Continuing our discussion of free speech, the argument for LIMITED free speech is hardly adequate because if a man's speech can be limited by other men, then his expression is not entirely free. You cannot limit an individual's producing or consuming or earning capacity and still have entirely FREE enterprise.

It is often argued that an individual may have a right to 'free speech' but not a MORAL right to think or say some things. However, that would presume that what some people believe to be moral is ethically binding upon everyone else and would establish a self-asserted moral dictatorship of some people upon others. I personally believe the Christian moral ethics, including the glorious Golden Rule, to be the highest standard of morality, a yardstick to go by.

Yet, "as a man thinks in his heart, so is he." I believe that men will be judged by what I believe to be the moral laws of God, yet I can only bind myself to this moral code as an individual who believes in it. I have no authority to bind others to it. All I can do for them is attempt to educate, never initiate force. Indeed, the Golden Rule itself would obligate me to "let others be as I would be myself."

But, you say, there are some religions which would prohibit the free exercise of others if THEY were in power. True, most restrictive religions don't believe in free speech. But true Christians and Americans do. Therefore, we must respect the right even of those who do not believe in free speech to free speech, if we are to be consistent with our own principles.

And what about the right of rebels to rebel? The right of the very Government which concedes them the right to rebel to suppress them? "I believe that if a government is bad that people have a right to overthrow it. Our revolutionary forefathers certainly exercised their right to free speech (which their government suppressed) in their struggle to overthrow the Government. Otherwise, we would not now have a United States, with its free press, press and assembly.

The Communists, Fascists and Socialists, etc.? That's a big pill for the believer in civil liberties and free speech. It is bad enough for the American system, though, they have every right to think and say things that other citizens hate, just as you and I may think or say things that other citizens hate. The way to achieve the highest good of both Christian moral ethics and American freedom is not to jump on the other fellow's right to free speech, but to stand for that right and this PRACTICE what we preach, at the same time setting a good example.

Likewise, let it never be forgotten that quite a big number of people are not in favor of free speech. When the totalitarian advocates totalitarianism and suppression of other people's rights, then it is time for YOU AND I to use our own rights, not only to champion our opponent's freedom to speak but to show how, in the very act of doing so, we have much better system than his. If you support free speech for Communism and you talk for American freedom and what you say is true, then the truth will always finally and inevitably prevail. It is only when the totalitarian starts force that we have a right to use force in self-defense.

Consistency in adhering to principles isn't easy. The same Marcus Aurelius, emperor of Rome, said: "When any man show me wherein I am wrong, then gladly will I change." Yet this same emperor was not quite so quick to change his mind. He persecuted the early Christians, persecuting them with the utmost cruelty at times.

I know anti-Semites who would gladly support Jewish teachings. I know Jewish individuals and organizations who would make laws to forbid anti-Semites to talk or write and send them to prison. The Catholic church, given political power, has never been noted for upholding the rights of other religions and I know many so-called Protestants who would run the Catholic church out of America and close down parochial schools if they could. The New Dealers and the Red Front allies didn't devotion to "the government" and with a propagandist belief in an American mission to correct anything out of joint in the world on limitless distant battlefields.

Agency that further investigation failed to show Wilkerson was 'subversive or disloyal to our Government.'

"The Hoover report answers that: "Wilkerson subsequently transferred to OPA and resigned on June 12, 1943. Within 24 hours he announced his new job as a Communist Party organizer. He was subsequently appointed a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party. To be eligible for services with the National Committee, one must have been a member of the Party in continuous good standing for at least four years.

Americans Pay A Disguised Subsidy To 'No Dice Paper'

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

ROME - I will try here to consolidate interviews which I had on successive days with Lloyd Free, a state department man, in charge of the propaganda program of the Economic Cooperation Administration.

Dayton has the rank of minister. I was told in a rather disparaging tone that he had qualified for his labors and responsibilities running a supermarket back home. I have often marvelled at the abundance of money in the supermarkets of Tucson, Ariz., which I sometime visit as a spectator, and at the wizardry of those who keep the inventories going.

"I honestly don't know," Free said. "We got the paper into the hands of a lot of people who otherwise never would have seen an American paper. It is not a good paper. The USIS gave them $38,500 in 1950.

"The Communists gained percentages on the city and provincial elections last May but they lost control in many important localities, and control means jobs. You know patronage. The more intellectual people are the more they want so you can't say that Communism is a question of human misery. The press is not a good way to reach the workers because less than half the adults read any paper. Not more than 40 percent of the homes have radios so pamphlets are the best way. We lay them down in factories and get people who are beyond the press and radio.

"Our trouble is that we let the Reds rush in and grab everything after the war. Money, print presses, buildings. Everything the Fascist party and the government had in those days. The Communists grabbed them and they still have them."

Dayton seemed pretty candid. He said they had just changed the names on the doors when the ECA became the MSA but had shipped home a lot of people who were financial experts and had taken on new types for the new problems promoting "security" under the military defense program. However, they are still turning out "documentary" films and my eyebrows went over on to my shoulder blades when, in the catalog, I saw that Orson Welles, who has been notorious for years in the Hollywood fronts, had come the "complementary" one of them. How come this?

The Nation's Press

WHERE POINT 4 FAILS (The News and Courier, Charleston, S. C.) Americans repeatedly are told by their leaders that poverty is a breeding ground for Communism. Unless American dollars are spent to raise the standard of living of some underprivileged country, our government leads us to believe, the people of that country will become Communists.

This subsidizing of poverty-stricken nations is the heart of Truman's Point 4 program. If Americans, motivated by charity, want to help poverty-stricken people around the world, that is their credit. But if their motive is a selfish one—the belief that freedom can be bought for the world—they may find their billions of dollars have failed to achieve their purposes.

If we are to pour out money every time some foreign political leader shouts that his people are on the verge of turning to Communism, we soon will be flammé out of our resources. Poverty does not necessarily lead to Communism any more than wealth necessarily leads to freedom. The Americans who fought the Revolutionary War for freedom were not wealthy. They were the "rabble in arms."

American dollars cannot buy freedom. American dollars, used for bribes or armaments, perhaps can prevent the people of a country from embracing Communism. If that is the purpose of Point 4, we should be honest enough to admit it. We should tell the world that, rather than believing in freedom, we want to prevent foreign people from being free to adopt Communism.

The best way that Americans can stop the spreading of Communism is by illustrating to the world that the American form of government means more prosperity, more freedom, more integrity, better leaders, higher moral standards than any other form of government. When our own economy is inflated, when our freedoms are taken away from us, when our moral standards are lowered, when our taxes are alarmingly burdensome, we demonstrate to the world basic flaws in our own form of government. These flaws do more to promote Communism than Point 4

Col. Frank Gervasi formerly of Oller's had found Welles available and had used him. Gervasi ran to hysteria over the Hyde Park Mahatma during the war but I saw him a few nights ago and he seemed cured. But if he thinks Welles is all right he may be springing Charlie Chaplin and John Garfield on us next. He has a contract to do 13 more films and will wear close watch-

Dayton thought the Rome American was worth while, even at $46,000 a year, which is the present cost of the subscriptions. He is the only one in any of our services over here who has expressed an honest opinion of the expensive and luxurious "missions" of the AF of L and the CIO to save Europe from Communism.

"The U. S. Government doesn't need any help from them in administering our foreign relations," he said. "Most of these so-called Communists here are not Communists anyway. They are just unhappy over their standard of living. I think we made a big mistake when we sent their kind away."

National Whirligig Administration's Tidelands Stand Jeopardizes Defense

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON - Unless checked by Congress, the Truman administration will gamble on jeopardizing national defense in order to win its suit for federal ownership of submerged oil lands off the coast of California, Texas, Louisiana and Alaska.

The White House will even invite Russian spying and other hostile activities within these strategic waters - an area which the Japs fished and mapped before Pearl Harbor - in spite of a ruling by the International Court of Justice at The Hague, which destroys the legal position of President Truman and Attorney General J. Howard McGrath.

Not even the recent reported appearance of Soviet submarines off the shore of San Domingo has led them to reverse their legalistic stand.

MUZZLED - In order to obtain untold billions of federal revenue, Truman and McGrath have upset the defense strategy framed by Pentagon experts. In refusing to abide by the Hague decision, they weaken Secretary Acheson's attempt to convince Russia, satellites and neutrals that the United States respects international law, and seeks a peaceful rather than a warlike settlement of world conflicts.

Despite their disagreement, high State and Defense officials have been muzzled by the White House. They dare not voice their protests against this narrowing of our defense waters. But several retired naval and military men have denounced it as witnesses before Congressional committees.

As a result of these new developments, which have not been publicized sufficiently except along the Pacific Coast, the tangle of oil controversy becomes a grave problem of national interest and concern.

It resolves itself into a question of whether the Truman administration's ragged need for dollars to rescue the Treasury is more important than national defense in this dangerous period of world history.

DIFFERENCE - The new and nationally important twist in the tidelands row involves the basic question of where the boundaries of "internal" waters along the coasts of California and Alaska shall be fixed, and who shall fix them.

It should be explained that the Hague arbitration involved a fisheries dispute between Britain and Norway over the latter country's "inland waters." Having the same kind of off-shore, island network as California and Alaska, Norway claimed that this outer line should mark the boundary of her "inland waters."

The assembly would have the right to advise the Vietnam government but no power to vote "no confidence" or defeat it on any issue.

RISE IN INFLATION A dirigible containing helium gas seldom inflated more than 25 percent when leaving the ground but as soon as the ship begins to rise, the gas begins to expand and fills the bag to capacity.

does to promote our brand of freedom. America's first duty is to rid itself of leftist, dictatorial sicknesses, before trying to cure other lands of those sicknesses. Physician, heal thyself!

there is a difference between "inland waters" and "internal waters." The former belong to the states. The latter, which are also known as "marginal" or "territorial" waters, belong to the United States. And the property under these bodies - that is, oil or other valuable minerals - belongs to the states or federal government, respectively.

The disputed petroleum deposits lie under the outer "marginal" and "territorial" waters, on the continental shelf beyond. There is little or no oil in the area known as "inland waters," which represent the states' legal domain.

BOUNDARIES - In order to grab the oil in the outer waters, Attorney General McGrath's lawyers have fixed the states' and Alaska's boundaries so that they skirt the coast only a short distance from shore. From this line, and to a distance of three miles on the continental shelf, over under the McGrath setup. His line even includes the bays of certain cities in California.

Off California, however, there lies a string of volcanic islands which extend from 25 to 75 miles above Santa Barbara and San Diego. Off Alaska and the Aleutians the island coastline protrudes close to Russian territory.

On the basis of legal decisions and official maps, California and Alaska's boundaries extend to the outer rim of the islands. If the United States would accept this contention, it would mean that our national defense line - our ocean frontier - would be pushed far out to sea, and the waters beyond that line would be under the control of the Japanese.

It would mean that Russian "fishermen" as did the Japs, could not invade or fly over these waters with immunity from American protest or action.

CONSERVATION - But Truman-McGrath acceptance of California's claim would deprive them of billions in badly needed revenue. So, to the despair of our defense and diplomatic experts, the matter for months is rendered these strategic sea areas to foreign nations.

Ironically, The Hague decision has upset the government's case, although Attorney General McGrath had expected to provide him with legal reinforcements. Now that it is adverse, he refuses to admit its application to the California-Alaska situation.

The Hague arbitration involved a fisheries dispute between Britain and Norway over the latter country's "inland waters." Having the same kind of off-shore, island network as California and Alaska, Norway claimed that this outer line should mark the boundary of her "inland waters."

The assembly would have the right to advise the Vietnam government but no power to vote "no confidence" or defeat it on any issue.

DISPUTE - Although the Supreme Court has held in a 4-3 ruling that the United States enjoys "paramount" authority over "marginal waters," it did not pass on the boundary dispute as outlined here. It referred that question to a special master at Washington who will not decide the matter for months. It is before him that McGrath's bright young men are arguing in favor of dollars against defense.

California on Capitol Hill or the Supreme Court to fix the national boundaries of the United States. That is the sole function of Congress, as set forth in a bill recently introduced by Representative Samuel W. Yorty, a Los Angeles Democrat. Unless Congress puts dollars for Truman before defense of the United States, favorable action seems certain.

Pampa Art Club Presents Willie Jackson Monday

Mrs. George Norris introduced Mrs. Willie Thornton Jackson Monday at the private showing of Mrs. Jackson's original paintings in the Pampa Public library.

Mrs. Jackson's work was recognized last fall by Mrs. Fred Sloan, and she assisted Mrs. Norris in arranging Monday's program for the Pampa Art club. The art club is sponsoring the exhibit for the next two weeks.

In introducing Mrs. Jackson's work, Mrs. Norris explained that she has been painting only a little over a year, and has done over 100 finished oil paintings.

"We have selected these as being most nearly representative of her best work. They are not the first nor the most authoritative to have done so," Mrs. Norris concluded.

Methodist WSCS Has Introduction Of New Bible Study

"A Study of the Book of Acts" by Edward P. Blair will be used as the text for study by the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the First Methodist church.

An introduction was given to this study recently in Fellowship hall with the showing of the film strip, "The Second Missionary Journey."

A triptic, displaying a picture of Paul preaching in the street of Antioch, flanked by green tapers and the Bible opened at the Book of Acts composed the worship center which was arranged by Mrs. L. L. Millerin.

Mrs. Ed Williams conducted the program for Circles Five, Six, Seven and Eight with about 35 women present. Mrs. H. H. Boynton led the group in prayer, followed by the singing of the Lord's Prayer by Mr. Roy Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson at the piano. Mrs. Julian Key gave the devotional. Mrs. Williams pointed out the key scripture to the Book of Acts as 1:8, "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth," and gave background information and remarks preceding the showing of the film.

Circles One, Two, Three and Four met Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. F. W. Shotwell conducting the program. The group sang "Faith of Our Fathers" accompanied by Mrs. Irwin Cole. Mrs. Walter Purviance led in prayer after which Mrs. Julian Key presented the devotional, "A Stranger of Galilee" was sung by Mrs. Loyd Wilson accompanied by Mrs. Irwin Cole. Mrs. Shotwell introduced the Book of Acts before the showing of the film, and Mrs. Hessey dismissed the group with prayer. There were 60 ladies present for this meeting.

Bishop Seaman Guild Will Meet Wednesday

Mrs. L. R. Miller, 1700 N. Russell, will be hostess to the Bishop Seaman Guild of the St. Matthew's church Wednesday morning. The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m.

These flower compositions are not simpering with syrupy sweetness. They are like the artist herself, honest and forthright. Here we have an honesty and integrity that cannot be doubted. The backgrounds are kept beautifully simple, skillfully balanced between bold and muted colors. The placement of the objects and the horizontal line that defines the table top from the wall behind are always in harmonious relationship. The direction of the branches and the grouping of the flowers have a delicacy of balance that is reminiscent of the Chinese silk paintings. Since Willie Jackson didn't study these things in a composition class, one can only say she has an instinct for them. In her sensitive feeling for pattern she often presents forms that are not logically drawn. We do not mind as indeed we should not, for to demand always the logical and the photographic in art is to take the narrow confining view.

"Mrs. Jackson is a quiet, unassuming person with an intense love of order and neatness. These qualities are incorporated in her paintings with freshness and imagination. The paintings presented here are original not only in their interpretation but original also in that she has not copied them from other paintings. To copy is to lean heavily on a crutch that becomes habit-forming. When copying, one can neither claim to have conceived an idea, formulated a solution, nor arrived at a conclusion.

"These honest flowers, these good homely fruits, gay and happily painted, delight the eye and divert the mind, weary of the world that is so much with us. We speak out in support of Willie

Appearing Here Wednesday

WHITTEMORE AND LOWE — national famous duo-piano team, will appear here Wednesday in the last of the 1951-52 concert season. They play virtually all the standard music originally written for two pianos and have expanded the repertoire with over 170 of their own transcriptions of works ranging from the classics to the best of today's popular music. They have also commissioned works from contemporary composers, including Manuel Rosenthal and Ernst Krenek. Both pianists are from the West, and last year during the University of Rochester's centennial, Arthur Whittemore and Jack Lowe were cited as two of the institution's most distinguished alumni. The concert is set for 8:30 p.m. in the Pampa Junior High school auditorium. Admission by membership card only.

Everyone's talking about Spring but with the early-morning sleet and snow like Monday, it's not quite time to switch over to the spring luncheon menus. Brunswick stew, a famous favorite of southern cooks, is a perfect one-

Mrs. Sam Bateas Is Hostess At Social

Mrs. Sam Bateas was hostess to the Reapers class of the Central Baptist church when the class met recently for the monthly social.

Mrs. Joe Spoonmore led the devotion.

Secret pal gifts were exchanged after which refreshments were served to Mrs. Nat Lunsford, R. V. Burns, A. P. Holligan, L. C. Hageman, Bob Anders, H. L. Atkinson, C. A. Jeter, D. C. Irby, R. L. Higginbotham, L. V. Ataway, R. E. Leonard and Miss Grace NeCase.

dish meal for these last cold days of winter when something hot is especially tasty.

This is a family Brunswick stew and seems simpler than the original stew southern cooks once made in a wash pot of heavy iron and used the "taste test" when time for the seasoning. They used pig's head, feet, liver and heart and everything from okra and corn to mushrooms and butterbeans. Fresh (or frozen) vegetables are best, but canned ones may be used.

FAMILY BRUNSWICK STEW

four cups of corn
two cups of tomatoes
two cups okra
two cups butterbeans
two onions
salt and pepper to taste

Boil chicken until it will leave the bones and be very tender. Pull meat from bones and cut into large cubes, return to the water in which it was cooked and add vegetables and cook down until thick mixture. Cook slowly and stir often to prevent scorching.

MOROCCO has been described as a part of the Arab World displaced by chance on the northwest corner of Africa. The country is a mixture of desert and rich, beautiful garden land where the river valleys cut through the mountains. Here, for centuries, nomadic tribal chieftains have led the Rif, Berbers and Arabs in war against French and Spanish colonialists. The Moroccan monarchy, now divided into French and Spanish protectorates, with some 10,000,000 population, is but the remnant of the great Shereefan Empire carved by the Arabs in Northwest Africa and Southwest Europe in the seventh century. Its natives are mostly Berbers, Arabs and mixtures of the two races called Moors. Morocco's economy is agricultural and pastoral, but because of its splendid climate and natural beauty, Morocco has become a tourist mecca. Now, its greatest importance to the free world is that it is the Western anchor of any Middle East Defense Command. The U. S. has several big air bases there with more planned. Morocco's restless tribesmen are presently caught up in the anti-colonialist, "nationalist" fever that has engulfed the Arab world. The powerful Sultan of Morocco himself has shown strong nationalist tendencies. Continued unrest and violence, most prevalent in the French protectorate, could develop into a dangerous revolt similar to that against Britain in Egypt's Suez Canal Zone, at the "other door" of the Mediterranean.
