Reds Admit They Hold Unreported Prisoners

Say Will Give Names To UN 'In Due Time'

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Communists admitted today they hold unreported prisoners and tried to use them as a club in Korean truce negotiations. The Reds said they would supply the names of these prisoners "in due time" but only after the Allies furnished data the Communists have been demanding.

Rear Adm. R. E. Libby reported sharply that the UN command would furnish additional prisoner data on an exchange basis or not at all. The first admission followed a demand by Libby that the Communists account for 174 additional prisoners. Most of these are Americans. Some are British. This makes a total of 1621 United Nations soldiers and 50,000 Republic of Korea (ROK) troops for which the UN has demanded an accounting. None of them was listed in the original list of 11,936 prisoners of war the Reds turned over Dec. 18.

North Korean Maj. Gen. Leo Sang Cho referred Wednesday to the 1500 as "the main list of POWs who we hold in prison." "As for the necessary supplementary data," he said, "they are now being put in order and we will hand it over to your side in due time. You must give us first the basic data which you have promised to give us." He was referring to 44,000 Koreans originally listed by the Allies as prisoners but since reclassified as South Korean civilians or ROK troops. Their names were not on the original list of 132,000 the Allies handed the Reds.

Libby said the Allies were ready to exchange complete information on prisoners, including rosters captured between the time the original lists were compiled and Feb. 28.

His demand for a report on 174 men was based on names taken from the Communists' rosters to families. Communist periodicals and other sources, presumably secret agents, had requested for names of 50,000 ROKs, whom the Reds said "do not exist," was based on Communist radio boasts of the number of prisoners they had captured. The Allies insist that the Reds impressed most of them into the North Korean army.

Lee repeated today: "We released at the front the majority of prisoners of war whom we captured. The Reds have said this many times in support of their claim that any ROKs in the North Korean army joined voluntarily and were not impressed prisoners."

Admiral Libby called General Lee on his statement of Tuesday that the 50,000 "do not exist." Libby said the statement was contradicted by Red front line broadcasts.

"The psychological warfare program of your army is very consistent with the general Lee has taken in these meetings," Libby said. "As an illustration of this inconsistency I quote from a broadcast made by your psywar program a week ago: 'The Allies insist that the late afternoon of 1 March 1952. I am an ex-ROK soldier who has been captured by the KPA (Korean People's Army) and furnished training as a member of the KPA. I am living an easy life with the KPA.' Libby said the broadcaster then appealed to ROKs to follow his example and join the Reds.

UN Compiles List Of Unreported POWs

A list of 174 Allied soldiers which the United Nations command says are unreported prisoners of the Communists was handed to the Reds and asked for and accounting. The list is being compiled and will appear in The Pampa Daily News tomorrow. It will contain names, rank and serial number of United Nations soldiers which have been mentioned in Red propaganda broadcasts and publications, but is not expected to include home towns.

Leverich, Groves Are Named Chairmen Of Soap Box Derby

Two members of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce have been appointed co-chairmen of the local Soap Box Derby, James Leverich and Vernon Groves.

The annual event, which is sponsored jointly by The Pampa Daily News, Junior Chamber of Commerce and Culberson Chevrolet, will be held in Pampa the last of July.

Leverich and Groves will meet sometime this week to lay plans for the derby and to name members of a registration committee and to assign chairmen to other committees.

The 1952 soap box derby, which is called the greatest amateur racing event in the world, will be held at Derby Downs, Akron, O., Aug. 10. Winners from local races the preceding month will vie for top national honors.

Pampa winner last year competing in the national race was John Langford. The derby is open for boys 11 to 15 inclusive and who never have won an officially sponsored soap box derby race. Purpose of the event is to promote both craftsmanship and sportsmanship through competition.

Official rule books may be obtained at The News.

Attending from here will be Howard Buckingham, president of the Texas branch of the association; Frank Lard, director; and E. O. Westigworth, manager of the local chamber of commerce.

During the meeting a constitution and by-laws will be formulated and a 1952 work program planned. Buckingham said.

Assisting in making plans for the national convention will be G. E. Whittier, president, and Bascom Weaver, secretary, both from Mountainair, N. M.

Plans for the annual Lions club luncheon will be discussed during a meeting of the district committee in the local chamber of commerce office at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow.

The event will be held April 24 and 25 under direction of B. I. Shultz and Ed Mvatt. Proceeding the minstrel April 22 Lions members will hold a banquet in celebration of the organization's 25th anniversary.

A hung jury resulted in a civil suit case in justice court yesterday after arguments had been heard. The suit resulted from a claim by the plaintiff, J. C. McWilliams, that E. A. Rubick still owes him $115.39 for a new motor installed in his vehicle over a year ago.

The original cost of the motor was $245.20 of which $100 was paid by Rubick. He refused to pay the balance, however, because he claimed there was a defect in it.

Committee Rejects Reorganization Of Revenue Bureau

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate expenditures committee today disapproved President Truman's plan to reorganize the Internal Revenue bureau. The vote was 7 to 5.

The resolution of disapproval now goes to the Senate floor where the final decision will rest. Majority leader McFarland (D-Ariz) has said it will be taken up there next Tuesday.

The committee, which has held four weeks of hearings on the plan, discussed it behind closed doors for an hour before voting. Only yesterday President Truman made a new and urgent plea for approval.

The vote was taken on a resolution of disapproval introduced by Senators George (D-Ga) and Millikin (R-Colo.). Supporting the resolution were two Democrats, Senators McClellan (Ark), chairman of the committee, and Hoyer (N.C.) and five Republicans, Senators McCahty (Wis), Mundt (SD), Schoepel (Kas), Dworshak (Iaho) and Nixon (Calif.).

Opposing it were four Democrats, Senators O'Connor (Md), Humphrey (Minn), Donohoe (Ohio) and Moody (Mo.). One Republican, the Senate's only woman member, Mrs. Charles Smith of Maine.

McClellan had announced before the committee met that he would abolish the plan if the resolution of disapproval would be submitted to the Senate.

The House has approved the scandal-ridden tax bureau and it will go into effect automatically by March 14 unless 49 senators vote before then to reject it.

Opponents of the plan say they are certain a majority of the senators voting will be against it but that they are not so sure of getting 49 adverse votes. The 15th governing reorganization plan requires a majority of the full membership of either branch of Congress to kill one.

The key provision of the plan would abolish the jobs of the politically appointed collectors of internal revenue. Regional officials under civil service would be substituted.

Seven collectors have been ousted in the wake of recent investigations of tax irregularities.

Attending from here will be Howard Buckingham, president of the Texas branch of the association; Frank Lard, director; and E. O. Westigworth, manager of the local chamber of commerce.

During the meeting a constitution and by-laws will be formulated and a 1952 work program planned. Buckingham said.

Damage Estimated At $85 In Local Accident

An accident involving two vehicles at S. Cuyler and Thut about 5:45 p. m. yesterday caused damage estimated by police at $85 and resulted in traffic tickets being issued to drivers of both cars.

Involved were Jerry Davis Bruce, Box 456, Pampa, and Emil Friemal, Elgin, Ia. Police said the accident happened when Friemal, going east on Thut, failed to stop his vehicle at the intersection for a stop sign and collided in the intersection with the Bruce car which was going south.

Friemal was given a ticket for running a stop sign and Bruce was charged with having faulty brakes.

Water, Sewer Bids Okayed By Commission

City commissioners awarded contracts for Pampa's water project Tuesday afternoon to the Sherman Machine and Iron Works of Oklahoma City and sewer project to the H. B. Jordan and Company of Plainview.

Both were low bidders on the projects. Sherman entered a bid of $96,467.25 on the water project and Jordan Company bid $82,048.25 on the sewer project. Jordan Company bid $180,678.75 on both jobs. Sherman bid only on the water project.

Representatives of the Sherman Machine and Iron Works said work would start by April 1 and named June 1 as completion date. Jordan officials said sewer work would start within two or three weeks and completion would be the latter part of this summer, possibly in August.

City Manager Dick Pepin and Consulting Engineers Roberts and Merriman said the bids accepted by the City Commissioners were in line with estimates made before the projects were advertised for bid.

Sewer lines are to serve Prairie village along Crawford and another line will originate in the Carr-Terrace addition and run to the disposal plant.

New water lines will start at the S. Robert pump station and run to Gillespie where a smaller line will begin and extend to the overhead water storage tank on Warren.

Youth Repudiates His Confession In Slaying Of Grocer

AMARILLO — "I was just scared," a 15-year-old Negro youth told officers Tuesday afternoon as he repudiated a statement he had made earlier in connection with the slaying of A.W. Nunn, 74, Amarillo grocer.

Tom Dansby, Monday evening was charged with the bludgeoning slaying of Nunn after he confessed to juvenile officers when they drove him to the grocery store where the murder took place.

Officers today sought evidence to corroborate Dansby's original statement. Dansby named two Negro youths as witnesses in his original confession but yesterday Chief of Detectives J. L. King said the two boys named, denied seeing the alleged murder.

Meanwhile the boy remained in Potter County jail, charged as a delinquent juvenile.

Work Begins Today On Hughes Project

Work on Pampa's new low-cost housing development, Prairie village, started today after city commissioners awarded contracts yesterday for the sewer and water projects which will serve the new addition.

Hughes development officials said workmen were on the scene this morning and starting to assemble materials for the job.

Prairie village will consist of lots for about 265 low-cost homes to be built by Hughes Company.

The sewer contract awarded Tuesday will run along Crawford street and will serve the addition. City commissioners have included future plans in connection with the sewer project.

Work on the water and sewer projects is expected to begin by the end of this month, contractors told city commissioners yesterday.

Prairie village is located in the south portion of Pampa east of the Kewanee Oil Co. housing area. Hughes Company has planned the development and expects to pave streets as the project progresses.

Biggest obstacle to progress of the development was lack of sewer and water facilities. Legal arrangements and necessary work had to be done before contracts could be let for the projects.

This last obstacle was hurdled by city commissioners yesterday when they accepted bids for the two projects.

Project Ahead Of Schedule: Last Piling Is Driven For New Bridge Over Canadian

CANADIAN — (Special) — The last piling has been driven for the new Canadian river bridge on U. S. Highway 60 at Canadian.

The Austin Bridge Co., contractor on the job, has completed the task of driving 37 bents of piling for the new bridge and the 110-foot boom of the big pile driver that has almost become a part of the Canadian skyline since early in December was lowered to the ground, and the huge outfit was dismantled.

Pouring of the concrete pier atop the pilings also has progressed ahead of schedule.

Supt. E. L. Boswell of Austin Bridge Co. has been notified that the heavy steel beams for the bridge floor is arriving on the job now.

Just how long it will take to finish the new bridge "is anybody's guess," Boswell said, but if no floods interfere with the work, traffic should be flowing over the new bridge by late summer or early fall.

Completion of this bridge will remove the last remaining bottleneck on what is considered one of the best trans-continental roads according to local members of the National U. S. Highway 60 Assn.

Most of the difficulties occur during combine season in the summer when these over-width machines sometimes cause tie-ups when drivers attempt to cross tieflats.

Local Youths Get Help From Police In Forming New Club

(Illustrated on Page 10) Policeman Jess Taylor met with members of Pampa's newly organized Hotrod club last night to help iron out difficulties and to make plans for activities of their club.

Taylor told club members that as a well organized, law-abiding club, their organization would receive all cooperation possible from the police.

Club members adopted by-laws at Tuesday night's meeting one of which shows their determination to establish a safe and sound hotrod club. One by-law states that any club member fined for a traffic violation will likewise be fined that same amount by the club and will be suspended from all club activities for a 30-day probation period.

Plans are underway to connect the local club with the National Hot Rod Association.

They also voted to obtain for all members a copy of the Uniform Motor Vehicle Traffic Rules to guide their activities.

Twenty-three members were present at Tuesday's meeting.

Newly elected officers include President Jerry Logue, Vice-President Buddy Marshall and Secretary Glen Day. Board of Directors are Joe Ed Macky, James Shelton and Herman Watkins.

Oilmen Will Gather In Amarillo Today

Area oil and business men will hear R. F. Windobur, president of the Texas Midcontinent Oil and Gas Assn., speak on government controls during a meeting of the association in Amarillo tonight.

E. L. Green, Jr., district vice president for the Panhandle of the association, and local officers will be hosts during a dinner honoring Windobur.

The official who is on the second phase of a tour of Texas, is a strong advocate against the government's stand concerning when drivers attempt to cross tieflats.

Libby said the broadcaster then appealed to ROKs to follow his example and join the Reds.

Libby called the report a subversion.

Admiral Libby said none of the day's exchange makes "any difference in the principle of voluntary repatriation," key issue before the subcommittee. "They won't buy voluntary repatriation and we won't drop it."

Serene Path Of Atlanta's Symphony Hits Sour Note

ATLANTA — (AP) — At this point the Atlanta Symphony orchestra would like to know the score. The Dallas orchestra had booked the concertists and it couldn't fill them no Do, Re, Mi. Would the Atlanta orchestra please take over? Such an appeal struck a rich chord in Atlanta. The answer was yes. Ordinarily the orchestra books only concerts with sufficient time in between to let the players keep working at their regular jobs. Now it is called upon to send which the Dallas four into a previously booked program of five and the result is nine one-night stands, rehearsing between times for two final concerts upon return.

Probe Started In Cotton Deal

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Agriculture Department says it is checking into published reports an Egyptian firm sold cotton to the U. S. government on "inside information" which permitted it to make considerable money. Also, an aide to Sen. Stennis (D-Miss.) said the senator has asked government agencies about "rumors that some people made a considerable amount of money in stockpiling of long-staple Egyptian cotton." His office said he has received reports from the cotton trade that one Egyptian firm was tipped the U. S. would buy the special type of cotton. So far, an Agriculture department spokesman told a reporter, it has found no basis for the reports. These reports said a broker, Loutfy Mansour, sold 17,500 bales of Egyptian long-staple cotton last fall after a tip the cotton was to be purchased for military stockpiling. C. D. Walker, director of the department's cotton branch, said at the time the report was first published that Mansour bought the cotton several months before the U. S. government decided to buy. The cotton was bought on a bid basis with several other concerns getting in on the deal. Walker and Mansour have been close friends for many years.

Gentlemen Might As Well Get Used To Ladies Wearing Frills

DALLAS — (AP) — Gentlemen: You just plain, absolutely might as well get used to it—the fashion in the sun this summer is going to be demure. That's what the Southwest says. If a girl wears a slinky sheath dress, she's going to cover it with a froth of silk organdie or dotted swiss all billowy. She's going to wear little girl dresses with prim little white organdie collars and cuffs. She's going to wear layers of petticoats. That's what the Dallas designers showed to some 40 women from over the country for the second annual National Dress week at the Dallas Fashion center—Dallas' bid for national recognition of its 150 million dollar industry. Eight manufacturers showed their lines this week. Fashion writers were whisked from a southern fried chicken breakfast through morning coffee, afternoon tea, champagne with cucumber and watercress sandwiches to dinner at a Dallas night club—all accompanied by fashions and more fashions. These Dallas fashions—they're the type you can loaf in around the house all morning without meeting a guest with a calling card. Then you button on a skirt, a jacket or a redingote and a breeze into town with no qualms. Then in the evening, when the kula-chick breezes on the lawn, there are silk organizations, red organdie with embroidered daisy button holes, pique sundresses with stoles, flecked with rhinestones, printed dimitils with bows on the shoulders. The color—all the colors of anybody's sunset.

Rescuers Dig Into Debris Of Rio Accident

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil — (AP) — Rescue workers dug today in the splintered debris of a freight train wreck, fearing the toll of 102 dead will rise higher in Brazil's worst road disaster. About 200 were injured. The wreck occurred yesterday on a bridge arching the flooded Pavuna river as two trains approached each other on the double track at a combined speed of 70 miles an hour. Three wooden coaches of the passenger train jumped the rails and swung across the path of a speeding steel-bodied commuter train. The electric locomotive of the commuter train smashed the coaches into splintered kindling. Some bodies fell into the river, swollen by recent rains. Other bodies lay on the bridge or lay in the splintered wreckage. An official of the state-owned railroad said quick arrival of rescue workers probably saved many lives. Ambulances began to arrive five minutes after the crash. Fire trucks, army vehicles and civilian cars helped carry the wounded to the hospital. Jono Santos, a laborer going to work on the commuter train, said from his seat in the second car the collision looked "like opening a sardine can." The wreck occurred 20 miles from the center of Rio de Janeiro at 8:30 a. m. for Juiz de Fora, 100 miles to the north. The commuter train was bound for Plo from Nova Iguaçu, a suburb 36 miles from the city. Taxpayers Given Break On Returns

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Internal Revenue bureau is giving taxpayers two breaks in meeting this month's deadline for income tax returns. It announced today that tax offices throughout the country are being encouraged to stay open the next two Saturdays to help handle the last minute rush. Further, you don't have to get your return in by the traditional March 15 deadline. Because March 15 falls on Saturday — technically not a working day — returns won't be late if they're turned in or mailed before midnight Monday, March 17.

Outlook For Good Wheat Crop Looks Bright To TEC

While fewer acres have been seeded to winter wheat in Texas for the 1952 season as compared with figures over a 12-year period, prospects overall for an average wheat crop in Texas are brighter than at the same period during the past two years.

Wheat harvest in the Panhandle should begin about June 15 with a completion in the state one month later, officials of the wheat harvest control office, Amarillo, have announced.

Condition of crops in the Panhandle-South Plains area is reported from good in the irrigated district to average through the Amarillo, Dalhart, Spearman area. Condition of wheat in the Dallas, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Vernon, Childress areas is reported poor to average while in the area surrounding San Angelo, Coleman and Sweetwater, the report indicates from 80 to 100 percent has been killed by severe drought conditions.

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics estimated last December that 5,323,000 acres had been seeded to winter wheat in Texas for the 1952 season as compared with 6,416,000 in December, 1950, and 5,628,000 average from 1940-49.

harvest hands will be needed in the early wheat area and only a limited number of combines and trucks will be needed until the harvest reaches the Panhandle and South Plains.

Two File In Shamrock For School Posts

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Two more candidates have filed for the Irish school board in the April 5 election.

They are Glenn LaDue and Woodrow Henry, representing the Bethel district of the Shamrock area.

They bring to a dozen the total of those seeking school board places, in a campaign which has attracted more interest than any in some time. More filings are expected by the deadline, March 27.

Five of the present board are seeking another term. They are M. H. Clay, Jr., I. C. Mundy, J. B. Henderson, E. C. Hofman and Al Ryan.

Candidates filing other than LaDue and Henry are Rhuel Wilson, Glynn Bell, Rufus Dodgen, Guy Hardin and A. C. Brown.

All seven will be chosen April 5 because of the consolidation of the Bethel district with Shamrock last May. State law requires a complete election following consolidation.

Total membership of all trade unions in Britain is now about 9 1/4 million persons.

Follow The Rule For Melding

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

I still get dozens of letters from players who are doubtful about the initial meld when the pile is frozen. "The pile was frozen by the dealer," one reader begins, "and after a few plays the top card was an ace. I held two aces, and wanted to put them down and take the pile."

"The opponents said I had to meld from my hand, and could take the discard pile later, if I ever got a chance. Is this right?"

No, it isn't a bit right. It was all right to put down the two aces, provided the count was only 30 points, and the ace from the discard pile, and pick up the rest of the pile.

"The top card of a frozen pile was a seven," writes another fan. "I put down three aces to meet the count of 50 points, and then put down two sevens to take the pile. The opponents said I couldn't take the pile because I didn't need the sevens to meet the count requirement. What about this?"

Also wrong. You're always allowed to meld more than the minimum count. The rule prevents you only from melding less.

The players who have trouble on this point don't seem to have trouble with an unfrozen pile. It's just the freeze that bothers them.

Here's an easy way to be clear on the rule. If you're going to take the discard pile for your initial meld, it doesn't matter whether the pile is frozen or not. The rule is exactly the same.

Whether or not the pile is frozen, you need a pair of natural cards that match the top card of the discard pile. The total amount of your meld must be at least as much as your minimum count requirement; or it may be more.

You are allowed to count the top card of the discard pile as part of your minimum count; but you aren't compelled to do so.

In short, any meld that would be legal with an unfrozen pile, will still be legal if the pile is still frozen. Mind you, this applies only when you are trying to take the discard pile for your initial meld.

The difference applies only to melds that come after your initial meld has been made. Then, if the pile is still frozen, you need a pair of matching natural cards to take the previous discard. That would not be so if the pile were unfrozen.

Stores Plan Big Rollback

CHILDRESS — (SP) — Price rollbacks to 50 years ago will be in effect in two Texas cities and one in Oklahoma this week as one of the area's pioneer merchants celebrates his golden anniversary.

The rollback is featured by Watkins, Inc., which operate stores in Quanah and Childress, Texas, and Altus, Okla.

Percale, now usually sold at about 39 cents a yard, will be sold at the 1902 price of eight and one-third cents. Heavy ticking, now about 50 cents, will go at the 60-year-old price of 25 cents.

Men's hats will be offered at $3.50, the price in effect when Charley Watkins first opened his Quanah store in 1902. Workshirts, now worth about $1.25, will go at the old price of 59 cents.

Spry emergerie C. T. Watkins, founder of the firm who is still very active in the business despite his 85 years, will visit the Quanah store today, Childress on Thursday and Altus Friday.

Dodgen Is High Scorer For Irish

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Carolyn Dodgen, freshman forward, won the scoring title for the 1952 Irish girls' basketball team.

Carolyn, leading scorer for the junior high of 1951, maintained a strong pace all season and tallied nearly 200 points. She was ahead all season except one week when Modene Griffin, 175 point scorer, led the race.

Carolyn opened the season by hooping 13 points in her first game of the Perryton district tournament to pace her team and was held back in scoring by illness which kept her from three or four combats. Miss Dodgen missed one battle because of illness.

Forwards Betty Flowers, a senior, and Mary Setzler, a freshman, tallied 100 points each for the season.

Shamrock girls, starting slowly, gained stature after Christmas and won a number of important battles. Their bugaboo was tough McLean, which stopped them four times. But once they held the Tigerettes to a 53-42 margin.

Pennington Leads Irish Hoop Scores

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Van Pennington, senior forward, led the Irish scoring all season and ended the season with a total of more than 240 points. He was unable to overtake the 267 mark set by Vaughn Terry last season, or the towering mark of 327 by star guard Vernon Tarbet in the 1951 campaign.

Pennington took the lead in the opening game and held it throughout the season. In one game he scored 21 points, 20 in another and 19 in a third. He was an all-tourney forward at Shamrock tournament, all-district in the District 1-AA tourney at Perryton.

A senior and also an all-state end in football, Pennington plans to attend college next year. He has not decided on a college as yet.

Others in the scoring race who hit over 100 points include Norrell Perkins, Mack Terry, Bill Harris and George Hendrick.

Lee Roy Passons hit 198 for the B and then moved into high gear to hit 11 points against Phillips for the A team in the Perryton tournament.

Pennington, Harris and Terry graduate, but the others will be back in 1953.

Cage Star Protests Board's Ban

LEXINGTON, Ky. — (AP) — Big Bill Spivey's protest that he was "tried and convicted without benefit of a hearing" was arranged today by the University of Kentucky Athletic board.

The star of Kentucky's 1951 NCAA basketball championship team said he was denied the privilege of answering "undisclosed accusations" linking him with the basketball scandal.

In response, a board spokesman said only that the board would stand on its decision. The decision stripped the 7-foot all-American center of his athletic eligibility on a permanent basis and he was suspended from school.

San Marcos Basketball Games Will Decide Tourney Entries

By The Associated Press
Games at San Marcos and Wichita Falls tonight will determine Texas' representatives in the NAIB tournament at Kansas City next week.

At San Marcos, Southwest Texas State, undefeated in 24 games, plays East Texas Baptist college (19-11), champion of the Big State conference. Southwest Texas State is champion of the Lone Star conference and boasts the nation's top college record for the season.

At Wichita Falls, West Texas State, co-champion with New Mexico A. M. of the Border conference, clashes with Midwestern, co-champion of the Gulf Coast conference. West Texas State, with an 18-7 season record, will be playing for the first of two post-season, tournament appearances. Friday night the Buffs meet New Mexico A & M at Las Cruces, N. M., for the right to represent the conference in the NCAA tournament at Kansas City March 21-22.

Midwestern has a season record of 20-6.

Southwest Texas State also is seeking a practice game with Texas Christian, champion of the Southwest conference which will play in the NCAA. The Bobcats want a game with the Horned Frogs either Thursday or Friday night. Coach Milton Jowers probably will confer with Coach Buster Brannon of Texas Christian today. TCU already has scheduled Fort Sam Houston for a game at Fort Worth Monday night.

Banta Is Treading The Long Road Back

VERO BEACH, Fla. — (AP) — Two seasons ago Jack Banta was hailed as one of the brightest pitching prospects in the Brooklyn Dodgers organization.

Banta's career apparently is over, ended because of a sore arm.

Right Score, But The Wrong Year

VENICE, Fla. — (AP) — The Venice Gondolier, a weekly newspaper, last week printed a sports story about the hometown's basketball team reaching the finals of an area basketball tournament at Punta Gorda.

The facts were straight with one exception, reported the Gondolier this week. The tournament was held three years ago.

The newspaper explained the team's coach had left the wrong score book at the Gondolier's office.

Big SHOTS

By AL CERVI
Syracuse Player-Coach

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — (NEA) — Syracuse finished fourth in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division during the 1950-51 campaign, wasn't taken too seriously in the championship play-offs.

We were matched with Philadelphia, pennant winner, in the first round. The Warriors, headed by Paul Arizin, Jumpin' Joe Fulks, George Senesky, Andy Phillip and Ed Mikan, had beaten us six out of eight times during the regular season.

We traveled to Philadelphia a day early, maintained a training table. We ate, talked, slept and lived basketball. It paid off.

It was a dog-eat-dog fight all the way — and with five seconds to go, the Nats trailed by two points. Then at Freddie Scolari, chunky guard, now Baltimore's player-coach, sunk a one-hander from far out and the game went in to overtime.

In the extra five-minute period, we froze the ball for more than four minutes, passing it around smoothly, trying to set up the one field goal attempt that would cinch the game.

Finally with about 50 seconds left, I drove in and was forced out of bounds.

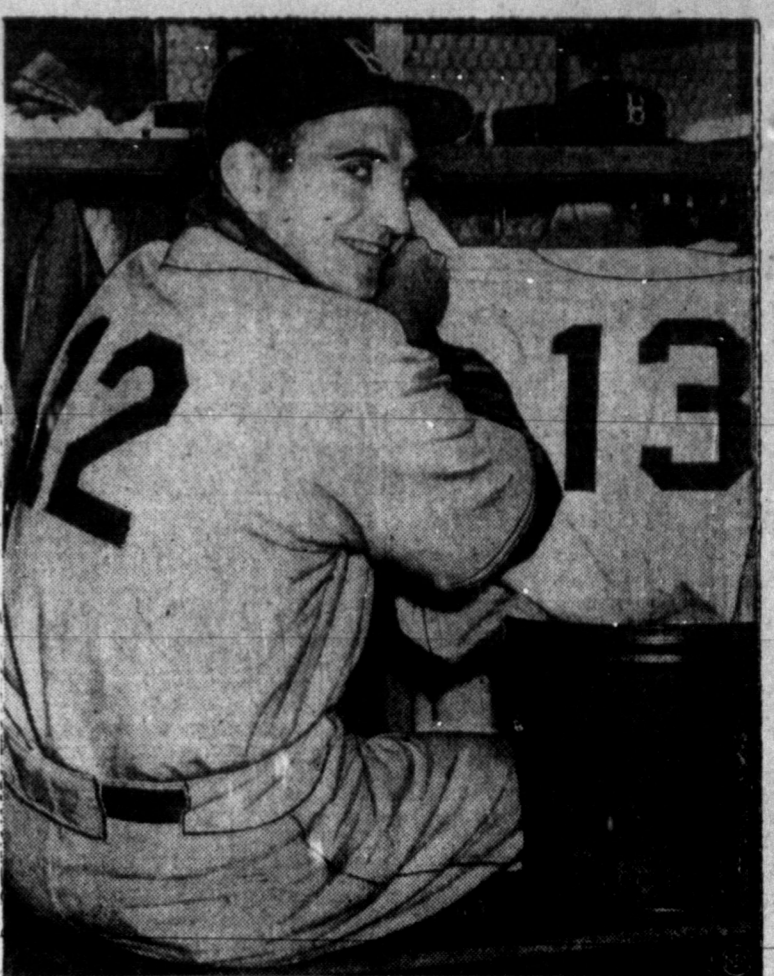

Now there were only 30 seconds to go. Twenty, 15, 10, nine, seven. The ball was passed to Scolari. Again a fancy one-hander, this time from 35 feet out.

We were in. Fat Freddie had done it again. We went on to win the series and a chance to play the New York Knickerbockers in the finals.

So with 11 goals in 18 attempts from outside, Scolari had potted not one, but two "big shots" I'll never forget 'em.

DRILL DIAMONDS

Fragments of diamonds frequently are used for the points in diamond drills, but "black diamonds," an impure but very hard form of carbon, extensively is used for that purpose.

UNLUCKY 13 — Ralph Branca's first move after reporting to Brooklyn's Vero Beach, Fla., Spring training base was to chuck his old number 13 into the ash can. After what the Giants' Bobby Thomson did to him in last season's final National League play-off game, the big Dodger right-hander has good reason to be superstitious. (NEA)

Girls' Regional Cage Champs Will Be Decided This Week

AUSTIN — (AP) — Regional champions in girls interscholastic league basketball will be determined this week and both of last year's state champions are still in the running.

They are Comanche, District 8-AA titlist, which captured the state class A pennant in 1951, and Claude, District 3-B winner, defending its Class B state crown.

District winners in AA and A meet one another in regional play this week to determine the eight teams that will compete for a single state championship. Class B regional winners will vie for a separate state crown.

State championship play will be held in Austin March 13-15.

Texas Woman Sets Bowling High

HOUSTON — (AP) — Robbie Lyons is the "first woman" in Texas ever to score 700 or more pins in league play.

Robbie, who carries a composite average of 189, made the mark last night for a burning city and state record of 717.

Her score, put together with 254, 257, and 228 replaces the state record formerly held by Eetty Marie Cooper, Houston, with 688.

did two years ago when he hit those 37 home runs and led the league. Al is down there again with his eyes on the ball and he's slamming the ball straight away instead of lofting it the way he did last season.

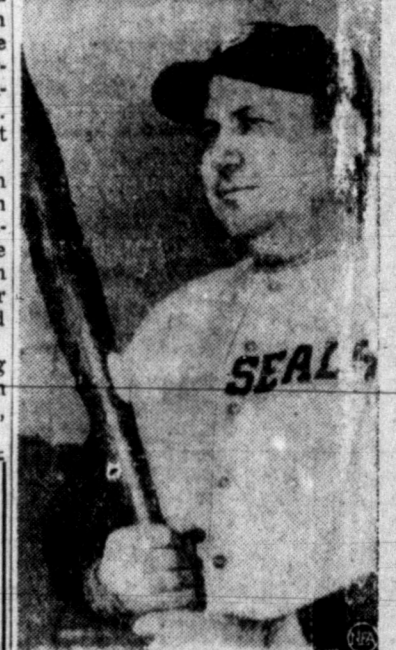

"Al decided for himself that he had taken golf too seriously after the '50 season and that it might have affected his swing. He asked Sammy Sneed if he thought that might have happened, and Sammy said to him 'Well, you don't ever see me swinging a baseball bat, do you?'"

That was good enough for Al. He cut out the golf.

"There's two reasons why I think our pitching might be even stronger. The truth is that Lou Brissie wasn't in very good shape when he came to us from the Athletics last year. But once he got in condition he was terrific. For one stretch of 31 innings he allowed only one run. He's ready to go from the start this time.

"The other reason is this Sam Jones from San Diego. He's been pitching all winter and I'm letting him take it easy for the time being, but it looks like I'm going to have to find a place for him as a starter. It's the kind of problem I don't mind.

"Frank Greenberg keeps telling me Jones is the best pitcher on the club. All I've got to say is, that's a lot of pitcher."

BATTY — Manager Tommy Heath holds a bat with "mumps" which he hopes will help boost his San Francisco Seals into the first division. The inventor claims it will keep long drives from going foul. If the ball hits one of the inward curves, strange tricks result. (NEA)

House Of David, Chiefs Scheduled To Play Thursday

Thursday evening area fans can see one of the more famous pro basketball teams in the country when the bearded cagers known as the House of David will play the Noblitt-Coffey Chiefs in the new fieldhouse.

It will be the second game this week for the Chiefs who met the highly potent Harlem Globetrotters at Amarillo Monday night. They lost by a score of 60 to 51.

The strong David team is made up of former college stars. Harry McLaughlin, 6'4" center, paces the club. He is a former Pacific Lutheran school star. While in school he established an all-time scoring record by dumping in 1785 points during his career.

Forward Homer Garner played college ball at North Carolina State. He also got in some pro-league ball at Detroit where he played for the "Gems." During baseball season he is one of the Davids' leading pitchers. Garner makes his home in Shreveport, La. The other forward spot is held down by 5'10" Wally Tibbitts. Tibbitts played for the DePaul Blue Devils. While at DePaul he earned letters in both track and basketball. When his college career was completed he played for the professional Cleveland Rebels. This is his second season with the Davids.

Gene Foutz has the distinction of playing two positions, forward and guard. He played with Florida Southern college, and while playing for Jasperstown, Ind., high school team he established and still holds the scoring record for high schools. Foutz, like Tibbitts, was also a track star. In college he ran the 100 - 220 yard and relays. He calls Lakeland, Fla., his home.

Newcomer this year on the David team is Robert Fowler, 5'11" guard. Fowler played college ball with Seton Hall university and pro-league ball with the Baltimore Bullets, New York Celtics and the Boston Whirlwinds. This is his seventh year in pro ball. During the off-season he makes his home in Pasadena, Calif.

Tom Gatzek, 5'8" guard, rounds out the David team. He played college ball with Texas Christian, Lawrence Tech and Detroit universities. Gatzek played pro ball with the Dayton, Ohio, "Mets," Baltimore Bullets and New York Celtics. This is his fourth season with the Davids. He is team captain and one of the showmen usually featured in the last quarter. Tickets for the game may be purchased from the following: Leders Jewelry, Noblitt - Coffey, Clydes Pharmacy, Richard Drug, and the National Farm and Loan Assn. Prices are $1.20 for adults and 60c for students. The game is under the sponsorship of the Pampa Kiwanis club.

Dallas Club To Begin Training

DALLAS —(P)— Dallas opens spring training in Gladeview today—the first Texas league club to swing into action. Some 25 players will be on hand when work starts. Most of the practice will be for the pitchers.

The entire Dallas squad will assemble at Daytona Beach, Fla., a week hence for full - fledged training to begin.

Allen Academy Wins Jr. Crown

WACO —(P)— Allen Academy fought off a desperate last-quarter rally by Lon Morris in a last night to win the state junior college basketball championship, 55-58.

South Texas Junior college of Houston whipped Howard county of Big Spring, 54-51, for third place.

CHAMPS TO PLAY

FORT WORTH —(P)— Southwest conference champion Texas Christian will play Fort Sam Houston here Monday night. The game will be a tune-up affair for TCU, which plays in the NCAA tournament at Kansas City, March 21-22.

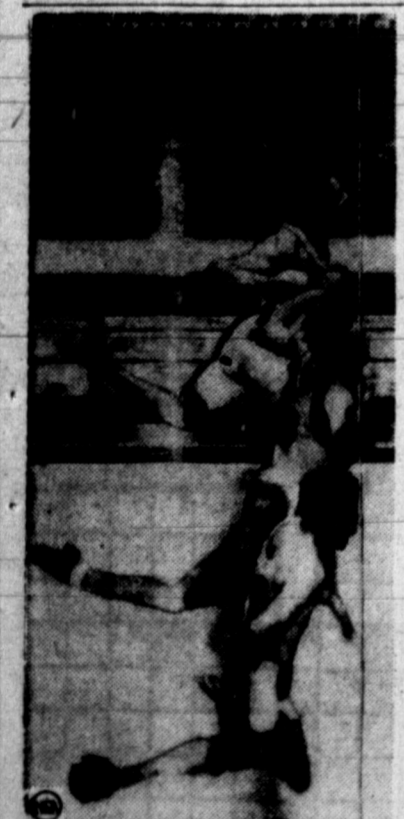

PHOTO-FINISH — It took a camera to decide for the judges who won the Millrose Games 60-yard dash. Lindy Remigino, center, of Manhattan College, was declared the winner, with New York Pioneer Club's Edward Conwell, top, finishing second and Manhattan College's John Campbell third. Remigino finished in 22.5 seconds, a tenth of a second off the world's record (M.N.A.)

Frick Denies Baseball Has A 'Police' System

A Texas Kid Who Wanted To Play Ball Like Daddy Is Making Good

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (P)— The speaker in the AP wirephoto room cracked out with this request: "We need some good new pictures of Kal Segrist, New York Yankee rookie infielder." In New York they had found some old negatives—taken about 15 or 16 years ago—in an old envelope labeled "Segrist, Kal." Inside were shots of a little Texas youngster who wanted to play ball like his daddy.

They printed them in the photo section of the Sunday paper in Dallas. I still have a copy.

"Dad always helped me with those little pointers that only a ball player can tell you about," said Kal. "He'd spot little mistakes and we'd work them out before the next game." Young Kal went to Texas University to star on the freshman team. In his sophomore year he hit .42 with the team that won the Southwest conference title and the NCAA tournament. He alternated between first base and second in college.

While playing in a Houston tournament in the summer of 1950, the St. Louis Cardinals offered to sign Kal for a fine bonus. Other clubs were interested—art offers flowed in to Segrist, Sr. who handled the business.

"We had a call from Atley Donald (former Yankee pitcher now a coach)" said young Segrist. "He said the Yankees were interested. That suited me because I always liked the Yanks. They sent me to San Antonio to work out. "In September I went to New York and signed a Pinghamton contract. But I never got there. I went to an early camp at Phoenix and they moved me up to Kansas City."

At Kansas City, in his first year of pro ball, Segrist played second, shortstop and outfield to hit .291 in 123 games. Manager Casey Stengel was duly impressed last spring and again this year at the Lake Wales pre-training school. Right now Segrist is in the fight for first base with the Yanks, although still on a Kansas City contract.

Because he hits right-handed and can play any place in the infield, young Mr. Segrist might stick around possibly alternating at first with Joe Collins against left-handed pitchers.

No wonder they made a new photo strip of the Texas kid who wanted to play ball like his daddy.

Horn Of Plenty Circled By Nuns

The average American consumer in 1939 was 25 percent better off than in 1933. This is his per capita share of the rise in production of consumer goods and services over pre-war output.

Actually the total production of all consumer goods and services is up 60 percent from 1939, but the supply per person is only 38 percent better because our population is 24 million greater than it was in 1939.

Food production is 35 percent larger, or 14 percent more per capita. This shrinks to about 11 percent after allowing for increased U. S. exports of food. In spite of defense activities, our factory civilian goods production is greater by an estimated 90 percent than the pre-war volume.

Volume of services — medical attention, hotel lodgings, dry cleaning, etc. — is nearly 65 percent greater, or about 40 percent more service available per capita.

These are increases in actual goods and services for better living — what has really raised our American standard of living rather than the increase in the number of dollars in circulation, which merely produced the inflation that has cheated millions out of their share of the improvement.

Because the total number of dollars in circulation has tripled since 1939, total production of consumer goods and services is only a little over half again as great, there are now nearly twice as many dollars outstanding per unit of goods as in 1939.

This inflation of the money supply has taken away buying power, and therefore goods, from people living on savings, bonds, insurance policies, and fixed or near-fixed incomes, and has added those goods to the shares of other groups.

The one-third increase in total U. S. food production has been achieved by actually one-fourth fewer farm workers. It is due to improved farming methods and a 16-million-dollar investment in new industrial plants and equipment since 1939, and partly to a 50 percent rise in the number of people doing non-farm work, including a drop in unemployment from 9.2 million in 1939 to 1.34 million at the end of 1951.

We are living at a crossroads in our history of living. The American citizen will soon see a recession in his living standard as a rising defense production cuts into output for civilians.

He will witness the strange phenomena of a nation capable of creating a great cornucopia of plenty but unable to enjoy it because of an inability to solve the social problem of peace among men.

TV Eyes Politics: Top officials in both major political parties are promising that this year's national convention will be different.

No long demonstrations and parades, no endless nominating and seconding speeches. All this, of course, out of respect for the vast television audiences which this year will have a chance to view the proceedings.

Baxter's Views

BY DAVID BAXTER

QUOTABLE QUOTES

Among the various papers, periodicals and letters well wishers send in I've found some thoughtful quotations I'd like to pass on. Dr. Angelo Lo Vallo, an ex-principal in "The Converted Catholic Magazine," free enterprise is not a "Business as Usual" synonym.

Charles Adams, Englewood, Colorado, commenting on an enclosure he sent, "The hopes who put us in the United Nations did a swell job for 'good old Joe' and at the same time kicked us Americans smack in the schinole." The clipping he sent stated, "CONSTITUTIONAL CRISIS ONLY CONGRESS DECLARES WAR."

Edward Holton James: "Some fifteen years ago I went to India and met Gandhi. The people there were all stirred up for freedom. They were thinking that if they could only get rid of the British and have a little state of their own they would be perfectly happy. Suppose they got a state of their own. They will be just as much slaves to their state as we are slaves to our states. I see no sense in that going around."

John Salfrank, Costa Mesa, California: Friend Baxter: You are, rather than closed, open to a disciplinary action when and if our day arrives (wonder how many sincerely think THEY will be sitting in the golden chair when and if "our" day does arrive). A bit silly, isn't it?

Mrs. G. N. Eklund, Cambridge, Minnesota: "Since our business is going to the dogs, why not let me put up a checkbook out of my better half. You might remind your readers that every project which receives federal aid for propaganda and administration has to be approved by the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

Paul S. Meyer, Santa Ana, California: "Mother nature provides free all the elements necessary to sustain life. The farmer and workman are paid cash. Business and professional people get cash from their customers sooner or later. All consumers pay taxes in cash. Question: Why all the government tax money?"

Martin Dies, Texas ex-Congressman: Well, I had started it and I could not back up. I telephoned the Attorney General of the U. S. and said, 'Mr. Attorney General, I want to secure the services of some competent and reliable investigators to assist me in this work.' He sent me two men. I received a telephone call, however, shortly before their arrival, telling me both men were members of the Communist Party.

When they arrived, I put them through the third degree in the presence of the Attorney General and finally they broke down and admitted they were members of the Communist Party who worked for the Department of Justice and the Attorney General wanted to plant them on the Committee which I headed. Immediately I knew what was in store for me. When a responsible cabinet officer was willing to plant two eagles of Moscow on my committee to sabotage it, I knew that the (Roosevelt) Administration was under the control of Moscow propaganda.

Simply expressed, it seems to be: It's all right to bore a convention delegate, who is trapped in the hall and can't get away. It's even all right to batter the ears of a radio listener, who hears so much anyway that he'll probably forget any particular announcement.

But it isn't all right to bore a TV viewer. For what a man sees he may remember, even unto November, when he marches into the polling booth.

Some psychologists think that dreams are the disguised fulfillment of a repressed wish.

Not The Only Consistent Newspaper

The editor of this column received a letter ordering the Santa Ana Register to be sent for six months to the Grandall Supply Co., Inc. of Binghamton, New York. The letter had this to say:

"On the suggestion of Leonard Read, please enter my subscription for one-half year. He recommended your paper as the one consistent newspaper in the U. S. A. today."

Leonard Read is the president of the Foundation for Economic Education, one of the soundest organizations in the United States trying to get the people to understand the principles on which this government was formed.

The E. F. Hutton Company has something to say in its weekly market bulletin that should interest everyone who wants to preserve the way of life in America that will encourage the development of character and permit a high standard of living.

"The C. I. O. Steel Workers Union is now bargaining for increased wages and other fringe benefits. By fringe benefits we mean pensions, paid vacations, insurance, sick benefits, and a guaranteed annual wage."

"Since World War II steel workers have gone up $1.35 for each $1 rise in the cost of living and they are now demanding an 18 1/2 percent cost of living adjustment."

"The wage increase is not all. They want many fringe benefits, about which the Unions say little."

"Fringe benefits, in recent years, have been increasing rapidly. In 1950 and reached a total of more than $7 billion. These payments, like the President's expense account, are not subject to Federal income tax."

"Labor leaders, in the past, have been paid $100,000 a year. In 1950 they were paid $1,000,000 a year."

"The cost of iron ore in the ground and the coal in the ground, carried only a nominal value. The end cost of steel is made up primarily of labor charges and taxes."

"The new round of wages and fringe increases will be higher. Government will have to grant an increase in ceiling prices, if for no other reason than to save its own revenue."

"The Government gets $2 out of each $3 corporations earn and on top of that it collects from 20% to 30% on corporation dividends which are paid out to individuals. Do you think the politicians are going to give up these revenues?"

"At present, inflation is as good as a dodo bird, but in our opinion would be unwise to conclude that potential dangers are past."

Some psychologists think that dreams are the disguised fulfillment of a repressed wish.

Fair Enough Labor 'Solidarity' Shown As Unions Slow Troop Movement

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

ROME — A force of American soldiers, our own people, arrived at the top of the Adriatic a few days ago to take part in a parade in the Etrurian snoring band of anti-Americanism in the controlling position, dotted line which is being arrayed on this side of the Iron Curtain.

Murray's present program at home has no other purpose than to wrest control of our country from the custody of our elected government and give it over to a lot of dictators and, eventually, to one grand dictator such as his own old boss, John L. Lewis.

There are many strong, clear precedents in the records of union conduct in our own country for this assumption by a union leader of power to tie up a seaport or the mines or the railroads of a nation.

During the late war, the national maritime union undertook to prevent the delivery of legitimate American commerce to Spain because the Spanish government had kicked the giblets out of the Minuscueto army in the Spanish Civil War.

Joe Curran, then, as now, president of the N.M.U., wrote me that World War II was an imperial war for the world profit of Britain and France until Hitler's Russia was taken over by the Communist line, and Curran began to abuse our people for their reluctance to throw ourselves into the Nazi bayonets and sacrifice American lives in the name of Russian lives.

"The union movement is the most dangerous internal menace that ever challenged the rights of our people and the integrity of our government. All over Europe, nations have been awakened, confused and chivvied into class wars and civil wars and finally into Fascism and Communism by unions."

Will no American candidate for high public office ever summons this menace and fight, not labor, but the unions as they exist today?

CONFIRMING EVIDENCE (The Dallas Morning News) Alger Hiss was sent to prison for lying when he said he never had been a Communist. Evidence that he had been a member was convincing to the public, as well as to jury members. Yet no one had testified that he had seen Hiss at a Communist cell meeting until the other day. Now Nathaniel Weyl, a former Red, has testified that he sat with Hiss repeatedly in a secret Communist group, at which attendance was limited to party members. He testified, too, that he had seen Hiss pay his Communist party dues.

In view of this further evidence, the Earl Warren Commission should be urged to turn his back on Alger Hiss?

National Whirligig Secret Fear Expressed For Economic Future Of Nation

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — In an extremely frank outburst, a top-level member of the administration's family of stabilizers has given expression to a secret fear for the nation's economic future.

He voiced the dark viewpoint that the bottom will drop out of our so-called "prosperity" when the vast sums now providing almost full employment, tremendous purchasing power and high prices are cut in half or even by two-thirds of the current $10,000,000,000 a year.

He conceded the truth of politico-economic certainties arguments that today's "abundant life" is the temporary result of almost two decades of unprecedented spending by the federal government.

Nonpolitical economic experts at the Federal Reserve, the Treasury and the Securities and Exchange Commission fully agree with this warning.

As yet, however, there is no disposition in White House circles to give any thought to this possibility.

RESPONSIBLE — President Truman prefers to rely on the more soothing advice of his ever optimistic Council of Economic Advisers, which is headed by such "fair deal" advocates as Chairman Leon Keyserling and John D. Clark. They were responsible for the council's recent report which belittled the idea that the United States should prepare for a troublesome transition stage.

There is no reason to accept the hypothesis that we would do a worse job of adjustment when defense spending declines, than we did after World War II, particularly since the reduction of defense outlays in the future would be far smaller in proportion to the nation's economy than the reductions which took place between 1944 and 1947.

FORECASTS — In simple language, they maintain that the United States encountered no serious economic difficulties, although federal expenditures were reduced by about $60,000,000,000 from 1944 to 1947.

Off the record the Keyserling-Clark group recalls pessimistic forecasts that postwar reconversion, with the shift from manufacture of arms to everyday goods, would result in unemployment of 8,000,000 people. It didn't happen then, they argue, and, therefore, it won't and can't happen here!

Hoffman never has been, is the lower end of Mexico, where the humblest family has a pet python wriggling around the floor or hanging gracefully from a rafter grin-ning amiably into people's faces.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

By MRS. BOB ANDIS
Brownies of Troop 9 met this week to practice their "Australian Cowboy" play for the International Friendship Fair to be held Saturday in the Junior High gymnasium. The girls found in their study of Australia through using the View Master pictures of Sydney and Queensland, cyclonias, Popular Magazines and the Globe, that we have in common the cattle industry. By changing the words of a popular Australian song they made it "Australian" and will use it to sing about Australian Cowboys.

Judy Leland and Carol Tripplon are the two girls of Troop 9 who will represent their group in the Grand Entry. Marianna Perkins and Martha March will be the "Brown Pony." Lou Ann Taylor is the roper, assisted by Virginia Hopkins and Virginia Worrell. Bobbie Lee Andis and Sherry Kay Rhoben will lead the singing cowboys. Fatty Erick, Melinda Peterson, Gloria Weir, Betty Barnes, Paula Jo Cumberland, Rebecca Oden and Norma Jean Fatheree.

Mrs. R. R. Pugh's girls of troop 2 have been busy getting ready for the Fair. A Military Drill, complete with costumes will be their contribution to the program.

Troop 5 will have a booth at the Fair decorated as India. An Indian doll was shown to the girls of this troop and a great deal of discussion was enjoyed about the dress of this country. Bubble gum and balloons will be sold at the Indian Booth.

Troop 16 will have a booth with crushed potato chips and decorate their booth with an Indian theme.

Used funny books, delicious home-made cakes and other goodies will be sold at 35 in their booth which is decorated with the Spanish theme.

Piping hot coffee and home-made cake will be served by Troop 14 in the Switzerland booth.

One of the 11 program fields in Girl Scouting will be carried out as the decoration for Troop 16 for their booth. "Nature" is one of the very interesting program fields and has been especially so to this troop. Cotton candy will be the "good thing to eat" at this booth.

All in all, the Scouts are working very hard to make this one of their outstanding fairs.

Beauty After Forty

"It shocks me to see women over forty who have beautiful hair, or any color, who refuse to do anything to improve their appearance. Their attitude is that they are only housewives, or, at best, grandmothers. That is a defeatist attitude. They think that housewives and grandmothers must have drab, unglamorous styles in everything, that they no longer are entitled to the little graces of makeup, hair styling and pretty clothes which make them good-looking."

That's Miss Ingerid speaking! She is a leading, nationally known hair stylist and a well-known teacher of hair design. She knows, as I do, that you, the women in my After Forty group, are the important women of the day. You MUST NOT apologize for your age! You must NEVER neglect your appearance because there is no apology for that!

Often you will find that you are better looking in your maturity than ever before. You have, I hope, learned by now the clothes and colors which are best for you. You must have developed a style personality of your own. If you haven't, then get busy and develop one RIGHT NOW!

If your hair color doesn't please you, have it tinted. I have told you this many times in my column and in my book, "Beauty After Forty," but I stress it again because, judging from my mail, far too many of you hesitate. You won't even have your hair cut. As Miss Ingerid points out that there are many wonderful ways to arrange long hair.

She created an exquisite hair style and I do hope that you will have the courage to try copying it.

Simplification Course Is Suggested For Housework Routine

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

If mom suffers from backache, has temper and housemaid's knees, it might be a good idea to send her to an industrial engineer instead of a doctor.

Instead of a tonic, she probably needs a work simplification course.

An expert in these matters is Dr. Orpha Mae Thomas, associate professor of home economics at Teachers' college, Columbia University, who combined household science with engineering for her PH.D. and now teaches future teachers how to do things the easiest way.

Dr. Thomas believes that every household should be organized on an assembly line plan, and demonstrates how it can be done with a list of "10 commandments for housewives":

- 1-Make a list of your household jobs. Check those most tiring and time consuming and figure out which can be eliminated, rearranged, simplified or combined. For instance, says this expert, new detergent make it possible to eliminate dish-washing. Stainless steel tableware for everyday use eliminates silver polishing. Seersucker fabrics cut down ironing.
- 2-Survey your kitchen and rearrange it. You will find you have a mix center, where most of your baking and food preparation is done; a cook center, which is the stove; a clean-up center, which is the sink unit. If you can't move the big equipment, at least move smaller units and supplies to the center where they are used. Your electric mixer, bowls, flour, sugar, shortening, spices, mixing spoons and packaged mixes should be stored at the mix center, preferably next to the refrigerator.
- 3-Simplify your work by buying things needing a minimum of preparation, such as packaged mixes, frozen foods, plastic place mats, paper napkins and so on.
- 4-Combine your jobs by using equipment for multiple handling, such as trays to carry a number of articles at one time, tables for transferring food and dishes from kitchen to table and back, laundry carts and so on. Oven meals can cut cooking time and effort.
- 5-Do as much of your work as possible in the kitchen. Adjustable ironing boards make it possible to sit while you iron. Kitchen counters and work tables should be hung on hooks above proper height.
- 6-Have the utensils you use at each work center within easy reach. Your knife rack should be on the wall above your cutting board. Store heavy equipment at or near counter height. Saucepans should be hung on hooks above and around the stove.
- 7-Store electrical equipment at place of use. You don't have to put everything out of sight. Your kitchen is a workshop.
- 8-Duplicate equipment if you use it in several places. For instance, have a measuring cup at the sink and also one at the mix center. Keep a broom, dustpan and cleaning supplies upstairs as well as down.
- 9-Do something with both hands at once. Lift muffins from pan two at a time, take two cups at once from rack. If you are cutting green beans, cut a whole handful on your board, not two or three at a time.

Cook's Nook

There's a new adage which says, "A salad a day keeps the doctor away."

We've been eating salads for hundreds and hundreds of years, yet only in recent years has the salad's importance been stressed as it should be. Salads contain mineral salts and vitamins and many authorities say reduce the quantity of other foods and increase the daily consumption of salads - especially the raw varieties.

The humble cabbage, carrot, lettuce and other common vegetables that give so much food value can be the highlight of the meal. Salads are quick, too. Try these suggestions:

Peel and cut bananas in fourths lengthwise, soak in orange juice one hour. Arrange on lettuce log cabin style, fill center with any fruit desired such as cherries or pineapple. Serve with dressing. The bananas may be rolled in chopped nuts before stacking, if desired.

Use canned pears: take from the can and let stand one hour in cold water. Place two halves on crisp lettuce. Make five or six balls from cottage cheese, roll in chopped nut meats or chopped parsley. Place on and around the pears, cover with dressing.

Peel ripe, firm tomatoes, cut into sections. Pile on lettuce lengthwise, peel and cut avocado same way and alternate the sections red and green on crisp lettuce leaf and serve with dressing.

Shred raw cauliflower, raw carrots, blanched almonds and lettuce hearts and toss with mayonnaise.

Salad is now a must with meals, and there's dozens of variations of the old favorites so in the coming garden season housewives should take advantage of the fresh vegetables available for the salad bowl.

We'll want some good salad bowl suggestions come summer when salad makes such a perfect luncheon. In the meantime, try some new salad on your family - and make it dressing!

Plans Near Completion For Shamrock St. Pat Celebration

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Plans are nearly complete for the big St. Patrick's day celebration here March 17, reports Norman Patrick, chairman.

Big event of the day will be the mammoth parade which will start at 11 a. m. At least 30 floats will be in the parade, and perhaps 50, with Roy Carlton as chairman of the floats committee.

Shamrock will entertain 25 bands for the big ceremony, with the Irish high school band under Robert Reeves opening the program with a street-platform concert at 8:30.

Numerous state officials and other celebrities will be on hand, with the big official opening ceremonies slated from the street platform at Second and Main.

Stuart Tisdal will direct a huge square dance for teen agers from the big platform at 2 p. m.

One of the features will be the race of colleens for the title Miss Irish Rose of 1952. Contestants must be from 15 to 18 and enrolled in a high school in this area.

Amarillo JamJets, orchestra from the air base at Amarillo, will play for a big dance for students during the afternoon at the American Legion home.

Band students will be entertained with a luncheon at the school lunch room at noon and there will be a special luncheon for contest judges.

Happy Jack Darling, a former circus clown, will provide entertainment as a slapstick master. Darling is said to be an expert in tricks of magic.

Winding up the huge celebration, expected to attract at least 25,000, is a dance by Jim my Dorsey in the Legion home.

NAMED FOR DEEDS
The bulldog received its name from the fact that it was used in England to fight bulls. The pit bull was so named because it fought other dogs in pits.

Grainman Is Speaker For Jaycees Here

Willis B. Combs, marketing specialist for the U. S. Agriculture department, Chicago, told members of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce Tuesday that people are in business solely to make profit.

Combs, in Pampa for the current grain grading school, spoke to Jaycees during a weekly meeting of the organization.

In explaining every person's responsibility in free economy, Combs said five things must be considered if a good market for products is desired. These are population, income, habits and customs of people, a marketing system operating quietly and efficiently and a reasonable price placed on the item to be sold.

James Evans, president of the club, announced that Jim Levech and Vernon Graves have been appointed co-chairmen of the 1952 soy bean derby to be held here the last of July.

Science Isn't The Complete Solution

By OSWALD JACOBY

Some of the most interesting hands I have ever seen were constructed by Dr. J. L. Thwaites and Dr. E. L. Field, of Melbourne, Australia, for use in a contest. One of these hands is shown today.

West opens the king of diamonds, and South wins with the ace. He is expected to lay down the ace of spades and then lead the six of clubs from his hand.

If East takes his eight of clubs, dummy's seven of clubs becomes an entry. South can lead the deuce of clubs to the seven and then discard his losing hearts on the king and queen of spades.

East is expected to see this danger, and he rises to the emergency by refusing to win a trick with his eight of clubs. Now South can huff and puff, but he will still lose two heart tricks. He cannot reach the dummy to get his discards.

It's a beautiful hand, and I congratulate my Australian friends on their ingenuity. Nevertheless, I must report what happened when I slipped this hand into a duplicate game recently.

South usually played the hand at six no-trump instead of six clubs. With a diamond opening, he couldn't afford to give up any cute tricks in the attempt to reach dummy. The enemy would just run their diamonds at once.

Only one pair played the hand at six clubs. At that table, the South player took the first trick with the ace of diamonds and then rattled off seven rounds of clubs with great speed. The opponents got a bit rattled, especially when declarer discarded the three hearts from dummy—so they also discarded the hearts freely.

Thereupon South took the ace of hearts and led another heart, clanking the king and queen on the same trick. His last heart was now good.

It looks like a very silly defense by East and West, but it isn't easy to find five or six fast discards against a declarer who is playing quickly and a trifle impatiently.

OLD-FASHIONED LIVING

MODERN LIVING

MODERN LIVING IS ELECTRIC LIVING!

From the old open fireplace on through the ages cooking was a grimy, greasy job until electric cooking came along. Now, your pots and pans are always bright, always shiny for electricity is the cleanest cooking method known. Who ever heard of a dirty kilowatt? No black or grime on the sides of any pots or pans when you cook electrically either, for there are no flames to go around the sides and dirty up the pans — and the rest of the kitchen, too.

Modern living is electric living. Electric living is sparkling clean always. See your modern electric appliance dealer. See the sparkling clean range he displays. The clean-cooking, good-looking range. Of course, it's electric.
