

Drilling Program In East Texas Is Outlined to FPC

WASHINGTON, March 31—(AP)—A program for drilling 30 gas wells in the Carthage field of East Texas to supply Tennessee Gas & Transmission company's Texas-West Virginia line was outlined Monday before the federal power commission.

Charles R. Williams of Corpus Christi, operating manager of the Chicago corporation, which owns properties in the Carthage field, said plans have been drawn for the new wells to help the T. G. & P. meet increasing demands for fuel.

Testifying for the application of the Tennessee company to tap new reserves in Texas and to install additional compressor stations on its Texas-Appalachian area line, Williams observed that the Chicago Octane gasoline refinery with a production capacity of 2,835 barrels daily.

The Tennessee company is requesting authority to build a 95-mile line from the San Salvador field in the Rio Grande valley to the terminus of its existing Texas-West Virginia line near Corpus Christi. A related application is one by the United Gas Pipeline Co. of Shreveport, La., to construct a line from the Chicago corporation's properties in the Carthage field to a junction with the T. G. & P. line in northern Louisiana.

James O. Lewis, Houston geologist, estimated the reserves of the Agua Dulce field near Corpus Christi, which now supply the T. G. & P., at two trillion cubic feet.

He added that about 80 percent of this should be recoverable.

Georgia already has a similar case pending before the ICC; and contended that to permit such rate cases would destroy the entire principle of ICC regulation of the industry.

Attorney General Biddle recommended that the court hear the complaint, on the ground that the anti-trust laws support the relief asked by Georgia. The railroad replied that the interstate commerce act gave the ICC "clear and explicit" authority to make orders concerning the types of agreement or conspiracy complained of by Georgia.

John Sealy Reports On 1944 Patients

GALVESTON, March 31—(AP)—John Sealy hospital, which is connected with the University of Texas medical school at Galveston, cared for 4,433 charity patients in 1944, Superintendent W. O. Bohman reported. This figure includes 1,770 patients taken in the diagnostic clinic from 143 counties throughout the state.

In a report to the American Medical Association, Bohman said that 100,000 admissions for free treatment were made in the out-patient clinic.

A Japanese battle flag, a trophy of the battle for Guam was presented to Governor Coke Stevenson by a major of the marines.

Justice Douglas delivered a 5-4 opinion explaining the court's decision. Chief Justice Stone wrote a dissent in which Justices Roberts, Frankfurter and Jackson concurred.

Governor Ellis Arnall of Georgia in urging the court to consider the complaint, asserted that 20 major railroads had "resorted to conspiracy and coercion" to prevent lower freight rates. He said they were operating an "illegal combination" against his state, resulting in northern manufacturers, sellers and other shippers gaining an advantage over Georgia business concerns.

Railroad attorneys denied the assertions. They said the lines were required by law to "fix joint rates and file them with the interstate commerce commission," recalled that

Georgia Seeks Rate Revision

WASHINGTON, March 31—(AP)—The supreme court has agreed to consider a complaint by the state of Georgia which seeks to force equalization of freight rates between the south and other parts of the country.

Justice Douglas delivered a 5-4 opinion explaining the court's decision. Chief Justice Stone wrote a dissent in which Justices Roberts, Frankfurter and Jackson concurred.

Do You Feel WASHED UP at 40-60 or More?

Why feel old at 40, 60 or more—why be the victim of the older years? If life apparently has lost its zest, you again may be able to enjoy life as you did in your youth. If added years have slowed down your vim, vitality and youthful pleasures, here is a simple, inexpensive method that may change your whole outlook on life. Why not try and regain the pleasures of living you once enjoyed. Why be discouraged—why not regain the verve and zest of a much younger man?

Just ask your druggist for Casella Tablets, either 48 tablets or 200. (The 200 size bottle costs much less per dose.) There is nothing harmful in these tablets. Take as long as you feel that you need them. Women, too, find Casella beneficial.

If the very first bottle of 48 tablets does not completely satisfy you that Casella is just what you need, return the empty bottle and get your money back. Ask for and get genuine CASSELLA.

Amarillo Makes Plans for V-E

AMARILLO, March 31—Amarillo again anticipates V-day in Europe and is reviewing plans made last fall. When it seemed last August that victory was just around the corner, a closing committee of the Amarillo Credit association, representing downtown retail stores, drafted this plan for observance of the ending of the war in Europe.

- 1. If announcement was received before 2 p. m., stores would close immediately for that day only. 2. If announcement was received after 2 p. m., stores would close immediately and remain closed the next. 3 and 4. If announcement was received after 2 p. m., on Sunday or a holiday, stores would remain closed the next day. 5. If announcement was received on Saturday, stores would close immediately, reopen the following Monday. 6. If announcement was received at night, stores would not be open the next day.

- Along with this six-point plan, the committee listed these instructions: 1. As soon as the announcement is verified, close stores immediately. 2. Clerks are to clear store of customers. 3. Remove valuable merchandise from windows and counters. This plan still stands. Members of Hanson Post 54 of the American Legion last year passed a resolution calling for a "sane and sober" observance of the day Germany collapses. The resolution directs attention to the men who have given their lives in defense of this country in World War II, lauds their heroism and calls on the stay at home to have an abiding consciousness of what is due the sacrifice made by our fighting men. Closing of all liquor stores, all drug stores selling liquor and cafes that sell beer for a 72-hour period following the announcement of Germany's fall, is also sought by the resolution and censure is called for in the case of men and women who use the oc-casual as a time to get intoxicated. City and county leaders are called on to deliver patriotic speeches and civic and school bands to play in the parks, should the collapse of Germany occur in the summer time. The resolution also says that the observance should be a happy one, with whistles sounded and bells rung. If at night, the Legion wants all street and house lights turned on. Many ministers in Amarillo long ago announced their churches would be opened for prayer and thanksgiving, no matter what the hour day or night, when VE-day is declared. Minced ham combined with an equal amount of diced cucumbers and slightly moistened with mayonnaise, makes a good sandwich filling. If you died tonight and went straight to heaven, it wouldn't keep your children from getting hungry tomorrow.

Gracie Reporting Consolidated News Features Well, I ran into one of those nasty clerks today. I went into the candy store to buy some Easter rabbits and the clerk just glared at me and said "We've had a run — or don't you know what that is?" The idea of asking any woman if she knows what a run is, with the stockings we get these days! But it developed that he meant there is a shortage of Easter rabbits. I guess they're sending most of the rabbits to our boys overseas. Though I'd like to see the rabbit that could keep up with them. Anyway, unless the OPA pulls a few bunnies out of its hat between now and Sunday, I guess we are going to do without them. I know our children, Rommie and Saunders, will understand. But it's simply going to break George's heart. The Germans were the first to keep medical histories of persons transported by air.

Expecting a Baby?

MOTHER'S FRIEND helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an exquisitely prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massage medium in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy... it helps keep the skin soft and pliable... thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin... for the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs quickly absorbed. Delightful to use.

IN GERMANY—(AP)—"Chambre Sees" is no more. The walls of room six at the hotel Portugal in Spa, Belgium, still are standing but the spirit that made "Chambre Sees" famous on the Western Front is gone forever.

For five months double room with a community bath tub was the social hub of the First American army press camp and housed one of the most hilarious menageries in journalistic history. "Chambre Sees" was the place where you could write letters home, get an earful of the latest gossip in high army circles, take a bath, inaugurate a hangover, lose your monthly expense account in a crap game—or meet Marlene Dietrich.

Many of these activities often took place simultaneously.

"Chambre Sees" was opened informally last October after the First Army moved into the Siegfried line. The first proprietors were two Associated Press photographers—Harry "Forky" Harris and Peter Carroll. They soon found, however, that instead of renting a hotel room they had established a rest and entertainment center for all visiting firemen—correspondents, public relations officers, soldiers from the front who complained that the noise was worse than shelling by German screaming meemies, airplane crews who bailed out over Belgium, screen stars, turning civilian war manufacturers, and a strange character called "the mouse" who shined shoes and had a brother called "the Lion of Lucerne" who shined boots.

Porky christened the room "Bedlam Gables" before he left for home in November. I shared "Chambre Sees" with Pete until four weeks of goldfish life drove me out. Then Johnny Flores of Life Magazine came from the Pacific. He and Pete held on to "Chambre Sees" during the German breakthrough although enemy Panzers drove to within 400 yards and buzz bombs and shells kept away "Bedlam Gables" steadiest customers.

"Well, the war has moved up now."

How Responsible Is The Office of MAYOR?

The Mayor and City Commissioners handle in a routine manner approximately $350,000.00 annually and supervise the employment of some seventy city employees.

The next three years will be the most important in the history of Pampa because many major problems will arise, such as:

1. It will be necessary to re-construct our present sewer system and disposal plant. This project will involve considerable money and will require sound business experience and judgment.
2. Storm sewers may be approved for construction within this period.
3. Park development and beautification, which was stopped by the war, will be continued and expanded.
4. The present post-war planning will be put into execution during the next three years. Many improvements will be made, such as: Paving of streets and alleys—extension of street lighting—extension of present water system—Improvement and expansion of present airport.
5. Seeking industry for Pampa and this area to replace employment now furnished by war industry.

In addition, when labor and material is again available, machinery and equipment for the maintenance of streets will be replaced and repaired.

Farris C. Oden did not seek the office of Mayor. Last year citizens interested in Pampa's welfare persuaded him to give his services. The office pays only $40.00 per month, which makes it no more attractive than any other civic duty. Responsibilities of the office, however, make it very important to the town that a fully qualified man be elected Mayor.

Again this year, feeling that Farris C. Oden was fully qualified and the city should have further benefit from his year's experience, interested citizens have in effect drafted him.

Porkers May End Grid Reign of Texas Colleges

PAYETTEVILLE, Ark., March 31—(AP)—Spring football practice at the University of Arkansas reached the half-way mark this week with several pertinent facts uncovered.

1. Arkansas will have additional backfield speed next fall.

2. More ends and tackles are needed and Coach Glen Rose would like to find at least one top-ranking passer to complete a diversified attack.

3. The situation in the middle of the line is fairly bright at present. These points were obvious after two scrimmage sessions this week.

An hour-long scrimmage session produced one touchdown and the big reason why there was not more scoring was a stout-hearted defense thrown up by a group of last year's reserves. Leading this defense were Lucien Abraham, a No. 3 man last fall, and Red Ramsey, a newcomer since the first of the year, at tackle; Reserve Hank DeSalvo at guard and Chunky Fletcher Sullivan at fullback.

The "first string" backfield had Jimmy Sandor at quarterback, with Letterman Frank Schumchik and Freshman Bud Canada at halfbacks and Letterman Calvin Lane at fullback. Schumchik, Lane and Canada are speed merchants and can add plenty of power to the Razorback offense.

Mike Schumchik, all-conference, and Freshman Jim Shofner were paired at the ends, with Letterman Charley Johnson and Freshman Gene Garrison at tackles. Co-captains Earl Wheeler and Henry Ford were at center and guard, respectively. Paired with Ford was Dale Counce, a husky reserve from last fall.

Two more weeks of training will wind up the spring session, Rose said, and results filed for reference when fall drill opens Aug. 20.

Mr. Byrnes' Horse Racing Ban Doesn't Bother Englishmen

LONDON, March 31—(AP)—England's horse racing season opens an eight-month stand at two historic tracks Monday and a record war time crowd of 100,000 followers in gala Easter holiday mood, stimulated by the apparent nearness of V-E day, will bet an estimated $5,000,000.

Approximately 40,000 British bang-tail bettors will go to the Royal Ascot apr. 29 miles from London, even if they must stand in line four hours for the chance of buying a railroad ticket. Others will go by horse and buggy or on bicycles. Ten races, twice as many as normal, are booked.

Some 40,000 spectators, mostly war-workers, are expected at Pontefract in northern England for the inaugural that features the transplanted Lincolnshire handicap.

Used clothing can save lives overseas. WHAT CAN YOU SPARE THAT THEY CAN WEAR? Take it to churches, school collection depots.

Major Leagues May Select Commissioner

CHICAGO, March 31—(AP)—President Will Harridge of the American league said today that "in all probability" a joint meeting of the national and American leagues will be called to act on recommendations of the committee on selection of a new baseball commissioner.

He said he and Ford Frick, national league president, would determine then ext move after receiving reports and recommendations.

Earlier today the committee announced it was notifying the league president it was ready to report and make a recommendation on the successor to the late Kenesaw Mountain Landis.

Noted Biologist Touring Plains

AMARILLO, March 31—Marion Toole, an aquatic biologist is now touring the Panhandle lakes preparatory to extensive experiments by the Texas Game and Fish department. As soon as the manpower is available, Mr. Toole hopes to have a crew of fish experts stationed here, probably this summer.

The improvement program will be directed by Mr. Toole as aquatic biologist for the game and fish department in co-operation with Jimmy Caserta, supervisor of lake projects for the Soil Conservation Service and Jim Maggard, captain of game wardens in the Panhandle.

"We intend to work on all the government and public lakes," said Mr. Toole. "For example, our investigation discloses that Buffalo lake is crammed full with millions of small mudcats. We contemplate extensive seining and trapping operations to reduce this population so there may be more food for the more desirable species. We are very hopeful as to what can be done by of course we don't know. So little is known as to what goes on under the water."

Those who know of the plans of the state game and fish commission say they may be the most extensive experiments ever made in the Southwest.

Racing Starts With V-E Day

WASHINGTON, March 31—(AP)—Racing people tonight formally received from Jimmy Byrnes the word they have been awaiting for weeks—that the ban on their sport will be lifted V-E day.

While this announcement lacked an exact date, it nevertheless was accepted as being specific enough for racing to "get set" for the 1945 season.

LONDON, March 31—(AP)—England's horse racing season opens an eight-month stand at two historic tracks Monday and a record war time crowd of 100,000 followers in gala Easter holiday mood, stimulated by the apparent nearness of V-E day, will bet an estimated $5,000,000.

Approximately 40,000 British bang-tail bettors will go to the Royal Ascot apr. 29 miles from London, even if they must stand in line four hours for the chance of buying a railroad ticket. Others will go by horse and buggy or on bicycles. Ten races, twice as many as normal, are booked.

Some 40,000 spectators, mostly war-workers, are expected at Pontefract in northern England for the inaugural that features the transplanted Lincolnshire handicap.

Used clothing can save lives overseas. WHAT CAN YOU SPARE THAT THEY CAN WEAR? Take it to churches, school collection depots.

Byron Nelson Is Third at Durham

DURHAM, N. C., March 31—(AP)—Leonard Dodson of San Francisco shot an even par 70 in the second round of the Durham open golf tournament to pull even with Toney Penna of Dayton, O., at 139 at the halfway mark of the $6,666 event.

Penna, the first day leader with a 68, had a 71 today.

Byron Nelson of Toledo, O., moved into third place with 140 on a 69, the only sub-par round of the day.

Hitler Has

 ent army is less than 210 miles away on the northwest.

While the greater risk crashes about the ears of the German people, Hitler—the man who led them to the edge of this abyss—is hastening the hour of their final reckoning by his shifting of troops.

At an hour when Allied armies are rampaging unchecked into the heart of Germany, the best organized and most fanatical defense comes on the southern section of the front—far from the lines which should be protecting Berlin, the big ports and the great industrial cities.

On the unprotected north front, little more than 200 miles separates the Allies of the west and the Russians. On the southern end of the front, the distance is 400 miles.

Associated Press Correspondent A. I. Goldberg said the U. S. Seventh army beyond the river Main and closest to the Bavarian mountains had struck "fanatical" resistance by Germans fighting from prepared positions.

And that was almost the only place on the entire Western Front where the Germans had tanks in reserve and were lacking the line with co-ordinated artillery fire.

There has been no other reasonable explanation why, when Eastern and Western front commanders are starved thin for troops and stripped naked of reserves, some 20 divisions fight on in strategically worthless northern Italy.

What is there to save in the south comparable to the loss of the Ruhr with its war factories, the ports of the north, and rubble Berlin itself?

heart and normal administrative center of the Reich?

There is Munich, where "brawling Nazi brownshirts first came to the attention of the police, where Hitler once tried a revolt and was jailed—in brief, a Nazi shrine city.

Paris, dRfst

There is more — Berchtesgaden, Hitler's strongly fortified mountain home, and the Austrian border mountains with hideaways where Hitler and his war criminals may steal a few more weeks of life that already is forfeited to civilization.

But with them the game is up. However well they may have stocked and stored the mountain hideouts, they could not produce there the materials for a continued or indefinite defense.

However difficult the mountain roads and passes for military operations, the massive Allied mobile might and terrific air power would open the way in for a cleanout which Eisenhower promised would come.

Eisenhower himself has said what he would like to see done with the Nazi gang once it is caught.

But that was placed "off the record" by censorship—at his request.

Mobilizer Says

 said. Victory in Europe will not end starvation there.

"We must prevent disease and unrest in the areas where our troops are stationed. We are interested in the establishment of stable governments, and stable governments cannot be expected where the people are hungry."

Blankets and clothing for children, women and men are urgently needed in devastated war areas.

WHAT CAN YOU SPARE THAT THEY CAN WEAR?

European War

The U. S. Third army hammered either in or beyond Kassel, Fulda river stronghold [d] provincial capital of Hessenhausen, and battled near Lautenhausen, both 170 miles southwest of Berlin.

The U. S. Seventh army pounded 15 miles eastward, crossing the Tauber river at two points, 15 miles west of Wuerzburg 130 miles west of the Nazi shrine of Munich and only 67 miles from the Nazi old rallying ground at Nuernberg.

The French First army crossed the Rhine on a 10-mile front from the German Palatinate, possibly near Karlsruhe area, but was meeting stiff resistance in its battle eastward.

The British Second army, more than 50 miles beyond the Rhine, was under a news blackout but was believed to be either in Munster or mid-way between that city and Hamm, easternmost city of the Ruhr.

There was evidence also that Nazi resistance on the Eastern Front was beginning to crumble under massive Russian hammer blows. Russian tanks knifed up to 11 miles inside Austria and rolled through outflanked Nazi defenses south of Vienna to within 33 miles of the Austrian capital and eight miles of its southern bastion of Wiener Neustadt.

WAR ARTIST KILLED

LONDON, March 31—(AP)—Capt. Albert Richards, 25, youngest official British war artist, has been killed by a mine in France, it was announced today.

Think of it! Your used clothing can save lives in war-torn countries! . . . WHAT CAN YOU SPARE THAT THEY CAN WEAR?

Byrnes Promises

 army, navy and air forces into a single department of national defense after the war.

He outlined reconversion plans and pledges in his second quarterly report to President Roosevelt, the senate and house on operations of the office of war mobilization and reconversion.

He emphasized, however, that there still must be "full steam ahead on war production." Defeat of Japan, he said, will be costly in both lives and weapons.

Even so, he declared, it has been possible to set up and test the machinery for VE-day reconversion. This, in part, is what it will do:

1. Release about $13,000,000,000 worth of "hard goods" or metals for production of such things as nails, cars, railroad and farm equipment within nine months of Germany's collapse. This will double the amount of materials now available for such purposes.
2. Reduce total government spending for war to a rate of $60,000,000,000 a year. The rate in the present fiscal year is about $90,000,000,000.
3. Free, within three months 20 percent of the resources now used for war production, 5 percent in the next three months, and another 5 percent in the following quarter.

U. S., Britain

 advocated the demand of the Warsaw Polish government for an invitation to the San Francisco conference. In fact, Moscow said that it had suggested to Washington and London some time ago that if the proposed new Polish government of national unity could not be set up in time, then the Moscow government should be asked to send a delegation.

2. In London a British foreign office spokesman said that the Russian proposition is "out of the question."

3. A short time later in Washington a state department official, otherwise unidentifiable, said that because of the agreements reached at Yalta to set up the national unity government, the United States government does not agree to the extension of an invitation to the present provisional government of Poland.

The American position, it was said by this official, was "taken in view of the current consultations in Moscow respecting formation of the new unity government."

It seemed possible that one Russian counter-move would be to find some excuse for calling off these consultations in order to eliminate that reason for the American rejection of the Russian demand.

Stimson Deplores Error of Army

WASHINGTON, March 31—(AP)—War Secretary Stimson today termed "deplorable" the sending of a bloodstained shirt to the family of a dead army captain in Indianapolis.

"I am exceedingly distressed that this should have occurred," he wrote in a letter to Rep. Ludlow (D-Ind.). The letter was made public by Ludlow, with the captain's name deleted.

"It is deplorable," the secretary wrote, "that despite the careful inspection system even one garment should have been permitted to leave in such condition as occurred in the case of Capt. . . . personal effects. . . ."

"I can assure you that every possible step will be taken to prevent the occurrence of any similar instance."

He asked Ludlow to express to the captain's family "my most profound regret for myself personally and on behalf of the war department."

Pacific War

 industrial and military targets on Kyushu and Honshu.

A large force of B-29s—probably 150—lashed Kyushu. The sky stank, striking the same targets for the second time in four days, rained bombs on the Taichiai machine shops and the Oita airfield.

Invasion-fearing Japan further tightened the homeland military belt. Seventy-one Nipponese generals were given new assignments in what the Japanese agency Domei described as "the resolute determination of the army to transfer the homeland into a battlefield."

The Tokyo government announced decision to pay the passenger and freight expenses of those evacuating bombed cities.

Gen. Jiro Mimami, high chief of the political association of Great Japan, new totalitarian party, said his outfit did not intend to "res" the government. He said his "sure victory" party had as its sole purpose the crushing of "the enemy approaching the Japanese homeland."

With Japan's greater East Asia co-prosperity sphere fast shrinking the Tokyo government lopped off one-third of the personnel of the greater East Asia ministry.

Liquidation of between 20,000 and 30,000 Japanese soldiers within the Central Burma pocket was in prospect as Nipponese resistance crumbled. All major escape routes from the Mandalay-Mektila pocket have been cut and the Japanese face annihilation when and if the Allied command decides to throw in its British, Indian and Chinese forces for an all-out cleanup.

DOG'S LIFE

OAKLAND, Calif. —(AP)—A two-year-old Dalmatian dog was part of the estate of his late master which was transferred to a new owner. But the new owner had a dog.

Canine fur flew until attorneys found legal precedent that a dog was a "perishable" asset and could be sold "for the best interests of the estate."

Pal, the dog, sold for $75, and seems delighted with the new owner, Alfred Lafayette, a wholesale meat dealer.

SLICK

SPOKANE, Wash. —(AP)—City sand spreaders often have difficulty getting up icy hills.

So Ralph Unger, city garage mechanic, invented a device that gives the machines traction and he wonders why somebody didn't think of it before.

Instead of spreading the material out the rear of his truck, his device spreads it ahead of the rear wheels.

Throneberry Is Taken in Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore., March 31—(AP)—The boast of Randal O. Throneberry that "nobody could ever find me in Oregon" led to his capture on a peaceful Oregon farm after a 17-month search.

FBI Special Agent Joseph B. Thornton said the FBI trailed one of its "most wanted criminals" after acquaintances of Throneberry said he planned to escape westward and disappear forever in a quiet Oregon village.

When arrested, Throneberry was working on a large Eugene, Ore., ranch under the name of John Huston Clark. Fellow-employees and the ranch owner described him as a quiet, diligent worker, who went to town only rarely for diphtheria shots for his two and five year old sons.

Thornton said Throneberry admitted coming to Oregon last August, working on ranches near Silver Lake and Gilchrist under different names. A trail of traced cars led the FBI to the Eugene area.

Throneberry, arrested in the slaying of Ethelberg Purdy, a sheepherder, escaped from a Colorado prison on Oct. 8, 1943, before his trial. He has been fleeing ever since, the FBI said.

Confessed Slayer Is Sent to Institution

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 31—(AP)—James W. Wall, 24-year-old taxi driver who confessed the slaying of his second wife, and at least five other persons, has been committed to the state hospital here for a mental examination.

Hall has been charged formally with the killing of his 19-year-old bride, Faye Clemmons Hall, in a statement to police he said he killed

Little Rock Detective Chief O. N. Martin quoted Hall as telling of killing 17 other persons who have not been definitely identified.

The great areas and population of the Far East have further to go than the west. They offer one of the greatest opportunities for an expanded world trade and higher standard of living. So it is in our interest to help them all we can.—Charles P. Taft, state department special assistant.

Misinterpreted News Bit Causes Brief Excitement

WASHINGTON, March 31—(AP)—Newspaper offices were flooded this week with telephone calls quoting a Blue network broadcast that an announcement of victory in Europe was expected momentarily. After emerging from a deluge, the Blue network said that Gil Martyn, broadcasting from Los Angeles, had said "electrifying news" had come that the President and his cabinet "are preparing for word of victory." A short time after the Martyn broadcast, the Blue broadcast from New York an announcement that "a routine announcement" from the White House x x x "was misinterpreted as a hint that big news was forthcoming from Europe."

"One of the three major news services (the International News Service) carried the story with the interpretation that the White House expected word of victory," the New York announcement of the Blue said. "The word has not yet come, it is emphasized, but diplomatic Washington says it is imminent. The United States diplomatic representatives in Europe also have been instructed to stick close to their posts, it is reported on the highest authority. "x x x White House Secretary Jonathan Daniels x x x declared the revised plans (asking government officials to remain out of San Francisco) tend to keep officials at their post for any emergency, and to avoid travel congestion. At all events word of a European victory is being tensely awaited. "It hasn't come yet—but official Washington thinks it will momentarily." The Blue's later announcement concluded with the announcement:

"This interpretation since has been found to be without any foundation. There has been no suggestion from any Washington officials that any armistice announcement is imminent." Read The News Classified Page

Pampa High Is Represented In Top O' Texas Band Clinic

Pampa Harvester band was represented in Canyon, March 23, at the annual Top O' Texas Band concert and clinic by 22 students.

Also represented were Clarendon, Borger, Hereford, Wellington, White Deer, Shamrock, Amarillo and Canyon High schools.

Practices began at 10:00 and continued until 12:30. A two-hour intermission was called, and practice resumed at 2:30.

Girls Open Season With Tennis Meet

Despite the fact that the girls PE had not studied tennis this year, they accepted the invitation to compete against Plainview and Amarillo in Amarillo last Saturday. The girls entered in first, second and third class for both singles and doubles.

In the first class singles Patsy Pierson, sophomore, placed second and Reba Pagan won first in the third class with Dorothy Culberson winning second.

In the first class doubles, Amarillo beat Plainview, and Pampa in turn beat Amarillo.

Joyce Pratt and Dorothy Culberson lost to Amarillo in the second class doubles.

"The teams are going back to Amarillo for interscholastic leagues, April 7, and will try harder since they know their opponents," stated Miss Dorothy Hoyle, physical education teacher.

Annual Football Banquet Is Held at Dr. Brown Ranch

Football boys and their dates found hospitality and barbecue plentiful on the Dr. Malcolm Brown ranch Saturday, March 24.

Under the direction of John Andrews, Joe Shelton, V. L. Boyles and the host, Ray Webb, barbecued beef was ready when the party of more than 50 students, teachers and friends gathered in the long living room where piano music, record playing and conversation held sway.

The wind had blown a gale all day and despite the suggestion that the younger set take their plates to the barbecue pit where a bonfire was going, many soon returned to the house for comfort.

Dancing lasted until 10 o'clock. Coach Olds Coffey called a football meeting in the guest room, but the boys decided against the usual election of captain. The place was too public, and the atmosphere was wrong for the usual serious matter of elections, the boys thought.

Boys We Know

A note from Harry Joe in China says "a fresh hen egg costs $40 in Chinese money."

Bobby Joe Dunham writes that he is in two Jims.

Gene Crossen has shore duty as an instructor since he had returned to the states after having his ship sunk near Samar Island.

"Three pages of snapshots of the boys in service were mounted and will be mailed Monday. Thanks to the families who sent or brought in the pictures as requested last week," Annual Staff.

Clinton Stone was visiting in the building last week in company with Ray Redman. Both boys have been out with the Navy for several years, and their ribbons indicate experience a-plenty.

Stanley Stein was visiting at the high school building until the middle of last week.

The Pampa Army Air Field Photographers Section presented their first exhibition of pictures. They have been placed in the local U.S.O. and are now on display in Pampa High school library.

The display consists of such pictures as "Dawn," "Mitchell over Pikes Peak," and numerous others, taken as "Dawn," "Mitchell over Pikes Peak." It shows a group of planes just before the take-off with a streak of light from the east shining around the planes giving a perfect background.

An unnamed picture, one showing a cozy little lake with tall firs trees growing around the edge of the lake hemmed in by mountains, was taken through some of the larger trees on the opposite side.

Two of the photographers are from the Panhandle.

Worrying Is for Those Who Do Nothing Else

Do you worry about your boyfriend, a tough math assignment, the history you were supposed to have read, or about calling too much candy? Here are some worries of some of your friends.

Betty Davis: her dog and its fleas. Tommy Cox: about getting too much to eat.

Helen Haggerty: the dates Ann White has with James Gray. Earl Davis: passing so as to be able to make spring training.

Joyce Pratt: the tennis games. Miss Cox: how Oklahoma is getting along without her.

Lift your voices in Easter Hymns for the resurrection of Peace on earth—good will to man; for a speedy return our loved ones; for those who have died to keep freedom of worship from dying in America.

Little Harvester

BY SHIRLEY SONE

What does Easter mean to you? Does it mean spring, daffodils, violets, lilies? Pretty clothes, frilly hats, new shades of pink, blue, green and yellow? Budding trees, singing birds, and green fields? Or does it mean bright little Easter bunnies hopping merrily across the fields and yellow eggs hidden among the tufts of grass and colored chicks chirping happily across the lawn?

These are the outward joys of Easter. It goes much deeper than this. Easter is the time when we pay a very small tribute to Christ Jesus commemorating His resurrection, acknowledging the faith and hope He showed by laying down his life for our sins. Truly Easter is a small tribute for so great a sacrifice which meant so much to the human race these 2000 years.

Easter means that we may have a life everlasting. This gives us reason for having Faith and Hope, the Stays of Life. And He speaks unto them saying, "And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

Sport Spots

Star hurdler is the future may be Max Robbins, brother to Gene and Deryl. He is now in Junior High but has shown skill and a perfect form in practice. The freshman class should be proud of their athletic power. They have such boys as Kelly Anderson, who won the high jump over older boys, and Max Brown, a promising pole vaulter.

The University of Texas gave invitations recently to these Harvester athletes: Herky Lane, first string All-District eleven and already in training for medical work in the Navy; Eugene Turner, second string All-District eleven and waiting to be called as he continues his studies; Johnny Campbell, first string All-District eleven, also awaiting notice from Uncle Sam; Joe Cree, second string All-District eleven.

Tin Cans Coming More Promised

The tin can drive brought in nearly 200 cans last week reports Helen Kiser, chairman of this drive.

Pledges for one of the sororities were told to bring in 20 each week. Junior English students and home room students in 106 cut cans open, tore off wrappers and flattened cans at intervals all day Wednesday. The cans came from the school cafeteria.

The syrette is a baby hypodermic placed in every serviceman's kit to dull pain when badly hurt until help comes. Two tin cans have enough tin in them for one syrette.

Next week promises to be a big week for the drive with possibly a special announcement in assembly Wednesday by civilians or Army informant, states Helen.

Some Work, Play Others Visit, Sleep

What was your idea of an Easter vacation? To some persons, it means a trip; to some, work; and others it meant students and teachers decided to do.

Miss Mary Kathryn Cox plans to visit her home in Oklahoma. Miss Virginia Vaughan is going to Amarillo, of course. Mr. Steele is going to spend his vacation in Altus, Oklahoma.

Kathryn Rose and Mary Frances Jones are working, and Jean Pratt is sleeping the time away. Mrs. Williams is going to a brand-grand in Hazelton, Kansas. She is visiting there. Mildred Groves is visiting in Vernon, Texas, and Miss Stapleton is going to Lookney, Texas.

Battling a strong wind the Pampa Harvester emerged victorious over the Borger Bulldogs 62½ to 49½.

The wind was so strong that boys had to stand along the track and hold up the hurdles, but this didn't stop the Green and Gold thin-clads who took 9 first places out of 14 events.

A surprising time was made by the Pampa mile relay team as they dashed home to the tune of four minutes and six seconds. Also in the 800 yard dash Horace Saunders sprinted in with an impressive two minutes and 22.4 seconds. It was Saunders that grabbed the lead for the relay team.

Billy Dixon took individual scoring honors with 12½ points to his credit.

Senior "kids" gave a new turn to school life Wednesday with an assembly program based on the old-fashioned school with Mother Goose rhymes as the lesson.

John Robert Lane portrayed the heckled master, Papa Goose, in typical frustrated manner. Dressed in patched jeans, red plaid shirt, sailor hat, with cow bell, fishing pole and apple, Papa Goose used the microphone to speak to his class of 30 mischievous little girls—all chewing gum, carrying dolls and generally misbehaving.

The lesson began with Cinderella and the glass slipper. The teacher told the story as Evaughn Kyle, Helen Marlin and Vernell Bynum represented the sisters and the cruel stepmother; Truett Thompson, the prince with the slipper looking for a girl whose foot it would fit; Bob Cochran was Cinderella; and Bob Carmichael and Vard Smith as the trumpeters, portrayed the parts.

John Robert Lane played the half and ran off with the grandmother, Lou Ellen Giles, leaving Little Red Riding Hood, Shirley Sone, in the "woods."

Another effective rhyme was "Three Men in a Tub" portrayed by Bill Dixon in the tub and two service stars representing the other two as a flag on the mast. A sign on the starboard side stated that Bill was 4F.

Perhaps receiving the most applause was Jack and Jill or Johnny Campbell and Wanda Jay. Jack fell down (the sisters) and Jill was accompanied by Maxine Hoyt.

The program ended with Gene Stepp as the Pied Piper of Hamelin leading the whole senior class out of the auditorium.

Aims of the school paper: To stimulate pride in the system and bring to the attention of the community the activities of the school. To aid in creating cooperation for putting over school program. To commend good scholarship. To arouse students' interest in worthy projects.

To emphasize and encourage the work of the departments in school. To acquaint the student and patrons with activities of the school. —Just in case you didn't know.

April Fools' Day HELLO!

Mystery Story Versus Hot Boogie Woogie Has Not a Chance in This Old World

By Don Lane

Crackle—Pop—Buzzezz! Words from the radio came, "Cin-esra, spelled backwards meaning ar-senis, brings to your bloodthirsty hearts tonight the murder story, 'Murder at Midnight' or 'I Dream of You More Than You Dream of Me.' With those thrilling words I dropped my lessons, made myself comfortable in a big chair near the radio, and was ready for a good murder mystery to dream about that night.

"And now for the story," said the announcer. A cry! A shout! My hopes soar. What a story.

Then beautiful musical strains reached my ears, not from the radio but from the piano where my brother had sat down for a few hours of drumming. I tried to be calm and forget it for the music did not match the story.

Closer I leaned to the speaker, catching what part of the story I could. Then as the crucial moment came—bang, the music at the piano grew loud-r for he had gone into a boogie woogie number which now made more noise than a New York subway. I really had worse murder plans in my mind for the piano-player than the radio was doing for its characters. Louder and louder grew the boogie woogie.

"Can't you quit for five minutes while I listen to the radio?" "But I have a radio program tomorrow, and you can listen to the radio when I'm not practicing."

"But this is a murder mystery," I replied waving my arms. "When will it be over?" he asked. "I glanced at the electric clock on the radio, and my heart skipped a beat. It was two minutes until 9:00, and the program ended at 9:00. I dashed to the radio to hear these words. "This is Cinesra telling you to listen in and hear 'He Died with His Boots On' or 'He Had a Ration Stamp' next week at this same time."

Autobiography 'Fills Breach'

A Freshman

During staff meeting of the high school paper of which I was a reporter at the time, the sponsor mentioned that if we did not have enough stories, someone would have to write an autobiography. That set my mind to working and my pencil scribbling.

I entered this world August 30, 1930. I had four brothers and one sister. They say I caused quite a commotion. As I grew I became curious about this old world I was in, including my cousin's long curls. My older brothers had set me up to the trick to pull at her curls till she patted the floor three times. The first time she came over, I gave her curls a yank until she was belching with all her might, and I was persuaded to let go.

Yes, I flew by with my head being battered from all sides. First, it was my cousin (the one who had her curls pulled by me) who dropped me on the sidewalk, because I proved too big a bundle. Next, my oldest brother stopped too quickly while pushing me on a tricycle. I tumbled over the top, meeting mother earth with cement on top.

Again, after I entered school, a friend up the street was knocking flies (softball) when I happened to walk behind. I had my head bused open with blood oozing out of my skull. As you can tell, I haven't recovered from the effects yet.

Kid Day

You need not ask Patsy Walker who the little boy was she was tending Wednesday morning in assembly. David Caldwell took turns with his bottle of milk and his cigar.

Wayne Fable (dressed in rowdy red on Kid Day operating a water gun on friend and foe alike). Ah, Randall, you do not get to skip like we do today.

Randall Clay: Yeah, but this time next year we'll be having a good time, and you'll be in the Army.

Lives of Seniors all remind us We may some day be the rage And on Kid Day lose our minds, As we strut across the stage.

Did you notice the statement made by Bonnie Nell McBee and Jean Passon as Ragedy Ann and Ragdy Andy on the assembly program? "We're Ragedy Ann and Ragdy Andy. We have no brains but it comes in handy." Jean is salutarian and Bonnie Nell is a high ranking girl.

A highlight of the kid day program came when: the modernistic grandmother portrayed by Lou Ellen Giles deftly stole the "wolf" from Little Red Riding Hood, Shirley Sone.

Bill Dixon portrayed the three men in a tub. His diligent rowing got him nowhere, but his water gun did.

Marjorie Gaylor did a partial strip tease to illustrate her nursery rhyme of old Mother Hubbard: Girls when bathing used to dress like Mother Hubbard.

But now they are bolder and dress more like her cupboard. In rehearsal, Anna Lois Alford, portraying Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary, renned to the "wolves" request for a little kiss with "What do I do now?" They told her to resist.

Miss Anne Louise Jones and Miss Loraine Bruce insisted that the seniors have a take-off on the teachers in their assembly Wednesday, but the seniors flatly refused.

Wayne Fable made a very effective "wolf" throughout the program—and he had only practiced one time. Wayne was forced to be the "wolf" for he said he really preferred to be Mary's little lamb.

April Fools Last week Wednesday morning were Tom Abbott and Stan Simpson hopping in Mr. Siler's helicopter for a short ride to Borger to get a hamburger.

A new angle to kids was presented Wednesday as we saw most of the boys with their pipes again.

Phantom Strollers

When Martha Sue Sheely rides a Pullman she always takes an upper berth because it is lower. She really likes the lower berth, but she does not take it because it is higher.

Now that Marvin Hanes has enlisted in the Navy, classes on the north side are enjoying quiet from the erratic motorcycle coming up two or three times a day to the curb.

Miss Jones: An old proverb says that a fool can ask questions which no wise man can answer. Johnny Campbell: I'll bet that's why we can't pass your English exams.

Think you're good at bowling, do you? So does Doris Shackelford. This week while bowling with the "Alley Cats" Doris made 189 for top score.

Don Lane (looking through old papers). "I always wondered what they used for news when there wasn't a war."

Mrs. J. B. Austin has been in a dither all week as she received a telephone call from her husband saying he would be home this week.

Joyce Pratt (collecting absentee slips): "In new!" Harold Anderson (in amazement): "What did you say?"

Randall Clay: "Why do pictures always show a stork standing on one foot when he sleeps?" Miss Bruce: "If the stork pulled the other foot up under his wing, he would fall."

The journalism class was studying humor and how to write up impossible situations. Asked Martha Sue Sheely, "Is that like when you brush your teeth with shaving cream?"

Then chirped up the following members of the class in quick succession. Guineette Kjillingworth, "Or gargle the shampoo?" Eddie Zane Graves, "Or wash your hair with hair oil before you notice?"

Gwen Weston, "Or like me—pour Vitals over your head for shampoo?"

Ten PHS Students Leave School to Accept War Jobs, Scattering to Several Parts of the United States

When the school year ended, ten PHS students left school to accept war jobs, scattering to several parts of the United States.

Harold Anderson (in English class): "Robert (Sailor) is just dying to put a sentence on the board." John Spearman: "He smells like he's dying."

What were Gwen Weston and Polly Ward doing riding in a garbage bucket Tuesday? Answer: returning it from class where tin cans were being prepared for the drive.

Coach Coffey (substituting for Mr. Gordon who had gone with the seniors to the show), picking up a piece of green chalk as he explained a geometry problem: "Gee, that's pretty—that is if you don't make a mistake and have to erase."

At last we have found the man who can marry ten pretty girls. It is the preacher.

The Machine Age "Here's a piece of rubber in my hash." "No doubt. The motor is replacing the horse everywhere."

A person in a lunatic ward insisted he was Adolf Hitler. "Who gave you that name?" the doctor inquired. "God gave it to me," said the patient. "No, I didn't," answered a voice from the next ward.

There was a college girl who thought life was just a song, but later found that it was written in the key of F.

Student: "Dear Dad, I'm broke what comes next."

Magazine Offer Cannot Be Taken Up by Solons

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, March 31—(AP)—Congressmen, it seems, will have to struggle along at $10,000 a year without any trimmings.

Rep. John M. Vorys (R-Ohio) told the speaker of the house: "A very fine National magazine has recently announced that it will award $10,000 each to a senator and representative who, in the opinion of a committee of distinguished citizens headed by Owen D. Young, do most for the country this year.

"The criterion announced will be statesmanship and national service, not party loyalty or 'partial political activity x x x'."

But Mr. Vorys takes a bleak view of this.

He cites chapter and verse, showing that a congressman can't receive one penny in addition to his salary for doing his job. That's the law.

Mr. Vorys goes further: "Suppose other organizations and institutions, such as business groups and labor groups, decide to award congressional prizes based solely on statesmanship and national service? "Does anyone believe that practice could grow and flourish without influencing members of congress? "The fact that such influence might be with the best intentions is beside the point x x x. "It is easy to imagine some very ridiculous and some very vicious results."

CASOLINE TAX

Every argument that has been made for 20 years against excessive taxation of gasoline to the consumer will be made against the proposal to step the tax 2 cents a gallon in Oklahoma.

Oklahomans have referred to Florida as a "gyp state" because of its 7-cent-per-gallon tax; the Rocky mountain states have been criticized for high prices and taxes during vacation season.

A differential of 2 cents at the state line makes bootlegging and chiseling attractive—which mean costlier enforcement of the law.

TOLUENE PLANT

Defense Plants Corp. has authorized construction of a toluene manufacturing plant near Berger. It will cost $6,600,000. Toluene is used in making of explosives.

Bechtel-McCone Co., Los Angeles, is to build the plant which will be operated under lease by the Phillips Petroleum Co. Title to the plant remains with the DPC. Construction is to start immediately.

"Climate" was one of the factors considered in the location of the plant, report said, but possibly availability of raw materials had something to do with it.

MKT Rail President Sides With Board

ST. LOUIS, March 31—(AP)—Matthew S. Sloan, chairman of the board and president of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad, has issued a statement to stockholders in which he again defends conduct of the railroad's affairs by the present board of directors.

"The statement charges that the 'stockholders protective committee' which seeks to gain control of the KATy at the annual meeting here next month, has shown 'a complete lack of understanding of railroad operation and finance' in its efforts to gain proxies to be voted at the meeting.

Sloan said the present management, in addition to saving the company from bankruptcy, has since November, 1942, purchased and retired more than $36,000,000 of its own bonds at an average cost of 58 cents on the dollar, thereby cutting interest charges more than 41 percent.

Sloan's statement was the latest development in a battle for proxies between the present management and a group of stockholders headed by Marvin D. Adams, Miami, Fla., banker. The latter group, aroused by failure of the company to pay any dividends on the common stock since 1930 or on the preferred since 1934, is seeking to elect directors who will place the stock on a paying basis.

GASOLINE USE

Low octane gasoline may steal the post-war aviation show from high octane, says the Wall Street Journal. That would mean a turnabout in the oil economy.

"Petroleum researchers, however, are becoming more and more convinced that the gas turbine, rather than the traditional reciprocating engine, or even jet propulsion, has the brightest aviation future," the Journal says. "The turbine city burn cheap fuel in distinct contrast to the super-fuels powering most of today's aircraft. It would force reversion of all the big new high-octane plants built during the war."

TANKS?
Some of the young women of Schio Petroleum's office, Oklahoma City, were taken for a trip through West Edmond field. "That's a tank battery over there," they were told; "Whereupon one queried: 'Yes, I see the tanks, but where is the battery?'"

Dutch Officials Accept Apology

LONDON, March 31—(AP)—Royal Netherlands government officials said Wednesday they had received from the British government an apology for the accidental bombing of the Hague March 3, which Dutch spokesmen said had killed 800 civilians and left "a great number homeless."

The British apology, which called the bombing "a deplorable catastrophe," was handed to the Netherlands government here and also was broadcast to the Dutch people.

"The Netherlands government is satisfied with the British apology," a Dutch official said.

The Dutch request for an explanation of the bombing was made to the British after underground reports from the Hague had reached the Netherlands government, describing a heavy loss of life and severe damage by the incident, which occurred during an RAF sweep against German rocket-launching sites.

The British statement said a preliminary inquiry showed the bombs "most unfortunately" fell wide of their mark and hit a residential section.

The trouble with planned economy, in spite of its supposed benefits, is that it is impossible to see how such an economy can work without dictatorship.—Arthur A. Ballantine, former treasury undersecretary.

Airport Development Program Announced

MARSHALL, March 31—(AP)—Rep. Wright Patman notified the Marshall Chamber of Commerce Wednesday that 11 East Texas towns are to share in a national post-war airport development program.

They will be included in a survey of a need for a system of airports and landing areas throughout the United States, to be conducted by the secretary of commerce through the administrator of the civil aeronautics administration. The survey is requested under house resolution 598 passed by congress.

East Texas towns included are Marshall, Jefferson, Clarksville, Cooper, Daingerfield, DeKalb, Mt. Pleasant, Paris, Simms, Sulphur Springs and Texarkana.
