Russian Attitude Deadlocks United Nations Conference HALSEY FIGHTS JAPS AGAIN

Reds Say 'No Retreat' on Voting Stand

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—(AP)—Russia was reported tonight to have taken an emphatic "no retreat" attitude on a veto-voting issue which once again has deadlocked the Big Five and the United Nations conference.

This stand was dictated straight from Moscow.

Said the official British information services:

"Unfortunately, there seems no reason to believe that the movement of the conference along the final phases of its journey will be facilitated thereby."

The core of the issue is this: Should the Big Five—Russia, China, Britain, France and the United States—have absolute veto powers in the all-powerful security council of a proposed world league, even over the mere discussion of situations which might threaten the peace?

All but Russia are willing to interpret the veto privilege as inapplicable to the airing of disputes in the security council. Small nations, with a measure of British and American sympathy, want to go even farther and lift the veto from investigation of controversies.

General Says British Were Instigators

(By The Associated Press)

Sporadic fighting continued in Damascus yesterday (Saturday) as French leader Gen. Charles de Gaulle charged that British agents had precipitated uprisings in Syria and Lebanon against France.

The peaceful solution of the crisis in the Middle East—calmer since British Ninth army troops took over trouble spots—hit a snag when De Gaulle clearly indicated he was unwilling to submit the problem to a three-power meeting of the United States, Britain and France.

The French leader, however, said that he was willing to take part in a four-power conference that would include Russia. He suggested that the four powers negotiate the question of the "whole Arab world"—an oil rich area where British interests predominate.

De Gaulle told a Paris press conference that Russia, too, had interests in the Middle East, and urged that the "Big Four," together with the Arab states, should settle the issue peacefully and "not from the point of view of stupid rivalry."

In the Syrian capital of Damascus, angry Syrian crowds caught and killed two Senegalese soldiers trying to reach French headquarters from their outposts, while British troops strove to protect the French.

French troops were being taken from their barracks in the city by the British under cover of the curfew—but some French conscripts fired on passersby from a barracks wall and wounded two.

Carriers Smashing At Airfields

By RAY CRONIN
Associated Press War Editor

Wasting no time after returning to their commands in the far western Pacific, Adm. William F. Halsey and Vice Adm. John S. McCain sent American carrier aircraft in smashing blows against airfields on Kyushu, southernmost Japanese home island, Saturday.

Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced the carrier borne raid on five Kyushu airfields a few hours after disclosing that Halsey resumed command of his U. S. 3rd Pacific fleet on May 27 and that McCain returned to command of that fleet's fast carrier force on the same date.

The carrier pilots found lean pickings, destroying only 13 enemy aircraft and damaging 23. However, this was proof of the excellent neutralization of Kyushu airfields achieved in recent weeks by B-29's and Fifth fleet carrier planes under Adm. Raymond A. Spruance and Vice Adm. Marc A. Mitscher, who have retired from sea duty temporarily.

Aground on Okinawa, improved visibility and cessation of rain permitted the U. S. 10th army to employ heavy artillery fire and use more armor as it fanned out to trap Japanese troops. More than 13 inches of rain fell on Okinawa the last 10 days of May.

The 96th infantry division seized previously bypassed Chan, two miles south of captured Shuri, and approached Tera, further south. The first marine division crossed the Naha-Yonabura highway as the 7th infantry division mopped up Shuri. The 7th infantry division captured Ogusuku and approached Shinzato town in its advance toward Chinen peninsula on the southeast coast.

The veteran skipper picked up his unfinished business in the far west Pacific at a time when Japan's war situation was extremely dark, within the B-29 battered Nippon homeland, on strategic Okinawa island, in China and in the Philippines.

Chinese forces scored new victories to endanger Japan's Hankow-Hongkong inner defense line and to widen the breach in the Nippon corridor in southern Asia.

American doughboys made a new landing on Mindanao and in the southeast Philippines to envelop and liquidate Japanese garrisons in that area.

On Okinawa the shattering of the Japanese Shuri line by Yank marines and doughboys brought the statement from an American naval spokesman that the backbone of Nippon's defenses on the island has been broken. Some officers felt completely there will be complete within 10 days.

Halsey marked his return to action with a thunderous barrage of naval guns against the Japanese on southern Okinawa.

Tokyo said that about 200 carrier

Intent To Murder Charged After Youth Is Stabbed

Herbert "Cowboy" Porter, 27, was in county jail yesterday charged with "assault with intent to murder" in connection with the stabbing of Arthur Wilson, 16, at the corner of West Foster and Somerville streets late Friday afternoon.

The attending physician at Wesley hospital where Wilson was taken said that the knife entered the youth's body just below the diaphragm on the right side. The blade going between the ribs, did not pierce the liver.

After he was stabbed, Wilson staggered toward the rear of the The Pampa News building, witnesses said, and fell to the sidewalk. (None of the involved persons are employed by the News.) He was conscious when a Duenkel-Carmichael ambulance arrived.

Wilson's condition was described by hospital attendants yesterday afternoon as "satisfactory." After the examination and X-ray Friday night, Wilson spent a "quiet night," the attendants said.

Porter was placed under arrest by Desk Sergeant A. L. Jones, who took the call at the police station. Jones said yesterday that Porter made no resistance to arrest.

Porter was turned over to county authorities yesterday morning.

The knife used in the stabbing was of the "home-made" variety, with a blade about six and three-fourths inches long and about one and one-eighth inches wide.

Sidney Cox of Kirkland, Tex., who was emerging from the Rex theatre, told police he saw the man stab Wilson. His story was reported confirmed by Bennie Phillips, White Deer, who was with Cox.

Wilson is the son of H. D. Wilson and is employed by his father at the Eagle Radiator shop on West Foster street. Porter is the son of Mrs. Mary Porter, 2004 West Browning street.

Weather Setting Records in Pampa

The past month was the warmest May since the establishment of the weather bureau office at the city airport according to K. W. Matthews, official in charge of the local station.

The temperature for the month averaged 65.2 degrees. The maximum temperature was 97 degrees 26th and again on the 27th. The low for the month was 24 degrees on the 3rd and the 16th.

Last year's maximum and minimum recordings were 89 and 37 degrees respectively.

Precipitation during May was far below normal with 1.16 in. recorded, as compared with a normal of 3.54 in. Most of this rainfall, 1.12 in., was in the form of thundershowers on the 27th.

The month ended with the distinction of being the driest May on record since the local station was established five years ago.

The deficit in rainfall for the year 1945 now stands at 2.63 in. Measurable amounts fell on the 5th, 26th, 28th, and 30th, and traces less than .01 in., were recorded on seven other days. There were thundershowers on the 5th, 10th, 15th, 26th, 28th, and 30th, and there were nine clear, 15 partly cloudy and seven cloudy days during the month.

Light fogs occurred on the 11th, 12th, 15th, 28th, 29th, and 30th; becoming dense in the 12th, 29th and 30th. Dust was noted on the 18th, 20th, and 21st, reducing the visibility to miles or less.

The prevailing wind direction was from the south.

Movement To Restrict Court Martials Started

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—A move to cut deeply into the army's court martial powers over peacetime trainees conscripted under proposed universal military training legislation is being pushed by Representative Kilday (D-Texas).

Just how far he proposed to go in curbing the military's powers in taking punitive action against its own personnel, Kilday was uncertain when he gave his views at a committee meeting yesterday.

But he indicated that he favored removal of court martial powers in peacetime except in cases involving minor infractions or regulations. Certainly the Texas said, in time of peace military personnel accused of major crimes should be dealt with by civil courts.

A member of the military committee, Kilday said he will submit his proposal as an amendment to legislation providing for compulsory peacetime military training.

The administration of military justice, Kilday declared, "lies fallen in ill repute" because of recent reversals of court martial sentences after publicity had been given to them.

As a result, he added, the public is losing confidence "in the administration of military justice" and "the people think that nothing can be done for courts martial cases unless they can bring outside pressure."

"This, Gunn continued topped with plenty of healthful sunshine and physical activities, will bring your boy back home more "physically fit, mentally awake and morally straight."

Camping Sessions Open at Ki-O-Wah

Over one hundred Boy Scouts of Berger, Canadian, Hooker, Okla., Guyton, Okla., Perryton, White Deer, Texhoma, Okla., and Phillips will open the first of four camping sessions at Camp Ki-O-Wah, near Canadian, tomorrow.

These scouts, together with their leaders and other Boy Scout officials, will remain at the encampment until Sunday, June 9, when the second session will begin.

Charles Gunn, Pampa, chairman of the Adobe Walls Council camping and activities committee, has been working several weeks on preparations for the four-session encampment at Lake Marvin, popular camping site in Hemphill county.

In a message to the parents of the boys who will go to the camp, Gunn said:

"With trained qualified leaders and a program of activities that will challenge the imagination and the enthusiasm of any youth, our camp truly has something to offer your boy in the way of character development and citizenship training."

OPA Announces Sugar Suspension

Issuance of home canning sugar in the Lubbock district will be suspended for one week, beginning at the close of business June 2 and ending with the close of business June 9, Acting District OPA Director Earl Kerr announced today.

A local war price and rationing board will continue to receive applications during the week, but no certificates will be issued until June 11.

Purpose of this one-week moratorium is to enable ration boards to make an accurate check on the rate of issuance of home canning sugar to date and to work out a system of issuance to stay within their quota.

Local war price and rationing board to issue in 1945 no more than 70 percent of the 1944 issuance for home canning purpose.

Deadlock May Develop in Rural Appropriation Bill

AUSTIN, June 2.—(AP)—Possibility of a deadlock between the house and senate over the $28,000,000 rural aid appropriation bill grew today.

House and senate conferees will attempt Monday to adjust the differences between Branch's version of the bill under which state aid is granted rural schools, and it was being freely predicted in the capital that neither side would budge.

Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith named the same senate conferees to the new committee that had served with the previous group. There were no signs that the house group which has been holding out for additional concessions would give.

Should the deadlock hold and the session end without enactment of this major appropriation bill—considered a must measure—there would be an immediate cry for a special session.

The senate's action on the bill today came at the end of an action-packed session that produced three major developments.

Adoption of a precedent-breaking simple resolution designed to call the senate only back into session on Jan. 8, 1946, for the sole purpose of considering nominations submitted by the governor. This resolution, passed by a 12 to 10 vote, requires no house action, does not affect the house, nor have any bearing on final passage.

Pope Expresses Hope For 'Purged' Germans

VATICAN CITY, June 2.—(AP)—Pope Pius XII expressed the hope today that the German people, purged of Nazism, "can rise to new dignity and new life" but said that postwar Europe is menaced by a "tyranny no less despotic than those for whose overthrow men planned."

In a world broadcast on Saint Eugene's Day—his name day—the pontiff reviewed the Vatican's pre-war German policy.

The Holy Father defended the rights of the small nations "to take their destinies in their own hands" and said the future "harmonious relations between men" was threatened by mobs of "dispossessed, disillusioned, disappointed, and hopeless men who are going to swell the ranks of revolution in the pay of a tyranny no less despotic than those for whose overthrow men planned."

"The Pope declared that the Vatican concluded the 1933 concordat with Germany "to set up a formidable barrier to the spread of ideas at once subversive and violent" and he asserted that Pius XI, his predecessor, denounced the Nazi regime in 1937 after the "solemn pact" had been deliberately violated by the Germans.

"Nobody," he said, "could accuse

EXCESS PROFITS:

WAR'S END MAY RESULT IN NO 95 PER CENT TAX

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—Legislation definitely ending the 95 percent excess profits tax on Jan. 1 of the year following the end of the Japanese war was urged today by Rep. Robertson (D-Va.).

He wants it in the $5,000,000,000 business "cash position" tax aid program soon to come before congress.

The Virginian, a member of the house ways and means committee, said he would offer an amendment to the tax bill stipulating the date.

Meanwhile, committee chairman Doughton (D-NC) let it be known he is having legislation drawn embodying the joint congressional-treasury department plan to improve the cash position of business in the reconversion period.

The legislation, without the excess profits repealer, would have little effect on the ultimate tax liability of businesses but would increase their ready cash for reconversion by speeding up payment of credits on excess profits taxes and various postwar refunds provided in present law.

The bill to be introduced by Doughton is expected to provide:

1. An increase in the excess-profits tax specific exemption from $10,000 to $25,000, effective with the

Former News City Editor Recalls Old Days in Pampa

By ARCHER FULLINGIM, L. (U) USNR

CECIL FIELD, Jacksonville, Fla. — When Mummy and I lived on N. Russell street in Pampa, across the street from Joe Sheldon and a few doors from Mrs. Alta Stanard, and Hal Suttle, I used to watch a kid bicycle up and down that street. He rode that wheel as if he were finishing the last lap of an endurance race. The kid was Neely Joe Ellis.

Well, a couple days ago I was walking over to the hangar where I work at Cecil field here, and passed three boys. Just as I got by them, one of them spoke my name. He was Neely Joe. He was about 14 the last time I saw him before I enlisted in the navy, and I didn't recognize him right off. That boy sure has picked up both height and weight. He favors his uncle Hugh Ellis, also of Pampa.

Yesterday, Neely Joe came over to the BOQ where I stay, and we had a long session talking about Pampa and the people we know there. I asked Neely Joe about all his kinkholes that took a long time for his kin to a lot of people in the Panhandle. His Uncle Jack Ellis and his Uncle Charlie Ellis, both of Mobeetie, are in the army — Jack in England and Charlie in Germany. His cousin, Jack Benton, son of Mrs. W. D. Benton, has got an honorable discharge from the army. Jack was in the CBI theater for a couple of years. I saw him when I was home Christmas. Neely Joe says that his uncle Ernest Fletcher is now living at Beaumont.

His Aunt, Mrs. W. H. Ellis, is still living at Mobeetie, where his great aunt, Mrs. Mary Wrye, lived until she was well past a hundred years of age. Neely Joe enlisted in the navy about a year ago. He had his boot training at the naval air station at Jacksonville, Fla., and was stationed at Purcell, Okla., and Memphis, Tenn., before he came here. He learned radio and gunnery before he was sent here less than a month ago. He will be a combat aircrewman (aerial gunner) on the navy's "Sunday punch" dive bomber, the Helldiver. (Cecil Field and Neely Joe in attitude and ability is one of the best.)

Neely Joe was a kind of fragile kid before he grew up, but he isn't now. He looks about five feet ten, and he told me he weighs 150 pounds. If his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pinky Ellis, 1352 Garland Street, haven't seen him in quite awhile they have a got a surprise in store when Neely comes home the hopes to get that leave when he finishes training here.)

Neely Joe told me that Shamrock had been especially hard hit in the matter of war casualties, and I agreed with him because every time I pick up the paper I read about casualties from Shamrock. Pampa has been hit hard enough. It's bad enough when older men are casualties but it's worse when the 18-year-old boys fall.

Still, I know that we can't afford to get tired of this war until we make a graveyard out of Japan, and I think that's what the dead would ask if they could speak.

Reasons Given for Increase in Income

AUSTIN, June 3—Increases in the level of farm prices, larger cotton earnings during January and larger marketings of livestock were factors responsible for an increase in farm cash income in Texas during the first four months of the year, Dr. F. A. Buechel, head of statistics for the bureau of business research at the University of Texas, has reported.

Cash income totaled $290,211,000 for the first four months of the year, and for the same period in 1944 cash income was $244,936,000—an increase of 18 percent. April, 1945, income was 1.2 percent higher than the April, 1944, income, Dr. Buechel reports. April income was $69,374,000, and in April, last year, the income was $68,347,000.

"The increase in farm prices only remains as a possible basis for maintaining a margin of gain over last year's farm cash income," Dr. Buechel said.

Milk Surplus After War Is Fought by Dairy Association

FORT WORTH—Texas dairy farmers will join producers in 36 other leading dairy states during June in the dairy industry's big drive to support an aggressive, nation-wide advertising and research program to help overcome the threat of a price-shattering postwar milk surplus, according to D. T. Simons of Fort Worth.

Simons in addition to being treasurer of the American Dairy association, Texas division, is secretary of the Texas Jersey cattle club, and is one of the leading milk producers in the Fort Worth area. Realizing they cannot expect an unlimited economic aid from a government burdened with war debts, the dairymen have embarked on this program, "on their own," determined to encourage greater postwar consumption of dairy foods through business-like measures, rather than to slash production in a return to the outmoded ideas of "shared scarcity."

Conduct of the program is in the hands of the American dairy association composed of dairy farmers in 37 major milk-producing states coast to coast and financed and governed by producers. In the interest of promoting all dairy products, Texas dairy farmers, affiliated with ADA through the American Dairy association, Texas division, will raise a fund during June for backing the national ADA program in the interest of dairy farmers and their dairy industry. The payments will be made through voluntary deductions from milk or cream checks at the rate of one cent a pound of butterfat marketed during the first 15 days in June.

Mr. Simons said the payments average only about a dime a cow per year for the individual farmer participating in the program. "Yet these small individual payments create a fund large enough to wage a business-like state and national campaign," said Mr. Simons, "because of the participation of so many dairymen."

Bronx Bombers Shut-out on 6 Hits by Tribe Rookie

Brownies Blast Philadelphia; Detroit Loses

NEW YORK, June 2—(AP)—Ed Lieberman blanked the Yankees with six hits to record his first victory of the season as Cleveland defeated New York 4-0 today to even their series at one game apiece.

Klieman, sophomore hurler of the tribe blanked the first placers with six hits in his first starting assignment to annex his first victory of the season.

Three singles in the second inning off Ernie Bonham, making his first start in three weeks, following a layoff because of a lame back, gave the Indians their first run. In the ninth, after play was resumed following the long interlude, the tribe pounced on Bonham for five singles and three runs before Emerson Roser stopped them.

The Yankees only scoring threat came in the fifth frame when the first two men got on via a single and a walk, but the lanky right-hander stopped the next three men. Team—R H E Cleveland . . . 010 000 003—4 9 1 New York . . . 000 000 000—0 6 0

AUSTIN, June 2—(AP)—The state board of vocational education, scheduled to meet here Monday, is expected to take recognition of a new salary post which has been created in the vocational division by a legislative appropriation, staff members said today.

The legislature appropriated $2,500 state money for an executive officer for the division. Federal matching money could be earmarked to make the maximum salary $10,000. Heretofore the executive officer has been selected from the staff personnel and has served without pay.

In the meantime a house bill now in the senate designates Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent as executive officer for the board, a position which he filled until an opinion by the attorney general's office two years ago ruled adversely to this procedure.

Baseball Will Adopt 'Hands-Off' Attitude Toward High School and College Athletes

By BUS HAM
WASHINGTON, June 2—(AP)—One of Senator A. B. "Happy" Chandler's first formal moves as baseball commissioner will be to ward adoption of a hands-off policy on high school and college athletes.

"I think this ought to be done, and I'm going to discuss it with club owners," Chandler told a reporter today. "I'm sure they'll want to take such a step."

Several protests against organized baseball taking school players have come to Chandler's attention. Two complaints have been made direct to Chandler in writing by G. A. Kirkland, physical education director, Catawba college, Salisbury, N. C., and Homer L. Thomas, director of athletics of Birmingham, Ala. public schools.

Dana X. Bible, Texas university athletics head, has publicly criticized baseball on this score but Chandler has received no word from him.

Chandler recently said that high school and college athletes ought to complete their educations. He pointed out today there will be "no shortage of players for organized baseball when the war is over."

White no investigation of a specific case has yet been requested. Chandler said the signing of a player must be reported to his office within 20 days, and that this school-athlete situation comes under his jurisdiction, "if detrimental to baseball."

He added that "it defeats baseball's purpose" to take players off high school and college teams. Kirkland protested that "college and high school coaches need encouragement and certainly this is not true when professional scouts try to take a boy away . . . just as soon as he develops into a fair player."

Many colleges have discontinued baseball for this reason, he said, and predicted that "many more are apt to follow suit unless something is done."

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, June 2—(AP)—A recent communique from minor league baseball headquarters brings an official ruling by head man William G. # Kyle, Texas, Has Another Star in National Pastime

ST. LOUIS, June 2—(AP)—It looks like the little town of Kyle, Texas, has contributed another pitching star to the major leagues.

Kyle is the birthplace of Cecil (Tex) Hughson, former ace of the Boston Red Sox now in the army, and also of Jack Creel, who already has won a regular starting assignment in his first year with the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Creel, like Hughson, is tall and willowy and also like Tex has a good curve and plenty of zip on his fast ball. Both are right-handers. Tex is 29, Jack is 28.

Creel came to the majors via Daytona Beach of the Florida State league, Houston of the Texas State league and the Cardinal farm at Columbus. With Columbus last season Jack's record was not impressive. He won eleven games and lost fifteen.

But his record with the Cards is another story. Early in the season he was used only in relief, of which the Cardinal starters needed plenty. Jack served as fireman in seven games and did well in all of them. In one relief stint in Boston he held the Braves to one hit in seven and one-third innings.

Then Manager Billy Southworth got hard up for starters, what with Harry Brecheen developing a sore arm, Max Lanier departing for the

Voiselle Fined $500 by Mel Ott For Disobedience

ST. LOUIS, June 2—(AP)—Mel Ott of the New York Giants today announced that Bill Voiselle, his top pitcher, had been fined $500 for disobeying instructions in pitching to a batter.

In last night's game with the Cardinals, with the Giants leading 3 to 1 in the ninth, Voiselle had two strikes and no balls on Johnny Hopp, Cardinal rightfielder.

Voiselle's third pitch was a change-of-pace slow ball over the plate, Hopp clouting it for a triple and scoring a runner from third. Hopp later scored himself to tie the count, after which the Redbirds went on to win, 4 to 3.

Ott said he previously had warned Voiselle about throwing a "fast pitch" under such circumstances.

Civilians Take Death Rather Than Japanese

JOLO, Sulu Archipelago.—(AP)—Three American civilians chose death to imprisonment when the Japanese invaded the rich Moro island of Jolo on Christmas eve, 1941, and their last moments were characteristic of the three men.

Most prominent perhaps was J. Scott McCormick, an American educator who had spent many years in the Philippines and had played an important role in establishing American educational methods among the Filipinos.

The Boy Scout movement was a pet interest of his and McCormick became Boy Scout commissioner for Sulu and Mindanao.

terminated to fight for his family and his lands. He laid his preparations carefully. His wife and children were provided with food, given whatever valuables they could carry and sent to an old Moro Corita (stronghold) in the mountains.

Macklan stayed behind at the plantation, telling his family that he would join them later. He knew that the Morps would soon inform the Japanese of his whereabouts—constabulary officers have never been popular with the natives.

Two days later the Japanese sent two small landing craft loaded with soldiers to Macklan's place. As they said he died like a good soldier.

The third American to die was Antoni Franklan, another planter. He, too, disdained flight and never left the streets of Jolo. When the first Japanese soldier approached him, Franklan spit in his eye. He was immediately shot.

Many Powers Are Given Committee

AUSTIN, June 2—(AP)—Broad powers to investigate virtually all phases of the natural gas industry in Texas, including pipelines and state and federal supervision of the vast industry, were given a committee created by adoption of a senate resolution today.

Noting that the orderly production of such a valuable resource as natural gas can contribute greatly to the welfare of the state, the resolution by Sen. T. C. Chadick of Quitman called for an interim committee of five to report back to the 56th legislature.

The resolution requires no concurrence by the house. An earlier proposition for such an investigation called for a joint legislative committee. Chadick's resolution authorized the lieutenant governor to name the committee.

E. Kirkpatrick of Brownwood was appointed by Chairman Dudley K. Woodward, Jr., of Dallas to study the amendments and recommended to the board a course of action.

The statement presented by the Galveston school faculty is the same as that signed by over 100 of the 368 voting faculty at the main university at Austin two weeks ago except with reference to the dispute at the medical school.

Referring to an investigation of university affairs underway by the American association of university professors, the statement declares "there is no reasonable grounds" for some organizations considering disciplinary pronouncements against the University of Texas. "Students

Another Tokyo broadcast claimed that 303 American ships had been sunk off Okinawa since March 2. It listed 15 carriers and 14 battleships as among the vessels sent down and said 263 other ships were heavily damaged.

In Washington a navy spokesman reported that since April 1 losses off Okinawa totaled 25 ships sunk and 44 damaged.

Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, announcing Halsey's return to duty, said Vice Adm. John C. McCain was back on the job as commander of Third fleet carriers while Vice Adm. Harry W. Hill took command of amphibious forces in the Ryukyus.

Halsey relieved Adm. Raymond A. Spruance. Fifth fleet commander, who will devote his time to planning lighter campaigns against the Japanese. Spruance was awarded the navy cross for extraordinary heroism in the Iwo Jima and Okinawa operations.

Road Improvement Is Discussed by County

The county commissioners, in a special meeting Friday, voted to lease the 397 acre comprising the Pampa municipal port from Willis Benedict.

Under the terms of the lease, the county will pay $100 per year for the property. The lease does not include the hangars and other buildings at the air port, as they are privately owned.

Also discussed was extensive rural road improvement in the county. City Manager W. C. deCordova told the commissioners that the city will cooperate with the county in improving the roads by helping to provide machinery and labor.

representative Woodrum (D-Va.), will start his public sessions Monday with Undersecretary of State Joseph Grew as the first witness.

Woodrum said several scores of witnesses will be heard during the two weeks allotted for public sessions, with proponents and opponents being given the same opportunity to present their cases.

Witnesses already listed include spokesmen for veterans' groups, religious and educational organizations and discharged service men.

While the Woodrum committee cannot send legislation to the house floor, it is expected to recommend that the military affairs committee give favorable consideration to legislation which would make every able-bodied youth liable for one year of military training after the war.

The legislation is expected to touch off one of the most bitter fights of the present session of congress.

and action to adjust them peacefully.

But a Russian paper laid before the Big Five delegation chiefs declares that the Soviets want the widest possible interpretation of the veto. They are insisting that it cover discussions as well as investigation, peaceful settlement and the use of force against aggressors.

If the Russian view were to prevail, conference officials said, the veto would be inapplicable only to such procedural matters in the council as setting up its staff, calling meetings, creating auxiliary agencies and adopting parliamentary rules under which it would operate.

Bolled down to fit a specific example, the Russian position was said to be that if a member of the United Nations dropped into another nation, the security council could receive the document. But any of the Big Five could use its veto power to prevent opening of the mail or any discussion of its contents.

Some American delegates said they saw little chance that Russia would give any ground, now or later. Others were hopeful the Soviets would move toward a less rigid line as Big Five deliberations continue on the biggest issue of the conference and other problems weighed to it.

The veto question also is involved in such matters as selecting the chief executive officer of a world organization, picking judges for a new international court, and revising the charter at some future time. Under present plans, the council would have to take action on all these.

Because of the impasse, a disposition appeared to be developing among some delegates, the Americans particularly, to tell the conference the Big Five can't agree on an interpretation of the veto formula and to let the Russian version and that of the other four great powers stand side by side.

That would leave it up to the conference to accept or reject a veto-voting formula whose meaning was not agreed on even by the great powers which drafted it.

Unless they can break their deadlock, some delegates suggested, the Big Five can do is inform the conference that in practical operation there might never be a ban on security council discussion of a dispute, that this represented the Russian viewpoint, too, but that the Soviets want to retain and use veto rights over discussions if they ever consider it necessary. Some delegates talked of skipping the veto plan at San Francisco and calling another conference later on to work out the issue.

There is a chance that Russia might hit hard now for what she wants and then swing around later to acceptance of the ideas of the other major powers. She has spoken up for conference unanimity in the past and has displayed an ability to yield at some spots when in the minority.

Further, Britain and the United States once more are standing firmly against her.

A commentary of the British information services, an official governmental agency, declared today that preventing the security council from taking cognizance of any matter seeming to threaten world peace "would be the complete negation of the intention underlying the Dumbarton Oaks proposals which form the accepted basis of the projected new world organization."

Britain, the statement said, would like to see the veto apply only to the "employment of force to restrain an aggressor." Discussions, it said, "have established a close identity of Anglo-American views on this and kindred aspects of the great power veto."

Apart from the veto issue the commentary asserted, technical experts have dug up "not less than 17" other points on which the Big Five ought to get together. But, it added, "the Russian attitude seems to indicate an unyielding standpoint on many questions still calling for agreement between the Big Five."

client capital which started Tuesday night, was dismissed from his command by British request. Syrians looted some French houses.

Meanwhile Pope Pius XII, in a world broadcast, reviewed the Vatican's pre-war German policy and expressed hope that the German people, purged of nazis, "can rise to new dignity and new life."

In Moscow, President Truman's Personal Representative Harry Hopkins delayed his departure for Washington after a farewell dinner at the Kremlin. Informed sources said Hopkins was staying a short while longer to turn his attention to "new work." There was speculation that the Levant situation may have had something to do with the delay.

Unconfirmed Scandinavian reports said that Allied military had arrested Col. Gen. Georg Lindemann, former commander of German forces in Denmark.

Spokesman Says Meat Shortage Not Helped

WASHINGTON, June 2—(AP)—A spokesman for a segment of the meat industry said today that OPA's county-by-county distribution program will not alleviate the meat shortage.

"I predict this order will not bring one ounce more meat to the housewife's table than she is now getting," said Joseph Dancauskas, general counsel of the national association of non-slaughtering meat processors and wholesalers, Inc.

The OPA plan, announced yesterday, requires all packers to resume the same pattern of distribution they followed in the first three months of 1944. Its purpose is to give each area the same proportionate share of meat it received at that time.

Opportunities Now Open for Immediate Enlistment

The 112,000 girls of the United States Cadet Nurse Corps are doing one of the most important jobs in the country's war effort.

While they learn as student nurses, Cadets help free graduate nurses for duty with the Army and Navy. 80% of all nursing in hospitals with schools of nursing in 1944 was done by students, working under graduate supervision.

No wonder the U. S. Government is glad to give the Cadet Nurses tuition, room, board, and uniforms free . . . and a monthly spending allowance.

In return, the Cadet Nurse pledges to do only essential nursing—military or civilian, for the duration. If you want free education for this proud profession, check the list at the right. If you can answer "yes" to these questions you may be eligible for membership in the U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps.

It is the institution of god-emperor, and the general public belief in that institution, that must be destroyed before any semblance of liberalism and democracy can even begin to arise in Japan. In the process Hirohito presumably will go, but his departure will be only an incident in the long, arduous task of eradicating state Shintoism in Japan. We can approach that task with clear conscience because Shintoism is not religion in the occidental sense. Presumably the Japanese will fight more fiercely than ever if they believe we intend to destroy the emperor idea, but Hirohito himself or any other individual will be purely incidental. Such fanatical added resistance might cost many Allied lives and dollars. The question we must face, apparently, is whether we are willing to pay that added price now, in hope that thus we can avoid another and even more disastrous war in the Orient at some future time. By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff. A Texan's hobby has made it possible for anyone to write wild west stories with salty, colorful and correct western words. What Should Be Done With Japan's Emperor, Hirohito? By S. BURTON HEATH NEA Staff Writer. Japanese school children are taught that there was an emperor of Nippon before there was a ruler of Hell—or, at any rate, before his present Satanic majesty took the hot seat. The first Mikado, Susano-no-mikoto, ultimately became the devil himself. Without being really explicit, Japanese "history" infers that Hirohito, emperor since 1926, is a direct lineal descendant both of Susano (now the Old Nick) and of his sister, the Sun Goddess Amaterasu-O-Mikami. Should we bomb the imperial palace and try to kill the Mikado, to demonstrate that he is merely mortal? Should we spare him, and omit him from any war criminal list, both because he is supposed to have a personal preference for liberalism and peace, and because any threat to his person would aggravate Japanese fanaticism? Any intelligent decision must rest upon study of the status of the god-emperor idea and of Shintoism in the Nipponese political setup. WORSHIP MIKADO The Mikado on the throne at any given time is boss god to all but a minute minority of educated Japanese. Every member of his family, however remote, is a superior god. Every Jap, however humble, is a descendant of gods. So is the very soil of Japan. The gods are taught as "history" and fact to Japanese children. They are, narrowly, the tenets of Shintoism, which is accepted as a religion by only about 16,500,000 persons as contrasted with more than 41,000,000 who avow Buddhism. But whatever their religious affiliation, virtually all Japs accept the divinity of the emperor and the myth as to his lineage. The minority which rejects the identity of the Mikado with boss god is made up largely of the same oligarchy that promulgates the god-emperor myth. Throughout recorded Nipponese history, the group that possessed the person of the Mikado has traded upon his accepted divinity, with tongue in cheek, in order to rule the nation according to its whims. That situation involves some Oriental reasoning. The god-emperor has to be divine and sacrosanct as an institution, but mortal as an individual. Otherwise he could, if he had character, upset the oligarchy. So it is accepted that the emperor is born of woman, marries, fathers heirs and dies. He can even be deposed. Many have been. Joseph C. Grew, for 10 years our ambassador in Tokyo and now under-secretary of state, believes that if the emperor idea were destroyed anarchy would follow in Japan. Others equally well schooled in Nipponese politics are convinced that until the emperor idea is cut by the roots, over a period that might involve a generation of military domination by the Allies, Japan cannot be trusted at all. So long as the god-emperor remains a religious obsession among Japs, so long will the institution be used by militarists to promote their disturbing projects. But where does this leave Hirohito? Will it help, or hinder, if we seek to destroy him now, or if we agree to China's demand that he be executed after the war as Asiatic war criminal number one. Experts say that Hirohito is essentially a weakling. If he were not, had believed firmly in peace — if he had so much as declined to deliver rescripts supporting what Japan has been doing—he would have been assassinated or deposed. His 11-year-old son would have replaced him. Actual ruler then would be a regent who would help to prosecute the war. SHINTOISM MUST GO

Brotherly Love Advocated By High German Official By DANIEL de LUCE TOENNISTEIN, Germany, June 2.—(AP)—An aged German Catholic has become the highest civil official in the occupied reich and voiced a plea for the German people to relearn the principles of brotherly love. As oberpresident of the Rhein-provinz military district, 70-year-old Dr. Hans Fuchs has been resurrected from the political scrap heap where the nazis tossed him 12 years ago, writing the word "traitor" on his house. Fuchs has been charged by Lt. Gen. Leonard T. Gerow, military governor and commander of the U. S. 15th army, with responsibility for carrying out the administration, under American supervision, of the largest political entity yet carved out of Germany by an Allied power. In his first public statement on the policy he hopes to follow in his 14,000-square-mile military district of 11,000,000 peacetime population, Fuchs told the Associated Press: "My greatest aim is to inculcate a new christian spirit in our youth, a spirit in which both Catholic and Protestant churches must collaborate in teaching." Regarding his program for occupied Germany, Fuchs expressed these views: "Reconstruction—it would be helpful if German war prisoners skilled as farmers, tradesmen, technicians, teachers and civil servants could be released quickly." Press—"We have some editors left over from old times. By publishing our own newspapers we could contribute more directly to German reeducation." Jews—"They will be able to live in the New Germany as unhindered as they were before the nazis took power." Education—Revival of elementary schools along the lines of the Weimar republic and reestablishment of higher schools under religious auspices. Military government—He said his administration would iron out inconsistencies in local military government regulations, which he said had forbidden ringing of church bells in some localities and permitted it in others, eased civilian travel restrictions here and increased them there. He believed more uniform policies would create "better feeling." Politics—He envisaged a new "democratic party" for collaboration "in rebuilding the fatherland." He added, "the only requirement for membership in such a party would be that applicants were men of good will. I would like to see it include Catholic centrists, national liberals, liberals, social democrats and, if the communists wished to enter it, then communists, too. Of course it is only an idea of mine. I do not know if it is possible." — BONDS KILL JAPS

Mrs. Raymond E. Reid

Miss Bettye Cree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Cree, 1100 Mary Ellen, and Lt. Raymond E. Reid, son of Mrs. Dora Reid, Kingsport, Tenn., were married at 8:30 p. m., May 26, in the First Christian church with Chaplain Howard A. Long, officiating, with the double ring ceremony.

Vows were exchanged before an altar encircled with Wood-wardia fern with white peonies and Picardy gladioli entwined and tall candelabra flanking either end. Fronds of fern were placed in front of the organ, and seats of honor were roped with satin ribbon, with bows of satin ribbon with clusters of flowers at the aisle. Candelabra decorated the ends of the pews, at the aisle entrance were tall white baskets of mixed gladioli and peonies.

Traditional wedding music including "Poem" by Filich, "Ava Maria" by Schubert, "Clair de Lune," Debussy, and the well-known marches were played at the organ by Tracy Cary.

Miss Ann Chisholm, bride's maid, wore a bouffant dress of spring green marquisette, with self ruffles accenting the sweetheart neckline. She wore a bunch of split Picardy gladioli in her hair and carried a Colonial bouquet which was also of Picardy gladioli.

Miss Gwen Weston, maid of honor, wore a matching dress of spring green marquisette, and she also wore split Picardy gladioli in her hair and carried a Colonial bouquet of gladioli.

Lt. David Howland attended the bridegroom as best man, and Capt. Bill Shaw and Lt. Bill Talton served as groomsmen.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, G. B. Cree, wore a model gown of ivory slipper satin, designed with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Hand-made satin roses trimmed the fitted bodice, and the full skirt fitted into a deep train. Her fingertip veil of imported bridal illusion fell in full circular tiers from an oblong satin calotte, with a pompadour arrangement of hand-made roses. She carried a white Bible topped with two white orchids and white satin streamers attached.

Barbara Hoover was ring bearer, and she wore a peach net dress with split gladioli in her hair. The bride's mother chose for the wedding a gown of lime light crepe with a square neckline and short sleeves, with self ruffle trim. Her

Americans are slowly learning to value human life! Paradoxically, the same week in December which marked the third anniversary of Pearl Harbor also signalled the 35th anniversary of a project which has saved more human lives than possibly any other preventive measure—the American Red Cross first aid program.

During that period more than 10,000,000 Americans have completed Red Cross first aid courses, learning to protect the lives of themselves and their fellows.

Among the early pioneers in making the nation safety conscious, Dr. Matthew J. Shields, first American Red Cross national first aid director, deserves much of the honor for today's great safety movement. Dr. Shields early safety work in the Pennsylvania mines led the way department to name the American Red Cross as the official first aid instructor organization for both the military and civilians.

Under the far-sighted perseverance of the American Red Cross, two fundamental lessons have been brought home to Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Citizen and family: (1) the prime importance of being safety conscious in order to avoid injury and (2) the need for basic "know-how" in emergency treatment of accident victims.

In the reconversion days ahead, as new machines and farm implements are produced and working procedures changed, the need for proper first aid knowledge, both as an accident preventive and for emergency treatment, will intensify. Every new first aid certificate issued in Pampa makes the community a happier, more healthful place to live.

The report turned in by the Pampa Junior Red Cross of which H. A. Yoder is chairman, indicates a very successful year. 1228 holiday articles were made for servicemen; 218 gift boxes were sent overseas to children who were victims of unfortunate circumstances; 325 games were collected to be used in hospitals for servicemen and ex-servicemen.

Miss Verdie Denton, Junior Red Cross production chairman, assembled and shipped all of the articles. Miss Roy Riley, Junior High school; Miss Billie Rosson, Horace Mann; Miss Edna Daughton, Baker school; Mrs. John Plaster, Woodrow Wilson; Miss Melbie Bird Richey, Sam Houston—all directed the making of the articles in the various schools. Commendation also goes to Miles Morgan who directed the making of lap boards, puzzles and games in the school shop.

The articles are to be used in hospitals all over the country for our servicemen.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The organ and linen covered table was centered with white roses, with candelabra on either side. The three-tiered wedding cake was encircled with fern and sweetpeas.

Miss Gwen Weston served the cake, and Miss Ann Chisholm presided at the punch bowl. Sixty-five guests registered in the bride's book.

Mrs. Reid is a member of the local Kit Kat Club, and she attended school at the Hockaday Preparatory school, Dallas, and Hockaday Junior college, as well as the University of Texas, Austin, where she majored in costume design.

Lt. Reid attended high school at Raimelle, W. Va., and college at Oahu, Hawaii. He enlisted in the United States army air corps in 1939, and received his commission in 1943 at Williams Field, Ariz. He served for 20 months overseas in the Pacific, African campaign and in Italy.

Following the reception, Lt. and Mrs. Reid left for an extended wedding trip to El Paso, and Old Mexico. For traveling the bride wore a shrimp pink two-piece suit, with limelight straw sailor, navy blue slippers and purse, and her corsage was of white orchids.

After the wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 1100 Mary Ellen, and the bridegroom is stationed at Pampa army air field.

Paramount has gone to the limit in the production of the story of Spain's Civil War.
 Sam Wood's smashing production, "For Whom the Bell Tolls," now showing for the first time at popular prices, opens today at the LaNora theatre.
 In brilliant technicolor, the picture boasts a cast seldom equalled in the annals of screen history. Gary Cooper, Ingrid Bergman, Akim Tamiroff, Joseph Calleia, Katina Paxinou and George Condois and thousands of others vividly portray the characters of Ernest Hemingway's best seller.
 Combined with Wood's excellent production and direction is Victor Young's outstanding musical score. Every minute of the 2 hour, 36 minute score is entirely original.
 The famous story of Spain's Civil War is brought to life in one of Paramount's best. Don't miss it.

The district office of price administration has announced the results of nine criminal cases heard this week in U. S. district court in Amarillo.

Marshall Scott, Amarillo, and Bob Phillips, Borgan, each received a $100.00 fine. Scott pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal possession of three new tires and Phillips pleaded guilty to charges of selling new and used tires at over-celling prices and of selling new tires without requiring surrender of tire certificates.

$50.00 fines were given L. F. Ramsey, Clyde Allison Post and H. A. Bunk, all of Amarillo, after each pleaded guilty to charges of violating rationing regulations.

Suspended imposition for one year was given John Adrian, Adrian, Texas, on a plea of guilty to charge of purchasing new tires without tire certificates.

Here's Where the Bond Money Goes

WASHINGTON, June 2 — (AP)—The ships that took part in the initial invasion of Okinawa cost about $7,800,000,000.

Announcing this today, the navy said almost $1,000,000,000 more was spent for airplanes, consumable supplies, equipment for the ships and the marine landing forces, and for the training of personnel taking part in the action.

The bill to the navy alone of nearly $8,800,000,000 was more than twice as much as the navy spent in World War I.
 It does not count on any army expenses in the Okinawa fighting. The estimates were in a report to the treasury from the secretary of the navy.
 Red R. Gamble, director of the treasury's war finance division, cited as another example of "where your bond money goes."

DON'T GET NAIL POLISH ON YOUR GARMENTS

But, if you do . . .

NAIL POLISH AND NAIL POLISH REMOVER

Once nail polish remover has contacted a cellulose acetate rayon garment, NOTHING CAN BE DONE TO REPAIR THE DAMAGE.

Some nail polishes themselves contain enough active ingredients to partially dissolve the yarns and make it impossible to really remove the stain.

THE PRACTICE OF MANY WOMEN TO USE NAIL POLISH REMOVER TO REMOVE NAIL POLISH STAINS HAS RESULTED IN THE COMPLETE LOSS OF MANY GARMENTS.

Usually ORDINARY nail polish can be removed by your dry cleaner if you DO NOT use anything on it first.

Be very careful not to get nail polish on your garments, but if you do, LEAVE IT ALONE and get it to your cleaner as soon as possible.

STAINS FROM DRINKS

When fruit juice, beer, whiskey, carbonated drinks are spilled or splashed on your garment, BE SURE TO TELL YOUR CLEANER ABOUT IT. These are the kinds of stains or spots that show up after cleaning and can't be removed that so many people say—"WELL, IT WAS NOT ON THERE WHEN I BROUGHT IT IN." These stains can be removed if the cleaner is advised of their presence when the garment is brought in.

Oil Activity Said To Be Slow in Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss., June 2—(AP)—Oil activity slowed this week in Mississippi. State oil and gas board director H. M. Morse issued only five permits to drill for oil and three permits to deepen wells to 6,200 feet.

Big news of the week was an announcement by Sun Oil company that one of its wells in the Baxterville field, Lamar county showed an open field potential gas capacity of 200,000,000 cubic feet daily, the greatest of any gas well in the state.

The well, No. 1 Snowden, was subjected to extensive tests and showed a gas-oil ratio of 129,000 cubic feet to one barrel of oil. Under accepted procedure, oil wells show a ratio of less than 10,000 to one.

Oil Company To Allow Veterans Leave of Absence

A special leave of absence will be granted to employees of the Texas company who return from military service and who desire to take advantage of the service men's readjustment act of 1944 (the G. I. bill) to pursue studies that will benefit them in their future association with the company, it was announced yesterday by W. S. S. Rodgers, chairman of the board of directors.

Financial assistance in the form of loans without interest will be extended to these veterans in cases where the amount available under the law may be inadequate.

The leave is for one year, subject to extension at the end of each year, provided the employee is making satisfactory progress in his studies. This educational leave is available to any employee who had at least four months service with Texaco before entering military service.

The employee's benefits under the company's group life insurance, pension, and hospitalization plans will continue as though the employees were in active company service.

Upon the employee's return to company service, full consideration will be given to the knowledge and skill he acquired while on educational leave and to his accumulated seniority with the company, including the period of his leave.

Of the more than five thousand employees of the Texas company on military leave 37 are from the Panhandle district, according to D. J. Gribbin, district superintendent for the Texas company.

Boyce and Smiser will maintain their general offices in Houston and a branch office in Corpus Christi. He is owner and president of the S. E. W. Oil and Gas company, which will continue operation in the general area adjacent to Corpus Christi.

Gasoline Plant Is Dedicated Friday

HAYNESVILLE, La., June 2—(AP)—The new gas recycling plant here, designed to recover daily 16,000 gallons of natural gasoline and 4,000 gallons of iso-pentane while separating gas from 6,000 barrels of oil, was dedicated here yesterday.

Speakers at the dedication exercises estimated that from six to eight million barrels of oil would be added to the ultimate recovery from the field through the plant's ability to return natural gas to the oil horizons to provide pressure for lifting of additional oil to the surface.

Oil Man Is Applying For Building Properties

HOUSTON, June 2—(AP)—Glenn H. McCarthy, developer of the Anahuac and other oil fields, announced today that he had applied to Washington for priorities to permit the construction of one 18-story building, three twelve story structures and two ten story apartment hotels with commercial sections.

In addition he said he planned to build numerous smaller buildings for stores, banks, movies and so on as well as overground and underground parking spaces, swimming pool and a year around ice skating rink.

McCarthy estimated at $16,000,000 the sum needed to finish the project on a 15-acre site at the end of Main street.

Hedrick and Lindsay are the architects.

OPA Is Curtailing Sugar Overissuance

WASHINGTON, June 2—(AP)—Acting to stem continuing overissuance of sugar, OPA has authorized its regional offices to halt temporarily the granting of ration certificates for home canning.

An OPA spokesman said that regional directors may call a halt in any area where there is evidence that ration grants are exceeding quotas. The suspension would remain in effect while the regional supply picture is being re-surveyed.

"There is no doubt," the spokesman said, "that the rate of issuance still is running too high in some parts of the country."

The first reported use of the new authority was in OPA's Chicago region where Administrator R. E. Walters has suspended the issuance of home canning certificates pending a survey of supplies.

The move is another of a series since the start of the year designed to bring rations in line with sharply reduced sugar stocks.

OPA already has put the table use ration to five pounds every four months as compared with a previous allowance of five pounds every two and a half months.

It also has trimmed the home-canning allotment down to a maximum of 15 pounds a person, down from a maximum of 25 last year.

Industrial and industrial allotment also have been cut, and a further reduction for industrial users is in prospect.
