Texas To Set Off GOP Blast

Delegation Fireworks Are Expected

CHICAGO (AP) — An ear-shattering display of Fourth of July fireworks was set to go off before the Republican National Committee today — with the compliments of Texas.

Thirty-eight hefty, possibly decisive, nominating votes in next week's GOP National Convention furnished the explosive charge.

One delegation calling its opponents thieves and worse — wanted to vote for Gen. Eisenhower. The other — denouncing the Ike forces as mostly Democrats in disguise — was for Sen. Robert A. Taft.

The 106-member National Committee had the job of deciding for the time being, at least when it comes to the convention.

With Taft forces running the National Committee, nobody here had much doubt that most if not all the Texas winning recognition today would be leaving Taft buttons in their Western-type hats.

But that was far from being the end of it.

Delegates who lost their contests before National Committee and this year that means Eisenhower delegates with few exceptions, can appeal to (1) the convention's Credentials Committee, and (2) a vote of convention delegates themselves.

There, on the convention floor, with the microphones and the television cameras telling the whole story to the voters, is where the real fight is going to be.

Meanwhile, Taft was back in Washington, still saying it looked as if he might be nominated on the first ballot.

Eisenhower was moving on Chicago by train, due Saturday. Associated Press correspondent Don Whitehead, traveling with him, reported the general was mad about the tickings his people have been taking here and ready to make a real fight upon his arrival.

Eisenhower said at Lincoln, Neb. "If I know the American people, this ruthlessness in Chicago will boomerang."

Some supporters of Eisenhower, Gov. Earl Warren of California and former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, were making moves toward what could conceivably blossom into a stop Taft coalition.

For the moment, they were concentrating on denouncing the National Committee's decision to toss. Some of them suggested the movement might spread out, with what success only the next few days will determine.

NLRB Inquiry Planned Into Steel Charges

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board plans an immediate investigation of charges by striking CIO steelworkers that major steel producers had "entered into a conspiracy" to prevent settlements with any struck company unless the Big Six agree.

President Truman made virtually the same charge at a news conference yesterday. He accused the major steel companies of conspiring to draw out the strike, and said the situation does not call for use of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Truman indicated strongly he did not plan to follow the "request" by Congress that he try to end the 70-day work stoppage by asking the courts for an 80-day injunction against the strike, as provided for in the T-H law.

Industry spokesmen promptly said Truman knew about the latest union move before it was made.

They noted the timing of the two comments, and compared the similarity of the wording.

The union said, shortly after the President's news conference that the purpose of the alleged conspiracy was to "prevent any one of the Big Six companies or any smaller company from reaching final agreement on a new work contract."

The six major companies named by the union are U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, Jones and Laughlin, Youngstown Sheet and Tube and Inland. Together they produce 70 per cent of total U.S. output.

A spokesman for the six companies quickly issued a statement saying the union "apparently will go to any length, ridiculous though it may be, in its effort to force employees in the steel industry to join the union."

This referred to a union demand for the union shop, a form of compulsory unions. That demand is generally considered one of the main obstacles to settlement.

Jury Appeal Brings In $1,000 For Woman

DALLAS (AP) — An unusual appeal by a Dallas County grand jury had resulted in more than $1,000 in contributions yesterday for Mrs. Margaret Lister Gay, 40, worth cab driver.

Mrs. Gay was shot and left in a hospital paralyzed from a bullet wound in her spine.

The appeal was made by the grand jury after it indicted Obie Lee Belcher, 25, Mineola, for rape, assault to murder and robbery.

J. FRANK HUNT ... heart attack fatal

Heart Attack Is Fatal For Frank Hunt

Funeral rites for Joseph Frank Hunt, long-time resident and business man in Pampa, will be read tomorrow at 4 p. m. in the First Christian Church by Rev. H. H. Tyler.

Mr. Hunt died of a heart attack at his home at 1138 N. Russell last night. He was born Sept. 16, 1887 in Cedar-Town, Ga., and has been a resident of Pampa since 1926 when he moved from Kansas City.

Mr. Hunt was a member of the Elks Lodge, Lions Club and American Legion as a veteran of World War I, during which he served overseas.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Goldy Hunt of Pampa, one sister, Mrs. John Bisby, Rome, Ga., and two sons, Mr. M. M. Senke, Albuquerque, N. M., and L. G. Senke, Enid, Okla., and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted by the local American Legion.

American Sabres Down 12 Red Jets

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — American Sabre jets today shot down 12 Communist MIGs while Allied artillerymen unlimbered every big gun on the Korean battlefield for a double-barreled July Fourth blow against the Reds.

The toll of 12 MIGs shot down, one probably destroyed and six damaged made the air battle the second biggest of the Korean War, the Fifth Air Force said.

Few MIGs have been seen over North Korea for more than three months. But Friday the Reds launched 115 of the swift swept-wing fighters against U.N. fighter bombers and the 97 Sabre jets flying protective cover.

The Air Force did not identify the target of the big force of F-84 Thunderjets. However, it said the Communist installation was about 20 miles southeast of Suifu, site of a giant power plant smashed June 23.

Some observers said the secrecy and the unusually big force of fighters gave the raid the appearance of something out of the ordinary.

Allied plane losses, if any, were not announced.

The MIG toll was just short of the all-time record set Dec. 12 when 13 MIGs were shot down, two probably destroyed and damaged topped the earlier battle, 19 to 16.

Two wings of F-84 fighter bombers pounded the unidentified target with 1,000 pound bombs and napalm, the Air Force said. Then the jets dived low to strafe anti-aircraft positions with 50 calibre machine gun fire.

Returning pilots said it was impossible to evaluate damage because of dense black smoke.

Fighting broke out in three sectors of the great front as Allied artillerymen wheeled every big gun on the 155-mile line into action for a murderous Fourth of July barrage.

Shots Continuing ... Polio And Politics Slow July 4 Picnics

By The Associated Press Polio and politics cut down attendance at some July 4th picnics Friday but thousands of other Texans raced for every available picnic table and barbecue pit.

Fear of taking small children to public gatherings where they might contact a polio germ kept some families at home.

Intense interest in the hearing of the committee's Republican delegations before the National Civil Liberties Committee Friday made portable radios an essential piece of picnic equipment.

In Houston hundreds of mothers and children lined up at eight clinics for inoculations in the mass experimental fight against polio paralysis. Doctors said their work in testing a new blood serum on about 25,000 Houston children was so important to success for the holiday.

But there was plenty of July 4th gatherings for those who wanted to get outside.

About 50,000 persons were expected for 38 professional baseball games Friday afternoon and night.

There was the South Texas Beauty Contest in Seguin, the annual rodeo in Pecos, an old-time Fourth of July party in Garland and the Pan-American Skeet Shoot in Dallas.

Second round play in the All-

State Country Club Invitation Golf Tournament began Friday, the Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored a July 4th celebration in Odessa and the American Legion staged a political rally and festival in Terrell.

However, it was quiet along the Mexican border, at least south of the Rio Grande. Because of the Mexican national election Sunday all bars, liquor stores and cantinas were ordered closed Friday night.

Suevo Laredo planned its customary July 4th picnic at the home of the Laredo family, and hotels and restaurants were open. However, dances and even family fiestas were outlawed for Sunday.

Senators Map Probe Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate rules subcommittee called a closed-door meeting today to plan the next move in its explosive investigations of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and Sen. Benton (D-Ga.).

McCarthy and Benton flung charges of fraud, deceit and other malpractice at each other in a full day's testimony, under oath, before the group yesterday. The bitter session was marked by:

1. A declaration by Sen. Welker (R-Ia.) that he wants a jury to decide whether Benton violated election or tax laws in his handling of $600 received in 1950 from Walter B. Cosgriff, Salt Lake City banker.

2. A move by Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) to set off an investigation of the entire Senate membership to show whether members and lobbyists have abused senators' free mailing privileges.

3. A demand by Benton that the subcommittee send the official record of his testimony and McCarthy's to the Justice Department to be checked for possible evidence of perjury.

At issue before the subcommittee are Benton's recollections of the expulsion of McCarthy from the Senate, and McCarthy's countermove demanding investigation of Benton.

Verbal Entries Not Accepted In Airport Naming Contest

HEARS SELF DENOUNCED — Sen. William Benton (D-Ga.) listens to Sen. Joseph P. McCarthy (R-Wis.) denounce him (Benton) as "the chameleon from Connecticut" and accuse him of aiding the Communist cause "for political advantage to the Democratic party." McCarthy made these remarks in testimony before a Senate rules subcommittee in pressing for action on his resolution for a full-scale investigation of Benton, who has demanded that McCarthy be ousted from the senate. Trickster Is Guest Of Local Lions Club

A native Pampa, John Lee Welton, 18, put the arm of the sheriff's daughter into a meat chopper yesterday, along with some carrots, pulled out the blade and cut just the carrots.

A dazzling array of magical tricks by young Welton entertained the weekly meeting of the Pampa Lions Club at which the new president, Dr. Joe Donaldson, presided for the first time.

Welton has mastered all kinds of the sleight-of-hand art. Among a dozen or so tricks performed, he escaped from a chain locked around his wrists, he pulled a rabbit from behind a screen the audience was convinced he'd nothing and he pulled a baby bottle from Donaldson's vest pocket.

B. H. Cruce, Pampa's new city manager and a Lion for 10 years, was one of the guests at the luncheon.

Donaldson announced a new committee, headed by Rufe Jordan, whose sole purpose is to make certain that guests at the weekly meeting are greeted personally.

Other members are Joe Tooley, Jim Evans, E. O. (Red) Wedgeworth, Jimmy McCune, H. C. McKirkle, Paul Brown and Ed Cleveland.

Annual Canadian Rodeo Underway

CANADIAN (Special) — Even the sun co-operated today as the annual Old Settlers Reunion and Rodeo got underway here.

Patriotic shades of red, white and blue marked Old Man 80's debut this morning as the city readied itself for the annual three-day celebration.

All persons who have lived in the area for 50 years or more are being treated to the festivities free of charge.

First performance of the rodeo is scheduled for 2 p. m. today. Successor to the well-known Anvil Park Rodeo, the annual event has become one of the top attractions in the Top O' Texas area. There will be performances Saturday and Sunday with a parade featuring the Pampa Rodeo Club on Saturday. Several bands will also participate.

W. R. (Bob) Chafin Dies In Cleburne

An oldtime Pampa resident, W. R. (Bob) Chafin, has passed away in Cleburne, Tex., it was learned today.

Mr. Chafin died yesterday and will be buried today at 4 p. m. in the Cleburne Cemetery. He left Pampa in the late 30's. Southern Club is open tonight.

Council Says 430 Will Die

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Millions of Americans headed for outings today, jamming highways with a warning to motorists from safety officials to drive with caution.

In the first few hours of the extended weekend holiday the death toll in traffic accidents was 16.

But the National Safety Council estimated that 430 persons would lose their lives in highway mishaps between 6 p. m. Thursday and midnight Sunday local time.

Caution by motorists, the council said, could hold the toll to 300 or less. It based its estimate of 20 deaths on "cold figures" past experience and current traffic trends.

In the Memorial Day week end the final toll was 363 traffic deaths, 85 drownings and 62 violent deaths from miscellaneous causes.

Nation Takes A Holiday For Celebration Of Independence

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Americans by the millions took a brief holiday from their normal round of affairs today to celebrate Independence Day with parades, ceremonies and picnics.

U. S. citizens abroad, too, marked the 176th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. But in Korea, the grim business of war went on as usual for thousands of American troops.

In a special message to the U. S. Eighth Army men fending off renewed Chinese attacks along the shell-torn battlefield, Gen. James A. Van Fleet declared: "We continue the crusade of the Minute Men of 1776 in the interest of 'life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.'"

Across the land, parades and patriotic speeches were the order of the day in the biggest cities and the smallest towns.

With most work at a standstill and summer's heat in full sway, millions dragged out the swimming suits and picnic baskets and headed for the beach.

The National Safety Council estimated that some 90 million Americans, riding in 40 million cars, would take to the highways during the three-day week end.

Of these, the council predicted at least 50 would die in accidents. In New York, hundreds of ex-

10-Months-Old Baby Drowns In Bath Tub

LUBBOCK (AP) — A 10-month-old girl drowned yesterday while being bathed in the family bathtub.

Circumstances of the death were similar to the drowning of a nine-month-old boy in Houma on Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Jones of Route 3, Lubbock, was bathing Theresa Kay, 10 months, and Rita Louett, 21 months. She stepped outside the bathroom for a clean diaper.

When she returned Theresa Kay was unconscious in the tub. Efforts to revive the infant failed.

In Houston Wednesday a 14-year-old girl was bathing her two nephews, Dennis Brown, 11 months, and Dwight Brown, 3 months, when the telephone rang. When the girl returned after answering the phone she found Dixie had drowned in four inches of water.

Offers $25 If Lively Will Repeat Talk

Declaring city-wide resistance to the proposed charter amendment election is rapidly building up, City Commissioner W. B. Neel of Ward 3 challenged Travis Lively to repeat over the local radio his talk made at a citizens meeting July 26.

Neel said he would also pay the local hardware merchant $25 besides having the radio time paid if Lively would accept the proposal.

This was the first shot fired in the battle that may rend the city into two bitter camps before the election is held.

The proposed amendment would abolish the present system of electing a commissioner for each of four designated wards by the residents of each ward and in its stead have the entire commission elected at large.

In issuing his challenge Neel said:

"We of the opposition will gladly pay for the radio time, and pay Mr. Lively $25, if he will repeat his speech of July 26 — as nearly verbatim as possible — before a citizen's meeting in the District Court Rooms."

"I would also like to ask Mr. Lively in the event he accepts this proposal, if he would object to me on the same program — referring to each ward — repeating his talk and ask him if it isn't true that you said this or that should he forget part of his speech."

Neel said he understood that resistance to the move to change the charter back to its old form is growing in all parts of the city and not only in Wards 3 and 4.

Referring to Lively's talk to a group of citizens on the proposed change, Neel said:

"The people agreeing with us on this charter change question are being told by Mr. Lively, or anybody else for that matter, that we have no business men or citizens who are qualified to serve on the city commission, irrespective of what percentage of city taxes originate there."

Neel also took strong exception to Lively's statement regarding 65 per cent of the city's taxes coming from the north side and bounced back, saying:

"There is a question in my mind whether that percentage figure of 65 per cent originating in Wards 1 and 2 is correct. It seems to me there is quite a bit, if not the major portion of industrial taxes originating in Wards 1, 2, 3, and the numerous north-south streets intersecting with them."

The Ward 3 commissioner continued in his blast at those pushing the proposed change that a remark had been made during the meeting that only successful businessmen should have anything to say about spending tax money.

"We would also like to know from what yardstick proponents of the measure base their assumption that the amount of money, volume of business, or outstanding business success is a factor in a man's integrity, civic-mindedness, or ability to counsel with others over the destiny of our city?"

"I would also like to ask them if, during the past five years and two months under the ward system, whether the city has prospered, or if it has gone forward, prospered and improved?"

He added that the opponents of the change have gained sympathy of voters in all sections of the city because they believe it is an attempt to bar the south side of the city from representation on city commission.

Asked if there would be a strong battle put up by opponents of the change, Neel smiled, shook his head and said:

"You bet there is, and in every ward in town."

Others opposing the change have since declared that should the amendment be accepted that one man from the south side of town could ever be elected to the city commission.

On the other hand those assisting the change have decided that in the future they are "sick of ward politics as has been played in other cities, and in recent months in Pampa."

Catfish Brings Woo To Elderly Fisherman

OUR TOWN

by Wanda Campbell

Firecrackers are being heard all over town today, but when the big noise is gone, it's the little noise we remember. We'll remember the malicious churning of an ice cream freezer, and the dasher dripping with rich, home made ice cream. We'll recall the persistent buzz of a fly overhead while snoozing in the swing. Or the water splashing means for the tub while waiting for a big one to come along. We'll remember the soft flapping of a flag unfurled in front of a grocery store. The splatter of grease as a child hits the skillet. The sound of children nibbling at a watermelon rind. A well remember the faint clack of a lawn mower down the street. These sounds we hear despite the firecrackers, and these things we remember because they make the Fourth of July.

Baby Can Rest In Many Different Ways

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor
From the moment your baby is born, you can look forward to daily differences in her attitude. This is particularly true of her willingness to take naps.

When the baby gets to be about two years old, for instance, she may decide to rebel against the usual of being put to bed in the middle of the day.

This attitude may only be temporary, but you might as well be prepared to face it on a long-term basis. First, make up your mind that scolding and pleading will do no good at all. Under the circumstances, it is much wiser to tolerate sleep with noisy toys.

The important thing is to have the baby relax. You may even find, as you read to her, that she will doze off without any trouble. Another quieting influence is singing. Cuddle her in your arms and sing a lullaby or nursery rhyme.

Very often the only reason a baby resists naps is because she feels she is being left alone. Your reassuring presence will do more than anything else to convince her that she is loved and wanted.

You can be sure, however, if your baby is tired, she will take a nap without any coaxing. Your principal job at this point in life is to build security and confidence.

Be sure of what Jim is doing and saying. Even when she is talking to someone else she seems to hear what it is that Jim is talking about. If Jim repeats in a crowd a bit of gossip he has just mentioned, she will repeat it, too. Why, Jim, you never told me you can't spend any of your leisure time without me.

Cook's Nook

Any homemaker who's budget-minded will treasure this recipe for French Meringue Croquettes. Just as the name implies, it is a meringue combination you actually stretch one pound of ground beef into six to eight tempting servings.

For a flavorful combination, the ground beef is mixed with grated carrots, fine minced onions, grated onion, salt, pepper and an egg. It is then formed into the croquettes and baked first in bread crumbs, then dipped in milk and again rolled in crumbs. The croquettes are then ready for frying. For best results, make sure that you have the fat heated to a temperature of 265 F. A deep-fat frying thermometer is quite useful for determining when the fat has reached this correct temperature and in keeping it at this point.

In deep-fat frying use a deep fat fryer that fits the kitchen quite snugly although it is not absolutely necessary. With a fryer, you can readily lower the croquettes into the fat. Also, it allows the fat to drain when removing the croquettes from the fryer.

These croquettes are served with fresh green peas in a cream sauce, however, you might serve them with a tomato sauce. If you prefer, you can shape this mixture into patties and cook them in shallow fat in your frying pan. Still another way of preparing this mixture is as miniature meat loaves. In this case, bake them in a 500° oven for 15 minutes to one hour.

RECIPE FOR FRENCH MERINGUE CROQUETTES
1 pound ground beef
1 cup grated raw carrots
1 cup fine moist bread crumbs
1/4 cup grated onion
1 egg
1 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup bread crumbs
Milk
Lard for deep-fat frying
Combine all ingredients except egg, carrots and milk. Divide into 12 parts and shape into croquettes. Roll in crumbs, then in milk and again in crumbs. Cook until brown in deep hot fat at 265 F. Drain on absorbent paper. Six to eight servings.

If you have trouble with grease splashing on the wall behind the stove, avoid this difficulty by painting the area with a coat of colorless shellac. Wet with a brush then remove grease spots at any time.

The Mature Parent

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
In the motion picture, "The River," the story of a family of English children living in India, the heroine's little brother dies of cobra bite. The death brings sorrow to his sister. Though long aware of the child's dangerous interest in the snake that lived among the roots of the banyan tree at their garden's edge, she had neglected to report this interest to their parents.

Her failure to inform on her little brother cost him his life. If she had informed on him, would she have been a "tattle-tale?" Children who give us information upon which we must act are not "tattle-tales." To qualify as a "tattle-tale," Jimmy or Ann must report on something that's over and done with. They are motivated, not by a desire to protect the child they inform on, but by jealousy, revenge or a hunger for attention.

This is a helpful distinction. It eliminates the protective informer from the problem and focuses our entire attention on the child who needs it — the boy or girl who "tattles" because he feels jealousy, wants more notice, or to "get back" at somebody else.

The first step toward dealing with him is to rid ourselves of our own uneasy fear for our "tattle-tale."

If we feel shocked and alarmed by the betrayal of his brother or friend, we add our own tensions to those he's already struggling with. Our jealous, vengeful or over-demanding youngster will be so busy defending himself that he will be in no state to talk to us about the things that have scared him into believing he is an unloved, unworthy child.

He has betrayed his brother or friend because he felt himself betrayed by them. We cannot persuade him to change his mind by attacking him or calling him names. We help him by tracing his relationship between his late bearing and his failure to tell us more about his fears that he is

Hawaiian Dinner Honors Kit Kat Klub Rushees

Rushees of the Kit Kat Klub were honored Wednesday evening with an Hawaiian dinner at the home of Miss Judy Nance.

As the rushees signed the guest register, they were presented with Hawaiian ties. A dinner consisting of a fruit plate, punch and sherry was served to members and rushees in the backyard of the Nance home.

A program following the meal was presented by Jiggle Quills who gave a reading and Christmas Pierce, singing "Temptation," accompanied by Claudette Matheny of the piano. Group singing preceded the introduction of club officers and rushees.

Rushees attending were the Misses Betty Bullard, Patsy Ward, Peggy Ward, Jean Smith, Nancy Jameson, Marlene Kolb, Pamela Dudley, Janice McWigall, Mary Wills, Patsy Darby, Nelda Smart, Charlie Black, Nancy Harrison, Jerry Sloan, Carol Wagner, Charlotte Hoggart, Carol Foster, Jo Tooley, Margie Roundtree and Carol Paxson.

Members present were the Misses Gail Finkelstein, Joan Cantrell, Harriet Schwartz, Ann Perkins, Vivian Brake, Marva Su Stone, Gay Marlow, June Montgomery, Adelaide Skelly, Carolyn Dial, Alice Sewright, Janice Barlow, Judy Nance, Claudette Matheny, Christine Pieren, Jiggle Quills and the sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lobst.

Glimpses Of Yesteryear

FIVE YEARS AGO
Mrs. T. G. Groves was hostess to the Meriton Home Demonstration Club when the group met in her home.

Eighteen of the First Methodist WSCS met in the home of Mrs. Sherman White, with Mrs. R. W. Lane presiding at the business meeting.

TEN YEARS AGO
Mrs. M. P. Downs and Mrs. A. Nourse returned from a two-week vacation in Southern California.

First Baptist Church announced that E. Douglas Carver, pastor of the University Baptist church in Tallahassee, would succeed Rev. C. Gardner Bayliss as minister of the church here.

15 YEARS AGO
There was a little jam near the Clyde Matthews' home when the Fatherless and a group of friends, including M. K. Brown, sponsored a display of fireworks. John Austin, 18, city golf champion, was pictured in the News.

The search for Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Fred Noonan, continued after the two were lost in a plane crash on Howland Island, said to be the most dreary part of the world.

Our over-dramatic reactions to the word "tattle-tale" are due to the fact that this noun, like the word "liar," is a fear-filling one for so many of us. Associated with buried hurts of our own childhoods, it is forgotten until one day someone flings the name "tattle-tale" at our little son or daughter.

Hearing the old word used to denounce our child, we hear again the reproach and contempt in the voices of the teacher, the parent, the friend who used it to denounce us.

We must begin to separate what we felt as children for the word "tattle-tale" from what we should feel as grown-ups. Then we can help sons and daughters whose self-distrust has been expressed through jealousy, revenge and demands for attention.

"Tattle-tale" is someone who seeks to injure another in order to benefit himself.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The willingness and ability to overcome evil belongs to everyone who realizes his spiritual relationship to God. This is the theme of the Lesson-Sermon on the subject "God" to be read in Christian Science churches this Sunday. The Golden Text reads, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God" (Revelation 21:3).

The protection assured by an understanding of the following statements from Pauline may be demonstrated by all: "The Lord is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me? The Lord is my strength and song, and is become my salvation" (118:14). The Discoverer of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, in these words challenges the acceptance of evil as power: "If that man do unto me? The Lord is my strength and song, and is become my salvation" (118:14). The Discoverer of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, in these words challenges the acceptance of evil as power: "If that man do unto me? The Lord is my strength and song, and is become my salvation" (118:14).

Others participating in the program were Mrs. Floyd Barrett, Mrs. Don Egerton, Mrs. Bill Williams, Mrs. Clifford Bixler and Mrs. M. J. Porter.

The meeting closed with group singing of "America" and a prayer by Mrs. W. F. Vanderburg. Approximately 30 women attended.

INSIDE THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

INSIDE THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY — The heritage of FDR (left), the influence of HST (center), and hope despite Ike (right).

By JOHN GUNTHER
Written for NEA Service

What's inside the Democratic Party?

First, the heritage of Roosevelt.
Second, the paternal influence, whatever it may be worth, of Mr. Truman.

Third, rival candidates, none of whom hate each other quite as much as do the leading Republican candidates.
Fourth, baffling uncertainty who the candidate will be.
Fifth, important sectional differences.
Sixth, confusion.

Seventh, in spite of Ike and everything, some modicum of hope.

The greatest single overriding advantage the Democrats have in the campaign about to be fought, with no holds barred, is the fact the balance of power between the parties has changed drastically, with the result that the Democrats are now apparently the majority party in this country, not the Republicans.

Recent Gallup polls are illuminating. The Democrats can expect to poll 39 per cent of the total vote in 1952, and the Republicans 34 per cent.

Independents, people who say they have no party choice, make up the remaining 27 per cent and will obviously decide the issue.

In 1948, the independent vote went 57 per cent Democratic, 33 per cent Republican. But a poll taken in March, 1952, upped the Republicans (among the independent to 45 per cent, while the Democrats dropped to 36 per cent, with 19 per cent still undecided.

Even so, to win the Democrats will need to take only six million independent votes on the basis of an estimated total electorate of 55 million. The Republican must take nine million.

Figures, like delegates, are not very fixed objects. They change radically between now and November. The impact of a fresh, glowing personality like Eisenhower might make millions of voters move about. The Democrats don't know who their own candidate will be, and quite possibly he will be somebody very weak.

So unprecedented fluid is the whole political picture and so uncertain is the long-run future that I heard one esteemed specialist say, "No matter who gets in, he will be a one-term president."

The second great advantage the Democrats have, according to their own special view, is that the country is prosperous, most people are getting along fine, and the average voter is better off than he has ever been before. Hence, he is going to vote for the status quo, so reason the Democrats.

The Democrats — with substantial aid from events — have kept employment full, and both farm prices and wages dizzyingly high. They have not only given a new measure of security to people at large; they are in a position to promise more and continuing security.

It is mostly the rich who howl about taxes, say the Democrats. As to the poor, they are infinitely better off, and no matter whether you like it or not, there are more poor people in this country than rich. Simply look at comparative income figures.

Thus the first of the so-called Democrats — so they say — have into the second. The American right-winger electorate outnumbers the right wing, say the Democrats — so they say — have the left wing sewed up.

Another presumptive advantage to the Democrats is that a whole generation of voters has grown up knowing nothing but Democratic rule. Many slightly older remember as a vivid fact the crash and depression that preceded Roosevelt. That crash can still be whooped up into a fluorescent topic.

Next, look at issues. The chief Democratic issue will be the substance of what I have just mentioned — security for the under-privileged, good times for all, the welfare state. The Democrats will attack the Republicans as "the party of the rich and the privileged few, who will forget about the working people and bring another Hoover depression with bread lines and millions of unemployed."

Rebutting the Republican charge that they are going to "socialize" America, the Democrats will say that, on the contrary, their reforms will benefit the free enterprise system, and that the net result of the New Deal has been to produce the most prodigious national income any country has ever known.

On budget and taxes, the Democratic viewpoint is defensive. Just let a Republican administration try to run this country without high taxes, they say.

Third, communism and foreign policy. The Democrats will attempt to repudiate the Republican accusation that they are soft on communism, and will say that, contrariwise, they have done a tremendous job in combating world communism.

They will cite the Truman Plan for aid to Greece and Turkey, the Marshall Plan, the European Recovery Program which undoubtedly made it harder for communism to function in western Europe, and the attempt to stop predatory communism dead in its tracks in Korea.

The Democrats assert that the

"Using one of Junior's skyrocketers to clean out the chimney isn't such a bad idea, is it?"

Boyle's Column . . . Two Well-Worn Legends Long Have Hampered American Growth

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — The ghost of many an American soldier, gazing down from the Valhalla of heroes, would have looked with envy at a U. S. Army ceremony this week.

It was the demonstration of the mighty new Patton 48 tank. "Gee, that was the kind of tank I used to dream of before I was killed in Tunisia," you can imagine one soldier saying.

Republicans, particularly if Taft is the nominee, would try to pull out of Europe, cut foreign aid, and endanger world peace. They say Taft's isolationism would be welcomed by the Kremlin.

As to financial aid to Europe, the Democrats will point out that a large proportion of the money has been actually spent within the United States, and has helped to produce full employment and prosperity (no matter what temporary strikes may be taking place).

Finally, in the light of all this, what will Democratic strategy be? First, to hope that Taft will be nominated, because he will be the Democratic leaders think, and away the assist candidate to beat. I heard one Democratic luminary so luminous that I hesitate to mention his name, say, "I pray on my knees every night that Taft will be it."

Any Democrat, the Democrats feel, can beat Taft, because Taft is running, the Democratic Party is almost certain to carry the pivotal states with large labor votes, like New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Michigan, and California. (Understand that I am merely reporting a Democratic view and that Taft Republicans will, of course, dispute this theory hotly.)

Second, to try to force the Republican candidate, no matter who he is, into the furthest possible reactionary position, both on foreign policy and in domestic

"Yeah, we talked about having a tank like that before I died in the battle of the Belgian Bulge," replies his spectral buddy. "Boy, look at that gun it packs — and its low silhouette."

"Yep," says the first soldier. "It's got almost the same lines as the German tank that hushed the crate I got hit in back in 1942."

And if the heroic dead bear any ill-will, one couldn't blame two spectral tankmen for resenting the fact their country gave them no such tank to fight in when they were among the living.

Army Secretary Frank C. Pace hailed the powerful new Patton as "the finest medium tank in the world."

If battle tests prove this claim true, it is encouraging. For many veteran tankmen hold that American armor was inferior in design, crew protection and hitting power as compared to both German and Russian armor in the second world war.

But this brilliant new weapon is still to be put in real mass production and it soon will be 11 years after Pearl Harbor.

This situation points up the danger of two civilian legends that have long hampered American military power — and cost us needless casualties:

1. The squirrel gun legend — 11 years after Pearl Harbor, Americans will grab granddaddy's old squirrel gun off the mantel, and repel the invader.

2. The know-how legend — "we are the most inventive people in the world, and we can turn-out newer and better weapons faster than any possible group of enemies."

Both — of these legends are relics of America's blood frontier past, but neither holds true in the middle half of the Twentieth Century.

No civilian nation can spring to arms with squirrel guns any more and win a modern war. It is a perilous tradition, the 19th century handover in our thinking that we can hold off an enemy with out-of-date weapons while we quickly gear up and turn out better ones. Wars today move too fast.

As to the legend that Americans are the most inventive race, the facts simply don't bear it out — at least on the battlefield. The Germans produced the best submarines, tanks and all-purpose artillery guns in the last war. They put the first jet planes in the air, the first guided missiles — rockets and buzz bombs.

Our real genius has been in the field of mass production. But today the Russians have more and speedier jet planes in Korean skies than we have. Proof that their industrial revolution has gone along perhaps as fast as their social revolution.

The greatest military enemy the American people have is their own complacency, the habit of low-rating the capacity of other lands. We have lagged in both research and production of new weapons.

The bitter penalty for this foolishness is paid by our own soldiers and airmen. They have found in Korea — as they did in Tunisia — that combat bravery cannot improvise a sturdier tank, a faster airplane.

But they go on holding the line with what they have until the people at home shake the nonsense out of their system and get down to creating and building them the tools they need to win.

When European glassblowers closed down production during World War II, supremacy in fine handblown glass shifted to American shores.

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To any Sheriff or any Constable with the State of Texas—GREETING:
You are hereby commanded to cause to be published once each week for four consecutive weeks, the first publication to be at least twenty-eight days before the return day thereof, in a newspaper in Gray County, Texas, the accompanying citation, of which the herein below following is a true copy:

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To J. J. Barnard, the unknown heirs and legal representatives of J. J. Barnard, deceased, Jennie Barnard, also known as Jennie Barnard Johnson, and her husband, Homer Johnston, the unknown heirs and legal representatives of Jennie Barnard Johnson, deceased, Mabel Killebrew and the unknown heirs and legal representatives of Mabel Killebrew, deceased.
YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear before the Honorable District Court 31st Judicial District of Gray County at the Courthouse thereat in Pampa, Texas, on the 10th day of July, 1952, at 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, name being the fifth day of July, 1952, to file your answer to the petition filed in said court, on the 2nd day of July, A. D. 1952, in the case, number 10410, in the docket of said court and styled Opal Kuykendall et al, plaintiff, vs. J. J. Barnard et al, defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of the suit is as follows, to-wit: Plaintiff, Opal Kuykendall, joined pro forma by her husband, H. C. Kuykendall, sues in trespass, title, alleging that on July 1, 1952, she was, and still is, the owner in fee simple of the following described real estate and premises situated in Gray County, Texas:

"All of the Eastern One-half of Lot 3, Bk. No. 4 of the CRAWFORD ADDITION to the City of Pampa, in Gray County, Texas.

On such day also she was in possession of such premises; and afterwards, on the 2nd day of July, 1952, the defendants and each of them, unlawfully entered upon and dispossessed plaintiff of such premises, and withheld from her the possession thereof.

Plaintiff further alleges to the court that she and those whose title she holds, have had and held peaceable, continuous and adverse possession, under color of title from and under the State of Texas, of the said land for more than three years next before the commencement of this suit.

Plaintiff further alleges to the court that she and those whose title she holds, claiming the same under decedent registered have had peaceable, continuous adverse possession of the lands and tenements above described, cultivating, using and enjoying the same, and paying all taxes as same became due thereon for a period of more than five years before the commencement of this suit.

Plaintiff further alleges to the court that she and those whose title she holds, have had peaceable and adverse possession of said land, cultivating and enjoying the same, for a period of more than ten years next before the commencement of this suit, during which period they had paid all taxes and tenements actually incured.

Plaintiff further alleges to the court that she and those whose title she holds, have had peaceable and adverse possession of said land and tenements, cultivating, using and enjoying the same for a period of more than ten years before the commencement of this suit.

Plaintiff sues for title and possession of the above described land and for general and special relief.

Melton Hurls Sixth Shutout

By CHARLEY ESKEW
Associated Press Sports Writer
Hal Erickson of Dallas and Jim Melton of Fort Worth agree that O stands for Oklahomaans in the Texas League.

The teams stay in the same locations for the holiday with doubleheaders scheduled in all parks.

At Lamesa, the contest featured nine extra base blows—six doublers, two triples and a homer. The home was a three-run affair for Marlin Burleson of the victorious Dukes. The winning pitcher was starter Jerry Folkman, first of three Duke hurlers. The loser was Ted Wyrbanec, similarly the first of a trio.

Jim Melton honored with two in the first to get Clovis rolling to the win at Lubbock. Bill Hair limited the losers of six scattered hits to gain the win. The loser was starter Ted Gardner, who left in favor of Miguel Vargas in the fourth.

Clovis scored in clusters of three in the first, third and seventh frames. Lubbock got two—runners in the first and fourth.

A grand slam homer by Johnny Brunga in the seventh provided the difference between Amarillo and Abilene at Abilene. Glen Selho had a three-run homer for the losers in the ninth, but the rally fizzled at that. Jack Venable went all way for the victory. The loss was charged to Otto Nicholass.

Pampa and Borger took up where they left off Wednesday night when rain forced cancellation of their game with the score tied 5-5. A pair of tallies in the seventh gave Pampa the edge.

Morris Shipman, who went all the way yielding seven hits, was the winner. The loser was Ed Flanagan, first of three Borger hurlers. Albuquerque... 103 236 84-14 15 1 Lamesa... 100 24 123-11 4 Folkman, D. Carrolls, Priest and Cull; Wyrbanec, Carrier, Arthur and Marti, Calahan.

Lassies Battle For Olympic Track Spot

HARRISBURG, Pa.—(AP)—Eighty-two lassies of the rippers and savants battled against the time measure and clock today in hopes of gaining the 10 berths on the U. S. Olympic women's track and field team.

The field made up chiefly of girls in their late teens and early 20s faced the difficult job of qualifying on the times and distances that look sixth-place in the 1948 international games.

Mrs. Evelyn Hall of Glendale, Calif., chairman of the Women's Olympic Committee, said a 75 group will meet immediately following the trials to recommend a team of up to 10 members.

"We must select five girls in the dashes to form the 400-meter team and up to five from the other six events. A first place win is not necessarily mean going to Helsinki later this month."

Only two of the Olympic standards, which Mrs. Hall said are not binding, were bettered in last weekend's National AAU Championships at Waterbury, Conn.

Catherine Hardy, of Ft. Valley, Ga., turned in a net 12.3 in the 100-meter dash while Leland Landry of Chicago had 18 feet, 1 1/2 inches in the running broad jump. Miss Hardy was one of the 1948 team.

Barbara Jones, 15-year-old Chicago schoolgirl who has done 18 feet, 1 7/8 inches in junior competition, leads the parade of teenagers vying for a trip to Finland.

Shantz 1.55 ERA

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The lone run given up by the A's brilliant Bobby Shantz Wednesday night, a homer by Washington's ackle Jensen, gave the diminutive left-hander an impressive 1.55 earned run average. Bobby is right behind the leader Alie Reynolds of the Yankees who has 1.51 ERA.

Dukes Move Into Second Position

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Albuquerque Dukes climbed their way into second place in the West Texas-New Mexico League race last night, downing Lamesa for the third straight time.

The Dukes outslugged Lamesa, 16-12 in posting a 14-11 victory, chalked up on a four-run rally in the ninth.

Clovis helped by downing Lubbock 9-4 at Lubbock while in the other games, Amarillo beat Abilene 6-4 at Abilene and Pampa edged Borger 4-3 at Pampa.

Rain Washes Out Wimbledon Tourney

WIMBLEDON, England, (AP)—Wimbledon tennis faithful get a doubleheader of men's final and women's semi-finals today as a result of yesterday's complete washout.

There also will be assorted doubles matches—men's, women's and mixed—to get the complex program back on rails in time for the women's singles and all doubles finals Saturday.

Unfortunately, yesterday was as wet a day as ever deluged this oft-sodden Isle. The rain pelled down unceasingly.

Jaroslav Drobny, the self-exiled Czech, meets Australian Frank Sedgman for the men's title. Sedgman holds the U. S. championship.

Women's semi-final matches send American Champion Maureen Connolly, San Diego, Calif., against Shirley Fry of Akron, O., and Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., three-times champion at Wimbledon, against Mrs. Pat Todd of La Jolla, Calif.

Sedgman and Drobny both are involved in men's doubles semi-finals and Sedgman also has to play a mixed doubles semi-final with Doris Hart of Coral Gables, Fla.

The double-barreled program all set will force Miss Brough and Mrs. Todd to play three matches—singles, doubles and mixed doubles.

Varnish in printing inks is a mixture of linseed oil, rosin and soap.

Qualifying In Huber Tourney

BORGER—Qualifying was scheduled to begin today in the annual Huber Invitational Golf Tournament with prospects of upwards of 150 golfers participating.

Yesterday, in a West Texas Pro Amateur tournament which opened the four-day tournament, Grover Austin, Jr., one of the outstanding amateurs in the area, captured the winning team which turned in a 15-under par, 55. Teaming with Austin were R. M. Samples of Pampa, Jim Weatherall of Amarillo, and Mrs. E. W. Spearman.

Rex Baxter, Jr., of Amarillo, captaining a team with Marvin Harris and Richard Prigmore of Pampa as teammates, finished second.

Johnny Austin, Pampa Country Club professional, finished second behind Dick Turner of Amarillo among the pros. Turner scored with a 65, Austin a 66.

Brooklyn, Yankees Leading Traditional July 4 Standings

By JOE REISLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
You've heard of the tradition, of course, that the Fourth of July leaders are supposed to win the major league pennants.

That has been true more than 50 per cent of the time. But it didn't happen last year. On that celebrated day in 1951 the leaders were Brooklyn in the National League and the Chicago White Sox in the American.

What baseball follower doesn't know that the New York Giants and Yankees clashed in the World Series last October? And where were they on July 4? In second place.

This should be a comforting thought to the Giants and White Sox this year for both were in the runner-up spots as the Fourth of July fireworks began with doubleheaders in eight major league parks.

Buddy Church registered his first triumph of the season, pitching the Cincinnati Reds to a 5-1 victory over Pittsburgh.

Eddie Robinson banged in seven runs in the nightcap with a pair of homers and a single to give the White Sox their sweep over the Browns. The first game was a continuation of a game suspended since April 27. The homers were Robinson's 11th and 12th. Each came with two on.

A home run by Del Ennis was all he needed. Four Chicago errors aided the cause of the Cards who collected eight of their nine hits off loser Bob Rush. Joe Adcock slammed a run and two doubles to lead the Reds and Roy McMillan hit a single eight-hit attack against loser Howie Pollet of the Pirates.

Simmons did not issue a base on balls as he spun his fourth shutout and his seventh victory against two defeats for the Phils.

Miller Changes Mind On Lamesa

LAMESA—D. C. Miller, baseball's leading hitter last year and a former member of the Lamesa Lobos, wired the club Tuesday that he would not report.

Miller had agreed verbally to terms with the Lobos officials last week after resigning as manager of the Owensboro, Ky., club. While enroute to Lamesa Miller was in an auto accident and his wife was injured.

Miller wired the Lamesa club that due to injuries received by his wife in the accident, he had decided to remain in North Carolina and play with the Hickory baseball club, the team he managed last year while compiling a .625 batting average.

Qualifying In Huber Tourney

BORGER—Qualifying was scheduled to begin today in the annual Huber Invitational Golf Tournament with prospects of upwards of 150 golfers participating.

Yesterday, in a West Texas Pro Amateur tournament which opened the four-day tournament, Grover Austin, Jr., one of the outstanding amateurs in the area, captured the winning team which turned in a 15-under par, 55. Teaming with Austin were R. M. Samples of Pampa, Jim Weatherall of Amarillo, and Mrs. E. W. Spearman.

Rex Baxter, Jr., of Amarillo, captaining a team with Marvin Harris and Richard Prigmore of Pampa as teammates, finished second.

Johnny Austin, Pampa Country Club professional, finished second behind Dick Turner of Amarillo among the pros. Turner scored with a 65, Austin a 66.

Brooklyn, Yankees Leading Traditional July 4 Standings

IN SILENCE SHE SPEAKS

"Out of the many came one Nation... E Pluribus Unum. Then the Statue of Liberty was raised. A great people spoke, 'We hold these truths to be self evident that all men are created equal.' Upon this Historic Document, America has built almost centuries of enviable history. The spirit of 1776 is still with us today. It's time to celebrate. This is the Fourth of July... our Independence Day.
