Army Rolls Out First A-Cannon

Thousands Of Russ Claimed Aiding KoReds

SEOUL, Korea (AP) - A highly placed U. S. Eighth Army officer said today there are several thousand Russian troops in rear areas of North Korea serving in a "support capacity." This officer said in an interview that the Russians were technicians and advisors and probably manned modern radar-controlled anti-aircraft guns manufactured in the Soviet Union.

RESCUE FROM THE WIRES - Firemen cluster on a high tension wire tower in Elmhurst, Queens, N. Y., to rescue 13-year-old Joseph Van Rosk. The boy was seriously burned when his body came into contact with 11,000 volts of electricity. Joseph and three pals climbed the 60-foot pole because "I always wanted to climb that high," Joseph whispered. His condition was "very poor." The other boys escaped injury. (AP Wirephoto)

Nimble Gun Ready To Fire In 20 Minutes

WASHINGTON - (AP) - The Army has unveiled a new 85-ton atomic gun and shown that it can roll nimbly across fields into position to fire super-explosive barages within 20 minutes. It is the world's first atomic artillery piece. The gun, which the Army calls an "all-purpose weapon," was put through its paces at a special preview for photographers at the Aberdeen, Md., proving grounds recently.

Roosevelt appeared and toured Europe during World War II playing for G.I.s. He has also appeared at the Palladium, Hollywood; Hotel Commodore, New York; Hotel Sherman, Chicago; and Paramount and Strand Theaters, New York. To bring "Rhythm by McIntyre" to Pampa, the band also features Ernie Bernhardt, Jeanne McManus and The McIntytes.

Accuses General Of Blunders In Dealing With Commies

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN (AP) - President Truman accused Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today of having endangered the country as commanding general in Europe by grave "blunders" which left America unaware of Russia's threat to world peace. He said Eisenhower's advice that he saw no reason why Russia and the United States would not remain "the closest possible friends" carried "great weight" and "did a great deal of harm."

If Eisenhower had given "better advice in 1945," Truman continued, "we wouldn't have had so much trouble in waking up the country to the danger of Communist imperialism in 1946 and 1947 and 1948." Truman chose a whistle stop speech at Havre, Mont., to launch the latest of increasingly bitter attacks on the Republican presidential nominee in reply to Eisenhower's own charges of blunders by the Truman administration in the field of foreign policy.

MISS MCLEAN - Miss Bona Bailey, sweetheart of the McLean Jaycees, will represent the organization in the Miss Gray County Queen Contest during the county's 50th birthday celebration in Pampa Oct. 12-14. GOP Kindles Fires Under Commie Issue

NEW YORK (AP) - Gen. Dwight Eisenhower swings the political spotlight on the Communist issue today on the basis of Gen. Walter Bedell Smith's assumption that the Reds have penetrated every U. S. security agency. Before a plane takeoff for Columbia, S. C., the Republican presidential nominee worked on a speech aimed at throwing the Democrats on the defensive on the Communist question.

For his text, the general took the testimony of Smith, an old comrade in arms, in Washington yesterday that Smith as a statesman believes that the Communists have infiltrated even the Central Intelligence Agency, which he heads. Testifying on a deposition in the two-million-dollar libel suit of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) against Sen. William Benton (D-Conn.), Smith said he believed the Communists were "so adroit and adept they have infiltrated every security agency of the government."

Method Of Voting For Ike On Demo Ballot Is Weighed

Citizens for Eisenhower in Pampa today were preparing to find "legal and honorable" methods to allow voters to vote for Gen. Dwight Eisenhower for president without leaving the Democratic party. A meeting with leading local Democrats is planned after County Clerk Charlie that receives his official ballots - expected sometime around Oct. 13. A spokesman for the Ike group, L. P. Fort, said the organization is now completing plans for an intensified door-to-door campaign and loudspeakers system for sound trucks to drive over Pampa streets supporting the Republican candidate.

Reds Find Lone Texas Pilot Fast And Deadly

WITH U. S. 51st FIGHTER GROUP, Korea CP - One lone Texan trying to get home is something pretty fast and deadly, some Red MIG jet pilots discovered. The Texan was an F-86 Sabre jet pilot, Lt. Col. Albert S. Kelly of Huntsville, and the action happened yesterday over North Korea. The air was full of MIGs, the Air Force said, and Kelly's flight of four Sabres was split in a clash with Red fighters. Suddenly Kelly's all-important protector - his wingman - was separated from him. And Kelly takes up the story from there.

HIGHEST SCOUT AWARD - John (Scooter) Warner, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Greeley Warner, receives the highest award the Boy Scouts can grant - the Eagle Scout badge. His mother is shown pinning the badge on him, while his father looks on. Election Date Set By Local SCS Group

Gray County's Soil Conservation District supervisors have set Oct. 7 as election date to fill the expired term of W. B. Jackson as chairman. The meeting has been called for 8 p.m. in the county court room. Election date was set at a recent meeting of the board of supervisors who also discussed plans for area farmers to enter a national speaking contest on the subject "The Job Ahead in Soil Conservation Districts." Local entries in the contest are to be announced later.

Lively, Neel Trade Arguments In Proposed Charter Change

Approximately 100 men and women last night heard arguments for both sides in the Oct. 4 city charter amendment election during a League of Women Voters sponsored meeting in the county court room. Travis C. Lively spoke for passage of the proposed amendment and City Commissioner W. B. (A) Neel spoke against them. Each speaker was allowed 15 minutes. No rebuttal arguments were allowed and no questions from the audience were permitted at the close of the session. Mrs. H. H. Hann, who served as chairman, told the group, "we were unable to get together on the question and answer period, so there will be none."

City's Paving Slowed Again

The 1952 paving program hit another snag this morning - this time financial - when City Manager B. H. Cruce reported the cost of rock would run $1,300 more than anticipated. The price last year was $2.85 per cubic yard. It jumped this year to $3.25 per cubic yard. One of the big increases, Ray Evans, director of public works, said, is the freight increases. It costs more to haul it from Amarillo than the rock actually costs, Evans said. Near noon today the commission was still pondering the "what to do" on the question. The commission passed the amendment to the telephone ordinance, on its second reading, which excludes Recreation Park and surrounding area from city telephone rates. Clouds Hang Over Top O' Texas Area

Skies over the Top O' Texas were generally fair to partly cloudy today, much like the day before. And the temperatures in the Pampa area looked as if they would come close to duplicating those of Monday. The mercury went from a low of 54 degrees early in the morning to a high of 85 in the afternoon. Highest maximum temperature over the state was a steaming 97 in Presidio and the lowest maximum was in El Paso - it was 79. No rain has been reported in the Panhandle for the past nine days. But gathering clouds west of the Pecos River and near the coast, the Associated Press said, could be bringing scattered showers there.

large system to the cause of America at the time of the Boston Tea Party "no taxation without representation."

"Today Pampa is faced with that same problem of taxation without representation," Neel said. Defending the ward commissioner, Neel said, "he is not elected to represent his own particular ward but is responsible to the city as a whole."

He declared he was unable to see why 60 per cent of the people should be entitled to 100 per cent representation on the city commission and hinted strongly that under the at-large system only residents now living in Wards 1 and 2 would ever be named to the commission.

"Never has the city prospered as well as it has in the past, and more paving, sewer and water lines and progressed so far as it has during the last few years under the ward system," Neel said.

Following the talks pamphlets explaining both sides of the argument were distributed by the police. These same pamphlets will be delivered to every home in Pampa Thursday afternoon.

Frank Carter, a leading member of the opposition camp, announced he would carry the case of the opponents to the voters over Station KPON at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday.

The charter change, if passed, would junk the present ward system of electing city commissioners and elect them at large. It would also stagger the commissioners' terms and allow the commission to fill its own vacancies by appointment instead of calling a special election.

as a member of the United States delegation to the United Nations, "stood right up to the Russian (Soviet) foreign minister and argued his case against the Russian attack on the foreign policy of the United States in a debate that won respect for Mike Mansfield throughout the world."

Back in 1945 and 1946, Truman said, Gov. Stevenson, on important missions to Europe, "saw what the Communists were up to, worked mightily for international cooperation" and was "one of the first to warn that the Russians were becoming a threat to Europe."

The Republicans, the President asserted, "haven't had a single constructive idea about foreign policy since Sen. Vandenberg died." He referred to the late Michigan Senator, who is regarded as the architect of the bipartisan "foreign policy."

The President carried his anti-Eisenhower barrage into Montana after telling North Dakota voters the general should be sent "back to the Army where he belongs."

The goal in his current 8,500-mile coast-to-coast four shopped up as an effort to strip Eisenhower of his glamour by picturing him as the dupe of an "unholy crew" of campaign advisers.

And he accused GOP vice president nominee Richard M. Nixon of having a voting record "against everything that is good for the people."

But Truman's assault on the Republicans at Havre overshadowed other attacks made to campaign crowds comparable in size and enthusiasm to those he spoke to in his 198 campaign for a White House term in his own right.

MEMORIAL SPEAKER — Dr. Gaston Foote, above, formerly pastor of the First Methodist Church in Pampa, will be guest speaker for the opening memorial program of Gray County's 50th Birthday Celebration, Oct. 12-14. The program is scheduled at 8:15 p.m. Oct. 12, in the Pampa Senior High Field House. Dr. Foote served the Pampa church in the early 1920's. He is now associated with the First Methodist Church in Fort Worth.

I dived for the sea and picked out a little island, turning tight circles to evade them. I turned a full 360 degrees as tight as I could. The MIG leader and his wingman still were on my tail, firing away. "I sucked it in tighter and they tried to follow," Kelly concluded. "Either the maneuver was too much for them or the wingman got caught in my jet wash, because he stalled, dropped his wing, hit the water and cartwheeled into the sea. I finally shook the other three MIGs and headed for home."

Pampan Slated For Boys Ranch

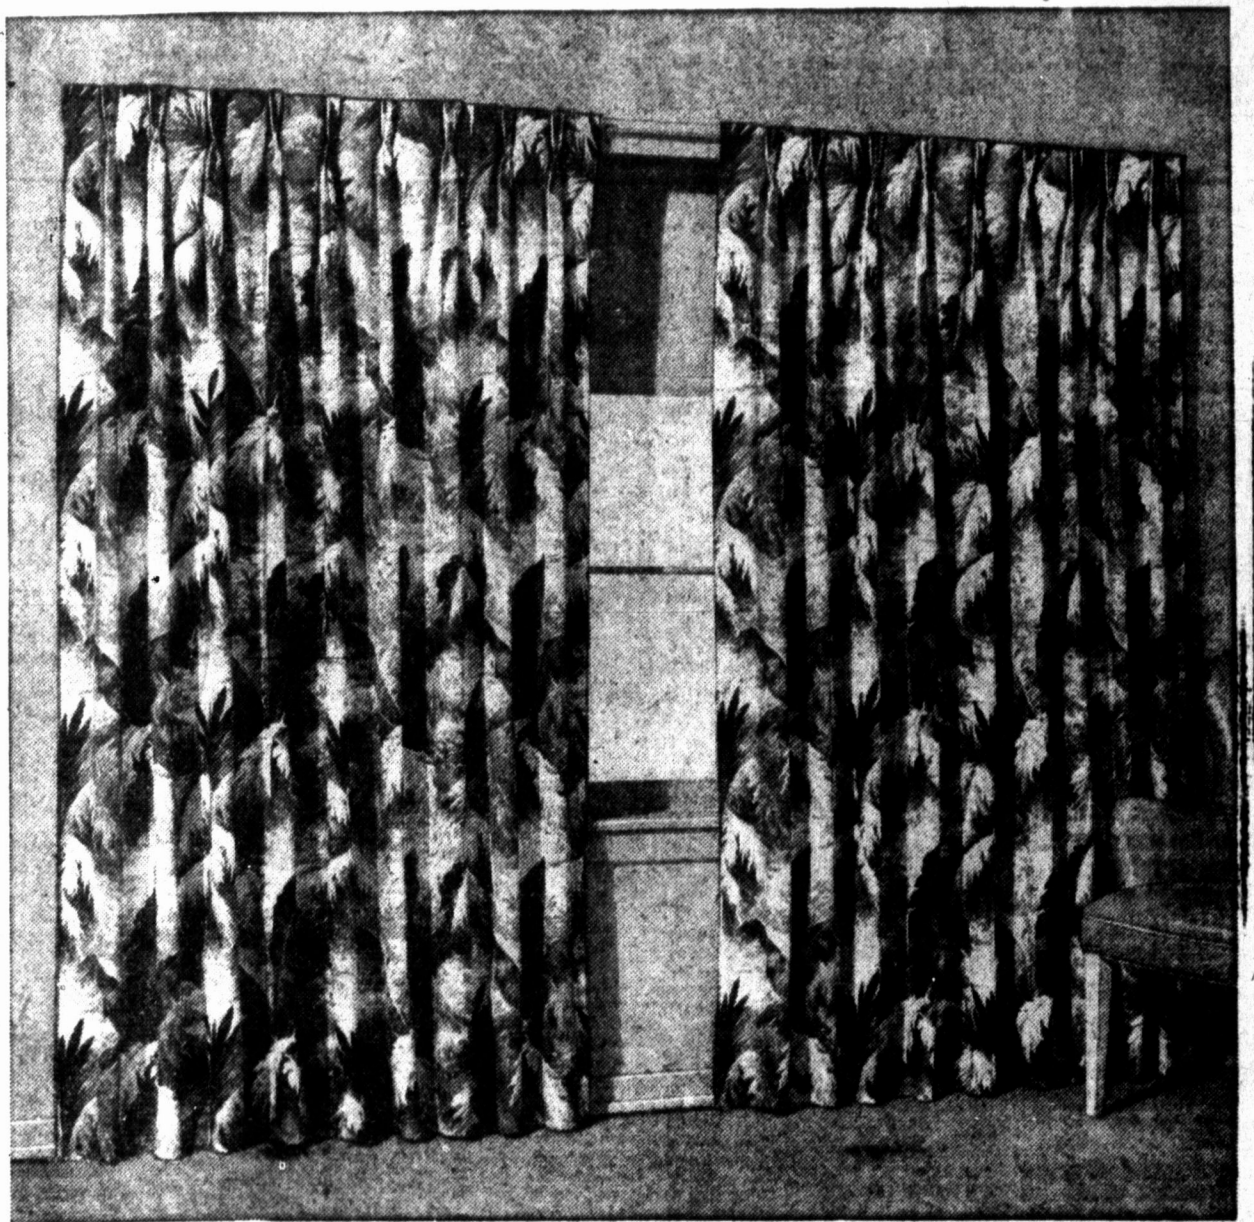

A 13-year-old Pampan, who forged a check and took a trip day to Amarillo with another youngster, will probably be on his way to Cal Farley's Boys Ranch in a few days, according to H. A. Doggett, county juvenile officer.

The boy wrote a "hot check" in Burton's Filing station Wednesday and cashed it in the Home & Grocery, Doggett said. Then he and another boy hitch-hiked to Amarillo to view the Tri-State Fair. The mother of the boy found both of them at the fair the next morning and brought them back to Pampa. They were back in school Friday morning. Doggett and the boy talked with the assistant at Boys Ranch Monday in Amarillo and plans are now underway for him to go to the ranch, 40 miles northwest of Amarillo, sometime this week.

Twentieth Century Clubs Hold Coffee

The miracle of modern fabric was the subject of a talk presented by Miss Lois Stevens of New York City at the annual president's coffee this morning at the Pampa Country Club. Miss Stevens, assistant director of plant community relations of the Celanese Corp. of America, spoke to over 100 guests including members of the four Twentieth Century clubs and presidents of other women's organizations.

The presentation included explanation on how to know, care for and use man-made fabric, and information concerning the Pampa Celanese plant's contribution to the textile industry. The talk was interspersed with displays and samples of Celanese products.

Miss Rosemary Prigmore and Mrs. Jean Reed, local plant employees, modeled costumes featuring Celanese products, after which Miss Stevens gave highlights of new fall fashions, discussing style, color and versatility of present trends.

Hostess club for the annual coffee was the Twentieth Century Allegro club, of which Mrs. Bill Davis is president. Other club presidents who welcomed guests were Mrs. Myles Morgan, Twentieth Century Culture; Mrs. H. R. Thompson, Twentieth Century

Club; and Mrs. Bruce Pratt, Twentieth Century Forum.

The serving table was covered with a pink taffeta cloth. A silver streamer running the length of the table, was topped with a parade of dolls representing current fashions. The hand-made dolls were dressed in costumes to display the fabrics and colors for this season.

An arrangement of pink-tinted wood fiber apple blossoms was used at the head of the table in crystal holders ornamented with pink net. Camellias, also fashioned of wood fiber, were spaced about the table.

Mrs. James Evans and Mrs. Jim Leverich presided at the silver coffee services.

The entry to the ball room, where the coffee was held, featured a display of press notices of all local women's groups affiliated with the Council of Clubs.

The guest list included Twentieth Century Club members and presidents of the following organizations: Miss Evelyn Milam AAUW; Mrs. Charles Glisson, American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Roy Chisum, Pampa Art Club; Mrs. L. C. McMurtry, Beta Gamma Kappa; Mrs. Lillian Zamora, Beta Rho; Mrs. H. F. McDonald, B&PW; Mrs. Martin Stubbbe, Beta Sigma Phi; Mrs. A. D. ### OUR TOWN

by Wanda Campbell

Twentieth Century Allegro, hostess club at the annual president's coffee this morning, was fortunate in having Miss Lois Stevens as guest speaker. Miss Stevens is assistant director of the Celanese Corp. plant community relations, and is in a position to give women an inside view of Celanese contributions to the textile industry and since "fabric is the basis of fashion," her talk led to prevailing styles for fall — a subject always vital to women.

A journalism degree from Columbia and experience on Canadian newspapers led Miss Stevens to this position in the Celanese offices in New York City. She's not a native New Yorker (nobody ever seems to be) but she loves the city and her job, which takes her to many parts of this country and Canada. Miss Stevens is to visit the Corpus Christi plant next week, the last in a series of trips to 13 Celanese plants located in nine states.

She likes all visits in "plant towns" and was especially happy to make the trip here because it's her first visit to Texas. Recently, Miss Stevens has been staging fashion shows and that has opened an entirely new phase to her work, but one she enjoys immensely because the fashion field is one of her main interests. She spent her first morning here visiting local dress shops and "window shopping." She finds shopping in small cities delightful "because the salespeople take time to please." Another interest is cooking. Miss Stevens has her own apartment and enjoys experimenting in the kitchen — especially with casseroles. Besides assisting in the compilation of Celanese booklets and numerous other phases of her position, she finds time to write fiction. At present, she is collaborating on a juvenile book with a friend who is an artist. The book is to be ready for marketing soon and she is completely happy with the project. Even if it doesn't sell she has had a world of fun writing it. Miss Stevens is enthusiastic about the week ahead which includes talks before Jaycees and Jaycee-Ettes and other civic groups. Over coffee cups in downtown drug stores, she's found Pampans friendly, and "likes the looks of Pampa." In fact, that's one of the three reasons Celanese officials selected our town as a site for the new plant. The only thing that has disturbed Miss Stevens is the excitement about Pampa's 50th birthday celebration. "Everything is so new and modern," she exclaims, "Pampa just can't be that old!" And we couldn't help but be proud that through the years Pampa has kept its youth and

Talkathon A New Gimmick In Politics

By JIM MARTENHOFF
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — There's a new gimmick in American politics. It's the "Talkathon."
 A political candidate makes a marathon appearance before a radio microphone. He sticks to his guns, the microphone that is, for 20, 24 or even 26 hours at a stretch, answering the hundreds of questions fired at him by his radio audience.
 It doesn't sound like much. But the people love it. It takes political candidates literally "stumped" in their district, climbing on wagon beds, tree stumps, grocery store steps — anywhere he could find a crowd.
 The candidate came face to face with the voters. They could ask him any question; find out how he liked his eggs for breakfast, how he felt on any issue. When through the ordeal there was little a voter needed to know before he made up his mind.
 Francis Cherry, an obscure county judge, answered 30,000 questions in his talkathon campaign in Arkansas. He defeated Truman-backed Gov. Sid McMath for the Democratic nomination for governor.
 Brailey Oldham, an unknown Florida businessman and the first to use the talkathon in a political campaign, came from far behind to force the favored Dan McCarty into a run-off primary election for the job as governor of Florida. He lost the election but he surprised a lot of veteran politicians.
 The talkathon was used in the Wisconsin Republican primary by Len Schmitt, who lost to Sen. Joseph McCarthy. It is being used now in Ohio — with television added — by former federal Price Administrator Mike

De Salle, a Democrat who wants Republican John Bricker's seat in the U.S. Senate.
 The Talkathon is the brainchild of a group of young advertising men. Bob Venn, radio and television director of Houck and Company, a Miami advertising firm, thought of it. He and Herbert F. Thompson, Houck vice president, sold the idea to Brailey Oldham at his Sanford, Fla., home last January.
 Houck and Company handles the Talkathon basically as an advertising contract, much as if they were selling soap or stockings or automobiles. The client pays a flat fee based on costs. Houck puts a team in the field to handle all the details. There is a team manager, an announcer, public relations man, sign men, photographers and so on.
 The Houck team buys the radio time, promotes the program, arranges for volunteer help and generally takes care of everything. It is all done with radio time.

Possible Election Of Adlai Causes Concern On Protocol

By RUTH COWAN
WASHINGTON (AP) — Carolyn Hagner Shaw, editor of "The Social List of Washington," (the 1953 edition of which is just off the press), is worrying over possible perplexing problems in protocol that might arise after November.
 She plans a supplement in February on 'who's who in the capital's official and social life' to take into account what the nation's victors do and the next president's executive appointments.
 The main problem that has Mrs. Shaw reading up on the lives of American presidents is: What about the role of "first lady?" She is very important when it comes to seating arrangements at official parties.
 Should Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican nominee, be elected there would be no problem, for his wife Mamie would be first lady.
 But should Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic candidate, be elected, and his sister, Mrs. Ernest Ives of Bloomington, Ill., serve as his hostess — as she has since he became governor of Illinois — would she be the nation's top-ranking woman, taking precedence over wives of diplomats?
 Furthermore, what rank would her husband, Ernest Ives, a retired diplomat, have in relationship to high-ranking government officials?
 Those are questions that have Mrs. Shaw, niece of the first official White House social secretary, Isabelle Hagner in the days of Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, studying history.
 Protocol in Washington's official and social life isn't to be taken lightly as can be recalled by the famous Dolly Gann - Alice Roosevelt Longworth to-do over who ranked whom.
 Mrs. Gann was official hostess for her brother, Vice President Curtis in the Coolidge administration. "Princess Alice's" late husband, — Nicolas Longworth, was then speaker of the House. Entertaining in the nation's capital sometimes can be grim and serious. A wrongly placed placecard can dent a promising career.

 One objective of the social list — known as the "Green Book" because of the color of its cover since it was started by Mrs. Shaw's mother, Helen Ray Hagner, 22 years ago — is to serve as a guide on protocol.
 There is no such official rank as "first lady" in the American set-up, but social usage gives the wife her husband's rank. But what of sisters, daughters or daughters-in-law as "official hostesses?"
 The role of official hostess for a president is different from that of hostess for a governor because of the diplomatic corps in Washington.

 In the event Stevenson is elected and Mrs. Ives becomes his official hostess, the decision on her rank likely will be made by the State Department.

 MEXICO CITY — Getting enough kissing these days?
 And how about hugging?
 If you feel any need for hugs and kisses, and you don't think you are getting your share, then I have a tip for you.
 If you follow it, in one evening you'll store up enough of both to last you well into the middle of next summer if not well into the fall.
 The tip: come to Mexico City and pay a visit to the airport about an hour before half a dozen or so planes are scheduled to depart.
 I have had occasion to visit the airport several times and have discovered that from 10 p. m. until midnight are the choicest hours for hugging and kissing. Other times of the day are all right, mind you, but the hours mentioned are the cream of the crop. American and Pan American flights are leaving for Chicago and New York. Guest is taking off for Miami, and the Mexican lines have departures for Acapulco, Tampico, Vera Cruz, and other points within the Republic.
 Most of the departures are Mexican and a Mexican is not one to let even so much as a casual acquaintance leave without giving him or her enough abrazos and besos (that's hugs and kisses if my dictionary hasn't turned traitor) to supply a co-ed college for a full semester. Mexicans hug and kiss when one of them catches a streetcar or a bus, so you can imagine the intensity of the affection shown when one of them prepares to soar away into the sky.
 A natural question for you to ask is, "Okay, but what has that got to do with me? I'm not Mexican, have no Mexican friends, and I won't be catching a plane when I visit the airport as you have suggested. Who'll hug and kiss me?"
 My answer is, "Practically everybody." The new airport isn't finished and the present one is magnificently inadequate for the traffic it handles. So every one is jam-packed in a tiny space, where confusion is king and emotion is queen. So you couldn't help getting hugged and kissed if you tried.
 I'm living proof of what I am saying. I put my mother on a plane for Miami last week, and using a kissometer and a hugometer — was able to determine how many of each I got before I finally left the airport not Mexican. I got 232 kisses and 476 hugs, and only four of each were from Mama. The rest came from Mexican men and women I didn't know from Adam's apple. But I was in reach, and the Mexicans didn't stop to figure out who I was.
 Now that's a lot of loving for a man who looks the way I do, as any of you have seen me in the flesh or a picture of me know. Senoritas with flowers in their hair gave me delightful smacks on the cheek. Lovely senoritas put their arms about me

Competition is the life of the OIL BUSINESS

The demand for oil increases every year. Americans need more oil for more automobiles, for more airplanes, more ships, more high speed locomotives and more of many things besides.

other to find and produce more oil. Pipe line companies vie with each other to develop low cost transportation. Refineries compete to supply more and better oil products. Salesmen compete on the basis of quality products and the service rendered.

It's a good thing, this competition, a healthy thing. It is the life of the oil business; it keeps the industry vigorous, progressive, enterprising.

But its chief benefit is to you and other Americans. Competition within the oil industry discovers and develops a natural resource necessary not only to modern living but to national defense. It supplies you and the country with continuously improved petroleum products; today, two gallons of gasoline do work that required three in 1925, but the gasoline costs no more than it did then.

And just as one merchant competes with another for your business, oil companies compete for it, too — for the gallons of gasoline and quarts of motor oil you buy; to supply the ships, the locomotives, the industries, the airplanes.

The competition is intense, and it spreads throughout the industry. Oil companies compete with each

41 Class AA Are Unbeaten

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Stamford meets Ballinger and Huntsville tangles with Silsbee in the headline game of Class AA schoolboy football this week.

These game match undefeated, untied teams of which there are 41 left in this class after three weeks of fighting.

Still another of the select list faces trouble in keeping its status. That is Eams, which plays Paris of Class AAA. Paris is undefeated and untied, too.

Other teams with perfect records will fall and prospects are that about a third of the list will be erased in the round of 164 games scheduled over the state this week end.

Undefeated, Untied
Teams with undefeated, untied records in Class AA are: Cham Dumas, Perryton, Phillips, Floydada, Memphis, Burk Burnett, Quana, Anson, Rotan, Stamford, Littlefield, Monahans, Pecos, Ballinger, Brady, Comanche, Arlington, Handley, Jacksboro, Nocomo, Mesquite, Mt. Pleasant, Terrell Center, Eams, Mexia, Cleveland, Huable, Huntsville, West, Killeen, Gonzales, San Marcos, Bellville, Caldwell, Lamar Consolidated, Alvin, Silsbee, Uvalde, Refugio and Donna.

Conference play also starts this week in Class AA with championship games in five districts.

Five Top Powers
Teams that have pushed forward to top favorites are Phillips, Pecos, Terrell, Arlington and Mexia among others. Pecos showed crushing power last week in beating a good Wink team, 35-7. Wink is one of the favorites in Class A.

Wrestling Tickets On Sale Tomorrow

Tickets go on sale all day tomorrow at the Sportsman's store and the Southern Club.

The first match is scheduled for 8:15, with three events in the program.

The main event will feature the first appearance here for "The Terrible" Kalmikoff of Rostov, Russia. He will battle Kinju Shibuya, the slant-eyed Nipponese judo artist. And as far as most fans will be concerned, after they once see Kalmikoff, it will be all right if either is able to walk out of the ring. Both are rough and unruly.

In the 45-minute, best two-out-of-three fall semifinal Jack O'Reilly of Sidney, Australia, battles Amarillo's George Overhuls. The husky Overhuls is a former Amarillo Sandlot footballer who has been wrestling professionally for about four years and is developing rapidly into a good grappler. He will have to give away a lot of experience to the rugged O'Reilly though.

In a 20-minute, one fall preliminary Billy Weisner, the popular Amarilloan, meets another newcomer to the circuit, Chico Bonales of Old Mexico.

Dodgers Put Responsibility On Young Joe Black; Reynolds Yankee Starter

By GAYLE TABOT
NEW YORK (AP)—The pitiless wonders of Brooklyn have pitted squarely up to their wondrously young rookie reliever, Joe Black, to get them off on the right foot against the favored Yankees in the World Series opener tomorrow at Ebbets Field.

Never before in big league history has a champion of either league been forced to take such a desperate gamble. Other rookies have been called upon in the important first game, and there have been bullpen specialists before.

But the combination of the two, out there trying to turn back the Bombers before the eyes of the nation, will be unprecedented.

Calculated Risk
Manager Chuck Dressen took a calculated risk when he nominated the 28-year-old Negro freshman to duel with the Yankees' mighty Allie Reynolds, as great a money pitcher as there is in the game today.

He could have held his relief ace back and been assured of late inning insurance as long as the big playoff lasts. He chose to play it bold, to stake his hopes of a world championship on one throw of the cuben.

If Black an unperturbable cool specialist, pitches up with his brilliant form of the regular campaign, he will give Reynolds, a mighty battle tomorrow. If he turns back the Yankees, the 8-to-5 odds in favor of the American Leaguers will take a dip.

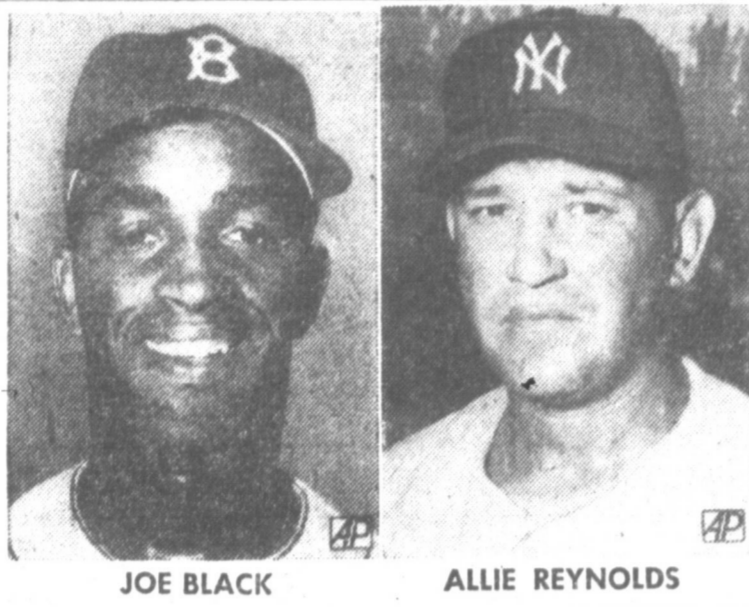

And it could turn out to be a rip-roaring World Series.

Should the gamble fail and Black take a shellacking, the National Leaguers are in bad trouble, stripped temporarily of the relief pitching which held their shaky mound staff together all season. The rookie phenom appeared in 56 games, and though he was credited with only 15 victories, his contributions easily equaled those of a 25-game winner. His earned-run average was the best in the league.

Another Angle
An angle which Dressen undoubtedly took into serious consideration in handing Black the blazing torch was the mental lift to be derived from winning the opener. Should the rookie win by Reynolds, the Yankees' best pitcher less than 20 minutes of play. Doctor staff might easily be inspired to pitch slightly above their usual weight in the ensuing games.

It was no surprise that Dressen named Carl Erskine, a 14-6 performer over the year, to face big Vic Raschi, 16-6, in Thursday's second game at Ebbets Field, nor that he nominated Preacher Roe, his veteran southpaw, to match portside shots with Ed Lopat in the third contest at Yankee Stadium.

Both teams were rested and in robust health. The only question was whether Gene Woodling, the Yankees' leading clubhouse, was ready to start the opener and hit in the cleanup spot. He has had a pain in his groin lately, but said it felt much improved. If Gene decides to sit it out, Stengel will have to move catcher Yogi Berra up from fifth to fourth in his batting order.

Heavy Work, Few Injuries As SWC Points To Week End

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southwest Conference grid elevens looked toward week end games Tuesday with heavier workouts on tap and few injuries. It looked like they might all be able to go to full speed barring practice injuries this week.

Baylor, idle last week, was sure to go against Washington State's Cougars at full strength if training injuries were avoided. The Bears drilled on plays they expect to use against the Cougars Monday with every man in top shape.

Winless Texas Christian, defending champions and pre-season favorites to repeat, reported no injuries after their 14-0 loss to UCLA and may be at their best from the season for the conference opener against Arkansas, loser last week, 17-7, to University of Houston.

Ponies Hurting
Southern Methodist, priming for Georgia Tech after a 14-7 loss to Duke, had two quarterbacks sidelined but expected to have them ready for the Rambling Wreck. Coach Rusty Russell said, however, it hurt not to have QBs Duane Nutt and Benton Musslewhite able to work out this week.

Only injury of note among the Rice Owl line-up was an ankle sprain sustained by Hal Back Carl Johnson. But Johnson's injury is expected to be all right in a day or two and Coach Jess Neely thinks he may send a full-strength outfit up against Louisiana State Saturday night. Rice beat Texas Tech of the Border Conference, 34-7, last week.

Coach Ed Price's University of Texas Longhorns, meanwhile, were also expected to be in top shape for the conference's glamor game of the week—against Notre Dame Saturday. Guard Marvin Leath and quarterback T. Jones had minor injuries that were not expected to keep them out of the big game with the Irish. Price had only praise for his team in its 28-7 win over North Carolina.

Aggies Fired Up
The Texas A&M eleven had plenty of pep for Tuesday night's hard workout for the Kentucky game Saturday night. The Aggies, fresh from a 14-7 win over the Oklahoma A&M outfit, had only one injured man. He was tackle Larry Winkler, who suffered a sprained ankle against the Pokes and who trainers said would be ready for Kentucky.

Up at Fayetteville, Coach Otis Douglas said he was "trying to get the boys to play a little football" for Arkansas. He met with the Porkers in secret session Monday after implying he would re-

Russell Asks For Time For Ponies

DALLAS (AP)—Coach H. N. (Rusty) Russell of Southern Methodist said today he would have a good football team in four or five weeks "unless the boys get their damper down from taking lessons from the country's top-rated outfits."

Thereupon he told what the report of his scout, Herman Morgan, was on Georgia Tech, and quoted Morgan as saying there was no doubt about it—Tech is the Nation's No. 1 team.

So, said Russell, the dampening may well start next Saturday night when Southern Methodist plays Georgia Tech in the Cotton Bowl here.

"My scout said Tech had speed, experience, good passing and fine defense," Russell declared. "I have 41 sophomores on my squad of 74. It's tough to play these jured top-rated teams with a bunch like that. Two years from now we'll be ready for any of them, but not now."

Russell said he was well satisfied with the showing of his team last week in the 14-7 loss to Duke. "Sne, my kids made a lot of mistakes but they played good football a lot of the time. Too just let them get some experience and see how anybody runs over them."

The Southern Methodist coach said his chances of putting up a good game rested on how a couple of injured players come around. Benton Musslewhite, veteran quarterback, and Duane Nutt, sophomore quarterback, were injured in the Duke game. They may be able to play Saturday but probably won't be able to work out all week, Russell said.

"We don't have much chance to win it but we'd like to make a good showing. It's too much to expect of a bunch of sophomores—beat the No. 1 team in the nation."

sign if they didn't snap out of their lethargy.

Following the meeting, the team worked on timing and got acquainted with some TCU offensive plays for their game in Fort Worth Saturday.

Civic Golfers Feast Tonight

Pampa civic club golfers who participated in the tournament last Sunday, will be entertained at a banquet tonight at the country club. The affair will start at 7:30 p.m.

Frank Cuberson will serve as master of ceremonies for the banquet which will be highlighted by a talk and movie by George Aulbach, Amarillo Country Club Professional. Aulbach, who has played in most of the major golf tournaments of the world, will tell of some of his experiences as well as show films of some of the real old timers of the game.

Awards will be made to the various individual winners in last Sunday's tournaments as well as the presentation of the floating team trophy, which was won again this year, for the third straight time, by the Kiwanis Club.

Harvesters Work Against Split-T

"They're bigger than we are, can wear 11 straight last year they're older than we are. I and three so far this season and is considered as a top contender for the Class A state championship of Oklahoma. They are aiming at this game for some special reason," Tipps added.

And in preparation for the fifted up Sooners, the Harvesters went through a hard workout yesterday afternoon devoted almost entirely to halting the operation of the split-T, the system used throughout almost all of Oklahoma. Various defensive combinations were employed during the workout, and none looked too impressive at stopping the split-T run in a very amateurish style by their teammates.

One bright spot was the return of all the injury list boys. Bob Frizzmore, 200-pound tackle, was back in uniform and working well after knee and ankle injuries. It was his first time in uniform in two weeks. James Phippen, injured in last Friday's game with Vernon, was also in uniform, though seeing little action.

The final part of the session was devoted to converting the all-important extra points that have eluded the Harvesters this year so often. Both Ed Dudley and David Enloe were used, and both, as before, were able to split the upright during the practice periods.

Notre Dame At Full Strength

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Notre Dame footballers will enter the game with the University of Texas at Austin Saturday in top physical condition.

Trainer Gene Paszkiet said yesterday the Irish suffered only the normal lumps and bruises in Saturday's 7-7 tie with Pennsylvania.

Coach Frank Leahy conducted a dummy scrimmage. Art Hunter, offensive right end, who missed the Penn game because of a sprained ankle, may be on the sidelines at Austin.

Gardner Gets Three-Year Pact

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Alvin Gardner has been re-elected president of the Texas League for another three years.

The action was taken by the league's board of directors which met here during the Dixie Series between Memphis of the Southern Association and Shreveport of the Texas League.

Gardner has been league head for 22 years. The directors threatened no other business.

Michigan State Gets No. 1 Rating; Longhorns Are Fifth

By WILL GRIMSLEY
NEW YORK (AP)—Resourceful Michigan State was a solid choice as the No. 1 college football team in the country today in The Associated Press' first weekly poll.

Sports writers and broadcasters, who in a pre-season sampling of opinion named the Spartans as the best bet to win the national championship, apparently were further convinced by State's 27-13 comeback victory over Michigan last Saturday.

They gave the Spartans 52 of the 83 first place votes cast and an impressive total of 752 points nearly twice that of the No. 2 team, Illinois.

Point totals are arrived at by awarding 10 for a first place vote, nine for second, etc.

No other team got more than seven No. 1 votes this morning going to Maryland's Sugar Bowl champions, who gained third-place on close-squeak triumphs over Missouri and Auburn.

California was named fourth, without a single first-place vote but with strong runnerup support, and Texas, winner over Louisiana State and North Carolina, was fifth with only five votes for top.

Completing the top 10 in order, were Georgia Tech, Southern California, Wisconsin, Kansas and Duke.

It is interesting that, in addition to the five other teams dinged by Michigan State on top picked in the pre-season poll pulled down places on the first weekly show of strength. These were Maryland, Georgia Tech, Illinois, Wisconsin and California.

The top 10 in The Associated Press' first football poll (points based on 10 for first, nine for second, etc., with first-place votes more more add statistics in parentheses):

1. Michigan State (52)	752
2. Illinois (4)	435
3. Maryland (7)	385

Baugh Ejected, But Passes Give Redskins 23-7 Victory

CHICAGO (AP)—The Washington Redskins' 38-year-old player-coach, Sammy Baugh, was tossed out of the game last night but not before he had completed 11 consecutive passes to inspire his team to a 23-7 National Football League victory over the Chicago Cardinals.

The upset win, before 17,800 fans in Comiskey Park, opened league play for both teams and marked Washington's first triumph after five exhibition defeats.

Baugh and Don Joyce, a 250-pound second-year tackle from Tulane, exchanged blows after a pile up in the fourth period. Both were ejected by Referee Bill Downes.

It was the first time in the pro career of the usually calm

Baugh—starting his 16th season with the Redskins—that he had been banished from a game.

Baugh tried 11 passes and completed all of them in the first half. Two of them went for touchdowns—two yards to Harry Dowd and 10 to Hugh Taylor.

The string of passes gave Baugh a total of 1700 completions for his pro career, plus 187 touchdowns.

Washington, taking a 17-0 halftime lead that was never threatened, spoiled the professional coaching debut in the league of Joe Kuharich. But it also marked a victory for curly Lambeau who succeeded as Cardinal coach by Kuharich after leaving under from office fire at the end of the 1951 campaign.

A Tribute To Our Neighbors

Those people who live next door or down the street a way or around the corner do you know them? Do you put yourself out just a little sometimes to make their lives a little more pleasant? A cheery "hello," a genial smile, an invitation to come in and sit awhile. These are the tiny miracles that make neighborhoods blossom and grow into a thing of strength and beauty. Charity, they say, begins at home. Similarly, it is from your home that neighborliness emanates. Let's all be good neighbors. Remember, there is no tax on your investment in friendly relations.

"If it's true we learn by mistakes, you're learning very fast—judging by the spelling in this letter!"

AHOY, BARBARA!—Holding up a banner of greeting, crewmen aboard the USS Boxer hail Barbara Gay Ward, 7, of San Leandro, Calif., as the famous carrier is warped to the dock at Alameda. Barbara, a polio victim, was adopted by 28 men aboard the carrier. They have already paid for several operations on the youngster, but she still needs two more. The Boxer has just returned from its third tour of duty in Korean waters.

Lincoln's Meager Expenses A Contrast To Today's Funds

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) More than 100 years ago Abraham Lincoln won election to Congress with an expenditure of 75 cents. Friends raised a purse of $200 for his campaign and Lincoln toured his Illinois district by horseback, chatting with the voters in the fields or in their homes.

His simple frontier technique stands in startling contrast to the complicated task of winning public office today. "If Abe Lincoln tried that now all he would get is saddle sores for his pains," said a man wise in the ways of politics. New Insight The politician on horseback has given way to the politician who travels by motor car or airplane. Large sums of money are deemed a pre-requisite to a successful campaign and a candidate today would hesitate to treat a group of voters to a glass of beer for fear of being hauled up on charges of violating the Corrupt Practices Act. It is needless to point out that the day of the 75-cent barrel of cider has waned.

He defeated his opponent, Peter Cartwright, a minister, 6,340 votes to 4,829. Lincoln immediately returned $199.25 of the $200 advanced by his supporters. "I made the canvass on my own horse," he explained. "My entertainment, being at the houses of friends cost me nothing; and my only outlay was 75 cents for a barrel of cider, which some farmhands insisted I should treat to."

The public disclosures of Sen. Nixon and Gov. Stevenson's special political funds have given millions of Americans a new insight into the realities of practical politics. Friends said they raised the $18,000 fund for Nixon to help him fight communism and corruption. The Stevenson fund was to reward and retain high-caliber appointed state officials, who suffered financial loss by remaining in public service, explained Gov. Stevenson. Honesty Not Questioned No one has raised a question of personal honesty in the case of either man nor has the legality of the funds been seriously challenged. But a number of newspapers have expressed editorial doubts as to the wisdom of such funds and pointed out the possible temptations to abuse they offer. And voters have been made uneasy by the fact that such funds even necessary by men of high reputation. Abraham Lincoln didn't have enough money to do what he wanted when he came to Congress. So he sent his family back to Illinois — and lived in a Washington boarding house. But it is doubtful whether many congressmen today would accept that as a satisfactory solution.

"I'm not sure I can get you a larger desk! I bigger wastebasket?"

Army Preparing For Second Big German Transport Job

By CHARLES C. LANE
ORLEANS, France (AP)—Another Red Ball Highway Express, patterned on the storied supply service of World War II, soon will start carrying supplies 600 miles across France to American troops in Germany. The U. S. Army Communications zone headquarters here has the men and machines ready to start the fast freight service. The 9th Transportation Highway Transport Group, a unit which formed part of the Red Ball Express in the last war, has two trailer trucks. Lt. Col. Eugene Elliot of Washington, D. C. commands the unit, which will tie up in Germany with the 37th Transport Group commanded by Col. Gerald Peterson of Lansing, Mich. a Red Ball commander in World War II. After the Red Ball Highway system gets rolling its personnel will change frequently to create a pool of trained soldiers for use in case war required quick expansion. The trucks will carry freight needed in a hurry across France using three marshaling yards and three transport points where fresh drivers and tractors will take over. The U. S. Army's supply system across France also will be bolstered by a 12-inch pipeline to carry gasoline.

The Red Ball express and the pipeline are part of the U. S. Army's supply and communications system being built in France under the command of Maj. Gen. Samuel D. Sturgis Jr. The command is trying to build a supply system which the U. S. Army can count on in case of war to feed arms, medicines, fuel and food to the four American divisions — approximately 80,000 soldiers — now in Germany. Gen. Sturgis says the job of building this vast supply system across France — stretching over an area roughly the distance between New York and Columbus, (O.) — is about one-fourth completed. The Army does not know — and would not say if it did — exactly when the job will be finished, but it is expected to be very well along by the end of 1953.
