Korea Debate Erupts Into Explosive Issue

Before Adlai Arrives . . . Rebellious Convicts End Four-Day Riot

CHESTER, Ill. (AP) — Convicts ended their four-day rebellion at Menard State Prison today and released their seven hostages before Gov. Adlai Stevenson carried out plans for making a personal appeal to them.

The rebel convicts capitulated after an ultimatum was delivered by Michael Seyfrit, state director of public safety.

Full Probe Begun In Westbrook Incident

WASHINGTON (AP) — A "top-to-bottom" investigation was underway today into a government deal to buy nine million dollars of tungsten, already the center of a political storm causing rough words on both sides of the Atlantic.

Defense Materials Administrator Jessh Larson — who signed the contract and then canceled it as chief buyer of critical goods for the government — told a news conference yesterday he is heading the investigation.

IT WAS A THRILL to vote in a mock election for president of the United States for Pampa's two German students in Thursday's high school balloting. Pictured above are Burkhard Brehm and Gretchen Johannsen, looking over a ballot after they had voted.

German Students Find First Vote 'A Thrill'

By HENRY S. GORDON
They crossed an ocean and half a continent to cast their first vote — and it was for a leader of a country other than their own.

That was the experience Thursday of Burkhard Brehm, 17, and Gretchen Johannsen, 17, the two German students at Pampa High School sponsored by the Pampa Kiwanis Club.

Burkhard and Gretchen both voted for a president of the United States in Thursday's mock election in high school.

Both said it was "quite a thrill" to mark a ballot for the president of another country. It was the first time either had voted in any kind of an election. Mock elections have not been held in German schools.

Heated Battle Mushrooms To Tokyo, Paris

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The great campaign debate over sending South Koreans into the line to replace American soldiers in Korea mushroomed like an atomic explosion today, billowing out to Tokyo and Paris.

At its vortex, the heat of the word battle brought a White House denial that Gen. James A. Van Fleet is being relieved as Eighth Army commander and, from secret Pentagon files, a mass of data showing:

1. Van Fleet's request that 14 South Korean forces be doubled from 10 to 20 divisions was opposed as premature by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, then United Nations commander in Tokyo and now supreme commander of North Atlantic Treaty forces in Paris.
2. Ridgway's position was upheld by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and Secretary of Defense Lovett.
3. The Defense Department says it has been carrying out a long-range program to turn over the defense of Korea to the South Koreans as soon as leaders can be trained and seasoned in combat.
4. Gen. Mark Clark, Ridgway's successor in Tokyo, has pursued this program and has submitted a longer-range proposal for further expansion, now being studied at the Pentagon.

The New York Daily News published a story today saying Van Fleet was being relieved for writing a letter quoted in a campaign speech by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican candidate for president.

Kidnapers Caught After Wild Chase

FERNANDINA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — James Francis Hill and a prison mate were recaptured at nearby Yulee today and two of the eight persons they kidnaped during an all-night race through Florida were freed.

Hill, 31, and his prison pal, James Douglas, 30, were nabbed at a roadblock on U. S. Highway 17, about 20 miles north of Jacksonville.

With them as captives were an Air Force man from Tampa, Pfc. Robert H. Terry, and a young woman, Miss Marilyn Cummings, Winfield, Ill. The desperadoes were driving the couple's car.

Thursday, all six fled in Trish's car, doubled back to Bartow and split up on a side road. Douglas went with Hill, drive him to the prison camp near Bartow, Fla., where Hill held guards at bay with a pistol and set four men free.

Adlai Leaves Campaign To Field Troops

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gov. Adlai Stevenson loses a vital day of home-stretch campaigning today as he seeks to end a prison riot in his home state of Illinois.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, his Republican presidential opponent, also flew to Illinois — to Chicago, for a series of appearances and speeches after winding up three hard driving days in New York.

Stevenson's surprise decision to fly home in a dramatic attempt to quell the four-day riot of 33 inmates holding several guards as hostages at Menard State Prison in Chester, Ill., was announced Thursday night following a tumultuous reception in Pittsburgh.

The Democratic nominee hoped to join his campaign train in Friday — possibly around noon at Wilmington, Del., or at least by Friday night in time for speeches in New York City.

No Hope Is Seen For Rainfall To Halt Spreading Forest Fires

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A mass of dry air covered the eastern half of the nation again Friday, indicating no immediate rain to halt the ever-spreading fires which are burning over millions of acres of wooded areas.

Ghosts, Goblins To Roam Tonight

Tonight is Halloween, and all over town the little ghosts and goblins will be plaguing Panamaths with the annual "Trick or Treat." The little spook in the strip below is Dennis Brewer, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brewer, 209 Cook, Trick or treat night comes just right for Dennis; he celebrates his birthday the day before and figures his treats make mighty fine birthday presents.

'Tis Halloween and the witches ride And promise before the dawn, Fearful mortals may see outside, Spirits flitting across the lawn.

Then ghostly tapping breaks the night, Like part of a dreadful dream, The mortal cringes at the sight And is chilled by the goblin's scream.

But the goblin giggles and dances about; 'Tis an awesome sight to see, Then he cries with a gleeful shout, "Look here, it's only me."

It's trick or treat, why didn't you know? And goblins ask goodies tonight, We'll leave you alone and away we'll go If you treat-us spookies right.

But the witching hour is passing by And the goblin's noddin' his head, And mommy knows the time is nigh To put her little spook to bed. Pictures and verse by Bud Anderson

Local Farm Agents Participate In Lubbock Meeting

Gray County agriculture and home demonstration agents attended a three-day bidistrict meeting in Lubbock Monday through Wednesday. Purpose of the meeting, involving more than 40 South Plains and Panhandle counties, was to bring agents up to date on new developments from experimental stations and acquaint them with other county projects.

Included on the program were several members of the Texas A&M administrative and experimental staff. Gibb Gilchrist, chancellor of the A&M College system, gave a talk on the policies of the experimental service conducted at the college.

R. E. Patterson, assistant experiment station director, presented information on the relationship between the extension and experiment divisions.

"The extension service," Gray County Agent Foster Whaley explained, "is composed of the individual county agriculture agents who relay results of the experiment departments operating at the college to area farmers."

In charge of the meeting was G. G. Gibson, A&M state extension director. Attending from Pampa were Whaley, Bill Goldston, assistant county agent, Mrs. Helen Dunlap, home demonstration agent and Fay Burns, assistant HD agent.

BATTLE

(Continued From Page One) questioned at Seoul would comment A spokesman for Van Fleet said he does not plan to comment. Eisenhower, on a radio-television broadcast from New York Wednesday night, read part of Van Fleet's letter in support of his contention that Republic of Korea troops should man their own front lines as soon as possible.

The letter, dated Oct. 30, was addressed to Maj. Gen. Orlando C. Mood, Van Fleet's former chief of staff now in Washington with a copy to Mrs. Van Fleet. The general's wife gave her copy to Eisenhower.

Van Fleet wrote that the South Korean forces are now in "apple-pie" order but that he had been unable thus far to win approval of his plan to double their strength to 29 divisions. He added:

"Being unable to get 10 more, I said: 'Give me six and I would release two U. S. divisions; or give me four and I would release one U. S. division.' It really got down to a two-division increase but still no approval to this date."

The Republican National Committee got out a statement, apparently prepared in advance of the White House denial that Van Fleet would be ousted. The statement, by Sen. Frank Carlson of Kansas, said Gen. Douglas MacArthur was dismissed as U. N. Far East commander for "complaining about not being permitted to win the Korean War" and Lt. Gen. Alfred E. Wedemeyer "retired in disgust over official policy."

In London, Wilson issued a statement last night saying Westbrook "has talked himself into a law suit." The statement said in part:

"I have been informed that I have been mentioned in a statement given to the American press by an individual named Westbrook as having been associated with an 'international gang' formed for the purpose of electing Gen. Eisenhower and cashing in on the United States government program for procuring strategic and critical materials."

"The charge is a vicious and unmitigated lie," Wilson said he does not know Westbrook and has "no stake whatever in the outcome of the pending elections."

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican candidate for president, said in a speech at New York City yesterday that the case is a "sort of crookedness that goes on and on in Washington."

Dr. Nelson Blasts U. S. Administration

Dr. Douglas Nelson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, labeled the "You never had it so good" political slogan a lie in a talk at the Lions club weekly dinner-meeting Thursday in Fellowship Hall, First Methodist Church.

"We have a whole generation with no moral backbone — and I don't mean the 'younger generation,'" Dr. Nelson said. "We are operating on a will-it-work, instead of is-it-morally-right-or-wrong policy."

He urged everyone to take careful consideration of voting privileges and said, "What right have we to expect honest, Christian government when we don't choose men who base anything on what is morally right. If you base your vote on nothing more than geographical location where you live or where your parents lived then we'll have a heathen mess we've put up with for years. In his pre-election speech, Dr. Nelson said that the President "has to be God's man" and asked that this be considered before going to the polls Nov. 4.

A petition, offered to the City Commissioners by Mayor Huff at a recent meeting, was passed among Lions for signatures. The petition is asking a hearing of Water Engineers to create a Canadian River Water Control and Improvement Committee.

Ed Myatt made a plea for more money for the Girl Scouts' fund drive which is still almost $3,000 short of its goal.

Prior to Dr. Nelson's talk, featured entertainment was furnished by Malcolm Brown Jr., who played several piano selections.

Absentee Balloting Continues Its Climb

Absentee voting continued to climb Thursday and this morning as 254 votes were cast in County Clerk Charlie Thut's office by 10:15 a.m. today, the last day for balloting absentee.

As the absentee voting went up, so did the returning ballots that had been sent through the mails. Thut's office reported this morning an additional 30 returned ballots that shot the total up to 167 for a grand total of 421. A total of 363 requests for ballots have been received through the mails.

Deadline for absentee voting is midnight today. Ballots mailed in must be in Thut's office by 1:30 p.m., election day.

Chalmers Super Smear He pulled no punches as he said the Democrats are trying to destroy him with a super smear. "They have made wild charges, spread vile rumors and played fast and loose with the truth," he said. "They are determined to destroy me; to destroy my lifelong friendships, my reputation, my spirit."

Says No Captive Eisenhower replied again to Democratic charges that he is a "captive candidate" by saying: "I have made no deals in this campaign. No one has a claim on me. No one has a promise from me. No one has captured me. I am my own man."

Stevenson climaxed a whistle stop tour of Pennsylvania Thursday with an address before a wildly cheering audience of 13,000 in Pittsburgh.

In his speech, he pounded away at the theme that Eisenhower's "great crusade" has become "the great masquerade" and that the general had abandoned the principles of Abraham Lincoln to embrace the policies of the GOP "Old Guard."

Here is an irresistible rice dish which is glorious eating and worthy of the place of honor at the head of the table in front of Dad.

Succulent ham topped with tender rice and rings of apples is truly a main dish with sparkling good flavor. The cheese makes a golden halo for the flavor, and basting with the molasses goodness, in which the ham is baked, brings a gourmet touch to the rice and apples.

THRIFTY RICE

Ingredients:
1 ham slice (about 12 ounces)
3/4 cup molasses
1 1/2 cup water
2 cups cooked rice
2 cups grated cheese
About 7 apple slices partially cooked

Preparing the fluffy white rice: To make 3 liberal cups of fluffy rice, put 1 cup of uncooked rice, 2 cups of cold water and 1 teaspoon of salt into a quart saucepan and bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover saucepan with a lid and leave over this low heat for 14 minutes. Do not remove lid nor stir rice while it is cooking. Turn off the heat.

Use exact measurements of uncooked rice and water. Time the cooking accurately.

For real convenience and economy of time and effort, keep unused rice in the refrigerator in a covered container at all times. Use it for many quick, delicious and inexpensive soups, salads, casserole dishes, hot breads and desserts.

METHOD: In a baking dish soak the ham in the molasses for 15 minutes. Add the water and bake in a 350 degree F. oven for 40 minutes or until the ham is tender. Frequently baste the ham with the molasses and water. Mix the rice with half of the cheese. Cover the ham slice with the rice. Top the rice with the apple slices. Sprinkle with the remaining cheese. Turn the oven to 450 degrees F. and cook about 10 minutes or until the cheese is

In spite of priding ourselves on keeping up with the times most of us cling to a lot of old-fashioned notions.

For instance, we still show surprise when we find out that a good-looking, gay, smartly dressed young woman happens to be the mother of four or five children.

Modern as we think we are, we still picture the mother of a larger-than-average family as being a wispy-haired drudge, with children tugging at her skirts.

The same thing goes for grandmothers. "Can you believe she's a grandmother?" we ask with awe about a keen-eyed, alert, thoroughly competent business woman. Grandma left her rocker by the hearth a long, long time ago.

And yet the word "grandmother" in the back of our minds still means a sweet-faced, gray-haired woman whose most exciting interests ought to be knitting and spoiling her grandchildren.

BEAUTY AND BRAINS

In the same way, even though we know that the best-looking girls often have more than a fair share of brains, we still are amazed at individual cases where beauty and brains go hand in hand. It's a throw-back to the time when only the girls who were unattractive to men were interested in doing anything with their minds.

Also, we often hear people voice surprise that the children of a working woman are well-behaved. Even though we know the impressive statistics on working mothers, we still cling to the old-fashioned notion that the only way to bring up children is for the mother to devote her full time to them.

And even though a great many men today help with the household there are still plenty of women who express pity for any man whose wife expects him to lift a hand around the house.

Actually though we think we are up-to-date, we haven't yet caught up with the times.

Custards and puddings made with milk and eggs are particularly good to serve children for dessert because they offer valuable nutrients. In summer these desserts may be coupled with fruit in season such as strawberries, raspberries, sliced peaches or apricots.

Shamrock Irishmen Meet Paducah

SEAMROCK — Coach Scott McCall's Irish seek their second win of the season at Denver field here Friday night as they open the 1952 conference season against the Paducah Dragons in a Halloween fray.

Paducah was one of the better eleven of the AA class in 1951, largely due to a 190-pound, all-regional fullback, Pat Green, but Green graduated last May and now the Dragons have a fairly weak team. They have been defeated by some Class A and B teams.

Shamrock made a very good showing against the Perryton Raiders at Shamrock last week-end as they won a 13-13 tie in the closing moments as ace quarterback Jack York whipped a TD pass to end George Hendricks. Earlier, the Irish had taken a lead in the first canto as York cracked over from the two and Don Carlton added a point from placement.

Shamrock continues to show improvement, the point being whether or not they now have the punch to measure other District 3A foes. Perryton lost, 0 - 20, to the potent Wellington Skyrokers, now considered the crew most likely to cop the 3 - AA crown.

Shamrock's backfield — York, Carlton, Pennington and Hartwick — is among the better quartets in the area and the line is improving steadily under the administration of McCall and his assistants, Clarence Morris and John Bond.

Shamrock will be favored to win their first conference set with the Dragons, probably by two touchdowns at a minimum. The Irish always show more zip during conference play — one of the reasons that no McCall-coached team has ever finished worse than second in conference play. In 1946, 1948 and 1949 the

Do-Or-Die Week End For Three SWC Elevens

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

It's do or die for three teams in the turbulent Southwest Conference football race Saturday while in the biggest game — Texas vs Southern Methodist at Austin — an undisputed leader will be established.

Some 66,999 will crowd Memorial Stadium in Austin for the battle of unbeaten teams in which the tempestuous Southern Methodist passing attack is pitted against the grinding ground game of Texas.

At Fort Worth, two teams will be fighting to survive as Baylor plays Texas Christian with more than 5,000 due to turn out on TCU homecoming. Baylor has to win to stay in the race. TCU will cling only to the fringe if it loses.

Aggies Fight For Hope
At College Station, Texas A&M's embattled Cadets will try to retain their shadowy hope of figuring in the championship against an Arkansas team that's already eliminated for all purposes. The Aggies, who have a loss and a tie in their two conference games, can't even tie another one and stay in the running. Some 15,000 will be in the stands as Arkansas goes after what would be its first victory in Texas in four years.

While the conference shenanigans are going on, disappointed and disgruntled Rice will be shooting for an inter-sectional victory which it needs and which the conference could use right handsly. The Owls play tough Wisconsin in Houston and 45,000 are expected to be there for the show. It's homecoming at Rice.

Brawl Expected
All games are afternoon except the Aggies-Arkansas tussle which goes on under the lights. It may be chilly but the clash of the two deep gridiron enemies should warm things up. There always is a lot of scoring when these brawlers get together.

Texas has won from Southern Methodist the past two years and by taking the decision this time could measure a long stride in the direction of a conference championship. SMU wouldn't be eliminated but would be badly bent in its try for a title which hasn't come to the Hilltop since 1948.

Baylor will have distinct ideas of revenge against Texas Christian. Last year the Bears were riding high, wide and handsome when they played TCU. The Horned Frogs shackled Larry Isbell and won, 20-7. That knocked Baylor out of the conference championship and eventually handed it to Texas Christian.

Aggies-Porkers Toss-Up
The Aggie-Arkansas game appears a toss-up. A&M beat University of Houston which beat Arkansas but Arkansas beat Baylor which beat A&M. It's quite a cycle.

Rice will be playing a Big Ten team in Houston for the first time but it has picked a tough one to make a start against. Jim Haluska, the Badger passer, has rolled up 84 yards in the air this season while Alan Ameche has gone for 380 on the ground. Both teams lost to UCLA but Wisconsin did score while Rice couldn't dent the UCLA goal line.

Georgia Tech-Duke Battle Tops Collegiate Schedule

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Georgia Tech and Duke, two of the killers of the Southland, meet in the No. 1 college football game of the day tomorrow as the season swings into the home stretch.

Most of the teams that were expected to set their opponents back before the campaign started have been living up to expectations with an occasional upset here and there.

Unless the Engineer-Blue Devil contest ends in a tie, there will be one less undefeated, untied team among the major outfits when the results are in Saturday night. Both teams have identical 5 - 0 records and are vying to go 'they've been pointing' for this one all season.

The contest is rated pretty much of a tossup, but when the two take the field in Durham, Tech probably will rate a slight favorite. Tech is No. 4 in The Associated Press poll, Duke No. 5.

Important games are sprinkled over the rest of the nation with the California-UCLA contest probably the best from a competitive standpoint.

This is another one that will have an important bearing on a championship—the Pacific Coast Conference and the Rose Bowl bid that goes along with it. The ULCANS are undefeated with a 6 - 0 mark while Poppy Waldorf's Golden Bears sport a 5 - 1 record.

If UCLA wins it — as the coast experts think they will — California will be pretty much out of the Rose Bowl picture. It will be between the Bruins and Southern Cal, which meet on Nov. 22. The Trojans get a day off tomorrow.

Of the top teams in the country, Michigan State, No. 1, seems to have the roughest task. It must beat Purdue, which has been cutting a swathe through the West-ern Conference with surpland ease.

The Boiler-makers have a strong passing attack, which is just what has been bothering the Spartans all season. Still, it would be nothing more than wishful thinking to look for an upset. It shouldn't be a romp for the Spartans, though.

Maryland-Oklahoma, the second and third ranking teams, respectively, have what appears to be easier tasks. The Terrapins go against Boston University and Harry Agganis, Oklahoma, unbeaten but tied once, will test its offensive power against Iowa State in a game that figures to be a romp.

Kansas, the ninth-ranking team in the nation, still with hopes of beating out Oklahoma for the Big Seven title, plays Kansas State in a breather.

Villanova, No. 10 and the only other major unbeaten, untied team, tangles with the Purris Island Marines tonight in Philadelphia. Tonight's other two big contests pit Boston College against Clemson at Boston and Miami against Kentucky at Miami.

In the Ivy League, Princeton, which still can win the title, takes on Brown, Penn., which is in the lead—it also is undefeated although tied twice — plays strong Penn State in a non-league tussle.

Texas and Southern Methodist meet in the big Southwest Conference game of the day. The Longhorns have been looking better — 1 better and a triumph would, make them definite favorites for the crown.

Guerillas Down Yannigans For First Win Of Season

It was a long wait, but when it came it came with surprising power last night at Harvester Park as the Pampa Guerillas picked up their first victory of the year.

They battered an Amarillo White Yannigan team, 37-13, after the Yanna had beaten them by two touchdowns two weeks previous.

Halfback Billy Edwards led the scoring punch that rolled to a 31-0 halftime lead that had the meagre crowd on hand surprised.

The Guerillas played by far their best ball. The second half the Pampans, who had gained with ease on the ground, took strictly to the air, play after play, holding down the score.

The B squadders had an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. In the early minutes James Waner, fullback, ripped over from the Whites' two for the first touchdown. Edwards broke loose for 12 yards and the second touchdown, and Waner came back with a beautiful chore of running around right end for 19 yards and the third. None of the attempts at extra point were successful.

Edwards started the second quarter off with a 40-yard touchdown run and a pass from Dean Franklin to Billy Fulenwider, covering 24 yards, made it 30-0. Edwards ran the extra point, the only one the B squadders made all night, and it was 31-0 at halftime.

Edwards ripped off seven yards shortly after the second half kickoff to make it 37-0, and then the Guerillas took to the air on defense and tried to stave off a passing attack by the Yannigans. The visitors scored twice in the final period.

It was the Guerillas' first win against five losses and one tie.

Close Race, But... Results Of Poll Conducted By Hank Showlke Will Be Winner

By HENRY McLEMORE

Remembering the gosh-awful licking they took in 1948, the pollsters have been as wary as a fox in a hen coop this year. You can't blame them, of course, because predicting successfully is their living. Another such failure as they had four years ago and they'll have to fold their tents and slip quietly away, as did the Literary Digest.

This means no more fur coats for Mama Pollster, mowing lawns for Junior Pollster, and the bus or subway strap for Daddy Pollster. And the taking in of washing by Sister Pollster.

I have been reading the polls and they are about as positive as a merry-go-round. They are not going to be caught out on a limb with either Eisenhower or Stevenson. A tie would suit them fine.

The polls have read about like this:

For Eisenhower — 41 per cent.
For Stevenson — 41 per cent.
Those who want a change — 9 per cent.
Those who do not want a change — 9 per cent.

Or:
Republicans — 44 per cent.
Democrats — 44 per cent.
Miners for Eisenhower — 2 per cent.
Farmers for Stevenson — 7 per cent.

Game cock raisers for Eisenhower — 4 per cent.
Sheep clippers for Stevenson — 4 per cent.
Everything adds up to 100 per cent. That is impossible when as many American men and women vote.

With the election practically upon us, I am happy to announce that I am ready to announce a poll of my own. A poll which pulls no punches and which, if it sends me to the poorhouse, won't make a great deal of difference to me.

I have been working on this poll ever since Eisenhower and Stevenson were nominated for the highest office in the world in the stockyards.

No expense was spared. No money was spent. It is given to you as a true cross-cut of public opinion.

Here it is:
Republicans for Eisenhower — 30 per cent.
Democrats for Stevenson — 30 per cent.
Tart malcontents for Eisenhower — 8 per cent.
Tart malcontents who will refuse to vote — 2 per cent.
Lightweights and thieves who'll vote for Stevenson because he represents the Truman administration — 4 per cent.
Men and women who'll vote for Eisenhower following Truman's tour — 10 per cent.
Men and women who'll vote for Stevenson after hearing Truman's whistle-stop talks — 1 per cent.
Sure job Democrat voters — 7 per cent.
Americans who are appalled by Washington as it is today and who'll vote for Eisenhower — 8 per cent.

Officers Complain That Texas Bootlegging Is Too Near Legal

EDITOR'S Note: This is one of a series of stories giving background on events leading up to the State House Crime Investigating Committee's decision to hold public hearings on charges of Texas bootlegging activities. The hearings will be in Amarillo Nov. 6-7.

By BOB BRAY

Written for The Associated Press AMARILLO (AP) — Officers say bootlegging in Texas is a multi-million dollar business and some of them complain it's almost a legal one. If the bootlegger gets caught, odds are he can pay a stiff fine and still make money that month.

The State House Crime Investigating Committee, during its Nov. 6-7 public hearings in Amarillo, will study the bootleg business from a profit standpoint. It also will consider possible loopholes in the law controlling bootlegging. Officers say one glaring shortcoming in the State Liquor Control Act is that known bootleggers can purchase all the whiskey they want simply by saying it is for their own consumption. Liquor dealers catering to bootleggers have built stores in isolated spots where their illicit trade can continue relatively unnoticed.

Can Be Delivered
One swanky West Texas layout — an alcoholic oasis on the edge of a local oyster desert — reportedly sells more than $200,000 worth of liquor monthly.

Officers say dealers not only can sell to known bootleggers without violating the law. They also can draw up perfectly legal "false" road manifests and haul beer right up to the bootlegger's front door. Should they be caught unloading the beer, they can be prosecuted.

In order to make manifests legal, a beer wholesaler in Odessa, for example, rents warehouse space and takes out a branch distributor's license. This gives him the legal right to haul the beer through dry counties between Odessa and Amarillo.

Board Indicates Cree Is Cleared

Leases of two oil operators — one a Pampa — will probably be restored at an early date, the Texas Railroad Commission in Austin has indicated.

Pipe line connections of five operators in the Cree-Sykes field, Runtels County, were ordered severed by the commission Oct. 21. Representatives of G. B. Cree, Pampa, and Union Sulphur and Oil Corp. had contended they had not been reporting production from deadwells and indications were that the commission would agree.

Hearing on the cases of Sax on Exploration Co. and Southern California Petroleum Corp. were recessed indefinitely pending receipt of annual gas-oil ration reports which should have been filed before Oct. 1.

Should he be stopped by any officer along the way, he simply shows his manifest and tells the officer to go and catch someone who is violating the law.

The driver then goes to the bootlegger, say in Lubbock, who ordered the beer and hurriedly unloads it.

A couple of years ago a pair of alert officers in Lubbock spotted a semi-truck burdened down with beer parked in front of a club.

Without waiting for any unloading to begin, the officers arrested the truck driver and confiscated his beer and truck. He quickly produced a bill of lading showing the brew en route to Amarillo and maintained he had just stopped at the club to call his wife.

Officers Helpless
Despite irrefutable evidence that the club sold beer to its members and a statement by the owner of the Amarillo warehouse that the place hadn't sheltered a bottle of beer in several years, it had been rented for that purpose and the case wouldn't stand up.

Sparkman Due In Colorado Today

BUTTE, Mont. (AP) — Sen. John J. Sparkman, Democratic vice presidential candidate, is due in Colorado today after calling Republicans the "party of the vested interests" in a rally address here.

He said that under the Democratic administration of the past 20 years, "the people of America have been able to use the powers of their government to promote their own welfare, better the nation as a whole and prepare for a prosperous future."

He contended that Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, the Republican presidential candidate, in a Western trip "spent his time denouncing this use of the people's government."

UN Infantry Wins Back Pinpoint Hill

SEOUL (AP) — Allied infantry won back Pinpoint Hill with clubbed rifles and cold steel today. Earlier, 2,000 Chinese Regs., bursting out of the mouth of a long, uphill tunnel, had gained control of the vital Central Korean Front peak.

Thousands of rounds of artillery fire from both sides churned the rocky summit into sand during the savage fighting and was continuing without letup. An Eighth Army staff officer said it probably would rate as the most intense shelling of the war.

The Allied troops were dug in 50 yards down the slope from the summit of Pinpoint, taking cover from the hail of shells which bilastered the crest.

They drove the Chinese off the highest peak of Sniper Ridge at mid-afternoon under Red artillery and mortar shelling described by the officer as "very deadly."

WHITE DEER (Special) — Opening of a new furniture store in White Deer has been scheduled for Saturday.

New Socialist Head Puts German Unity Over Rearmament

BONN, Germany (AP) — Chubby, pipe-smoking Erich Ollenhauer, new leader of West Germany's powerful Socialist party, insists that "a hundred new houses are worth more than a hundred soldiers" in defending Europe against communism.

With a national election coming up next year for the Bonn republic, Ollenhauer has pledged himself to a platform that puts German unity ahead of rearmament. First of all, he and his party want Germany reunited to "liberate" the 18 million Germans under Soviet rule.

This, Ollenhauer says, must come before any pacts with the West which otherwise would perpetuate the division of the country.

If the Socialists win at the polls next summer, they intend to demand revision of whatever agreements have been signed meanwhile with the Western Powers and pull West Germany out of the Schuman Plan and Council of Europe.

Ollenhauer acknowledges that some form of Western defense is necessary. But he rejects outright the present plan to bind the Western part of Germany into an alliance with five other nations in a European army.

Thus Ollenhauer has taken over the "No, No, No." of his party hero, the late Kurt Schumacher. Comparisons between the new party chairman and fiery, embittered Schumacher are inevitable. Ollenhauer was Schumacher's faithful disciple and his deputy for five postwar years.

Ollenhauer's genial manner makes him popular in the Bonn Parliament, even among his political enemies. He is a young 51, his hair recedes in front and is getting silver but it is still plentiful. His blue eyes twink-

Twenty-Six Army Generals Due Retirement In January

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twenty-six Army generals will be due for mandatory retirement next January.

But the Army probably will use a provision in an Officer Personnel Act to retain on duty at least one of them, Lt. Gen. Man-ton S. Eddy, commander-in-chief, U. S. Army, Europe, it has been learned.

The act provides that officers of the permanent rank of brigadier or major general (they may be holding higher ranks temporarily) shall be retired upon completing five years in that grade and 35 years of commissioned service.

In answer to questions, an Army spokesman told a reporter his provision would affect 14 permanent major generals and 12 permanent brigadier generals, about half of whom are temporary major generals.

This will be the largest number of general officers to leave active duty at one time since the end of World War II. However, the Army currently has about 490 generals. They include one five-star officer.

Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (eight four-star generals, more than a score of three-star) lieutenant generals about 140 two-star (major) generals. Many of these are holding temporary rank called for by their current assignments.

The officer retirement act permits the Army, during an emergency, to retain up to 10 general officers who otherwise would be retired until they reach the age of 64. It is under this provision that the Army is expected to keep Gen. Eddy at his important European assignment.

Among officers who apparently will come within the scope of the mandatory retirement law is Maj. Gen. Robert W. Grow, who was convicted by a court martial of improperly putting military secrets into a personal diary which was copied by a Soviet spy.

The same law will bring the retirement of about 200 permanent colonels, part of them next July 1 and the remainder on July 1, 1954.

Italian Immigrants Battle For Employment

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — More than 200 unemployed Italian immigrants today battled police who tried to break up a demonstration for immediate employment or repatriation to Italy.

The heavily outnumbered police, swinging batons and handcuffs, prevented the Italians armed with iron bars and timbers from storming the Italian consulate. Within 10 minutes of the clash, 100 police reinforcements restored order.

Several policemen were badly bashed. One Italian was hospitalized, and a number of others were less seriously injured.

The Voice Of The People Will Be Loud Nov. 4

The voice of the people will be louder than ever before in the coming national election of Nov. 4 — but just how loud it will be...

We are within days of the date of a critical election before the house of whether the people of the United States want to continue their federal government under the rule of the Democratic party...

The philosophy of that party since the day in 1933 in Franklin Delano Roosevelt was inaugurated...

The theme has persistently been that a strong central government could better determine what is good for the people and could provide for them...

Despite the dissident segment of the Party in the northern states, it has ridden rough-shod over states rights and individual rights...

It has been the sponsor of a revolution which has almost, although not quite, converted the Republic of the United States under which a temporary majority was elected by Constitutional law into a socialist democracy...

It has engineered a fiscal system under which producers are limited in the benefits they can receive for their products and under which the non-producers are guaranteed a minimum benefit...

In the perpetuation of these policies it has conspired with traitors and thieves, rendered impotent our agencies of foreign diplomacy, dissipated the nation's wealth by foreign gifts, corrupted national character by gifts and subsidies...

It has led us into one war and is leading us into another and is boasting of a national prosperity that would vanish as spring snow before the summer rain if a war-time economy were ended.

This is the Party that is coming to judgment once again on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, 1952.

In the 48 states there are registered as eligible voters this date almost 75,000,000 persons — 74,810,561 to be exact — and it is likely that at the very least 60,000,000 of them will cast ballots on the presidential election...

Population experts say there are 98,000,000 persons now on the nation's 150,000,000 who could legally vote they would. In the greatest previous turnout of voters the year that Wendell Willkie carried the Republican standard to defeat before Franklin Roosevelt's violation of the third term tradition there were only 49,820,100 ballots officially cast in the whole United States.

Under Close Watch: A solid business newspaper, the Wall Street Journal, informed from weighty economic issues the other day to hint out how the merest slip of the tongue can cook the goose of a presidential aspirant.

Exactly a century ago, recalls the Journal, the race was between Franklin Pierce and Winfield Scott. Scott's popularity exceeded Pierce's. He seemed a cinch to win — until, one fine day, he happened to mention that he was having soup for dinner. Soup, at that time, was generally considered a dish only for women and sissies. It wasn't until after the Civil War era that a man who considered his veins to be filled with red blood would admit eating the stuff...

Looking Ahead

By GEORGE S. BENSON, President Harding College, Searcy, Ark.

THE NON-POLITICAL PROMISE: The people among us today who were born in 1850 or before could almost be counted on the fingers of our two hands. Although Arkansas holds the record for the longevity of its people...

PRIMITIVE PRODUCTION: In 1850 grain was ground by a miller with a grinding stone; most of the nation's metal work was done in blacksmith shops; land was plowed by the horse and man; transportation of people and goods was largely accomplished in Conestoga wagons...

INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS: From 1850 to 1950 mass production techniques were developed by such men as Ford, Firestone, Swift and Sloan — among them the growing might of the machine. In this 50-year period the amount of goods one man could turn out tripled.

OX-TETHERED THRESHOLD: American people stand on the threshold of an amazing new era of production and prosperity. Atomic energy is here. It and the other great new developments that have come from our industrial progress give mankind the greatest promise of plenty, the surest hope for security...

Fair Enough... ECA And MSA Got Rid Of About $35 Billions In A Few Years

By WESTBROOK PEGLER (Copyright, 1952, King Features Syndicate, Inc.) As a shareholder of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, I have a small, selfish interest in a public proceeding concerning our vast overseas squad er b u n d known nowdays as the Economic Cooperation Administration. Altogether, under Truman, alone, to say nothing of the frenzied extravagance of the Roosevelt regime, the ECA and the MSA have got rid of $35 billion of our taxes in a few years. Now, after throwing away all this money, we have fewer friends in Europe than ever before...

National Whirligig... John L. Lewis Stands Alone In Fight For Miners' Pay Raise

By RAY TUCKER WASHINGTON — If President Truman's Wage Stabilization Board had set out deliberately to aggravate and perpetuate the personal and political feuds among the nation's top labor leaders, it could not have succeeded better than it did in chipping the coal operators' pay boost to John L. Lewis' miners. It took a sharp blow at possible labor unity.

As of today, neither of the United Mine Workers president's rivals had come to his aid in the struggle. Neither William Green, head of the American Federation of Labor, nor Philip Murray, CIO chief, has condemned the board's action in reducing the increase from $1.90 to $1.50 a day.

LOOKING SIDWAYS

By WHITNEY BOLTON Under the rusting bottom edges of the Iron Curtain enough show news seeps through now and then to give us a tantalizing picture of the Drama under the Soviets. For example, they whisked a ballerina into Italy a year or so ago, let her do one or two ballets, then whisked her back and a few ecstatic critics forthwith claimed that this new-you-see-her-now-you-don't ballerina was the best of all time. Since this statement did not come equipped with its own grain of salt, I took a pinch of my own salt with which to swallow the news.

And, of course, I am given to understanding that Russian radio dramas are pearls of wisdom and showmanship. In that category I don't have to guess or possibly let my prejudices against the regime color my thinking. I have been allowed to read a few lines from a Russian radio script and maybe you read them, too. For some reason of baffling doubtfulness, the Russians wanted the capitalistic world to hear this show. A boy farmer and a girl tractor driver meet on the night shift. "How wonderful it is," she sighs, bringing her creaking tractor to a momentary halt, "to work on such a beautiful night under the full moon and do one's utmost to save gasoline."

TRUMAN HELPLESS — The walkout places Truman in a difficult impasse. Neither he nor the Democratic nominee wants the strike to continue through election day, possibly losing votes. They have good friends among great corporations profiting from war contracts, and are using that avenue of approach.

There can be no such thing as a necessary evil. If things really necessary it cannot be an evil, and if it is an evil it is not necessary.

WHEN I QUIT
When I quit this mortal shore
And move beyond this earth
Don't weep, don't sigh, don't grieve,
Don't sob,
I may have struck a better job,
Don't go and buy a large bouquet,
For which you'll find it hard
To pay.
Don't hang around me looking blue
I may be better off than you.
Don't tell folks I was a saint,
Or anything you know I ain't,
If you have stuff like that to spread
Please hand it out before I'm Dead.
If you have roses bless your soul,
Just pin one on my button hole,
But do it while I'm at my best,
Instead of when I'm safe at rest.

Folks Should Be Pleasant, Not Nasty, To The Weatherman

By SAUL PETT
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody talks about the weather but nobody does anything about starting a Be-Kind-to-Weatherman week. I think it's about time we were a little nicer to the weather man. After all, he doesn't make the stuff himself. He just takes what the manufacturer sends him. Don't blame him for the final products. A weather man, has feelings. Ernest J. Christie, meteorologist too, I discovered in talking with in charge of the New York Weather Bureau.

Christie gets a little tired of hearing sports announcers say, "The weather man wasn't very kind to us today." He flinches when he meets an acquaintance in the rain who complains, "fure day you brought us."

"You'd be surprised how many people still blame us for the weather," Christie says. "Why not blame the weather? And if they're going to blame rain on us, why not give us credit for the sunshine. People rarely do."

Wishful Gopher

Christie likes to play golf. It happens that, sometime he is more the wishful thinking golfer than he is the realistic weather man. When he gets caught in the seven-in green in a sudden downpour, he never hears the end of it.

Some people get so mad about the weather they've even threatened to phone their congressman about the weather man. This has happened to Jim Osmon, assistant meteorologist at the bureau here. But among his own neighbors in a New Jersey suburb, he is an object of respectful attention.

Wives watch Mrs. Osmon carefully. Some will hang up their wash only when the weather man's wife does.

Like anybody else, a weather man is not impartial about the weather.

Feel Better Some Days

"I personally prefer a day when the wind is less than 12 miles an hour, when the humidity is below 80 per cent, the temperature is around 70 and here's just enough clouds in the sky for a contrast between the blue and white," Osmon said.

"Psychological tests show that this is the kind of a day which best gives feeling of well being and a feeling which makes you contentedly introverted. We get about two or three of these days a month.

"My next best choice is a day when there's a mild threat of snow in the air or even a light snow coming down. When the sky is darkly overcast and there's a feeling of something big impending. You feel warmer toward other people, you feel more gregarious. You feel more like buying somebody a drink and just talking while the sky closes in on you."

When your children want a mid-meal snack try offering them carrot sticks and a handful of raisins.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Open By Suit Bid Is Only Solution

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

In today's hand South must open the bidding in a suit even though he has balanced distribution and stoppers in each of the four suits.

With 20 points, South is too strong for an opening bid of one no-trump (showing 16 to 18 points) but too weak for an opening bid of two no-trump (showing 22 to 24 points). The solution is to open with a suit bid and make a jump rebid in no-trump.

North has a very poor hand but realizes that South's bidding shows a very strong hand. North has 7 points in high cards and knows that South has at least 19 points in high cards. Hence the entire diamond suit making 10 tricks. Even if the finesse had happened to lose (with the cards differently divided, of course) South would still be sure of four diamond tricks and his contract.

It is important to note that South wins the first spade, con game contract if he played the diamonds in the "normal" manner. Suppose, for example, that South wins the first spade, and then tries to run the diamonds. East can win the fourth round of diamonds with his jack and return a spade. West then takes enough spade tricks to defeat the contract.

North is not afraid to go on to game.

South wins the first trick with the queen of spades and counts his values. He can be sure of only one spade, one club, and three hearts. He therefore needs four diamond tricks in order to make his contract.

The diamonds must be developed in such a way as to shut East out. At the second trick, therefore, declarer leads a low diamond to dummy's king and returns a diamond towards his own hand. When East follows suit with a low diamond, South must finesse the nine.

The finesse happens to succeed, and South therefore runs
