THE HONORS ARE WELL DESERVED

It is neither a co-incidence nor a run of luck that Hall County 4-H Club boys have won state contests consecutively for the past three years, and again will represent Texas at the National 4-H Congress in Chicago next month.

Back of this amazing record are the participants themselves, ambitious, energetic and intelligent boys, eager to be successful in their chosen field of agriculture and to become useful citizens in their home communities.

Also, back of this fine showing in Hall County by Hall County boys, is the guiding hand of a county agricultural agent who has been directing the work of the 4-H boys—and who today is recognized as one of the outstanding county agents in the United States.

The work that W. B. Hooser started seven years ago is now "paying off" on the hundreds of farms in Hall County and through the training which hundreds of club boys have received. This year's record wherein local boys won either state or near top honors in six of nine contests in which they entered, is but a fore-runner of what is to come, unless we are badly mistaken.

The rest of Texas and the nation, too, will be hearing about 4-H Club boys from Hall County for many years to come, or at least so long as the combination of a diligent and conscientious county agent and an ambitious and cooperative youth exists as it does now. Both this year are receiving national recognition. Both deserve all honors that are being bestowed.

And it is well that the rest of us ponder for a moment the importance of this 4-H Club work to the future economy and well-being of our community as a whole. The greatest resources in Hall County are its soil and its youth. The 4-H program utilizes and develops both of these. Is there any project of more importance than the furtherance of this program?

Press Paragraphs

SELECTED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGE

The American Legion has grown into the largest veterans' organization in this country's history. It now numbers more than 1,600,000 fighting men and women of World Wars I and II, more than 500,000 of them veterans of this war.

Yet large as the Legion is, it is a most exclusive organization. Neither money nor influence can buy a membership. The doors of its 13,000 posts open only upon the presentation of an honorable discharge from wartime service. The Legion has no honorary memberships.

This makes American Legion membership a coveted possession. The Legion button is a badge of valor. There are many who would gladly buy membership in the Legion if they only could.

Membership in the Legion is a recognition of individual investment in the future of the nation, and of individual sacrifice to defense of country. The Legion button stands for the bearer's contribution in toil and sweat, in drill and fatigue, in undergoing willingly danger of death, in perhaps spilling one blood on a battlefield, all in the cause of the nation's freedom.

The Legion has been so thoroughly identified with genuine Americanism that the Legion cap has been a passport over the International Bridge at El Paso, and has even gained admittance for its bearers to the White House, with no other credentials.—Ochiltree County Herald.

Many cities and towns are taking steps to protect their business men and citizens from fly-by-night advertising racketeers and "patriotic" solicitors who will be descending in hordes, now that the war has ended and money is flowing freely. We can look for scores of "Fighting Hero" promotions in which war vets and their families will be solicited personally and by mail for photographs and written up for one kind of cologne or another to be off the press soon.

Business men will be approached by these grafters to take listings in various "official" magazines and year books which will be represented as paying tribute to our fighting men and women. And the credentials and references of these slick promoters will look authoritative on the surface.

Every town needs some sort of a business men's "Vigilance Committee" like Wichita Falls has formed. In that city the Ad Club established a committee to investigate and rout the persuasive salesmen of such rackets.

The Times reprints from an article in Sunday's Wichita Falls Times: "Wichita Falls' only protection against fly-by-night promoters, solicitors and one-issue publications was established by the Ad Club in the form of the vigilance committee. Now that committee has dedicated itself to fighting racketeers who prey on returning servicemen, as well as fighting those who swindle civilians."

"The vigilance committee is a

One Son Now in Japan, Another Expects To Go Overseas Soon

PVT. JAMES E. VICK

Pfc. Johnny M. Vick of the Sixth Army is now in Japan with General MacArthur's occupation forces, and his brother, Pvt. James E. Vick, is in training preparatory to overseas duty.

They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Vick of Memphis. James is in training at Fort Knox, Kentucky, with the Second Tank Division and expects to go overseas soon. He has been in service four months.

In a letter to his parents, Johnny says he may get to come back to the states some time next Spring. His letter follows:

"Hope this finds all well and doing fine. I am feeling fine.

"Mother, please don't worry about that jungle rot. I have it on my feet, legs and between my legs. I had to have my legs shaved, in order to doctor it. My legs and feet are sore and peeling off. But please don't worry about me, because I think it will be easier to cure since we are over here in the cold weather.

"Mother, we have been aboard ship 26 days and will be next month before we get on land. We got to get off here at Wakayama. The Japs are friendly to us. We couldn't buy anything with money. All they wanted were cigarettes, sugar, candy and such things as that. I sold one package of cigarettes for 15 yens. That is the name of some of their money. I wanted it to take home as a souvenir.

"I was going to get a scarf or some material and send home to you but couldn't find any. The town was a big one but there isn't much left to it now except ashes and ruins.

"I may get to come back to the States sometime between March and July. I will probably send some money home soon because I have no use for any money at all here. I don't ever go anywhere to spend any.

"Mother, tell James that I am miniature better business bureau.

"In its first five years in Wichita Falls, 342 racketeers and promoters seeking funds for unsound enterprises were exposed. Now that more money than ever is in circulation, a flood of solicitors will be selling space in all forms of "projects."

"All sorts of schemes masquerading under patriotic costumes will be used by solicitors to collect funds for "labor" or "fighting communism" prospects, as well as for war memorials and books listing America's fighting men. The vigilance committee of the Ad Club will attempt to separate the worthy from the unworthy.—Wheeler Times.

"Well, I really must close for now. Please send me all the pictures you can and write often. Your son,

Hancock Youth Does Master Job At Dallas Fete

When it comes to presiding at banquets Billy Hancock of Lakeview performs with plenty of skill and polish, reports County Agent W. B. Hooser, who saw the 4-H club member in the top role Saturday night at a banquet in Dallas.

The occasion was a reception by the Pan-American Livestock Exposition for the group of youths from Mexico who are being escorted on a good will tour of Texas by 4-H club members. The Lakeview youth, who went to Mexico last spring as one of a list from Texas, is acting as a member of the host party and is now on a tour of the state.

He was selected to preside at the banquet Saturday night at the Baker hotel when many notable guests were present, including officials of the Pan-American Exposition, Texas A. & M. College, the Department of Agriculture and representatives of the Mexican government.

"He never made a bobble," said Mr. Hooser, "and it would have made every person in Hall County proud of him to have seen the way he handled the occasion."

Jack Moreman, Carroll Fowler and Billy's brother, Don Hancock, all from Lakeview, were present.

Pfc. Elmer Hockman Home From Europe

Pfc. Elmer O. Hockman has been discharged from the Army and is now in Memphis with his wife and son, and visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Orand. They plan to make their home here. He was in the service four and a half years and was overseas 16 months with the ground forces of the Eighth Air Force, based in England.

There were 74 Texans aboard the U.S.S. Minneapolis when she unfurled the Lone Star flag, a gift from Governor Coke Stevenson.

Childress Field on Reserve Status, Connally Advised

Childress Army Air field is on the reserve status and for use as a storage base, Senator Ton Connally has been advised by the Army Air Forces. Senator Connally has sent Mayor C. C. Hodges and President Horace Tarver of the chamber of commerce copy of a letter he received from the Army Air Forces, outlining the status of the Childress installation.

The letter was as follows:

Dear Senator Connally: Your letter addressed to General Arnold, which was received October 8, 1945, has been referred to me with the request that I furnish you all available information concerning Childress Army Air Field, Texas.

As you know this installation is presently being used as a bombardment training station. It is not anticipated that the facility will be required for the interim air forces as indicated in the list published by this headquarters on the 15th of this month, copy of which I am sure you have received. In view of the investment that the Government has in this installation and the fact that the property is totally owned by the War Department, the facility will be retained for the present for possible use as a reserve installation or for storage purposes. I am glad to have had the opportunity to review the brief you inclosed with your letter and I will assure you that the facts, as outlined, will be given full consideration insofar as future decisions regarding the use of the facility are concerned.

Concerning the retention of Childress Army Air Field for the post military establishment, I am sorry that I cannot make a definite commitment at this time since determinations for retention of installations will be dependent upon the size of the military establishment as authorized by Congress.

Your interest and the interest of the Mayor and citizens of Childress are sincerely appreciated and the cooperation of the people in the vicinity of Childress during the emergency period has been commendable. I trust that the foregoing information will aid you in furnishing your constituents with the information that they desire.

Sincerely yours,
E. M. Powers,
Major General,
Assistant Chief of Air

Texas Doctors To Fight Pepper Bill On Child Welfare

The State Medical Association of Texas has informed the Texas delegation in Congress of their support of the Hill-Burton Bill and their unqualified opposition to the Pepper Bill. Both pending measures deal with public health affairs.

Dr. Holman Taylor, Secretary of the State Association, has written the Congressmen that the Legislative Committee of the organization has voted approval of one measure and condemnation of the other.

The Hill-Burton Bill was approved because it seeks to provide hospitals in communities where they are badly needed and where they would be self-supporting.

The Pepper Bill, known as the Maternal and Child Welfare Act of 1945, is disapproved by the doctors because its provisions would place a large percentage of the physicians now practicing in the United States under the direction of the Childrens Bureau of the Department of Labor. This, they declare, would mean the registration of doctors and the destruction of the time honored relationship between patient and physician.

"The Pepper Bill extends the emergency maternal and infant care program, through which the wives and children of service men were afforded free medical care, to all the mothers and children in

Warns Relatives Stay Away From Discharge Points

A warning that an acute shortage of hotel accommodations and housing facilities exists at all Navy Separation Centers was issued to relatives of servicemen who are contemplating joining their Navy husbands, sweethearts, and sons and daughters at these discharge points.

Already overcrowded conditions in the localities of the Separation Centers has made it necessary for Navy Housing Officials to issue an appeal to the relatives of servicemen and women to avoid further confusion by delaying their planned reunions with their loved ones until the veterans are discharged and returned to their homes.

The influx of the World War II veterans to the Separation Centers already swarming with Navy personnel stationed at these facilities, has created a critical shortage of rooms.

Housing authorities explained that the appeal to the relatives and friends of the service people is made in hope of avoiding further hardships. Hundreds of families and friends of the veterans the United States regardless of their financial status," Dr. Taylor explained. "Children are designated as everyone under 21 years of age. This would mean that about one-third of the population of America would be entitled to free medical care by Federal directed and compensated doctors. This is socialized medicine presented in a plausible, sugar coated form.

"This measure, with its high tax burdens, should be defeated since we believe that socialized medicine, in any form, is contrary to the best interests of efficient and skillful protection of the public health."

Pfc. James Martin Fought Japs, Helped Open Burma Road

Pfc. James M. Martin, Jr., who spent 18 months in Burma and India as a member of the Mars Task Force, is now home with his honorable discharge from the Army. As a member of the 124th Cavalry, he was attached to the famous Mars Task Force which helped push the Japs out of Burma and opened the Burma Road.

Martin was awarded the Combat Infantry badge, the Purple Heart, Good Conduct Ribbon, Pearl Harbor ribbon and four battle stars. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Martin, 115 East Robertson street, and is now employed at the Milan Grain and Elevator Co.

are arriving daily at the Separation Centers only to find it impossible to find housing accommodations.

Compliance with this request, it was pointed out, also will help relieve the rail and bus transportation problems and thus make it possible for more servicemen to be transferred to the Separation Centers for discharges.

Paul Crowder Is Promoted in China

The promotion to Corporal of Paul S. Crowder of Memphis, has been announced by Brig. Gen. Albert F. Hegeberger, Commanding General, Tenth Air Force. He is assigned to the Twelfth Air Service Group.

The Twelfth Air Service Group, formerly part of the Fourteenth Air Force, but now assigned to the Tenth to assist in the redeployment of Chinese troops since the Japanese surrender, is known throughout China as the "Service Commandos." The organization served units of the Fourteenth for nearly two years, operating bases and providing supply and maintenance to combat organizations. It was the first complete air service group to enter the China Theater.

In 1944, during the Jap drive to split China and establish lines of communication to Indo-China and Burma, the Twelfth was stationed at various bases in east China which had to be destroyed and evacuated. American bases were heavily bombed at the time. Most recent assignment of the unit in the Fourteenth was in support of the famous Chinese American Composite wing.

Corporal Crowder, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Crowder, Memphis is a graduate of Memphis high school. He enlisted in the Army Air Forces in May 1942 and served at various stations in Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. An endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's—Sold at all drug stores.

Farm and Ranch Chatter

With LAYNE BEATY

Rural residents may not have to wait much longer for telephone service which will compare favorably with the service in towns. The Rural Electrification Administration is interested in this, and legislation has been proposed to enable the REA to make loans to rural telephone co-ops. Many of the telephone companies have announced that improved rural service will be forthcoming when the war emergency is over, and one independent company in Texas has already approached several REA co-ops for permission to string telephone wires on REA poles.

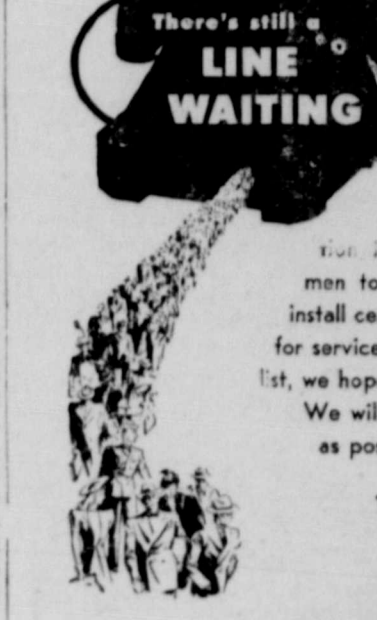

Folks in West Texas who are plagued with heavy growth of Yucca on their lands will be interested in new experiments which show possibilities for making rope, soap, mats, containers, and alcohol from the wild plant.

This writer visited a mink farm near Winnipeg, Canada, a few days ago. With breeding stock worth $30 to $50 a head, and feed fairly inexpensive, the prolific critters seem a profitable investment, if properly cared for, as long as a single pelt will sell for around $30. The mink are raised on wire screen to prevent disease, in houses to protect them from low temperatures. Also, they are in individual pens. It might make an interesting sideline for Texans if the mink could stand the summers here, but even in Canada sometimes summers weather takes a heavy toll of the little fur-bearers.

Cyclone and Broncs Wind Up Season In Clarendon Friday

With another scalp under their belt, that of the McLean Tigers, the Memphis Cyclone goes to Clarendon Friday night to engage the Broncs in the closing game of the season. As records go it is anybody's ball game, with both teams having identical records in the win and loss columns. Memphis has lost three games—and so has Clarendon. The Cyclone has won three—and so have the Broncs. The victories and defeats in both cases have been with the same teams.

In the Conference race Memphis has downed Wheeler, Lakeview and McLean and has gone down to defeat at the hands of Wellington, Lefors and Shamrock. The Broncs likewise have won over Wheeler, Lakeview and McLean and have been defeated by the three district leaders, Wellington, Lefors and Shamrock.

Upshot of it all is that Memphis and Clarendon in their game Friday night will be battling for fourth place in the district race. Wellington leads with an undefeated record; Lefors is second and Shamrock is third. Winner of Friday's game at Clarendon will take fourth place, and the loser will occupy the fifth notch.

On all the dope it is as closely-matched a game as has been served up for football fans in this section all season and is the outstanding game in the district. Wellington closes out the season with Wheeler and Lakeview goes to Canyon to play the West Texas high school squad.

Only thing worrying Coach Curtis Kelly this week is a team weakened by an epidemic of flu. McElreath, McQueen and Evans all being on the sick list Monday and Tuesday. Clarendon, however, has men on the injured list, which may in a way even up the count. The game will be called at 7:30.

Lacking some of the aspects of stellar performance seen in the previous week against Wellington, the Cyclone came through in g form last Friday night on the local gridiron to blank McLean, 18 to 0. Cold weather held down the crowd but some 800 fans were on hand. The Cyclone had possession of the ball most of the time and McLean never seriously threatened at any time.

Memphis put over its first counter in the second period when Davis lunged over the line for a yard after a series of runs by McQueen and McElreath had set up the score.

In the third period McElreath broke loose for a 40-yard run down the middle to cross the goal line, and in the closing quarter he skirted end for 12 yards and another marker. Lakeview took a 53 to 0 beating at Lefors and Wellington smothered the Irish at Shamrock 46 to 6.

Health and Liberty are Priceless!

THE PRICELESS HERITAGE OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

In this nation there are vital issues which transcend all partisanship. The American people have a Priceless Heritage. It is not shared by the people of any other nation. It belongs exclusively to the people of the United States.

This inheritance sets the American people apart from all other peoples in the world. It has given us advantages so great that most minds fail to comprehend them. This heritage stems from a tradition and sensing of freedom which antedates by centuries

WHY AMERICAN MEDICINE IS BEST IN WORLD

In the short span of one hundred fifty years American Medicine has moved forward to a position of universally recognized world leadership. It has provided a more effective and a more widely and evenly distributed medical care than ever has been made available anywhere at any time. If analyzed and understood, the achievement is without parallel in the history of the progress of mankind.

In the successful treatment and cure of disease, medical care must be considered as having two separate yet closely related parts:

First: There is disease—disease as such. There are many diseases. Each disease is ceaselessly, relentlessly seeking a human body to destroy. And each disease affects each human body in a different way.

KEEP YOUR DOCTOR A FREE MAN!

The doctor is a human being, a person—a personality. His tradition, knowledge and experience make him more sure and more confident than his fellowmen. The new Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bill now before Congress would rob him of his freedom of action the establishment of this nation and the adopting of its written Constitution. Its tangible expression is embodied in the Private Enterprise System. The essential to its preservation is the sanctity of the human personality—the supremacy of the individual and the subordination of the State.

This priceless inheritance is now being dangerously menaced by moves to turn over to the Federal Government the task of providing medical care for all the people.

Second: There is the patient—a human being—who, by accident, misfortune or coincidence, contracts a disease.

American Medicine has conquered many diseases—controls many others. However, the basic factor responsible for the unequalled effectiveness of the practicing physician is that the whole of his effort always is concentrated on treating and curing the patient—the human being who is sick. Incidentally, only, is he concerned with conquering the disease. The basic tenet of American medicine is that where there is a sick patient—a life is the issue. It matters not whether prince or pauper is involved. The one concern is that of saving the human life which is in jeopardy. The task is exclusively a matter between the patient, the doctor, and their God.

and decision and make him subordinate and subservient to the bureaucrat. Bureaucratic direction would destroy the intangible, indefinable essence that is the secret of the American doctor's effectiveness.

ADEQUATE VENTED
AUTOMATIC GAS HEATING
Means HEALTH · COMFORT · ECONOMY

We may not have severe winters, but we do have quick temperature changes and plenty of dampness. Perhaps you don't realize what damage dampness can do to the interior of your home unless you enjoy the benefits of ADEQUATE, VENTED, AUTOMATIC heating equipment.

"HOUSE SWEATING" Causes Property Damage
 "House sweating" is the direct result of nonvented and inadequate heating equipment. Deterioration of your walls, floors, furniture, and furnishings, leading to costly repairs, is all due to this destructive dampness.

How To Do Away With "HOUSE SWEATING"
 First, you must have VENTED heating equipment because absence of a vent on a heater allows the moisture, which is a product of all combustion, to remain inside the home. VENTED heating equipment eliminates this dampness by carrying it out of the home through flues, reducing "house sweating."

Second, to do away completely with "house sweating," the heating unit must be ADEQUATE. Inadequate heating leaves corners, walls, and furnishings cold. When warm air comes in contact with a cold surface, condensation, or "house sweating," takes place. ADEQUATE heating equipment, by warming the entire room or house evenly, removes all cold spots, and therefore prevents "house sweating."

Third, AUTOMATIC gas heating equipment is important for convenience, comfort, and health. With its simple, inexpensive thermostatic control, there's no more need to worry about quick changes in temperature, which cause winter colds and otherwise endanger the health of your family.

Buy Wherever You Please

The ADEQUATE, VENTED, AUTOMATIC method of gas heating is not expensive. It is within the reach of every homeowner. There is a place in your home for this type of heating which gives you the opportunity of making full use of the world's finest fuel. It may be placed in the attic, closet, in the floor, or in an adjoining garage. Buy your gas heating equipment from any dealer you choose. BUT insist, for your own protection, that it be ADEQUATE . . . VENTED . . . and AUTOMATIC.

Hap Johnson Pines For Dear Old U. S.; Writes From India

The following letter has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Porter Johnson from their son, Hap, now near Calcutta, India. He says that "sweating" out lines in a camp of 13,000 men gets tiresome. He will be happy to trade his Staff Sergeant rating for just plain "Hap".

Dear Mother and Dad:
 This finds me in India. I am about 30 miles from Calcutta at Kancharapara.

We left Kunming on the 16th at 2:00 P. M. and landed at Calcutta at 6:45. We had a nice ride over the hump. We flew over in a C-54. A four engine ship. It is really a nice ship and there were about 50 of us on it.

It was pretty cool when we left China but when we got here it was hot. We have been here four days now and it has rained every day.

We were processed the night we got here and had our clothing checked. The next day we got a flu shot and yesterday got some more clothing and got our bags tagged. So now I am ready to get on a boat.

The day after we got here, we went down to the PX to get some beer. We got 16 cans. I traded my beer for cigars. I stood in line for over 3 hours. While we were down there, Ralph and the other boys came up. We surely were glad to see them. We were all together until last night. Ralph and the other boys were supposed to get on the boat last night and I guess they did.

Our chow here isn't so good, but we can put up with it for a little while.

We have three shows on the base and there are about 13,000 men here waiting to go home, so everywhere you go, you have to "sweat" out a line. There are chow lines, beer lines, PX lines, coke lines, Red Cross lines and even lines going into the latrine. What a mess!

When I get to the states, I will be sent to Ft. Sam Houston where I will get my discharge. Boy, that will be the day! Not a Sergeant anymore, just plain Hap.

I went over and got a haircut this morning. It cost 8 annas (about 15 cents). You know I have about forgotten my Hindu

Overheated Room Is Health Menace, Dr. Cox Warns

With the approach of cold weather, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, has issued some timely advice concerning room temperature and its relation to health.

"It is very important that inside temperature be maintained at around 68 to 70 degrees," Dr. Cox said. "Thousands of homes are continually overheated in the winter, and a degree of heat is often demanded that would not be tolerated in the summertime."

In a room that is overheated, the body pores are open, and the moment that the outside temperature is encountered, much harm may result. Colds, influenza, bronchial troubles and even pneumonia may take advantage of this bodily abuse, and take a serious toll in sickness and even death.

"An inside temperature of from 68 to 70 degrees is not only more healthful, but actually more comfortable," Dr. Cox said. "When, added to these factors, the resulting economy is considered, it might be well to check up and see what your thermometer reads. A room temperature within the range suggested, plus the careful maintenance of proper humidity, will help to prevent needless sickness and protect the good health of your family."

language. I talk to them in Chinese half the time.

I hope I get to go into Calcutta in a few days. I just want to see the town one time. I am more than ready to go home, so I don't intend to miss my boat.

Folks, this may be my last letter until I get to the states. Don't worry about me and I will write you as soon as I get to the states. Until then, I must sign off. I love you both.

"IS THAT IN THE RULE BOOK?"

Whether it's football or business, Americans expect fair play all down the line.

In football, the referee is there to see that the game is played according to the rules. But he's not supposed to run with the ball. In business, the referee is the government, which establishes regulations and fair practices.

But when government goes into business and competes with its own citizens, the American tradition of fair play is set aside. The referee then becomes a player, and he enjoys advantages that are denied to all the other players in the game.

Government-owned electric power systems, for example, pay no taxes. When they need capital, they get your tax money at little or no interest from the U. S. Treasury. To cover operating losses—an accepted political condition—you, as a taxpayer, will take care of that.

Business-managed power systems—unlike tax subsidized political methods—do not have these special privileges. They are not tax dodgers, they pay their full share of taxes, pay fair interest on public loans. Fortunately for you and your tax bill, over 80 per cent of all the electric power in this country is produced by tax-paying, self-supporting electric companies, owned and operated by several million folks like you.
