Weather Pattern Shows No Crack In Memphis Area

The hot, dry pattern which weather of this area has been molded this month suffered not even a crack this past week but it may be that at least partial relief is in sight.

Because of fine subsoil moisture, crops have in most cases continued to look good, although some of the older feed is beginning to turn white and is not coming completely out of the wilt at night, indicating that it has reached the point where surface moisture is needed.

This represents quite an improvement over last year, when only 1,415 citizens went to the trouble of securing their voting rights. This decrease in eligible voters usually can be expected on "off" election years such as 1952.

In 1952, which included a presidential campaign, the number of paying voters in Hall County seemed to 2,740.

Slightly more than 3,000 votes were cast in 1948, also a presidential election year, while the total dipped below the 3,000 mark in 1950.

When absentee voting closed this week, a total of 101 ballots had been received in the office of Mrs. Ruby Collins, county clerk, strongly indicating that the turnout of voters Saturday is likely to be large.

Connie Turtle is at home once more, after a long and tedious world-seeing journey, and exchanging questioning glances with the dog. Both sit for hours at a time looking at each other, and trying to converse in dog-turtle language—the dog asking, "Where and Why?" and Connie trying to tell about all the wonders of the trip.

Marsha Ann, two-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bob Browning, living at 902 Robertson, is credited with spying Connie in their yard Saturday. The reward promised by Ray Childress for finding Connie was, "Terrapin finder is worth weight in ice-cold watermelon." Marsha Ann weighs 10 pounds, but Ray tripled the weight, giving her a 30-pound melon.

Ray's daughter Connie, who branded the turtle with nail polish, is with her mother in Austin visiting kin-folks, and Ray is guarding the turtle to be sure it is here when Connie returns home.

Recent events are driving home — hard — the vital need for a United America.

The latest development is the rapid swing through Asia of Chinese communist leader Chou En Lai. In the course of that trip, he visited practically every important Asiatic official.

Our officials can only speculate as to the results of his discussions. But certainly, they are not a good omen for the free world!

It is obvious that the communists are seeking to bring all of Asia under their rule. The importance of that objective cannot be overestimated.

Exclusive of Siberia, nearly 1,300,000,000 people live in the continent of Asia. It is a treasure-house of natural resources. It is fertile and productive — capable of enormous production in food and fiber.

Mobilized under communism, Asia's people, resources and productivity would be formidable.

Against a threat of that magnitude, Americans cannot afford the luxury of partisan obstruction and endless dissension. A divided America will be a weakened America and in the modern world only the strong will survive.

There are two paths to unity. One is unity through fear; the other is unity through faith and confidence.

The communists have taken the road of fear. They have achieved unity through suppressing dissension. They have gained solidarity by brutally crushing any opposition.

Nowhere — at any time — have the communists ever won a free election, not even in Russia. In every instance, they have come to power when the people were confused and divided and unable to resist.

America must take the other path — the road of faith and confidence. We have usually found our unity by talking out our differences — by arriving at common understandings.

That kind of unity is still the most potent force in the world.

We may soon be faced with the necessity of reexamining our entire foreign policy. None of the alternatives are pleasant. But we will find our salvation if we face the problems as Americans and not as partisans.

Reexamination will serve no purpose if the sole objective is to prove that some policies of the past were right — or some policies were wrong. No truly American interest is guarded by that attitude.

We have recently had a demonstration of the power wielded by a United America.

There was some discussion of admitting Red China to the United Nations.

Americans — with one voice and regardless of party — roared their indignation. They made it clear — crystal clear — that they would not tolerate the admission into the United Nations of a country whose leaders had been branded "aggressor" by the United Nations itself.

Those who were leading the movement to bring Red China into the United Nations have now backed away from the idea. Both the free world and the United Nations itself are stronger as a result!

The American people — through unity — achieved a goal worth striving for. That unity can be — and should be — extended to all the basic problems of saving our cherished freedoms.

There are some who substitute slander and vituperation for honest discussion of issues. There are some who are always intolerant in their statements and in their judgements. There are some who abandon the paths of reason to go on wild emotional excursions. There has never been a time when we should pay less attention to such people and more time to logical thinking.

There will always be issues that divide us. But these issues do NOT include the safety and the security of our country. Through mutual trust and confidence, Americans will unite and provide the leadership that will turn back the forces DROUGHT RELIEF: I have been working with State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White and other State officials to place before the Department of Agriculture the facts about drought conditions in a group of Central Texas counties.

As I pointed out in an address in the Senate, range conditions in these counties are extremely serious. There is practically no grass left. Cattlemen already have had to begin supplemental feeding of livestock. The harvest of oats and other small grains was very small. The corn crop is virtually a total loss. Water supplies are dangerously low at several points.

Cattlemen in these counties urgently need protein supplements and roughage or hay to sustain their breeding herds. If these cattle breeds are forced to sell their foundation stock, it will represent economic waste of the most flagrant kind.

The cutoff day for the national drought relief protein feed program was July 15. We are continuing our efforts to get special assistance for the drought-stricken counties.

REA IN TEXAS: Rural Electrification Administration loans to electric and telephone borrowers during the 1954 fiscal year, which ended June 30, totalled $241,800,000.

Texas led all other states in both the number of loans and total amount of loans. Thirty-one loans totaling $13,818,000 were made to Texas electric co-ops during the year. Nine telephone loans totaling $3,646,000 also were made.

I have always supported the REA program. Its continued progress is a source of great gratification to me.

Water's Importance Stressed By Ramsey

AUSTIN—Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey urges farmers and ranchers, who will benefit first, to take the lead in the development of a state-wide water conservation program.

Ramsey says a water program to first assist farmers and ranchers would bolster state economy. "When the farmer prospers," the lieutenant governor said, "I notice that the merchant, the manufacturer and the public generally do pretty well also."

The Water Resources Committee, formed at the last session of the Legislature, is holding hearings to gather information for the development of a long-range state water conservation program.

"Water, when and where we need it, has become the most important single factor in keeping our agriculture strong and more productive," Ramsey said. "When you save soil, you conserve water also. Farmers and ranchers in their respective communities should take the lead in and expedite the development of water conservation measures because they will benefit first."

Housewives in 25 states, to the tune of 90 per cent, rated Texas produced turkeys as excellent or good.

The period from July 25-31 has been designated as National Safety Week and is a mighty time for all farm families to the farm and home a once-over for accident hazards. Finding isn't enough—remove them.

THE LAW
in Texas

Homeowners May Be Liable For Accidents On Premises

A homeowner be held responsible for accidents that happen to other people while they are on his property? Lawyers say it is difficult to state a hard and fast rule about liability for such accidents because the facts differ from case to case. However, some conclusions can be reached by noting how the courts have decided in specific cases that have been brought before them.

In a postman delivering mail slipped on a child's roller skate one morning. He sued the homeowner for damages. The court held that the delivery of mail is for the benefit of the homeowner and that the homeowner must take more care to remove dangerous conditions on his property which would make delivery of the mail dangerous.

Then there was the case of the homeowner who slipped and fell on the basement steps and the court held the owner responsible because the steps were defective.

On the other hand, a guest sued a host because she slipped and fell when she stepped on some straw strewn about the owner's room. The host's children had been playing with beanbag chairs on the day she chose to visit. The court held in this case the host was not liable for the injury.

In similar cases where social calls in a disaster involved a guest slipping on a small scatter rug and another overnight guest slipped and fell in a shower. In these cases were decided in favor of the homeowners—not the visitors.

From these cases it may be seen that the law is usually more strict against accidents befalling tradesmen and others who enter your premises in the line of duty so to speak—postmen, laundrymen, meter readers, delivery boys and the like—than it is in the cases of those who enter your home for purely social reasons.

This does not mean that a homeowner is absolved of all responsibility for injury to his guests. If there is a dangerous condition on his premises, he has a duty to correct it. For example, a rotted tree limb that fell to the sidewalk, injuring a passerby. The general rule is that the owner was responsible because he knew of the defective condition and should have remedied it.

Fortunately, not everyone who slips on the front steps gets up and rushes off to sue his host. However, a substantial body of law has grown out of this type of negligence case. This is not surprising when you realize that more accidents occur in and around the home each year than on traffic accidents on the highways.

This column, based on state and federal law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the law may change the application of the law.

The egg is a perishable product. It cannot stand rough treatment and must be kept in high quality and fresh containers. It is best when laid if it is kept in proper care. Frequent turning and rapid cooling are the best practices which will pay off during hot weather.

Lack Of Highway Patrolmen Cited As Chief Handicap In Controlling Traffic

AUSTIN—The Highway Safety Council said recently that "understanding of the Texas Highway Patrol is the most serious handicap facing enforcement of safety measures on the highways of the state."

In a report to members, executive director G. C. Morris said that by all established standards "Texas is one-half to two-thirds deficient in providing adequate patrolmen to protect the public safety on the highways beyond city limits."

"Texas has made remarkable progress in reducing the highway death toll," the Council's director noted. "In 1953, our death rate was 6.4 for each 100 million vehicle miles traveled, and this was the lowest in our history."

"The disturbing aspect of this otherwise fine achievement is the fact that we do not have sufficient patrolmen to assure a continued decline in the accident and death rate," Morris said. "Unless we do what needs to be done, the continued increase in travel over Texas highways will result in an upward trend in the death rate. Our highways will become more dangerous, instead of more safe."

Morris said that the minimum standards set by national groups such as the White House Safety Conference, National Safety Council, and International Association of Chiefs of Police show that Texas should have between 1,173 and 1,603 highway patrolmen. Texas actually has only 470.

Morris noted that "virtually every state with a safety record better than Texas has far more highway patrolmen, although no state has a greater area to be patrolled."

California has 1,474 highway patrolmen, Pennsylvania has 1,785, and Michigan has 677, the Council report pointed out. Texas, sixth ranking in population, is fourth-ranking in automobile registrations.

"In Texas," Morris added, "we have only one patrol unit to cover more than 200 miles of highway, while in the State of New Jersey the standard is one unit for each 10 miles."

"No state," Morris continued, "has ever made a sustained reduction in tragic deaths without good traffic enforcement."

Morris told members of the Highway Safety Council that "the solution to this problem is legislative—the Texas Legislature must provide the funds with which to expand our highway patrol."

"At a minimum," he added, "we should add 100 and 200 new highway patrolmen next year, and continue to increase the force annually. Each year traffic accidents cost nearly $150,000,000 in economic loss which is more than 20 times what we spend annually on the entire operation of the Department of Public Safety."

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Koeninger and daughter, Sue, accompanied by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Koeninger, of Hale Center went to Decatur Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Koeninger's sister, Mrs. Ruby Potter, who died suddenly of a heart attack.

Residents Advised To Prepare Homes Before Starting On Vacation Trips

AUSTIN—Home safe home is not just a take-off on a well known cliché but a good common sense motto for vacations.

A few pre-vacation precautions suggested by Norris W. Parker, manager of the Texas Insurance Advisory Association, may save home-owners both money and worry.

Vacations require a great deal of planning but your home deserves preparation for your absence as well—much more than putting the cat out. Remember a vacant house is a constant temptation to fire and theft!

A thorough job of housecleaning is number one on the list of safety preparations. A clean house, garage and yard can greatly reduce the possibility of fire. Such damages as using water heater closets as storage places should be checked and corrected.

Outside doors as well as cabinet and closet doors on the inside should be locked. Then if a fire should start, it may be confined to one room until it is discovered and extinguished.

Leave window shades up and blinds open so that a fire may be quickly observed by neighbors or passersby, Parker explains.

All appliances such as radios, television sets, toasters, lamps, etc., should be unplugged and refrigerators and home freezers turned down to vacation level.

Burglaries are almost as common as fires. According to national statistics, a burglary occurs somewhere, about once a minute, so make your home burglar-proof as well as fire-safe.

Accumulated milk bottles and newspapers are sure-fire tip-offs that the house is vacant. Notify your milkman and newsboy by letter or telephone and not by note. Tell your neighbors when you leave so that they can keep an eye on your place and report immediately any trouble. The appearance of any strangers or suspicious person should be reported to the police.

Don't tell strangers that you are leaving town. Ask your neighbors not to advertise your absence, either. Never allow strangers without proper credentials to enter your home. Many times thieves pose as salesmen, or repairmen in order to "case" your house for future operations.

Follow these simple rules, Parker advises, and your home will be less likely to fall prey to one of these vacation-day-hazards.

Charlie Williams Undergoes Operation

Charlie Williams, who underwent major surgery in General Hospital in Wichita Falls last week is reported to be recovering nicely.

His daughter, Mrs. G. D. Baakerville of Midland and sister, Mrs. C. W. Kinslow, returned to Memphis Tuesday after being at his bedside for several days.

Verdict Favors Railway Company

A jury returned a verdict in favor of the Fort Worth & Denver Railway Company last Friday in U. S. District Court at Amarillo, in a suit brought by Jim M. Oakley of Memphis, according to John McMickin, station agent here.

Oakley was seeking $25,000 in damages for injuries he alleged he suffered Dec. 31 of last year while working as a section laborer for the Fort Worth & Denver.

The Memphis man was represented by J. O. Fitzjarrald, of the Amarillo law firm of Merchant & Fitzjarrald.

Representing the railway company were Attorney Seth Harwise of Fort Worth, and the firm of Morgan, Culton, Britain & White of Amarillo.

Mrs. Ida Hutcherson and daughter Velma Jo left Monday for Odessa to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Patton, Jr., and new son, Thomas Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Womack went to Amarillo Sunday to help his mother, Mrs. Eva Womack, celebrate her ninetieth birthday. Mr. Womack says his mother's health is good despite her advanced years. Mrs. Womack's two sons and three daughters were present to make her birthday a completely happy one.

COLEMAN'S SOUTH-SIDE GROCERY and MARKET

ROY L. COLEMAN, Owner
A Good Place To Trade
WE DELIVER PHONES 125-302

By VEEN SANFORD Texas Press Association AUSTIN, Tex.—Down to its bitter end moved the campaign for Governor of Texas.

Relatively short, the drive was one of the most intensive this state, notable for its violent politics, had ever seen.

Two men dominated the picture: Governor Allan Shivers, candidate for re-election; and his opponent, Ralph W. Yarborough of Austin.

Shivers stood foursquare on his record of achievement in office and pledged to continue, if re-elected, "the progressive program" he had worked for during his tenure.

Cited by the Governor were concrete figures showing that during his administration Texas has come far:

"From worst to among the best is the state prison system's record. "Many miles of farm-to-market roads have been built and maintained. Generally, the state highway system has been improved.

"Pay of teachers and public employees has been increased. "Considerable progress has been made in the state hospitals and special schools.

"Title to our tidelands has been regained, and that victory meant $32 million already realized for the State's school children, with untold billions yet to come."

Yarborough Described As he recounted the record of his administrations, Shivers flung certain charges at his opponent.

Yarborough, he said, is the captive of people who don't want to get tough with the Communists, and who want to get the Texas anti-Communist law repealed.

Shivers further charged: That Yarborough has made no positive statement on the segregation issue.

That Yarborough has promised George Parr to call off the cleanup in Duval County.

That CIO Union bosses had placed a $2 per head levy on members for a defeat-Shivers slush fund.

That Yarborough wanted schools run from Washington, not locally.

Yarborough Talks Shivers' opponent, twice a candidate for the state's highest office, was making his strongest bid for election.

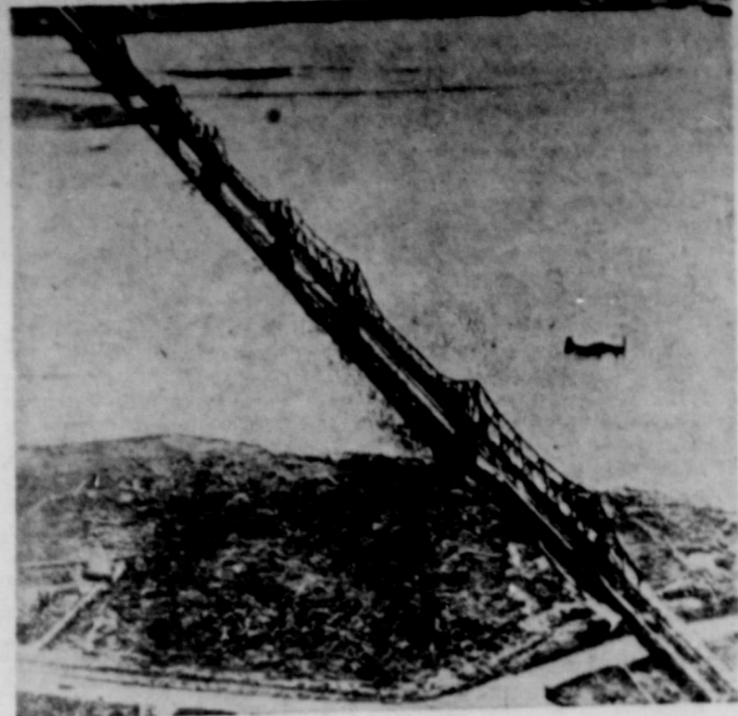

Whether it was true that he had powerful support from the CIO could not be proven.

But he had money to buy expensive time on the state's radio and television stations, and to produce a campaign newspaper for statewide distribution.

Yarborough also was the first gubernatorial candidate to completely ignore the rural press of the state, in his bid for office. To reach the voters in the non-metropolitan areas, he has depended largely on TV and radio.

Some folks haven't liked the approach because it has crowded off their TV screens some of their favorite programs. Others have enjoyed politics' first big year on TV in Texas. Results of the approach will show definitely on July 24 when Texans go to the polls to record their choices for that and other offices.

Yarborough Campaign Yarborough based his campaign principally on charges which VITAL LINK . . . Linking embattled Hanoi with Indo-Chinese mainland, this bridge is essential to defense of whole area. French fighters patrol the span.

Shivers described as "mudslinging." Yarborough had these things to say:

That Shivers had made a secret deal with George Parr of Duval County.

That Shivers had caused the resignation of former Chancellor James P. Hart of the University of Texas.

That Shivers had made contradictory remarks about segregation.

That Shivers' Republican friends are trying to cheat Texas out of part of the assistance.

On the positive side, Yarborough promised higher teacher pay and old age assistance.

Shepherd View

The information that Texas' tidelands fight is not yet over is no new development, according to Attorney General John Ben Shepherd in a reply to gubernatorial candidate Ralph W. Yarborough.

Shepherd issued his statement shortly after a remark by Yarborough that the Attorney General had let it "leak out" that the federal government still refused to recognize state tidelands boundaries as more than three miles off shore.

The state claims over 10 miles in the Gulf of Mexico and has issued leases for much of that area.

Shepherd said the tidelands dispute involving the boundary location was made public as early as last October in a newspaper article.

Although declining to take issue in the political battle for governor, Shepherd said that "the true facts concerning the matter should be made clear."

Water Solution Passage of flood control legislation now before Congress offers a major solution to periodic droughts in Texas, District Engineer Colonel H. R. Hallock of Fort Worth Corps of Engineers stated in Austin.

Legislation includes the proposed Canyon Dam for the Guadalupe River near New Braunfels and six major reservoirs to be created in the Brazos River Basin.

Hallock said that if the dams are built, many millions of acre-feet of water can be stored against drought periods.

CARD OF THANKS We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to those who sent food and helped in any way during the time of our sorrow. Also our thanks to Dr. O. R. Goodall and his staff for their every kindness and care for our loved one. May God bless you everyone.

SPORTS AFIELD By Ted Kesting

Almost invariably, far more fish can be caught during certain types of rain than at any other time. The only reason many anglers don't know this is that they've never tried fishing in the rain. A steady, all-day rain without thunder or wind often produces spectacular fishing. Even a brief rain, without thunder and especially if it's without wind, causes far more productive fishing than you'll get before or after.

Thunder sometimes seems to put fish to the bottom and stop them from feeding—yet some of the most fast and furious fishing for pike that I've ever encountered has been during severe thunder accompanied by wind.

Here, I should warn fishermen who don't already know about it never to stay out on open water or wade a large pool far from high trees, during a thunder storm—lightning strikes the highest object around and you may be it.

Which brings us to the subject of rainwear for fishermen. The makers of rainwear have done such nice things for us with lightweight, space-saving plastics. You should always keep rainwear in your tackle box or creel—think of it as belonging there as much as your lures. There are raincoats of all lengths and there are coats and trousers of the same light material. You can get these with attached hood or with a separate hat.

CARD OF THANKS We wish to express our appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown each of us in our recent sorrow. We sincerely thank you for the floral offerings and the nice food and the ones who were so faithful in staying in the home. May we say thanks to you. God bless you all.

A part of the safety program on every farm should be adequate liability insurance to protect the farmer against the legal risk resulting from injury or death to another person.

Fires are unknown in the forests of the Amazon region because the wood is hard, living, wet and green and therefore does not burn easily.

The channel catfish is a fine fighter. It sometimes hits spinners, spoons and plugs, but is more likely to take live bait such as minnows, crawfish, insects, worms.

VOTERS... LET'S GET OUR SIGNALS RIGHT

STOP the candidate who would let the radical out-of-state CIO-PAC, ADA and NAACP leaders run Texas.

GO with Allan Shivers who believes Texas should be run by Texans for Texans.

STOP the candidate who would hand Duval County back to George Parr.

GO with Allan Shivers who will continue to fight Parrism and all other types of bossism, including Communism.

STOP the candidate who will end segregation in our Texas public schools, and who was willing to give the Texas tidelands away.

GO with Allan Shivers who won the tidelands fight and who will keep segregation in our public schools.

STOP the candidate who, as an ex-judge, puts judges' pensions ahead of old age pensions.

GO with Allan Shivers who favors a full parity for farmers and adequate pensions for all eligible aged citizens.

STOP the twice-beaten, mud-slinging candidate who has no program and refuses to come out in the open and answer questions about the issues.

GO with Allan Shivers who has a constructive program for all Texans and who takes a solid stand on all issues.

Game And Fish Commission Plans For Wildlife Harvest

The Texas Game and Fish Commission has shaped the wildlife harvest, recommending identical waterfowl and quail dates as 1953. It has also closed and decided upon the season on white-tailed quail and antelope for this season in both the Panhandle and the Pecos since the head of the commission found to be low.

The commission asked the Federal Game and Wildlife Service, and other federal agencies, for suggestions for migratory waterfowl, to zone Texas for waterfowl providing the state had to sacrifice any quail or antelope in its hunting season. When the Commission opened on Friday, August 5, the quail season, similar to last year, was considered likely to be favorable in conditions up north.

The commission again voted to continue the quail system for mourning doves, requesting a north zone opening September 1 and a south zone opening October 1. Closing of the whitewing season in the valley was asked of the federal authorities because of the popularity of the game at a record low.

The commission approved a quail restoration program

Organic Phosphates Are Deadly Poisons But Can Be Bought Almost Anywhere

AUSTIN—Walk into practically any home gardening supply store in the state and ask for an organic phosphate insecticide. Chances are the clerk will sell you a bottle or package without fuss or bother.

What's wrong with that? Just that organic phosphate happen to be among the most deadly of chemical compounds, for humans as well as insects.

Last year a Texas rancher accidentally killed 48 cows by spraying them with the potent insecticide. He wanted to kill their insect parasites, and didn't realize the chemical was highly toxic for all warm-blooded animals.

A six-year-old Oregon boy found a bottle of TEPP, one of the organic phosphate insecticides, in a field near his home. Workmen presumably had left it after spraying an orchard. The curious lad spilled a cupful on his pants and was dead in less than 24 hours.

Conscious of the same thing happening in Texas, State Health Officer Henry A. Holle would like to make it hard for part-time home gardeners to buy the compounds.

"Used as chemists intended, organic phosphates are a great help in fighting agricultural pests," says the health official. "Used indiscriminately without protective clothing, they're lethal."

Organic phosphates were developed in Germany after the last year. They are the chemists' answer to demands from agricultural men for a real bug killer to combat hordes of insects which do billions of dollars of damage to crops annually.

In the hands of professionals, trained in precautions to be taken in using them, chances of accidents are slight. But in recent years, bot-les and packages have appeared on retail shelves for home gardening use. Since then, incidents of human poisoning have increased.

The three most important types are tetraethylpyrophosphate 'TEPP', hexaethyltetraphosphate 'HETP', and parathion. All are sold under various trade names.

The manufacturers spell out in bold black or red letters the fact that the contents are highly hazardous for humans, and recommend wearing respirators, rubber gloves, coveralls, and a rubber cap or hat when using the sprays. But warning labels don't always help.

Dr. Holle thinks legislation regulating sale of organic phosphates for home use would help. But without legislation, he says, it's up to users to read warning labels and believe what they read.

Mrs. Josie Norton and Richard Riley of Borger and Mrs. Zona Stidham and daughter of Fresno, Calif., visited the R. A. Norton's.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott for Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Aspin of Fort Worth, who were on their way to Colorado for a vacation. Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Aspin are cousins.

Tests conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station show that buffel grass will give the best sustained yields under rotation-type grazing. The tests were conducted at College Station, Kirbyville, Weslaco and Winter Haven.

GI's learn bridge in course offered in USO club.

Teacher at USO helps GI's with conversational German.

Greenville, N. C.—Educational activities are being stressed at many USO clubs today and are winning enthusiastic GI approval. In Greenville, recognizing this demand, the USO club is concentrating on two courses that are proving popular with GI's—a course in conversational German and one in beginner's bridge.

Many of the Air Force personnel stationed nearby expect to be transferred overseas to Germany and believe they will be able to adjust themselves much more readily in an unfamiliar land if they know its language.

The bridge class was started when several airmen who had started learning bridge before entering service wanted to continue the game.

USO activities are made possible by United Defense Fund through Community Chest or United Fund drives.

Court Reverses NLRB Decision Favoring Union

ABILENE.—The United States Court of Appeals in New Orleans has sustained West Texas Utilities Company and its employees in their contention that the National Labor Relations Board had unfairly conducted a union election and had illegally prevented the company from preventing evidence on behalf of its employees.

The NLRB's petition for enforcement of its order directing WTU to bargain with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers was denied by the court which held the election to be illegal for the following reasons: 45 employee ballots which could have affected the outcome of the election were arbitrarily cast out by the Labor Board for reasons of its own, because Labor Board representatives questioned employees prior to voting, allowed union representatives to question voters publicly at polling places and for various other acts of misconduct and illegal procedure on the part of Labor Board representatives conducting the election.

The court ruled that the NLRB had prevented the company from presenting facts of evidence in behalf of its employees according to law. The election in question was conducted in December, 1951, by the Fort Worth regional Labor Board at the request of the union (IUEW) for the purpose of determining union representation of the 213 employees in WTU's production department.

The effect of the court order is to render null and void the board's certification of the union as a bargaining agent for plant employees.

At the end of this year, a company official said, 76 per cent of the employees in the company's production department, petitioned for decertification of the union as their bargaining agent. The petition, rejected by the Labor Board's regional director in Fort Worth, was appealed to the National Board in Washington. There the employee's appeal was again rejected without investigation by the Board stating the petition was untimely in view of this case pending before the New Orleans court.

In censoring the Labor Board for the arbitrary manner in which its agents and representatives conducted the election and subsequent investigation, the court said, "The Board and all of its hearing agents should understand they are not representatives or partisans of either side in holding an election

Professor Gives Advice On Coolers

AUSTIN.—A washed-air cooler works best when enough windows and doors are open to exhaust its breeze properly and when it is in the shade, Associate Professor John R. Watt of the University of Texas asserts.

Watt is testing evaporative coolers this summer to determine their best possible performances.

"When washed air flows through an area, it absorbs heat from the ceiling, walls, windows, furnishings and people," Watt explains. "Unless that heat is carried out of the area, it just makes things seem hotter and clammy because of increased humidity."

Place an evaporative unit where prevailing breezes strike it if possible but keep it out of direct sunlight, Watt advises.

or hearings in which representation of employees is sought."

The court also pointed out that the Labor Board is endowed with all three great powers of government, legislative (making rules for procedure), judicial (deciding the vital and important issues arising between employer and employee as well as between either of these and the union), and executive (initiating proceedings for enforcement of its decrees.)

We Will Be Continuing Good Government for Texas by Supporting ALLAN SHIVERS

With Deeds, Not Promises, Allan Shivers' Leadership Has Achieved Great Things.

Here's His Program:

TIDELANDS—Two years ago the people of Texas told Allan Shivers to get the tidelands back for our school children. He did. In a year's time the victory was worth 32 million to the State's permanent School Fund.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS—Allan Shivers has supported, sponsored or signed every major piece of public school legislation during his tenure as State Senator, Lieutenant Governor, and Governor. The Texas system is more outstanding today than ever before.

OLD AGE ASSISTANCE—Author of the first old-age pension law in Texas, Allan Shivers promised to seek a constitutional amendment to increase pensions. That amendment will be voted on in November. Allan Shivers keeps his promises.

ROADS—Allan Shivers wants highway and farm-to-market construction and maintenance to keep pace with a growing Texas. More miles of these roads have been built during his administration than in any comparable period. In Hall County, $1,172,088.89 has been spent on roads during Allan Shivers' administration.

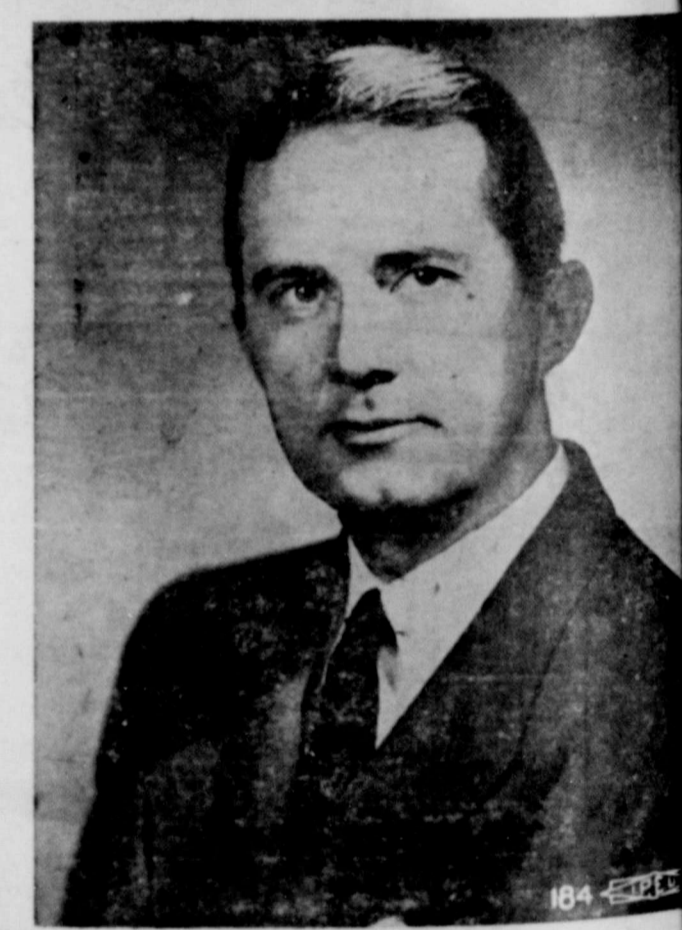

AGRICULTURE—Throughout his administration, Allan Shivers has supported and originated constructive action aimed at making farming more profitable in Texas. A farmer himself, he advocates and follows sound soil conservation practices.

INSURANCE REGULATION—As far back as 1951, Allan Shivers recommended strengthening of insurance laws to protect the public. The weeding out of unsound companies has begun and will be continued.

ECONOMY—Texas ranks among the lowest in the nation in per capita state taxes, yet Allan Shivers balanced the state budget while improving essential services. He is opposed to a general sales tax and state income tax.

CLOSE TO PEOPLE—Allan Shivers has visited in nearly every section of the state and he maintains an "open door" policy in his office because he likes people, enjoys talking with them. More important, he listens to them.

SOUND ADMINISTRATION—Allan Shivers has proved himself to be a Governor of and for ALL the people of Texas. Already recognized as one of Texas' great governors, his return to office guarantees even better state government during the next two years.

GOV. ALLAN SHIVERS

WATER CONSERVATION—Allan Shivers long has been a leader in the conservation of our water resources. A Citizens Committee on Water Conservation, appointed to him, made recommendations to the 53rd Legislature which resulted in the enactment of six basic water laws. He worked with representatives of this area in getting a bill passed which points toward the ultimate construction of a dam on the Salt Fork.

SEGREGATION—Allan Shivers believes local school districts should be given maximum authority to deal with the problem, because he believes in local control of schools. He has said, "There is nothing more local than a school."

DUVAL COUNTY—Governor Shivers was the first Governor who has taken action to rid Duval County of boss-rustle and intimidation, "lost" records and ballots, and misappropriation of public funds.

LYNDON JOHNSON

At The Polls Next Saturday

The record that Senator Lyndon B. Johnson has established while serving during the past six years in Washington is one that justifies his being returned to the Senate. Check these facts:

- Lyndon Johnson was the youngest man ever to be chosen for the important post of Democratic leader in the Senate.
- He created harmony among Democrats and brought praise from many of the Capitol's most prominent veterans!
- He has placed himself and his party above opportunism and partisanship.
- He has shown skill and wisdom in leading his party, and has placed his country's interest above all others.
- He has served Texas loyally and diligently.

With this record in mind, Democrats of Texas should unite in giving Senator Johnson an overwhelming vote of confidence in the July 24 Democratic primary election. Then Texans can be sure of having the representation in Congress that they deserve.

Prior to serving Texas in the Senate, Lyndon Johnson has served as a member of the House of Representatives for six terms. His experience in Washington means . . .

Vacation Driving Is Big Business, Safety Head Says

"Vacation Driving is big business," Col. E. B. Tilley of Houston, President of the Texas Safety Association, said recently.

Col. Tilley spoke in connection with the July vacation driving traffic safety program his organization is sponsoring in Texas this month in cooperation with the National Safety Council.

"The American habit of vacation travel has grown to such an extent that tourists now spend about 10 billion dollars annually on auto trips," he said.

"Highway travel has become so heavy during the summer months that a definite traffic safety problem has been created."

"According to the American Automobile Association," Col. Tilley explained "a total of 66 million persons, traveling in 22 million cars, take automobile vacations during the year. The average car travels 1,200 miles in 11 days of travel."

"Since about 70 per cent of vacation travel is done during the six months between April and September," he said, "a big extra load is placed on the nation's highways during the summer months."

And for years, he pointed out, this increased summer travel has been accompanied by increased traffic accident fatalities.

"Every year, with the coming of warmer weather, pleasure driving becomes more extensive," Col. Tilley said. "When this happens, it becomes more important than ever for the motorist who wants to avoid accidents to practice alertness and caution behind the wheel. Good planning before a trip also is important."

"And I can't emphasize too strongly the value of courtesy in preventing accidents on our streets and highways. The safe driver makes courtesy his code of the road, and also is ready always to recognize and acknowledge the courteous acts of others."

He urged all vacationists to heed the July slogan of the Texas Safety Association, the Texas Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council, "Vacationists, Drive Safely."

Local Men Start Military Training

Three Memphis servicemen recently commenced eight weeks of basic training in the Anti-aircraft Artillery Replacement Training Center at Fort Bliss.

They are: Pvt. Herschel A. Combs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Combs, and husband of Mrs. Carnis Durham Combs, all of Memphis; Pvt. Weldon Grant Fowler, husband of Mrs. Barbara Myers Fowler of Memphis, and son of Claude Fowler, Rt. 2, Memphis; and Pvt. Ronald Richards Wilson, husband of Mrs. Bonnie Benton Wilson of Memphis.

The three soldiers will spend the first eight weeks of training on fundamental Infantry subjects such as army drill, rifle, machine gun and bazooka marksmanship, and in becoming familiar with army technical subjects.

Following completion of their first eight weeks of training, the three will either be assigned for further instruction at Fort Bliss in the techniques of anti-aircraft artillery, or be transferred to another training center for schooling in some other army skill.

RE-ELECT

2nd Term

Elbert Reeves

Representative 88th District
HALL, DONLEY, CHILDRESS and MOTLEY COUNTIES

Continue Building a Greater West Texas

Here are eight items which Elbert Reeves will sponsor in his positive and progressive program:

- To introduce legislation creating a school law and recodification committee. This legislation passed the House last session but was killed in the Senate.
- A complete revision of Texas election laws.
- Corrective legislation pertaining to Texas insurance laws.
- Adequate appropriation for maintaining the recently-created commission on alcoholism.
- Maintaining adequate appropriation for the Texas rural road system.
- Fair and impartial treatment for both management and labor.
- Putting into operation a positive and aggressive water program for Texas.
- Since the spotlight of public opinion is the greatest deterrent of wrong-doing, Elbert Reeves proposes an ACT requiring the preparation and publication of an annual financial statement for each school district, junior college district, soil conservation district, road district, municipality, or any agency collecting and spending public funds.

You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift.
 You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong.
 You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer.
 You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred.
 You cannot help the poor by discouraging the rich.
 You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money.
 You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn.
 You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence.
 You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves.

Adequate Liability Insurance Should Be Part Of Farm Safety, Authority Says

MEMPHIS, July 22.—A part of the farm safety program on every farm should be adequate liability insurance to protect the farmer from the legal risk resulting from injury or death to another person.

Such protection, E. C. Sargent, agricultural leader for the Extension Service, is all necessary under the present methods of farm and operation.

The greatly expanded use of machinery on the farm has increased the risk of injury to help and tenants and more use of motor vehicles has increased the chances for highway accidents. Then, too, adds Martin, the farmer also has a responsibility on his farm.

In general, he says, a farmer's liability risks include personal liability to employees and vehicle liability. With farm liability in the spotlight, Martin says that farmers and ranchmen review their liability insurance coverage to determine if protection is adequate.

He further suggests consulting with an insurance agent, a lawyer, banker or farm organization representative for information on legal risks involved in relation to their liability problems. Too, information about employer's liability under the State workmen's compensation law and how it applies to farmers may be obtained from the Texas State Insurance Commission, Casualty Division, Austin, Texas.

Protection, in the form of insurance, could be a "life-saver" in case of a fatal or permanently disabling accident on the farm.

Bob Magness of Memphis and Ralph Thomas of Elk City returned last weekend from Colorado where they had fine luck fishing in the mountain streams.

Be SAFE This Summer—ASWIM and AFLOAT

Don't stand in your boat when starting the motor. Look out ahead when you start—another boat may be passing or landing nearby.

Gasoline fumes are exceedingly flammable. It's not smart to smoke near an old-style open can of fuel. Only a modern safety-can is recommended for carrying gas.

Give swimmers a wide berth. Horseplay on your part may prove tragic and you can be held liable for such accidents.

YOUR outboarding should be fun, not fatal. The American Red Cross offers suggestions, given above, how you can stay out of trouble.

Safety On The Farm

The week of July 25 through July 31 has been set aside as National Farm Safety Week during which special emphasis will be placed on making life on the farm as safe as possible.

The customary opinion of farm life is that it is the quietest and most protected that can be found but records do not tend to bear out this viewpoint.

In a proclamation which he issued recently, Gov. Allan Shivers declared that more accidental deaths occur in agricultural pursuits per 100,000 workers, than in any other major industry in the nation.

The President likewise requested all persons and organizations that are interested in farm life and welfare to join in a campaign to free as many farm homes as possible from tragedies and losses which are caused by unnecessary accidents.

Hall County 4-H Club members and their families and neighbors have waged campaigns in their homes and on their farms for years, under the leadership of County Agent W. B. Hooser.

Although no over-all assessment of results can be made, there is no doubt that the safety drives have prevented a great many injuries and probably some deaths by eliminating some hazards and by installing protective devices on others.

It would be well if townspeople would join their rural neighbors in observing National Safety Week and then follow this up by making safety one of their year-round rules.

Be A Good Citizen—Vote

Saturday is election day throughout Texas, the occasion being the first Democratic primary. As far as we have been able to tell, there has not been too much interest in this year's elections, although this situation might change before voting time rolls around.

Even if interest does increase, there will be far too many citizens who will not care enough about the future of their government, to take a few minutes to go to the polls. If our memory does not trick us, we believe statistics show that not more than 50 per cent of eligible American voters have ever taken the time to cast ballots in any modern election.

It seems to us that if our youth can fight and even die in order to preserve this nation and the principles for which it stands, that the rest of us can do no less than vote, to the best of our ability, for those whom we believe to be most capable and conscientious.

Only a few county offices are being contested this year and the same is more or less true on the state level but citizens should not let that make any difference. Taking time to vote is certainly a small enough price to pay to make sure that we will continue to live under a free and representative government.

Be a good citizen—vote Saturday and every opportunity you have.

To The Voters Of Hall County

One year ago, I was chosen by the present County Commissioners to fill the unexpired term of Judge John Russell. For this honor I am deeply and humbly appreciative.

Now I ask your votes to elect me to a full term to the office of County Judge. I base my candidacy on the basis I have established for efficiency and honesty while serving you.

I am sorry that I cannot see every one of you face to face. I want to discuss with every one all points about the affairs of Hall County. I will certainly appreciate your vote of confidence when you cast your ballot next Saturday in the first Democratic Primary.

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Press Paragraphs — PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW

As we travel along with this troubled world, anyone endeavoring to right the wrong of individuals who occupy high and responsible positions in our government and to ferret them out is finding that new "road blocks" have been set up to blind the public taxpayer on matters being practiced which involves the investment of his tax dollar, and which he should know about.

Texas' Senator Price Daniels in Washington, has discovered that the payroll figures of the office staff of Senate members are a closely guarded secret—unless the Senator himself, chooses to disclose the information. In the House such data is available for the asking.

Daniels said, "As long as it's public money involved the people certainly have the right to know how it is spent."

Daniels agreed with a recent statement made by Rep. George Mahon that the appropriation committee through their power over the purse, is able to get even "secret" information when necessary.

Separate Schools

It didn't suit the bureaucrats of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in their Dallas convention because a respected negro educator appeared before the state board of education this week and spoke in behalf of separate negro schools and colleges.

This negro educator knows that negroes will be happier in the negro schools and colleges, where there will be 100 per cent social activities.

The law may force equality in schools even to compulsory attendance of negroes and whites together, but it cannot compel mixing of races in social life.

Some churches are trying to break down the bars for membership, but their political leaders know they are due for trouble because of social activities.

Our nation has moved rapidly in providing equal facilities in tax supported activities for all races. Ralph Bunche, negro leader, does not believe segregation can be eliminated before 1963, so it seems that some negroes realize that it will take time to work out the supreme court decision on education. —Panhandle Herald

WEATHER NEVER IDEAL

Ideal weather is difficult to find when one travels, but the Panhandle of Texas must be just about tops.

The Herald editor was in Austin Friday and Saturday. The weather in Fort Worth and Dallas en route and returning home was sultry.

Showers Saturday morning in Austin did not improve the weather. In fact, it became sultry.

What a relief it was to reach Lubbock and Amarillo Saturday night and to be met by strong, cool winds.

Give this writer the Panhandle winds, hot or cold, any day in preference to the sultry weather of other parts of Texas.

Fatal Accidents On Farm Greater Than Any Other

COLLEGE STATION—The number of fatal accidents to farmworkers is greater than in other occupations in the nation. Last year 3,800 rural residents of the nation died from accidents and another 320,000 suffered injuries many of which were disabling.

Stunning Fish With Phone Sets Brings Big Fines

AUSTIN—Some of the heaviest fines in the last arrest report were for stunning fish with old-fashioned magnifying phone sets.

Top levy for the month, among 244 cases listed, was against a Houston man. It was for $200 and court costs for using the once standard magneto-equipped phone set to shock fish so that they rise to the surface.

Several such violations were detected in the Houston area. In addition to the $200 fine plus costs, there were three for $100 fines and costs. Smaller levies were made against others.

The report contained 22 cases for taking fish illegally. Most of these involved "telephoning fish."

Of the 244 cases in the arrest report, 118 involved individual fishermen's troubles. There were others affecting commercial violations.

Another chronic problem prompted several seizures. This is hunting out of season, particularly head lighting of deer. A Seadrift man

Information On Storing Sorghum Grain Is Outlined

COLLEGE STATION—Present indications are that the amount of sorghum grain stored on Texas farms will take a sharp turn upward as the harvest season moves across the state. There are many problems connected with on-the-farm storage and producers who secure support loans or store the grain for future use have the responsibility for seeing the grain safely in and out of storage.

covering drying and storage of sorghum grain on the farm. The tests have been conducted primarily to determine the practicability of farm storage in South Texas but much of the information should also prove valuable to producers in other sections of the state.

Associate Professor J. W. Sorenson, Jr., of the department of agricultural engineering at Texas A & M College; G. L. Kline, Agricultural Engineer, USDA at Beeville and L. M. Redlinger, a USDA entomologist of Houston are the authors of Progress Report 1685, "Drying and Storing Sorghum Grain in Farm Storage Bins in South Texas." The report is available upon request from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station.

The research workers pointed out that all trouble encountered in storing grain traces back to ture. High moisture content lead to insect, heat and moldage. They have found that on the farm with either heated or unheated air even in the Gulf Coast area is practically profitable.

The recently released report a handbook full of information practically every problem encountered in this five-year study generally, producers storing on the farm will experience of these same situations.
