Even the bravest of riders do not, as a rule, undertake a contest after dark, but just such a tournament occurred at the Woodman hall Saturday night and the boys say the old goat picked out for the occasion was certainly an outlaw of the most desperate character. However, the boys managed to keep their seats without pulling leather, although some of them got a taste of their own hearts on account of the terrific side-jumping of the long-whiskered steed.

Mr. L. A. Hicks, who announces in this issue for the Assessor's office, is living with his family in the eastern part of the county, where he located 6 years ago as a school teacher. In that arduous, but unremunerative calling, he did some fine work and later assisted our present assessor in making out the assessment rolls. Mr. Hicks is well qualified for the office and if elected will no doubt prove himself worthy of the confidence of the people.

One of the things most needed in Gail is a lumber yard. At present there is not one between Canyon and Big Springs, a gap of 200 miles. It is a difficult matter at this time to get lumber and the yard would not only stimulate the development of Borden, but would draw trade from the counties north and west of us. Here indeed is a golden opportunity—who will grasp it?

Mr. J. B. Bly of Light called on us Monday and in a very way invited the Citizen to remain a regular weekly visitor to his home until he grew weary of it. Mr. Bly's cousin married our uncle, and being so closely related to the Adair family we felt that we had met one of our kinfolks.

Our sheriff, Mr. W. K. Clark recently killed a hog that weighed 340 lbs; and D. C. Stevens laid to rest four that totalled over a half With meat retaling at 10c to 20c a pound these two gentlemen will perhaps smile at the assertion that hog raising doesn't pay in Borden County.

Mr. Jeter and his grand-daughter, Miss Gertrude were here from Sparenberg Saturday.

Thirty-seven bales of cotton from the Lubbock gin were brought through our city last Saturday.

We hear that the pupils of the Creighton school are making fine progress under the tutelage of Miss Josie York.

J. D. Black who lives 9 miles northeast of town, sold 3 bales of cotton Saturday to J. W. Chandler Saturday for 10. 90.

H. N. Graham and son and Mr. Ivy of Garza County past through Gail last Saturday on their way to Big Springs with three loads of seed cotton.

Five bales of seed cotton past through Gail Sunday enroute to Big Springs—that's all; except that Gail needs a gin and must have it this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotton have moved back to their old home 6 miles north of Big Springs. Bor has lost and Howard has gained a real good family.

Mr. W. L. Williams our artistic photographer called to see us Monday and expressed himself as well pleased with Garza County and talked like he might return to Gail in the spring.

H. T. Dodson, our hardware Dealer is fixing to enlarge his business by adding a stock of farming implements. We believe there will be a heavy demand for this line of goods during the next few months.

L. A. Hicks 12 miles east of Gail raised last year 18 bales and 200 lbs of cotton on 30 acres of land This is no farming country of course, but in other parts of Texas that class of land is worth $20 an acre and higher.

Philadelphia.—A rough shock was given to those who believe that "music hath charms to soothe the savage breast" when a large bull, taking offense at the strains from an organ in a Gospel wagon at Ridge avenue and Delmar street, lowered his head and swooped down upon the wagon.

The consequence was a wild scattering of the crowd which had surrounded the wagon and the running away of the horse attached to the Gospel wagon.

Hudson Gregory, a colored evangelist, was in charge of the wagon. The services had just begun when a bull, led by a small boy, came in view. At the first sound of the organ the bull pricked up his ears and at the second note he charged, breaking away from the boy who was leading him.

The horse attached to the wagon took fright and ran down Ridge avenue. It ran three squares before it was stopped by Mounted Policeman Rensley, of the Roxborough station. The bull after scattering the crowd stopped and permitted himself to be captured.

A NEW DRUG MAN

Made his appearance in Gail Friday evening at the home of our popular pharmacist, Mr. Dave Dorward. The young man comes not as a competitor, but as an additional partner in this well-known and reliable firm. We of Borden always think of Dorward when we think of an up-to-date drug store and we confidently believe that the latest Dorward Jr., will, during his future life, conform to the high standard of manhood and business ability which has made his papa one of our most useful and highly respected citizens.

County Commissioner H. D. Pruett made an inspection trip Friday over the Tahoka road.

We take for granted that the famous, or more properly infamous mudhole near Mr. Doyle's will soon go out of the team sticking business along with several other notoriously bad crossings on the same road.

Those who attended the Friday evening evening exercises of the Gail school say the program was a very interesting one.

2 PAPERS FOR 1 PRICE

The readers of this paper are offered a splendid opportunity to get the Woman's World for a year and our own paper for the one subscription rate. This offer is made to both old and new subscribers. If you are already a subscriber you may send in your renewal and get the benefit just the same as a new subscriber. The Woman's World has a circulation of 800,000 copies each issue. It is one of the largest, best and most widely read publications in the world. Every issue contains stories by writers of national reputation. It is profusely illustrated. Each issue has a handsome cover in bright colors. The Woman's World is for the home. It is full of Fashion Notes, Housekeeping Helps, Educational Matter, Humor, Recipes, and Miscellany. Every home should have the Woman's World. It is a helpful companion and a welcome visitor. We have made a contract with the publishers by which we are able to offer our paper and the Woman's World for the price we charge for our paper alone.

We urge our subscribers to renew their subscriptions at once. Even if your subscription has not expired you should renew, and your new subscription will be extended for one year and you will commence receiving the Woman's World at once. Our contract is for a limited time only, and we want all our subscribers and prospective subscribers to get the benefits of this splendid offer. Every family in our community should read the Woman's World, and here is a chance for you to get it without the outlay of any more money than we get for a year's subscription to our paper alone.

The publishers of the Woman's World have over $2,000,000 invested in paper mills, printing plant, engraving and art plant, electric light and power company, and they own a magnificent modern skyscraper office building.

DON'T MISS THIS CHANCE. Remember the offer is open to both new and old subscribers and this is the first time we have been able to make such an offer. As we said before, the offer is limited, and you should act at once. 2 papers for 1 price. Let us hear from you at once.

HERE IS OUR OFFER.

We will send you the Citizen and Woman's World one year for $1., which is the regular price of the same alone. This offer is made to both new and old subscribers. Send all subscriptions to The Borden citizen; Gail, Texas.
