clearing the scratchpad

By ROSA LEE MYERS

The employees of the new court house honored Bandy with a party Monday afternoon and presented him a gift. Monday was Mr. Bandy's last day in the new court house, he will now work part time and will be in the old court house.

I would like to thank Betty Jackson and Velma Wilson for the help they have given me this week, while they were home for the holidays from college.

A man shuffled up to the hospital reception desk and asked if it were possible to see Ralph Connors. "I'm afraid not," said the nurse on duty, referring to her chart.

"Can you tell, then" the man asked, "How's Mr. Connors doing?" "He's doing very well," the nurse replied.

"Boy, am I glad to hear that! I've been lying in that ward for a week and nobody would tell me a darn thing. So I got dressed and came down here to find out. I'm Connors."

All in all it was very nice New Year's Eve in Plains. There was a dance at the Legion hall, A watch service at the Baptist Church, a party for the home demonstration club, and a midnight show at the theatre. I was out taking pictures until after midnight and am running a few of them this week.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

PREPLANTING IRRIGATION

Lee H. Williamson, Agricultural Engineer, SCS

How important is preplanting irrigation? According to recently published research data it is the most important one. This is the irrigation that brings the moisture content of the soil up to field capacity. It is the moisture that brings the crop up and keeps it growing until it is large enough to irrigate again. It is the irrigation that provides a reserve to keep a crop growing a few days while repairs are made if the pumping plants breaks down.

With proper preplanting irrigation all the water is put in the soil that it will hold and as the crop withdraws moisture it is replaced with subsequent irrigation. Actually it takes both preplanting and subsequent irrigation to get the most return from your irrigation.

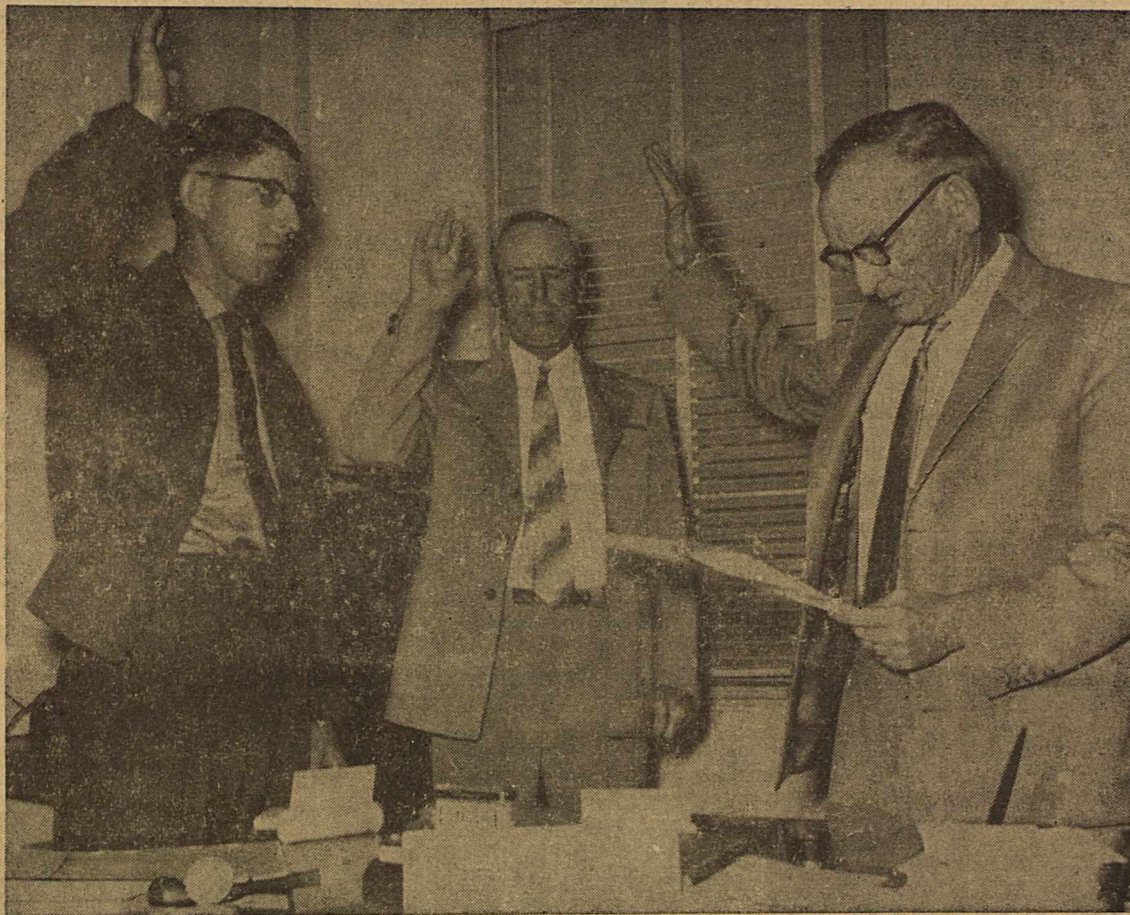

Recognizing the importance of preplanting irrigation makes plain why it should be done properly, adequately and without wasting water.

How do you do that? It is not difficult if you do a little pre-planting thinking and develop a plan for managing your irrigation water by efficient operation of your irrigation system.

If you have not worked out a similar problem in the past, chances are you can use some help with the planning. Local SCS technicians assisting your Soil Conservation District can give you the help you want.

First they will help you determine how deep the soil is on different parts of your field and how deep the roots are likely to penetrate under certain conditions. They will be able to give you an estimate of the amount of water that can be stored in each foot of the root zone and the condition of your soil. This information when properly analyzed and combined with your cropping plan will pro-

NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY BY SANFORD VALLEY H'D CLUB

The Club Room was the scene of a New Year's Eve Party given by the members of the Sanford Valley Home Demonstration Club for their families and guests.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Muston, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce White, Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Lipcomb, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Overton, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Walsler, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hale, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambliss, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Trout, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Williams, Mrs. Preston Murphy, Mrs. Lois Murphy, Mr. Johnny L. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hickman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Taylor and family.

Refreshments of sandwiches, potato chips, olives, pickles, assorted cakes, coffee, and cokes were served to all those present.

Sanford Valley H. D. Club Installs

Mrs. Neal Hickman was installed as President of the Sanford Valley Home Demonstration Club in a meeting Thursday in the club room. Mrs. Bruce White, the past president, was in charge of the installation.

Roll call was answered with a "new year resolution." The "Collect for Club Women" was read by the group for the opening exercise.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. C. C. Calloway, the hostess; Mrs. K. O. Kendrick; Mrs. Neal Hickman; Mrs. Jesse Murphy; Mrs. H. O. Muston; Mrs. J. L. Taylor; Mrs. P. M. Williams; Mrs. W. B. White; Eddie Hickman; and Renau Hendricks.

O. D. SMITH WILL RESIGN AS CITY MARSHAL AT PLAINS

O. D. Smith announced this week that he will meet with the city council at their next meeting and resign as city marshal.

Mr. Smith has been employed as city marshal of Plains for the past five years. He will now be employed in the court house where he is taking E. S. Bandy's place.

Mr. Bandy who has gone into semi-retirement, will work part time in the old court house on the custodial staff.

Commissioners Meet Tuesday; Call for Library Bids January 21

Sealed bids for the construction of the Denver City Library and the Plains Library will be received by the Commissioners' Court of Yoakum County at a meeting Monday, January 21, it was reported this week.

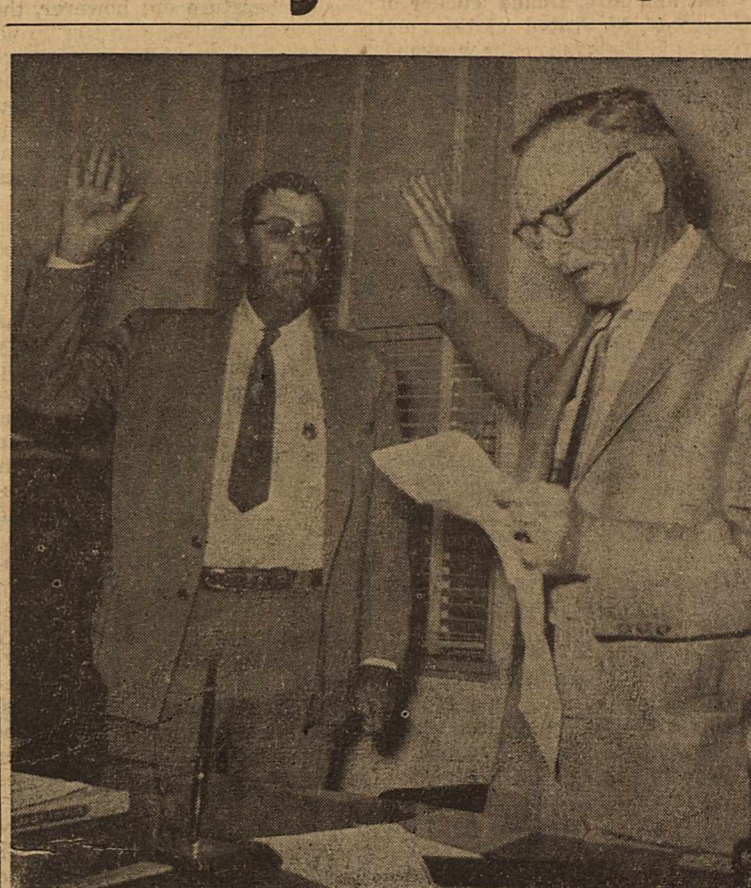

Bids are to include the furnishing of all labor, material and equipment, plus performance of all work required for the building of the two libraries, in accordance with the plans and specifications as prepared by Butler-Kimmel Co., Architects.

Lump sum proposals will be received for the General Construction which include electrical, plumbing, heating and air conditioning, it was pointed out.

The Denver City Library will be constructed on county-owned land just west of the City Hall, while the Plains library will be built just north of the Old Courthouse.

County voters gave the green light to the construction of the two libraries in a special election November 13, when the $90,000 bond issue carried by more than 2 to 1 majority.

It is hoped that the libraries will be completed and ready for use this summer.

Sheriff Robert Chambliss, left, takes the oath of his office during the traditional swearing-in ceremony conducted Tuesday morning at Judge H. K. Benton at a called meeting of the commissioners' court.

March of Dimes Annual Campaign For Funds Starts

"Let's finish the job!" This is the theme announced by March of Dimes headquarters here for the campaign that will be carried on through January.

According to Oma McCargo who has again been named as Plains campaign director, the "job" is two-fold: To raise funds for repair of the damage that polio has done to thousands of Americans in the past and to prevent the disease from crippling more thousands in the future.

Mrs. McCargo explained that an estimated 80,000 persons have been left handicapped by polio, throughout the length and breadth of the United States; and he points out that the job of conquering the disease cannot be considered finished until these patients have been helped to regain normal and productive lives.

The second objective of the campaign is to promote the widest possible use of the Salk vaccine, which was developed under March of Dimes sponsorship, and which has been proven safe and effective many millions of times over.

The chairman said letters will be mailed within the next few days to local residents requesting co-operation in the campaign through contributions. The familiar coin-box receptacles will also be distributed to local businesses and offices for use by the public.

Commenting on the 16,000 cases of polio reported in 1956, Mrs. McCargo said:

"We of the March of Dimes are determined that 1957 shall not see a repetition of the polio record of 1956. Even so, we know there will be attacks of the disease, and we must provide for the care of all who need it."

"We also must remember", the chairman added, "those persons for whom the vaccine came too late. When we give to the March of Dimes, we are helping those who need help and protecting those who don't."

Last Second Score By Mustangs Edges Cowboys, 67-66

Dan Nicewander sank a field goal with two seconds left to play to give Denver City a 67-66 basketball win over Plains in Denver City Tuesday night.

Denver City jumped into a 22-19 lead at the end of the initial period but Plains took a 34-31 halftime lead and led 54-52 as the fourth period opened.

Nicewander was the high point man with 23 points, Jimmy Williams got 17, Harold Smith 15, and Jimmy Robertson 15, Dwain Rowland 12, and James Overton 7 for Plains.

In a B game, Plains won 58-51. Jimmy Robertson of Plains and Bob Tinley of Denver City tied for high honors with 28 points each.

Holidays Nearly Free Of Traffic Violations

While the nation's toll of traffic fatalities for the holiday weekend reached alarming numbers, Yoakum County once again turned in an almost unblemished record.

Sheriff Robert Chambliss reported that no accidents of major proportion occurred within the county, and that only a few arrests were made.

Raymond Collum of Denver City was apprehended Saturday night four miles west on the Hobbs Highway, and charged with DWI, second offense. He is currently out on bond, and will appear before the next grand jury. With him were Ted Gdowski of Nebraska, and W. T. White of Lubbock, both of whom were charged with being drunk. Each entered a plea of guilty in justice of peace court, and were fined $39.50.

H. B. Coon of Midland was arrested Monday night in Denver City by Acting Deputy Sheriff

James Evans on a drunk charge, to which he pled guilty and was fined $15.50.

Sheriff Chambliss also reported that H. L. Henderson, who was sentenced last June on a DWI charge, was picked up December 24 on a bench warrant and began serving a 60-day sentence in the county jail. Henderson had appealed the verdict, which was, however, upheld by the Court of Criminal Appeals, who issued a mandate to county authorities to carry out the sentence which included a $100 fine in addition.

Holiday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Been were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eaton of Lubbock, Mrs. Nann Toliver of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cleveland of Canadian, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Borland of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus McGinty and family and Travis Been of Plains.

Members of the commissioners' court convened in special session Tuesday morning for their first meeting of the new year.

County Judge H. K. Benton conducted ceremonies in which Commissioners Vance Brown and Gene Payne, and County Sheriff Robert Chambliss, were sworn into office.

Buford Dulin, county service officer, was hired by the commissioners for another two year term, and Pat Henard was appointed as cattle inspector. C. L. Schmitz was also rehired by the court for another two year term to be in charge of rodent control.

O. D. Smith, former city patrolman for Plains, was hired to replace Mr. Bandy as custodian for the new court house. Mr. Bandy will continue to work on a part time basis in the Old Court building. Skeet Robertson was hired to be in charge of the yard work and to assist Mr. Smith with custodial duties.

A five per cent raise to the custodial staff was also voted by the court, and Judge Benton was given supervisory duties for the staff.

The Court also set Monday, January 21, as the date to open sealed bids on the construction for the Denver City and Plains libraries. More details of this action may be found in a separate story elsewhere on this page.

I. J. Duff Services Held at Plains

Mr. I. J. Duff, 62, of Plains, died Tuesday, January 1, 1957, in the Yoakum County Hospital following a long illness.

Mr. Duff had been a resident of Yoakum County since 1951, moving here from Lynn County.

He married Nell Maize October 22, 1916. He taught school for 33 years and also served as a Baptist preacher for 20 years.

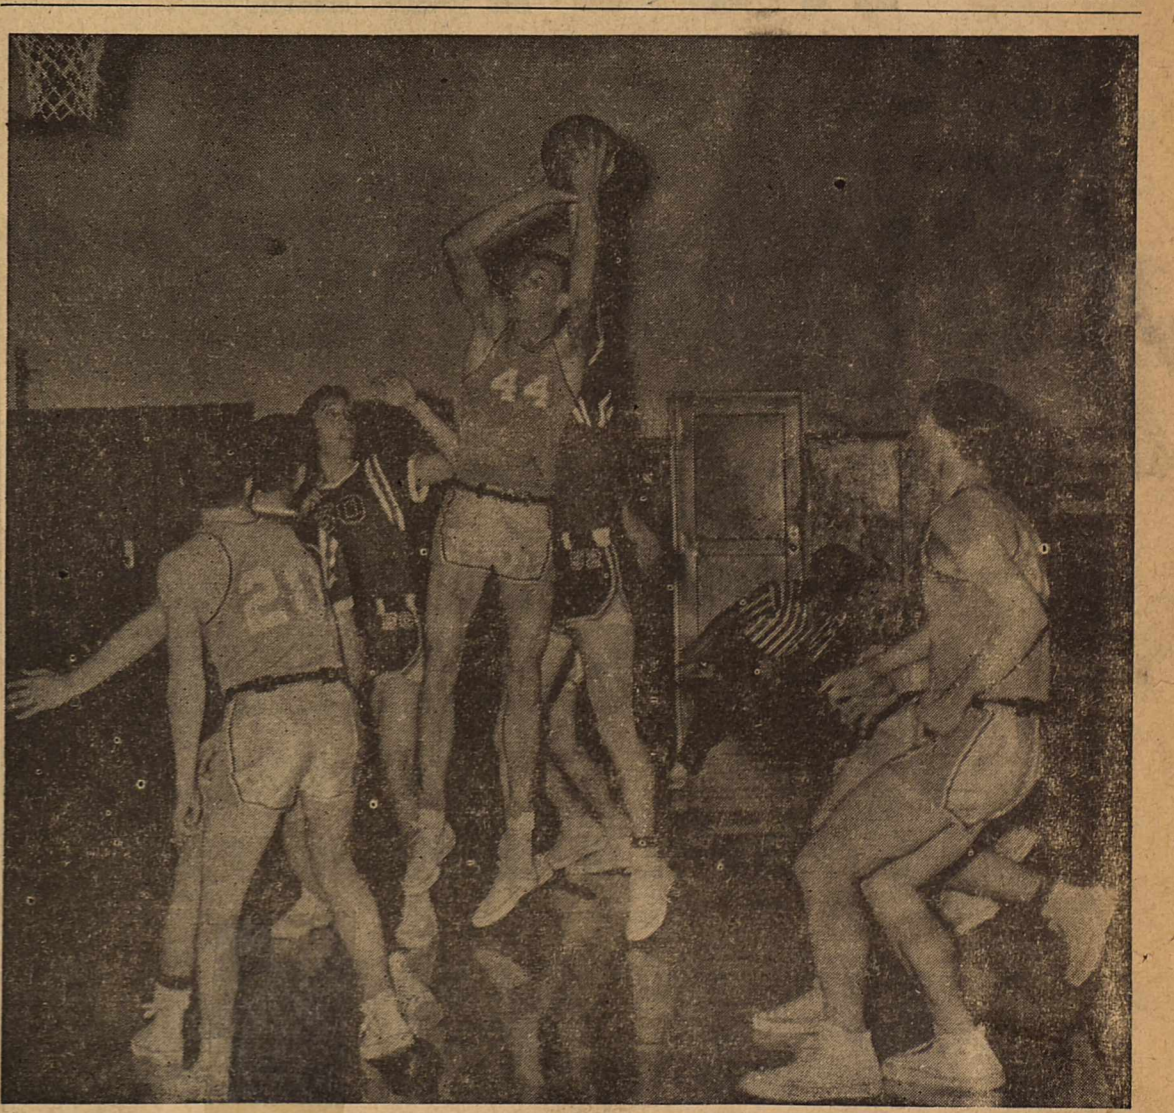

The Rev. Clarence Coffman officiated at the services. He was assisted by the Rev. Emmet Brooks of San Angelo.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. I. J. Duff; three daughters, Mrs. H. G. Clifton, Jr., Fort Worth; Mrs. H. W. Taunton, Plains; and Mrs. Clay Mims, Midland; and three sons, I. J. Jr., Levelland; and Rod and Buford, both of Plains; two brothers, A. J. Duff, Seminole, and C. C. Duff, Arlington; one sister, Mrs. T. R. Haggard, Clarksville; and seven grandchildren.

Burial was in Tech Memorial Park in Lubbock under the direction of Brownfield Funeral Home.

JAMES OVERTON shoots for the Cowboys against Denver City Tuesday night in a game which Plains five lost, 67-66, for the first time this season. No. 20 in the foreground is Dwain Rowland of the Cowboys. Denver City players are John Johnson, Charles Mobley, and Ray Sefcik.

JIMMY WILLIAMS attempts to get away a shot in the Plains-Denver City basketball game held in Denver City Tuesday night. The big Cowboy center dumped in 17 points for the local five, but it wasn't enough, as the Plains team suffered its first loss of the season, 67-66. Other Plains players in the picture are Dwain Rowland (no. 20) and Harold Smith, left foreground. Denver City boys are Charles Mobley (behind Rowland), Jimmy Allison (no. 50) and Dan Nicewander (behind Williams).

Baby chicks will soon be arriving on many of the farms and ranches in Yoakum County and now is the time to make preparation for their arrival. The chick brooder may need some adjustments or it may be so old and worn out that it needs replacing altogether. In case there is a need for an improved brooding system, the most modern and most economical unit is the infra-red lamp.

Infra-red lamps have been in use for some time and they do a very satisfactory job of keeping the temperature up; however, the electric bill is likely to run up also unless a hover and curtains are used for holding the heat. Some recent tests have shown that brooders without side curtains used 93 per cent more electrical energy than those equipped with curtains.

The materials used for these energy-saving curtains can be made of plastic, aluminum sheeting or any other fire proof material. The clear vinyl has the added advantage for visibility since it is transparent. The top can be made of plywood or heavier material if it is available. Four 250-watt lamps mounted under a 4 x 4 foot hover equipped with side curtains will make satisfactory home-made brooder and it will be safe and economical.

We have made remarkable progress during the past 30 years in poultry management. Improvements have been made all the way from the hatching egg to the laying hen and researchers are continuing to make new findings. Poultry research more or less pioneered the field and now all other livestock are making fast strides in the improvement field.

Swine breeders and feeders have made a drastic change in their management practices in order to keep pace with the times. It is an accepted practice in the corn and hog states to brood out baby pigs in much the same way as baby chicks are started. In this country we still think of weaning a litter of pigs at 8 weeks of age. In the corn belt they wean their pigs when they weigh 10 lbs which is usually between 2 and 3 weeks of age.

They feed them a pre-starter feed during the time they are with their mother and for about 7 days after weaning. They use a starter ration mixed with corn for the next 3 weeks which gets them up about 6 weeks of age at which time they are changed to a growing ration. The pig that is bred for rapid gains will reach 200 lbs. at 5 months of age and he will have eaten $18.50 worth of feed. These figures are based on corn at $1.25 per bushel and protein supplement at $80.00 per ton.

We can do the same thing in this area with grain sorghum replacing the corn. All we need to do is fix up some farrowing crates with creep feeders and some brooding houses for the baby pigs. Under the present prices of hogs we can make it pay off.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR PROGRAM OF PLAINS COTTON GROWERS OUTLINED

Concrete recommendations of the panel of cotton experts from all phases of the industry, which met in Lubbock in November at a Short Staple Research Conference, have been announced by the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., A. B. Carpenter of Yoakum County said this week.

The organization will use these recommendations in formulating a long range and immediate program for improvement of cotton produced and marketed on the South Plains. They will be presented to the directors at the PCG's January meeting.

George W. Pfeiffenberger, Executive Vice-President of the PCG explained the recommendations were made in brief form at the conclusion of the research meeting here last November. Since then various chairman of the panel have worked out details on the recommendations and submitted them to the PCG.

Genetics and Breeding recommendations were broken down into fields of cotton improvement research which needs to be emphasized. These include work on fiber properties, boll types, earliness and disease resistance, and their reaction to environment.

In connection with this phase, Dr. Henry Barker, Washington, D. C., with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, announced that a cotton geneticist will be assigned to work on these problems at the Lubbock Experiment Station as soon as a qualified person is located.

In the Plant Growth, Disease and Insect Phase, work is to be done in physiology, diseases, insects and applied research with a number of test plots throughout the High Plains.

Production practice recommendations call for work on climate, irrigation, mechanization and soils. Harvesting and ginning studies will see work done on an expanded basis at the cotton research center at the Lubbock Experiment Station and other work in crop residue disposal, equipment for moisture conservation planting and cultivation equipment and in such harvesting problems as field cleaning, optimum maturity, quality preservation and machine improvement.

Marketing recommendations call for development through breeding, production and ginning practices of a cotton recognized as a High Plains product that can be promoted by the domestic and export markets through improved and distinctive packaging and identification.

Also mill representatives suggested producers adopt goals to fiber properties a micronaire level of 4.0 to 4.5 a staple of 29-32" to 1-1-32", a Pressley strength of 85,000 pounds or more, and greater uniformity of all properties.

Utilization and Market Research work calls for a systematic market research analysis be made of the competitive position of short staple cotton. Also growers will be urged to place maximum emphasis on those qualities of short staple cotton which their customers, the mills, consider important, by proper harvesting and ginning practices, and careful packaging and shipment.

Economic recommendations will see studies of the use of water and its sources made along with an evaluation of the numerous and various steps involved in producing, harvesting, ginning and marketing cotton.

Cottonseed recommendations call for producers to strive for higher yield with mature cotton and there fore, mature cottonseed. Also producers in conjunction with the cotton ginning industry should make every effort to deliver cleaner and drier cottonseed to the oil mills. Breeders will be encouraged to continue work for high oil and high protein content in cottonseed varieties and at the same time attempt to lower the gossypol content of cottonseed.

In conclusion the Education recommendations call for the PCG to serve as a clearing house for good information and work closely with vocational agriculture and extension personnel in distributing good information.

Pfeiffenberger said Directors of the PCG would study these recommendations and announce at a later date an adopted policy.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wayne Coffman of Brownwood visited in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Coffman this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Strickland of Levelland spent the weekend in the home of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McClellan.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Harvey Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Harvey, and Mr. Claude Harvey all of Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. Eual Dean Strickland and Ricky of Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Harvey and family of Lubbock; and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Johnson and family and Mr. and Mrs. H. ## Uncle CHARLEY'S "Epi-grins"

Some fellers won't thaw out till they're knocked cold. Some church folks need to have their faith lifted.

Yep, bringin' a teacher an apple is a mild form of blackmail. Jr. Hinch says he'd like to see an Indian dart, but not in his direction.

The female of the speeches is more deadly than the male. Some gals are well framed by nature, others by their girdles.

Wonder what an opinion looks like after it's been formed? Yep, some fellers make a process of progress.

That horse of another color makes us wonder about the color of the first one. Even if we did give the country back to the Indians the politicians wouldn't let 'em keep it.

How come it's always bring home the bacon and never the steak? Where is this bridge that we are always told not to cross?

MAURCENE LOWE TO BE BRIDE OF GENE PHILLIPS IN FEBRUARY RITES

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Lowe are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Maurcene, to Gene Phillips of Big Spring.

The marriage will take place February 16, 1957 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McCargo.

Miss Lowe, a graduate of Plains High School is a junior P. E. major at Tech. Mr. Phillips attended Plains High School and is presently employed by the Cactus Drilling Company in Plains. He returned recently from Germany where he was stationed with the Armed Forces.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henard and family visited in the home of Mrs. Henard's brother Mr. and Mrs. Billy Nelson and family, in Big Spring the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henard and family attended the Howard County-South Plains Hereford Show and Sale in Big Spring Tuesday and Wednesday.

BILLY WAYNE COFFMAN CLAIMS DALLAS GIRL AS BRIDE DEC. 20th

The East Grand Baptist Church in Dallas was the setting for the exchange of marriage vows of Miss Beulah Ann Fuller, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Woodrow Fuller of Dallas, and Billy Wayne Coffman, son of Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Coffman of Plains, on Thursday night, December 20.

Officiating at the impressive rites was the groom's father, Rev. Coffman, assisted by Rev. Joe Weldon Bailey, pastor of the East Grand Baptist church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon tulle over net and taffeta, with lace bodice appliqued with silk organdy and leaf motifs. A Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls caught the finger top illusion veil, and she carried a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and lace upon a white Bible.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Ann Ford of Olton, with Miss Joyce Frank, Mrs. Peggy Templin and Miss Ginny Lu Fuller, sister of the bride, all of Dallas, as bridesmaids. Miss Ford and Miss Fuller were attired in waltz length dresses of powder blue antique taffeta, while Miss Frank and Mrs. Templin wore similar gowns of periwinkle blue. Each attendant also wore elbow length white gloves and headbands of satin and seed pearls.

Candles were lighted by Jimmy Fuller of Dallas, brother of the bride, and A. J. Dickerson of May. Serving as flower girl was Betty Alexander of Sinton, and Bobby Jack Fuller of Dallas, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Attending his brother as best man man was Walter Coffman of Plains. Ralph Bullard of Odessa, Don Cummings of Edcouch, Gerald Templin of Mesquite, Darwin Scott of Brownwood, A. J. Dickerson of May, and Larry Coffman of Plains, brother of the groom, were ushers.

Following the rites, a reception was held in the East Grand Baptist church banquet hall, which was decorated with blue and silver flowers. Assisting with the hospitalization were Miss Faye Zoliner of Dallas, Miss Ann Biffle of Edinburg, Miss Frances Hendrick of

New FICA Rates on Wages Paid, Filing Requirements Told

Tax rates under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Social Security) and filing requirements under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act have been changed by recent amendments to the law, according to Mr. Howard O. Nichols, Administrative Officer of the Lubbock office.

New F. I. C. A. rates on wages paid on or after January 1, 1957 will be 2-1/4 percent each for employers and employees, a total of 4 1/2 percent, Mr. Nichols said.

The change in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, he explained, provides that employers who had four or more employees on at least one day of each of 20 calendar weeks during 1956 will be required to file Form 940 by January 31, 1957. The filing of Form 940, Annual Federal Tax Return of Employers, was formerly required of employers who had eight or more employees.

Mr. Nichols said that copies of this return have been sent most of the employers in this district. However, he suggested that employers who have not received this form by January 9, obtain copies from the local Revenue office at Lubbock, Texas.

Irving, Miss Joyce Teel of Brownfield, and Miss Violet Cox of Beeville.

The young couple left on a wedding trip to San Antonio, the bride wearing an ice blue wool suit with matching hat, for traveling. Her accessories were of Lizard and she pinned on a white orchid shoulder corsage.

The newlyweds are now at home at 1003 Clark in Brownwood, where both are students at Howard Payne College. Mr. Coffman also serves as pastor of the Valley View Baptist church in May, Texas.

Congratulations . . .

We wish heartily to congratulate you, the People of Brownfield and Terry County, for a perfect holiday record for safe driving. With the State and National accident and death rate so high, it is indeed a pleasure to be able to say that the Brownfield Funeral Home did not have to make a single accident call during the holidays. We sincerely hope that you will hold this record indefinitely!

Just like this boy,
we wish you joy

Announcing . . .

We are taking this means of announcing to our many friends and the general public that our New Funeral Home is now finished to the extent of service. Our Chapel, with a seating capacity of 250, large reception room, slumber rooms, rest rooms, and preparation room are complete. Offices and display room not finished because of delay on merchandise and labor. Formal opening will be announced at later date - when all is complete.

We also wish to announce that we are adding to our staff Carrol W. Collier, (our son), and family as of January first.

Our Chapel and Our Service are now at your request.

We wish to thank all who have been so loyal to us these thirty five years -- who has made it possible for us to erect this building for you -- which shall be dedicated to serving and helping our fellow man in his hour of need.

LEGAL NOTICE
ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS

Sealed proposals addressed to the Honorable County Judge and Commissioners' Court, Yoakum County, Plains, Texas, will be received at the Court House, Plains, Texas, until 10:00 AM, Monday, January 21, 1957, at which time they will be publicly opened and read aloud, for the furnishing of all labor, material, and equipment and performing all work required for the construction of the Denver City Library and the Plains Library, in accordance with plans, specifications, and contract documents as prepared by The Butler-Kimmel Company, Architects.

Lump sum proposals will be received for the General Construction which will include Electrical, Plumbing and Heating and Air Conditioning.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a cashier's check, certified check, or acceptable bid bond, for 5% of bid made payable unconditionally to the order of Yoakum County, Texas, as a guaranty that if awarded the contract the bidder will execute the contract and furnish the required bond.

Attention is called to the fact that there must be paid on this project not less than the general prevailing rates of wages which have been established by the labor trades council for this area.

In case of ambiguity or lack of clearness in, or omissions from the drawings or specifications, the bidder shall notify the Architect at once. The architect will not be responsible for any oral instructions. All addenda will be written and become a part of the contract documents.

Plans and specifications may be examined without charge in the office of the architect at 412 Avenue M, Lubbock, Texas. One complete set of plans, specifications, and contract documents may be obtained from the office of The Butler-Kimmel Co., Architects, 412 Avenue M, Lubbock, Texas, upon the deposit of $25.00 as a guaranty of their safe return. Additional sets may be obtained by payment of a $25.00 deposit for each additional set and refund will be made in the amount of $25.00 less the cost of reproduction of each set returned in good condition.

The Owner reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any formalities.

By order of the Commissioners' Court.

duce an efficient irrigation water management plan.

This plan will include how much water to apply as a preplanting irrigation and when to start irrigating. It will also tell how much land it will be possible to cover with the available water supply and how to make the most efficient use of your irrigation system. In addition to this the plan should include tentative plans for subsequent irrigations including your next winter's cover crops.

The chances are you will want to apply a preplanting irrigation to some of your land which will not get anymore water unless it rains. This is a good irrigation practice and will provide a return for your investment. This might seem like a minor part of your irrigation plan and unimportant, but it deserves as much thought and planning as any land you irrigate because it can produce as much per inch of available water as any other part of your irrigated land.

When thinking of your irrigated land, remember the saying, "Don't bite off more than you can chew". I don't know another phrase where this is more applicable than to irrigation, especially preplanting irrigation.
