

MOORE Or Less

by Johnnie Moore

Joke told on Neil Taylor at Lions Club last week. Story went that about twenty years ago Neil was known as a wine woman and song man. But that now all that had sure been changed. Now it was, "Metrecal, same old gal, and 'Sing Along With Mitch.'"

We noted with a certain amount of pride that our column, Moore or Less, got quoted by a couple of other Texas weeklies.

The quote came from the column a few weeks back when we made some statements concerning the fact that all charitable and non-profit organizations exist and do their charitable work, not because of some magic or because of the government smiling on them and granting them subsidies or something of the sort, but because there are people in this country who do make profits and who do attend to their business in a realistic way, trying to get ahead and trying to operate their business at a profit.

With tongue in cheek, the Claude News and the Lynn County news both stated that, and we quote, "Johnnie Moore, editor of the Plains Record, over in Yoakum County, is probably being branded a right-wing, babble - rousing, radical." I guess, now that I think of it, that this is a right-wing view point, although I never really thought of it in that way.

It seems to me to be a matter of common-sense. For instance, if no one did work, where would Sunday morning collection come from in our churches. If a profit were not being made, who would contribute to the Red Cross, the Cancer Society, who would buy Christmas or Easter Seals, and who would support all the other really worth-while causes that exist and should be supported?

Quite opposite to what I hear some positions as being, the profit system is not evil, it is good, very good. It is in fact, the very basis of our Democratic way of life, free enterprise, for after all, that's what we're talking about, is the very foundation of Americanism.

As to my being a radical, right - wingest, I guess I'll just have to 'fess up. If extreme rightism means being in favor of a return to such things as basic free enterprise without government interference or aid; rights that rightfully belong to the states; and the ridding of government intervention into matters of private and non-governmental areas, then yes sir, I'm way out to the right.

I heard a very disturbing statement made the other day by The Honorable Pat Brown, Governor of the State of California. Pat said, in referring to the conservative conception of government, that is was outdated, out-moded and worn-out in its concept.

We hear other statements of this kind. Many seem to feel that an anti-liberal attitude toward government is the anti-humanitarian attitude.

Evidently, a great many people feel that the success or failure of a system of government is based on how many people and classes can be taken under its wing and be given not just opportunity, but guarantee of job opportunity, income and all the other things that go to make up this often misleading facet of life that we call security. I say, that job, or income security at the price we are now having to pay, just isn't worth it.

A proposed farm program that would be little more than half a step away from communal farms; proposed legislation to enable the federal government to tell TV networks what they can and cannot run on network programs; government sponsored medical aid to the aged; government aid to education; and we could go on and on because the list is endless and covers about every aspect of human existence in modern day America.

If this is what it takes to assure us of our present way of life, then, we had surely better settle for some other way of life. Isn't it about time we woke up and started acting instead of just talking.

Special Program Highlights Scout Week

Hanna Announces for Mayor

National Boy Scout Week began Wednesday, February 7, and continues through Tuesday, the 13th.

Locally, the Scouts, Troop 778, will observe several highlights during the entire month, marking another anniversary of scouting in the world.

Displays of scouting can be seen in some of the businesses in Plains and at least one special program for the general public will be the highlight of the local observance. A special awards and program night, to which tickets are being sold, each ticket which entitles the bearer to one chance for one of the two fattened pigs which will be given away that night. Tickets are priced at $1 each. Highlights of the program scheduled for Monday evening,

February 19, will be the presenting of badges, First and Second Class, to several local scouts who have earned them, demonstrations of scouting skills presented by each patrol in the troop and a stunt given by each patrol.

Three announcements for Posts in Plains' City Government were made this week, as the March 2, deadline for filing for municipal election in Plains (Continued on page 6.)

A last minute flurry of political announcements made their appearance this week as the February 5, filing deadline came and went.

DANIEL ANNOUNCES
On the state level being added to the already long list of candidates for Governor, was the name of Price Daniel, seeking re-election, Daniel, in making his statement said, and we quote, "As you must know, I offer for re-election not in hope of political recognition. I have had that; not for power, but for opportunity to continue service to my state and my fellowmen; and certainly not for honor or glory, for you the people, have already given me that in full measure, and I am personally indebted to you, probably more than any other man in our State's political history, I seek only to show my gratitude through rendering devoted and enduring service to the people of Texas."

If you feel that the sincerity of my efforts as your Governor and my determination to carry on the fight for progress and good government assure you that I will always regard this office as a sacred trust, to be used only for the best interests of our people and our state,

CONNALLY DISAGREES
John Connally, considered by many to be one of the leading candidates for the post of governor, lashed Price Daniel's bid for and unprecedented bid for a fourth term as governor.

"His announcement last week," said Connally, "throws into sharp focus one clearly defined issue -- that of perpetuation of one man in control of the governor's office. 'I feel very strongly this is undesirable. Consequently, one of the first things I shall do as your governor is to recommend that the Legislature submit to the people a constitutional amendment preventing any governor from holding office more than two consecutive two-year terms. 'I would like for this to take effect during and to apply to my own tenure. The last thing we need in Texas is one man rule.'"

Connally went on to say "I want to see Texas first in education, first in industrial growth, first in job opportunities and first as a place to live and to raise our families. This can only be accomplished by new, hard-hitting, aggressive leadership."

NEW OFFICE CREATED
A letter received from the office of County Attorney, Vernon Townes made known the fact that a new office would be created for which it would be necessary to split the existing situation in the district and county clerk's office.

The letter reads as follows:

Plains Record; Gentlemen:
On February 6, 1962, it was first called to my attention that Yoakum County now has a population according to the last Federal Census of 8,032. This official population figure was confirmed by the Attorney General's Office, Under Article 1903, Revised Civil Statutes, when the population of a county exceeds 8000 persons, then it

News of Doctor
Official sources announced this week that in the matter of the possibilities of re-writing the lease on the Yoakum County Clinic in Plains, matters are moving closer to a close.

The re-written lease is in the hands of Dr. Lynn and the doctor from Lovington, New Mexico who is seriously considering coming to Plains on a full-time basis.

New lease calls for a dual lease arrangement wherein each of the doctors would have equal use of the clinic and the existing facilities.

Some minor items in the new lease, as drawn, were unsatisfactory to either one or both of the doctors concerned and a meeting with the two doctors is planned for the very near future in an effort to iron out these difficulties.

The M.D. from New Mexico now tentatively plans to meet with the Plains Chamber of Commerce in a meeting in the very near future also.

STATE SENATE RACE
In addition to Don Hancock of Plains and H. C. (Doc) Blanchard of Lubbock, also seeking the democratic nomination for the post of State Senator, District, are Paul Cox, a farmer from Lubbock and Wesley Roberts, presently a State Representative from Seminole. In addition, one republican has filed for the post. He is Jack Christie of Brownfield.

COUNTY CANDIDATES
A total of six candidates have filed for the office of Yoakum County Judge. They are Paul Cobb of Plains, and John Wise, Garland Wheeler, Leon Ward, Walter L. Holland, and Stanley Duval all of Denver City.

Other post in the County elections which are being sought by more than one candidate are as follows:
County Clerk, incumbent, J. W. O. Alldredge and Mrs. Blanche Dyer.
County Commissioner, Precinct No. 4, incumbent, Mrs. Paul Loe and T. J. Bearden, Commissioner, Precinct No. 2, incumbent, H. C. (Doc) Cotton and M. R. (Reeves) Newman.
Justice of Peace, Justice Precinct No. 1, incumbent, E. S. Bandy and Loyd D. Steele.

Posts being sought by uncontested candidates include, County Treasurer, Mrs. Susan V. Hinkle; Justice of the Peace, Justice Precinct No. 2, Mary Lea Smith; and Constable, Justice Precinct No. 1, R. J. (Junior) VanLiew.

OTHER OFFICES
Also running uncontested for various other offices, as far as the democratic primary is concerned are U. S. Representative, George Mahon; State Representative, Olen R. Petty; Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, 7th Supreme Judicial District of Texas, Alton B. Chapman; and Member, State Board of Education, William H. Evans.

Democratic primary is scheduled for May 5, which is the first Saturday in May. Placement of ballot boxes and polls will be announced in the near future.

Young Infant's Rites Held
Funeral services for Tynda Young, 14-month-old daughter of Mrs. J. E. Young was held at 2 p.m. Monday in the Plains First Methodist Church, with Joe Chisholm, minister of the Church of Christ, Plains, officiating.

The infant died about 2:30 a.m. Sunday.

Burial was in the Plains Cemetery under the direction of Singleton Funeral Home, Denver City.

Survivors include the mother; a sister, Daleta Suzan, of the home; two brothers, Judge Edward Young Jr., and Melvin Loyd Young Jr., both of the home; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Overton, Plains, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Young of Midland.

becomes mandatory for a separate County and District Clerk to be elected, rather than a combined office of County-District Clerk.

Therefore on January 1, 1963, the two offices must be separated, and a separate County Clerk and District Clerk installed. This is set out in Attorney General Opinion No. WW-864, a copy of which is sent you for information. The Attorney General's opinion shows that this is not a discretionary matter, but is mandatory at the time the population reaches 8,000 according to the last Federal Census.

As two people have filed for the office of County-District Clerk, the Attorney General's Office has said that there must be an election made as to which office the people have filed for, and the candidates must elect which office they choose to be a candidate for in the Democratic Primary, as separate offices must be elected in the General Election in November.

Therefore based upon the law as set out in the Attorney General's opinion, the primary ballot should separate the office of County Clerk and District Clerk, and the County Democratic Chairman has been informed of this matter, and the two candidates who have filed for office of county - District Clerk must now choose which office they wish to have their name appear under, as the cannot continue as a candidate for both offices. The candidates have been informed of this law, (end of letter).

Boys Scouts Mark 52nd Anniversary

Under its current program of national purpose, "Strengthen America. . . Character County," the nation's 5,235,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and adult leaders observe the 52nd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7 to 13. Through its new program the movement seeks to "Build a Strong America, Serve the Cause of Democracy, and Achieve the Purposes of Scouting." The observance will dramatize how scouting contributes to better family life. Typical Scout families will be honored.

Motor Vehicle Registration Underway

Annual vehicle registration officially started on Feb. 1. Deadline for registering all motor vehicles in the State of Texas is, as it has been in years past, March 31, which falls on a Saturday.

Numbers for Yoakum County residents this year are lettered CA8200 to CA9999 and CB10 to CB1545.

E. W. Craig, Yoakum County Tax Collector has pointed out that, so far, the sale of tags has been very slow, and that very possibly, there is a last minute rush in the making. Craig also pointed out the necessity of bringing last year's registration receipt and your certificate of title to his office with you when you register your vehicles this year.

Licenses are on sale at the tax office in the courthouse in Plains and at the tax office in Denver City.

10th Annual Junior Fat Stock Show Opens Feb. 15

The first of the pigs and lambs will move across the scales beginning at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, February 15th. All pigs and lambs will be weighed and ear tagged between 1:30 and 7:00 p.m. that afternoon. Mr. Gene Bennett, President of the Board of Directors, is the official weigher.

Leo White, local County Agent, reports that several of the 4-H Club members will bring their lambs to the show barns as early as Tuesday evening. The lamb exhibitors need some extra time to get their animals properly groomed. A new rule for this year has made it necessary that lamb exhibitors have their animals at the correct weight. No lamb will be allowed in the show that weighs more than 110 pounds.

Beef calves will start coming in soon after 7:00 a.m. Friday and all calves must be weighed in by 11:00 o'clock. Calves must weigh at least 700 pounds and not more than 1150.

Bill Gray, superintendent of the Fat Lamb Division, will get the judging started Friday afternoon at 1:30. Mr. E. F. Yeates, County Agent from Dalhart, will place two classes of lambs and select the Grand and Reserve Champions. The Fat Barrow Show, under the supervision of W. M. Taylor, will get under way as soon as the lamb judging is complete. The barrows will be divided into as many classes as needed. Not more than 20 barrows will be in any single class so this year's show is expected to have four weight classes. Judge Yeates will select the Grand Champion Barrow from the winners of each class.

The beef calf show will be held Saturday beginning at 9:00 a.m. under the supervision of Pat Henard. There will be one milk fed class of nine and two dry lot classes with eleven in each class. The Grand Champion will again be selected from the first place individuals in the three classes.

Exhibitors and fans will be expected to have an early lunch and be on hand at 12:30 for the presentation of awards. Rusty McGinty is giving a Hereford heifer to the exhibitor of the Grand Champion Calf, Oscar Henard will give a ewe lamb to the exhibitor of the Grand Champion Fat Lamb and Leon Clananah is giving a Duroc Gilt to the exhibitor of the Grand Champion Barrow. Jack Gilliam, local Duroc breeder, will again give a barrow pig to the exhibitor of the top barrow. He cannot make the presentation at that time because pig is to be fed for the 1963 show and will not be born until July or August.

Exhibitors will be judged for showmanship at the same time their animals are being judged and the best showman in each division will receive awards. Dr. W. B. Boyd is giving the Lamb Showmanship Award, A. E. (Dick) McGinty is giving the Swine Showmanship Award and Marsha White is giving the Beef Calf Showmanship Award.

Silver Loving Cups will be given to the winners in the two Gain Contests. G. W. Cleveland is giving the award in the Beef Calf Gain Contest for the seventh year. Mrs. Daisy Clayton is the award donor in the Lamb Gain Contest.

Johnnie Fitzgerald, the General Superintendent of the entire Show and Sale, will get "Hank Matthews" started with

Cowboys Still Holding to First

Plains Cowboys, following their defeat at the hands of the O'Donnell Eagles, find themselves presently in a three-way tie for the District 5-A Championship. Other teams vying for top honors are Seagraves and O'Donnell.

Out of the District running most certainly are Sundown and Frenship, but all three of the first place runners have lost a pair of games each. Seagraves has been defeated by Plains and Sundown; O'Donnell has been defeated by Plains and Seagraves and Plains has been downed once each by Seagraves and O'Donnell.

Separating the men from the boys this week will be tilts between O'Donnell and Seagraves at O'Donnell and between Plains and Sundown at Plains next Tuesday. Also a very important match, also scheduled for next week will be O'Donnell and Sundown at Sundown.

At any rate, the three-way tie will be broken this Friday by the Seagraves - O'Donnell game, as one of these teams will then have lost three conference games and Plains and the victor of that match will have lost only two.

Many variations to the possible outcome of the district competition have made the rounds and any one of them could be right. Plains fans would like very much to see such a situation develop as Seagraves being downed by O'Donnell and then O'Donnell meeting defeat when they travel to Sundown. If the Cowboys are then successful in downing the Sundown Roughnecks next Tuesday, as local expectations are that they will do, the local team would be left carrying all the mail and the necessity of a play-off would not exist.

During the past week, the Cowboys played two conference games, one against Frenship in which the Plains team had little trouble in coming out on the long end of the stick. Final score in that tilt was Plains 57 to Frenship 40. It should also be noted that all twelve men of Plains' varsity squad played big shares in that game.

In Tuesday night's game against O'Donnell on the Eagles home court, Plains was not quite so fortunate. Final score of that game was O'Donnell 52 to Plains 30.

Scoring wise for Plains, Ernie Anderson chalked up 11 points to be high scorer. He was followed by Wilson and Hendricks, with 6-points each, Hickman with five and Hooper with 2.

High scorers for the Eagles were Snellgrove with 17 and Burleson with 12 points.

First half score showed Plains trailing by nine points with the score 26-17 in favor of O'Donnell.

In the free-throw bracket, Plains sunk 9 of 14 awarded in the first half and one of the two awarded in the second half. It is interesting to note that only one personal foul and one technical foul were called against the Eagles in the entire second half of the game.

If the district does work around to the point that the Cow-

Blanche Dyer Makes Formal Announcement

After much debate and encouragement from many friends I have decided to place my name in nomination for the Democratic Primary in 1962. On the 5th day of February,

BLANCHE DYER

1962, I formally filed my application as a candidate for the combined office of County and District Clerk of Yoakum County, Texas. After so filing it has now been called to my attention that the office of County and District Clerk will appear separately on the ballot for 1962. I have been informed that I cannot legally proceed as a candidate for both offices. As I have handled the District Court's docket in Yoakum County for a number of years and am well acquainted with the operation of the District Clerk's office I have withdrawn my name from consideration as a candidate for County Clerk but have left my name in nomination for the office of District Clerk.

I have worked in the combined office of County and District Clerk of Yoakum County, Texas, since the year 1953 and have worked in all phases of that office. For over five years I was Chief Deputy and as such I appeared as District Clerk in the Courtroom presided over by Judges Lewis B. Reed, Truett Smith and M. C. Ledbetter. I am fully qualified as District Clerk because as Chief Deputy Clerk I performed all duties of the office including the issuance of citations, writs, jury lists, appearance dockets, case filings and all other matters pertaining to the District Clerk's work. In addition I am also a qualified legal secretary and have handled legal secretarial work for a number of years. We lived in Denver City, Texas, from 1939 to 1942; and we maintained Plains as our home while my husband was in service from 1942 through 1945. We lived out of this county from 1945 to 1953, but moved back here ever since. I live 15 miles southwest of Plains on the Lovington Highway with my husband, Charles R. (Pete) Dyer and teenage daughter, Dana. I intend to make a diligent campaign for this office, and will attempt to see every voter in Yoakum County before the election. I promise to you my best efforts as District Clerk to speed the administration of justice and for prompt and efficient handling of all matters pertaining to the District Court of Yoakum County. Your support and influence would be sincerely appreciated by myself and my family.

Mapping of Water Reserves Revealed

Lubbock -- The Board of Directors of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District, during a business session held this week at the District Office in Lubbock, entered into a cooperative program of topographic mapping with the Texas Water Commission (formerly State Board of Water Engineers) and the U. S. Geological Survey.

John J. Vandertulp, Chief Engineer for the Texas Water Commission, met with the District Board and explained at length the topographic mapping work which is being commenced in the High Plains by the Water Commission and the USGS. He explained that the new mapping program will initially include work in nine counties within the High Plains Water District area; however, it will be extended to include the entire High Plains as the work progresses.

The initial counties within the High Plains Water District that are involved in the program are Lubbock, Floyd, Hockley, Lamb, Bailey, Parmer, Castro, Cochran, and Lynn counties.

The portion of Deaf Smith, Randall, Potter and Armstrong counties within the High Plains Water District will be mapped as soon as possible.

Vandertulp said, "The State's funds for topographic mapping are to be used in conjunction with water-resources investigations. Ground-water studies as well as surface-reservoir studies require good topographic maps. These maps also serve many other purposes and are a distinct asset to the area."

There will be a total of 2,540,000 acres of land involved in the initial mapping program. The Texas Water Commission will spend $200,000 in the next two years as the State's part in the cooperative project in the High Plains.

Topographic maps include, among other things, the elevations to existing wells, elevation contour lines, lowest elevation in playa lakes, roads, control. James Wasson S. E. of Plains completed the installing of one half mile of under-ground irrigation pipe this week.

J. M. Deering reports very good results in increase production and soil conditioning by the use of cotton burrs. He harvested 3000 lbs. of grain sorghum per acre on land that had received 5 ton of cotton burrs with out fertilizer and 1500 lbs per acre where grain sorghum followed grain sorghum.

Cover crops of small grain are looking better. Some of those using cover crops are Donald Bookout, L. R. Henson, I. L. Smith, Hugh Snodgrass, and E. L. McGehee.

Turner Announces for Lt. Gov.

James A. (Jimmy) Turman of Fannin County, Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, today announced for Lieutenant Governor.

Speaker Turman said, "Now that we have concluded the business of the 57th Legislature, I am announcing as a Democratic Candidate for Lieutenant Governor. My decision is based on the sincere belief that my record as a legislator and as presiding officer of the House qualifies me for the duties required of the Lieutenant Governor -- to preside over the State Senate in a fair, effective and democratic manner and to help preserve the God-given personal and political rights and liberties of all our citizens. "I am the only candidate to announce for Lieutenant Governor who has had the experience and the responsibility for organizing a legislative house, for formulating a legislative program and for presiding over the daily affairs of a legislative body.

"I have a positive platform which will be announced in the very near future. Let me say at this time, however, I believe that the only legitimate forces in State government are the wills and rights of all our citizens deciding the issues through their elected state officials." Speaker Turman added, "I pledge diligence to duty, integrity of purpose, and honorable service with fairness to all if elected Lieutenant Governor."

Turman, now in his fourth consecutive term, said that every ounce of his legislative knowledge and experience, his formal education and training, and the important lessons of life he learned as a sharecropper's son would be put to work for the people of Texas.

"My announcement has been withheld until the close of the special session because I wanted nothing to interfere with the vital work of the session, and because I did not think it fair, either to my colleagues or to the people, to announce to an earlier date.

"I am asking the support of all Texas citizens in establishing fiscal responsibility in State government, and, at the same time, support in providing the protection and the services our people have a right to expect from our prosperous State with an ever-expanding economy.

"I want and need every Texan's support! I am asking the support of Texans from business and industry, labor, education, the professions, government, farming and ranching, and all other segments of our social and economic life. I will give my best efforts in return for your confidence, your vote and your support. This I pledge without reservation!"

Turman said his campaign will get underway immediately and added: "I hope to meet and visit personally with as many people as time, between now and the primary, will permit."

After graduation from Gober High School, Turman worked his way through East Texas State College as a bus boy, waiter, drug store clerk and bookkeeper, receiving the B.S. and M.S. degrees in Business Administration. He earned a Doctor's Degree in Education from the University of Texas.

As an educator Turman has served as an elementary and secondary classroom teacher, elementary and junior high principal, instructor at the University of Texas, and Assistant to the President of Texas Woman's University in Denton.

With Faith - - You're Never Alone

The Church Building

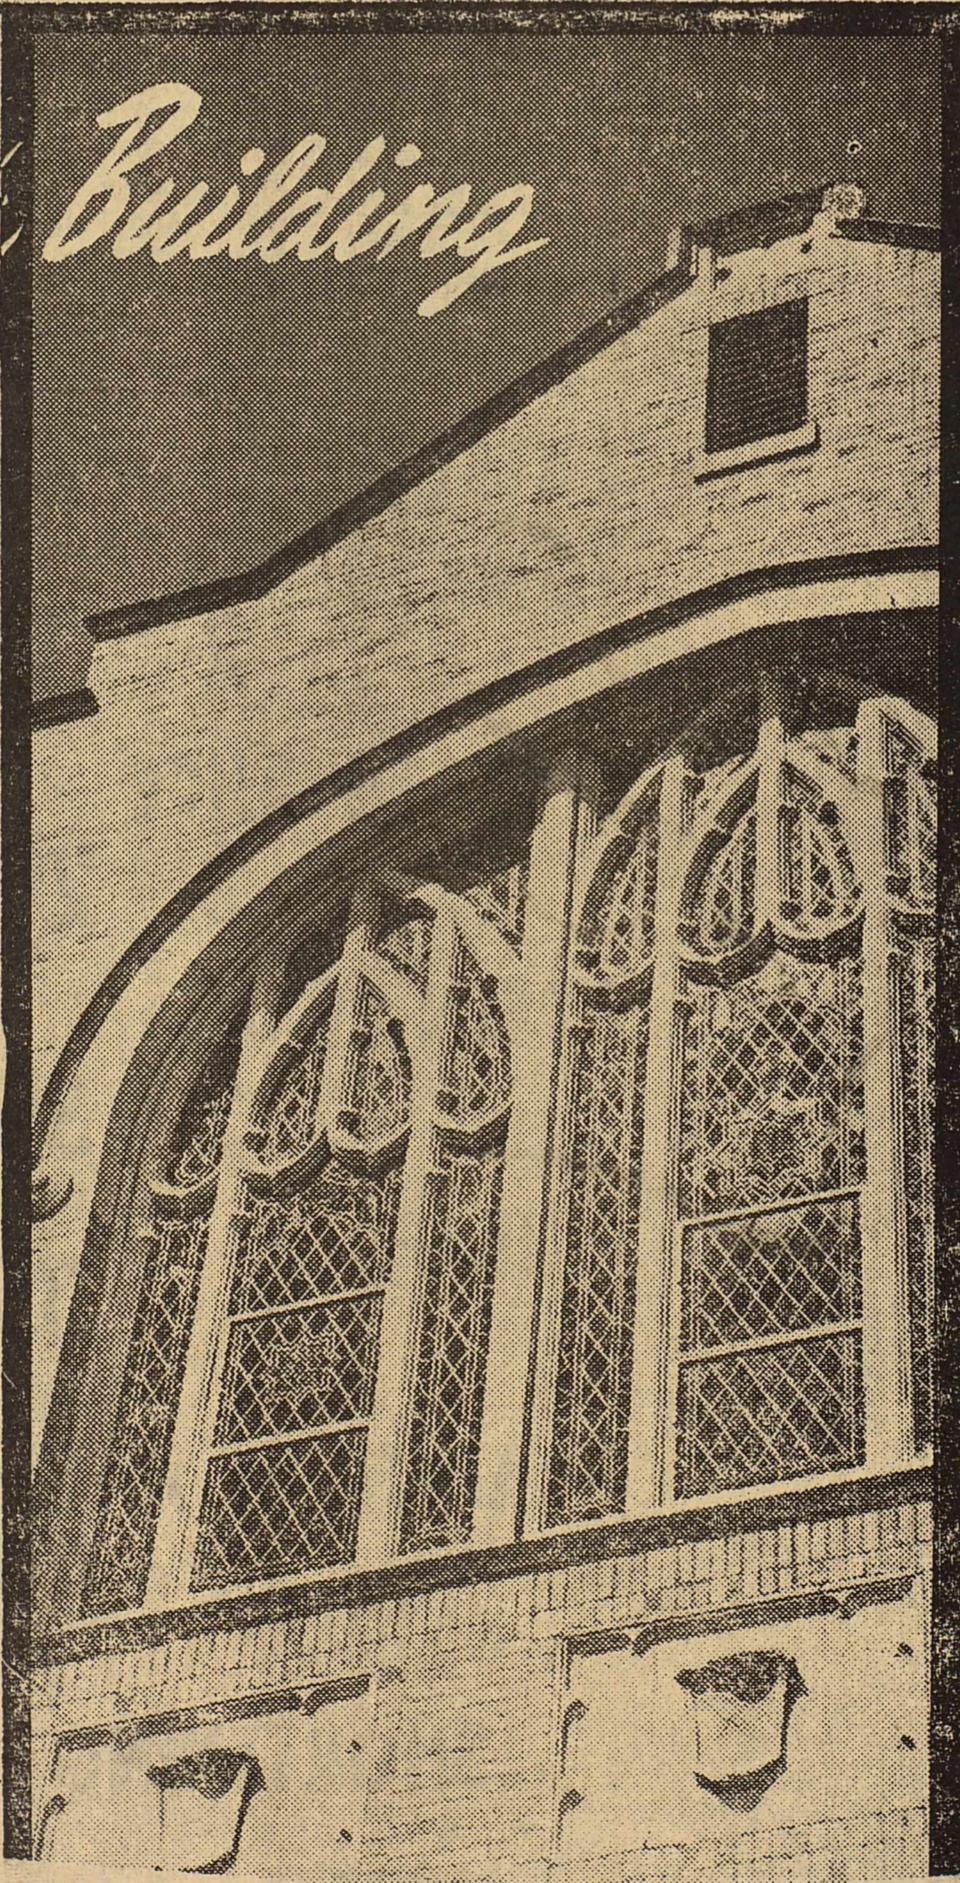

This is only a building, but it is a special building for it is the worship place for God's people. It is a place where one may go to study and hear God's word preached.

"... faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

If there are unanswered questions in your mind... go... seek... and find God in his house this Sunday.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Peace Corps Placement Test

A new round of Peace Corps Placement Tests will be given at 8:30 a.m. February 17th in centers throughout the country.

Those taking the tests will be considered for the many new projects scheduled to begin this spring and summer in Africa, Asia, and Latin America.

Anyone interested in applying for these projects may do so by taking the tests and then filling in a Peace Corps questionnaire, or vice versa.

Among the many fields providing opportunities for Peace Corps service are teaching, nursing, engineering, plumbing, carpentry, agriculture, medicine, home economics, architecture, city planning, geology, physical education.

While some of the projects call for technical skills, many others require men and women without such formal or specialized training. Among these are liberal arts graduates for community development projects and people with general farming backgrounds to serve as instructor-demonstrators in poultry and livestock care, irrigation, fertilization, and horticulture.

"No one should automatically exclude himself from consideration because he considers himself either too highly skilled or not skilled enough," Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver said in announcing the tests. "We will match qualifications to the growing requests we are receiving from abroad."

The minimum age for applicants is 18; there is no maximum.

At the testing centers, each person will be given his choice between two types of placement tests.

One is for men and women who would like to be considered for positions as secondary-school or college teachers. To take one of these tests, you need a bachelor's degree but you do not need to be an accredited teacher.

The other test is for everyone else who wants to serve in the Peace Corps.

After a break for lunch, anyone who wishes may return for an additional optional hour of testing in a field not covered by the morning session.

Cattle Market Slow in January

Fort Worth - The market for fed cattle was marked by a slow-up in demand during January with plainer quality offerings meeting most buyer resistance.

According to the latest monthly summary published by the Cattle Feeders Division of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, several factors contributed to the decreased demand. Lloyd Bergsma, director of the Cattle Feeders Division, said heavy contracting during November and December for delivery of fed cattle during January somewhat limited the buying activity of some packers.

Bergsma pointed out that adverse weather conditions during the month also reduced activity and that the USDA release of January 17 indicating that numbers on feed were up to two percent in the 26 major feeding states may have contributed to a slow-up in demand.

The USDA report showed that the number of cattle and calves on feed in Texas feedlots, Jan. 1, was at an all time high of 323,000 head. This was 27 percent more than were on feed in Texas Jan. 1, 1961.

"Even though cattle numbers on feed in the U. S. were up, this does not necessarily mean that the production of fed beef will be increased," Bergsma emphasized. "For the week ending January 20, the average weight of cattle slaughtered under federal inspection was 31 pounds below the same week in 1961."

Prices paid for most classes of fed cattle during the week ending January 26 were steady to weak compared with prices paid during the last week of December. Cattle grading high good and choice continued in strong demand and sold about steady throughout the month. Cattle weighing 700 pounds and up and grading standard and low good suffered the most severe price reductions. This class of cattle was selling as much as $1.50 per hundred below December price levels in some markets in the state.

Dressed meat prices suffered price weakness early in January but improved late and closed at steady to higher price levels. Choice steer carcasses weighing 500-600 pounds sold at $43-$43.50 in Los Angeles during the week ending Jan. 26. This was the same price which was paid during the week ending Jan. 5.

For the week ending Jan 20, most classes of steer and heifer beef were selling below the price levels of the same week during 1961. At the same time fed cattle were generally selling below the price levels of the same week during 1961.

Adverse weather conditions and record-breaking cold during the month of January caused small grain pasture carrying capacities to be greatly reduced. Receipts of feeder cattle increased and price declines were recorded during the early part of the month. Feedlot operators were confronted with problems in handling cattle they presently had in their feedlots during adverse weather and were not particularly interested in receiving cattle at that time. Improvement in the weather resulted in a part of the price decline being recovered. Because of the poor pasture conditions many of the cattle coming from the small grain pastures are not carrying the condition and finish that they normally would. This will result in a longer feeding period for the small grain pasture cattle.

Feedlot operators generally are interested in purchasing replacement cattle but have been extremely reluctant to increase their bidding prices. Some pessimism regarding the late spring and early summer slaughter cattle markets is apparent.

Records Are Essential for Success

College Station, Feb. --Good farm records are essential for a successful operation, says Cecil Parker, extension farm management specialist. Records provide the proof of past performance, and they are an indication of the potential of a given farm, farm manager and the technology used.

Proper records will allow the farmer to compare one enterprise with another and they are very important when the farmer wants to combine enterprises. An analysis of a good set of records will point out the strong and weak points of the business, and they are also handy to have around when it comes time to file income tax.

The type of record book or system you use depends on what you want your records to do for you, says Parker. The minimum record should include an inventory of land, buildings, equipment, livestock and supplies; all expenses grouped by kind; all income received; land use and production of crops and livestock; and a place to summarize the year's operation. The more details the record shows the more valuable it will be.

Parker says this is a good time to get your records for 1962 started, and it is also a good time to study last year's records to determine if any changes need to be made. It is easier to keep good records if you have a special place to work. Entries should be made as soon as they occur or as soon thereafter as possible, Parker advises.

If you need help in setting up your records or in analyzing your old one, see your local county agent. He can start you on the road to good records.

boys meet O'Donnell on a neutral court for a district play-off. Coach Sewell has expressed confidence that Plains fans will be treated to a fine exhibition of ball in that event. Sewell stated that he feels quite sure that the local team would certainly be keyed up to a high point for that game if that eventuality should come to pass.

Hanna-- draws nearer. Buddy Hanna, local Plains businessman, owner of Buddy's Auto Parts, made official his intention of seeking the post of Mayor of Plains.

Ed Hunter and Vance Glover, also both local businessmen, announced their intentions to seek the posts of city councilmen.

Filing deadline for the city elections is March 2 and date of the election is the first Tuesday in April, or this year, April 3.
