Big Gain In Cotton On Plains

The South Plains cotton harvest continued to gain momentum this week and was ahead of the pace of the 1966 harvest, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the USDA.

Forty-seven hundred samples were classed at the Lubbock office during the week ending Wednesday, October 18th, bringing the total classed this season to 7,300. Through October 18th last year only 2,900 samples of the 1966 cotton crop had been classed.

Most of the cotton harvested this season has been long staple varieties and has been hand-snapped and machine picked.

The quality of these early harvested bales has been excellent. Grades have been predominantly Middling, and average staple length as averaged better than 1-1/8 inch. Micronaire has been excellent with approximately 97% miking 3.5 and better.

Prices paid for these early bales indicate a strong demand for South Plains Cotton. Cotton prices paid South Plains farmers as reported by the Consumer and Marketing Service of the USDA, generally ranged from $7.50 per bale over the loan for short staple cotton up to $65.00 per bale over the loan for 1-3/32 inch and longer cotton.

Prices paid farmers for cottonseed ranged from $52 to $57 per ton.

1968 Rules ASC Lease; Allotment

The following is a news release by W. M. Overton, Office Manager, ASCS:

Cotton Allotment Transfer by Sale and Lease Regulations: 1. Farms eligible to receive purchased or leased cotton allotment are farms that had an allotment determined for the farm for 1965 and for the current year.

2. Final date to file applications for transfers is Jan. 2, 1968.

3. Applications are filed with the county committee of the county where the farm from which the allotment is to be transferred is located.

4. Any owner or operator of an eligible farm may buy or lease allotment acreages, for transfer to such farm. The owner and operator (acting together if separate persons) of any eligible farm for which an upland cotton allotment is established may sell or lease allotment from such farm.

5. Transfers may be for a period of years agreed upon by the interested parties.

6. Allotments cannot be transferred from a farm subject to a mortgage or other lien unless the lienholder agrees to the transfer.

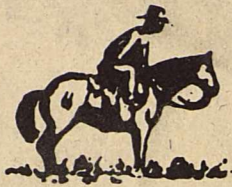

7. The acreage transferred will be reduced if the receiving farm has a projected yield more than 10% higher than the projected yield of the transferring farm. If the projected yield of the transferring farm is within 10% or higher than the receiving farm the transfer will be acre for acre.

8. Allotments by sale and lease cannot be transferred to a farm and from the same farm during a single crop year. Transfers by sale and lease of allotment to farms outside the county cannot be made unless cotton producers within the county from which the allotment is to be transferred have approved by two-thirds vote to permit such transfers. A list of the approved counties may be obtained at the local ASCS office.

9. The acreage that may be transferred to a farm cannot exceed the available crop land on the receiving farm or

New Editor And Publisher For The Plains Record

It was announced this week that the Plains Record has a new editor and publisher. Joe D. Hughes, former editor of the Pecos Enterprise and Lovington Leader has purchased the Record from Harry W. Cayce.

The sale was effective prior to this week's publication. Hughes assumed his new duties immediately after closing the sale of the paper.

The new editor and publisher has a solid background of editing papers, stated Harry Cayce. Cayce said that Hughes gained much valuable experience when he was editor of the Lovington Leader from 1964-66. Hughes is also a native of Lovington, and knows people in Yoakum County.

The former editor of the Record said that Hughes has wanted to go into business for himself, and that he made the decision recently to try to buy the local paper.

Cayce announced that he will not leave Plains immediately, and will look after his farming and other business interests in the area. Cayce stated that he is definitely planning to purchase another paper soon, but that he is not at liberty to state when or where.

The Cayces bought the Record from Johnny Moore, who moved to Slaton. After buying the paper, Cayce built a new building, and the building was included in the sale.

Wranglers Blank Morton Braves

Coach Bob Gross's high-flying Wrangler seventh and eighth grade football squads invaded Indian Field in Morton last Thursday and shattered the Tribe's hopes of spoiling their record of being undefeated and un-scored upon in the first four games this year.

The Wranglers pulled the feathers from the war bonnets of the Braves with a hard fought 14-0 seventh grade win, and another difficult contest for the eighth grade by a 12-0 score.

In the seventh grade game the score stood 0-0 mid-way in the last quarter when David Sewell raced around end on a sweep to get his team on the scoreboard and to erase the goose egg.

The two-point conversion was good, and Plains managed to get six more when J. L. Neal scored late in the game. The seventh grade protected its clean slate and finished the game with a 14-0 take-home score.

The eighth grade got on the scoreboard in the first half when Mike Cayce crashed through the right side of the line for pay dirt on a 22 yd. run. The conversion effort failed, and the Wranglers got off to a six-point advantage.

Shelly Simpson managed to score for Plains with a fast around run, and that proved to be the game. The Wranglers put up a stout defense to hold their record in tact, and once more shut out their war party opponents to remain un-defeated and un-scored upon for the season.

Coach Gross said he was pleased with the Morton game, and believed his Wranglers played a good game. The Plains Wranglers will face the Seagraves Eagles at Cowboy field today at 4:30 p.m.

Queen To Reign At Halloween

Plans are being completed for the annual coronation of the Halloween Queen at the auditorium of Plains High School at 7:30 p.m. October 28th with queen candidates from the junior and senior high schools and their escorts participating in the pageantry. After the 1967 coronation, the queen and her court will open gala activities at the carnival, which will be at the Yoakum County Livestock barns.

Candidates and their escorts include:

Pam Lloyd and Ceth Lewis, 5th Grade; LaWane Badgett and Barry Fisher, 6th Grade; Kay Swann and Joey Lowe, 7th Grade; Lynne Fitzgerald and Ace Hamm, 8th grade; Gail Ancinec and Mike Loe, 9th Grade; Phyllis Krieg and Mike Houghs, 10th grade; Ruby Ethridge and Billy Spencer, 11th grade; and Linda Blair and Joe Beal, 12th Grade.

After the crowning of the queen in the auditorium, a fun night is slated to be staged in the Livestock Barns. Trick or Treat costumed witches and goblins will be on hand, as will the high school students, to enjoy the carnival atmosphere.

Parents are urged to also attend the program in the auditorium and the carnival which is to follow.

Classes will have their concessions and booths set up at the carnival in order to help raise funds for the year.

The annual carnival and coronation is one of the highlights of the Plains school year. The smaller children usually go trick or treating on this night, therefore townspeople are asked to remember the children who will be coming to the homes in costumes for goodies that night.

The results of the queen's contest will remain secret until the coronation of the queen at the program before the carnival begins.

Eagles Defeat Plains Cowboys

A gallant band of Plains Cowboys attempted to dethrone the Seagraves Eagles from their number one perch in the state Friday night, and until the middle of the third quarter it looked like they might be successful in holding the Warbirds.

When the gun ended the first half, the score was deadlocked at 0-0. It was not until the clock showed 5:30 in the first half, that Seagraves managed to break the tie. The kick failed, and the score was 6-0.

The eagles kicked to Plains, and the Cowboys went to the air, but an Eagle flew high into the sky and intercepted a bomb and flew untouched the 45 yards to the goal for another touchdown, and it was a repeat of previous attractions, as the boot went wide. The score stood at 12-0.

Late in the third quarter the Cowboys drove deep into Eagle territory, and Gregg Jones scored on the first play of the fourth quarter to put the Cowboy team back into the contest. The Pokes held Seagraves and took over their 23 late in the last quarter.

After putting together two first downs and picking up what would have been a third, a costly fumble sent the pig skin into the air. Eagle luck held, as Seagraves recovered the ball. They ground out the clock and scored. The kick was good and Plains found itself in the desperate situation of playing catch-up to the tune of 19-7.

With little time left, the Pokes lost the ball after a desperation attempt to score with speed, and Seagraves ground out the clock and scored again. The final score, 26-7.

In other action in District 5A last Friday, Coahoma defeated Tahoka. Both Coahoma and Tahoka must face Seagraves, and in the event that Seagraves should be defeated, the Cowboys could still win a share of the crown.

Plains meets O'Donnell here at 7:30 Friday night. Plains will be favored by 40 points to down O'Donnell and keep their hopes of a district Championship alive.

Americans Look At Vietnam War

By Senator John Tower

This week the national discussion and debate about Vietnam has taken a new, and highly significant turn. For the first time the Administration has effectively stated the extent of American national interest in the preservation of Asian order.

This statement by the Administration came in remarks of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and in a speech by Vice President Hubert Humphrey. The message of each was clear—the national security, self interest of the United States is indeed, the major factor dictating our participation in the Vietnam war.

I was very glad to hear Administration spokesmen point this fact out. It is something I have been telling audiences all over our country for the last two years. And I believe much of the current confusion in our country over Vietnam has been unnecessarily stirred up because, up until now, the Administration has refused to articulate our national position in Asia; referring rather to the allegation that we are in Vietnam because South Vietnam asked us in.

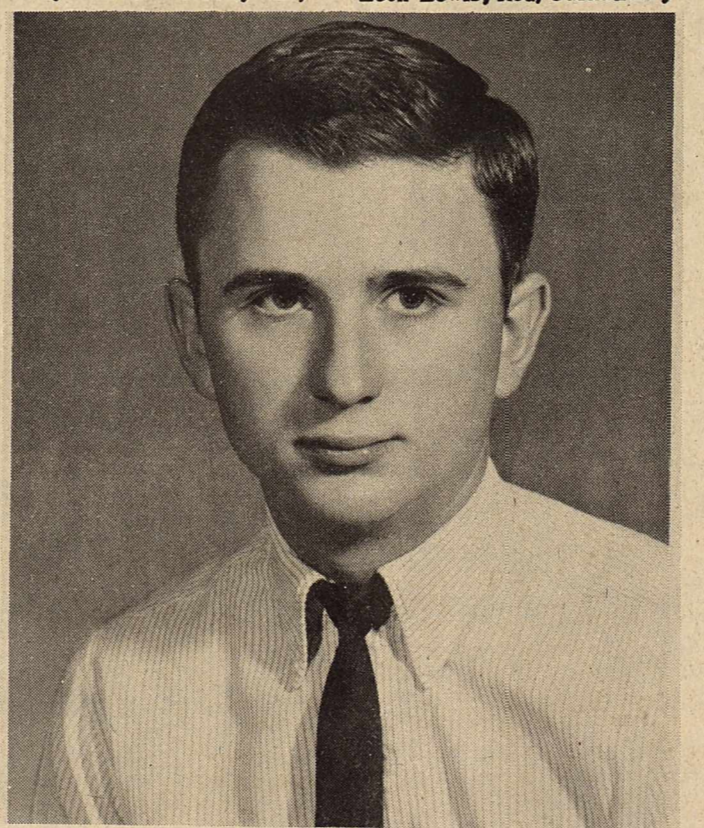

It always has been clear to the American public that a simple request to help is not sufficient cause for the major commitment of life and resources that we have mounted. Therefore, it is not surprising that when given such a half-hearted reason for our being there, many Americans have suggested that we get out.

But the humanitarian desire to help never has been the key reason we are in Vietnam. The real reason is that it is in our own self interest to be there.

As Secretary Rusk put it this week:

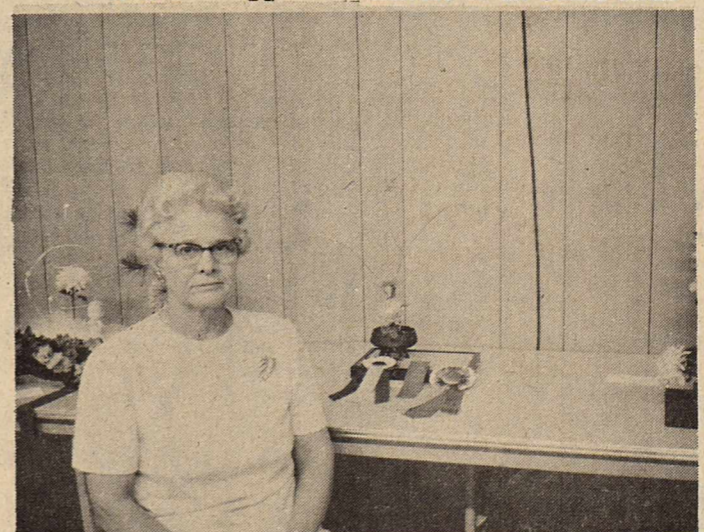

"Within the next decade or

There comes a time in an editor's life when he realizes that he is writing '30' to his column. There is much that he would like to say in shuffling off the page for the last time, but often the words just won't come.

against our American principles. I am proud to be an American. I am proud that I am an American Veteran who volunteered to defend the honor of our country in war time. I am proud to have been an editor who called it treason when rabble burned our flag and demonstrated against our government with violence. I am proud that I would rather see my children buried in Vietnam than to see them burn their draft card, or show disrespect to the flag that I love so very much. I am proud that as an editor I have stressed respect for law and order, and have called vandals punks, and have urged others to join me. An editor makes few friends, but if he does his job, he needs no sleeping pills when he goes to bed. Tonight I can sleep knowing that ours was a Freedom Paper, and I believe it will be one under the direction of our new editor. two there will be a billion Chinese on the mainland armed with nuclear weapons...It is not very attractive to think of the world cut in two by Asian Communism...with the billions of free Asians under the deadly and constant pressure of Peking, so that their future is circumscribed by fear."

Vice President Humphrey stated it even more clearly and forcefully when he subsequently said: "The threat to world peace today is militant, aggressive Asian Communism, with its headquarters in Peking, China. The aggression of North Vietnam is but the most current and immediate action of Asian Communism."

If Asian Communism succeeds in conquering South Vietnam, the Vice President said, "It would add to the strength of Communism in both Asia and Europe. It would represent a defeat not only for America but for freedom everywhere. The entire power structure of the world would be destroyed."

These matters of American national interest are the Vietnam factors which have always most deeply concerned me—the need for our country to keep its defense perimeters as far from our own shores and as close to the enemy's shores as possible—the constant guarantee that a treaty entered into by the United States will be honored by the United States. With these things in mind, I make a major address to the people of Texas as long ago as February of 1966.

What I said then is what Administration officials have belatedly said this week. Let me repeat some of it for you. I said that:

"We want a peace lesson to be learned by the Asian Communists today -- just as it was learned by the Russians in Europe and Latin America. By standing firm today, we are avoiding a bigger battle later. By standing firm today, we are doing all we can do to guarantee peace for the world future."

Vietnam cannot be divorced from the long-term, main-event struggle against communism. This confrontation with the Reds has been going on throughout the 20 years since the end of World War II. Vietnam is but an episode in a drama that previously involved Berlin, Iran, Turkey, Greece, Italy, Malaysia, the Philippines, Korea, Cuba, Lebanon, and the Dominican Republic.

"We continue to have such episodes because first the Soviet Communists have thought they can eventually have their way by fighting. They are wrong, but they certainly will not be convinced of that if we abandon Vietnam."

"The United States is not at fault in this battle, as some of the peaceniks and beatniks would have us believe. The United States did not attack across a sovereign boundary in Korea. The United States did not blockade Berlin nor build a wall, nor crush Hungarian freedom. The United States did not subjugate the Cuban people or send guerrilla terrorists into Venezuela, Columbia and the Dominican Republic. The United States did not break the Geneva accords by terrorist attacks in Laos and South Vietnam -- Hanoi did. "America has been on the right side of these events. Communism has been in the wrong. It is communism which continues to endanger world peace and world order. It is America which defends world order and strives for world peace."

Those were my views two years ago. They are my views -- and the Administration's -- today. Vietnam is one of the international actions by which the United States defends its own national interest and its own national security.

Tsa Mo Ga Hears Ted Weaver

The Tsa Mo Ga study Club met at 8:00 p.m. October 23, 1967 in the Club House for the "Texas Day" program. Twenty members answered roll call by commenting on proposed amendments to be voted on Nov. 11. Mrs. Harry Cayce was program director. She presented Mr. Ted Weaver, candidate for State Representative. Mr. Weaver is a graduate of Texas Tech with a degree in government and has been teaching in the Muleshoe School system.

Mr. Weaver stated for our nation to remain a proud, free one, we must exercise the privilege to vote. To vote intelligently, we must be informed. Our Texas Constitution has been amended 178 times compared with 23 amendments for our national constitution. Mr. Weaver expressed the opinion that our whole constitution needs to be revised so these amendments would not need to be voted so often. The elected who govern must work within the framework of the constitution, so if a proposition not included in the framework is proposed, an amendment must be presented to the people and voted on.

The first amendment coming to a vote on Nov. 11, 1967, proposes to change the handling of tax money collected in a county. This money has been designated, state, road, bridge, etc. If carried, the money would go into one fund to be disbursed as seen fit by county officers.

The second amendment has to do with hospital districts. County lines have designated the line heretofore. It is proposed that larger districts could operate more efficiently and prevent federal funds being used.

Number three has to do with the Veteran's Land Program. The land program started in 1946 from a custom that began centuries ago, ended Nov. 30, 1965, after its second successive defeat.

Bill number four would provide funds to take care of law officials injured in their line of duty.

Number five would provide 75 million dollars in bonds to purchase and develop park lands. Our population is growing and tourists could well be our number one industry.

Number six deals with non-elective state officers and officials. Teachers, for example, cannot serve on a state board and teach at the same time.

This special election was called when Jesse George resigned and for economy's sake was put on the same ballot with the amendments.

Mr. Weaver shared with us some of the funny incidents that he had encountered during eleven weeks of campaigning.

Mr. M. W. Luna and Mrs. R. B. Jones served pecan and berry pie, tea and coffee during the social hour.

Tickets were distributed for the cedar chest. It and its contents are being displayed in the window of Moore & Oden here in Plains. Members are filling it with linens. The tickets can be purchased from any Tsa Mo Ga member. The Bazaar will be November 13, 1967, at the Boy Scout Hut.

Tarkington-Moore Vows Exchanged

Miss Martha Tarkington and Mr. George Moore were united in marriage at 7:00 p.m. Thursday, October 12, 1967, in the Plains Assembly of God Church with the Rev. James Futch of the First Methodist Church reading the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Homer A. Tarkington of Plains. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore of Rockdale are the parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. Tarkington presented his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor length gown fashioned of Chantilly lace over taffeta, featuring a sculptured bodice and a scooped neckline, outlined with seed pearls, and long petal point sleeves.

The skirt fell from a narrow crushed cumberbund, highlighted with motifs of lace encrusted with seed pearls. The scalloped bustle back emphasized a chapel train.

Her veil of imported silk illusion was attached to flowers with forehead sprays of lily of the valley. The bride carried an orchid bouquet atop a white Bible.

Serving as Matron of Honor was Mrs. Cordell Huddleston of Plains. Her dress of blue brocade featured a long skirt, scooped neck and a bustle effect. She carried a long stem white rose.

Mrs. Pat Dobbs of Knox City, Texas, sister of the bride furnished wedding music as Miss Sharon Tarkington and Mrs. Bob Cox sang 'God Made You For Me.'

Serving as Best Man was Calvin Smith of Plains. Ushers were Ted Parson of Odessa and Jimmy Massey of Plains.

Mrs. Jim Barron registered the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Club Room. Members of the house-party included Mrs. Becky Jackson of Sawyer Oklahoma and Mrs. Pat Dobbs of Odessa, sisters of the bride.

Local Boy Exhibits At State Fair

Kreig Blount returned from the State Fair of Texas last week after exhibiting two Hampshire barrows in the junior Barrow Show. His light weight barrow did not place but the heavy barrow placed 25th in a class of 54 animals.

This is Kreig's first year to exhibit in any show other than the Yoakum County Show. He is a 9 year old 4-H Club member and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blount. Kreig has some registered Duroc hogs as a part of his 4-H swine program but the two barrows he exhibited at Dallas were Hampshires that he bought last May from Oscar Henard.

Notice

The senior class wishes to announce that they have scheduled a car wash at Nelm's Texaco and a bake sale at the post office, both starting at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 28.

WHERE IN THE WORLD

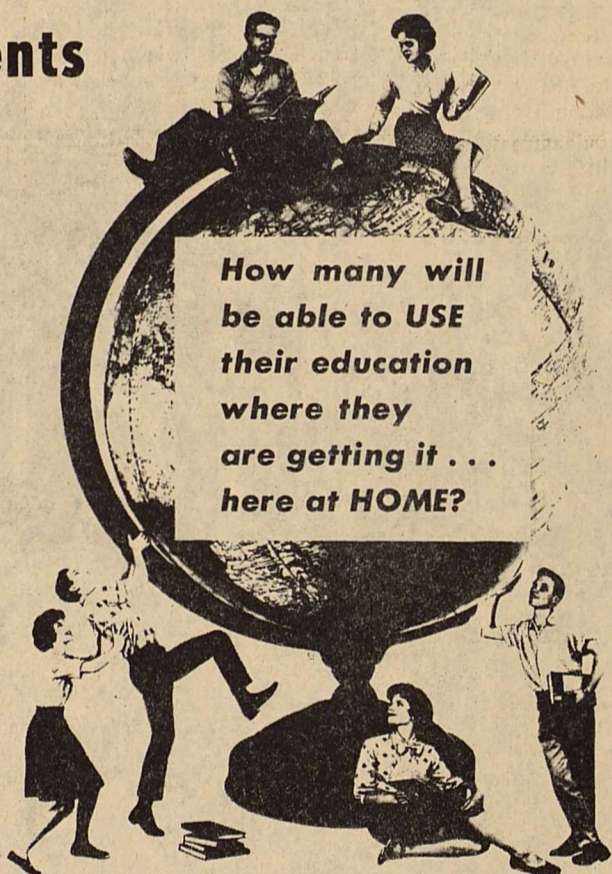

will our school students go to build careers for themselves?

(WHAT PART CAN YOU PLAY IN ANSWERING THIS QUESTION?)

Right now it's back-to-school for the book-toters of our town. Before you know it, they'll be graduating! Many will go on to higher learning. Ultimately all of them will have a decision to make, as to WHERE they can best build their careers.

It takes a GROWING community to provide adequate scope for the rightful ambitions of young people. What can YOU do about this? One very important thing: You can spend MORE of your shopping dollars at home, where they will stimulate local trade and business, spark expansion, help create more employment opportunities, help maintain first class schools and other civic services that will attract new residents and new industries. You help our young people, our town, and YOURSELF, when you . . .

How many will be able to USE their education where they are getting it . . . here at HOME?

13. Ownership transfers may be made to farms that do not have 1965 cotton history if otherwise eligible.
14. There were 3793.5 acres of cotton allotment transferred into Yoakum County by purchase and ownership in 1966 and 764.1 in 1967. The leased acres in 1966 totaled 1581.1 acres and 2333.9 acres for 1967.

Cowboy Corral

Unfortunately, last Friday night was an off night for the Cowboys. During the first half, it looked as though it was going to be a sure victory, but the Eagles overpowered the Cowboys during the second half, partly by their gigantic size. The final score proved 26-7.
However, there is a certainty that we will have a great come-back this Friday night when the Cowboys meet the O'Donnell Eagles in the Plains Stadium at 7:30 p.m. This will be the last game here, so let's give them all our support.
We'd like to thank the bank and the twirlers for their fine halftime performance.
There was a lot of spirit going around. Last week during the pep rally, the Seniors won the "Spirit Stick". The only class that has failed to do this so far is the Sophomore Class. Let's go, Sophomores!
The B-team game tonight will be at Seagraves where we plan to cage a bird, So Cowboys, be No. 1!
The Halloween Queen coronation will be at 7:00 p.m. in the high school auditorium Saturday, the 28th. The carnival at the stock barns will precede the crowning of the queen. The candidates for queen are as follows: (From Freshman to Senior) Gail Ancinec, escorted by Mike Loe, Phyllis Krieg, escorted by Mike Hughes, Ruby Ethridge, escorted by Billy Spencer, and Linda Blair, escorted by Joe Beal.
Students have been working hard washing cars and selling candy and cakes in order to obtain money for their candidate. Classes will also be working at booths at the carnival. Half of the money made at these booths will go to the classes and half will go to the Annual Staff for the publishing of the annual. Seniors will be raffling off an apron with 36 dollars in its pockets. If anyone sees a senior flag him down, we hope that he will buy one. Gook Luck, Seniors.
Criticism, in a way, is a compliment. It shows you did something too important for the critics to ignore.
IN THE HALLS OF P.H.S.
Last week, in one of Mr. Aikins' spellbinding Biology lectures, he confronted Lou Ella Turner with this scientific question, "What can you tell me about nitrates?"
Lou Ella answered, "They're cheaper than day rates."
