WINTERS WINS ALL THREE TROPHIES AT COUNTY MEET

Three beautiful silver cups adorned the high school chapel hall this week as a result of the united work of the Winters students in athletic and literary events in the County Meet held in Ballinger Saturday.

The largest cup was presented by the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce to the Class A school scoring the largest amount of points. This cup was won by all the students of the school who even won only second or third places, and also by those who added to the fiery determination and spirit of winning.

The two debating cups were offered by the Winters high school students and the Winters Chamber of Commerce and were won by Leon Campbell, Glee Ingram, Auburn Neely and Benton Neely.

The spirit of our old school finds expression in its determination in Emerson's lines:
"When duty whispers low, 'Thou must,'
The youth replies, 'I can.'"

Nance-Brown Motor Co. Has Successful Opening Last Friday

Nance-Brown Motor Co., local Ford dealers, held their formal opening last Friday afternoon and evening. The occasion was opened by a parade of the entire force dressed in white uniforms with novelty advertising Ford paper caps, the parade being made with the entire force loaded in a Ford truck.

The visitors were escorted through every department of this up-to-the-minute agency and shown the many facilities used to insure accurate and prompt service. We heard a gentleman remark after going through the establishment that there "is no doubt in my mind that this is the place to carry your Ford when any kind of repairs are necessary."

Refreshments consisting of lemonade and sandwiches were served throughout the afternoon and evening, Messrs. Nance and Brown being assisted in registering and serving their guests by Misses Loye Kornegay, Jewel Harris, Carrie Flynt, Roberta Yates, Lera Holdridge, Mesdames Hart Phillips, Larkin Speer, J. O. Dowell, Katie B. Flynt and Marion Flynt. During the evening music was furnished by Carsey's orchestra of Ballinger.

During the afternoon and evening it is conservatively estimated that some 1,500 people visited the opening and something over 600 registered. A souvenir was given each guest.

A large glass bowl was filled with different sized ball bearings and each guest was given a guess as to how many balls were in the bowl. The guesses ranged all the way from 1000 to 20,500. The lucky guess was turned in by Mr. Graham of Wingate, being 1182. There were 1179 balls in the bowl. For being the one to make the closest guess, Mr. Graham was given a set of snubbers.

Some twenty-odd visitors of Rising Star, headed by Editor M. S. Sellers of the Rising Star Record, were here for the opening, Rising Star being the former home of Messrs. Nance and Brown. Editor Sellers was in our office during the afternoon and was very lavish in his praise of the Winters country and her public-spirited citizenship. If you'll pardon us, we'd like to thank Mr. Sellers for some very complimentary remarks made in regard to the Enterprise. He said the press gang of West Texas were all talking and complimenting us on the good paper going out from Winters.

C. F. Falls, cashier of the First National bank of Rising Star, brother-in-law of our Mr. Van Piercy, said: "I am very much in love with the Winters Country."

W. E. Tyler, cashier of the Continental State bank of Rising Star, after inspecting Kornegay's gin, said it was "the most complete and up-to-date gin plant I have ever had the pleasure of going through."

F. C. Gay, the Rising Star Chevrolet dealer, was very favorably impressed with the city and lavish in his praise of the entire territory.

F. W. Roberts, manager of the Star Trading Co., said: "This is the best looking farm country in the entire state, to my notion."

C. E. Joyce, manager Montgomery Motor Co., the Rising Star Ford dealers, was also quite complimentary in his remarks about the Winters Country.

H. S. Childress, gents' furnishing dealer of Rising Star, said: "When I struck the Winters country after leaving Ballinger I was very favorably impressed with the character of the farm homes and the farm lands which came into view. I am also impressed with your city and would like to compliment the town upon its beautiful church buildings."

H. G. Calendar of Roscoe, has accepted a position with Jackson & Holcomb's drug store. Mr. Calendar, who is a registered pharmacist, took up his new duties Monday, and will be glad to meet and make the acquaintances of our people at this popular drug store.

LIONS LADIES' NIGHT WAS HUGE SUCCESS

The Lions club Ladies' Night banquet, held at the Methodist church last Tuesday evening, was a success in every sense of the word, the attendance numbering something like eighty or ninety.

The spacious hall was beautifully decorated in festoons of pink and yellow crepe paper and large vases of roses. The table decorations carried out the Easter suggestion, where Bunny Rabbit was very prominent.

The menu consisted of sparkling grape juice, perfection salad, nuts in dainty little Easter baskets, turkey, dressing, cranberry jelly, peas, pickles, coffee, angel food cake and ice cream. The club, by a rising vote, extended thanks and appreciation to the Methodist ladies, who prepared and served this banquet.

President Paul Holcomb presided over the opening of the evening's entertainment, after which Lion E. A. Shepperd, as toastmaster, took charge.

The first numbers on the program were two selections by the male quartette of Abilene Christian college, a piano solo by Mrs. Buford Owens and a trombone solo by George Hill, all of which were rendered in a most creditable manner and very much enjoyed by the audience.

Lion W. H. Lynn was the first speaker on the program and told what the club as an organization stood for, which might be summed up by saying that the club stands for every public institution—the churches, schools, civic organizations—which has as an aim the producing of better citizenship and development of our town and country.

Lion Watts was the next speaker, and instead of the usual banquet stories, he compared the gatherings of the early day and those of the present.

Mrs. Paul Holcomb came next on the program and speaking as a member of the Literary and Service club, said the Lions could rely on the ladies of the town, and especially the members of the Literary and Service club, to render every assistance possible in any undertaking fostered by the Lions for the progress and up-building of the city, her churches, schools and other institutions.

Lion H. O. Jones, the next speaker, grew quite eloquent in discussing Lionism, having for his theme achievement and optimism. During the discussion of his subject Mr. Jones related the following story in giving his definition of an optimist: "A man was walking down the street when he was run down by a large tractor, breaking both his lower limbs. On the way to the hospital he was heard to remark: 'Oh, well, my trousers needed pressing anyway!'"

President Paul Holcomb, in making the report of the local club to District Governor R. D. Green, enumerated the following accomplishments and undertakings of the club: "Tinkle Park was fostered in the Lions club.

"Bought $400 worth of athletic equipment for high school.

"Backed up schools in everything they asked for.

"Assisted Chamber of Commerce in buying uniforms for band.

"Assisted Chamber of Commerce in obtaining funds for band trip to Mineral Wells.

"Obtained free express delivery for city of Winters.

"Behind hotel movement for Winters.

"Behind water movement for Winters, and many smaller things."

The address of the evening was made by R. D. Green of Abilene, district governor Lions clubs of Texas, who complimented the local club on its past achievement in tackling the big undertakings which will have to be surmounted in the near future, laying stress on the solving of our water supply. He also told of the activities of the clubs all over the state. He said he just missed by a small margin becoming a citizen of Winters.

REVIVAL MEETING METHODIST CHURCH

The revival meeting at the Methodist church begins Sunday. Monday night Rev. Alonzo Monk, Jr., will preach. Bro. Monk will preach for ten days, both night and morning. God has blessed him in revival meetings and in his pastorates. He is pastor of the First Methodist church of Mineral Wells, where a great meeting has just closed. The meeting lasted four weeks, during all of which time Bro. Monk did the preaching.

Some of our people who know of Rev. Alonzo Monk, Jr., wanted to get him in our meeting when we first made our plans, but at that time the way did not open up for him to come. But now we believe the Lord has opened the way, and he will be with us beginning Monday night.

We ask every reader to give the meeting the widest publicity in order that the most good may be accomplished.

To every man, woman, boy or girl who is not right with God, we give an earnest invitation to come to all these services. If you seek Him, he will be found by you. His promises are sure. His mercy endureth forever.

Every member of the church is urged to consecrate himself wholly to God's service and to do God's will in order that the lost may be saved.

All members of all other churches are invited to come and to cooperate with us during the revival.

"Him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out."—Publicity Committee.

YOUNG MAN RECEIVES AN UGLY WOUND LAST MONDAY EVENING

Elmer Speer happened to a very painful, though we hope not serious accident, last Monday evening when in scuffling with some other young men about 6:30 in front of Gambill & Robert's store he fell over the door of a coupe car, cutting his left arm quite severely on the glass door. He was carried into the City Drug Store where first aid was given the wounded member by Drs. Dixon and Jennings, later being carried to the sanitarium and at last reports was reported to be doing nicely. Had not medical aid been rendered so promptly, it is stated the young man stood a good chance of bleeding to death, as an artery and several veins were severed, the cut being to the bone.

Winters some ten or twelve years ago, and lamented the fact that circumstances took him to another city when he might have spent this time laboring with one of the most forward-looking and best people in the West.

George McDaniels of the Abilene Reporter came next on the program, and about all we can say about the remarks of this gentleman is that they were enjoyed to the fullest extent and caused ripple after ripple of laughter. If you had heard this spontaneous outpouring of oratory you'd know what we mean when we refuse to quote anything he said.

Mr. Gambill, a former citizen of Winters but now of Abilene, made a few remarks pertaining to the rapid growth of Winters during the past few years, saying the town was making real and rapid progress. He also paid a tribute to his friend, H. O. Jones.

Mr. Mitchell of Abilene Christian college, dramatic reader, rendered some two or three choice readings which, judging by the applause, "brought down the house."

All in all it was an enjoyable occasion which, to our mind, should be repeated more often in the future than it has been in the past.

Chamber of Commerce To Furnish Free Auctioneer in Effort to Get Buyer and Seller Together

Next Monday is the second Trades Day in Winters. The merchants of the town are offering some of the best bargains to be found in any man's town; bargains which will pay you to make a special trip to town to share in. Then, several of the merchants have on special sales besides the regular Trades Day specials.

The Chamber of Commerce is furnishing an auctioneer in an effort to bring seller and buyer together. If you have an article of value on your farm or in your home for which you don't have any further use, you are asked to bring it to town Trades Day and give the auctioneer an opportunity to "show his stuff." You, of course, will have the privilege of placing the price on the article you are willing to take for it. Don't bring worthless junk, only articles of value are wanted.

You'll be the loser if you fail to come to Winters next Monday and share in the many bargains being offered.

ROBERTS ELECTED MAYOR OF WINTERS

Last Tuesday was city election day in Winters. A mayor, city secretary and three aldermen were elected as follows:

For Mayor:
A. F. Roberts 319
For City Secretary:
Mrs. Roxie Floyd 152
Arthur Byers 92
Printiss Garrett 89

For Aldermen three to be elected:
Albert Spill 301
J. W. Coupland 286
Wiley Hines 286

Mayor-elect Roberts resigned as alderman in order to run for mayor, and Albert Spill was elected to fill the vacancy. Coupland and Hines being re-elected to the council.

There was a total of 333 votes cast which is considered a very light vote for this city.

The council is now composed of C. E. Seigler and J. W. Tanner, holdovers, and Albert Spill, J. W. Coupland and Wiley Hines. The newly elected officials will be inducted into office at the next regular meeting of the city council, which will be on the last Friday of this month, or April 24th.

Young Man Falls From Wagon and Is Killed

Roy Vancil Young, 27 years, seven months and two days of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young of Buffalo Gap, Texas, met a most tragic death last Saturday when he fell from a wagon loaded with hay, two wheels of the vehicle running over his head. He was a grandson of Uncle Hamp Vancil of Winters.

Roy Vancil Young was a young man of high character and was living a consecrated Christian life when the end came. Burial took place here in the New Cemetery last Sunday at 4 p. m., in charge of Spill Bros., funeral directors, being conducted by Rev. Wilson of Buffalo Gap and another minister whose name we failed to learn.

The pall bearers were Newt Pursley, Dave Floyd, C. J. Smith, Buffalo Gap; B. G. Owens, Ed Gee and Eugene Mullins of Winters.

The Enterprise, with other friends of the bereaved family, extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Former Winters Pastor Putting Over Big Program at Mart

The following received through the mails Wednesday, is given space because of the fact that Rev. Stanford is a former pastor of the Winters Methodist church:

"Sunday April 5th, was one of the greatest days in th history of the First Methodist church, Mart, Texas. $25,000. was the total cash collections on the campaign for funds to build one of the most modern churches in the country. The campaign began Tuesday and closed Sunday at 11 a. m.

"Sunday 11 a. m. closed a five weeks revival. The first three weeks Rev. Raymond Browning of Hendersonville, general evangelist did the preaching and James V. Reid of Ft. Worth did the singing. For the last two weeks, Rev. P. T. Stanford the pastor has carried the meeting on. The last day there were 30 conversions and reclamations at the Sunday school and morning service. 42 members have been received.

"The contract for the New church will be let April 28th, construction will begin in May. L. W. Hillman is Chairman of building committee, Rev. P. T. Stanford is the pastor.

Kirby Straightens Out Short Change Artist

George McDaniels, with the Abilene Reporter, while in the city to attend the "Ladies' Night" banquet of the Lions club, related to Sam Kirby, city marshal, some of the activities of a "short change" artist with Christy Bros., circus while showing in Abilene Monday.

A newsboy of the Abilene paper was out to the show and one of the ticket vendors noticed the boy with a $10 bill. He asked the boy to give him the bill for some smaller ones, which the boy did, and in the transaction the boy was short changed out of $5. When the story was told to Marshall Kirby here he went to the show grounds, found the "short change" artist and relieved him of the other $5 and gave it to Mr. McDaniels who carried it back to the newsboy at Abilene.

Mr. McDaniels, in relating the incident, praised very highly the efficiency of City Marshall Kirby.

Notice

With the consent of the Winters Enterprise and because of the enthusiasm of the Freshman Class, I have attempted to publish this little Freshman paper.

There will be somewhat of a class prophecy continued in the paper, which began on March 13.

The Future

By Jack Callan
Synopsis of First Part.

In a city like New York my ambition had seemed to melt. For months I had failed. After finding many friends which gave me new inspiration, I wrote what I hoped to be a masterpiece, which was accepted by the well-known publishers, Pumphrey, Connell & Collinsworth Co.

The winter months came on and among the tenements where heartache and suffering prevailed without the care and aid of those about me, I lay thinking of the days of long ago and looking through the pages of my Freshman Memory book.

My story was accepted, but was not in the least a success. Was it merely pity the reason it was accepted? No, this could not be so.

I was determined to leave it all and go to England. Without saying goodbye to my pals, I left on the steamer "Goodley" and was out on the great sea.

With my head bent low I walked slowly to the lunch table. Near the head was a low fleshy man whom I presumed to be the captain. He

"Why, yes, I am the king."

From that day forward I was a friend of this noble king.

I came to his palace and at a beautiful piano Zelma Dawson played. Memories came back to me of when she came to our school from Oklahoma, a talented musician.

Days and weeks had passed. The Duke of Wellington was to come to his majesty on this evening of which I was to be present.

"The Duke of Wellington," announced the butler, and a tall slender man walked in dressed in a dress suit, with patent leather shoes and a small moustache. I gazed at him and spoke:

"Excuse me, Duke, but I do remember you as J. L. Allred from good old Winters high, the school across those waters."

"Oh, my friend, Jack Callan, it gives me great pleasure to meet one of my former classmates here. Indeed, will you not meet my wife, Madame Clementine?"

As night drew on I had accepted the Duke's kind invitation and was in his beautiful home in the outskirts of London. To my amazement former Clementine McCaughn was the wife of this gallant man and she who had become a great author had been in those days of the past, a class poet.

A Letter from

Ralph Eason

Mrs. J. H. Hodge received the first of the past week the following letter from her little friend, Ralph Eason:

"Livingston, N. M., March 21.—Dear Mrs. Hodge: How are you today? I am at my Aunt Belle's today. I got here Tuesday night. Wednesday I caught 33 gold fish, and Thursday I caught five gold fish. I caught five gold fish Friday. Friday evening I went to town. When we came back I was walking around the tank and saw a whole lot of big gold fish and silver fish. I stuck my hand down in the water and caught a silver fish about 3 inches long and 1 1/2 inches wide. I have a harp and hummer. I walk around the tank and blow them at the cattle. They don't know what is the matter. Guess I better quit and try to catch some more fish. Your friend Ralph Eason."

Richard Barthelmess in West Point Drama at Queen Theatre

"Classmates," the First National production starring Richard Barthelmess showing at the Queen Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, presents West Point for the first time on any screen as the background of a silent drama.

The famous parades of the West Point cadets, pronounced the best drilled body of men in the world, have evoked cheers in theatres throughout both hemispheres. The Military academy officials, however, have always refused to permit the use of the West Point cadets for a photoplay story. They felt that the academy, sacred to the finest traditions of America, must be held as a thing apart.

That permission was accorded to Barthelmess to film "Classmates" within the walls of West Point was an unusual and signal honor to the young star. "Classmates" shows the actual life of a cadet through his four years at the academy. The West Point officials supervised every detail, even to the making of uniforms for Barthelmess and his company, so that "Classmates" is completely authentic.

Briefly, "Classmates" is the story of a poor boy of the North Carolina mountains who wins an appointment to West Point, loses his commission in a quarrel with another chap and finally redeems himself in an expedition into the South American jungle.

Here Barthelmess offers a superb characterization of the boy, Duncan Irving, growing into manhood. In the thrilling jungle scenes "Classmates" reaches unusual heights of interest and power.

In "Classmates" Barthelmess presents the greatest work of his screen career.

The production carries the official endorsement of Brigadier General Frederick Sladen, superintendent of West Point, and the officials of the academy. Incidentally, in presenting the life of a West Pointer, "Classmates" reveals a remarkable study of the development of a shy country boy into a man of force and character.

Isn't it nice to again see that fine old heading over the market reports, "Hogs Soar"?

PERFORMANCE COUNTS

It is the runs scored that win the game. Promises, past records etc., mean but little once the schedule season is under way. Consistently good performance day in and day out, individually and collectively, is what counts and is the deciding element which brings home "the bacon"—the pennant, or championship.

The advent of the baseball season offers an opportunity to point out to the citizens of Winters, how in civic affairs as well as on the sports fields, performance is what counts. It applies to Winters and to all of us as players, if this town is to be bigger, more prosperous and a winner.

We say we are going to patronize home industries, and boost our town, but—do we? Performance counts. A three-base hit in April may win one game—but what is needed is plenty of three-base hits every day, every month—to win a baseball pennant. And every member of the team has to come through with his share of hits.

So it is in this Trade-at-Home game. Every citizen has to do his bit. Day in and day out he must be standing up to the plate "batting them out" for Winters. If we all remember this and start now to playing the game hard for Winters we will win. We will have a bigger, better, and more prosperous town.

COMPERE & COUCH

Located on South Main Street. Sell the Famous Racine Tires and Tubes Exclusively

Prominent among the concerns that have aided the growth and expansion in Winters is Compere & Couch, an exclusive tire and tube house and the only one in Winters.

This concern was established in Winters on December 6 and has supplied the people of this town and country with this popular tire. The Winters house is a branch of the Abilene house, this company having a large one in that city, and from this they distribute this tire to their four branch houses and sell tires both wholesale and retail.

They handle the Racine tires and tubes only. This company is one of the oldest tire makers in the world today. They built the old Racine wagon, which was a preference with many farmers. When peasure buggies came into style they built the first rubber tire. From this they expanded into the making of automobile tires. All Racine tires are built four and six ply with a cushioned breaker which assures more comfort and more real road service with less punctures. But you may ask, why are Racine tires sold at such a low price? The reason is that this firm buys their tires and tubes in carload lots which means lower cost to them, and therefore lower cost to the customer.

The motto of this concern is, "One price to everybody, the best merchandise obtainable and service with a smile."

We are more than pleased to compliment this concern and predict for them a continued era of success and prosperity.

Tex Compere, a member of the firm, is manager of the Winters store. He is an affable gentleman, and will take pleasure in demonstrating the merits of the Racine tires and tubes.

Baby Fields Dies Suddenly

Little Dennis Monroe, Jr., age 3 years, 3 months, 15 days, was called away early Friday, April 3rd. Having been sick only one week his death was a severe shock to the family and friends. Cause of death was pneumonia. The golden gates were opened wide, A gentle voice said "come," And angels from the other side, Welcomed our loved one home. —Contributed.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of thanking our many friends and neighbors for their faithful kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our baby. May each of you be rewarded for your kindness.—Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Fields and relatives.

Delco Light Dealer on Way To Dayton

John W. Young, Delco-Light and Friddaire dealer of eleven West Texas counties, passed through here Saturday on his way to Dayton, Ohio, to attend the ninth Delco-Light convention, held April 9 and 10. He will join the distributors, dealers and salesmen of Texas at Fort Worth where they have a special train consisting of five Pullmans, baggage car, diner and observation car, which goes all the way through as a Texas special. Mr. Young is carrying plenty of West Texas advertising matter to let the world know that he lives in the best part of the United States. He expects to be away about two weeks and will visit his father and mother and other relatives near Springfield, Mo., on his return.

"The Thundering Herd" Is Historical Romance

"The Thundering Herd," which will be at the Mission is bound to appeal to all levels of humanity. It will be hailed with the keenest delight by the average movie-goer because it contains some brand new thrills and bristles with exciting action. It will meet with the universal favor of the younger generations because it combines just the right proportions of drama and romance. And it is certain to attract the scholar and student because of its historical background.

The picture is based on Lucien Hubbard's adaption of Zane Grey's famous novel, and is a story of the lawless west of 1870-76, when vast herds of buffalo roamed the plains and the Indian war cry was a thing of terror.

Briefly, it deals with the hardships of a caravan of pioneers who abandon their farms in the middle west and make a drive for the buffalo fields of Wyoming and Montana, at that time a wilderness inhabited by hostile Indians. More particularly, the story concerns the romance of Tom Doane and Milly Fayre—a romance which exemplifies that truth of that old adage, "the course of true love never did run smooth."

The exciting adventures of the pioneers which culminate in a terrific battle with the Indians, and the harrowing experiences of the young lovers which reach a smashing climax during a spectacular stampede of two thousand maddened buffalo, provide a choice assortment of dynamic thrills for audiences to enjoy.

Acting honors fall to the lot of Jack Holt, Lois Wilson, Noah Beery and Raymond Hatton, who effectively portray the leading roles. The entire production reflects great credit on William K. Howard, who directed the picture.

The trouble about a fellow who shoots his wife and children and then tries to kill himself is that he usually recovers.

Winters Folks Attend Brownwood Presbytery At Ballinger This Week

The Brownwood Presbytery of the Presbyterian church met in Ballinger last Tuesday and Wednesday, the following attending from Winters: Rev. Hal F. Smith, W. W. Hall, H. W. Lynn, W. R. Johnson and Mesdames Kate Vancil, Hal F. Smith, C. T. Rives, Van Zandt, W. R. Johnson, Townsend, H. W. Lynn, Cox, Dickenson and Pfeffer.

The ladies meeting was addressed by Mrs. A. B. Hodge of Waxahachie, on the subject of Missions, Wednesday evening, and we are told she made one of the most wonderful talks on the subject the Winters delegation had listened to in quite awhile.

During the business session of the Presbytery two local Presbyterians were highly honored. H. W. Lynn was elected as representative to the Synod which convenes in Dallas in July, and W. W. Hall was elected to represent the Presbytery in the General Assembly which will convene in Columbus, Ohio, May 21st.

REV. ALONZO MONK.

Rev. Alonzo Monk, pastor of the Methodist church of Mineral Wells, will arrive in the city Monday, April 13th to assist the pastor, Rev. Gid. J. Bryan, in the revival which is to start at the Methodist church Easter (next) Sunday. Bro. Monk is personally known to the writer and we do not hesitate in stating that he is one of God's noblemen, ever zealous and a consecrated worker in the vineyard of the Lord. We happen to know this good man during the time companies were being organized all over the country for the struggle with Germany, and his work during this period both for his Master and his country will cause us to ever have a warm spot in our hearts for him. As a preacher and evangelist we don't think our good Methodist friends could have secured better help in this special effort than Bro. Monk.

EASTER

"He is not here for he is risen, as he said.

Come, see the place where the Lord lay."

That blessed first Easter day in the early dawning light the good women went to anoint his broken body and found Him risen.

Never did Easter mean more than now and never did we need the meaning of Easter more than now. The world is full of sin and needs a Savior for it cannot help itself. Easter brings promise of forgiveness, and sins and hope for the life beyond the grave through Him who conquered both sin and the grave. It opens the door of opportunity into eternity and immortality.

In popularity alone, Christmas can claim precedence, but ranking in importance to everything held dear by the believer, Easter is the day preeminent of the year. Easter is a season of sweetness in Nature. The Christian might do well to put some of it into his own soul and bear himself in a state of peace and charity towards his fellowman, thus following the example of Christ, Him of the glorious resurrection, Him—the Prince of Peace.

The local churches have made special preparations for the beautiful services which the Day of Resurrection so deeply inspires.

EXEMPLARY SPORT

This is a notable year in baseball history as the National Baseball League is celebrating the completion of a half century of existence. The founders of the game could have had no conception of the wonderful popularity it has attained.

The season opens April 14, and then the race will be on for the league championships between the two big leagues, then the games for the world championships. Fans are reading the camp news and already making ing predictions who will be the permanent winners at the end of the season.

Baseball is a vital institution. It is healthful, wholesome sport. 'Tis an exemplary sport. Baseball has a stronger influence upon the sport standards and upon the personal integrity standards of the American youth, than any other game or form of recreation.

NEW STAMPS

April 15 will bring two new fractional stamps into use in connection with the new rate on third-class mail—a half-cent stamp and 1 1-2-cent stamp. Thus does the government imitate the bargain counter. Fractional currency of the past was used for convenience, but the 1925 fractional stamps are different. They arise because even the cent is not small enough to measure modern values accurately. Three other new stamps will also be issued as a result of the new postal rate law—a 25-cent "special handling" stamp, a 15-cent special delivery and 10-cent special delivery. These attractive new postage stamps, printed to meet the needs of the department, may help reconcile purchasers to the increase in postal rates.

PAULINA

The newspapers are devoting considerable space these days to Paulina Longworth. Paulina makes her home in Washington where her father is speaker of the house. We see by the papers that she has already had a glimpse of the White House, where her parents were married, and the home at the time of her grandfather, Theodore Roosevelt. It isn't decided yet whether Paulina's first assignment will be to the navy department, as assistant secretary, or to New York politics, as republican candidate for governor. It is understood that Paulina, who is just a few weeks old, doesn't care a darn.

"FATHER OF FOOTBALL" DEAD

Millions will regret that the career of Walter Camp, noted athlete and physical culturist, has been cut short at the comparatively young age of 65. As a rule athletes are not long lived. The death of Camp takes from the sport world its most outstanding figure, and from the great collegiate fame of football, which is distinctively American, the man who injected brain, where formerly it had been only brawn. In matters touching football he was the final authority, from which there could be no successful appeal. The splendid character of Walter Camp added to his popularity. He was a type that appealed to everyone, clean, dependable, honest and honorable. He was a figure of national importance, and his death is sincerely deplored all over the world.

I have just opened a repair shop and am ready to take care of your repair work. I repair guns, bicycles, make keys and general repair work. Hugh Cleveland.

The new one-half cent stamp has a portrait of Nathan Hale who will regret that his country did not have a whole cent to give him.

James J. Corbett is going on the lecture platform and in his case it is certain we shall get a lecture with a punch.

DRASCO

The Women Missionary society of the Baptist church met Monday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack West. Many of the ladies did fancy work. All enjoyed the company of Christian women. The victrola furnished music and the president, Mrs. E. W. Patterson, gave a reading. Delicious refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mesdames E. W. Patterson, Carlton Dobbins, James Mitchell, Henry Mitchell, Richard Puckett, Perry Wood, Vivian Wood, Tom Jones, T. J. Massengale, Nora Scott, Ida Scott, Eunice Scott, Lee Sanders, Lottie Hartley, Henry Hamilton, L. C. Bibb, B. Lewis, J. A. Horn, Misses Johnnie Patterson and Carrie Lee, Mrs. Small of Winters, Mesdames Dorsett and Moreland of Baldwin. The time to leave came too soon. Mrs. West was an ideal hostess.

Mr and Mrs. R. S. Stone entertained the young people Friday night.

Mrs. Houston Puckett gave a social to some little folks Saturday. An Easter egg hunt was enjoyed.

Misses Baxter of Franklin visited relatives here Sunday.

Friends of J. A. Smith will regret to learn that he is on the sick list.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Felon Crow will be glad to know they like their new home near Littlefield.

In the county contest for declamation at Ballinger for rural schools, Drasco won three first places. Jesse Horn as senior boy, Miss Winnie Mayhew as senior girl, Shelby Horn as junior boy. Mr. and Mrs. Pace, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Horn, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Belew, Mrs. Ed Belew and son, Paul, Nelson Crow, Miss Ruth Wooten, T. M. and Floyd Mayhew were the Drasco's visitors at the county meet.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hardy are the proud parents of a new son at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Bailey and son, Dr. Price, of Bradshaw were here Saturday.

Rev. Leland Malone of the eastern part of Texas, gave an interesting lecture and showed a number of pictures at the Baptist church Saturday night. A large crowd was present. Rev. Quindlin, the Baptist county missionary was here Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. John Riddle and children of Abilene were here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simpson of the Wingate community visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bellew Sunday.

Dr. Dixon of Winters was in our community recently.

Mrs. J. R. Seay is on the sick list. Dr. H. D. Sanders of Winters was at Drasco this week.

Rev. Preston Braxton preached at Pumphrey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Jones of Bradshaw visited Mrs. Jones' brother, J. A. Horn Saturday evening.

In the trustee election, S. H. Puckett was chosen trustee. The trustees are now: Vivian Wood, W. E. Jones and S. H. Puckett.

Quite a number of the Drasco's people are attending the Baptist revival in Winters. Rev. Winsett will conduct the Baptist revival here in July.

Mr. Osborne of Tuscola will be at Drasco next Sunday afternoon and will have a singing. Everybody invited to attend.

Many friends of Miss Alice Moreland of Wilmett, formerly of Drasco will be pleased to know that she is improving since her serious auto accident.

WITH THE BAPTISTS

Revival Closed With 89 Additions

Last Sunday night closed the series of revival services at the First Baptist church. Rev. "Jack" Winsett brought a wonderful message twice each day and as an influence and result from these Gospel Sermons we expect to, not only, raise the standards in our city, but also to meet us in the judgement. There were eighty-nine united with the church during the ten days of special services, one offered herself for special service and large numbers reconsecrated their lives to Service for Christ—determining to let the Winters people see Jesus in their every-day lives. Last Sunday afternoon at three thirty o'clock fifty-six were buried with Christ in Baptism—Picturing Christ's burial and resurrection to over one thousand people. Still others are waiting Baptism which will be next Sunday.

452 in Sunday School Last Sunday

There were 452 in Sunday school last Sunday, 15 star classes, 12 Honorable mention classes and several one-hundred per cent classes. This shows that real Sunday school work is being realized in our church. You be in your place next Sunday and let's bring the number to five hundred. Glad to have all new pupils.

G. A. Meets Next Monday at 4 p. m.

The G. A. will meet next Monday at four o'clock at the church. Let us try to make it one hundred per cent in attendance. This is to be a special meeting followed by an Easter social.

W. M. U. Goes to Ballinger the 17th.

Friday April 17th, will be associational study day for the Runnels county W. M. U. More than twenty ladies are planning to leave Winters in the morning and spend the day at Ballinger studying one of the books, "Decade of W. M. U." or "The Leven and The Woman in Japan." Make your plans to go with us.

Gandma McCastland Called Home Sunday

Grandmother McCastland died last Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Her husband had preceded her to the grave four years and four months. They had fourteen children, eight living and six dead. There were forty-three grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren. She had lived in Bradshaw twenty-five years and had been a faithful member of the Church of Christ for thirty-five years. She was loved by everybody and in return loved everybody. Among the many good things to be said of Grandmother McCastland is that even by those who knew her most intimately she was never known to speak evil of anyone.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist church, and perhaps the largest crowd that ever attended a funeral in the town of Bradshaw was present. Interment was made in the Bradshaw cemetery.

Mrs. L. S. Dewett and son, Freddie, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Goolsby, Mrs. Lula Corum of Littlefield are visiting relatives and friends in Winters this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Fielder arrived in Abilene Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from China, where, they have been doing mission work for the past five years. They had been on the road since March 3rd. They were met in Abilene by Miss Mary D. Taylor, sister of Mrs. Fielder and accompanied to Winters where they are visiting in the home of Mrs. Fielder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

Our revival meeting begins on this day. Remember this is Easter Sunday in commemoration of the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ the dead. Let us make it a day of earnest seeking of God. God never fails us when we trust him. Let us seek him with our whole hearts.

Let every unsaved person come to Jesus Christ, who came to seek and save the lost.

Let every backslidden person return to God who is merciful forever.

Norton Lady Breaks Leg While Escaping From a Cow

Mrs. Willie Overman, who lives in Norton, was brought into town last Saturday, suffering with a broken leg. In escaping the attack of an infuriated cow on their farm, she stepped into a hole and fell, resulting in the accident stated above. She is now at the home of her father-in-law, Mr. Overman, who resides on Albert street, and last reports stated she was doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. J. T. Stevenson, who was called to the sick bedside of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Lewis, in Los Angeles, Calif., arrived in that city Tuesday at 6 p. m., having left Winters last Sunday, and the many friends of the family will be pleased to learn Mrs. Stevenson found her daughter somewhat improved, but still very sick. In a telegram to Mr. Stevenson, received Wednesday, Mrs. Stevenson states that if nothing serious happens Mrs. Lewis is expected to recover in the course of time.

The W. M. S. of the First Methodist church met in the auditorium of the church on Monday afternoon at 8 o'clock and the regular monthly business meeting was held. Devotional was led by the president, Mrs. Bryan was elected corresponding secretary. The treasurer made the following report: Monies taken in during March, $109.50; monies expendent, $210.00. Total amount on hand, $8.45. The publicity superintendent reported that the two courses of study offered by the society, "Mission Work in China," and "Women of the Bible," are being largely attended. The agent of the "Voice" magazine stated that a number of subscriptions had been solicited and sent in.

Plans for the sample sale to be held in the Jordan building Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week were discussed. Committees were appointed to meet on Wednesday and arrange the various booths. The meeting was dismissed by Mrs. Bryan.

Meeting of Literary and Service Club
The Literary and Service club met on Thursday afternoon, April 2, at the home of Mrs. L. E. Lov. During the business session it was decided that next year's course of study would be Shakespeare.
The lesson for the afternoon was Gilbert Emery's "The Hero," and was very interesting under the leadership of Mrs. T. B. Jennings. Papers were given by Mrs. McAdams and Miss Josephine Heavenhill, followed by a round table discussion.

Presbyterian Missionary Society Met Monday
The Presbyterian W. M. S. had an interesting business and study meeting Monday afternoon at the church. Mrs. Rives, newly elected president, presided. Mrs. Vancil was appointed delegate to the Presbyterial, which convened at Ballinger on Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. W. R. Johnson, district Presbyterial secretary, and other members of the Winters church attended.

Mrs. Pyburn conducted the lesson—the last chapter of Ming Kwang, "City of Morning Light."

Plans Are Perfected for Sample Sale
Plans have been perfected for the Sample Sale to be held on the street floor of the Jordan building April 8, 9 and 10, by the Methodist Women's Missionary society. The products to be on sale are not miniature samples but articles of regulation size. On Saturday there will be dressed chickens, cakes and pies.

Meeting of Bible Class of Church of Christ
The Bible class of the Church of Christ met on Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance. A test was given by Mr. Clark on the three divisions of study "Life of Christ," "Beginnings of the Church," and the "Life of Paul."

Sunday School Class Had Outing
Mrs. Bryan's class of the First Methodist church enjoyed a delightful outing last Friday evening when a wienie roast was held on the lawn of the church. Following the picnic supper games were played.

Baptist W. M. S. Had Study Meeting
The Baptist Women's Missionary society met in the parlors of the church Monday afternoon at 8 o'clock in a well attended study and business meeting. Mrs. Key led the devotional. After the business session the lesson was taught by Mrs. Stephens. The society is taking up a new study, "Baptists in Italy," which promises to be very interesting. Next Monday afternoon will be Circle meetings.

Dorcas Class Met With Mrs. Holcomb
The Dorcas class of the First Baptist church had a business meeting on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Paul Holcomb. During the social hour the hostess served ice cream and cake to Mesdames Wilbanks, Lindley, Smith, Cook, Brannon, McKinney, Rodgers, Davis and Ray.

Mrs. Deats led the devotional by reading the first chapter of 1 Cor. Prayer was led by Mrs. W. E. Hickman, teacher. During the business meeting plans were made to enlist new members and the purchasing of class room furniture was discussed. The chairman of the purchasing committee gave a report. Mrs. Alexander served ice cream and cake to Mesdames Hill, Thornton, Quindlin, Hickman, Deats, Davis, Burton, Davidson, Kelly and Bruton.

Ladies Aid of First Christian Church Had Meeting
The Ladies Aid society of the First Christian church met on Wednesday afternoon, April 8, at the home of Mrs. C. L. Moore in a well attended business and work meeting. The Aid will meet next week with Mrs. L. B. Smith.

WINGATE SCHOOL PICNIC APRIL 1ST

For an "April Fool" celebration Misses Parmer, Davidsons and Mrs. Lane decided to play "hookey" with their students. The usual nine o'clock bell found them at school, but at recess (10:30) lunch baskets stuffed with picnic "goodies" were brought forth and bare foot kiddies hunted out a pair of shoes and all hiked to a pretty knoll on Valley Creek. The recent rain made the hike a pleasure. Mr. Hughes loaded his car with lunch baskets, pails and boxes and carried them out. The spread was delightful, consisting of the usual menu of a "real" picnic. Various games were played, swings were put up for the smaller children. The bank of the creek in places was worn slick with care-free boys sliding down a real 'chute' could not have been more thrilling but have saved several stitches of patching. The larger pupils kodaked quite extensively.

Just about the time things began to get "dry" after lunch Messrs Fowler and Wright came up with soda water and chewing gum galore. The pupils all gathered around the truck and with Mr. Fowler in the center of the group, gave a very enthusiastic talk on the new building and election, hats off to Mr. Fowler! After drinking, the picnickers gave fifteen raps for Fowler and Wright and with the vim and pep, accompanied by smiles those boys and girls put into that yell, Mr. Fowler and Wright knew they enjoyed and appreciated the treat.
Everyone departed a trifle leisurely, for various reasons, tired, full and a desire to linger awhile longer and play. All hiked back to the school building and got books, but we doubt their being used tonight. Everyone departed with expressions of a wonderful day and wishing that "April Fool" came more often. Thanks to Mr. Fowler, Wright and Hughes for their interest and help through the day.—Reporter.

BALLINGER, TEXAS

BEATEN WITH HAMMER AND HEAD BROKEN

Seven days have passed and R. W. Caster, principal of the little rural high school of Novice, twelve miles from here, has yet been unable to tell the story of how he was attacked and his skull smashed while he was at his school Friday. Lying in a sanitarium here the school teacher has only spasmodic moments when there is lucidity and he can tell to those at his bedside how the attack was made.

The report having spread over the country that Prof. Caster had died, the Runnels county grand jury, which had just been dismissed, was called back together at Ballinger to investigate the case and when it was learned the report was erroneous the grand jury recessed until Tuesday morning. If the injured man dies, an indictment will probably be returned against his alleged slayers in this county; if he lives, jurisdiction will be in Coleman county.

His wife and two children have been at the bedside since he was brought here following the attack. Sometimes he knows those about him and starts to tell the circumstances surrounding his injuries, then his mind fades and drifts away into space.

Physicians are watching his condition closely, for they declare that today and tomorrow will tell whether he has a chance to recover. Three men, Charlie, Willie and Norman Akin, 20, 22 and 25 years old, respectively, have been released on bond on a charge of assault to murder. They are alleged to have attacked the teacher and administered a whipping to him after the teacher had "spanked" a 13-year-old brother of the three men.

Professor Caster is 50 years old. Physicians performed an operation on his head and removed part of the brain in an effort to save his life. His skull is fractured in three places, the wounds having been made, it is alleged by a hammer.

Two of the brothers were arrested while at work with a section gang and the third brother has surrendered to a justice of the peace.

The whipping of the 13-year-old brother of the three Akins was said to have been administered by Professor Caster Friday morning. While the school pupils and teachers were in one room, Caster was called into an adjoining cloak room. Noises of a fight were heard and the teachers in the room started for the cloak room.

Two of the Akin brothers appeared at the doors of the room, however, and told everyone to remain seated and not try to enter the cloak room. The fighting continued for a short while and the brothers withdrew. A pail of water had been poured over the principal as he lay on the floor, and this probably saved him from immediate death, according to the sheriff.

A hammer had been found, it is said, near the direction from which the Akin boys are said to have run when they fled from the schoolhouse, leaving Professor Caster on the ground in front of the schoolhouse. The hammer is said to have been stained with blood and hair.

While all of the Akin boys are said to be more than 21 years old, Willie was a student in the high school until about two months ago. A still younger brother, 13 years old, who evening, is said to have been correct was whipped by Caster Thursday several times by the teacher and when he continued to disturb the school, was given a thrashing. An unconfirmed story told by the little Akin boy is that Caster whipped him because he would not answer the question, "What church do you belong to?"

The Akin boys are all farmers and had excellent reputations. Novice is a town of about 1000 inhabitants. This is Caster's first year at the Novice school.

J. Monroe and wife of Snyder, Texas, were visitors in the home of his brother, J. W. Monroe, and family, a day or so the past week. Mr. Monroe is district superintendent of fifteen West Texas counties for the State Highway department and is making his first round of the year.

J. C. Stewart and wife of Slaton are visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Patterson and family this week.

'Madonna of the Streets' With Milton Sills and Nazimova at the Queen

Nazimova, the famous Russian actress, who made her first appearance in America several years ago and was immediately accepted as one of the world's greatest emotional actresses, has returned to the screen after an absence of two years, which she spent in vaudeville. The picture is "Madonna of the Streets," produced by Edwin Carewe and presented by First National Pictures, which opens at the Queen Theatre soon.

Nazimova and Milton Sills, ever to be remembered for their work in other pictures, have the two leading roles in "Madonna of the Streets," which is an adaptation of W. B. Maxwell's novel "The Ragged Messenger." Sills plays the role of an Englishman who, in order to atone for an evil he has done, founds a mission in the heart of Limehouse, London's picturesque underworld.

"Madonna of the Streets" pulses with all the glamour of life as it exists today in what is probably the most notorious of all underworlds. The story is of Mary Carlson and John Morton and of their life in Limehouse.

This picture also marks Edwin Carewe as one of the cinema's outstanding directors. The manner in which the scenario is handled is extremely pleasing, and Carewe has brought out all the genius of both Nazimova and Sills. He has made his characters live as in real life and has made their lives seem real, which after all is the supreme test of the director.

Playing with Nazimova and Sills is an all-star cast including Claude Gillingwater, Vivien Oakland, Courtenay Foote, Harold Goodwin, Rosa Gore, John T. Murray and Tom Kennedy.

THE ABILENE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ANNUAL BANQUET

(The following was received too late for publication last week.)

President Sheppard and Secretary Watts of the local Chamber of Commerce attended the annual banquet of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce, Monday night. They report a large assemblage of chamber of commerce men from nearly every neighboring city for 100 miles on every side. Enthusiasm ran rampant. The Abilene schools were on the "screen in the brightest spot light." A snake dance from the high school girls paraded the hall singing or chanting their famous slogan, "You've pep, dog on you, don't lose it. You've pep, don on you, don't lose it. You've pep, you've pep," etc.

They were followed by a large glee club of young men from Christian College who sang wondrously well. McMurray College followed with an Indian parade. A tall stately chief, in full Indian costume, led the parade and was followed by 20 squaws in full Indian dress, stooping low and howling as they marched. They formed a council ring, smoked the pipe of peace and presented it to the president of the organization and the toastmaster, then gravely leading, and howling mournfully, the chief with his squaws left the hall. Simmons University was represented by the Comboys' band and two great selections from their fine arts department, a reading and a piano solo.

After the banquet, speeches were made by representatives from each town and by several specials on the program. A most healthful atmosphere was in evidence for the progress and strength of all West Texas.

Wingate

(Delayed)

Last Fifth Sunday Rev. W. L. Wall, pastor of the Methodist church had his four churches, Oak Creek, Fort Chadbourne, Shep and Wingate, to meet at Wingate in a get-together meeting.

Each church was represented and everyone enjoyed meeting old and new friends, the well-prepared program and the excellent dinner spread at the tabernacle.

The pleasure of the meeting was due mostly to the untiring efforts of our pastor. He is doing a good work and winning many friends in this part of the country.

May God bless Bro. Wall and his wife for many years of service.

PALE, NERVOUS

West Virginia Lady Says That She Was in a Serious Condition, But Is Stronger After Taking Cardui.

Huntington, W. Va.—"I was in a very weak and run-down condition—in fact, was in a serious condition," says Mrs. Fannie C. Bloss, of 3964 Madison Avenue, this city.

"In my left side the pain was very severe. It would start in my back and sides. Part of the time I was in bed and when up I didn't feel like doing anything or going anywhere.

"Life wasn't any pleasure. I was very pale. I was nervous and thin, and so tired all the time.

"My druggist told me that Cardui was a good tonic for women and I bought a couple of bottles. I took two bottles, then I noticed an improvement. I kept on and found it was helping me. I have taken nine bottles. I'm stronger now than I have been in a long time."

Cardui is made from mild-acting medicinal herbs with a gentle, tonic, strengthening effect upon certain female organs and upon the system in general.

COMMUNITY CORRESPONDENCE VALUABLE

Every community owes it to itself to be represented in its local press both for community advancement and for community protection. If the community has no paper of its very own, it should be represented in a news way in a paper that circulates in its community. A good community correspondent is a valuable asset to any neighborhood in keeping that community accurately represented in the local press. People have more pride in their neighborhood and take a greater interest in community activities when they know that they will be properly represented in the press. Yet few neighborhoods are well represented by local press correspondents. Those that are not, should hold mass meetings and arrange to secure proper newspaper representation for their communities. This paper will always be glad to cooperate in publishing the news of any neighborhood in its territory. The difficulty is in getting correspondents who are able and willing to supply the news. The communities not represented could well afford to see to that.

The Literary Events Score High Win Two Debating Trophies.

Winters school won four first places in the literary events of the Inter-scholastic contest at Ballinger Saturday and four second places, scoring 80 points toward the all round silver cups. Thirty of these points were rounded in by the debating teams who brought back the two silver trophies awarded in the county for the winning boys and girls teams. The first places were won by Christine Barnett, senior girl declamation; Maurice Speer, junior girl declamation; Leon Campbell and Glee Ingram, girls debate; and Auburn and Benton Neely, boys debate. The second places were won by Truett Barber, senior boys declamation and Irene Perry, extemporaneous speaking. Jewell King and Lovella Adams won second place in senior spelling and our arithmetic team also second place.

There were eight contestants in the senior girls declamation, which occurred Saturday morning, making Christine's victory one to be well fought for. There were some ten in the senior boys, a Bethel representative scoring above Truett Barber. The debating contests were even more of a fight for preliminaries were necessary causing the Winters teams to meet four different teams. The girls' team met the Ballinger girls Friday night in a hat fray, the decision being 2 to 3 in Winters favor. On the same night our boys met Bethel, the scoring being a one sided affair of 5 to 0 in our favor. Saturday the finals brought our boys face to face with a stronger foe—Ballinger. This team like their sister debaters the night before made the argument very close, but they lost to our boys in a score of 2 to 1. Our girls met the Miles girls the same night, taking from them a unanimous victory.

The district meet at San Angelo, April 17-18 will be represented from Winters literary events, therefore, by Glee Ingram, Leon Campbell, Auburn Neely, Benton Neely, Christine Barnett and Maurine Speer. The Winters H. S. cry has resolved itself this week in "On to Austin."

Some Information About Your Car

(By O. E. Hunt, Chief Engineer, Chevrolet Motor Company)

The ammeter, the least understood dial on the instrument board of a motor car, is in many ways the most important.

Few automobile owners, however, understand the story the ammeter tells as the miles fly by. The ammeter is the guardian of the whole electrical system of the car, particularly during extreme of winter cold and summer heat, and is connected to every bit of electrical apparatus with the sole exception of the starting motor.

If you get acquainted with the ammeter it will tell you at a glance whether or not the whole system is functioning properly. It will tell you if one of the headlights is out; it will tell you if there is a short circuit in the line; it will warn you in a moment if the generator fails to function. An understanding glance at the ammeter every 20 miles or so is a trouble saver of great importance.

When the motor is started, and everything is working properly, the little hand moves over to a certain spot on the charging side and there it invariably rests—varying in location with the speed of the car—until something goes wrong in the electrical system. If one of the headlights goes out, the ammeter shows a slight increase in the charging rate; if the generator fails to function for any reason, the hand swings away over to the discharge side and the driver knows that the whole load is being carried by the battery.

The ammeter never shows the full flow of electricity from the genera-of electricity that is flowing into or out of the battery, hence the importance of the tell-tale current indicator and its ability to tell what is going on all along the line.

The layman might ask why it is important to know the exact minute when the generator ceases to function as long as the car will keep on running with the current from the battery. One important reason is that if the generator fails due to broken leads in or outside, it should be given immediate attention or it will burn out and entail considerable expense for repairs. If he also knew that a fully charged battery would turn his engine over for 15 minutes in summer, but for only five minutes or less when the temperature was at zero, the ammeter tip might induce him to crank the car by hand and thus conserve the energy of the battery.

The generator is the whole source of supply of electricity and it keeps the entire system in operation but it requires little, if any attention from the driver. It is important to know that the electrical output of the generator may be varied on Chevrolet cars by what is known as third brush adjustment, for the car consumes more electricity in cold weather than it does in warm and the generator should be adjusted accordingly by one who is experienced in doing this kind of work.

It is easy to know when generator adjustment is required, for the battery will tell you all about it. Give your battery a hydrometer test every two weeks. If you find the battery fully charged and requiring only a little distilled water, everything is all right. If at the end of successive two weeks' periods you find the battery persistently out of water, it is an indication that the generator is supplying too much electricity and if allowed to continue will result in serious damage to the battery. If, on the other hand, you find the battery persistently under-charged the generator should be adjusted to supply more current.

It is important for the driver to follow instructions carefully when adjusting the gap on his spark plugs. A high voltage is required to make the spark jump the gap and the wider the gap the higher the voltage. However, if the gap is widened the voltage is automatically increased, and if it goes high enough will cause a failure in the ignition coil and will require a new unit which is rather expensive.

Many drivers, and not a few mechanics, have found that an engine which will not run properly when idling, due to leaky valves or some other cause, will run fine if the spark gap is widened, but they are merely relieving the difficulty for a short time at the expense of the electrical system, instead of finding the real cause of the trouble and correcting it at the source.
