Alderman-Cave Mill Approved Purina Dealers In Winters

Grain Company has been made an approved Check-R-Mix Mill according to an announcement received from the Ralston Purina Company headquarters, St. Louis, Missouri.

This means that the local feed company is being provided with Purina Research Approved formulas for mixing locally grown grains with Purina Micro-Mixed Supplements and Concentrates, enabling the farmers of this area to make the best feeding use of the grains they grow.

Before Purina licenses an has to have grinding and mixing equipment of the highest efficiency. The equipment must be shown to be capable of mixing supplements with farmers' grain so efficiently that each mouthful of feed will contain every ingredient in proper quantity.

The local feed dealer will also extensive training programs in nutrition and sanitation that the Ralston Purina Company provides its dealers, so that they may advise farmers and feeders in profitable feeding programs for their livestock and poultry. Facilities of the Purina Research Laboratories and Research Farms will be available to Alderman and Cave Milling and Grain Company for help with customer problems.

All Approved Check-R-Mix Mills are required each year to send to the Purina Laboratories samples of their mixes for analysis. To continue as an Approved Check R-Mix Mill, the samples must show near-perfect efficiency in mixing, with a requirement of less than one half of one percent variation in protein content. This assures customers of the mill that their grinding and mixing will always be done at a high peak of efficiency.

Grandson of Local Resident Married In Gruver June 9

Miss Rita Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Henderson of Gruver, became the bride of Jerry Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Williams of Gruver and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Carroll of Winters, in an impressive double ring ceremony solem-

The Rev. John Alley of Springfield, Colo., cousin of the bride, read the candlelight service at seven p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church.

Centering the altar area was a white satin kneeling bench, backed by an altar of white cathedral tapers in branched candelabra Flanking the altar were yellow gladioli with lemon leaves and emeral ferns.

Candle lighters were Nat Lunn, nephew of the bride; Morris Allen Williams, cousin of the bride groom and Ricky Barkley.

Miss Janice Etling, organist played a medley of traditional nuptial selections preceding the ceremony. She also accompanied Miss Sharon Ayres, cousin of the bride, as she sang "Because," 'Intreat Me Not To Leave Thee' and "The Wedding Prayer." Traditional wedding marches were played for the processional and Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of exquisite chantilly lace gracefully drifted over billowing nylon tulle. The bouffant skirt extended to a chapel length train. Her veil of loped tiara fashioned of lace embellished with seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis.

The bride observed the traditional custom of wearing something old being the wedding band of her grandmother, Mrs. I. W. Ayres, Sr.; something borrowed, a handkerchief belonging to her sister; something new, the single string of pearls that was a gift from the bridegroom; and the traditional blue garter.

Mrs. Ray Lunn attended her sister as matron of honor and Miss Kay Winger, cousin of the bride, Miss Joy Fulfer, Miss Sharon Harvey, Mrs. Carolyn Fletcher and Miss Day Williams, sister of the groom, served as attendants. They wore identical frocks of yellow taffeta with fitted bodices and white appliqued organza overshirts. Their hats, fashioned of a shell shape, were decoarted with seed pearls and worn with circular veils. White gloves completed their ensembles and they carried nosegays of white daisies show-

A reception was held in fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church immediately following the ceremony. The table decorations included the matron of honor's bouquet of white daisies and roses. The four tiered wedding cake was topped with the traditional bride and bridegroom and flanked with yellow tapers in double crystal candelabra. Chrystal appointments completed the setting. Here is the deep South as Faulkner delights in exposing it: the communities riddled "proper" with moral decay, the "first families" behind whose veneer of social prestige some dark and startling shame exists. This story, combining the plots of "Sanctuary" and "Requiem for a Nun," deals with the correct household of the Governor of Mississippi (Howard St. John), whose cherished and properly married daughter Temple Drake (Lee Remick) makes an astonishing confession to him one night before the execution of a household servant for the murder of Temple's baby. In a desparate last-minute attempt to save the life of the negress (Odetta), the Governor's daughter exposes her own guilty past, her secret headlong affair with an underworld kingpin named Candy (Yves Montand) and the real reasons why the maddened servant felt that the infant would be better off dead. Unfolded in tense and violent flash-back, interpreted by a superb cast, the story makes one of the memorable dramatic experiences of the current film who has learned way this humble apostle is introduced in the Gospels. It is not easy to be known only as some-body's brother. We like to be identified in our own right. Many a college student has suffered because his older brother had been a star athlete or the popular president of the student body. Yet Andrew was first to believe in Jesus. A disciple of John the Baptist, he accepted John's testimony and followed "The Lamb of God." He brought his brother with him and, if he cared to boast, could claim a share in the glorious ministry of Peter. Peter could preach sermons that won thousands to Christ. but Andrew had won the preacher. Andrew is an inspiration to the who have been used by the Holy Spirit to "say a word for Jesus"

Do you count the candles on your birthday cake? Why bother? Once you're past sweet sixteen, it doesn't matter how many candles you're entitled to. What counts is what you're doing with those years.

The years that are past have burned themselves out. Perhaps they have been all you've wanted them to be—but, if you're like most of us, maybe you could have made them a little better.

One of God's greatest gifts is the marvelous fact that it's never too late to begin again.

Birthdays remind us of the passing of time, of a new life. Celebrate your birthday by giving. Give something of yourself, by going to your church and taking part in its activities, especially those that help others. Next year, the added candle on your cake will burn with a special brightness!

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

State Archives Building is the fourth of the new edifices erected premiums than cost figures show since the building program began they should have. As a consein 1957. It is neither the largest quence, he said companies absorbnor the most expensive, but because of the historical designs, it is attracting the most attention. Those who have had an advance peek believe that it will, as intended, be a fitting rsidence for the heritage of Texas' 125 years.

TOLEDO BEND DAM STUDIED Texas Water Development Board has given tentative approval to a $15,000,000 state loan for the is to select ideas or merge them building of a $60,000,000 Toledo Bend Dam on the Sabine River. The dam will create the largest man-made lake in the south tax plan begins July 10. and supply water and power for residents of both Southeast Texas and Louisiana. One of the first obstacles to be faced is obtaining a permit from the State Board of Water Engineers. In this, the Sabine River Autority is opposed by the owners of timberland which would be flooded by the reservoir. Louisiana will be a partner in the project, if it materializes. Louisiana voters already have ap-

its share of the cost. END OF AN ERA

NEW LAWS COMPLETED

Before leaving for Hawaii, Gov. Daniel signed scores of bills into law, vetoed a few, and otherwise cleared the decks from the 57th regular session

He signed the bill which will allow the University of Houston to become fully state-supported in the fall of 1963. This bill was the cause of a month-long filibuster in the Senate.

He let become law without his signature a measure known as the Carling Brewery bill, also highly controversial. It was sought by the Carling Brewery which plans to build a $20,000,000 plant in Fort Worth. Under the bill, a brewery not signing it, the governor demonstrated his lack of enthusiasm. Altogether the Legislature passed 549 bills in the regular session. Only 14 were vetoed by the gov-

SCHOOL BUS PRICES PROBED Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has launched inquiry into the prices being paid by the state for school

Wilson announced courts of inquiry to be held in Austin, Dallas, and perhaps later in San Antonio. He said investigation had been under way for six weeks and had revealed that Texas was paying from 10 to 25 per cent more for school buses than other states. He said there was no evidence of identical bids, but that he felt there was a strong possibility of rigged bidding." School buses are bought by the Board of Control with state school funds on the basis of sealed bids. Bus dealers could, if found guilty of conspiring together over prices, be subject to both civil and criminal anti-trust suits. (Courts of inquiry are not trials,

PARENT LIABILITY UPHELD In a recent case, the Supreme Court refused to change a lower court decision that the law holding parents liable up to $300 for damage caused by their children is constitutional.

Challenging the law was a father whose 15-year-old son had stolen and wrecked a car. Three courts upheld the constitutionality of the law and the father's responsibility. It holds parents liable for "malicious and willful" destruction of property by children between 10 and 18 years of age. INSURANCE HIKE FORECAST Higher auto insurance premi-

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

No other wagon can match Ford's features (or popularity!)

Ford wagons have features that only America's station wagon specialists can bring you.

There's more room. Ford's extended load deck is the longest and widest in its field.

There's more convenience. You can have a power-operated roll-down rear window in any Ford wagon.

There's more distinction. The Country Squire (above) is the only wagon in its field with body panels that look like mahogany, wear like steel.
