Ex-President Madero and Vice-President Shot to Death by Mob. Ambassador Wilson Refuses to Dine With Huerta!!

Mexico City, Feb. 24.---Ex-President Madero and his Vice-President Jose Piano Suarez are no more. While being transferred Saturday night from the National Palace to the penitentiary they were over-powered and shot to death by the rebels.

Before Huerta gave the order for Madero to be moved to penitentiary. Mrs. Madero appeared before provisional president and plead for the life of her husband, but Huerta would promise nothing, and the woman was sent from his presence frightened, downcast and weeping.

AMBASSADOR WILSON WAITING FOR ORDERS

Provisional President Huerta sent an invitation to Ambassador Wilson asking Wilson to dine with him Sunday. Mr. Wilson declined the invitation and refused to make any move until he heard from Washington.

TROOPS BEING RUSHED TO MEXICO

The assembling of 5000 troops at Galveston and the placing of orders for transportation to hurriedly move others makes the situation look ugly. Taft's warning to Mexico to spare the life of Madero has been ignored and it seems that the crisis has been reached, and the next twenty-four hours will bring a change in the relationship between the two nations.

They have secured the services of Mrs. Wilkins, formerly with Sanger Bros. Dallas, who has charge of the dress making department. The fact that Mrs. Wilkins was with Sanger Bros. 8 or 9 years is sufficient recommendation to assure all that the Ballinger people are fortunate in having an opportunity to get her to make their dresses. This firm has some of her work on exhibition in their show window and will be glad to have you call and see it, as well as to call on Mrs. Wilkins to do their dress making. All work will be strictly guaranteed.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- For Mayor: W.H. WEEKS, J. W. POWELL. For Alderman: C. C. COCKRELL, R. A. NICHOLSON, E. F. KREBBS. For Treasurer: J. WHIT PATTERSON. For Marshal: T. A. TIDWELL, J. N. McKAY, B. W. (Chop) PILCHER. For Secretary and Collector: J. R. LUSK.

The announcement of services of churches in Ballinger appear in today's Ledger. Make your arrangement to attend some service tomorrow, instead of lounging around home or loafing on the streets.

Abilene, Brownwood, San Angelo, Brady, Cleburne and many other towns we could mention, have held their annual business men's get-together-meeting and banquet during the last month. Ballinger has one coming.

The man that complains of hard times and says he can't find work in Ballinger, is perhaps doing his hardest work to keep out of work. We know of at least 3 men who have been trying for a week to get help, and the pay offered is good. A man that is idle here is idle strictly through a matter of choice and not because there is nothing for him to do.

It is not surprising that meningitis got a foothold in the legislature, when we read that the carpet in the room of the chief clerk has not been taken up or cleaned since it was put down in 1888. Other offices turn in similar reports. That the capitol of the largest state in the union should be so unclean is a reflection and a disgrace, that should no longer be permitted to exist now that the true situation is known.—Brownwood Bulletin.

We all have a good word for the man who attends to his own business. The commendation is due to the fact that the fellow who is busy with his own affairs has not time or desire to meddle with other people's private affairs. But really, dear reader, the man to his own business is a very narrow, shriveled, selfish man, and the man who goes no further than his own private business falls far short of his duty. The business which makes better towns, better conditions in the country, better schools, better roads, better government is every man's business, and he who gives it none of his time or attention is not a useful, well-rounded citizen. We must say, however, that this character of service is its own reward and if those who perform it expect commendation they will be disappointed. In truth they will receive more knocks, more words that harass and disgust, than praise. The timid shrink after receiving a few knocks, but the truly brave, those who are determined to be useful in spite of the high price they must pay go on giving attention to the larger duties of life and accepting with the best grace possible the knocks that are given in return.—Honey Grove Signal.

Shot at Chicken Thief. Sunday night a young lady, who had been left at home with one or two younger members of the family, to take care of during the absence of her parents who had gone to church, caused quite a little excitement in her immediate neighborhood, by the firing of a pistol, about 8:30 at night, and upon inquiry, it was ascertained that the young lady hearing the chickens making a noise in the back yard went out on the porch to find out what was the matter. She saw a man standing in the shed of the barn, and whispering to one of the other children to bring the pistol, she fired, upon which the man dropped the chicken, which he had in his arms, and made a run, jumping over fences, leaving no trace of which way he went. The young lady deserves credit for her nerve, and it is our opinion that the woman should be learned to handle a pistol as efficiently as the men, for just such emergencies as this. When a thief knows that he is likely to get shot, he will be very careful, and not hang around the premises where there is a good marksman. On account of the desire of the lady not to get notoriety over the matter, we most graciously withhold her name.—Weatherford Herald.

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardui.

Meetez, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well.

One day, I decided to try some Cardui. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy. Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardui. Suppose you try it.

It may be just the medicine you need.

Mrs. Jno. I. Guion Entertains. Mrs. John I. Guion was hostess to a dinner Tuesday evening. The table was covered with handsome hand embroidered linen, and with the beautiful cut glass and hand painted china, and violet center piece, 'twas delightful to look upon. But when it was laden with goodies, such as turkey, oysters, salads, cakes and all that goes to make up a three course, old fashioned dinner 'twas more than the writer can describe. Those present were Misses McDearmon, Miss Pickard, Mrs. Lilla Mayfield,

Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Pearee and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fleming.

Beau Nots Meet With Miss Van Pelt.

One of the most delightful parties of the season was given Wednesday afternoon by Miss Bertha Van Pelt at her home on Tenth street. She entertained the Beau Not club and their friends. As soon as the guest arrived, they were presented with a bouquet of violets and a violet score card. 42 was the game and each game was interesting one, at all of the nine tables. At the close of the games, Miss Van Pelt assisted by Mrs. Dan Van Pelt, and Mrs. Paul Trimnier served a delightful salad course.

The out-of-town guests were: Mesdames M. A. Traylor, of St. Louis, H. W. Alexander of Minneapolis, Percy Willis of Waco, and Miss Eddie Storm of San Antonio.

Shakespeare Club at Library.

The Shakespeare Club met at the Carnegie Library Thursday afternoon. Mrs. K. V. Northington was leader for the day and conducted a very interesting lesson on the closing chapter of David Copperfield.

This was the day set apart for the election of officers. Mrs. D. P. Moser was re-elected president; Mrs. C. R. Stephens was elected, vice-president; Miss Betty Miller, recording secretary; Mrs. H. W. Lynn, corresponding secretary; Mrs. U. P. Melton, treasurer; Mrs. K. V. Northington, re-elected historian and Mrs. Fleming re-elected critic.

13 Club With Miss Taylor.

Miss Alice Taylor entertained the Lucky 13 Club Saturday afternoon at the Alexander home on Eighth street. The girls were all very busy with their fancy work embroidery, crochet, etc., until the "swell and interesting hostess", assisted by Miss Alexander appeared with lovely refreshments, then sewing ceased.

The club members were glad to have with them Miss Storm of San Antonio, as a visitor.

Entertains in Honor of Her Son.

On Friday night Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lynn, entertained for their son, Harry, with a Valentine party, which was one of the most delightful parties ever given in Ballinger. The whole house was decorated in the Valentine style. In the dining room there were strings of hearts from the four corners of the room to the center of the table where there was a big heart on a Battenburg center piece, surrounded by cupids.

In the hall, was the Valentine postoffice with Drury Hathaway as postmaster. As the guests arrived they were handed a comic valentine which they read aloud, much to the amusement of the listeners.

They were next taken to the parlor where there was a fortune wheel suspended from the portiers. This wheel was a large heart made up of smaller hearts. Each guest was given the bow and arrow in turn, and allowed to shoot at a heart and each heart that was hit, had the fortune of the marksman on the back. After they all had their fortunes they were given an envelope with the following verse on the back:

In this envelope, you will find Five pieces, each a different kind Trade with every one you meet, Till your ad is complete Then to your hostess, quickly go— She may reward you, don't you
