PREACHER POUNDED

The congregation of the Naza rene church went to church Friday night with armsfull of bundles, packages, boxes, buckets, paper bags, etc., all loaded with something to eat, and the pastor, Rev. E. D. Messer, was given a good pounding. The offering included chickens, flour, bacon, canned goods, and almost everything necessary to keep the pantry replenished. Practically every church in town had a hand in the pounding, sending contributions either to the tent where the revival is being held or to the pastor's home. Rev. NEW EVIDENCE IN MURDER CASE

(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 16.-An entirely new aspect has been given to the Theresa Mors murder case which is being investigated by the authorities, the police announced today. The new development in the case is caused by the testimony of a woman who says she heard and saw two men fleeing from the apartment occupied by Mrs. Mors and Kid McCoy, the former pugilist, a few minutes after the shot was fired which ended the life of Mrs.

The new witness in the case, the police say, lived in the apartment directly under that in which the shooting took place. McCoy is being held in connection with the

Infant Mortulity Rates Are Falling · Through Proper Care of Baby's Milk

UP WITH THE CALORIES

Mothers of today far out-shine mothers and grandmas of the nineteenth century in care of babies. Many are skilled in calories, bacteria and hygiene. Still others, however, and in far greater number, ignore vital rules in preparation and care of food. They are in large measure responsible for the mortality rate being up to its present point. To protect the health of the household, and particularly the health of the child, the experts ray food

Babies are healthier. Infant mortality rates are falling steadily. A happy picture of the failure is painted by medical experts and social workers at "Baby Week" conferences. The entire race will attain greater longevity, these experts said at the recent Chicago meeting, if progress of the last few years continues.
