CONDITIONS IN TEXAS IMPROVE

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, June 29.—Brighter agricultural prospects, shining out of the wake of a severe spring have put a more optimistic face on the entire business situation throughout the district served by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, its monthly review, released today says.

Not only are the farmers in better "shape" with the past thirty days of favorable weather but the cattle and sheep are fat and moving to market in large numbers.

(By Associated Press)
SAN ANTONIO, June 29.—After waiting until mid-night Monday for Congressman Wurzbach to deposit a check for $7,499, his assessment for Bexar County in the Republican primaries, A. R. Holschuser announced today that Wurzbach's name would be left off the ticket.

Fred Knetsch, Seguin, deposited his check for the same amount set by the committee as a meeting presided over by Holschuser after the Wurzbach forces had gained control of the meeting of the county committee.

Wurzbach stated he would not deposit his assessment, terming it exorbitant and illegal.

An intimation was given that the case will be thrown into the courts.

UNDATED—The State Highway situation was the chief topic of addresses made yesterday by the candidates for Governor or by their representatives.

Three robbers held up the state bank at Kildare, near here, today and escaped with less than $1,000 in cash.

PARIS, June 29.—Parliament will soon be called upon to take the responsibility either of ratifying or rejecting the Washington debt funding agreement, says a declaration of policy of the new Briand cabinet which was read before both houses today.

The government declares that a settlement of the inter-allied debts is the only factor upon which the proposed stabilization of France depends.

Events in the Lives of Little Men

Ballinger's Birthday 40 Years Old Today

TODAY, June 29th, the city of Ballinger is forty years old and started work on building the pillars of the railroad bridge years young as some would say, across Elm Creek a survey of the townsite was ordered. This survey was only made south of the present roadbed and as soon as it was completed gangs of men were started to work cutting streets, alleys and staking off the townsite by blocks and lots.

Advertising was distributed over the Southern states for the first sale of lots at the town of Ballinger and on June 29, 1886, the first sale was held. The passenger train arrived in Ballinger about two weeks prior to this sale and Capt. N. F. Bonsall was in charge. Several special trains arrived on June 29, 1886, and brought a crowd to the sale of lots estimated at 5,000 people.

The crowd represented people from six or seven states who had made long journeys to this far Western outpost to place their money in what they believed to be a sure thing. The sale started at 10:00 a. m., under some mesquite trees near where the Runnels county court house now stands, with one of the company's auctioneers in charge. The first lot sold was on Hutchings Avenue, where the Zappe building now stands at the corner of Hutchings Avenue and Seventh Street, and went to the highest bidder for $1070.00. The lot at that time had a saloon on it and was occupied by a saloon for many years after it was sold. The sale the first day amounted to $106,000.

An October 1886 a survey was ordered made of the North side of the right-of-way and a sale of that part of town was made in the fall with many lots being sold for 13 residences. No one at that time was sure what part of town to buy lots in and it is reported that heated arguments resulted as to the merits of the south and north sides of the right-of-way.

Ballinger was the terminus of the Santa Fe until 1888 when the survey was made and the road extended to San Angelo. From 1886 to 1888 the town had a boom followed by a slump, but after the railroad was extended West in 1888 old timers say that you could call it a steady growth with bad years only setting things back a little or halting activities until another good crop was made.

The First National Bank of Ballinger was organized on June 29, 1886 and has continued to serve the citizens of Ballinger and Runnels county from that day until this. The Ledger is another of the old time firms which has survived the hard times and is still doing its best to give the news to the people. It was moved from Old Runnels to Ballinger in '86 and has never missed an edition during the time.

D. C. Underwood, whom the writer is indebted to for this information, was tax assessor at that time. Others who are still living and were either located here or at Old Runnels, six miles north of Ballinger are Dr. T. A. Rape, who today is seriously ill; John Clampitt, formerly sheriff

SUES TO PROTECT DEMOCRAT VOTE

(By Associated Press)
UVALDE, June 29.—The hearing of a petition for an injunction to protect the Democratic voters who voted in 1924 for George Butte, Republican gubernatorial nominee, began here today in district court.

The suit was filed by Dolph Briscoe, who sets forth that he voted for Butte, and seeks to prevent the Uvalde county democratic executive committee from requiring a pledge in the faith of the voters.

He sets forth that this pledge would have an effect of barring from the primary, the democrats who voted for Butte.

HOUSTON DEPUTY ARRESTS PONZI

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, June 29.—Charles Ponzi, erstwhile financial wizard, wanted in Massachusetts and Florida, arrived here today in custody of Deputy Sheriff George Lacy, from New Orleans, where he was arrested yesterday aboard an Italian steamer.

Lacy followed Ponzi to New Orleans after he was reported to have been in Houston last week. Massachusetts authorities will come to Texas and interview Governor Ferguson, regarding the returning of Ponzi to that state where is wanted in connection with his get-rich-quick scheme.

SUSIE'S BAND A BIG HIT HERE

Susie's Kitchen Cabinet Band proved to be a big hit with the music lovers of Ballinger when on Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock the first concert was given at the Methodist Tabernacle by this organization. Each member of the band was dressed in a uniform of some kitchen wear and every instrument was of some kitchen utensil.

The band was given a great applause when the concert was opened with the band marching in playing "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

It was a fair sized and appreciative audience that greeted this musical organization in its first appearance and throughout the evening the audience was royally entertained by the music makers. Many who attended last night asserted they would return for Tuesday's concert.

The band was under the direction of T. P. Simpson.

The band's selection throughout the evening were little connections of a beautiful love story as was read by Mrs. W. B. Woody with the first part of the reading until the final Mrs. Woody told with interest to the audience the story, with short interruptions by the band now and then.

Solosists were Misses, Sharp, Mason, Williams, Key and Mrs. Dickinson, Mrs. Archie O'Kelly, Mrs. Hays and Mrs. Simpson. Each of the solos was enjoyed very much.

The final was the band playing Mendelssohn's wedding march when Mrs. Cecil Thorp as the groom attired in blue-striped overalls and a blue shirt, topped off with a big field straw hat, marched in with her bride, Mrs. H. G. Stokes. This part of the program was enjoyed very much.

This afternoon at 5 o'clock the band will parade through the business district of the city, dressed in their uniforms. They will play several selections while on this parade.

BLANTON WITH DRAWS PROTEST

"I want the people in all nineteen counties to pass on our respective claims and qualifications and, to avoid any question of unfairness, I withdraw all protest," Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene, congressman from the 17th District, declared Monday in withdrawing the protest he had filed with the 19 county chairmen in regard to the name of J. K. Smith of Burnett county, appearing on the ticket of the first primary election, as an opponent of Mr. Blanton.

Mr. Blanton on or shortly after the date of filing the applications for places on the ballot with Judge Fred Cookrell, District Chairman of Abilene, wrote every county chairman in this district asking not to allow Smith's name to go on the ticket as he did not comply with the election laws in filing his name with the District Chairman, but instead filed with every county chairman in the district.

In some counties of this district, Mr. Smith's name was left off the ballot while in other counties, the Attorney General's department was asked for a ruling. This department ruled that Mr. Smith's name should not go on the ticket.

Later, supporters of Smith declared that a recent ruling claimed that the District Chairman must also be a county chairman before applications could be filed with him for the entire district.

Mr. Blanton, however, on Monday announced that he would withdraw all protests and let the county committees place the name of Mr. Smith on the ticket if they desired to do so.

It won't be long now before the "corn" crop will be coming in—on the cob.

And young fried chickens—
no told fried hens.

Ballinger is 40 years old today,
and not celebrating. There is too much work to be done in this progressive community. We can celebrate when the crops are in and there is nothing else to do.

Double parking as allowed in Ballinger is one of the most dangerous violations of traffic in this city. If the people are bent on double parking the city commission should pass a parallel parking law instead of angle parking as is now allowed. Drive down the paved streets of this city some afternoon after four o'clock and notice the double and in some instances triple parking, especially on Saturday when there are many of country people in town. The streets are crowded and most of the time on Saturday afternoon, there is only room enough for one car to drive down Hutchins Ave., while the street, if parking laws were obeyed would be able to allow three cars to pass at the same time. The parking of cars in Ballinger needs adjusting.

Another adjustment that is needed here badly is more and better street lights in the resident sections. They are very bad now and are not serving their purpose in the least.

40 YEARS
of Safe
Banking Service
in Ballinger

Going Forward with Runnels County

It is pleasant to look back for a moment upon the trail which this bank and this community have traveled together through the years—years of steady growth and faithful service, of community progress and mutually helpful association.

The history of this bank has been bound up closely with the prosperity of this community. The story of our own growth is written in a volume of many pages—each page bearing the story of some individual depositor's success in which we have had a part.

In the span of our experience, stretching through good times and bad, we are proud to say that the soundness and stability of this bank has never been questioned, and no depositor has ever lost a dollar that was entrusted to our care.

This is a strong home bank, devoted to the welfare and development of this community. We are old in experience but young in our enthusiasm and in our conviction that our best years of service are still before us.

You will find in this old, safe institution just that quality of friendly, helpful service which will be most valuable to your own progress. Our officers are more than just experienced bankers, long familiar with local conditions; they are friends and neighbors whose interests are the same as your own.

If you wish to make the most of all that the future holds for you in the way of wealth and opportunity, we are glad to place the facilities and resources of this bank at your command, to help you in every way we can.

CAMERON'S GARAGE

Ballinger, Texas

Ballinger, 40 Years Old

of Runnels County, B. W. Pilcher, better known as "Chop House Charlie" now chief of police of Ballinger, E. D. Walker of the Ballinger State Bank, J. J. Erwin, formerly postmaster here, undertaker, E. A. Trail, W. T. Routh and family, L. F. Gressett and family, D. M. Baker, Uncle George Eskridge, who came out after the town lot sale of Santa Anna for the Ballinger sale, he is still living and in Ballinger, T. T. Crosson, of the firm, Crosson and Hill, S. C. Royalty and family, they are still living here, C. H. Willingham, now justice of peace of Ballinger precinct No. 1, also former county judge, and C. O. Harris, a lawyer, now residing in San Angelo. There are probably several others living today who helped Ballinger celebrate her first birthday, but we were unable to obtain their names.

In 1891 B. M. Burk, was elected the first mayor of the city of Ballinger, with Mark Henry serving as the first marshal. This was the first city administration. The county had a full set of officers in 1886 and most of them moved from Runnels City to Ballinger at the very beginning of the railroad activities. John Formwalt was sheriff; Sylvester Adams county judge; W. L. Towner, county clerk; D. C. Underwood, tax assessor; H. E. Dickenson, county surveyor; and J. Cotton, county treasurer. Everything was not quiet and peace of fiends experienced some wild and woolly times during the early days. Eight murders were only a small part of the crime the officers had to look after the first year. Drunks, gambling, shooting affrays, wild parties and other things we still hear of today, demanded a good part of the attention of the officers.

Some small offices were fitted up in a building where the Massey House now stands and the first court was held in these offices. In 1886 the people voted on the question of moving the court house from Runnels to Ballinger but the issue was defeated and in 1887 the same question was voted on again and carried. The new court house was started in 1887 and finished in 1889. The old jail was maintained at Runnels until the fall of 1886 when it was moved to Ballinger to be near the active front.

The first stone school building on the present campus was started in 1888 and was built by private subscription. Today, Ballinger is in the center of the most fertile section of Texas and is one of the liveliest little towns in Texas, despite the fact that there are only 5,000 people here. Since the date of Ballinger's birth, electric lights, telephone communications, paved streets, a nice water system and many other things have been brought out to aid the city.

With the best farming lands in the southwest and the largest amount of water passing by each year, Ballinger has grown and grown and where 40 years ago, tents housed saloons and gambling dens, there stands today, modern rock and brick business buildings housing modern dry goods and grocery stores and where tents were used for residences, there now are modern brick and stucco homes.

D. C. Underwood, one of the oldest citizens in this county, we thank for the above brief history of this city.

James Baskin has gone to San Antonio for a few days visit with Jack Wheeler.

Along the same line but in regard to the church and the pastor, M. A. Quindlen, will give a lecture.

Reports will be heard in the afternoon from the church building board and various other county boards.

One of the most important meetings of the afternoon will be that of the Executive Committee in planning work for the association.

Other speakers and lecturers for this meeting are: J. S. Tie-ree, R. D. DeWeese, Mrs. H. H. Stephens and M. C. Golden.

A large number of the Ballinger Baptists are expected to attend this meeting.

ATHLETICS AT A AND M. WAS SUCCESS LAST YEAR
(By Associated Press)

COLLEGE STATION, June 29.—Intramural athletics engaged in for the first time at Texas A. & M. College, during the past year, were highly successful, according to the report of Prof. H.

H. House, director of the Intramural Athletic Association of the college. A total of 1148 students participated in 12 events, and awards of 37 gold medals and bars were made.

Activities engaged in were base ball, football, cross country track playground ball, wrestling, boxing, handball swimming, gymnastics, golf and horseshoe pitching.

Rapid strides were made in this division of A. & M. Athletics activities and an even more successful season is anticipated in 1926-27. Several recommendations made for the next school term indicate intramural athletics will be placed on a sounder basis and will be participated in by almost the whole of the student body of the college.

GLAD TO SPREAD GOOD NEWS

Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cleveland, Ohio.—The friends of Mrs. Helen M. Kowalczyk of 6819 Hope Avenue were glad to hear that she has regained her health.

For quite some time Mrs. Kowalczyk was quite ill and it was impossible for her to work. She took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build her up. After she had started taking it, she wrote to the Pinkham Company as follows: "I certainly boost Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I feel stronger already and sleep sounder. I am very glad to spread the good news of how it has helped me."

Detroit, Michigan.—"I heard of this medicine through an advertisement in the 'Detroit News' and wrote to Mrs. Grace Gillem, whose letter was published. Then I started taking the Vegetable Compound and got the best results. I used the Sannative Wash, too. I am really happy if I can advise women to take your medicines."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been in use by women for over fifty years. It is a vegetable tonic made from root and herbs and is sold at all druggists.
