WETS WIN IN MO. PRIMARY

(By Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 4.—Despite the strenuous opposition of the Anti-Saloon League and the Women's Christian Temperance Union, Senator George Williams, Republican, and Congressman Harry Hawles, Democrat, both of St. Louis, were nominated for the United States Senate with large pluralities, returns today of yesterday's primary showed. Both candidates are avowed "wets."

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 4.—Cutting the lead of Henry Johnson, alleged Klan supporter Democratic candidate for governor, W. M. Darnell, farmer-lawyer, had decreased it to 9,000 votes today in nearly half of the precincts reporting in yesterday's primary.

VIGOROUS EXERCISE IS DANCER'S ADVICE

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Aug. 4.—Karsavina, the ballerina, who heads the Diaghileff Russian Ballet which is having a long season in London, says strict diet is really not essential to keep a dancer in trim. The secret of perfect condition, in her opinion, is constant and vigorous exercise.

Karsavina and her associates rise at 7:00 a. m. and have two hours of vigorous exercise before they begin rehearsals. "The secret of perfect physical condition is to stick faithfully to exercise," declared Karsavina. "When one begins to exercise there must be no slacking, however off color or disinclined one may feel."

SAYS BOYS TODAY DO NOT LOVE FARMER GIRLS

(By Associated Press)
MOLD, Flintshire, Wales, Aug. 4.—"What's the use of talking about 'back to the land' in this age when boys love polished nails and girls must all have powder-puffs?" Mrs. J. Evans, of Mannerch, demanded in a speech before the Flintshire Liberals in opposition to the Lloyd George land scheme.

But in spite of the bitter opposition offered by Mrs. Evans and a group of her loyal supporters the Liberal land plan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hardin and little girl left Tuesday for Fredericksburg, San Antonio, Corpus Christi and Brownsville, where they will visit for a couple of weeks.

SEN. AUTHORITY IS CHALLENGED

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Authority of the Senate to inquire into campaign contributions other than in the Senatorial primary, was challenged today by Samuel Insull, public utilities executive, who testified that he gave more than $170,000 in the Illinois Senatorial campaign.

AVIATOR FOUND IN BROWNSVILLE

(By Associated Press)
BROWNSVILLE, Tex., August 4.—Carl Schlast, aviator, is safe at Brownsville and is arranging to leave today or tomorrow for Tampico, Mexico. Schlast said he had no accident but was forced to land in a gorge in West Texas.

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 4.—A search was begun today for Carl Schlast, wealthy Kansas City commercial aviator, in the dense brush of Northern Mexico. Friends fear his plane is out of commission and he is lost in the wilderness between Brownsville and Tampico.

NEW LIGHTS FOR CITY STREETS

Six new white way standards are being installed in the business district of the city, and the circuit of this line is being removed from near the railroad right-of-way to Eighth Street in the business section.

Three additional lights are being installed on Eighth Street, and three on Hutchings Avenue. Four pole lights are also being put in in the residence section of the city. One light is in front of the Methodist church, one in front of the Eighth Street Presbyterian Church and another in front of the First Christian Church on Broadway. The fourth light is being installed in the "flat."

NOBILITY GIVES FORMER EMPRESS ZITA FUNDS

(By Associated Press)
BUDAPEST, Aug. 4.—Patriotic members of the old Hungarian nobility have created a fund to support former Queen Zita and her family of eight children, who are now living at San Sebastian, Spain.

Out of this fund the widow of former King Charles is assured an allowance of $60,000 a year, which, with the income she derives from her private properties in Hungary, nets her about $100,000 a year.

Hungary as a state is forbidden to pay any government funds to the former queen. Hence, the wealthier members of the old Hungarian nobility, like Count Apponyi and Count Andrassy, have helped her out of their own funds.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Pearce have returned from San Antonio, where they had been visiting for the past week.

POSSE SLAYS NEGRO RAPIST

(By Associated Press)
SHREVEPORT, La., Aug. 4.—Reports from LaChute, Louisiana say that John Norris, age 24, a negro, was shot and killed by a posse seeking him for an alleged attack on a ten-year old girl yesterday.

RECOMMENDS ARMS STATIONS

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, August 4.—A new naval arsenal, at least 100 miles square, will be established on the Pacific coast and a similar arsenal for the Eastern coast, if congress follows the recommendations of the naval court investigating the disastrous explosion on July 10th at Lake Denmark, New Jersey. The court found that lightning alone was responsible for the explosion causing twenty-three known deaths, fifty-two injured persons, and a financial loss placed at $47,000,000.

THREE BANDS IN CONCERT SUNDAY

Three bands will play in concert here Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at the close of the 17th District American Legion Convention, which is to be held in Ballinger on that date. The concert will not be from a "massed" band, but the Coleman, Ballinger and Stamford bands will all take part in the musical program. They will alternate in playing various selections.

The Stamford Fire Department Band, one of the winners at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention held in Amarillo in June, will be here and will assist in furnishing music for the Legion gathering. This band is one of the best bands in West Texas and has made many trips with delegations from Stamford.

The Coleman Chamber of Commerce Band, under the direction of V. Ballins Gilliland, is another West Texas band that has been widely advertised, and is noted for the quality of its programs and snappy appearance on parade. This band will arrive in Ballinger about 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning. A large delegation is expected with this organization.

The Ballinger Chamber of Commerce Band, under the direction of Homer H. Carsey, is another of West Texas' finest bands and is widely known. This band has on more than one occasion been employed to play for out-of-town functions and it is one of Ballinger's best advertising mediums.

The three bands will assemble in different sections of the West portion of the court house lawn and alternate in playing their selections. At the close of the concerts, the three bands will be massed and the final selection will be played by the three bands combined.

Several thousand people are expected to be present at this concert, one of the big features of the Legion meeting.

MEXICANS STILL WITHOUT PRIESTS

(By Associated Press)
MEXICO, D. F., Aug. 4.—The situation growing out of the new regulations on religion seems to have reached the stage of marking time, with less optimism daily of an immediate settlement of the controversy, but the general conviction is that danger of widespread violence or an armed rebellion has practically passed. There is much uneasiness, however, in regard to the economic boycott called by the National League for Defense of Religious Liberty, protesting the regulations. Some believe the boycott may become the determining factor in the dispute.

DALLAS MAN MURDERS WIFE AND COMPANION

SEEKS KILLERS OF TWO IN CHURCH

(By Associated Press)
MORGANTOWN, Ky., Aug. 4.—Members of an alleged bootlegging gang are being rounded up for questioning in connection with the sensational double murder Monday night of Rev. W. A. Moss, evangelist, and Mrs. Jerrol Johnson, choir singer, during revival services. A third person was wounded.

Three youths, said to be members of a moonshine clique, who feared and hated the revivalist, because he denounced their activities, are being held for questioning. Boyd Rainbolt Jr., the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rainbolt, is seriously ill at the Nash Apartments on Eighth Street.

PRESIDENT GOES BOYHOOD HOME

(By Associated Press)
PAULS SMITH, N. Y., Aug. 4.—President and Mrs. Coolidge left today on a special train for President Coolidge's boyhood home at Plymouth, Vermont. They were due to arrive there this afternoon. President and Mrs. Coolidge will spend several days at Plymouth visiting.

There are still a few chronic "grippers" and "moss-backs" in Ballinger. Wouldn't this be the best city in the world if they were all gone.

Dan Moody, present attorney general, and governor-elect, is in Abilene resting for a few days.
No doubt Mr. Moody needs a rest after one of the most trying, treacherous and torrid campaigns
in the history of Texas politics.

Texas is through with her 1926
state election and on Tuesday, Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma held their primary elections. It will be rather quiet in the Southwest after these elections have been settled.

Farmers in Runnels county are still busy in their fields, cultivating the crops and keeping down the weeds and insects. Let the good work go on and an unexcelled harvest will be made in Runnels county this fall.

Law violations in this county during the past few weeks have been few and far between. A drunk is brought before the courts now and then and sometimes one or two for fighting or disturbing the peace, but as a whole things have been running along very peaceful lines. The big rush in this department will come in the fall when the big harvest comes in.

ABILENE PLANS TO ATTEND MEET

According to a story carried in the Abilene Reporter, the Parramore Post of the American Legion, of Abilene, will send one of the largest delegations from this section to the district convention of the American Legion and Auxiliary, which is to convene here next Sunday morning,
August 8th.

The Parramore Post is one of the most active in this part of the state and it is expected that its members will have a great deal to do with the success of the convention.

R. C. Winters, district commander, is a member of this post, and his fellow members are boosting him for the office of state commander of the Legion.

Following is the story as it appeared in the Reporter:

"The final drive to secure 150 members of Parramore Post to attend the district convention of the American Legion at Ballinger Sunday will be carried on this week by R. S. Stevens, commander of the local post, and Joe C. Ellis, adjutant.

"The Abilene delegation will attend the district convention with two objects in view—boosting the candidacy of R. C. Winters, district commander, for the office of state commander, and securing a special train to the state convention at Amarillo next month.

"The proposal to secure a special train has been broached
by local Legionnaires, Abilene members already having decided to charter a special car. Under the proposal for a special train members of the Legion from over this entire district will join in securing the train. If it is secured Abilene probably will be the gathering point and the special will leave here the day preceding the convention.

"So far the election of Winters
as state commander is bright,
Post Commander Stevens said Monday. No serious contenders have entered the race so far and with the complete endorsement of posts in this district as well as from other parts of the state members of Parramore Post hope to secure Winters' election without opposition.

"Members of the local auxiliary
chapter, of which Mrs. W. G.
Kinsolving is president, also will attend the Ballinger convention.

The Auxiliary is aiding the Legion in all of its work and business to be transacted by this branch will likely be along lines similar to that disposed of by the Legion members.

"Ballinger is making elaborate plans for entertaining the delegates and an attendance of several hundred is anticipated. The Legion members will go from here in cars. All those who have not secured transportation have been asked to call Bolling-Kean for information where it can be obtained."

WILL TEACH IN

notice that she had been elected to a position. She formerly taught in the Ballinger central ward school.

"The Savage" at the Queen—Sets Fast Pace

"The Savage," a First National picture featuring Ben Lyon and petite May McAvoy, opens today at the Queen Theatre, and promises to set the pace for the current season's better pictures.

In this picture is everything one can possibly want in a motion picture. There are thrills, love story, laughs by the score, beautiful woman, perfectly marvelous settings, and Ben Lyon gives one of the best performances of his screen career. May McAvoy is admirably cast and gives a splendid characterization, and the other players could not have been more wisely chosen.

Sam Hardy, as the managing editor of a scientific magazine, is immense. Charlotte Walker, as a wife who believes the wife should be the better ninety-five per cent, could not be excelled. Philo McCullough is an excellent "heavy" and Tom Maguire apparently was born to play the role of the hen-pecked scientist husband of Charlotte Walker.

Most of the story is laid in the South Seas, and there are some unusually fine jungle scenes in which Ben Lyon dashes about garbed in only a goat skin. He even rides on the back of a prehistoric brontosaurus. To tell the plot always spoils a story, so we will only say that Ben is sent to the South Seas to play the part of a white savage and be discovered by a party of scientists so that they may be exposed and made a laughing stock of. Fred Newmeyer is to be complimented for some excellent direction.

Valley Transportation Problem Solved with Hard-Surfaced Roads

(By Associated Press)

McALLEN, Tex., Aug. 4.—The Appian Way, for centuries a Roman wonder, is to have nothing of the roads of the Rio Grande Valley, if the builders of the valley have their way.

In a section where railroads are as yet none too plentiful, the automobile and its companion, the hard road, are giving to the Magic Valley the advancement which in older territories was brought by the steam railroad.

These "roads of destiny," which are enabling the products of the valley to reach the markets of the whole world, are now spreading out in every direction, and giving a new country something of the development which is enjoyed by far older sections.

Pat Devine of Pharr, highway engineer of Hidalgo county, who obtained his engineering knowledge at Texas A. & M. College and on many a big job, is literally giving his life to the highways of his county. Mr. Devine says it is his ambition to build the best roads in Texas, because he believes the entire future of the valley depends upon her permanent transportation arteries.

With this ambition for a spur, and with an unusual ability to select the right contractor and the proper materials, Mr. Devine has brought the hard surfaced highways of Hidalgo county up to almost 100 miles.

He worked for almost two years on one stretch of road in Hidalgo county, building it up layer by layer, testing every inch, until finally he declares he has in this road an ideal highway for this section and one of the best hard roads in the United States.

Mr. Devine's first problem was to select a contractor who could carry out his ideas. The William L. Pearson Company, one of the largest concerns in the valley, won the contract for what is now called "the model" road.

The road cost $36,949 a mile. It runs for about 14 miles from Edinburg South to Pharr, then East to Val Verde.

First a gravel base 18 feet wide and five inches thick was laid. Traffic was permitted on this base until it was tested to the utmost and all the weak spots strengthened. Then on this was laid a compacted gravel crushed stone layer 14 feet wide and five inches thick. Again the traffic was turned in and for months the base underwent the hardest possible usage. After it was completely settled, a two inch topping of Uvalde rock asphalt was laid.

The road has a concrete curb on each side by seven inches deep on each side. All of the drainage structures are of concrete. The engineers and contractors call this their "Appian Way" and have invited road builders from other parts of the state to inspect the work.

A large portion of the valley roads were built by the Pearson Company and Brammer & Wilder, two construction companies that have studied the peculiar needs of the valley in road building.

One of the obstacles to overcome in constructing roads here is obtaining road materials. The contractors state that a large portion of their costs is eaten up by huge freight bills. Crushed stone and sand are brought from Columbus on the Colorado River. Limestone comes from New Braunfels; rock asphalt from near San Antonio, and cement from distant places. In some places the contractors are even compelled to pay for water.

The paved roads of the valley cost anywhere from $18,000 to more than $38,000 a mile, depending on the materials and the freight haul. A road of 34 miles from Edinburg North to the Brooks county line cost $18,000 a mile. It consists principally of gravel and caliche base with rock asphalt topping. From Val Verde East to the Cameron county line is a road that cost $38,329 a mile. It is made with a concrete base and includes a 1,485 foot timber pile trestle.

Mr. Pearson said that if it were not for the freight haul, valley roads would be the most inexpensive in the country as there is an abundance of low priced labor and virtually year around building weather.

PICTURE HOUSES USE OPERA MUSIC

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Disguised as hand maiden of the cinema, classical music is becoming popular.

Popular, that is, compared with the classical taste in this country ten years ago. In Chicago, the change is perceptible in all the larger picture houses. One company, for instance, which operates six of the largest houses, has announced it has already spent more for music this year than for pictures.

Adolphe Dumont, former Chicago grand opera conductor now directing music in one of the theatres, evaluated this changing public taste as a boon not only for good music but also for good musicians. His own orchestra, he said, has just been increased to more than fifty pieces.

"More grand opera music is played in the large motion picture houses each day," he said, "than is played by grand opera orchestras in a week. We play grand opera four times a day, week days, and five times Sunday. The grand opera orchestras and symphony orchestras hardly ever play a program more than three times a week.

"A public demand for more and better music has been recognized. Eight years of patient work, interpreting the emotions of the movies, as only grand opera music can do, created the demand.

"Day after day, showing sometimes slap stick comedy to the tune of the 'Ride of the Valkyries;' love scenes to strains from "Tristan and Isolde" and Charlie Chaplin's antics to Debussy's 'Girl of the Flaxen Hair,' the moving picture orchestras have given audiences a taste for classic music that many of them would formerly disavow. Great music consequently has found a new significance and importance. It gives motion pictures dramatic intensity."

The faculty of the Ballinger schools for the 1926-27 term has been completed and the out-of-town teachers will report the latter part of this month or early in September for their assignments. H. C. Lyon, superintendent, is preparing a program for the opening exercises of the school and it is expected that these exercises will be the most complete and interesting ever held in the local schools. All buildings of the Ballinger Independent School District are being put in first class order and will be ready for the classes when the term opens on Monday, September 6th. The high school building has recently been improved with the addition of several concrete sidewalks. Members of the faculty of the Ballinger schools for the 1926-27 term are as follows:
