

WEST TEXAS
NOTES

The Salvation Army is asking the people of this area for contributions this week in their annual fund drive. This is one campaign which meets its quota locally. The Salvation Army comes in for very little criticism and usually nothing but praise. They operate their charity work without red tape, the money is distributed by a local committee and each year in Ballinger assistance is given to some 300 or more persons at a time when they are in need. Much of the money goes for food, medicine and transportation and while most of the grants are for small amounts, they are given when the person is really in need, often when whole families are hungry, sick and cold. This year the lower part of Runnels County is being asked to give $1500 and this will be divided with part going to the headquarters at Dallas and the rest remaining with the local committee. The solicitation started Tuesday and will be continued this week until all contacts have been made. Many received letters and these people are urged to enclose their checks in a letter and return to the proper source. The winter season is approaching and the Salvation Army locally will receive many calls for help. Give now so they can meet these calls and not let any deserving person go without aid.

Ballinger civic leaders have announced plans for Christmas programs to be staged during the month of December. All the programs are fine and will help to attract crowds here during the gift shopping season. Another item that can help to promote more traffic during the holiday season is a beautiful town. The proper type of decorations are largely up to

Cotton ginner at Miles announced last week-end that a total of 2,600 bales had been handled there for this season. This figure is considerably ahead of last year and estimates the individual merchant. Those in charge of the programs will see to having lighted streamers placed across the street, decorate a Christmas tree, but the most important decorations are those which will be found in show windows and store interiors. Decorating a store requires considerable advance planning in order to secure the right kind of materials to be used. Merchants are urged to plan their windows and other decorations now and if all will cooperate, the beautiful stores will help many additional people to Ballinger during December. The decoration of yards, homes and public buildings will also help and when such pieces are on display for Christmas it shows a civic spirit that is a welcome sign to out of town shoppers. Make plans now and do everything possible to make Ballinger the most beautiful town in West Texas this Christmas season.

Runnels County cotton growers have had a hard time getting their crop harvested and ginned this year. The cotton is open but pickers have been scarce and wet weather has stopped work for a good part of the season. Right now most cotton farmers would welcome a good killing frost as a cheap way to defoliate and make way for strippers to get in the rest of the 1958 crop. Ranchmen and farmers with no cotton planted have enjoyed the rain which is providing a good season in the ground and giving grass the opportunity to come back for a good turf. Those with only small grain have also liked the rain but the cotton man would like to get his crop picked, ginned and turned into cash.

indicate that the 1958 crop is about three-fourths gathered. Ginner expect some 3,500 to 4,000 bales at Miles before the end of the season. The job of gathering cotton in the Miles area has been slowed considerably this season because of wet weather and the lack of pickers. Some fields have been defoliated and gathered with strippers.

Plans are being perfected at Menard for the annual observance of Armistice Day on November 11. The Parent-Teacher Association will hold its annual auction sale and merchants of Menard are contributing merchandise for this event. The annual decorated float parade is being arranged and this year the theme will be "Menard in Progress." The floats will feature such progress as the Menard Hospital, Recreation Association, oil production, television, park and highway improvement and other items of that area. Food booths will again be set up at the American Legion Park and will serve during the noon hour.

The Concho County ASC office is moving to new quarters this week. For the past two months, a building has been remodeled and made ready for housing the offices and the office Manager announced that the move would take place soon after November 1. The new building will provide separate offices for all departments, conference rooms for special meetings and a large lobby. The entire building will have air-conditioning and central heating, tile floors and other conveniences which the old quarters did not provide.

Parking meters are being installed at Comanche along all the streets and on the court house square. Last week a shipment of 300 meters was received at Comanche and installation began at once. The meters will be placed all around the square and on other blocks for one block in all directions. The time for parking will be at the rate of 5 cents for an hour and meters will take two five cent pieces to provide two hours parking. Pennies can also be used at the rate of one cent for 12 minutes. The city council stated that a parking meter man would be hired within the next few days and placed on regular duty.

Members of the chamber of commerce at Brady were advised last week that the Trans-Texas Airways may be preparing to stop service in that city. M. C. Broad, chairman of the aviation committee of the chamber of commerce, reported that his group had met with officials of the company and discussed the matter. Mr. Broad stated that the company was losing money at Brady and had left the committee with little talking point. Their contract with CAA expires on December 8 of this year. To renew there must be at least 150 passengers boarding planes per month but Brady showed only about 1 per day.

Tarleton State College at Stephenville received the go-ahead signal for new building at the recent meeting of the Texas A & M System board of directors. Work started about the middle of October on the $200,000 student health center. The red brick structure is another step in the long-range building program at Tarleton. Another building, Ferguson Hall, is under construction and is a dormitory for men which is contracted for $350,000. The new health center will greatly improve the hospital facilities on the campus and will replace the old frame hospital which has been in use for a number of years. Bed capacity will be about double.

More than sixty Colorado City firms have signed to participate in a special Christmas program during the months of November and December. Those in charge of the feature stated that they expected at least 75 merchants to join the "Money Tree" feature before the first program. The plan is to give away cash prizes to shoppers during the gift buying season. Winners in the event will be determined by car license plates displayed on money trees in the cooperating stores. There will be some 16 winners each week during the two-month period from November 1, until Christmas.

An all out drive to get rid of rats in Brown County was started last week. Demonstrations on the proper use of rat poison were held in several communities last week and others will be staged so that everyone will use the baits right and get the best results. Officials of the Farm Bureau have urged all members to cooperate and the campaign will also be conducted in towns of the county. Not only is the fight against rats but those in charge hope to kill thousands of mice. The rat poison was distributed the first of the week from the Farm Bureau headquarters in Brownwood.

A meeting of Eden civic leaders and members of the Methodist Church of the San Angelo district, was held at Eden last week, to work on a three-phase program to establish a hospital, nursing unit and retirement home. Methodist officials gave their approval to the Eden plan, subject to the approval of the conference. They also invited a committee of Eden people to visit plants now operated by the Methodist in other towns. The Eden project was started in an effort to provide medical care for the people of that area and to bring a doctor to that city. The Eden hospital facilities last week and if the project is approved, would be the beginning of the hospital-retirement home.

Coleman Lions staged their annual pancake fiesta last Saturday, serving from 6:30 Saturday morning until 8 o'clock at night. The show room of the Morris Chevrolet Co. was made available for the serving and a good crowd was on hand most of the day to enjoy the meal. Proceeds from the annual feature are used on the numerous good projects which are undertaken each year by the Coleman Lions Club. Tickets were sold on a basis of "all you can eat for 50 cents." The annual Fiesta was staged this year at a time when the ex-students of the Coleman High School were having home-coming.

Voters in Precinct No. 2 of Coke County were writing in a candidate for constable in the general election last Tuesday. Election managers were advised by County Attorney Frank C. Dickey, that it would be legal to write in the name as there was a vacancy for the office in the precinct. The office became vacant with the death of T. F. Sims, Sr. on September 23. He had two more years to serve. Dickey stated that it would be necessary for voters to write in "For constable of Precinct 2" and list the candidate of their choice below.

The Postmaster General announced last week that a new post office had been authorized at Winters. The new post office facilities will be constructed under the Post Office Department's Commercial Leasing program, which utilizes the resources and investment funds of private enterprise to obtain needed postal buildings. The site option will be transferred to the successful bidder, who will purchase the land and construct the building. It will then be leased to the department on a long-term basis.

Changes In Your Social Security

By F. Neal Tarvin
(Field Representative of the San Angelo, Texas Social Security District Office)

Social security benefits are intended to replace in part loss of income brought about by the death, disability, or old-age retirement of the worker. For this reason, they are related to the average earnings of a worker in employment or self-employment covered by the social security law. Obviously, social security benefits are affected by changes in the national economy. Since the last benefit increase was put into effect in 1954 wages have increased about 12 percent and prices by 8 percent. Congress felt that adjustments in the benefit scale were in order and voted an across-the-board increase in the amendments which the President signed into law on August 28, 1958. These benefits become effective at the beginning of 1959, and will be included in all benefit checks for January which will reach beneficiaries early in February. As I said in the first article in this series, it is not necessary to visit your social security office to apply for these increases. They will be made automatically.

The benefit increases for retired workers amount to about 7 percent over the levels provided in the old law, with a minimum increase of $3.60 in the benefits payable to a retired worker who came on the rolls at or after age 65. Slightly smaller increases will be shown on the benefit checks of retired women workers who elected to retire at age 62 or at any age thereafter before reaching age 65. Proportionate increases will be made in benefits paid to beneficiaries who are the dependents of survivors of retired or deceased workers.

For retired male workers now getting benefit payments, the monthly payments, beginning with the payment for January, will range from $33 to $116, as compared with $30 to $106.50 under the old law. For women workers now getting retirement benefits the increased checks will range from $26.40 to $114 per month. This slightly lower minimum benefit is due to the fact that some women choose to retire before age 62.

Another change in the law will make possible larger maximum benefit payments for many people coming on the benefit rolls in the future. This will be due to the change in the so-called "earnings base" on which payments are figured.

Right now, only earnings up to a total of $4,200 in a year can be credited to a worker's social security account, beginning with 1959, earnings up to $4,800 in a year will be credited to a social security account. The largest monthly benefit payable to a retired worker with average yearly earnings of $4,800 will be $127. However, this maximum benefit cannot be reached for many years.

Along with the increase in benefits will come an increase in social security taxes. Beginning with January, employed persons will have one-fourth of 1 percent additional taken out of their pay; the tax rate will be 2 1/2 percent each for employee and employer. The rate for self-employed people will go up from 3 1/2 percent to 3 3/4 on their 1958 net earnings. The old rate, however, will apply to self-employment earnings for 1958 which must be paid when income tax returns are filed early in 1959.

In the first article of this series I discussed briefly changes in the disability provisions of the social security law. In my next article I shall explain how these changes can mean payments to many people who could not qualify for benefits before the law was amended.

SALT MINE under metropolitan Detroit, Michigan, offers a unique civil defense opportunity for a large target city to provide both blast and fallout shelter for a substantial number of its citizens with a minimum amount of additional excavation. The mine—second largest rock salt mine in the world—is 1,137 feet under the surface. It would need more equipment and access ramps or elevators to serve as a mass shelter from attack. OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

The odds ARE against her

Through 12 years of public schooling, your child must read and understand an average of 452 books. With such great demands on her reading vision, the odds are against her completing these years without developing a visual problem.

She begins life very farsighted, seeing only form and motion. By the time she starts to school, it is assumed her focusing and eye coordination are developed and equal to the task. If they aren't, then seeing problems can develop.

Professional optometry can determine if she is "visually ready" to start to school. EYESIGHT IS NO GAMBLING MATTER.

City Commission Meeting Tuesday Business Light

V. D. Howe of Breckenridge was here for a meeting with the commission to discuss the matter of leasing the municipal airport. No action was taken at the meeting Tuesday however Mr. Howe toured the facilities at the airport and is studying some of the terms necessary for a lease which would meet with the approval of both the city and the Civil Aeronautics Board.

A small building permit was approved for Oscar Bomsell for an open carport on Broadway at Broad and East Avenues. The permit approved was for $185.

Members of Kingdom Hall, located on Eighth Street, requested that a street light be placed near their building and this was given approval and the Chief of Police instructed to have the light placed at the best location possible for entrance to the church.

A report on tax collections for the first month showed $27,990 collected in October which is slightly over one-fourth of the total tax roll for the current year.

Other business was just routine matters for the commissioners.

Bearcats Have Field Day To Defeat Ranger 48-14

The Ballinger Bearcats turned on the heat at cold Bearcat field Friday night and from the opening kickoff it was apparent that they would have little trouble with the Ranger Bulldogs. The game provided the opportunity for the Ballinger coaches to sweep their bench and fans saw a lot of around left end for the extra two points to put the Bearcats out in front 8 to 0. The Bearcats soon had the ball again and Jerry Candler stepped into the secondary and was off on a 60 yard gallop for another score. Wiginton again ran the extra point to make it 16 to 0. The net scoring play showed a little variation with Wiginton passing to Ralph Dankworth for a pass and run that netted some 43 yards and a score. This time Candler went over for the two extra points to make it 24 to 0. At this stage of the game the Bulldogs got a drive underway which climaxed with a beautiful pass from Lee King to Jerry Anderson in the end zone for a score. A pass attempt for the extra point failed and the score was 24 to 6. A pass play set up the next score for the Bearcats and Dalton Hoffman carried over from the 6-yard line. Wiginton was stopped on the extra point try and the score was 30 to 6. The next score came when Wiginton hit Candler with a pass which netted 1 yard and a score. An attempted pass for the extra point was no good. Score 36 to 6. Candler broke into the clear on a neat run of 26 yards and a Bearcat touchdown and the place kick try was low to make the score 42 to 6. The final Bearcat score came in the last quarter on a neat play which pulled the defense wide and Tipton Lee handed to Calvin Kirk who hit a big hole and rambled for 49 yards untouched for the score. The place kick try was low again and the score was 48 to 6. The Bulldogs pulled out a 41 yard pass play which set the ball on the Bearcat 1 from where Anderson went over for the score. King carried the ball over for the extra points to make the final score 48 to 14 for the Bearcats. The Bearcats outplayed the Bulldogs in every department rolling up 25 first downs to 13 and had a total offense of almost 500 yards. The Bearcats were not forced to punt during the entire game. They controlled the ball well and lost only one fumble during the game. who plan to see that game are urged to get their tickets in advance. The sale will be at the Pearce Bailey Drug. The Ballinger Juniors will wind up their season tonight in Lake View with a pair of games. The Juniors have had a good season, meeting eight opponents with from two to three games played each date. The B team will also complete their season Saturday night with a game against the Coleman B team there. The Cisco Lobos loom more and more as the district champions and are coasting along without a defeat this season. They have only two conference games left on their schedule and are expected to win both of these to close the season with a perfect record. The Ballinger Juniors won a pair of games from Colorado City last week. The 8th grade team won by a score of 8 to 0 and the Bearcats took their game by a score of 8 to 6. The B team lost to Winters in a game played on Blizzard Field Saturday afternoon.

An Ancient Profession

PHARMACY is one of the oldest of all the learned professions. It had its beginning more than four thousand years ago and has been practiced in one form or another ever since. The modern drug store bears little resemblance to the apothecary shop of old, but today's pharmacist is inspired by the same honorable principles that governed the conduct of his forebears. The pharmacist's chief interests, now as then, are the relief of suffering and the prolongation of life. Prescriptions come first in our store. Your doctor may not like to recommend any particular pharmacy, but he will never complain if you bring his prescriptions to us.
