The Turner building situated on the West side of the public square is being cut up into offices this week and when the job is finished the offices will be occupied by Calloway Huffaker, lawyer, and H. W. Carter, cotton and insurance man.

Partitions are now being built and will be neatly finished, while the interior walls of the building and the ceiling will also be re-decorated.

It will doubtless be ready for occupancy within the next two or three weeks.

PD
Bray Chevrolet Company is engaged this week in moving to its large new building across from the City Park, 1519 Lockwood Street. The business will be open for business at the new location this morning, according to A. M. Bray, the company owner.

The new building, one of the largest and most substantial in this little city, was built by Douglas Finley for the Chevrolet agency, and occupies space 90 by 120 feet between his tractor building and the Davis & Humphries store. When interior arrangements are completed by Mr. Bray, this will be one of the most commodious and attractive automobile agency buildings to be found in this area.

Mr. Finley plans to remodel the building his business occupies to conform with the new building exterior.

PD
Construction on a large new grain storage building by V. F. Jones Grain & Seed company is underway near their elevation in the Santa Fe trackage on East Lockwood Street.

The new building will be of frame and iron-clad construction 34 feet wide, 70 feet long, and 36 feet high. The building will have a capacity of 80,000 bushels, bringing the company's total storage capacity to 110,000 bushels. However, completion of the structure is not expected before early November.

Tahoka's Seventh Grade Bullpups decisively defeated the O'Donnell Seventh Grade team 40 - 13 in a football game played at O'Donnell Tuesday night.

The team was playing in their new uniforms, and was backed by the seventh grade pep squad.

The Seventh Graders, coached by Coach Wayne Pipes, and the Eighth Grade team, coached by Coach Jim Foust will play a double header here with team from O'Donnell on the night of Tuesday, Oct. 18. They will play Slaton here the night of October 25, and Slaton at Slaton on November 1. It is possible that other games will be matched by the Tahoka junior footballers.

In the game at O'Donnell, the Bullpups showed some real aggressiveness in running up 15 first downs to 2 for a persistent but outclassed O'Donnell crew.

A. W. McClellan scored four times for Tahoka and carried the ball four times for successful extra point conversion. He went 1, 15, and 3 yards respectively for the touchdown. Duane McMillan made two touchdowns, going 30 and 20 yards, and Leslie Paris made the other score on a 10 yard run. The defensive star of the ball game was fleet little Thomas Jolly, an end, whose tackling was deadly and who on several occasions overtook and hauled down runners from behind.

The Tahoka starting line-up was Jolly and Jones ends; Anderson and Williams tackles; Whatley and Huddleston, guards; Miller center; Moore Quarterback; McMillan and McClellan, halfbacks; and Paris, fullback.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Texas Rangers, and local officers are working on the case, but, if they have any clues, they are not revealing them.

H. G. Cook, vice president of the bank told the News it was his belief the building was entered after midnight Saturday. He went to the bank Sunday night, and it was then he found the institution had been burglarized.

CAROLYN'S CLATTER

by Carolyn Klaus

The month of April used to be lauded as one of the best times of the year because of the milder weather and the beginning of spring but today many people dread the month with clenched teeth and a heavy heart.

Usually the reluctance toward the month of April is related to national income tax. The Federal Government takes more than 80 per cent of their income through income tax.

Most people seem to agree that income tax has apparently always been in existence. Almost true. The English, in 1799, were the first nation to prove such a tax could be levied on the government. It became a part of the U. S. in 1913 by means of the 16th Amendment and has grown from that point on.

Most people are quick to complain that taxes are entirely too high. The general feeling of the population is that something is wrong when April rolls around and they owe more money to internal revenue when they have paid all year long or either they must pay the money to pay the bill because they have nothing left.

It's time to take a look at the whole picture. Larger and larger amounts of our money are being required to maintain such things as national defense, educational programs, super highways, untold amount of money in all types of programs or grants, and it's surely must remember all the money we have grown to expect at a touch which is supplied through research.

It's time to pay our taxes we tend to get all the benefits we expect daily from our government. Then since we tend to speak of government as a big "something" off in the distance we tend to forget we're the beneficiaries of the very thing of which we often complain.

Like any other club, church, or organization, "If you want the benefits you pay the price."

Subcommittee on Diesel Fuel Shortages In Agriculture

A Subcommittee on Diesel Fuel Shortages in Agriculture, chaired by State Senator E. L. Short held its first meeting, Tuesday, March 3 in the State Capitol. The subcommittee of the Texas Energy Advisory Council was named by Lt. Governor Bill Hobby in response to a significant diesel shortage in the High Plains with potentially serious impacts on the agricultural industry of the area.

Several West Texas farmers, Farm Bureau representatives and members of the subcommittee presented an overview of the problems from an agriculture viewpoint and of the diesel supply situation.

The Governor's Energy representative indicated to the subcommittee the procedure adopted by them whereby farmers and distributors can apply for the special 4% state set-aside fuel allocation.

Farmers or distributors may request special allocations by submitting a letter stating the following information:

- 1. How much fuel they presently have for the current month.
2. How much additional fuel they need for month.
3. Who supplier has been (name and address).
4. What use the fuel will be put to: Must explain in detail as to assurance that the fuel will be used 100% for agriculture.
5. Complete name, address and telephone.

This letter is to be sent to the following address each month fuel is needed: State Fuel Allocation Office; 7703 N. Lamar Blvd. Room 502; Austin, Texas 78752.

Chairman Short stated "the subcommittee will meet Monday, April 9 and the purpose will be to hear testimony from six to eight top bracket management in refineries. The Committee will attempt to find out the status of available fuel and get short and long range projections on future supplies".

Senator Short stressed, "it is extremely important that farmers and dealers begin to make applications for emergency fuel allocations. Request must be made on a month to month basis rather than a seasonal approach".

Short suggested to the subcommittee members that to simplify the process, the farmers make their needs known to the distributors and that the distributors certify those needs to the Governor's Fuel Allocation Office.

THS Seniors leaving for the South Plains Mall.

THS Seniors Learn To S-t-r-e-t-c-h Dollars

Mrs. Thalia Burks, Free Enterprise teacher at Tahoka High School, is teaching her students how to stretch the dollar. To learn how to make the dollar go farther Mrs. Burks organized a field trip to the South Plains Mall so the students could shop for bargains. On April 10 the class traveled to Lubbock with pen and paper in hand and an imaginary $100. The students were assigned an item to buy for themselves plus an item to buy for someone else but they could spend no more than the assigned $100. They were given forms to fill out to explain why they entered that particular store, why they did or did not buy an item in that store, and if they did so, how much the item cost. Along with these items the students were assigned to buy their lunch with this imaginary $100 and if they had any left they were allowed to spend $15 on an impulse item.

Examples of assigned items to buy for the students themselves were: felt hat and cowboy boots; tennis racket and balls; laundry basket, bath set and shower curtain. Some items assigned to buy for someone else were: a gift for a baby shower; a house warming gift for a friend who lives in an apartment; a gift for a boyfriend on a special day. On Wednesday the assignment class discussing their purchases and deciding who was the "smartest" buyer in the class.

In the free enterprise class the students learn that free enterprise is more than the production of goods and services and the way we carry on business activities. It also reflects many ideals Americans cherish: democratic government, personal freedom and responsibility, respect for the law, and the dignity of the individual. The free enterprise system is based on American customs, laws, and institutions. It is a basic part of American civilization and our way of life.

Salvation Army Sets Drive

Final plans are being made for the annual Salvation Army fund drive to be kicked off at 10 a.m. Tuesday April 17th. All captains and workers are to report for drive at Tahoka Cafeteria that date, according to Mrs. Grace Huffaker, campaign chairman for the north section of Lynn County.

A goal of $1500 has been set for the final campaign. "We are confident that our community will support the emergency fund program as generously as in the past," Mrs. Huffaker said.

The local committee, composed of business and civic leaders headed up by Harold Roberts, local chairman, carries out a year round program of aid to people with emergency needs. Acting on behalf of the Salvation Army, the committee arranges for food, lodging, utilities and other basic needs on an emergency basis.

The committee also assists with the state-wide programs.

Sherry Etheredge Says...

Here are some hints for your home. Maybe you can use some of them.

Fertilizing Fruit Trees

Fruit trees in your yard furnish shade, beauty, and delicious fruit. Spring is a time to fertilize your trees. Use a complete fertilizer that provides nitrogen for growth, potassium for heavy bloom, and phosphorus for healthy fruit.

Selecting Strawberries

Strawberry season is all year round.

To get high-quality strawberries from fresh produce counters, select firm, plump, full-colored strawberries.

When strawberries are not at their peak production, consider frozen berries.

Eat strawberries often. They're low in calories and usually high in Vitamin C and minerals.

Sewing Safety

Make sewing safe for all family members, especially young children.

Unplug the sewing machine at the wall outlet when not in use. Bad connections may cause overheating and result in fire.

Also, keep pins and needles in their proper place—and off the floor.

Be sure to put scissors in a safe place out of children's reach, too.

Read Medicine Labels For Safety

Chances are, you've taken some kind of medication within the last 23 hours—right?

Did you read the label carefully and follow the directions? Read the label for the proper dosage. Notice warnings of any side effects—or possible drug interactions.

Always read the label before you take medicine. It's the safe thing to do.

Dog Drives Car Through Door

Sunday afternoon at Jolly's Texaco Station a lady got out of her car and left the motor running. Inside the car was a small dog who apparently knocked the car into reverse gear. The car rolled out of the driveway, across Highway 380 and hit the door of Flanigan's Auto Parts, where it stopped. Damage was slight and no injuries were reported.

Card of Thanks

I have been informed that due to existing Texas election laws, I cannot hold board positions with both the City Council of Tahoka and the Lynn County Hospital District. Therefore, in order to fulfill a prior obligation to the city, I must regretfully not accept the board position of the Lynn County Hospital to which I have recently been elected. I would like to apologize to and also thank the voters for both their support and confidence; it was sincerely appreciated.

Most respectfully submitted,
Richard White

There isn't enough words or ways to express our feelings to our families and friends for our twentieth wedding reception that was given to us Sunday. A very special thanks with lots and lots of love goes to Karon, Larry and Kary for having it in their home and for all the work Karon did in preparation of it and for the silk flowers she made that will be beautiful and special to us for years to come.

To John Dudley for being host and helping get things back in order after the reception was over and to Cindy, Andrea and Lana for all the work and serving that they did and to all other who worked and helped in the kitchen.

A big hug to Bernice for advice and helping with the fresh flowers. A big thanks to our parents, relatives, and friends for their love, cards, phone calls and the beautiful and special gifts that we have received and a special thanks for all that came to help us celebrate our anniversary.

A day like Sunday makes us so proud we live in the New Home community with friends and loved ones that are so special to us. Thanks again to all and may the Lord bless and keep you.

In the absence of two of the hostesses at Friday's noon luncheon at Lynn Co. Pioneer Club, Lura Mae Gaiter and Mildred Walker assisted Mary Edna Lancaster with hospitalities. About 50 persons attended the affair and food was in abundance.

Another of his surprise statements was that most of the students using drugs are in the 8 to 14-year old range and include children from all walks of life, white, black, and brown.

Use of marijuana and the sniffing of glue, paint, gasoline, etc. are the most prevalent, but students have run the course in using Hallucinogens (LSD and PCPO, barbituate, amphetamines and opiates).

The entire community, especially parents, should be on the look out for symptoms such as redding of eyes, personality change, evasiveness, drop in grades, poor school attendance, temper outbursts, wearing long sleeve shirts, choice of associates, and stealing to finance their habit.

The speaker briefly reviewed the history of drug usage back to before the birth of Christ. He emphasized the fact that students, parents, school officials and every citizen should recognize the fact that students, parents, school officials and every citizen should recognize the drug problem, take means to discourage drug use, for continued use is certain to become habit-forming. Krause speaks on drug abuse

"About sixty percent of the students in the Tahoka schools have experimented at some time with drugs, and possibly thirty percent use drugs more or less habitually," was the surprising statement made by Deputy Sheriff Stanley Krause in a talk before the Rotary Club last Thursday noon. Krause has had special training in detection of users and dealing with the problem. He was born and reared in Lynn County, and is a Tahoka High School graduate.

WITH YOUR COUNTY AGENT

by Stanley Young

Greenbugs, the most damaging wheat pests, increase rapidly as warmer temperatures prevail in the spring. So, producers need to be on the lookout for changes in populations of the tiny green aphids.

Results of wheat pest management demonstrations in the Texas Rolling Plains since the 1972-73 season show that greenbug populations begin to increase in most years in late February or March and reach peak numbers in March or early April.

During this period greenbug populations can increase rapidly, producing up to three young per day which cool temperatures prevent reproduction of beneficial insects and spiders that naturally control greenbugs.

Therefore, producers should inspect their wheat and other small grain fields closely during March to determine greenbug population levels.

Control measures should be based on the size and condition of wheat and number of greenbugs present per foot of row.

Greenbug populations decline just as rapidly as they build up once beneficials become active. Parasitic wasps, lady beetles, nabids, lacewings and spiders are important beneficials which help control greenbug populations.

During the first two weeks of April, 1978 in the Rolling Plains, lady beetle and parasitic wasp populations increased to the point that it was difficult to find greenbugs in wheat fields by April 15.

So, once beneficial populations begin to increase, they usually reduce greenbug populations significantly in a few weeks.

By being able to identify beneficial insects that aid in greenbug control, producers can often determine when they are controlling greenbugs and can therefore avoid the cost of an unneeded insecticide application.

Additional information on greenbug control is presented in the publication, "Suggestions for Controlling Insects and Mites on Corn, Sorghum and Small Grains", available at the county Extension office.

Bloodmobile Has Problems

Our Blood Drive was on the way to being one of the best ever when a series of circumstances caused it to be one of the smallest ever. Because of an emergency, an 11 year old child that had to have open heart surgery, we were short handed. A unit had to be set up at the hospital where the surgery took place. Only two people were available to screen and to draw blood at Tahoka.

Our people were so understanding and patient and were willing to wait in a long line for their turn.

On arrival the Blood Service people discovered an important piece of equipment had been removed from their van. This piece of equipment is the one to preserve the blood until it is returned to Lubbock. Had everything gone smoothly and quickly probably everyone could have been screened and drawn but this wasn't the case.

The decision was then made, rather than to risk losing the blood already drawn, to dismiss the people waiting and get the blood to Lubbock.

A big thank you to the people of Tahoka for being so understanding, patient and willing. Our next Blood Drive will be August 27. Stay healthy and we will see you then.

Sixteen pints of blood were drawn from the 46 people who attended.

Family To Be Discussed At Area Meetings

The Church of Christ in Tahoka begins a 4-day series of lessons on Christ and The Family Thursday night. This theme was selected because of the great need to see the family units strengthened. Jim Pyburn, local preacher for the Church of Christ will be presenting the lessons.

Pyburn stated that "There is a real and pressing need for understanding God's plan for the home and family. Our closest relationships are here. It is in the home that lives are shaped and molded. By following God's plan the home can be a place of love, trust and commitment for the whole family. I invite all in the community to come and share this study with us."

Time for the meetings is 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday and at 10:40 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Little League Sign Up

Boys and girls 8-12 years old who want to play Little League baseball this summer should be at the Scout Hut at 7 p.m. Thursday, April 12 for registration. All would-be players are asked to register at this time so the number of teams needed can be determined.

Kids who have not registered in previous years should bring their birth certificates and a parent.

A $5 registration fee is due at this time. Tryouts will be Monday, April 16 at 6 p.m. at Little League Park.

Hospital Aux.

Friday

The Lynn County Hospital Auxiliary met Monday night and planned their working shifts.

They will begin working Friday, April 13 at the Lynn County Hospital and will work morning and afternoon shifts.

Auxiliary members may pick up their uniforms at Blair's Uniforms, 2443 34th Street, Lubbock.

Still Time For Soil Testing

"It's not too late to have soil samples tested."

The Extension Service Soil Testing Laboratory at Lubbock is processing samples promptly and reporting the results about a week after receiving samples. Recent cold weather and wet soils delayed sampling in some areas but the soil testing laboratory is now over the testing rush period. The level of available nutrients in a soil is especially important for the efficient and profitable use of fertilizers for cotton and pastures. Soil tests have been developed to provide information about soil nutrients as a basis for determining if the soil level is adequate (high) or deficient (low).

Soils low in a nutrient have a high probability of producing increased yields when the deficient nutrient is added by the fertilizer; while a soil high in the nutrient, will benefit little from adding more of the same fertilizer. A costly error in fertilization is to add fertilizers containing nutrients already present in adequate amounts. This does not contribute to increased yields and drives production costs up, something farmers can ill afford during this period of economic stress.

A good evaluation of soil nutrient levels greatly improves the chances for profitable returns from fertilization. So soil testing should be a regular standard procedure in every farming operation.

More information about soil tests can be obtained from the county Extension office.

Letter To Editor

Letters to the editor do not necessarily express the views of this newspaper. All correspondence must be signed and in good taste before it will be published; however, the writer may request that his name be withheld. Letters are not edited as to grammar, punctuation, and spelling.

There has been a lot of talk about the law enforcement agencies within our city and county. It seems that the people are employed as agents of the law are the ones that are probably the most respected in our city and county. It is not so in Tahoka. It seems that our children are the ones that are being "punished" so to speak and something has got to be done about these officers of the law who leave our children in the hands of their parents and dads realize that the law is for everyone and should be enforced for the protection of everyone.

I think it's time that we as parents respect our children and the people who enforce the law. It's time that we accept the responsibility of our actions and actions of our children instead of cursing them. We should be grateful that the officer who stopped them and cared enough to give a warning as to what happens.

Laws of our land were made for a reason and that the rules and regulations we have; I think Tahoka and the rest of the country would do well to follow a Chinese fire drill. God for laws and the men and women who enforce them. It's a shame that a law occurs before the eyes of the law. If we were involved in such situations we were conscious of the rights of others and their rights of others are protected.

Everyone has the right to own and operate a motor vehicle in public places who are licensed to do so. However, these rights stop whenever a law is broken. By violating the law - any law - we forfeit our right within that law.

I think it's time we considered the other person and the rights and privileges of that person. With more consideration given to our fellow man, less and less of law enforcement will be needed.

I think it's time we showed our law enforcement agencies and personnel that we appreciate them and their efforts in our city and county.

I think it's time that we work within the law and teach our children the same. Join me in showing and telling the officers within our city and county that they are appreciated and that you will cooperate with them in helping our town to be a safe place to live.

Hats off to the men and women who are involved with law enforcement here in Tahoka, Lynn Co., and our State of Texas.

Rick Etheredge

Dear Editor,

This is a description of a disaster in our search for energy.

This is a well more than 19,000 feet in depth. The driller and pusher are both upon the floor, while the roughnecks have gone down the stairway to the ground. There is a sudden roar or growl from underground.

The four roughnecks take off in as many different directions speeding away as though they had been called for urgent duty from a distant location.

The gas and water rushed to the top of the well with such force that the pipe on which the control valve is connected was elevated to about the fourth girt. The force of the gas caused the 5,000 pound blocks and elevator to cackle and clack to sway and swing around the inside of the derrick. Some rocks were coming from underground.

The old derrick was doing a rock and roll. This looked like the very end of our rig. All the lights had been knocked out by the water and gas. If flying rocks ignited the gas that would be the end of us.

The driller, who I will not name, made a run for the stairway. He took such long strides each stride covered four steps. He hit the ground without an upset and leveled out with a beautiful run. Oh, what a joy it is to run when absolute distraction is back of you. This is one time when a 47 year old man is as agile as a 17 year old boy.

He ran over sage and bull head cactus until he was quiet a distance from the rig. Here he stopped to look back.

He thinks, I hope the boys didn't notice my speedy departure from my obligation, my life. I will return to a safe distance. His gaze was elevated to the monkey board which seemed to be waving goodbye to the location. The crown appeared like a floppy hat in a sandstorm. In his frightened condition, he failed to notice what was underfoot. He was walking back toward the disaster without a scratch on him.

In his next step his foot was thrust into a prairie dog hole which sprained his ankle. Now he's on the sick list for at least a week from an injury really unrelated to the disaster.

A disaster engineer was called from Houston to help control the blowout. The well is now under control with the exception of a tie down string of casing which connects with a liner set at an earlier date.

The Lynn County News
Tahoka, Texas
Dear Sirs:

I am trying to locate some pictures (photographs or sketches) of the old Three Lakes School. It was located approximately 17 miles southwest of Tahoka.

It is my understanding that there were two different structures, both of which burned, the last one around 1947.

If you could possibly locate some photos for me, I will be happy to pay for copies or reproductions. If there are none in the newspaper files, possibly you could mention to the residents of Lynn County that I am searching for the pictures, in one of your weekly editorials.

My father, G. W. Hickerson, and his brothers and sisters, attended the Three Lakes School in their early school years.

I am presently studying the early history of Lynn County and am in the process of gathering information of my father's early youth.

I would appreciate any assistance you could give me. Thank you very much.

Yours truly,

Explorers Repel Camp Haynes

All Attending Explorers

Explorers, a new club at Tahoka is a branch of the Boy Scouts of America. This high adventure club is coed and engages in activities that are uncommon to everyday experiences.

On March 30, 31 and April 1, 7 explorers and 4 advisors traveled to Camp Haynes at Silverton to try their hand at repelling (decending from a mountain with a rope). During this three day outing, not only did all eleven learn to repel, but they found out all about "roughing it". They cooked on open fires and camped in tents as well as learning some basic hiking and backpacking skills.

Saturday night, the Tahoka explorers invited all other campers to a "sing along" where they served such treats as smores and Jiffy Pop and roasted marshmallows. Included in the songs that were sung was Tahoka's own "Stop, Look and Listen...Here Comes 721".

The skills learned were enough to make the trip worthwhile, but the memories of the things that can happen are priceless. Just ask Cal Huffaker about his "RRRRip Roaring Good Time" or Betty Johnston about what was so funny behind the mountain. Then of course there was the case of the mysterious light and six screaming girls, not to mention why everyone came home with clean hair!

Those attending this adventure were Ronny and Pam Vaughan, Rudy and Betty Johnston, Cal Huffaker, Rajeania House, Dustie Cook, Sarah Marez, Lisa Perkins, Michele Long and Keyvn Wood.

If you are interested in joining Explorers you may contact Cal Huffaker (President) or Pam Vaughan (advisor). New officers will be elected in May for the 79-80 year. This club is open to any high school student and all are welcome. Parents may also join as consultants and we encourage your participation. You also may have noticed the new T-shirts these Explorers have been wearing. This is a "Post 721" original and portrays our theme—as well as our goal—Exploring Toward New Horizons.

ASTHMA IS USUALLY A CHRONIC DISEASE

Its victims have breathing difficulties. Attacks are usually mild. Fortunately it is not contagious. But if neglected, asthma increases in severity and endangers health. It may be caused by an allergy, infection or even nervous tension.

If you think you have asthma, don't attempt self treatment. It is almost impossible for anyone but a physician to diagnose the cause. With proper medical treatment asthma can be kept under control and often cured.

The one skill in life everyone needs.

Homemaking. Whether it's a bachelor pad on San Francisco's Hyde Street, a ranch in Scottsdale, a room in a commune of back-to-nature thinkers, a home in Connecticut or a reconverted barn, it's home. Home to someone.

And that someone is a homemaker. Sooner or later everyone is a homemaker and needs the skills of successfully managing his or her life.

Homemaking is more than cooking and sewing. It is learning how to maintain a family budget, how to protect one's family and home, how to deal with the outside world, how to establish goals within a family and achieve them, how to create a happy home.

Traditionally, the homemaker's role has been thought of as the woman's role. In fact, the stereotype of the woman tied to her apron strings and slaving over a hot stove all day has been with us far too long.

That's changing, now. Slowly to be sure, but changing for the better.

More and more family members are assuming their equal responsibilities as homemakers. Sharing in the home work, in the care and guidance of children, in the establishment of values in the home.

And even where there is just a single person involved, there is still the need for a homemaker's skills.

It's the one thing in life everyone needs to know. How to manage your future.
