Death Claims Byers Pioneer; Prominent Over Clay County

Samuel Byers Householder, 52, prominent rancher and extensive landowner of Byers, and for 30 years a resident of North Texas, died at 5:45 o'clock Friday night in a Wichita Falls hospital as a result of a heart attack suffered after a weeks illness. Mr. Householder was well known throughout Texas and Oklahoma, and had many friends in Wichita Falls, where he was treasurer of the Deep Oil Development company and ranch superintendent of the American Refining company properties. News of his death came as a distinct shock to friends and acquaintances of this section Friday night.

In addition to his activities in Wichita Falls, Mr. Householder was a director in the First National bank of Byers, a member of two general conferences of the Methodist church and on the educational commission from the North Texas conference. He was also superintendent of the Byers Methodist Sunday School. In 1912 he served one term as state representative in the 33rd legislature from Cameron county.

Born in Meriden, Iowa, in 1882, he was brought by his parents to Sherman at an early age. During later years, he lived in various parts of the state. He married Miss Emily Quick in Indiana in 1911. In the spring of 1914, the couple moved to Byers, where he assumed the managership of the Byers Ranch properties, formerly the properties of Walter and George Byers, the well known Byers brothers, and uncles of Mr. Householder.

Survivors are the widow; one son, Sam Baker Householder; one daughter, Dorothy Householder; one brother, Fred W. Householder of Burlington, Vt.; and two sisters, Mrs. C. F. House of Walters, Okla., and Mrs. M. C. Tucker of Burkburnett.

Mr. Householder was active in the Shrine, Masonic and Knights Templar lodges.

SERVICES SUNDAY

Funeral services for Samuel Byers Householder were conducted Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist church at 2:30 with the Rev. Dr. C. A. Spragins of Wichita Falls and the Rev. Stewart O'Dell of Byers in charge. Rev. Dr. Warren T. Whiteside of Wichita Falls gave the opening prayer followed by the scripture reading by the Rev. Clark H. Russell of Electra.

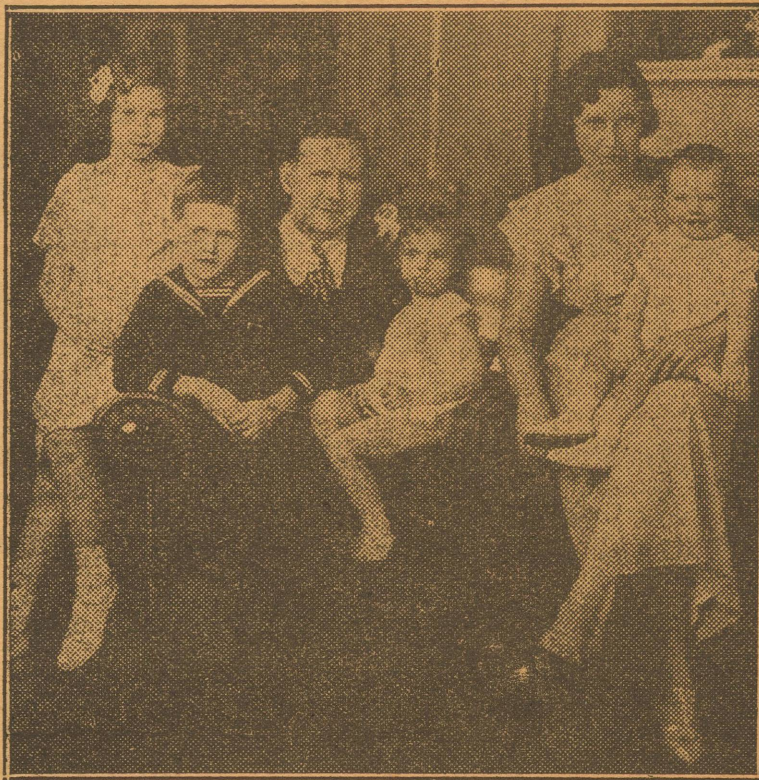

"Crossing the Bar" and "Jesus, I Love Thee," were sung by the male quartet of the First Methodist church of Wichita Falls accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Akin, Jr. A special solo "City Four Square," was given.

Acting pallbearers were the Board of Stewards of the church with which Mr. Householder had been for many years. The members of the Workers Council sat in a group during the services.

Interment was in the Byers cemetery with L. Y. Herrin, Funeral Director, in charge.

Byers and the surrounding community and other places where Mr. Householder worked have lost one of the most useful and loved citizens

Clay County Receives Additional Allotment Cattle Due Shortage

Clay county has received an additional allotment of 1,000 head of cattle which must be purchased by January 10, 1935 according to information received by County Agent M. S. Duncan, Monday, December 31. All farmers and stockmen wishing to sell cattle to the government are requested to call at the County Agent's office and sign cattle agreements at once. This is the same program under which cattle have been bought previously, and cattle will be concentrated at the stock pens in Henrietta and Bellevue.

Misses Margaret and Katherine O'Dell returned Tuesday to C.I.A. at Denton, where they will continue their school work.

M. S. DUNCAN GIVES REPORT ACTIVITIES

The annual report of the agent of Clay county has been compiled and M. S. Duncan, county agent, announced the following as a brief summary of the work during the year 1934:

The cotton program is the largest under the AAA in the county. 1,049 farmers have signed 1934-35 reduction contracts retiring 21,981 acres from cotton production. The rental parity payments and benefits from the 1933 option contracts will bring in cash benefits amounting to $174,090.54 of this amount approximately $135,000 has been received.

Under supervision of the assistant in cotton adjustment, 60 community committeemen put in a total of 498 days securing 1,835 applications for tax-exemption certificates. During the fall the office issued approximately seven hundred interim-certificates and every interim has been redeemed. To date, 4,182 tax-exemption certificates have been delivered to producers, with only 9 remaining undelivered. 2,604 trust agreements with tax-exemption certificates have been delivered to the national pool for a total of 4,170,300 pounds of cotton, and 120 certificate transfers have been made in the office.

Under the wheat reduction campaign 121 contracts have been signed retiring 9,545 acres from wheat production. Benefits to be derived from this program are approximately $42,967.40.

226 corn-hog reduction contracts have been completed, retiring 941 acres from corn production and reducing the hog farrowings by 1,754 head. The benefits from this program approximate $18,565.40.

Cattle have been purchased from 567 farms and ranches totaling 8,802 head. The cash benefits derived from this program amount to $101,552.00. 1,000 additional head will be sold yet as there is not sufficient feed to carry the cattle remaining through the winter.

Since this is mainly a farming and cattle county, few sheep were purchased. 588 head of sheep were purchased from 4 farms, cash benefits amounting to $544.00. The sheep industry offers a field for development that is planned to develop further in 1935.

Approximately 5,000 acres of land was terraced in the county this year. This was accomplished with the assistance of several local leaders and considerable interest in this line of work has developed. It is expected that at least twice this much land will be put under terraces in 1935.

In the community relief canning program, a total of 45,181 cans of vegetables were processed, with 23,676 remaining in the relief office and 21,505 going to the producer. Cans of fruits totaled 6,497, with 3,219 kept for relief and 3,278 for the producer. Meat canning totaled 1,095 cans, 872 for the relief office and 223 for the producer. The meat canning included roast, stew, hamburger, and soup stock. A grand total of 52,773 cans has been the output since the opening of the three units in Henrietta, Byers, and Charlie. Of this total, only 7 cans were lost by spoilage. The canning program is under the supervision of Mrs. Willie Lumpkin.

Mr. Duncan predicts the outlook for 1935 at this time is considerably more favorable than in 1934. There is still a lack of moisture but the grain crop is nearly normal and with continued favorable weather, fair winter pasturage will be had from the grain.

In making recommendations including suggestive programs of work for next year, Mr. Duncan considers plans for terracing on a much larger scale, which are already under way. Plans for this work are being drafted with the co-operation of the local relief office. One project for the running of terrace lines on 1,000 acres is being submitted. Also work has been started toward securing a water shed terracing project.

A great expansion of 4-H Club work is planned, with normal weather conditions, crop, poultry, fruit, and livestock projects are being made. It is planned to elect sponsors for these clubs in the various communities which should lend considerable help to the program.

Petitions have been sent in for a soil survey of the county and it is hoped that this will be accomplished in 1935.

County and community associations will elect officers and committeemen in January to carry on the various programs. This organization, being new, is expected to have a much broader scope of activity in 1935.

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1935

The New Ford V-8 for 1935 is the biggest and roomiest Ford car ever built. It is a strikingly handsome car, with modern lines and new, luxurious appointments.

But most important of all it is especially designed to give you smooth, easy riding over all kinds of roads—"a front-seat ride for back-seat riders."

This ease of riding is achieved by the use of three basic principles never before combined in a low-price car.

1. Correct distribution of car weight by moving engine and body forward eight and a half inches.

2. New location of seats by which the rear seat is moved forward, toward the center of the car—away from the rear axle and away from the bumps.

3. New spring suspension which permits the use of longer, more flexible springs and increases the springbase to 123 inches.

The result is Center-Poise—which not only gives you a new riding comfort but adds to the stability of the car and its ease of handling. You can take curves with greater safety.

There are many new features in the Ford V-8 for 1935 which make the car still easier to drive. New brakes give more power for stopping quickly with far less foot pressure on the pedal.

A new type of easy-pressure clutch employs centrifugal force to increase efficiency at higher speeds. New steering mechanism makes the car still easier to handle. New, wider, roomier seats.

The New Ford V-8 for 1935 retains the V-8 engine which has demonstrated its dependability and economy in the service of more than a million owners. There are refinements, but no change in basic design. You buy premium performance when you buy this Ford V-8—full 85 horsepower and capable of 80 miles an hour. All Ford V-8 cars for 1935 come equipped with Safety Glass throughout at no additional cost.

We invite you to see this New Ford V-8 for 1935 at the showrooms of Ford dealers.

You will want to ride in it—to drive it yourself. You will find it a new experience in motoring.

NEW 1935 FORD V-8 TRUCKS AND COMMERCIAL CARS ARE NOW ON DISPLAY

FORD LISTS VAST IMPROVEMENTS IN LATEST MODELS

DEARBORN, Mich., Dec. 31.—Mr. Henry Ford today showed newspaper men here the new Ford V-8 for 1935.

Most striking feature of the new car is body lines which are distinctively modern and a definite departure from any previous Ford design.

The new car also embodies a combination of major engineering developments aimed at increased riding comfort—which has been called the "center-poise" ride.

Numerous improvements in chassis design to provide increased ease of control also are included.

Two important improvements have been made in the Ford V-8 engine, of which more than 11,300,000 are now on the road.

In addition Ford has developed a new type of body, the touring sedan with unusually sleek lines and embodying a fitted rear trunk compartment integral with the body.

Safety glass is standard equipment not only in windshields, but also in all doors and windows in all body types.

The new car marks the present culmination of developments begun by Ford three years ago at the time of the announcement of the V-8 engine. In the three years intervening, Ford has been engaged in the development of a combination of engineering improvements aimed at providing a degree of riding comfort and ease of control comparable with the performance of the engine itself. The new body designs are a further evidence of the progress of Ford engineering.

In appearance, the new cars are characterized by a freshness of conception utilizing flowing curves to carry out the modern motif, plus a new treatment of interior and appointments which sound an entirely new note in Ford body styling.

The engineering advances in engine and chassis are comparable in importance. Principal among these is the new "ride" effected by the new spring suspension system, proper car weight balance and passenger weight distribution and the location of the passenger closer to the center of the car—so that they ride between the wheels.

To accomplish this, the front spring, which has been lengthened, is located more than four inches in front of the front axle and the engine is moved forward more than eight inches so that its weight rests over the front axle. Front and rear springs have been made more flexible. Added chassis room available as a result of the front end improvements permits redistribution of the passenger weight—now concentrated between the wheels—so that the weight on the two axles is approximately equalized, giving rear seat passengers the comfort of a "front seat" ride.

Key to the changes made in outward design is found in the relocation of the front spring and engine. This has permitted moving the body forward so that passengers ride between the axles, and the development of rear quarter panel treatment along flowing lines. The car is approximately eight inches longer from bumper to bumper.

The modern design note is carried without break through the new slanting vertical grille with horizontal beading, the sweeping line of the low hood and more sharply slanting windshield, the beautifully molded body and the flowing rear quarter panel. Fenders are deeper and more highly crowned, with sweeping skirts.

Bodies are materially wider. Slanting vertical louvres with horizontal stainless steel beading are combined to form an attractive hood-side ornament is fixed in position, the radiator filler cap being under the hood.

Wheels are smaller, tires larger. The hub caps are adorned with a new and modern treatment of the V-8 insignia. The result is an impression of mass and stability most pleasing to the eye.

Interiors are roomier, with wider seats—front and rear. Span of the front seats has been increased up to five and one-half inches, providing room without crowding for three persons in bodies with full-width seats. Drivers seat in all closed cars is adjustable. Upholstery and appointments harmonizing with the remainder of the design.

Engine improvements include:

Addition of a new system of directed-flow crankshaft ventilation which exhausts water vapor and gasses from the crankcase and valve chamber. This minimizes the collection of excess water in the oil and lessens formation of sludge. Dilution of the oil by unburned gasoline is reduced. The continuous flow of air also exerts a cooling which tends to lengthen oil life and minimize engine wear.

Use of aircraft type copper-lead floating connecting rod bearings similar to those used in high-speed racing car and airplane engines where reliability under the most severe operating conditions is of paramount importance.

A new cast alloy iron camshaft. Additional major chassis improvements include:

Newly designed, internal expanding mechanical type brakes, intended to give more effective braking control—with less pedal pressure—and embracing a new "floating wedge" as part of the design. This aids in equalizing pressure upon the brakeshoes and in turn upon the drums. Additional drum ribs give a 40 per cent increase in cooling effect.

A new clutch of simplified design requiring less pedal pressure at starting and gear-changing speeds and with much softer action. At higher speeds the pressure is increased by centrifugal weight action to increase the power transmitting capacity of the clutch.

New, stronger, more rigid frame, heavier front and rear radius rods, wider rear wheel tread and a strengthened rear axle.

Nine body types are listed. The following available with de luxe equipment: Phaeton, roadster, 3-window coupe, 5-window coupe cabriolet, Tudor sedan, Fordor sedan, Tudor touring sedan, Fordor touring sedan. The roadster and the cabriolet are fitted with rumble seats.

The 5-window coupe, Tudor and Fordor sedans are also available without de luxe equipment.

Farm Enumeration To Start in U. S. Soon

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 2—Approximately 25,000 federal census employees today began the huge task of enumerating the more than six million farms and ranches of the United States in what is probably the most important agricultural census in the nation's history, according to a statement released by Director William L. Austin, Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce. Plans for the completion of the canvass before the end of January.

"The Fifteenth Decennial Act, approved June 18, 1929, directed that a mid-decennial Census of Agriculture be taken January 1, 1935, for the calendar year 1934," Director Austin said. "Because of the tremendous upheaval in the great basic industry of agriculture, due to the depression, drought and other factors new farm statistics are urgently needed in connection with the Government's vast recovery program.

"The earnest co-operation of the farmer is necessary to the success of this census, for it is one of the federal activities designed primarily for his benefit. However, the welfare of agriculture affects all other industries, directly or indirectly, and the public generally. The statistics are necessary not only for the ordinary transaction of governmental business but also for allotment programs. These programs range from the allocations of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration to the Federal Emergency Relief and Farm Credit Administrations. Indeed, the benefits expected to be derived from this census are incalculable and will have a marked influence on the future welfare of agriculture and the country as a whole. At the completion of the canvass every effort will be put forth to make preliminary tabulation reports available at the earliest possible moment.

"Due to the splendid co-operation of newspapers, farm publications, radio broadcasting stations, state and county farm agencies and organizations and educational institutions in disseminating information concerning the importance of this farm census more than a million copies of the sample schedule have been distributed to farmers. Those who do not have sample schedules are urged to write, phone or call at the farm census headquarters in their district, procure a copy, study the questions and have their records ready when the enumerator calls.

"The Bureau desires to call attention to the law which provides that the individual return made by each farmer is an absolutely confidential government report and to emphasize the fact that no individual figures will be used for taxation purposes nor given to any tax official. All enumerators, as well as all Census employees, are sworn to secrecy and are required to read the law and the severe penalties established for any disclosure of information. Only sworn employees of the Census Bureau have access to the files. Section 9 of the Fifteenth Decennial Census Act provides penalties for failure to answer questions asked by enumerators or for giving false information.

"Enumerators are legal residents of the districts which they canvass. Some, if not all, of the farmers residing in an enumeration district will know the enumerator personally and they will do well to see that an accurate report is returned for their district. With the program now being carried on by the Government to assist agriculture an inaccurate report might very readily react to the disadvantage of the farmers in that particular district.

"The farm schedule is comprised of 100 questions covering practically every important ramification of the agricultural industry. Of course, very few farmers will be required to answer all of the questions, only the ones pertaining to their activities. Questions to be answered will include farm tenure; farm population; farm acreage, which includes all crop land, pasture land and woodland; total value of the farm; acreage and yield of each of the principal field crops and vegetables; number of trees and yield of the principal fruits and nuts; number and value of each class of livestock and poultry and eggs."

HERE'S TO 1935!

A NEW YEAR DAWNS!! There are 365 days ahead in which ambitions . . . hopes . . . even seemingly unachievable dreams can be realized. For we go into the new 1935 with the finest spirit . . . the greatest leadership . . . and the most glittering prospects, in a business way, of the last five years. Stop . . . think . . . you could be worse off as this new, brighter year dawns. The entire population of the nation is pledging its support . . . its efforts . . . and energies . . . to making 1935 the best of the last five years. Heads up Henrietta—LET'S GO IN 1935.

"Business was extra good during the entire holiday season," said many of our merchants. We are glad to hear them make such statements, for it shows that our people, as a whole, have been in position to purchase those things which they desired for Christmas, which all went to make everybody happy—including the merchants. More business was enjoyed by the local postoffice than in many seasons, and taken all in all the month of December was exceptionally good. Of course, everybody could have done more business, but that is always the case!

The Clay County Leader goes into the New Year, 1935, with a full determination to continue in every possible way to improve our paper with each passing issue. We have enjoyed a response to our Special Christmas Subscription Bargain offer which far surpassed our fondest hopes, and each week when The Leader goes out to its readers a message or news item in its columns reaches every nook and corner of Clay county and many of the surrounding towns and communities. As the new year begins, we appreciate the many kind words spoken and written to us by friends both near and far, and now we repeat, "A Happy, Prosperous 1935 to One and All!"

Vice-President and General Manager Cowling, of the Ford Motor Co., in his address over long-distance telephone to the thousands of dealers throughout the whole country on December 27th said many things worth remembering. Mr. Cowling, who is one of the most forceful speakers we have ever heard, said that "a busy person never has competition," and that "the one who is continually busy with his own work never has time to worry over the certainty of things." He is right, and to be always busy is about as good New Year's resolution as one could make!

As Henrietta, as a whole, looks back on the Old Year, 1934—one and all can feel happy over the fact that our community—in the main—was about as fortunate in every way as others of like size and surroundings, and at the same time was visited by as few, if not less, unhappy events. And, when we think of the hustle and bustle which took place in our old town during the last few days before Christmas, we cannot but be thankful in every way. Let's everyone look forward with determination and that old indomitable spirit which spells only success during the New Year!

This is the time for resolutions, and many there be who refrain from making the "annual resolve" because, as they say, it is just that often broken in most instances. But it is better to resolve and not keep it to the letter—than never to resolve at all—we think! At least, everyone can resolve to try to make the old world a better place in which to live during this New Year!

This has been a most pleasant Christmas to us. As Amos said to Andy—"You is happy or you is ain't," Amos had just received a nice present from his girl friend, Ruby Taylor. The radio is a great pastime and we should all be grateful for its benefits.

Season's greetings to the Bench and Bar of Clay county. Your duties and responsibilities are as manifold and necessary as others mentioned in this column heretofore. May 1935 be a successful and pleasant one for you.

"We are going to see, with our own eyes, electricity and power made so cheap that they will become a standard article of use in every home within reach of an electric light line."—President Roosevelt.

History repeats itself, but it appears the depression is gradually passing. To work out of this depression has cost Uncle Sam nearly as much as it did to win the World War. But the dawn of New Era is visible. Talk prosperity and it will be realized!

To our many readers, exchanges and friends, we offer the Season's Greetings.

Conoco To Continue Newspaper Ads For '35 Sales Promotion

Newspaper advertising will again form the backbone of Continental Oil Company's 1935 sales promotion program, the largest in the history of the company, it was announced here today by C. B. Gates, Conoco's local manager, who stated that the Clay County Leader has been selected to carry Conoco advertising.

"Proof of the value of newspaper advertising, backed by quality products and outstanding service," said Mr. Gates, "is seen in the fact that our company during 1934 showed a gain of 65 per cent in the sale of Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil as compared to the previous year. "As a matter of fact, Conoco's gross sales in 1934 were better than for any year since 1929—a fact that leads us to believe that general business conditions are definitely on the upgrade. Of course, Continental Oil Company hasn't just marked time, but has gone out after business backed by a larger advertising program year after year.

"This year marks the sixtieth anniversary of Continental Oil Company, and we expect 1935 to be the best in our history."

WORK AFTER THE HOLIDAYS

During the Christmas holidays we seem to lose interest in our studies, and when we come back to school on Monday morning our minds seem blank. Now that we have about five months of school ahead of us why not settle down and study hard in order to help push our way through this crowded world. We have a great deal to learn to become just an average business man or woman, and if we want to be successful we must work hard instead of playing. Never get the idea that you can make more money at some little low paying job instead of going to school. There are always better opportunities for an educated boy or girl than for one who has laughed at a good opportunity and idled his time away.

SENIOR PARTY

The Seniors are starting the New Year off right. On December 31, they were entertained at the home of Mr. J. C. Payne with a New Year's party.

Those playing on the first string were: Roberts, Harding, Parker, Hughes and Nichols. Substitutes, Schoffner and Herrin.

The schedule for the next two weeks will be as follows: Byers at Hastings, Jan. 4; Byers at Claypool, Jan. 5; Claypool at Byers, Jan. 11.
